macaroni /makəˈroʊnɪ/ ▷ noun (macaronis or macaronies) 1 pasta in the form of short narrow tubes. 2 historical in 18c Britain: a DANDY, especially one who travelled abroad or imitated foreign habits, etc. ⓘ 16c: from Italian dialect maccaroni, plural of maccarone (see MACAROON); sense 2 is derived from the Macaroni Club in London, founded and frequented in the 18c by a group of such fashionable dandies.

macaroni cheese ▷ noun, cookery macaroni served with a cheese sauce.

macaroon /makəˈruːn/ ▷ noun a sweet cake or biscuit made with sugar, eggs and crushed almonds or sometimes coconut. ⓘ 17c: from French macaron, from Italian maccarone, probably from maccare to crush.

macassar oil see under YLANG-YLANG.

macaw /məˈkɔː/ ▷ noun any of numerous large brilliantly-coloured parrots with long tails and strong beaks, found mainly in the tropical forests of Central and S America. ⓘ 17c: from Portuguese macao.

Mace /meɪs/ and Chemical Mace ▷ noun, US trademark a type of TEAR GAS, used eg in a spray against an attacker, rioter, etc. ▷ verb (usually mace) (maced, macing) to spray, attack or disable someone with Mace. ⓘ 1960s.

mace[1] /meɪs/ ▷ noun 1 a a ceremonial staff carried by some public officials (eg the SPEAKER of the House of Commons) as a symbol of authority; b someone who carries a mace in a ceremonial procession. Also called macebearer. 2 historical a heavy club, usually with a spiked metal head, used as a weapon in medieval times. ⓘ 13c in sense 2: French meaning 'a large hammer'.

mace[2] /meɪs/ ▷ noun a spice made from the layer around the NUTMEG seed, dried and ground up. ⓘ 14c: French, from Latin macir a red spicy bark.

macerate /ˈmasəreɪt/ ▷ verb (macerated, macerating) technical 1 tr & intr to break up or make something break up or become soft by soaking it. 2 intr to waste away, or become emaciated, as a result of fasting. • maceration noun. • macerator noun a machine or person that macerates. ⓘ 16c: from Latin macerare to soak.

Mach see under MACH NUMBER.

machete /məˈʃɛtɪ/ ▷ noun (machetes) a long heavy broad-bladed knife used as a weapon or cutting tool, especially in S America and the W Indies. ⓘ 16c as macheto: from Spanish machete.

Machiavellian /makɪəˈvɛlɪən/ ▷ adj said of a person or their conduct, political principles or activities, etc: crafty, amoral and opportunist; seeking power or advantage at any price. ▷ noun a cunning, amoral or unprincipled politician, statesman, etc. • Machiavellianism noun. ⓘ 16c: from the name of the Italian political philosopher and statesman Niccolo Machiavelli (1469–1527).

machinate /ˈmaʃɪneɪt, ˈmakɪneɪt/ ▷ verb (machinated, machinating) intr to form a plot or scheme, especially one to do something wrong or wicked, or designed to cause harm. • machination noun 1 (usually machinations) a crafty scheme or plot, especially a sinister one. 2 the act of machinating. • machinator noun ⓘ 17c: from Latin machinari, machinatus to invent or contrive.

machine /məˈʃiːn/ ▷ noun 1 a device with moving parts, and usually powered, designed to perform a particular task □ sewing machine. 2 a group of people or institutions, or a network of equipment, under a central control □ the party's political machine. 3 colloq a motor vehicle, especially a motorcycle. 4 colloq a a person with no initiative, capable only of following orders; b a tireless or mechanically efficient worker. 5 a WASHING MACHINE. ⊳ verb (machined, machining) 1 to make, shape or cut something with a machine. 2 to stitch something with a sewing machine. • machinable or machineable adj. ⓘ 18c: French, from Latin machina, from Greek mechana a pulley.

machine code and machine language ⊳ noun, computing a numerical code (eg a BINARY code) used for writing instructions in a form which a computer can understand.

machine-gun ⊳ noun any of various portable guns, often used mounted on a stand, that fire a continuous rapid stream of bullets when the trigger is pressed. Also as adj □ machine gun fire. See also SUBMACHINE-GUN. ⊳ verb (machine-gunned, machine-gunning) to shoot at someone or something with a machine-gun. • machine-gunner noun. ⓘ 19c.

machine-readable ⊳ adj, computing said of data, text, etc: in a form that can be directly processed by a computer.

machinery /mə'ʃi:nərɪ/ ⊳ noun (machineries) 1 machines in general. 2 the working or moving parts of a machine. 3 the combination of processes, systems or people that keeps anything working, or that produces the desired result.

machine shop ⊳ noun a workshop where items such as metal parts are machined to shape using machine tools.

machine tool ⊳ noun any stationary power-driven machine used to shape or finish metal, wood or plastic parts by cutting, planing, drilling, polishing, etc.

machine-washable ⊳ adj said of a material, an item of clothing, etc: able to be washed in a washing machine without being damaged.

machinist ⊳ noun 1 someone who operates a machine. 2 someone who makes or repairs machines. 3 a MECHANICIAN.

machismo /mə'tʃɪzmoʊ, mə'kɪzmoʊ/ ⊳ noun (machismos) usually derog exaggerated manliness; the expression of male virility or masculine pride. ⓘ 1940s: American Spanish, from macho male.

Mach number /mɑ:k —, mak —/ ⊳ noun (often shortened to Mach) aeronautics a ratio of the speed of an object (such as an aircraft) to the speed of sound in the same medium, eg Mach 2 is twice the speed of sound. ⓘ 1930s: devised by the Austrian physicist Ernst Mach (1838–1916).

macho /'matʃoʊ/ ⊳ adj, often derog exaggeratedly or aggressively manly; virile in a very conspicuous or forced way. ⊳ noun (machos) 1 colloq a macho man. 2 MACHISMO. ⓘ 1920s: Spanish, meaning 'male'.

macintosh see MACKINTOSH

mack see MAC

mackerel /'makərəl/ ⊳ noun (mackerels or mackerel) 1 an important food fish of the tuna family, with a streamlined body that is blue-green above and silvery below, found especially in the N Atlantic. 2 the oily edible flesh of this fish □ smoked mackerel. ⓘ 14c: from French maquerel.

mackerel shark ⊳ noun a large powerful shark found in open waters of the N Atlantic and Mediterranean.

mackerel sky ⊳ noun a sky patterned with thin white ripples of fleecy cloud, reminiscent of the markings on a mackerel.

mackintosh or macintosh /'makɪntɒʃ/ ⊳ noun 1 chiefly Brit a waterproof raincoat. Often shortened to MAC or MACK. 2 a kind of rubberized waterproof material. ⓘ 19c: named after Charles Macintosh (1766–1843), the Scottish chemist who patented the waterproofing process.

macramé /mə'krɑ:meɪ/ ⊳ noun 1 the art or practice of knotting string or coarse thread into patterns. 2 decorative articles produced in this way; knotted threadwork. ⓘ 19c: French, ultimately from Turkish maqrama towel.

macro /'makroʊ/ ⊳ noun (macros) computing a single instruction that brings a set of instructions into operation. Also (and originally) called macroinstruction.

macro- /makroʊ, mə'krɒ/ or (before a vowel) macr- ⊳ combining form, denoting 1 large, long or large-scale. 2 pathol abnormally large or overdeveloped. ⓘ From Greek makros long or great.

macrobiotic ⊳ adj 1 referring, belonging or relating to MACROBIOTICS □ macrobiotic cookbook. 2 prolonging life. 3 relating to longevity. ⓘ 18c in sense 2.

macrobiotics ⊳ singular noun 1 the science of devising diets using whole grains and organically-grown fruit and vegetables. 2 the practice of following such a diet, thought to prolong life. ⓘ 1930s.

macrocephaly ⊳ noun, pathol the condition of having an abnormally large head. • macrocephalic or macrocephalous adj. ⓘ 19c: from MACRO- + -CEPHALIC.

macrocosm /'makroʊkɒzəm/ ⊳ noun 1 (the macrocosm) the universe as a whole. 2 any large or complex system or structure made up of similar smaller systems or structures known as microcosms (see MICROCOSM). • macrocosmic adj. • macrocosmically adverb. ⓘ 17c: from French macrocosme, from Greek kosmos world.

macroeconomics ⊳ singular noun the study of economics on a large scale or in terms of large economic units such as national income, international trade, etc. Compare MICROECONOMICS. • macroeconomic adj. ⓘ 1940s.

macromolecule ⊳ noun, chem a very large molecule, usually consisting of a large number of relatively simple structural units, eg proteins, DNA. • macromolecular adj. ⓘ 1930s.

macron /'makrɒn/ ⊳ noun a straight horizontal bar (¯) placed over a letter to show that it is a long or stressed vowel. Compare BREVE. ⓘ 19c: from Greek makros long.

macropod ⊳ noun, zool an animal that belongs to the MARSUPIAL family which comprises the kangaroos and wallabies. ⓘ 19c.

macroscopic technical ⊳ adj 1 large enough to be seen by the naked eye. Compare MICROSCOPIC. 2 considered in terms of large units or elements. • macroscopically adverb. ⓘ 19c.

macula /'makjʊlə/ ⊳ noun (maculae /-li:/) technical a spot, discoloured mark or blemish, eg a freckle on the skin or a sunspot on the sun. • macular adj. • maculation noun 1 a spot or pattern of spots. 2 the act of spotting or staining. ⓘ 15c: Latin.

macula lutea /'makjʊlə 'lu:tɪə/ ⊳ noun (maculae luteae /-li: -tɪi:/) anatomy, zool, etc a small area at the centre of the RETINA in vertebrates where vision is most distinct. Sometimes called fovea or YELLOW SPOT. ⓘ 19c: Latin, meaning 'yellow spot'.

mad ⊳ adj (madder, maddest) 1 mentally disturbed; insane. 2 foolish or senseless; extravagantly carefree. 3 colloq, originally & especially US (often mad at or with someone) very angry; furious. 4 colloq (usually mad about or on something) extremely enthusiastic; fanatical; infatuated □ My boys are mad about cricket □ she's football-mad. 5 marked by extreme confusion, haste or excitement □ a mad dash for the door. 6 frantic with grief, pain or another violent emotion or desire. 7 said of a dog, etc: infected with rabies. • madly adverb 1 in a mad way. 2 colloq passionately. • madness noun. • go mad 1 to become insane or demented. 2 colloq to become very angry. • like mad colloq frantically; very energetically □ waving like mad at the back of the crowd.

• mad as a hatter completely insane; crazy possibly from the fact that, in the manufacture of felt hats, hatters used nitrate of mercury, exposure to which caused mental and physical symptoms which were interpreted as madness. • mad as a March hare see under MARCH HARE. • mad keen colloq extremely enthusiastic. ⓘ 13c: from Anglo-Saxon gemæded, past participle of gemædan to madden.

Madagascan /madə'gaskən/ ▷ adj belonging or relating to Madagascar, an island republic lying off the E Coast of Africa that is noted for its unique species of plants and animals, or to its inhabitants. ▷ noun a citizen or inhabitant of, or person born on, Madagascar. See also MALAGASY. ⓘ 19c.

madam /'madəm/ ▷ noun (plural in sense 1 mesdames /meɪdam/ or in other senses madams) 1 a polite form of address to any woman, especially a married or elderly woman or any female customer in a shop, etc, used instead of a name. Equivalent to SIR for a man. Compare MISS[2] 1. 2 a form of address to a woman in authority, often prefixed to an official title ▫ Madam Chairman. 3 a woman who manages a brothel. 4 colloq, especially Brit an arrogant or spoiled girl or young woman ▫ Cheeky little madam! ⓘ 13c (see MADAME); 20c in sense 3.

Madame /mə'dɑːm, 'madəm/ (abbreviation Mme) noun (Mesdames /meɪdam/) (abbreviation Mmes) a title equivalent to MRS, used especially of a French or French-speaking woman, usually a married one. Compare MADEMOISELLE. ⓘ 17c in this sense; 13c in same sense as MADAM 1: French, originally two words ma my + dame lady.

madcap ▷ adj 1 foolishly impulsive, wild or reckless. 2 exuberant and zany. ▷ noun 1 a foolishly impulsive person. 2 an exuberantly playful or zany person. ⓘ 16c, originally meaning 'a madman'.

mad cow disease ▷ noun, colloq BSE.

madden /'madən/ ▷ verb (maddened, maddening) to make (a person or animal) mad, especially to enrage them or it. • maddening adj referring to something that drives one to madness or rage; extremely annoying. • maddeningly adverb. ⓘ 18c.

madder /'madə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 a a Eurasian herbaceous plant with yellow flowers and a red root; b any of various related plants. 2 a dark red dye, originally made from the root of this plant. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon mædere.

made ▷ verb, past tense, past participle of MAKE. ▷ adj 1 (especially made from, in or of something) artificially produced or formed. 2 in compounds, denoting produced, constructed or formed in a specified way or place ▫ homemade ▫ handmade. 3 said of a road, etc: constructed with a surface of asphalt, tarmac, etc, as opposed to a gravel surface. Also called MADE-UP. 4 composed of various ingredients put together ▫ made dish. 5 said of a person, etc: whose success or prosperity is certain ▫ a made man. • have it made colloq to enjoy, or be assured of, complete success, happiness, etc. • made for someone or something ideally suited to or for that person or thing. • made to measure or made to order said of clothing, etc: made especially to suit an individual customer's requirements. See also BESPOKE.

Madeira /mə'dɪərə/ ▷ noun (Madeiras) a fortified wine made on the N Atlantic island of Madeira.

Madeira cake ▷ noun a kind of rich sponge cake.

madeleine /mad'leɪn, 'madəleɪn/ ▷ noun a type of small rich sponge cake, shaped like a shell. ⓘ 19c: French, probably named after Madeleine Paulmier, a 19c French pastry cook.

Mademoiselle /madəmwə'zel, madmə'zel/ (abbreviation Mlle) noun (Mesdemoiselles /meɪ-/ (abbreviation Mlles)) 1 a title equivalent to MISS, used of an unmarried French or French-speaking woman. 2 (mademoiselle) a French governess or teacher. Also shortened to Mamselle /mam'zel/ (Mamselles). ⓘ 15c: French, originally two words ma my + demoiselle DAMSEL.

made up ▷ adj 1 said of a person: wearing make-up. 2 said of a story, etc: not true; invented. 3 dressed for a part; disguised ▫ made up to look like a tramp. 4 colloq said of a person: extremely pleased; chuffed. 5 said of a road: same as MADE 3. 6 put together, completed or parcelled up ▫ two batches made up and ready to go.

madhouse ▷ noun 1 colloq a place of great confusion and noise. 2 old use a mental hospital.

madly see under MAD madman and madwoman ▷ noun 1 an insane person. 2 a very foolish person.

madness see under MAD

Madonna /mə'dɒnə/ ▷ noun (Madonnas) 1 (the Madonna) especially RC Church the Virgin Mary, mother of Christ. 2 (sometimes madonna) a picture, statue, icon, etc of the Virgin Mary. ⓘ 16c: Italian, originally two words ma my + donna lady, from Latin mea domina.

madras /mə'drɑːs, -'dras/ ▷ noun 1 a large, usually brightly-coloured scarf, of a type formerly exported from Madras in SE India. 2 a fine cotton or silk fabric, often with a woven stripe. 3 a kind of medium-hot curry ▫ a chicken madras. ⓘ 19c.

madrepore /'madrɪpɔː(r)/ ▷ noun, zool any coral of the common, reef-building type, occurring especially in tropical seas. • madreporic /-'pɒrɪk/ adj. ⓘ 18c: from Italian madrepora, meaning 'mother stone'.

madrigal /'madrɪgəl/ ▷ noun 1 music an unaccompanied PART SONG, typically about love or nature, of a type that originated in 14c Italy and became popular in England in the 16c and 17c. 2 a lyrical poem suitable for such treatment. ⓘ 16c: from Italian madrigale, probably from Latin matricale simple or primitive.

maelstrom /'meɪlstroum/ ▷ noun, especially literary 1 a place or state of uncontrollable confusion or destructive forces, especially one to which someone or something is inevitably drawn. 2 a violent whirlpool. ⓘ 17c: Dutch, meaning 'whirlpool', from malen to whirl + stroom stream.

maenad /'miːnad/ ▷ noun 1 Greek & Roman mythol a female participant in orgies and rites in honour of Bacchus or Dionysus, the god of wine. 2 literary a woman who behaves in a frenzied or uncontrolled way. • maenadic /-'nadɪk/ adj. ⓘ 16c: from Latin maenas, maenadis, from Greek mainomai to rave.

maestro /'maɪstrou/ ▷ noun (maestros or maestri /-triː/) someone who is regarded as being specially gifted in a specified art, especially a distinguished musical composer, conductor, performer or teacher. Often used as a title (Maestro). ⓘ 18c: Italian, literally 'master'.

Mae West /meɪ —/ ▷ noun (Mae Wests) an inflatable life jacket, especially as worn by pilots in World War II. ⓘ 1940s: so called because its inflated shape was thought to be reminiscent of Mae West (1892–1980), an American actress famous for her large bust.

MAFF /maf/ ▷ abbreviation, Brit Ministry of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food.

Mafia /'mafɪə/ ▷ noun (Mafias) 1 (the Mafia) a secret international criminal organization, originating in Sicily, that controls numerous illegal activities worldwide, especially in Italy and the US. 2 (often mafia) any group that exerts a secret and powerful influence, especially one that uses unscrupulous or ruthless criminal methods. ⓘ 19c: Sicilian Italian, literally 'hostility to the law'.

Mafioso or (sometimes) mafioso /mafɪ'ousou, -zou/ noun (Mafiosi /-siː, -ziː/ or Mafiosos) a member of the Mafia or a mafia. ⓘ 19c: Italian.

mag ▷ noun, colloq a MAGAZINE or periodical. ⓘ 19c.

magazine /magə'ziːn, 'magəziːn/ ▷ noun 1 a paperback periodical publication, usually a heavily illustrated one, containing articles, stories, etc by various writers. Sometimes shortened to MAG. 2 a TV, radio a regular broadcast in which reports are presented on a variety of subjects; b as adj □ magazine programme. 3 in some automatic firearms: a metal container for several cartridges. 4 a a storeroom for ammunition, explosives, etc; b any place, building, etc in which military supplies are stored. 5 photog a removable container from which slides are automatically fed through a projector, or film is fed through a movie camera, printer or processor. ⓘ 16c: French magasin, from Arabic makhzan storehouse.

Magellanic clouds /magə'lanɪk —, madʒə- —/ ▷ plural noun, astron two galaxies visible in the southern hemisphere, the nearest galaxies to the Earth, that appear to the naked eye as though they were detached portions of the MILKY WAY. ⓘ 17c: named after the Portuguese navigator Ferdinand Magellan (c.1480–1521), who first recorded them.

magenta /mə'dʒɛntə/ ▷ adj dark, purplish-red in colour. ▷ noun (magentas) 1 a purplish-red colour. 2 an aniline dye of this colour. 3 FUCHSINE. ⓘ 1860s: named after Magenta, an Italian town which in 1859 (shortly before the discovery of this blood-red dye) was the scene of a bloody battle.

maggot /'magət/ ▷ noun the worm-like larva of various flies, especially that of the housefly. • maggoty adj 1 full of or infected with maggots, or like maggots. 2 slang, chiefly Austral bad-tempered; crotchety. ⓘ 14c.

magi or Magi see under MAGUS magic /'madʒɪk/ ▷ noun 1 the supposed art or practice of using the power of supernatural forces, spells, etc to affect people, objects and events. Also called SORCERY, WITCHCRAFT. 2 the art or practice of performing entertaining illusions and conjuring tricks. 3 the quality of being wonderful, charming or delightful. 4 a secret or mysterious power over the imagination or will. See also BLACK MAGIC, WHITE MAGIC. ▷ adj 1 belonging or relating to, used in, or done by, sorcery or conjuring. 2 causing wonderful, startling or mysterious results. 3 colloq excellent; marvellous; great. Also as exclamation. ▷ verb (magicked, magicking) 1 to produce something by using, or as if by using, sorcery or conjuring □ magicked a rabbit out of his hat. 2 (often magic something away or up, etc) to move, transform or otherwise affect something by using, or as if by using, sorcery or conjuring. • like magic 1 mysteriously. 2 suddenly and unexpectedly. 3 excellently. ⓘ 14c: from Greek magike techne magic art.

> magic, magical
>
> • The adjective magic generally means 'relating to magic', and magical can have this meaning too, as in □ The stone was believed to have magical properties.
>
> • However, only magical can mean 'enchanting, as if caused by magic', as in □ It was a magical experience.

magical ▷ adj 1 relating to the art or practice of magic. 2 causing wonderful, startling or mysterious results. 3 wonderful; charming; fascinating. • magically adverb.

magic bullet ▷ noun a drug which is capable of destroying bacteria, cancer cells, etc without adversely affecting the patient who receives it. ⓘ 1970s.

magic carpet ▷ noun in fairy stories: a carpet that can carry people magically through the air to faraway places.

magic eye ▷ noun 1 a light-sensitive electric switch; a PHOTOELECTRIC CELL. 2 telecomm a miniature CATHODE-RAY TUBE in a radio receiver which helps in tuning it.

magician /mə'dʒɪʃən/ ▷ noun 1 an entertainer who performs conjuring tricks, illusions, etc. 2 someone who practises black or white magic, or who uses supernatural powers; a sorcerer. 3 someone who has wonderful, surprising or extraordinary skills, powers, etc.

magicked and magicking see under MAGIC

magic lantern ▷ noun an early form of SLIDE PROJECTOR. ⓘ 17c.

magic mushroom ▷ noun, colloq any of various types of mushroom which contain hallucinogenic substances.

magic square ▷ noun a square filled with rows of figures arranged in such a way that the sums of all the rows (vertical, horizontal, diagonal) will be the same. ⓘ 18c.

magic wand ▷ noun a thin rod used by a magician or by a fairy, etc in a story, when performing a spell or magic trick.

magilp see MEGILP

magisterial /madʒɪ'stɪərɪəl/ ▷ adj 1 belonging or relating to, or administered by, a magistrate. 2 authoritative; commanding; dictatorial. 3 belonging or relating to, or suitable to, a teacher, instructor or master. • magisterially adverb. ⓘ 17c: from Latin magister master.

magistracy /'madʒɪstrəsɪ/ ▷ noun (magistracies) 1 the rank or position of a magistrate. 2 (usually the magistracy) magistrates as a whole. Also called magistrature. ⓘ 16c in obsolete sense 'the existence of magistrates'.

magistral /'madʒɪstrəl, mə'dʒɪ-/ ▷ adj 1 pharmacol said of a treatment or medicine: specially prescribed for a particular case. Compare OFFICINAL. 2 belonging or relating to a master; authoritative. ⓘ 17c: from Latin magistralis.

magistrate /'madʒɪstreɪt/ ▷ noun 1 in England and Wales: a judge who presides in a lower court of law (Magistrates' Court), dealing with minor criminal and civil cases; a JUSTICE OF THE PEACE. Compare JUDGE, PROVOST, SHERIFF. 2 any public official administering the law. ⓘ 14c: from Latin magistratus, from magister master.

maglev /'maglev/ ▷ noun a high-speed transport system in which magnetism is used to keep an electrically-powered train gliding above a track. Also as adj. ⓘ 1970s: from magnetic levitation.

magma /'magmə/ ▷ noun (magmas or magmata /-mətə/) geol 1 hot molten rock material generated deep within the earth's crust or mantle. 2 a pasty or doughy mass of mineral or organic material. • magmatic /-'matɪk/ adj. ⓘ 17c: from Greek, meaning 'a thick ointment'.

magnanimous /mag'nanɪməs/ ▷ adj having or showing admirable generosity of spirit towards another person or people; not spoiled by any mean or petty feelings; big-hearted. • magnanimity noun. • magnanimously adverb. ⓘ 16c: from Latin magnanimus, from magnus great + animus spirit or mind.

magnate /'magneɪt, -nət/ ▷ noun someone of high rank or great power, especially in industry. ⓘ 15c in earlier sense 'a nobleman': from Latin magnus great.

> magnate
>
> There is sometimes a spelling confusion between magnate and magnet.

magnesia /mag'niːzɪə/ ▷ noun (magnesias) chem 1 the common name for MAGNESIUM OXIDE. 2 pharmacol a suspension of MAGNESIUM HYDROXIDE in water, used as an antacid and laxative. Also called milk of magnesia. • magnesian adj. ⓘ 14c as a hypothetical mineral sought by alchemists: named after Magnesia, a mineral-rich region in ancient Greece.

magnesium /mag'niːzɪəm/ ▷ noun, chem (symbol Mg, atomic number 12) a reactive silvery-grey metallic element that burns with a dazzling white flame, used in fireworks and in strong light alloys for aircraft components, etc. It is also an essential TRACE ELEMENT in plants and animals. ⓘ 19c: Latin: see MAGNESIA.

magnesium hydroxide ▷ noun, pharmacol a white powder with medicinal uses as an antacid and laxative, forming a viscous suspension when diluted in water. See also MAGNESIA 2.

magnesium oxide ▷ noun a light, white powder, used to line furnaces, and as a component of semiconductors, insulators, cosmetics, antacids, laxatives, etc.

magnet /'magnɪt/ ▷ noun 1 a piece of metal, especially a piece of iron, with the power to attract and repel iron, and the tendency to point in an approximate north-south direction when freely suspended. 2 (especially a magnet for or to something) someone or something that attracts □ That rubbish bin is a magnet to flies. ⓘ 15c, meaning 'LODESTONE'1: from Greek Magnetis lithos Magnesian stone: see MAGNESIA.

> magnet
>
> There is sometimes a spelling confusion between magnet and magnate.

magnetic /mag'netɪk/ ▷ adj 1 belonging to, having the powers of, or operated by a magnet or magnetism. 2 said of a metal, etc: able to be made into a magnet. 3 said of a person, personality, etc: extremely charming or attractive; captivating; hypnotic. • magnetically adverb.

magnetic bubble see BUBBLE MEMORY.

magnetic disk ▷ noun, computing a flat circular sheet of material coated with a magnetic oxide, used to store programs and data. Often shortened to disk. See also DISK FILE.

magnetic drum ▷ noun, computing a storage device used on large computers to allow very fast access to data, consisting of a rapidly-rotating drum covered with magnetic material, on which data can be read or written by a set of READ-WRITE HEADS.

magnetic equator ▷ noun the imaginary line around the Earth where the MAGNETIC NEEDLE remains horizontal, or a line drawn on a map of the Earth representing this.

magnetic field ▷ noun, physics the region of physical space surrounding a permanent magnet, electromagnetic wave or current-carrying conductor, within which magnetic forces may be detected.

magnetic flux ▷ noun, physics (SI unit WEBER) a measure of the amount of magnetism, considering both the strength and extent of the MAGNETIC FIELD. See also FLUX 6.

magnetic induction ▷ noun, physics the production of magnetic properties in a previously unmagnetized material.

magnetic ink character recognition ▷ noun, computing (abbreviation MICR) used eg in banking procedures: the reading of characters printed in magnetic ink, ie ink which contains a magnetic powder that activates an electronic character-reading device, so enabling the characters to be identified.

magnetic levitation ▷ noun, physics suspension by means of a magnetic field, eg suspension of a train above a track. See also MAGLEV.

magnetic mine ▷ noun a mine that is detonated by a pivoted MAGNETIC NEEDLE when it detects a magnetic field created by the presence of a large metal object such as a ship.

magnetic moment ▷ noun, physics a measure of the magnetic strength of a permanent magnet, or of a current-carrying coil, moving charge or individual atom in a magnetic field.

magnetic needle ▷ noun the slim rod or bar in a nautical compass which, because it is magnetized, always points to the north, or in other instruments is used to indicate the direction of a magnetic field.

magnetic north ▷ noun the direction in which a compass's MAGNETIC NEEDLE always points, slightly east or west of TRUE NORTH.

magnetic pole ▷ noun 1 physics either of two regions, usually at opposite ends of a magnet and referred to as north and SOUTH, from which the lines of force of a magnetic field appear to radiate. 2 geol either of two points on the Earth's surface, ie the NORTH POLE and SOUTH POLE, where the magnetic field is vertical, and to or from which a MAGNETIC NEEDLE points.

magnetic resonance imaging ▷ noun, radiol (abbreviation MRI) the use of NUCLEAR MAGNETIC RESONANCE of PROTONS to produce images of the human body, etc.

magnetic storm ▷ noun, meteorol a sudden severe disturbance of the earth's magnetic field caused by streams of particles from the sun.

magnetic stripe ▷ noun on the back of a credit card, identity card, etc: a dark horizontal stripe which can be read electronically to identify the card, etc.

magnetic tape ▷ noun, electronics a narrow plastic ribbon, coated on one side with magnetizable material, used to record and store data in audio and video tape recorders and computers.

magnetism /'magnətɪzəm/ ▷ noun 1 the properties of attraction possessed by magnets. 2 the phenomena connected with magnets. 3 the scientific study of the properties of magnets and magnetic phenomena. 4 (also personal magnetism) the power of a personality to make itself felt and to exercise influence; strong personal charm.

magnetite /'magnətaɪt/ ▷ noun, geol a shiny, black, strongly magnetic mineral form of iron oxide (see FERRIC OXIDE), an important ore of iron. See also LODESTONE.

magnetize or magnetise /'magnətaɪz/ ▷ verb (magnetized, magnetizing) 1 to make something magnetic. 2 to attract something or someone strongly; to hypnotize or captivate. • magnetizable adj. • magnetization noun. • magnetizer noun.

magneto /mag'niːtoʊ/ ▷ noun (magnetos) elec a simple electric generator consisting of a rotating magnet that induces an alternating current in a coil surrounding it, used to provide the spark in the ignition system of petrol engines without batteries, eg in lawnmowers, outboard motors, etc. ⓘ Late 19c: short for magneto-electric generator or machine.

magneto- /mag'niːtoʊ/ ▷ combining form, signifying 1 magnetic. 2 relating to magnetism. 3 magneto-electric.

magneto-electricity or magneto electricity ▷ noun 1 electricity produced by the action of magnets. 2 the science of this. • magneto-electric or magneto-electrical adj.

magnetometer /magnə'tɒmɪtə(r)/ ▷ noun, surveying, etc an instrument for measuring the strength or direction of a magnetic field, especially that of the Earth. • magnetometry noun the measurement of magnetic fields using a magnetometer. ⓘ 19c.

magnetomotive /magniːtoʊ'moʊtɪv/ ▷ adj, physics said of a force, etc: producing a magnetic flux.

magnetosphere /mag'niːtoʊsfɪə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 astron the region of space surrounding the Earth that contains charged particles held around the Earth by its magnetic field. 2 a similar region around any other planet that has a magnetic field. ⓘ 1950s.

magnetron /'magnətrɒn/ ▷ noun, physics a device for generating MICROWAVES, developed for use in radar transmitters, and now widely used in microwave ovens. ⓘ 1920s: from MAGNET, modelled on ELECTRON.

magnet school and magnet high school ▷ noun in the US: a school which, in addition to providing a general education, specializes in teaching a particular subject, such as science, languages or the performing arts, drawing students who are interested in the specialized subject from a wide geographical area. ⓘ 1960s.

magnificat /mag'nɪfɪkat/ ▷ noun, Christianity 1 (usually the Magnificat) the Virgin Mary's hymn of praise to God, sung in services in certain branches of the Christian church. 2 any song of praise. ⓘ 13c: Latin, meaning 'magnifies', the opening word of the hymn in the VULGATE (Luke 1.46–55) which begins Magnificat anima mea Dominum My soul doth magnify the Lord.

magnification /magnɪfɪ'keɪʃən/ ▷ noun 1 optics a measure of the extent to which an image of an object produced by a lens or optical instrument is enlarged or reduced □ enlarged by a magnification of seven. Also called POWER (noun 15). 2 an appearance enlarged, especially by a stated amount. 3 an enlarged copy of something □ The police studied a magnification of the photo. 4 the action or an instance of magnifying (in any sense). 5 the state of being magnified. ⓘ 17c: see MAGNIFY.

magnificent /mag'nɪfɪsənt/ ▷ adj 1 splendidly impressive in size, extent or appearance. 2 colloq excellent; admirable. 3 chiefly historical said of a ruler, etc: noble; grand; elevated. ● magnificence noun. ● magnificently adverb. ⓘ 16c: French, from Latin magnificus great in deeds.

magnifier noun 1 an instrument which magnifies. 2 a MAGNIFYING GLASS. 3 formal, church or old use a person who magnifies, or who praises highly. ⓘ 14c.

magnify /'magnɪfaɪ/ ▷ verb (magnifies, magnified, magnifying) 1 to make something appear larger, eg by using a microscope or telescope. 2 to exaggerate something. 3 formal, church or old use to praise highly; to extol. ● magnifiable adj. ⓘ 14c: from Latin magnificare, from magnus great.

magnifying glass ▷ noun a convex lens, especially a hand-held one, through which objects appear larger. Also called MAGNIFIER.

magniloquent /mag'nɪləkwənt/ formal ▷ adj speaking or spoken in a grand or pompous style; bombastic. ● magniloquence noun. ● magniloquently adverb. ⓘ 17c: from Latin magnus great + loquus speaking.

magnitude /'magnɪtjuːd/ ▷ noun 1 importance or extent. 2 physical size; largeness. 3 astron the degree of brightness of a star. ● of the first magnitude 1 astron said of a star: of the first degree of brightness. 2 of a very important, significant or catastrophic kind □ a disaster of the first magnitude. ⓘ 14c: from Latin magnitudo, from magnus great.

magnolia /mag'noʊlɪə/ ▷ noun (magnolias) 1 a a tree or shrub with large sweet-smelling usually white or pink flowers; b one of its flowers. 2 a very pale, pinkish-white or beige colour. ▷ adj having the colour magnolia. ⓘ 18c: Latin, named after the French botanist Pierre Magnol (1638–1715).

magnox /'magnɒks/ ▷ noun (sometimes Magnox) a a material consisting of an aluminium-based alloy containing a small amount of magnesium, from which certain nuclear reactor fuel containers are made; b such a container or reactor. ⓘ 20c: from magnesium no oxidation.

magnum /'magnəm/ ▷ noun a champagne or wine bottle that holds approximately 1.5 litres, ie twice the normal amount. ⓘ 18c: Latin, meaning 'something big'.

magnum opus /'magnəm 'oʊpəs/ ▷ noun (magnum opuses or magna opera /'magnə 'oʊpərə/) a great work of art or literature, especially the greatest one produced by a particular artist or writer. ⓘ 18c: Latin, meaning 'great work'.

magpie /'magpaɪ/ ▷ noun 1 a a black-and-white bird of the crow family, known for its chattering call and its habit of collecting shiny objects; b any of various other black-and-white or pied birds. 2 a person who hoards, steals or collects small objects, especially useless trinkets. 3 a chattering person. 4 a the outermost division but one on a target; b a shot, eg in darts, archery, rifle shooting, etc that hits this part of a target. ⓘ 17c: from Mag (diminutive of the name Margaret) + PIE[2].

magus /'meɪgəs/ ▷ noun (magi /'meɪdʒaɪ/) 1 (usually the Magi) Christianity the three wise men or astrologers from the east who brought gifts to the infant Jesus, guided by a star. Also called the Three Kings and the Three Wise Men. 2 historical a sorcerer, magician or astrologer in ancient times. 3 historical a Persian priest in ancient times. ⓘ 14c: from Persian magus magician.

Magyar /'magjɑː(r)/ ▷ noun 1 an individual belonging to the predominant race of people in Hungary, also found in NW Siberia. 2 the HUNGARIAN language. ▷ adj 1 belonging or relating to the Magyars or their language. 2 (magyar) said of a garment: cut, made, knitted, etc with the sleeves in one piece with the rest of the garment. ⓘ 18c: the native name.

maharajah or maharaja /mɑːhə'rɑːdʒə/ ▷ noun (maharajahs or maharajas) historical an Indian prince, especially any of the former rulers of the states of India. Also (Maharajah) used as a title. See also RAJA. ⓘ 17c: Hindi, from Sanskrit mahat great + rajan king.

maharani or maharanee /mɑːhə'rɑːniː/ ▷ noun (maharanis or maharanees) 1 the wife or widow of a maharajah. 2 a woman of the same rank as a maharajah in her own right. Also (Maharani) used as a title. See also RANI. ⓘ 19c: Hindi, from Sanskrit mahat great + rani queen.

maharishi /mɑːhɑː'riːʃɪ/ ▷ noun (maharishis) a Hindu religious teacher or spiritual leader. Often (Maharishi) used as a title. See also GURU. ⓘ 18c: Hindi, from Sanskrit mahat great + rishi sage.

mahatma /mə'hatmə, -hɑːtmə/ ▷ noun (mahatmas) a wise and holy Hindu leader. Often (Mahatma) used as a title. ⓘ 19c, in original sense 'a Buddhist sage with extraordinary powers': Hindi, from Sanskrit mahat great + atman soul.

Mahayana /mɑːhə'jɑːnə/ ▷ noun the most widespread form of Buddhism, practised especially in China, Japan, Tibet and the Himalayas. It focuses on enlightenment for all humanity, recognizes many texts as scripture and places special emphasis on compassion and wisdom and the concept of the BODHISATTVA. Also as adj □ Mahayana Buddhism □ Mahayana Sutra. Compare HINAYANA, ZEN. ● Mahayanist noun. ⓘ 19c: Sanskrit, meaning 'great vehicle'.

Mahdi /'mɑːdiː/ ▷ noun (Mahdis) Islam 1 the name given by Sunni Muslims to the messianic deliverer who will eventually establish a reign of justice on Earth. 2 the title used by various insurrectionary leaders, especially Muhammad Ahmed who established a theocratic state in 19c Sudan. ● Mahdist noun, adj. ⓘ 19c: Arabic, meaning 'divinely guided one'.

mah-jong or mah-jongg /mɑː 'dʒɒŋ/ ▷ noun an old game of Chinese origin, usually played by four players using a set of 144 small patterned tiles made of wood, ivory or bone, divided into suits and 'honours' tiles. The rules are similar to RUMMY. ⓘ 1920s: Shanghai Chinese ma chiang, meaning 'sparrows', perhaps alluding to the chattering sound made by the tiles during play.

mahlstick see MAULSTICK.

mahogany /mə'hɒgənɪ/ ▷ noun (mahoganies) 1 any of various tall evergreen trees of tropical Africa and America, especially a species grown commercially for timber. 2 the highly-prized hard attractively-marked wood of this tree, used for furniture-making, cabinetwork, boat-building, etc. 3 the colour of the wood, a dark reddish-brown. ▷ adj 1 made from this wood. 2 dark reddish-brown in colour. ⓘ 17c.

mahout /mə'haʊt, -huːt/ ▷ noun used especially in India: someone who drives, trains and looks after elephants. ⓘ 17c: from Hindi mahaut.

maid /meɪd/ ▷ noun 1 a female servant. 2 literary & old use an unmarried woman. See also OLD MAID. ⓘ 13c: a shortened form of MAIDEN.

maiden /ˈmeɪdən/ ▷ noun 1 literary & old use a young, unmarried woman. 2 literary & old use a virgin. 3 horse-racing a horse that has never won a race. 4 cricket a MAIDEN OVER. ▷ adj 1 first ever □ maiden voyage □ maiden speech. 2 unmarried □ maiden aunt. 3 relating to a virgin or a young woman. 4 literary unused; fresh; referring to something that has never been captured, climbed, trodden, penetrated, pruned, etc □ maiden castle □ maiden soil. 5 said of a horse race: open to maidens only. • maidenish adj. • maidenlike adj. • maidenly adj suiting, or suitable for, a maiden; gentle or modest. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon mægden.

maidenhair ▷ noun any of various tropical ferns with delicate, fan-shaped leaves. ⓘ 15c.

maidenhair tree ▷ noun the GINGKO.

maidenhead ▷ noun, literary or old use 1 virginity. 2 the HYMEN. ⓘ 14c, meaning MAIDENHOOD.

maidenhood ▷ noun the state or time of being a maiden or virgin. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon mægdenhad.

maiden name ▷ noun the surname that a married woman had at birth, ie before she was married for the first time. See also NÉE.

maiden over ▷ noun, cricket an OVER (noun 1) from which no runs are scored.

maid of honour ▷ noun (maids of honour) 1 an unmarried female servant of a queen or princess. 2 the principal bridesmaid at a wedding, if she is unmarried. Compare MATRON OF HONOUR. 3 Brit a type of small cake flavoured with almonds.

maidservant ▷ noun, old use a female servant. See also MANSERVANT.

mail[1] ▷ noun 1 the postal system □ sent it through the mail □ came by hand not by mail. 2 letters, parcels, etc sent by post □ Collect your mail from the office. 3 a single collection or delivery of letters, etc □ Has the mail arrived yet? 4 (also mail train, mail van etc) a vehicle carrying letters, etc. 5 as adj used for, or relating to mail □ mail room □ mail delivery. See also ELECTRONIC MAIL. ▷ verb (mailed, mailing) especially N Amer to send (a letter, parcel, etc) by post. Also called in all senses (chiefly Brit) POST. ⓘ 13c in old sense 'bag or wallet': from French male, from German malha a sack.

mail[2] ▷ noun 1 flexible armour for the body, made of small linked metal rings. Also called chainmail. 2 the protective covering of an animal such as the turtle. • mailed adj. ⓘ 14c in obsolete sense 'a small metal ring or plate' from which such armour was made: from French maille a MESH, from Latin macula a spot or mesh.

mailbag ▷ noun a large strong bag in which letters, etc are carried.

mailbox ▷ noun 1 especially N Amer a public or private letter box or postbox. 2 computing in an electronic mail system: a facility that allows computer messages from one user to be stored in the file of another.

mail-carrier see under MAILMAN mail drop ▷ noun, N Amer 1 a letter box; a receptacle for mail or a slot for posting it through. 2 an address from which someone collects mail or messages, etc sent to them. See also PO BOX, POSTE RESTANTE.

mailed[1] past participle of MAIL[1]

mailed[2] see under MAIL[2]

mailing present participle of MAIL[1] mailing list ▷ noun a list of the names and addresses of people to whom an organization or business, etc regularly sends information, especially advertising material, etc.

mailman ▷ noun especially N Amer a POSTMAN. Also called mail-carrier.

mailmerge ▷ noun, wordprocessing, computing 1 the process of producing a series of letters addressed to individuals by merging a file of names and addresses with a file containing the text of the letter. 2 a computer program which carries out this process, used eg in office administration, marketing or sales promotion. • mailmerging noun.

mail order ▷ noun 1 a system of buying and selling goods by post, in which customers receive a catalogue, leaflet, etc from which they choose and order their purchases, and their order is delivered directly to them. 2 an order of goods to be sent by post. 3 as adj relating to, bought, sold, sent or operating by mail order □ mail-order catalogue □ mail-order firm.

mailshot ▷ noun 1 an unrequested item sent by post, especially a piece of advertising material. 2 the action or an instance of sending out a batch of such advertising, etc to potential customers by post.

mail train and mail van see under MAIL[1] noun 4

maim ▷ verb (maimed, maiming) to wound (a person or animal) seriously, especially to disable, mutilate or cripple them. • maimed adj. • maiming noun. ⓘ 13c: from French mahaignier to wound.

main ▷ adj 1 most important; chief; leading □ main event. 2 literary extreme; utmost; sheer □ main force. ▷ noun 1 (often the mains) the chief pipe, conduit or cable in a branching system □ a burst water main □ not connected to the mains. 2 (usually the mains) or chiefly Brit the network by which power, water, etc is distributed □ The electricity board came to connect us up with the mains. 3 (always mains) as adj belonging or relating to the mains (senses 1 and 2) □ mains supply. 4 old use great strength, now only usually in the phrase with might and main. See under MIGHT[2]. 5 old use the open sea □ the Spanish main. • in the main mostly; on the whole. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon mægen (as noun) in obsolete sense 'strength': partly from Norse meginn strong.

mainbrace ▷ noun, naut the rope or BRACE controlling the movement of a ship's mainsail. See also SPLICE THE MAINBRACE at SPLICE.

the main chance ▷ noun the chief object or best opportunity. • an eye to the main chance see under CHANCE.

main clause ▷ noun, grammar a clause which can stand alone as a sentence, eg she picked it up in she picked it up and ran off. Also called independent clause, principal clause. Compare SUBORDINATE CLAUSE.

main course ▷ noun the principle, and usually most substantial, course in a meal.

mainframe ▷ noun, computing a large powerful computer to which several smaller computers can be linked, that is capable of handling very large amounts of data at high speed and can usually run several programs simultaneously. Also as adj □ mainframe computer.

mainland ▷ noun (especially the mainland) a country's principal mass of land, as distinct from a nearby island or islands forming part of the same country. Also as adj □ mainland Britain. • mainlander noun.

mainline ▷ verb, tr & intr, slang to inject (a drug) into a principal vein, so that it has the quickest possible effect. • mainliner noun. • mainlining noun. ⓘ 1930s: from MAIN LINE.

main line ▷ noun 1 a the principal railway line between two places; b as adj (mainline or main-line) □ main-line station. 2 US a principal route, road, etc. 3 slang a major vein. ▷ 1 adj (usually mainline) principal; chief. 2 mainstream.

mainly ▷ adverb chiefly; for the most part; largely.

mainmast /ˈmeɪnmɑːst, -mɑːst/ ▷ noun, naut the principal mast of a sailing ship, usually the second mast from the prow. Compare FOREMAST.

mains see under MAIN

mainsail /ˈmeɪnsəl, ˈmeɪnseɪl/ ▷ noun, naut the largest and lowest sail on a sailing ship, generally attached to the MAINMAST.

mainsheet ▷ noun, naut the rope or SHEET[2] attached to the lower corner of the MAINSAIL, for adjusting its angle, etc.

mainspring ▷ noun 1 the chief spring in a watch or clock, or other piece of machinery, that gives it motion. 2 a chief motive, reason or cause.

mainstay ▷ noun (mainstays) 1 naut a rope stretching forward and down from the top of the MAINMAST of a sailing ship. 2 a chief support ◻ He has been my mainstay during this crisis.

main store ▷ noun, computing the part of a computer's STORE (noun 4) that holds data and programs immediately before, during and immediately after processing or execution.

mainstream ▷ noun 1 (usually the mainstream) the chief trend, or direction of development, in any activity, business, movement, etc ◻ His work is not part of the mainstream of modern art. 2 the principal current of a river which has tributaries. 3 mainstream jazz (see adj 3). ▷ adj 1 belonging or relating to the mainstream. 2 in accordance with what is normal or standard ◻ takes a mainstream view on this subject. 3 jazz said of swing, etc: belonging or relating to a style that developed between early (ie traditional) and modern jazz. ▷ verb, especially US, education to integrate (children with learning difficulties or who need SPECIAL EDUCATION) into ordinary schools. ● mainstreaming noun the introduction of SPECIAL NEEDS children into ordinary schools. ⓘ 20c as verb; 17c in sense 2.

maintain /meɪnˈteɪn, mən-/ ▷ verb (maintained, maintaining) 1 to continue; to keep something in existence ◻ must maintain this level of commitment. 2 to keep something in good condition; to preserve it ◻ The property has been beautifully maintained. 3 to pay the expenses of someone or something; to support them financially ◻ a duty to maintain his children. 4 to continue to argue something; to affirm or assert (eg an opinion, one's innocence, etc). ● maintainable adj. ● maintained adj, especially in compounds said of a school, etc: financially supported, eg from public funds ◻ grant-maintained. ● maintainer noun. ⓘ 13c: from French maintenir, from Latin manu tenere to hold in the hand.

maintenance /ˈmeɪntənəns/ ▷ noun 1 a the process of keeping something in good condition; b as adj ◻ a maintenance man. 2 a money paid by one person to support another, as ordered by a court of law, eg money paid to an ex-wife and/or children, following a divorce; b as adj ◻ a maintenance order. See also ALIMONY. 3 the process of continuing something or keeping it in existence. ⓘ 15c: French; see MAINTAIN.

maiolica see MAJOLICA

maisonette or maisonnette /meɪzəˈnɛt/ ▷ noun a flat within a larger house or block, especially one on two floors, usually with its own separate entrance. US equivalent DUPLEX. ⓘ 19c: French diminutive of maison house.

maître d'hôtel /meɪtrədoʊˈtɛl/ ▷ noun 1 the manager or head waiter of a hotel or restaurant. 2 a head steward or major-domo of a household. Often (colloq) shortened to maître d' /meɪtrəˈdiː/ (maîtres d' or maître d's). ⓘ 16c in sense 2: French, meaning 'master of the hotel'.

maize /meɪz/ ▷ noun 1 a tall cereal plant belonging to the grass family, widely grown for its edible yellow grain which grows in large spikes called CORNCOBS. 2 the grain of this plant, eaten ripe and unripe as a vegetable (SWEETCORN) and used as a source of oil, flour, starch and syrup. Also called CORN (sense 2), Indian corn. See also MEALIE. ⓘ 16c: from Spanish maíz, from Taino (an extinct S American native language) mahiz.

Maj. ▷ abbreviation Major.

majestic /məˈdʒɛstɪk/ ▷ adj having or showing majesty; stately, dignified or grand in manner, style, appearance, etc. ● majestically adverb.

majesty /ˈmadʒəstɪ/ ▷ noun (majesties) 1 great and impressive dignity, sovereign power or authority, eg the supreme greatness and power of God. 2 splendour; grandeur. 3 His, Her or Your Majesty (Their or Your Majesties) the title used when speaking of or to a king or queen. ⓘ 14c: from French majesté, from Latin majestas.

majolica /məˈdʒɒlɪkə, məˈjɒ-/ or maiolica /məˈjɒ-/ ▷ noun colourfully glazed or enamelled earthenware, as produced in Italy from the 14c, and especially that of the early 16c decorated with scenes in the Renaissance style. Sometimes called majolicaware. ⓘ 16c: Italian maiolica, from Latin Majorica Majorca, from where it was first imported and is thought to have been made originally by Moorish craftsmen.

major /ˈmeɪdʒə(r)/ ▷ adj 1 great, or greater, in number, size, extent, value, importance, etc. 2 music a said of a scale: having two full tones between the first and third notes; b said of a key, chord, etc: based on such a scale. 3 Brit, especially formerly used after the surname of the elder of two brothers attending the same school: senior ◻ Ask Simcox major to see me. In all senses compare MINOR. ▷ noun 1 a an officer in the army. See table at RANK; b an officer who is in charge of a military band ◻ pipe major. 2 music a major key, chord or scale. 3 especially N Amer a a student's main or special subject of study ◻ English is his major; b a student studying such a subject ◻ He's a psychology major. 4 someone who has reached the age of full legal responsibility, which in Britain and the US means a person of 18 years or over. Compare MINOR noun 1. See also MAJORITY 3. 5 a film company that produces mainstream Hollywood movies. 6 anything that is major as opposed to minor. ▷ verb (majored, majoring) intr 1 (always major in something) especially US to specialize in (a particular subject of study). 2 (usually major in or on something) to specialize in (a particular product, area of interest, etc). ⓘ 15c: Latin, comparative of magnus great.

Majorcan /məˈjɔːkən, məˈdʒɔː-/ ▷ adj belonging or relating to Majorca, a Spanish island in the Mediterranean, or to its inhabitants. ▷ noun a citizen or inhabitant of, or person born on, Majorca. Also called Mallorcan /məˈlɔːkən/. ⓘ 17c.

major-domo /meɪdʒəˈdoʊmoʊ/ ▷ noun (major-domos) a chief servant or steward in charge of the management of a household. ⓘ 16c: from Spanish mayordomo, from Latin major domo, meaning 'chief of the house'.

majorette /meɪdʒəˈrɛt/ ▷ noun a member of a group of girls who march in parades, wearing decorative military-style uniforms with short skirts and performing elaborate displays of baton-twirling, etc. Also called drum majorette. ● majoretting noun the practice of performing as a majorette. ⓘ 1940s, originally US.

major-general ▷ noun an officer in the army. See table at RANK.

majority /məˈdʒɒrɪtɪ/ ▷ noun (majorities) 1 a the greater number; the largest group; the bulk ◻ The majority of the population is in favour; b as adj ◻ a majority verdict. 2 the difference between the greater and the lesser number. 3 the winning margin of votes in an election ◻ a Labour majority of 2 649. 4 the age at which someone legally becomes an adult. See MAJOR (noun 4). Compare MINORITY. ● go over to the majority or join the majority euphemistic to die. ● in the majority forming the larger group or greater part. ⓘ 16c: from French majorité, from Latin majoritas; see MAJOR.

majority

- Strictly in sense 1 majority should only be used with reference to several things that could be numbered or counted.

✓ The majority of our customers leave a generous gratuity.

✓ The majority of perennials flower during this period.

- It should not be used when referring to things that are not countable, such as substances and concepts.

✗ He spent the majority of his working life as a schoolteacher.

- Although it is a singular noun, majority usually takes a plural verb in this sense, as in the examples given above.

majority rule ▷ noun, politics government by members of the largest racial, ethnic or religious group or groups in a country.

major league ▷ noun, N Amer 1 sport, especially baseball a group of sports teams or clubs at the highest professional national level, as distinct from the lower minor league. 2 colloq the top level in any activity, profession, etc. Often as adj ◻ major league player.

major mode see under MODE.

major orders ▷ plural noun, Christianity in the Orthodox, Anglican and RC Churches: the higher levels of HOLY ORDERS, eg bishops, priests and deacons. Compare MINOR ORDERS, TERTIARY noun 2.

major premise ▷ noun, logic in a syllogism: the premise in which the major term, ie the term which is the predicate of the conclusion, occurs.

majuscule /ˈmadʒəskjuːl/ printing ▷ noun an extra large letter. ▷ adj 1 said of a letter: extra large. 2 relating to, printed in, etc large letters. Compare MINUSCULE. • majuscular adj. ⓘ 18c: see MAJOR.

make /meɪk/ ▷ verb (made /meɪd/, making) 1 to form, create, manufacture or produce something by mixing, combining or shaping materials ◻ make the tea ◻ made me a cake. 2 to cause, bring about or create something by one's actions, etc ◻ He's always making trouble ◻ I don't make the rules ◻ It makes no difference. 3 to force, induce or cause someone to do something ◻ Please don't make me go ◻ He makes me laugh. 4 (often make something or someone into something) to cause it or them to change into something else; to transform or convert it or them ◻ made the barn into a cottage. 5 to cause something or someone to be, do or become a specified thing ◻ made me cross ◻ made my head ache. 6 to be capable of turning or developing into or serving as (a specified thing); to have or to develop the appropriate qualities for something ◻ I make a terrible patient ◻ He will make a wonderful father ◻ He'll never make a salesman ◻ This box makes a good table. 7 (always make someone something) to appoint them as something ◻ They made her deputy head. 8 (also make someone or something into something) to cause them or it to appear to be, or to represent them or it as being (a specified thing) ◻ Long hair makes her look younger ◻ The course made them into effective sales reps. 9 to gain, earn or acquire something ◻ makes £400 a week ◻ Did you make a profit? ◻ He made a fortune but no friends ◻ made his name. 10 to add up to or amount to something; to constitute ◻ 4 and 4 makes 8 ◻ The book makes interesting reading ◻ will make a nice change. 11 to calculate, judge or estimate something to be (a specified thing) ◻ I make it three o'clock ◻ He made the total £28.70. 12 to arrive at or reach something; to succeed in achieving, reaching or gaining it ◻ should make the summit by midday ◻ can't make the party. 13 to score or win (points, runs, card tricks, etc). 14 to tidy (a bed) after use by smoothing out and tucking in the sheets, rearranging the duvet, etc. 15 to bring about or ensure the success of something; to cap or complete something ◻ It made my day ◻ Those curtains really make this room. 16 to propose something or propose something to someone ◻ make an offer ◻ make me an offer. 17 to engage in something; to perform, carry out or produce something ◻ make war ◻ make a speech ◻ make a decision. ▷ noun 1 a manufacturer's brand ◻ What make of car is it? 2 technical the act, practice or process of making or manufacturing. 3 applied to a physical object, a person's body, etc: structure, type or build; the way in which it is made. 4 applied to an immaterial thing: disposition or character, manner. • makable adj. • maker and making see separate entries. • make as if or as though, or (US) make like something or make like to do something 1 to act or behave in a specified way ◻ She made as if to leave. 2 to pretend to be or do something ◻ He made as if he hadn't heard ◻ He was making like a gorilla. • make do colloq to manage or get by ◻ always having to make do. • make do without something colloq to manage without it. • make do with something colloq to manage with, or make the best use, of a second or inferior choice ◻ I've run out of butter, so you'll have to make do with margarine. See also MAKE-DO. • make head or tail or head nor tail of something with negatives and in questions to make any sense of it; to understand it ◻ I can't make head or tail of this note. • make it colloq 1 to be successful ◻ to make it in show business. 2 to survive ◻ is so badly injured he might not make it. • make it up to someone to compensate or repay them for difficulties, inconvenience, etc which they have experienced on one's account, or for kindness, generosity, etc which they have shown to one. Compare make up to someone below. • make it with someone coarse slang to have sexual intercourse with them. • make like something see make as if above. • make or break something or someone to be the crucial test that brings it or them either success or failure ◻ The takeover will either make or break the company. See also MAKE-OR-BREAK. • make to do something to show an intention of doing it; to make an attempt or start to do it ◻ He made to stand up, but changed his mind. • make up one's mind see under MIND. • on the make colloq said of a person: 1 seeking a large or illegal personal profit. 2 slang looking for a sexual partner. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon macian.

■ make after someone or something to follow or pursue them or it.

■ make away with someone to kill them.

■ make away with something see make off or away with something below.

■ make for something to bring it about; to have it as a specific result ◻ Fine weather makes for an enjoyable holiday.

■ make for something or someone to go towards it or them, especially rapidly, purposefully or suddenly.

■ make of something or someone to understand by it or them ◻ What do you make of their comments? ◻ They did not know what to make of us.

■ make something of something to construct it from (a material, etc).

■ make off to leave, especially in a hurry or secretly.

■ make off or away with something or someone to run off with it or them; to steal or kidnap it or them ◻ The thief made off with my bag.

■ make out 1 colloq to progress or get along ◻ How did you make out in the exam? 2 colloq, chiefly N Amer to manage, succeed or survive ◻ It's been tough, but we'll make out. 3 colloq, especially N Amer to caress and fondle, snog or make love ◻ They were making out in the back seat.

▪ make out something or that something to pretend or claim that it is so □ He made out that he was ill.

▪ make out something or make something out 1 to begin to discern it, especially to see or hear it □ I could just make out a vague figure in the distance. 2 to write or fill in a document, etc □ made out a cheque for £20.

▪ make something or someone out to be something to portray them, or cause them to seem to be, what they are not □ They made us out to be liars.

▪ make over something or make something over 1 to transfer ownership of it □ made over my shares to her when I retired. 2 N Amer, especially US to convert or alter it. See also MAKEOVER.

▪ make up something to assemble (text, illustration, etc) into (columns or pages).

▪ make up for something to compensate or serve as an apology for it.

▪ make up to someone colloq to seek their friendship or favour; to flirt with them.

▪ make up with someone to resolve a disagreement with someone.

▪ make someone up to apply cosmetics to their face.

▪ make something up 1 to fabricate or invent it □ made up the story. 2 to prepare or assemble it. 3 to constitute it; to be the parts of it □ The three villages together make up a district. 4 to form the final element in something; to complete it □ another player to make up the team. 5 to settle (disagreements, etc) □ We made up our quarrel.

make-believe ▷ noun pretence, especially playful or innocent imaginings □ She likes to play make-believe with her dolls. ▷ adj pretended, imaginary □ She lives in a make-believe world, dreaming of becoming a pop star. See also MAKE BELIEVE at BELIEVE.

make-do see under MAKESHIFT make-or-break ▷ adj determining success or failure □ This is a make-or-break moment for his career. See also MAKE OR BREAK under MAKE.

makeover ▷ noun 1 a complete change in a person's style of dress, appearance, make-up, hair, etc. 2 a remake or reconstruction. 3 a transfer of ownership, title, etc. See also MAKE OVER SOMETHING under MAKE. ⓘ 1980s.

maker ▷ noun 1 especially in compounds a person who makes something □ clockmaker. 2 (Maker) God, the Creator □ to meet my Maker.

makeshift ▷ adj serving as a temporary and less adequate substitute for something □ use it as a makeshift bed. Sometimes called make-do.

make-up ▷ noun 1 a cosmetics such as mascara, lipstick, etc applied to the face, especially by women; b cosmetics worn by actors to give the required appearance for a part; c the technique or skill of applying cosmetics; d as adj □ make-up bag □ make-up artist. See also MAKE SOMEONE UP at MAKE. 4 the combination of characteristics or ingredients that form something, eg a personality or temperament □ Greed is not in his make-up. 5 printing, etc the arrangement of composed types, illustrations, etc into columns or pages. See also MAKE UP SOMETHING under MAKE.

makeweight ▷ noun 1 a small quantity added to a scale to get the required weight. 2 a person or thing of little value or importance, included only to make up for a deficiency.

making ▷ noun 1 especially in compounds the act or process of producing or forming the specified thing □ breadmaking □ music-making. 2 (makings) a the materials or qualities from which something can be made; b colloq the things needed to roll a joint, eg tobacco, cigarette papers, hash, matches, etc; c colloq the things needed to prepare a FIX (sense 2b) of heroin, etc. ▪ be the making of someone to ensure their success □ This marriage will be the making of him. Opposite of BE THE UNDOING OF SOMEONE under UNDOING. ▪ have the makings of something to have the ability to become, or to show signs of becoming, a specified thing □ has the makings of a fine doctor. ▪ in the making in the process of being made, formed or developed □ She is a star in the making. ▪ of one's own making brought about by one's own actions.

mako[1] /ˈmɑːkoʊ/ ▷ noun (makos) any of several types of shark. Also called mako shark. ⓘ 18c: Maori.

mako[2] /ˈmɑːkoʊ/ ▷ noun (makos) a small evergreen tree of New Zealand with red berries that turn purple as they ripen. Also called mako-mako (mako-makos). ⓘ 19c: Maori.

MAL ▷ abbreviation, IVR Malaysia.

mal see GRAND MAL, PETIT MAL

Mal. ▷ abbreviation Book of the Bible: Malachi. See table at BIBLE.

mal- ▷ prefix, denoting 1 bad or badly □ malformed. 2 incorrect or incorrectly □ malfunction □ malpractice. ⓘ French, from Latin male badly.

malabsorption ▷ noun, medicine the poor or inadequate absorption of one or more nutrients, vitamins and minerals, etc from digested food material in the small intestine, seen in the UK especially as a symptom of COELIAC DISEASE.

malachite /ˈmaləkaɪt/ ▷ noun, geol a bright green copper mineral that is used as a gemstone and as a minor ore of copper. ⓘ 14c: ultimately from Greek malakhe the MALLOW plant, whose leaves are a similar shade of green.

maladapted ▷ adj poorly or incorrectly adapted. ▪ maladaptation noun. ▪ maladaptive adj said of a species, etc: marked by, or tending to show, an inability to adapt, eg to its environment. ⓘ 19c.

maladjusted ▷ adj 1 said of a person: psychologically unable to deal with everyday situations and relationships, usually as a result of an emotionally disturbing experience. 2 poorly or inadequately adjusted, especially to environment or circumstances. ▪ maladjustment noun. ⓘ 19c.

maladminister ▷ verb to manage (eg public affairs) badly, dishonestly or incompetently. ▪ maladministration noun. ⓘ 18c.

maladroit /maləˈdrɔɪt/ ▷ adj, rather formal clumsy; tactless; unskilful □ his maladroit performance at the meeting. ▪ maladroitly adverb. ▪ maladroitness noun. ⓘ 17c: French; see MAL- + ADROIT.

malady /ˈmalədɪ/ ▷ noun (maladies) rather formal or old use 1 an illness or disease. 2 a faulty or unhealthy condition. ⓘ 13c: French, from malade sick.

Malagasy /maləˈgasɪ/ ▷ adj belonging or relating to Madagascar, an island republic off the coast of Mozambique, its inhabitants or their language. ▷ noun (Malagasy or Malagasies) 1 a citizen or inhabitant of, or person born in, Madagascar. 2 the official language of Madagascar, an AUSTRONESIAN language. ⓘ 19c.

malaise /maˈleɪz/ ▷ noun (malaises) 1 a feeling of uneasiness, discontent, general depression or despondency. 2 a general feeling of physical ill health, not attributable to any particular disease. ⓘ 18c: French, from mal ill + aise ease.

malapropism /ˈmaləprɒpɪzəm/ ▷ noun 1 the unintentional misuse of a word, usually with comic effect, through confusion with another word that sounds similar but has a different meaning. 2 a word misused in this way. Compare FREUDIAN SLIP. ⓘ 18c: named after Mrs Malaprop, a character in Sheridan's play The Rivals (1775), who misuses words in this way; her name refers to the term MALAPROPOS.

malapropos /malaprə'pou/ formal ▷ adj out of place; unsuitable; inapt. ▷ adverb inappropriately or unsuitably. Opposite of APROPOS. ⓘ 17c: from French mal à propos not to the purpose.

malaria /mə'lɛərɪə/ ▷ noun an infectious disease that produces anaemia and recurring bouts of fever, caused by a parasitic PROTOZOAN which is transmitted to humans by the bite of the mosquito. • malarial or malarious adj. ⓘ 18c: from Italian mal' aria, literally 'bad air', which was formerly thought to be the cause of the disease.

malarkey or malarky /mə'lɑːkɪ/ ▷ noun, colloq nonsense; rubbish; absurd behaviour or talk. ⓘ 1920s: originally US.

Malawian /mə'lɑːwɪən/ ▷ adj belonging or relating to Malawi, a republic in SE Africa, or to its inhabitants. ▷ noun a citizen or inhabitant of, or person born in, Malawi. ⓘ 1960s.

Malay /mə'leɪ/ ▷ noun (Malays) 1 a member of a race of people inhabiting Malaysia, Singapore and Indonesia, formerly known as the Malay Peninsula. 2 the AUSTRONESIAN language of this people, the official language of Malaysia. ▷ adj belonging or relating to the Malays or their language or countries. Sometimes called Malayan. ⓘ 16c: from Malay malayu.

Malaysian /mə'leɪzɪən, -ʒən/ ▷ adj 1 belonging or relating to Malaysia, an independent SE Asian federation of states, or its inhabitants 2 belonging or relating to the MALAY Peninsula. ▷ noun a citizen or inhabitant of, or person born in, Malaysia. ⓘ 19c.

malcontent /'malkəntent/ ▷ adj (also malcontented) said of a person: dissatisfied and inclined to rebel, especially in political matters; discontented. ▷ noun a dissatisfied or rebellious person. ⓘ 16c: French.

mal de mer /mal də 'mɛə(r)/ ▷ noun seasickness. ⓘ 18c: French.

Maldivian /mɔːl'dɪvɪən/ and Maldivan /-daɪvən/ ▷ adj belonging or relating to the Maldives, a republic consisting of an island archipelago in the Indian Ocean, its inhabitants, or their language. ▷ noun 1 a citizen or inhabitant of, or person born in, the Maldives. 2 the official language of the Maldives. ⓘ 19c.

male ▷ adj 1 denoting the sex that produces sperm and fertilizes the egg cell (OVUM) produced by the female. 2 denoting the reproductive structure of a plant that produces the male GAMETE. 3 belonging to or characteristic of men; masculine □ male hormones. 4 for or made up of men or boys □ male college. 5 engineering said of a piece of machinery, etc: having a projecting part that fits into another part (the FEMALE adj 4). ▷ noun a male person, animal or plant. • maleness noun. ⓘ 14c: from French masle or male, from Latin masculus, from mas a male.

male, masculine

There is often confusion between male and masculine. male classifies, and refers to the fact of being a man; masculine describes and refers to characteristics that are typical of men.

male chauvinist or (colloq) male chauvinist pig (abbreviation MCP) noun, derog a man who believes in the superiority of men over women, is primarily concerned to promote men's interests and acts in a prejudiced manner towards women. • male chauvinism noun self-interested prejudice shown by men towards women. ⓘ 1970s: see CHAUVINISM.

malediction /malɪ'dɪkʃən/ ▷ noun, literary or formal 1 a curse or defamation. 2 an act or the process of cursing; the uttering of a curse. • maledictory adj using or full of curses. ⓘ 15c: from Latin maledicto, from male badly + dicere to speak.

malefactor /'malɪfaktə(r)/ ▷ noun, literary, formal or old use a criminal; an evil-doer or wrongdoer. • malefaction noun evil-doing; a criminal act. ⓘ 15c: Latin.

male fern ▷ noun a common woodland fern that has long fronds each divided into many tapering lobes, or pinnae (see PINNA); themselves divided into smaller lobes, or PINNULES on the underside of which are the spore-bearing structures, or sori (see SORUS).

maleficent /mə'lefɪsənt/ ▷ adj, literary, formal or old use 1 (also malefic) said of magical or astrological agencies or practices, etc: harmful; producing evil. 2 said of a person or their behaviour, etc: criminal; doing wrong. • malefically adverb. • maleficence noun. ⓘ 17c: from Latin maleficus.

maleic acid /mə'leɪɪk —/ ▷ noun, chem (formula HOOCCHCHCOOH) an acid obtained from MALIC ACID.

male menopause ▷ noun, colloq, especially facetious a crisis of confidence identified in middle-aged men, comparable with the MENOPAUSE in women, but thought to be caused by psychological factors such as fear of ageing. ⓘ 1960s.

maleness see under MALE malevolent /mə'levələnt/ ▷ adj wishing to do evil to others; malicious. • malevolence noun. • malevolently adverb. ⓘ 16c: from Latin malevolens from male badly + velle to wish.

malfeasance /mal'fiːzəns/ ▷ noun law 1 wrongdoing; the committing of an unlawful act, especially by a public official. 2 an unlawful act, especially by a public official. • malfeasant adj. ⓘ 17c: from French malfaisance, from Latin male badly + facere to do.

malformation ▷ noun 1 the state or condition of being badly or wrongly formed or shaped. 2 a badly or wrongly formed part; a deformity.

malformed adj 1 badly or wrongly formed. 2 deformed. ⓘ 19c.

malfunction ▷ verb, intr to work imperfectly; to fail to work. ▷ noun failure of, or a fault or failure in, the operation of a machine, etc. ⓘ 1920s.

Malian /'mɑːlɪən/ ▷ adj belonging or relating to Mali, a republic in W Africa, or its inhabitants. ▷ noun a citizen or inhabitant of, or person born in, Mali. ⓘ 1960s.

malic acid /'malɪk —, 'meɪ- —/ ▷ noun, chem (formula $HOOCCH_2CH(OH)COOH$) an acid found in unripe fruits, and occurring in wines. ⓘ 18c: from French acide malique, from Latin malum apple.

malice /'malɪs/ ▷ noun 1 the desire or intention to harm or hurt another or others. 2 a deliberately vicious, spiteful or cruel attitude of mind. ⓘ 13c: French, from Latin malitia, from malus bad.

malice aforethought ▷ noun, law a firm intention to commit a crime, especially one against a person, such as murder or serious injury □ The prosecution must show that he acted with malice aforethought. See also MENS REA.

malicious /mə'lɪʃəs/ ▷ adj 1 feeling, or motivated by, hatred or by a desire to cause harm. 2 deliberately vicious, spiteful or cruel. • maliciously adverb. • maliciousness noun. ⓘ 13c: French, from MALICE.

malign /mə'laɪn/ ▷ verb (maligned, maligning) to say or write bad or unpleasant things about someone, especially falsely or spitefully. See also DEFAME, LIBEL, SLANDER. ▷ adj 1 said of a person: evil in nature or influence; threatening; displaying ill-will. 2 said of a disease: harmful; malignant.

• maligner noun. • malignity noun (malignities) 1 the quality or state of being malign, evil or deadly. 2 an act of malevolence. 3 hatred. • malignly adverb. ⓘ 14c: from Latin malignus, from maligenus of evil disposition.

malignancy /mə'lɪgnənsɪ/ noun (malignancies) 1 the quality or state of being malignant. 2 medicine a cancerous growth.

malignant /mə'lɪgnənt/ ▷ adj 1 said of a person: feeling or showing hatred or the desire to do harm to another or others; malicious or malevolent. 2 medicine a denoting any disorder that, if left untreated, may cause death; b said especially of a cancerous tumour: of a type that, especially if left untreated, invades and destroys the surrounding tissue and may spread to more distant parts of the body via the bloodstream or lymphatic system. Compare BENIGN. • malignantly adverb. ⓘ 16c: from Latin malignare to act maliciously.

malinger /mə'lɪŋgə(r)/ ▷ verb (malingered, malingering) intr to pretend to be ill, especially in order to avoid having to work. • malingerer noun. ⓘ 19c: from French malingre sickly.

mall /mɔːl, mal/ ▷ noun 1 a SHOPPING CENTRE (sense 2), street or area, etc with shops, that is closed to vehicles. 2 a public promenade, especially one that is broad and tree-lined. ⓘ 1960s, originally N Amer in sense 1; 17c in obsolete senses 'a MALLET' (as used to hit the ball in the old game of pall-mall), and also 'an alley' (as used to play pall-mall on), and then more specifically The Mall, a street in London which was used as such in the time of Charles II and became a fashionable promenade.

mallard /'malɑːd, -ləd/ ▷ noun (mallard or mallards) a very common species of wild duck that breeds on lakes, ponds, etc throughout most of the N hemisphere. The drake has a green head and neck with a white collar and dark brown breast while the female is simply brown. ⓘ 14c: from French mallart wild drake.

malleable /'malɪəbəl/ ▷ adj 1 said of certain metals and alloys, etc: able to be beaten into a different shape, hammered into thin sheets and bent, etc without breaking. 2 said eg of a person or personality: easily influenced. • malleability or sometimes malleableness noun. ⓘ 14c: French, from Latin malleabilis, from malleus hammer.

mallet /'malɪt/ ▷ noun 1 a hammer with a large head, usually made of wood. 2 in croquet, polo, etc: a long-handled wooden hammer used to strike the ball. 3 music a soft-headed stick used to beat a gong, etc. ⓘ 15c: from French maillet, diminutive of mail a club or heavy wooden hammer.

malleus /'malɪəs/ ▷ noun (mallei /-lɪaɪ/) anatomy a small hammer-shaped bone in the MIDDLE EAR, which, together with the INCUS and STAPES, transmits sound waves from the eardrum to the inner ear. ⓘ 17c: Latin, meaning 'a hammer'.

mallow /'maloʊ/ ▷ noun any of various European plants with pink, purple or white flowers, and fine hairs on the leaves and stem. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon mealwe, from Latin malva.

Mallorcan see MAJORCAN

malm /mɑːm/ ▷ noun 1 an artificial mixture of clay and chalk used in the manufacture of bricks. 2 geol a calcareous loam; b chalky earth of this kind. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon mealm, as in mealmstan, literally 'soft stone'.

malmsey /'mɑːmzɪ/ ▷ noun (malmseys) a strong sweet wine originally from Greece but now usually from Spain, Madeira, etc. ⓘ 15c: an English corruption of Greek Monembasia, the Greek port from which it was originally shipped.

malnourished ▷ adj suffering from MALNUTRITION. • malnourishment noun. ⓘ 1920s.

malnutrition ▷ noun 1 medicine any of various disorders resulting from inadequate food intake, an unbalanced diet or inability to absorb nutrients from food. 2 general lack of food or a very unbalanced diet. ⓘ 19c.

malodorous /mal'oʊdərəs/ ▷ adj, formal 1 literally foul-smelling. 2 said eg of conduct, business affairs, etc: highly unsavoury or improper; offensive. ⓘ 19c.

malpractice ▷ noun 1 law a improper, careless, illegal or unethical professional conduct, eg medical treatment which shows a lack of reasonable skill or care, the misuse of a position of trust, etc; b an example or instance of this. See also NEGLIGENCE. 2 any wrong or illegal act. • malpractitioner noun. ⓘ 17c.

malt /mɔːlt, mɒlt/ ▷ noun 1 brewing a mixture, used in brewing, prepared from barley or wheat grains that have been soaked in water, allowed to sprout and then dried in a kiln. 2 MALT WHISKY, or another liquor made with malt. ▷ verb (malted, malting) 1 to treat or combine (eg a liquor) with malt. 2 to make (a grain) into malt. • malted adj containing, made or flavoured with malt. • malty adj. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon mealt.

maltase /mɔːl'teɪs, mɒl-/ ▷ noun, biochem an enzyme in animals and plants that breaks down MALTOSE into glucose. ⓘ 19c.

malted milk ▷ noun 1 a powdered mixture of malted grains and dehydrated milk. 2 a a drink made with this mixture; b (also malted) US such a drink with added ice cream and flavouring, etc □ a strawberry malted.

Maltese /mɔːl'tiːz, mɒ-/ ▷ adj belonging or relating to Malta, an archipelago republic in the central Mediterranean Sea, its inhabitants, or their language. ▷ noun (plural Maltese) 1 a citizen or inhabitant of, or a person born in, Malta. 2 the official language of Malta, a SEMITIC language with a strong Italian influence. 3 a small, toy spaniel with short legs concealed by a long thick coat of straight hair that reaches the ground. ⓘ 17c.

Maltese cross ▷ noun a cross with four arms of equal length that taper towards the centre, each with a V cut into the end. ⓘ Late 19c: it is the heraldic badge of the knights of Malta.

malt extract ▷ noun a sweet, sticky, liquid extract obtained from malt and used as a flavouring in food.

Malthusian /mal'θjuːzɪən/ ▷ adj relating to or supporting the theory which proposes that increases in populations tend to exceed the capacity to sustain them and that there should therefore be restraint or control of sexual activity. ▷ noun a supporter of this theory. ⓘ 19c: named after the British economist, Thomas Malthus (1776–1834), who first put this theory forward.

malting and malthouse ▷ noun a building where malt is made.

maltose /'mɔːltoʊz, -s, 'mɒl-/ ▷ noun, biochem a hard white crystalline sugar that occurs in starch and glycogen, and is composed of two GLUCOSE molecules linked together. ⓘ 19c.

maltreat ▷ verb to treat someone or something roughly or cruelly. • maltreatment noun. ⓘ 18c: from French maltraiter.

malt whisky ▷ noun whisky made entirely from malted barley. Often shortened to MALT.

malversation /malvə'seɪʃən/ ▷ noun, formal & rare corruption in public affairs, eg extortion, bribery or embezzlement; illegal use of public funds. ⓘ 16c: French, from Latin versari, versatus to behave oneself.

mam /mam/ ▷ noun, dialect or colloq mother. ⓘ 16c: from MAMA.

mama /mə'mɑː, 'mɑːmə/ or (chiefly US) mamma (usually /'mɑːmə/) and mammy /'mamɪ/ ▷ noun (mamas, mammas or mammies) 1 rather dated now used chiefly by young children: mother. Often shortened to MA, MAM. 2 slang, chiefly US a woman. See also MOM. ⓘ 16c: repetition of the sound ma often heard in babbling baby-talk.

mamba /ˈmambə/ ▷ noun (mambas) a large, poisonous, black or green African snake. ◎ 19c: from Zulu imamba.

mambo /ˈmambou/ ▷ noun (mambos) 1 a rhythmic Latin American dance resembling the RUMBA. 2 a piece of music for this dance. ▷ verb (mamboed, mamboing) intr to dance the mambo. ◎ 1940s: American Spanish, probably from Haitian meaning 'voodoo priestess'.

mamilla or (N Amer) mammilla /maˈmɪlə/ ▷ noun (mamillae /-liː/) 1 zool, anatomy the nipple of the mammary gland. 2 a nipple-shaped protuberance. ● mamillary adj 1 relating to the breast. 2 nipple-shaped. ◎ 17c: Latin, diminutive of mamma breast.

mamma[1] /ˈmamə/ ▷ noun (mammae /-miː/) biol, anatomy, etc the milk gland or MAMMARY GLAND; the breast, udder, etc in female mammals. ◎ 17c: Latin, meaning 'breast'.

mamma[2] see under MAMA

mammal /ˈmaməl/ ▷ noun, zool any warm-blooded, vertebrate animal characterized by the possession in the female of MAMMARY GLANDs which secrete milk to feed its young, eg a human, monkey, whale, etc. ● mammalian /məmˈeɪlɪən/ adj relating to or typical of mammals. ◎ 19c: from scientific Latin mammalia of the breast, from Latin mamma breast.

mammary /ˈmamərɪ/ ▷ adj, biol, medicine belonging to, of the nature of, or relating to the breasts or other milk-producing glands. ◎ 17c: see MAMMA[1].

mammary gland ▷ noun, biol, anatomy, etc the milk-producing gland of a mammal, eg a woman's breast or a cow's udder.

mammies plural of MAMMY

mammilla, mammillae and mammillary the N Amer spelling of MAMILLA, etc mammography /maˈmɒgrəfɪ/ ▷ noun, medicine the process that involves an X-ray photograph of the breast (called a mammograph /ˈmaməgrɑːf/ or mammogram) being taken, usually in order to detect any abnormal or malignant growths at an early stage. ◎ 1930s.

mammon /ˈmamən/ ▷ noun, chiefly literary or Bible 1 wealth when considered as the source of evil and immorality. 2 (Mammon) the personification of this in the New Testament as a false god, the god of riches. ● mammonish adj devoted to gaining wealth. ● mammonism noun. ● mammonist or mammonite noun. ◎ 14c: from Greek mamonas or mammonas (as in the New Testament), from Aramaic mamon wealth, riches.

mammoth /ˈmaməθ/ ▷ noun any of various extinct shaggy-haired, prehistoric elephants, some of which had long curved tusks up to 4m long. ▷ adj huge; giant-sized □ It was a mammoth undertaking. ◎ 19c in adjectival sense; 18c: from Russian mammot or mamont.

mammy see under MAMA

Mamselle see under MADEMOISELLE

man ▷ noun (men) 1 an adult male human being. Opposite of WOMAN. Also as adj □ men friends □ man child. 2 in compounds a male person associated with a specified activity □ postman □ businessman. 3 in compounds a male person who was born in, or lives in, a specified country or place □ Yorkshireman. 4 human beings as a whole or as a genus (see HOMO[1]); the human race □ when man first walked the Earth. Also called MANKIND. 5 in compounds a any subspecies of, or type of creature belonging to, the human genus Homo □ Neanderthal man □ modern man; b an individual member of such a group; a hominid □ Java man. 6 a human being; a person □ the right man for the job □ Time waits for no man. Often in compounds □ manhunt □ man-made □ a two-man job. 7 a an ordinary employee, worker or member of the armed forces, as distinguished from a manager or officer □ The new boss gets on well with the men. Compare STAFF noun 1b; b) as adj □ man-hours. 8 an adult male human being displaying typical or expected masculine qualities, such as strength and courage □ Stand up and be a man □ He's a real man. 9 sport, etc a male member of a team, group, etc. 10 in various board games, eg draughts and chess: one of the movable pieces. 11 colloq a husband or boyfriend □ Her man left her. 12 colloq used as a form of address to an adult male, in various contexts, eg indicating impatience □ Damn it, man! □ Just get on with it, man. 13 old use any male servant, especially a valet. 14 colloq the perfect thing or person, especially for a specified job or purpose □ If you need a good mechanic, David's your man □ When you're feeling down, a pint of plain's your man. ▷ tr verb (manned, manning) 1 to provide (eg a ship, industrial plant, fortress, etc) with men, ie workers, operators, defenders, especially male ones. Also in compounds □ overmanning □ undermanned □ We are fully-manned today. 2 to operate (a piece of equipment, etc) or to make it ready for action □ man the pumps. ▷ exclamation, colloq, especially US used to intensify a statement that follows it □ Man, is she gorgeous! ● manful, manly see separate entries. ● manned adj said of a ship, machine, spacecraft, etc: provided with men, operators, crew, etc. ● mannish see separate entry. ● as one man simultaneously; all together. ● be one's own man to be independent, not relying on or controlled by anyone else. ● be someone's man to be exactly the person they are looking for to do a particular job □ You're my man. ● make a man of someone to cause him to acquire some or all of the stereotypical adult male qualities, such as strength, toughness, courage, self-sufficiency. ● man alive! chiefly US an expression of surprise. ● man and boy from childhood to manhood; for all of someone's life. ● man to man openly or frankly; as one man to another. ● sort out or separate the men from the boys colloq to serve as a test that will prove someone's ability, calibre, quality, etc or otherwise □ It's a climb that will surely separate the men from the boys. ● to a man slightly formal or old use without exception □ The board accepted my decision to a man. ● men in grey suits unseen establishment figures holding the ultimate power in an organization, political party, etc. ◎ Anglo-Saxon mann.

man-about-town ▷ noun (men-about-town) a fashionable, sophisticated, city-dwelling, socializing man.

manacle /ˈmanəkəl/ ▷ noun a handcuff; a shackle for the hand or wrist. Compare FETTER. ▷ verb (manacled, manacling) to handcuff someone; to restrain someone with manacles. ◎ 14c: French, from Latin manicula, from manus hand.

manage /ˈmanɪdʒ/ ▷ verb (managed, managing) 1 to be in overall control or charge of, or the manager of, something or someone □ She manages the financial side of the business. 2 to deal with something or handle it successfully or competently □ I can manage my own affairs □ I don't know how to manage his temper tantrums. 3 tr & intr to succeed in doing or producing something; to cope with it □ Can you manage the food if I organize the drink? □ It's very heavy; I hope you can manage to lift it □ Shall I help? No, I can manage. 4 to have, or to be able to find, enough room, time, etc for something □ Can you manage another sandwich? □ I won't manage the meeting tomorrow after all. 5 to handle (eg a tool or weapon) □ She manages a spoon quite well now. 6 to control (an animal). ● managing adj having executive control; administering □ managing editor. ◎ 16c: from Italian maneggiare to handle or train (a horse), from Latin manus hand.

■ manage on something to succeed in living on (a specified amount of money, etc) □ expected to manage on £50 a week.

manageable ▷ adj able to be managed or controlled, especially without much difficulty; governable. ● manageability or manageableness noun. ● manageably adverb.

managed fund ▷ noun, finance a UNIT-LINKED insurance or savings plan, etc invested by professional managers.

management ▷ noun 1 the skill or practice of controlling, directing or planning something, especially a commercial enterprise or activity. 2 the managers of a company, etc, as a group. 3 manner of directing, controlling or using something. ◷ 16c.

management accountant ▷ noun, business a COST-ACCOUNTANT who produces information on which managerial decisions are based. • management accounting noun.

management buyout ▷ noun, business the purchase of the majority of shares in a company by its own management so that they retain control of it, especially when a TAKEOVER by another company is imminent. ◷ 1970s.

management consultant ▷ noun a specialist, usually one employed on a freelance basis, who advises firms on the most efficient management methods and procedures applicable to their particular business or industry. • management consulting or management consultancy noun.

manager /ˈmanɪdʒə(r)/ ▷ noun (abbreviation Mgr) 1 someone who manages, especially someone in overall charge or control of a commercial enterprise, organization, project, etc. See also MANAGERESS. Compare DIRECTOR, MANAGING DIRECTOR. 2 in an industrial firm or business: someone who deals with administration and with the design and marketing, etc of the product, as opposed to its actual construction, production, etc. 3 someone who organizes other people's business affairs or activities, especially one who manages actors, musicians, sportsmen and sportswomen, or a particular team, etc. 4 someone legally appointed to manage a business or property, etc as RECEIVER. 5 in British parliamentary procedure: any of several members of both Houses who are appointed to deal with any business that involves the House of Lords and the House of Commons. • managerial /manɪˈdʒɪərɪəl/ adj belonging or relating to a manager or management. • managerially adverb. • managership noun.

manageress /manɪdʒəˈres/ ▷ noun (manageresses) sometimes considered offensive a female manager of a business, etc. Not usually used in official titles.

> manageress
>
> Like some other words in -ess, this is now commonly regarded as affected and condescending.

managing see under MANAGE managing director ▷ noun (abbreviation MD) a director in overall charge of an organization and its day-to-day running, often carrying out the decisions of a board of directors. N Amer equivalent CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER.

mañana or manana /manˈjɑːnə/ ▷ noun, adverb; colloq tomorrow; some unspecified time, or at some unspecified time, in the future; later. ◷ 19c: Spanish, meaning 'tomorrow'.

man-at-arms ▷ noun (men-at-arms) historical a soldier, especially a heavily-armed, mounted soldier.

manatee /manəˈtiː/ ▷ noun (manatees) a large plant-eating marine mammal of the tropical waters of America, Africa and the W Indies. Compare DUGONG. ◷ 16c: from Spanish manatí, from Carib (a West Indian language).

Mancunian /maŋˈkjuːnɪən, man-/ ▷ noun a citizen or inhabitant of, or person born in, the city of Manchester in NW England. ▷ adj belonging or relating to Manchester. ◷ Early 20c: from Latin Mancunium Manchester.

-mancy /mansɪ/ ▷ combining form, forming nouns, denoting divination by a specified method □ necromancy. • -mantic combining form, forming adjectives, denoting belonging or relating to a specified method of divination. ◷ From Greek manteia divination.

mandala /ˈmandələ, ˈmʌn-/ ▷ noun (mandalas) 1 Buddhism, Hinduism, relig art a circular symbol representing the Universe, usually a circle enclosing images of deities or geometric designs, used as an aid to meditation. 2 psychol in Jungian theory: a magical circular symbol that occurs in dreams, etc representing the wholeness of the self. ◷ 19c: Sanskrit, meaning 'disc or circle'.

mandamus /manˈdeɪməs/ ▷ noun (mandamuses) law a writ or COURT ORDER issued by a high court to a lower court, or to a tribunal, public official, etc, instructing it or them to perform a duty, especially one which it should have performed. ◷ 16c: Latin, meaning 'we command'.

mandarin /ˈmandərɪn/ ▷ noun 1 a (also mandarin orange) a small citrus fruit, similar to the tangerine, with deep orange skin that peels easily; b the tree that produces this fruit. 2 (Mandarin or Mandarin Chinese) a) the name given to the form of Chinese spoken in the north, centre and west of China; b) the official spoken language of China, based on the Beijing variety of this language. Compare PUTONGHUA. 3 a high-ranking official or bureaucrat, especially one who is thought to be outside political control □ at the mercy of the mandarins at Whitehall. 4 a person of great influence, especially a reactionary or pedantic literary figure. 5 historical a senior official belonging to any of the nine ranks of officials under the Chinese Empire. ◷ 16c in sense 1, probably referring to the colour of the skin, similar to that of a Chinese mandarin's robes; 16c in sense 5: from Portuguese mandarim, from Malay mantri counsellor.

mandarin collar and mandarin neck ▷ noun, dressmaking, fashion a high narrow stand-up collar which does not quite meet at the front ends. ◷ 1950s.

mandarin duck ▷ noun a crested Asiatic duck, with brightly-coloured, patterned plumage.

mandate /ˈmandeɪt/ ▷ noun 1 a right or authorization given to a nation, person, etc to act on behalf of others. 2 politics a legal authorization given to an MP or other elected official to act on behalf of other people; b permission to govern according to declared policies, considered to be given to a political party or leader by the electorate on the decisive outcome of an election. 3 finance a in banking: a form indicating that one customer may act on behalf of more than one □ joint account mandate; b in banking: a form to instruct an employer, company, etc to pay salary, dividends, etc into one's bank account; c in building societies: an instruction for the regular payment of a specified sum between accounts held by the society. 4 an order given by a superior official, judge, etc to an inferior one ordering them how to act □ papal mandate. 5 (also Mandate) historical a a territory administered by a country on behalf of the League of Nations. Also called mandated territory; b the power conferred on a country by the League of Nations to administer such a territory. ▷ verb (mandated, mandating) 1 to give authority or power to someone or something. 2 to assign (territory) to a nation under a mandate. ◷ 16c: from Latin mandatum a thing that is commanded, from mandare to command or charge.

mandatory /ˈmandətərɪ/ ▷ adj 1 not allowing any choice; compulsory. 2 referring to the nature of, or containing, a MANDATE or command.

man-day ▷ noun a unit of work equal to the work done by one person in one day.

Mandelbrot set /ˈmandəlbrɒt —/ ▷ noun a particular set of complex numbers important in fractal geometry and computer graphics. ◷ 20c: after Benoit B Mandelbrot (born 1924) Polish-born mathematician.

mandible /ˈmandɪbəl/ ▷ noun, zool 1 the lower jaw of a vertebrate. 2 the upper or lower part of a bird's beak. 3 one of a pair of jawlike mouthparts in insects, crustaceans, etc used for cutting food. See also JAW 1, JAWBONE. • mandibular /man'dɪbjʊlə(r)/ adj. ⓘ 18c: from Latin mandibula, from mandere to chew.

mandolin or mandoline /'mandəlɪn/ ▷ noun a musical instrument like a small guitar. The eight metal strings are tuned in pairs and usually played with a plectrum. • mandolinist noun. ⓘ 18c: from Italian mandolino, diminutive of mandora a three-stringed musical instrument.

mandrake /'mandreɪk/ ▷ noun 1 a Eurasian plant with purple flowers and a forked root, formerly thought to have magical powers. 2 the root of this plant, formerly used to make sleep-inducing drugs. ⓘ 14c: from Latin mandragora.

mandrel or mandril /'mandrəl/ ▷ noun, technical 1 the rotating shaft on a lathe that the object being worked on is fixed to. 2 the axle of a circular saw or grinding wheel. ⓘ 16c as manderelle in original sense 'a miner's pick': related to French mandrin lathe.

mandrill /'mandrɪl/ ▷ noun a large W African baboon with distinctive red and blue striped markings on its muzzle and hindquarters. ⓘ 18c: probably from MAN + DRILL[4].

mane ▷ noun 1 on a horse, lion or other animal: the long hair growing from and around the neck. 2 on a human: a long, thick head of hair. • maned adj (also in compounds) □ shaggy-maned. • maneless adj. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon manu.

-mane see -MANIAC.

man-eater ▷ noun (man-eaters) 1 a wild animal, such as a tiger or shark, that has acquired the habit of attacking, killing and eating people. 2 colloq a woman who pursues men energetically or voraciously. • man-eating adj. ⓘ 17c in original sense 'a cannibal'.

manège or manege /ma'neɪʒ/ ▷ noun, technical 1 a the skill or practice of training or handling horses; horsemanship; b the movements taught to a horse in this way. 2 a riding-school. ⓘ 17c: French, from Italian maneggiare (see MANAGE).

maneuver, maneuvered, etc the N Amer spellings of MANOEUVRE, etc.

man Friday ▷ noun (man Fridays) 1 a faithful or devoted manservant or male assistant. 2 a junior male worker given various duties, especially in an office. See also GIRL FRIDAY. ⓘ 19c: after Friday, the loyal native servant in the novel Robinson Crusoe (1719) by Daniel Defoe.

manful ▷ adj brave and determined; manly. • manfully adverb. • manfulness noun. ⓘ 14c.

manganese /'maŋgəniːz/ ▷ noun, chem (symbol Mn, atomic number 25) a hard brittle pinkish-grey metallic element, an essential TRACE ELEMENT for plants and animals which is also widely used to make alloys that are very hard and resistant to wear, eg in railways lines, etc. ⓘ 17c: from French manganèse, from Latin magnesia MAGNESIA.

mange /meɪndʒ/ ▷ noun, vet medicine a skin disease due to mites, that affects hairy animals such as cats and dogs, causing itching and loss of hair. See also MANGY. ⓘ 15c: from French mangeue itch.

mangel-wurzel /'maŋgəlwɜːzəl/ or (US) mangel ▷ noun a variety of beet with a large yellow root, used as cattle food. ⓘ 18c: from German Mangoldwurzel, from Mangold beet + Wurzel root.

manger /'meɪndʒə(r)/ ▷ noun, old use an open box or trough from which cattle or horses feed. ⓘ 14c: from French mangeoire, from mangier to eat.

mangetout /mɒndʒ'tuː, mɑ̃ʒ-/ and mangetout pea ▷ noun a variety of garden pea of which the whole pod, containing the peas, is eaten. See also sugar pea. ⓘ 1920s: from French mange tout, literally 'eat-all'.

mangey, mangier, etc see under MANGY.

mangle[1] /'maŋgəl/ ▷ verb (mangled, mangling) 1 to damage or destroy something or someone by cutting, crushing, tearing, etc. 2 to spoil, ruin or bungle something □ He mangled his opening lines. • mangled adj. • mangler noun. ⓘ 15c: from French mangler, probably from mahaignier to maim.

mangle[2] /'maŋgəl/ ▷ noun 1 dated a device, usually hand-operated, that consists of two large heavy rotating rollers which have wet laundry fed between them in order to squeeze most of the water out. Also called WRINGER. 2 especially US a machine that presses laundry by passing it between two large heated rollers. ▷ verb (mangled, mangling) to pass (laundry, etc) through a mangle. ⓘ 18c: from Dutch mangel, ultimately from Greek manganon a type of war machine.

mango /'maŋgoʊ/ ▷ noun (mangos or mangoes) 1 a heavy oblong fruit with a central stone surrounded by sweet, soft juicy orange flesh and a thick, green, yellow or red skin. 2 the large evergreen tropical tree that produces this fruit. ⓘ 16c: from Portuguese manga, from Malay mangga, from Tamil man-kay mango-fruit.

mangosteen /'maŋgəstiːn/ ▷ noun 1 a fruit, shaped like an orange, with thick dark brown rind and juicy rose-coloured flesh. 2 the East Indian tree that produces this fruit. ⓘ 16c: from Malay manggustan.

mangrove /'maŋgroʊv/ ▷ noun any of several tropical and subtropical evergreen trees that grow in salt marshes and on mudflats, along tropical coasts and in tidal estuaries, producing aerial roots from their branches that form a dense tangled network. ⓘ 17c.

mangy or mangey /'meɪndʒɪ/ ▷ adj (mangier, mangiest) 1 vet medicine a said of an animal: suffering from MANGE; b caused by or relating to mange. 2 derog shabby; dirty and scruffy. • mangily adverb. • manginess noun.

manhandle ▷ verb 1 to treat someone or something roughly; to push, shove or use force to move them or it. 2 to move or transport something using manpower, not machinery. ⓘ 19c: 15c in obsolete sense 'to handle a tool'.

Manhattan /man'hatən/ ▷ noun a cocktail consisting of vermouth, whisky, a dash of Angostura bitters and sometimes curaçao or maraschino. ⓘ 19c: named after Manhattan, the island and borough of New York City.

manhole ▷ noun an opening large enough to allow a person through, especially one in a road that leads down into a sewer.

manhood ▷ noun 1 the state of being an adult male. 2 manly qualities. 3 men collectively.

man-hour ▷ noun (man-hours) a unit of work equal to the work done by one person in one hour.

manhunt ▷ noun an intensive and usually large-scale organized search for someone, especially a criminal or fugitive.

mania /'meɪnɪə/ ▷ noun (manias) 1 psychol a a mental disorder characterized by great excitement or euphoria, rapid and incoherent thought and speech, hyperactivity, grandiose delusions and domineering behaviour which may become violent; b the elated phase of MANIC-DEPRESSIVE disorders. 2 loosely (especially a mania for something) a great desire or enthusiasm for it; a craze or obsession. ⓘ 14c: Latin, from Greek, from mainomai to be mad.

-mania ▷ combining form, forming nouns, denoting 1 psychol an abnormal, uncontrollable or obsessive desire for a specified thing or of a specified kind □ kleptomania □ egomania. 2 a great desire or enthusiasm for a specified thing; a craze □ technomania □ bibliomania.

maniac /'meɪnɪak/ ▷ noun 1 colloq a person who behaves wildly □ He is a maniac on the road. 2 an extremely keen enthusiast □ a video maniac. 3 psychol, old use someone suffering from MANIA (sense 1a); a lunatic or madman. ▷ adj (also maniacal) 1 affected by or relating to MANIA (sense 1 or 2). 2 behaving like or characteristic of a maniac. 3 in compounds someone affected by an uncontrollable desire for, or with great enthusiasm for, a specified thing □ pyromaniac. • maniacally adverb. ⓘ 17c.

manic /ˈmanɪk/ ▷ adj 1 psychol characteristic of, relating to or suffering from MANIA (noun 1). 2 colloq very energetic or active. • manically adverb. ⓘ Early 20c.

manic-depressive psychiatry ▷ adj affected by or suffering from manic-depressive psychosis or manic depression, an illness which produces alternating phases of extreme elation (MANIA 1b) and severe depression. ▷ noun someone who is suffering from this kind of depression.

manicure /ˈmanɪkjʊə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 the care and cosmetic treatment of the hands, especially the fingernails, usually carried out by a trained professional or manicurist. 2 an individual treatment of this kind. Compare PEDICURE. ▷ verb (manicured, manicuring) to carry out a manicure on (a person or their hands) □ She manicures customers all day □ She manicured his fingernails. ⓘ 19c: from Latin manus hand + cura care.

manifest /ˈmanɪfest/ ▷ verb (manifested, manifesting) formal 1 to show or display something clearly □ a patient manifesting all the classic symptoms. 2 (usually manifest itself) to reveal or declare itself □ His frustration manifested itself in an uncharacteristic, angry outburst. 3 to be evidence or proof of something □ an act which manifested his sincerity. ▷ adj 1 easily seen or perceived; obvious □ a manifest lie. 2 psychol said of the content of a dream: that is remembered by the dreamer on waking. Opposite of LATENT. ▷ noun 1 a customs document that gives details of a ship or aircraft, its cargo and its destination. 2 a passenger list, for an aeroplane, etc. • manifestable adj. • manifestly adverb obviously; undoubtedly. ⓘ 14c: from Latin manifestare, from manifestus clearly visible or evident.

manifestation /manɪfɛˈsteɪʃən, manɪfəˈsteɪʃən/ ▷ noun 1 the showing of something publicly; display or demonstration. 2 the act or process of making something manifest, especially of revealing something that is secret, hidden or obscure. 3 an apparition or ghost, etc.

manifesto /manɪˈfɛstoʊ/ ▷ noun (manifestos or manifestoes) a written public declaration of policies, intentions, opinions or motives, especially one produced by a political party or candidate. ⓘ 17c, originally meaning 'a piece of evidence': Italian, from Latin manifestare to MANIFEST.

manifold /ˈmanɪfoʊld/ ▷ adj, formal or literary 1 many and various; of many different kinds □ manifold pleasures. 2 having many different features or functions. ▷ noun 1 (also manifold pipe) technical a pipe with several inlets and outlets. 2 formal something with many different forms, features or functions. • manifoldly adverb. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon manigfeald; see MANY + -FOLD.

manikin or mannikin /ˈmanɪkɪn/ ▷ noun 1 a model of the human body, used in teaching art and anatomy, etc. 2 old use an abnormally small person; a dwarf. Compare MANNEQUIN. ⓘ 16c: Dutch, double diminutive of man MAN.

manila or manilla /məˈnɪlə/ ▷ noun (plural manilas or manillas used only in sense 2) 1 (also manila paper or manilla paper) a type of thick strong brown paper, originally made from MANILA HEMP, that is used especially for wrapping. Also as adj □ manila envelope. 2 a type small cigar or CHEROOT. ⓘ 19c: originally made in the city of Manila in the Philippines.

Manila hemp ▷ noun the fibre of the ABACA.

the man in the moon ▷ noun the features of a man's face which can be seen on the surface of the Moon as it is viewed from Earth.

the man in the street ▷ noun the ordinary, typical or average man. Compare JOE BLOGGS.

manioc /ˈmanɪɒk/ ▷ noun CASSAVA. ⓘ 16c: from Tupi mandioca, the name for the roots of the plant.

manipulate /məˈnɪpjʊleɪt/ ▷ verb (manipulated, manipulating) 1 to handle something, or move or work it with the hands, especially in a skilful way. 2 to control or influence someone or something cleverly and unscrupulously, especially to one's own advantage. 3 to give false appearance to something, change its character, etc □ manipulating the statistics to suit his argument. 4 to apply therapeutic treatment with the hands to (a part of the body). 5 word processing to move, edit or alter (data, files, blocks of text, etc). • manipulable or manipulatable adj. • manipulation noun. • manipulative or manipulatory adj said of a person: given to or skilled in manipulating or exploiting people or circumstances. • manipulator noun a person or device that manipulates. ⓘ 19c: a back-formation from 18c manipulation, ultimately from Latin manipulus handful, from manus hand + plere to fill.

man jack ▷ noun, colloq (usually every man jack) an individual person.

mankind /manˈkaɪnd, maŋ-/ ▷ noun 1 the human race as a whole; human beings collectively. 2 (usually /ˈmankaɪnd/) human males collectively. Opposite of WOMANKIND.

manky /ˈmaŋkɪ/ ▷ adj (mankier, mankiest) colloq or dialect 1 dirty. 2 of poor quality; shoddy; rotten. ⓘ 1950s: from obsolete Scots mank defective, from French manc.

manly ▷ adj (manlier, manliest) 1 displaying qualities considered admirable in a man, such as strength, determination, courage, etc. 2 considered suitable for or characteristic of a man. See also MANNISH, WOMANISH. • manliness noun.

man-made ▷ adj 1 said of fibre or fabric, etc: artificial or synthetic, not natural or naturally produced. 2 made by or originated by humans.

man-management ▷ noun, business the organization of the work of members of staff.

manna /ˈmanə/ ▷ noun 1 in the Old Testament: the food miraculously provided by God for the Israelites in the wilderness (Exodus 16.14–36). 2 any unexpected gift or windfall □ manna from heaven. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon: from Latin, perhaps ultimately from Hebrew man a gift, or man hu 'What is it?'

manned see under MAN.

mannequin /ˈmanəkɪn/ ▷ noun 1 a fashion model, especially a woman, employed to model clothes, etc. 2 a life-size dummy of the human body, used in the making or displaying of clothes. Compare MANIKIN. ⓘ 18c: French, from Dutch manneken; see MANIKIN.

manner /ˈmanə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 way; fashion □ Don't speak to him in that manner □ an unusual manner of walking. 2 (often manners) behaviour towards others □ has a very pleasant manner. 3 (manners) good or polite social behaviour □ She has no manners □ table manners. 4 formal or dated kind or kinds □ all manner of things □ What manner of man is he? 5 style; character □ dressed in the Chinese manner. • mannerless adj. • by no manner of means or not by any manner of means under no circumstances; certainly not. • in a manner of speaking or in a manner in a way; to some degree; so to speak. • to the manner born said of a person: accustomed since birth to a particular occupation, activity, lifestyle, etc. ⓘ 12c: from French maniere, from Latin manuarius of the hand.

mannered ▷ adj, formal 1 usually derog unnatural and artificial; affected. 2 in compounds having or displaying a specified kind of social behaviour □ bad-mannered □ sweet-mannered.

mannerism ▷ noun 1 an individual characteristic, such as a gesture or facial expression. 2 derog especially in art or literature: noticeable or excessive use of an individual or mannered style. 3 (often Mannerism) in art and architecture: a style prevalent in France, Spain, and especially 16c Italy, characterized by the playful use of Classical elements and trompe l'oeil effects in bizarre or dramatic compositions, often with the human body represented in an idealized rather than a natural form. ● mannerist noun. ● manneristic adj. ● manneristically adverb.

mannerly ▷ adj, old use polite; showing good manners. ● mannerliness noun.

mannikin same as MANIKIN

manning see under MAN

mannish /'manɪʃ/ ▷ adj 1 said of a woman or child: having an appearance or qualities regarded as more typical of a man. 2 masculine; like or belonging to a man. ● mannishness noun.

manoeuvre or (N Amer) maneuver /mə'nuːvə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 a movement requiring, or performed with, skill or intelligence, eg one carried out by the driver of a vehicle or pilot of an aircraft. 2 a clever or skilful handling of affairs, often one involving deception or inventiveness. 3 military, navy a (usually manoeuvres) a large-scale battle-training exercise by armed forces; b a skilful or clever tactical movement of troops or ships, etc. ▷ verb (manoeuvred, manoeuvring) 1 tr & intr to move something accurately and with skill □ manoeuvred the car into the space. 2 tr & intr to use ingenuity, and perhaps deceit, in handling something or someone. 3 intr to carry out military exercises. 4 tr & intr to change the position of (troops or ships, etc). ● manoeuvrability noun. ● manoeuvrable adj. ● manoeuvrer noun. ⓘ 15c in obsolete sense 'hand-work': French, from Latin manu by hand + opera work.

man of God ▷ noun 1 a saint or holy man. 2 (also man of the cloth) a clergyman.

man of letters ▷ noun 1 a scholar. 2 an author.

man of straw ▷ noun 1 someone who is weak or of no substance, especially in financial terms. 2 a bogus or imaginary opponent, claim, allegation, etc set up for the sake of argument.

man of the moment ▷ noun especially in politics, etc: 1 the man who is dealing with, or is best able to deal with, the present situation. 2 someone, especially a man, who is most favoured at a particular time.

man of the world and woman of the world ▷ noun someone who is mature and widely experienced.

man-of-war or man-o'-war ▷ noun, historical an armed sailing ship used as a warship.

manometer /mə'nɒmɪtə(r)/ ▷ noun, physics an instrument for measuring the difference in pressure between two fluids (liquids or gases). ● manometric /manə'metrɪk/ adj. ● manometry /mə'nɒmɪtrɪ/ noun. ⓘ 18c: from French manomètre, from Greek manos rare or thin.

manor /'manə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 (also manor-house) the principal residence on a country estate, often the former home of a medieval lord. 2 historical in medieval Europe: an area of land under the control of a lord. 3 Brit colloq the area in which a particular person or group, especially a police unit or a criminal, operates. ● manorial /mə'nɔːrɪəl/ adj. ⓘ 13c: from French manoir, from Latin manere to stay.

manpower ▷ noun 1 the number of available employees or people fit and ready to work. 2 human effort or energy, as opposed to mechanical power.

manqué /'mɒŋkeɪ; French mɑ̃ke/ ▷ adj, following its noun, literary applied to a specified kind of person: having once had the ambition or potential to be that kind of person, without achieving it; unfulfilled □ an artist manqué. ⓘ 18c: French, meaning 'having missed'.

mansard /'mansɑːd/ ▷ noun, archit (in full mansard roof) a four-sided roof, each side of which is in two parts, the lower part sloping more steeply. ⓘ 18c: from French mansarde, named after François Mansart (1598–1666), French architect.

manse /mans/ ▷ noun especially in Scotland: the house of a religious minister. ⓘ 15c in obsolete sense 'mansion house': from Latin mansus dwelling.

manservant ▷ noun (menservants) old use a male servant, especially a valet. See also MAIDSERVANT.

mansion /'manʃən/ ▷ noun 1 a large house, usually a grand or luxurious one. 2 (mansions or Mansions) Brit used eg as the name or address of a residential property: a large building divided into luxury apartments □ Belgravia Mansions. 3 now rare a manor-house. ⓘ 14c in obsolete sense 'a dwelling place': French, from Latin mansio remaining.

man-sized and man-size ▷ adj 1 said eg of a task: suitable for a man; requiring, or appropriate for, a man. 2 colloq big.

manslaughter ▷ noun 1 law the crime of HOMICIDE without MALICE AFORETHOUGHT, eg as a result of gross negligence, provocation or diminished responsibility. Scots equivalent CULPABLE HOMICIDE. Compare MURDER. 2 old use the killing of a person by another. ⓘ 14c.

manta /'mantə/ and manta ray ▷ noun (mantas or manta rays) a type of fish, a giant RAY², that may exceed 9m (30ft) in width and 2 tonnes in weight, with a broad mouth situated across the front of the head. ⓘ 18c: Spanish, meaning 'cloak' or 'blanket'.

mantel /'mantəl/ ▷ noun, chiefly old use a mantelpiece or mantelshelf. ⓘ 18c: related to MANTLE.

mantelpiece ▷ noun the ornamental frame around a fireplace, especially the top part which forms a shelf.

mantelshelf ▷ noun the shelf part of a mantelpiece, over a fireplace.

mantilla /man'tɪlə; Spanish man'tiːja/ ▷ noun (mantillas) 1 a lace or silk scarf worn by women as a covering for the hair and shoulders, especially in Spain and S America. 2 a short lightweight cape or cloak. ⓘ 18c: Spanish, diminutive of manta a cloak.

mantis /'mantɪs/ ▷ noun (mantises or mantes /-tiːz/) any of numerous mainly tropical insect-eating insects that have long bodies, large eyes and a tendency to sit in wait for prey with their two spikey front legs raised. Also called praying mantis. ⓘ 17c: Latin, from Greek mantis a prophet (because it looks as though it is praying).

mantissa /man'tɪsə/ ▷ noun (mantissas) math the part of a logarithm comprising the decimal point and the figures following it. See also CHARACTERISTIC (noun 2). ⓘ 17c: Latin, 'something added'.

mantle /'mantəl/ ▷ noun 1 a cloak or loose outer garment. 2 literary a covering □ a mantle of snow. 3 geol the part of the Earth between the crust and the core. 4 a fireproof mesh around a gas or oil lamp, that glows when the lamp is lit. 5 literary a position of responsibility □ The leader's mantle passed to him. 6 a fold of the external skin of a mollusc, etc that secretes the substance which forms the shell. ▷ verb (mantled, mantling) literary to cover, conceal or obscure something or someone □ mantled in darkness. ⓘ 13c: from Latin mantellum, diminutive of mantum a cloak.

man-to-man ▷ adj said especially of personal discussion: open and frank. ▷ adverb in an open and frank manner; honestly.

mantra /'mantrə/ ▷ noun (mantras) 1 a Hinduism, Buddhism a sacred phrase, word or sound chanted repeatedly as part of meditation and prayer, as an aid to concentration and the development of spiritual power; b a word, sound or group of sounds repeated, often inwardly, as an aid to concentration when meditating. 2 Hinduism any of the hymns of praise in the Vedas (see VEDA), the ancient sacred scriptures. ⓘ 19c: Sanskrit, meaning 'instrument of thought'.

mantrap ▷ noun 1 a trap or snare for catching trespassers, poachers, etc. 2 any source of potential danger.

manual /ˈmanjʊəl/ ▷ adj 1 belonging or relating to the hand or hands ▫ a job requiring manual skill. 2 using the body, rather than the mind; physical. 3 worked, controlled or operated by hand; not automatic or computer-operated, etc. ▷ noun 1 a book of instructions, eg for repairing a car or operating a machine. Also called HANDBOOK. 2 an organ keyboard or a key played by hand not by foot. 3 military drill in the use of weapons, etc. • manually adverb. ⓘ 15c: from Latin manualis, from manus hand.

manufacture /manjʊˈfaktʃə(r)/ ▷ verb (manufactured, manufacturing) 1 to make something from raw materials, especially in large quantities using machinery. 2 to invent or fabricate something. 3 derog to produce something in a mechanical fashion. ▷ noun 1 the practice, act or process of manufacturing something. 2 anything manufactured. • manufacturer noun 1 a person or business that manufactures a product, etc. 2 a director or manager of a firm that manufactures goods. 3 a person who makes, fabricates or invents something. • manufacturing adj, noun. ⓘ 16c: French, from Latin manu by hand + facere to make.

manuka /ˈmɑːnʊkɑː/ ▷ noun (manukas) an Australian and New Zealand tree of the myrtle family with hard wood and aromatic leaves. ⓘ 19c: Maori.

manumit /manjʊˈmɪt/ ▷ verb (manumitted, manumitting) formal to release (a person) from slavery; to set someone free. • manumission noun. • manumitter noun. ⓘ 15c: from Latin manumittere to send from one's hand or control, from manus hand + mittere to send.

manure /məˈnjʊə(r)/ ▷ noun any substance, especially animal dung, used on soil as a fertilizer. ▷ verb (manured, manuring) to apply manure to (land, soil, etc); to enrich (soil) with a fertilizing substance. • manurer noun. • manuring noun. ⓘ 15c in obsolete verb senses 'to manage or cultivate (land)': from French maynoverer to work with the hands.

manuscript /ˈmanjʊskrɪpt/ ▷ noun (abbreviation MS or ms.) 1 an author's handwritten or typed version of a book, play, etc before it has been printed. 2 a book or document written by hand. ▷ adj written by hand or typed, not printed ▫ some rare manuscript poems. ⓘ 16c: from Latin manuscriptus written by hand, from manu by hand + scribere to write.

Manx /maŋks/ ▷ adj 1 belonging or relating to the Isle of Man, a British Crown Dependency in the Irish Sea, its inhabitants, or their language. 2 (the Manx) the people of the Isle of Man; Manxmen and Manxwomen collectively (see THE 4b). ▷ noun an almost extinct Celtic language that was formerly widely spoken on the Isle of Man. ⓘ 16c: from Manisk Man-ish.

Manx cat ▷ noun a short-haired, tailless domestic cat of a breed originally from the Isle of Man.

Manxman and Manxwoman ▷ noun a man or woman born on or living in the Isle of Man.

many /ˈmenɪ/ ▷ adj (comparative more, superlative most) 1 (sometimes a great many or good many) consisting of a large number; numerous ▫ Many teenagers smoke ▫ had to stop a good many times to rest. 2 (the many) the majority or the crowd; ordinary people, not nobility or royalty. ▷ pronoun a great number (of people or things) ▫ The sweets were so rich that I couldn't eat many. See also MORE, MOST. • as many the same number (of something) ▫ She hasn't as many friends as you ▫ I don't want as many. • have one too many colloq to drink to excess. • how many? how great a number? ▫ How many people are coming? • many a, an or another as or being one of a number of (a specified thing) ▫ many a man ▫ spent many a happy hour there. • many's the time colloq on a great many occasions ▫ Many's the time I found her crying. • too many too great a number (of something); more than required ▫ There are too many people in here. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon manig.

many-sided ▷ adj 1 said of an argument, viewpoint, etc: having many qualities or aspects. 2 said of a person: having many interests or varied abilities.

manzanilla /manzəˈnɪlə, -ˈniːljə/ ▷ noun (manzanillas) a very dry, light, pale sherry with a comparatively low alcohol content. ⓘ 19c: Spanish, diminutive of manzana apple, also meaning CAMOMILE.

Maoism /ˈmaʊɪzəm/ ▷ noun, politics the policies and theories of Mao Zedong (or Mao Tse-tung) (1893–1976), the first leader of Communist China. • Maoist noun a follower of Chinese communism as expounded by Mao Zedong. ▷ adj relating to or characteristic of Maoism or a MAOIST. ⓘ 1950s.

Mao jacket and Mao suit ▷ noun a jacket or suit, especially one made of grey or blue cotton, in the simple style of those worn by Mao Zedong and his followers.

Maori /ˈmaʊərɪ/ ▷ noun (Maori or Maoris) 1 a member of the aboriginal Polynesian people of New Zealand. 2 the language of this people, belonging to the AUSTRONESIAN family of languages. ▷ adj belonging or relating to this people or their language. ⓘ 19c: a native name.

map ▷ noun 1 a diagram of any part of the earth's surface, showing geographical and other features, eg the position of towns and roads. See also CARTOGRAPHY. 2 a similar diagram of the surface of the Moon or a planet. 3 a diagram showing the position of the stars in the sky. 4 a diagram of the layout of anything, eg one that describes a particular sequence of genes in a chromosome. ▷ verb (mapped, mapping) 1 to make a map of something. 2 math to place (the elements of a SET² (noun 2)) in one-to-one correspondence with the elements of another set. • mapper noun someone or something that maps or makes maps. • mappable adj. • mapping noun, chiefly math. • off the map 1 said of a location: away from all main routes or roads, etc. 2 colloq out of existence; no longer significant. • put something or someone on the map colloq to cause (eg a town, an actor, a trend, etc) to become well-known or important. ⓘ 16c: from Latin mappa a napkin or painted cloth.

▪ map something out to plan (a route, course of action, etc) in detail ▫ She seems to have her whole life mapped out.

maple /ˈmeɪpəl/ ▷ noun 1 (also maple tree) any of various broad-leaved deciduous trees of northern regions whose seeds float by means of winglike growths. 2 the hard light-coloured wood of these trees, used to make furniture, etc. Also as adj ▫ maple leaf. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon mapul.

maple leaf ▷ noun the leaf of a maple tree, especially as the national emblem of Canada.

maple syrup ▷ noun, especially N Amer the distinctively flavoured syrup made from the sap of the sugar maple tree.

map-reading ▷ noun the practice, act, process or skill of interpreting what is on a geographical map, especially in order to direct or plan a route, journey, etc. • map-reader noun.

maquette /maˈket/ ▷ noun a small model of something to be made on a larger scale, especially a clay, wax or plaster model made by a sculptor as a preliminary study for a full-size work.

maquillage /makiˈjɑːʒ/ ▷ noun 1 cosmetics; make-up. 2 the art of applying cosmetics to one's face. ⓘ 19c: from French maquiller to put on make-up.

maquis /mɑːˈkiː, ˈmɑːkiː/ ▷ noun (plural maquis) 1 a type of thick, shrubby vegetation found in coastal areas of the Mediterranean. 2 (the maquis or the Maquis) historical a the French resistance movement that fought against German occupying forces during World War II; b a member of this movement. ⓘ 1940s in sense 2, from the idea of the thick vegetation providing cover for resistance members hiding in the hills; 19c: French, from Italian macchia thicket.

Mar. ▷ abbreviation March.

mar /mɑː(r)/ ▷ verb (marred, marring) 1 to spoil something □ The flavour was marred by too much vinegar. 2 to injure or damage something □ The landscape was marred by ugly pylons. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon merran.

marabou or marabout /ˈmarabuː/ or ▷ noun (plural in sense 1 only marabous or marabouts) 1 a large black-and-white African stork. 2 its feathers, used to decorate clothes, trim hats, etc. ⓘ 19c: French, from Arabic murabit a hermit or holy man; the stork is considered holy in Islam.

maraca /məˈrakə/ ▷ noun (maracas) 1 originally and especially in Latin America: a hand-held percussion instrument, usually one of a pair, consisting of a gourd or similar hollow shell filled with dried beans, pebbles, etc which make a rattling noise when shaken. 2 (maracas) US colloq female breasts. ⓘ 19c: from Portuguese maracá.

maraschino /marəˈʃiːnoʊ, -ˈskiːnoʊ/ ▷ noun a liqueur made from cherries, with a taste like bitter almonds. ⓘ 18c: Italian, from amarasca a sour cherry, from Latin amarus bitter.

maraschino cherry ▷ noun a cherry preserved in MARASCHINO or something similar, used for decorating cocktails, cakes, etc.

marathon /ˈmarəθən/ ▷ noun 1 (sometimes marathon race) a long-distance race on foot, usually 42.195km (26mi 385yd). 2 any lengthy and difficult task. ▷ adj 1 belonging or relating to a marathon race. 2 requiring or displaying great powers of endurance or stamina □ a marathon effort. ⓘ 19c: named after Marathon in Greece, from where a messenger is said to have run to Athens with news of victory over the Persians in 490 BC; the length of the race is based on this distance.

maraud /məˈrɔːd/ ▷ verb (marauded, marauding) 1 intr to wander in search of people to attack and property to steal or destroy. 2 to plunder (a place). ● marauder noun. ● marauding adj, noun. ⓘ 16c: from French marauder to prowl, from maraud a rogue.

marble /ˈmɑːbəl/ ▷ noun 1 a geol a hard, metamorphic rock formed of recrystallized limestone or dolomite, white when pure but usually mottled or streaked; b any such rock that can be highly polished, used in building and sculpture. 2 in children's games: a small hard ball, now usually made of glass, but originally made of marble. See also MARBLES. 3 a work of art, tombstone, tomb, slab or other object made of marble. ▷ verb (marbled, marbling) to stain, vein or paint something (especially paper) to resemble marble. ● marbled adj 1 mottled, or having irregular streaks of different colours, like marble. 2 made with or of marble □ marbled halls. ● marbling noun 1 a marbled appearance or colouring, eg in meat with streaks of fat. 2 the practice or act of streaking, veining or painting (especially the endpapers or edges of a book) in imitation of marble. ● marbly adj. ⓘ 13c as marbre: French, from Latin marmor, from Greek marmaros, from marmairein to sparkle.

marbles ▷ singular noun any of several children's games played with marbles. See MARBLE (noun 2). ● have all one's marbles or lose one's marbles to be in full possession of, or to lack, one's mental faculties.

marbling see under MARBLE[2]

marc /mɑːk/ ▷ noun 1 technical the leftover skins and stems of grapes used in winemaking. 2 a kind of brandy made from these. ⓘ 17c: French, from marcher to trample.

marcasite /ˈmɑːkəsaɪt/ ▷ noun 1 geol a pale yellow mineral, a compound of iron, formerly used in jewellery and now mined for use in the manufacture of sulphuric acid. 2 a polished gemstone made from this or any similar mineral. ⓘ 15c: from Latin marcasita, from Arabic marqashita.

marcato /mɑːˈkɑːtoʊ/ music ▷ adverb in an emphatic or strongly-accented manner. ▷ adj emphatic; strongly accented. ⓘ 19c: Italian, meaning 'marked'.

March /mɑːtʃ/ ▷ noun the third month of the year, which follows February and comes before April, and has 31 days. ⓘ 13c: from French Marche, from Latin Martius belonging to Mars, the Roman god of war.

march[1] /mɑːtʃ/ ▷ verb (marches, marched, marching) 1 intr to walk in a stiff, upright, formal manner, usually at a brisk pace and in step with others. 2 to make or force someone, especially a soldier or troop of soldiers, to walk in this way. 3 intr to walk in a purposeful and determined way □ suddenly marched out of the room. 4 intr to advance or continue, steadily or irresistibly □ events marched on. ▷ noun (marches) 1 an act of marching. 2 a distance travelled by marching. 3 a brisk walking pace. 4 a procession of people moving steadily forward. 5 music a piece of music written in a marching rhythm. 6 steady and unstoppable progress or movement □ the march of time. ● marcher noun 1 someone who marches. 2 someone who takes part in a march. ● steal a march on someone see under STEAL. ● on the march said of an army, etc: marching; advancing. ⓘ 16c: from French marcher to walk.

march[2] /mɑːtʃ/ ▷ noun 1 a boundary or border. 2 a border district, especially (the Marches) those around the English–Welsh and English–Scottish borders, which were fought over continuously from the 13c to the 16c. ⓘ 13c: from French marche, related to MARK[1].

March hare ▷ noun a hare during its breeding season in March 15c: used as a proverbial example of madness because of its excitable and erratic behaviour □ mad as a March hare. 2 literary one of the mad characters encountered by Alice in the children's book Alice's Adventures in Wonderland (1865) by Lewis Carroll.

marching orders ▷ plural noun 1 orders to march in a certain way, given to soldiers, etc. 2 colloq dismissal from a job, house, relationship, etc □ The boss gave him his marching orders on the spot. N Amer equivalent WALKING PAPERS.

marchioness /ˈmɑːʃənəs, -nes/ ▷ noun 1 the wife or widow of a MARQUIS. 2 a woman who holds the rank of marquis in her own right. ⓘ 16c: from Latin marchionissa, from marchio marquis.

march past ▷ noun, military a march performed by a body of troops, etc in front of a person, eg the sovereign or a senior officer, who reviews it.

Mardi Gras /ˈmɑːdɪ grɑː; French mardigʀa/ ▷ noun 1 SHROVE TUESDAY, a day celebrated with a festival in some places, especially famously in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. 2 the festival held on this day. ⓘ 17c: French, literally 'fat Tuesday'.

mare[1] /meə(r)/ ▷ noun an adult female horse, ass, zebra, etc. See also STALLION, FOAL. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon mere.

mare[2] /ˈmɑːreɪ, ˈmɑːr-/ ▷ noun (maria /-rɪə/) astron any of numerous large, flat areas on the surface of the Moon or Mars, seen from Earth as dark patches and originally thought to be seas. ⓘ 19c: Latin, meaning 'sea'.

mare's nest ▷ noun 1 a discovery that proves to be untrue or without value; a hoax. 2 chiefly US a disordered or confused place or situation.

marg or marge /mɑːdʒ/ ▷ contraction, colloq margarine.

margarine /mɑːdʒəˈriːn, ˈmɑːgəriːn/ ▷ noun a food product, usually made from vegetable oils with water, flavourings, colourings, vitamins, etc, that is used as a substitute for butter. Also (US) called OLEO, OLEOMARGARINE. ⓘ 1870s: French, from Greek margaron pearl.

margarita /mɑːɡəˈriːtə/ ▷ noun (margaritas) a cocktail made with tequila, lemon or lime juice, and an orange-flavoured liqueur, often served with salt around the top of the glass. ⓘ 1960s: from the Spanish personal name Margarita.

margin /ˈmɑːdʒɪn/ ▷ noun 1 the blank space around a page of writing or print. 2 any edge, border or fringe. 3 an extra amount, eg of time or money, beyond what should strictly be needed □ allow a margin for error. 4 an amount by which one thing exceeds another □ win by a large margin. 5 business the difference between the selling and buying price of an item; profit. 6 econ, etc an upper or lower limit, especially one beyond which it is impossible for a business, etc to exist or operate. 7 finance a deposit to protect a broker against loss. ● margined adj provided with a margin; having a border. ⓘ 14c: from Latin margo, marginis a border.

marginal ▷ adj 1 small and unimportant or insignificant. 2 near to the lower limit; barely sufficient. 3 chiefly Brit said of a political constituency: whose current MP or other representative was elected by only a small majority of votes at the last election. 4 said of a note, mark, design, etc: appearing in the margin of a page of text. 5 in, on, belonging or relating to a margin. ▷ noun, chiefly Brit a marginal constituency or seat. Compare SAFE SEAT. ● marginality noun. ● marginally adverb.

marginal cost ▷ noun, business, econ the cost to a firm of producing one extra unit of output. See also FIXED COSTS.

marginalia /mɑːdʒɪˈneɪlɪə/ ▷ plural noun notes written in the margin or margins of a page, book, etc. Also called marginal notes. ⓘ 19c: from Latin marginalis marginal.

marginalize or marginalise /ˈmɑːdʒɪnəlaɪz/ ▷ verb (marginalized, marginalizing) to push something or someone to the edges of anything (especially of society or one's consciousness), in order to reduce its or their effect, relevance, significance, etc. ● marginalization noun. ⓘ 1970s.

marginate /ˈmɑːdʒɪneɪt/ ▷ verb (marginated, marginating) to provide something with a margin or margins. ▷ adj (also marginated) biol, etc having a well-marked border or margin. ● margination noun. ⓘ 17c.

marguerite /mɑːɡəˈriːt/ ▷ noun a garden plant, such as the oxeye daisy, whose large flowers have pale yellow or white petals round a yellow centre. ⓘ 19c: French, meaning 'daisy', from Latin margarita a pearl.

maria plural of MARE[2]

marigold /ˈmarɪɡoʊld/ ▷ noun a garden plant with bright orange or yellow flowers and strongly-scented leaves. See also MARSH MARIGOLD. ⓘ 14c: from Mary (the Virgin Mary) + gold, an obsolete name for the plant.

marijuana or marihuana /marɪˈwɑːnə/ ▷ noun CANNABIS.

marimba /məˈrɪmbə/ ▷ noun (marimbas) music a type of XYLOPHONE, originally from Africa, consisting of a set of hardwood strips which, when struck with hammers, vibrate metal plates underneath to produce a musical sound. ⓘ 18c: from Kongo, a W African language.

marina /məˈriːnə/ ▷ noun (marinas) a harbour for berthing private pleasure boats, usually with associated facilities provided. ⓘ 19c: from Italian and Spanish, from Latin marinus MARINE.

marinade /marɪˈneɪd/ ▷ noun, cookery 1 any liquid mixture, especially a mixture of oil, herbs, spices, vinegar or wine, etc, in which food, especially meat or fish, is soaked before cooking to add flavour or to tenderize it. 2 meat, fish, etc that has been soaked in such a mixture. ▷ verb (marinaded, marinading) tr & intr to soak (meat or fish, etc) in a marinade. Also called MARINATE. ⓘ 17c: French, from Spanish marinar to pickle something in brine.

marinara /marəˈnarə/ ▷ noun an Italian-style tomato and seafood sauce, often with herbs, spices, white wine, etc, served with pasta dishes. ● ▷ adj denoting pasta, gnocchi, etc that is served with this kind of sauce □ spaghetti marinara. ⓘ 1940s: Italian, meaning 'in sailor's style', from marina sea.

marinate /ˈmarɪneɪt/ ▷ verb (marinated, marinating) to MARINADE something. ⓘ 17c: from Italian marinare or French mariner.

marine /məˈriːn/ ▷ adj 1 belonging to or concerned with the sea □ marine landscape. 2 inhabiting, found in or obtained from the sea □ marine mammal. 3 belonging or relating to ships, shipping trade or the navy □ marine insurance □ marine architect. 4 done or used at sea □ marine compass. See also MARITIME. ▷ noun 1 (often Marine) a a soldier trained to serve on land or at sea; b a member of the Royal Marines or the US Marine Corps. 2 the merchant or naval ships of a nation collectively. ● tell that or it to the marines colloq an expression of disbelief and ridicule. ⓘ 15c: from Latin marinus, from mare sea.

mariner /məˈriːnə(r)/ ▷ noun a seaman. ⓘ 13c: French.

marinière / French marinjɛr/ ▷ adj, following its noun, cookery said especially of mussels: cooked in white wine with onions and herbs □ moules marinières. ⓘ 20c: from French à la marinière, meaning 'in the manner of the bargeman's wife'.

marionette /marɪəˈnet/ ▷ noun a puppet with jointed limbs moved by strings. ⓘ 17c: French, diminutive of Marion, the woman's name.

marital /ˈmarɪtəl/ ▷ adj 1 belonging or relating to marriage □ marital status □ the marital home. See also CONNUBIAL, MATRIMONIAL. 2 belonging or relating to a husband □ denied him his marital rights. ● maritally adverb. ⓘ 17c: from Latin maritalis married, from maritus a husband.

maritime /ˈmarɪtaɪm/ ▷ adj 1 belonging or relating to the sea or ships, sea-trade, etc □ maritime communications. See also MARINE adj. 2 said of plants, etc: living or growing near the sea. 3 said of a climate: having relatively small temperature differences between summer and winter. 4 said of a country, etc: having a sea-coast. 5 said of a country, etc: having a navy and sea-trade □ a maritime nation. ⓘ 16c: from Latin maritimus of the sea, from mare sea.

marjoram /ˈmɑːdʒərəm/ ▷ noun 1 (in full sweet marjoram) a purple-flowered Mediterranean plant whose sweet-smelling leaves are used to season food. 2 (in full wild marjoram) a similar but more pungent plant, used especially in pasta dishes. Also called OREGANO. ⓘ 14c as majorane: French, from Latin majorana.

mark[1] /mɑːk/ ▷ noun 1 a visible blemish, such as a scratch or stain. 2 a patch, stripe, spot, etc forming part of a larger pattern. 3 a a grade or score awarded according to the proficiency of a student or competitor, etc; b a letter, number, or percentage used to denote this □ What mark did you get? Only C+. 4 a sign or symbol □ a question mark. 5 an indication or representation □ a mark of respect. 6 the position from which a competitor starts in a race. See also on your marks below. 7 an object or thing to be aimed at or striven for; a target or goal □ It fell wide of the mark. 8 a required or normal standard □ up to the mark. 9 an impression, distinguishing characteristic or influence □ Your work bears his mark. 10 noteworthiness; distinction □ someone of no mark. 11 a cross or other sign used instead of a signature □ Make your mark below. 12 rugby a a mark made with the heel on the ground by a player on making a fair catch; b the act of making a fair catch within one's own 22-metre line and marking the spot where the catch was made, from where a free kick can be taken. 13 (often Mark) (abbreviation Mk) applied especially to vehicles: a type of design; a model or issue □ driving a Jaguar Mark II. See also MARQUE. 14 slang a suitable victim for trickery, theft, etc □ a soft mark. ▷ verb (marked, marking) 1 tr & intr to spoil something with, or become spoiled by, a MARK (noun 1). 2 a) to read, correct and award (a grade) to a piece of written work, etc; b) to allot a score to someone or something. 3 to show; to be a sign of something □ events marking a new era □ X marks the spot. 4 (often mark something down) to make a note of something; to record it. 5 to pay close attention to something □ mark my words. 6 sport to stay close to (an opposing player) in order to try and prevent them from getting or passing the ball. 7 to characterize or label someone or something □ This incident marks him as a criminal. • marked and marking see separate entries. • make or leave one's mark to make a strong or permanent impression. • mark someone's card to correct them, especially quickly and forcefully, when they are under a false impression; to put them right. • mark time 1 to move the feet up and down as if marching, but without going forward. 2 merely to keep things going, without making progress or speeding up. • off the mark 1 not on target; off the subject or target. 2 said of an athlete, etc: getting away from the mark (noun 6) in a race, etc □ slow off the mark. See also QUICK OFF THE MARK at QUICK. • on your marks or mark athletics said to the runners before a race begins: get into your position, ready for the starting command or signal. • up to the mark 1 said of work, etc: satisfactory; of a good standard. 2 said of a person: fit and well. ⓒ Anglo-Saxon merc boundary or limit.

■ mark someone down to give them or their work a lower mark □ had to mark him down for poor spelling.

■ mark something down 1 to reduce its price □ a jacket marked down from £70 to £55. 2 to note it.

■ mark something off or out 1 to indicate on a list, etc that (an issue, point, etc) has been dealt with. 2 to fix its boundaries or limits with marks of some kind.

■ mark something out to lay out its plans or outlines.

■ mark something up to increase its price; to make a profit for the seller on it. See also MARK-UP.

mark² /mɑːk/ ▷ noun 1 (abbreviation M and DM) the standard currency unit in Germany. See also DEUTSCHMARK. 2 formerly a unit of weight for gold and silver. ⓒ Anglo-Saxon marc.

mark-down ▷ noun a reduction in price, especially in determining level of profit.

marked ▷ adj 1 obvious or noticeable □ a marked change in her attitude. 2 said of a person: watched with suspicion; selected as the target for an attack □ a marked man. • markedly /ˈmɑːkɪdlɪ/ adverb noticeably. • markedness /ˈmɑːkɪdnəs/ noun. • marked for something destined or doomed for it.

marker ▷ noun 1 a pen with a thick point, for writing signs, etc. Also called marker pen. 2 someone who takes notes, eg of the score in a game. 3 anything used to mark the position of something.

market /ˈmɑːkɪt/ ▷ noun 1 a gathering of people that takes place periodically, where stalls, etc are set up allowing them to buy and sell a variety of goods or a specified type of goods. 2 a public place, square, building, etc in which this regularly takes place. 3 a particular region, country or section of the population, considered as a potential customer □ the French market □ the teenage market. 4 buying and selling; a level of trading □ The market is slow. 5 opportunity for buying and selling; demand □ no market for these goods. 6 as adj □ market day □ market share □ market trader. 7 especially N Amer a shop or supermarket. ▷ verb (marketed, marketing) 1 to offer something for sale; to promote (goods, etc). 2 intr to trade or deal, especially at a market. 3 intr, especially US to shop; to buy provisions. • marketable adj. • marketability noun. • be in the market for something to wish to buy it. • on the market on sale; able to be bought. See also STOCK MARKET. ⓒ Anglo-Saxon: from Latin mercatus trade or market.

market economy ▷ noun an economic system in which prices, wages, products and services are determined by MARKET FORCES of SUPPLY and DEMAND, without any state interference. Compare COMMAND ECONOMY, MIXED ECONOMY.

marketeer ▷ noun 1 someone who trades at a market. 2 noun someone who is involved with, or who promotes, a particular kind of market □ free marketeer □ black marketeer. Compare MARKETER.

marketer noun 1 someone who goes to, or trades at, a market. 2 business someone whose job is to sell the product produced by their company. Compare MARKETEER.

market forces ▷ plural noun the willingness of customers to buy goods or services that suppliers are willing to offer at a particular price; supply and demand.

market garden ▷ noun an area of land, usually near a large town or city, that is used commercially to grow produce, especially vegetables, salad crops, soft fruit and flowers, for immediate sale at a market. • market gardener noun the owner of or a person who tends a market garden. • market gardening noun. N Amer equivalent TRUCK FARM.

marketing ▷ noun 1 business the techniques or processes by which a product or service is sold, including assessment of its sales potential and responsibility for its promotion, distribution and development. 2 especially N Amer an act or process of shopping.

market-led ▷ adj referring or relating to the selling or development of a product, of research, etc, which is allowed to be influenced solely by economic and commercial factors rather than attracting any kind of subsidy, etc.

market leader ▷ noun, business 1 a company that sells more goods of a specific type than any other company. 2 a brand of goods that sells more than any other of its kind.

market maker ▷ noun, stock exchange a BROKER-DEALER. See also STOCKJOBBER.

market-place ▷ noun 1 the open space in a town, etc in which a market is held. 2 (the market-place) the commercial world of buying and selling □ Can this product find a slot in the wider market-place?

market price ▷ noun the price for which a thing can be sold, and is being sold, at a particular time. Also called market value.

market research ▷ noun study and analysis of the habits, needs and preferences of customers, often in regard to a particular product or service. • market researcher noun.

market town ▷ noun a town, often at the centre of a farming area, where a market is held regularly, usually on the same day every week.

marking ▷ noun 1 (often markings) a distinctive pattern of colours on an animal or plant. 2 the act or process of giving marks (eg to school work) or making marks on something.

markka /ˈmɑːkɑː/ ▷ noun (markkaa or markkas) (symbol Mk) the standard currency unit in Finland. ⓒ Early 20c: Finnish; see MARK².

marksman and markswoman ▷ noun someone who can shoot a gun or other weapon accurately, especially a trained soldier, police officer, etc. • marksmanship noun. ⓒ 17c.

mark-up ▷ noun, commerce 1 an increase in price, especially in determining level of profit. 2 the difference between the WHOLESALE and RETAIL price of an item. See also MARK SOMETHING UP at MARK[1].

marl /mɑːl/ ▷ noun, geol a mixture of clay and limestone. ▷ verb (marled, marling) to apply marl to (sandy soil, etc). • marling noun, especially formerly the process of adding marl to light sandy soil to improve its texture and fertility and to increase its water-holding capacity. • marly adj. ⓘ 14c: from French marle, from Latin marga.

marlin /ˈmɑːlɪn/ ▷ noun (marlin or marlins) a large fish found in warm and tropical seas which has a long spear-like upper jaw. Also called SPEARFISH. ⓘ 20c: from MARLINSPIKE, because of its pointed snout.

marline /ˈmɑːlɪn/ ▷ noun, naut a small rope for winding around a larger one, to keep it from wearing. ⓘ 15c: from Dutch marlijn, from marren to tie + lijn rope.

marlinspike or marlinespike ▷ noun (marlinspikes or marlinespikes) naut a pointed metal tool for separating the strands of rope to be spliced. ⓘ 17c: MARLINE + SPIKE[1].

marm see MA'AM

marmalade /ˈmɑːməleɪd/ ▷ noun jam made from the pulp and rind of any citrus fruit, especially oranges. ▷ adj said of a cat: with a coat marked with orange and brown streaks. ⓘ 16c: from Portuguese marmelada, from marmelo QUINCE, from which it was originally made.

marmelize or marmelise /ˈmɑːməlaɪz/ ▷ verb (marmelized, marmelizing) Brit colloq to thrash or defeat someone heavily; to destroy them. ⓘ 20c: from MARMALADE, as though turning them into marmalade.

Marmite /ˈmɑːmaɪt/ ▷ noun, trademark a dark brown savoury spread made from yeast and vegetable extracts, eaten on toast, etc. ⓘ Early 20c: from MARMITE.

marmite /ˈmɑːmaɪt/ ▷ noun a lidded cooking pot, typically one made of glazed earthenware, used especially for making stock or soup. ⓘ 19c: French, meaning 'pot' or 'kettle'.

marmoreal /mɑːˈmɔːrɪəl/ ▷ adj, formal or literary 1 like marble; cold, smooth, white, etc. 2 made of marble. • marmoreally adverb. ⓘ 18c: from Latin marmor marble.

marmoset /ˈmɑːməzet/ ▷ noun a small S American monkey with a long bushy tail and tufts of hair around the head and ears. ⓘ 14c: from French marmouset grotesque figure.

marmot /ˈmɑːmət/ ▷ noun a stout, coarse-haired, burrowing rodent of Europe, Asia and N America. See also WOODCHUCK. ⓘ 17c: from French marmotte.

maroon[1] /məˈruːn/ ▷ adj dark brownish-red or purplish-red in colour. ▷ noun this colour. ⓘ 18c: from French marron chestnut.

maroon[2] /məˈruːn/ ▷ verb (marooned, marooning) 1 to leave someone in isolation in a deserted place, especially on a desert island. 2 to leave someone helpless or without support. ⓘ 18c in sense 1; 17c as noun, meaning 'a fugitive slave': from American Spanish cimarrón wild.

marque[1] /mɑːk/ ▷ noun (marques) applied especially to cars: a brand or make. ⓘ Early 20c: French, meaning 'mark' or 'sign'.

marque[2] see LETTERS-OF-MARQUE marquee /mɑːˈkiː/ ▷ noun (marquees) a very large tent used for circuses, parties, etc. ⓘ 17c: coined from MARQUISE in its obsolete sense 'a large tent', which was wrongly thought to be a plural form and a supposed singular was therefore created from it.

marquess /ˈmɑːkwɪs/ ▷ noun, Brit a member of the nobility. See also MARQUIS, MARQUISE. ⓘ 16c: from French marchis, from Latin marchensis prefect of the marches: see MARCH[2].

marquetry /ˈmɑːkətrɪ/ ▷ noun (marquetries) 1 the art or practice of making decorative arrangements or patterns out of pieces of different-coloured woods, ivory, etc, especially set into the surface of wooden furniture. Compare INLAY. 2 work made in this way. ⓘ 16c: French, from marqueter to inlay.

marquis /ˈmɑːkwɪs; French maʀki/ ▷ noun (marquis or marquises) 1 in various European countries: a nobleman next in rank above a count. 2 sometimes a MARQUESS. See also MARCHIONESS. ⓘ 17c: variant of MARQUESS.

marquise /mɑːˈkiːz/ ▷ noun (marquises) 1 in various European countries: a MARCHIONESS. 2 a a ring set with gems arranged to form a pointed oval; b a gem cut into such a shape. ⓘ 19c.

marram /ˈmaram/ and marram grass ▷ noun a coarse grass that grows on sandy shores, often planted to stop sand erosion. ⓘ 17c: from Norse maralmr, from marr sea + halmr stem.

marriage /ˈmarɪdʒ/ ▷ noun 1 the state or relationship of being husband and wife. 2 the act, or legal contract, of becoming husband and wife. 3 the civil or religious ceremony during which this act is performed; a wedding. 4 a joining together; a union. 5 as adj ▫ marriage contract ▫ marriage vows. ⓘ 13c: French; see MARRY.

marriageable ▷ adj said of a woman, or sometimes a man: suitable for marriage, especially in terms of being at a legal age for marriage. • marriageability or marriageableness noun.

marriage bureau ▷ noun an introduction agency which arranges for single people wishing to find a husband or wife to meet potential partners.

marriage certificate ▷ noun an official piece of paper showing that two people are legally married.

marriage guidance ▷ noun professional counselling given to couples with marital or personal problems.

marriage licence ▷ noun a paper that gives official permission for a marriage to take place.

marriage of convenience ▷ noun 1 a marriage entered into for the advantages it will bring, such as citizenship of the country of one's partner, rather than for love. 2 a close business union, partnership, etc entered into for practical reasons or advantages only. ⓘ 18c.

married /ˈmarɪd/ ▷ adj 1 having a husband or wife. 2 belonging or relating to the state of marriage ▫ married life. 3 (especially married to something) closely fixed together; joined, especially inseparably or intimately, to it ▫ He's married to his work. ▷ noun (marrieds) colloq a married couple.

marrons glacés /ˈmarɒn ˈglaseɪ/ ▷ plural noun, cookery chestnuts poached in a vanilla-flavoured syrup and coated with a sugar glaze. ⓘ 19c: French, meaning 'iced chestnuts'.

marrow /ˈmaroʊ/ ▷ noun 1 (also bone marrow) the soft tissue that fills the internal cavities of bones. 2 (also vegetable marrow) a an annual plant with large prickly leaves, native to tropical America but cultivated worldwide for its large, oblong, edible fruit; b the fruit of this plant which has a thick, green or striped skin, and soft white flesh, and is cooked as a vegetable. 3 the innermost, essential or best part of anything. • marrowy adj. • to the marrow right through. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon mearg.

marrowbone ▷ noun a bone containing edible marrow. Also as adj ▫ marrowbone jelly.

marrowfat and marrowfat pea ▷ noun 1 a variety of large, edible pea. 2 the plant that bears it.

marry[1] /ˈmarɪ/ ▷ verb (marries, married, marrying) 1 to take someone as one's husband or wife ▫ Will you marry me? 2 said of a priest, minister, official, etc: to perform the ceremony of marriage between two people ▫ My uncle married us. 3 intr to become joined in marriage ▫ We married last June. 4 (usually marry someone to someone) said of a parent, guardian, etc: to give (a son, daughter or ward) in marriage to someone. 5 intr (also marry something up) to fit together, join up, or match (usually two things) correctly ▫ The two sides do not marry. • marrying adj likely to marry or inclined towards marriage □ not the marrying kind. ⓘ 13c: from French marier, from Latin maritare, from maritus a husband.

■ marry into something 1 to become involved in or associated with it by marriage □ married into a large, close-knit family. 2 colloq to acquire it by marriage □ He married into money.

■ marry someone off (colloq) to find a husband or wife for them.

marry² /ˈmarɪ/ ▷ exclamation, archaic an expression of surprise or earnest declaration; indeed!. ⓘ 14c: for 'By (the Virgin) Mary!'.

Mars /mɑːz/ ▷ noun 1 astron the fourth planet from the Sun, and the nearest planet to the Earth. ⓘ 14c: named after Mars, the Roman god of war, because of its fiery red appearance.

Marsala /mɑːˈsɑːlə/ ▷ noun a dark, sweet, fortified wine made in Marsala in Sicily.

marsh /mɑːʃ/ ▷ noun (marshes) 1 a poorly-drained, low-lying, frequently-flooded area of land, commonly found at the mouths of rivers and alongside ponds and lakes. See also FEN, SWAMP. 2 (also salt marsh) such an area of land lying in the INTERTIDAL zone that is periodically flooded by seawater. ▷ adj inhabiting or found in marshes □ marsh marigold. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon mersc or merisc.

marshal /ˈmɑːʃəl/ ▷ noun 1 (often Marshal) in compounds a any of various high-ranking officers in the armed forces (see table at RANK) □ Air Vice-Marshal □ field marshal; b Brit a high-ranking officer of State □ Earl Marshal. 2 an official who organizes parades etc, or controls crowds at large public events. 3 US in some states: a chief police or fire officer. 4 a law-court official with various duties and responsibilities □ judge's marshal. ▷ verb (marshalled, marshalling; US marshaled, marshaling) 1 to arrange (troops, competitors, facts, etc) in order. 2 to direct, lead or show the way to (a crowd, procession, etc), especially in a formal or precise way. • marshaller noun. ⓘ 13c: French, from mareschal, from German marahscalh, from marah horse + scalh servant.

marshalling-yard ▷ noun a place where railway wagons are arranged into trains.

marshal of the Royal Air Force ▷ noun, Brit an officer in the air force. See table at RANK.

marsh fever ▷ noun MALARIA.

marsh gas ▷ noun METHANE.

marsh harrier ▷ noun a HARRIER³ hawk, found in marshy regions of Europe. It has an owl-like head, long wings and long legs.

marsh hawk ▷ noun a common N American hawk with a white patch on its rump.

marshland ▷ noun marshy country.

marshmallow ▷ noun 1 a spongy, pink or white sweet originally made from the root of the MARSH MALLOW. 2 sometimes as adj said of someone or something: excessively soft, sweet or sentimental. ⓘ 19c.

marsh mallow ▷ noun a pink-flowered plant that grows wild in coastal marshes. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon: merscmealwe.

marsh marigold ▷ noun a marsh plant with yellow flowers like large buttercups.

marshy ▷ adj (marshier, marshiest) 1 like, or of the nature of, a marsh. 2 covered with marshes.

marsupial /mɑːˈsuːpɪəl, -ˈsjuː-/ ▷ noun, zool any of a group of mammals including the kangaroo, koala and wombat in which the female lacks a placenta and the young, which are tiny and very immature when born, are carried and suckled in an external pouch on the mother's body until they are mature enough to survive independently. ▷ adj belonging to or like a marsupial. ⓘ 17c: from Latin marsupium pouch.

mart /mɑːt/ ▷ noun a trading place; a market or auction. ⓘ 15c: from Dutch markt.

martello /mɑːˈteləʊ/ ▷ noun (martellos) a small circular fortified tower used for coastal defence. Also called martello tower. ⓘ 19c: from Cape Mortella in Corsica, where such a tower was captured with difficulty by a British fleet in 1794.

marten /ˈmɑːtɪn/ ▷ noun 1 any of various small, tree-dwelling, predatory mammals with a long thin body and a bushy tail. See also PINE MARTEN. 2 their highly-valued, soft, black or brown fur. ⓘ 15c: from French martre.

martial /ˈmɑːʃəl/ ▷ adj belonging or relating to, or suitable for, war or the military; warlike; militant. • martialism noun. • martially adverb. ⓘ 14c: French, from Latin martialis belonging to MARS.

martial art ▷ noun any of various fighting sports or self-defence techniques of Far Eastern origin, eg karate or judo.

martial law ▷ noun law and order strictly enforced by the army, eg when ordinary civil law has broken down during a war, revolution, etc.

Martian /ˈmɑːʃən/ ▷ adj belonging or relating to, or supposedly coming from, the planet MARS. ▷ noun someone who is supposed to come from or inhabit Mars. ⓘ 14c: from Latin Martius.

martin /ˈmɑːtɪn/ ▷ noun any of various small birds of the swallow family, with a square or slightly forked tail, eg the HOUSE MARTIN or the SAND MARTIN. ⓘ 15c.

martinet /mɑːtɪˈnet/ ▷ noun, derog someone who maintains strict discipline. 17c: French, named after Jean Martinet (died 1672), one of Louis XIV's generals and a very stringent drillmaster.

martingale /ˈmɑːtɪŋgeɪl/ ▷ noun a strap that is passed between a horse's forelegs and fastened to the girth and to the bit, noseband or reins, used to keep the horse's head down. ⓘ 16c: French.

martini /mɑːˈtiːnɪ/ ▷ noun (martinis) 1 (Martini) trademark an Italian brand of vermouth. 2 a cocktail made of gin and vermouth. ⓘ 19c: from the name of the Italian wine makers Martini and Rossi.

Martinmas /ˈmɑːtɪnməs/ ▷ noun St Martin's day, 11 November. ⓘ 13c.

martyr /ˈmɑːtə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 someone who chooses to be put to death as an act of witness to their faith, rather than abandon his or her religious beliefs. 2 someone who suffers or dies for their beliefs, or for a particular cause, etc. 3 (usually a martyr to something) colloq someone who suffers greatly on account of something (eg an illness, ailment or misfortune) □ She is a martyr to arthritis. 4 colloq, usually derog someone who wishes or chooses to be or to be seen as a suffering victim, especially in circumstances which they could have chosen to avoid. ▷ verb (martyred, martyring) to put someone to death as a martyr. • martyrdom noun the death or suffering of a martyr. • make a martyr of oneself colloq to put oneself deliberately in the position of a victim or someone who deserves sympathy or admiration for sacrificing their own happiness, comfort, etc. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon: from Latin, from Greek martus a witness.

marvel /ˈmɑːvəl/ ▷ verb (marvelled, marvelling; US marveled, marveling) intr (especially marvel at something) to be filled with astonishment or wonder. ▷ noun an astonishing or wonderful person or thing; a wonder. ⓘ 14c: from French merveille, from Latin mirari to wonder at.

marvellous or (US) marvelous /ˈmɑːvələs/ ▷ adj 1 so wonderful or astonishing as to be almost beyond belief. 2 colloq excellent; extremely pleasing. ■ marvellously adverb. ■ marvellousness noun.

Marxism /ˈmɑːksɪzəm/ ▷ noun, politics the theories of Karl Marx (1818–83), the German economist and political philosopher, stating that the struggle between different social classes is the main influence on political change and that communism will eventually replace capitalism.

Marxism-Leninism ▷ noun, politics a distinct variant of MARXISM formulated and put into practice by Vladimir Ilyich Lenin (1870–1924), which became the basis of Communist ideology (see COMMUNISM). Compare LENINISM. ■ Marxist-Leninist adj, noun.

Marxist ▷ noun 1 a follower of MARXISM. 2 someone who advocates MARXIST LITERARY THEORY. ▷ adj (sometimes Marxian) relating to or characteristic of Karl Marx, Marxism or Marxists.

Marxist literary theory or Marxist literary criticism ▷ noun, literary theory a complex and highly theoretical approach that, in its simplest form, emphasizes how important the effect of the struggle to control the material side of life is to the production of all art, past and present, both at the fundamental economic and social levels and at the level of influence this struggle has on ideas, beliefs, philosophies, etc, and which tends to stress this over any notion of creativity. Also in compounds □ Marxist-Feminist. See also STRUCTURALISM, POST-STRUCTURALISM, MODERNISM, POST-MODERNISM, FORMALISM.

marzipan /ˈmɑːzɪpan/ ▷ noun a sweet paste made of ground almonds, sugar and egg whites, used to decorate cakes, make sweets, etc. ⓘ 15c: from Italian marzapane.

-mas /məs/ ▷ combining form, forming nouns, denoting a church festival or feast day □ Candlemas □ Christmas. See MASS².

Masai /ˈmɑːsaɪ/ ▷ noun 1 (plural Masai) a member of a pastoral people who inhabit hilly regions of Kenya and Tanzania in E Africa. 2 their language. ▷ adj belonging or relating to this people or their language. ⓘ 19c: Bantu.

masala /məˈsɑːlə/ ▷ noun, cookery 1 a blend of spices ground into a powder or paste used in Indian cookery. 2 a dish using this □ chicken tikka masala. ⓘ 18c: Hindi, meaning 'spices'.

masc. ▷ abbreviation masculine.

mascara /maˈskɑːrə/ ▷ noun (mascaras) a cosmetic for darkening, lengthening and thickening the eyelashes, applied with a brush. ⓘ 19c: Spanish, meaning 'mask'.

mascarpone /maskəˈpoʊnɪ/ ▷ noun a soft Italian cream cheese. ⓘ 20c: Italian.

mascot /ˈmaskət, -kɒt/ ▷ noun a person, animal or thing thought to bring good luck and adopted for this purpose by a person, team, etc. ⓘ 19c: from French mascotte, from Provençal mascotto charm.

masculine /ˈmaskjʊlɪn/ ▷ adj 1 belonging to, typical of, peculiar to or suitable for a man or the male sex; male. 2 said of a woman: mannish; unfeminine. 3 grammar (abbreviation m. or masc.) in many languages: belonging or referring to one of the GENDERS into which nouns and pronouns are divided, ie that which includes most words denoting human and animal males, plus, in many languages, many other words. Compare COMMON GENDER, FEMININE, NEUTER. ▷ noun, grammar a the masculine gender; b a word belonging to this gender. ■ masculinity noun. ⓘ 14c: from Latin masculinus male, from mas a male.

> masculine
>
> See Usage Note at male.

masculinize or masculinise /ˈmaskjʊlɪnaɪz/ ▷ verb (masculinized, masculinizing) tr & intr to make or become masculine in character or appearance, especially when induced in women by the use of steroids. ■ masculinization noun. ⓘ Early 20c.

maser /ˈmeɪzə(r)/ ▷ noun in radar and radio astronomy: a device for increasing the strength of MICROWAVE. Compare LASER. ⓘ 1950s: acronym for microwave amplification by stimulated emission of radiation.

mash /maʃ/ ▷ verb (mashes, mashed, mashing) 1 (also mash something up) to beat or crush it into a pulpy mass. 2 in the brewing process: to mix (malt) with hot water. ▷ noun (plural in senses 1 and 3 only mashes) 1 a boiled mixture of grain and water used to feed farm animals. 2 a mixture of crushed malt and hot water, used in brewing. 3 any soft or pulpy mass. 4 colloq mashed potatoes. ■ mashed adj. ■ masher noun. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon masc-, used in compounds.

mask /mɑːsk/ ▷ noun 1 a any covering for the face or for part of the face, worn for amusement, protection or as a disguise, which is often painted and decorated □ Hallowe'en mask. b a covering for the mouth and nose, such as an OXYGEN MASK, or a surgical mask worn by surgeons, nurses, etc to reduce the spread of infection. 2 a pretence; anything that disguises the truth, eg false behaviour □ a mask of light-heartedness. 3 a moulded or sculpted cast of someone's face □ death-mask. 4 a cosmetic FACE PACK. 5 photog see under MASKING. ▷ verb (masked, masking) 1 to put a mask on someone or something. 2 to disguise, conceal or cover □ Find something to mask the smell. 3 to protect something with a mask, or as if with a mask, from some effect or process. 4 (usually mask as something or someone) intr to masquerade, or be disguised as, it or them. ■ masked adj 1 wearing, concealed or protected by a mask. 2 for or with people wearing masks □ masked ball. ■ masker noun. ⓘ 16c as masque: French, from Spanish máscara or Italian maschera a mask or disguise.

masking ▷ noun, photog the process of using a screen (or mask) to cover part of a light-sensitive surface, usually so that a second image may be superimposed subsequently.

masking tape ▷ noun sticky paper tape, used eg in painting to cover the edge of a surface, eg of a window pane to be left unpainted.

masochism /ˈmasəkɪzəm/ ▷ noun 1 psychol the practice of deriving sexual pleasure from pain or humiliation inflicted by another person. Compare SADISM, SADO-MASOCHISM. 2 colloq a tendency to take pleasure in one's own suffering. ■ masochist noun 1 someone who derives sexual pleasure from pain or humiliation. 2 colloq someone who takes pleasure in their own suffering. ■ masochistic adj. ⓘ 19c: named after Leopold von Sacher Masoch (1836–95), the Austrian novelist who described cases of it.

mason /ˈmeɪsən/ ▷ noun 1 a STONEMASON. 2 (Mason) a FREEMASON. 3 US a skilled builder who works with bricks or stone. ■ masonic /məˈsɒnɪk/ adj (often Masonic) belonging or relating to freemasons. ⓘ 13c: from French masson.

Mason-Dixon Line ▷ noun the boundary between Pennsylvania and Maryland, later thought of as separating the free Northern states from the slave states of the South. ⓘ 18c: named after Charles Mason and Jeremiah Dixon who surveyed it.

masonry /ˈmeɪsənrɪ/ ▷ noun 1 the part of a building built by a mason; stonework and brickwork. 2 the craft or skill of a mason. 3 (often Masonry) FREEMASONRY.

masque /mɑːsk/ ▷ noun 1 historical in English royal courts during the 16c and 17c: a kind of dramatic entertainment performed to music by masked actors. 2 chiefly old use a masquerade or masked ball. ⓘ 16c: French, meaning 'MASK' noun 1.

masquerade /maskəˈreɪd, mɑː-/ ▷ noun 1 a pretence or false show. 2 a a formal dance at which the guests wear masks and costumes; b chiefly US any party or gathering to which costumes or disguises are worn; a FANCY DRESS party or ball. 3 chiefly US the costume or disguise worn at a masquerade, etc; fancy dress. ▷ verb (masqueraded, masquerading) intr (especially masquerade as someone or something) 1 to disguise oneself. 2 to pretend to be someone or something else □ was masquerading as a vicar □ a squalid town masquerading as a city. • masquerader noun. ⓘ 16c: from Spanish mascarada, from máscara MASK.

mass[1] /mas/ ▷ noun 1 physics the amount of matter that an object contains, which is a measure of its INERTIA. 2 a large quantity, usually a shapeless quantity, gathered together; a lump. 3 (often masses) colloq a large quantity or number □ masses of room □ He has masses of books. 4 (usually the mass of something) the majority or bulk of it. 5 technical a measure of the quantity of matter in a body. 6 (the masses) ordinary people; the people as a whole. 7 art an area of uniform colour or shading. 8 as adj a involving a large number of people □ a mass meeting □ mass murder; b belonging or relating to a mass, or to large quantities or numbers □ mass production. ▷ verb (masses, massed, massing) chiefly intr (sometimes mass together) to gather or form in a large quantity or number □ Clouds were massing in the distance. See also AMASS. ⓘ 14c: from French masse, from Latin massa lump.

mass[2] or Mass /mas/ ▷ noun 1 Christianity in the Roman Catholic and Orthodox Churches: a the EUCHARIST, a celebration of THE LAST SUPPER; b the ceremony in which this occurs. See also HIGH MASS, LOW MASS. Compare (in Protestant churches) COMMUNION, HOLY COMMUNION, THE LORD'S SUPPER. 2 a part of the text of the Roman Catholic liturgy set to music and sung by a choir or congregation □ a requiem mass. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon maesse.

Mass. see MA.

massacre /ˈmasəkə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 a cruel and indiscriminate killing of large numbers of people or animals. 2 colloq in a game, sports match, etc: an overwhelming defeat. ▷ verb (massacred, massacring) 1 to kill (people or animals) cruelly, indiscriminately and in large numbers. 2 colloq to defeat (the opposition or enemy, etc) overwhelmingly. ⓘ 16c: French.

massage /ˈmasɑːʒ, -sɑːdʒ/ ▷ noun 1 a technique of easing pain or stiffness in the body, especially the muscles, by rubbing, kneading and tapping with the hands. 2 a body treatment using this technique. ▷ verb (massaged, massaging) 1 to perform massage on someone. 2 to alter something (especially statistics or other data) to produce a more favourable result; to manipulate or doctor something to make it look better, more suitable, etc. • massage someone's ego facetious to flatter them, or treat them in any way that makes them feel more important or special. ⓘ 19c: French, from masser to massage, from Greek massein to knead.

massage parlour ▷ noun 1 an establishment that offers customers massage treatment, often with steam baths available also. 2 an establishment that ostensibly offers customers massage treatment, but which is often known to offer any of various sexual services. ⓘ Early 20c.

massé /ˈmasɪ, -eɪ/ ▷ noun (massés) billiards a sharp stroke made with the cue held vertically, or nearly vertically. ⓘ 19c: French, from masse a sledgehammer.

masses see under MASS[1]

masseur /maˈsɜː(r)/ and masseuse /-ˈsɜːz/ ▷ noun (masseurs or masseuses) someone who is trained to carry out massage, especially as their profession. ⓘ 19c: French.

mass extinction ▷ noun, biol at certain times in the Earth's history: the dying out of many animal species at more or less the same time, eg the disappearance of the dinosaurs about 65 million years ago.

massif /ˈmasiːf/ ▷ noun, geol a mountainous plateau that differs from the surrounding lowland, usually composed of rocks that are older and harder. ⓘ 19c: French; see MASSIVE.

massive /ˈmasɪv/ ▷ adj 1 said of physical objects: very big, bulky, solid and heavy. 2 colloq very large; of great size or power □ a massive salary □ a massive explosion. 3 said of a mineral: without crystalline form. 4 not separated into parts, elements, layers, etc. • massively adverb in a massive way; to a massive degree. • massiveness noun. ⓘ 15c: from French massif, from masse MASS[1] mass market ▷ noun, econ the market for goods that have been mass-produced. • mass-marketing noun.

mass media see MEDIA.

mass noun ▷ noun, grammar a noun which cannot be qualified in the singular by the indefinite article and cannot be used in the plural, eg furniture. Compare COUNT NOUN.

mass number ▷ noun, chem the total number of protons and neutrons in the nucleus of an atom. Also called nucleon number.

mass-produce ▷ verb to produce (goods, etc) in a standard form in great quantities, especially using mechanization. • mass-produced adj said of an article: produced in a standardized form in large numbers. • mass production noun. ⓘ 1920s.

mass spectrograph ▷ noun, chem, physics a device used to give precise measurements of the ATOMIC MASS UNITS of different isotopes of an element, by passing beams of ions through electric and magnetic fields so that they can be separated according to the ratio of their CHARGE (noun 7) to their MASS. See also SPECTROGRAPH.

mass spectrometer ▷ noun, chem, physics a MASS SPECTROGRAPH used to measure the relative atomic masses of isotopes of chemical elements, and that uses an electrical detector, as opposed to a photographic plate, to determine the distribution of ION. • mass spectrometry noun.

mast[1] /mɑːst/ ▷ noun any upright wooden or metal supporting pole, especially one carrying the sails of a ship, or a radio or television aerial. • masted adj, usually in compounds having the specified type or number of masts □ three-masted. • before the mast naut serving as an apprentice seaman or ordinary sailor. • half mast see separate entry. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon mæst.

mast[2] /mɑːst/ ▷ noun the nuts of various forest trees, especially beech, oak and chestnut, used as food for pigs. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon mæst.

mastaba /ˈmastəbə/ ▷ noun (mastabas) archaeol an ancient Egyptian tomb built of brick or stone with sloping sides and a flat roof, having an outer area in which offerings were made, connected to a secret inner room from which a shaft led to an underground burial chamber. ⓘ 17c in original sense 'a stone bench or seat': from Arabic mastabah bench.

mastectomy /maˈstɛktəmɪ/ ▷ noun (mastectomies) surgery the surgical removal of a woman's breast. Compare LUMPECTOMY. ⓘ 1920s: from Greek mastos master /ˈmɑːstə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 someone especially a man, who commands or controls. 2 the owner, especially a male owner, of a dog, slave, etc. 3 someone with outstanding skill in a particular activity, eg art. See also OLD MASTER. 4 a fully qualified craftsman or tradesman, allowed to train and direct others. Also as adj □ master builder □ master butcher. 5 rather dated a male teacher. Compare MISTRESS 2. 6 the commanding officer on a merchant ship. 7 (Master) a a degree of the level above BACHELOR (sense 2). Usually called Masters □ has a Masters in geophysics; b someone who holds this degree □ Master of Arts □ Master of Science. 8 (Master) a title for a boy too young to be called Mr. 9 an original document, film, recording, etc from which copies are made. Also called master copy. 10 (Master) a title for the heads of certain university colleges. 11 in England and Wales: an official of the Supreme Court. ▷ adj 1 fully qualified; highly skilled; expert. 2 main; principal □ master bedroom. 3 controlling □ master switch. ▷ verb (mastered, mastering) 1 to overcome or defeat (eg feelings or an opponent). 2 to become skilled in something. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon mægester: from Latin magister, from magnus great.

master-at-arms ▷ noun (masters-at-arms) naut a ship's officer responsible for maintaining discipline.

master copy see MASTER noun 9 masterful ▷ adj showing the authority, skill or power of a master. ● masterfully adverb. ● masterfulness noun.

master key ▷ noun a key which opens a number of locks, each of which has its own different individual key.

masterly ▷ adj showing the skill of a master. ● masterliness noun.

mastermind ▷ noun 1 someone who has great intellectual ability. 2 the person responsible for devising a complex scheme or plan. ▷ verb (masterminded, masterminding) to be the mastermind of (a scheme, etc); to originate, think out and direct something. ⓘ 18c.

master of ceremonies ▷ noun (masters of ceremonies) (abbreviation MC, plural MCs) an announcer, especially one who announces the speakers at a formal dinner or the performers in a stage entertainment.

masterpiece ▷ noun an extremely skilful piece of work, especially the greatest work of an artist or writer. Sometimes called masterwork.

masterstroke ▷ noun a very clever or well-timed action.

mastery /ˈmɑːstərɪ/ ▷ noun (masteries) 1 (usually mastery of something) great skill or knowledge in it. 2 (especially mastery over someone or something) control over them or it. ⓘ 13c: French, from maistre MASTER.

masthead ▷ noun 1 naut the top of a ship's mast. 2 journalism the title of a newspaper or periodical, and other information such as logo, price and place of publication, printed at the top of its front page.

mastic /ˈmastɪk/ ▷ noun 1 a gum obtained from a Mediterranean evergreen tree, used in making varnish. 2 building any of various waterproof, putty-like pastes used as joint-sealers or fillers. ⓘ 14c: French, from Greek mastiche.

masticate /ˈmastɪkeɪt/ ▷ verb (masticated, masticating) tr & intr, formal or technical 1 to chew (food). 2 to knead (eg india-rubber) mechanically. ● mastication noun chewing. ● masticator noun. ● masticatory adj. ⓘ 17c: from Latin masticare to chew.

mastiff /ˈmastɪf/ ▷ noun a large powerful short-haired breed of dog, formerly used in hunting. ⓘ 14c: from French mastin, from Latin mansuetus tame.

mastitis /maˈstaɪtɪs/ ▷ noun inflammation of a woman's breast or an animal's udder, usually caused by bacterial infection. ⓘ 19c: Latin, from MASTO- + -ITIS.

masto- /mastoʊ/ or (before a vowel) mast- ▷ combining form, denoting 1 the breast or mammary glands. 2 a teat or nipple. ⓘ From Greek mastos breast.

mastodon /ˈmastədɒn/ ▷ noun any of several, now extinct, mammals from which elephants are thought to have evolved, which had two pairs of tusks, a long flexible trunk and a hairy coat. ⓘ Early 19c: from MASTO- + Greek odontos tooth, because of the teat-like prominences of its molar teeth.

mastoid /ˈmastɔɪd/ anatomy ▷ adj like a nipple or breast. ▷ noun 1 the raised area of bone behind the ear. 2 colloq MASTOIDITIS. ⓘ 18c: from Greek mastoeides like a breast.

mastoiditis ▷ noun inflammation of the mastoid air cells.

masturbate /ˈmastəbeɪt/ ▷ verb (masturbated, masturbating) tr & intr to rub or stroke the genitals of (oneself or someone else) so as to produce sexual arousal, usually to the point of orgasm or ejaculation. ● masturbation noun. ● masturbator noun. ● masturbatory adj. ⓘ 18c: from Latin masturbari.

mat[1] /mat/ ▷ noun 1 a flat piece of any carpet-like material, used as a decorative or protective floor-covering, for wiping shoes on to remove dirt, or absorbing impact on landing or falling in gymnastics, etc. 2 a smaller piece of fabric, or a harder material, used under a plate, vase, etc to protect a surface from heat or scratches. 3 a carpet-like, interwoven or tangled covering, eg of vegetation or hair. ▷ verb (matted, matting) tr & intr to become, or make something become, tangled or interwoven into a dense untidy mass. ● matted adj often said of hair: tangled. ● on the mat see ON THE CARPET under CARPET. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon matt or matte: from Latin matta.

mat[2] see MATT

mat. ▷ abbreviation matinée.

matador /ˈmatədɔː(r)/ ▷ noun the principal TOREADOR who kills the bull in bullfighting. ⓘ 17c: Spanish, from matar to kill.

match[1] /matʃ/ ▷ noun (matches) 1 a formal contest or game. 2 (especially a match for someone or something) a person or thing that is similar or identical to, or combines well with, another. 3 a person or thing able to equal, or surpass, another □ met his match. 4 a partnership or pairing; a suitable partner, eg in marriage. 5 a condition of exact agreement, compatibility or close resemblance, especially between two colours. ▷ verb (matches, matched, matching) 1 tr & intr (also match up or match something up) to combine well; to be well suited, compatible or exactly alike; to put (matching people, colours, things, etc) together. 2 to set (people or things) in competition; to hold them up in comparison. 3 to be equal to something; to make, produce, perform, etc an equivalent to something □ cannot match, let alone beat, the offer. 4 electronics to make the IMPEDANCEs of (two circuits) equal, so as to produce maximum transfer of energy. ● matchable adj. ● matching adj similar; compatible; part of the same set □ a matching pair. ● be a match for someone to be as good at something as them; to be as successful, strong, forceful, etc as them. ● meet one's match 1 to have to deal with someone who is able to resist one successfully. 2 to meet, or have to compete with, someone who is as good as or better at something than one is oneself. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon gemæcca a mate or companion.

match[2] /matʃ/ ▷ noun (matches) 1 a short thin piece of wood or strip of card coated on the tip with a substance that ignites when rubbed against a rough surface, used to light fires, etc. See also SAFETY MATCH. 2 a slow-burning fuse used in cannons, etc. ⓘ 14c in obsolete sense 'the wick of a candle or lamp': from French mesche.

matchboard ▷ noun a board with a tongue cut along one edge and a groove in the opposite edge enabling it to fit together with other similar boards to make wall facings, etc.

matchbox ▷ noun a small cardboard box for holding matches.

matchless ▷ adj having no equal; superior to all. ● matchlessly adverb. ● matchlessness noun.

matchmaker ▷ noun someone who tries to arrange romantic partnerships or marriages between people. ● matchmaking noun, adj. ⓘ 17c.

match play ▷ noun, golf scoring according to holes won and lost rather than the number of strokes taken. Compare STROKE PLAY.

match point ▷ noun, tennis, etc the stage in a game at which only one more point is needed by a player to win; the winning point.

matchstick ▷ noun the stem of a wooden MATCH[1] (sense 1). ▷ adj 1 very thin, like a matchstick □ matchstick legs. 2 said of figures in a drawing, etc: with limbs represented by single lines □ matchstick men.

matchwood ▷ noun 1 wood suitable for making matches. 2 TOUCHWOOD. 3 splinters.

mate[1] /meɪt/ ▷ noun 1 an animal's breeding partner. 2 colloq a person's sexual partner, especially a husband or wife. 3 a colloq a companion or friend, especially one of one's own sex; b used as a form of address, especially to a man □ alright, mate. 4 in compounds a colleague; a person someone shares something with □ workmate □ flatmate. 5 a tradesman's assistant □ plumber's mate. 6 one of a pair. 7 naut any officer below the rank of master on a merchant ship □ first mate. ▷ verb (mated, mating) 1 intr said of animals: to copulate. 2 to bring (male and female animals) together for breeding. 3 tr & intr to marry. 4 to join (two things) as a pair. ● mateship noun, especially Austral the bond between close friends or mates. ⓘ 14c: related to Anglo-Saxon gemetta a guest at one's table.

mate[2] see under CHECKMATE

maté or mate /ˈmɑːteɪ, ˈmateɪ/ ▷ noun (matés or mates) 1 a S American species of holly tree. 2 a type of tea made from its dried leaves. ⓘ 18c: American Spanish, from Quechua mati the gourd in which the tea is made.

mater /ˈmeɪtə(r)/ ▷ noun, humorous or dated colloq 1 a mother. 2 a form of address for mother, used chiefly by boys at public school. See also PATER. ⓘ 19c: Latin.

material /məˈtɪərɪəl/ ▷ noun 1 any substance out of which something is, or may be, made. See also RAW MATERIAL. 2 cloth; fabric. 3 (materials) instruments or tools needed for a particular activity or task. 4 information that provides the substance from which a book, TV programme, etc is prepared. 5 someone who is suitable for a specified occupation, training, etc □ He is management material. ▷ adj 1 relating to or consisting of solid matter, physical objects, etc; not abstract or spiritual □ suffered no material damage □ the material world. 2 relating to physical, as opposed to emotional, well-being or concerns □ material comforts. 3 (usually material to something) technical important; significant; relevant □ facts not material to the discussion. Compare IMMATERIAL. ● materially adverb. ● materialness or materiality /mətɪərɪˈalɪtɪ/ noun ⓘ 14c as adjective: from Latin materialis, from materia matter.

materialist noun a follower of or believer in materialism. , ▷ adj materialistic. ● materialistic adj relating to or characteristic of materialism. ● materialistically adverb 1 formal to an important or significant extent. 2 with regard to physical well-being or material conditions.

materialism /məˈtɪərɪəlɪzəm/ ▷ noun 1 often derog excessive interest in or devotion to material possessions and financial success. 2 philos the theory stating that only material things exist, especially denying the existence of a soul or spirit. ⓘ 18c.

materialize or materialise /məˈtɪərɪəlaɪz/ ▷ verb (materialized, materializing) 1 intr to become real, visible or tangible; to appear or take shape. 2 intr, loosely to become fact; to happen. 3 to cause (eg a spirit) to assume bodily form. ● materialization noun. ⓘ 18c.

matériel /matɪərɪˈel/ ▷ noun materials and equipment, especially the munitions, supplies, etc of an army. ⓘ 19c: French, meaning 'MATERIAL'.

maternal /məˈtɜːnəl/ ▷ adj 1 belonging to, typical of or like a mother. 2 said of a relative: related on the mother's side of the family □ my maternal grandfather. Compare PATERNAL. ● maternally adverb. ⓘ 15c: from French maternel, from Latin maternus, from mater mother.

maternity /məˈtɜːnɪtɪ/ ▷ noun 1 the state of being or becoming a mother; motherhood. 2 as adj relating to pregnancy or giving birth □ maternity hospital □ maternity wear. 3 the qualities typical of a mother; motherliness. ⓘ 17c: from French maternité; see MATERNAL + -ITY.

maternity leave ▷ noun the period of statutory paid leave that a pregnant woman is entitled to from her employer.

matey or maty /ˈmeɪtɪ/ ▷ adj (matier, matiest) colloq friendly or familiar. ▷ noun (mateys or maties) colloq usually used in addressing a man: friend; pal. ● matily adverb. ● matiness or mateyness noun. ⓘ 19c: from MATE[1].

math ▷ noun, N Amer colloq mathematics. Brit equivalent MATHS.

math. ▷ abbreviation mathematics.

mathematical /maθəˈmatɪkəl/ ▷ adj 1 belonging or relating to, or using, mathematics. 2 said of calculations, etc: very exact or accurate. ● mathematically adverb. ⓘ 16c.

mathematician /maθəməˈtɪʃən/ ▷ noun someone who specializes in or studies mathematics.

mathematics /maθəˈmatɪks/ ▷ singular noun the science dealing with measurements, numbers, quantities, and shapes, usually expressed as symbols. ⓘ 16c: from Greek mathematike relating to learning, from manthanein to learn.

maths ▷ singular noun, Brit colloq mathematics. N Amer equivalent MATH.

maties see under MATEY

Matilda /məˈtɪldə/ ▷ noun, Austral a tramp's bundle or SWAG. ● waltz Matilda to travel around carrying one's swag. ⓘ 19c: from the female personal name.

matily see under MATEY

matinal /ˈmatɪnəl/ ▷ adj, relig belonging or relating to MATINS.

matinée or matinee /ˈmatɪneɪ/ ▷ noun (matinées or matinees) an afternoon performance of a play or showing of a film. ⓘ 19c: French, meaning 'morning'.

matinée jacket or matinée coat ▷ noun a baby's short jacket or coat.

matiness see under MATEY matins /ˈmatɪnz/ ▷ singular or plural noun 1 now especially RC Church the first of the CANONICAL HOURS, originally at midnight, but often now taken together with LAUDS. 2 C of E (also morning prayer) the daily morning service. Compare EVENSONG. ⓘ 13c: French, from Latin matutinus of the morning, from Matuta the goddess of morning.

matri- /ˈmatrɪ/ ▷ combining form, denoting 1 a mother or mothers □ matricide. 2 a woman or women □ matriarchal. Compare PATRI-. ⓘ From Latin mater mother.

matriarch /ˈmeɪtrɪɑːk, ˈmat-/ ▷ noun 1 the female head of a family, community or tribe. 2 an elderly woman who dominates her family or associates. 3 an elderly and much respected woman of special dignity. ● matriarchal adj. ⓘ 17c: from MATRI-, modelled on PATRIARCH.

matriarchy /ˈmeɪtrɪɑːkɪ, ˈmat-/ ▷ noun (matriarchies) 1 a social system in which women are the heads of families or tribes, and property and power passes from mother to daughter. 2 a society or community, etc controlled by women. Compare PATRIARCHY. ⓘ 19c.

matrices /ˈmeɪtrɪsiːz, ˈmatrɪsiːz/ a plural of MATRIX matricide /ˈmeɪtrɪsaɪd, ˈmatrɪsaɪd/ ▷ noun 1 the killing of a mother by her own child. 2 someone who kills their own mother. ● matricidal adj. ⓘ 16c: from Latin matricidium; see MATRI- + -CIDE.

matriculate /məˈtrɪkjʊleɪt/ ▷ verb (matriculated, matriculating) 1 to admit someone as a member of a university or college, etc. 2 intr to register as a student at a university, college, etc, eg after passing an examination. ● matriculation /-ˈleɪʃən/ noun 1 the process of matriculating. 2 colloq (often shortened to matric /məˈtrɪk/) a university or college entrance examination taken at school. Also as adj □ matriculation card. ⓘ 16c: French, from Latin matriculare to register.

matrilineal /matrɪˈlɪnɪəl/ ▷ adj, anthropol, denoting descent or kinship through the mother or through females of the line only. Compare PATRILINEAL. ● matrilineally adverb. ⓘ Early 20c.

matrimony /ˈmatrɪmənɪ/ ▷ noun (matrimonies) formal 1 the state of being married. Also called MARRIAGE, WEDLOCK. 2 the wedding ceremony. ● matrimonial /-ˈmoʊnɪəl/ adj. ⓘ 14c: from French matremoyne, from Latin matrimonium wedlock, from mater mother.

matrix /ˈmeɪtrɪks, ˈma-/ ▷ noun (matrices /-trɪsiːz/ or matrixes) 1 math a square or rectangular arrangement of symbols or numbers, in rows or columns, used to summarize relationships between different quantities, etc. 2 biol in tissues such as bone and cartilage: the substance in which cells are embedded. 3 anatomy the tissue lying beneath the body and root of a fingernail or toenail, and from which it develops. 4 geol the rock in which a mineral or fossil is embedded. 5 printing a mould, especially one from which printing type is produced. 6 old use the womb. ⓘ 16c: Latin, meaning 'womb'.

matron /ˈmeɪtrən/ ▷ noun 1 the former title of the head of the nursing staff in a hospital. Now usually called SENIOR NURSING OFFICER. 2 a woman in charge of nursing and domestic arrangements in an institution such as a boarding school or old people's home. 3 any dignified, worthy or respectable middle-aged or elderly woman, especially a married one. 4 US a prison wardress. ● matronly adj said of a woman: 1 dignified; authoritative. 2 euphemistic plump or portly in build, because of middle-age. ⓘ 14c: French matrone, from Latin mater mother.

matron of honour ▷ noun (matrons of honour) a married woman who is a bride's chief attendant at a wedding. Compare MAID OF HONOUR.

matt or (sometimes) mat ▷ adj said eg of paint: having a dull surface without gloss or shine. ▷ verb (matted, matting) 1 to produce a dull surface on something. 2 to frost (glass). ⓘ 17c: from French mat a dull colour or unpolished surface.

Matt. ▷ abbreviation Book of the Bible: Matthew, the Gospel according to St Matthew. See table at BIBLE.

matte see under MATTE SHOT matted past tense, past participle of MAT¹, MATT matter /ˈmatə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 the substance from which all physical things are made; material. 2 material of a particular kind □ vegetable matter □ reading matter. 3 a subject or topic; a concern, affair or question □ if it's a matter of money □ matters of principle. 4 with negatives importance, significance or consequence □ something of no matter. 5 content, as distinct from style or form. 6 printing, publishing a material to be printed; b type that has been set. 7 (usually a matter of something) a an approximate quantity or amount of (time, etc) □ I'll be there in a matter of minutes; b used in saying what is involved or necessary □ it's just a matter of asking her to do it. 8 (the matter or the matter with someone or something) something that is wrong; the trouble or difficulty □ What is the matter? □ I don't know what is the matter with him. 9 medicine pus or discharge. ▷ verb (mattered, mattering) 1 intr to be important or significant □ Your health is what matters. 2 to secrete or discharge pus. ● a matter of form an official procedure or conventional etiquette. ● a matter of opinion something about which different people have different opinions. ● as a matter of course as something that one expects automatically to happen or be done, etc. ● as a matter of fact in fact; actually. ● for that matter used when referring to some alternative or additional possibility, etc: as far as that is concerned □ I could leave it until tomorrow, or until next week, for that matter. ● no matter it is not important; it makes no difference. ● no matter how, what or where, etc regardless of how or what, etc □ I'm leaving, no matter what you say. ⓘ 13c: French, from Latin materia subject or substance.

matter-of-fact ▷ adj calm and straightforward; not excited or emotional. ● matter-of-factly adverb. ● matter-of-factness noun.

matter of life and death ▷ noun something that is of great importance.

matte shot /mat —/ ▷ noun, cinematog a motion picture scene in which a mask (known as a matte) restricts the image exposed so that a second image can be superimposed subsequently. ⓘ 1930s: from French matte.

matting ▷ verb, present participle of MAT¹, MATT. ▷ noun 1 material of rough woven fibres used for making mats. 2 mat-making. 3 the act of becoming matted, or condition of being matted.

mattock /ˈmatək/ ▷ noun a kind of pickaxe with a blade flattened horizontally at one end, used for breaking up soil, etc. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon mattuc.

mattress /ˈmatrəs/ ▷ noun 1 a large flat fabric-covered pad, now often made of foam rubber or springs, used for sleeping on, by itself or on a supporting frame. 2 a mass of brushwood, etc used to form a foundation for roads, etc. ⓘ 13c: from Arabic almatrah a place where anything is thrown.

maturate /ˈmatʃʊreɪt, ˈmatjʊr-/ ▷ verb (maturated, maturating) tr & intr 1 medicine to discharge or cause something to discharge pus. 2 to make or become mature. ● maturation noun 1 medicine the process of suppurating fully (see SUPPURATE). 2 bringing or coming to maturity. ● maturative adj. ⓘ 16c: from Latin maturare to ripen.

mature /məˈtʃʊə(r), -ˈtjʊə(r)/ ▷ adj (maturer, maturest) 1 fully grown or developed. 2 having or showing adult good sense, emotional and social development, etc. 3 said of cheese, wine, etc: having a fully developed flavour. 4 said of bonds, insurance policies, etc: paying out, or beginning to pay out, money to the holder. 5 formal carefully or thoroughly thought out. ▷ verb (matured, maturing) 1 tr & intr to make or become fully developed or adult in outlook. 2 intr said of a life insurance policy, etc: to begin to produce a return. ● maturely adverb. ● maturity noun. ⓘ 16c: from Latin maturus ripe.

mature student ▷ noun, Brit someone over 25 who, unlike the majority of students who go to college or university immediately or shortly after leaving school, has become a student later in life after working or starting a family, etc.

MATV ▷ abbreviation, Brit Master Antenna Television, the use of a single antenna to serve a number of TV receivers, either directly or from a central station by cable distribution.

maty see MATEY

matzo /ˈmatsə, -soʊ/ ▷ noun (matzos) 1 a) unleavened bread; b as adj □ matzo ball. 2 a wafer or cracker made of this, now usually a large, thin, square one, eaten especially during Passover, etc. ⓘ 19c: from Yiddish matse, from Hebrew massah.

maudlin /ˈmɔːdlɪn/ ▷ adj said especially of a drunk person: foolishly sad or sentimental. ⓘ 14c: from French Madelaine, from Latin Magdalena, in reference to Mary Magdalene, the penitent woman (in Luke 7.38) who was often portrayed weeping.

maul /mɔːl/ ▷ verb (mauled, mauling) 1 to attack someone or something fiercely, usually tearing the flesh □ was mauled by lions. 2 to handle someone or something roughly or clumsily. 3 to subject someone to fierce criticism. ▷ noun 1 rugby a quickly-formed gathering of players from both teams around a player who is holding the ball. 2 a heavy wooden hammer. ⓘ 13c as male in obsolete sense 'a MACE[1]': from French mail, from Latin malleus a hammer.

maulstick or mahlstick /ˈmɔːlstɪk/ ▷ noun, art a stick or rod with a pad on one end, used by painters to steady their painting hand while executing delicate brushwork, by resting the padded end on the canvas or its frame. ⓘ 17c: from Dutch malen to paint.

maunder /ˈmɔːndə(r)/ ▷ verb (maundered, maundering) intr 1 (also maunder on) to talk in a rambling way; to drivel. 2 to wander about, or behave, in an aimless way. • maundering adj. ⓘ 17c.

maundy /ˈmɔːndɪ/ ▷ noun (maundies) Christianity, formerly a religious ceremony in which the sovereign washed the feet of the poor, in commemoration of Christ's washing of the disciples' feet, and distributed food, clothing and money (a tradition that remains only in the form of the ceremonial distribution of MAUNDY MONEY). ⓘ 13c: from French mandé, from Latin mandatum command, taken from Christ's command in John 13.34.

Maundy money ▷ noun, Brit silver money that is specially minted for the sovereign to distribute on Maundy Thursday, the day before Good Friday.

Mauritanian /mɒrɪˈteɪnɪən, mɔː-/ ▷ adj belonging or relating to Mauritania, an Islamic republic in NW Africa, or its inhabitants. ▷ noun a citizen or inhabitant of, or person born in, Mauritania.

mausoleum /mɔːsəˈlɪəm/ ▷ noun (mausoleums or mausolea /-lɪə/) a grand or monumental tomb. ⓘ 16c as Mausoleum, meaning specifically the Tomb of Mausolus, King of Caria, at Halicarnassus: Latin.

mauve /moʊv/ ▷ adj having a pale purple colour. ▷ noun this colour. ⓘ 19c: French, from Latin malva MALLOW.

maven /ˈmeɪvən/ or mavin /-ɪn/ ▷ noun, US colloq an expert or pundit. ⓘ 1960s: Yiddish, from Hebrew mevin understanding.

maverick /ˈmavərɪk/ ▷ noun 1 N Amer, especially US an unbranded stray animal, especially a calf. 2 a determinedly independent person; a nonconformist. Also as adj. ⓘ 19c: named after Samuel Maverick (1803–70), a Texas cattle-raiser who left his calves unbranded.

mavis /ˈmeɪvɪs/ ▷ noun (mavises) colloq another name for the song thrush. ⓘ 14c: from French mauvis.

maw /mɔː/ ▷ noun 1 the jaws, throat or stomach of a voracious animal. 2 facetious a greedy person's stomach. 3 something that seems to swallow things up insatiably. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon maga.

mawkish /ˈmɔːkɪʃ/ ▷ adj 1 weakly sentimental, maudlin or insipid. 2 sickly or disgusting. • mawkishly noun. • mawkishness noun. ⓘ 17c: from obsolete mawk a maggot, from Norse mathkr.

the max see under MAXIMUM

max. ▷ abbreviation maximum.

maxi /ˈmaksɪ/ ▷ adj, often in compounds said of a skirt, coat, etc: 1 extra long; full length. 2 extra large. ▷ noun (maxis) 1 a maxi garment. Compare MINI. 2 a large racing yacht. ⓘ 1960s: from MAXIMUM.

maxilla /makˈsɪlə/ ▷ noun (maxillae /-liː/) biol 1 the upper jaw or jawbone in animals. 2 the chewing organ or organs of an insect, just behind the mouth. See also JAW 1, JAWBONE. • maxillary adj. ⓘ 17c: Latin, meaning 'jaw'.

maxim /ˈmaksɪm/ ▷ noun 1 a saying that expresses a general truth. 2 a general rule or principle. ⓘ 15c: from Latin maxima propositio or sententia greatest axiom or opinion.

maximal ▷ adj belonging or relating to a MAXIMUM; having the greatest possible size, value, etc. • maximally adverb.

maximalist ▷ noun someone who makes the fullest (especially political) demands and is unwilling to accept compromise.

maximin /ˈmaksɪmɪn/ ▷ noun 1 math the highest value in a set of minimum values. 2 in game theory: the strategy of making all decisions in such a way as to maximize the chances of incurring the minimum potential loss. Compare MINIMAX. ⓘ 1960s: from maximum + minimum.

maximize or maximise /ˈmaksɪmaɪz/ ▷ verb (maximized, maximizing) to make something as high or great, etc as possible. • maximization noun. • maximizer noun. ⓘ 19c: from Latin maximus greatest.

maximum /ˈmaksɪməm/ (abbreviation max.) adj greatest possible. ▷ noun (maximums or maxima /-mə/) 1 the greatest or most; the greatest possible number, quantity, degree, etc. Also (chiefly US colloq) called the max. 2 geom in co-ordinate geometry: the point at which the slope of a curve changes from positive to negative. ⓘ 18c: from Latin maximus greatest.

maxi-single see under 12 INCH maxwell /ˈmakswəl/ ▷ noun, physics (abbreviation mx) the CGS UNIT of magnetic flux, equal to 10^{-8} weber. ⓘ Early 20c: named after James Clerk Maxwell (1831–79), a Scottish physicist.

May ▷ noun the fifth month of the year, which follows April and comes before June, and has 31 days. ⓘ 13c: from French Mai, from Latin Maius the month of Maia who in Roman mythology is the mother of Hermes.

may[1] ▷ auxiliary verb (past tense might) 1 used to express permission □ You may go now. 2 (sometimes may well) used to express a possibility □ I may come with you if I get this finished. 3 used to express an offer □ May I help you? 4 formal used to express a wish □ May you prosper! 5 formal & old use used to express purpose or result □ Listen, so that you may learn. 6 affected, old use or facetious used to express a question □ And who may you be? 7 used to express the idea of 'although' □ You may be rich, but you're not happy. See also MIGHT[1]. • be that as it may in spite of that. • come what may whatever happens. • may I add used to introduce an additional point. • may I ask often ironic used before or after a question. • That's as may be That may be so. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon mæg, present tense of magan to be able.

> may
>
> See Usage Note at can.

may[2] ▷ noun (mays) 1 the blossom of the HAWTHORN tree. Also called mayflower. 2 any variety of hawthorn tree. Also called may tree. ⓘ 16c: from MAY, the month in which it usually blooms.

maybe /ˈmeɪbiː, -bɪ/ ▷ adverb it may be; it is possible; perhaps. Also used as a sentence substitute. ▷ noun (maybes) 1 a possibility. 2 a thing or person that may possibly be selected, appointed, etc. ⓘ 15c: MAY[1] + BE.

May beetle and Maybug see COCKCHAFER

mayday or Mayday ▷ noun (maydays or Maydays) the international radio distress signal sent out by ships and aircraft. ⓘ 1920s: a phonetic representation of French m'aider help me.

May Day ▷ noun the first day of May, a national holiday in many countries, on which socialist and labour demonstrations are held, and traditionally a day of festivities.

mayflower ▷ noun 1 see under MAY[2]. 2 any of several other flowers that bloom in May.

mayfly ▷ noun (mayflies) a short-lived insect with transparent wings, which appears briefly in spring. ⓘ 17c.

mayhem /ˈmeɪhem/ ▷ noun 1 a state of great confusion and disorder; chaos. 2 US & formerly law the crime of maiming someone. ⓘ 15c in sense 2 as mahyme or mayme: from French mahaignier to wound.

mayn't /'meɪənt/ ▷ contraction, colloq may not.

mayonnaise /meɪə'neɪz/ ▷ noun, cookery 1 a cold, creamy sauce made of egg yolk, oil, vinegar or lemon juice and seasoning. 2 in compounds a dish in which a specified ingredient is mixed or coated with mayonnaise ▫ egg mayonnaise. Sometimes (colloq) shortened to mayo /'meɪoʊ/. ⓘ 19c: French.

mayor /mɛə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 in England, Wales and N Ireland: the head of the local council in a city, town or borough. Compare PROVOST. See also LORD MAYOR, LADY MAYORESS, MAYORESS. 2 in other countries: the head of any of various communities. ● mayoral adj 1 belonging or relating to a mayor. 2 belonging or relating to the office of a mayor. ● mayoralty /'mɛərəltɪ/ noun (mayoralties) the position, or period of office, of a mayor. ⓘ 13c: from French maire: from Latin major, the comparative of magnus great.

mayoress /mɛə'rɛs/ ▷ noun 1 a mayor's wife. 2 old use a female mayor. ⓘ 15c.

maypole ▷ noun a tall, decorated pole traditionally set up for dancing round on MAY DAY.

May queen ▷ noun a young woman crowned with flowers, chosen to preside over May Day festivities.

may tree see under MAY²

mayweed ▷ noun 1 a type of camomile. Also called stinking camomile. 2 any of various similar composite plants. ⓘ 16c.

maze /meɪz/ ▷ noun 1 a confusing network of paths bordered by high walls or hedges, laid out in a garden as a puzzling diversion in which a person might become lost or disorientated. 2 any confusingly complicated system, procedure, etc. ● mazy adj. ⓘ 14c; 13c as the maze in obsolete sense 'delirium': related to AMAZE.

mazurka /mə'zɜːkə, mə'zʊəkə/ ▷ noun (mazurkas) 1 a lively Polish dance in triple time, quite like the POLKA. 2 a piece of music for this dance. ⓘ 19c: Polish, meaning 'a woman from Mazovia' a province in Poland.

MB ▷ abbreviation 1 Medicinae Baccalaureus (Latin), Bachelor of Medicine. 2 computing megabyte.

MBA ▷ abbreviation Master of Business Administration.

mbar ▷ abbreviation millibar or millibars.

MBE ▷ abbreviation Member of the Order of the British Empire.

MBO ▷ abbreviation management buyout.

MBSc ▷ abbreviation Master of Business Science.

mbyte ▷ abbreviation megabyte.

MC /ɛm'siː/ ▷ abbreviation 1 master of ceremonies. 2 US Member of Congress. 3 Brit Military Cross. 4 IVR Monaco.

MCC ▷ abbreviation, Brit Marylebone Cricket Club.

McCarthyism /mə'kɑːθɪɪzəm/ ▷ noun the policy of hunting down and removing from public employment all people suspected of having links with Communism. ● McCarthyite adj belonging or relating to this purge, or to any manic purge of dissident factions in a political party, etc. ▷ noun someone who supports or practises McCarthyism. ⓘ 1950s: named after the US Republican senator Joseph R McCarthy (1909–57), who headed a fierce campaign to hunt out and interrogate suspected Communists in the US in the early 1950s.

McCoy /mə'kɔɪ/ ▷ noun ● the real McCoy colloq the genuine article, not an imitation.

MCP ▷ abbreviation male chauvinist pig. See MALE CHAUVINIST.

MD ▷ abbreviation 1 managing director. 2 US state Maryland. Also written Md. 3 Medicinae Doctor (Latin), Doctor of Medicine. 4 mentally deficient.

Md ▷ symbol, chem mendelevium.

MDMA ▷ abbreviation methylenedioxymethamphetamine, the chemical name for ECSTASY.

MDS ▷ abbreviation Master of Dental Surgery.

MDT ▷ abbreviation, N Amer Mountain Daylight Time, the system of time used in the mountain time zone during the summer months.

ME ▷ abbreviation 1 US state Maine. Also written Me. 2 Middle English. 3 medicine myalgic encephalomyelitis.

me¹ /miː/ ▷ pronoun 1 the object form of I, used by a speaker or writer to refer to himself or herself ▫ asked me a question. 2 used for I after the verb BE or when standing alone ▫ It's only me. ● be me colloq to be suited to me ▫ This dress isn't really me. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon: dative case of I.

> me
>
> For between you and me, etc see Usage Note at I me² or mi /miː/ ▷ noun, music in sol-fa notation: the third note of the major scale. ⓘ 16c: see SOL-FA.

mea culpa /meɪə 'kʊlpə/ ▷ noun ▷ interjection, literary or facetious an acknowledgement of one's own guilt or mistake: I am to blame. ⓘ 14c: Latin, literally 'by my fault'.

mead¹ /miːd/ ▷ noun an alcoholic drink made by fermenting honey and water, usually with spices added. Also called hydromel. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon meodu.

mead² /miːd/ ▷ noun, poetic or old use a meadow. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon mæd.

meadow /'mɛdoʊ/ ▷ noun 1 a low-lying field of grass, used for grazing animals or making hay. 2 any moist, grassy area near a river. ● meadowy adj. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon mædwe.

meadow pipit ▷ noun a ground-dwelling songbird with brown streaky plumage and a slender bill.

meadow saffron see AUTUMN CROCUS.

meadowsweet ▷ noun a European and Asian wild plant of the rose family, with fragrant cream-coloured flowers. ⓘ 16c.

meagre or (US) meager /'miːɡə(r)/ ▷ adj (meagrer, meagrest; US meagerer, meagerest) 1 lacking in quality or quantity; inadequate; scanty. 2 said of a person: thin, especially unhealthily so. ● meagrely adverb. ● meagreness noun. ⓘ 14c: from French maigre thin, from Latin macer lean.

meal¹ /miːl/ ▷ noun 1 an occasion on which food is eaten, eg lunch, supper, dinner, etc. 2 an amount of food eaten on one such occasion. ● make a meal of something 1 colloq to exaggerate the importance of it, or make it seem more complicated than it really is, eg by taking an unnecessary amount of time or trouble over it. 2 to eat it as a meal. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon mæl, meaning 'a measure' or 'a portion of time'.

meal² /miːl/ ▷ noun, often in compounds 1 the edible parts of any grain, usually excluding wheat, ground to a coarse powder ▫ oatmeal. 2 any other food substance in ground form ▫ bone meal. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon melo.

mealie /'miːlɪ/ ▷ noun (mealies) S Afr 1 an ear of MAIZE. 2 (especially mealies) MAIZE. ⓘ 19c: from Afrikaans mielie maize, from Portuguese milho millet.

mealie meal ▷ noun, S Afr maize ground to a fine flour.

meals-on-wheels ▷ singular noun, Brit a welfare service by which cooked meals are delivered by car, etc to the homes of old or sick people.

meal ticket ▷ noun 1 colloq a person or situation that provides a source of income or other means of living ▫ saw marriage as her meal ticket out of poverty. 2 N Amer, especially US a LUNCHEON VOUCHER.

mealy /ˈmiːlɪ/ ▷ adj (mealier, mealiest) 1 containing MEAL[1]. 2 dry and powdery, or granular, like meal. • mealiness noun.

mealy-mouthed ▷ adj, derog said of a person: afraid to speak plainly or openly; not frank or sincere. ⓘ 16c.

mean[1] /miːn/ ▷ verb (meant /mɛnt/, meaning) 1 to express or intend to express, show or indicate something. 2 to intend something; to have it as a purpose □ didn't mean any harm. 3 to be serious or sincere about something □ He means what he says. 4 to be important to the degree specified; to represent something □ Your approval means a lot to me □ He meant nothing to me. 5 to entail something necessarily; to involve or result in it □ War means hardship. 6 to foretell or portend something □ Cold cloudless evenings mean overnight frost. • be meant for something to be destined to it □ She was meant for stardom. • mean well to have good intentions. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon mænan.

mean[2] /miːn/ ▷ adj (meaner, meanest) 1 not generous. 2 low; despicable. 3 poor; shabby; characterized by inferior quality. 4 colloq, especially N Amer vicious; malicious; bad-tempered. 5 colloq good; skilful □ plays a mean guitar. • meanly adverb. • meanness noun. • no mean something colloq 1 an excellent one □ He's no mean singer. 2 not an easy one; a very difficult one □ That was no mean feat. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon gemæne low in rank or birth, common.

mean[3] /miːn/ ▷ adj 1 midway; intermediate. 2 average. ▷ noun 1 a midway position or course, etc between two extremes. 2 math, statistics a mathematical AVERAGE, in particular: a the average value of a set of n numbers, equal to the sum of the numbers divided by n. Also called arithmetic mean; b the average value of a set of n numbers, also taking into account their frequency, by multiplying each number by the number of times it occurs, summing the resulting values and dividing them by n. Also called weighted mean; c the *n*th root of the product of n quantities or numbers, eg the geometric mean of 2 and 3 is the second (square) root of 6, ie √6. Also called geometric mean. Compare MEDIAN, MODE. ⓘ 14c: from French meien, from Latin medius middle.

meander /mɪˈandə(r)/ ▷ verb (meandered, meandering) intr 1 said of a river: to bend and curve. 2 (also meander about) to wander randomly or aimlessly. ▷ noun (often meanders) 1 a bend; a winding course. 2 art an intricate, winding, fret pattern. ⓘ 16c: from Latin Maeander, a winding river in Turkey, now called the Menderes.

meanie or meany /ˈmiːnɪ/ ▷ noun (meanies) colloq 1 a selfish or ungenerous person. 2 especially N Amer a malicious or bad-tempered person.

meaning ▷ noun 1 the sense in which a statement, action, word, etc is intended to be understood. 2 significance, importance or purpose, especially when hidden or special. ▷ adj intended to express special significance □ a meaning look.

meaningful ▷ adj 1 having meaning; significant. 2 full of significance; expressive. 3 logic capable of interpretation. • meaningfully adverb.

meaningless ▷ adj 1 without meaning or reason. 2 having no importance. 3 having no purpose; pointless. • meaninglessly adverb. • meaninglessness noun.

means ▷ singular or plural noun 1 the instrument or method used to achieve some object. 2 wealth; resources. • a means to an end something treated merely as a way of achieving a desired result, considered unimportant in every other respect. • by all means rather formal yes, of course. • by any means using any available method. • by fair means see under FAIR. • by means of something with the help or use of it. • by no means or not by any means not at all, definitely not. ⓘ 17c: from MEAN[3].

means test ▷ noun an official inquiry into someone's wealth or income to determine their eligibility for financial benefit from the state. ▷ verb (means-test) to carry out a means test. ⓘ 1930s: see MEANS 2.

meant past tense, past participle of MEAN[1]

meantime ▷ noun (especially in the meantime) the time or period in between; the intervening time. ▷ adverb MEANWHILE. ⓘ 14c.

meanwhile ▷ adverb 1 during the time in between. 2 at the same time. ⓘ 14c.

meany see MEANIE

measles /ˈmiːzəlz/ ▷ singular noun 1 a highly infectious viral disease characterized by fever, a sore throat and a blotchy red rash that starts on the face and neck, and spreads to the rest of the body. See also GERMAN MEASLES. 2 vet medicine in pigs and cattle: a disease caused by larval tape worms. ⓘ 14c.

measly /ˈmiːzlɪ/ ▷ adj (measlier, measliest) 1 derog, colloq said of an amount, value, etc: very small; miserable; paltry. 2 relating to, or suffering from, measles. • measliness noun.

measurable /ˈmɛʒrəbəl, ˈmɛʒərəbəl/ ▷ adj 1 able to be measured; large enough, or of sufficient quantity, to be measured. 2 noticeable; significant. • measurably adverb.

measure /ˈmɛʒə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 size, volume, etc determined by comparison with something of known size, etc, usually an instrument graded in standard units. 2 often in compounds such an instrument for taking a measurement of something □ a tape-measure. 3 a standard unit of size, etc; a standard amount □ a measure of whisky. 4 a system of such units □ imperial measure □ metric measure. 5 (usually measures) an action; a step □ We must take drastic measures. 6 a limited, or appropriate, amount or extent □ a measure of politeness □ in some measure □ had my measure of luck. 7 an enactment or bill. 8 music time or rhythm; a bar. 9 poetry rhythm or metre. 10 (usually measures) a layer of rock containing a particular mineral, etc □ coal measures. 11 printing the width of a page or column of type, usually expressed in EMS. 12 old use a dance □ tread a measure. ▷ verb (measured, measuring) 1 tr & intr to determine the size, volume, etc of, usually with a specially made instrument or by comparing it to something else. 2 intr to be a specified size. 3 (also measure off something or measure something off or out) to mark or divide something into units of a given size, etc. 4 to set something in competition with something else □ measure his strength against mine. • measuring noun. Also as adj, especially in compounds referring to an object used for measuring □ measuring-jug. • above or beyond measure exceptionally great; to an exceedingly great degree. • be the measure of something to be the standard by which to judge its quality. • for good measure as something extra, or above the minimum necessary. • get or have the measure of someone or have or get someone's measure rather formal to form or have an idea or judgement of their character or abilities. • measure one's length to fall down at full length on the ground. • without measure inordinately; without restraint. ⓘ 13c: from Latin mensura, from metiri to measure.

■ measure someone up to find out and take note of a person's measurements □ was measured up for a new suit.

■ measure up to something to reach the required standard; to be adequate □ He just doesn't measure up to the job.

measured ▷ adj 1 slow and steady. 2 carefully chosen or considered □ a measured response. • measuredly adverb.

measurement ▷ noun 1 (often measurements) a size, amount, etc determined by measuring □ measurements for the new bedroom carpet. 2 (often measurements) the size of a part of the body □ What is his chest measurement? 3 the act of measuring. 4 a standard system of measuring.

measuring-worm see INCHWORM meat /miːt/ ▷ noun 1 the flesh of any animal used as food. See also RED MEAT, WHITE MEAT, GAME[1] noun 10. 2 the basic or most important part; the essence. 3 in something said or written: substance or content. 4 old use food in general; a meal. • meatless adj. • meat and drink to someone 1 a source of enjoyment to them. 2 their basic means of support. ⓒ Anglo-Saxon mete.

meatball ▷ noun, cookery a small ball of minced meat mixed with breadcrumbs and seasonings.

meat loaf ▷ noun a loaf-shaped food made from chopped or minced meat, seasoning, etc, cooked and usually eaten cold in slices.

meatus /mɪ'eɪtəs/ ▷ noun (meatuses) anatomy a passage between body parts or an opening, eg the passage that leads from the external surface of the ear to the eardrum. ⓒ 17c: Latin, meaning 'passage', from meare to flow or run.

meaty /'miːtɪ/ ▷ adj (meatier, meatiest) 1 full of, or containing, animal flesh. 2 resembling or tasting like meat, especially cooked meat. 3 full of interesting information or ideas □ a meaty article. • meatily adverb. • meatiness noun.

mecca or Mecca /'mɛkə/ ▷ noun (meccas or Meccas) any place of outstanding importance or significance to a particular group of people, especially one which they feel they have to visit □ St Andrews, the mecca of golf. ⓒ 19c: named after the city of Mecca in Saudi Arabia, the birthplace of Muhammad, to which all Muslims try to make at least one pilgrimage.

mech. ▷ abbreviation 1 mechanical. 2 mechanics.

mechanic /mə'kanɪk/ ▷ noun a skilled worker who repairs, maintains or constructs machinery. See also MECHANICIAN, MACHINIST. ⓒ 16c: see MECHANICAL.

mechanical ▷ adj 1 belonging to or concerning machines or mechanics. 2 worked by, or performed with, machinery or a mechanism. 3 said of an action or movement, etc: done without or not requiring much thought. 4 acting or done by physical means, rather than chemical. • mechanically adverb. ⓒ 15c: from Latin mechanicus, from Greek mechane a contrivance or machine.

mechanical advantage ▷ noun, engineering the ratio of the output force (or LOAD noun 11) to the input force for a simple machine.

mechanical drawing ▷ noun, technical a drawing of a machine, architectural construction, etc done with the aid of instruments.

mechanical engineering ▷ noun the branch of engineering concerned with the design, construction and operation of machines of all types.

mechanician /mɛkə'nɪʃən/ ▷ noun someone skilled in constructing machines and tools. See also MACHINIST, MECHANIC.

mechanics ▷ singular noun 1 the branch of physics that deals with the motion of bodies and the forces that act on them. See also DYNAMICS, STATICS. 2 the art or science of machine construction. ▷ plural noun 1 the system on which something works. 2 colloq routine procedures.

mechanism /'mɛkənɪzəm/ ▷ noun 1 a working part of a machine or its system of working parts. 2 the arrangements and action by which something is produced or achieved; the process. 3 psychol an action that serves some purpose, often a subconscious purpose □ Laughter is a common defence mechanism. ⓒ 17c: from Latin mechanismus: see MACHINE.

mechanistic /mɛkə'nɪstɪk/ ▷ adj 1 relating to mechanics. 2 relating to a mechanism. • mechanistically adverb.

mechanize or mechanise /'mɛkənaɪz/ ▷ verb (mechanized, mechanizing) 1 to change (the production of something, a procedure, etc) from a manual to a mechanical process. 2 military to provide (troops etc) with armoured armed vehicles. • mechanization noun. • mechanizer noun. ⓒ 17c.

meconium /mɪ'koʊnɪəm/ ▷ noun, medicine the first faeces passed by a baby after birth, or occasionally just before birth, which are dark-greenish and sticky. ⓒ 18c; 17c in obsolete sense 'poppy juice': Latin, from Greek mekon poppy.

the Med ▷ noun, colloq 1 the Mediterranean Sea. 2 the region of the Mediterranean.

MEd. ▷ abbreviation Master of Education.

med. ▷ abbreviation 1 medical. 2 medicine. 3 medieval. 4 medium.

medal /'mɛdəl/ ▷ noun a flat piece of metal decorated with a design or inscription and awarded, eg to a soldier, sportsperson, etc, for merit or bravery, or produced in celebration of a special occasion. • medallist noun 1 someone who is awarded a medal, especially for excellence in sport. 2 a designer, maker or collector of, or an expert on, medals. ⓒ 16c: from French médaille, from Latin metallum metal.

medallion /mə'dalɪən/ ▷ noun 1 a large medal-like piece of jewellery, usually worn on a chain. 2 in architecture or on textiles: an oval or circular decorative feature. 3 cookery a thin circular cut of meat. ⓒ 17c: from French médaillon; related to MEDAL.

meddle /'mɛdəl/ ▷ verb (meddled, meddling) intr 1 (usually meddle in something) to interfere in it. 2 (usually meddle with something) to tamper with it. • meddler noun. • meddlesome adj, derog fond of meddling. • meddling noun, adj. ⓒ 14c: from French medler, from Latin miscere to mix.

media /'miːdɪə/ ▷ plural noun: plural of MEDIUM. ▷ singular or plural noun (usually the media or the mass media) the means by which news and information, etc is communicated to the public, usually considered to be TV, radio and the press collectively.

> media
>
> • When referring to newspapers and broadcasting, media is still more commonly treated as a plural noun.
>
> ✓ The media are highly selective in their focus on sexual violence.
>
> • Occasionally, however, it is used as a singular noun, especially when a unified concept is intended:
>
> ? These people have fears which the media has shamelessly played on over the years.
>
> ? This may lead the media to slant its coverage.
>
> • Media is often used before a noun (as an adjective), eg media attention, media coverage.

mediaeval, mediaevalism and mediaevalist an alternative (now less common) spelling of MEDIEVAL, etc.

mediagenic /'miːdɪədʒɛnɪk, -dʒiːnɪk/ ▷ adj said of a person: able to communicate well or present a good image in the media, especially on TV. ⓒ 1980s: from MEDIA, modelled on PHOTOGENIC.

medial /'miːdɪəl/ ▷ adj, technical 1 belonging to or situated in the middle; intermediate. 2 math relating to a mean or average. 3 see MEDIAN adj 1 and 2. • medially adverb. ⓒ 16c: from Latin medialis, from medius middle.

median /'miːdɪən/ ▷ noun 1 a middle point or part. 2 geom a straight line between any VERTEX of a triangle and the centre of the opposite side. 3 statistics a the middle value in a set of numbers or measurements arranged from smallest to largest, eg the median of 1, 5 and 11 is 5; b said of an even number of measurements: the AVERAGE of the middle two measurements. Compare MEAN³, MODE. ▷ adj (also medial) 1 situated in or passing through the middle. 2 statistics belonging or relating to the median. ⓘ 16c: from Latin medianus, from medius middle.

mediant /'miːdɪənt/ ▷ noun, music the third degree of a major or minor scale, lying midway between the TONIC and the DOMINANT. ⓘ 18c: from Italian mediante, from Latin medius middle.

mediastinum /miːdɪə'staɪnəm/ ▷ noun (mediastina /-nə/) anatomy 1 a membranous partition, especially the one that separates the lungs. 2 the region of the thoracic cavity between the lungs where the heart lies. ⓘ 16c: from Latin mediastinus an inferior servant or drudge.

mediate ▷ verb /'miːdɪeɪt/ (mediated, mediating) 1 a intr to act as the agent seeking to reconcile the two sides in a disagreement; b to intervene in or settle (a dispute) in this way. 2 a to convey or transmit (views, etc) as an agent, intermediary or medium; b intr to act as an intermediary or medium. 3 intr to hold an intermediary position. ▷ adj /'miːdɪət/ 1 resulting from mediation. 2 indirectly related or connected, eg through some other person. • mediation noun the act or process of mediating. • mediator noun. Compare MODERATE, MODERATOR. ⓘ 16c: from Latin mediatus, from mediare to be in the middle.

medic /'medɪk/ ▷ noun, colloq a doctor or medical student. Also called MEDICO. ⓘ 17c.

medicable /'medɪkəbəl/ ▷ adj said of a condition, illness, etc: able to be healed or treated.

Medicaid /'medɪkeɪd/ ▷ noun in the USA: a state- or federal-funded scheme which provides assistance with medical expenses for people with low incomes. Compare MEDICARE. ⓘ 1960s.

medical /'medɪkəl/ ▷ adj 1 belonging or relating to doctors or the science or practice of medicine. 2 concerned with medicine, or treatment by medicine, rather than surgery. ▷ noun a medical examination to discover a person's physical health. • medically adverb. ⓘ 17c: from French médical, from Latin medicus physician, from mederi to heal.

medical certificate ▷ noun 1 a certificate outlining a person's state of health, provided by a doctor who has carried out a medical examination on them, especially for employment purposes. 2 a certificate from a doctor stating that a person is, or has been, unfit for work.

medical jurisprudence ▷ noun FORENSIC MEDICINE.

Medical Officer or medical officer ▷ noun (abbreviation MO) in the armed services, etc: a doctor in charge of medical treatment.

medicament /mə'dɪkəmənt, 'me-/ ▷ noun, formal a medicine. ⓘ 16c: from Latin medicamentum, from medicare to cure.

Medicare ▷ noun 1 in the USA: a scheme which provides medical insurance for people aged 65 and over, and for certain categories of disabled people. Compare MEDICAID. 2 in Australia: a system providing universal medical insurance. ⓘ 1960s.

medicate /'medɪkeɪt/ ▷ verb (medicated, medicating) 1 to treat someone with medicine. 2 to add a healing or health-giving substance to something. • medication noun medicine or treatment by medicine. ⓘ 17c: from Latin medicare to cure.

medicinal /mə'dɪsɪnəl/ ▷ adj 1 having healing qualities; used as a medicine. 2 belonging or relating to healing. • medicinally adverb.

medicine /'medɪsən, 'medsɪn/ ▷ noun 1 a any substance used to treat or prevent disease or illness, especially one taken internally; b as adj ▫ medicine bottle ▫ medicine cabinet. 2 the science or practice of treating or preventing illness, especially using prepared substances rather than surgery. 3 medical practice or the profession of a physician. 4 in primitive societies: something regarded as magical or curative. • have or get a taste or dose of one's own medicine to suffer the same unpleasant treatment that one has given to other people. • take one's medicine to accept an unpleasant but deserved punishment. ⓘ 13c: from French medecine, from Latin medicina, from medicus a physician.

medicine ball ▷ noun a heavy ball thrown from person to person as a form of exercise.

medicine man ▷ noun among certain peoples: a person believed to have magic powers, used for healing or sorcery.

medico /'medɪkoʊ/ ▷ noun (medicos) colloq a MEDIC.

medico- /medɪkoʊ/ ▷ combining form, denoting medicine or medical matters ▫ medico-legal.

medieval or (less commonly) mediaeval /medɪ'iːvəl, mɪ'dɪvəl/ ▷ adj 1 belonging or relating to, or characteristic of, THE MIDDLE AGES. 2 derog, colloq extremely old and primitive. • medievalism noun 1 the spirit or style of the Middle Ages, or devotion to medieval ideals. 2 a practice or style revived or surviving from the Middle Ages. • medievalist noun a student of, or expert in, any area or aspect of study of the medieval period. ⓘ 19c: from Latin medius middle + aevum age.

mediocre /miːdɪ'oʊkə(r)/ ▷ adj only ordinary or average; rather inferior. • mediocrity /miːdɪ'ɒkrɪtɪ/ noun (mediocrities) 1 the quality of being mediocre. 2 a mediocre person or thing. ⓘ 16c: from French médiocre, from Latin mediocris, meaning 'midway up a mountain', from medius middle + ocris stony mountain.

meditation noun 1 the act or process of meditating. 2 deep thought; contemplation, especially on a spiritual or religious theme. 3 a meditative discourse or literary or musical piece. See also TRANSCENDENTAL MEDITATION.

meditate /'medɪteɪt/ ▷ verb (meditated, meditating) 1 intr to spend time in deep religious or spiritual thought, often with the mind in a practised state of emptiness. 2 (often meditate about or on something) to think deeply and carefully about something; to reflect upon it. • meditative /-'teɪtɪv/ adj 1 inclined to meditate. 2 encouraging or giving rise to meditation. • meditatively adverb ⓘ 16c: from Latin meditari to reflect upon.

Mediterranean /medɪtə'reɪnɪən/ ▷ adj 1 in, belonging or relating to the area of the Mediterranean Sea, a large inland sea lying between S Europe, N Africa and SW Asia. 2 characteristic of this area. 3 meteorol said of a climate: characterized by hot, dry summers and mild, rainy winters. 4 said of a human physical type: slight to medium stature and with a dark complexion. ▷ noun 1 (the Mediterranean) the Mediterranean Sea and the area surrounding it, or both. 2 a person born or living in one of the countries which borders on to the Mediterranean Sea. ⓘ 16c: from Latin mediterraneus, from medius middle + terra earth.

medium /'miːdɪəm/ ▷ noun (plural in all senses except 2 and 7 mediums or, in all senses except 8, media /'miːdɪə/) 1 something by or through which an effect is produced. 2 see MEDIA. 3 someone through whom the spirits of dead people are said to communicate with the living. 4 art a particular category of materials seen as a means of expression, eg watercolours, photography or clay. 5 art a substance, eg water, oil, turpentine, in which paint is thinned or mixed. 6 biol a CULTURE MEDIUM. 7 computing (usually media) any material on which data is recorded, eg magnetic disk. 8 a middle position, condition or course ▫ a happy medium. ▷ adj 1 intermediate; midway; average. 2 moderate. 3 said of meat, especially steak: cooked through so that it is not bloody when cut open. Compare RARE², WELL DONE. ⓘ 16c: Latin, from medius middle.

medium-dated ▷ adj, finance said of securities: redeemable in five to fifteen years' time. See also LONG-DATED, SHORT-DATED.

medium wave ▷ noun a radio wave with a wavelength between 200 and 1000 metres. Compare LONG WAVE, SHORT WAVE. Also as adj □ a medium-wave broadcast.

medlar /'medlə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 a small brown apple-like fruit eaten only when already decaying. 2 the small Eurasian tree that bears it. ⓘ 14c: from French medler, from Latin mespilum.

medley /'medlɪ/ ▷ noun (medleys) 1 a piece of music made up of pieces from other songs, tunes, etc. 2 a mixture or miscellany. 3 a race in stages with each stage a different length or, in swimming, with each stage swum using a different stroke. Also called medley relay. ⓘ 15c in sense 2; 14c in obsolete sense 'fighting': from French medlee, from medler to mix.

medulla /mɛ'dʌlə/ ▷ noun (medullae /-liː/ or medullas) 1 biol the central part of an organ or tissue, when this differs in structure or function from the outer layer, eg the pith of a plant stem. 2 anatomy the MEDULLA OBLONGATA. ● medullary or medullar adj. ⓘ 17c: Latin, meaning 'pith'.

medulla oblongata /mɛ'dʌlə ɒblɒŋ'gɑːtə/ ▷ noun (medullae oblongatae /-liː -tiː/ or medulla oblongatas) anatomy in vertebrates: the part of the brain that arises from the spinal cord and forms the lower part of the BRAINSTEM, containing centres that control breathing, heartbeat, etc. ⓘ 17c: Latin, meaning 'oblong marrow'.

medusa /mə'djuːzə, -sə/ ▷ noun (medusas or medusae /-siː/) zool a free-swimming, disc-shaped or bell-shaped organism with marginal tentacles and a mouth in the centre of its underside, representing the sexually-reproducing stage in the life cycle of a jellyfish or other coelenterate. ● medusoid /mə'djuːzɔɪd/ adj. ⓘ 18c: from Latin Medusa, from Greek Medousa, one of the Gorgons in Greek mythology who had snakes for hair.

meek ▷ adj (meeker, meekest) 1 having a mild and gentle temperament. 2 submissive. ● meekly adverb. ● meekness noun. ⓘ 13c: from Norse mjukr soft, gentle.

meerkat /'mɪəkat/ ▷ noun any of several species of mongoose-like carnivores native to S Africa, that live in large social groups and nest in burrows. ⓘ 15c in obsolete sense 'monkey'.

meerschaum /'mɪəʃəm, -ʃɔːm/ ▷ noun 1 a fine, whitish, clay-like mineral. 2 a tobacco pipe with a bowl made of this. ⓘ 18c: German, from Meer sea + Schaum foam.

meet[1] ▷ verb (met, meeting) 1 tr & intr to be introduced to someone for the first time. 2 tr & intr a (also meet up with someone or US meet with someone) to come together with them by chance or by arrangement; b said of two people, groups, etc: to come together, either by chance or arrangement. 3 to be present at the arrival of (a vehicle, etc) □ met the train. 4 tr & intr (often meet with something) to come into opposition against it □ My plan met with fierce resistance. 5 tr & intr to join; to come into contact with something □ where the path meets the road. 6 to satisfy □ meet your requirements. 7 to pay □ meet costs. 8 to come into the view, experience or presence of something □ the sight that met my eyes. 9 (also meet with something) to encounter or experience it □ met his death □ met with disaster. 10 (also meet with something) to receive it □ My suggestions met with approval. ▷ noun 1 the assembly of hounds and huntsmen and huntswomen before a fox-hunt begins. 2 a sporting event, especially a series of athletics competitions. ● meet someone halfway to come to a compromise with them; to be willing to make some concessions to them, so that an agreement can be reached when they do the same. ● more than meets the eye or ear more complicated, interesting, etc than it first appears or sounds. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon metan.

■ meet with something to answer or oppose something □ meet force with greater force.

meet[2] ▷ adj, old use proper, correct or suitable. ● meetly adverb correctly; suitably. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon gemæte.

meeting ▷ noun 1 an act of coming together. 2 an assembly or gathering at a prearranged time, usually to discuss specific topics. 3 a sporting event, especially an athletics or horse-racing event □ race meeting.

meeting-house ▷ noun a house or building in which people meet for public worship, especially one used by the RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS.

mega /'megə/ ▷ adj, colloq excellent. ⓘ 1980s: from MEGA-.

mega- /'megə/ ▷ combining form, denoting 1 (symbol M) a million □ megabit □ megawatt. 2 (also megalo- /'megəloʊ/) large or great. 3 colloq great □ megastar. ⓘ From Greek megas, megal- big.

megabuck ▷ noun N Amer colloq 1 a million dollars. 2 (usually megabucks) a huge sum of money. ⓘ 1940s.

megabyte ▷ noun, computing a unit of storage capacity equal to 2^{20} or 1 048 576 bytes (abbreviation mbyte or MB). ⓘ 1970s.

megadeath ▷ noun death of a million people, used as a unit in estimating casualties in nuclear war.

megaflop ▷ noun, colloq a complete failure, especially one that involves huge commercial losses.

megahertz ▷ noun (plural megahertz) (symbol MHz) a unit of frequency equal to of one million hertz. Formerly called megacycle.

megalith /'megəlɪθ/ ▷ noun, archaeol a very large stone, especially one that forms part of a prehistoric monument. See also CROMLECH. ● megalithic adj 1 said of a period of prehistory: characterized by the use of megaliths in monuments, etc. 2 said of a prehistoric monument: made of megaliths. ⓘ 19c.

megalo- see under MEGAmegalomania /megəloʊ'meɪnɪə/ ▷ noun 1 medicine a mental condition characterized by an exaggerated sense of power and self-importance. 2 colloq greed for power. ⓘ 19c.

megalomaniac noun someone who is affected by megalomania. ▷ adj relating to or affected by megalomania.

megalosaur /'megəloʊsɔː(r)/ and megalosaurus /-'sɔːrəs/ ▷ noun (megalosaurs or megalosauri /-iː/) any gigantic bipedal carnivorous dinosaur of the Jurassic or Cretaceous period. ⓘ 19c: Latin megalosaurus, from Greek sauros lizard.

megaphone ▷ noun a funnel-shaped device which, when someone speaks into it, amplifies the voice. ⓘ 19c.

megastore ▷ noun a very large shop, especially any of the large chain stores. ⓘ 1980s.

megaton /'megətʌn/ ▷ noun 1 a unit of weight equal to one million tons. 2 a unit of explosive power equal to one million tons of TNT. Also as adj □ megaton bomb.

megilp or magilp /mə'gɪlp/ ▷ noun, art in oil-painting: a medium consisting of linseed oil and mastic varnish. ⓘ 18c.

meiosis /maɪ'oʊsɪs/ ▷ noun (meioses /-siːz/) 1 biol a type of cell division in which four daughter nuclei are produced, each containing half the number of chromosomes of the parent nucleus and resulting in the formation of male and female GAMETES. Also called REDUCTION. 2 rhetoric a less common term for LITOTES. ● meiotic /maɪ'ɒtɪk/ adj. ⓘ Early 20c in sense 1; 16c in sense 2: from Greek meion less.

meister /'maɪstə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 someone who's an expert. 2 in compounds someone who's an expert in the specified thing □ style meister □ scam meister □ image meister □ noise meister.

meitnerium /maɪt'nɪərɪəm/ ▷ noun, chem (symbol Mt, atomic number 109) a name proposed for the radioactive element UNNILENNIUM.

melamine /'meləmiːn/ ▷ noun, chem 1 a white crystalline organic compound used to form artificial resins (melamine resins) that are resistant to heat, water and many chemicals. 2 one of these resins. 3 material made from one of these resins, widely used as laminated coatings. ⓒ 19c: from German Melamin.

melan- see under MELANOmelancholia /melən'kouliə/ ▷ noun (melancholiae /-liiː/) old use mental depression. ⓒ 17c: Latin; see MELANCHOLY.

melancholy /'melənkɒlɪ, -kəlɪ/ ▷ noun (melancholies) 1 a tendency to be gloomy or depressed. 2 prolonged sadness. 3 a sad, pensive state of mind. ▷ adj sad; causing or expressing sadness. ● melancholic /melən'kɒlɪk/ adj relating to or suffering from melancholia or melancholy. See also HUMOUR noun 6. ⓒ 14c: from Greek melancholia, from melan black + chole bile, because the condition was once thought to be due to an excess of black bile in the body.

Melanesian /melə'niːzɪən, -'niːʒən/ ▷ adj belonging or relating to Melanesia, a group of islands NE of Australia, its inhabitants or their languages. ▷ noun 1 a citizen or inhabitant of, or person born in, Melanesia. 2 a group of languages spoken in Melanesia, or one of these languages. ⓒ 19c: from MELAN- (because the dominant race in these islands is dark-skinned), modelled on POLYNESIAN.

melange or mélange /meɪ'lɑːnʒ; French melɑ̃ʒ/ ▷ noun (melanges or mélanges) a mixture, especially a varied or confused one □ a melange of strange characters □ a melange of winter vegetables. ⓒ 17c: French.

melanin /'melənɪn/ ▷ noun, physiol, chem the black or dark brown pigment found to varying degrees in the skin, hair and eyes of humans and animals. ⓒ 19c.

melano- /melənou-/ or (before a vowel) melan- ▷ combining form, denoting 1 black or dark. 2 melanin. ⓒ From Greek melas, melanos black.

melanocyte /'melənousaɪt, mɪ'lan-/ ▷ noun (melanocytes) zool a cell that produces melanin. ⓒ 19c.

melanoma /melə'noumə/ ▷ noun (melanomas, melanomata /-mətə/) medicine a cancerous tumour, usually of the skin, that is composed of MELANOCYTES and may spread to other parts of the body, such as the lymph nodes. ⓒ 19c: Latin.

melatonin /melə'tounɪn/ ▷ noun, physiol in vertebrates: a hormone secreted by the PINEAL GLAND that is involved in the control of certain daily and seasonal changes, and changes in pigmentation. ⓒ 1950s: modelled on SEROTONIN, from Greek melas black.

Melba toast /'melbə —/ ▷ noun very thin, crisp toast. See also PEACH MELBA. ⓒ 1930s: named after Dame Nellie Melba (1861–1931), the Australian operatic soprano.

meld[1] ▷ verb (melded, melding) tr & intr to merge, blend or combine. ⓒ 1930s.

meld[2] ▷ verb (melded, melding) tr & intr, cards to declare; to lay down (cards) in order to score points. ▷ noun a laying down of cards. ⓒ 19c: from German melden, related to Anglo-Saxon meldian to show forth or make known.

melee or mêlée /'meleɪ/ ▷ noun (melees or mêlées) 1 a riotous brawl involving large numbers of people. 2 any confused or muddled collection. ⓒ 17c: French mêlée, from mêler to mix.

meliorate /'miːlɪəreɪt/ ▷ verb (meliorated, meliorating) tr & intr to improve. See also AMELIORATE. ● melioration noun. ● meliorative adj. ⓒ 16c: from Latin meliorare, from melior better.

mellifluous /mɪ'lɪfluəs/ or mellifluent /-fluənt/ ▷ adj said of sounds, speech, etc: having a smooth sweet flowing quality. ● mellifluously or mellifluently adverb. ● mellifluousness noun. ⓒ 15c: from Latin mel honey + fluere to flow.

mellow /'melou/ ▷ adj (mellower, mellowest) 1 said of a person or their character: calm and relaxed with age or experience. 2 said of sound, colour, light, etc: soft, rich and pure. 3 said of wine, cheese, etc: fully flavoured with age; well matured. 4 said of fruit: sweet and ripe. 5 said of a person: pleasantly relaxed or warm-hearted through being slightly drunk or affected by a recreational drug. ▷ verb (mellowed, mellowing) tr & intr to make or become mellow. ● mellowness noun. ⓒ 15c: perhaps from Anglo-Saxon mearu soft or tender.

■ mellow out to relax and release one's tensions and inhibitions.

melodeon or melodion /mə'loudɪən/ ▷ noun 1 a small reed-organ; a harmonium. 2 a kind of accordion. ⓒ 19c: German Melodion, from Melodie melody.

melodic /mə'lɒdɪk/ ▷ adj 1 relating or belonging to melody. 2 pleasant-sounding; tuneful; melodious. ● melodically adverb. ⓒ 19c.

melodious /mə'loudɪəs/ ▷ adj 1 pleasant to listen to; tuneful. 2 having a recognizable melody. ● melodiousness noun. ⓒ 14c.

melodist /'melədɪst/ ▷ noun 1 someone who composes melodies. 2 rather dated a singer. ⓒ 18c in sense 2.

melodrama /'melədrɑːmə/ ▷ noun (melodramas) 1 as a theatrical genre especially popular during the 19c: drama often including musical items and featuring simplified characters, sensational events and traditional justice, usually in the form of a happy ending. 2 a play or film of this kind, sometimes lacking the musical element and with an emphasis on appealing to the emotions. 3 derog excessively dramatic behaviour. ● melodramatic /melədrə'matɪk/ adj excessively emotional, sensational, etc; overstrained, characteristic of melodramas □ stop being so melodramatic. ● melodramatically adverb. ● melodramatics plural noun melodramatic behaviour. ● melodramatize or melodramatise verb. ⓒ 19c: from French mélodrame, from Greek melos song + drama action or DRAMA.

melody /'melədɪ/ ▷ noun (melodies) 1 music the sequence of single notes forming the core of a tune, as opposed to the HARMONY. 2 pleasantness of sound; tuneful music. 3 especially in poetry: pleasant arrangement or combination of sounds. ⓒ 13c: from Greek melodia, from melos song + aoidein to sing.

melon /'melən/ ▷ noun 1 any of several plants of the gourd family, cultivated for their fruits. 2 the large rounded edible fruit of any of these plants, which generally have a thick skin, sweet juicy flesh and many seeds □ watermelon. ⓒ 14c: French, from Greek melon apple.

melt ▷ verb (melted, melting) tr & intr 1 (sometimes melt down or melt something down) to make or become soft or liquid, especially through the action of heat; to dissolve (something solid). 2 (often melt into something) to combine or fuse, or make something combine or fuse with something else, causing a loss of distinctness. 3 (also melt away or melt something away) to disappear or make something disappear or disperse □ support for the scheme melted away. 4 colloq to make or become emotionally or romantically tender or submissive □ Her smile melted my heart. ▷ noun 5 the act of melting. 6 the quantity or material melted. ● melting noun, adj. ● meltingly adverb. ● melt in the mouth said of food: to be especially delicious, eg in lightness of texture. ⓒ Anglo-Saxon meltan (as the intransitive verb) and mæltan (the transitive).

■ melt down 1 technical said of the core of a nuclear reactor: to overheat, causing radioactivity to escape. 2 to turn (metal, or metal articles) to a liquid state so that the raw material can be reused.

meltdown ▷ noun 1 technical the overheating of the core of a nuclear reactor, causing radioactivity to escape into the environment. 2 colloq a major disaster or failure.

melting point ▷ noun (abbreviation mp) the temperature at which a particular substance (usually one that is solid at room temperature, eg a metal) changes from a solid to a liquid.

melting-pot ▷ noun 1 a place or situation in which varying beliefs, ideas, cultures, etc come together. 2 a vessel for melting something, eg metal, in. • in the melting-pot in the process of changing and forming something new.

mem. ▷ abbreviation 1 (also Mem.) member. 2 memorandum. 3 memorial.

member /ˈmembə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 someone who belongs to a group or organization. 2 (often Member) an elected representative of a governing body, eg a Member of Parliament, or of a local council, etc. 3 a a part of a whole, especially a limb of an animal or a petal of a plant; b the penis. 4 building a constituent part of a structural framework. 5 a plant or animal belonging to a specific class or group. • membered adj. • memberless adj. ⓒ 13c in sense 3: from French membre, from Latin membrum limb or part.

Member of Parliament ▷ noun (abbreviation MP) 1 in the UK: a person elected to represent the people of a CONSTITUENCY in the HOUSE OF COMMONS. Sometimes shortened to MEMBER (sense 2) ◻ the Member for Huntingdon. 2 (also member of parliament) a person elected to a legislative assembly in various countries. See also MEP, MHR.

membership ▷ noun 1 the state of being a member ◻ has been refused membership of the club. 2 a the members of an organization collectively; b the number of members ◻ Membership has fallen dramatically.

membrane /ˈmembreɪn/ ▷ noun 1 a thin sheet of tissue that lines a body cavity or surrounds a body part, organ, etc. 2 biol a thin layer of lipid and protein molecules that forms the boundary between a cell and its surroundings. Also called cell membrane, plasma membrane. 3 any thin, flexible covering or lining, eg plastic film. • membranous /ˈmembrənəs/ adj. ⓒ 17c; 16c in obsolete sense 'parchment': from Latin membrana the skin of the body; parchment.

memento /məˈmentoʊ/ ▷ noun (mementos or mementoes) a thing that serves as a reminder of the past; a souvenir. ⓒ 15c: Latin, imperative of meminisse to remember.

memento mori /— ˈmɔːriː/ ▷ noun an object intended as a reminder of the inevitability of death, eg a skull. ⓒ Latin, literally 'Remember that you must die'.

memo /ˈmemoʊ/ ▷ contraction (memos) a short note. ⓒ 19c: shortened from MEMORANDUM.

memoir /ˈmemwɑː(r)/ ▷ noun 1 a written record of events in the past, especially one based on personal experience. 2 (usually memoirs) a person's written account of his or her own life; an autobiography. 3 a learned essay on any subject. • memoirist noun. ⓒ 16c: from French mémoire memory.

memorabilia /memərəˈbɪlɪə/ ▷ plural noun souvenirs of people or events. ⓒ 19c: Latin, meaning 'memorable things'.

memorable /ˈmemərəbəl/ ▷ adj worth remembering; easily remembered; remarkable. • memorability /-ˈbɪlɪtɪ/ noun. • memorably adverb. ⓒ 15c: from Latin memorabilis, from memorare to remember.

memorandum /meməˈrandəm/ ▷ noun (memorandums or memoranda /-də/) 1 a written statement or record, especially one circulated for the attention of colleagues at work. 2 a note of something to be remembered. 3 law a brief note of some transaction, recording the terms, etc. ⓒ 15c: Latin, meaning 'a thing to be remembered', from memorare to remember.

memorial /məˈmɔːrɪəl/ ▷ noun 1 a thing that honours or commemorates a person or an event, eg a statue or monument. 2 (especially memorials) historical a written statement of facts; a record. ▷ adj 1 serving to preserve the memory of a person or an event ◻ a memorial fund. 2 relating to or involving memory. ⓒ 14c: from Latin memoriale reminder.

Memorial Day ▷ noun in the USA: a national holiday held on the last Monday in May in honour of American war dead.

memorialize or memorialise /məˈmɔːrɪəlaɪz/ ▷ verb (memorialized, memorializing) 1 to commemorate someone or something. 2 to address or present a memorial to someone. ⓒ 18c.

memorize or memorise /ˈmeməraɪz/ ▷ verb (memorized, memorizing) to learn something thoroughly, so as to be able to reproduce it exactly from memory. • memorization noun. ⓒ 19c.

memory /ˈmemərɪ/ ▷ noun (memories) 1 the ability of the mind to remember ◻ have a poor memory. 2 the mind's store of remembered events, impressions, knowledge and ideas ◻ searching my memory for the name. 3 the mental processes of memorizing information, retaining it, and recalling it on demand. 4 any such impression reproduced in the mind ◻ have no memory of the event. 5 computing the part of a computer that is used to store data and programs. Also called store. 6 the limit in the past beyond which one's store of mental impressions does not extend ◻ not within my memory. 7 the act of remembering; commemoration ◻ in memory of old friends. 8 reputation after death ◻ Her memory is still treasured here. ⓒ 14c: from French memorie, from Latin memor mindful.

memory lane ▷ noun, colloq the past as it is personally remembered, often with a degree of nostalgia or sentimentality ◻ got together for a chat and a jaunt down memory lane.

memory mapping ▷ noun the way in which storage is organized in a computer, eg sections of memory allocated to the screen display, program code, etc.

memsahib /ˈmemsɑːɪb/ ▷ noun, formerly in India: a married European woman. Also used as a polite form of address. ⓒ 19c: from MA'AM + SAHIB.

men plural of MAN menace /ˈmenəs, ˈmenɪs/ ▷ noun 1 a source of threatening danger. 2 a threat; a show of hostility. 3 colloq something or someone that is very annoying or troublesome. ▷ verb (menaced, menacing) tr & intr to threaten; to show an intention to damage or harm someone. • menacer noun. • menacing adj. • menacingly adverb. ⓒ 14c: from French, from Latin minari to threaten.

ménage /meɪˈnɑːʒ; French menaʒ/ ▷ noun (ménages) literary a group of people living together; a household. ⓒ 13c: French, from manaige, from Latin mansio dwelling.

ménage à trois / French menaʒ a trwa/ ▷ noun (ménages à trois) an arrangement or a household consisting of three people, especially a husband, a wife and the lover of one of them. ⓒ 19c: literally 'household of three'.

menagerie /məˈnadʒərɪ/ ▷ noun (menageries) 1 a a collection of wild animals caged for exhibition; b the place where they are kept. 2 a varied or confused mixture, especially of people. ⓒ 18c: from French ménagerie, originally the management of a household and/or domestic livestock; related to MÉNAGE.

menarche /meˈnɑːkɪ/ ▷ noun (menarches) physiol the first menstruation. ⓒ Early 20c: from Greek men month + arche beginning.

mend ▷ verb (mended, mending) 1 to repair something. 2 intr to improve, especially in health; to heal or recover. 3 to improve or correct something □ mend one's ways. ▷ noun 1 on a garment, etc: a repaired part or place. 2 an act of mending. ● mendable adj. ● mending noun 1 the act or process of repairing. 2 articles that need to be mended, especially clothes. ● on the mend getting better, especially in health. ◎ 13c: shortened from AMEND.

mendacious /mɛnˈdeɪʃəs/ ▷ adj lying, or likely to lie. ● mendaciously adverb. ◎ 17c: from Latin mendax to lie.

mendacity /mɛnˈdasɪtɪ/ noun (mendacities) formal 1 untruthfulness; the tendency to lie. 2 a lie or falsehood.

mendelevium /mɛndəˈliːvɪəm, -ˈleɪvɪəm/ ▷ noun, chem (symbol Md, atomic number 101) an artificially-produced, radioactive, metallic element. ◎ 1950s: named after Dmitri I Mendeleyev (1834–1907), the Russian chemist who developed the periodic table of elements.

Mendelian /mɛnˈdiːlɪən/ ▷ adj, biol belonging or relating to the principles of heredity put forward by Gregor J Mendel (1822–84), an Austrian monk and botanist. ◎ Early 20c.

mendicant /ˈmɛndɪkənt/ ▷ noun 1 a monk who is a member of an order that is not allowed to own property and is therefore entirely dependent on charity, eg a Dominican or Franciscan friar. 2 formal a beggar. ▷ adj 1 dependent on charity. 2 formal begging. ● mendicancy /-kənsɪ/ or mendicity /mɛnˈdɪsɪtɪ/ noun. ◎ 14c as noun 2: from Latin mendicare to beg.

meneer see MYNHEER.

menfolk ▷ plural noun 1 men collectively, especially the male members of a particular group. 2 a woman's male relatives, etc.

menhir /ˈmɛnhɪə(r)/ ▷ noun a prehistoric monument in the form of a single upright standing stone. ◎ 19c: French, from Breton men stone + hir long.

menial /ˈmiːnɪəl/ ▷ adj 1 said of work: unskilled, uninteresting and of low status. 2 relating, belonging or suited to a servant. ▷ noun, derog a domestic servant. ◎ 18c in sense 2; 14c in obsolete adjectival sense 'domestic': French, from French meinie household.

meninges /məˈnɪndʒiːz/ ▷ plural noun (singular meninx /ˈmiːnɪŋks/) anatomy the three membranes that cover the brain and spinal cord. See also ARACHNOID, DURA MATER, PIA MATER. ● meningeal /-dʒɪəl/ adj. ◎ 17c: Latin, from Greek meninx, meningos membrane.

meningitis /mɛnɪnˈdʒaɪtɪs/ ▷ noun, pathol inflammation of the MENINGES, usually caused by bacterial or viral infection, the main symptoms being severe headache, fever, stiffness of the neck and aversion to light. ◎ 19c.

meningococcus /mənɪŋgoʊˈkɒkəs/ ▷ noun a bacterium which causes epidemic cerebrospinal MENINGITIS. ● meningococcal or meningococcic /-ˈkɒksɪk/ adj.

men in grey suits ▷ plural noun unseen establishment figures holding the ultimate power in an organization, political party, etc.

meniscus /məˈnɪskəs/ ▷ noun (meniscuses or menisci /-skaɪ, -saɪ/) 1 physics the curved upper surface of a liquid in a partly-filled narrow tube, caused by the effects of surface tension. 2 anatomy a crescent-shaped structure, such as the disc of cartilage in the knee joint. 3 optics a lens that is convex on one side and concave on the other. ◎ 17c: Latin, from Greek meniskos, diminutive of mene moon.

Mennonite see AMISH.

menopause /ˈmɛnəpɔːz/ ▷ noun the period in a woman's life, typically between the ages of 45 and 55, when menstruation ceases and pregnancy is no longer possible. Also called change of life, the change. See also MALE MENOPAUSE. ● menopausal /mɛnəˈpɔːzəl/ adj 1 relating to or experiencing the menopause and associated hormonal changes. 2 colloq suffering from strange moods and behaviour in middle age. ◎ 19c: from French ménopause, from Greek men month + pausis cessation.

menorah /məˈnɔːrə/ ▷ noun a candelabrum with seven branches used in Jewish worship and regarded as a symbol of Judaism. ◎ 19c: Hebrew, meaning 'candlestick'.

menorrhagia /mɛnəˈreɪdʒɪə/ ▷ noun, medicine excessive and prolonged bleeding during menstruation. ◎ 18c: Latin, from Greek men month + -rhagia, from rhegnynai to break.

menorrhoea or (US) menorrhea /mɛnəˈrɪə/ ▷ noun, medicine normal flow of blood during menstruation. See also AMENORRHOEA, DYSMENORRHOEA, MENORRHAGIA. ◎ 19c: from Greek men month + rhoia flow.

menses /ˈmɛnsiːz/ ▷ plural noun, biol, medicine 1 the fluids discharged from the womb during menstruation. 2 the time of menstruation. ◎ 16c: Latin, plural of mensis month.

Menshevik /ˈmɛnʃəvɪk/ ▷ noun, historical in Russia: a moderate or minority socialist. Compare BOLSHEVIK. ◎ Early 20c: Russian, from menshye smaller + -ik the agent suffix.

mens rea /mɛnzˈrɪə/ ▷ noun, law criminal intent; knowledge on the part of a law-breaker of the unlawfulness of their act. See also MALICE AFORETHOUGHT. ◎ 19c: Latin, literally 'guilty mind'.

menstrual /ˈmɛnstrʊəl/ ▷ adj relating to or involving menstruation. ◎ 14c.

menstrual cycle ▷ noun, biol in some primates including humans: a repeating cycle of reproductive changes regulated by sex hormones, and during which OVULATION occurs, happening about once in every 28 days in humans.

menstruate /ˈmɛnstrʊeɪt/ ▷ verb (menstruated, menstruating) intr, biol to discharge blood and other fluids from the womb through the vagina during menstruation. ◎ 17c: from Latin menstruare, from mensis month.

menstruation /mɛnstrʊˈeɪʃən/ ▷ noun, biol 1 in women of childbearing age: the discharge through the vagina of blood and fragments of mucous membrane, that takes place at approximately monthly intervals if fertilization of an OVUM has not occurred. Also called MENSES, PERIOD noun 8. 2 the time or occurrence of menstruating. See also THE CURSE, MONTHLY noun 2.

mensurable /ˈmɛnʃərəbəl, ˈmɛnsjʊrəbəl/ ▷ adj 1 technical or formal measurable. 2 music having a fixed, relative time-value for each note. ● mensurability noun. ◎ 17c: from Latin mensurare to measure.

mensuration /mɛnʃəˈreɪʃən, mɛnsjʊˈreɪʃən/ ▷ noun 1 technical the application of geometric principles to the calculation of measurements such as length, volume and area. 2 formal the process of measuring. ◎ 16c in sense 2: from Latin mensurare to measure.

menswear ▷ noun clothing for men.

-ment ▷ suffix, forming nouns, denoting 1 a process, action, result or means □ repayment □ treatment. 2 a quality, state or condition □ enjoyment □ merriment. ◎ From Latin -mentum.

mental /ˈmɛntəl/ ▷ adj 1 belonging or relating to, or done by using, the mind or intelligence □ a mental process □ mental arithmetic. 2 old use belonging to, or suffering from, an illness or illnesses of the mind □ a mental patient. 3 colloq foolish; stupid. 4 colloq ridiculous; unimaginable. ● mentally adverb. ◎ 15c: French, from Latin mentalis, from mens the mind.

mental age ▷ noun, psychol the age at which an average child would have reached the same stage of mental development as the individual in question □ He is 33, with a mental age of 10.

mental cruelty ▷ noun conduct, not involving physical cruelty or violence, that wounds a person's feelings and personal dignity.

mental disorder ▷ noun, psychol any of various disorders with psychological or behavioural symptoms (eg dementia, schizophrenia) but excluding mental handicap, disorders of development and normal reactions to distressing events.

mental handicap ▷ noun a condition in which a person has impaired intellectual abilities, typically with an IQ of less than 70, and suffers from some form of social malfunction due to a congenital condition, brain damage, etc. Also called mental deficiency, mental retardation or, the currently favoured term, learning disabilities.

mental image see IMAGE

mentality /mɛn'talɪtɪ/ ▷ noun (mentalities) 1 an outlook; a certain way of thinking. 2 intellectual ability.

menthol /'mɛnθɒl/ ▷ noun a sharp-smelling substance obtained from peppermint oil, used as a decongestant and a painkiller. • mentholated adj. ⓘ 19c: German, from Latin mentha mint.

mention /'mɛnʃən/ ▷ verb (mentioned, mentioning) 1 to speak of or make reference to something or someone. 2 to remark on something or someone, usually briefly or indirectly. ▷ noun 1 a remark, usually a brief reference □ made no mention of it. 2 a reference made to an individual's merit in an official report, especially a military one □ a mention in dispatches. • mentionable adj. • don't mention it colloq no apologies or words of thanks are needed. • not to mention something used to introduce (a subject or facts that the speaker is about to mention), usually for emphasis. ⓘ 14c as noun: from Latin mentio a calling to mind.

mentor /'mɛntɔː(r), -tə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 a trusted teacher or adviser. 2 business a more senior or experienced colleague appointed to help and advise a junior employee. • mentoring noun the practice of acting as a mentor or of appointing mentors. • mentorship noun. ⓘ 18c: French, from Greek Mentor, the name of the character in the poems of Homer, who was adviser to Odysseus's son, Telemachus.

menu /'mɛnjuː/ ▷ noun (menus) 1 a the range of dishes available in a restaurant, etc; b the dishes to be served at a particular meal □ the wedding menu; c a list of these dishes □ choose from the menu. 2 computing a a set of options displayed on a computer screen □ a pull-down menu; b in compounds □ a menu-driven program. 3 any list of subjects, options, etc to be selected from. ⓘ 19c: French, originally (as an adj) meaning 'small' or (as a noun) 'a small and detailed list', from Latin minutus small.

menu-driven ▷ adj, computing applied to an interactive program in which the command choices are displayed as MENUS (sense 2).

meow, meowed and meowing see under MIAOW

MEP ▷ abbreviation Member of the European Parliament.

mepacrine ▷ noun the anti-malarial drug ATEBRIN.

meperidine /mɛ'pɛrɪdiːn, -dɪn/ ▷ noun, US PETHIDINE.

-mer ▷ combining form, chem, forming nouns, denoting a substance of a specified class □ isomer □ polymer. ⓘ From Greek meros a part.

mercantile /'mɜːkəntaɪl/ ▷ adj 1 formal belonging or relating to trade or traders; commercial. 2 belonging to, like or relating to mercantilism. ⓘ 17c: French, from Italian, from mercante merchant.

mercantile marine see under MERCHANT NAVY mercantilism /'mɜːkəntɪlɪzəm/ ▷ noun 1 econ the business of merchants; trade and commerce. 2 historical advocacy of the mercantile system, an old economic strategy based on the theory that a nation's interests were best served by development of overseas trade and restriction of imports. • mercantilist noun, adj. ⓘ 19c.

Mercator's projection or Mercator's map projection or Mercator projection /mɜː'keɪtəz —/ ▷ noun, map-making, geog a representation of the surface of the globe in which the meridians are parallel straight lines, and the parallels of latitude are straight lines at right angles to these. This gives a true representation of shape but not of area, and makes the regions towards the poles exaggerated in size. Compare PETERS' PROJECTION. ⓘ 17c: from Gerhardus Mercator, the Latin version of the name of the Flemish-born German cartographer Gerhard Kramer (1512–94).

mercenary /'mɜːsənərɪ, -sənrɪ/ ▷ adj 1 derog excessively concerned with the desire for personal gain, especially money. 2 hired for money. ▷ noun (mercenaries) a soldier available for hire by a country or group. ⓘ 14c meaning 'someone who works for hire': from Latin mercenarius, from merces reward or hire.

mercer /'mɜːsə(r)/ ▷ noun, Brit a dealer in textiles, especially expensive ones. ⓘ 13c: from French mercier.

mercerize or mercerise /'mɜːsəraɪz/ ▷ verb (mercerized, mercerizing) to treat a material, especially cotton, with a substance which strengthens it and gives it a silky appearance. • mercerized adj. ⓘ 19c: named after John Mercer (1791–1866), an English textile manufacturer who invented the process.

merchandise /'mɜːtʃəndaɪz, -daɪs/ ▷ noun commercial goods. ▷ verb (merchandised, merchandising) tr & intr 1 to trade; to buy and sell. 2 to plan the advertising or supplying of, or the selling campaign for (a product). • merchandiser noun. • merchandising noun. ⓘ 13c: from French marchandise; related to MERCHANT.

merchant /'mɜːtʃənt/ ▷ noun 1 a trader, especially a wholesale trader. 2 N Amer, especially US & Scottish a shopkeeper. 3 colloq, in compounds someone who indulges in a specified activity, especially one that is generally not acceptable or appropriate □ gossip merchant. ▷ adj used for trade; commercial □ merchant ship. ▷ verb (merchanted, merchanting) tr & intr to trade; to deal in something. • merchantable adj. ⓘ 13c: from French marchand, from Latin mercari to trade.

merchant bank ▷ noun a bank whose main activities are financing international trade, lending money to industry and assisting in company takeovers, etc. • merchant banker noun.

merchantman ▷ noun a ship that carries merchandise; a trading ship. Also called merchant ship.

merchant navy and merchant service ▷ noun the ships and crews that are employed in a country's commerce. Also called mercantile marine.

merciful /'mɜːsɪfəl/ ▷ adj showing or exercising mercy; forgiving. • mercifully adverb 1 luckily; thankfully. 2 in a merciful way. • mercifulness noun.

merciless /'mɜːsɪləs/ ▷ adj without mercy; cruel; pitiless. • mercilessly adverb. • mercilessness noun.

mercurial /mɜː'kjʊərɪəl/ ▷ adj 1 relating to or containing mercury. 2 said of someone or their personality, mood, etc: lively or active; tending to change suddenly and unpredictably. 3 belonging or relating to either the god or the planet Mercury. • mercurially adverb. ⓘ 14c.

mercuric /mɜː'kjʊərɪk/ ▷ adj, chem containing or relating to divalent mercury.

mercurous /'mɜːkjʊrəs/ ▷ adj, chem containing or relating to monovalent mercury.

mercury /'mɜːkjʊrɪ/ ▷ noun 1 (symbol Hg, atomic number 80) a dense, silvery-white metallic element, and the only metal that is liquid at room temperature. Also called QUICKSILVER. 2 (Mercury) astron the closest planet to the Sun. ⓘ 14c: from Latin Mercurius, the Roman god Mercury, god of merchandise, theft and eloquence, and messenger of the gods, probably from merx merchandise.

mercy /ˈmɜːsɪ/ ▷ noun (mercies) 1 kindness or forgiveness shown when punishment is possible or justified. 2 an act or circumstance in which these qualities are displayed, especially by God. 3 a tendency to be forgiving. 4 a piece of good luck; a welcome happening □ grateful for small mercies. 5 compassion for the unfortunate. ● at the mercy of someone or something wholly in their or its power; liable to be harmed by them or it. ⊙ 12c: from French merci, from Latin merces reward.

mercy flight ▷ noun a flight by an aeroplane or helicopter taking eg a seriously ill or injured person to hospital, when other means of transport are impracticable or unavailable.

mercy killing see under EUTHANASIA mere[1] /mɪə(r)/ ▷ adj nothing more than; no better, more important or useful than (a specified thing) □ but he's a mere boy. ● merely adverb simply; only. ⊙ 16c: from Latin merus pure, undiluted.

mere[2] /ˈmɪə/ ▷ noun, old use, poetic often in English place names: a lake or pool. ⊙ Anglo-Saxon.

-mere /mɪə(r)/ ▷ combining form, biol, forming nouns, denoting part □ centromere. ● -meric /merɪk/ combining form, forming adjectives. ⊙ From Greek meros part.

meretricious /merəˈtrɪʃəs/ ▷ adj, formal 1 bright or attractive on the surface, but of no real value. 2 false and insincere. 3 old use relating to, characteristic of, or worthy of a prostitute. ● meretriciously adverb. ● meretriciousness noun. ⊙ 17c: from Latin meretricius, from meretrix prostitute, from merere to earn money.

merganser /mɜːˈgansə(r)/ ▷ noun (mergansers or merganser) a kind of large diving duck found in northern countries, with a long, hooked, serrated bill. ⊙ 18c: Latin, from mergus diving bird + anser goose.

merge /mɜːdʒ/ ▷ verb (merged, merging) tr & intr (often merge with something) to blend, combine or join with something else. ⊙ 17c: from Latin mergere to plunge.

■ merge into something to become part of it and therefore impossible to distinguish from it.

merger ▷ noun a joining together, especially of business firms. Also called amalgamation.

meridian /məˈrɪdɪən/ ▷ noun 1 geog a an imaginary line on the Earth's surface passing through the poles at right angles to the equator; a line of longitude; b a representation of this, eg on a map. 2 literary the peak, eg of success. 3 in Chinese medicine: any of several lines or pathways through the body along which life energy flows. ● meridional adj 1 technical belonging or relating to, or along, a meridian. 2 literary belonging or relating to the south, especially to S Europe. ⊙ 14c: from Latin meridianus, from meridies midday, from medius middle + dies day.

meringue /məˈraŋ/ ▷ noun (meringues) 1 a crisp, cooked mixture of sugar and egg-whites. 2 a cake or dessert made from this, often with a filling of cream. ⊙ 18c: French.

merino /məˈriːnoʊ/ ▷ noun (merinos) 1 a type of sheep bred for its long, fine wool. Also called merino sheep. 2 this wool. 3 fine yarn or fabric made from its wool. Also as adj □ merino shawl. ⊙ 18c: Spanish.

meristem /ˈmerɪstem/ ▷ noun, bot in a plant: a region of actively-dividing cells, mainly at the tips of shoots and roots. ⊙ 19c: from Greek meristos divisible.

merit /ˈmerɪt/ ▷ noun 1 worth, excellence or praiseworthiness. 2 (often merits) a good point or quality □ got the job on his own merits. ▷ verb (merited, meriting) to deserve; to be worthy of or entitled to something. ● meritless adj. ⊙ 13c: from French merite, from Latin meritum reward.

meritocracy /merɪˈtɒkrəsɪ/ ▷ noun (meritocracies) 1 a social system based on leadership by people of great talent or intelligence, rather than of wealth or noble birth. 2 government by this kind of group. 3 a group of people who have been selected because of their talents. ● meritocrat /ˈmerɪtəkrat/ noun. ● meritocratic adj. ⊙ 1950s.

meritorious /merɪˈtɔːrɪəs/ ▷ adj, formal deserving reward or praise; having merit. ● meritoriously adverb. ● meritoriousness noun. ⊙ 15c.

merlin /ˈmɜːlɪn/ ▷ noun a small, dark-coloured falcon of the N hemisphere, with a black-striped tail. ⊙ 14c: from French esmerillon.

merlon /ˈmɜːlən/ ▷ noun, fortification in a battlement: the projecting part of the parapet between two embrasures (see EMBRASURE sense 1). ⊙ 18c: French, from Italian merlo battlement.

Merlot /ˈmɜːləʊ/ ▷ noun 1 an important variety of black grape use, often in blends with CABERNET SAUVIGNON, in winemaking. 2 a vine that this variety of grape grows on. 3 a red wine that is produced from, or mainly from, this variety of grape. ⊙ 19c: French, meaning 'baby blackbird'.

mermaid /ˈmɜːmeɪd/ ▷ noun, folklore a mythical sea creature with a woman's head and upper body and a fish's tail. ⊙ 14c: from Anglo-Saxon MERE[2] + MAID.

merman /ˈmɜːman/ ▷ noun the male equivalent of a MERMAID. ⊙ 17c.

Merovingian /merəʊˈvɪndʒɪən/ ▷ noun, historical a member of a Frankish dynasty which ruled in Gaul and parts of present-day Germany, between about AD 500 and AD 751. ▷ adj relating to the Merovingians. ⊙ 17c: from Merovingi, the Latin name for Merovaeus or Merovech king of the Salian Franks from AD 448–457, grandfather of Clovis I who reputedly founded the dynasty.

merry /ˈmerɪ/ ▷ adj (merrier, merriest) 1 cheerful and lively. 2 colloq slightly drunk. 3 causing or full of laughter. ● merrily adverb. ● merriment noun gaiety with laughter and noise; hilarity. ● merriness noun. ● make merry old use to have fun; to celebrate. ● play merry hell with someone or something see under PLAY. ⊙ Anglo-Saxon myrige in old sense 'pleasing or agreeable'.

merry-go-round ▷ noun 1 a fairground ride consisting of a revolving platform fitted with rising and falling seats in the form of horses or other figures. Sometimes called ROUNDABOUT. 2 a whirl of activity. 3 colloq a course of activity that tends to keep repeating itself. ⊙ 18c.

merrymaking ▷ noun cheerful celebration; revelry. ● merrymaker noun someone who is having fun; a reveller.

mes- see MESO-

mesa /ˈmeɪsə/ ▷ noun (mesas) geol an isolated, flat-topped hill with at least one steep side or cliff. ⊙ 18c: Spanish, meaning 'table', from Latin mensa.

mésalliance /meˈzalɪəns; French mezaljɑ̃s/ ▷ noun (mésalliances) literary a marriage to someone of lower social status. ⊙ 18c: literally 'misalliance'.

mescal /meˈskal/ ▷ noun 1 a globe-shaped cactus of Mexico and the SW USA, with buttonlike tubercles (called mescal buttons) on its stems which have an intoxicating and hallucinogenic effect when chewed or made into an infusion and drunk. Also called peyote. 2 a colourless Mexican spirit made from the sap of this and certain other plants. ⊙ 18c: from Aztec mexcalli.

mescaline or mescalin /ˈmeskəliːn, -lɪn/ ▷ noun a hallucinogenic drug obtained from the MESCAL cactus. ⊙ 19c.

mesclun /ˈmesklʌn/ ▷ noun, cookery a mixed green salad of young leaves and shoots, eg of endive, rocket, chicory, fennel, etc, usually dressed in vinaigrette flavoured with herbs. ⊙ 20c: French, from mesclumo mixture.

Mesdames see under MADAME

mesdames see under MADAM

Mesdemoiselles see under MADEMOISELLE mesencephalon /mɛsɛn'sɛfəlɒn/ ▷ noun, anatomy the MIDBRAIN. ⓒ 19c: Latin, from Greek encephalon brain.

mesentery /'mɛsəntərɪ, 'mɛz-/ ▷ noun (mesenteries) anatomy in humans and animals: the double layer of membrane on the inner surface of the body wall that serves to hold the stomach, small intestine, spleen, etc in place. ⓒ 16c: from Latin mesenterium, from Greek enteron intestine.

mesh ▷ noun 1 netting, or a piece of netting made of wire or thread. 2 each of the openings between the threads of a net. 3 (usually meshes) a network. ▷ verb (meshes, meshed, meshing) 1 intr, technical said of the teeth on gear wheels: to engage. 2 intr (often mesh with something) to fit or work together. 3 intr to become entangled. 4 to catch something in a mesh. ● be in mesh technical said of the teeth on gear wheels: to be engaged; to be locked or fitted together. ⓒ 16c: from Dutch maesche.

mesial /'miːzɪəl/ ▷ adj, anatomy said of a body part, etc: situated in or belonging to the middle of the body. ● mesially adverb. ⓒ 19c: from Greek mesos middle.

mesmeric see under MESMERIZE mesmerism /'mɛzmərɪzəm/ ▷ noun 1 a former term for HYPNOTISM. 2 a former method of HYPNOSIS, based on the ideas of Franz Anton Mesmer (1734–1815), an Austrian physician. ● mesmerist noun a hypnotist. ⓒ 19c.

mesmerize or mesmerise /'mɛzməraɪz/ ▷ verb (mesmerized, mesmerizing) 1 to grip the attention of someone; to fascinate. 2 old use to hypnotize someone. ● mesmeric /mɛz'mɛrɪk/ adj. ● mesmerizing adj. ⓒ 19c.

meso- /mɛsoʊ, mɛzoʊ, 'miːsoʊ, 'miːzoʊ/ or (before a vowel) mes- combining form, denoting middle. ⓒ From Greek mesos middle.

Mesoamerican ▷ adj relating to or originating from Central America (or Mesoamerica), ie between N Mexico and Panama.

mesocephalic see CEPHALIC INDEX

mesoderm ▷ noun, zool in a multicellular animal with two or more layers of body tissue: the layer of cells in an embryo between the ECTODERM and the ENDODERM, which develops into the circulatory system, muscles and reproductive organs, etc. Also called mesoblast. ⓒ 19c.

Mesolithic or mesolithic ▷ adj belonging or relating to the middle period of the Stone Age. See table at GEOLOGICAL TIME SCALE. ⓒ 19c.

mesomorph /'mɛsoʊmɔːf/ ▷ noun a person of muscular body build, associated with an aggressive and extroverted personality type. Compare ECTOMORPH, ENDOMORPH. ● mesomorphic /-'mɔːfɪk/ or mesomorphous adj 1 relating to a mesomorph. 2 chem relating to an intermediate state of matter between solid and liquid. ⓒ 1940s.

meson /'miːzɒn, 'mɛsɒn/ ▷ noun, physics any of a group of unstable, strongly-interacting, elementary particles, with a mass between that of an ELECTRON and a NUCLEON. ⓒ 1930s: from earlier mesotron.

mesophyll ▷ noun, bot the internal tissue between the upper and lower epidermal surfaces of a plant leaf. ⓒ 19c.

mesosphere ▷ noun, meteorol the layer of the Earth's atmosphere above the STRATOSPHERE and below the THERMOSPHERE, in which temperature rapidly decreases with height. ● mesospheric adj. ⓒ 1950s: from MESO- + -SPHERE.

Mesozoic /mɛsoʊ'zoʊɪk/ ▷ adj 1 geol belonging or relating to an era of geological time. See table at GEOLOGICAL TIME SCALE. 2 relating to the rocks formed during this era. ⓒ 19c: from Greek zoion animal + -IC.

mess ▷ noun 1 an untidy or dirty state ◻ The kitchen's in a mess. 2 a state of disorder or confusion ◻ The accounts are in a mess. 3 a badly damaged state. 4 something or someone in a damaged, disordered or confused state ◻ My hair is a mess. 5 colloq animal faeces ◻ dog mess. 6 a communal dining room, especially in the armed forces ◻ the sergeants' mess. 7 old use a portion of any pulpy food ◻ a mess of potage. ▷ verb (messes, messed, messing) 1 (often mess something up) to put or get it into an untidy, dirty, confused or damaged state; to spoil ◻ Don't mess your clean shirt ◻ That really messed up our plans. 2 intr said of soldiers, etc: to eat, or live, together. ● no messing colloq 1 without difficulty ◻ did the job in ten minutes and no messing. 2 honestly; truthfully ◻ It's the truth, no messing. ⓒ 13c in noun sense 7: French mes dish.

■ mess about or around colloq to behave in an annoyingly foolish way; to potter or tinker.

■ mess about or around with someone colloq 1 to flirt or have sexual intercourse with someone. 2 to defy and provoke someone.

■ mess about or around with something to play or tinker with something.

■ mess someone about or around to treat them roughly, badly or unfairly.

■ mess with something to meddle, tinker or interfere in it.

■ mess with someone colloq to become involved in argument or conflict with them; to cause them trouble or aggravation.

message /'mɛsɪdʒ/ ▷ noun 1 a spoken or written communication sent from one person to another. 2 the instructive principle contained within a story, poem, religious teaching, work of art, etc. 3 (usually messages) chiefly Scottish an errand; household shopping ◻ Just nipping out for the messages. ▷ verb (messaged, messaging) to transmit something by signalling, etc; to send it as a message. ● get the message colloq to understand. ⓒ 13c: French, from Latin mittere to send.

messenger /'mɛsɪndʒə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 someone who carries communications between people; a courier. 2 someone who performs errands. ⓒ 13c: from French messager; see MESSAGE.

messenger RNA ▷ noun, biochem (abbreviation mRNA) a single-stranded molecule of RNA that transports coded genetic instructions for the manufacture of proteins from the DNA in the nucleus to the RIBOSOMES in the cytoplasm.

Messiah /mə'saɪə/ ▷ noun (usually the Messiah) 1 Christianity Jesus Christ. 2 Judaism the king of the Jews still to be sent by God to free his people and restore Israel. 3 someone who sets a country or a people free. ● Messianic /mɛsɪ'anɪk/ adj 1 belonging or relating to, or associated with, a Messiah. 2 relating to any popular or inspirational leader, especially a liberator. ● Messianism /mə'saɪənɪzəm/ noun, relig belief in a Messiah, specifically applied to an expression of Judaism which anticipates a new and perfected age. ⓒ 14c: from French Messie, from Hebrew mashiah anointed.

Messieurs plural of MONSIEUR

Messrs plural of MR

messy /'mɛsɪ/ ▷ adj (messier, messiest) 1 involving or making dirt or mess. 2 confused, untidy. ● messily adverb. ● messiness noun.

mestizo /mɛ'stiːzoʊ/ and mestiza /-zə/ ▷ noun (mestizos or mestizas) a male and female respectively of mixed Spanish-American and Native American parentage. ⓒ 16c: Spanish, from Latin mixtus mixed.

the Met ▷ noun, colloq 1 the London Metropolitan Police Force. 2 the Metropolitan Opera, New York. 3 Brit (also the Met Office) the Meteorological Office, the government department that monitors national weather conditions and produces weather forecasts.

met past tense, past participle of MEET¹

meta- /ˈmɛtə/ or (before a vowel) met- ▷ combining form, denoting 1 a change □ metabolism. 2 an area of study related to another subject of study, but going beyond it in some way □ metalinguistics. 3 a position behind or beyond something □ metacarpal. 4 chem a a derivative of, or an isomer or polymer of, a specified substance □ metaldehyde; b an acid or hydroxide derived from the ORTHO- (sense 4b) form of a specified substance by loss of water molecules; c a benzene substitution product in which the substituted atoms or groups are attached to two carbon atoms which are themselves separated by one carbon atom □ . ◉ From Greek meta among, with, beside or after.

metabolic /mɛtəˈbɒlɪk/ ▷ adj 1 relating to an organism's metabolism. 2 exhibiting metamorphosis. ● metabolically adverb.

metabolism /məˈtabəlɪzəm/ ▷ noun, biochem the sum of all the chemical reactions that occur within the cells of a living organism, including both ANABOLISM and CATABOLISM of complex organic compounds. ◉ Late 19c: from Greek metabole change, from ballein to throw.

metabolite /məˈtabəlaɪt/ ▷ noun, biochem a molecule that participates in the biochemical reactions that take place in the cells of living organisms. ◉ 19c: from METABOLISM.

metabolize or metabolise /məˈtabəlaɪz/ ▷ verb (metabolized, metabolizing) tr & intr, biochem to break down complex organic compounds into simpler molecules. ◉ 19c: from METABOLISM.

metacarpus /mɛtəˈkɑːpəs/ ▷ noun (metacarpi /-paɪ/) anatomy 1 the set of five bones (metacarpal bones) in the human hand between the wrist and the knuckles, or in the forefoot in other vertebrates. 2 the part of the hand that contains these. See also CARPAL. Compare METATARSUS. ● metacarpal adj. ◉ 19c: Latin, from META- + Greek karpos wrist.

metal /ˈmɛtəl/ ▷ noun 1 any of a class of chemical elements with certain shared characteristic properties, most being shiny, malleable, ductile and good conductors of heat and electricity, and all (except MERCURY) being solid at room temperature. See also ALLOY, ORE. 2 ROAD METAL. 3 (metals) the rails of a railway. ▷ adj made of, or mainly of, metal. ▷ verb (metalled, metalling; US metaled, metaling) 1 to fit or cover something with metal. 2 to make or mend (a road) with small, broken stones. ● metallic /məˈtalɪk, mɛ-/ adj 1 made of metal. 2 characteristic of metal, eg in sound or appearance. ● metallically adverb. See also METTLE. ◉ 13c: French, from Greek metallon mine.

metalanguage ▷ noun a language or system of symbols used to discuss another language or symbolic system. Compare OBJECT LANGUAGE sense 1.

metal detector ▷ noun an instrument used for detecting buried metal objects or, in industrial production, one for detecting stray metal parts embedded in food products.

metallize or metallise /ˈmɛtəlaɪz/ ▷ verb (metallized, metallizing; US metalized, metalizing) 1 to give a metallic appearance to something. 2 to apply a thin coating of metal to (eg glass or plastic). ● metallization noun. ◉ 16c.

metalloid /ˈmɛtəlɔɪd/ ▷ noun, chem a chemical element that has both metallic and non-metallic properties, eg silicon and arsenic. ◉ 19c.

metallurgy /məˈtaləd͡ʒɪ, ˈmɛtələːd͡ʒɪ/ ▷ noun the scientific study of the nature and properties of metals and their extraction from the ground. ● metallurgic /mɛtəˈlɜːd͡ʒɪk/ or metallurgical adj. ● metallurgist /məˈtaləd͡ʒɪst/ noun. ◉ 18c: from Latin metallurgia, from Greek metallourgos mining.

metalwork ▷ noun 1 the craft, process or practice of shaping metal and making items of metal. 2 articles made of metal. ● metalworker noun.

metamorphic /mɛtəˈmɔːfɪk/ ▷ adj 1 relating to METAMORPHOSIS. 2 geol said of any of a group of rocks formed by METAMORPHISM. Compare IGNEOUS, SEDIMENTARY.

metamorphism noun, geol any changes in the structure or composition of a pre-existing rock resulting from the effects of intense heat or pressure beneath the Earth's surface or both.

metamorphose /mɛtəˈmɔːfoʊz/ ▷ verb (metamorphosed, metamorphosing) tr & intr to undergo or cause something to undergo metamorphosis.

metamorphosis /mɛtəˈmɔːfəsɪs, mɛtəmɔːˈfoʊsɪs/ ▷ noun (metamorphoses /-siːz/) 1 a change of form, appearance, character, etc; a transformation. 2 biol the change of physical form that occurs during the development into adulthood of some creatures, eg butterflies. ◉ 16c: from META- + Greek morphe form + -OSIS.

metaphase ▷ noun, genetics in mitosis and meiosis: the second phase during which the membrane surrounding the nucleus breaks down. ◉ 19c.

metaphor /ˈmɛtəfɔː(r), -fə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 an expression in which the person, action or thing referred to is described as if it really were what it merely resembles, eg a rejection described as 'a slap in the face', or a ferocious person as 'a tiger'. See also FIGURE OF SPEECH, MIXED METAPHOR. 2 such expressions in general. ● metaphorical /mɛtəˈfɒrɪkəl/ adj. ● metaphorically adverb. ◉ 16c: from Greek metaphora, from META- + pherein to carry.

metaphysical ▷ adj 1 belonging or relating to METAPHYSICS. 2 abstract. 3 supernatural. 4 (also Metaphysical) said of a poet: whose work is seen as belonging to a style termed METAPHYSICAL POETRY. ▷ noun a poet writing in this style □ the Metaphysicals. ● metaphysically adverb 1 in a metaphysical way. 2 in a metaphysical sense.

metaphysical painting ▷ noun a modern art movement that flourished in Italy c.1911–18 and was an important precursor of SURREALISM, founded by De Chirico and typified by his mysterious empty landscapes inhabited by tailors' dummies and classical busts casting threatening shadows.

metaphysical poetry ▷ noun a term applied to 17c English poetry, eg work by Donne and Marvell, which makes use of elaborate images, intricate word-play, paradox, flexible metre and rhythm, etc to express intense feelings and complex ideas. ◉ 17c: the term was first applied in a derogatory sense by Dryden and Dr Johnson.

metaphysics /mɛtəˈfɪzɪks/ ▷ singular noun 1 the branch of philosophy dealing with the nature of existence and the basic principles of truth and knowledge. 2 colloq any type of abstract discussion, writing or thinking. ◉ 16c: from Greek ta meta ta physika, literally 'the things coming after natural science', from the order in which subjects are dealt with in Aristotle's writings.

metapsychology ▷ noun theories and theorizing on psychological matters which cannot be proved or disproved by experiment or reasoning. ● metapsychological adj. ◉ Early 20c.

metastasis /məˈtastəsɪs/ ▷ noun (metastases /-siːz/) medicine 1 the spread of a disease, especially of a malignant tumour, from one part of the body to another via the bloodstream or lymphatic system, or across a body cavity. 2 a secondary tumour resulting from the spread of a malignant disease in this way. ◉ 17c; 16c in the sense 'transition' or 'rapid removal from one place to another': Greek, meaning 'change of place'.

metastasize or metastasise /mɛˈtastəsaɪz/ ▷ verb (metastasized, metastasizing) intr said of a disease, especially a cancerous tumour: to spread to another part of the body. ⓘ Early 20c.

metatarsus /mɛtəˈtɑːsəs/ ▷ noun (metatarsi /-saɪ/) anatomy 1 the set of five long bones (metatarsal bones) in the human foot between the ankle and the toes, or in the hindfoot of other vertebrates. 2 the part of the foot that contains these. See also TARSUS. Compare METACARPUS. • metatarsal adj. ⓘ 17c: from META- + Greek tarsos instep.

metatheory ▷ noun 1 loosely any theory concerning another theory. 2 logic the investigation of the various properties of a formal language, eg whether the language is consistent and complete. ⓘ 20c.

metathesis /mɛˈtaθəsɪs/ ▷ noun, linguistics alteration of the normal order of sounds or letters in a word, eg the word 'girn' (see GURNER) is an instance of r-metathesis, where the 'i' and the 'r' of 'grin' have swapped places. ⓘ 17c: from Greek META- + THESIS.

metazoan /mɛtəˈzoʊən/ ▷ noun, zool any multicellular animal that has specialized differentiated body tissues. Compare PROTOZOAN. ▷ adj belonging or relating to the Metazoa. ⓘ 19c: Latin, from META- + Greek zoion animal.

mete /miːt/ ▷ verb (meted, meting) rather formal (now always mete something out or mete out something) to give out or dispense something, especially punishment. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon metan in the sense 'to measure'.

meteor /ˈmiːtɪə(r)/ ▷ noun, astron the streak of light seen when a meteoroid enters into the Earth's atmosphere, where it burns up as a result of friction. Also called SHOOTING STAR. See also METEOROID, METEOR SHOWER. Compare METEORITE. ⓘ 15c: from Latin meteorum, from Greek meteoron a thing in the air or up high.

meteoric /miːtɪˈɒrɪk/ ▷ adj 1 belonging or relating to meteors. 2 a said of success, etc: very rapid; very short-lived; b like a meteor in terms of brilliance, speed, transience, etc. • meteorically adverb.

meteorite /ˈmiːtɪəraɪt/ ▷ noun, astron the remains of a METEOROID which has survived burn-up in its passage through the Earth's atmosphere as a METEOR. • meteoritic /-ˈrɪtɪk/ adj. ⓘ 19c.

meteoroid /ˈmiːtɪərɔɪd/ ▷ noun, astron in interplanetary space: a small, moving, solid object or dust particle, which becomes visible as a METEORITE or a METEOR if enters the Earth's atmosphere. ⓘ 19c.

meteorology /miːtɪəˈrɒlədʒɪ/ ▷ noun the scientific study of weather and climate over a relatively short period. Compare CLIMATOLOGY. • meteorological adj. • meteorologically adverb. • meteorologist noun. ⓘ 17c.

meteor shower ▷ noun, astron a display which occurs when the Earth passes through a trail of dust left by a comet in interplanetary space and tens of meteors per hour can be seen emanating from the same part of the sky.

meter[1] /ˈmiːtə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 an instrument for measuring and recording, especially quantities of electricity, gas, water, etc used. 2 a parking-meter. ▷ verb (metered, metering) to measure and record (eg electricity) using a meter. ⓘ 19c: first used in the sense 'gas-meter': see -METER and also METE.

meter[2] the US spelling of METRE[1], METRE[2]

-meter ▷ combining form, forming nouns, denoting 1 an instrument for measuring □ thermometer. 2 a line of poetry with a specified number of units of stress, or feet (see FOOT sense 8) □ pentameter. ⓘ From Greek metron a measure.

methadone /ˈmɛθədoʊn/ ▷ noun a drug similar to MORPHINE, but less addictive, used as a painkiller and as a heroin substitute for drug-addicts. ⓘ 1940s: from dimethylamino-diphenyl-petanone.

methamphetamine /mɛθamˈfɛtəmiːn/ ▷ noun a methyl derivative of AMPHETAMINE with rapid and long-lasting action, used as a stimulant. Also (colloq) called ICE (noun 2).

methanal /ˈmɛθənal/ ▷ noun, chem FORMALDEHYDE.

methane /ˈmiːθeɪn/ ▷ noun, chem (formula CH_4) a colourless odourless flammable gas, used in the manufacture of organic chemicals and hydrogen, and as a cooking and heating fuel (in the form of NATURAL GAS of which it is the main component), and which occurs naturally as MARSH GAS and as FIREDAMP. ⓘ 19c.

methanoic acid see under FORMIC ACID methanol /ˈmɛθənɒl/ ▷ noun, chem (formula CH_3OH) a colourless flammable toxic liquid used as a solvent and antifreeze, and which can be catalytically converted to petrol. Also called methyl /ˈmiːθaɪl, ˈmɛθɪl/ alcohol, wood alcohol. ⓘ Late 19c: from METHANE + -OL: see also etymology at METHYLENE BLUE.

methinks /mɪˈθɪŋks/ ▷ verb (methought /mɪˈθɔːt/) old use or humorous it seems to me; it seems to me that … ⓘ Anglo-Saxon me thyncth, from thyncan to seem.

methionine /mɛˈθaɪəniːn/ ▷ noun, biochem an essential amino acid found in proteins. ⓘ 1920s.

method /ˈmɛθəd/ ▷ noun 1 a way of doing something, especially an ordered set of procedures or an orderly system. 2 good planning; efficient organization. 3 (often methods) a technique used in a particular activity □ farming methods. 4 (Method or the method) see under METHOD ACTING. • methodical /məˈθɒdɪkəl/ or (now rarely) methodic adj efficient and orderly; done in an orderly or systematic way. • methodically adverb. • methodicalness noun. • method in one's madness reason or good sense underlying what seems an odd or chaotic situation or procedure. ⓘ 19c: referring to Shakespeare's Hamlet (II.ii) 'Though this be madness, yet there is method in it'. ⓘ 16c: from French methode or Latin methodus from Greek methodos.

method acting ▷ noun, theat a technique of acting that involves the actor 'living' a part, tapping into the character's inner motivations, rather than merely giving a technical performance. Also called Method or the method. Also as adj □ DeNiro is one of Hollywood's greatest Method actors. ⓘ 1920s: a theory and practice of acting introduced by Konstantin Stanislavsky (1863–1938), Russian actor and director.

Methodist /ˈmɛθədɪst/ Christianity ▷ noun 1 a member of the Methodist Church, a denomination founded by John Wesley in 1779 as an evangelical movement within the Church of England, but which became a separate nonconformist body in 1795. 2 a supporter of Methodism. ▷ adj belonging or relating to Methodism. See also WESLEYAN. • Methodism noun. ⓘ 16c as methodist in noun sense 'someone who observes method'; 18c in current sense, originally applied in 1729 to John Wesley's religious society of Oxford students because of the emphasis Wesley put on the methodical approach to prayer and Bible study, etc.

methodology /mɛθəˈdɒlədʒɪ/ ▷ noun (methodologies) 1 the system of methods and principles used in a particular activity, science, etc. 2 the study of method and procedure. • methodological adj. • methodologically adverb. ⓘ 19c: from French méthodologie: see METHOD + -LOGY.

methought past tense of METHINKS

meths ▷ singular noun, colloq, especially Brit methylated spirits.

methuselah /mɪˈθuːzələ/ ▷ noun 1 a size of wine bottle that contains eight times as much as a standard 75cl bottle. 2 a very old person or thing. ◎ 14c in sense 2; 1930s in sense 1: named after Methuselah, a biblical patriarch reputed (see Genesis 5.27) to have lived to the age of 969.

methyl alcohol see under METHANOL methylate /'meθɪleɪt/ ▷ verb (methylated, methylating) to mix or impregnate something with methanol. ◎ 19c.

methylated spirits or methylated spirit ▷ singular noun ethanol with small quantities of methanol and pyridine and often blue or purple dye added, to make it virtually undrinkable so that it can be sold without excise duty for use as a fuel and solvent.

methylene blue ▷ noun, chem a blue dye used as a pH indicator, as a stain in the preparation of slides of tissue specimens and as a dye for textiles. ◎ 19c: from methylene the hypothetical compound CH_2, from French méthylène methyl alcohol or METHANOL, from Greek methu wine + hyle wood.

methyl group /'miːθaɪl —, 'meθɪl —/ ▷ noun, chem in organic chemical compounds: the CH_3 group, eg METHYL ALCOHOL.

meticulous /mə'tɪkjʊləs/ ▷ adj paying, or showing, very careful attention to detail; scrupulously careful. ● meticulously adverb. ● meticulousness noun. ◎ 19c: from Latin meticulosus frightened.

métier /'meteɪ; French metje/ ▷ noun 1 a person's business or line of work. 2 the field or subject, etc in which one is especially skilled; one's forte. ◎ 18c: French, from Latin ministerium work or service.

the Met Office see under THE MET metol or Metol /'miːtɒl/ ▷ noun a water-soluble colourless substance, used especially as the basis of a photographic developer. ◎ 19c: German, coined by the inventor.

metonymy /mɪ'tɒnɪmɪ/ ▷ noun (metonymies) linguistics the use of a word referring to an element or attribute of something to mean the thing itself, eg the bottle for 'the drinking of alcohol' or the Crown for 'the sovereign'. ● metonymic /metə'nɪmɪk/ or metonymical adj. ◎ 16c: from Greek metonymia, literally 'change of name'.

metope /'metəpɪ, 'metoʊp/ ▷ noun, archit in the frieze of a Doric entablature: a slab or tablet of plain or sculptured marble between the TRIGLYPH. ◎ 16c: from Greek, from meta between + ope an opening for the end of a beam.

metre[1] or (US) meter /'miːtə(r)/ ▷ noun (abbreviation m) in the SI system: the principal unit of length, equal to 39.37in or 1.094yd. ◎ 18c: from French mètre, from Greek metron a measure.

metre[2] or (US) meter /'miːtə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 poetry the arrangement of words and syllables, or feet (see FOOT sense 8), in a rhythmic pattern according to their length and stress; a particular pattern or scheme. 2 music a the basic pattern or structure of beats; b tempo. ◎ Anglo-Saxon meter, from Latin metrum, from Greek metron a measure.

metre-kilogram-second system ▷ noun (abbreviation mks system or MKS system) a system of scientific measurement that uses the metre, kilogram and second as its units of length, mass and time respectively. See also SI SYSTEM.

metric[1] /'metrɪk/ ▷ adj relating to or based on the METRE[1] or the metric system. ● metrically adverb. ◎ 19c: from French métrique, from mètre METRE[1].

metric[2] see METRICAL

-metric /'metrɪk/ and -metrical ▷ combining form, forming adjectives, denoting scientific measurement □ thermometric □ tachometrical. ◎ See -METER.

metrical or metric ▷ adj, technical 1 in or relating to verse as distinct from prose. 2 belonging or relating to measurement. ● metrically adverb. ◎ 15c: from Latin metricus; see METRE[2].

metricate /'metrɪkeɪt/ ▷ verb (metricated, metricating) tr & intr to convert (a non-metric measurement, system, etc) to a metric one using units of the metric system. ● metrication noun. Compare DECIMALIZE. ◎ 1960s.

metric system ▷ noun a standard system of measurement, based on DECIMAL units, in which each successive multiple of a unit is 10 times larger than the one before it. Technical equivalent SI. See table at SI UNITS.

metro /'metroʊ/ ▷ noun (metros) an urban railway system, usually one that is mostly underground, especially and originally the Métro, the system in Paris. Compare THE UNDERGROUND, TUBE. ◎ Early 20c: from French métro, abbreviation of chemin de fer métropolitain metropolitan railway.

metronome /'metrənoʊm/ ▷ noun a device that indicates musical tempo by means of a ticking pendulum that can be set to move at different speeds. ● metronomic /-'nɒmɪk/ adj. ◎ 19c: from Greek metron measure + nomos rule or law.

metronymic /metrə'nɪmɪk/ ▷ adj said of a name: derived from the name of one's mother or of another female ancestor. ▷ noun a name derived in this way. Compare PATRONYMIC. ◎ 19c: from Greek meter mother + onoma name.

metropolis /mə'trɒpəlɪs/ ▷ noun (metropolises /-lɪsɪz/) a large city, especially the capital city of a nation or region. ◎ 16c: Latin, from Greek, from meter mother + polis city.

metropolitan /metrə'pɒlɪtən/ ▷ adj 1 belonging or relating to, typical of, or situated in, a large city. 2 belonging or referring to a country's mainland, as opposed to its overseas territories. 3 belonging or relating to the mother church, or chief see, of a province. ▷ noun 1 Christianity in the Catholic and Orthodox Churches: a bishop, usually an archbishop, with authority over all the bishops in a province. 2 an inhabitant of a metropolis. ◎ 16c.

metropolitan county ▷ noun in English local government: any of six counties that cover the major, heavily-populated, metropolitan regions excluding Greater London (eg Merseyside, West Midlands, etc. They were set up in 1974 under local government reorganization and their councils were abolished in 1986.

-metry /mətrɪ/ ▷ combining form, forming nouns, denoting 1 a science involving measurement □ geometry. 2 a process of measuring. ◎ From Greek -metria, from metron a measure.

metteur-en-scène /French metœːr ɑ̃ sɛn/ ▷ noun, cinema someone, usually the film's director, whose job is to create the MISE-EN-SCÈNE and to oversee the editing. The term is sometimes used disparagingly of a director who is considered to lack originality. Compare AUTEUR.

mettle /'metəl/ ▷ noun, literary 1 courage, determination and endurance. 2 character; personal qualities □ show one's mettle. ● put someone on their mettle literary to encourage or force them to make their best effort. ◎ 16c: originally a variant of METAL.

mettlesome ▷ adj, literary said especially of horses: lively; high-spirited. ◎ 17c: METTLE + -SOME[1].

meunière /mɜːnɪ'ɛə(r)/ ▷ adj said of a method of cooking fish: prepared by lightly flouring the fish and frying it gently in butter and serving it with a small portion of butter, lemon juice and parsley □ sole meunière. ◎ 19c: French, from à la meunière in the manner of the miller's wife, so called because of the dusting of flour over the fish.

MeV ▷ abbreviation, physics mega-electron-volt or -volts.

mew[1] /mjuː/ ▷ verb (mewed, mewing) intr to make the cry of a cat; to MIAOW. ▷ noun a cat's cry. ⓒ 16c: imitating the sound.

mew[2] /mjuː/ ▷ noun a seagull. ⓒ Anglo-Saxon mæw.

mewl /mjuːl/ ▷ verb (mewled, mewling) intr said especially of a child: to cry feebly, to make a whimpering noise. ⓒ 17c: imitating the sound.

mews /mjuːs, mjuːz/ ▷ singular noun (mews or mewses) 1 a set of stables around a yard or square, especially one converted into residential accommodation or garages. 2 (Mews) used in street names. ⓒ 14c: plural of mew a cage for moulting hawks (from French muer to moult), originally referring to the cages for royal hawks and later the royal stables, at Charing Cross, London.

MEX ▷ abbreviation, IVR Mexico.

Mex. ▷ abbreviation 1 Mexican. 2 Mexico.

Mexican /'mɛksɪkən/ ▷ adj belonging or relating to Mexico, a federal republic in southern N America, its inhabitants, or the Nahuatl language. ▷ noun 1 a citizen or inhabitant of, or person born in, Mexico. 2 the AZTEC language.

Mexican wave ▷ noun a rippling wave effect that passes right around a stadium full of spectators, achieved when all the spectators in turn stand up with their arms raised and then sit down again with their arms lowered. ⓒ 1980s: so called because it was first publicized at the World Cup football competition in Mexico in 1986.

MEZ ▷ abbreviation: Mitteleuropäische Zeit (German), Central European Time.

mezuzah /mə'zuːzə/ ▷ noun (plural mezuzot, mezuzoth /-soʊt/ or mezuzahs) Judaism a cylindrical box containing a parchment inscribed with religious texts from Deuteronomy, that is attached to the doorposts of some Jewish houses as a declaration of faith. ⓒ 17c: Hebrew, meaning 'doorpost'.

mezzanine /'mɛzəniːn, 'mɛtsəniːn, / ▷ noun (mezzanines) 1 archit in a building: a small storey between two main floors, usually the ground and first floors. 2 theat a a room or floor below the stage. b N Amer the first balcony; the circle. Also as adj ▫ mezzanine floor. ⓒ 18c: French, from Italian mezzanino, from mezzano middle.

mezzanine finance and mezzanine funding ▷ noun, business funding to cover an intermediate stage in a takeover, etc, consisting of one or more unsecured high-interest loans.

mezzo /'mɛtsoʊ/ ▷ adverb, music moderately, quite or rather, as in mezzo-forte rather loud, and mezzo-piano rather soft. ⓒ 19c: Italian, literally 'half'.

mezzo-soprano ▷ noun, music 1 a singing voice with a range between soprano and contralto. 2 a singer with this kind of voice. 3 a musical part for this kind of voice.

mezzotint /'mɛtsoʊtɪnt/ ▷ noun, chiefly historical 1 a method of engraving a metal plate, especially a copper plate, by polishing and scraping to produce areas of light and shade, rendered obsolete by photographic reproduction in the late 19c. 2 a print made from a plate engraved in this way. ▷ verb tr to engrave (a plate) using this method. ⓒ 17c as mezzotinto: Italian, from mezzo half + tinto shade.

MF ▷ abbreviation 1 said of paper: machine finished. 2 radio medium frequency. 3 multi-frequency.

mf ▷ abbreviation, music mezzo-forte.

mfrs ▷ abbreviation manufacturers.

MG ▷ abbreviation Morris Garages, the original makers of a popular type of British sports car.

Mg ▷ symbol, chem magnesium.

mg ▷ abbreviation milligram or milligrams.

MGlam ▷ abbreviation, Welsh county Mid Glamorgan.

MGM ▷ abbreviation Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, an American film production company.

Mgr ▷ abbreviation 1 manager. 2 Monseigneur. 3 (also Monsig.) Monsignor.

MHR ▷ abbreviation in the USA, Australia and New Zealand: Member of the House of Representatives.

MHz ▷ abbreviation megahertz.

MI ▷ abbreviation 1 US state Michigan. Also written Mich. 2 Military Intelligence.

mi see ME[2]

MI5 /ɛmaɪ 'faɪv/ ▷ abbreviation, Brit Military Intelligence Section 5, the popular name for what is now officially called the Security Services, the government agency concerned with state security.

MI6 /ɛmaɪ 'sɪks/ ▷ abbreviation, Brit Military Intelligence Section 6, the popular name for what is now officially called the Secret Intelligence Services (abbreviation SIS), the government agency concerned with espionage. Compare CIA.

miaow or meow /mɪ'aʊ/ ▷ verb (miaowed, miaowing; meowed, meowing) intr to make the cry of a cat. ▷ noun a cat's cry. Also called MEW[1]. Compare PURR. ⓒ 17c as miau: imitating the sound.

miasma /mɪ'azmə, maɪ'azmə/ ▷ noun (miasmata /-mətə/ or miasmas) literary 1 a thick foul-smelling vapour, especially one given off by swamps, marshes, etc. 2 an evil influence or atmosphere. • miasmal adj containing miasma. • miasmatic or miasmic adj relating to or typical of miasma. ⓒ 17c: Latin, from Greek, meaning 'pollution'.

Mic. ▷ abbreviation Book of the Bible: Micah. See table at BIBLE.

mic /maɪk/ a short form of MICROPHONE.

mica /'maɪkə/ ▷ noun (micas) geol any of a group of silicate minerals that split easily into thin flexible sheets and are used as electrical insulators, DIELECTRICS, etc because they are poor conductors of heat and electricity. See also ISINGLASS. ⓒ 18c: from Latin mica crumb.

mice plural of MOUSE

Mich. ▷ abbreviation 1 Michaelmas. 2 Michaelmas term. 3 see MI 1.

Michaelmas /'mɪkəlməs/ ▷ noun, Christianity a festival in honour of St Michael the archangel, held on 29 September. ⓒ Anglo-Saxon Sanct Michaeles maesse; see MASS[2].

Michaelmas daisy ▷ noun a garden plant of the aster family with purple, pink or white flowers that bloom in autumn.

Michaelmas term ▷ noun at Oxford, Cambridge and some other universities, etc: the autumn term.

Michelangelo virus ▷ noun, computing a virus set to destroy data on a computer's hard disk when the system date reads 6 March in any year. ⓒ 1990s: named after the Italian sculptor, painter and architect, Michelangelo Buonarroti (1475–1564) whose birthday was 6 March.

mick ▷ noun, offensive slang 1 an Irishman. 2 especially Austral a Roman Catholic. ⓒ 19c: pet form of the name Michael, common in Ireland.

mickey /'mɪkɪ/ ▷ noun. • take the mickey or take the mickey out of someone colloq to tease or make fun of them. ⓒ 1950s.

Mickey Finn ▷ noun (Mickey Finns) slang a drink, especially an alcoholic one, with a drug or laxative, etc added secretly to it in order to knock out or debilitate the person who drinks it. Also shortened to Mickey. ⓒ 1920s.

Mickey-Mouse ▷ adj, derog, colloq 1 second-rate; of the nature of a cheap imitation. 2 ridiculously simple or unprofessional □ Here's the Mickey-Mouse version of the manual. ⓒ 1930s: from the name of a cartoon character created in 1928 by US artist and film producer Walt Disney (1901–66); the use of this term derives from the Mickey Mouse wristwatches and other marketing gimmicks produced since the 1940s.

mickle /ˈmɪkəl/ or muckle /ˈmʌkəl/ archaic or N Eng dialect & Scot ▷ adj much or great. ▷ adverb much. ▷ noun a great quantity. ◆ many a mickle makes a muckle every little helps. ⓒ Anglo-Saxon micel.

MICR ▷ abbreviation, computing magnetic ink character recognition.

micro /ˈmaɪkroʊ/ ▷ noun (micros) colloq 1 a microcomputer or microprocessor. 2 a microwave oven.

micro- /ˈmaɪkroʊ, ˈmaɪkrə, maɪˈkrɒ/ or (sometimes before a vowel) micr- ▷ combining form, denoting 1 very small □ microchip. 2 one millionth part; 10^{-6} (symbol μ) □ micrometre. 3 using, used in, or prepared for, microscopy. 4 dealing with minute quantities, objects or values □ microchemistry. ⓒ From Greek mikros little.

microbe /ˈmaɪkroʊb/ ▷ noun, loosely any micro-organism, especially a bacterium that is capable of causing disease. ◆ microbial /maɪˈkroʊbɪəl/ or microbic adj. ⓒ 19c: French, from Greek mikros little + bios life.

microbiology ▷ noun the branch of biology dealing with the study of micro-organisms. ◆ microbiological adj ◆ microbiologist noun. ⓒ 19c.

microcassette ▷ noun a tiny cassette that uses very thin recording tape to give a similar recording time to that of a standard-size cassette.

microchip see under SILICON CHIP microcircuit ▷ noun an electronic circuit with components formed in one microchip. ◆ microcircuitry noun. ⓒ 1950s.

microclimate ▷ noun, biol the local and rather uniform climate immediately surrounding a living organism, as opposed to the climate of the entire region in which the organism occurs. ◆ microclimatic adj. ⓒ 1920s.

microcode ▷ noun, computing 1 a MICROINSTRUCTION. 2 a sequence of microinstructions.

microcomputer ▷ noun a small, relatively inexpensive computer designed for use by one person at a time, and containing an entire CPU on a single microchip. Now usually called PERSONAL COMPUTER. ⓒ 1970s.

microcosm /ˈmaɪkroʊkɒzəm/ ▷ noun 1 any structure or system which contains, in miniature, all the features of the larger structure or system that it is part of. 2 philos humankind regarded as a model or epitome of the universe. Compare MACROCOSM. ◆ microcosmic adj. ◆ in microcosm on a small scale; in miniature. ⓒ 15c as microcosme: French, from Greek kosmos world.

microdot ▷ noun 1 a photograph, eg one taken of secret documents, reduced to the size of a pinhead. 2 colloq a very small pill containing concentrated LSD. ⓒ 1940s.

microeconomics ▷ singular noun the branch of economics concerned with the financial circumstances of individual households, firms, etc, and the way individual elements in an economy (eg specific products) behave. ◆ microeconomic adj. ⓒ 1940s.

microelectronics ▷ singular noun the branch of electronics dealing with the design and use of small-scale electrical circuits or other very small electronic devices. ◆ microelectronic adj. ⓒ 1960s.

microfibre ▷ noun a synthetic, very closely woven fabric.

microfiche /ˈmaɪkrəfiːʃ, -roʊ-/ ▷ noun (microfiche or microfiches) photog a flat sheet of film of a size suitable for filing, with printed text on it that has been photographically reduced, used for storing library catalogues, newspaper texts, etc, especially before the widespread introduction of electronic databases and CD-ROMs. Often shortened to fiche. ⓒ 1950s: from French fiche a sheet of paper.

microfilm ▷ noun a length of thin photographic film on which printed material is stored in miniaturized form. ▷ verb (microfilmed, microfilming) to record something on microfilm. ⓒ 1930s.

microfloppy ▷ noun, computing a small magnetic floppy disk, usually 3.5in in diameter.

microgravity ▷ noun the state or condition of being subjected to little or no gravity, eg the near-weightlessness experienced in space.

microhabitat ▷ noun, biol, ecol a small area that has different environmental conditions from those of the surrounding area.

microinstruction ▷ noun, computing a single, simple command that encodes any of the individual steps to be carried out by a computer. See also MICROCODE.

microlight ▷ noun a very lightweight, small-engined aircraft, like a powered hang-glider. Also as adj □ microlight plane. ⓒ 1980s.

micromanipulation ▷ noun, technical 1 the technique of using delicate instruments to work on cells, bacteria, etc under high magnifications. 2 the technique of working with extremely small quantities, eg in chemistry.

micromesh ▷ noun a very fine kind of mesh used to make hosiery, etc. Also as adj □ micromesh stockings.

micrometer /maɪˈkrɒmɪtə(r)/ ▷ noun an instrument of various kinds used for accurately measuring very small distances, thicknesses or angles. Also as adj □ micrometer gauge. ◆ micrometric /-ˈmetrɪk/ adj. ◆ micrometry /-ˈkrɒmɪtrɪ/ noun. ⓒ 17c.

micrometre or (US) micrometer /ˈmaɪkroʊmiːtə(r)/ ▷ noun in the SI or metric system: a unit of length equal to 10^{-6}m; one millionth of a metre. See also MICRON. ⓒ 1880s.

microminiaturize or microminiaturise ▷ verb (microminiaturized, microminiaturizing) to reduce (scientific or technical equipment, etc, or any part of such equipment) to an extremely small size. ◆ microminiaturization noun.

micron /ˈmaɪkrɒn/ ▷ noun (symbol μ) the former name for the MICROMETRE. ⓒ 1880s: Greek, from mikros small.

Micronesian ▷ adj belonging or relating to Micronesia, a group of small islands in the West Pacific, north of New Guinea, or specifically, since 1979, to the Federated States of Micronesia, its inhabitants or their languages. ▷ noun 1 a citizen or inhabitant of, or person born in, Micronesia. 2 the group of AUSTRONESIAN languages spoken in Micronesia. ⓒ 19c: from MICRO- + Greek nesos an island; compare POLYNESIA.

micronutrient ▷ noun, biol any TRACE ELEMENT, vitamin or other essential nutrient required in minute quantities by a living organism, eg zinc.

micro-organism ▷ noun any living organism that can only be observed with the aid of a microscope, eg bacteria, viruses, protozoans and single-celled algae. ⓒ 19c.

microphone /ˈmaɪkrəfoʊn/ ▷ noun an electro magnetic transducer that converts sound waves into electrical signals which can be amplified, recorded or transmitted over long distances. Often (colloq) shortened to MIKE or MIC. ◆ microphonic /-ˈfɒnɪk/ adj. ⓒ 17c meaning 'an instrument for intensifying very small sounds'.

microphotography ▷ noun photography, especially of documents, plans and graphic material, in the form of greatly-reduced images of small area (microphotographs) which have to be viewed by magnification or enlarged projection. ⓒ 1850s.

microprint ▷ noun a MICROPHOTOGRAPH of eg printed text, reproduced on paper or card, etc. ● microprinted adj.

microprocessor ▷ noun, computing a single circuit performing most of the basic functions of a CPU. Also shortened to MICRO. ⓒ 1970s.

micropyle /ˈmaɪkroʊpaɪl/ ▷ noun, bot 1 in flowering plants: a small opening or pore at the tip of the OVULE through which the pollen tube normally enters during pollination. 2 zool a tiny opening or pore in the protective layer surrounding an insect's egg, through which sperm enters during the process of fertilization. ⓒ 19c: French, from Greek pyle gate.

microscope /ˈmaɪkrəskoʊp/ ▷ noun any of a range of instruments consisting of a system of lenses which produce a magnified image of objects that are too small to be seen with the naked eye. See also ELECTRON MICROSCOPE. ● microscopic /-ˈskɒpɪk/ adj 1 too small to be seen without the aid of a microscope. 2 colloq extremely small. 3 belonging or relating to, or by means of, a microscope. ● microscopically adverb. ● microscopy /maɪˈkrɒskəpɪ/ noun the practice or skill of using a microscope in scientific work, etc. ● come, go or be put under the microscope to be subjected to minute examination.

microsecond ▷ noun in the SI or metric system: a unit of time equal to one millionth part of a second.

microsurgery ▷ noun, medicine any intricate surgical procedure that is performed on very small body structures by means of a powerful microscope and small specialized instruments, eg in eye or brain surgery. ● microsurgeon noun. ● microsurgical adj.

microtome /ˈmaɪkrətoʊm/ ▷ noun, biol an instrument for cutting thin sections of objects for microscopic examination. ⓒ 19c: from MICRO- + Greek tome a cut.

microtubule /maɪkrəˈtjuːbjuːl/ ▷ noun, biol any of the microscopic, hollow, tubular filaments that are found in the cytoplasm of eukaryotic (see EUKARYOTE) cells, and are constituents of the cilia and flagella and of the CYTOSKELETON.

microwave ▷ noun 1 a form of electromagnetic radiation with wavelengths in the range 1mm to 0.3m (ie between those of INFRARED and RADIO WAVES), used in radar, communications and cooking. Also called microwave radiation. 2 a microwave oven. ▷ verb (microwaved, microwaving) to cook something in a microwave oven. ● microwaveable or microwavable adj said of food: suitable for cooking in a microwave oven.

microwave oven ▷ noun an electrically operated oven that uses microwaves to cook food more rapidly than is possible in a conventional oven, by causing water molecules within the food to vibrate and generate heat.

micturate /ˈmɪktjʊreɪt/ ▷ verb (micturated, micturating) intr, formal to urinate. ● micturition noun the act of urinating. ⓒ 19c: from Latin micturire to wish to urinate, from mingere to urinate.

mid[1] ▷ adj, often in compounds (sometimes with hyphen) referring to the middle point or in the middle of something □ mid-March □ mid-ocean □ in mid sentence. ⓒ Anglo-Saxon midd.

mid[2] or 'mid prep, poetic a short form of AMID. ⓒ 19c.

mid-air ▷ noun any area or point above the ground □ caught it in mid-air. Also as adj □ a mid-air collision.

the Midas touch /— ˈmaɪdəs —/ ▷ noun the ability to make money easily. ⓒ 19c: from the Greek legend telling of Midas, a king of Phrygia who turned everything he touched into gold.

mid-Atlantic ▷ adj said of an accent, etc: peppered with a mixture of British and N American characteristics.

midbrain ▷ noun, anatomy the part of the brain which connects the FOREBRAIN to the HINDBRAIN. Technical equivalent MESENCEPHALON. ⓒ 19c.

midday ▷ noun the middle of the day; twelve o'clock. Also as adj □ a midday meeting.

midden /ˈmɪdən/ ▷ noun 1 chiefly old use or dialect a rubbish heap; a pile of dung. 2 colloq an untidy mess. ⓒ 14c: from Danish mykdyngja, from myk manure + dyngja pile.

middle /ˈmɪdəl/ ▷ adj 1 at, or being, a point or position between two others, usually two ends or extremes, and especially the same distance from each □ It's the middle house in the row. 2 intermediate; neither at the top or at the bottom end of the scale □ middle management □ middle income. 3 moderate, not extreme; taken, used, etc as a compromise □ middle ground. 4 (Middle) said especially of languages: belonging to a period coming after the Old period and before the Modern □ Middle English. ▷ noun 1 the middle point, part or position of something □ the middle of the night. 2 colloq the waist. ▷ verb (middled, middling) 1 to place something in the middle. 2 cricket to hit (the ball) with the middle of the bat, therefore to hit it firmly and accurately. ● be in the middle of something to be busy with it and likely to remain so for some time. ⓒ Anglo-Saxon middel.

middle age ▷ noun the years between youth and old age, usually thought of as between the ages of 40 and 60. ▷ adj middle-aged said of a person: in their middle age.

the Middle Ages ▷ plural noun in European history: 1 the period (*c.*500–1500 AD) between the fall of the Roman Empire in the West and the Renaissance. 2 sometimes strictly the period between 1100 and 1500.

middle-age spread or middle-aged spread ▷ noun fat around the waist, often regarded as a consequence of reaching middle age.

Middle America ▷ noun 1 the geographical area usually thought of as comprising Mexico and Central America. 2 people in the US of above average income, education, etc and usually thought of as being politically conservative and having very traditional lifestyles and outlooks. ⓒ 19c.

middlebrow derog ▷ adj intended for, or appealing to, people with conventional tastes and average intelligence. ▷ noun a middlebrow person. Compare HIGHBROW, LOWBROW.

middle C ▷ noun, music 1 the C in the middle of the piano keyboard. 2 in printed or written music: the first line below the treble or above the bass stave.

middle class ▷ noun (especially the middle class) a social class between the working class and the upper class, traditionally thought of as being made up of educated people with professional or business careers. See also BOURGEOISIE. ▷ adj (middle-class) belonging or relating to, or characteristic of, the middle class. ⓒ 18c.

middle distance ▷ noun 1 in a painting, photograph, etc: the area between the foreground and the background. 2 athletics in a race: a length of 400, 800 or 1500m. ▷ adj (middle-distance) 1 said of a race: run over any of these distances. 2 said of an athlete: competing in races of middle distance.

middle ear ▷ noun, anatomy in vertebrates: an air-filled cavity that lies between the eardrum and the inner ear containing three small sound-transmitting bones (the MALLEUS, INCUS and STAPES). Compare INNER EAR.

Middle East ▷ noun a loosely-defined geographical region encompassing the largely Arab states to the E of the Mediterranean, as well as Cyprus, Turkey and sometimes the countries of N Africa.

Middle Eastern ▷ adj relating to or characteristic of the Middle East.

Middle England ▷ noun English people of above average income, education, etc who tend to have fairly traditional views, lifestyles, etc. As potential voters, they are considered to be an important group to win over. ◎ 1990s: modelled on MIDDLE AMERICA sense 2.

middle finger salute ▷ noun, slang a gesture, often a feature of ROAD RAGE, that involves making a fist with the middle finger extended upwards. It is used to express contempt, anger, frustration, etc and is generally taken to mean 'fuck off' or 'fuck you'. ◎ 1980s.

middle lamella ▷ noun, bot a thin layer, composed mainly of pectins, that cements together the walls of adjacent plant cells. See LAMELLA 2.

middleman ▷ noun 1 a dealer who buys goods from a producer or manufacturer and sells them to shopkeepers or to the public. 2 any intermediary. ◎ 17c in obsolete sense 'a soldier in one of the middle ranks of a file ten men deep'.

middle management ▷ noun, business in a firm or institution: the junior managerial executives and senior supervisory personnel.

middlemost see under MIDMOST.

middle name ▷ noun 1 a name which comes between a FIRST NAME and a SURNAME. 2 a quality or feature for which a person is well-known □ Punctuality is his middle name.

middle-of-the-road ▷ adj, often derog 1 said eg of politics or opinions: not extreme; moderate. 2 said eg of music: a of widespread appeal (abbreviation MOR); b boringly average or familiar.

middle school ▷ noun, England & Wales a school for children between the ages of 8 or 9 and 12 or 13. Compare SECONDARY SCHOOL. See also JUNIOR, SENIOR.

middle-sized ▷ adj characterized by being of average or medium size.

middleweight ▷ noun 1 a class for boxers, wrestlers and weightlifters of not more than a specified weight, eg 73kg (161 lb) in professional boxing, 70kg (154 lb) for light middleweight, 77kg (170 lb) for super-middleweight, and similar but different weights in the other sports. 2 a boxer or wrestler, etc of this weight.

middling /ˈmɪdlɪŋ/ colloq ▷ adj average; moderate; mediocre. ▷ adverb said especially of a person's health: fairly good; moderately □ middling good. ● fair to middling colloq not bad; fairly good. ◎ 15c: Scots.

Middx ▷ abbreviation, former English county Middlesex, now largely contained in Greater London.

middy /ˈmɪdɪ/ ▷ noun (middies) Austral colloq a measure of beer, varying in amount from one place to another.

midfield ▷ noun, football 1 the middle area of the pitch, not close to the goal of either team. 2 (the midfield) the players who operate in this area, acting as the links between a team's defending and attacking players. Also as adj □ midfield player. ● midfielder noun.

midge /mɪdʒ/ ▷ noun any of various small insects that gather near water, especially one of the kinds that bite people. ● midgy adj (midgier, midgiest). ◎ Anglo-Saxon mycge.

midget /ˈmɪdʒɪt/ ▷ noun 1 an unusually small person whose limbs and features are of normal proportions. 2 anything that is smaller than others of its kind. Compare DWARF. ◎ 19c: from MIDGE.

MIDI ▷ noun a system enabling computer control of electronic musical instruments. ◎ 20c: from musical instrument digital interface.

midi /ˈmɪdɪ/ ▷ noun (midis) colloq, fashion a skirt or coat of medium length or medium size. Compare MAXI, MINI. ◎ 1960s: from MID[1].

midi- /ˈmɪdɪ/ ▷ prefix, rather dated (sometimes without hyphen) denoting of medium size or length □ midi-skirt.

midiron /ˈmɪdaɪən/ ▷ noun, golf a heavy club used for long approach shots. See also IRON (noun 4).

midi system ▷ noun a set of small pieces of hi-fi equipment that can be stacked to form a single compact unit.

midland /ˈmɪdlənd/ ▷ adj belonging or relating to the central, inland part of a country.

midlife crisis ▷ noun a period of panic, frustration and feelings of pointlessness, sometimes experienced by a person when they reach middle age and realize that their youth has passed.

midmost literary ▷ adverb in the very middle. ▷ adj (also middlemost) nearest the middle. ◎ Anglo-Saxon midmest.

midnight ▷ noun 1 twelve o'clock at night. 2 as adj at midnight, or belonging or relating to midnight □ midnight feast □ midnight blue.

midnight sun ▷ noun, astron a phenomenon that occurs during the summer in the Arctic and Antarctic regions, where the Sun remains visible for 24 hours a day.

mid-on and mid-off ▷ noun, cricket a fielder in a roughly-horizontal line with, but at a certain distance from, the non-striking batsman, on the on or off side respectively (see ON adj 6, OFF adj 4).

midpoint ▷ noun a point at or near the middle in distance or time.

midrib ▷ noun, bot the rib that runs along the centre of a leaf and forms an extension of the PETIOLE.

midriff /ˈmɪdrɪf/ ▷ noun 1 the part of the body between the chest and the waist. Also as adj □ midriff bulge. 2 the DIAPHRAGM. ◎ Anglo-Saxon midhrif, from midd MID[1] + hrif belly.

midshipman ▷ noun, naut a trainee naval officer, stationed on land. See table at RANK. ◎ 17c: a midshipman was originally housed in quarters located AMIDSHIPS.

midships see AMIDSHIPS.

midst ▷ noun 1 (always in the midst of something) a among it or in the centre of it; b at the same time as something; during it. 2 (always in someone's midst) among them or in the same place as them. ◎ 15c as middest from Anglo-Saxon in middes amidst.

midstream ▷ noun 1 the area of water in the middle of a river or stream, away from its banks. 2 a the part in the middle of a flow or course, eg of urine; b as adj □ a midstream sample. ● in midstream before a sentence, action, etc is finished □ She cut him off in midstream.

midsummer ▷ noun the period of time in the middle of summer, or near the SUMMER SOLSTICE, ie around 21 June in the N hemisphere or 22 December in the S hemisphere. Also as adj □ midsummer fair. Opposite of MIDWINTER.

Midsummer Day or Midsummer's Day ▷ noun 24 June.

midterm ▷ noun 1 the middle of an academic term or term of office, etc. 2 a holiday, examination, etc in the middle of term. 3 the middle of a particular period of time, especially of a pregnancy. Also as adj □ midterm elections.

midway ▷ adj ▷ adverb halfway between two points in distance or time.

midweek ▷ noun the period of time in the middle of the week, especially Wednesday. Also as adj □ a midweek break.

Midwestern ▷ adj relating to or typical of the US Midwest, the states between the Great Lakes and the upper Mississippi river valley.

mid-wicket ▷ noun, cricket 1 the area between the stumps on the on side (see ON adj 6), roughly midway between the wicket and the boundary. 2 a fielder placed in this area.

midwife /ˈmɪdwaɪf/ ▷ noun a nurse, especially a female one, trained to assist women in childbirth and to provide care and advice for women before and after childbirth. ● midwifery /ˈmɪdwɪfərɪ/ noun the skills or practice of a midwife; obstetrics. ⓘ 14c: from Anglo-Saxon mid with + wif woman.

midwife toad ▷ noun a European frog that lives and mates out of water, the male of which wraps the eggs around its legs and carries them until they hatch, and then transports the tadpoles to water.

midwinter ▷ noun the period of time in the middle of winter, or near the WINTER SOLSTICE, ie around 22 December in the N hemisphere or 21 June in the S hemisphere. Also as adj. Opposite of MIDSUMMER.

midyear ▷ noun 1 the middle, or middle part, of the year. Also as adj □ midyear results. 2 (usually midyears) chiefly US an examination held in the middle of the academic year.

mien /miːn/ ▷ noun, formal or literary an appearance, expression or manner, especially one that reflects a mood □ her thoughtful mien. ⓘ 16c.

miff colloq ▷ verb (miffed, miffing) 1 to offend someone. 2 intr (usually miffed at, about or with someone or something) to be offended. ▷ noun 1 a quarrel. 2 a fit of sulking; a huff. ● miffed adj offended, upset or annoyed. ● miffy adj (miffier, miffiest) easily offended; touchy. ⓘ 17c.

might[1] /maɪt/ ▷ auxiliary verb 1 past tense of MAY[1] □ He asked if he might be of assistance. 2 (sometimes might well) used to express a possibility □ He might win if he tries hard □ You might well be right. 3 used to request permission □ Might I speak to you a moment? 4 used in suggesting that a person should be doing a specified thing □ You might carry these bags for me! 5 affected, old use or facetious used in asking a question □ And who might you be? 6 used to express the sense of 'although' □ You might be the boss, but you're still an idiot! ⓘ Anglo-Saxon miht.

might[2] /maɪt/ ▷ noun power or strength. ● with might and main literary with great strength; with all one's strength □ pulled with all our might and main. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon miht.

might-have-been ▷ noun (might-have-beens) colloq someone who might have been or might have come to something (eg been famous) or a thing which might have happened, etc.

mightn't /ˈmaɪtnt/ ▷ contraction might not.

mighty /ˈmaɪtɪ/ ▷ adj (mightier, mightiest) 1 having great strength or power. 2 very large. 3 very great or important. Also the mighty (see THE 4b). ▷ adverb, colloq N Amer, especially US very □ mighty pretty. ● mightily adverb 1 powerfully. 2 to a great extent. ● mightiness noun.

migmatite /ˈmɪgmətaɪt/ ▷ noun, geol a complex rock with a banded or veined appearance, consisting of a mixture of igneous and metamorphic rocks. ⓘ Early 20c: from Swedish migmatit, from Greek migma mixture + -ITE 4.

mignon /ˈmɪnjɒn/ ▷ adj (following its noun) (feminine mignonne) small and dainty □ filet mignon.

migraine /ˈmiːgreɪn, ˈmaɪgreɪn/ ▷ noun a type of severe and recurring throbbing headache that usually affects one side of the head and is often accompanied by nausea or vomiting, and sometimes preceded by visual disturbances. ● migrainous adj ⓘ 18c; 14c as mygrame: French, from Greek hemikrania half skull.

migrant /ˈmaɪgrənt/ ▷ noun a person or animal that migrates. ▷ adj regularly moving from one place to another. ⓘ 17c: see MIGRATE.

migrate /maɪˈgreɪt/ ▷ verb (migrated, migrating) intr 1 said of animals, especially birds: to travel from one region to another at certain times of the year. 2 said of people: to leave one place and settle in another, especially another country, often regularly. ● migrator noun. ● migratory adj 1 said eg of birds: that migrate or are accustomed to migrating. 2 wandering; itinerant. ⓘ 17c: from Latin migrare to move from one place to another.

migration noun 1 zool the movement of animals from one location to another, generally involving travel over very long distances by well-defined routes, in response to seasonal changes. 2 an act or occurrence of migrating. 3 a number of animals or people migrating.

mihrab /miːˈrɑːb/ ▷ noun, Islam a niche or slab in a mosque indicating the direction of Mecca. ⓘ 19c: Arabic, meaning 'a praying place'.

mikado or (often) Mikado /mɪˈkɑːdoʊ/ ▷ noun (mikados or Mikados) a title formerly given by foreigners to an emperor of Japan. ⓘ 18c: Japanese, literally 'exalted gate'.

Mike /maɪk/ ▷ noun, communications in the NATO alphabet: the word used to denote the letter 'M' (see table at NATO ALPHABET).

mike /maɪk/ ▷ contraction, colloq short for MICROPHONE. ▷ verb (miked, miking) (always mike someone up) to attach a microphone to their clothing, eg for a TV interview.

mil ▷ noun 1 a unit of length equal to one thousandth of an inch. 2 cinematog, colloq a millimetre. 3 photog, etc, colloq a millimetre. 4 in artillery, etc: a unit of angular measurement, equal to 1/6400 of a circle, used for aiming, etc. ⓘ 18c: from Latin mille a thousand.

mil. or milit. ▷ abbreviation military.

milady /mɪˈleɪdɪ/ ▷ noun (miladies) dated a term formerly used to address, or to refer to, a rich English woman, especially an aristocratic one. ⓘ 19c: French, from English my lady.

milch /mɪltʃ/ ▷ adj said of cattle: producing milk. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon milce.

milch cow ▷ noun something or someone that is seen as a source of easy income or profit.

mild /maɪld/ ▷ adj (milder, mildest) 1 gentle in temperament or behaviour. 2 not sharp or strong in flavour or effect. 3 not great or severe. 4 said of climate, etc: not characterized by extremes; rather warm. ▷ noun (also mild ale) dark beer less flavoured with hops than BITTER beer. ● mildly adverb. ● mildness noun. ● to put it mildly to understate the case. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon milde.

mildew /ˈmɪldjuː/ ▷ noun 1 any of various parasitic fungi that produce a fine white powdery coating on the surface of infected plants, or white or grey patches on the surface of paper, leather or other materials made from plant or animal material and subsequently kept in damp conditions. 2 the white powdery coating itself, or the white or grey patches produced by these fungi. ▷ verb (mildewed, mildewing) tr & intr to affect or become affected by mildew. ● mildewed adj. ● mildewy adj. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon mildeaw.

mild steel ▷ noun steel that contains little carbon and is easily worked.

mile /maɪl/ ▷ noun (abbreviation m, m. or ml) 1 in the imperial system: a unit of distance equal to 1760yd (1.61km). See also NAUTICAL MILE. 2 a race over this distance, especially a race on foot. 3 colloq a great distance; a large margin □ missed by a mile. ● miler noun an athlete or horse that runs races of one mile. ● miles adverb 1 at a great distance □ lives miles away. 2 colloq very much □ feel miles better. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon mil, originally a Roman unit of length consisting of 1000 double paces from Latin mille passuum a thousand paces.

mileage /ˈmaɪlɪdʒ/ ▷ noun 1 the number of miles travelled or to be travelled. 2 a the number of miles a motor vehicle will travel on a fixed amount of fuel; b the total number of miles a car has done since new, as shown on the milometer. 3 travelling allowance calculated at a set amount per mile. 4 colloq use; benefit; advantage □ We can get a lot of mileage out of that story. ⓘ 18c in sense 3.

mileometer or milometer /maɪˈlɒmɪtə(r)/ ▷ noun in a motor vehicle: an instrument for recording the total number of miles travelled. Also (colloq) called clock.

milestone ▷ noun 1 a very important event; a significant point or stage. 2 a stone pillar at a roadside showing distances in miles to various places.

miliaria see PRICKLY HEAT milieu /ˈmiːljɜː/ ▷ noun (milieus or milieux) literary a social environment or set of surroundings. ⓘ 19c: French, meaning 'middle place'.

milit. see MIL.

militant /ˈmɪlɪtənt/ ▷ adj 1 taking, or ready to take, strong or violent action; aggressively active. 2 formal engaged in warfare. ▷ noun a militant person. ● militancy noun. ● militantly adverb. ⓘ 15c: French, from Latin militare to serve as a soldier.

militaria /mɪlɪˈtɛərɪə/ ▷ plural noun weapons, uniforms, medals, badges and other items connected with the military, often in the form of a collection. ⓘ 1960s: from MILITARY + -IA[2].

militarism /ˈmɪlɪtərɪzəm/ ▷ noun, often derog 1 an aggressive readiness to engage in warfare. 2 the vigorous pursuit of military aims and ideals. ● militarist noun. ● militaristic adj. ● militaristically adverb.

militarize or militarise /ˈmɪlɪtəraɪz/ ▷ verb (militarized, militarizing) 1 to provide (a country, body, etc) with a military force. 2 to make something military in nature or character. ● militarization noun.

military /ˈmɪlɪtrɪ, -tərɪ/ ▷ adj 1 by, for, or belonging or relating to the armed forces or warfare □ military band □ military encounter. 2 characteristic of members of the armed forces □ military bearing. ▷ noun (militaries) (usually the military) the armed forces. ● militarily adverb. ⓘ 16c: from French militaire, from Latin militaris, from miles soldier.

Military Cross ▷ noun, Brit (abbreviation MC) a medal awarded to army officers.

military honours ▷ plural noun a display of respect shown to a dead soldier, etc by fellow soldiers, royalty, etc □ They were buried with full military honours.

military police or Military Police ▷ noun (abbreviation MP) a police force within an army, enforcing army rules. ● military policeman, military policewoman noun (abbreviation MP).

military science ▷ noun the theoretical study of warfare and of the strategic, tactical and logistic principles behind it.

militate /ˈmɪlɪteɪt/ ▷ verb (militated, militating) intr (usually militate for or against something) said of facts, etc: to have a strong influence or effect □ The evidence militates against your sworn statement. ⓘ 17c: from Latin militare to serve as a soldier; see -ATE 1.

militate
A word often confused with this one is mitigate.

militia /mɪˈlɪʃə/ ▷ noun (militias) a civilian fighting force used to supplement a regular army in emergencies, eg the TERRITORIAL ARMY. ⓘ 16c: Latin, meaning 'a military force'.

militiaman ▷ noun a member of a militia.

milk ▷ noun 1 a white or yellowish liquid consisting mainly of water, with protein, fats, carbohydrates, vitamins and minerals (especially calcium), that is secreted by the MAMMARY GLANDS of female mammals to provide their young with nourishment. Also as adj □ milk jug. See also CONDENSED MILK, EVAPORATED MILK, SKIMMED MILK. 2 the whitish, milk-like juice or sap of certain plants □ coconut milk. 3 any preparation that resembles milk □ milk of magnesia. ▷ verb (milked, milking) 1 to take milk from (an animal). 2 to extract or draw off a substance (eg venom or sap) from something. 3 colloq to obtain money, information or any other benefit from someone or something, cleverly or relentlessly; to exploit □ milked the scandal for all it was worth. 4 intr said of cattle: to yield milk. ● milker noun 1 a cow that is kept for milking. 2 a person or machine that milks cows. ● milking noun the act, skill or process of milking. Also as adj □ milking shed □ milking machine. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon milc.

milk and honey ▷ noun comfort; luxury; plenty. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon meolce and hunie, referring to the phrase in the Bible (Exodus 3.8) which describes the 'land flowing with milk and honey', ie the PROMISED LAND.

milk and water derog ▷ noun weak, insipid or weakly sentimental speech or writing. Also as adj (milk-and-water). ⓘ 16c in obsolete sense 'the colour of milk and water'.

milk chocolate ▷ noun chocolate containing milk. Compare PLAIN CHOCOLATE.

milk float ▷ noun, Brit a vehicle, usually an electrically-powered one, used for delivering milk.

milkily and milkiness see under MILKY milk leg see WHITE-LEG

milkmaid ▷ noun a woman who milks cows, goats, etc.

milkman ▷ noun, Brit a man who delivers milk to people's houses.

milk of magnesia see under MAGNESIA milk pudding ▷ noun a dessert made by baking or boiling grain (eg rice or tapioca) in milk, usually with added sugar and flavouring.

milk round ▷ noun 1 a milkman's regular daily route from house to house. 2 a series of visits made periodically, eg a tour of universities made by representatives of a large company in order to attract or recruit undergraduates.

milk run ▷ noun 1 airmen's slang a routine flight. 2 a MILK ROUND 1.

milkshake ▷ noun a drink consisting of a mixture of milk, flavouring and sometimes ice cream, whipped together until creamy.

milksop ▷ noun, derog, old use a weak, effeminate or ineffectual man or youth. ⓘ 15c in obsolete sense 'a piece of bread soaked in milk'; see SOP.

milk sugar see under LACTOSE milk tooth ▷ noun any of a baby's or young mammal's first set of teeth. Also called baby tooth.

milky /ˈmɪlkɪ/ ▷ adj (milkier, milkiest) 1 like milk, eg in colour, opacity, mildness of taste or effect, etc. 2 made of or containing milk. ● milkily adverb. ● milkiness noun.

the Milky Way ▷ noun, astron 1 strictly a band of diffuse light that circles the night sky as seen from Earth, and represents the combined light of billions of stars in the plane of our Galaxy which are too faint to be seen individually. 2 the Galaxy to which our Sun belongs.

mill ▷ noun 1 a a large machine that grinds grain into flour; b a building containing such a machine □ watermill □ windmill. 2 any of various smaller machines or devices for grinding a particular thing □ a pepper mill. 3 a in manufacturing industry, etc: a large machine that presses, rolls or otherwise shapes something; b a factory containing one or more of these machines. 4 any factory □ a woollen mill. 5 an institution or place which seems to process (eg students) in an impersonal, factory-like way to deliver a standardized end-product. ▷ verb (milled, milling) 1 to grind (grain, etc). 2 to shape (eg metal) in a mill. 3 to cut grooves into the edge of (a coin). 4 intr, colloq (especially mill about or around) to move in an aimless or confused manner □ people milling around outside. ● miller noun 1 someone who owns or operates a mill, especially a grain mill. 2 a machine for milling. • milling noun 1 the grinding of cereal grain to produce flour for use in making bread and other foodstuffs. 2 the act or process of passing anything through a mill. 3 the grooves, or the process of making grooves, in the edge of a coin, etc. • go or put someone or something through the mill to undergo or make them or it undergo an unpleasant experience or difficult test. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon mylin from Latin molere to grind.

millefeuille /French milfœj/ ▷ noun (millefeuilles) a type of layered cake made with puff pastry and cream, jam, etc. ⓘ 19c: literally 'a thousand leaves'.

millenarian /mılə'nɛərıən/ ▷ noun, Christianity a person who believes that the coming of the millennium (see MILLENNIUM 2a) is a certainty. ▷ adj relating or belonging to the millennium. • millenarianism noun the beliefs of a millenarian.

millenary /mı'lɛnərı, -'liː-/ ▷ noun (millenaries) 1 a thousand, especially a period of a thousand years. 2 a thousandth anniversary. ▷ adj consisting of, or relating to, a millenary. ⓘ 17c: from Latin millenarius consisting of a thousand.

millennium /mı'lɛnıəm/ ▷ noun (millenniums or millennia) 1 a period of a thousand years. 2 (the millennium) a a future period of a thousand years during which some Christians believe Christ will rule the world; b a future golden age of worldwide peace and happiness. • millennial adj. See also MILLENARIAN. ⓘ 17c: from Latin mille a thousand + annus year.

millepede see MILLIPEDE

miller see under MILL

millesimal /mı'lɛsıməl/ ▷ adj 1 thousandth. 2 consisting of or relating to thousandths. ▷ noun a thousandth part. ⓘ 18c: from Latin millesimus, from mille a thousand.

millet ▷ noun 1 the common name for several cereal grasses, especially certain fast-growing varieties tolerant of drought and poor soil which are grown as an important food crop in the drier regions of Africa and Asia, especially India and China, and are widely used as animal fodder. 2 (also millet-seed) the grain of this plant. ⓘ 15c: French, from Latin milium.

milli- /mılı/ ▷ combining form, forming nouns, denoting in the names of SI or metric units: a thousandth part □ millilitre □ millimetre. ⓘ From Latin mille a thousand.

milliard /'mılıɑːd, 'mıljɑːd/ ▷ noun, old use a thousand million. Now called BILLION. ⓘ 18c: French, from mille a thousand.

millibar ▷ noun, physics, meteorol, etc (symbol mbar) a unit of atmospheric pressure equal to 10^{-3} (one thousandth) of a bar. See also BAR².

milligram or milligramme ▷ noun (abbreviation mg) a unit of weight equal to one thousandth of a gram.

millilitre or (US) milliliter ▷ noun (abbreviation ml) a unit of volume, equal to one thousandth of a litre.

millimetre or (US) millimeter ▷ noun (abbreviation mm) a unit of length equal to one thousandth of a metre.

milliner /'mılınə(r)/ ▷ noun someone who makes or sells women's hats. • millinery noun 1 the hats and trimmings made or sold by milliners. 2 the craft of making such articles. ⓘ 16c: from Milaner, a trader in the fancy goods, for which the Italian city of Milan was once famous.

million /'mıljən/ ▷ noun (millions or after a number million) 1 the number or quantity 10^6, a thousand thousands. 2 a numeral, figure or symbol representing this, eg 1 000 000. 3 colloq a million pounds or dollars. 4 (often millions) colloq a great number □ He's got millions of friends. ▷ adj 1 000 000 in number. • one in a million something or someone very rare of their kind, and therefore very valuable or special. ⓘ 14c: French, from Latin millionis from mille a thousand.

millionaire /mıljə'nɛə(r)/ ▷ noun someone whose wealth amounts to a million pounds, dollars, etc or more. ⓘ 19c: French.

millionairess ▷ noun (millionairesses) a female millionaire.

millionth /'mıljənθ/ ▷ noun ▷ adj a thousand thousandth.

millipede or millepede /'mılıpiːd/ ▷ noun (millipedes or millepede) any of various small wormlike creatures with many-jointed bodies and numerous pairs of legs. ⓘ 17c: from Latin millepeda a woodlouse, from pedis foot.

millisecond ▷ noun (abbreviation ms) a unit of time equal to one thousandth of a second.

millpond ▷ noun a pond containing water which is, or used to be, used for driving a mill. • like or as calm as a millpond said of a stretch of water: completely smooth and calm.

millstone ▷ noun 1 either of the large, heavy stones between which grain is ground in a mill. 2 (especially a millstone around someone's neck) any heavy burden, eg a duty or responsibility, which someone has to bear.

millstream ▷ noun a stream of water that turns a millwheel.

millwheel ▷ noun a wheel, especially a waterwheel, used to drive a mill.

milometer see MILEOMETER milord /mı'lɔːd/ ▷ noun, dated a term formerly used on the continent to address or refer to a rich English gentleman, especially an aristocrat. ⓘ 18c: French, from English my lord.

milt ▷ noun the testis or sperm of a fish. ⓘ 15c in current sense; Anglo-Saxon milte in original sense 'the spleen of a mammal'.

Miltonic /mıl'tɒnık/ ▷ adj relating to or characteristic of the literary works or style of the English poet John Milton (1608–74).

mime /maım/ ▷ noun 1 the theatrical art of conveying meaning without words through gesture, movement and facial expression. 2 a play or dramatic sequence performed in this way. 3 an actor who practises this art. Also called mime artist. 4 historical in ancient Greek and Roman theatre: a farcical play with dialogue making great use of gesture and facial expression. ▷ verb (mimed, miming) tr & intr 1 to act or express (feelings, etc) without words through gesture, movement and facial expression. 2 to mouth the words to a song in time with a recording, giving the illusion of singing. • mimer noun. ⓘ 17c: from Latin mimus, from Greek mimos imitator.

mimeograph /'mımıəgrɑːf/ ▷ noun 1 a machine that produces copies of printed or handwritten material from a stencil. 2 a copy produced in this way. ▷ verb (mimeographed, mimeographing) to make a copy of something in this way. ⓘ 19c: originally a trademark.

mimesis /mı'miːsıs, maı'-/ ▷ noun 1 in art or literature: imitative representation. 2 biol mimicry. 3 rhetoric use of a person's supposed or alleged words. • mimetic /mı'mɛtık/ adj 1 consisting of, showing, or relating to imitation; imitative. 2 biol displaying mimicry. ⓘ 16c: Greek, meaning 'imitation'.

mimic /'mımık/ ▷ verb (mimicked, mimicking) 1 to imitate someone or something, especially for comic effect. 2 to copy. 3 to simulate. 4 biol to resemble something closely, especially as a defense mechanism. ▷ noun 1 someone who is skilled at imitating other people, especially in a comic manner. 2 biol a plant or animal displaying mimicry. ▷ adj 1 imitative. 2 mock or sham. • mimicker noun. • mimicry /'mımıkrı/ noun (mimicries) 1 the skill or practice of mimicking. 2 biol the close resemblance of one animal or plant species to another species, or to a non-living feature of its natural environment, which protects it from predators or enables it to deceive its prey. ⓘ 16c: from Latin mimicus imitative, from Greek mimikos, from mimos imitator.

mimosa /mɪˈmoʊzə, -sə/ ▷ noun (mimosas or mimosae /-siː/) any of various tropical shrubs or trees which have leaves that droop when touched, and clusters of flowers, typically yellow ones. ⓘ 18c: Latin, from Greek mimos imitator; the movement of the leaf when touched was seen as an imitation of a cowering animal.

min ▷ noun, colloq a minute.

Min. ▷ abbreviation 1 Minister. 2 Ministry.

min. ▷ abbreviation 1 minimum. 2 minute or minutes.

mina see MYNA.

minaret /mɪnəˈrɛt, ˈmɪnərɛt/ ▷ noun a tower on or attached to a mosque, with a balcony from which the MUEZZIN calls Muslims to prayer. ⓘ 17c: from Arabic manarat lighthouse.

minatory /ˈmɪnətərɪ, ˈmaɪn-/ ▷ adj, formal threatening. ⓘ 16c: from Latin minari to threaten.

mince /mɪns/ ▷ verb (minced, mincing) 1 to cut or shred something (especially meat) into very small pieces. 2 (especially mince words with someone or mince one's words, (chiefly with negatives) to restrain or soften the impact of (one's words, opinion, remarks, etc) when addressing someone □ not one to mince his words. 3 intr, usually derog to walk or speak with affected delicateness. ▷ noun 1 minced meat, especially beef. 2 a dish of cooked minced beef, often with carrots, onions and gravy. • mincer noun. ⓘ 19c as noun; 14c as verb: from French mincier.

mincemeat ▷ noun a spiced mixture of dried fruits, apples, candied peel, etc and often suet, used as a filling for pies. • make mincemeat of someone or something colloq to destroy or defeat them or it thoroughly.

mince pie ▷ noun a pie filled with mincemeat or with minced meat.

mincing ▷ adj, usually derog said of a manner of walking or behaving: over-delicate and affected. • mincingly adverb. ⓘ 16c: from MINCE.

MIND /maɪnd/ ▷ abbreviation, Brit National Association of Mental Health.

mind /maɪnd/ ▷ noun 1 the power of thinking and understanding; the intelligence. 2 the place where thoughts, feelings and creative reasoning exist; the intellect. 3 memory; recollection □ call something to mind. 4 opinion; judgement □ It's unjust, to my mind. 5 attention □ keep your mind on the job. 6 wish; inclination □ I have a mind to go. 7 a very intelligent person □ great minds agree. 8 right senses; sanity □ has lost his mind. ▷ verb (minded, minding) 1 to look after, care for or keep something or someone safe □ Stay here and mind the luggage. 2 tr & intr to be upset, concerned or offended by something or someone □ I don't mind the noise, just the smoke. 3 (also mind out or mind out for something) to be careful or wary of it □ Mind where you step. See also exclamation below. 4 to take notice of or pay attention to something or someone □ Mind your own business. 5 to take care to control something □ Mind your language. 6 tr & intr to take care to protect something or someone □ Mind your jacket near this wet paint! 7 tr & intr, dialect to remember □ Mind and hurry back now. ▷ exclamation (often mind out!) be careful; watch out! □ Mind! There's a car reversing. See also verb 3 above. • minded and minder see separate entries. • bear something in mind to remember it. • do you mind! an exclamation expressing disagreement or objection. • in one's mind's eye in one's imagination. • in or of two minds undecided. • know one's own mind or have a mind of one's own to have firm opinions or intentions; to be strong-willed and independent. • make up one's mind to come to a decision. • mind you an expression used when adding a qualification to something already said □ I refuse to go. Mind you, I'd like to be there just to see his face. • of one or the same mind agreed. • on one's mind referring to something that is being thought about, considered, worried about, etc. • out of mind forgotten; out of one's thoughts. • put one in mind of something to remind one of it. • take one's or someone's mind off something to distract one's or someone's thoughts from it. • to my mind in my opinion. ⓘ 14c as verb mynd; Anglo-Saxon as noun gemynd, from munan to think.

▪ mind out to beware or look out.

mind-bending ▷ adj, colloq 1 mind-blowing. 2 mind-boggling.

mind-blowing ▷ adj, colloq 1 very surprising, shocking, or exciting. 2 said of a drug: producing a state of hallucination or altered consciousness. • mind-blowingly adverb.

mind-boggling ▷ adj, colloq too difficult, large, strange, etc to imagine or understand; impossible to take in. • mind-bogglingly adverb □ mind-bogglingly large.

minded ▷ adj 1 rather formal having an intention or desire □ not minded to reply to her letter. 2 in compounds having the specified kind of mind or attitude □ open-minded □ like-minded.

minder ▷ noun 1 in compounds someone who takes care of or supervises someone or something □ childminder. 2 colloq a bodyguard. 3 someone who MINDS in any other sense.

mindful ▷ adj (usually mindful of something) keeping it in mind; attentive to it. • mindfully adverb. • mindfulness noun.

mindless ▷ adj 1 derog senseless; done without a reason □ mindless violence. 2 derog needing no effort of mind □ watching mindless rubbish on TV. 3 (usually mindless of something) taking no account of it □ mindless of his responsibilities. • mindlessly adverb.

mind-numbing ▷ adj, colloq so boring or dull that it seems to deaden the brain. • mind-numbingly adverb.

mind-reader ▷ noun someone who claims to be able to know other people's thoughts. • mind-reading noun the process of apparently discovering another person's thoughts.

mindset ▷ noun an attitude or habit of mind, especially a firmly fixed one.

mine[1] /maɪn/ ▷ pronoun 1 something or someone belonging to, or connected with, me; the thing or things, etc belonging to me □ Your coat is nice, but I prefer mine. 2 my family or people □ as long as it doesn't affect me or mine. ▷ adj, old use, poetic used in place of MY before a vowel sound or h □ mine eye □ mine host. • of mine belonging to, or connected with, me □ a cousin of mine. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon min.

mine[2] /maɪn/ ▷ noun 1 often in compounds an opening or excavation in the ground, used to remove minerals, metal ores, coal, etc, from the Earth's crust □ coalmine □ goldmine. 2 sometimes in compounds an explosive device that is placed just beneath the ground surface or in water, designed to destroy tanks, ships, etc, when detonated □ land-mine. 3 a rich source □ He's a mine of information. 4 an excavation dug underneath a military position, fortification, etc to enter or undermine it, blow it up, etc. ▷ verb (mined, mining) 1 tr & intr to dig for (minerals, etc) □ They mine gold in those hills. 2 (also mine somewhere for something) to dig (a particular area) in order to extract minerals, etc □ started mining the western bay in the 50s for gold. 3 to lay exploding mines in (land or water) □ The beach has been mined. 4 to destroy something with exploding mines □ Our ship was mined. • miner noun, often in compounds someone who mines or works in a mine, especially a coal mine □ coalminer □ goldminer. • mining noun 1 the act or process of extracting minerals, etc from the ground. 2 the act or process of laying mines. ⓘ 14c: French, from miner to mine.

minefield ▷ noun 1 an area of land or water in which mines (see MINE² noun 2) have been laid. 2 a subject or situation that presents many problems or dangers, especially hidden ones.

minelayer ▷ noun a ship or aircraft designed for laying mines.

mineral /ˈmɪnərəl/ ▷ noun 1 technical a naturally occurring substance that is inorganic, usually crystalline, and has characteristic physical and chemical properties by which it may be identified. 2 loosely any substance obtained by mining, including fossil fuels (eg coal, natural gas or petroleum) although they are organic. 3 any inorganic substance, ie one that is neither animal nor vegetable. 4 (minerals) see MINERAL WATER. ▷ adj belonging or relating to the nature of a mineral; containing minerals. ⓘ 14c in sense 2: from Latin mineralis relating to mines.

mineralize or mineralise /ˈmɪnərəlaɪz/ ▷ verb (mineralized, mineralizing) 1 to give something the properties of a mineral. 2 to make something into a mineral. • mineralization noun. • mineralizer noun.

mineralogy /mɪnəˈralədʒɪ/ ▷ noun the scientific study of minerals. • mineralogical adj. • mineralogist noun.

mineral oil ▷ noun any oil obtained from minerals, rather than from a plant or animal source.

mineral water ▷ noun water containing small quantities of dissolved minerals, especially water that occurs naturally in this state at a spring. Sometimes called minerals.

minestrone /mɪnəˈstroʊnɪ/ ▷ noun, cookery a clear stock-based soup containing a variety of chunky vegetables and pasta, often served with grated cheese on top. ⓘ 19c: Italian, from minestrare to serve.

minesweeper ▷ noun a ship equipped to clear mines from an area. • minesweeping noun.

Ming ▷ adj belonging or relating to the Chinese Ming dynasty (1368–1643), or especially to its pottery and other art □ a Ming vase.

mingle /ˈmɪŋgəl/ ▷ verb (mingled, mingling) (often mingle with something or someone) 1 tr & intr to become or make something become blended or mixed. 2 intr to move from person to person at a social engagement, briefly talking to each. 3 tr & intr to associate or have dealings with others. • mingler noun. • mingling noun. ⓘ 15c: from Anglo-Saxon mengan to mix.

mingy /ˈmɪndʒɪ/ Brit derog, colloq ▷ adj (mingier, mingiest) ungenerous; mean; meagre. • minginess noun. ⓘ Early 20c.

mini /ˈmɪnɪ/ colloq ▷ noun (minis) something small or short of its kind, especially a MINISKIRT, or a type of small car. ▷ adj small or short of its kind; miniature. ⓘ 1960s.

mini- ▷ prefix, forming nouns, denoting smaller or shorter than the standard size □ minibus □ mini-submarine. Compare MAXI, MIDI-. ⓘ 1960s: a shortening of MINIATURE or MINIMUM.

miniature /ˈmɪnɪtʃə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 a small copy, model or breed of anything. 2 a a very small painting, especially a portrait on a very small scale; b the genre of painting that includes such pictures. 3 manuscript illumination. ▷ adj minute or small-scale; referring to the nature of a miniature. • miniaturist noun an artist who paints miniatures. • in miniature on a small scale. ⓘ 16c: from Italian miniatura, from Latin, from miniare to illuminate (a manuscript), or to use red paint for printing, illuminating, etc, from minium red lead.

miniaturize or miniaturise /ˈmɪnɪtʃəraɪz/ ▷ verb (miniaturized, miniaturizing) 1 to make (eg technical equipment) on a small scale. 2 to make something very small; to reduce it significantly in size. • miniaturization noun.

minibreak ▷ noun a short holiday, usually a weekend or long weekend break.

minibus ▷ noun a small bus, usually one with between 12 and 15 seats in it.

minicab ▷ noun a taxi that is ordered by telephone from a private company, not one that can be stopped in the street. • minicabbing noun running a minicab or minicabs, as a line of work or business.

minicam ▷ noun a miniature, portable, shoulder-held TV camera, as used in news reporting. ⓘ 1930s.

minicomputer ▷ noun a medium-sized computer, larger than a MICROCOMPUTER but smaller than a MAINFRAME.

minidisk ▷ noun, computing a very compact magnetic disk storage medium for microcomputers.

mini-flyweight ▷ noun an amateur boxer who weighs under 48kg (105 lb).

minim /ˈmɪnɪm/ ▷ noun 1 music a note half the length of a SEMIBREVE. Also called half-note. 2 in the imperial system: a unit of liquid volume, equal to $^1/_{60}$ of a fluid drachm (0.06ml). 3 in handwriting: a short down-stroke. ⓘ 15c: from Latin minimus smallest.

minimal /ˈmɪnɪməl/ ▷ adj 1 very little indeed; negligible □ caused minimal damage. 2 referring to the nature of a minimum. 3 said of art, etc: minimalist. • minimally adverb in a minimal way; to a minimal extent. ⓘ 17c: see MINIMUM.

minimal invasive therapy ▷ noun, surgery an operating procedure that does not necessitate stitching or scarring, eg gallstone removal by endoscopy and laser treatment.

minimalism ▷ noun 1 especially in art, music and design: the policy of using the minimum means, eg the fewest and simplest elements, to achieve the desired result. 2 (also minimal art) painting, sculpture, etc making minimal use of form, colour, shape, etc, composed eg of large geometric areas of primary or monochrome colours.

minimalist noun 1 a follower of minimalism. 2 an artist whose work is characteristic of minimalism. 3 someone who believes in or advocates a policy of the least possible action or intervention. ▷ adj belonging to or characteristic of minimalism. ⓘ 1960s.

minimax /ˈmɪnɪmaks, -ɪɪə-/ ▷ noun 1 math the lowest value in a set of maximum values. 2 in game theory: the strategy of making all decisions in such a way as to minimize the chances of incurring the maximum potential loss. Compare MAXIMIN. ⓘ 1940s: from MINIMUM + MAXIMUM.

minimize or minimise /ˈmɪnɪmaɪz/ ▷ verb (minimized, minimizing) 1 to reduce something to a minimum. 2 to treat something as being of little importance or significance. ⓘ 19c.

minimum /ˈmɪnɪməm/ ▷ noun (minimums or minima /-mə/) 1 the lowest possible number, value, quantity or degree. 2 (sometimes a minimum of something) the lowest number, value, quantity or degree reached or allowed □ There must be a minimum of three people present □ Three is the minimum. ▷ adj 1 relating or referring to the nature of a minimum; lowest possible □ minimum waste. 2 lowest reached or allowed □ minimum age. Opposite of MAXIMUM. ⓘ 17c: Latin, from minimus smallest.

minimum lending rate ▷ noun, Brit econ, (abbreviation MLR) formerly the minimum rate of interest at which the Bank of England would lend to discount houses, which was superseded in 1981 by the BANK BASE-RATE.

minimum wage ▷ noun the lowest wage an employer is allowed to pay, by law or union agreement.

mining see under MINE[2]

minion /ˈmɪnjən/ ▷ noun, derog 1 an employee or follower, especially one who is fawning or subservient. 2 a favourite subordinate of a sovereign, VIP, etc. ⓘ 16c: originally meaning 'a darling or favourite': from French MIGNON.

minipill ▷ noun a low-dose oral contraceptive containing progesterone but no oestrogen.

> miniscule
>
> See Usage Note at minuscule.

mini-series ▷ singular noun, TV a short series of related programmes, especially dramas, usually broadcast over consecutive days or weeks. ⓘ 1970s.

miniskirt ▷ noun a very short skirt, with a hemline well above the knee. Often shortened to MINI. ⓘ 1960s.

minister /ˈmɪnɪstə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 the political head of, or a senior politician with responsibilities in, a government department. See also SECRETARY OF STATE, MINISTER OF STATE. 2 a member of the clergy in certain branches of the Christian church. Compare PRIEST. 3 a high-ranking diplomat, especially the next in rank below an ambassador. 4 formal a person acting as agent for another, especially in business. ▷ verb (ministered, ministering) intr 1 formal (especially minister to someone) to provide someone with help or some kind of service; to take care of them. 2 to perform the duties of a religious minister. • ministerial /-ˈstɪərɪəl/ adj 1 belonging or relating to, or typical of, a minister or a ministry ▫ ministerial duties. 2 relating to or having executive authority. • ministerially adverb. ⓘ 13c: French, from Latin minister servant.

Minister of State ▷ noun, Brit a minister who assists a MINISTER OF THE CROWN in a large government department, usually having no place in the Cabinet.

Minister of the Crown ▷ noun, Brit the political head of a government department and a member of THE CABINET.

minister without portfolio ▷ noun (ministers without portfolio) Brit a government minister who does not have responsibility for a specific department.

ministration /mɪnɪˈstreɪʃən/ ▷ noun, formal 1 the act or process of ministering. 2 (usually ministrations) help or service given. • ministrant /ˈmɪnɪstrənt/ adj, noun. • ministrative adj.

ministry /ˈmɪnɪstrɪ, -nə-/ ▷ noun (ministries) 1 a a government department; b the premises it occupies. 2 (the ministry) a the profession, duties or period of service of a religious minister; b religious ministers collectively. 3 the act of ministering.

Minitel /ˈmɪnɪtel/ ▷ noun in France: a public videotext system that provides banking and mail order services, electronic messaging, etc.

miniver /ˈmɪnɪvə(r)/ ▷ noun a type of fur used for lining ceremonial robes. ⓘ 14c: French.

mink /mɪŋk/ ▷ noun (plural mink) 1 a semi-aquatic European or N American mammal with a slender body, webbed feet and thick fur, brown except for a white patch on the chin. 2 the highly valued fur of this animal. Also as adj ▫ mink coat. 3 a garment, especially a coat, made of this fur ▫ wearing her mink. ⓘ 15c: perhaps from Swedish mänk.

minke whale see under RORQUAL

Minn. see under MN

minneola /mɪnɪˈoʊlə/ ▷ noun (minneolas) an orange-like citrus fruit which is a cross between a grapefruit and a tangerine. ⓘ 20c: perhaps named after Mineola in Texas, USA.

minnow /ˈmɪnoʊ/ ▷ noun 1 any of several kinds of small freshwater fish of the carp family. 2 an insignificant person, group, thing, etc. ⓘ 15c.

Minoan /mɪˈnoʊən, maɪ-/ ▷ adj belonging or relating to the Bronze Age civilization that flourished in Crete and other Aegean islands from approximately 3 000–1 100 BC. ▷ noun an individual belonging to this civilization. ⓘ 19c: from Minos, a mythological king of Crete.

minor /ˈmaɪnə(r)/ ▷ adj 1 not as great in importance or size; fairly or relatively small or insignificant ▫ only a minor problem. 2 music a said of a scale: having a semitone between the second and third, fifth and sixth, and seventh and eighth notes; b said of a key, chord, etc: based on such a scale. 3 Brit, especially formerly used after the surname of the younger of two brothers attending the same school: junior ▫ Simcox minor. 4 said of a person: below the age of legal majority or adulthood. In all senses compare MAJOR. ▷ noun 1 someone who is below the age of legal majority (see MAJORITY 3). 2 music a minor key, chord or scale. 3 especially US a a student's minor or subsidiary subject of study; b a student studying such a subject ▫ He's a history minor. ▷ verb (minored, minoring) especially US (always minor in something) to study a specified minor or subsidiary subject at college or university. Compare MAJOR. ⓘ 13c: Latin, meaning 'less'.

minority /maɪˈnɒrɪtɪ, mɪ-/ ▷ noun (minorities) 1 a small number, or the smaller of two numbers, sections or groups. 2 a group of people who are different, especially in terms of race or religion, from most of the people (ie the MAJORITY) in a country, region, etc. 3 the state of being the smaller or lesser of two groups ▫ in a minority. 4 the state of being below the age of legal majority. Often as adj ▫ minority party ▫ minority rights ▫ minority view. ⓘ 16c: from Latin minoritas, related to MINOR.

minor league see under MAJOR LEAGUE minor mode see under MODE minor orders ▷ plural noun, Christianity the lower degrees of HOLY ORDERS, eg an ACOLYTE.

minor planet see ASTEROID minster /ˈmɪnstə(r)/ ▷ noun a large church or cathedral, especially one that was originally attached to a monastery ▫ York Minster. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon mynster, from Latin monasterium monastery.

minstrel /ˈmɪnstrəl/ ▷ noun, historical 1 in the Middle Ages: a travelling singer, musician and reciter of poetry, etc. 2 formerly in the USA and Britain: any of a group of white-skinned entertainers made up to look black, who performed song and dance routines superficially of Negro origin. • minstrelsy noun the art or occupation of a medieval minstrel. ⓘ 13c: French, meaning 'someone employed' eg an attendant or musician, from Latin: see MINISTER.

mint[1] ▷ noun 1 any of various aromatic plants, including PEPPERMINT and SPEARMINT, with paired leaves and small, white or purple flowers, widely grown as a garden herb. 2 cookery the pungent-smelling leaves of this plant, used fresh or dried as a flavouring. 3 a sweet flavoured with mint, or with a synthetic substitute for mint. Also called PEPPERMINT. • minty adj (mintier, mintiest) tasting or smelling of mint. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon minte, from Latin mentha.

mint[2] ▷ noun 1 a place where coins are produced under government authority. 2 colloq a very large sum of money ▫ must be worth a mint. • in mint condition or state in perfect condition, as if brand new; never or hardly used. ▷ verb (minted, minting) 1 to manufacture (coins). 2 to invent or coin (a new word, phrase, etc). • mintage noun. ⓘ 15c in noun sense 1; Anglo-Saxon mynet in obsolete sense 'money'.

mint julep see JULEP 2

mint sauce ▷ noun, cookery the chopped leaves of spearmint or other mint mixed with vinegar and sugar, served especially with roast lamb.

minuend /ˈmɪnjʊɛnd/ ▷ noun, math the number that another number is to be subtracted from. Compare SUBTRAHEND. ⓘ 18c: from Latin minuendus, from minuere to diminish.

minuet /mɪnjʊˈɛt/ ▷ noun 1 a slow formal dance with short steps in triple time, popular in the 17c and 18c. 2 a piece of music for this dance. ⓘ 17c: from French menuet, from menu small.

minus /ˈmaɪnəs/ ▷ prep 1 with the subtraction of (a specified number) ◻ Eight minus six equals two is usually written as 8 – 6 = 2. 2 colloq without ◻ arrived minus his wife. ▷ adj 1 negative or less than zero. 2 said of a student's grade, and placed after the grade: indicating a level slightly below that indicated by the letter ◻ got a B minus for my essay. 3 colloq characterized by being a disadvantage ◻ a minus point. ▷ noun (minuses) 1 a sign (–) indicating a negative quantity or that the quantity which follows it is to be subtracted. Also called minus sign. 2 colloq a negative point; a disadvantage. 3 a negative quantity or term. In all senses opposite of PLUS. ⓘ 15c: Latin, from minor less.

minuscule /ˈmɪnəskjuːl/ ▷ adj 1 extremely small. 2 said of letters or script: lower-case, not upper-case or capital. ▷ noun 1 printing a lower-case letter. 2 a variety of small, cursive script originated by monks in the 7c. Compare MAJUSCULE. • minuscular adj. ⓘ 18c in sense 2: from Latin littera minuscula small letter.

> minuscule, miniscule
>
> • Minuscule is originally a technical word that has developed a more general meaning. The grammar has also changed, because the word was originally a noun and is now familiar as an adjective, meaning 'very small'. This makes it allowed in use:
>
> ✓ She struggled with a minuscule portion of chicken.
>
> ✓ His wide chest tapers to a minuscule waist and spindly useless legs.
>
> • For this reason, and because the word is not often marked by a distinct pronunciation, it is sometimes written as miniscule, under the influence of the productive prefix mini-:
>
> ? She showed him a photograph album, with herself by a fjord in a miniscule bikini.
>
> • However, this spelling is not yet widely accepted.
>
> ☆ RECOMMENDATION: use minuscule in more formal writing and print; be cautious about using miniscule, although this form is likely to win in the end.

minute[1] /ˈmɪnɪt/ ▷ noun (abbreviation min) 1 a unit of time equal to ($^1/_{60}$) of an hour; 60 seconds. 2 colloq a short while ◻ Wait a minute. 3 a particular point in time ◻ At that minute the phone rang. 4 the distance that can be travelled in a minute ◻ a house five minutes away. 5 (usually the minutes) the official written record of what is said at a formal meeting. 6 a written note or statement sent to a colleague; a memorandum. 7 geom (symbol ′) a unit of angular measurement equal to ($^1/_{60}$) of a degree; 60 seconds. ▷ verb (minuted, minuting) 1 to make an official written record of what is said in (eg a meeting); to take or record something in the minutes of (eg a meeting). 2 to send a memorandum to someone. • up to the minute or up-to-the-minute very modern, recent or up-to-date; the latest. ⓘ 14c: French; related to MINUTE².

minute[2] /maɪˈnjuːt/ ▷ adj (minuter, minutest) 1 very small; tiny. 2 precise; detailed. 3 petty; trivial. • minutely adverb. • minuteness noun. ⓘ 15c: from Latin minutus small, from minuere to make something small or smaller.

minute hand /ˈmɪnɪt —/ ▷ noun on a clock or watch, etc: the hand that indicates the minutes.

Minuteman /ˈmɪnɪtman/ ▷ noun, US historical 1 especially in the War of Independence: a member of a group of militiamen, particularly in New England, who were prepared to take up arms at very short notice. 2 an informal name for a type of three-stage intercontinental missile that was developed in the US in the 1960s.

minute steak /ˈmɪnɪt —/ ▷ noun a thin steak, usually beef, that can be cooked quickly.

minutiae /mɪˈnjuːʃɪaɪ/ ▷ plural noun small and often unimportant details. ⓘ 18c: plural of Latin minutia smallness, from minutus; see MINUTE².

minx /mɪŋks/ ▷ noun (minxes) humorous or rather dated a cheeky, playful, sly or flirtatious young woman. ⓘ 16c, originally in obsolete sense 'a pet dog'.

Miocene /ˈmaɪəsiːn/ geol ▷ noun the fourth epoch of the Tertiary period. See table at GEOLOGICAL TIME SCALE. ▷ adj 1 belonging or relating to this epoch. 2 relating to rocks formed during this epoch. ⓘ 19c: from Greek meion smaller.

MIPS or mips /mɪps/ ▷ abbreviation, computing millions of instructions per second.

MIR ▷ abbreviation mortgage interest relief.

miracle /ˈmɪrəkəl/ ▷ noun 1 an act or event that breaks the laws of nature, and is therefore thought to be caused by the intervention of God or another supernatural force. 2 colloq a fortunate happening; an amazing event ◻ It's a miracle you called round when you did. 3 colloq an amazing example or achievement of something ◻ a miracle of modern technology. Also as adj ◻ miracle drug. • work miracles to have an amazingly positive effect ◻ She's worked miracles on him — he hardly drinks at all now. ⓘ 12c: French, from Latin miraculum, from mirari to be amazed at.

miracle play ▷ noun 1 an early form of MYSTERY PLAY. 2 an enactment of one of the miracles performed by the saints.

miraculous /mɪˈrakjʊləs/ ▷ adj 1 brought about by, relating to, or like a miracle. 2 colloq wonderful; amazing; amazingly fortunate ◻ a miraculous escape. • miraculously adverb. • miraculousness noun.

mirage /ˈmɪrɑːʒ, mɪˈrɑːʒ/ ▷ noun 1 an optical illusion that usually resembles a pool of water on the horizon reflecting light from the sky, commonly experienced in deserts, and caused by the REFRACTION of light by very hot air near to the ground. 2 anything illusory or imaginary. ⓘ 18c: French, from mirer to reflect.

MIRAS /ˈmaɪrəs/ ▷ abbreviation, Brit mortgage interest relief at source.

mire /maɪə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 deep mud; a boggy area. 2 trouble; difficulty; anything unpleasant and messy. ▷ verb (mired, miring) 1 tr & intr to sink, or to make something or someone sink, in a mire. 2 to soil something or someone with mud. 3 to involve someone in trouble or difficulties. • miry adj. ⓘ 14c: from Norse myrr bog.

mirin /mɪˈrɪn/ ▷ noun a sweet rice wine used in Japanese cookery. ⓘ 20c: Japanese.

mirk and mirky see under MURKY.

mirror /ˈmɪrə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 a a smooth highly-polished surface, such as glass, coated with a thin layer of metal, such as silver, that reflects an image of what is in front of it; b a reflective surface of this kind in a frame and hung on the wall or as part of a wardrobe or dressing table, etc. 2 any surface that reflects light. 3 a faithful representation or reflection ◻ when art is a mirror of life. ▷ verb (mirrored, mirroring) 1 to represent or depict something faithfully. 2 to fit (eg a wall) with a mirror or mirrors. 3 to reflect something or someone as in a mirror. ⓘ 14c: French, from Latin mirare to look at.

mirror image ▷ noun 1 a reflected image as produced by a mirror, ie one in which the right and left sides are reversed. 2 an object that matches another as if it were its reflection in a mirror, ie with features reversed.

mirror writing ▷ noun writing which is like ordinary writing as seen in a mirror, ie writing in reverse.

mirth /mɜːθ/ ▷ noun laughter; merriment. • mirthful adj. • mirthfully adverb. • mirthfulness noun. • mirthless adj. • mirthlessly adverb. • mirthlessness noun ⓘ Anglo-Saxon myrgth, from myrige merry.

MIRV /mɜːv/ ▷ noun, military a missile that contains many thermonuclear warheads, each able to attack a separate target. ⓘ 1960s: acronym for Multiple Independently Targeted Re-entry Vehicle.

miry see under MIRE

mis- ▷ prefix, denoting 1 wrong or wrongly; bad or badly □ mismanagement □ misconceived. 2 a lack or absence of something □ mistrust. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon; related to MISS[1] misadventure ▷ noun, formal 1 bad luck. 2 an unfortunate happening. 3 law an accident, with total absence of negligence or intent to commit crime □ death by misadventure. ⓘ 13c: from French mésaventure, from mésavenir to turn out badly.

misadvise ▷ verb to advise someone wrongly or badly. • misadvisedly adverb.

misalign ▷ verb to align something wrongly. • misalignment noun.

misalliance ▷ noun, formal a relationship or alliance, especially a marriage, in which the parties are not suited to each other. ⓘ 18c: modelled on French mésalliance a marriage between two people of differing social classes.

misally /mɪsə'laɪ/ ▷ verb to ally (people, parties, etc) in an unsuitable way.

misanthrope /'mɪzənθroup, 'mɪs-/ or misanthropist /mɪz'anθrəpɪst/ ▷ noun 1 someone who has an irrational hatred or distrust of people in general. 2 someone whose hatred or distrust of people is so strong that they avoid all human contact. • misanthropic /-'θrɒpɪk/ adj. • misanthropically adverb. • misanthropy /mɪz'anθrəpɪ/ noun. ⓘ 16c: from Greek misos hatred + anthropos man.

misapply ▷ verb 1 to apply something wrongly. 2 to use something unwisely or for the wrong purpose. • misapplication noun.

misapprehend ▷ verb, formal to misunderstand something; to understand it in the wrong sense, etc. • misapprehension noun misunderstanding. • misapprehensive adj.

misappropriate ▷ verb, formal, especially law 1 to take something (especially money) dishonestly for oneself. 2 to put something (eg funds) to a wrong use. • misappropriation noun embezzlement or theft. ⓘ 19c.

misbegotten ▷ adj 1 literary illegally obtained. 2 literary foolishly planned or thought out; ill-conceived. 3 old use illegitimate; bastard. ⓘ 16c: from past participle of BEGET.

misbehave ▷ verb, intr to behave badly. • misbehaviour or (US) misbehavior noun. ⓘ 15c.

misc. ▷ abbreviation miscellaneous.

miscalculate ▷ verb, tr & intr to calculate or estimate something wrongly. • miscalculation noun.

miscall ▷ verb 1 to call someone or something by the wrong name; to misname. 2 intr in games: to make a bad or inaccurate call (see CALL noun 15). 3 dialect or old use to abuse or malign someone.

miscarriage ▷ noun 1 medicine the expulsion of a fetus from the uterus before it is capable of independent survival, ie at any time up to about the 24th week of pregnancy. Also called spontaneous abortion. 2 a an act or instance of failure or error; b failure of a plan, etc to reach a desired objective; c failure of goods, etc to reach a desired destination. 3 see under MISCARRIAGE OF JUSTICE.

miscarriage of justice ▷ noun (miscarriages of justice) a failure of a judicial system to do justice in a particular case. Sometimes shortened to miscarriage.

miscarry ▷ verb, intr 1 said of a woman: to have a MISCARRIAGE (sense 1). 2 formal said of a plan, etc: to go wrong or fail; to be carried out wrongly or badly. ⓘ 14c in obsolete sense 'to come to harm'.

miscast ▷ verb 1 theat to give an unsuitable part to (an actor) or put an unsuitable actor in (a part). 2 to CAST something (in any other sense) wrongly or badly.

miscegenation /mɪsɪdʒə'neɪʃən/ ▷ noun, formal marriage or breeding between people of different races, especially that between people of different skin colours. ⓘ 19c: from Latin miscere to mix + genus race.

miscellaneous /mɪsə'leɪnɪəs/ ▷ adj 1 made up of various kinds; mixed. 2 said of a person: with a many-sided personality or with a variety of talents, etc. • miscellaneously adverb. • miscellaneousness noun. ⓘ 17c: from Latin miscellaneus, from miscere to mix.

miscellany /mɪ'selənɪ/ ▷ noun (miscellanies) a mixture of various kinds, especially a collection of writings on different subjects or by different authors. • miscellanist noun someone who writes or compiles miscellanies. ⓘ 17c: from Latin miscellanea; see MISCELLANEOUS.

mischance ▷ noun 1 bad luck. 2 an instance of bad luck. ⓘ 13c.

mischief /'mɪstʃɪf/ ▷ noun 1 behaviour that annoys or irritates people but does not mean or cause any serious harm □ The children are getting up to mischief. 2 the desire to behave in this way □ full of mischief. 3 a person, usually a child, with a tendency to be mischievous □ He is such a mischief. 4 damage or harm; an injury □ You'll do yourself a mischief. ⓘ 14c: from French meschief a disaster or bad end.

mischievous /'mɪstʃɪvəs/ ▷ adj 1 said of a child, etc: tending to make mischief. 2 said of behaviour: playfully troublesome. 3 rather dated said of a thing: damaging or harmful. • mischievously adverb. • mischievousness noun.

miscible /'mɪsɪbəl/ ▷ adj, formal, chem said of a liquid or liquids: capable of dissolving in each other to form a single phase (see PHASE noun 4). • miscibility noun. ⓘ 16c: from Latin miscibilis capable of mixing, from miscere to mix.

misconceive ▷ verb 1 tr & intr (also misconceive of something) to have the wrong idea or impression about it; to misunderstand it. 2 to plan or think something out badly. • misconceived adj.

misconception noun a wrong or misguided attitude, opinion or view.

misconduct ▷ noun /mɪs'kɒndʌkt/ 1 improper or unethical behaviour □ professional misconduct. 2 bad management. ▷ verb /mɪskən'dʌkt/ 1 to conduct (eg oneself) badly. 2 to manage (eg a business) badly.

misconstruction noun an interpretation that is wrong or mistaken.

misconstrue ▷ verb to interpret something wrongly or mistakenly.

miscount ▷ verb, tr & intr to count something wrongly; to miscalculate. ▷ noun an act or instance of counting wrongly.

miscreant /'mɪskrɪənt/ ▷ noun, literary or old use a malicious person; a villain or scoundrel. ▷ adj villainous or wicked. ⓘ 14c, originally meaning 'unbelieving' or 'heretical': from French mescreant.

miscue ▷ verb 1 tr & intr, in billiards, snooker and pool: to hit the CUE BALL wrongly with the cue (see CUE[2] noun 1); to make a miscue. 2 intr, theat to miss one's cue or answer the wrong cue (see CUE[1] 1). ▷ noun (miscues) 1 in billiards, snooker and pool: a stroke in which the cue does not hit the cue ball properly, slips off it or misses it. 2 an error or failure.

misdate ▷ verb to date (eg a letter) wrongly. ▷ noun (misdates) a wrong date.

misdeal ▷ noun in cards, etc: an incorrect deal. ▷ verb, tr & intr to deal or divide something (especially playing cards) wrongly.

misdeed ▷ noun, literary or formal an example of bad or criminal behaviour; a wrongdoing □ will be punished for his misdeeds.

misdemeanour or (US) misdemeanor ▷ noun 1 formal a wrongdoing; a misdeed. 2 old use, law a crime less serious than a FELONY. ⓘ 15c: from obsolete misdemean to misbehave.

misdiagnose ▷ verb 1 to diagnose something (eg a disease) wrongly. 2 to wrongly diagnose the condition of (eg a patient). ● misdiagnosis noun.

misdial ▷ verb, tr & intr to dial (a telephone number) incorrectly.

misdirect ▷ verb 1 formal to give wrong directions to someone; to direct, address or instruct something or someone wrongly. 2 formal to use something (especially funds) for an unsuitable purpose. 3 law said of a judge: to provide incorrect legal information to (a jury). ● misdirection noun 1 the process of misdirecting or being misdirected. 2 the wrong directions or address.

mise-en-scène /miːzɒn'sen; French mizɑ̃sɛn/ ▷ noun (mise-en-scènes) 1 theat a the process of arranging scenery and props; b the arrangement of the scenery and props; c the visual effect such an arrangement has. Also called stage setting. 2 cinematog the composition of each frame. 3 literary the setting in which an event takes place. ⓘ 19c: French, literally 'a putting-on-stage'.

miser /'maɪzə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 someone who lives in bleak, uncomfortable, etc conditions in order to store up their wealth. 2 any ungenerous person. ● miserliness noun. ● miserly adj. ⓘ 16c: Latin, meaning 'wretched'.

miserable /'mɪzərəbəl, 'mɪzrəbəl/ ▷ adj 1 said of a person: a very unhappy; b habitually bad-tempered or depressed. 2 marked by great unhappiness □ a miserable life. 3 causing unhappiness or discomfort □ miserable weather. 4 marked by poverty or squalor □ miserable living conditions. 5 contemptible □ The show was a miserable failure. 6 dialect ungenerous; mean. ● miserably adverb. ⓘ 16c: from French misérable, from Latin miserabilis, from miser; see MISER.

misère /mɪ'zɛə(r)/ ▷ noun (misères) cards a call made by a player meaning that they undertake not to take any tricks (see TRICK noun 8). ⓘ 19c: French, meaning 'poverty'.

misericord /mɪ'zerɪkɔːd/ ▷ noun 1 in a church: a ledge on the underside of a seat in the choir stalls, often a finely carved one, which a standing person can use as a support when the seat is folded up. 2 historical in a monastery: a room where some relaxation of the rules was allowed. ⓘ 14c: from Latin misericordia compassion.

misery /'mɪzərɪ/ ▷ noun (miseries) 1 great unhappiness or suffering. 2 a cause of unhappiness □ His biggest misery is the cold. 3 poverty or squalor □ living in misery. 4 colloq a habitually sad or bad-tempered person □ Don't be such a misery. ● put someone or something out of their misery 1 to relieve them from their physical suffering or their mental anguish. 2 to kill (an animal that is in great pain). ⓘ 14c: from French miserie, from Latin miseria.

misfile ▷ verb to file (eg papers) wrongly.

misfire ▷ verb, intr 1 said of a gun, etc: to fail to fire, or to fail to fire properly. 2 said of an engine or vehicle: to fail to ignite the fuel at the right time. 3 said of a plan, practical joke, etc: to be unsuccessful; to produce the wrong effect. ▷ noun an instance of misfiring.

misfit ▷ noun 1 someone who is not suited to the situation, job, social environment, etc that they are in. 2 something that fits badly or not at all. ⓘ 19c.

misfortune ▷ noun 1 bad luck. 2 an unfortunate incident.

misgiving ▷ noun (often misgivings) a feeling of uneasiness, doubt or suspicion.

misguided ▷ adj acting from or showing mistaken ideas or bad judgement. ● misguidedly adverb.

mishandle /mɪs'handəl/ ▷ verb 1 to deal with something or someone carelessly or without skill. 2 to handle something or someone roughly; to mistreat someone or something.

mishap /'mɪshap/ ▷ noun an unfortunate accident, especially a minor one; a piece of bad luck. ⓘ 14c: from obsolete hap luck or happening.

mishear /mɪs'hɪə(r)/ ▷ verb to hear something or someone incorrectly.

mishit ▷ verb /mɪs'hɪt/ sport, etc to fail to hit (eg a ball) cleanly or accurately. ▷ noun /'mɪshɪt/ 1 an act of mishitting. 2 a wrongly-hit ball, shot, etc.

mishmash /'mɪʃmaʃ/ ▷ noun, colloq a jumbled assortment or mixture. ⓘ 15c: a reduplication of MASH.

Mishnah /'mɪʃnə/ ▷ noun (Mishnayoth /mɪʃnə'jouθ/) Judaism an important collection of codes and laws, forming the first section of the TALMUD. ● Mishnaic /mɪʃ'neɪɪk/ adj. ⓘ 17c: Hebrew, from shanah to repeat, teach or learn in the oral tradition.

misinform ▷ verb to give someone incorrect or misleading information. ▷ noun misinformation.

misinterpret ▷ verb to understand or explain something incorrectly or misleadingly. ● misinterpretation noun.

misjudge ▷ verb to judge something or someone wrongly, or to have an unfairly low opinion of them. ● misjudgement or misjudgment noun.

miskey /mɪs'kiː/ ▷ verb, computing, etc to key (especially data) incorrectly.

miskick ▷ verb to kick (eg a ball) in the wrong direction. ▷ noun an act or instance of miskicking.

mislay ▷ verb 1 to lose something, usually temporarily, especially by forgetting where it was put. 2 to lay something badly or wrongly.

mislead /mɪs'liːd/ ▷ verb 1 to make someone take a wrong or undesirable course of action. 2 to cause someone to have a false impression or belief. ● misleading adj likely to mislead; deceptive. ● misleadingly adverb.

mismanage ▷ verb to manage or handle something or someone badly or carelessly. ● mismanagement noun.

mismatch ▷ verb /mɪs'matʃ/ to match (things or people) unsuitably or incorrectly. ▷ noun /'mɪsmatʃ/ an unsuitable or incorrect match.

misname ▷ verb 1 to call something or someone by the wrong name. 2 to give something an unsuitable name.

misnomer /mɪs'noumə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 a wrong or unsuitable name. 2 the use of an incorrect name or term. ⓘ 15c: from French mesnommer to misname, from mes- MIS-[1] + nommer to name, from Latin nominare.

miso /'miːsou/ ▷ noun, cookery a soy bean paste that has been fermented in brine, used for flavouring food. ⓘ 18c: Japanese.

misogamy /mɪ'sɒgəmɪ/ ▷ noun hatred of marriage. ● misogamist. ⓘ 17c: from Greek misogamos.

misogyny /mɪ'sɒdʒɪnɪ/ ▷ noun hatred of women. Compare MISANTHROPY. ● misogynist noun someone who hates women. ● misogynous adj. ⓘ 17c: from Greek misogynes: from misos hatred + gyne woman.

misplace ▷ verb 1 to lose something, usually temporarily, especially by forgetting where it was put. 2 to give (trust, affection, etc) unwisely or inappropriately.

3 to put something in the wrong place or an unsuitable place.

misplay ⊳ verb /mɪsˈpleɪ/ in sports or games: to play (eg a ball, card, etc) wrongly or badly. ⊳ noun /ˈmɪspleɪ/ an instance of wrong or bad play.

misprint ⊳ noun /ˈmɪsprɪnt/ a mistake in printing, eg an incorrect or damaged character. ⊳ verb /mɪsˈprɪnt/ to print something wrongly.

misprision /mɪsˈprɪʒən/ ⊳ noun, law 1 a failure to inform the authorities of a serious crime. 2 (also misprision of felony or treason, etc) the deliberate concealment of knowledge of a serious crime, treason, etc. ⊙ 15c: from French mesprision error, from mesprendre to make a mistake.

mispronounce ⊳ verb to pronounce (a word, etc) incorrectly. • mispronunciation noun a wrong or careless pronunciation.

misquote ⊳ verb to quote something or someone inaccurately, sometimes with the intention of deceiving. • misquotation noun.

misread /mɪsˈriːd/ ⊳ verb 1 to read something incorrectly. 2 to misunderstand or misinterpret something.

misreport ⊳ verb to report (eg a story) incorrectly, falsely or misleadingly.

misrepresent ⊳ verb to represent something or someone falsely, especially to give a false or misleading account or impression of it or them, often intentionally. • misrepresentation noun 1 the act or process of misrepresenting. 2 an inaccurate or misleading representation. • misrepresentative adj.

misrule ⊳ noun, formal 1 bad or unjust government. 2 civil disorder. ⊳ verb to govern (eg a country) in a disorderly or unjust way.

miss[1] ⊳ verb (misses, missed, missing) 1 tr & intr to fail to hit or catch something □ missed the ball. 2 to fail to get on something □ missed my train. 3 to fail to take advantage of something □ missed your chance. 4 to feel or regret the absence or loss of someone or something □ I miss you when you're away. 5 to notice the absence of someone or something. 6 to fail to hear or see something □ missed his last remark. 7 to refrain from going to (a place or an event) □ I'll have to miss the next class. 8 to avoid or escape (especially a specified danger) □ just missed being run over. 9 intr said of an engine: to fail to burn fuel at the right time. ⊳ noun (misses) a failure to hit or catch something, etc. • missable adj. • missing see separate entry. • give something a miss colloq to avoid it or refrain from it □ I'd better give pudding a miss. • miss the boat or bus colloq to miss an opportunity, especially by being too slow to act. ⊙ Anglo-Saxon missan.

■ miss out to fail to benefit from something enjoyable or worthwhile, etc □ Buy some now; don't miss out!

■ miss out on something to fail to benefit from it or participate in it □ You missed out on a great day.

■ miss something out or miss out something to fail to include it; to leave it out.

miss[2] ⊳ noun 1 a girl or unmarried woman. 2 (Miss) a term used when addressing an unmarried woman (especially in front of her surname). See also MS. 3 (Miss) used by children: a term used when addressing a female school teacher, whether married or not. 4 (Miss) a title formerly given to a beauty queen and used in front of the name of the country, region, etc that she represents □ Miss World □ Miss France. 5 sometimes derog a girl, especially one who behaves in a specified way □ thinks she's little miss perfect. ⊙ 17c: an abbreviation of MISTRESS.

Miss. see under MS

missal /ˈmɪsəl/ ⊳ noun, RC Church a book containing all the texts used in the service of mass throughout the year. ⊙ 14c: from Latin missale, from missa MASS[2].

missel thrush see MISTLE THRUSH.

misshapen /mɪsˈʃeɪpən/ ⊳ adj badly shaped; deformed. • misshapenly adverb. ⊙ 14c: from shapen obsolete past participle of SHAPE.

missile /ˈmɪsaɪl/ ⊳ noun 1 a self-propelled flying bomb, eg a GUIDED MISSILE or a BALLISTIC MISSILE. 2 any weapon or object that is thrown or fired. ⊙ 17c: from Latin missilis, from mittere to send.

missing ⊳ adj 1 absent; lost; not able to be found. 2 said of a soldier, military vehicle, etc: not able to be located, but not known to be dead or destroyed. • go missing to disappear, especially unexpectedly and inexplicably. ⊙ 16c: from MISS[1].

missing link ⊳ noun (especially the missing link) 1 any one thing that is needed to complete a series. 2 a hypothetical extinct creature representing a supposed stage of evolutionary development between apes and humans.

mission /ˈmɪʃən/ ⊳ noun 1 a purpose for which a person or group of people is sent. 2 a a journey made for a scientific, military or religious purpose; b a group of people sent on such a journey. 3 a flight with a specific purpose, such as a bombing raid or a task assigned to the crew of a spacecraft. 4 a group of people sent somewhere to have discussions, especially political ones. 5 (usually mission in life) someone's chosen, designated or assumed purpose in life or vocation. 6 a a group of missionaries; b the building occupied by them. 7 a centre run by a charitable or religious organization, etc to provide a particular service in the community. Also as adj □ mission control. ⊙ 16c: from Latin missionis, from mittere to send.

missionary /ˈmɪʃənrɪ, -nərɪ/ ⊳ noun (missionaries) a member of a religious organization seeking to carry out charitable works and religious teaching. Also as adj □ missionary work.

missionary position ⊳ noun in heterosexual sexual intercourse: the face-to-face position with the male on top. ⊙ 1960s: so called because this was the position advocated by missionaries to the native people that they were trying to convert to Christianity.

missis see MISSUS.

missive /ˈmɪsɪv/ ⊳ noun, literary or law, etc a letter, especially a long or official one. ⊙ 15c: French, from Latin missivus, from mittere to send.

misspell ⊳ verb to spell something incorrectly. • misspelling noun a wrong spelling.

misspend ⊳ verb to spend (money, time, etc) foolishly or wastefully.

missus or (sometimes) missis /ˈmɪsɪz/ ⊳ noun, colloq 1 humorous a wife □ Bring the missus. 2 old use a term used to address an adult female stranger. See also MRS. ⊙ 18c: originally as a spoken form of MISTRESS, used by servants.

missy /ˈmɪsɪ/ ⊳ noun (missies) colloq, old use, usually facetious or derog a term used to address a girl or young woman.

mist ⊳ noun 1 condensed water vapour in the air near the ground; thin fog or low cloud. 2 a mass of tiny droplets of liquid, eg one forced from a pressurized container. 3 condensed water vapour on a surface. 4 literary a watery film □ a mist of tears. 5 literary an obscuring influence □ the mists of time. ⊳ verb (misted, misting) tr & intr (also mist up or over) to cover or become covered with mist, or as if with mist. ⊙ Anglo-Saxon.

mistake /mɪsˈteɪk/ ⊳ noun 1 an error. 2 a regrettable action. 3 an act of understanding or interpreting something wrongly. ⊳ verb (mistook /-ˈtʊk/, mistaken, mistaking) 1 to misinterpret or misunderstand something □ I mistook your meaning. 2 to make the wrong choice of something □ He mistook the turning in the fog. • mistakable adj. • by mistake accidentally. ⊙ mistaken /mɪs'teɪkən/ ▷ adj 1 understood, thought, named, etc wrongly; incorrect □ mistaken identity. 2 guilty of, or displaying, a failure to understand or interpret correctly □ You are mistaken in saying that he's English. ▷ verb, past participle of MISTAKE. ● mistakenly adverb. ● and no mistake colloq definitely; truly □ and no mistake about it.

14c as verb: from Norse mistaka to take something wrongly.

■ mistake someone or something for someone or something else to identify them or it incorrectly as someone or something else; to wrongly assume or understand them to be what they are not □ might mistake us for intruders □ She mistook my silence for disapproval.

mister /'mɪstə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 (Mister) the full form of the abbreviation MR. 2 a man not belonging to the nobility; an untitled man □ He's the only mister on the board. 3 colloq a term used when addressing an adult male stranger □ Can I have my ball back please, mister? ⓘ 16c: originally a spoken form of MASTER.

mistily see under MISTY mistime ▷ verb 1 to do or say something at a wrong or unsuitable time. 2 sport to misjudge the timing of (a stroke, kick, etc) in relation to the speed of an approaching ball.

mistiness see under MISTY mistle thrush or missel thrush /'mɪsəl —/ ▷ noun a large European thrush that likes to feed on mistletoe berries. Also called storm cock. ⓘ 18c: from Anglo-Saxon mistel mistletoe.

mistletoe /'mɪsəltoʊ/ ▷ noun an evergreen shrub that grows as a parasite on trees and produces clusters of white berries in winter. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon misteltan.

mistook past tense of MISTAKE the mistral /— 'mɪstrəl, — mɪ'strɑːl/ ▷ noun, meteorol a cold, gusty, strong northerly wind that blows down the Rhône valley in S France. ⓘ 17c: French, from Latin magistralis masterful.

mistranslate ▷ verb to translate something incorrectly. ● mistranslation noun.

mistreat ▷ verb to treat someone or something cruelly or without care. ● mistreatment noun bad or cruel treatment.

mistress /'mɪstrɪs/ ▷ noun (mistresses) 1 the female lover of a man married to another woman. 2 rather dated a female teacher □ She is the French mistress. Compare MASTER. 3 a woman in a commanding or controlling position; a female head or owner. 4 (especially Mistress) formerly a term used when addressing any woman, especially one in authority. Compare MRS. ⓘ 14c in senses 2 and 3: French.

mistrial /'mɪstraɪəl/ ▷ noun, law 1 a trial not conducted properly according to the law and declared invalid. 2 US an inconclusive trial.

mistrust /mɪs'trʌst/ ▷ verb to have no trust in, or to be suspicious of, someone or something. ▷ noun a lack of trust. See also DISTRUST. ● mistrustful adj. ● mistrustfully adverb.

misty /'mɪstɪ/ ▷ adj (mistier, mistiest) 1 covered with, or obscured by, mist. 2 literary not clear; vague or blurred. 3 said of the eyes: filled with tears. 4 like mist. ● mistily adverb. ● mistiness noun.

misunderstand ▷ verb, tr & intr to fail to understand something or someone properly. ● misunderstanding noun 1 a failure to understand properly. 2 a slight disagreement.

misunderstood ▷ verb, past tense, past participle of MISUNDERSTAND. ▷ adj usually said of a person: not properly understood or appreciated as regards character, feelings, intentions, etc.

misuse ▷ noun /mɪs'juːs/ improper or inappropriate use □ the misuse of funds. Sometimes called misusage. ▷ verb /mɪs'juːz/ 1 to put something to improper or inappropriate use. 2 to treat something or someone badly. ● misuser noun.

MIT ▷ abbreviation Massachusetts Institute of Technology, a US university.

mite[1] /maɪt/ ▷ noun a small, often microscopic, animal with a simple rounded body and eight short legs, some species of which are pests, transmit diseases or cause human allergies. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon.

mite[2] /maɪt/ ▷ noun 1 any small person or animal, especially a child that is pitied □ poor little mite. 2 a small amount of anything, especially of money. ● a mite ... colloq rather or somewhat ... □ I'm a mite worried □ You've a right to be a mite jealous. ⓘ 14c: Dutch, a small copper coin.

miter the US spelling of MITRE[1], MITRE[2]. mitigate /'mɪtɪgeɪt/ ▷ verb (mitigated, mitigating) 1 law to partially excuse something or make it less serious. 2 to make (pain, anger, etc) less severe. ● mitigation noun. ● mitigating adj □ mitigating circumstances. ● mitigator noun. ⓘ 16c: from Latin mitigare to calm or soothe.

> mitigate, militate
>
> ● Mitigate is a transitive verb, and is often confused with militate, which is intransitive and has another meaning (to militate against something).
> Mitigate is correctly used as in the following example:
>
> ✓ That was wrong of me, but it in no way mitigates your own actions.
>
> It is incorrectly used in the following example, in which militates is wanted:
>
> ✗ This is certainly a problem which mitigates against the widest acceptance of the language.

mitochondrion /maɪtoʊ'kɒndrɪən/ ▷ noun (mitochondria /-ɪə/) biol in the cytoplasm of EUKARYOTIC cells, especially in the cells of muscle tissue: a specialized oval structure, consisting of a central matrix surrounded by two membranes. ● mitochondrial adj. ⓘ Early 20c: from Greek mitos thread + khondrion granule.

mitosis /maɪ'toʊsɪs/ ▷ noun (mitoses /-siːz/) biol a type of cell division that results in the production of two DAUGHTER CELLS with identical nuclei, each of which contains the same genes and the same number of chromosomes as the parent nucleus. Compare MEIOSIS. ● mitotic /maɪ'tɒtɪk/ adj. ⓘ 19c: Latin, from Greek mitos fibre.

mitral valve /'maɪtrəl —/ ▷ noun, anatomy the valve in the heart that allows blood to flow from the left atrium to the left ventricle but not in the opposite direction. ⓘ 17c: so called because it has two flaps which make it resemble a bishop's MITRE.

mitre[1] or (US) miter /'maɪtə(r)/ ▷ noun the ceremonial headdress of a bishop or abbot, a tall pointed hat with separate front and back sections. ⓘ 14c: French, from Greek mitra a turban.

mitre[2] or (US) miter /'maɪtə(r)/ ▷ noun in joinery, etc: a corner joint between two lengths of wood, etc made by fitting together two 45° sloping surfaces cut into their ends. Also called mitre joint. ▷ verb (mitred, mitring; US mitered, mitering) to join (two lengths of wood, etc) with a mitre. ⓘ 17c: perhaps the same word as MITRE[1].

mitt ▷ noun 1 colloq a hand □ Keep your mitts off! 2 baseball a large padded leather glove worn by the catcher. 3 a thick loosely-shaped glove designed for a specific, eg protective, purpose □ oven mitt □ bath mitt. 4 a mitten or fingerless glove. ◎ 18c: a shortening of MITTEN.

mitten /ˈmɪtən/ ▷ noun 1 a glove with one covering for the thumb and a large covering for all the other fingers together. 2 a glove covering the hand and wrist but not the whole length of the fingers. Also shortened to MITT. ◎ 14c: from French mitaine.

mittimus see under COMMITMENT mix /mɪks/ ▷ verb (mixes, mixed, mixing) 1 (especially mix something with something else, or mix something and something else together or up together) to put (things, substances, etc) together or to combine them to form one mass. 2 to prepare or make something by doing this □ mix a cake. 3 intr to blend together to form one mass □ Water and oil do not mix. 4 intr said of a person: a to meet with people socially; b to feel at ease in social situations. 5 to do something at the same time as something else; to combine □ I'm mixing business with pleasure. 6 to drink (different types of alcoholic drink) on one occasion □ It doesn't pay to mix your drinks! 7 technical to adjust (separate sound elements, eg the sounds produced by individual musicians) electronically to create an overall balance or particular effect. See also REMIX. 8 tr & intr said of a DJ, etc: to sequence two records (the one playing and the one to follow it) together by matching the beats □ mixes at the club right through the night. ▷ noun 1 a collection of people or things mixed together. 2 a collection of ingredients, especially dried ingredients, from which something is prepared □ cake mix. 3 technical in music, broadcasting, cinema, etc: the combined sound or soundtrack, etc produced by mixing various recorded elements. ● mixable adj. ● be mixed up colloq to be upset or emotionally confused. ● be mixed up in something or with something or someone colloq to be involved in it or with them, especially when it is something illicit or suspect. ● mix it slang, especially Brit to cause trouble, argument, a fight, etc. ◎ 16c: from Latin miscere to mix.

■ mix something or someone up 1 to confuse it or them for something else □ I always mix him up with his brother. 2 colloq to upset or put into a state of confusion □ The divorce really mixed me up. See also MIXED-UP.

mixed ▷ adj 1 consisting of different and often opposite kinds of things, elements, characters, etc □ mixed feelings □ a mixed reaction. 2 done, used, etc by people of both sexes □ mixed bathing. 3 mingled or combined by mixing.

mixed-ability ▷ adj, education involving or relating to the teaching of children of a wide range of ability in a single class □ mixed-ability group. Compare STREAM (noun 6). ◎ 1960s.

mixed bag ▷ noun, colloq a collection of people or things of different kinds, characteristics, standards, backgrounds, etc □ We are a very mixed bag on this committee.

mixed blessing ▷ noun something which has both advantages and disadvantages □ The dishwasher is a mixed blessing; we're always fighting about who should empty it.

mixed doubles ▷ plural noun, sport in tennis, table-tennis and badminton: a match played by two pairs, each consisting of a man and a woman.

mixed economy ▷ noun an economic system in which some elements are state-owned and others are privately owned. Compare MARKET ECONOMY, COMMAND ECONOMY.

mixed farming ▷ noun a combination of ARABLE and LIVESTOCK farming.

mixed grill ▷ noun, cookery a dish of different kinds of grilled meat, often with tomatoes and mushrooms.

mixed marriage ▷ noun a marriage between people of different races or religions.

mixed metaphor ▷ noun a combination of two or more metaphors which produces an inconsistent or incongruous mental image, and is often regarded as a stylistic flaw, eg There are concrete steps in the pipeline.

mixed number ▷ noun a number consisting of an integer and a fraction, eg $2^1/_3$.

mixed-up ▷ adj 1 mentally or emotionally confused. 2 badly-adjusted socially.

mixer ▷ noun 1 a machine used for mixing □ a food mixer □ a cement mixer. 2 a soft drink for mixing with alcoholic drinks. 3 colloq someone considered in terms of their ability to mix socially □ a good mixer. 4 someone who mixes in any other sense. 5 electronics a device which combines two or more input signals into a single output signal.

mixer tap ▷ noun a tap which can mix the hot and cold water supplies, with one outlet for both hot and cold, and separate controls for adjusting the mix.

mixture /ˈmɪkstʃə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 a blend of ingredients prepared for a particular purpose □ cough mixture. 2 a combination □ a mixture of sadness and relief. 3 the act of mixing. 4 the product of mixing.

mix-up ▷ noun a confusion or misunderstanding; an act or occasion of mistaking one person or thing for another.

mizzenmast /ˈmɪzənmɑːst/ ▷ noun, naut on a ship with three or more masts: the third mast from the front of the ship. Often shortened to mizzen. ◎ 15c: from Italian mezzano middle + MAST[1].

Mk ▷ abbreviation 1 mark, a type of design or model, especially of vehicles. See MARK[1] noun 18. 2 markka.

MKS or mks ▷ abbreviation metre-kilogram-second □ mks unit □ MKS system.

ml ▷ abbreviation 1 mile or miles. 2 millilitre or millilitres.

MLA ▷ abbreviation in Australian and Indian states, and Canadian states except Quebec: Member of the Legislative Assembly.

MLC ▷ abbreviation in Australian and some Indian states: Member of the Legislative Council.

MLitt. ▷ abbreviation: Magister Litterarum (Latin), Master of Letters.

Mlle ▷ abbreviation: (Mlles) Mademoiselle (French), Miss.

MLR ▷ abbreviation minimum lending rate.

MM ▷ abbreviation 1 Messieurs (French), gentlemen; sirs. Brit equivalent MESSRS (see under MR). 2 Military Medal.

mm ▷ abbreviation millimetre or millimetres.

MMC ▷ abbreviation, Brit Monopolies and Mergers Commission, a body set up by the government to investigate monopolies (where a monopoly is defined as 25% of the market) and proposed mergers of large companies.

Mme ▷ abbreviation (Mmes) Madame (French), Mrs.

MMR ▷ abbreviation, medicine measles, mumps and rubella, a vaccine given to protect children against these diseases.

MN ▷ abbreviation 1 Merchant Navy. 2 US state Minnesota. Also written Minn.

Mn ▷ symbol, chem manganese.

MNA ▷ abbreviation, Can in Quebec: Member of the National Assembly.

mnemonic /nɪˈmɒnɪk/ ▷ noun 1 a device or form of words, often a short verse, used as a memory-aid, eg Richard of York gained battle in vain as an aid to remembering the colours of the rainbow where the initial letters of each word stand respectively for red, orange, yellow, green, blue, indigo and violet. 2 (mnemonics) a the art of helping or improving the memory; b a system for this. ▷ adj 1 serving to help the memory. 2 relating to mnemonics. ● mnemonically adverb. ◎ 18c: from Greek mnemonikos, from mnemon mindful from mnasthai to remember.

MO ▷ abbreviation 1 Medical Officer, an army doctor. 2 US state Missouri. Also written Mo. 3 modus operandi (Latin). 4 money order.

Mo ▷ symbol, chem molybdenum.

mo /moʊ/ ▷ noun (mos) chiefly Brit colloq a short while; a moment. Ⓒ 19c: a shortening of MOMENT.

-mo /moʊ/ bookbinding, publishing ▷ suffix, forming nouns and adjectives, denoting 1 a specified number of leaves to the sheet. 2 a book or size of book made up of such sheets □ twelvemo □ sixteenmo. Ⓒ From the Latin ablative ending -mo, as in in duodecimo in twelfth.

moa /ˈmoʊə/ ▷ noun (moas) a flightless ostrich-like bird of New Zealand that has been extinct since the end of the 18c. Ⓒ 19c: Maori.

moan /moʊn/ ▷ noun 1 a low prolonged sound expressing sadness, grief or pain. 2 any similar sound, eg made by the wind or an engine. 3 colloq a complaint or grumble. 4 colloq someone who complains a lot. ▷ verb (moaned, moaning) 1 intr to utter or produce a moan. 2 intr, colloq to complain, especially without good reason. 3 to utter something with a moan or moans. ● moaner noun. ● moanful adj. ● moaning adj, noun. Ⓒ 13c.

moaning minnie ▷ noun (moaning minnies) 1 colloq someone who whines and complains a lot. 2 war slang an air-raid siren. Ⓒ 1940s.

moat /moʊt/ ▷ noun a deep trench, often filled with water, dug round a castle or other fortified position to provide extra defence. ● moated adj. Ⓒ 14c: French from mote mound.

the Mob see under MAFIA.

mob ▷ noun 1 a a large, disorderly crowd; b as adj □ mob rule. 2 colloq any group or gang. 3 (the mob) colloq ordinary people; the masses. 4 (the mob) an organized gang of criminals, especially the MAFIA. 5 Austral, NZ a large herd or flock. ▷ verb (mobbed, mobbing) 1 to attack something or someone as a mob. 2 to crowd round someone or something, especially curiously or admiringly. 3 intr to form into a mob. 4 especially N Amer to crowd into (a building, shop, etc). ● mobbed adj, colloq densely crowded; packed with people. Ⓒ 17c: shortening of Latin mobile vulgus fickle masses.

mob-cap ▷ noun, historical fashion a woman's indoor morning cap with a puffy crown, broad band and frills. Ⓒ 18c: from obsolete mob a loose woman + CAP.

mobile /ˈmoʊbaɪl/ ▷ adj 1 able to be moved easily; not fixed. 2 set up inside a vehicle travelling from place to place □ mobile shop □ mobile library. 3 said of a face: that frequently changes expression. 4 moving, or able to move, from one social class to another □ upwardly mobile. 5 colloq provided with transport and able to travel. 6 able, or willing, to move house or change jobs. ▷ noun 1 a hanging decoration or sculpture, etc made up of parts that are moved around by air currents. 2 colloq a mobile phone, shop, etc. 3 in compounds /moʊˈbiːl/ a vehicle specially designed for transporting a specific object, VIP, etc in □ the Popemobile. ● mobility noun 1 the ability to move. 2 a tendency to move. 3 freedom or ease of movement. Ⓒ 15c: French, from Latin mobilis, from movere to move.

mobile home ▷ noun a type of house without foundations, like a large caravan, which can be towed but is usually kept in one place and connected to the local utilities. Ⓒ 1960s.

mobile phone ▷ noun a portable telephone that operates by means of a cellular radio system, and nowadays fits easily in a pocket or handbag. Often shortened to mobile. Ⓒ 1980s.

mobilize or mobilise /ˈmoʊbɪlaɪz/ ▷ verb (mobilized, mobilizing) 1 to organize or prepare something or someone for use, action, etc. 2 a to assemble and make (forces, etc) ready for war; b intr said of forces, etc: to assemble and become ready for war. 3 to make something movable, mobile or readily available. ● mobilization noun. ● mobilizer noun. Ⓒ 19c.

Möbius strip /ˈmɜːbɪəs —/ ▷ noun, math the one-sided surface made by joining the ends of a long rectangular strip after twisting one end through 180°. Ⓒ 20c: named after A F Möbius (1790–1868), the German mathematician.

mobster /ˈmɒbstə(r)/ ▷ noun, slang a member of a gang or an organized group of criminals, especially the MAFIA.

moccasin /ˈmɒkəsɪn/ ▷ noun 1 a deerskin or other soft leather shoe with a continuous sole and heel, as worn by Native Americans. 2 any slipper or shoe in this style. 3 a large poisonous snake of the swamps of the southern US. Also called water moccasin. Ⓒ 17c: from Native American languages.

mocha /ˈmɒkə/ ▷ noun (mochas) 1 a a flavouring made from coffee and chocolate; b as adj □ mocha ice cream. 2 a a deep brown colour; b as adj □ mocha shoes. 3 a dark brown coffee of fine quality; b as adj □ mocha beans. Ⓒ 18c in sense 3: from Mocha, an Arabian port, now in the Yemen Arab Republic, from where the coffee was originally shipped.

mock ▷ verb (mocked, mocking) 1 tr & intr (also mock at someone or something) to speak or behave disparagingly, derisively, or contemptuously towards someone or something. 2 to mimic someone, usually in a way that makes fun of them. 3 chiefly literary to make something seem to be impossible or useless; to defy, disappoint or frustrate it, as though showing contempt for it □ Violent winds mocked my attempt to pitch the tent. ▷ adj 1 false; sham □ mock sincerity. 2 serving as practice for the similar but real or true thing, event, etc which is to come later □ a mock examination. ▷ noun 1 colloq in England and Wales: a mock examination. Scottish equivalent PRELIM. 2 an imitation; a mockery. 3 an act of mocking. ● mocker noun. ● mocking adj, noun. ● mockingly adverb. Ⓒ 15c: from French mocquer to deride or jeer.

mockers /ˈmɒkəz/ ▷ plural noun ● put the mockers on something or someone colloq to spoil or end its or their chances of success □ Well, that's put the mockers on my promotion. Ⓒ 1920s.

mockery ▷ noun (mockeries) 1 an imitation, especially a contemptible or insulting one. 2 a any ridiculously inadequate person, action or thing; b the subject of ridicule or contempt □ make a mockery of someone. 3 ridicule; contempt. Ⓒ 15c: from French moquerie; see MOCK.

mock-heroic ▷ adj said especially of verse: imitating the style of HEROIC VERSE in an exaggerated way, usually for comic or satirical effect. ▷ noun (mock heroic) mock-heroic composition or style.

mockingbird ▷ noun any of several black, white or grey American or Mexican birds that copy the calls of other birds. Ⓒ 17c: from MOCK verb 2.

mock moon see PARASELENE.

mock orange see under PHILADELPHUS.

mock turtle soup ▷ noun, cookery soup made in the style of turtle soup, but using a calf's head.

mock-up ▷ noun 1 a full-size model or replica of something, built for experimental purposes. 2 a rough layout of a printed text or item, showing the size, colours, etc.

MOD or MoD ▷ abbreviation, Brit Ministry of Defence.

mod[1] ▷ adj, colloq, dated short form of MODERN. ▷ noun (Mod) originally in the 1960s: a follower of a British teenage culture characterized by a liking for smart clothes and motor scooters. Compare ROCKER. Ⓒ 1960s.

mod[2] or Mod ▷ noun a Scottish Gaelic literary and musical festival, held annually. ◎ 19c: Gaelic, from Norse mot an assembly.

mod. ▷ abbreviation 1 moderate. 2 music moderato. 3 modern.

modal /ˈmoudəl/ ▷ adj 1 grammar belonging or relating to, or concerning, MOOD[2] or a mood. 2 said of music: using or relating to a particular mode. ▷ noun, grammar a verb used as the auxiliary of another verb to express grammatical mood such as condition, possibility and obligation, eg can, could, may, shall, will, must, ought to. Also called modal auxiliary or modal verb. See also AUXILIARY VERB. • modally adverb. ◎ 16c: from Latin modalis; see mode.

modality /mouˈdalɪtɪ/ ▷ noun (modalities) 1 music the quality or characteristic of music as determined by its MODE (noun 4). 2 grammar the modal property of a verb or construction.

mod cons /mɒdˈkɒnz/ ▷ plural noun, colloq modern household conveniences, eg central heating, hot water, washing machine, etc. ◎ 1930s: abbreviation of modern conveniences.

mode /moud/ ▷ noun 1 rather formal a way of doing something, or of living, acting, happening, operating, etc ▫ a new mode of transport. 2 a fashion or style, eg in clothes or art ▫ the latest mode. 3 computing a method of operation as provided by the software ▫ print mode. 4 music a any of several systems according to which notes in an octave are or were arranged ▫ Lydian mode; b since the 16c specifically: either of the two main scale systems (major mode and minor mode) now in use; c old use a method of time-division of notes. 5 statistics the value of greatest frequency in a set of numbers. Compare MEAN, MEDIAN. ◎ 14c: from Latin modus manner or measure.

model /ˈmɒdəl/ ▷ noun 1 a small-scale representation of something that serves as a guide in constructing the full-scale version. 2 a a small-scale replica; b as adj ▫ model railway. See also WORKING MODEL. 3 one of several types or designs of manufactured article ▫ the latest model of car. 4 a person whose job is to display clothes to potential buyers by wearing them. See also SUPERMODEL. 5 a person who is the subject of an artist's or photographer's work, etc, usually one who is paid for this service. 6 a thing from which something else is to be derived; a basis. 7 a an excellent example; an example to be copied ▫ She's a model of loyalty; b as adj ▫ a model boss. ▷ verb (modelled, modelling; US modeled, modeling) 1 tr & intr to display (clothes) by wearing them. 2 intr to work as a model for an artist, photographer, etc. 3 tr & intr to make models of something. 4 to shape (something mouldable) into a particular form ▫ models clay. 5 (especially model something on something else) to plan, build or create it according to a model. • modeller noun. ◎ 16c: from French modelle, from Latin modulus a little measure.

modelling or (US) modeling ▷ noun 1 the act or activity of making a model or models. 2 the activity or occupation of a person who models clothes. 3 psychol the process of observing another person or group of people who are considered worthy of imitation, and adopting their characteristics or forms of behaviour.

modello /Italian moˈdɛlo/ ▷ noun (modelli /-liː/) art, historical a small but complete and detailed painting or drawing made to present the artist's ideas for a full-size work. ◎ 1930s: Italian, literally 'model'.

modem /ˈmoudem/ ▷ noun, computing an electronic device that transmits information from one computer to another along a telephone line, converting digital data into audio signals and back again. ◎ 1950s: contraction from modulator + demodulator.

moderate ▷ adj /ˈmɒdərət/ 1 not extreme; not strong or violent. 2 average; middle rate ▫ moderate intelligence. ▷ noun /ˈmɒdərət/ someone who holds moderate views, especially on politics. ▷ verb /ˈmɒdəreɪt/ (moderated, moderating) 1 tr & intr to make or become less extreme, violent or intense. 2 intr (also moderate over something) to act as a moderator in any sense, eg over an assembly. • moderately adverb. • moderateness noun. ◎ 15c: from Latin moderatus, from moderari to moderate.

moderation /mɒdəˈreɪʃən/ ▷ noun 1 the quality or state of being moderate. 2 an act of becoming or making something moderate or less extreme. 3 lack of excess; self-control. 4 (Moderations) the first public examinations for BA at Oxford University. Also (colloq) called Mods or mods. • in moderation 1 to a moderate degree. 2 in moderate amounts.

moderato /mɒdəˈrɑːtou/ music ▷ adverb, adj at a restrained and moderate tempo. ▷ noun (moderatos) a piece of music to be played in this way. ◎ 18c: Italian.

moderator /ˈmɒdəreɪtə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 Christianity in a Presbyterian church: a minister who presides over a court or assembly. 2 someone who settles disputes. Also called MEDIATOR. 3 nuclear physics a substance used for slowing down neutrons in nuclear reactors. 4 at Oxford and Cambridge universities: an officer who superintends degree examinations. 5 a person or thing that moderates in any other sense. • moderatorship noun.

modern /ˈmɒdən/ ▷ adj 1 belonging to the present or to recent times; not old or ancient. 2 said of techniques, equipment, etc: involving, using or being the very latest available ▫ modern transport. 3 (often Modern) said of a language: in the most recent stage of development; as used at present ▫ Modern English. Compare MIDDLE adj 4, OLD adj 12. ▷ noun a person living in modern times, especially someone who follows the latest trends. • modernity /məˈdɜːnɪtɪ/ noun. ◎ 16c: from French moderne, from Latin modernus, from modo just now.

modern dance ▷ noun an expressive style of dance developed in the early 20c, which rejects the stylized conventional movements and structure of classical ballet.

Modern Greek see GREEK modernism /ˈmɒdənɪzəm/ ▷ noun 1 modern spirit or character. 2 a modern usage, expression or trait. 3 (Modernism) in early 20c art, literature, architecture, etc: a movement characterized by the use of unconventional subject matter and style, experimental techniques, etc.

modernist noun 1 an admirer of modern ideas, ways, etc. 2 (Modernist) in the arts: someone who practises or advocates Modernism. ▷ adj (also modernistic) adj relating to or typical of modern ideas, modernism or Modernism.

modernity see under MODERN modernize or modernise /ˈmɒdənaɪz/ ▷ verb (modernized, modernizing) 1 to bring something up to modern standards, or adapt it to modern style, conditions, etc. 2 intr to switch to more modern methods or techniques ▫ spent five years modernizing. • modernization noun. • modernizer noun.

modern jazz ▷ noun a rhythmically and harmonically complex style of jazz which evolved in the early 1940s. Compare TRAD.

modern pentathlon see under PENTATHLON modest /ˈmɒdɪst/ ▷ adj 1 not having or showing pride; humble; not pretentious or showy. 2 not large; moderate ▫ a modest income. 3 unassuming; shy or diffident. 4 old use said especially of clothing: plain and restrained; not offending standards of decency ▫ a modest dress. • modestly adverb. ◎ 16c: from Latin modestus moderate.

modesty noun (modesties) the quality or fact of being modest.

modicum /ˈmɒdɪkəm/ ▷ noun, formal or facetious a small amount ▫ At least have a modicum of decency and close the curtain before you undress. ◎ 15c: Latin, from modicus moderate.

modi operandi see under MODUS OPERANDI modifier ▷ noun 1 grammar a a word or phrase that modifies or identifies the meaning of another word, eg in the green hat in the phrase the man in the green hat, and vaguely in the phrase He was vaguely embarrassed; b a noun that functions as an adjective, eg mohair in mohair jumper. 2 a person or thing that modifies in any sense.

modify /ˈmɒdɪfaɪ/ ▷ verb (modifies, modified, modifying) 1 to change the form or quality of something, usually only slightly. 2 grammar to act as a modifier of (a word). 3 to moderate. • modifiable adj. • modification noun 1 the act of modifying or state of being modified. 2 a change of form or condition; something that has been modified □ a few modifications to the original plan. ⓘ 14c: from French modifier, from Latin modificare.

modish /ˈmoʊdɪʃ/ ▷ adj, rather formal stylish; fashionable. • modishly adverb. • modishness noun. ⓘ 17c: MODE + -ISH.

Mods or mods see under MODERATION 4 modular /ˈmɒdjʊlə(r)/ ▷ adj 1 consisting of MODULES. 2 constructed like a module. 3 belonging or relating to, or consisting of, MODULI (see under MODULUS). • modularity noun.

modular construction ▷ noun, electronics a method of constructing a hardware or software system using standard compatible units which are quickly interchangeable or which may be built up in a variety of combinations.

modularize or modularise ▷ verb (modularized, modularizing) said of a university, college, etc: to adopt a teaching system based on self-contained MODULES (sense 3) as opposed to courses lasting a term or an academic year. • modularization noun. ⓘ 1980s.

modulate /ˈmɒdjʊleɪt/ ▷ verb (modulated, modulating) 1 technical to alter the tone or volume of (a sound, or one's voice). 2 formal to change or alter. 3 intr (often modulate to or into something) music to pass from one key to another with a linking progression of chords. 4 radio to cause modulation of a CARRIER WAVE. 5 physics to vary the velocity of electrons in an electron beam. • modulator noun a person or device that modulates. ⓘ 17c: from Latin modulari, modulatus to regulate.

modulation ▷ noun 1 the act or process of, or an instance of, modulating something. 2 technical in radio transmission: the process whereby the frequency or amplitude, etc of a CARRIER WAVE is increased or decreased in response to variations in the signal being transmitted. See also AMPLITUDE MODULATION, FREQUENCY MODULATION.

module /ˈmɒdjuːl/ ▷ noun 1 a separate self-contained unit that combines with others to form a larger unit, structure or system. 2 in a space vehicle: a separate self-contained part used for a particular purpose □ lunar module. 3 education a set course forming a unit in a training scheme, degree programme, etc. 4 archit a measure, eg the semi-diameter of a column, used to fix the proportions of other parts. ⓘ 16c: French, from Latin modulus a small measure.

modulus /ˈmɒdjʊləs/ ▷ noun (moduli /-laɪ/) math the absolute value of a real number, whether positive or negative. ⓘ 16c: Latin, meaning 'a small measure'.

modus operandi /ˈmoʊdəs ɒpəˈrandaɪ/ ▷ noun (modi operandi /-daɪ —/) a method of working; the way something operates. ⓘ 17c: Latin, literally 'way of working'.

modus vivendi /ˈmoʊdəs vɪˈvendaɪ/ ▷ noun (modi vivendi /-daɪ -daɪ/) 1 an arrangement by which people or groups in conflict can work or exist together; a compromise. 2 affected a way of living. ⓘ 19c: Latin, meaning 'way of living'.

mog see under MOGGY

Mogadon /ˈmɒgədɒn/ ▷ noun, trademark NITRAZEPAM, a drug used to treat insomnia. ⓘ 1960s.

moggy or moggie /ˈmɒgɪ/ ▷ noun (moggies) Brit colloq a cat, especially an ordinary domestic cat of mixed breeding. Often shortened to MOG. ⓘ 19c: originally as dialect pet name for a calf.

mogul[1] /ˈmoʊgəl/ ▷ noun 1 an important, powerful, or influential person, especially in business or the film industry □ a movie mogul. See also MAGNATE. 2 (Mogul) historical a Muslim ruler of India between the 16c and 19c. ▷ adj (Mogul) typical of or relating to the Moguls or the Mogul empire. ⓘ 16c: from Persian Mughul MONGOL.

mogul[2] /ˈmoʊgəl/ ▷ noun, skiing 1 a mound of hard snow created as an obstacle on a ski-slope. 2 (moguls or mogul skiing) a discipline or event that involves skiing down a run which includes moguls. • moguled adj. ⓘ 1960s.

MOH ▷ abbreviation, Brit Medical Officer of Health.

mohair /ˈmoʊhɛə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 the long soft hair of the Angora goat. 2 a yarn or fabric made of this, either pure or mixed with wool. Also as adj □ a mohair jumper. See also ANGORA. ⓘ 16c: from Arabic mukhayyar, influenced by English hair.

Mohammedan see MUHAMMADAN

> Mohammedan
>
> See Usage Note at Muslim.

mohel /ˈmoʊel, ˈmoʊhel/ ▷ noun, Judaism an official who performs circumcisions. ⓘ 17c: Hebrew.

mohican /moʊˈhiːkən/ ▷ noun a hairstyle popular amongst PUNKS, in which the head is partially shaved, leaving a central, front-to-back band of hair, usually coloured and formed into a spiky crest. ⓘ 1960s: the style is based on that associated with the Mohicans, a Native American tribe.

moiety /ˈmɔɪətɪ/ ▷ noun (moieties) literary or law a half; one of two parts or divisions. ⓘ 14c: from French moité, from Latin medius middle.

the Moirai /ˈmɔɪraɪ/ ▷ plural noun, Greek mythol the three goddesses believed to control the destiny of human beings. See also PARCAE.

moire /mwɑː(r)/ ▷ noun (moires) a fabric, especially silk, with a pattern of glossy irregular waves. ⓘ 17c: French, from English MOHAIR.

moiré /ˈmwɑːreɪ/ ▷ adj said of a fabric: having a pattern of glossy irregular waves; watered. ▷ noun (moirés) this pattern on the surface of a fabric or metal. ⓘ 19c: French, past participle of moirer, from MOIRE.

moist /mɔɪst/ ▷ adj (moister, moistest) 1 damp or humid; slightly wet or watery. 2 said of food, especially cake: pleasantly soft and fresh, not dry. 3 said of a climate: rainy. • moistly adverb. • moistness noun. ⓘ 14c: from French moiste.

moisten /ˈmɔɪsən/ ▷ verb (moistened, moistening) tr & intr to make something moist, or become moist. ⓘ 16c.

moisture /ˈmɔɪstʃə(r)/ ▷ noun liquid in vapour or spray form, or condensed as droplets. ⓘ 14c.

moisturize or moisturise /ˈmɔɪstʃəraɪz/ ▷ verb (moisturized, moisturizing) 1 to make something less dry; to add moisture to it. 2 tr & intr to apply a cosmetic moisturizer to the skin. • moisturizer noun something which moisturizes, especially a cosmetic cream which restores moisture to the skin.

moke ▷ noun (mokes) slang 1 Brit a donkey. 2 Austral, NZ a worn-out or inferior horse. ⓘ 19c.

mol ▷ symbol, chem MOLE[4]

molal see under MOLE[4] molar[1] /ˈmoʊlə(r)/ ▷ noun any of the large back teeth in humans and other mammals, used for chewing and grinding. Compare CANINE TOOTH, INCISOR. ▷ adj 1 belonging or relating to a molar. 2 said of a tooth: used for grinding. ⓘ 17c: from Latin mola millstone, from molare to grind.

molar² see under MOLE⁴

molarity /moʊ'larɪtɪ/ ▷ noun (molarities) the concentration of a solution, expressed as the number of moles (see MOLE⁴) of a dissolved substance present in a litre of solution.

molasses /mə'lasɪz/ ▷ singular noun 1 the thickest kind of treacle, left over at the very end of the process of refining raw sugar. 2 N Amer treacle. ⓘ 16c: from Portuguese melaço.

mold, molder, molding, moldy, etc the N Amer spelling of MOULD, MOULDER, MOULDING, MOULDY, etc.

mole¹ /moʊl/ ▷ noun 1 a small insectivorous burrowing mammal with velvety greyish-black fur, a naked muzzle, very small eyes and strong front legs with very broad feet adapted for digging. 2 colloq a spy who works inside an organization and passes secret information to people outside it. ⓘ 20c in sense 2; 14c in sense 1.

mole² /moʊl/ ▷ noun a raised or flat, dark, permanent spot on the skin, caused by a concentration of melanin. Technical equivalent NAEVUS. See also FRECKLE. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon mal.

mole³ /moʊl/ ▷ noun, pathol, medicine an abnormal fleshy mass formed in the uterus. ⓘ 17c: from French môle, from Latin moles mass.

mole⁴ /moʊl/ ▷ noun, chem (symbol mol) the SI unit of amount of substance, equal to the amount of a substance (in grams) that contains as many atoms, molecules, etc, as there are atoms of carbon in 12 grams of the isotope carbon-12. • molal adj said of a solution: containing one mole of dissolved substance per kilogram of solvent. • molar adj 1 belonging or relating to a mole. 2 per mole or per unit amount of substance. ⓘ Early 20c: from German Mol, from Molekül molecule.

mole⁵ /moʊl/ ▷ noun 1 a pier, causeway or breakwater made of stone. 2 a harbour protected by any of these. ⓘ 16c: from Latin moles mass.

mole⁶ /'moʊleɪ/ ▷ noun (moles /-leɪz/) in Mexican cooking: a sauce made mainly with chilli and chocolate, served with meat dishes. ⓘ 1930s: American Spanish, from Nahuatl molli sauce.

molecular see under MOLECULE molecular biology ▷ noun the branch of biology that is concerned with the study of the structure, properties and functions of the large organic molecules, or MACROMOLECULES, found in the cells of living organisms.

molecular genetics ▷ singular noun the study and manipulation of the molecular basis of heredity.

molecular weight see under RELATIVE MOLECULAR MASS molecule /'mɒlɪkjuːl/ ▷ noun 1 chem, physics the smallest particle of an element or compound that can exist independently and participate in a reaction, consisting of two or more atoms bonded together. 2 loosely a tiny particle. • molecular /mə'lɛkjʊlə(r)/ adj belonging or relating to molecules. • molecularity noun. • molecularly adverb. ⓘ 18c: from French molécule, from Latin molecula, from moles mass.

molehill ▷ noun a little pile of earth thrown up by a burrowing mole (see MOLE¹). • make a mountain out of a molehill see under MOUNTAIN.

mole salamander see under AXOLOTL moleskin ▷ noun 1 mole's fur. 2 a a heavy twilled cotton fabric with a short nap. Also as adj □ moleskin jacket. b (moleskins) trousers made of this fabric.

molest /mə'lɛst/ ▷ verb (molested, molesting) 1 to attack or interfere with someone sexually. 2 formal to attack someone, causing them physical harm. 3 old use to disturb or upset. • molestation noun. • molester noun. ⓘ 14c: from Latin molestare, from molestus troublesome.

moll ▷ noun, slang, old use 1 a gangster's girlfriend. 2 a prostitute. ⓘ 16c: from the female name Moll, a diminutive of Mary.

mollify /'mɒlɪfaɪ/ ▷ verb (mollifies, mollified, mollifying) 1 to make someone calmer or less angry. 2 to soothe, ease, or soften something (eg someone's anger, etc). • mollification noun. • mollifier noun. ⓘ 16c: from French mollifier, from Latin mollificare, from mollis soft + facere to make.

mollusc /'mɒləsk/ ▷ noun, zool any of a large group of invertebrate animals, typically one with a soft unsegmented body with a large, flattened, muscular foot on the underside and a MANTLE (noun 6) covering its upper surface protected by a hard, chalky shell, eg the snail, mussel, etc. ⓘ 18c: from Latin Mollusca, the name of the phylum to which they belong, from Latin molluscus softish, from mollis soft.

mollycoddle ▷ verb (mollycoddled, mollycoddling) colloq to treat someone with fussy care and protection. ⓘ 19c: from Molly, a female name + CODDLE.

Molotov cocktail /'mɒlətɒf —/ ▷ noun a small crude bomb for throwing, consisting of a bottle filled with petrol, usually with a burning cloth as a fuse. ⓘ 1940s: named after the Russian politician and premier V M Molotov (1890–1986).

molt the N Amer spelling of MOULT molten /'moʊltən/ ▷ adj in a melted state; liquefied □ molten metal. ⓘ 14c: an old past participle of MELT.

molto /'mɒltoʊ/ ▷ adverb, adj, music very; much □ molto allegro. ⓘ 19c: Italian.

molybdenum /mə'lɪbdənəm/ ▷ noun, chem (symbol Mo, atomic number 42) a hard silvery metallic element that occurs most commonly in the lustrous crystalline mineral molybdenite and is used as a hardening agent in various alloys, etc. ⓘ 19c: Latin, from Greek molybdaina a lead-like substance.

mom, momma and mommy ▷ noun (moms, mommas, or mommies) N Amer colloq mother. Brit equivalents MUM, MUMMY.

moment /'moʊmənt/ ▷ noun 1 a short while □ It will only take a moment. Sometimes shortened to MO. 2 a particular point in time □ at that moment. 3 (the moment) the present point, or the right point, in time □ cannot be disturbed at the moment. 4 formal importance or significance □ a literary work of great moment. 5 physics a measure of the TORQUE produced by a force which causes an object to rotate about an axis, which is equal to the force multiplied by the perpendicular distance of the axis from the line of action of the force. Also called moment of force. 6 physics MOMENT OF INERTIA. • have one's or its, etc moments colloq to experience or provide occasional but irregular times of happiness, success, etc □ I've had my moments. • of the moment currently very popular, important, fashionable, etc. ⓘ 14c: from Latin momentum movement.

momentarily /'moʊməntrɪlɪ, -'tɛrəlɪ/ ▷ adverb 1 for a moment □ paused momentarily. 2 every moment □ kept pausing momentarily. 3 N Amer at any moment.

momentary /'moʊməntrɪ/ ▷ adj lasting for only a moment □ My confusion was only momentary.

moment of force see MOMENT sense 5 moment of inertia ▷ noun, physics in mechanics: the notion that, for a rotating object, the turning force required to make it turn faster depends on the way in which the object's mass is distributed about the axis of rotation.

moment of truth ▷ noun a very important or significant point in time, especially one when a person or thing is faced with stark reality or is put to the test. ⓘ 1930s: translated from the Spanish phrase el momento de la verdad, referring to the climax of a bullfight, when the matador delivers the final sword-stroke to kill the bull.

momentous /moʊ'mentəs, mə-/ ▷ adj describing something of great importance or significance □ the momentous events in Berlin in November 1989. ● momentously adverb. ● momentousness noun. ⓘ 17c.

momentum /moʊ'mentəm, mə-/ ▷ noun (momentums or momenta /-tə/) 1 a continuous speed of progress; impetus □ The campaign gained momentum; b the force that an object gains in movement. 2 physics the product of the mass and the velocity of a moving object. See also ANGULAR MOMENTUM, LINEAR MOMENTUM. ⓘ 17c: Latin, meaning 'movement'.

momma and mommy see under MOM

Mon. ▷ abbreviation Monday.

mon- see MONO-

monad /'mɒnad/ ▷ noun 1 philos any self-contained non-physical unit of being, eg God, or a soul. 2 biol a single-celled organism. 3 chem a univalent element, atom or radical. ● monadic /mɒ'nadɪk/ adj. ⓘ 17c: from Greek monas, monados a unit.

monandrous /mɒ'nandrəs/ ▷ adj 1 bot having only one stamen in each flower. See also POLYANDROUS. 2 social having or allowing only one husband or male sexual partner at a time. ● monandry noun the state or condition of being monandrous. ⓘ 19c: from Greek andros man.

monarch /'mɒnək/ ▷ noun 1 a king, queen or other non-elected sovereign with a hereditary right to rule. 2 a large butterfly with orange and black wings. ● monarchic /mə'nɑːkɪk/ or monarchical adj. ⓘ 15c, originally meaning 'a sole and absolute ruler': from Latin monarcha, from MON- + Greek archein to rule.

monarchism ▷ noun 1 the principles of monarchic government. 2 support for monarchy. ● monarchist noun someone who approves of rule by a monarch; a supporter of the monarchy. ● monarchistic adj.

monarchy /'mɒnəkɪ/ ▷ noun (monarchies) 1 a form of government in which the head of state is a MONARCH. 2 a country which has this form of government.

monastery /'mɒnəstərɪ, -strɪ/ ▷ noun (monasteries) the home of a community of monks, or sometimes nuns. See also NUNNERY. ⓘ 15c: from Greek monasterion, from monazein to live alone.

monastic /mə'nastɪk/ ▷ adj 1 belonging or relating to monasteries, monks or nuns. 2 marked by simplicity and self-discipline, like life in a monastery. See also MONKISH at MONK. ● monastically adverb. ● monasticism noun the monastic system or way of life. ⓘ 17c: from Latin monasticus, from Greek monastes monk.

monaural /mɒ'nɔːrəl/ ▷ adj 1 having, using, or relating to, one ear only. 2 MONOPHONIC. ● monaurally adverb. ⓘ 19c.

Monday /'mʌndeɪ/ ▷ noun the second day of the week counting from Sunday; the beginning of the working week. Also as adj □ a Monday holiday. ● that Monday morning feeling the feeling of tiredness and reluctance to work that people often feel after the weekend, at the thought of another week's work ahead. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon monandæg moon day, translated from the Latin term lunae dies.

monetarism /'mʌnɪtərɪzəm/ ▷ noun, econ the theory or practice of basing an economy on, and curbing inflation by, control of the MONEY SUPPLY rather than by fiscal policy. Also called monetarist theory. ● monetarist noun someone who advocates policies based on monetarism. ▷ adj relating to or typical of monetarism. ⓘ 1960s: from MONETARY.

monetary /'mʌnɪtərɪ/ ▷ adj belonging or relating to, or consisting of, money. ● monetarily adverb. ⓘ 19c: from Latin monetarius, from moneta money or a mint.

monetary unit ▷ noun the principal unit of currency of a state or country.

money /'mʌnɪ/ ▷ noun (plural in sense 1b and 4 monies or moneys) 1 a coins or banknotes used as a means of buying things; b any currency used as LEGAL TENDER. 2 wealth in general. 3 colloq a rich person; rich people □ marry money. 4 commerce, law (always monies or moneys) sums of money. ● moneyed or monied adj having much money; wealthy. ● be in the money colloq to be wealthy. ● for my, our, etc money colloq in my, our, etc opinion. ● get one's money's worth to get full value for the money or other resources one has put into something. ● have money to burn to have enough money to be able to spend in ways which others may find foolish. ● made of money colloq said of a person: extremely rich. ● make money to make a profit or acquire wealth. ● money down money paid on the spot for something. ● money for old rope colloq money obtained without any effort. ● money talks an expression used to convey the idea that people with money have power and influence over others. ● on the money US slang spot-on; exactly right. ● put money into something to invest in it. ● put money on something colloq to bet on it. ● put one's money where one's mouth is to support what one has said by risking or investing money, or giving other material or practical help. ⓘ 13c: from French moneie, from Latin moneta.

moneybags ▷ singular noun, colloq a very rich person.

money belt ▷ noun a belt with a pocket in or on it for holding money.

moneybox ▷ noun a box for saving or collecting money in, with a slot to insert the money through. See also PIGGY BANK.

moneychanger ▷ noun someone whose job is to exchange one currency for another. ⓘ 14c.

moneyed see under MONEY money-grubber ▷ noun, derog, colloq someone who greedily acquires as much money as possible. ● money-grubbing adj, noun.

moneylender ▷ noun a person or small business that lends money to people at interest, especially at rates higher than general commercial interest rates. ● moneylending noun.

moneymaker ▷ noun, colloq 1 often derog someone whose main interest in life is acquiring money. 2 a project or company, etc that makes, or is expected to make, a large profit. ● moneymaking adj, noun profitable.

money market ▷ noun the finance companies, banks, dealers, etc of a country that borrow and lend money for short periods.

money order ▷ noun a written order for the transfer of money from one person to another, through a post office or bank. See also POSTAL ORDER.

money spider ▷ noun a very small spider, thought superstitiously to bring luck in money to anyone it climbs on.

money-spinner ▷ noun, colloq an idea or project, etc that brings in large sums of money. ● money-spinning adj, noun.

money supply ▷ noun, econ the amount of money in circulation in an economy at a given time.

-monger /'mʌŋgə(r)/ ▷ combining form, forming nouns, denoting 1 a trader or dealer □ fishmonger. 2 someone who spreads or promotes something undesirable or evil □ scandalmonger □ warmonger. ● -mongering or -mongery combining form, forming nouns. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon mangere as a full noun in sense 1: from Latin mango dealer.

Mongol /'mɒŋgɒl, -gəl/ ▷ noun 1 see MONGOLIAN noun. 2 historical any member of the tribes of central Asia and S Siberia that were united under Genghis Khan in 1206. 3 (mongol or mongoloid) old use, now offensive a person affected by DOWN'S SYNDROME. • mongolism noun, old use, now offensive DOWN'S SYNDROME. ⓘ 18c.

Mongolian /mɒŋ'goʊlɪən/ ▷ adj belonging or relating to Mongolia, a republic in E central Asia, its inhabitants, or their language. ▷ noun (also Mongol) 1 a citizen or inhabitant of, or person born in, Mongolia. 2 the official language of Mongolia. 3 a Mongoloid.

Mongoloid /'mɒŋgəlɔɪd/ ▷ adj 1 belonging or relating to a large racial group, mainly N, E and SE Asian but including the Inuit of N America, characterized by a flattish face, high cheekbones, a fold of the upper eyelid, straight black hair and medium skin colour. 2 (mongoloid) offensive relating to or affected by DOWN'S SYNDROME. ▷ noun 1 a member of the Mongoloid race. 2 (mongoloid) see MONGOL noun 3.

mongoose /'mɒŋguːs, 'mʌŋ-/ ▷ noun (mongooses) a small mammal of SE Asia, Africa and Madagascar that preys on snakes, etc, and has a long, slender body, pointed muzzle and a bushy tail. See also ICHNEUMON. ⓘ 17c: from Marathi (a language of India) mangus.

mongrel /'mʌŋgrəl/ ▷ noun 1 an animal, especially a dog, of mixed breeding. 2 derog a person or thing of mixed origin or nature. ▷ adj 1 characterized by being of mixed breeding, origin or nature. 2 neither one thing nor another. • mongrelly adj. ⓘ 18c.

monied and monies see under MONEY moniker /'mɒnɪkə(r)/ ▷ noun, slang a nickname. ⓘ 19c.

monism /'mɒnɪzəm, 'moʊn-/ ▷ noun, philos the theory that reality exists in one form only, especially that there is no difference in substance between body and soul. Compare DUALISM. • monist noun. • monistic adj. ⓘ 19c: from Greek monos single; see also -ISM.

monition /mə'nɪʃən/ ▷ noun, formal or literary a warning or telling-off; an act or instance of admonishing. • monitive adj. ⓘ 14c: French, from Latin monere to warn or remind.

monitor /'mɒnɪtə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 any instrument designed to check, record or control something on a regular basis. 2 a high-quality screen used in closed-circuit television systems, in TV studios, etc to view the picture being transmitted, etc. 3 the visual display unit of a computer, used to present information to the user. 4 in a school: a pupil who helps with specific tasks, or a senior pupil who helps to enforce discipline over other pupils. 5 someone whose job is to monitor eg a situation, process, etc. 6 (also monitor lizard) any of various large carnivorous lizards of Africa, Asia and Australia, so called because they are thought to give a warning of the presence of crocodiles. 7 telecomm an apparatus for testing transmission without interfering with the regular transmission. ▷ verb (monitored, monitoring) to check, record, track or control something on a regular basis; to observe or act as a monitor of something. • monitorial /mɒnɪ'tɔːrɪəl/ adj. • monitorship noun. • monitory /'mɒnɪtərɪ/ adj, formal serving as a warning or telling-off. ⓘ 16c: from Latin monere to warn or advise.

monitoring service ▷ noun eg as part of a country's intelligence operations: an agency responsible for systematically checking foreign broadcasts. See also GCHQ.

monk /mʌŋk/ ▷ noun a member of a religious community of men living disciplined austere lives devoted primarily to worship, under vows of poverty, chastity and obedience. • monkish adj 1 relating to or like a monk. 2 often rather derog monastic. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon munuc: from Greek monachos, from monos alone.

monkey /'mʌŋkɪ/ ▷ noun (monkeys) 1 any mammal belonging to the PRIMATEs other than a human, ape, chimpanzee, gibbon, orang utan or lemur, with a hairy coat, nails instead of claws and usually tree-dwelling. 2 colloq a mischievous child. 3 Brit slang £500. 4 US slang an oppressive burden or habit, especially a drug addiction. 5 the falling weight of a pile-driver, etc (see also MONKEY ENGINE). ▷ verb (monkeys, monkeyed, monkeying) intr, colloq (especially monkey about or around with something) to play, fool, interfere, etc with it. • have a monkey on one's back US slang to be addicted to drugs. • make a monkey out of someone colloq to make them seem ridiculous; to make a fool of them. • not give a monkey's slang not to care at all. ⓘ 16c.

monkey business ▷ noun, colloq mischief; illegal or dubious activities.

monkey engine ▷ noun a pile-driver.

monkey nut ▷ noun a peanut in its shell.

monkey puzzle tree ▷ noun a S American conifer with close-set, hard, prickly leaves covering its long, drooping branches. Often shortened to monkey puzzle. Also called Chile pine.

monkey tricks ▷ plural noun, colloq mischief; pranks. US equivalent monkey shines.

monkey wrench ▷ noun a spanner-like tool with movable jaws; an adjustable spanner.

monkfish ▷ noun 1 a large cartilaginous fish with a flattened head, lateral gill openings, broad pectoral fins and a slender tail. Also called angel shark. 2 any of several types of ANGLER fish.

monkish see under MONK

monkshood see under ACONITE

mono /'mɒnoʊ/ colloq ▷ adj short form of MONOPHONIC and MONOUNSATURATED. ▷ noun monophonic sound reproduction, ie on one channel only, not split into two, as with STEREOPHONIC systems.

mono- /'mɒnoʊ-/ or (before a vowel) mon- combining form, denoting one; single □ monosyllable □ monoxide. ⓘ From Greek monos single.

monocarp /'mɒnoʊkɑːp/ ▷ noun, bot a plant that flowers and fruits only once in its life cycle. • monocarpic or monocarpous adj. ⓘ 19c: from Greek karpos fruit.

monochromatic ▷ adj 1 physics a said of light: having only one wavelength; b said of radiation or oscillation: having a unique or very narrow band of frequency. 2 monochrome.

monochrome /mɒnə'kroʊm/ ▷ adj 1 said of visual reproduction: using or having one colour, or in black and white only. 2 said especially of painting: using shades of one colour only. 3 lacking any variety or interest; dull or monotonous. ▷ noun 1 a monochrome picture, photograph, drawing, etc. 2 representation in monochrome. 3 the art or technique of working in monochrome. Also called monochromy /mə'nɒkrəmɪ/. • monochromic adj. ⓘ 17c: from medieval Latin monochroma, from Greek chroma colour.

monocle /'mɒnəkəl/ ▷ noun a lens for correcting the sight in one eye only, held in place between the bones of the cheek and brow. • monocled adj. ⓘ 19c: French, from Latin oculus eye.

monocline /'mɒnoʊklaɪn/ ▷ noun, geol in rock strata: a fold with one side that dips steeply, after which the strata resume their original direction. • monoclinal adj. ⓘ 19c: from Greek klinein to cause something to slope.

monoclonal /mɒnoʊ'kloʊnəl/ ▷ adj, biol said of an antibody: of a highly specific type produced artificially by any of various clones (see CLONE noun 1) and used in the identification of blood groups and the production of vaccines.

monocoque /'mɒnoʊkɒk/ ▷ noun (monocoques) 1 aeronautics a fuselage or NACELLE in which all the structural loads are carried by the skin. 2 naut the hull of a boat made all in one piece. 3 a structural type of vehicle in which the body and chassis are in one piece. Also as adj. © 19c: French, literally 'single shell', from coque egg-shell.

monocotyledon ▷ noun, bot a flowering plant with an embryo that has one COTYLEDON, parallel leaf veins, vascular bundles throughout the stem and flower parts in multiples of three, eg daffodil, cereals, grasses and palms. Compare DICOTYLEDON. • monocotyledonous adj.

monocracy /mə'nɒkrəsɪ/ ▷ noun (monocracies) 1 government by one person only. 2 the rule of such a person. 3 a country, state, society, etc that is governed by one person. See also AUTOCRACY. • monocrat /'mɒnəkrat/ noun. • monocratic /-'kratɪk/ adj. © 17c: MONO- + -CRACY.

monocular /mə'nɒkjʊlə(r)/ ▷ adj 1 for the use of, or relating to, one eye only. 2 now rare having, or having the use of, one eye only. © 17c.

monoculture ▷ noun 1 agric the practice of growing the same crop each year on a given area of land, rather than growing different crops in rotation. 2 an area where there is just one, shared culture, eg a single ethnic, social or religious culture. • monocultural adj belonging or relating to, or consisting of, a monoculture.

monocyte ▷ noun, biol the largest type of white blood cell, which has a single, oval or kidney-shaped nucleus and clear cytoplasm. © Early 20c: from German Monocyt; see -CYTE.

monody /'mɒnədɪ/ ▷ noun (monodies) 1 literary a especially in Greek tragedy: a mournful song or speech performed by a single actor; b any poem lamenting a death. 2 music a song in which the melody is sung by one voice only, with other voices accompanying. • monodic /mə'nɒdɪk/ adj. • monodist noun. © 17c: from Greek monoidia, from oide song.

monoecious /mɒ'niːʃəs/ ▷ adj 1 bot said of a plant: with separate male and female reproductive parts in the same plant. 2 biol said of an animal: with both male and female sexual organs; hermaphrodite. Compare DIOECIOUS. © 18c: from MONO- + Greek oikos house.

monofilament ▷ noun a single strand of synthetic fibre.

monogamy /mə'nɒgəmɪ/ ▷ noun 1 a the state or practice of having only one husband or wife at any one time; b loosely the state or practice of having only one sexual partner at any one time. Compare POLYGAMY. 2 zool the state or practice of having only one mate. • monogamist noun. • monogamous adj. © 17c.

monoglot ▷ noun a person who only knows and speaks one language. ▷ adj referring or relating to such a person. © 19c.

monogram ▷ noun a design composed from letters, usually a person's initials, interlaced or written into a single character, often used on personal belongings, clothing, etc. ▷ verb (monogrammed, monogramming) to mark something with a monogram. • monogrammatic adj. © 17c.

monograph ▷ noun a book or essay dealing with one particular subject or a specific aspect of it. ▷ verb (monographed, monographing) to write a monograph on (a subject). • monographer or monographist noun. • monographic or monographical adj. © 19c.

monohull ▷ noun a sailing craft with one hull, as distinct from a CATAMARAN or a TRIMARAN.

monohybrid ▷ noun, biol a living organism that carries one dominant and one recessive ALLELE for a particular gene.

monolingual ▷ adj 1 said of a person: able to speak one language only. 2 expressed in, or dealing with, a single language □ a monolingual dictionary. • monolingualism noun. • monolinguist noun.

monolith /'mɒnəlɪθ/ ▷ noun 1 a single, tall block of stone, especially one shaped like or into a column or pillar. 2 anything resembling one of these in its uniformity, immovability or massiveness. 3 civil engineering, etc a large uniform mass of concrete or similar material. • monolithic /-'lɪθɪk/ adj 1 relating to or like a monolith. 2 said of an organization, etc: large, unchanging and difficult to deal with. © 19c: from French monolithe, from Greek monolithos made of one piece of stone, from MONO- + lithos stone.

monologue or (US) monolog /'mɒnəlɒg/ ▷ noun (monologues or monologs) 1 theat, etc a a long speech by one actor in a film or play. See also SOLILOQUY; b a drama for one actor. 2 usually derog any long, uninterrupted piece of speech by one person, especially a tedious or opinionated speech that prevents any conversation. © 17c: French, meaning 'a person who likes to talk at length'.

monomania ▷ noun 1 psychol domination of the mind by a single subject or concern, to an excessive degree. 2 an obsession or craze. • monomaniac noun. • monomaniac or monomaniacal adj. © 19c: from French monomanie, from MANIA.

monomark ▷ noun, Brit a particular combination of letters or figures used as an identification mark.

monomer /'mɒnəmə(r)/ ▷ noun, chem a simple molecule that can be joined to many others to form a much larger molecule known as a POLYMER. • monomeric /-'merɪk/ adj. © Early 20c.

monomial /mə'noʊmɪəl/ math ▷ noun an algebraic expression that consists of one term only. ▷ adj consisting of one term. © 18c: from MONO-, modelled on BINOMIAL.

monomorphic and monomorphous ▷ adj, biol said of an organism: that exists in one form only throughout its life cycle. • monomorphism noun. © 19c: from Greek morphe form.

mononuclear ▷ adj said of a cell: having a single nucleus.

mononucleosis /mɒnoʊnjuːklɪ'oʊsɪs/ ▷ noun, pathol a condition, especially INFECTIOUS MONONUCLEOSIS, in which an abnormally large number of lymphocytes (MONONUCLEAR cells) are present in the blood. © 1920s: from MONONUCLEAR.

monophonic ▷ adj said of a recording or broadcasting system, record, etc: reproducing sound or records on one channel only, rather than splitting it into two, as with STEREOPHONIC systems. Now usually shortened to MONO. Also called MONAURAL. © 19c: see -PHONIC.

monophthong /'mɒnəfθɒŋ/ ▷ noun a single vowel sound. Compare DIPHTHONG. © 17c: from Greek monophthongos, from mono- MONO- + phthongos sound.

monoplane ▷ noun an aeroplane with a single set of wings. Compare BIPLANE. © Early 20c: see PLANE[1] noun 2.

monoplegia /mɒnoʊ'pliːdʒɪə/ ▷ noun, medicine paralysis that affects only one part of the body, or one limb or muscle. Compare PARAPLEGIA. • monoplegic adj, noun. © 19c: Latin, from Greek plege stroke or blow.

monopolize or monopolise /mə'nɒpəlaɪz/ ▷ verb (monopolized, monopolizing) 1 to have a monopoly or exclusive control of trade in (a commodity or service). 2 to dominate (eg a conversation or a person's attention), while excluding all others. • monopolization noun. • monopolizer noun. © 17c.

monopoly /mə'nɒpəlɪ/ ▷ noun (monopolies) 1 the right to be, or the fact of being, the only supplier of a specified commodity or service. 2 a business that has such a monopoly. 3 a commodity or service controlled in this way. 4 exclusive possession or control of anything □ You don't have a monopoly on the truth! See also DUOPOLY, OLIGOPOLY. • monopolist noun someone who monopolizes, has a monopoly or favours monopoly. • monopolistic /-'lɪstɪk/ adj. © 16c: from Latin monopolium, from Greek poleein to sell.

Monopoly money ▷ noun, colloq large sums of money, when treated lightly as if it were of no real value or significance. ⓘ 1970s: named after the board game Monopoly (trademark) invented in 1933, in which streets, property, etc are 'bought' and 'sold' using imitation banknotes.

monorail ▷ noun a railway system in which the trains run on, or are suspended from, a single rail. Also as adj □ monorail system.

monosaccharide ▷ noun, biochem a simple sugar, eg GLUCOSE or FRUCTOSE, that cannot be broken down into smaller units.

mono-ski ▷ noun a broad single ski on which the skier places both feet. • mono-skier noun. • mono-skiing noun.

monosodium glutamate /mɒnoʊsoʊdɪəm 'gluːtəmeɪt/ ▷ noun (abbreviation MSG) a white crystalline chemical substance used to enhance the flavour of many processed savoury foods without giving a taste of its own. ⓘ 1920s: MONO- + SODIUM + GLUTAMIC ACID + -ATE.

monosyllabic /mɒnoʊsɪ'læbɪk/ ▷ adj 1 consisting of one syllable only. 2 using short words, especially 'yes' and 'no' □ a monosyllabic reply. • monosyllabically adverb.

monosyllable ▷ noun a word consisting of only one syllable. • in monosyllables using simple language. ⓘ 16c.

monotheism ▷ noun the belief that there is only one God. • monotheist noun. • monotheistic adj. • monotheistically adverb. ⓘ 17c: from Greek theos god.

monotint ▷ noun, art representation in, or a drawing, painting, etc using, shades of one colour only, monochrome.

monotone ▷ noun 1 in speech or sound: a single unvarying tone. 2 a sequence of sounds of the same tone. 3 especially in colour: sameness; lack of variety. ▷ adj 1 lacking in variety; unchanging. 2 in monotone. ⓘ 17c: from Latin monotonus, from Greek monotonos, from tonos tone.

monotonous /mə'nɒtənəs/ ▷ adj 1 lacking in variety; tediously unchanging. 2 said of speech or sound, etc: in one unvaried tone. • monotonously adverb. ⓘ 18c.

monotony noun (monotonies) 1 the quality of being monotonous. 2 routine or dullness or sameness.

monotreme /'mɒnətriːm/ ▷ noun, zool an animal, such as the ECHIDNA or the DUCK-BILLED PLATYPUS, that differ from other mammals in having a single opening, the CLOACA, that serves for the passing of both urine and faeces. In females, this same opening is used for egg-laying and the receiving of sperm. ⓘ 19c: from Latin Monotremata, from Greek trematos holed.

monotype ▷ noun 1 art a one-off print made by applying oil paint or ink on to a sheet of glass or metal plate, and pressing paper against the wet surface to create on it a reverse image of the original. 2 (Monotype) trademark, printing a a make of typesetting equipment; b originally a machine that cast and set type, letter by letter; c a reproduction made by this process. Also as adj □ monotype operator. ⓘ 19c.

monotypic /mɒnoʊ'tɪpɪk/ ▷ adj said eg of a plant or animal species: consisting of only one type or example.

monounsaturated ▷ adj said especially of an oil or fat: containing only one double or triple bond per molecule. Also shortened to MONO. Compare POLYUNSATURATED.

monovalent ▷ adj, chem said of an atom of an element: with a valency of one; capable of combining with one atom of hydrogen or its equivalent. Also called univalent. • monovalence or monovalency noun. ⓘ 19c.

monoxide /mə'nɒksaɪd/ ▷ noun, chem a compound that contains one oxygen atom in each molecule. ⓘ 19c.

monozygotic twins see under IDENTICAL

Monseigneur /mɒnˈsɛnjə(r)/ ▷ noun (Messeigneurs /meɪ'sɛn-/) a title equivalent to My Lord, used to address a French or French-speaking man of high rank or birth, eg a bishop or prince (abbreviation Mgr or plural Mgrs). ⓘ 17c: French, from mon my + seigneur lord.

Monsieur /mə'sjɜː(r)/ ▷ noun (Messieurs /meɪ'sjɜː(r)z-/) a title equivalent to Mr, used especially in front of the surname of a French or French-speaking man (abbreviation M or plural MM). 2 (monsieur) a Frenchman, when not used with a surname. ⓘ 16c: French, originally mon my + sieur lord.

Monsignor /mɒn'siːnjə(r)/ ▷ noun (Monsignors or Monsignori /-'njɔːriː/) a title given to various high-ranking male members of the Roman Catholic church (abbreviation Monsig. or Mgr). ⓘ 17c: Italian, from French Monseigneur, a title given to high-ranking clergy and nobility.

monsoon /mɒn'suːn/ ▷ noun 1 especially in the area around the Indian Ocean and S Asia: a wind that blows from the NE in winter (the dry monsoon) and from the SW in summer (the wet monsoon). 2 in India: the heavy rains that accompany the summer monsoon. 3 colloq an extremely heavy fall of rain. 4 any strong, relatively constant wind that blows in opposite directions at different times of year. • monsoonal adj. ⓘ 16c: from Dutch monssoen, ultimately from Arabic mawsim season.

monster /'mɒnstə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 especially in fables and folklore: any large and frightening imaginary creature. 2 a cruel or evil person. 3 any unusually large thing. 4 old use a deformed person, animal or plant. ▷ adj huge; gigantic □ monster portions. ⓘ 14c: from French monstre, from Latin monstrum an evil omen.

monstera /mɒn'stɪərə/ ▷ noun (monsteras) a tall tropical American climbing plant, popular as a house plant, with large shiny heart-shaped leaves and tough aerial roots growing from the stem. Also called Swiss cheese plant, cheese plant. ⓘ 19c: from Latin monstrum.

monstrance /'mɒnstrəns/ ▷ noun (monstrances) RC Church a large, gold or silver cup in which the HOST[3] is displayed to the congregation during Mass. ⓘ 16c: French, from Latin monstrare to show.

monstrosity /mɒn'strɒsɪtɪ/ ▷ noun (monstrosities) 1 any very ugly or outrageous thing; a monster or freak. 2 the quality or state of being monstrous. ⓘ 16c.

monstrous /'mɒnstrəs/ ▷ adj 1 like a monster; huge and horrible. 2 outrageous; absurd. 3 extremely cruel; evil. 4 old use deformed; abnormal. • monstrously adverb. • monstrousness noun.

Mont. see under MT

montage /mɒn'tɑːʒ/ ▷ noun 1 a the process of creating a picture by assembling and piecing together elements from other pictures, photographs, etc, and mounting them on to canvas, etc; b a picture made in this way. 2 the process of editing film material. 3 cinema, TV a film sequence made up of short clips, or images superimposed, dissolved together, etc, especially one used to condense events that take place over a long period. 4 cinema, TV extensive use of changes in camera position to create an impression of movement or action in a filmed scene. See also MISE-EN-SCÈNE. ⓘ 1920s: French, from monter to mount.

montbretia /mɒn'briːʃə/ ▷ noun (montbretias) a perennial hybrid plant with sword-shaped leaves and yellow or orange trumpet-shaped flowers that grow in spikes. ⓘ 19c: Latin, named after the French botanist A F E Coquebert de Montbret (1780–1801).

Montezuma's revenge /mɒntə'zuːməz —/ ▷ noun diarrhoea caused by travelling and exposure to unfamiliar food, especially in Mexico. ⓘ 20c: from Montezuma II, the Mexican ruler at the time of the Spanish conquest.

month /mʌnθ/ ▷ noun 1 any of the 12 named divisions of the year, which vary in length between 28 and 31 days. Also called calendar month. 2 a period of roughly four weeks or 30 days. 3 the period between identical dates in consecutive months. Also called calendar month. See also LUNAR MONTH, SOLAR MONTH. ● a month of Sundays colloq a very long time. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon monath, from mona moon.

monthly ▷ adj 1 happening, published, performed, etc once a month. 2 lasting one month. ▷ adverb once a month. ▷ noun (monthlies) 1 a monthly periodical. 2 colloq a menstrual period.

montmorillonite /mɒntmə'rɪlənaɪt/ ▷ noun (montmorillonites) geol a soft opaque clay mineral composed of aluminium silicate that expands when it absorbs liquids, used in decolouring solutions, as a base for paper and cosmetics, etc. See also FULLER'S EARTH. ⓘ 19c: named after Montmorillon in France, where it was found.

monument /'mɒnjʊmənt/ ▷ noun 1 something, eg a statue, built to preserve the memory of a person or event. 2 any ancient building or structure preserved for its historical value. 3 formal something that serves as clear evidence of something; an excellent example ▫ This work is a monument to her artistic skill. 4 formal a tombstone. ⓘ 14c, originally meaning 'a sepulchre': from Latin monumentum, from monere to remind.

monumental /mɒnjʊ'mentəl/ ▷ adj 1 like a monument, especially huge and impressive. 2 colloq very great; extreme ▫ monumental arrogance. 3 belonging or relating to, or taking the form of, a monument. 4 formal relating to tombstones ▫ monumental sculptor. ● monumentally adverb.

moo ▷ noun (moos) 1 the long low sound made by a cow, ox, etc. 2 Brit rather dated derog slang a simple-minded woman. ▷ verb (moos, mooed, mooing) intr to make this sound. ● mooing noun. ⓘ 16c: imitating the sound.

mooch /muːtʃ/ ▷ verb (mooches, mooched, mooching) colloq 1 intr (usually mooch about or around) to wander around aimlessly. 2 tr & intr to cadge; to get something for nothing by asking directly. 3 intr to skulk or lurk about. 19c in current senses; 15c meaning 'to act the miser'.

mood[1] /muːd/ ▷ noun 1 a state of mind at a particular time ▫ See what sort of mood he's in before you ask him. 2 (especially the mood) a suitable or necessary state of mind ▫ not in the mood for dancing. 3 a temporary grumpy state of mind ▫ Now he's gone off in a mood. 4 an atmosphere ▫ The mood in the factory is tense. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon mod in obsolete sense 'mind' or 'feeling'.

mood[2] /muːd/ ▷ noun 1 grammar each of several forms of a verb, indicating whether the verb is expressing a fact (see INDICATIVE), a wish, possibility or doubt (see SUBJUNCTIVE) or a command (see IMPERATIVE). 2 logic the form of the SYLLOGISM as determined by the quantity and quality of its three constituent propositions. ⓘ 16c: originally a variant of MODE.

moody /'muːdɪ/ ▷ adj (moodier, moodiest) 1 tending to change mood often. 2 frequently bad-tempered or sulky. ● moodily adverb. ● moodiness noun.

Moog synthesizer /muːg —/ ▷ noun, trademark an electronic musical instrument with a keyboard that can produce a wide range of sounds. Often shortened to Moog. ⓘ 1960s: developed by the American engineer Robert Moog (b.1934).

mooli /'muːlɪ/ ▷ noun (moolis) a long white carrot-shaped root that tastes similar to a radish. ⓘ 20c: native E African word.

moon[1] /muːn/ ▷ noun 1 (often Moon) the Earth's natural satellite, illuminated to varying degrees by the Sun depending on its position and often visible in the sky, especially at night. 2 the appearance of the Moon to an observer on Earth, especially in terms of its degree of illumination, eg FULL MOON, HALF MOON. See also CRESCENT, NEW MOON. 3 a natural satellite of any planet ▫ the moons of Jupiter. 4 something impossible to obtain ▫ promised me the moon. 5 literary or old use a month. ● moonless adj. ● over the moon colloq thrilled; delighted. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon mona.

moon[2] /muːn/ ▷ verb (mooned, mooning) intr 1 (usually moon about or around) to wander around aimlessly; to spend time idly. 2 slang to make a show of one's bare buttocks in public. ● mooner noun. 1960s in sense 2, from a resemblance to the MOON[1]; 19c in sense 1, referring to the behaviour of someone who is MOONSTRUCK.

moonbeam ▷ noun a ray of sunlight reflected from the moon.

moonface ▷ noun a full, round face. ● moon-faced adj.

moonfish see under OPAH

Moonies see UNIFICATION CHURCH

moonlight ▷ noun 1 sunlight reflected by the moon. 2 as adj at night ▫ a moonlight flit. 3 illuminated by moonlight ▫ a moonlight swim. ▷ verb, intr, colloq to work at a second job outside the working hours of one's main job, often evading income tax on the extra earnings. ● moonlighter noun. ● moonlighting noun the practice of working as a moonlighter.

moonlit ▷ adj illuminated by moonlight ▫ a clear, moonlit night. See also MOONLIGHT.

moonscape ▷ noun the appearance of the surface of the moon, or a representation of it.

moonshine ▷ noun, colloq 1 foolish talk; nonsense. 2 chiefly N Amer smuggled or illegally-distilled alcoholic spirit. 3 MOONLIGHT noun 1.

moonshot ▷ noun a launching of an object, craft, etc to orbit or land on the moon.

moonstone ▷ noun, geol a transparent or opalescent, silvery or bluish FELDSPAR, used as a semi-precious gemstone. ⓘ 17c: so called because it was once thought that its appearance changed with the waxing and waning of the moon.

moonstruck ▷ adj, colloq behaving in an unusually distracted, dazed, or wild way, as if affected by the moon. See also LUNATIC. ⓘ 17c.

moony /'muːnɪ/ ▷ adj (moonier, mooniest) colloq in a dreamy, distracted mood.

Moor /mɔː(r), mʊə(r)/ ▷ noun a Muslim belonging to a mixed Arab/Berber race of NW Africa, that conquered the Iberian peninsula in the 8c. ● Moorish adj. ⓘ 14c as More or Maur: from French More or Maure, from Latin Maurus.

moor[1] /mɔː(r), mʊə(r)/ ▷ noun a large area of open, uncultivated upland with an acid peaty soil. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon mor.

moor[2] /mɔː(r), mʊə(r)/ ▷ verb (moored, mooring) 1 to fasten (a ship or boat) by a rope, cable or anchor. 2 intr said of a ship, etc: to be fastened in this way. ● moorage noun. ⓘ 15c as more.

moorcock ▷ noun a male MOORFOWL.

moorfowl ▷ noun a red or black grouse.

moorhen ▷ noun 1 a small black water bird of the rail family (see RAIL[3]), with a red beak. 2 a female MOORFOWL.

mooring ▷ noun 1 a place where a boat is moored. 2 (moorings) the ropes, anchors, etc used to moor a boat. 3 something that provides security or stability.

Moorish see under MOOR

moorland ▷ noun a stretch of MOOR[1].

moose /muːs/ ▷ noun (plural moose) a large deer with flat, rounded antlers, found in N America, and also in Europe and Asia where it is called the elk. ⓘ 17c: from Algonquian (a Native American language) moos.

moot /muːt/ ▷ verb (mooted, mooting) 1 to suggest; to bring something up for discussion. 2 intr to dispute or plead, especially as a form of academic exercise. ▷ adj (mooter, mootest) open to argument; debatable □ a moot point. ▷ noun 1 historical in Anglo-Saxon England: a court or administrative assembly. 2 a discussion of a hypothetical legal case, especially as a form of academic exercise. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon ge mot assembly.

mop /mɒp/ ▷ noun 1 a tool for washing or wiping floors, consisting of a large sponge or a set of thick threads fixed on to the end of a long handle. 2 a similar smaller tool for washing dishes. 3 colloq a thick or tangled mass of hair. ▷ verb (mopped, mopping) 1 to wash or wipe (eg a floor) with a mop. 2 to wipe, dab or clean (eg a sweaty brow). ● mopper noun. ⓘ 15c.

■ mop up or mop something up 1 to clean something up (eg a spillage) with a mop. 2 colloq to capture or kill (remaining enemy troops) after a victory. 3 colloq to deal with or get rid of (anything that remains).

mope /moʊp/ ▷ verb (moped, moping) intr 1 (especially mope about or around) to behave in a depressed, sulky or aimless way. 2 (often mope along) to move in a listless, aimless or depressed way. ▷ noun 1 a habitually sulky or depressed person. 2 (the mopes) low spirits; depression. ● moper noun. ⓘ 16c.

moped /ˈmoʊped/ ▷ noun a small-engined motorcycle (under 50cc), especially one that is started by using pedals. ⓘ 1950s: a shortening of motor-assisted pedal-cycle.

moppet /ˈmɒpɪt/ ▷ noun a term of affection used to a small child. See also POPPET. ⓘ 17c: diminutive of obsolete mop rag doll.

mop-up ▷ noun an act of mopping up. See MOP UP under MOP.

mopy /ˈmoʊpɪ/ ▷ adj (mopier, mopiest) inclined to mope; dull, listless or miserable. ● mopily adverb. ● mopiness noun.

moquette /mɒˈket/ ▷ noun thick velvety material used to make carpets and upholstery. ⓘ 18c: French.

MOR ▷ abbreviation especially in music broadcasting: middle-of-the-road.

moraine /mɒˈreɪn/ ▷ noun, geol an area covered by a jumbled accumulation of different-sized rock fragments that have been carried from their place of origin and deposited by a glacier or ice sheet. ● morainal or morainic adj. ⓘ 18c: French.

moral /ˈmɒrəl/ ▷ adj 1 belonging or relating to the principles of good and evil, or right and wrong. 2 conforming to what is considered by society to be good, right or proper; ethical. 3 adhering to or based on conscience or a knowledge of what is right □ a moral obligation. 4 having a psychological rather than a practical effect □ moral support. 5 considered in terms of psychological effect, rather than outward appearance □ a moral victory. 6 said of a person: capable of distinguishing between right and wrong. 7 supported by reason or probability, though not provable □ a moral certainty. ▷ noun 1 a principle or practical lesson that can be learned from a story or event. 2 (morals) a sense of right and wrong, or a standard of behaviour based on this, especially in relation to sexual conduct □ loose morals. ● morally adverb. ⓘ 14c: from Latin moralis, from mores, plural of mos a custom.

moral certainty ▷ noun something about which there is hardly any doubt.

morale /məˈrɑːl/ ▷ noun the level of confidence or optimism in a person or group; spirits □ The news boosted morale in the camp. ⓘ 18c: French, feminine of adjective moral MORAL.

moralism /ˈmɒrəlɪzəm/ ▷ noun 1 a moral saying. 2 moralizing. 3 morality as distinct from religion.

moralist /ˈmɒrəlɪst/ ▷ noun 1 someone who lives according to strict moral principles. 2 someone who tends to lecture others on their low moral standards. ● moralistic adj 1 relating to or typical of a moralist. 2 given to moralizing. 3 characterized by moralism. ● moralistically adverb.

morality /məˈralɪtɪ/ ▷ noun (moralities) 1 the quality of being moral. 2 behaviour in relation to accepted moral standards. 3 a particular system of moral standards.

morality play ▷ noun, historical an allegorical drama, originating in the Middle Ages, in which the characters act out a conflict between good and evil. Compare MYSTERY PLAY.

moralize or moralise /ˈmɒrəlaɪz/ ▷ verb (moralized, moralizing) 1 intr to write or speak, especially critically, about moral standards. 2 to explain something in terms of morals. 3 to make someone or something moral or more moral. ● moralization noun. ● moralizer noun.

morally see under MORAL.

moral majority ▷ noun in a society: the majority, who are presumed to be in favour of a strict moral code. Compare SILENT MAJORITY. ⓘ 1970s.

moral philosophy see under ETHICS.

moral theology ▷ noun, relig a theological discipline concerned with ethical questions considered from a specifically Christian perspective.

morass /məˈras/ ▷ noun (morasses) 1 an area of marshy or swampy ground. 2 literary a dangerous or confused situation, especially one that entraps someone or prevents them from progressing. ⓘ 17c: from Dutch moeras, from French marasc a marsh.

moratorium /mɒrəˈtɔːrɪəm/ ▷ noun (moratoriums or moratoria /-rɪə/) 1 an agreed temporary break in an activity. 2 a a legally-authorized postponement of payment of a debt for a given time; b the period of time authorized for this. ⓘ 19c: Latin, from mora delay.

Moravian /məˈreɪvɪən/ ▷ adj belonging or relating to Moravia, an early medieval kingdom, later part of Bohemia, and now a province situated in the Czech Republic, or to its inhabitants or their dialect. ▷ noun 1 an inhabitant of, or person born in, Moravia. 2 the Czech dialect spoken in Moravia. 3 Christianity a member of the Moravian Brethren, an evangelical Protestant body first formed in 15c Bohemia. ● Moravianism noun. ⓘ 16c: from Latin Morava the river March.

moray /ˈmɒreɪ/ ▷ noun (morays) a sharp-toothed eel of warm coastal waters. ⓘ 17c: from Portuguese moreia, from Latin muraena.

morbid /ˈmɔːbɪd/ ▷ adj 1 displaying an unhealthy interest in unpleasant things, especially death. 2 medicine relating to, or indicating the presence of, disease. ● morbidity noun 1 a morbid state. 2 medicine the proportion of diseased people in a community. ● morbidly adverb. ● morbidness noun. ⓘ 17c: from Latin morbus disease.

mordant /ˈmɔːdənt/ ▷ adj 1 sharply sarcastic or critical; biting. 2 chem said of a substance: serving as a mordant. ▷ noun 1 chem a chemical compound, usually a metallic oxide or salt, that is used to fix colour on textiles, etc that cannot be dyed directly. 2 a corrosive substance. ● mordancy noun. ● mordantly adverb. ⓘ 15c; 14c meaning 'a device that bites': French, literally 'biting', from Latin mordere to bite.

mordent /ˈmɔːdənt/ ▷ noun, music a GRACE NOTE in which the principal note and the note above or below it are played before the note itself. ⓘ 19c: German, from Italian mordente, from mordere to bite.

more /mɔː(r)/ (used as the comparative of MANY and MUCH) ▷ adj greater; additional □ He has more clothes than me ◻ Don't use more than two bags. ▷ adverb 1 used to form the comparative form of many adjectives and most adverbs, especially those of two or more syllables ◻ a more difficult problem ◻ Drive more carefully. 2 to a greater degree; with a greater frequency ◻ I miss him more than ever. 3 again ◻ Do it once more. ▷ pronoun a greater, or additional, number or quantity of people or things ◻ If we run out, I'll have to order more. See also MOST. ● more and more increasingly; continuing to increase. ● more of a something better described as or closer to being (a specified thing) ◻ more of a painter than a writer. ● more or less 1 almost ◻ more or less finished. 2 roughly ◻ It'll take two hours, more or less. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon mara greater.

moreish or morish /ˈmɔːrɪʃ/ ▷ adj, Eng colloq said especially of a food: so tasty, delicious, etc that one wants to keep eating more of it. ⓘ 18c.

morel /mɒˈrɛl/ ▷ noun, bot an edible fungus whose fruiting body has a pale stalk and a brownish egg-shaped head covered with a network of ridges. ⓘ 17c: from French morel dark brown.

morello /məˈrɛloʊ/ ▷ noun (morellos) a bitter-tasting, dark-red cherry. ⓘ 17c: from Italian, meaning 'blackish'.

morendo /mɒˈrɛndoʊ/ ▷ adj ▷ adverb, music dying away, in speed and tone. ⓘ 19c: Italian, meaning 'dying'.

moreover /mɔːˈroʊvə(r)/ ▷ adverb, slightly formal or old use also; besides; and what is more important. ⓘ 13c.

mores /ˈmɔːreɪz, -riːz/ ▷ plural noun, formal social customs that reflect the basic moral and social values of a particular society. ⓘ Early 20c: Latin, plural of mos custom.

morganatic /mɔːgəˈnatɪk/ ▷ adj, technical said of marriage: between a person of high social rank and one of low rank, and allowing neither the lower-ranking person nor any child from the marriage to inherit the title or property of the higher-ranking person. Compare LEFT-HANDED. ● morganatically adverb. ⓘ 18c: from Latin matrimonium ad morganaticam, literally 'marriage with a morning gift'; the offering of the gift, after consummation, is the husband's only duty in such a marriage.

morgue /mɔːg/ ▷ noun (morgues) 1 a MORTUARY. 2 any gloomy or depressing place. 3 in a newspaper office, etc: a place where miscellaneous information is stored for reference. ⓘ 19c: French, originally the name of a building in Paris, the Morgue, in which dead bodies were laid out for identification.

MORI /ˈmɔːri/ ▷ abbreviation, Brit Market and Opinion Research Institute. Also as adj ◻ a MORI poll.

moribund /ˈmɒrɪbʌnd/ ▷ adj 1 dying; near the end of existence. 2 lacking strength or vitality. ⓘ 18c: from Latin moribundus, from mori to die.

morish see MOREISH

Mormon /ˈmɔːmən/ ▷ noun, Christianity a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, established in the US by Joseph Smith in 1830, which accepts as scripture both the Bible and the Book of Mormon, regarded as a record of certain ancient American prophets. ● Mormonism noun. ⓘ 19c: named after Mormon, the supposed author of the Book of Mormon.

morn /mɔːn/ ▷ noun, poetic morning. ⓘ 13c: from Anglo-Saxon morgen.

mornay or (sometimes) Mornay /ˈmɔːneɪ/ ▷ adj 1 (following its noun) cookery served in a cheese sauce ◻ cod mornay. 2 said of a sauce: made with cheese. ⓘ Early 20c.

morning /ˈmɔːnɪŋ/ ▷ noun 1 the part of the day from sunrise to midday, or from midnight to midday. 2 as adj taken, or taking place, in the morning ◻ morning coffee. 3 sunrise; dawn. 4 poetic or literary the early part of something ◻ the morning of my life. ● in the morning colloq tomorrow morning ◻ Come back in the morning. ● the morning after colloq the morning after a celebration, especially when one is affected by a hangover or other unpleasant after-effects. ⓘ 13c: from morn, modelled on EVENING.

morning-after pill ▷ noun, medicine a contraceptive drug, consisting of a combination of oestrogen and progestogen, which can be taken within 72 hours of unprotected sexual intercourse by a woman wanting to prevent conception.

morning coat ▷ noun a man's black or grey TAILCOAT worn as part of morning dress.

morning dress ▷ noun men's formal dress for the daytime, consisting of morning coat, grey trousers and usually a top hat.

morning glory ▷ noun a tropical climbing plant with blue, pink or white trumpet-shaped flowers that close in the afternoon.

morning prayer see under MATINS 2 mornings ▷ adverb, colloq, dialect or US in the morning, especially on a regular basis ◻ I don't work mornings.

morning sickness ▷ noun, colloq nausea and vomiting or both, often experienced during the early stages of pregnancy, frequently in the morning.

morning star ▷ noun a planet, usually Venus, seen in the eastern sky just before sunrise. See also EVENING STAR.

Moroccan /məˈrɒkən/ ▷ adj belonging or relating to Morocco, a kingdom in N Africa, or to its inhabitants. ▷ noun a citizen or inhabitant of, or person born in, Morocco. ⓘ 18c.

morocco /məˈrɒkoʊ/ ▷ noun (moroccos) a type of soft fine goatskin leather. Also called morocco leather. ⓘ 17c: named after Morocco, the country that this leather was originally brought from.

moron /ˈmɔːrɒn/ ▷ noun 1 derog, colloq a very stupid person. 2 old use, now very offensive a person with a mild degree of mental handicap. ● moronic /-ˈrɒnɪk/ adj 1 colloq stupid; foolish. 2 old use like or characteristic of a moron. ● moronically adverb. ⓘ Early 20c: originally US, from Greek moros foolish.

morose /məˈroʊs/ ▷ adj silently gloomy or bad-tempered. ● morosely adverb. ● moroseness noun. ⓘ 16c: from Latin morosus peevish.

morph- /mɔːf/ or (before a consonant) morpho- combining form, denoting form, shape or structure. ⓘ From Greek morphe form.

-morph ▷ combining form, forming nouns, denoting something of a specified form, shape or structure ◻ endomorph. ● -morphic combining form, forming adjectives. ● -morphism combining form, forming nouns. ● -morphy combining form, forming nouns. ⓘ From Greek morphe form.

morpheme /ˈmɔːfiːm/ ▷ noun, linguistics any of the grammatically or lexically meaningful units forming or underlying a word, not divisible themselves into smaller meaningful units, eg the morphemes out, go and ing forming the word, or 'lexeme', outgoing, or the 'plural' morpheme seen in the inflections in cats, buses, children, etc. Compare LEXEME. See also MORPHOLOGY. ● morphemic adj. ● morphemically adverb. ⓘ 19c: from French morphème, modelled on PHONEME.

morphine /ˈmɔːfiːn/ ▷ noun a highly-addictive, narcotic drug obtained from opium, used medicinally as an analgesic to relieve severe and persistent pain, and as a sedative to induce sleep. Also called (especially formerly) morphia. See also CODEINE, HEROIN. ⓘ 19c: from German Morphin, from Greek Morpheus, the name of the god of sleep.

morphing /ˈmɔːfɪŋ/ ▷ noun, cinematog the use of computer graphics to blend one screen image into another, eg to transform or manipulate an actor's body. ⓘ 20c.

-morphism see under -MORPH morpho- see MORPH-

morphogenesis /mɔːfoʊˈdʒɛnəsɪs/ ▷ noun, biol the development of form and structure in a living organism as a result of the growth and differentiation of its cells and tissues. • morphogenetic /-dʒəˈnɛtɪk/ adj. ⓘ 19c.

morphology /mɔːˈfɒlədʒɪ/ ▷ noun 1 linguistics the study of MORPHEMES and the rules by which they combine to form words. 2 biol the scientific study of the structure of plants and animals. 3 formal the structure of anything. • morphological adj. • morphologist noun. ⓘ 19c.

-morphy see under -MORPH morris dance ▷ noun a type of traditional English country dance, performed by men carrying sticks and wearing costumes with bells and ribbons attached. Often shortened to morris. • morris dancer noun. • morris dancing noun. ⓘ 15c: from Morys Moorish; see under MOOR.

the morrow /ˈmɒroʊ/ ▷ noun, old use or poetic 1 the following day □ would return on the morrow. 2 the time after an event □ bright hope for the morrow. 3 the morning. ⓘ 13c: see MORN.

Morse and Morse code ▷ noun 1 a code used for sending messages, each letter of a word being represented as a series of short or long radio signals or flashes of light. 2 a method of sending messages using these signals. ⓘ 19c: named after the American electrician, Samuel Morse (1791–1872), who invented it.

morsel /ˈmɔːsəl/ ▷ noun a small piece of something, especially of food. ⓘ 13c: French, from mors a bite.

mortadella /mɔːtəˈdɛlə/ ▷ noun (mortadelle /-ˈdɛlɪ/) a large Italian pork sausage, sometimes studded with peppercorns, green olives or pistachios. ⓘ 17c: Italian, from Latin murtatum seasoned with myrtle berries.

mortal /ˈmɔːtəl/ ▷ adj 1 said especially of human beings: certain to die at some future time. 2 causing or resulting in death □ mortal injury □ mortal combat. 3 extreme □ mortal fear. 4 characterized by intense hostility; implacable □ mortal enemies. 5 used for emphasis: conceivable; single □ every mortal thing. ▷ noun a mortal being, especially a human being. • mortally adverb. ⓘ 14c: from Latin mortalis, from mori to die.

mortality /mɔːˈtalɪtɪ/ ▷ noun (mortalities) 1 the state of being mortal. 2 the number of deaths, eg in a war or epidemic; the death-rate. Also called mortality rate. 3 loss of life; death, especially on a broad scale.

mortal sin ▷ noun, RC Church a serious sin, for which there can be no forgiveness from God. Compare VENIAL SIN.

mortar /ˈmɔːtə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 building a mixture of sand, water and cement or lime, used to bond bricks or stones. 2 the small heavy dish in which substances are ground with a PESTLE. 3 a type of short-barrelled artillery gun for firing shells over short distances. ▷ verb (mortared, mortaring) 1 to fix something (especially bricks) in place with mortar. 2 to plaster (eg a wall) with mortar. 3 to bombard (a place or target, etc) using a mortar. ⓘ 13c: from French mortier, from Latin mortarium.

mortarboard ▷ noun 1 building a flat board used by bricklayers to carry mortar, held horizontally by a handle underneath. Also called hawk. 2 a black cap with a hard, square, flat top, worn by academics at formal occasions. Also called trencher.

mortgage /ˈmɔːgɪdʒ/ ▷ noun 1 a a legal agreement by which a building society or bank, etc (the mortgagee) grants a client (the mortgagor or mortgager) a loan for the purpose of buying property, ownership of the property being held by the mortgagee until the loan is repaid; b the deed that brings such a contract into effect. 2 a the money borrowed for this; b the regular amounts of money repaid. 3 any loan for which property is used as security. ▷ verb (mortgaged, mortgaging) 1 to give ownership of (property) as security for a loan. 2 colloq to pledge something. • mortgageable adj. ⓘ 14c: French, from mort dead + gage pledge, apparently because the property that is pledged is 'dead' to the borrower if the loan is not repaid, or because the pledge to the lender becomes void or 'dead' when the loan is repaid.

mortician /mɔːˈtɪʃən/ ▷ noun, N Amer, especially US an undertaker. ⓘ 19c: from Latin mortis death.

mortify /ˈmɔːtɪfaɪ/ ▷ verb (mortifies, mortified, mortifying) 1 to make someone feel humiliated or ashamed. 2 relig to control (physical desire) through self-discipline or self-inflicted hardship □ mortify the flesh. 3 intr, pathol, old use said of a limb, etc: to be affected by gangrene. • mortification /-fɪˈkeɪʃən/. • mortifying adj, noun. ⓘ 14c: from French mortifier, from Latin mortificare to put someone to death.

mortise or (sometimes) mortice /ˈmɔːtɪs/ carpentry, etc, ▷ noun a hole cut in a piece of wood, into which a TENON on another piece of wood fits to form a mortise and tenon joint. ▷ verb (mortised, mortising) 1 to cut a mortise in (a piece of wood, etc). 2 to join (two parts) with a mortise and tenon joint. • mortiser noun. ⓘ 15c: from French mortaise.

mortise lock ▷ noun a lock fitted into a hole cut in the side edge of a door, rather than on to the door's surface.

mortuary /ˈmɔːtʃʊərɪ, ˈmɔːtʃərɪ/ ▷ noun (mortuaries) a building or room in which dead bodies are laid out for identification or kept until they are buried or cremated. Also called MORGUE. ▷ adj relating to or connected with death, or the burial of the dead. ⓘ 14c, meaning 'a customary payment made to a parish priest on the death of parishioner': from Latin adjective mortuarius, from mortuus dead.

Mosaic /moʊˈzeɪɪk/ ▷ adj relating to Moses, the biblical prophet and lawgiver, or to the laws attributed to him □ Mosaic law. See also PENTATEUCH.

mosaic /moʊˈzeɪɪk/ ▷ noun 1 a ▷) a design or piece of work formed by fitting together lots of small pieces of coloured stone, glass, etc; b as adj □ mosaic floor. 2 the process of making a mosaic. 3 anything that resembles a mosaic or is pieced together in a similar way. 4 bot (also mosaic disease) a viral disease affecting the potato or tobacco plant, etc in which the leaf becomes mottled. • mosaicist /-ˈzeɪɪsɪst/ noun someone who is skilled in mosaic work. ⓘ 15c: from French mosaïque.

moschatel /mɒskəˈtɛl/ ▷ noun a small plant with pale-green flowers and a musky smell. ⓘ 18c: from French moscatelle, from Italian moscato musk.

moselle or Moselle /moʊˈzɛl, mə-/ or Mosel /German ˈmoːzəl/ ▷ noun a dry, German, white wine produced in

Morse code

A	B	C	D	E	F	G	H	I	J	K	L	M
·–	–···	–·–·	–··	·	··–·	––·	····	··	·–––	–·–	·–··	––

N	O	P	Q	R	S	T	U	V	W	X	Y	Z
–·	–––	·––·	––·–	·–·	···	–	··–	···–	·––	–··–	–·––	––··

the regions around Moselle river which runs through NE France, Luxembourg and Germany. ⓒ 17c.

Moses basket ▷ noun a portable cot for babies, in the form of a basket with handles. ⓒ 1940s: so called because of the biblical story of the infant Moses who was put in a papyrus basket and left among the bulrushes.

mosey /ˈmoʊzɪ/ ▷ verb (moseys, moseyed, moseying) intr (usually mosey along) colloq, originally & especially US to walk in a leisurely way; to saunter or amble. ⓒ 19c.

moshing /ˈmɒʃɪŋ/ ▷ noun, Brit slang a style of energetic sinuous dancing done in a crowded space especially to heavy metal or thrash music and usually done in a moshpit, the area in front of the stage at a gig. ⓒ 1980s: perhaps a mixture of SQUASH + MASH.

Moslem see MUSLIM.

> Moslem
>
> See Usage Note at Muslim.

mosque /mɒsk/ ▷ noun (mosques) a Muslim place of worship. ⓒ 15c: from French mosquée, from Arabic masjid temple.

mosquito /mɒˈskiːtoʊ/ ▷ noun (mosquitos or mosquitoes) any of numerous species of small two-winged insects with thin, feathery antennae, long legs and slender bodies, the females of which have piercing mouthparts for sucking the blood of birds and mammals. They are responsible for transmitting several diseases including MALARIA. ⓒ 16c: Spanish, diminutive of mosca a fly, from Latin musca.

mosquito net ▷ noun a fine net designed to keep out mosquitos, especially one that is hung over a bed at night.

moss ▷ noun (mosses) 1 the common name for a type of small spore-bearing plant without a vascular system, typically found growing in dense, spreading clusters in moist shady habitats. See also BRYOPHYTE. 2 any of various unrelated plants which superficially resemble true moss. 3 dialect, especially Scottish & N Eng an area of boggy ground. • mosslike adj. ⓒ Anglo-Saxon mos in the sense 'bog'.

MOSSAD /ˈmɒsad/ ▷ noun the Israeli state intelligence service, formed in 1951. ⓒ 1960s: short for Mossad le Aliyah Beth, Committee for Illegal Immigration, the original Hebrew name of the organization founded in 1937 to oversee illegal Jewish immigration into Palestine.

moss agate ▷ noun a variegated chalcedony containing darker mosslike, or branching, marks of manganese oxide, etc.

moss green ▷ noun muted yellowy-green. Also as adj □ a moss-green sweater.

mossie or mozzie /ˈmɒsɪ, ˈmɒzɪ/ ▷ noun, colloq a mosquito. ⓒ 1940s.

mosso /ˈmɒsoʊ/ ▷ adverb, music in a quick or animated manner. ⓒ 19c: Italian, past participle of muovere to move.

moss stitch ▷ noun, knitting alternating plain and purl stitches along each row and in succeeding rows, giving a mosslike effect.

mossy /ˈmɒsɪ/ ▷ adj (mossier, mossiest) consisting of, covered with or like, moss. • mossiness noun.

most /moʊst/ (used as the superlative of MANY and MUCH) ▷ adj denoting the greatest number, amount, etc □ Most children enjoy parties. ▷ adverb 1 (also the most) used to form the superlative of many adjectives and most adverbs, especially those of more than two syllables □ the most difficult problem of all □ I chose the most perfectly produced copy. 2 (also the most) to the greatest degree; with the greatest frequency □ I miss him most at Christmas. 3 extremely □ a most annoying thing. ▷ pronoun the greatest number or quantity, or the majority of people or things □ Most of them are here □ Who has most to lose? ▷ See also MORE. • at the most or at most certainly not more than (a specified number) □ three drinks at the most. • for the most part mostly. • make the most of something to take the greatest possible advantage of it. ⓒ Anglo-Saxon mæst or mast.

-most ▷ combining form, forming adjectives and adverbs, denoting farthest in a specified direction □ southernmost.

mostly ▷ adverb 1 mainly; almost completely. 2 usually.

MOT or MoT ▷ noun, Brit 1 (also MOT test) an official, annual test of roadworthiness, required by the Department of Transport on all vehicles over three years old. 2 (also MOT certificate) the certificate supplied when a vehicle has passed this test. ⓒ 1960s: abbreviation for Ministry of Transport, the name of the department when the test was introduced.

mote /moʊt/ ▷ noun a speck, especially a speck of dust. ⓒ Anglo-Saxon mot.

motel /moʊˈtel/ ▷ noun a hotel with extensive parking facilities, situated near a main road and intended for overnight stops by motorists. Sometimes called motor lodge. ⓒ 1920s: a blend of motor hotel.

motet /moʊˈtet/ ▷ noun a short piece of sacred music for several voices. ⓒ 14c: French diminutive of mot word.

moth ▷ noun the common name for one of many winged insects belonging to the same order as butterflies but generally duller in colour and night-flying, typically having a PROBOSCIS and four broad wings which fold down when resting. See also CATERPILLAR, CHRYSALIS. ⓒ Anglo-Saxon moththe.

mothball ▷ noun a small ball of camphor or naphthalene that is hung in wardrobes, etc to keep away the CLOTHES MOTH. ▷ verb 1 to postpone work on something (eg a project), or to lay it aside, especially for an indefinitely long time. 2 to put (clothes, linen, etc), with mothballs, into a place for long-term storage. • put something in mothballs to mothball it.

moth-eaten ▷ adj 1 said of cloth, etc: damaged by clothes moths. 2 colloq old and worn.

mother /ˈmʌðə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 a female parent. Also as adj □ mother hen. 2 (usually the mother) the protective, nurturing, or loving qualities associated with a mother □ brings out the mother in her. Also as adj □ mother figure □ mother love. 3 (also Mother) as a term of address or a title for: a one's own female parent or stepmother, foster-mother, etc. See also MUM, MUMMY; b (also Mother Superior) the head of a Christian female religious community; c old use an old woman; d an ancestress. 4 the cause or origin; the source from which other things have sprung or developed □ Necessity is the mother of invention. Also as adj □ mother cell □ mother church □ mother earth. ▷ verb (mothered, mothering) 1 to give birth to or give rise to someone or something. 2 to treat someone with care and protection, especially excessively so. • motherhood noun the state or condition of being a mother. • motherless adj. • motherly see separate entry. • to be mother colloq, facetious to pour the tea or dish out the food □ Shall I be mother? • every mother's son every man, without exception. • the mother and father of a something or of all somethings colloq one that is bigger than any other □ the mother and father of a hangover. ⓒ Anglo-Saxon modor.

motherboard ▷ noun, computing a PRINTED CIRCUIT BOARD that can be plugged into the back of a computer, and into which other boards can be slotted to allow the computer to operate various peripherals. See PERIPHERAL noun.

mother country ▷ noun 1 a person's native country. Also called motherland. 2 the country that emigrants leave to settle elsewhere.

motherese ▷ noun, linguistics the speech used by adults to young children while they are learning to speak, typically using shortened expressions, clear pronunciation, a high-pitched voice and often with exaggerated intonation patterns. Also called caretaker speech. ⓒ 20c.

motherfucker ▷ noun, coarse slang a contemptible, repulsive or hateful person; a general term of abuse. • motherfucking adj. ⓒ 1950s.

Mothering Sunday ▷ noun in the UK: the fourth Sunday in Lent, a day on which children traditionally honour their mothers with gifts. See also MOTHER'S DAY.

mother-in-law ▷ noun (mothers-in-law) the mother of one's husband or wife.

motherland see under MOTHER COUNTRY motherly /ˈmʌðəlɪ/ ▷ adj like or characteristic of a mother. • motherliness noun.

mother-of-pearl ▷ noun a hard shiny iridescent substance made mainly of calcium carbonate, that forms the inner layer of the shell of some molluscs (eg oysters) and is used to make buttons, beads, etc. Also called NACRE.

Mother's Day ▷ noun 1 Brit another name for Mothering Sunday. 2 in the USA, Canada and Australia: the second Sunday in May, a day set apart in honour of mothers.

Mother Superior see under MOTHER mother-to-be ▷ noun (mothers-to-be) a pregnant woman, especially one who is expecting her first child. ⓒ 1960s.

mother tongue ▷ noun 1 one's native language. 2 a language from which another originated.

mothproof ▷ adj said of cloth: treated with chemicals which resist attack by CLOTHES MOTH. ▷ verb to treat (fabric) in this way.

motif /moʊˈtiːf/ ▷ noun 1 on clothing, etc: a single design or symbol. 2 a shape repeated many times within a pattern. Also called MOTIVE. 3 in the arts: something that is often repeated throughout a work or works, eg a passage of music in a symphony, or a theme in a novel. ⓒ 19c: French; see MOTIVE.

motile /ˈmoʊtaɪl, -tɪl/ ▷ adj, biol said of a living organism, such as spermatozoa, or a structure: capable of independent spontaneous movement. • motility /-ˈtɪlɪtɪ/ noun. ⓒ 19c: from Latin motus movement.

motion /ˈmoʊʃən/ ▷ noun 1 the act, state, process or manner of moving. 2 a single movement, especially one made by the body; a gesture or action. 3 the ability to move a part of the body. 4 a proposal for formal discussion at a meeting. 5 law an application made to a judge during a court case for an order or ruling to be made. 6 Brit a an act of discharging faeces from the bowels; b (motions) faeces. ▷ verb (motioned, motioning) tr & intr (often motion to someone) to give a signal or direction. • motionless adj. • motionlessly adverb. • go through the motions 1 to pretend to do something; to act something out. 2 to perform a task mechanically or half-heartedly. • in motion moving; operating. ⓒ 14c: from Latin motio, from movere to move.

motion picture ▷ noun, N Amer, especially US a cinema film. Also as adj ▫ the motion picture industry.

motion sickness see under TRAVEL SICKNESS motivate /ˈmoʊtɪveɪt/ ▷ verb (motivated, motivating) 1 to be the motive of something or someone. 2 to cause or stimulate (a person) to act; to be the underlying cause of (an action) ▫ He is motivated by greed. • motivation noun. • motivational adj. • motivationally adverb.

motive /ˈmoʊtɪv/ ▷ noun 1 a reason for, or underlying cause of, action of a certain kind. 2 see MOTIF 2. ▷ adj 1 causing motion ▫ motive power. 2 stimulating action ▫ motive force. ⓒ 14c: French, from Latin movere to move.

mot juste / French mo ʒyst/ ▷ noun (mots justes /mo ʒyst/) the word or expression which fits the context most exactly. ⓒ Early 20c: from French le mot juste the exact word.

motley /ˈmɒtlɪ/ ▷ adj (motleyer, motleyest) 1 made up of many different kinds ▫ a motley crew. 2 many-coloured. ▷ noun (motleys) a jester's multicoloured costume. ⓒ 14c.

motocross /ˈmoʊtoʊkrɒs/ ▷ noun a form of motorcycle racing in which specially-adapted motorcycles compete across rough terrain. ⓒ 1950s: from motorcycle + cross-country.

motor /ˈmoʊtə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 a an engine, especially the INTERNAL-COMBUSTION ENGINE of a vehicle or machine; b as adj driven by a motor ▫ motor boat. 2 a colloq a car; b as adj ▫ motor show. 3 a device, eg in a domestic appliance, that converts electrical energy into mechanical energy, using the forces that act on a current-carrying conductor such as a COIL1 (noun 5) in the presence of a magnetic field. Also called ELECTRIC MOTOR. ▷ adj 1 anatomy a said of a nerve: transmitting impulses from the CENTRAL NERVOUS SYSTEM to a muscle or gland; b said of a nerve cell: forming part of such a nerve. 2 physiol relating to muscular movement, or the sense of muscular movement. 3 giving or transmitting motion. ▷ verb (motored, motoring) 1 intr to travel by motor vehicle, especially by private car. 2 to convey someone or something by motor vehicle. 3 intr, colloq to move or work, etc fast and effectively. • motoring noun travelling by car, especially for pleasure. Also as adj ▫ motoring holiday. • motorist noun someone who drives a car. Also called DRIVER. ⓒ 16c: Latin, from movere to move.

motorbike ▷ noun, colloq a MOTORCYCLE.

motorcade /ˈmoʊtəkeɪd/ ▷ noun a procession of cars carrying VIPs, especially political figures. ⓒ Early 20c: from MOTOR, modelled on CAVALCADE.

motor car ▷ noun, old use a CAR.

motorcycle ▷ noun any two-wheeled road vehicle powered by a two-stroke or four-stroke internal combustion engine that runs on petrol. Also called MOTORBIKE or sometimes BIKE (noun 2). Compare MOPED. • motorcycling noun. • motorcyclist noun.

motorize or motorise /ˈmoʊtəraɪz/ ▷ verb (motorized, motorizing) 1 to fit a motor or motors to something. 2 to supply (eg soldiers) with motor vehicles. • motorization noun.

motor lodge see under MOTEL motormouth ▷ noun, derog, slang a person who talks non-stop or too much.

motor neurone ▷ noun, anatomy a nerve cell that carries impulses from the spinal cord or the brain to an EFFECTOR organ such as a muscle or gland.

motor neurone disease ▷ noun, medicine a disease in which progressive damage to motor neurones leads to muscle weakness and degeneration.

motor-scooter see under SCOOTER motorway ▷ noun, Brit, Austral & NZ a major road for fast-moving traffic, especially one with three lanes per carriageway and limited access and exit points. See also EXPRESSWAY, FREEWAY, SUPERHIGHWAY.

Motown /ˈmoʊtaʊn/ ▷ noun, pop music a style that combines pop with rhythm and blues or gospel rhythms. ⓒ 1960s: from Tamla Motown the name of a record label that specializes in this kind of music, from Motor Town, a nickname for Detroit in the USA famed for its car production, where the label is based.

motte and bailey /mɒt — —/ ▷ noun, historical especially in England in the late 11c and 12c: a type of fortification, originally of earth and timber, commonly built by the Normans, consisting of an artificial mound (the motte) surrounded by a ditch, with a walled outer court (the BAILEY) adjoining it to one side. ⓘ 19c: from 13c motte from French mote or motte mound.

mottle /ˈmɒtəl/ ▷ verb (mottled, mottling) to give something a blotched, streaked or variegated appearance, surface, etc. • mottled adj with a pattern of different coloured blotches or streaks. • mottling noun. ⓘ 17c.

motto /ˈmɒtoʊ/ ▷ noun (mottos or mottoes) 1 a a phrase adopted by a person, family, etc as a principle of behaviour; b such a phrase appearing on a coat of arms, crest, etc. 2 a printed phrase or verse contained in a paper cracker. 3 a quotation at the beginning of a book or chapter, hinting at what is to follow. ⓘ 17c: Italian, from Latin muttum utterance.

moue / French mu/ ▷ noun (moues) a grimace or pout expressing disconsentment. ⓘ 19c: French, literally 'pout'.

mould[1] or (N Amer) mold /moʊld/ ▷ noun 1 any of various fungi that produce an abundant woolly network of threadlike strands which may be white, grey-green or black in colour. 2 a woolly growth of this sort on foods, plants, etc. See also MILDEW. ⓘ 15c.

mould[2] or (N Amer) mold /moʊld/ ▷ noun 1 a hollow, shaped container into which a liquid substance is poured so that it takes on the container's shape when it cools and sets. 2 food, eg a jelly or other pudding that has been shaped in such a container. 3 nature, character or personality □ We need a leader in the traditional mould. 4 a framework on which certain manufactured objects are built up. 5 now rare or technical form, model or pattern. ▷ verb (moulded, moulding) 1 to shape something in or using a mould. 2 a to shape (a substance) with the hands □ moulded the clay in her hands; b to form something by shaping a substance with the hands □ moulded a pot out of the clay. 3 tr & intr to fit, or make something fit, tightly □ The dress was moulded to her body. 4 (especially mould something or someone into something) to exercise a controlling influence over the development of something or someone □ moulding his pupils into future leaders. • mouldable adverb. • moulder noun. ⓘ 13c: from French modle, from Latin modulus a measure.

mould[3] or (N Amer) mold /moʊld/ ▷ noun loose soft soil that is rich in decayed organic matter □ leaf mould. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon molde.

moulder or (N Amer) molder /ˈmoʊldə(r)/ ▷ verb (mouldered, mouldering) intr (also moulder away) to become gradually rotten with age; to decay. ⓘ 16c.

moulding or (N Amer) molding /ˈmoʊldɪŋ/ ▷ noun 1 a shaped, decorative strip, especially one made of wood or plaster. 2 the conversion of molten plastics, clay, glass, etc into specific three-dimensional shapes by using hollow moulds and applying heat or pressure. See also CASTING.

mouldy or (N Amer) moldy /ˈmoʊldɪ/ ▷ adj (mouldier, mouldiest) 1 covered with mould. 2 old and stale. 3 derog, colloq rotten or bad; a general term of dislike □ I don't want your mouldy advice. • mouldiness noun. ⓘ 14c: from MOULD[1].

moult or (N Amer) molt /moʊlt/ ▷ verb (moulted, moulting) intr, zool said of an animal: to shed feathers, hair or skin to make way for a new growth. ▷ noun 1 the act or process of moulting. 2 the time taken for this. ⓘ 14c: from Anglo-Saxon, from Latin mutare to change.

mound /maʊnd/ ▷ noun 1 any small hill, or bank of earth or rock, either natural or man-made. 2 a heap or pile. ▷ verb (mounded, mounding) (now usually mound something up) to form or pile up into a mound. ⓘ 16c, meaning 'a hedge or other boundary'.

mount[1] /maʊnt/ ▷ verb (mounted, mounting) 1 tr & intr to go up □ mounting the stairs. 2 tr & intr to get up on to (a horse, bicycle, etc). 3 intr (also mount up) to increase in level or intensity □ The tension is mounting □ when pressure mounts up. 4 to put (a picture, slide, etc) in a frame or on a background for display; to hang or put something up on a stand or support. 5 to organize or hold (a campaign, etc). 6 to carry out (an attack, etc); to put something into operation. See also MOUNT GUARD at GUARD. 7 to get (a weapon, etc) into position and ready for use. 8 said of a stallion, bull, etc: to copulate with (a female). Also called COVER verb 17. ▷ noun 1 a support or backing on which something is placed for display or use, etc. 2 a horse that is ridden. 3 technical the slide, etc used in mounting an object for viewing under the microscope. • mounted adj 1 said of a person, etc: on horseback. 2 said of a picture, etc: hung on a wall, or placed in a frame or on a background. 3 in compounds set in or with a specified material □ silver-mounted. ⓘ 14c: from French monter, related to MOUNT[2].

mount[2] /maʊnt/ ▷ noun, chiefly poetic or old use a mountain. Also Mount in place names. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon munt from Latin mons, montis mountain.

mountain /ˈmaʊntɪn/ ▷ noun 1 a a very high, steep hill, often one of bare rock; b as adj □ mountain peak. 2 (also mountains of something) colloq a great quantity; a heap or mass □ a mountain of washing. 3 a huge surplus of some commodity □ a butter mountain. • mountainous adj 1 said of a region, etc: containing many mountains. 2 colloq huge; as big as a mountain. • make a mountain out of a molehill to exaggerate the seriousness or importance of some trivial matter. ⓘ 13c: from French montaigne, from Latin mons, montis mountain.

mountain ash see under ROWAN.

mountain beaver ▷ noun a squirrel-like burrowing primitive rodent (not a true beaver) with a stocky body and a minute, hairy tail, living in cool moist regions of N America.

mountain bike ▷ noun a sturdy bicycle with thick, deep-tread tyres and straight handlebars, originally designed as an ALL-TERRAIN bike for riding off road, in hilly terrain, but now popular as an all-purpose bike for town and road cycling. • mountain biker noun. • mountain biking noun. ⓘ 1980s.

mountain dew ▷ noun whisky, especially illicitly-made whisky.

mountaineer /maʊntɪˈnɪə/ ▷ noun someone who climbs mountains. ▷ verb (mountaineered, mountaineering) intr to climb mountains. • mountaineering noun the sport of climbing mountains, usually aided by ropes, etc, either on snow and ice, as practised mainly on the higher peaks of the world, or on bare rock faces (also called rock climbing). ⓘ 19c: from MOUNTAIN + -EER.

mountain lion see under PUMA.

mountain sickness ▷ noun feelings of nausea, light-headedness, headache, etc caused by breathing low-oxygen mountain air, especially affecting climbers, etc who make too quick an ascent. Also called altitude sickness.

mountainside ▷ noun the slope of a mountain.

mountebank /ˈmaʊntɪbaŋk/ ▷ noun, literary, derog 1 formerly a medically unqualified person who sold supposed medicines from a public platform; a quack. 2 any person who swindles or deceives. ⓘ 16c: from Italian montimbanco a person who stands up, ie who MOUNTS, a bench.

mounted see under MOUNT[1].

Mountie or Mounty /ˈmaʊntɪ/ ▷ noun (Mounties) colloq a member of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police. ⓘ Early 20c.

mourn /mɔːn/ ▷ verb (mourned, mourning) 1 tr & intr (especially mourn for or over someone or something) to feel or show deep sorrow at the death or loss of them or it. 2 intr to be in mourning or wear mourning. • mourner noun 1 someone who mourns. 2 someone attending a funeral. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon murnan.

mournful ▷ adj 1 feeling or expressing grief. 2 suggesting sadness or gloom □ mournful music. ● mournfully adverb. ● mournfulness noun.

mourning /ˈmɔːnɪŋ/ ▷ noun 1 grief felt or shown over a death. 2 a symbol of grief, especially black clothing or a black armband (a mourning band). 3 a period of time during which someone is officially mourning a death, especially one in which they wear black clothing and/or observe certain restrictions of behaviour, etc □ She is in mourning for her husband. Also as adj □ mourning clothes.

mouse /maʊs/ ▷ noun (mice /maɪs/ or in sense 3 mouses) 1 a any of various small rodents found worldwide, such as the FIELDMOUSE and HARVEST MOUSE, with a grey or brown coat, pointed muzzle, bright eyes, sharp teeth and a long naked tail. Compare RAT. b any of various similar animals, eg voles and shrews. 2 colloq a very shy, quiet or timid person. 3 computing an input device which can be moved around on a flat surface, causing a CURSOR (sense 1) to move around the computer screen in response. It has one or more buttons which are clicked (see CLICK verb 4) to choose one of a number of specified options displayed. ▷ verb (moused, mousing) intr 1 said of an animal, especially a cat: to hunt mice. 2 (especially mouse about or around) to prowl. ● mouser noun a cat that catches mice, or is kept especially for catching mice. ● mousing noun. ◯ 1960s in sense 3; Anglo-Saxon mus, plural mys.

mouse deer see under CHEVROTAIN

mouse potato ▷ noun, slang, computing someone who spends a great deal of time using a computer, especially for leisure. ◯ 1990s: by analogy with COUCH POTATO.

mousetrap ▷ noun 1 a mechanical trap for catching or killing mice. 2 colloq mediocre or poor quality cheese.

mousier, mousiest, mousily and mousiness see under MOUSY moussaka /muːˈsɑːkə/ ▷ noun (moussakas) cookery a dish made with minced meat, aubergines, onions, tomatoes, etc, covered with a cheese sauce and baked, traditionally eaten in Greece, Turkey and the Balkans. ◯ 1940s: modern Greek.

mousse /muːs/ ▷ noun (mousses) 1 cookery a a dessert made from a whipped mixture of cream, eggs and flavouring, eaten cold; b a similar but savoury dish, made with meat, fish, etc. 2 (also styling mousse) a foamy or frothy chemical preparation applied to hair to add body or to make styling easier. ◯ 19c: French, literally 'froth' or 'moss'.

mousseline /ˈmuːsliːn/ ▷ noun (mousselines) 1 a fine French muslin. 2 a type of very thin glassware. 3 cookery a dish made with MOUSSELINE SAUCE. ◯ 17c: French; see under MUSLIN.

mousseline sauce ▷ noun, cookery HOLLANDAISE SAUCE lightened with whipped cream or egg white.

moustache and (N Amer) mustache /məˈstɑːʃ, ˈmʌˈstɑːʃ/ ▷ noun unshaved hair growing across the top of the upper lip. Compare MUSTACHIO, BEARD. ● moustached adj. See also MUSTACHIOED. ◯ 16c: French, from Italian mostaccio.

mousy or mousey /ˈmaʊsɪ/ ▷ adj (mousier, mousiest) 1 like a mouse, or belonging or relating to a mouse. 2 said of hair: light dullish brown in colour. 3 said of a person: shy, quiet or timid, especially tiresomely so. ● mousily adverb. ● mousiness noun.

mouth ▷ noun /maʊθ/ (mouths /maʊðz/) 1 a in humans, animals, etc: an opening in the head through which food is taken in and speech or sounds emitted, and containing the teeth, gums, tongue, etc; b in other creatures: an opening with similar functions. 2 the lips; the outer visible parts of the mouth. 3 an opening, eg of a bottle. 4 the part of a river that widens to meet the sea. 5 a person considered as a consumer of food □ five mouths to feed. 6 derog, colloq boastful talk □ He's all mouth. 7 colloq backchat or cheek □ don't want any of your mouth. 8 derog, colloq a someone who talks too much, especially indiscreetly; b in compounds □ bigmouth □ loudmouth. 9 colloq use of language; way of speaking □ a foul mouth. 10 the responsiveness of a horse to the bit (see BIT[3] sense 1). ▷ verb /maʊð/ (mouthed, mouthing) 1 to form (words) without actually speaking □ mouthed a hello to me across the crowded room. 2 tr & intr, derog to speak (words) pompously or insincerely □ is always mouthing platitudes. 3 intr to grimace. ● mouthed /maʊðd/ adj, in compounds 1 using a specified kind of language □ foul-mouthed. 2 having a specified kind of mouth □ wide-mouthed. ● be all mouth derog, colloq to be someone who is full of boastful or confident talk but who never actually acts upon it. ● have a big mouth colloq to be in the habit of talking indiscreetly, loudly or too much. ● down in the mouth see under DOWN. ● keep one's mouth shut colloq to keep quiet; not to say or disclose anything. ◯ Anglo-Saxon muth.

■ mouth off slang, especially US 1 to express opinions forcefully or loudly. Also called SOUND OFF. 2 to boast or brag.

mouthful ▷ noun (mouthfuls) 1 as much food or drink as fills the mouth or is in one's mouth. 2 a small quantity, especially of food □ couldn't eat another mouthful. 3 colloq a word or phrase that is difficult to pronounce □ His name is quite a mouthful. 4 colloq an outburst of forceful and often abusive language □ gave me such a mouthful. See also EARFUL.

mouth organ see under HARMONICA

mouthparts ▷ plural noun, zool any of the appendages specially adapted for feeding, located around the mouth of an ARTHROPOD.

mouthpiece ▷ noun 1 the part of a musical instrument, telephone receiver, tobacco pipe, etc that is held in or against the mouth. 2 a person or publication that is used to express the views of a group.

mouth-to-mouth ▷ adj said of a method of resuscitation: involving someone breathing air directly into the mouth of the person to be revived in order to inflate their lungs. ▷ noun mouth-to-mouth resuscitation. Also called kiss of life. See also ARTIFICIAL RESPIRATION.

mouthwash ▷ noun an antiseptic liquid used for gargling or for rinsing or freshening the mouth.

mouth-watering ▷ adj 1 said of food: having a delicious appearance or smell. 2 colloq highly desirable.

movable or moveable /ˈmuːvəbəl/ ▷ adj 1 not fixed in one place; portable. 2 especially Scots law said of property: able to be removed; personal. 3 said of a religious festival: taking place on a different date each year □ Easter is a movable feast. ● movability or moveability noun. ● movableness or moveableness noun.

move /muːv/ ▷ verb (moved, moving) 1 tr & intr to change position or make something change position or go from one place to another. 2 intr to make progress of any kind □ move towards a political solution. 3 chiefly intr (often move on or out or away, etc) to change one's place of living, working, operating, etc. See also move house below. 4 to affect someone's feelings or emotions. 5 (usually move someone to do something) to prompt them or affect them in such a way that they do it □ What moved him to say that? 6 tr & intr to change the position of (a piece in a board game). 7 tr & intr, formal (usually move for or that something) to propose or request it formally, at a meeting, etc. 8 intr to spend time; to associate with people □ move in fashionable circles. 9 intr, colloq to take action; to become active or busy □ must move on this matter straight away. 10 intr, colloq to travel or progress fast □ That bike can really move. 11 colloq (also get a move on or get moving) to hurry up. 12 tr & intr, colloq to sell or be sold. 13 a intr said of the bowels: to be evacuated; b to cause (the bowels) to evacuate. ▷ noun 1 an act of moving the body; a movement. 2 an act of changing homes or premises □ How did your move go? 3 games a an act of moving a piece on the board; b a particular player's turn to move a piece; c any of a series of actions taken as part of an overall strategy; d the rules governing how the pieces are moved. ● movable, mover and moving see separate entries. ● make a move 1 colloq to start on one's way; to leave. 2 to take a step; to begin to proceed. ● move heaven and earth to make strenuous efforts to achieve something. ● move house to move to a new place of residence; to move one's possessions to a new home. ● on the move 1 moving from place to place. 2 advancing or making progress. ⓒ 13c: from French movoir, from Latin movere.

■ move in or into something or somewhere to begin to occupy new premises.

■ move in on someone 1 to advance towards them, especially threateningly. 2 to take steps towards controlling them or usurping their position, etc.

■ move out to vacate premises; to leave.

■ move over to move so as to make room for someone else.

movement /ˈmuːvmənt/ ▷ noun 1 a process of changing position or going from one point to another. 2 an act or manner of moving □ made a sudden, jerky movement. 3 an organization, association or group, especially one that promotes a particular cause □ the women's movement. 4 a general tendency or current of opinion, taste, etc □ a movement towards healthy eating. 5 music a section of a large-scale piece, especially a symphony. 6 (movements) a person's actions during a particular time □ Can you account for your movements that night? 7 a an act of evacuating the bowels; b the waste matter evacuated. 8 the moving parts of a watch or clock. 9 the theatrical art of moving the body gracefully or with expression. 10 the suggestion of motion conveyed in a work of art.

mover ▷ noun 1 someone or something that moves. 2 formal someone who brings a MOTION (noun 4) at a meeting, etc. 3 chiefly N Amer a person whose job is to help people to move house or premises. Brit equivalent REMOVAL MAN. 4 especially US someone who puts ideas or plans, etc in motion or who makes good progress □ prime mover.

movers and shakers ▷ plural noun, especially US the people with power and influence. ⓒ 1970s: from a poem (1874) by Arthur O'Shaughnessy 'Yet we are the movers and shakers of the world for ever, it seems'.

movie /ˈmuːvɪ/ ▷ noun (movies) especially US 1 a cinema film. British equivalent FILM. Also called PICTURE (noun 9). 2 (especially the movies) a cinema films in general; b the industry that produces them □ He didn't make it in the movies. Also as adj □ movie-maker □ movie star. ⓒ 1912: a shortening of MOVING PICTURE.

moviegoer see CINEMA-GOER.

moving ▷ adj 1 having an effect on the emotions; touching; stirring □ What a moving story! 2 in motion; not static □ a moving staircase. 3 causing motion. ● movingly adverb.

moving picture ▷ noun, old use a MOTION PICTURE.

moving staircase ▷ noun, old use an ESCALATOR.

moving walkway see under TRAVOLATOR.

mow /moʊ/ ▷ verb (mows, mowed, mown, mowing) to cut (grass, a lawn, crop, etc) by hand or with a machine. ● mower noun something or someone that mows, especially a machine with revolving blades for mowing grass □ lawnmower. ⓒ Anglo-Saxon mawan.

■ mow someone or something down colloq to cut or knock them or it down, or kill them or it, in large numbers □ mowed them down with machine-gun fire.

moxa /ˈmɒksə/ ▷ noun, alternative medicine a pithy material (eg sunflower pith or cotton wool), formed into a cone or stick and used for applying heat in oriental medicine, ACUPUNCTURE, etc. Also as adj □ moxa cone. ⓒ 17c: from Japanese mogusa, from moe kusa burning herb.

moxibustion /mɒksɪˈbʌstʃən/ ▷ noun, alternative medicine the application of local heat over ACUPUNCTURE points by burning MOXA or by heating needles, as a technique to relieve pain in arthritis, etc. ⓒ 19c: from MOXA, modelled on COMBUSTION.

Mozambican or Mozambiquan /moʊzəmˈbiːkən/ ▷ adj belonging or relating to Mozambique, a republic in SE Africa, or its inhabitants. ▷ noun a citizen or inhabitant of, or person born in, Mozambique. ⓒ 19c.

Mozartian or Mozartean /moʊtˈsɑːtɪən/ ▷ adj belonging or relating to, or characteristic of, the musical style or work, etc of the Austrian composer Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart (1756–91). ⓒ 19c.

mozzarella /mɒtsəˈrɛlə/ ▷ noun a soft, white, Italian curd cheese, especially used as a topping for pizza and in salads. ⓒ Early 20c: Italian.

mozzie see MOSSIE.

MP ▷ abbreviation 1 Member of Parliament. 2 Eng Metropolitan Police. 3 a Military Police; b military police officer. 3 mounted police.

mp ▷ abbreviation 1 (also m.p.) melting point. 2 music mezzo piano, fairly loud.

m.p. ▷ abbreviation melting point.

mpg ▷ abbreviation miles per gallon.

mph ▷ abbreviation miles per hour.

MPhil /ɛmˈfɪl/ ▷ abbreviation Master of Philosophy.

Mr /ˈmɪstə(r)/ ▷ noun (plural Messrs /ˈmɛsəz/) 1 the standard title given to a man, used as a prefix before his surname □ Mr Brown. French equivalent MONSIEUR. 2 a title given to a man who holds one of various official positions, used as a prefix before his designation □ Mr Chairman □ Mr Speaker. 3 colloq a title given to a man with a specified quality, job, skill, etc, used as a prefix before the appropriate epithet □ Mr Fixit. ● Mr Right see separate entry. ⓒ 15c: originally as an abbreviation of MASTER, later of MISTER.

MRC ▷ abbreviation, Brit Medical Research Council.

MRCP ▷ abbreviation, Brit Member of the Royal College of Physicians.

MRI ▷ abbreviation magnetic resonance imaging.

mRNA ▷ abbreviation, biochem messenger RNA.

MRP ▷ abbreviation manufacturer's recommended price.

Mr Right ▷ noun, colloq the man considered to be the ideal partner or husband for someone □ She thought she'd found Mr Right.

Mrs /ˈmɪsɪz/ ▷ noun the standard title given to a married woman, used as a prefix before her surname, or before her full name with either her own or her husband's first name. See also MISSUS, MS. ⓒ 17c: as an abbreviation of MISTRESS.

MS or ms. ▷ abbreviation 1 (plural MSS or mss.) manuscript. 2 Master of Surgery. 3 IVR Mauritius. 4 US state Mississippi. Also written Miss. 5 multiple sclerosis.

Ms /məz, mɪz/ ▷ noun the standard title given to a woman, married or not, used as a prefix before her surname in place of MRS or MISS □ Ms Brown.

ms ▷ abbreviation 1 See under MS. 2 millisecond or milliseconds.

MSc ▷ abbreviation Master of Science.

MSDOS or MS-DOS /ɛmɛsˈdɒs/ ▷ abbreviation, trademark, computing Microsoft disk-operating system, a widely-used DISK OPERATING SYSTEM used as the standard system for all IBM-compatible computers. ⓘ 1970s: the system was developed by the US Microsoft Corporation.

MSF ▷ abbreviation 1 Brit Manufacturing, Science and Finance Union. 2 Médecins sans Frontières (French), literally 'doctors without frontiers'; a medical aid organization.

MSG ▷ abbreviation monosodium glutamate.

Msgr ▷ abbreviation Monsignor.

MSS or mss see under MS

MST ▷ abbreviation, N Amer Mountain Standard Time.

MT ▷ abbreviation, US state Montana. Also written Mont.

Mt[1] ▷ abbreviation 1 Mount ◻ Mt Etna. 2 metical or meticals, the Mozambican currency unit.

Mt[2] ▷ symbol, chem meitnerium.

MTech. /ɛm'tɛk/ ▷ abbreviation Master of Technology.

mth ▷ abbreviation month.

Mts ▷ abbreviation Mountains.

MTV ▷ abbreviation Music Television, a satellite TV channel.

mu /mjuː/ ▷ noun 1 the twelfth letter of the Greek alphabet. See table at GREEK ALPHABET. 2 physics, chem, etc the symbol (μ) for MICRO- 2 and MICRON. See also MUON.

much /mʌtʃ/ ▷ adj ▷ pronoun (comparative more, superlative most) especially with negatives and in questions: 1 a great amount or quantity of something ◻ You don't have much luck ◻ How much time is there left? 2 (as pronoun) a great deal; anything of significance or value ◻ Can you see much? ◻ My belongings don't amount to much. ▷ adverb 1 by a great deal ◻ That looks much prettier. 2 to a great degree ◻ don't like her much ◻ We are much alike. 3 (often much the same) nearly the same; almost ◻ Things look much as I left them. See also MORE, MOST. ● a bit much colloq rather more that can be tolerated or accepted ◻ His constant teasing is a bit much. ● as much as ... or much as ... although ... ◻ I cannot come, much as I would like to. ● make much of something or someone 1 to cherish or take special interest in them or it, or to treat them or it as very important. 2 with negatives to find much sense in, or to succeed in understanding, them or it ◻ couldn't make much of what he was saying. ● not much of a something colloq not a very good example of it; a rather poor one ◻ I'm not much of a singer. ● not up to much colloq of a poor standard; not much good. ● too much colloq more than can be tolerated or accepted ◻ I find the noise too much. ● too much for someone more than a match for them. ⓘ 13c: from Anglo-Saxon mycel; see MICKLE.

muchness ▷ noun, old use greatness. ● much of a muchness colloq very similar; more or less the same.

mucilage /'mjuːsɪlɪdʒ/ ▷ noun (mucilages) 1 bot a type of gum-like substance that becomes viscous and slimy when added to water, present in or secreted by various plants. 2 a sticky substance used as an adhesive. ● mucilaginous /-'ladʒɪnəs/ adj. ⓘ 15c as muscilage: from Latin mucilago, literally 'mouldy juice', from mucere to be mouldy.

muck ▷ noun 1 colloq dirt, especially wet or clinging dirt. 2 animal dung; manure. 3 derog, colloq anything disgusting or of very poor quality ◻ How can you read that muck? ▷ verb (mucked, mucking) to treat (soil) with manure. ● make a muck of something colloq to do it badly; to ruin or spoil it. ⓘ 13c.

▪ muck about or around colloq to behave foolishly.

▪ muck about or around with something colloq to interfere, tinker or fiddle about with it.

▪ muck someone about or around to treat them inconsiderately; to try their patience.

▪ muck in or muck in with someone colloq to take a share of the work or responsibilities with others.

▪ muck out or muck something out to clear dung from (a farm building, etc) or clear dung from the stall, etc of (animals) ◻ have to muck out the pigs.

▪ muck something up colloq 1 to do it badly or wrongly; to ruin or spoil it. 2 to make it dirty.

mucker ▷ noun, slang 1 Brit, rather dated a best friend, mate or sidekick. 2 especially US, old use a coarse, unrefined person. ⓘ 19c.

muckheap ▷ noun a pile of muck; a dunghill.

muckle see MICKLE

muck-rake ▷ verb, intr, colloq said eg of a journalist: to seek out and expose scandal. ● muck-raker noun. ● muck-raking noun the practice of searching for and exposing scandal, especially about famous people. ⓘ Early 20c in this sense, as a back formation from muck raker; in the 17c muck-raker was used to mean 'a miser' or sometimes, literally, someone who rakes muck.

muckspread ▷ verb, agric to spread manure. ● muckspreader noun an agricultural machine for spreading manure. ● muckspreading noun.

mucky ▷ adj (muckier, muckiest) colloq 1 very dirty ◻ mucky hands. 2 said eg of films or magazines: featuring explicit sex; pornographic. 3 like or consisting of dirt.

mucosa /mjuː'kousə/ ▷ noun (mucosae /-siː/) the technical term for MUCOUS MEMBRANE.

mucous /'mjuːkəs/ ▷ adj consisting of, like or producing MUCUS. ● mucosity /-'kɒsɪtɪ/ noun.

> mucous, mucus
>
> These words are sometimes confused with each other.

mucous membrane ▷ noun, zool, anatomy in vertebrates: the moist, mucus-secreting lining of various internal cavities of the body, eg the nasal passages and the gut.

mucus /'mjuːkəs/ ▷ noun the thick slimy substance that protects and lubricates the surface of MUCOUS MEMBRANES and traps bacteria and dust particles. ⓘ 17c: Latin, meaning 'nasal mucus', from mungere to wipe away.

mud ▷ noun 1 a soft, wet earth; b as adj ◻ mud pie. 2 any semi-solid mixture that resembles this. 3 colloq insults, slanderous attacks ◻ throw mud at someone. ● clear as mud colloq not at all clear. ● here's mud in your eye Brit facetious, colloq an exclamation used as a drinking-toast. ● my, his, etc name is mud colloq I am, he is, etc disgraced or out of favour. ⓘ 14c.

mudbath ▷ noun 1 a medical treatment in which the body is covered in mud, especially hot mud, rich in minerals. 2 colloq any outdoor event taking place in muddy conditions.

muddied, muddier, muddiest, muddily and muddiness see under MUDDY muddle /'mʌdəl/ ▷ verb (muddled, muddling) (also muddle something or someone up) 1 to put it or them into a disordered or confused state ◻ Someone has muddled my notes up. 2 a to confuse the mind of someone ◻ You'll muddle him with all those figures; b to confuse (different things) in the mind ◻ I always muddle their names. 3 US to mix or stir (drinks, etc). ▷ noun a state of disorder or mental confusion. ● muddled adj confused; disordered. ● muddler noun. ⓘ 17c, meaning 'to wallow in mud'.

▪ muddle along colloq to manage or make progress slowly and haphazardly.

▪ muddle through colloq to succeed by persevering in spite of difficulties.

muddle-headed ▷ adj said of a person: not capable of clear thinking; confused. • muddle-headedly adverb. • muddle-headedness noun.

muddy ▷ adj (muddier, muddiest) 1 covered with or containing mud. 2 said of a colour, a liquid, etc: dull, cloudy or dirty. 3 said of thoughts, etc: not clear; vague. ▷ verb (muddies, muddied, muddying) to make something muddy, especially to make it unclear or difficult to understand. • muddily adverb. • muddiness noun.

mudflap ▷ noun a flap of rubber, etc fixed behind the wheel of a vehicle to prevent mud, etc being thrown up behind. N Amer equivalent SPLASH GUARD. Compare MUDGUARD.

mudflat ▷ noun (often mudflats) a relatively flat area of land near an estuary, etc formed by accumulated silt or mud brought in by the tide, and which is covered by a shallow layer of water at high tide.

mudguard ▷ noun a curved, metal guard over the upper half of the wheel of a bicycle or motorcycle to keep rain or mud from splashing up. Compare MUDFLAP.

mudhopper or mudskipper ▷ noun a type of fish that has raised eyes on the top of its head and paired fins used for moving itself across mud. It spends much of its time out of water and is found commonly on mudflats, etc in the Indo-Pacific.

mudpack ▷ noun a thick paste that is applied to the face as a skin cleanser and toner.

mudpuppy ▷ noun a brownish-grey N American AMPHIBIAN with feathery gills, that spends its entire life in water. It has limbs with four toes and a deep narrow tail. See also SALAMANDER.

mud-slinging ▷ noun, colloq the act or process of making slanderous personal attacks or allegations to discredit someone else. • mud-slinger noun.

mudstone ▷ noun, geol a fine-grained brittle sedimentary rock that is a hardened consolidated form of mud, formed of roughly equal amounts of clay and silt.

muesli /'mjuːzlɪ, 'muːzlɪ/ ▷ noun (mueslis) a mixture of crushed grain, nuts and dried fruit, eaten with milk, especially for breakfast. ⓘ 1920s: Swiss German.

muezzin /muː'ɛzɪn/ ▷ noun, Islam the Muslim official who calls worshippers to prayer, usually from a MINARET. ⓘ 16c: from Arabic mu'adhdhin, from adhana to proclaim.

muff¹ ▷ noun a wide fur tube which the wearer, usually a woman, places their hands inside for warmth, one through each end. ⓘ 16c: probably from Dutch mof, from moffel a mitten.

muff² colloq ▷ verb (muffed, muffing) 1 sport a to miss (a catch); b to perform (a stroke, etc) awkwardly or unsuccessfully; to bungle or fluff something. 2 to miss (an opportunity, etc). ▷ noun a failure or bungle, especially a failure to hold a catch. ⓘ 19c: originally meaning 'someone who is awkward or bungling at sport'.

muffin /'mʌfɪn/ ▷ noun 1 ▷ Brit a small round flat breadlike cake, usually eaten toasted or hot with butter. 2 N Amer a cup-shaped sweet cake, usually of a specified flavour ▫ blueberry muffins. ⓘ 18c.

muffle /'mʌfəl/ ▷ verb (muffled, muffling) 1 to make something quieter; to suppress (sound). 2 to prevent someone from saying something. • muffled adj. • muffler noun 1 a thick scarf. 2 US a SILENCER. ⓘ 15c.

• muffle up to wrap up in warm clothing, especially around the head, as a protection against the cold.

mufti /'mʌftɪ/ ▷ noun, old use civilian clothes when worn by people who usually wear a uniform. ⓘ 19c.

mug¹ ▷ noun 1 a drinking-vessel with a handle, used without a saucer. 2 a MUGFUL. 3 colloq a face or mouth. 4 noun, colloq someone who is easily fooled; a dupe. ▷ verb (mugged, mugging) to attack and rob someone violently or under threat of violence. • mugger noun. • mugging noun 1 assault and robbery. 2 an act or incident of beating up. • a mug's game a worthless or foolish activity. ⓘ 17c.

mug² ▷ verb (mugged, mugging) tr & intr (especially mug something up or mug up on something) colloq to study or revise (a subject, etc) thoroughly, especially for an examination. ⓘ 19c.

mugful /'mʌgfʊl/ ▷ noun (mugfuls) the amount a mug (see MUG¹) will hold.

muggins /'mʌgɪnz/ ▷ noun, Brit colloq a foolish person, used especially to describe oneself when one has been taken advantage of by others. ⓘ 19c.

muggy /'mʌgɪ/ ▷ adj (muggier, muggiest) said of the weather: unpleasantly warm and damp; close. • mugginess noun. ⓘ 18c: from dialect mug drizzle or mist.

mugshot ▷ noun, colloq 1 originally US a photograph of a criminal's face, taken for police records. 2 a similar style of photograph taken of any person's face.

mugwump /'mʌgwʌmp/ ▷ noun, N Amer 1 someone who is politically aloof. 2 a great man; a boss. ⓘ 19c: from Algonquian mugquomp a great chief.

Muhammadan or Mohammedan /mə'hamɪdən, mou-/ ▷ adj, old use belonging or relating to the prophet Muhammad (died AD 632), or to the religion (ISLAM) he founded. Now usually called ISLAMIC (see ISLAM). ▷ noun a MUSLIM. • Muhammadism noun Islam. ⓘ 17c as Muhammedan.

Muharram /muː'hʌrʌm/ ▷ noun, Islam 1 the first month of the Muslim year. 2 among Shiite Muslims: a period of mourning for Hasan and Husain, grandsons of Muhammad, which is marked during the first ten days of the month, by processions in which the faithful beat their breasts or whip themselves and fast on the ninth day. ⓘ 19c: from Arabic muharram sacred.

mujaheddin, mujahedin or mujahadeen /muːdʒəhə'diːn/ ▷ plural noun (usually the Mujaheddin) in Afghanistan, Iran and Pakistan: Muslim fundamentalist guerrillas who united to wage a JIHAD to defeat the Soviet invaders of Afghanistan after the 1979 invasion. ⓘ 1950s: from Arabic mujahidin fighters of a jihad.

mulatto /mʊ'latou, mjʊ-/ ▷ noun (mulattos or mulattoes) old use, now usually offensive a person of mixed race, especially someone with one black and one white parent. ▷ adj relating to a mulatto. ⓘ 16c: from Spanish mulato young mule.

mulberry /'mʌlbərɪ/ ▷ noun 1 a deciduous tree of temperate regions that produces small edible purple berries. 2 such a berry. 3 a dark purple colour. ▷ adj 1 belonging or relating to the tree or its berries. 2 having a dark purple colour. ⓘ 14c: from Latin morum the mulberry.

mulch /mʌltʃ/ ▷ noun straw, compost, shredded bark, etc laid on the soil around plants to retain moisture and prevent the growth of weeds. ▷ verb (mulches, mulched, mulching) to cover (soil, etc) with mulch. ⓘ 17c: from obsolete mulch soft.

mulct /mʌlkt/ formal or old use ▷ noun a fine or penalty. ▷ verb (mulcted, mulcting) 1 to fine someone. 2 (usually mulct someone of something) to deprive them of it, especially by swindling them. ⓘ 16c: from Latin mulcta fine.

mule¹ /mjuːl/ ▷ noun 1 the offspring of a male donkey and a female horse, used as a working animal in many countries. 2 a stubborn person. See also MULISH. 3 slang someone who smuggles drugs into a country for a dealer. 4 a cotton-spinning machine that produces yarn on spindles. Also called spinning mule. 5 especially as adj a hybrid, such as a cross between a canary and another finch (a mule canary). ⓘ Anglo-Saxon mul, from Latin mulus or mula.

mule² /mjuːl/ ▷ noun a shoe or slipper with no back part covering the heel. ⊙ 16c: 15c, meaning 'a chilblain on the heel': from French mules chilblains.

muleteer /mjuːlə'tɪə(r)/ ▷ noun someone whose job is to drive mules. See MULE¹.

mulish /'mjuːlɪʃ/ ▷ adj stubborn; obstinate. ● mulishly adverb. ● mulishness noun. ⊙ 18c: from MULE¹ 2.

mull¹ ▷ verb (mulled, mulling) (now always mull something over) to consider it carefully; to ponder on it. ⊙ 19c.

mull² ▷ verb (mulled, mulling) to spice, sweeten and warm (wine or beer). ● mulled adj □ mulled wine. ⊙ 17c.

mull³ ▷ noun, Scots a headland or promontory □ the Mull of Kintyre. ⊙ 14c: from Gaelic maol.

mullah /'mʌlə, 'mʊlə/ ▷ noun 1 a Muslim scholar and adviser in Islamic religion and sacred law. 2 a title of respect used for such a scholar or adviser. ⊙ 17c: from Arabic maula.

mullein /'mʌlɪn/ ▷ noun any of several tall stiff yellow-flowered, woolly plants of the Mediterranean area, especially AARON'S ROD. ⊙ 15c: from French moleine.

mullet /'mʌlɪt/ ▷ noun any of a family of thick-bodied edible marine fish, eg the red mullet. ⊙ 15c: from French mulet, from Latin mullus.

mulligatawny /mʌlɪgə'tɔːnɪ/ ▷ noun, cookery (in full mulligatawny soup) a thick curry-flavoured meat soup, originally made in E India from chicken stock. ⊙ 18c: from Tamil milagu-tannir pepper-water.

mullion /'mʌljən/ ▷ noun, archit a vertical bar or post separating the panes or casements of a window. ● mullioned adj said of a window: having mullions. ⊙ 14c: from French moinel.

mullock /'mʌlək/ ▷ noun, Austral rubbish, especially mining refuse. ● poke mullock at someone colloq to mock or ridicule them. See also POKE BORAK AT SOMEONE at BORAK. ⊙ 14c: from obsolete or dialect mull dust.

multi- /'mʌltɪ/ or (before a vowel) mult- prefix, denoting many □ multicoloured. ⊙ From Latin multus much.

multi-access see under MULTI-USER.

multicellular ▷ adj, biol said of an organism, etc: having or made up of many cells.

multicoloured ▷ adj having many colours.

multicultural ▷ adj said especially of a society, community, etc: made up of, involving or relating to several distinct racial or religious cultures, etc. Compare MONOCULTURAL. ● multiculturalism noun the policy of accommodating any number of distinct cultures within one society without prejudice or discrimination. ● multiculturalist adj, noun.

multidimensional ▷ adj 1 having several aspects or dimensions □ a multidimensional argument. 2 geom having or relating to more than three DIMENSIONS.

multidirectional ▷ adj extending in a number of directions.

multidisciplinary ▷ adj, education involving a combination of several academic disciplines, methods, etc.

multifarious /mʌltɪ'feərɪəs/ ▷ adj, formal consisting of many different kinds; very varied. ● multifariously ▷ adverb. ● multifariousness noun. ⊙ 16c: from Latin multifarius manifold.

multiform ▷ adj, formal having many different forms or shapes. ● multiformity noun.

multigrade ▷ adj said of a motor oil: with a viscosity that matches the properties of several separate grades of motor oil.

multigravida /mʌltɪ'gravɪdə/ ▷ noun (multigravidae /-diː/ or multigravidas) obstetrics a pregnant woman who has had one or more previous pregnancies. Compare MULTIPARA, PRIMIGRAVIDA. ⊙ 19c: Latin, from gravida pregnant.

multigym ▷ noun an apparatus consisting of an arrangement of weights and levers, designed for exercising and toning up all the muscles of the body.

multilateral ▷ adj 1 involving or affecting several people, groups, parties or nations □ a multilateral treaty. 2 many-sided. ● multilateralism noun 1 econ support for an economic trading system where many countries are encouraged to trade with each other. 2 the quality of being multilateral. ● multilateralist noun, adj. ● multilaterally adverb. ⊙ 17c.

multilingual ▷ adj 1 written or expressed in several different languages. 2 said of a person: able to speak several different languages. See also POLYGLOT. Compare BILINGUAL, MONOLINGUAL, TRILINGUAL. ● multilingualism noun. ● multilinguist noun.

multimedia ▷ adj 1 in entertainment, education, etc: involving the use of a combination of different media, eg TV, radio, slides, hi-fi, visual arts. 2 computing said of a computer system: able to present and manipulate data in a variety of forms, eg text, graphics and sound, often simultaneously. ▷ singular noun a number of different media taken collectively.

multimillionaire ▷ noun someone whose wealth is valued at several million pounds, dollars, etc.

multinational ▷ adj said especially of a large business company: operating in several different countries. ▷ noun a multinational corporation, business or organization.

multinational corporation ▷ noun a large business company which has production and/or distribution operations in several countries, via subsidiaries, holding companies, etc.

multipara /mʌl'tɪpərə/ ▷ noun (multiparae /-riː/ or multiparas) obstetrics a woman who has given birth for the second or subsequent time, or is about to do so. Compare MULTIGRAVIDA, PRIMIPARA. ⊙ 19c: Latin, from parere to bring forth.

multiparous /mʌl'tɪpərəs/ ▷ adj, zool said of a mammal: producing several young at one birth. ⊙ 17c: from Latin multiparus, from Latin parus bearing.

multipartite /mʌltɪ'pɑːtaɪt/ ▷ adj divided into many parts or segments. ⊙ 18c: from Latin partitus divided.

multiparty ▷ adj, politics 1 said of a state, etc: having a political system that contains more than one organized party. 2 made up of several parties or members of several parties.

multiple /'mʌltɪpəl/ ▷ adj 1 having, involving or affecting many parts. 2 many, especially more than several. 3 multiplied or repeated. ▷ noun 1 math a number or expression for which a given number or expression is a FACTOR (sense 2), eg 24 is a multiple of 12. See also LOWEST COMMON MULTIPLE. 2 colloq a MULTIPLE SHOP. ⊙ 17c: from French, from Latin multiplus manifold.

multiple-choice ▷ adj said of a test, exam or question: giving a list of possible answers from which the candidate has to try to select the correct one.

multiple personality ▷ noun, psychol a condition in which two or more distinct personalities or types of behaviour co-exist in or are displayed by a single person. Also called split personality. Compare SCHIZOPHRENIA.

multiple sclerosis ▷ noun (abbreviation MS) a progressive disease of the central nervous system caused by degeneration of the MYELIN SHEATH that encloses the NEURONEs in the brain and spinal cord, producing symptoms such as inability to coordinate movements, weakness of the muscles, speech difficulties, blurring of vision and an abnormal tingling sensation. Formerly called disseminated sclerosis.

multiple shop and multiple store ▷ noun, chiefly Brit a CHAIN STORE. Usually shortened to MULTIPLE.

multiplex /ˈmʌltɪpleks/ ▷ noun (multiplexes) 1 a a large cinema building divided into several smaller cinemas; b as adj ▫ multiplex cinema. 2 a telecomm a system in which two or more signals may be sent simultaneously on one communications channel; b as adj ▫ multiplex transmission. ▷ verb (multiplexes, multiplexed, multiplexing) telecomm to incorporate or transmit (two or more signals) in a multiplex. ▷ adj, formal having very many parts; manifold; complex. • multiplexer noun, telecomm. ⓘ 16c in obsolete mathematical sense, meaning MULTIPLE: Latin, meaning 'of many kinds', from -plex -fold, from plicare to fold.

multipliable and multiplicable see under MULTIPLY multiplicand /mʌltɪplɪˈkand/ ▷ noun, math a number to be multiplied by a second number (the MULTIPLIER). ⓘ 16c: from Latin multiplicare to MULTIPLY.

multiplication /mʌltɪplɪˈkeɪʃən/ ▷ noun 1 math a an operation in which one number is added to itself as many times as is indicated by a second number, written using the MULTIPLICATION SIGN; b the process of performing this operation. Compare DIVISION. 2 the act or process of increasing in number; breeding. ⓘ 14c: French, from Latin multiplicare to MULTIPLY.

multiplication sign ▷ noun, math the symbol × used between two numbers to indicate that they are to be multiplied, as in 2 × 2 = 4.

multiplication table ▷ noun, math a table that lists the products of multiplying pairs of numbers together, especially all pairs from 1 to 12.

multiplicity /mʌltɪˈplɪsɪtɪ/ ▷ noun (multiplicities) formal 1 a great number and variety. 2 the state of being many and various. ⓘ 16c: from Latin multiplicitas; see MULTIPLEX.

multiplier /ˈmʌltɪplaɪə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 math a number indicating by how many times another number (the MULTIPLICAND), to which it is attached by a multiplication sign, is to be multiplied. 2 a person or thing that multiplies. 3 physics a device or instrument that intensifies some effect.

multiply /ˈmʌltɪplaɪ/ ▷ verb (multiplies, multiplied, multiplying) 1 (especially multiply something by something) a to add (one number or amount) to itself a specified number of times ▫ Two multiplied by two equals four; b (sometimes multiply something and something together) to combine (two numbers) by the process of MULTIPLICATION. 2 intr to increase in number, especially by breeding. • multipliable or multiplicable /-ˈplɪkəbəl/ adj. ⓘ 13c as multiplien: from French multiplier, from Latin multiplicare, from plicare to fold.

multiprogramming ▷ noun, computing the simultaneous execution of two or more programs by a single CPU, usually achieved by carrying out several instructions from one program, and then rapidly switching to the next one.

multipurpose ▷ adj having many uses.

multiracial ▷ adj for, including, or consisting of, people of many different races. • multiracialism noun the policy of recognizing and responding to the rights of all members of a multiracial society.

multiskilling ▷ noun the training of employees in a variety of skills so that they can be used for several different tasks.

multi-stage ▷ adj 1 said of a process, etc: made up of a series of distinct parts. 2 aerospace said of a rocket, etc: consisting of a number of parts that fall off in a planned sequence during the course of the flight.

multistorey ▷ adj said of a building: having many floors or levels. ▷ noun (multistoreys) colloq a car park that has several levels.

multitasking ▷ noun, computing the action of running several processes or jobs simultaneously on one system.

multi-track ▷ adj said of a recording: made up of several or many different tracks blended together. ▷ noun a recording of this kind. ▷ verb to make a recording of this kind. • multitracked adj. • multitracking noun.

multitude /ˈmʌltɪtʃuːd/ ▷ noun 1 a great number. 2 a huge crowd of people. 3 (the multitude) ordinary people. • multitudinous /-ˈtʃuːdɪnəs/ adj very numerous. • multitudinously adverb. • multitudinousness noun. ⓘ 14c: French, from Latin multitudo, multitudinis, from multus much.

multi-user ▷ adj, computing said of a system: consisting of several terminals linked to a central computer, allowing access by several users at the same time. Also called multi-access. See also TIME-SHARING 2.

multivalent ▷ adj, chem having a VALENCY greater than one. Also called polyvalent. • multivalence or multivalency noun. ⓘ 19c.

multi-vision ▷ noun, telecomm a technique of audio-visual presentation in which groups of slide projectors are programmed to show a complex sequence of images on a wide screen with accompanying sound from tape recording.

multivitamin ▷ noun a pill containing a combination of different vitamins, taken as a dietary supplement. ⓘ 1940s.

mum[1] ▷ noun 1 colloq a mother. 2 a term used to address or refer to one's own mother. See also MA, MOTHER, MUMMY. N Amer equivalent MOM. ⓘ 19c: shortened from MUMMY[1].

mum[2] ▷ adj, colloq silent, not speaking ▫ keep mum about it. • mum's the word! colloq an entreaty, warning or reminder to someone to keep quiet about something. ⓘ 14c: imitating a sound produced with closed lips.

mum[3] see MA'AM

mumble /ˈmʌmbəl/ ▷ verb (mumbled, mumbling) tr & intr to speak or say something unclearly, especially with the mouth partly closed. ▷ noun the sound of unclear, muffled or hushed speech. • mumbler noun. • mumbling noun, adj. • mumblingly adverb. ⓘ 14c: from MUM[2].

mumbo-jumbo /mʌmboʊ ˈdʒʌmboʊ/ ▷ noun (mumbo-jumbos) colloq 1 foolish talk, especially of a religious or spiritual kind. 2 baffling jargon. 3 something, eg a tribal statue, treated as an object of worship. ⓘ 18c in sense 3.

mu meson see under MUON

mummer /ˈmʌmə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 historical a an actor in a traditional mimed folk play, usually performed at Christmas; b in medieval England: one of a group of masked actors who visited houses during winter festivals, distributing gifts and performing dances, etc. 2 a disguised child taking part in traditional merrymaking during religious festivals, especially at Hallowe'en; a guiser. • mumming noun. ⓘ 15c: from French momeur, from momer to mime.

mummery noun (mummeries) 1 a performance by a group of mummers. 2 derog ridiculous or pretentious ceremony.

mummify /ˈmʌmɪfaɪ/ ▷ verb (mummifies, mummified, mummifying) to preserve (a corpse) as a MUMMY[2]. • mummification /-fɪˈkeɪʃən/ noun. • mummified adj said of a body, tissue, etc: dried up; shrivelled. ⓘ 17c.

mummy[1] /ˈmʌmɪ/ ▷ noun (mummies) chiefly Brit 1 a child's word for mother. 2 a term used to address or refer to one's own mother. Often shortened to MUM. N Amer equivalent MOMMY. ⓘ 18c: originally a dialect alteration of MAMA.

mummy[2] /ˈmʌmɪ/ ▷ noun (mummies) especially in ancient Egypt: a human or animal corpse (with the internal organs removed), preserved with embalming spices and bandaged, in preparation for burial. ⓘ 15c: from French mumie, from Arabic and Persian mumiya, from Persian mum wax.

mumps /mʌmps/ ▷ singular noun (also the mumps) medicine an infectious viral disease, mainly affecting children, that causes fever, headache and painful swelling of the salivary glands on one or both sides of the cheeks and under the jaw, and in older males, swelling and inflammation of one or both testes. ⓘ 16c: from obsolete mump a grimace, and archaic mump to grimace.

mumsy /ˈmʌmzɪ/ ▷ adj (mumsier, mumsiest) colloq 1 homely; comfy. 2 maternal, in an old-fashioned cosy way. ⓘ 19c as noun, an affectionate variant of MUM[1].

munch /mʌntʃ/ ▷ verb (munches, munched, munching) tr & intr to chew with a steady movement of the jaws, especially noisily. • muncher noun. ⓘ 14c.

Munchausen syndrome /ˈmʌntʃaʊzən —/ or Munchausen's syndrome ▷ noun, psychol a disorder in which a person pretends to have a serious physical illness or injury, and simulates all the appropriate symptoms, in order to obtain hospital treatment. ⓘ 1950s: named after Baron Karl von Munchausen, the hero of a series of wildly improbable adventure stories written in English by the German R E Raspe (1737–94).

Munchausen by proxy ▷ noun (in full Munchausen's syndrome by proxy) psychol a disorder in which a person, often someone in the medical profession, induces illness, or inflicts injury on, someone else, especially a child or someone who is already ill or injured.

munchies /ˈmʌntʃɪz/ ▷ plural noun, colloq 1 (the munchies) a strong craving for food, especially one that is alcohol- or drug-induced. 2 food to snack on; nibbles. ⓘ 1970s: from MUNCH.

mundane /mʌnˈdeɪn/ ▷ adj 1 ordinary; dull; everyday. 2 belonging or relating to this world, not another, spiritual world. • mundanely adverb. • mundaneness or mundanity /mʌnˈdanɪtɪ/ noun. ⓘ 15c: from French mondain, from Latin mundus world.

mung bean /mʌŋ —, mʊŋ —/ ▷ noun 1 an E Asian plant that produces beans and beansprouts. 2 the edible green or yellow bean of this plant. See also BEANSPROUT. ⓘ 19c: Hindi mung.

municipal /mjuˈnɪsɪpəl/ ▷ adj belonging or relating to, or controlled by, the local government of a town or region. • municipally adverb. ⓘ 16c: from Latin municipalis, from municeps an inhabitant of a free town, from municipium a free town.

municipality /mjuːnɪsɪˈpalɪtɪ/ ▷ noun (municipalities) 1 a town or region that has its own local government. 2 the local government itself. ⓘ 18c.

municipalize or municipalise /mjuˈnɪsɪpəlaɪz/ ▷ verb (municipalized, municipalizing) 1 to make (a town or region) into a municipality. 2 to bring something under municipal control or ownership. • municipalization noun.

munificence /mjuˈnɪfɪsəns/ ▷ noun, formal, magnificent generosity. • munificent adj extremely generous. • munificently adverb. ⓘ 16c: French, from Latin munificentia, from munificus generous, from munus gift + facere to make.

muniments /ˈmjuːnɪmənts/ ▷ plural noun, law official papers that prove ownership, especially title deeds to property. ⓘ 14c: French, from Latin munimentum title deed, from munire to fortify.

munitions /mjuˈnɪʃənz/ ▷ plural noun 1 military equipment, especially ammunition and weapons. 2 as adj (also munition) □ munitions factory □ munition worker. ⓘ 16c: French, from Latin munire to defend or fortify.

Munro /mʌnˈroʊ/ ▷ noun (Munros) Brit a Scottish mountain over 3000ft. ⓘ Early 20c: named after Sir H T Munro who compiled the original list of these (published 1891).

muntin /ˈmʌntɪn/ or munting /ˈmʌntɪŋ/ ▷ noun, archit, building a vertical framing piece that separates the panels of a door. ⓘ 14c: from French montant, from monter to rise.

muntjac or muntjak /ˈmʌntdʒak/ ▷ noun a small deer native to India and SE Asia whose face has a V-shaped ridge with the arms of the 'V' continuing as projecting, bony columns, the ends of which bear short antlers in the male. ⓘ 18c: from Sunda (a language of Java) minchek.

muon /ˈmjuːɒn/ ▷ noun, physics an elementary particle that behaves like a heavy ELECTRON, but decays to form an electron and NEUTRINO. Formerly called mu meson. • muonic /mjuːˈɒnɪk/ adj. ⓘ 1950s: MU (sense 2) + -ON.

mural /ˈmjʊərəl/ ▷ noun (also mural painting) a painting that is painted directly on to a wall. ▷ adj, formal belonging or relating to, on or attached to, a wall or walls. • muralist noun someone who paints or designs murals. 15c: from French muraille, from Latin murus wall.

murder /ˈmɜːdə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 the act of unlawfully and intentionally killing a person. 2 law a in England and Wales: the killing of a person where there has been MALICE AFORETHOUGHT; b in Scotland and many US states: homicide committed purposefully and knowingly. Compare HOMICIDE, MANSLAUGHTER. 3 colloq slaughter or death that is felt to be needless, brutal or blameworthy, as a result of recklessness, excessive or foolish behaviour, etc. 4 colloq something, or a situation, which causes hardship or difficulty □ The traffic in town was murder today. ▷ verb (murdered, murdering) 1 tr & intr to kill someone unlawfully and intentionally. 2 colloq to punish someone severely or cruelly; to be furious with them □ I'll murder him when he gets home. 3 colloq to spoil or ruin something (eg a piece of music), by performing it very badly. 4 colloq to defeat someone easily and by a huge margin □ Aberdeen murdered Rangers six nil. • murderer noun. • murderess noun. • get away with murder colloq to behave very badly or dishonestly and not be caught or punished. • murder will out 1 murder cannot remain hidden. 2 (also truth will out) the truth will always come to light. • scream, shout or cry blue murder colloq to protest loudly or angrily. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon morthor, from morth death.

murderous /ˈmɜːdrəs/ ▷ adj 1 said of a person, weapon, etc: intending, intended for, or capable of, causing or committing murder □ a murderous look in his eyes. 2 colloq very unpleasant; causing hardship or difficulty. • murderously adverb. • murderousness noun.

murine /ˈmjʊəraɪn, -rɪn/ ▷ adj 1 mouselike. 2 zool belonging to the mouse family or subfamily. ⓘ 17c: from Latin murinus, from mus, muris a mouse.

murk or (rarely) mirk /mɜːk/ ▷ noun darkness; gloom. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon mirce.

murky or (rarely) mirky /ˈmɜːkɪ/ ▷ adj (murkier, murkiest) 1 dark; gloomy. 2 said of water: dark and dirty. 3 suspiciously vague or unknown; shady □ her murky past. • murkily adverb. • murkiness noun.

murmur /ˈmɜːmə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 a quiet, continuous sound, eg of running water or low voices. 2 anything said in a low, indistinct voice. 3 a complaint, especially a subdued, muttering one. 4 medicine in AUSCULTATION: an abnormal rustling sound made by the heart, often indicating the presence of disease. Also called heart murmur. ▷ verb (murmured, murmuring) 1 tr & intr to speak (words) softly and indistinctly. 2 intr to complain or grumble, especially in a subdued, muttering way. • murmuring noun, adj. • murmuringly adverb. • murmurous adj. ⓘ 14c: from French murmurer to murmur, from Latin murmurare, from murmur a rumbling noise.

Murphy's law /ˈmɜːfɪz —/ ▷ noun, originally US another name for SOD'S LAW. ⓘ 1950s: from the common Irish surname Murphy.

murrain /ˈmʌrɪn, ˈmʌreɪn/ ▷ noun, vet medicine any infectious cattle disease, especially FOOT-AND-MOUTH DISEASE. ⓘ 14c in obsolete sense 'plague': from French morine a plague, from Latin mori to die.

mus. ▷ abbreviation 1 music. 2 musical.

MusB or MusBac. ▷ abbreviation: Musicae Baccalaureus (Latin), Bachelor of Music.

muscadel see MUSCATEL

Muscadet /ˈmʌskədeɪ/ ▷ noun 1 a dry white wine from the Loire region of France. 2 the variety of white grape from which it is produced. ⓘ 1920s: French, from Latin muscus musk.

muscat /ˈmʌskat, ˈmʌskət/ ▷ noun 1 (also muscat wine) muscatel. 2 (also muscat grape) a variety of white grape with a musky smell, used in wine-making and dried for raisins. ⓘ 16c: Provençal, literally 'musky'.

muscatel /mʌskəˈtɛl, ˈmʌskətɛl/ and muscadel /-dɛl/ ▷ noun a rich sweet white wine made from MUSCAT grapes. ⓘ 14c: French, from Provençal muscadel, diminutive of muscat.

muscle /ˈmʌsəl/ ▷ noun 1 an animal tissue composed of bundles of fibres that are capable of contracting to produce movement of part of the body. See also INVOLUNTARY MUSCLE, VOLUNTARY MUSCLE, CARDIAC MUSCLE. 2 a body structure or organ composed of this tissue, eg the BICEPS. 3 bodily strength. 4 power or influence of any kind □ financial muscle. ▷ verb (muscled, muscling) colloq (always muscle in on something) to force one's way into it; to try to grab a share of or part in it. ● muscly /ˈmʌsəlɪ/ adj. ⓘ 16c: from Latin musculus, diminutive of mus a mouse, from the shape of some muscles.

muscle-bound ▷ adj having over-enlarged muscles that are stiff and difficult to move.

muscleman ▷ noun a man with very big muscles, especially one employed to intimidate people.

muscovado /mʌskəˈvɑːdoʊ/ ▷ noun (muscovados) sugar in its unrefined state after evaporating sugar-cane juice and draining off the molasses. Also called muscovado sugar. ⓘ 17c: from Spanish mascabado of the lowest quality.

Muscovite /ˈmʌskəvaɪt/ ▷ noun a citizen or inhabitant of, or person born in, Moscow, capital of the Russian Federation. ▷ adj belonging or relating to Moscow, or its inhabitants. ⓘ 16c: from Muscovy, an old French name for Russia, from Latin Moscovia.

muscovite /ˈmʌskəvaɪt/ ▷ noun, geol a colourless silvery-grey, or pale brown, heat-resistant mineral of the MICA group, used as an electrical and heat insulator, as a filler in paint, in wallpaper manufacture and roofing materials, etc. ⓘ 19c: from Muscovy glass, from Muscovy an old French name for Russia.

muscular /ˈmʌskjʊlə(r)/ ▷ adj 1 belonging or relating to, or consisting of, muscle. 2 having well-developed muscles; strong; brawny. ● muscularity /-ˈlarɪtɪ/ noun. ● muscularly adverb.

muscular dystrophy ▷ noun, medicine any of various forms of a hereditary disease in which there is progressive wasting of certain muscles, which are eventually replaced by fatty tissue. ⓘ 19c.

musculature /ˈmʌskjʊlətʃə(r)/ ▷ noun (musculatures) the arrangement, or degree of development, of muscles in a body or organ.

MusD or MusDoc. ▷ abbreviation: Musicae Doctor (Latin), Doctor of Music.

Muse /mjuːz/ ▷ noun 1 Greek mythol, also literary, art, etc any of the nine goddesses of the arts, said to be a source of creative inspiration to all artists, especially poets. 2 literary (especially the Muse) a a poetic genius or inspiration; b poetry or art. ⓘ 14c: French, from Latin Musa, from Greek mousa.

muse /mjuːz/ ▷ verb (mused, musing) 1 intr (often muse on something) to reflect or ponder silently. 2 to say something in a reflective way. 3 intr to gaze contemplatively. ● musing adj thoughtful; reflective. ▷ noun 1 (musings) literary thoughts. 2 the act of musing. ● musingly adverb. ⓘ 14c: from French muser to loiter or waste time.

museum /mjuˈzɪəm/ ▷ noun a place where objects of artistic, scientific or historical interest are displayed to the public, preserved and studied. ⓘ 17c: Latin, from Greek mouseion temple of the Muses, a place dedicated to study.

museum piece ▷ noun 1 an article or specimen displayed in a museum, or something fit for this because of its special quality, age or interest. 2 humorous, colloq any very old or old-fashioned person or thing.

mush[1] /mʌʃ/ ▷ noun 1 a soft half-liquid mass of anything. 2 derog, colloq sloppy sentimentality. 3 N Amer a kind of thick cornmeal porridge. ⓘ 17c.

mush[2] /mʌʃ/ ▷ exclamation, N Amer used especially to a team of dogs: go on! go faster! ▷ verb (mushes, mushed, mushing) intr to travel on a sledge pulled by dogs. ▷ noun a journey on a sledge pulled by dogs. ⓘ 19c.

mushroom /ˈmʌʃrʊm, -ruːm/ ▷ noun 1 a any of various FUNGI that produce a fast-growing fruiting body consisting of a short white stem supporting a pale fleshy umbrella-shaped cap with numerous brown or pinkish spore-bearing gills on the underside. See also TOADSTOOL. b the edible species of such fungi. Also as adj □ mushroom omelette. 2 anything resembling this in shape, eg a wooden article used for darning. Also as adj □ mushroom cloud. 3 anything resembling this in the speed of its growth or development. Also as adj □ mushroom business. 4 a pinkish-brown colour. ▷ adj having a pinkish-brown colour. ▷ verb (mushroomed, mushrooming) intr to develop or increase with alarming speed. See also MAGIC MUSHROOM. ⓘ 15c: from French mousseron.

mushroom cloud ▷ noun a huge, mushroom-shaped cloud of radioactive dust produced by a nuclear explosion. ⓘ 1950s.

mushy /ˈmʌʃɪ/ ▷ adj (mushier, mushiest) 1 in a soft half-liquid state; consisting of or like MUSH[1]. 2 sentimental in a sickly way.

music /ˈmjuːzɪk/ ▷ noun 1 the art of making sound in a rhythmically organized, harmonious form, either sung or produced with instruments, and usually communicating some idea or emotion. 2 such sound, especially that produced by instruments. 3 a any written form or composition in which such sound is expressed; b musical forms or compositions collectively. 4 the performance of musical compositions. 5 written or printed copies of such compositions; sheet music, musical scores, etc collectively. 6 pleasing, harmonious or melodic sound. Also as adj □ music lesson. ● face the music see under FACE. ● music to one's ears news, etc that is particularly welcome. ⓘ 13c: from French musique, from Greek mousike relating to the MUSES.

musical /ˈmjuːzɪkəl/ ▷ adj 1 consisting of, involving, relating to or producing music. 2 pleasant to hear; melodious. 3 said of a person: having a talent or aptitude for music. ▷ noun a play or film that features singing and dancing. ● musicality /-ˈkalɪtɪ/ noun musical quality. ● musically /ˈmjuːzɪklɪ/ adverb. ⓘ 15c.

musical box and music box ▷ noun a small box containing a mechanical device that plays music when the box is opened. The device consists of a drum with teeth which pluck at a comb-like metal plate. ⓘ 19c.

musical bumps ▷ singular noun a children's party game that involves the participants dancing or running round while the music plays. When the music stops, the object is to drop to the floor as quickly as possible, the last player to do so being eliminated. ⓘ 1930s.

musical chairs ▷ singular noun 1 a party game that involves the participants walking or running round a decreasing number of chairs while the music plays. When the music stops, the object is to grab a chair, the player left without a seat being eliminated. 2 a series of position-changes and shuffles involving a number of people, when seen as rather comical or amusing. ⓘ 1920s.

musical comedy ▷ noun a form of light entertainment, derived from BURLESQUE and light opera, consisting of humorous or sentimental songs, dance and dialogue, held together by a flimsy plot.

musical director ▷ noun the conductor of an orchestra in a theatre, production, etc.

musical instrument see INSTRUMENT musical statues see STATUE

music box see MUSICAL BOX

music centre ▷ noun, dated a hi-fi that incorporates an amplifier, radio, record-player, cassette recorder in one unit. Compare MIDI SYSTEM, STACK (sense 6), STEREO. ⓘ 1970s.

music drama ▷ noun 1 a term used to describe opera in which the musical, dramatic and visual elements are given equal emphasis. 2 an opera of this genre. Compare MUSIC THEATRE. ⓘ 19c: from German Musikdrama, a term coined by Wagner (see WAGNERIAN) to describe his later operas.

music hall ▷ noun 1 VARIETY (sense 4) entertainment. Also as adj ▫ music-hall act. 2 a theatre in which variety entertainment can be seen.

musician /mjuˈzɪʃən/ ▷ noun 1 someone who is skilled in music, especially in performing or composing it. 2 someone who performs or composes music as their profession. • musicianly adj. • musicianship noun skill in music.

musicology /mjuːzɪˈkɒlədʒɪ/ ▷ noun the academic study of music in all its aspects. • musicological adj. • musicologist noun. ⓘ Early 20c.

music stool see under PIANO STOOL music theatre ▷ noun especially in avant-garde music: a form of staged dramatic performance with music and usually singing, presented on a smaller scale than traditional opera. Compare MUSIC DRAMA.

music therapy ▷ noun, psychol the use of music in the treatment, etc, of people with physical or mental disabilities, and sometimes used as an aid to recovery from mental disorders.

musing and musingly see under MUSE musique concrète / French myzik kɔ̃kret/ ▷ noun a type of mid-20c music made up of recorded sounds, not always musical ones, from various sources, which are mixed, distorted and manipulated on tape by the composer. Also called concrete music. ⓘ 1950s: French, literally 'concrete music'.

musk ▷ noun 1 a strong-smelling substance much used in perfumes, secreted by the glands of various animals, especially the male MUSK DEER. 2 any similar synthetic substance. 3 the smell of such substances. 4 as adj having or producing musk, or a scent of or like musk ▫ musk gland ▫ musk orchid. ⓘ 14c: from French musc, from Latin muscus, perhaps from Sanskrit muska testicle or scrotum, because of the resemblance of the deer's musk gland in its sac to this.

musk deer ▷ noun a small, hornless, central Asian mountain deer. See also MUSK.

musket /ˈmʌskət/ ▷ noun, historical an early rifle-like gun that was loaded through the barrel and fired from the shoulder, used by soldiers between the 16c and 19c. • musketeer noun a soldier armed with a musket. • musketry noun 1 muskets. 2 the use of, or skill in using, muskets. 3 a body of troops armed with muskets. ⓘ 16c: from French mousquet, from Italian moschetto a kind of sparrowhawk.

musk melon ▷ noun 1 any of various common varieties of melon, including the honeydew. 2 the fruit of any of these melon plants. ⓘ 16c: so called because of the musky smell of the flesh of a particular variety.

musk ox ▷ noun a long-haired ox of Canada and Greenland that emits a musky smell during rutting.

muskrat /ˈmʌskrat/ and musquash /ˈmʌskwɒʃ/ ▷ noun 1 a large, N American water rodent, which produces a musky smell. 2 its highly-prized thick brown fur, used to make clothes. ⓘ 17c: from Abnaki (an Algonquian language) muskwessu.

musk rose ▷ noun a Mediterranean rambling rose whose flowers have a musky scent.

musky /ˈmʌskɪ/ ▷ adj (muskier, muskiest) containing, or like the smell of, musk. • muskily adverb. • muskiness noun.

Muslim /ˈmʊzlɪm, ˈmʌz-/ and Moslem /mɒz-/ ▷ noun a follower of the religion of Islam. ▷ adj belonging or relating to Muslims or to Islam. See also ISLAM, MUHAMMADAN. ⓘ 17c: from Arabic muslim, literally 'one who submits', from salma to submit (to God).

> Moslem, Muslim, Mohammedan
>
> Both Moslem and Muslim are correct, but the second is now more common than the first. The term Mohammedan is considered offensive by many Muslims and is best avoided.

muslin /ˈmʌzlɪn/ ▷ noun a fine cotton cloth with a gauze-like appearance. Also as adj. ⓘ 17c: from French mousseline, from Italian mussolino, from Mussolo the town of Mosul in Iraq, where it was originally produced.

muso /ˈmjuːzoʊ/ ▷ noun (musos) slang 1 Brit derog a pop or rock musician who concentrates too much on technique. 2 especially Austral a musician or music enthusiast. ⓘ 1960s: from MUSIC.

musquash see MUSKRAT

muss N Amer, especially US, colloq ▷ verb (musses, mussed, mussing) (usually muss something up) to make something (especially clothes or hair) untidy; to mess up or disarrange. ▷ noun (musses) disorder or confusion; mess. • mussed-up adj. • mussy adj. ⓘ 19c.

mussel /ˈmʌsəl/ ▷ noun 1 a marine BIVALVE mollusc, especially the common or edible mussel, that has a bluish-black shell and uses a mass of tough threads to anchor itself to rocks, etc. 2 a similar freshwater bivalve mollusc which forms MOTHER-OF-PEARL on the inside of its shell. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon muscle or musle: from Latin musculus, diminutive of mus mouse.

must[1] /mʌst/ ▷ auxiliary verb 1 used to express necessity ▫ I must earn some extra money ▫ Must you leave so soon? 2 used to express duty or obligation ▫ You must help him. 3 used to express certainty ▫ You must be Charles. 4 used to express determination ▫ I must remember to go to the bank. 5 used to express probability ▫ She must be there by now. 6 used to express inevitability ▫ We must all die some time. 7 used to express an invitation or suggestion ▫ You must come and see us soon ▫ You must read her other books. Also used with the main verb merely implied ▫ I must away. See also MUSTN'T. ▷ noun (always a must) a necessity; something essential ▫ Fitness is a must in professional sport. • must needs see NEEDS MUST at NEED. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon moste, originally as past tense of mot MAY.

must[2] /mʌst/ ⊳ noun the juice of grapes or other fruit before it is completely fermented to become wine. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon: from Latin mustum vinum new wine.

must[3] /mʌst/ ⊳ noun mustiness; mould. ⓘ 17c.

must[4] see MUSTH

mustache and mustached the N Amer spelling of MOUSTACHE and MOUSTACHED.

mustachio /məˈstɑːʃɪoʊ/ ⊳ noun (often mustachios) an elaborately curled moustache. • mustachioed adj. ⓘ 16c: from Spanish mostacho and Italian mostaccio; see MOUSTACHE.

mustang /ˈmʌstaŋ/ ⊳ noun a small wild or half-wild horse native to the plains of the western US. ⓘ 19c: from a combination of two Spanish words, mestengo belonging to the mesta (graziers' union) + mostrenco homeless or stray.

mustard /ˈmʌstəd/ ⊳ noun 1 an annual plant native to Europe and W Asia, with bright yellow flowers. 2 a hot-tasting paste used as a condiment or seasoning, made from powdered or crushed whole seeds of black or white mustard or both, mixed with water or vinegar. Also as adj □ mustard pot. 3 a light yellow or brown colour. ⊳ adj having a light yellow or brown colour. • as keen as mustard colloq extremely keen or enthusiastic. ⓘ 13c: from French moustarde, from Latin mustum MUST[2], which was originally an ingredient of the condiment.

mustard and cress ⊳ singular noun a mixture of the seedlings of the mustard plant and cress, used as a salad vegetable.

mustard gas ⊳ noun a highly poisonous gas, or the colourless oily liquid of which it is the vapour, that causes severe blistering of the skin, widely used as a CHEMICAL WARFARE agent in World War I.

muster /ˈmʌstə(r)/ ⊳ verb (mustered, mustering) 1 tr & intr said especially of soldiers: to gather together for duty or inspection, etc. 2 (also muster something up or muster up something) to summon or gather (eg courage or energy) □ pulled with all the strength I could muster. 3 Austral, NZ to round up (livestock). ⊳ noun 1 any assembly or gathering, especially of troops for duty or inspection. 2 Austral, NZ a round-up of livestock. • pass muster to be accepted as satisfactory, eg at an inspection. ⓘ 14c: from French mostre, from Latin monstrare to show.

▪ muster someone in US military to enrol or enlist them as a new recruit.

▪ muster someone out US military to discharge them from service.

musth or must /mʌst/ ⊳ noun (especially in to be in musth) a dangerous frenzied state in certain male animals, especially bull elephants in the breeding season. ⓘ 19c: from Persian and Hindi mast intoxicated.

must-have ⊳ adj referring to something that is desired by someone, eg the latest model on the market, or something indispensable to a dedicated follower of fashion □ the latest must-have hair accessory □ It's a must-have.

mustn't /ˈmʌsənt/ ⊳ contraction must not.

musty /ˈmʌstɪ/ ⊳ adj (mustier, mustiest) 1 mouldy or damp. 2 smelling or tasting stale or old. • mustily adverb. • mustiness noun. ⓘ 16c.

mutable /ˈmjuːtəbəl/ ⊳ adj subject to or able to change; variable. • mutability noun. • mutably adverb. ⓘ 14c: from Latin mutabilis, from mutare to change.

mutagen /ˈmjuːtədʒən/ ⊳ noun, biol a chemical or physical agent, such as X-ray or ultraviolet radiation, that induces or increases the frequency of mutations in living organisms, either by altering the DNA of the genes, or by damaging the chromosomes. • mutagenic adj. ⓘ 1940s: from MUTATION.

mutant /ˈmjuːtənt/ ⊳ noun a living organism or cell that carries a specific mutation of a gene which usually causes it to differ from previous generations in one particular characteristic. ⊳ adj said of an organism or cell: carrying or resulting from a mutation. ⓘ Early 20c: from Latin mutantem changing, from mutare to change.

mutate /mjuːˈteɪt/ ⊳ verb (mutated, mutating) tr & intr 1 biol to undergo or cause to undergo MUTATION (sense 1). 2 formal to change. ⓘ 19c: back-formation from MUTATION.

mutation /mjuˈteɪʃən/ ⊳ noun 1 genetics in a living organism: a change in the structure of a single gene, the arrangement of genes on a chromosome or the number of chromosomes, which may result in a change in the appearance or behaviour of the organism. 2 formal a change of any kind. 3 linguistics in Celtic languages: a change in a speech sound, especially a vowel, because of the nature of the sound next to it. 4 phonetics an UMLAUT. • mutational adj. • mutationally adverb. ⓘ 14c: from Latin mutatio, from mutare to change.

mutatis mutandis /mjuˈteɪtɪs mjuˈtandɪs/ ⊳ adverb allowing for respective differences of detail; with necessary adjustments made. ⓘ 15c: Latin, meaning 'having changed what needs to be changed'.

mute /mjuːt/ ⊳ adj (muter, mutest) 1 said of a person: physically or psychologically unable to speak; dumb. 2 silent. 3 felt, but not expressed in words □ mute anger. 4 said of a letter in a word: not sounded, like the final e in many English words, eg bite, mute. 5 law said of a person: refusing to plead. ⊳ noun 1 medicine someone who is physically unable to speak, eg as a result of deafness since birth or brain damage. 2 psychol someone who refuses to speak, eg as a result of psychological trauma or illness. 3 any of various devices that soften or deaden the sound of a musical instrument. 4 an unsounded letter in a word. ⊳ verb (muted, muting) to soften or deaden the sound of (a musical instrument). • mutely adverb. • muteness noun. • mutism noun, medicine, psychol inability or refusal to speak. ⓘ 14c: French, from Latin mutus silent.

muted ⊳ adj 1 said of sound or colour: not loud or harsh; soft. 2 said of feelings, etc: mildly expressed; not outspoken □ muted criticism.

mute swan ⊳ noun the commonest European swan, with pure white plumage and an orange bill with a black bump at the base, which despite its name has a variety of calls.

muti /ˈmuti/ ⊳ noun, S Afr 1 traditional medicine, especially that associated with witchcraft or witch doctors. 2 colloq medicine. ⓘ 19c: from Zulu umuthi tree, plant or medicine.

mutilate /ˈmjuːtɪleɪt/ ⊳ verb (mutilated, mutilating) 1 to cause severe injury to (a person or animal), especially by removing a limb or organ. 2 to damage something severely, especially to alter (eg a text, song, etc) beyond recognition. • mutilation noun 1 severe physical injury, usually visible and permanent injury. 2 severe damage. • mutilator noun. ⓘ 16c: from Latin mutilare to cut off, from mutilus maimed.

mutinous /ˈmjuːtɪnəs/ ⊳ adj 1 said of a person, soldier, crew, etc: having mutinied or likely to mutiny. 2 belonging or relating to mutiny. • mutinously adverb. • mutinousness noun.

mutiny /ˈmjuːtɪnɪ/ ⊳ noun (mutinies) rebellion, or an act of rebellion, against established authority, especially in the armed services. ⊳ verb (mutinies, mutinied, mutinying) intr to engage in mutiny. • mutineer noun. ⓘ 16c: from French mutin rebellious, from Latin movere, motum to move.

mutism see under MUTE

mutt ⊳ noun, slang 1 a dog, especially a mongrel. 2 a foolish, clumsy person. ⓘ Early 20c: shortened from MUTTONHEAD.

mutter /ˈmʌtə(r)/ ⊳ verb (muttered, muttering) 1 tr & intr to utter (words) in a quiet, barely audible or indistinct voice. 2 intr to grumble or complain, especially in a low voice. ▷ noun 1 a soft, barely audible or indistinct tone of voice. 2 a muttered complaint. • mutterer noun. • muttering noun, adj. ⓒ 14c.

mutton /ˈmʌtən/ ▷ noun the flesh of an adult sheep, used as food. • mutton dressed as lamb derog, colloq an older person, especially a woman, dressed in clothes designed or suitable for a young person, especially if they look foolish or unsightly. ⓒ 13c: from French moton sheep.

muttonchops and mutton-chop whiskers ▷ plural noun men's long side whiskers, narrow at the ears and broad and rounded at the lower jaw. ⓒ 19c; so called because their shape is similar to that of a meat chop.

muttonhead ▷ noun, derog, colloq a stupid person. • mutton-headed adj. ⓒ 19c.

mutual /ˈmjuːtʃuəl, -tjuəl/ ▷ adj 1 felt by each of two or more people about the other or others; reciprocal □ mutual admiration. 2 to, towards or of each other □ mutual supporters. 3 colloq shared by each of two or more; common □ a mutual friend. 4 finance said of a financial institution such as a building society: owned by its customers. • mutuality noun. • mutually adverb. ⓒ 15c: from French mutuel, from Latin mutuus borrowed or reciprocal.

mutual fund see under UNIT TRUST mutual inductance ▷ noun, elec engineering (SI unit HENRY) generation of ELECTROMOTIVE FORCE in one system of conductors by a variation of current in another system linked to the first by MAGNETIC FLUX.

mutual inductor ▷ noun, elec engineering a component consisting of two coils designed to have a definite MUTUAL INDUCTANCE between them.

mutual insurance ▷ noun, business a system in which the policy-holders are also the shareholders of the company, sharing its profits, etc.

mutualism ▷ noun, biol a relationship between two organisms of different species, that is beneficial to both of them. Compare SYMBIOSIS. ⓒ 19c.

mutuality and mutually see under MUTUAL muu-muu /ˈmuːmuː/ ▷ noun (muu-muus) a simple, loose, usually colourful dress, worn by women chiefly in Hawaii. ⓒ 1920s: from Hawaiian mu'u mu'u, literally 'cut off'.

muzak see under PIPED MUSIC muzzle /ˈmʌzəl/ ▷ noun 1 the projecting jaws and nose of an animal, eg a dog. 2 an arrangement of straps fitted round an animal's jaws to prevent it biting. 3 the open end of a gun barrel. ▷ verb (muzzled, muzzling) 1 to put a muzzle on (eg a dog). 2 to prevent someone from speaking or being heard; to silence or gag them. ⓒ 15c: from French musel, from Latin musellum, from musum a snout.

muzzle-loader ▷ noun a firearm that is loaded through the muzzle. Compare BREECH-LOADER. • muzzle-loading adj.

muzzy /ˈmʌzɪ/ ▷ adj (muzzier, muzziest) 1 not thinking clearly; confused. 2 blurred; hazy. • muzzily adverb. • muzziness noun. ⓒ 18c.

MVO ▷ abbreviation, Brit Member of the Royal Victorian Order.

MW ▷ abbreviation 1 IVR Malawi. 2 medium wave. 3 megawatt, or megawatts.

M-way ▷ abbreviation motorway.

mx ▷ abbreviation, physics maxwell, or maxwells.

my /maɪ/ ▷ adj 1 belonging or relating to ME □ my book. 2 used with nouns in various exclamations □ My gosh! □ My foot! 3 old use used in respectful terms of address such as my lord. 4 used in rather old-fashioned, affectionate or patronizing terms of address such as my dear. ▷ exclamation (also my word, my goodness or, more strongly, my God) expressing surprise or amazement. ⓒ 12c: from Anglo-Saxon min genitive of ME[1].

my- see under MYOmyalgia /maɪˈaldʒɪə/ ▷ noun, medicine pain in the muscles or a muscle. • myalgic adj. ⓒ 19c.

myalgic encephalomyelitis ▷ noun (abbreviation ME) a non-specific or generalized virus-associated debilitating disorder, the existence of which is debatable. It is characterized by extreme fatigue, muscular pain, lack of concentration, memory loss and depression and it may last many months. Also called postviral syndrome and chronic fatigue syndrome.

Myanmar /ˈmjanmaː(r)/ ▷ adj belonging or relating to Myanmar, a republic in SE Asia (called Burma until 1989), or its inhabitants. ▷ noun a citizen or inhabitant of, or person born in, Myanmar. See also BURMESE.

myasthenia /maɪəsˈθiːnɪə/ ▷ noun, medicine muscular weakness or debility. ⓒ 19c: Latin, from Greek astheneia weakness.

mycelium /maɪˈsiːlɪəm/ ▷ noun (mycelia /-lɪə/) biol in multicellular fungi: a mass or network of threadlike filaments or hyphae (see HYPHA) formed when the non-reproductive tissues are growing. • mycelial adj. ⓒ 19c: Latin, from MYC-.

Mycenaean /maɪsəˈniːən/ ▷ adj 1 relating to the ancient Bronze Age civilization in Greece (1500–1100 BC), known from the Homeric poems and from remains at Mycenae and other sites in S Greece. 2 belonging or relating to the ancient city of Mycenae itself or its inhabitants. ▷ noun an inhabitant of the Mycenaean world. ⓒ 16c.

myco- /maɪkoʊ, maɪkɒ/ or (before a vowel) myc- combining form, denoting fungus or mushroom. ⓒ From Greek mykes mushroom.

mycology /maɪˈkɒlədʒɪ/ ▷ noun, biol the study of fungi. • mycologic /-kəˈlɒdʒɪk/ or mycological adj. • mycologist /-ˈkɒlədʒɪst/ noun. ⓒ 19c: from Latin mycologia.

mycosis /maɪˈkoʊsɪs/ ▷ noun, pathol any disease that is due to the growth of a fungus. • mycotic /-ˈtɪk/ adj. ⓒ 19c.

mycotoxin ▷ noun, biol any poisonous substance produced by a fungus. ⓒ 1960s.

myelin /ˈmaɪəlɪn/ ▷ noun, zool, anatomy a soft white substance that forms a thin insulating sheath (myelin sheath) around the AXONS of the nerve cells of vertebrates. ⓒ 19c: German, from Greek myelos marrow.

myelitis /maɪəˈlaɪtɪs/ ▷ noun, pathol 1 inflammation of the spinal cord, which results in paralysis of the body below the affected region. 2 inflammation of the bone marrow, caused by infection, characterized by severe pain and swelling, which if untreated may result in bone deformity. See also OSTEOMYELITIS. ⓒ 19c: from Greek myelos marrow.

myeloma /maɪəˈloʊmə/ ▷ noun (myelomas or myelomata /-ˈloʊmətə/) medicine, pathol a tumour of the bone marrow, caused by the proliferation of malignant plasma cells. ⓒ 19c: from Greek myelos marrow + -OMA.

my God and my goodness see under MY mylonite /ˈmaɪlənaɪt/ ▷ noun, geol a dark fine-grained hard metamorphic rock, often banded or streaked and with a glassy appearance. ⓒ 19c: from Greek mylon mill.

myna, mynah or mina /ˈmaɪnə/ ▷ noun (mynas, mynahs, minas) any of various large, SE Asian birds of the starling family, some of which can be taught to imitate human speech. ⓒ 18c: from Hindi maina.

mynheer or meneer /maɪnˈhɪə(r), məˈnɪə(r)/ ▷ noun, S Afr a form of address for a man, used in place of SIR or, when preceding a name, MR. ⓒ 19c Afrikaans as meneer; 17c: from Dutch mijn my + heer lord.

myo- /maɪoʊ/ or (before a vowel) my- scientific combining form, denoting muscle □ myology. ⓒ From Greek mys, myos muscle.

MYOB ▷ abbreviation, colloq mind your own business. See under MIND.

myocardial infarction ▷ noun, pathol death of part of the heart muscle, usually caused by thickening and hardening of the arteries. Non technical HEART ATTACK.

myocarditis ▷ noun, pathol inflammation of the MYOCARDIUM.

myocardium ▷ noun (myocardia) anatomy the muscular tissue of the heart. • myocardiac or myocardial adj. © 19c.

myofibril /maɪoʊˈfaɪbrɪl/ ▷ noun, anatomy any of the minute filaments which together make up a single muscle fibre. © 19c.

myoglobin /maɪoʊˈgloʊbɪn/ ▷ noun, biochem a protein that stores oxygen in the muscles of vertebrates. © 1920s: German.

myopia /maɪˈoʊpɪə/ ▷ noun, ophthalmol short-sightedness, in which parallel rays of light entering the eye are brought to a focus in front of the retina rather than on it, so that distant objects appear blurred. • myopic /maɪˈɒpɪk/ adj 1 short-sighted. 2 a said of someone: unable to understand or appreciate the views, opinions, etc of others; b said of someone's outlook, attitude, etc: not admitting the views, opinions, etc of others. • myopically adverb. © 17c: Latin, from Greek myops short-sighted, from myein to shut + ops the eye.

myriad /ˈmɪrɪəd/ ▷ noun (especially myriads or a myriad of something) an exceedingly great number. ▷ adj numberless; innumerable □ her myriad admirers. © 16c: from Greek myrias ten thousand.

myriapod /ˈmɪrɪəpɒd/ ▷ noun, zool a crawling, many-legged ARTHROPOD, eg the centipede or millipede. © 19c: from Latin Myriapoda, from Greek myriopous myriopodos many-footed.

myrmidon /ˈmɜːmɪdən/ ▷ noun (sometimes Myrmidon) literary 1 a hired thug; a henchman. 2 a follower. © 17c: named after the Myrmidons of Greek mythology, a band of warriors who went to the Trojan Wars with Achilles.

myrrh /mɜː(r)/ ▷ noun 1 any of various African and Asian trees and shrubs that produce a bitter, brown, aromatic resin. 2 the resin produced by these, used in medicines, perfumes, etc. © Anglo-Saxon myrra: from Greek myrra.

myrtle /ˈmɜːtəl/ ▷ noun 1 a S European evergreen shrub with pink or white flowers and dark blue, aromatic berries. 2 any of various related shrubs. © 15c: from French myrtille, from Greek myrtos.

myself /maɪˈsɛlf, mɪ-/ ▷ pronoun 1 the reflexive form of I (used instead of me when the speaker or writer is the object of an action he or she performs) □ I did myself a favour □ I burnt myself. 2 used with I or me, to add emphasis or to clarify something □ I prefer tea myself □ I myself took no part in these events. 3 my normal self □ I am not myself today. 4 (also by myself) alone; without any help. © 14c: Anglo-Saxon me sylf.

mysterious /mɪˈstɪərɪəs/ ▷ adj 1 difficult or impossible to understand or explain; deeply curious. 2 creating, containing or suggesting mystery. • mysteriously adverb. • mysteriousness noun.

mystery /ˈmɪstərɪ/ ▷ noun (mysteries) 1 an event or phenomenon that cannot be, or has not been, explained. 2 the quality of being difficult or impossible to explain or understand, or of being odd or obscure and arousing curiosity. 3 someone about whom very little is known or understood. 4 a story about a crime that is difficult to solve. Also as adj □ a mystery writer. 5 (especially mysteries) Christianity a a truth known only because it is revealed by God; b a sacrament. 6 a religious rite, especially the Eucharist. © 14c: from Latin mysterium, from Greek mysterion, from myein to close the eyes.

mystery play ▷ adj a medieval play originally based on the life of Christ or of a saint, or, later, on any biblical event. Originally miracle play, compare MORALITY PLAY.

mystery religion ▷ noun, historical in the Graeco-Roman world: a religious cult, admission to which was restricted to those who had undertaken secret initiation rites or mysteries.

mystery tour ▷ noun a round trip to a destination that is not revealed to the travellers in advance.

mystic /ˈmɪstɪk/ ▷ noun, relig someone whose life is devoted to meditation or prayer in an attempt to achieve direct communication with and knowledge of God, regarded as the ultimate reality. ▷ adj mystical. © 14c: from Greek mystikos, from mystes an initiate.

mystical /ˈmɪstɪkəl/ ▷ adj (also MYSTIC) 1 relig a relating to or involving truths about the nature of God and reality revealed only to those people with a spiritually-enlightened mind; esoteric; b relating to the mysteries or to mysticism. 2 mysterious. 3 wonderful or awe-inspiring. • mystically adverb.

mysticism /ˈmɪstɪsɪzəm/ ▷ noun 1 relig the practice of gaining direct communication with God through prayer and meditation. 2 the belief in the existence of a state of reality hidden from ordinary human understanding, such as occult or other mysterious forces.

mystify /ˈmɪstɪfaɪ/ ▷ verb (mystifies, mystified, mystifying) 1 to puzzle or bewilder. 2 to make something mysterious or obscure. • mystification noun. • mystifying adj. © 19c: from French mystifier.

mystique /mɪˈstiːk/ ▷ noun (mystiques) a mysterious, distinctive or compelling quality possessed by a person or thing. © 19c: French, as adjective, meaning MYSTIC.

myth /mɪθ/ ▷ noun 1 an ancient story that deals with gods and heroes, especially one used to explain some natural phenomenon. 2 such stories in general; mythology. 3 a commonly-held, false notion. 4 a non-existent, fictitious person or thing. See also URBAN MYTH. © 19c: from Greek mythos.

mythical /ˈmɪθɪkəl/ ▷ adj 1 relating to myth. 2 imaginary; untrue. • mythically adverb.

mythicize or mythicise /ˈmɪθɪsaɪz/ ▷ verb (mythicized, mythicizing) to make something or someone into a myth, or to explain it or them as a myth. • mythicizer or mythicist noun. © 19c.

mythologize or mythologise /mɪˈθɒlədʒaɪz/ ▷ verb (mythologized, mythologizing) 1 intr to create myths. 2 intr to relate, interpret or explain myths or a myth. 3 to MYTHICIZE. © 17c.

mythology /mɪˈθɒlədʒɪ/ ▷ noun (mythologies) 1 myths in general. 2 a collection of myths, eg about a specific subject. 3 the study of myth or myths. • mythological adj relating or belonging to mythology. • mythologist noun. © 15c: from Greek mythos myth.

my word see under MY myxo- /mɪksoʊ, mɪksə/ or (before a vowel) myx- scientific combining form, denoting mucus. © From Greek myxa mucus.

myxoedema or (US) myxedema /mɪksɪˈdiːmə/ ▷ noun, pathol a disease characterized by increased thickness and dryness of the skin, weight gain, hair loss, and reduction in mental and metabolic activity, often resulting from HYPOTHYROIDISM. © 19c.

myxoma /mɪkˈsoʊmə/ ▷ noun (myxomata /-ˈmɑːtə/) biol, pathol a tumour composed of jellylike or mucous material that usually forms just beneath the skin. © 19c.

myxomatosis /mɪksəməˈtoʊsɪs/ ▷ noun, vet medicine, biol an infectious, usually fatal, viral disease of rabbits, transmitted by fleas and causing the growth of numerous MYXOMATA through the body. © 1920s.

myxomycete /mɪksoʊmaɪˈsiːt/ ▷ noun (myxomycetes /-ˈsiːtiːz/) biol a SLIME MOULD. © 19c: from Greek mykes mushroom.

myxovirus /ˈmɪksoʊvaɪrəs/ ▷ noun, pathol any of a group of related viruses that cause influenza, mumps, etc. © 1950s.

N

N[1] or n /ɛn/ ▷ noun (Ns, N's or n's) 1 the fourteenth letter of the English alphabet. 2 the nasal consonant sound represented by this letter. See also EN.

N[2] ▷ abbreviation 1 National. 2 Nationalist. 3 New. 4 physics newton. 5 chem nitrogen. 6 North. 7 Northern. 8 IVR Norway.

N[3] ▷ symbol, chess knight.

N- ▷ combining form, denoting nuclear.

n[1] /ɛn/ ▷ noun 1 math an indefinite number. 2 colloq a large number. ▷ adj of an indefinite or large number.

n[2] ▷ abbreviation 1 nano-. 2 neuter. 3 neutron. 4 new. 5 grammar nominative. 6 noon. 7 note. 8 grammar noun.

'n' or 'n' /ən/ ▷ abbreviation, colloq, in compounds and ▫ chicken 'n' chips.

NA ▷ abbreviation 1 IVR Netherlands Antilles. 2 North America.

Na ▷ symbol, chem sodium. ⓘ From Latin natrium.

n/a ▷ abbreviation not applicable.

NAACP ▷ abbreviation in the US: National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, a pressure group which aims to extend awareness of their political rights among the black population.

NAAFI /ˈnafɪ/ ▷ abbreviation, Brit Navy, Army and Air Force Institutes. ▷ noun (NAAFIs) a canteen or shop run by the NAAFI.

naan see NAN

naartjie see NARTJIE

nab ▷ verb (nabbed, nabbing) colloq 1 to catch someone in the act of doing wrong. 2 to arrest someone. 3 to grab or take something. • nabber noun. ⓘ 17c.

nabla /ˈnablə/ ▷ noun (nablas) math in Cartesian co-ordinates: the symbol ∇, an inverted capital delta, representing the vector operator

$$i\frac{\partial}{\partial x}+j\frac{\partial}{\partial y}+k\frac{\partial}{\partial z}$$

Also called del. ⓘ 19c: Greek, meaning 'a Hebrew stringed instrument', apparently because of the shape.

nabob /ˈneɪbɒb/ ▷ noun 1 colloq a wealthy influential person. 2 old use a European man who has made a vast fortune in the East. 3 historical a a Muslim governor under the Mogul empire in India; b a NAWAB. ⓘ 17c in sense 3: from Urdu nawwab deputy governor.

nacelle /nəˈsɛl/ ▷ noun 1 the basket or gondola of a balloon or airship, etc. 2 aeronautics a streamlined structure on an aircraft that houses an engine or accommodates crew and passengers, etc. ⓘ Early 20c: French, meaning 'a small boat', from Latin navicella, from navis ship.

nachos /ˈnatʃoʊz, ˈnɑːtʃ-/ ▷ plural noun, cookery a Mexican dish of tortilla chips topped with chillis, melted cheese, etc. ⓘ 1940s.

nacre /ˈneɪkə(r)/ ▷ noun (nacres) 1 a shellfish that produces mother-of-pearl. 2 MOTHER-OF-PEARL. • nacreous /ˈneɪkrɪəs/ adj. ⓘ 17c: from Arabic naqqarah shell or drum.

NACRO or Nacro /ˈnakroʊ/ ▷ abbreviation National Association for the Care and Resettlement of Offenders.

nadir /ˈneɪdɪə(r), ˈnadɪə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 astron the point on the celestial sphere directly beneath the observer and opposite to the zenith. 2 the lowest point of anything, especially the absolute depths, eg of despair or degradation. ⓘ 15c: from Arabic nazir-as-samt opposite the zenith.

naevus or (US) nevus /ˈniːvəs/ ▷ noun (naevi /-vaɪ/) a birthmark or mole on the skin. • naevoid adj like or typical of a naevus. ⓘ 19c: Latin.

naff ▷ adj (naffer, naffest) slang 1 stupid; foolish. 2 tasteless; vulgar. 3 rubbishy; of poor quality; worthless. ▷ noun an incompetent. • naff all nothing at all. • naff off! offensive go away! get lost! ⓘ 1960s.

NAFTA or Nafta /ˈnaftə/ ▷ abbreviation North American Free Trade Agreement, a CUSTOMS UNION comprising the USA, Canada and Mexico, established in 1993.

nag[1] ▷ noun 1 derog a broken-down old horse; an inferior horse. 2 a small riding-horse. ⓘ 15c, meaning 'a riding-horse'.

nag[2] ▷ verb (nagged, nagging) 1 (also nag at someone) tr & intr to scold them constantly; to keep finding fault with them. 2 (also nag at someone) intr to worry them or cause them anxiety. 3 intr said of pain: to persist. ▷ noun someone who nags. • nagger noun a person or problem that nags or annoys. • nagging adj said of a problem or anxiety: constantly worrying or causing concern ▫ a nagging suspicion. ⓘ 19c: from Norse nagga to rub, grumble or quarrel.

▪ nag someone into something to keep urging them until they do it.

nagana /nɑːˈgɑːnə/ ▷ noun, vet medicine a disease of horses and domestic cattle of central and southern Africa, caused by a TRYPANOSOME transmitted by the TSETSE. ⓘ Late 19c: from Zulu nakane.

nagari /ˈnɑːgərɪ/ ▷ noun 1 DEVANAGARI. 2 the group of alphabets to which DEVANAGARI belongs. ⓘ 18c: Sanskrit, meaning 'town-script', from nagaram town; the addition of deva-, meaning 'of the gods', was a later development.

NAHT ▷ abbreviation National Association of Head Teachers.

Nahuatl see AZTEC

naiad /ˈnaɪad/ ▷ noun (naiades /-ədiːz/ or naiads) 1 Greek mythol a river- or spring-nymph. 2 the aquatic larva of the dragonfly, mayfly, stone-fly or damselfly. 3 an aquatic plant with narrow leaves and small flowers. ⓘ 17c: from Greek naias, from naein to flow.

naïf or naif /naɪˈiːf/ ▷ adj NAIVE. ⓘ 16c.

nail /neɪl/ ▷ noun 1 the outer structure, composed of KERATIN, that grows from a tuck in the skin and protects part of the fleshy tip of a finger or toe. 2 a metal spike hammered into something, eg to join two objects together or to serve as a hook. ▷ verb (nailed, nailing) 1 to fasten something with, or as if with, a nail or nails. 2 colloq to catch, trap or corner someone. 3 to detect, identify or expose (a lie or deception, etc). • nailer noun a maker of nails. • nailery noun (naileries) a place where nails are made. • a nail in one's or the coffin 1 any event or experience, etc that has the effect of shortening one's life. 2 a contributory factor in the downfall of anyone or anything. • hard as nails callous; unsympathetic; unsentimental. • hit the nail on the head 1 to pinpoint a problem or issue exactly. 2 to describe something in terms that sum it up precisely. • nail one's colours to the mast see under COLOURS. • on the nail colloq immediately. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon nægl.

> ■ nail someone down colloq to extract a definite decision or promise from them.
>
> ■ nail something down 1 to fix it down with nails. 2 to define or identify it clearly.

nail-bed ▷ noun the structure beneath a NAIL (noun 1), damage to which may result in the whole nail being lost.

nail-biting ▷ noun nibbling at or chewing off the ends of one's fingernails. ▷ adj said of an event or experience: extremely exciting or full of suspense. • nail-biter noun 1 someone who bites their nails. 2 colloq a nail-biting event or experience.

nail bomb ▷ noun an explosive terrorist device containing nails and capable of causing widespread serious injuries.

nailbrush ▷ noun a brush for cleaning the fingernails or toenails.

nail enamel see NAIL POLISH nailfile ▷ noun a FILE² (sense 2).

nail gun ▷ noun a tool used to drive in metal nails.

nail-head ▷ noun 1 the head of a NAIL (noun 2). 2 an ornament shaped like the head of a nail.

nail polish, nail varnish and (especially N Amer) nail enamel ▷ noun lacquer which can be applied to the fingernails and toenails to give them colour and shine.

nail scissors ▷ noun small scissors designed for trimming the fingernails and toenails.

nainsook /ˈneɪnsʊk/ ▷ noun a type of muslin. ⓘ Early 19c: from Hindi nainsukh, from nain eye + sukh pleasure.

naira /ˈnaɪərə/ ▷ noun (plural naira) the standard unit of currency in Nigeria. ⓘ 1970s: altered from Nigeria.

naive or naïve /naɪˈiːv/ ▷ adj (naiver, naivest) 1 simple, innocent or unsophisticated. 2 derog too trusting; credulous; not worldly enough. • naively adverb. • naivety /-vətɪ/ or naïveté /-vəteɪ, naɪˈiːvtɪ/ noun (naiveties or naivetés) 1 excessive trust or innocence. 2 an act, statement or behaviour that is naive. ⓘ 17c: French (naïve) feminine of naïf, from Latin nativus native.

naked /ˈneɪkɪd/ ▷ adj 1 wearing no clothes. 2 without fur, feathers or foliage. 3 barren; blank; empty. 4 simple; without decoration; artless. 5 undisguised; blatant or flagrant □ naked greed. 6 said of a light or flame: uncovered; exposed. 7 said of the eye: unaided by an optical instrument of any kind. 8 literary vulnerable; defenceless. 9 without confirmation or supporting evidence. 10 commerce, finance lacking some element, eg financial backing, to complete a contract or make it valid. • nakedly adverb. • nakedness noun. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon nacod.

naked lady and naked ladies ▷ singular noun the AUTUMN CROCUS.

NALGO /ˈnalgoʊ/ ▷ abbreviation, historical National and Local Government Officers Association, now part of UNISON.

namby-pamby /nambɪˈpambɪ/ ▷ adj, derog 1 feebly sentimental; soppy. 2 prim; over-demure. ▷ noun (plural in sense 2 only namby-pambies) 1 namby-pamby writing or talk. 2 a namby-pamby person. ⓘ 18c: from the scornful nickname given to the poet Ambrose Philips (1674–1749).

name /neɪm/ ▷ noun 1 a word or words by which an individual person, place or thing is identified and referred to. 2 reputation □ get a bad name. 3 a famous or important person or firm, etc □ the big names in fashion. ▷ verb (named, naming) tr & intr 1 to give a name to someone or something. 2 to mention or identify someone or something by name □ name three French poets. 3 to specify or decide on someone or something. 4 to choose or appoint. • namable or nameable adj. • named adj. • call someone names to insult or abuse them verbally. • in all but name in practice, though not officially □ leader in all but name. • in name only officially, but not in practice. • in the name of someone or something 1 by their or its authority. 2 on behalf of them or it. 3 for the sake of them or it; using them or it as justification □ were tortured in the name of religion. • make a name for oneself to become famous. • name names to identify eg culprits by name. • name the day to fix a date, especially the date of one's wedding. • the name of the game colloq the predominant or essential aspect or aim of some activity. • to one's name belonging to one □ doesn't have a penny to his name. • you name it whatever you mention or want, etc. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon nama.

> ■ name someone or something after or (N Amer) for someone or something else to give (eg a child or a place) the same name as another person, in their honour or by way of commemoration.

name brand ▷ noun a product that bears a manufacturer's name. Compare OWN BRAND.

name calling ▷ noun verbal abuse.

name day ▷ noun 1 the feast day of the saint after whom one is named. 2 stock exchange the day when the buyer's name, etc, is given to the seller.

name-dropping ▷ noun, derog the practice of casually referring to well-known people as if they were friends, to impress one's hearers. • name-dropper noun. ⓘ 1950s.

nameless ▷ adj 1 having no name. 2 unidentified. 3 anonymous; undistinguished. 4 too awful to specify; unmentionable. • namelessly adverb. • namelessness noun.

namely /ˈneɪmlɪ/ ▷ adverb used to introduce an expansion or explanation of what has just been mentioned □ which helps me to achieve the goal, namely to improve standards.

name part ▷ noun a TITLE ROLE.

nameplate ▷ noun a plate on or beside the door of a building or room, etc bearing the name, and sometimes also occupation, etc of the occupant.

namesake ▷ noun someone with the same name as another person; someone named after another. ⓘ 17c.

nametape ▷ noun a piece of tape attached to a garment, etc marked with the owner's name.

nan or naan /nɑːn/ and nan bread ▷ noun a slightly leavened bread, traditionally cooked in India and Pakistan, baked in a large round or teardrop shape. ⓘ 1960s: Hindi.

nana¹ /ˈnɑːnə/ ▷ noun (nanas) 1 derog slang an idiot, a fool. 2 Austral slang the head. • off one's nana Austral slang mad. ⓘ 19c: probably from BANANA.

nana² see NANNY

nancy /ˈnansɪ/ and nancy boy ▷ noun (nancies or nancy boys) derog, colloq 1 an effeminate young man or boy. 2 a homosexual youth. ⓘ Early 20c: from Nancy, the girl's name.

nankeen /naŋˈkiːn/ ▷ noun 1 a buff-coloured cotton cloth. 2 a yellowish buff or grey colour. Also as adj. 3 (nankeens) clothes, especially trousers, made of nankeen. ⓘ 18c: named after Nanking in China, where the cloth was first made.

nannoplankton see NANOPLANKTON nanny /ˈnanɪ/ ▷ noun (nannies) 1 a children's nurse. 2 (also nana and nanna /ˈnanə/) colloq a child's name for GRANDMOTHER. ▷ adj, derog said of institutions or the state, etc: protective to an intrusive extent. ▷ verb (nannies, nannied, nannying) to over-protect or over-supervise. • nannyish adj overprotective. ⓘ 18c: from Nanny, a pet-form of the name Ann.

nanny goat ▷ noun an adult female goat. Compare BILLY GOAT.

nano- /nanoʊ/ ▷ combining form, denoting 1 (abbreviation n) a thousand millionth, 10^{-9} □ nanogram. 2 of microscopic size. ⓔ From Greek nanos dwarf.

nanometre /ˈnanoʊmiːtə(r)/ ▷ noun (abbreviation nm) one thousand millionth of a metre.

nanoplankton or nannoplankton ▷ noun, biol plankton of microscopic size. ⓔ Early 20c.

nanosecond ▷ noun (abbreviation ns) one thousand millionth of a second. ⓔ 1950s.

nap¹ ▷ noun a short sleep. ▷ verb (napped, napping) intr to have a nap. ■ catch someone napping colloq to find them unprepared or off-guard. ⓔ Anglo-Saxon hnappian.

nap² ▷ noun 1 a woolly surface on cloth, raised by a finishing process, not made in weaving. Compare PILE³. 2 the direction in which this surface lies smooth. 3 any similar downy covering or surface. ■ napless adj. ■ napped adj said of fabric: with a nap. ⓔ 15c as noppe.

nap³ ▷ noun 1 the card game NAPOLEON. 2 in that game: a a call of five; b the winning of five tricks. 3 horse-racing a tip that is claimed to be a certainty. ▷ verb (napped, napping) horse-racing to name (a particular horse) as certain to win. ■ go nap 1 to undertake to win all five tricks. 2 to risk all. ⓔ Late 19c.

napa or nappa /ˈnapə/ ▷ noun a soft leather made by a special tawing process (see TAW²), from sheepskin or goatskin. ⓔ 19c: named after Napa in California, where it was first made.

napalm /ˈneɪpɑːm, ˈna-/ ▷ noun an aluminium SOAP consisting of a mixture of various FATTY ACIDS, used as an incendiary agent in bombs and flame-throwers. ▷ verb (napalmed, napalming) to attack or destroy something with napalm. ⓔ 1940s: from naphthenate palmitate.

nape /neɪp/ ▷ noun the back of the neck. ⓔ 14c.

naphtha /ˈnafθə, ˈnapθə/ ▷ noun, chem any of several flammable liquids distilled from coal or petroleum, used as solvents. ⓔ 16c: Greek.

naphthalene ▷ noun, chem (formula $C_{10}H_8$) a white crystalline hydrocarbon distilled from coal tar, used eg in mothballs and dyes. ■ naphthalic adj pertaining to or derived from naphthalene. ⓔ 19c.

Napierian logarithm see LOGARITHM napkin /ˈnapkɪn/ ▷ noun 1 (also table napkin) a piece of cloth or paper for wiping one's mouth and fingers at mealtimes, and used to protect one's clothing. 2 formal or old use a baby's nappy. ⓔ 15c: diminutive of French nappe tablecloth, from Latin mappa cloth.

napkin ring ▷ noun a ring that holds a rolled table napkin when it is not being used.

napless see under NAP²

napoleon /nəˈpoʊlɪən/ ▷ noun 1 historical a twenty-franc gold coin issued by Napoleon I of France. 2 a French modification of the game of EUCHRE, each player receiving five cards and playing as an individual. Often shortened to nap. ⓔ 19c: from French napoléon.

Napoleonic /nəpoʊlɪˈɒnɪk/ ▷ adj belonging to, characteristic of, or relating to Napoleon I of France (1769–1821).

nappa see NAPA

nappe /nap/ ▷ noun 1 geol a large arch-shaped geological fold structure. 2 math one of the two parts of a conical surface defined by the vertex. ⓔ Early 20c: French, meaning 'tablecloth', from Latin mappa cloth.

napped see under NAP¹, NAP², NAP³

napping see under NAP¹, NAP³

napless see under NAP²

nappy¹ /ˈnapɪ/ ▷ noun (nappies) a pad of disposable material, or a folded piece of towelling or other soft cloth, secured round a baby's bottom to absorb urine and faeces. N Amer equivalent DIAPER. ⓔ 1920s: diminutive of NAPKIN.

nappy² /ˈnapɪ/ ▷ adj (nappier, nappiest) 1 said of beer: a with a head; frothy; b strong. 2 tipsy. 3 said of a horse: nervous; excitable. ▷ noun strong ale. ⓔ 16c: perhaps from nappy shaggy, from NAP².

nappy rash ▷ noun irritation of a baby's skin on the buttocks or genital area, usually caused by prolonged contact with wet or soiled nappies.

narc and narco /ˈnɑːkoʊ/ ▷ noun (narcs or narcos) US slang a narcotics agent. ⓔ 20c: NARCOTIC.

narcissism /ˈnɑːsɪsɪzəm/ ▷ noun 1 excessive admiration for oneself or one's appearance. 2 psychol sensual pleasure and satisfaction found in one's own body. ■ narcissistic adj. ⓔ 19c: from Narkissos, a youth in Greek mythology who fell in love with his own reflection.

narcissus /nɑːˈsɪsəs/ ▷ noun (narcissuses or narcissi /-saɪ/) a plant similar to the daffodil, which grows from a bulb and has white or yellow flowers, often heavily scented. ⓔ 16c: from Greek narkissos, supposedly from narke numbness, because of its narcotic properties.

narco- /nɑːkoʊ, nɑːˈkɒ/ or (before vowels) narc- ▷ combining form, signifying 1 numbness or torpor. 2 using drugs □ narcoanalysis. 3 relating to or resulting from the illicit production of drugs. ⓔ From Greek narke.

narcoanalysis ▷ noun psychoanalysis of a patient under the influence of narcotic drugs.

narcolepsy /ˈnɑːkəlepsɪ/ ▷ noun a condition marked by sudden episodes of irresistible sleepiness. ⓔ 19c: French narcolepsie.

narcosis /nɑːˈkoʊsɪs/ ▷ noun (narcoses) pathol drowsiness, unconsciousness, or other effects to the central nervous system produced by a narcotic. ⓔ 17c: from Greek narkosis a numbing.

narcosynthesis ▷ noun treatment using narcotics so that repressed emotions become freely accepted into the self.

narcoterrorism ▷ noun terrorism by or on behalf of an organization involved in narcotics or drug dealing.

narcotic /nɑːˈkɒtɪk/ ▷ noun 1 a drug causing numbness and drowsiness, and eventually unconsciousness, which deadens pain and produces a temporary sense of well-being, but which can be addictive. 2 loosely a any addictive drug; b an illegal drug. 3 any substance that has a narcotic effect, eg alcohol or an inert gas. ▷ adj 1 belonging or relating to narcotics or the users of narcotics. 2 relating to NARCOSIS. ■ narcotically adverb. ⓔ 14c as narcotyk: from Greek narkotikos numbing.

narcotism /ˈnɑːkətɪzəm/ ▷ noun 1 the influence of narcotics. 2 a state of addiction or stupor induced by narcotics. ⓔ 19c.

narcotize or narcotise ▷ verb (narcotized, narcotizing) to subject to the influence of a narcotic drug. ■ narcotization noun.

nard ▷ noun 1 SPIKENARD. 2 an Indian plant of the valerian family, from which this is obtained. 3 any of several aromatic plants formerly used in medicine. ⓔ 16c in this form: from 14c narde: from Greek nardos.

nardoo /nɑːˈduː/ ▷ noun (nardoos) 1 an Australian cloverlike fern. 2 the spores of this plant used as food. ⓔ 19c: Aboriginal.

nares /ˈneərɪːz/ ▷ plural noun, anatomy the paired openings of the nasal cavity, the external nares which are the NOSTRILS, and the internal nares, present only in air-breathing vertebrates, which open into the PHARYNX. ⓔ 17c: Latin.

narghile, nargile or nargileh /ˈnɑːgɪlɪ, -leɪ/ ▷ noun (narghiles, nargiles or nargilehs) a hookah. ⓔ 19c:

Persian nargilah, from nargil coconut, from which it used to be made.

narial /ˈnɛərɪəl/ and narine /-raɪn/ ▷ adj relating to the nostrils. ⓘ 19c: from Latin naris nostril.

nark ▷ noun, slang 1 a spy or informer working for the police. 2 a habitual grumbler. 3 especially Austral & NZ a spoilsport. ▷ verb (narked, narking) colloq 1 tr & intr to annoy. 2 intr to grumble. 3 intr to inform or spy, especially for the police. • narked adj annoyed. ⓘ 19c: perhaps from Romany nak nose.

■ nark at someone to annoy them with persistent criticism.

narky /ˈnɑːkɪ/ ▷ adj (narkier, narkiest) colloq irritable.

Narragansett /narəˈgansət/ ▷ noun 1 a member of a Native American people formerly living on Rhode Island. 2 an Algonquian language spoken by this people, now virtually extinct. ⓘ 17c.

narrate /nəˈreɪt/ ▷ verb (narrated, narrating) tr & intr 1 to tell (a story); to relate. 2 to give a running commentary on (a film, etc). • narratable adj. • narration noun 1 the act or process of telling something. 2 a continuous story or account. • narrator noun someone who tells a story or narrative. • narratory adj. ⓘ 17c: from Latin narrare, narratum to relate.

narrative /ˈnarətɪv/ ▷ noun 1 an account of events. 2 those parts of a book, etc that recount events. ▷ adj 1 telling a story; recounting events □ narrative poetry. 2 relating to the telling of stories □ narrative skills. • narratively adverb. ⓘ 15c: from Latin narrativus, from narrare to relate.

narrow /ˈnaroʊ/ ▷ adj (narrower, narrowest) 1 having little breadth, especially in comparison with length. 2 said of interests or experience: restricted; limited. 3 said of attitudes or ideas: illiberal or unenlightened; intolerant or bigoted. 4 said of the use of a word: restricted to its precise or original meaning; strict □ in its narrowest sense. 5 close; only just achieved, etc □ a narrow escape. ▷ noun 1 a narrow part or place. 2 (narrows) a narrow part of a channel or river, etc. ▷ verb (narrowed, narrowing) tr & intr 1 to make or become narrow. 2 a (also narrow something down) said eg of a range of possibilities: to be reduced or limited; b (also narrow something down) to reduce it. • narrowness noun. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon nearu.

narrow boat ▷ noun a canal barge, especially one that is 7ft (2.1m) wide or less.

narrowcast ▷ verb 1 tr & intr to transmit (TV programmes, etc) on a cable system. 2 intr said eg of advertisers, radio or TV stations or programming: to target a particular audience. • narrowcasting noun 1 cable TV. 2 the production and distribution of material on video tapes and cassettes, etc. ⓘ 1970s in sense 1; 1930s: from NARROW, modelled on BROADCAST.

narrow-gauge ▷ adj said of a railway: less than the standard gauge. See GAUGE.

narrowly ▷ adverb 1 only just; barely. 2 with close attention □ eyed him narrowly. 3 in a narrow or restricted way.

narrow-minded ▷ adj, derog 1 intolerant. 2 bigoted; prejudiced. • narrow-mindedly adverb. • narrow-mindedness noun.

narrowness see under NARROW narrow squeak see under SQUEAK narthex /ˈnɑːθɛks/ ▷ noun (narthexes) archit 1 a western portico of an early church or a basilica to which women and CATECHUMENS were admitted. 2 a vestibule between the church porch and the nave. ⓘ 17c: Greek, also meaning 'giant fennel', a 'cane', 'stalk' or 'casket'.

nartjie or (originally) naartje /ˈnɑːtʃɪ/ ▷ noun (nartjies or naartjes) S Afr a small sweet orange like a mandarin. ⓘ 18c: Afrikaans, probably originally connected with ORANGE.

narwhal /ˈnɑːwəl/ ▷ noun an arctic whale, the male of which has a long spiral tusk. ⓘ 17c: from Danish narhval, perhaps from Norse nar corpse + hvalr whale.

nary /ˈnɛərɪ/ ▷ adverb, dialect or colloq never; not. • nary a … not one; never a … □ nary a hint of apology. ⓘ 19c: variant of ne'er a never a.

NASA /ˈnasə/ ▷ abbreviation National Aeronautics and Space Administration, a US body for research in extraterrestrial space.

nasal /ˈneɪzəl/ ▷ adj 1 belonging or relating to the nose. 2 said of a sound or letter such as m or n: pronounced through, or partly through, the nose. 3 said of a voice, etc: abnormally or exceptionally full of nasal sounds. ▷ noun 1 a sound uttered through the nose. 2 a letter representing such a sound. • nasally adverb. • nasality noun. ⓘ 17c: from Latin nasus nose.

nasalize or nasalise /ˈneɪzəlaɪz/ ▷ verb (nasalized, nasalizing) tr & intr to pronounce or speak (a sound or words, etc) nasally. • nasalization noun. ⓘ Early 19c.

nascent /ˈneɪsənt/ ▷ adj in the process of coming into being; in the early stages of development. • nascency noun 1 being brought into being. 2 birth. 3 chem, formerly the abnormally active condition of an element, especially hydrogen. ⓘ 17c: from Latin nascens, nascentis, from nasci to be born.

NASDAQ /ˈnazdak/ ▷ abbreviation, finance National Association of Securities Dealers Automated Quotation, a quotation system and associated market for American shares. Compare EASDAQ.

naso- /neɪzoʊ/ ▷ combining form, denoting 1 nose. 2 concerning or referring to the nose, with or without something else. ⓘ From Latin nasus nose.

nasofrontal ▷ adj, anatomy relating to the nose and frontal bone.

nasogastric tube ▷ adj, medicine a tube that is passed into the stomach through the nose.

nasolacrymal ▷ adj, medicine relating to the nose and tears □ nasolacrymal duct.

nasopharynx ▷ noun, anatomy the part of the pharynx above the soft palate.

nastic movement /ˈnastɪk —/ ▷ noun, bot the non-directional movement of a plant organ in response to an external stimulus. ⓘ Early 20c: from Greek nastos close-pressed.

nasturtium /nəˈstɜːʃəm/ ▷ noun a climbing garden plant with flat round leaves and red, orange or yellow trumpet-like flowers. ⓘ 16c: Latin, meaning 'cress', said to be from nasus nose + torquere to twist, because of its pungent taste.

nasty /ˈnɑːstɪ/ ▷ adj (nastier, nastiest) 1 unpleasant; disgusting. 2 malicious; ill-natured □ a nasty person. 3 worrying; serious □ a nasty wound. 4 said of weather: wet or stormy □ a nasty day. ▷ noun (nasties) someone or something unpleasant, disgusting or offensive. Especially in compounds □ a video nasty. • nastily adverb. • nastiness noun. • a nasty bit or piece of work a very unpleasant or malicious person. ⓘ 14c.

NAS/UWT ▷ abbreviation National Association of Schoolmasters/Union of Women Teachers.

Nat. ▷ abbreviation 1 National. 2 Nationalist.

nat ▷ noun, colloq a NATIONALIST.

nat. ▷ abbreviation 1 national. 2 native. 3 natural.

natal[1] /ˈneɪtəl/ ▷ adj 1 connected with birth. 2 rare native. • natality noun (natalities) 1 birth. 2 birth-rate. ⓘ 15c; 14c in obsolete sense 'presiding over birthdays': from Latin natalis, from nasci, natus to be born.

natal[2] see under NATES

natal therapy ▷ noun in psychoanalysis: the treatment of REBIRTHING.

natation /nəˈteɪʃən, neɪˈteɪʃən/ ▷ noun, formal swimming. ◷ 17c: from Latin natatio, from natare to swim.

natatorial /neɪtəˈtɔːrɪəl/ and natatory ▷ adj, formal or technical 1 relating to swimming. 2 having the habit of swimming. 3 adapted or used for swimming. ◷ 19c; 18c natatory: from Latin natatorius.

natch /natʃ/ ▷ adverb, slang of course. ◷ 1940s: short for NATURALLY.

nates /ˈneɪtiːz/ ▷ plural noun, anatomy the buttocks. • natal /ˈneɪtəl/ adj. ◷ 18c: Latin, plural of natis buttock.

nation /ˈneɪʃən/ ▷ noun 1 the people living in, belonging to, and together forming, a single state. 2 a race of people of common descent, history, language or culture, etc, but not necessarily bound by defined territorial limits of a state. 3 a Native American tribe or federation of tribes. • nationhood noun. ◷ 13c: French, from Latin natio tribe.

national /ˈnaʃənəl/ ▷ adj 1 belonging to a particular nation. 2 concerning or covering the whole nation. 3 public; general. ▷ noun 1 a citizen of a particular nation. 2 a national newspaper. 3 (the National) Brit the GRAND NATIONAL. • nationally adverb.

national anthem ▷ noun a nation's official song.

national bank ▷ noun, US a commercial bank chartered by the Federal government and required by law to be a member of the Federal Reserve System.

national call ▷ noun a long-distance telephone call made within Britain, but outside the local area.

national code see AUSTRALIAN RULES

National Curriculum ▷ noun, education (abbreviation NC) the curriculum prescribed by the government to be used in maintained schools in England and Wales since 1989 (the curriculum established in Scotland is called 5–14).

national debt ▷ noun the money borrowed by the government of a country and not yet repaid.

National Front ▷ noun an extreme right-wing British political party with racist and fascist policies, first formed in 1960.

national grid ▷ noun 1 the network of high-voltage electric power lines in Britain. 2 the system of vertical and horizontal lines, or co-ordinates, used in Ordnance Survey maps of Britain.

National Guard ▷ noun 1 US an organized military force in individual states. 2 historical an armed force that took part in the French Revolution, first formed in 1789.

National Health Service ▷ noun, Brit (abbreviation NHS) the system set up in 1948 to provide medical treatment for all UK residents free, or at a nominal charge, at the point of delivery, financed mainly by taxation.

national insurance ▷ noun, Brit (abbreviation NI) a system of state insurance to which employers and employees contribute, to provide for the sick, unemployed and retired, and those on maternity leave.

nationalism ▷ noun 1 extreme pride in the history, culture and successes, etc of one's nation; loyalty to one's nation; patriotism. 2 extreme or fanatical patriotism. 3 a policy of, or movement aiming at, national unity or independence. • nationalist noun, adj. • nationalistic adj characterized by nationalism or excessive patriotism. • nationalistically adverb.

nationality /naʃəˈnalɪtɪ/ ▷ noun (nationalities) 1 the status of citizenship of a particular nation. 2 a group or set that has the character of a nation. 3 the racial or national group to which one belongs. 4 national character.

nationalize or nationalise ▷ verb (nationalized, nationalizing) 1 to bring (eg an industry) under state ownership and control. 2 to make something national. 3 to NATURALIZE. • nationalization noun.

National Lottery ▷ noun in the UK: a nationwide lottery, established in 1994, in which players choose six numbers between 1 and 49 and pay £1 for each chosen set. The lottery is run by a private company and a small proportion of the profits are set aside in a fund for the arts, sports, charitable organizations, etc.

nationally see under NATIONAL national park ▷ noun an area of countryside, usually important for its natural beauty, wildlife, etc, under the ownership and care of the nation.

National Savings Bank ▷ noun a savings bank run by the government.

national service ▷ noun a period of compulsory service for young men in the armed forces, abolished in Britain in 1962, but in force in many countries.

National Socialism ▷ noun the doctrines and policies of the National Socialist Party, an extreme nationalistic fascist party led by Adolf Hitler, which ruled Germany from 1933–45. Also called NAZISM (see under NAZI).

National Trust and National Trust for Scotland ▷ noun charitable organizations concerned with preserving historic buildings and monuments, and areas of natural beauty, in the United Kingdom.

nationwide ▷ adj extending over the whole of a nation □ nationwide coverage. ▷ adverb with a coverage extending over the whole of a nation □ The scheme will go nationwide next week.

native /ˈneɪtɪv/ ▷ adj 1 being or belonging to the place of one's upbringing. 2 born a citizen of a particular place □ a native Italian. 3 belonging naturally to one; inborn or innate □ native wit. 4 having a particular language as one's first, or mother, tongue □ my native tongue. 5 originating in a particular place □ native to China. 6 belonging to the original inhabitants of a country □ native Balinese music. 7 natural; in a natural state. 8 said of metals: a occurring naturally as a mineral, ie not manufactured; b found naturally uncombined as an element, not as eg an ore. ▷ noun 1 someone born in a certain place. 2 a plant or animal originating in a particular place. 3 often derog one of the original inhabitants of a place as distinct from later, especially European, settlers. • natively adverb. • nativeness noun. • go native see under GO. ◷ 14c: from Latin nativus natural, from nasci to be born.

Native American see AMERICAN INDIAN native bear ▷ noun, Austral the KOALA.

native-born ▷ adj born in the country or place specified.

native companion see under BROLGA native land ▷ noun the land to which someone belongs by birth.

native language ▷ noun the first language that someone learns, usually that of their native land.

native rock ▷ noun unquarried rock.

native speaker ▷ noun someone who speaks the language in question as their native language.

nativism /ˈneɪtɪvɪzəm/ ▷ noun 1 the belief that the mind possesses some ideas or forms of thought that are inborn. 2 the policy of favouring the natives of a country over immigrants. 3 the policy of protecting and encouraging native culture under threat from external influences. • nativist noun. • nativistic adj.

nativity /nəˈtɪvɪtɪ/ ▷ noun (nativities) 1 birth, advent or origin. 2 (Nativity) a the birth of Christ; b a picture representing it; c Christmas. ◷ 14c: from Latin nativitas birth.

NATO or Nato /ˈneɪtoʊ/ ▷ abbreviation North Atlantic Treaty Organization, an international organization established in 1949, made up of US, Canada and a group of European states, having the aim of maintaining international peace.

NATO phonetic alphabet

This is the set of names used by the military and the police force in radio communication to identify letters of the alphabet letter	codename	pronunciation

A	Alpha	/ˈalfə/
B	Bravo	/ˈbrɑːvoʊ/
C	Charlie	/ˈtʃɑːlɪ/
D	Delta	/ˈdɛltə/
E	Echo	/ˈɛkoʊ/
F	Foxtrot	/ˈfɒkstrɒt/
G	Golf	/gɒlf/
H	Hotel	/hoʊˈtɛl/
I	India	/ˈɪndɪə/
J	Juliet	/ˈdʒuːlɪət/
K	Kilo	/ˈkiːloʊ/
L	Lima	/ˈliːmə/
M	Mike	/maɪk/
N	November	/noʊˈvɛmbə(r)/
O	Oscar	/ˈɒskə(r)/
P	Papa	/ˈpɑːpə/
Q	Quebec	/kəˈbɛk/
R	Romeo	/ˈroʊmɪoʊ/
S	Sierra	/sɪˈɛrə/
T	Tango	/ˈtaŋgoʊ/
U	Uniform	/ˈjuːnɪfɔːm/
V	Victor	/ˈvɪktə(r)/
W	Whisky	/ˈwɪskɪ/
X	X-ray	/ˈɛksreɪ/
Y	Yankee	/ˈjaŋkiː/
Z	Zulu	/ˈzuːluː/

natter /ˈnatə(r)/ colloq ▷ verb (nattered, nattering) intr to chat busily. ▷ noun an intensive chat. ⓒ 19c: imitating the sound of chattering.

natterjack /ˈnatədʒak/ ▷ noun, zool a European toad with a yellow stripe down its spine and a rough green skin. ⓒ 18c.

natty /ˈnatɪ/ ▷ adj (nattier, nattiest) colloq 1 said of clothes: flashily smart. 2 clever; ingenious. ● nattily adverb in a neat and smart manner □ He was nattily dressed. ● nattiness noun. ⓒ 18c: related to NEAT.

natural /ˈnatʃərəl/ ▷ adj 1 normal; unsurprising. 2 instinctive; not learnt. 3 born in one; innate □ a natural talent. 4 being such because of inborn qualities □ Christian is a natural communicator. 5 said of manner, etc: simple, easy and direct; not artificial. 6 said of looks: not, or apparently not, improved on artificially. 7 relating to nature, or to parts of the physical world not made or altered by man □ natural sciences □ areas of natural beauty. 8 following the normal course of nature □ died a natural death. 9 said of materials, products, etc: derived from plants and animals as opposed to man-made □ natural fibres. 10 wild; uncultivated or uncivilized. 11 related to one by blood □ one's natural parents. 12 euphemistic see illegitimate □ his natural son. 13 music not sharp or flat. ▷ noun 1 colloq someone with an inborn feel for something □ She's a natural when it comes to acting. 2 a person or thing that is the obvious choice for something. 3 someone or something that is assured of success; a certainty. 4 music a a sign (♮) indicating a note that is not to be played sharp or flat; b such a note. ● naturalness noun a natural state or quality; being natural. ⓒ 14c: from Latin naturalis from natura nature.

natural-born ▷ adj native □ natural-born Scot.

natural childbirth ▷ noun childbirth with as little medical intervention as possible, especially in terms of analgesia.

natural frequency ▷ noun 1 physics the frequency at which an object or system will vibrate freely, in the absence of external forces. 2 elec the frequency at which resonance occurs in an electrical circuit.

natural gas ▷ noun a gas mixture, mainly methane, found under the ground or sea-bed in petroleum-bearing regions, used as a fuel.

natural history ▷ noun an increasingly antiquated broad scientific term for the popular study of plants, animals and minerals.

natural immunity ▷ noun the level of resistance to infection, with which a person is born. Compare ACQUIRED IMMUNITY.

naturalism ▷ noun 1 a realistic, as opposed to idealistic, treatment of subjects in art or sculpture, etc. 2 the view that rejects supernatural explanations of phenomena, maintaining that all must be attributable to natural causes.

naturalist /ˈnatʃərəlɪst/ ▷ noun 1 someone who studies animal and plant life (NATURAL HISTORY). 2 a follower of naturalism.

naturalistic ▷ adj characterized by naturalism, or the realistic treatment of subjects in art and literature. ● naturalistically adverb.

naturalize or naturalise /ˈnatʃərəlaɪz/ ▷ verb (naturalized, naturalizing) 1 to confer citizenship on (a foreigner). 2 tr & intr to gradually come to be considered as (a word) that is part of a language, as opposed to being used in that language as a foreign word. 3 to gradually admit (a custom) among established traditions. 4 to make (an introduced species of plant or animal) adapt to the local environment. 5 intr said of a plant or animal: to adapt to a new environment. 6 to make something natural or lifelike. ● naturalization noun the process of naturalizing, especially conferring citizenship. ⓒ 16c.

natural language ▷ noun a language which has evolved naturally. Compare ARTIFICIAL LANGUAGE.

natural logarithm ▷ noun, math a logarithm to the base constant e (2.718 …).

naturally ▷ adverb 1 of course; not surprisingly. 2 in accordance with the normal course of things. 3 by nature; as a natural characteristic □ Sympathy came naturally to her. 4 by means of a natural process, as opposed to being produced by a man-made process. 5 in a relaxed or normal manner.

naturalness see under NATURAL natural number ▷ noun, math any whole positive number, sometimes including zero.

natural philosophy ▷ noun physics, or physics together with dynamics.

natural resources ▷ plural noun sources of energy and wealth that occur naturally in the earth.

natural science ▷ noun the science of nature (including biology, chemistry, geology and physics) as distinguished from mental and moral science, and from mathematics.

natural selection ▷ noun the process by which plant and animal species that adapt most successfully to their environment survive, while others die out; the basis for EVOLUTION. See also DARWINISM.

natural theology ▷ noun religion based on reasoned facts rather than revelation, etc.

natural wastage ▷ noun, business non-replacement of employees that leave or retire, as a means of reducing staffing levels.

nature /ˈneɪtʃə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 (also Nature) the physical world not made by man; the forces that have formed it and control it. 2 animal and plant life as distinct from human life. 3 what something is, or consists of. 4 a fundamental tendency; essential character; attitude or outlook □ human nature □ quiet and retiring by nature. 5 a kind, sort or type. ● from nature using natural models in drawing or sculpting, etc. ● in the nature of something with the characteristics of it; like it. ⓘ 13c: from Latin natura.

nature cure ▷ noun the practice of or treatment by NATUROPATHY.

nature reserve ▷ noun an area of land specially managed and protected to preserve the flora and fauna that live in it.

nature strip ▷ noun, Austral a strip of grass, etc bordering a road or footpath or dividing two carriageways.

nature study ▷ noun the study, usually amateur study, of plants and animals.

nature trail ▷ noun a signposted walk or path in the countryside that provides opportunities for studying nature.

naturism /ˈneɪtʃərɪzəm/ ▷ noun 1 nudism, regarded as a natural instinct. 2 the worship of natural objects. ● naturist noun a nudist. ⓘ 1930s in sense 1.

naturopathy /neɪtʃəˈrɒpəθɪ, natʃə-/ ▷ noun 1 the promotion of good health and natural healing by a system of diet, exercise, manipulation and hydrotherapy. 2 the philosophy of this system. ● naturopath /-paθ/ noun someone who practises naturopathy. ● naturopathic adj. ⓘ Early 20c.

naught /nɔːt/ ▷ noun 1 old use nothing. 2 N Amer, especially US NOUGHT. ● come to naught old use to fail. ● set something at naught old use to despise it. ⓘ 14c: Anglo-Saxon nawiht, from na no + wiht thing.

naughty /ˈnɔːtɪ/ ▷ adj (naughtier, naughtiest) 1 mischievous; disobedient. 2 mildly shocking or indecent; titillating □ a naughty photo. ▷ noun (naughties) Austral & NZ colloq an act of sexual intercourse. ● naughtily adverb. ● naughtiness noun. ⓘ 16c in these senses; from NAUGHT in its earlier sense 'wickedness'.

nauplius /ˈnɔːplɪəs/ ▷ noun (nauplii /-plɪaɪ/) zool the larval form of many crustaceans, with one eye and three pairs of limbs. ⓘ 19c: Latin, meaning 'a kind of shellfish', from Greek Nauplios a son of Poseidon, from naus a ship + pleein to sail.

nausea /ˈnɔːzɪə, ˈnɔːsɪə/ ▷ noun 1 a sensation that one is about to vomit, either by a reflex (eg irritation of stomach nerves) or conditioned (eg smell) stimulus. 2 disgust; revulsion. ⓘ 16c: from Greek nausia seasickness, from naus ship.

nauseate /ˈnɔːzɪeɪt, ˈnɔːsɪ-/ ▷ verb (nauseated, nauseating) 1 to make someone feel nausea. 2 to disgust someone. ● nauseating adj 1 offensively unpleasant. 2 causing nausea. ● nauseatingly adverb to a nauseating degree; repulsively. ⓘ 17c: from Latin nauseare to be seasick.

nauseous /ˈnɔːzɪəs, ˈnɔːsɪəs/ ▷ adj 1 sickening; disgusting □ a nauseous smell. 2 affected by nausea □ The drugs made him nauseous. ● nauseously adverb. ● nauseousness noun. ⓘ 17c: from Latin nauseosus.

naut. ▷ abbreviation nautical.

nautical /ˈnɔːtɪkəl/ ▷ adj (abbreviation naut.) relating to ships, sailors or navigation. ● nautically adverb. ⓘ 17c: from Greek nautikos, from nautes sailor.

nautical mile ▷ noun (abbreviation n mile) a measure of distance traditionally used at sea, equal to about 1.85km. See also KNOT (noun 11).

nautilus /ˈnɔːtɪləs/ ▷ noun (nautiluses or nautili /-laɪ/) a sea creature related to the squid and octopus, especially the pearly nautilus which has a spiral chambered shell that is pearly on its interior, or the PAPER NAUTILUS. ⓘ 17c: from Greek nautilos sailor or pearly nautilus.

NAV ▷ abbreviation net asset value.

nav. ▷ abbreviation 1 naval. 2 navigable. 3 navigation. 4 navigator.

Navajo or Navaho /ˈnavəhoʊ/ ▷ noun (Navajos or Navahos) 1 a Native American people of Utah, Arizona and New Mexico. 2 one of these people. 3 the language of these people. ⓘ 18c: from Spanish Navajó, the name of a particular PUEBLO.

naval /ˈneɪvəl/ ▷ adj relating to a navy or to ships generally. ⓘ 17c: from Latin navalis, from navis ship.

naval architecture ▷ noun the designing of ships.

naval officer ▷ noun an officer in the navy.

navarin /ˈnavərɪn/ ▷ noun, cookery a stew of lamb or mutton with root vegetables such as turnip. ⓘ 19c: French.

nave[1] /neɪv/ ▷ noun, archit the main central part of a church, where the congregation sits. ⓘ 17c: from Latin navis ship, from its similarity to an inverted hull.

nave[2] /neɪv/ ▷ noun the hub or central part of a wheel. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon nafu.

navel /ˈneɪvəl/ ▷ noun 1 in mammals: the small hollow or scar at the point where the umbilical cord was attached to the fetus. 2 the central point of something. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon nafela, diminutive of nafu hub.

navel-gazing ▷ noun unproductive self-analysis when direction action is called for.

navel orange ▷ noun a seedless orange with a navel-like pit on top enclosing a second smaller fruit.

navelwort ▷ noun, bot pennywort.

navicular /nəˈvɪkjʊlə(r)/ ▷ adj 1 boat-shaped. 2 zool relating to the navicular bone. ▷ noun (in full navicular bone) a small boat-shaped bone in the wrist or ankle, or in the equivalent position in animals, eg horses. Also called scaphoid. ⓘ 16c: from Latin navicula, diminutive of navis a ship.

navigable /ˈnavɪgəbəl/ ▷ adj 1 said of a river or channel, etc: able to be sailed along or through, etc. 2 said of a ship: seaworthy. 3 said of a balloon or other craft: steerable. ● navigability noun. ● navigably adverb. ⓘ 16c: from Latin navigabilis, from navigare to sail.

navigate /ˈnavɪgeɪt/ ▷ verb (navigated, navigating) 1 intr to direct the course of a ship, aircraft or other vehicle. 2 intr to find one's way and hold one's course. 3 to steer (a ship or aircraft). 4 a to manage to sail along or through (a river or channel, etc); b to find one's way through, along, over or across something, etc. 5 intr said of a vehicle passenger: to give the driver directions on the correct route. ⓘ 16c: from Latin navigare, from navis ship.

navigation ▷ noun 1 the act, skill or science of navigating. 2 the movement of ships and aircraft. ● navigational adj.

navigator ▷ noun 1 someone who navigates, especially a ship or aircraft. 2 old use an explorer by sea.

navvy /ˈnavɪ/ ▷ noun (navvies) a labourer, especially one employed in road-building or canal-building, etc. ▷ verb (navvied, navvying) intr to work as or like a navvy. ⓘ 19c: from NAVIGATION in its earlier sense 'canal'.

navy /ˈneɪvɪ/ ▷ noun (navies) 1 (often the Navy) a the warships of a state, usually considered together with the officers and other personnel manning them; b the organization to which they belong, ie one of the three armed services. Compare ARMY 2, AIR FORCE. 2 a body or fleet of ships with their crews. Often in compounds □ the merchant navy. 3 (also navy blue) a dark blue colour, typically used for naval uniforms. ▷ adj (also navy-blue) having a navy blue in colour. ⓘ 14c navie: from French navie, from Latin navis ship.

Navy List ▷ noun the list of all the commissioned officers in the Royal Navy.

navy yard ▷ noun, especially US a government dockyard.

nawab /nəˈwɑːb, nəˈwɔːb/ ⊳ noun, historical a Muslim ruler or landowner in India. See also NABOB. ⓘ 18c: from Urdu nawwab, from Arabic nuwwab, plural of na'ib viceroy.

nay /neɪ/ ⊳ exclamation, old use or dialect 1 no. 2 rather; to put it more strongly □ a misfortune, nay, a tragedy. ⊳ noun (nays) 1 the word 'no'. 2 formal especially in parliament: a someone who casts a negative vote □ Nays to the left, ayes to the right. b a vote against. Compare AYE. ■ say someone nay to contradict, or refuse something to, them. ⓘ 12c as nei: from Norse.

Nazarene /ˈnazəriːn, nazəˈriːn/ ⊳ adj belonging to Nazareth. ⊳ noun 1 someone from Nazareth. 2 (the Nazarene) historical Jesus Christ. 3 historical a Christian. ⓘ 13c: from Greek Nazarenos.

Nazarite /ˈnazəraɪt/ ⊳ noun 1 (also Nazirite) a Jewish ASCETIC under a vow in ancient Israel. 2 a NAZARENE. ⓘ 16c: from Hebrew nazar to consecrate.

naze /neɪz/ ⊳ noun a headland or cape. ⓘ 18c: from earlier nes in placenames.

Nazi /ˈnɑːtsɪ/ ⊳ noun (Nazis) 1 historical a member of the German NATIONAL SOCIALIST PARTY, which came to power in Germany in 1933 under Adolf Hitler. 2 derog colloq someone with extreme racist and dogmatic opinions. ■ Nazification noun. ■ Nazified adj referring to a person or nation, etc that has adopted Nazism. ■ Nazism noun the principles of the Nazis; the Nazi movement. ⓘ 1930s: German contraction of Nationalsozialist.

NB ⊳ abbreviation 1 US state Nebraska. Also written Neb. or Nebr. 2 Canadian province New Brunswick. 3 historical North Britain; Scotland. 4 (also nb) nota bene (Latin), note well; take note.

Nb ⊳ symbol, chem niobium.

NBA ⊳ abbreviation Net Book Agreement, an agreement within the book trade that books should not be sold at less than the price fixed by the publisher. It was made in 1900 and upheld until 1995.

NBC ⊳ abbreviation 1 in the US: National Broadcasting Company. 2 nuclear, biological and chemical (warfare, weapons, etc).

NBC suit ⊳ noun a suit that protects against the physical effects of NBC weapons, nuclear, biological and chemical weapons.

NC ⊳ abbreviation 1 National Curriculum. 2 US state North Carolina. Also written N.C. 3 numerical control.

nc ⊳ abbreviation no charge.

NCC ⊳ abbreviation 1 National Curriculum Council. 2 Nature Conservancy Council.

NCCL ⊳ abbreviation National Council for Civil Liberties.

NCO ⊳ noun (NCOs or NCO's) non-commissioned officer.

NCP ⊳ abbreviation, Austral National Country Party.

NCT ⊳ abbreviation National Childbirth Trust.

NCVQ ⊳ abbreviation National Council for Vocational Qualifications.

ND ⊳ abbreviation, US State North Dakota. Also written N.D. or N.Dak.

Nd ⊳ symbol, chem neodymium.

nd ⊳ abbreviation no date.

NE ⊳ abbreviation 1 US State Nebraska. Also written Neb or Nebr. 2 New England. Also written N.E. 3 north-east. 4 north-eastern.

Ne ⊳ symbol, chem neon.

né /neɪ/ ⊳ adj used in giving the original name of a titled man: born. Compare NÉE. ⓘ Early 20c: French.

Neanderthal /nɪˈandətɑːl/ ⊳ adj 1 denoting a primitive type of man living in Europe during the PALAEOLITHIC period of the Stone Age, who had a receding forehead and prominent brow ridges. 2 (sometimes neanderthal) colloq primitive. 3 (sometimes neanderthal) colloq extremely old-fashioned and reactionary. ⓘ 19c: from Neandertal, a valley in Germany where remains were first found.

Neapolitan /nɪəˈpɒlɪtən/ ⊳ adj relating to the city or the former kingdom of Naples. ⊳ noun a citizen or inhabitant of, or person born in, Naples. ⓘ 17c: from Greek Neapolis new town.

Neapolitan ice and Neapolitan ice cream ⊳ noun ice cream made in layers of different colours and flavours. ⓘ 19c.

Neapolitan violet ⊳ noun a scented double variety of sweet violet.

neap tide and neap ⊳ noun a tide occurring at the first and last quarters of the Moon, when there is the least variation between high and low water. Compare SPRING TIDE. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon nepflod neap flood.

near /nɪə(r)/ ⊳ prep (nearer, nearest) 1 at a short distance from something □ lives near the town centre. 2 close to something (in amount, etc) □ nearer 600 than 500 □ near tears. ⊳ adverb (nearer, nearest) 1 (also near to) close □ came near to hitting her. 2 old use or colloq in compounds almost; nearly □ She damn near died. ⊳ adj (nearer, nearest) 1 being a short distance away; close. 2 closer of two □ the near bank of the river. 3 similar; comparable □ that knife is the nearest thing I've got to a screwdriver. 4 closely related to one □ a near relative. 5 often in compounds almost amounting to, or almost turning into the specified thing □ a near tragedy □ near-disastrous results. 6 old use mean; miserly. ⊳ verb (neared, nearing) tr & intr to approach. ■ nearly see separate entry. ■ nearness noun. ■ near as dammit or as near as damn it colloq very nearly. ■ near at hand conveniently close. ■ not to go near someone or something to avoid them. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon, from neah nigh, and from (adverb) Norse naer nigher, from na NIGH.

near beer ⊳ noun, US any of several beers containing ½ per cent alcohol or less. Compare LOW-ALCOHOL.

nearby ⊳ adj, adverb a short distance away; close at hand.

Nearctic /nɪˈɑːktɪk/ ⊳ adj in zoogeography: referring to the region that includes the part of N America to the north of the Tropic of Cancer, and Greenland. ⓘ 19c: from Greek neos new + arktikos northern.

near-death experience ⊳ noun an instance, when apparently on the brink of death, of experiencing, from outside the body, the situation and circumstances of dying.

Near East ⊳ noun 1 MIDDLE EAST. 2 formerly an area including the Balkans and Turkey, and sometimes the countries to the west of Iran.

nearly ⊳ adverb almost. ■ not nearly very far from; nothing like □ not nearly finished. ⓘ 16c: see NEAR.

near miss ⊳ noun 1 something not quite achieved, eg a shot that almost hits the target. 2 something (eg an air collision) only just avoided.

nearness see under NEAR.

nearside ⊳ noun the side of a vehicle, horse or team of horses nearer the kerb, ie in the UK the left side, and in most other countries the right side. Also as adj □ the nearside front tyre.

near-sighted ⊳ adj short-sighted. ■ near-sightedness noun.

near thing ⊳ noun a narrow escape; a success only just achieved.

neat[1] /niːt/ ⊳ adj (neater, neatest) 1 tidy; clean; orderly. 2 pleasingly small or regular. 3 elegantly or cleverly simple □ a neat explanation. 4 skilful or efficient □ Neat work! 5 N Amer excellent □ That's neat! 6 said especially of an alcoholic drink: undiluted. • neatly adverb. • neatness noun. ⓘ 16c: from French net clean or tidy.

neat² /niːt/ ▷ noun (plural neat) archaic or dialect an ox, bull or cow, etc. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon meaning 'a beast' or 'cattle', from neotan to use.

neaten ▷ verb (neatened, neatening) to make something neat and tidy. ⓘ 16c.

neath or 'neath /niːθ/ ▷ prep, dialect or poetry beneath. ⓘ 18: shortened form of older aneath or BENEATH.

NEB ▷ abbreviation 1 National Enterprise Board. 2 New English Bible.

Neb. see under NB

neb Scot & N Eng ▷ noun 1 a beak or bill. 2 the nose. 3 the sharp point, or a projecting part, of something. ▷ verb (nebbed, nebbing) intr to look around in a nosey way with the hope of seeing something to gossip about. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon nebb beak or face.

nebbich /ˈnɛbɪx/, nebbish or nebish /ˈnɛbɪʃ/ ▷ noun (nebbiches, nebbishes or nebishes) an insignificant person; an incompetent person; a perpetual victim. ⓘ 19c: Yiddish.

Nebr. see under NB

nebula /ˈnɛbjʊlə/ ▷ noun (nebulae /-liː/ or nebulas) astron 1 a luminous or dark patch in space representing a mass of dust or particles. 2 old use the luminous mass of a remote star cluster. • nebular adj. ⓘ 17c: Latin, meaning 'mist'.

nebulizer /ˈnɛbjʊlaɪzə(r)/ ▷ noun, medicine a device, either hand-operated or electrical, with a mouthpiece or facemask through which a drug is administered in the form of a fine mist. See also INHALER. ⓘ 19c: from nebulize to make into mist, from Latin nebula mist.

nebulous /ˈnɛbjʊləs/ ▷ adj vague; hazy; lacking distinct shape, form or nature. • nebulously adverb. • nebulousness noun. ⓘ 19c in this sense: from Latin nebulosus, from nebula mist.

NEC ▷ abbreviation 1 National Executive Committee. 2 National Exhibition Centre, in Birmingham.

necessarily /nɛsəˈsɛrɪlɪ/ ▷ adverb as a necessary or inevitable result; for certain □ It won't necessarily rain.

necessary /ˈnɛsəsərɪ/ ▷ adj 1 needed; essential; indispensable; that must be done. 2 that must be; inevitable; inescapable □ a necessary evil. 3 logically required or unavoidable. 4 said eg of an agent: not free. ▷ noun (necessaries) 1 (usually necessaries) something that is necessary; an essential item. 2 (the necessary) humorous, colloq a money needed for a purpose; b action that must be taken. ⓘ 14c: from Latin necessarius, from necesse.

necessitarianism /nəsɛsɪˈtɛərɪənɪzəm/ and necessarianism ▷ noun, philos the theory that human actions are determined by precursory circumstances and cannot be willed. • necessitarian or necessarian adj, noun. ⓘ 19c.

necessitate /nəˈsɛsɪteɪt/ ▷ verb (necessitated, necessitating) 1 to make something necessary or unavoidable. 2 to compel someone to do something. ⓘ 17c: from Latin necessitare, from necessitas necessity.

> necessitate
>
> ☆ PLAIN ENGLISH alternatives: need, require, demand, involve, entail, call for

necessity /nəˈsɛsɪtɪ/ ▷ noun (necessities) 1 something necessary or essential. 2 circumstances that make something necessary, obligatory or unavoidable □ from necessity rather than choice. 3 a pressing need □ no necessity to rush. 4 poverty; want; need. • of necessity necessarily; unavoidably. ⓘ 14c: from Latin necessitas.

neck ▷ noun 1 the part of the body between the head and the shoulders. 2 the part of a garment at or covering the neck. 3 a narrow part; a narrow connecting part □ joined to the mainland by a neck of land. 4 horse-racing a head-and-neck's length; a small margin □ won by a neck. 5 the meat from the neck of an animal. 6 colloq impudence; boldness. ▷ verb (necked, necking) tr & intr, slang to hug and kiss amorously. • get it in the neck colloq to be severely rebuked or punished. • neck and neck said of competitors in a race or election, etc: exactly level. • neck or nothing risking everything. • risk one's neck see under RISK. • save one's or someone's neck or skin see under SAVE. • stick one's neck out see under STICK. • up to one's neck in something colloq deeply involved in (especially a troublesome situation); busy; preoccupied. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon hnecca.

neckband ▷ noun 1 a band or strip of material sewn round the neck of a garment to finish it, or as the base for a collar. 2 a band worn around the neck.

neckcloth ▷ noun a piece of cloth, usually white, or sometimes a piece of lace, folded and worn around the neck by men.

neckerchief /ˈnɛkətʃɪf, -tʃiːf/ ▷ noun (neckerchiefs or neckerchieves) a cloth worn round the neck. ⓘ 14c as necke couercheuer; 17c in modern form: NECK + KERCHIEF.

necking ▷ noun 1 colloq kissing and embracing. 2 archit the neck of a column. 3 archit a moulding between the capital and shaft of a column.

necklace /ˈnɛkləs/ ▷ noun 1 a string of beads or jewels, etc, or a chain, worn round the neck as jewellery. 2 (also necklacing) in S Africa: the punishment of having a tyre soaked in petrol placed around the neck or shoulders and set alight, traditionally used by Blacks to kill Blacks thought to be sympathizers or supporters of the government then enforcing APARTHEID. ▷ verb (necklaced, necklacing) in S Africa: to kill someone with a necklace. ⓘ 16c: NECK + LACE in the sense 'cord' or 'tie'.

necklet ▷ noun a simple necklace.

neckline ▷ noun the edge of a garment at the neck, or its shape.

neck of the woods ▷ noun, humorous a neighbourhood or locality.

necktie ▷ noun, especially N Amer a man's TIE.

neckwear ▷ noun ties, scarves or other articles of clothing worn around the neck.

necro- /nɛkroʊ, nɛkrə, nɛˈkrɒ/ or (before a vowel) necr- combining form, denoting 1 dead. 2 dead body. 3 dead tissue. ⓘ From Greek nekros a dead body.

necrobiosis ▷ noun, pathol the natural degeneration and death of a cell. • necrobiotic adj. ⓘ Late 18c: see -BIOSIS.

necromancer noun 1 someone who practises necromancy or divination. 2 a magician; a sorcerer.

necromancy /ˈnɛkroʊmansɪ/ ▷ noun 1 divination or prophecy through communication with the dead. 2 black magic; sorcery; enchantment. • necromantic adj. • necromantically adverb. ⓘ 14c as nigramancy, from Latin nigromantia, from Greek nekros corpse + manteia prophet.

necrophagous /nɛˈkrɒfəgəs/ ▷ adj said of an animal or bird, etc: feeding on carrion. ⓘ 19c.

necrophilia ▷ noun obsessive interest, especially of an erotic kind, in dead bodies. • necrophilic adj. ⓘ 19c: see -PHILIA.

necrophiliac /nɛkroʊˈfɪlɪak/ or necrophile /ˈnɛkroʊfaɪl/ noun someone with an obsessive, especially an erotic, interest in dead bodies.

necrophobia ▷ noun a morbid horror of corpses. ⓘ 19c.

necropolis /nɛˈkrɒpəlɪs/ ▷ noun (necropolises or necropoleis /-leɪs/) archaeol a cemetery or a burial site. ⓒ 19c: from Greek nekros corpse + polis city.

necropsy /ˈnɛkrɒpsɪ, nɛˈkrɒpsɪ/ or necroscopy /-skɒpɪ/ ▷ noun (necropsies or necroscopies) a post-mortem examination. • necroscopic /-skɒpɪk/ adj. ⓒ 19c.

necrosis /nɛˈkroʊsɪs/ ▷ noun (necroses /-siːz/) pathol the death of living tissue or bone, especially where the blood supply has been interrupted. • necrotic /nɛˈkrɒtɪk/ adj. ⓒ 17c: Greek, from nekros corpse.

nectar /ˈnɛktə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 a sugary substance produced in the flowers of plants to attract pollinating insects and which is collected by bees to make honey. 2 Greek mythol the special drink of the gods giving life and beauty. Compare AMBROSIA 1. 3 any delicious drink. 4 anything delightfully welcome to the senses, especially taste or smell. • nectarean /nɛkˈtɛərɪən/, nectareous or nectarous /ˈnɛktərəs/ adj. ⓒ 16c: from Greek nektar.

nectarine /ˈnɛktərɪn/ ▷ noun a variety of peach with a shiny downless skin. ⓒ 17c, originally as adj meaning 'like nectar'.

nectary /ˈnɛktərɪ/ ▷ noun (nectaries) bot in flowering plants: a specialized gland, usually situated at the base of the flower, that secretes nectar. ⓒ 18c.

ned ▷ noun, Scot slang a young hooligan; a disruptive male adolescent. ⓒ 1950s: possibly a familiar shortening of Edward; see also TED.

NEDC ▷ abbreviation in the UK: National Economic Development Council, an advisory body on economic issues from 1962 to 1992. Also (colloq) called Neddy.

neddy /ˈnɛdɪ/ ▷ noun (neddies) 1 colloq a donkey. 2 colloq a fool. 3 Austral slang a racehorse. ⓒ 18c: from the personal name Edward.

née or nee /neɪ/ ▷ adj used in giving a married woman's maiden name: born ▫ Jane Day, née Osborn. Compare NÉ. ⓒ 18c: French née, feminine of né born.

need ▷ verb (needed, needing) 1 to lack; to require. 2 intr (also as auxiliary verb — see Usage Note) to be required or obliged to be or do something ▫ We need to find a replacement ▫ They needn't stay. ▷ noun 1 something one requires. 2 (need of or for something) a condition of lacking or requiring it; an urge or desire. 3 (need for something) necessity or justification for it. • if need or needs be if necessary. • in need needing help or financial support. See also NEEDS. ⓒ Anglo-Saxon nead or nied.

> need
>
> Need may be used either as an ordinary intransitive verb or as an auxiliary verb.
>
> • When need is used as an intransitive verb, the form of the verb accompanying 'he/she/it' ends in '-s', questions and negative statements are formed with the auxiliary verb 'do', and a following verb is preceded by 'to' ▫ If he needs to go, I'll just have to let him ▫ You don't need to go ▫ I didn't need to see him at all ▫ Didn't you need to tell him something?
>
> • When need is used as an auxiliary verb, the verb accompanying 'he/she/it' has no '-s' ending, questions and negative statements are formed without 'do', and there is no 'to' before the following verb ▫ She needn't go if she doesn't want to ▫ Need we tell her at all? This auxiliary-verb construction is possible only in questions and negative statements in the present tense.

needful ▷ adj necessary. ▷ noun (the needful) humorous, colloq 1 whatever action is necessary. 2 money needed for a purpose. • needfully adverb. • needfulness noun.

needier, neediest and neediness see under NEEDY needle /ˈniːdəl/ ▷ noun 1 a slender pointed steel sewing instrument with a hole for the thread. 2 a longer, thicker implement of metal, wood, bone or plastic, etc, without a hole, for knitting, crocheting, etc. 3 a a hypodermic syringe; b its pointed end. 4 medicine a slender instrument for suturing and dissection, etc. 5 a gramophone STYLUS. 6 the moving pointer on a compass or other instrument. 7 anything slender, sharp and pointed. 8 a pinnacle of rock. 9 an obelisk. 10 a long slender crystal. 11 the needle-shaped leaf of a tree such as the pine or fir. 12 a strong beam passed through a wall as a temporary support. 13 (the needle) colloq a provocation; b irritation; anger; c dislike. ▷ verb (needled, needling) tr & intr 1 colloq to provoke or irritate someone, especially deliberately. 2 to sew. • look for a needle in a haystack to undertake a hopeless search. ⓒ Anglo-Saxon nædl.

needle bank ▷ noun a place where dependent drug-users may exchange old hypodermic syringes for new ones, usually free of charge, to help prevent the spread of disease or infection.

needlecord ▷ noun a finely ribbed CORDUROY.

needlecraft ▷ noun the art of needlework.

needlepoint ▷ noun 1 embroidery on canvas. 2 lace made over a paper pattern, with needles rather than bobbins.

needless /ˈniːdləs/ ▷ adj unnecessary. • needlessly adverb without any need. • needlessness noun.

needle time ▷ noun, broadcasting the amount of time allowed to a radio channel for playing recorded music.

needlewoman ▷ noun a woman who sews; a seamstress.

needlework ▷ noun sewing and embroidery.

needn't /ˈniːdənt/ ▷ contraction, colloq need not.

needs /niːdz/ ▷ adverb, old use of necessity; inevitably ▫ He needs must leave. ▷ plural noun what is required; necessities ▫ Her needs are modest. • needs must or needs must when the devil drives if it is necessary one must do it, even if it is disagreeable. ⓒ Anglo-Saxon from NEED.

needy /ˈniːdɪ/ ▷ adj (needier, neediest) in severe need; poverty-stricken; destitute. • neediness noun.

neep ▷ noun, Scot a turnip. ⓒ 15c as Scots nepe; Anglo-Saxon næp: from Latin napus.

ne'er /nɛə(r)/ ▷ adverb, poetic ▷ contraction never.

ne'er-do-well ▷ adj good-for-nothing. ▷ noun an idle irresponsible useless person. ⓒ 18c.

NEF ▷ abbreviation National Energy Foundation.

nefarious /nɪˈfɛərɪəs/ ▷ adj wicked; evil. • nefariously adverb. • nefariousness noun. ⓒ 17c: from Latin nefarius, from nefas a crime.

neg. ▷ abbreviation 1 negative. 2 negatively. 3 negotiable.

negate /nɪˈgeɪt/ ▷ verb (negated, negating) 1 to cancel or destroy the effect of something. 2 to deny the existence of something. ⓒ 17c: from Latin negare, negatum to deny.

negation /nɪˈgeɪʃən/ ▷ noun 1 the act of negating. 2 the absence or opposite of something. 3 the denial of the existence of something. 4 logic a negative proposition.

negationist ▷ noun someone who merely denies something without offering any positive assertion.

negative /ˈnɛgətɪv/ ▷ adj 1 meaning or saying 'no'; expressing denial, refusal or prohibition. Opposite of AFFIRMATIVE. 2 said of people or attitudes, etc: unenthusiastic, defeatist or pessimistic. 3 logic denying the connection between a subject and a predicate. 4 math less than zero. 5 contrary to, or cancelling the effect of, whatever is regarded as positive. 6 math measured in the opposite direction to that chosen as positive. 7 elec having the kind of electric charge produced by an excess of electrons. 8 photog said of film: having the light and shade of the actual image reversed, or complementary colours in place of actual ones. 9 biol in a direction away from the source of stimulus. ▷ noun 1 a word, statement or grammatical form expressing denial □ replied in the negative. 2 a photographic film with a negative image, from which prints are made. ▷ verb (negatived, negativing) 1 to reject something; to veto it. 2 to deny something. 3 to neutralize or cancel out something. 4 to disprove or prove the contrary of POSITIVE or AFFIRMATIVE. Compare POSITIVE. • negatively adverb. • negativeness or negativity noun. ⓘ 16c: from Latin negativus, from negare to deny.

negative equity ▷ noun, econ the situation, caused by a fall in house prices, when the market value of property becomes less than the value of the mortgage on it. ⓘ 1990s.

negative feedback ▷ noun 1 said of a response to an enquiry, survey or questionnaire, etc: expressing lack of enthusiasm or opposition. 2 the return of part of an output signal back to the input, as a way of increasing the quality of amplified sound.

negative heliotropism see under HELIOTROPISM.

negative ion therapy ▷ noun, alternative medicine treatment whereby the body is exposed to harmless ions, claimed to effect various cures.

negative pole ▷ noun that pole of a magnet which turns to the south when the magnet swings freely.

negative reinforcement ▷ noun, psychol the process by which an activity is learned through use of an unpleasant stimulus, eg electrical shock. See also AVERSION THERAPY. Compare POSITIVE REINFORCEMENT.

negative sign ▷ noun the symbol of subtraction (–), read as minus.

negativism /ˈnegətɪvɪzəm/ ▷ noun 1 a tendency to deny and criticize without offering any positive assertions; the doctrine or attitude of a NEGATIONIST. 2 a tendency to do the opposite of what one is asked to do. • negativist noun, adj. • negativistic adj. ⓘ 19c.

negativity see under NEGATIVE.

negator /nɪˈgeɪtə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 someone who denies something. 2 grammar a word or particle expressing negation, eg not, never.

neglect /nɪˈglɛkt/ ▷ verb (neglected, neglecting) 1 not to give proper care and attention to someone or something. 2 to leave (duties, etc) undone. 3 to fail or omit (to do something). ▷ noun 1 lack of proper care. 2 a state of disuse or decay. • neglectful adj inattentive or negligent; undutiful or unconscientious. • neglectfully adverb. • neglectfulness noun. ⓘ 16c: from Latin negligere to neglect.

négligée or negligee /ˈnɛglɪʒeɪ/ ▷ noun (négligées or negligees) a woman's thin light dressing-gown. ⓘ 1930s in this sense; 18c meaning 'a loose gown': from French négligé carelessness or undress.

negligence /ˈnɛglɪdʒəns/ ▷ noun 1 being negligent. 2 lack of proper attention or care; carelessness; neglect. 3 law a breach of a legal duty of care for others. ⓘ 14c.

negligent /ˈnɛglɪdʒənt/ ▷ adj 1 not giving proper care and attention. 2 careless or offhand. • negligently adverb. ⓘ 14c.

negligible /ˈnɛglɪdʒəbəl/ ▷ adj small or unimportant enough to ignore. • negligibility noun. • negligibly adverb so as to be negligible or insignificant □ a negligibly small amount. ⓘ 19c: from Latin negligere to disregard.

negotiable /nɪˈgoʊʃɪəbəl/ ▷ adj 1 open to discussion □ Terms and conditions are negotiable. 2 said of a hazard or obstacle: able to be got past □ The pass is no longer negotiable. 3 said of a cash order, cheque, etc: that can legally be negotiated, ie transferred to another person in exchange for its value in money. • negotiability noun.

negotiate /nɪˈgoʊʃɪeɪt/ ▷ verb (negotiated, negotiating) 1 intr to confer; to bargain. 2 to bring about (an agreement), or arrange (a treaty, price, etc), by conferring. 3 to pass safely (a hazard on one's way, etc). 4 colloq to cope with something successfully. • negotiator noun. ⓘ 16c: from Latin negotiari, negotiatus to trade.

■ negotiate with someone to confer with them to reach agreement on terms or arrangements affecting both parties.

negotiation ▷ noun 1 the process of negotiating. 2 a round of negotiating.

Negress /ˈniːgrəs/ ▷ noun (Negresses) often offensive a female NEGRO. ⓘ 18c.

Negrillo /nɪˈgrɪloʊ/ ▷ noun (Negrillos) an African NEGRITO. ⓘ 19c: Spanish, diminutive of negro black.

Negrito /nɪˈgriːtoʊ/ ▷ noun (Negritoes or Negritos) a member of any of a number of pygmy negroid races of SE Asia, Melanesia and Africa. ⓘ 19c: Spanish diminutive of negro black.

Negro /ˈniːgroʊ/ ▷ noun (Negroes) often offensive a person belonging to or descended from one of the black-skinned races originally from Africa. ▷ adj belonging to, characteristic of, or relating to these races. ⓘ 16c: Spanish, from Latin niger black.

Negroid /ˈniːgrɔɪd/ ▷ adj (also negroid) having the physical characteristics of the Negro races, eg dark skin, a broad nose and tightly curling hair. ▷ noun a Negroid person. • negroidal adj. ⓘ 19c.

Negroism /ˈniːgroʊɪzəm/ ▷ noun 1 any peculiarity of speech among Negroes, especially in the southern US. 2 old use, sometimes derog devotion to the causes of the Black Civil Rights movement. ⓘ 19c.

Negro spiritual ▷ noun a type of religious song that originated among Negro slaves in the southern states of N America, often with a subtext referring to a planned escape.

Neh. ▷ abbreviation Book of the Bible: Nehemiah. See table at BIBLE.

neigh /neɪ/ ▷ noun the characteristic cry of a horse. ▷ verb (neighed, neighing) intr to make this cry or a sound like it. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon hnaegan to neigh: imitating the sound.

neighbour or (N Amer) neighbor /ˈneɪbə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 someone near or next door to one. 2 an adjacent territory or person, etc. 3 old use any of one's fellow humans □ Love your neighbour. • neighbouring adj 1 nearby. 2 adjoining. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon neahgebur, from neah near + gebur dweller.

neighbourhood or (N Amer) neighborhood ▷ noun 1 a district or locality. 2 the inhabitants of a district; the local community. 3 the area near something or someone. 4 math all the points that surround a given point or curve in a specified degree of closeness. • in the neighbourhood of roughly □ It cost in the neighbourhood of £500.

neighbourhood watch ▷ noun a crime-prevention scheme under which local householders agree to keep a general watch on each other's property and the local streets. ⓘ 1970s: originally US and introduced as a scheme in Britain in the 1980s.

neighbourly or (N Amer) neighborly ▷ adj friendly, especially to the people around one. • neighbourliness noun. ⓘ 16c.

neither /ˈnaɪðə(r), ˈniːðə(r)/ ▷ adj, pronoun not the one nor the other (thing or person) □ Neither proposal is acceptable □ Neither of the proposals is acceptable. ▷ conj (used to introduce the first of two or more alternatives; usually paired with NOR) not □ I neither know nor care. ▷ adverb nor; also not □ If you won't, neither will I. • neither here nor there irrelevant; unimportant. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon nawther or nahwæther.

neither

- Neither is followed by a singular or plural verb, although a singular verb is usually regarded as more correct:
✓ Neither of us likes the idea very much.
✓ Neither of the old women in the house was in bed.
✓ Neither of them were drunk.
- It is sometimes impossible to tell whether the verb is singular or plural because there is no difference in form:
✓ Neither of us spoke for a few minutes.
This increases the uncertainty.
☆ RECOMMENDATION: use a singular verb for preference. Note that neither should be paired with nor, not with or:
✓ He possessed neither arms nor armour.

nekton /ˈnɛktɒn/ ▷ noun, zool, collective the actively swimming organisms that inhabit seas and lakes, etc, eg fish. Compare PLANKTON. ⓘ 19c: Greek, meaning 'swimming'.

nelly[1] /ˈnɛlɪ/ ▷ noun old slang now only used in the phrase • not on your nelly certainly not. ⓘ 1940s: perhaps from the phrase 'not on your Nelly Duff', rhyming slang for 'puff', meaning 'life'.

nelly[2] /ˈnɛlɪ/ ▷ noun (nellies) a large PETREL. ⓘ 19c: perhaps the woman's name Nelly.

nelson /ˈnɛlsən/ and full nelson ▷ noun, wrestling a hold in which one passes one's arms under and over one's opponent's from behind, with the palms against the back of their neck. Compare HALF NELSON. ⓘ 19c: from the name of Horatio Nelson.

nematode /ˈnɛmətoʊd/ ▷ noun, zool any of several long thin unsegmented cylindrical worms, occurring as parasites in plants and animals as well as in soil or sediment. ⓘ 19c: from Greek nema thread + eidos form.

Nembutal /ˈnɛmbjʊtal/ ▷ noun, trademark proprietary name for pentobarbitone sodium, used as a sedative, hypnotic and antispasmodic drug. ⓘ 1930s.

nem. con. /nɛm ˈkɒn/ ▷ abbreviation: nemine contradicente (Latin), with no one disagreeing; unanimously.

nem. diss. /nɛm ˈdɪs/ ▷ abbreviation: nemine dissentiente (Latin), with no one dissenting.

nemesia /nɛˈmiːʒə/ ▷ noun (nemesias) a plant of the figwort family, originally found in S Africa, grown for its brightly coloured flowers. ⓘ 19c: from Greek nemesion the name for a similar plant.

nemesis /ˈnɛməsɪs/ ▷ noun (nemeses /-siːz/) 1 retribution or just punishment. 2 something that brings this. ⓘ 16c: from Nemesis, Greek goddess of retribution.

neo- /niːoʊ, nɪˈɒ/ ▷ prefix, denoting new, or a new form; modern. ⓘ From Greek neos new.

neoclassical ▷ adj said of artistic or architectural style, especially in the late 18c and early 19c: imitating or adapting the styles of the ancient classical world. • neoclassicism noun.

neocolonialism ▷ noun the domination by powerful states of weaker but politically independent states by means of economic pressure. • neocolonialist adj, noun.

neo-Darwinism ▷ noun, biol a later development of DARWINISM, laying greater stress on natural selection and denying the inheritance of acquired characteristics. • neo-Darwinist or neo-Darwinian noun, adj.

neodymium /niːoʊˈdɪmɪəm/ ▷ noun, chem (symbol Nd, atomic number 60) a silvery metallic element, one of the rare earth elements. ⓘ 19c: from didymium, a substance once thought to be an element.

Neofascism ▷ noun a movement attempting to reinstate the policies of FASCISM. • Neofascist noun, adj.

Neo-Gothic or neo-gothic ▷ noun, adj revived GOTHIC of the 19c.

Neo-impressionism ▷ noun, art a movement lasting from c.1885 to c.1900, started by a group of French painters, including Georges Seurat, as a reaction against the romanticism of IMPRESSIONISM, and involved the use of greater luminosity of colour by applying pure unmixed colours in small dots.

neolithic or Neolithic /niːoʊˈlɪθɪk/ ▷ adj belonging or relating to the later Stone Age, in Europe lasting from about 40 000 to 2 400 BC, and characterized by the manufacture of polished stone tools. ⓘ 19c: from NEO- + Greek lithos stone.

neologism /nɪˈɒlədʒɪzəm/ ▷ noun 1 a new word or expression. 2 a new meaning acquired by an existing word or expression. 3 the practice of coining or introducing neologisms. • neologist noun. • neologistic or neologistical adj. • neologize or neologise verb (neologized, neologizing) to introduce new words; to coin neologisms. ⓘ Early 19c: from French néologisme, from NEO- + Greek logos word.

neomycin /niːoʊˈmaɪsɪn/ ▷ noun, pharmacol an antibiotic used to treat skin and eye infections. ⓘ 1940s: from NEO- + Greek mykes fungus + -IN.

neon /ˈniːɒn/ ▷ noun, chem (symbol Ne, atomic number 10) an element, a colourless gas that glows red when electricity is passed through it, used eg in illuminated signs and advertisements. Often as adj ▫ neon sign. ⓘ Late 19c: Greek neuter of neos new.

neonatal ▷ adj relating to newly born children. ⓘ 19c: from Latin neonatus.

neonate /ˈniːoʊneɪt/ ▷ noun, biol, medicine a newly born child.

Neo-Nazi ▷ noun a member or supporter of any of a number of modern movements supporting the principles of NATIONAL SOCIALISM. • Neo-Nazism noun.

neon lamp and neon light ▷ noun 1 a neon-filled glass tube used for lighting. 2 loosely any similar tubular fluorescent light.

neophilia ▷ noun love of novelty; obsessive keeping up with the latest fashions and trends. • neophile noun. • neophilic adj. ⓘ 1940s.

neophobia ▷ noun a dread or hatred of novelty. • neophobe noun. • neophobic adj. ⓘ 19c.

neophyte /ˈniːoʊfaɪt/ ▷ noun 1 a beginner. 2 a new convert to a religious faith. 3 a novice in a religious order. ⓘ 16c: from Latin neophytus, from Greek neophytos newly planted.

Neoplatonism ▷ noun a philosophy developed in the 3c AD combining PLATONISM with oriental elements. • Neoplatonic adj. • Neoplatonist noun, adj.

neoprene /ˈniːoʊpriːn/ ▷ noun an oil-resisting and heat-resisting synthetic rubber made by polymerizing chloroprene. ⓘ 1930s: from neo- + chloroprene.

neorealism ▷ noun in the arts and literature: a modern form of realism, especially a movement that originated in post-war Italy in cinematography, concentrating in particular on social themes and the realistic depiction of lower-class life. • neorealist noun, adj. • neorealistic adj.

neoteny /nɪˈɒtənɪ/ ▷ noun, zool retention of juvenile features in the adult form, an important mechanism in EVOLUTION. ⓘ Early 20c: from Latin neotenia, from Greek teinein to stretch.

neoteric /niːoʊˈtɛrɪk/ ▷ adj modern; recent. ▷ noun a modern writer or philosopher. • neoterically adverb. ⓘ 16c: from Greek neoterikos, from neoteros newer.

neotropical ▷ adj relating to ecological aspects of the Americas south of the Tropic of Cancer.

Neozoic /niːoʊˈzoʊɪk/ ▷ adj, geol relating to the period between the MESOZOIC and the present age. ▷ noun this period. See table at GEOLOGICAL TIME SCALE. ⓘ 19c.

Nepalese /nɛpə'liːz/ ▷ adj ▷ noun (plural Nepalese) NEPALI.

Nepali /nɪ'pɔːlɪ/ ▷ noun (Nepali or Nepalis) 1 a citizen or inhabitant, or person born in Nepal, a kingdom in S Asia. 2 the official language of Nepal. ▷ adj belonging or relating to Nepal, its inhabitants or their language. ⓘ Late 19c.

nepenthe /nɪ'pɛnθɪ/ ▷ noun (nepenthes) poetic 1 a drug or drink that allows one to forget one's sorrows. 2 the plant that it is made from. • nepenthean adj. ⓘ 16c: from Greek nepenthes, from ne- not + penthos grief.

nephelometer /nɛfə'lɒmɪtə(r)/ ▷ noun an instrument for measuring cloudiness, especially in liquids. • nephelometric /-'mɛtrɪk/ adj. • nephelometry noun. ⓘ 19c: from Greek nephele cloud.

nephew /'nɛfjuː, 'nɛvjuː/ ▷ noun the son of one's brother or sister, or of the brother or sister of one's wife or husband. Feminine equivalent NIECE. ⓘ 13c: from French neveu, from Latin nepos grandson or nephew.

nephology /nɛ'fɒlədʒɪ/ ▷ noun, meteorol the study of clouds. • nephologic /nɛfə'lɒdʒɪk/ or nephological adj. • nephologist noun. ⓘ 19c: from Greek nephos cloud.

nephrectomy /nɪ'frɛktəmɪ/ ▷ noun (nephrectomies) medicine the surgical removal of a kidney. ⓘ 19c.

nephrite /'nɛfraɪt/ ▷ noun, geol a hard glistening mineral that occurs in a wide range of colours including black, green and white. Also called JADE or JADEITE. • nephritic /nɪ'frɪtɪk/ adj. ⓘ 18c: from Greek nephros kidney, because it was formerly believed to be useful in curing kidney disease.

nephritis /nɪ'fraɪtɪs/ ▷ noun, pathol inflammation of a kidney. • nephritic adj. ⓘ 16c.

nephro- /nɛfroʊ, nɛ'frɒ/ or (before a vowel) nephr- combining form, denoting one or both kidneys. ⓘ From Greek nephros kidney.

nephrology /nɛ'frɒlədʒɪ/ ▷ noun the branch of medicine concerned with the study of the structure, function and diseases of the kidney. ⓘ 19c.

nephron /'nɛfrɒn/ ▷ noun, anatomy one of over a million functional units in the vertebrate kidney, responsible for reabsorption of water and nutrients and for the filtration of waste products from the blood to form urine. ⓘ 1930s.

ne plus ultra /niː plʌs 'ʌltrə, neɪ —/ ▷ noun nothing further; the uttermost point or extreme perfection of anything. ⓘ 17c: Latin.

nepotism /'nɛpətɪzəm/ ▷ noun the practice of favouring one's relatives or friends, especially in making official appointments. • nepotistic /nɛpə'tɪstɪk/ or nepotic /nɪ'pɒtɪk/ adj. • nepotist noun. ⓘ 17c: from Latin nepos grandson or nephew.

neptunium /nɛp'tjuːnɪəm/ ▷ noun, chem (symbol Np, atomic number 93) a metallic element obtained artificially in nuclear reactors during the production of PLUTONIUM. ⓘ 1940s: named after the planet Neptune.

NERC /nɜːk/ ▷ abbreviation Natural Environment Research Council.

nerd or nurd /nɜːd/ ▷ noun, derog, slang someone who is foolish or annoying, often because they are so wrapped up in something that isn't thought worthy of such interest. Also in compounds □ a computer nerd. • nerdish adj. • nerdy adj. ⓘ 1960s.

nereid /'nɪərɪɪd/ ▷ noun (plural nereids or in sense 1 nereides /-diːz/) 1 (also Nereid) Greek mythol a sea-nymph, daughter of the god Nereus. 2 a marine worm. ⓘ 17c: Greek nereis, from Nereus, an ancient sea-god.

nerka /'nɜːkə/ ▷ noun (nerkas) the sockeye. ⓘ 18c.

neroli /'nɛrəlɪ/ and neroli oil ▷ noun an oil distilled from orange flowers. ⓘ 17c: said to be named after a French-born Italian princess of Neroli credited with its discovery.

nerve /nɜːv/ ▷ noun 1 one of the cords, consisting of a bundle of fibres, that carry instructions for movement and information on sensation between the brain or spinal cord and other parts of the body. 2 courage; assurance. 3 colloq cheek; impudence. 4 (nerves) colloq nervousness; tension or stress □ calm one's nerves. 5 (usually nerves) colloq one's capacity to cope with stress or excitement. 6 bot a leaf-vein or rib. 7 entomol a NERVURE in an insect's wing. ▷ verb (nerved, nerving) (often nerve oneself for something) to prepare (oneself) for (a challenge or ordeal). • nerved adj supplied with nerves. • get on someone's nerves colloq to annoy them. ⓘ 16c: from Latin nervus sinew, tendon or nerve.

nerve agent ▷ noun a NERVE GAS or similar substance.

nerve cell see under NEURONE.

nerve centre ▷ noun 1 a cluster of nerve cells responsible for a particular bodily function. 2 the centre of control within an organization, etc.

nerve fibre ▷ noun, zool an AXON.

nerve gas ▷ noun a poisonous gas that acts on the nerves, especially those controlling respiration, used as a weapon.

nerve impulse see IMPULSE.

nerveless ▷ adj 1 lacking feeling or strength; inert. 2 fearless. • nervelessness noun. • nervelessly adverb.

nerve-racking or nerve-wracking ▷ adj denoting something that makes one feel tense and anxious; distressing.

nervier, nerviest, nervily and nerviness see under NERVY.

nervous /'nɜːvəs/ ▷ adj 1 timid; easily agitated. 2 apprehensive; uneasy. 3 relating to the nerves □ nervous illnesses. 4 consisting of nerves. • nervously adverb. • nervousness noun. ⓘ 17c; 15c, meaning 'muscular' or 'vigorous': from Latin nervosus sinewy.

nervous breakdown ▷ noun a mental illness attributed loosely to stress, with intense anxiety, low self-esteem and loss of concentration.

nervous system ▷ noun the network of communication, represented by the brain, nerves and spinal cord, that controls all one's mental and physical functions.

nervure /'nɜːvjə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 bot a leaf-vein. 2 entomol a CHITINOUS strut or rib that supports or strengthens an insect's wing. ⓘ 19c.

nervy /'nɜːvɪ/ ▷ adj (nervier, nerviest) 1 excitable. 2 nervous. 3 N Amer colloq impudent; bold. • nervily adverb. • nerviness noun.

NES ▷ abbreviation National Eczema Society.

nescience /'nɛsɪəns/ ▷ noun, formal lack of knowledge; ignorance. • nescient adj. ⓘ 17c: from Latin nescire to be ignorant of something, from ne not + scire to know.

ness ▷ noun a headland. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon næs.

-ness /nɪs, nəs/ ▷ suffix forming nouns, denoting a state, condition or degree of something □ slowness □ darkness.

nest ▷ noun 1 a structure built by birds or other creatures, eg rats and wasps, etc in which to lay eggs, or give birth to and look after young. 2 a cosy habitation or retreat. 3 a den or haunt, eg of thieves, or secret centre, eg of vice, crime, etc. 4 a brood, swarm, gang, etc. 5 a set of things that fit together or one inside the other □ a nest of tables. ▷ verb (nested, nesting) 1 intr to build and occupy a nest. 2 tr & intr to fit things together compactly, especially one inside another. 3 intr to go in search of birds' nests. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon.

nest egg ▷ noun 1 a real or artificial egg left in a nest to encourage laying. 2 colloq a sum of money saved up for the future; one's savings.

nesting box ▷ noun a box set up for birds to nest in.

nestle /ˈnɛsəl/ ▷ verb (nestled, nestling) intr (often nestle up, down or together, etc) to lie or settle snugly. ◷ Anglo-Saxon nestlian to make a nest.

nestling /ˈnɛslɪŋ, ˈnɛstlɪŋ/ ▷ noun a young bird still unable to fly. ◷ 14c: NEST + -LING.

net[1] ▷ noun 1 an openwork material made of thread or cord, etc knotted, twisted or woven so as to form regularly shaped meshes. 2 a piece of this in any of various shapes or qualities appropriate to such uses as catching fish or insects, protecting fruit bushes, confining hair, etc. 3 a strip of net dividing a tennis or badminton court, etc. 4 sport the net-backed goal in hockey and football, etc. 5 (nets) cricket a a practice pitch enclosed in nets, indoors or outdoors; b a practice session in nets. 6 a snare or trap. 7 (the net) short for THE INTERNET. ▷ adj made of or like net. ▷ verb (netted, netting) 1 to catch something in a net. 2 to cover something with a net. 3 sport to hit or kick, etc (the ball) into the net or goal. 4 intr to construct net from thread or cord, etc. 5 historical to make (a purse, etc) using a knotting and looping process. • netted adj 1 made into a net. 2 reticulated. 3 caught in a net. 4 covered with a net. • netting noun 1 any material with meshes, made by knotting or twisting thread, cord or wire, etc. 2 the act or process of netting. ◷ Anglo-Saxon net or nett.

net[2] ▷ adj 1 said of profit: remaining after all expenses, etc have been paid. Opposite of GROSS. 2 said of weight: excluding the packaging or container. ▷ verb (netted, netting) to produce, or earn, (an amount) as clear profit. ◷ 14c: French, meaning 'clean'.

net asset value ▷ noun (abbreviation NAV) the total value of the assets of a company minus the current liabilities.

netball ▷ noun a game played between teams of seven women or girls on a hard court, indoors or outdoors, the aim being to score points by throwing the ball through a net hanging from a ring at the top of a pole.

Net Book Agreement see NBA

net game and net play ▷ noun, tennis, badminton, etc play near the net.

Neth. ▷ abbreviation Netherlands.

nether /ˈnɛðə(r)/ ▷ adj, literary or old use lower or under. • nethermost adj lowest; farthest down. ◷ Anglo-Saxon nithor down.

Netherlander /ˈnɛðəlandə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 a citizen or inhabitant of, or person born in, the Netherlands, a country in NW Europe on the North Sea. 2 historical an inhabitant of the Netherlands and the Flemish-speaking areas of Belgium. • Netherlandic or Netherlandish adj Dutch.

nether world ▷ singular noun and nether regions ▷ plural noun the underworld; hell.

Netiquette or netiquette ▷ noun, computing the rules of polite on-line behaviour. ◷ 1980s: from NET[1] + ETIQUETTE.

netsuke /ˈnɛtsʊkɪ/ ▷ noun (netsukes or netsuke) a small Japanese carved ornament, once used to fasten small objects (eg a purse, or a pouch for tobacco or medicines, etc) to a sash. ◷ 19c: Japanese ne root or bottom + tsuke, from tsukeru to attach.

netted and netting see under NET[1], NET[2] nettle /ˈnɛtəl/ ▷ noun 1 a plant covered with hairs that sting if touched. 2 a plant that resembles this, but does not sting. See also DEAD NETTLE. ▷ verb (nettled, nettling) 1 to offend or irritate someone. 2 to sting someone. • grasp the nettle to deal boldly with a difficult situation. ◷ Anglo-Saxon netele.

nettle rash ▷ noun, non-technical URTICARIA.

network ▷ noun 1 any system that resembles a mass of criss-crossing lines ▫ a network of streets. 2 any co-ordinated system involving large numbers of people or branches, etc ▫ a telecommunications network. 3 a group of radio or TV stations that broadcast the same programmes at the same time. 4 computing a linked set of computers capable of sharing power or storage facilities, organized as a ring or star. 5 NETTING 1 (see under NET[1]). ▷ verb 1 to broadcast something on a network. 2 intr to build or maintain relationships with a network of people for mutual benefit. 3 to link (computer terminals, etc to operate interactively. • networker noun. • become networked to set up a connection to a computer network, especially THE INTERNET.

neume or neum /njuːm/ ▷ noun in medieval music: 1 a succession of notes sung to one syllable. 2 a sign giving a rough indication of rise or fall of pitch. ◷ 15c: French, from Greek pneuma breath.

neur- see NEURO-

neural /ˈnjʊərəl/ ▷ adj relating to the nerves or nervous system. • neurally adverb. ◷ 19c: from Greek neuron nerve.

neuralgia /njʊəˈraldʒɪə/ ▷ noun, pathol spasmodic pain originating along the course of a nerve. • neuralgic adj. ◷ 19c.

neural network ▷ noun, computing an artificial network, consisting of many computer processing units connected in parallel, that attempts to imitate some of the structural and functional properties of the human nervous system. Also called NEURAL NET.

neuritis /njʊəˈraɪtɪs/ ▷ noun, pathol inflammation of a nerve or nerves, in some cases with defective functioning of the affected part. ◷ 19c.

neuro- /njʊəroʊ, njʊəˈrɒ/ or (before a vowel) neur- ▷ combining form, denoting a nerve or the nervous system ▫ neurosurgery.

neuroglia see GLIA

neurolinguistics ▷ singular noun the study of the neurological basis of language development and use. • neurolinguist noun. • neurolinguistic adj.

neurology /njʊˈrɒlədʒɪ/ ▷ noun, medicine the study of the structure, functions, diseases and disorders of the CENTRAL NERVOUS SYSTEM, and the peripheral nerves. • neurological /-ˈlɒdʒɪkəl/ adj. • neurologist noun. ◷ 17c.

neurone /ˈnjʊəroʊn/ or neuron /-rɒn/ ▷ noun, anatomy any of a large number of specialized cells that transmit nerve impulses from one part of the body to another. Also called nerve cell. ◷ 19c: Greek neuron nerve.

neurosis /njʊəˈroʊsɪs/ ▷ noun (neuroses /-siːz/) 1 a mental disorder that causes obsessive fears, depression and unreasonable behaviour. Compare PSYCHOSIS. 2 colloq an anxiety or obsession. ◷ 18c.

neurotic /njʊəˈrɒtɪk/ ▷ adj 1 relating to, or suffering from, a neurosis. 2 colloq over-anxious, over-sensitive or obsessive. ▷ noun someone suffering from a neurosis. • neurotically adverb. ◷ 19c.

neurotransmitter ▷ noun, physiol a chemical released from a nerve fibre by means of which an impulse passes to a muscle or another nerve. ◷ 20c.

neut. ▷ abbreviation 1 grammar neuter. 2 neutral.

neuter /ˈnjuːtə(r)/ ▷ adj (abbreviation n. or neut.) 1 grammar in many languages: belonging or referring to one of the GENDERS into which nouns and pronouns are divided, ie that to which nouns and pronouns that are neither MASCULINE nor FEMININE belong. See also COMMON GENDER. 2 said of plants: lacking pistils or stamens. 3 said of animals: sexually undeveloped or castrated. 4 said of insects: sexually undeveloped. 5 sexless or apparently sexless. ▷ noun 1 grammar a the neuter gender; b a word belonging to this gender. 2 a neuter plant, animal or insect, eg a worker bee or ant. 3 a castrated cat. ▷ verb (neutered, neutering) to castrate (an animal). ◷ 14c: Latin neuter neither, from ne not + uter either.

neutral /ˈnjuːtrəl/ ▷ adj 1 not taking sides in a quarrel or war. 2 not belonging or relating to either side □ neutral ground. 3 said of colours, especially grey and fawn: indefinite enough to blend easily with brighter ones. 4 with no strong or noticeable qualities; not distinctive. 5 elec with no positive or negative electrical charge. 6 chem neither acidic nor alkaline. ▷ noun 1 a person or nation taking no part in a war or quarrel and not allied to any side. 2 the disengaged position of an engine's gears, with no power being transmitted to the moving parts. ● neutrally adverb. ⓘ 16c: from Latin neutralis, from neuter neither.

neutralism /ˈnjuːtrəlɪzəm/ ▷ noun the policy of not entering into alliance with other nations and avoiding taking sides ideologically. ● neutralist noun, adj.

neutrality /njuˈtralɪtɪ/ ▷ noun being neutral, especially in a war or dispute.

neutralize or neutralise /ˈnjuːtrəlaɪz/ ▷ verb (neutralized, neutralizing) 1 to cancel out the effect of something; to make it useless or harmless. 2 to declare (a country, etc) neutral. ● neutralization noun. ● neutralizer noun. ⓘ 18c.

neutrino /njuˈtriːnoʊ/ ▷ noun (neutrinos) physics a stable SUBATOMIC PARTICLE that has no electric charge, virtually no mass, and travels at or near the speed of light. ⓘ 1930s: Italian, from neutro neutral.

neutron /ˈnjuːtrɒn/ ▷ noun, physics one of the electrically uncharged particles in the nucleus of an atom. Compare PROTON. ⓘ 1920s: from Latin neuter neither + -ON.

neutron bomb ▷ noun a type of bomb that destroys life by intense radiation, without the blast and heat effects that destroy buildings. ⓘ 1960s.

neutron star ▷ noun, astron a star of very small size and very great density which has almost reached the end of its evolutionary life.

Nev. see under NV

névé /ˈneveɪ/ ▷ noun (névés) 1 the granular snow, not yet compacted into ice, that lies on the surface at the upper end of a glacier. 2 a field of such snow. ⓘ 19c: French, from Latin nix, nivis snow.

never /ˈnevə(r)/ ▷ adverb 1 not ever; at no time. 2 not □ I never realized that. 3 emphatically not □ This will never do. 4 surely not □ Those two are never twins! ● never ever absolutely never. ● well I never! an expression of astonishment. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon næfre, from ne not + æfre ever.

nevermore ▷ adverb, formal or literary never again.

never-never ▷ noun, colloq the hire-purchase system □ bought it on the never-never.

never-never land ▷ noun (sometimes Never-Never-Land) an imaginary place or conditions too fortunate to exist in reality. ⓘ Early 20c.

nevertheless ▷ adverb in spite of that.

nevus see NAEVUS

new /njuː/ ▷ adj (newer, newest) 1 recently made, bought, built, opened, etc □ a new bike. 2 recently discovered □ a new planet. 3 never having existed before; just invented, etc □ new techniques. 4 fresh; additional; supplementary □ a new consignment. 5 recently arrived, installed, etc. 6 (chiefly new to someone or something) unfamiliar with it; experienced or experiencing for the first time □ He's new to the work. 7 said of a person: changed physically, mentally or morally for the better. 8 renewed □ gave us new hope. 9 modern □ the new generation. 10 used in naming a place just founded after an old-established one □ New York. ▷ adverb, usually in compounds 1 only just; freshly □ a newborn babe □ new-baked bread. 2 anew. ▷ noun 1 colloq something which is new. 2 newness. ● newly adverb 1 only just; recently □ newly arrived. 2 again; anew □ newly awakened desire. ● newness noun. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon niwe.

New Age ▷ noun 1 a modern cultural trend concerned with the union of mind, body and spirit, and expressing itself in an interest in a variety of beliefs and disciplines such as mysticism, meditation, astrology and holistic medicine. 2 (also New Age Music) a style of music first popular in the late 1980s, that uses synthesizers together with acoustic instruments, and draws on jazz, folk and classical music. ▷ adj 1 relating to or typical of a way of life in which these beliefs and disciplines form a central part. 2 relating to or typical of New Age Music.

New Age traveller ▷ noun a member of a group of people who are usually ecologically conscious, and who move around the country in converted caravans and adopt an alternative lifestyle.

New Australian ▷ noun, Austral a recent immigrant to Australia. See also NEW CHUM.

new blood see BLOOD (noun 7b) new-blown ▷ adj said of a flower: just come into bloom.

newborn ▷ adj 1 just or very recently born. 2 said of faith, etc: reborn.

new broom ▷ noun a new person in charge, bent on making sweeping improvements.

Newcastle Disease ▷ noun, vet medicine an acute, highly contagious viral disease of birds, especially poultry. Also called fowl-pest. ⓘ Named after Newcastle-upon-Tyne where the disease was first recorded in 1926.

new chum ▷ noun 1 Austral & NZ colloq a newly arrived and inexperienced immigrant. 2 Austral slang a beginner.

new-come ▷ adj recently arrived.

newcomer ▷ noun 1 someone recently arrived. 2 a beginner.

newel /ˈnjuːəl/ ▷ noun 1 the central spindle round which a spiral stair winds. 2 (also newel post) a post at the top or bottom of a flight of stairs, supporting the handrail. ● newelled adj. ⓘ 14c: from French nouel nut kernel.

New Englander ▷ noun a citizen or inhabitant, or a person born in New England.

newfangled /njuːˈfaŋgəld/ ▷ adj modern, especially objectionably so. ● newfangledness noun. ⓘ 14c: from Anglo-Saxon newefangel eager for novelty.

new-fashioned ▷ adj 1 made in a new way or fashion. 2 modern.

new-found ▷ adj newly discovered or devised.

Newfoundland /ˈnjuːfəndlənd, njuːˈfaʊnd-/ ▷ noun a breed of very large intelligent dog, originally and especially black, that are strong swimmers. ⓘ 18c: originally from Newfoundland, a Province in E Canada.

newish /ˈnjuːɪʃ/ ▷ adj rather new or nearly new. ● newishly adverb. ● newishness noun.

new lad ▷ noun an affluent young man who holds reactionary political and social views and adopts an arrogant, sexist, beer-drinking lifestyle in open defiance of political correctness.

new-laid ▷ adj said of eggs: fresh.

New Latin ▷ noun the form of Latin used since the Renaissance, especially in legal and scientific use.

New Left ▷ noun, politics an extreme left-wing movement among students, etc in the 1960s.

new look ▷ noun 1 a radical modification in the appearance of something. 2 (New Look) a style of women's fashion introduced in 1947, notable for longer and fuller skirts.

newly see under NEW newly-weds ▷ plural noun a recently married couple.

new man ▷ noun 1 a reformed character. 2 a fitter healthier man. 3 (sometimes New Man) a man who is supposed to be prepared to show his feelings, and who has adopted modern ideas, especially with regard to health, the environment, and sharing family and household responsibilities.

newmarket ▷ noun, cards a game in which the stakes are won by those who succeed in playing out cards whose duplicates lie on the table. ⓘ 19c: named after Newmarket, the Suffolk racing town.

new maths ▷ singular noun an approach to teaching mathematics that is more concerned with creating an early understanding of basic concepts than with drilling in arithmetic.

new moon ▷ noun 1 the Moon when it is visible as a narrow waxing crescent. 2 the time when the Moon becomes visible in this form.

newness see under NEW

new potatoes ▷ plural noun the first-dug potatoes of the new crop.

news /nju:z/ ▷ singular noun 1 information about recent events, now especially as reported in newspapers, on radio or TV, or via the Internet. 2 (the news) a radio or TV broadcast report of news. 3 any fresh interesting information. 4 a currently celebrated person, thing or event □ He's big news in America. ● that's news to me colloq I have not heard that before. ⓘ 15c, meaning 'new things'.

news agency ▷ noun an agency that collects news stories and supplies them to newspapers, etc.

newsagent ▷ noun a shop, or the proprietor of a shop, that sells newspapers and sometimes confectionery, etc.

newsboy and newsgirl see under PAPERBOY newscast ▷ noun a radio or TV broadcast of news items. ● newscaster noun someone who reads out these news items. Also called newsreader. ● newscasting noun. ⓘ 1930s.

news conference see PRESS CONFERENCE newsdealer ▷ noun a newsagent.

news fiction see FACTION[2] newsflash ▷ noun a brief announcement of important news that interrupts a radio or TV broadcast.

newshound ▷ noun, facetious a newspaper reporter.

newsier, newsiest and newsiness see under NEWSY newsletter ▷ noun a sheet containing news issued to members of a society or other organization, etc.

newsman ▷ noun a male reporter for a newspaper or for a broadcast news programme.

newsmonger ▷ noun, old use a gossip.

newspaper ▷ noun 1 a daily or weekly publication composed of folded sheets, containing news, advertisements, topical articles, correspondence, etc. 2 the printed paper which makes up such a publication. ⓘ 17c.

newspaperman ▷ noun 1 a journalist. 2 the proprietor or owner of a newspaper. 3 a man who sells newspapers on the street.

newspeak ▷ noun, ironic the ambiguous language, full of the latest distortions and euphemisms, used by politicians and other persuaders. ⓘ 1949: from Newspeak a deliberately impoverished form of English used as an official language, in G Orwell's novel Nineteen Eighty-Four.

newsprint ▷ noun 1 the paper on which newspapers are printed. 2 the ink used to print newspapers.

newsreader see under NEWSCAST newsreel ▷ noun a film of news events, once a regular cinema feature.

newsroom ▷ noun an office in a newspaper office or broadcasting station where news stories are received and edited for publication or broadcasting.

news stand ▷ noun a stall or kiosk that sells newspapers and magazines, etc.

New Style ▷ noun the present method of dating, using the GREGORIAN CALENDAR. Compare OLD STYLE.

newsvendor ▷ noun someone who sells newspapers.

newsworthy ▷ adj interesting or important enough to be reported as news.

newsy /ˈnju:zɪ/ ▷ adj (newsier, newsiest) full of news, especially gossip. ● newsiness noun.

newt /nju:t/ ▷ noun a small amphibious animal with a long body and tail and short legs. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon efeta; an ewt came to be understood as a newt.

New Testament ▷ noun the part of the Bible concerned with the teachings of Christ and his earliest followers. See table at BIBLE. Compare OLD TESTAMENT.

newton /ˈnju:tən/ ▷ noun, physics ▷ (abbreviation N) in the SI system: a unit of force equivalent to that which gives a one kilogram mass an acceleration of one second every second (formerly the imperial unit POUNDAL). ⓘ 19c: named after Sir Isaac Newton (1642–1727), English scientist.

new town ▷ noun a town planned and built by a government commission as a unit, to relieve congestion in nearby cities and encourage development, especially one of those built around London after World War II.

new wave ▷ noun 1 an artistic, musical or cultural movement or grouping that abandons traditional ideas and style. 2 (New Wave or Nouvelle Vague /ˈnuːvel vag/) a movement in French cinema of the 1960s notable for fluid camera work. 3 jazz a movement aiming at freedom from set patterns and styles.

New World ▷ noun the entire American continent. See also OLD WORLD.

New Year ▷ noun the first day of the year or the days, usually festive ones, immediately following or preceding it.

New Year's Day ▷ noun 1 January.

New Year's Eve ▷ noun 31 December.

New Zealand flax see FLAX-BUSH

next ▷ adj 1 following in time or order □ the next on the list □ the next day. 2 following this one □ next week. 3 adjoining; neighbouring □ in the next compartment. 4 first, counting from now □ the very next person I meet. ▷ noun someone or something that is next. ▷ adverb 1 immediately after that or this □ What happened next? 2 on the next occasion □ when I next saw her. 3 following, in order of degree □ the next longest river. ● next best next lowest in degree after the best □ At rush-hour, walking is the next best thing to cycling. ● next biggest next lowest (or highest, depending on context) in degree after the previous one mentioned. ● next to something or someone 1 beside it or them. 2 after it or them, in order of degree □ Next to swimming I like dancing. 3 almost □ wearing next to no clothes □ next to nothing. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon nehst the nearest, from neah near.

next-door ▷ adj dwelling in, occupying or belonging to the next room, house or shop, etc; neighbouring. ▷ adverb (next door) to or in the next room, house or shop, etc. ● next door to something near, bordering upon or very near it.

next of kin ▷ noun one's closest relative or relatives.

nexus /ˈnɛksəs/ ▷ noun (nexus or nexuses) 1 a connected series or group. 2 a bond or link. ⓘ 17c: Latin, from nectere, nexum to bind.

NF ▷ abbreviation 1 in the UK: National Front. 2 US mail Newfoundland. Also written Nfd or Nfld.

NFER ▷ abbreviation National Foundation for Educational Research.

NFL ▷ abbreviation, N Amer National Football League.

NFS ▷ abbreviation not for sale.

NFSC ▷ abbreviation National Federation of (Football) Supporters' Clubs.

NFSE ▷ abbreviation National Federation of Self-Employed.

NFT ▷ abbreviation National Film Theatre.

NFU ▷ abbreviation National Farmers' Union.

NFWI ▷ abbreviation National Federation of Women's Institutes.

NG ▷ abbreviation, US National Guard.

NGA ▷ abbreviation National Graphical Association.

ngaio /ˈnaɪoʊ/ ▷ noun (ngaios) an evergreen New Zealand tree with white wood. ⓘ 19c: Maori.

NGO ▷ abbreviation non-governmental organization, said of organizations other than commercial companies that operate in various countries and are not associated with a particular government, such as the UN, aid organizations, etc.

NH ▷ abbreviation, US state New Hampshire. Also written N.H.

NHBRC ▷ abbreviation National House-Builders' Registration Council or Certificate.

NHI ▷ abbreviation National Health Insurance.

NHS ▷ abbreviation National Health Service.

NI ▷ abbreviation 1 National Insurance. 2 Northern Ireland.

Ni ▷ symbol, chem nickel.

niacin /ˈnaɪəsɪn/ and nicotinic acid ▷ noun VITAMIN B_7. ⓘ 1940s.

nib ▷ noun 1 the writing-point of a pen, especially a metal one with a divided tip. 2 a point or spike. 3 a bird's bill. 4 (nibs) crushed coffee or cocoa beans. 5 (nibs) small particles or lumps in varnish or wool, etc. ▷ verb (nibbed, nibbing) 1 to provide with a pen-point or nib. 2 to reduce to nibs. • nibbed 1 with a nib. 2 said of nuts, etc: roughly crushed. ⓘ 16c, meaning 'a bird's beak'.

nibble /ˈnɪbəl/ ▷ verb (nibbled, nibbling) tr & intr 1 to take very small bites of something; to eat a little at a time. 2 to bite gently. • nibbler noun. • nibbling noun. • nibblingly adverb. ⓘ 16c.

■ nibble at something 1 to nibble it. 2 colloq to show cautious interest in (a proposal, etc).

niblick /ˈnɪblɪk/ ▷ noun, golf an old-fashioned golf club with a heavy head and wide face, used for lofting.

nibs ▷ singular noun (usually his or her nibs) facetious a derogatory mock title for an important or would-be important person. ⓘ 19c.

NIC ▷ abbreviation, IVR Nicaragua.

nicad /ˈnaɪkad/ ▷ noun 1 nickel-cadmium, used to make batteries. 2 a battery, often a rechargeable one, made using nickel-cadmium. ⓘ 1950s.

Nicam /ˈnaɪkam/ ▷ noun a system by which digital stereo sound signals are transmitted along with the standard TV signal, allowing the viewer to receive sound of CD quality. ⓘ 1990s: near instantaneous companded (compressed and expanded) audio multiplexing.

niccolite /ˈnɪkəlaɪt/ ▷ noun a hexagonal mineral, nickel arsenide. Also called nickeline and kupfernickel. ⓘ 19c.

nice /naɪs/ ▷ adj (nicer, nicest) 1 pleasant; agreeable; respectable. 2 often ironic good; satisfactory. 3 ironic nasty □ a nice mess. 4 fine; subtle □ nice distinctions. 5 exacting; particular □ nice in matters of etiquette. • niceness noun. • nice and ... colloq satisfactorily ... ; commendably ... □ nice and firm. ⓘ 13c, meaning 'foolish', 'coy' or 'exotic'.

nicely ▷ adverb 1 in a nice or satisfactory way. 2 precisely; carefully □ judged it nicely. 3 suitably; effectively □ That will do nicely.

Nicene Creed /ˈnaɪsiːn —/ ▷ noun, Christianity the creed recited as part of the Eucharistic liturgies of the Orthodox and Roman Catholic Churches, and many Protestant Churches. ⓘ Based on the work of the first Council of Nicaea, a town in Asia Minor, in AD 325.

nicety /ˈnaɪsətɪ/ ▷ noun (niceties) 1 precision. 2 a subtle point of detail. • to a nicety exactly.

niche /niːʃ, nɪtʃ/ ▷ noun 1 a shallow recess in a wall, suitable for a lamp, ornament or statue, etc. 2 a position in life in which one feels fulfilled or at ease, or both. 3 a small specialized group identified as a market for a particular range of products or services. Also as adj □ niche marketing □ niche advertising. ▷ verb (niched, niching) 1 to place something in a niche. 2 to ensconce (oneself). • niched adj placed in a niche. ⓘ 17c; 1980s as noun 3: French, from Latin nidus nest.

Nick and Old Nick ▷ noun the devil.

nick ▷ noun 1 a small cut; a notch. 2 colloq a prison or police station. ▷ verb (nicked, nicking) 1 to make a small cut in something; to cut something slightly; to snip it. 2 slang to arrest (a criminal). 3 slang to steal. 4 to make a cut in (a horse's tail muscle), so that the tail is carried higher. • in good nick colloq in good condition. • in the nick of time at the last possible moment; just in time. ⓘ 16c.

nickel /ˈnɪkəl/ ▷ noun 1 chem (symbol Ni, atomic number 28) one of the elements, a greyish-white metal used especially in alloys and for plating. 2 N Amer an American or Canadian coin worth five cents. ▷ adj made of or with nickel. ▷ verb (nickelled, nickelling) to plate something with nickel. ⓘ 18c: from German Kupfernickel copper devil, so called by miners mistaking it for copper.

nickel-and-dime ▷ adj 1 involving only a small amount of money. 2 worth only a small amount of effort, concern, etc.

nickeline see under NICCOLITE nickelodeon /nɪkəˈloʊdɪən/ ▷ noun, US old use 1 a cinema charging five cents for admission. 2 an early form of jukebox. 3 a type of pianola, especially one operated by the insertion of a five-cent piece. ⓘ 1920s: NICKEL + MELODEON.

nickel-plating ▷ noun the plating of metals with nickel.

nickel silver ▷ noun, chem an alloy of copper, zinc and nickel, that looks like silver.

nicker /ˈnɪkə(r)/ ▷ noun (nicker) old slang a pound sterling. ⓘ Early 20c.

nick-nack see KNICK-KNACK nickname /ˈnɪkneɪm/ ▷ noun a name, usually additional to the real one, given to a person or place in fun, affection or contempt. ▷ verb to give a nickname to someone. ⓘ 15c: from eke addition or extra; an ekename came to be understood as a nickname.

nicotiana /nɪkoʊʃɪˈɑːnə/ ▷ noun a plant related to tobacco, originally found in America and Australia, cultivated for its colourful flowers and scent. ⓘ 16c: French, named after J Nicot (1530–1600), French diplomat, said to have introduced tobacco into France.

nicotine /ˈnɪkətiːn/ ▷ noun a poisonous alkaline substance contained in tobacco. ⓘ 19c: French; see NICOTIANA.

nicotinic acid see NIACIN nictate /ˈnɪkteɪt/ and nictitate /ˈnɪktɪteɪt/ ▷ verb (nictated, nictitated, nictating, nictitating) intr to wink or blink. • nictation or nictitation noun. ⓘ 17c: from Latin nictare, nictatum to wink.

nictitating membrane ▷ noun, zool in many reptiles, amphibians, birds, and some mammals: a transparent membrane that forms a third eyelid which can be drawn across the eye for protection.

nidicolous /nɪˈdɪkələs/ ▷ adj said of the young of certain birds: remaining for longer than average in the nest. Compare ALTRICIAL, PRECOCIAL.

nidify /ˈnɪdɪfaɪ/ ▷ verb (nidifies, nidified, nidifying) intr said of a bird: to make a nest or nests. • nidification noun. ◎ 17c.

niece /niːs/ ▷ noun the daughter of one's sister or brother, or the sister or brother of one's husband or wife. Masculine equivalent NEPHEW. ◎ 13c: from French, from Latin neptis granddaughter or niece.

niello /nɪˈɛloʊ/ ▷ noun (nielli /-liː/ or niellos) 1 a method of ornamenting metal by engraving, and then filling up the lines with a black compound. 2 a piece of work produced in this way. 3 the compound used in niello work, sulphur with silver, lead or copper. ▷ verb (nielloed, nielloing) to decorate something with niello. ◎ 19c: Italian, from Latin nigellum a black enamel, from niger black.

nielsbohrium /niːlzˈbɔːrɪəm/ ▷ noun an alternative name proposed by Soviet scientists for the chemical element UNNILPENTIUM.

Nietzschean /ˈniːtʃɪən/ ▷ noun a follower of Friedrich Nietzsche (1844–1900), a German philosopher, poet and critic. ▷ adj relating to Nietzsche or his philosophy. • Nietzscheanism noun. ◎ Early 20c.

niff ▷ noun, slang a bad smell. ▷ verb (niffed, niffing) intr to smell bad. ◎ 19c.

niffy /ˈnɪfɪ/ (niffier, niffiest) ▷ adj smelly.

nifty /ˈnɪftɪ/ ▷ adj (niftier, niftiest) 1 clever; adroit; agile. 2 stylish. • niftily adverb. • niftiness noun. ◎ 19c.

nigella /naɪˈdʒɛlə/ ▷ noun (nigellas) one of a group of plants with finely dissected leaves and whitish, blue or yellow flowers, one variety of which is also known as love-in-a-mist. ◎ 14c: feminine of Latin nigellus blackish, referring to the colour of the seeds.

niggard /ˈnɪgəd/ ▷ noun a stingy person. ◎ 14c.

niggardly /ˈnɪgədlɪ/ ▷ adj 1 stingy; miserly. 2 meagre □ niggardly praise. • niggardliness noun.

nigger /ˈnɪgə(r)/ ▷ noun, offensive a person of Black African origin or race. • nigger in the woodpile a hidden evil influence. ◎ 18c: from French nègre, from Spanish negro black.

niggle /ˈnɪgəl/ ▷ verb (niggled, niggling) intr 1 to complain about small or unimportant details. 2 to bother, especially slightly but continually; to fuss. ▷ noun 1 a slight nagging worry. 2 a small complaint or criticism. • niggler noun. • niggling adj 1 fussy. 2 trivially troublesome or worrying. 3 persistently annoying. ◎ 19c; 17c, meaning 'to trifle'.

nigh /naɪ/ ▷ adverb, old use, dialect or poetic near. • nigh on or well nigh nearly; almost. ◎ Anglo-Saxon neah.

night /naɪt/ ▷ noun 1 the time of darkness between sunset and sunrise. 2 the time between going to bed and getting up in the morning. 3 evening □ stayed at home last night. 4 nightfall. 5 poetic darkness. 6 an evening on which a particular activity or event takes place □ my aerobics night. 7 a state of ignorance, evil or sorrow, etc. ▷ adj 1 belonging to, occurring, or done in the night □ the night hours. 2 working or on duty at night □ the night shift. • nightly adj done or happening at night or every night. ▷ adverb at night; every night. • nights adverb, colloq at night; most nights or every night. • make a night of it colloq to celebrate late into the night. ◎ Anglo-Saxon niht.

night-bell ▷ noun a doorbell for use at night, especially at a hotel.

night-bird ▷ noun 1 a bird that flies or sings at night. 2 someone who is active, awake, or goes about at night.

night-blindness ▷ noun a common name for NYCTALOPIA.

nightcap ▷ noun 1 a drink, especially an alcoholic one, taken before going to bed. 2 old use a cap worn in bed at night.

nightclass ▷ noun a class at NIGHT SCHOOL.

nightclothes ▷ plural noun clothes for sleeping in, such as pyjamas or a nightdress, etc. Compare BEDCLOTHES.

nightclub ▷ noun a club open in the evening and running late into the night for drinking, dancing, entertainment, etc. • nightclubber noun a patron of a nightclub. • nightclubbing noun dancing, drinking and sometimes dining at a nightclub.

nightdress ▷ noun a loose garment for sleeping in, worn by women and girls.

nightfall ▷ noun the end of the day and the beginning of night; dusk.

nightgown ▷ noun a loose garment for sleeping in.

nightie or nighty /ˈnaɪtɪ/ ▷ noun (nighties) colloq a nightdress. ◎ 19c.

nightingale /ˈnaɪtɪŋgeɪl/ ▷ noun any of several species of small brown thrush, especially the common nightingale, known for its melodious song, heard especially at night. ◎ Anglo-Saxon nihtegale.

nightjar ▷ noun a nocturnal bird of the swift family that has a harsh discordant cry. ◎ 17c: NIGHT + JAR².

night latch ▷ noun a door lock worked by a key from outside and a knob from inside.

nightlife ▷ noun entertainment available in a city or resort, etc, late into the night.

night light ▷ noun a dim-shining lamp or slow-burning candle that can be left alight all night.

nightlong ▷ adj, adverb throughout the night.

nightly see under NIGHT nightmare /ˈnaɪtmɛə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 a frightening dream. 2 an intensely distressing or frightful experience or situation. • nightmarish adj like a nightmare; intensely distressing or frightful. ◎ 16c; 13c, meaning 'an incubus': from Anglo-Saxon mare an incubus or nightmare-producing monster.

night owl ▷ noun 1 an exclusively nocturnal owl. 2 someone who likes to stay up late at night or who is habitually more alert and active, etc, at night than earlier in the day. See also NIGHT-BIRD.

nights see under NIGHT

night safe ▷ noun a safe built into the outer wall of a bank, in which to deposit money when the bank is closed.

night school ▷ noun 1 classes held in the evening, chiefly for people who have left school, especially for those who may be at work during the day. 2 an institution providing such educational evening classes.

nightshade ▷ noun any of several wild plants, some with poisonous berries, including BELLADONNA. Also called deadly nightshade. ◎ Anglo-Saxon nihtscada.

night shift ▷ noun 1 a session of work or duty during the night. 2 the staff working during this period. See also BACK SHIFT, DAY SHIFT.

nightshirt ▷ noun a loose garment like a long shirt for sleeping in.

night-soil ▷ noun, old use human excrement collected at night from privies etc, for use as a soil fertilizer.

night spot ▷ noun, colloq a nightclub.

nightstick ▷ noun, N Amer a police truncheon.

night-time ▷ noun the time of darkness between sunset and sunrise.

night watch ▷ noun 1 a guard or watch kept at night. 2 someone who is on guard at night. 3 a a period of keeping watch at night; b the time that such a period lasts.

nightwatchman ▷ noun 1 someone who looks after a public building or industrial premises, etc at night. 2 cricket a batsman, not usually a high scorer, put in to defend a wicket till close of play.

nighty see NIGHTIE

nigrescent /naɪ'gresənt, nɪ'gresənt/ ▷ adj 1 growing black or dark. 2 blackish. ● nigrescence noun blackness; dark colouring or pigmentation; blackening. ⓘ 18c: from Latin nigrescere to grow black, from niger black.

nihilism /'naɪɪlɪzəm/ ▷ noun 1 the rejection of moral and religious principles. 2 the view that nothing has real existence; extreme scepticism. 3 a 19c Russian movement aimed at overturning all social institutions. ● nihilist noun. ● nihilistic adj. ⓘ 19c: from Latin nihil nothing.

nihility /naɪ'hɪlɪtɪ/ ▷ noun being nothing; nothingness.

-nik ▷ suffix, forming nouns, sometimes derog, denoting someone concerned or associated with the specified cause or activity, etc □ peacenik □ refusenik. ⓘ 1940s: from Yiddish, from Slavic.

Nikkei index /nɪ'keɪ —/ ▷ noun the indicator of the relative prices of the stocks and shares on the Tokyo stock exchange. Also called Nikkei average. Compare FOOTSIE, DOW JONES INDEX. ⓘ 1970s: from the title of the financial newspaper which publishes it.

nil ▷ noun, games, sport, etc a score of nothing; zero. ⓘ 19c: from Latin nihil nothing.

Nile blue /naɪl —/ ▷ noun a very pale greenish blue colour. ⓘ 19c: from the colour of the river Nile.

Nile green /naɪl —/ ▷ noun a very pale green colour. ⓘ 19c: from the colour of the river Nile.

nilgai /'nɪlgaɪ, 'nɪlgaɪ/ or nilgau /nɪl'gɔː/ ▷ noun (nilgai or nilgais, nilgau or nilgaus) a large Indian antelope, the male being a slaty-grey colour, and the female tawny. ⓘ 19c: from Persian and Hindi nil blue + Hindi gai or Persian gaw cow.

Nilot /'naɪlɒt/ or Nilote /'naɪloʊt/ ▷ noun (Nilot or Nilots; Nilote or Nilotes /-tiːz/) 1 an inhabitant of the banks of the Upper Nile. 2 a member of any of several peoples from E Africa and the Sudan. 3 a Negro of the Upper Nile. ● Nilotic /naɪ'lɒtɪk/ adj 1 belonging or relating to the river Nile. 2 belonging or relating to the Nilots or their languages. ⓘ 17c as Nilotic: from Greek Neilotes from Greek Neilos the river Nile.

nim ▷ noun an old and widespread game in which two players take an item alternately from heaps or rows of objects (now eg matches) with the aim of taking, or not taking, the last item. ⓘ Early 20c; the game was possibly originally Chinese.

nimbi a plural of NIMBUS nimble /'nɪmbəl/ ▷ adj (nimbler, nimblest) 1 quick and light in movement; agile. 2 said of wits: sharp; alert. ● nimbleness noun. ● nimbly adverb. ⓘ Apparently Anglo-Saxon næmel receptive or numol quick to learn.

nimble-fingered ▷ adj skilful with the fingers.

nimble-footed ▷ adj agile; swift.

nimble-witted ▷ adj quick-witted.

nimbostratus /nɪmboʊ'strɑːtəs/ ▷ noun (nimbostrati /-taɪ/) meteorol a low dark-coloured layer of cloud bringing rain. ⓘ Early 20c.

nimbus /'nɪmbəs/ ▷ noun (nimbuses or nimbi /-baɪ/) 1 meteorol a heavy dark type of cloud bringing rain or snow. 2 a luminous mist or halo surrounding a god or goddess, or a representation of this. ⓘ 17c: Latin.

NIMBY or Nimby /'nɪmbɪ/ ▷ noun, colloq someone who is willing to let something happen, eg the building of a new road, so long as it does not adversely affect them, or disrupt their locality. ● nimbyism noun. ⓘ 1980s: from not in my back yard.

niminy-piminy /'nɪmɪnɪ'pɪmɪnɪ/ ▷ adj, derog affectedly fine or delicate. ⓘ 18c: imitating the sound of affected talk.

nincompoop /'nɪŋkəmpuːp/ ▷ noun a fool; an idiot. ⓘ 17c.

nine /naɪn/ ▷ noun 1 a the cardinal number 9; b the quantity that this represents, being one more than eight. 2 any symbol for this, eg 9, IX. 3 the age of nine. 4 something, especially a garment or a person, whose size is denoted by the number 9. 5 the ninth hour after midnight or midday □ opens at nine □ 9am □ 9 o'clock. 6 a set or group of nine people or things. 7 a playing-card with nine pips □ She played her nine. 8 a score of nine points. ▷ adj 1 totalling nine. 2 aged nine. ● dressed up to the nines colloq wearing one's best clothes; elaborately dressed. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon nigon.

nine days' wonder ▷ noun something that grips everyone's attention for a brief time. ⓘ 16c.

ninefold ▷ adj 1 equal to nine times as much or many. 2 divided into, or consisting of, nine parts. ▷ adverb by nine times as much.

nine-hole ▷ adj said of a golf course: having nine holes.

ninepins ▷ singular noun a game similar to skittles, using a wooden ball and nine skittles arranged in a triangle.

nineteen /naɪn'tiːn/ ▷ noun 1 a the cardinal number 19; b the quantity that this represents, being one more than eighteen, or the sum of ten and nine. 2 any symbol for this, eg 19, XIX. 3 the age of nineteen. 4 something, especially a garment or a person, whose size is denoted by the number 19. 5 a set or group of nineteen people or things. ▷ adj 1 totalling nineteen. 2 aged nineteen. ● talk nineteen to the dozen colloq to chatter away animatedly. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon nigontiene.

nineteenth (often written 19th) ▷ adj 1 in counting: a next after eighteenth; b last of nineteen. 2 in nineteenth position. 3 (the nineteenth) the nineteenth day of the month. ▷ noun 1 one of nineteen equal parts. Also as adj □ a nineteenth share. 2 a FRACTION equal to one divided by nineteen (usually written $^1/_{19}$). 3 someone who comes nineteenth, eg in a race or exam. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon; see NINETEEN + -TH[1].

the nineteenth hole ▷ noun, humorous a golf clubhouse, especially the bar. ⓘ Early 20c; so where one goes after finishing the 18th hole.

nineties /'naɪntɪz/ (often written 90s or 90's) ▷ plural noun 1 the period of time between one's ninetieth and hundredth birthdays □ Leonard is in his nineties. 2 the range of temperatures between ninety and a hundred degrees. 3 the period of time between the ninetieth and hundredth years of a century □ the 1990s.

ninetieth /'naɪntɪəθ/ (often written 90th) ▷ adj 1 in counting: a next after eighty-ninth; b last of ninety. 2 in ninetieth position. ▷ noun 1 one of ninety equal parts. 2 a FRACTION equal to one divided by ninety (usually written $^1/_{90}$). 3 someone who comes ninetieth, eg in a race or competition, etc. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon; see NINETY + -TH[1].

ninety /'naɪntɪ/ ▷ noun 1 a the cardinal number 90; b the quantity that this represents, being one more than eighty-nine, or the product of ten and nine. 2 any symbol for this, eg 90, XC. Also in compounds, forming adjectives and nouns, with cardinal numbers between one and nine □ ninety-six. 3 the age of ninety. 4 a set or group of ninety people or things. 5 a score of ninety points. ▷ adj 1 totalling ninety. Also in compounds, forming adjectives, with ordinal numbers between first and ninth □ ninety-ninth. 2 aged ninety. See also NINETIES, NINETIETH. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon; see NINE + -TY[2].

ninja /ˈnɪndʒə/ ▷ noun (ninja or ninjas) especially in medieval Japan: one of a body of professional assassins trained in martial arts and stealth. ⓘ 1960s: Japanese, from nin stealth + ja person.

ninjutsu /nɪnˈdʒutsuː/ or ninjitsu ▷ noun an armed Japanese martial art with strong emphasis on stealth and camouflage. ⓘ 1960s: Japanese, from nin stealth + jutsu art.

ninny /ˈnɪnɪ/ ▷ noun (ninnies) a foolish person. ⓘ 16c.

ninon /ˈniːnɒn/ ▷ noun a silk voile or other thin fabric. ⓘ Early 20c: from French Ninon, a woman's name.

Nintendo /nɪnˈtendoʊ/ ▷ noun, trademark a video games console machine used in conjunction with a TV screen or monitor. See also GAME BOY. ⓘ 1980s: the name of the manufacturer.

ninth /naɪnθ/ (often written 9th) ▷ adj 1 in counting: a next after eighth; b last of nine. 2 in ninth position. 3 (the ninth) the nineth day of the month. ▷ noun 1 one of nine equal parts. Also as adj □ a ninth share. 2 a FRACTION equal to one divided by nine (usually written $^1/_9$). 3 a person coming ninth, eg in a race or exam. ▷ adverb ninthly. ■ ninthly adverb used to introduce the ninth point in a list. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon; see NINE + -TH¹.

niobium /naɪˈoʊbɪəm/ ▷ noun, chem (symbol Nb, atomic number 41) a relatively unreactive soft greyish-blue metallic element with a brilliant lustre, resistant to corrosion and formerly known as columbium. ⓘ 19c: Latin, from Niobe, the daughter of Tantalus in Greek mythology; it is found in tantalite.

Nip ▷ noun, offensive a Japanese person. ⓘ 1940s: short for NIPPONESE.

nip¹ ▷ verb (nipped, nipping) 1 to pinch or squeeze something or someone sharply. 2 to give a sharp little bite to something. 3 (often nip off something) to remove or sever it by pinching or biting. 4 tr & intr to sting; to cause smarting. 5 to halt the growth or development of something □ nip it in the bud. 6 N Amer colloq to snatch something. ▷ noun 1 a pinch or squeeze. 2 a sharp little bite. 3 a sharp biting coldness, or stinging quality. ⓘ 14c: from Norse hnippa to poke.

■ nip off, away or round, etc to go off, away, or round, etc quickly □ nip round to the shop. nip² ▷ noun a small quantity of alcoholic spirits □ a nip of brandy. ⓘ 18c: from Dutch nippen to sip.

nip and tuck colloq ▷ noun a surgical operation carried out for cosmetic reasons. ▷ adj, adverb, N Amer neck and neck.

nipper /ˈnɪpə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 the large claw of a crab or lobster, etc. 2 (nippers) pincers, tweezers, forceps, or another gripping or severing tool. 3 a horse's INCISOR, especially one of the middle four. 4 old colloq use a small child.

nipple /ˈnɪpəl/ ▷ noun 1 the deep-coloured pointed projection on a breast, in the female the outlet of the ducts from which the young suck milk. 2 N Amer the teat on a baby's feeding-bottle. 3 mech any small projection with a hole through which a flow is regulated or machine parts lubricated. ⓘ 16c in early form neble.

nipplewort ▷ noun a tall plant with small yellow flower heads, now regarded as a weed, formerly used as a cure for sore nipples.

Nippon /nɪˈpɒn, ˈnɪpɒn/ ▷ noun the Japanese name for Japan. ■ Nipponese noun, adj. ⓘ 19c: Japanese ni sun + pon, from hon origin.

nippy /ˈnɪpɪ/ ▷ adj (nippier, nippiest) colloq 1 cold; chilly. 2 quick-moving; nimble. 3 said of flavour: pungent or biting. ■ nippiness noun. ⓘ 18c.

NIRC ▷ abbreviation National Industrial Relations Court.

NIREX /ˈnaɪreks/ ▷ abbreviation Nuclear Industry Radioactive Waste Executive.

nirvana or Nirvana /nɪəˈvɑːnə, nɜː-/ ▷ noun 1 Buddhism, Hinduism the ultimate state of spiritual tranquillity attained through release from everyday concerns and extinction of individual passions. 2 colloq a place or state of perfect bliss. ⓘ 19c: Sanskrit, meaning 'extinction'.

nisei /ˈniːseɪ/ ▷ noun (plural nisei) an American or Canadian born of Japanese immigrant parents. ⓘ 1940s: Japanese, meaning 'second generation'.

nisi /ˈnaɪsaɪ/ ▷ adj said of a court order: to take effect on the date stated, unless in the meantime a reason is given why it should not. See also DECREE NISI. ⓘ 19c: Latin, literally 'unless'.

Nissen hut /ˈnɪsən —/ ▷ noun a corrugated-iron hut in the shape of a semi-cylinder lying lengthwise. Compare QUONSET HUT. ⓘ Early 20c: named after P N Nissen (1871–1930), its designer.

nit¹ ▷ noun the egg or young of a LOUSE, found eg in hair. ■ nitty adj (nittier, nittiest). ⓘ Anglo-Saxon hnitu.

nit² ▷ noun, slang an idiot. ⓘ 16c: from NIT¹, influenced by NITWIT.

nit³ ▷ noun in the CGS UNIT system: a unit of luminance equal to one candela per square metre. ⓘ 1950s.

nit-picking ▷ noun petty criticism or fault-finding. ▷ adj fussy. ■ nit-picker noun. ⓘ 1950s: from NIT¹.

nitrate /ˈnaɪtreɪt/ chem ▷ noun 1 a salt or ester of NITRIC ACID. 2 sodium nitrate or potassium nitrate used as a soil fertilizer. ▷ verb (nitrated, nitrating) 1 to treat something with nitric acid or a nitrate. 2 tr & intr to convert something into a nitrate. ■ nitration noun. ⓘ 18c.

nitrazepam /naɪˈtrazəpam, naɪˈtreɪ-/ ▷ noun a hypnotic drug taken for the relief of insomnia. ⓘ 1960s: from NITRO-, modelled on DIAZEPAM.

nitre /ˈnaɪtə(r)/ ▷ noun, chem potassium nitrate (formula KNO_3); saltpetre. ⓘ 15c: French, from Greek nitron sodium carbonate.

nitric /ˈnaɪtrɪk/ ▷ adj, chem belonging to or containing nitrogen. ⓘ 18c.

nitric acid ▷ noun, chem (formula HNO_3) a colourless pungent caustic corrosive acid, used as an oxidizing agent and for making explosives, fertilizers and dyes. Formerly called aqua fortis.

nitric oxide ▷ noun, chem (formula NO) a colourless gas which reacts spontaneously with oxygen at room temperature, forming NITROGEN DIOXIDE.

nitride /ˈnaɪtraɪd/ ▷ noun, chem a compound of nitrogen with another, metallic, element. ⓘ 19c.

nitrify /ˈnaɪtrɪfaɪ/ ▷ verb (nitrifies, nitrified, nitrifying) tr & intr, chem usually said of ammonia: to convert or be converted into nitrates or nitrites, through the action of bacteria. ■ nitrification noun. ⓘ 19c.

nitrite /ˈnaɪtraɪt/ ▷ noun, chem a salt or ester of NITROUS ACID. ⓘ 19c.

nitro- /naɪtroʊ, naɪˈtrɒ/ ▷ combining form, chem 1 made with, or containing, NITROGEN, NITRIC ACID or NITRE. 2 containing the group $-NO_2$.

nitrogen /ˈnaɪtrədʒən/ ▷ noun (symbol N, atomic number 7) chem an element which is the colourless, odourless and tasteless gas making up four-fifths of the air we breathe. ■ nitrogenous /-ˈtrɒdʒənəs/ adj. ⓘ 18c: from NITRE + -GEN.

nitrogen cycle ▷ noun, biol the continuous circulation of nitrogen and its compounds between the ATMOSPHERE and the BIOSPHERE as a result of the activity of living organisms.

nitrogen dioxide ▷ noun, chem (formula NO_2) a reddish-brown gas, used in the production of nitric acid.

nitrogen monoxide ▷ noun, chem NITRIC OXIDE.

nitroglycerine or nitroglycerin ▷ noun, chem (formula $C_3H_5(ONO_2)_3$) an explosive liquid compound, used in dynamites, produced by treating glycerine with nitric and sulphuric acids. ⓘ 19c.

nitrous /ˈnaɪtrəs/ ▷ adj, chem relating to or containing nitrogen in a low valency. ⓘ 17c.

nitrous acid ▷ noun, chem (formula HNO_2) a weak acid occurring only in solution or in nitrite salts.

nitrous oxide ▷ noun, chem (formula N_2O) dinitrogen oxide used as an anaesthetic and popularly known as LAUGHING GAS.

nittier, nittiest and nitty see under NIT[1] the nitty-gritty /ˈnɪtɪˈɡrɪtɪ/ ▷ noun, colloq the fundamental issue or essential part of any matter, situation or activity, etc. ⓘ 1960s: originally US; perhaps rhyming compound of grit.

nitwit /ˈnɪtwɪt/ ▷ noun a stupid person. ⓘ 1920s: from German dialect nit (variant of nicht not) + WIT[1].

nix ▷ noun (nixes) slang nothing. ▷ exclamation, N Amer no. ⓘ 19c; 18c as nicks: from colloquial German nix, a form of nichts nothing.

NJ ▷ abbreviation, US state New Jersey. Also written N.J.

NL ▷ abbreviation, IVR Netherlands.

NM ▷ abbreviation, US state New Mexico. Also written N.Mex.

nm ▷ abbreviation 1 nanometre. 2 nautical mile.

n mile ▷ abbreviation (international) nautical mile.

NMR ▷ abbreviation nuclear magnetic resonance.

NNE ▷ abbreviation north-north-east.

NNW ▷ abbreviation north-north-west.

NO ▷ abbreviation New Orleans.

No[1], No or no ▷ abbreviation number.

No[2] ▷ symbol, chem nobelium.

No[3] see NOH

no[1] /noʊ/ ▷ exclamation 1 used as a negative reply, expressing denial, refusal or disagreement. 2 colloq used as a question tag expecting agreement □ It's a deal, no? 3 used as an astonished rejoinder □ No! You don't say! ▷ adverb 1 (with comparative) not any □ no bigger than one's thumb. 2 used to indicate a negative alternative: not □ whether he's willing or no. ▷ noun (noes) a negative reply or vote □ The noes have it. ● no more 1 destroyed; dead. 2 never again; not any longer. ● not take no for an answer to continue with an activity in spite of refusals; to insist. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon na, from ne not + a ever.

no[2] /noʊ/ ▷ adj 1 not any □ There's no milk left. 2 certainly not or far from something specified □ He's no fool □ no easy task. 3 hardly any □ do it in no time. 4 not allowed □ no smoking. ● no go colloq impossible; no good. ● no one no single □ No one candidate is the obvious choice. ● no way colloq no; definitely not. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon na, variant of nane NONE.

no[3] or no' /noʊ/ ▷ adverb, Scot not □ no bad.

no[4] see NO[3]

n.o. ▷ abbreviation, cricket not out.

no-account ▷ adj worthless; useless.

nob[1] ▷ noun in the game of cribbage: the jack of the turned-up suit. ⓘ 19c.

nob[2] ▷ noun, slang someone of wealth or high social rank. ⓘ 18c.

nob[3] ▷ noun, slang the head. ⓘ 17c: probably from KNOB.

no-ball ▷ noun, cricket, baseball, rounders, etc a ball bowled in a manner that is not allowed by the rules.

nobble /ˈnɒbəl/ ▷ verb (nobbled, nobbling) colloq 1 horse-racing to drug or otherwise interfere with (a horse) to stop it winning. 2 to persuade someone by bribes or threats □ tried to nobble the jury. 3 to obtain something dishonestly. 4 to catch (a criminal). 5 to swindle someone. ⓘ 19c: possibly from an hobbler, later understood as a nobbler, meaning 'a person who lames horses'.

nobelium /noʊˈbiːlɪəm/ ▷ noun, chem (symbol No, atomic number 102) a radioactive element produced artificially from the element CURIUM. ⓘ 1950s: named after the Nobel Institute, Stockholm, where it was first produced in 1957.

Nobel laureate ▷ noun a winner or past winner of a NOBEL PRIZE.

Nobel prize ▷ noun any of the annual prizes, awarded since 1901, for exceptional work in physics, chemistry, medicine or physiology, literature, economics, and the promotion of peace. 1900: instituted by Alfred Nobel (1833–96), Swedish discoverer of dynamite.

nobility /noʊˈbɪlɪtɪ/ ▷ noun (nobilities) 1 the quality of being noble, in character, conduct or rank. 2 (the nobility) the class of people of noble birth. ⓘ 15c: from Latin nobilitas, from nobilis noble.

noble /ˈnoʊbəl/ ▷ adj (nobler, noblest) 1 honourable. 2 generous. 3 of high birth or rank. 4 grand, splendid or imposing in appearance. ▷ noun a person of noble rank. Compare ARISTOCRAT, PEER[1]. ● nobleness noun. ● nobly adverb with a noble manner; honourably. ⓘ 13c: from Latin nobilis, originally gnobilis knowable, ie well-known.

noble gas ▷ noun, chem any of the colourless odourless tasteless gases in group 0 (see GROUP noun 5) of the periodic table of the elements, ie helium, neon, argon, krypton, xenon and radon, in order of increasing atomic number. Also called inert gas. ⓘ Early 20c.

nobleman and noblewoman ▷ noun a member of the nobility.

noble metal ▷ noun a metal such as gold, silver or platinum, that is highly unreactive, and so does not easily tarnish on exposure to the air. Opposite of BASE METAL.

noble rot ▷ noun, bot on white grapes: a rot caused by the fungus Botrytis cinerea, which aids the production of sweet white wine.

noble savage ▷ noun a romantic and idealized view of primitive human beings.

noblesse oblige /noʊˈbles oʊˈbliːʒ/ ▷ noun, usually ironic it is the duty of those who are privileged to use their privilege to the benefit of the less fortunate. ⓘ 19c: French, meaning 'nobility obliges'.

nobly see under NOBLE

nobody /ˈnoʊbədɪ, -bɒdɪ/ ▷ pronoun no person; no one. ▷ noun (nobodies) someone of no significance. ● like nobody's business colloq very energetically; intensively □ She yelled like nobody's business.

NOC ▷ abbreviation National Olympic Committee.

nociceptive /noʊsɪˈseptɪv/ ▷ adj, physiol 1 sensitive to pain. 2 causing pain. ⓘ Early 20c: from Latin nocere to hurt, modelled on RECEPTIVE.

nock ▷ noun a notch, or a part carrying a notch, especially on an arrow or a bow. ▷ verb (nocked, nocking) 1 to notch. 2 to fit (an arrow) on the string of a bow. ⓘ 14c.

no-claims bonus or no-claim bonus ▷ noun a reduction in the fee one pays for insurance if one has made no claim for payment over a particular period. Also called no-claims discount.

noctambulation /nɒktambjʊˈleɪʃən/ ▷ noun sleep-walking. Also called noctambulism. ● noctambulist noun. ⓘ 18c: from Latin nox, noctis night + ambulare, ambulatum to walk.

nocti- /ˈnɒktɪ/ or (before a vowel) noct- ▷ combining form, denoting night. ⓘ From Latin nox, noctis night.

noctilucent /nɒktɪ'luːsənt, -'ljuːsənt/ ▷ adj 1 zool phosphorescent; glowing in the dark. 2 meteorol said of high-altitude dust-clouds or ice-clouds: visible at night. • noctilucence noun. ⓘ 19c: from Latin lucens, lucentis shining.

noctule /'nɒktjuːl/ ▷ noun, zool a large brown bat, the largest found in Britain. ⓘ 18c: French, from Italian nottola bat.

nocturnal /nɒk'tɜːnəl/ ▷ adj 1 said of animals, etc: active at night. 2 happening at night. 3 belonging or relating to the night. • nocturnally adverb at night. ⓘ 15c: from Latin nocturnus, from nox night.

nocturne /'nɒktɜːn, nɒk'tɜːn/ ▷ noun 1 music a dreamy piece of music, usually for the piano. 2 art a night or moonlight scene. ⓘ 19c: French, from Latin nocturnus nocturnal.

nod ▷ verb (nodded, nodding) 1 tr & intr to make a brief bowing gesture with the head, in agreement or greeting, etc; to bow (the head) briefly. 2 intr to let the head droop with sleepiness; to become drowsy. See nod off below. 3 intr to make a mistake through momentary loss of concentration. 4 to indicate or direct by nodding □ nodded her approval □ He was nodded towards the Customs. 5 intr said of flowers and plumes, etc: to sway or bob about. ▷ noun a quick bending forward of the head; a slight bow; a movement of the head as a gesture of assent, greeting or command. • on the nod colloq said of the passing of a proposal, etc: by general agreement, without the formality of a vote. • the Land of Nod the imaginary country to which sleepers go. ⓘ 14c.

■ nod off intr to fall asleep.

■ nod someone or something through 1 in parliament: to allow someone to vote by proxy. 2 to pass something without a discussion or vote, etc.

nodal see under NODE nodding aquaintance ▷ noun 1 slight aquaintance. 2 someone with whom one is only slightly acquainted. 3 slight or superficial knowledge of something, eg a subject.

nodding donkey ▷ noun, colloq, especially N Amer a kind of pump for pumping oil from land-based oil-wells.

noddle /'nɒdəl/ ▷ noun (noddles) colloq the head or brain. ⓘ 15c.

noddy /'nɒdɪ/ ▷ noun (noddies) 1 any of several tropical birds of the tern family, so unafraid of humans as to seem stupid. 2 a simpleton. ⓘ 16c: perhaps from an obsolete adj sense, meaning 'silly'.

node /noʊd/ ▷ noun 1 a knob, lump, swelling or knotty mass. 2 bot a swelling where a leaf is attached to a stem. 3 geom the point where a curve crosses itself. 4 astron a a point where the orbit of a body intersects the apparent path of the sun; b a point where any two GREAT CIRCLES of the celestial sphere intersect. 5 elec in a vibrating body: the point of least movement. • nodal adj. ⓘ 17c: from Latin nodus knot.

nodose /noʊ'doʊs, 'noʊdoʊs/ ▷ adj having nodes, knots or swellings. • nodosity /noʊ'dɒsɪtɪ/ noun 1 knottiness. 2 (nodosities) a knotty swelling.

nodulated /'nɒdjʊleɪtɪd/ ▷ adj having nodules. • nodulation noun.

nodule /'nɒdjuːl/ ▷ noun 1 a small round lump. 2 bot a swelling in a root of a LEGUMINOUS plant, inhabited by bacteria that convert nitrogen to the plant's use. • nodular adj 1 relating to a nodule or nodules. 2 consisting of a nodule or nodules. 3 like a nodule. • nodulose or nodulous adj. ⓘ 17c: from Latin nodulus, diminutive of nodus knot.

Noel or Noël /noʊ'el/ ▷ noun now only used in Christmas cards and carols, etc: Christmas. Also written NOWELL. ⓘ 19c: French, from Latin natalis birthday.

noes plural of NO[1]

noesis /noʊ'iːsɪs/ ▷ noun 1 the activity of the intellect. 2 philos purely intellectual apprehension or perception. • noetic /noʊ'etɪk/ adj. ⓘ 17c: Greek, from noeein to perceive or to think.

no-fault ▷ adj said of insurance compensation payments, etc: made without attachment to, or admission of blame by, any one person or party in particular.

no-frills ▷ adj basic, not elaborate or fancy.

nog[1] ▷ noun an alcoholic drink made with whipped eggs; an EGG NOG. ⓘ 19c: 17c, meaning 'a variety of strong ale'.

nog[2] ▷ noun 1 a wooden peg. 2 a brick-sized piece of wood inserted into a wall to receive nails. • nogging noun a brick or rough timber filling between timbers in a partition or wall. ⓘ 17c.

noggin /'nɒgɪn/ ▷ noun 1 a small measure or quantity of alcoholic spirits. 2 a small mug or wooden cup. 3 colloq one's head. ⓘ 17c.

no-go area ▷ noun an area of a city, etc, to which normal access is prevented, eg because it is controlled by one of the groups involved in an armed conflict or civil war.

no-good ▷ adj bad; worthless. ▷ noun a bad worthless person.

Noh or No /noʊ/ (also noh or no) ▷ noun (plural Noh or No) Japanese drama in the traditional style, developed from religious dance. ⓘ 19c: Japanese, meaning 'ability'.

nohow /'noʊhaʊ/ ▷ adverb, colloq or dialect in no way, not at all. ⓘ 18c.

noise /nɔɪz/ ▷ noun 1 a sound. 2 a harsh disagreeable sound, or such sound; a din. 3 radio interference in a signal. 4 computing irrelevant or meaningless material appearing in output. 5 facetious something one says as a conventional response, vague indication of inclinations, etc □ make polite noises. ▷ verb (noised, noising) (usually noise abroad or about) to make something generally known; to spread (a rumour, etc). • make a noise colloq to talk or complain a great deal. • noiseless adj lacking noise; silent. • noiselessly adverb. • noiselessness noun. ⓘ 13c: French, from Latin nausea sea-sickness.

noise pollution ▷ noun an excessive or annoying degree of noise in a particular area, eg from traffic or aeroplane engines.

noisette /nwa'zet/ ▷ noun 1 a small piece of meat (usually lamb) cut off the bone and rolled. 2 a nutlike or nut-flavoured, especially hazelnut, sweet. ▷ adj flavoured with or containing hazelnuts. ⓘ 19c: French, meaning 'hazelnut'.

noisome /'nɔɪsəm/ ▷ adj 1 disgusting; offensive; stinking. 2 harmful; poisonous □ noisome fumes. • noisomely adverb. • noisomeness noun. ⓘ 14c, meaning 'harmful' or 'noxious' from earlier noy, a variant of ANNOY.

noisy /'nɔɪzɪ/ ▷ adj (noisier, noisiest) 1 making a lot of noise. 2 full of noise; accompanied by noise □ noisy streets. • noisily adverb. • noisiness noun.

nolens volens /'noʊlenz 'voʊlenz/ ▷ adverb willy-nilly. ⓘ 16c: Latin, literally 'unwilling willing'.

nolle prosequi /'nɒlɪ 'prɒsəkwaɪ, -kwɪ/ ▷ noun, law an entry on a court record that the plaintiff or prosecutor will proceed no further with (a part of) the suit. ⓘ 17c: Latin, meaning 'do not want to pursue'.

nolo contendere /'noʊloʊ kɒn'tendərɪ/ ▷ noun, law a plea by which the accused does not admit guilt, but accepts conviction. ⓘ 18c: Latin, meaning 'I do not wish to contend'.

nom. ▷ abbreviation, grammar nominative.

nomad /'noʊmad/ ▷ noun 1 a member of a people without a permanent home, who travel from place to place seeking food and pasture. 2 a wanderer. • nomadic adj said of a people: wandering from place to place; not settled. ● nomadically adverb. ⓘ 16c: from Greek nomas, nomados, from nomos pasture.

nomadize or nomadise /ˈnoʊmədaɪz/ ▷ verb (nomadized, nomadizing) 1 intr to lead the life of a nomad or vagabond. 2 to make (a person, etc) nomadic; to force (a person, etc) into a nomadic way of life. ● nomadism noun. ● nomadization noun. ⓘ 18c.

no-man's-land ▷ noun 1 unclaimed land; waste land. 2 neutral territory between opposing armies or between two countries with a common border. 3 a state or situation that is neither one thing nor another. ⓘ 14c as nonesmanneslond.

nom de guerre /nɒm də gɛə(r)/ ▷ noun (plural noms de guerre) an assumed name. ⓘ 17c: French, literally 'war name'.

nom-de-plume or nom de plume /nɒm də ˈpluːm/ ▷ noun (noms-de-plume or noms de plume) a pseudonym used by a writer; a pen-name. ⓘ 19c: pseudo-French, from French nom name + de of + plume pen.

nomenclature /noʊˈmɛŋklətʃə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 a classified system of names, especially in science; terminology. 2 a list or set of names. ⓘ 17c: from Latin nomenclatura, from nomen name + calare to call.

-nomial /ˈnoʊmɪəl/ ▷ combining form, math, denoting consisting of a specified number of terms or variables. ⓘ From Latin nomen, nominis name.

-nomic see under -NOMY

nominal /ˈnɒmɪnəl/ ▷ adj 1 in name only; so called, but actually not something specified □ a nominal head of state. 2 very small in comparison to actual cost or value □ a nominal rent. 3 grammar belonging to, being or relating to a noun. 4 belonging to, being or relating to a name. 5 space flight according to plan. ▷ noun, grammar a noun, or a phrase, etc standing as a noun. ● nominally adverb 1 in name only. 2 theoretically rather than actually. 3 grammar as a noun. ⓘ 15c: from Latin nominalis, from nomen, nominis name.

nominal accounts ▷ plural noun accounts which are concerned with revenue and expenses, eg sales, purchases, etc.

nominalism ▷ noun, philos the view that a general term such as 'book' is no more than a name, and does not refer to an actual entity. ● nominalist noun, adj. ● nominalistic adj.

nominal value ▷ noun the stated or face value on a bond or share certificate, etc.

nominate /ˈnɒmɪneɪt/ ▷ verb (nominated, nominating) 1 (usually nominate someone for something) to propose them formally as a candidate for election or for a job, etc. 2 (usually nominate someone to something) to appoint them to (a post or position). 3 to specify formally (eg a date). ● nomination noun 1 the act of nominating, especially a formal proposal of a candidate for election or appointment. 2 the state of being nominated. 3 in horse-breeding: the arranged mating of a mare and stallion. ● nominator noun. ⓘ 16c: from Latin nominare, nominatum to name.

nominative /ˈnɒmɪnətɪv/ ▷ noun, grammar (abbreviation nom.) 1 in certain languages, eg Latin, Greek and German: the form or CASE² (sense 7) used to mark the subject of a verb. 2 a noun, etc in this case. ▷ adj 1 grammar belonging to or in this case. 2 appointed by nomination rather than election. ● nominatival /-ˈtaɪvəl/ adj. ● nominatively adverb. ⓘ 14c as adj: from Latin nominativus, from nominare to name.

nominee /nɒmɪˈniː/ ▷ noun (nominees) 1 a someone who is nominated as a candidate for a job or position, etc; b someone nominated to or for a job or position, etc. 2 a person or organization appointed to act on behalf of another, especially in order to keep the identity of the first secret. 3 someone on whose life an annuity or lease depends. ⓘ 17c: from Latin nominare to name; see -EE.

nomogram /ˈnɒməgram/ and nomograph /-grɑːf/ ▷ noun a chart or diagram of scaled lines or curves used to help in mathematical calculations, comprising three scales in which a line joining values on two determines a third. Also called isopleth. ● nomographic or nomographical adj. ● nomography /nɒˈmɒgrəfɪ/ noun the art of making nomograms. ⓘ Early 20c: from Greek nomos law.

-nomy /nəmɪ/ ▷ combining form, forming nouns, signifying a science or field of knowledge, or the discipline of the study of these. ● -nomic combining form forming adjectives corresponding to nouns in -nomy. ⓘ From Greek -nomia administration or regulation.

non- /nɒn/ ▷ prefix, signifying 1 not; the opposite of something specified □ non-essential □ non-existent. 2 ironic not deserving the name of something specified □ a non-event. 3 not belonging to the category of something specified □ non-fiction □ non-metals. 4 not having the skill or desire to be, or not participating in, something specified □ non-swimmers □ non-voting. 5 rejection, avoidance, or omission of something specified □ non-co-operation □ non-payment. 6 not liable to do something specified □ non-shrink □ non-drip. 7 not requiring a certain treatment □ non-iron. ⓘ From Latin non not.

nonage /ˈnoʊnɪdʒ, ˈnɒnɪdʒ/ ▷ noun, law the condition of being under age; one's minority or period of immaturity. ⓘ 14c: French, from non non- + age age.

nonagenarian /noʊnədʒəˈnɛərɪən, nɒnə-/ ▷ noun someone in their nineties, ie between the ages of 90 and 99 years old. ⓘ 19c: from Latin nonagenarius containing or consisting of ninety.

Some words with NON- prefixed. The prefix is extensely productive, and many other words besides those defined in this dictionary, and those listed below, may be formed.

non-abrasive adj.
non-absorbent adj.
non-academic adj.
non-acceptance noun.
non-accessible adj.
non-addictive adj.
non-alcoholic adj.
non-allergic adj.
non-arrival noun.
non-automatic adj, noun.
non-believer noun.
non-belligerent adj, noun.
non-biological adj.
non-breakable adj.
noncarbonated adj.
non-Catholic adj, noun.
non-Christian adj, noun.
non-clinical adj.
noncombining adj.
non-commercial adj.
non-compliance noun.
noncommunicative adj.
noncompetitive adj.
non-conclusive adj.
nonconsenting adj.
non-contagious adj.
non-controversial adj.
noncorroding adj.
non-delivery noun.
non-democratic adj.
nondisciplinary adj.
nondiscriminating adj.
nondivisible adj.
non-drinker noun.
non-driver noun.
nonearning adj.

non-aggression ⊳ noun ⊳ adj abstaining from aggression □ non-aggression pact.

nonagon /ˈnɒnəgɒn/ ⊳ noun, geom a nine-sided figure. ⓘ 17c: from Latin nonus ninth + Greek gonia angle.

non-aligned ⊳ adj said of a country: not allied to any of the major power blocs in world politics; neutral. • non-alignment noun.

non-appearance ⊳ noun failing or neglecting to appear, especially in a court of law.

nonary /ˈnoʊnərɪ/ ⊳ adj, math said of a mathematical system: based on nine. ⓘ 19c: from Latin nonarius ninth.

non-attendance ⊳ noun failure to attend; absence.

non-attributable ⊳ adj said of a press statement, etc: having a source that is not able or permitted to be disclosed. • non-attributably adverb.

non-belligerent ⊳ adj taking no part in a war. ⊳ noun a non-belligerent country.

nonce¹ /nɒns/ ⊳ noun now only used in the phrase • for the nonce for the time being; for the present. ⓘ 14c: originally for then ones for the once, then once coming to be understood as the nonce.

nonce² /nɒns/ ⊳ noun, prison slang a sexual offender, especially one who assaults children. ⓘ 1970s.

nonce-word ⊳ noun a word coined for one particular occasion.

nonchalant /ˈnɒnʃələnt/ ⊳ adj calmly or indifferently unconcerned. • nonchalance /-ləns/ noun. • nonchalantly adverb. ⓘ 18c: French, from non not + chaloir to matter or concern.

non-claim ⊳ noun, law a failure to make a claim within a set limit.

non-classified ⊳ adj said of information: not classified as secret.

non-cognizable ⊳ adj, law said of an offence: that cannot be judicially investigated.

non-com ⊳ noun, colloq a NON-COMMISSIONED OFFICER.

non-combatant ⊳ noun 1 any member of the armed forces whose duties do not include fighting, eg a surgeon or chaplain. 2 in time of war: a civilian.

non-comedogenic ⊳ adj said of cosmetics: not liable to block the pores of the skin, or cause blackheads or spots.

non-commissioned officer ⊳ noun (abbreviation NCO) an officer such as a corporal or sergeant, appointed from the lower ranks of the armed forces, not by being given a COMMISSION.

non-committal ⊳ adj avoiding expressing a definite opinion or decision. • non-committally adverb.

non-communicant ⊳ noun 1 Christianity someone who does not take communion on any particular occasion or in general. 2 someone who has not yet communicated.

non compos mentis /nɒn ˈkɒmpɒs ˈmɛntɪs/ ⊳ adj, often humorous not of sound mind. ⓘ 17c: Latin, meaning 'not in command of one's mind'.

non-conductor ⊳ noun a substance that does not conduct heat, electricity or sound. • non-conducting adj.

nonconformist ⊳ noun 1 someone who refuses to conform to generally accepted practice. 2 (Nonconformist) in England: a member of a Protestant church separated from the Church of England. ⊳ adj of or relating to nonconformists. • non-conforming adj. • non-conformism noun. • non-conformity noun 1 refusal to conform to established practice. 2 lack of correspondence or agreement between things. ⓘ 17c.

non-content ⊳ adj in the House of Lords: someone who casts a negative vote.

non-contributory ⊳ adj 1 said of a pension scheme: paid for by the employer, without contributions from the employee. 2 said of a state benefit: not dependent on the payment of National Insurance contributions.

non-co-operation ⊳ noun failure or refusal to co-operate.

non-custodial ⊳ adj said of a judicial sentence: not involving imprisonment.

non-dairy ⊳ adj said of foods: containing no dairy produce.

non-denominational ⊳ adj 1 not linked with any particular religious denomination. 2 for the use or participation of members of all denominations.

nondescript /ˈnɒndɪskrɪpt/ ⊳ adj with no strongly noticeable characteristics or distinctive features. ⊳ noun a nondescript person or thing. ⓘ 17c, meaning 'not previously described': from Latin describere, descriptum to describe.

non-destructive testing ⊳ noun the testing of structures or metals, etc, for flaws without impairing their quality.

non-drip ⊳ adj said of paint: not liable to drip when being applied. See also THIXOTROPY.

none¹ /nʌn/ ⊳ pronoun (with singular or plural verb; see note) 1 not any □ There were none in the box. 2 no one; not any □ None were as kind as she. • none but ... only ... □ none but the finest ingredients. • none of ... I won't put up with ... □ None of your cheek! • none other than someone or something the very person or thing mentioned or thought of. • none the ... (followed by a

Some words with NON- prefixed. The prefix is extremely productive, and many other words besides those defined in this dictionary, and those listed below, may be formed.

noneconomic adj.
non-essential adj, noun.
nonethical adj.
non-existence noun.
non-existent adj.
non-factual adj.
non-fatal adj.
non-flowering adj.
non-fulfilment noun.
non-functional adj.
nongovernmental adj.
non-harmonic adj.
nonhuman adj.
noninfectious adj.
noninflammable adj.
non-involvement noun.
non-iron adj.
non-linear adj.
non-marrying adj.
non-member noun.
non-natural adj.
non-nuclear adj.
non-operational adj.
non-partisan or nonpartizan adj.
nonpaying adj.
non-payment noun.
non-playing adj.
non-poisonous adj.
non-professional adj, noun.
non-resisting adj.
non-racial adj.
non-reader noun.
non-scientific adj.
non-smoking adj, noun.
non-swimmer noun.
non-specialist noun.
non-technical adj.
non-toxic adj.
non-verbal adj.

comparative) not any ... □ none the worse for his adventure. ■ none too ... by no means ... □ none too clean. ■ none the less or nonetheless nevertheless; in spite of that. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon nan not one or no.

> none
>
> • When none refers to a number of individual people or things, it can be followed by a singular or a plural verb, rather like a collective noun, depending on whether the individuals or the group as a whole are intended □ The hotel is half a mile from the beach and none of the rooms overlook the sea □ None of us has time for much else but the work in hand.

none² /noun/ and nones /nounz/ ▷ noun, especially RC Church the fifth of the CANONICAL HOURS. ⓘ 16c: from Latin nona hora the ninth hour.

non-effective military ▷ adj unfit or unavailable for service. ▷ noun a member of a force who is unfit or unavailable for active service.

non-ego ▷ noun, philos the not-I, the object as opposed to the subject, whatever is not the conscious self.

non-elective ▷ adj not chosen by election.

nonentity /nɒˈnɛntɪtɪ/ ▷ noun 1 derog someone of no significance, character or ability, etc. 2 derog a thing of no importance. 3 a thing which does not exist. 4 the state of not being. ⓘ 17c.

nones¹ /nounz/ ▷ plural noun in the Roman calendar: the seventh day of March, May, July and October, and the fifth day of other months. ⓘ 15c: from Latin nonae, from nonus ninth: the nones were the ninth day before the Ides, counting inclusively.

nones² see NONE²

nonesuch or nonsuch /ˈnʌnsʌtʃ, ˈnʌn-/ ▷ noun, literary a unique, unparalleled or extraordinary thing. ⓘ 16c.

nonet /nouˈnet/ ▷ noun (nonettos or nonetti /-tiː/) music 1 a composition for nine instruments or voices. 2 a group of nine instrumentalists or singers. ⓘ 19c: from Italian nonetto.

nonetheless see under NONE non-Euclidean geometry ▷ noun, math any system of geometry that is not based on the theories of the Greek mathematician Euclid. Compare EUCLIDEAN GEOMETRY.

non-event ▷ noun an event one has been greatly looking forward to, or which was promised as being of great importance, that turns out to be insignificant or a disappointment.

non-executive director ▷ noun a director of a company who is not employed full-time by the company, but brought in as an advisor.

non-fat ▷ adj said of food: having had the fat removed. Compare LOW-FAT.

non-feasance /nɒnˈfiːzəns/ ▷ noun, law omission of something which ought to be, or ought to have been, done. ⓘ 16c: from French faisance doing, from faire to do.

non-ferrous ▷ adj said of metals: 1 not iron or steel. 2 not containing iron.

non-fiction ▷ adj said of a literary work: factual. Also as noun □ He only reads non-fiction. ■ non-fictional adj.

non-flammable ▷ adj not liable to catch fire or burn easily.

nong /nɒŋ/ ▷ noun, Austral & NZ slang a fool or an idiot. ⓘ 1950s.

nonillion /nouˈnɪlɪən/ ▷ noun 1 in certain EC countries: the number shown as 10^{54}, a million raised to the ninth power. 2 N Amer the number shown as 10^{30}, a thousand raised to the tenth power. ■ nonillionth adj. ⓘ 17c: from Latin nonus ninth, modelled on MILLION and BILLION.

non-intervention ▷ noun not interfering, especially a government policy of systematically not interfering in the affairs of other nations.

non-invasive ▷ adj said of medical treatment: not involving surgery or the insertion of instruments, etc into the patient.

non-judgemental or non-judgmental ▷ adj relating to or having an open attitude without implicit moral judgement. ■ non-judgementally adverb.

non-juring /nɒnˈdʒʊərɪŋ/ ▷ adj, formal not swearing allegiance.

non-juror ▷ noun, formal someone who refuses to take an oath, especially to swear allegiance.

non-metal ▷ noun, chem any chemical element that does not have the properties of a metal or a metalloid, and that does not form positive ions. Also as adj. ■ non-metallic adj.

non-moral ▷ adj 1 involving no moral or ethical considerations. 2 unconcerned with morality.

non-negotiable ▷ adj not open to negotiation; said of a cheque, etc: not NEGOTIABLE.

no-no /ˈnou nou/ ▷ noun (no-nos or no-noes) colloq 1 something which must not be done, said, etc. 2 something which is impossible; a NON-STARTER 1.

non-objective ▷ adj, art not aiming to be realistic.

non-observance ▷ noun failure to observe a rule, etc.

no-nonsense ▷ adj sensible and straightforward; tolerating no nonsense; practical □ a no-nonsense approach.

nonpareil /nɒnpəˈreɪl, ˈnɒnpərəl/ ▷ adj having no equal; matchless. ▷ noun a person or thing without equal. ⓘ 15c: French, from non- not + pareil equal.

non-participating ▷ adj 1 not taking part. 2 said of shares, etc: not giving the holder a right to a share in profits.

non-party ▷ adj independent of party politics.

non-persistent ▷ adj said of insecticides and pesticides, etc: that decompose rapidly after application and do not linger in the environment.

non-person ▷ noun a person, once prominent, who has slipped into obscurity.

nonplus /nɒnˈplʌs/ ▷ verb (nonplussed, nonplussing; US nonplused, nonplusing) to puzzle; to disconcert. ⓘ 16c: from Latin non plus no further.

non-profit ▷ adj not making or involving profit.

non-profit-making ▷ adj said of a business, organization, etc: not organized with the purpose of making a profit, but usually with the aim of covering costs, ie breaking even.

non-proliferation ▷ noun lack or limitation of the production or spread of something, especially the policy of limiting the production and ownership of nuclear or chemical weapons.

non-renewable resource ▷ noun any naturally occurring substance that is economically valuable, but which forms over such a long period of time that for all practical purposes it cannot be replaced. Compare RENEWABLE RESOURCE.

non-representational ▷ adj, art not aiming at the realistic depiction of objects.

non-residence ▷ noun the fact of not (either permanently or for the moment) residing at a place, especially where one's official or social duties require one to reside, or where one is entitled to reside. ■ non-resident adj, noun.

non-resistance ▷ noun 1 the principle of not resisting violence by force, or of not resisting authority. 2 passive submission.

non-resistant ▷ adj 1 unable to resist; likely to be affected by a disease. 2 passively submissive.

non-restrictive ▷ adj 1 not restrictive. 2 grammar said of a relative clause: that does not restrict the people or things to which its antecedent may refer.

non-returnable ▷ adj 1 said of a bottle or other container: on which a returnable deposit is not paid and which will not be accepted after use by the vendor for recycling. 2 said of a deposit, etc: that will not be returned in case of cancellation, etc.

non-return valve ▷ noun a valve incorporating a device to ensure flow in one direction only.

non-scheduled ▷ adj 1 not according to a schedule. 2 said of an airline: operating between specified points but not to a specific schedule of flights.

nonsense /ˈnɒnsəns/ ▷ noun 1 words or ideas that do not make sense. 2 foolishness; silly behaviour. ▷ exclamation you're quite wrong. ● make a nonsense of something to destroy the effect of it; to make it pointless. ◎ 17c.

nonsense verse ▷ noun verse deliberately written to convey an absurd meaning or no meaning at all.

nonsensical /nɒnˈsensɪkəl/ ▷ adj making no sense; absurd. ● nonsensicality noun. ● nonsensically adverb. ● nonsensicalness noun.

non sequitur /nɒnˈsekwɪtə(r)/ ▷ noun (abbreviation non seq.) 1 an illogical step in an argument. 2 logic a conclusion that does not follow from the premisses. ◎ 18c: Latin, literally 'it does not follow'.

non-skid and non-slip ▷ adj said of a surface: designed to reduce the chance of sliding or slipping to a minimum.

non-smoker ▷ noun someone who does not smoke.

non-smoking ▷ adj said of a train carriage, aeroplane or bus, etc: in which smoking is not allowed.

non-specific ▷ adj 1 not specific. 2 said of a disease: not caused by any specific agent that can be identified □ non-specific urethritis.

non-standard ▷ adj 1 not standard. 2 said of use of language: different to the usage of educated speakers and considered by some incorrect.

non-starter ▷ noun 1 a person, thing or idea, etc that has no chance of success. 2 a horse which, though entered for a race, does not run.

nonsteroidal anti-inflammatory drug see NSAID non-stick ▷ adj said of a pan, etc: that has a coating to which food does not stick during cooking.

non-stop ▷ adj, adverb without a stop; which does not stop.

nonsuch see NONESUCH

nonsuit /ˈnɒnsuːt, -sjuːt/ Eng law ▷ noun the stopping of a suit either by the voluntary withdrawal of the plaintiff, or by the judge when the plaintiff has failed to make out cause of action, or to bring evidence. ▷ verb (nonsuited, nonsuiting) to order that a suit be dismissed. ◎ 14c: Anglo-French nonsute or nounsute does not pursue.

non-U /nɒnˈjuː/ ▷ adj, Brit colloq said of behaviour, language, etc: not acceptable among the upper classes. Compare U². ◎ 1950s.

non-union ▷ adj 1 not attached, belonging or relating to a trade union. 2 not approved of by a trade union. 3 employing, or produced by, workers who do not belong to a trade union.

non-violence ▷ noun the ideal or practice of refraining from violence on grounds of principle. ● non-violent adj.

non-voter ▷ noun 1 someone who does not vote, usually on principle. 2 someone who is not eligible to vote.

non-voting ▷ adj 1 said of shares: not giving the holder the right to vote on company decisions. 2 relating to a non-voter.

non-white ▷ adj said of a person: not belonging to one of the white-skinned races. ▷ noun (non-whites) a non-white person.

noodle¹ /ˈnuːdəl/ ▷ noun (usually noodles) cookery a thin strip of pasta, often made with egg. ◎ 18c: from German Nudel.

noodle² /ˈnuːdəl/ ▷ noun 1 colloq a simpleton. 2 colloq a blockhead. 3 N Amer the head. ◎ 18c.

nook /nʊk/ ▷ noun 1 a secluded retreat. 2 a corner or recess. ● every nook and cranny absolutely everywhere. ◎ 13c.

nooky or nookie /ˈnʊkɪ/ ▷ noun, slang sexual activity. ◎ 1930s.

noon /nuːn/ ▷ noun midday; twelve o'clock. ◎ 13c in this sense; Anglo-Saxon in obsolete sense referring to the ninth hour after sunrise, ie about 3pm: from Latin nona (hora) the ninth hour.

noonday ▷ noun midday. ▷ adj belonging to or relating to midday □ the noonday sun.

no one or no-one ▷ noun nobody; no person. ◎ 17c.

noontide ▷ noun, literary midday.

noose /nuːs/ ▷ noun 1 a loop made in the end of a rope, etc, with a sliding knot, used eg for killing someone by hanging. 2 any snare or bond. ▷ verb (noosed, noosing) to tie or snare someone or something in a noose. ● put one's head in a noose to put oneself in a dangerous or vulnerable situation. ◎ 15c: from French nous, from Latin nodus knot.

NOP ▷ abbreviation National Opinion Poll or Polls.

nope /noʊp/ ▷ exclamation, slang emphatic form of NO¹.

Nor. ▷ abbreviation 1 Norman. 2 North. 3 Norway. 4 Norwegian.

nor /nɔː(r)/ ▷ conj 1 (used to introduce alternatives after NEITHER) □ He neither knows nor cares □ They eat neither fish nor meat. 2 and not □ It didn't look appetizing, nor was it. ▷ adverb not either □ If you won't, nor shall I. ◎ 13c: a contraction of Anglo-Saxon nother, from ne not + other either.

nor

See Usage Note at neither.

nor' /nɔː(r)/ ▷ adj, in compounds, naut north □ a nor'-wester □ nor'-nor'-east.

noradrenalin or noradrenaline /nɔːrəˈdrenəlɪn/ ▷ noun a hormone produced by the ADRENAL GLANDS, controlling a wide range of physiological functions, and also secreted by the nerve endings in the sympathetic nervous system, acting as a chemical transmitter of nerve impulses. Also (especially US) called norepinephrine /nɔːrepɪˈnefrɪn/. ◎ 1930s.

Nordic /ˈnɔːdɪk/ ▷ adj 1 relating or belonging to Scandinavia or its inhabitants. 2 Germanic or Scandinavian in appearance, typically tall, blond and blue-eyed. 3 (nordic) denoting a type of competitive skiing with cross-country racing and ski-jumping. ◎ 19c: from French nordique, from nord north.

Norf. ▷ abbreviation, English county Norfolk.

Norfolk jacket ▷ noun a man's loose pleated single-breasted belted jacket with pockets, originally worn when shooting duck. ◎ 19c: from the name of the county.

nori /ˈnɒrɪ, ˈnɔːrɪ/ ▷ noun a seaweed used in Japanese cookery, either in dried sheets or as a paste. ◎ 19c: Japanese.

noria /ˈnɔːrɪə/ ▷ noun (norias) an endless chain of buckets on a wheel, for raising water, eg from a stream into irrigation channels. ⓒ 18c: Spanish, from Arabic na'urah, from na'ara to creak.

nork ▷ noun, Austral slang a woman's breast. ⓒ 1920s: probably from Norco Co-operative Ltd, a NSW butter manufacturer.

norm ▷ noun 1 (the norm) a typical pattern or situation. 2 an accepted way of behaving, etc □ social norms. 3 a standard, eg for achievement in industry □ production norms. ⓒ 19c: from Latin norma carpenter's square or a rule.

norm. ▷ abbreviation normal.

normal /ˈnɔːməl/ ▷ adj 1 usual; typical; not extraordinary. 2 mentally or physically sound □ a normal baby. 3 (normal to something) geom perpendicular. 4 chem said of a solution: (abbreviation N) a standard measurement of concentration, being a solution containing one equivalent weight of a dissolved substance per litre, eg 1N, 2N, etc. 5 chem (n-) said of hydrocarbon molecules: containing a single unbranched chain of carbon atoms □ n-butane □ n-propane. ▷ noun 1 what is average or usual. 2 geom a perpendicular line or plane. ● normally adverb 1 in an ordinary or natural way. 2 usually. ⓒ 15c: from Latin normalis regulated by a carpenter's square, from norma carpenter's square.

normal distribution ▷ noun, statistics a frequency distribution represented by a symmetrical, bell-shaped curve within which typical characteristics of a population (eg height) are enclosed.

normality /nɔːˈmalɪtɪ/ and (N Amer) normalcy /ˈnɔːməlsɪ/ ▷ noun being normal; a normal state or quality.

normalize or normalise /ˈnɔːməlaɪz/ ▷ verb (normalized, normalizing) 1 tr & intr to make or become normal or regular. 2 to heat (steel) in order to refine the crystal structure and to relieve internal stress and improve strength. ● normalization noun.

normal school ▷ noun in certain countries, especially France and N America: a training college for teachers. ⓒ 19c: from French école normal, the first being intended to be a model for others.

Norman /ˈnɔːmən/ ▷ noun 1 a person from Normandy, especially one of the descendants of the Scandinavian settlers of N France, who then conquered England in 1066. 2 Norman French. ▷ adj 1 relating to or belonging to the Normans, their language, etc, or to Normandy. 2 archit signifying or relating to a building style typical in 10c and 11c Normandy, and 11c and 12c England, similar to ROMANESQUE, with round arches and heavy massive pillars. ⓒ 13c: from French Normant, from Norse Northmathr.

normative /ˈnɔːmətɪv/ ▷ adj establishing a guiding standard or rules □ normative grammar. ⓒ 19c: from NORM.

norm referencing ▷ noun, education comparing a pupil's abilities with those of his or her peers.

Norse /nɔːs/ ▷ adj 1 relating or belonging to ancient or medieval Scandinavia. 2 Norwegian. ▷ noun 1 the Germanic language group of Scandinavia. 2 (also OLD NORSE) the language of this group used in medieval Norway and its colonies. ▷ plural noun, especially historical the Scandinavians, especially the Norwegians. ⓒ 16c: perhaps from Dutch noorsch.

Norseman ▷ noun a Scandinavian; a VIKING.

north /nɔːθ/ ▷ noun (also North or the North) 1 the direction to one's left when one faces the rising Sun. 2 MAGNETIC NORTH. 3 (usually the North) a any part of the Earth, a country or a town, etc lying in the direction of north; b in England: that part of England lying north of the Humber; c (the North) that part of the USA lying north of Maryland and the Ohio River, especially those states lying north of the MASON-DIXON LINE during the American Civil War. 4 (the North) the industrialized nations. 5 (also North) bridge the player or position occupying the place designated 'north' on the table. ▷ adj (also North) 1 in the north; on the side that is on or nearest the north. 2 coming from the direction of the north □ a north wind. ▷ adverb towards the north. ⓒ Anglo-Saxon.

Northants ▷ abbreviation, English county Northamptonshire.

North Atlantic Drift see GULF STREAM.

northbound ▷ adj going or leading towards the north.

the North Country ▷ noun (also north country) the northern part of a country, especially NORTH (noun 3a and 3b). ▷ adj (north-country) belonging to the northern part of the country, especially of England.

north-east ▷ noun (sometimes North-East) 1 the direction midway between north and east. 2 any part of the earth, or a country, etc lying in that direction. ▷ adj 1 in the north-east. 2 from the direction of the north-east □ a north-east wind. ▷ adverb in, to or towards the north-east.

north-easter or nor'-easter ▷ noun a strong wind or storm from the north-east.

north-easterly ▷ adj ▷ adverb 1 from the north-east. 2 (also north-eastward) towards the north-east. ▷ noun a wind or storm blowing from the north-east.

north-eastern ▷ adj 1 belonging to the north-east. 2 in, toward or facing the north-east or that direction.

north-eastward ▷ adj, adverb toward the north-east. ▷ noun the region to the north-east. ● north-eastwardly adj, adverb. ● north-eastwards adverb.

norther /ˈnɔːðə(r)/, ˈnɔːθə(r)/ ▷ noun a wind or storm from the north, especially a winter wind that blows from the north over Texas and the Gulf of Mexico. ⓒ 19c.

northerly /ˈnɔːðəlɪ/ ▷ adj 1 said of a wind, etc: coming from the north. 2 being, looking or lying, etc towards the north. ▷ adverb 1 to or towards the north. 2 from the north. ▷ noun (northerlies) a northerly wind. ● northerliness noun.

northern /ˈnɔːðən/ ▷ adj 1 belonging or relating to the NORTH. 2 in the north or in the direction toward it. 3 said of winds, etc: proceeding from the north. ● northerner noun (sometimes Northerner) a person who lives in or comes from the north, especially the northern counties of England or the northern states of the USA. ● northernmost adj situated furthest north.

the northern lights ▷ plural noun the AURORA BOREALIS.

North Germanic see GERMANIC.

northing /ˈnɔːðɪŋ, ˈnɔːθɪŋ/ ▷ noun, chiefly naut 1 motion, distance or tendency northward. 2 distance of a heavenly body from the equator northward. 3 difference of LATITUDE made by a ship in sailing. 4 deviation towards the north.

north-north-east or north-northeast ▷ noun a direction midway between north and north-east. ▷ adj, adverb in this direction.

north-north-west or north-northwest ▷ noun a direction midway between north and north-west. ▷ adj, adverb in this direction.

North Pole or north pole ▷ noun 1 (usually the North Pole) the point on the Earth's surface that represents the northern end of its axis. 2 astron see POLE 1 sense 2. 3 (north pole) the north-seeking pole of a magnet.

North Sea oil and North Sea gas ▷ noun, Brit oil and natural gas, respectively, obtained from deposits below the North Sea, an arm of the Atlantic Ocean between the continent of Europe and the British Isles.

North Star ▷ noun the POLE STAR.

Northumb. ▷ abbreviation, English county Northumberland.

Northumbrian /nɔːˈθʌmbrɪən/ ▷ noun 1 a native of the modern Northumberland. 2 a native of the modern region of Northumbria, made up of Northumberland, Tyne and Wear, County Durham, Cleveland and parts of N Yorkshire. 3 historical a native of the old Kingdom of Northumbria (Anglo-Saxon Northhymbre, Northhymbraland) which stretched from the Humber to the Forth. ▷ adj belonging or relating to Northumbria or Northumberland.

northward ▷ adj towards the north. ▷ adverb (also northwards) towards the north. ▷ noun the northward direction or sector, etc. ■ northwardly adj, adverb.

north-west ▷ noun (sometimes North-West) the direction midway between north and west or any part of the earth or a country, etc lying in that direction. ▷ adj 1 in the north-west. 2 from the north-west □ a north-west wind. ▷ adverb in, to or towards the north-west.

north-wester ▷ noun a strong north-west wind.

north-westerly ▷ adj, adverb 1 from the north-west. 2 (also north-westward) toward the north-west. ▷ noun a wind or storm blowing from the north-west.

north-western ▷ adj 1 belonging to the north west. 2 in, towards or facing the north-west or that direction.

north-westward ▷ adj, adverb toward the north-west. ▷ noun the region to the north-west. ■ north-westwardly adj, adverb. ■ north-westwards adverb.

Norway rat ▷ noun the BROWN RAT.

Norway spruce ▷ noun a common European dark-green spruce tree.

Norwegian /nɔːˈwiːdʒən/ ▷ adj belonging or relating to Norway, a kingdom in N W Europe in the W part of the Scandinavian peninsula, its inhabitants or their language. ▷ noun 1 a citizen or inhabitant of, or person born in, Norway. 2 the language of Norway. ⓘ 17c: from Latin Norvegia, from Norse northr north + vegr way.

Nos, Nos or nos ▷ abbreviation numbers.

nose /noʊz/ ▷ noun 1 the projecting organ above the mouth, with which one smells and breathes. 2 an animal's snout or muzzle. 3 the sense of smell □ He has a good nose. 4 a scent or aroma, esp a wine's bouquet. 5 the front or projecting part of anything, eg a motor vehicle. 6 the nose as a symbol of inquisitiveness or interference □ poke one's nose into something. ▷ verb (nosed, nosing) 1 tr & intr to move carefully forward □ nosed the car out of the yard. 2 to detect something by smelling. 3 said of an animal: to sniff at something or nuzzle it. ■ nosed adj, in compounds having a nose of a specified type □ red-nosed. ■ noseless adj. ■ nosing noun. ■ a nose for something a faculty for detecting or recognizing something □ He has a nose for a bargain. ■ by a nose by a narrow margin. ■ cut off one's nose to spite one's face to act from resentment in a way that can only cause injury to oneself. ■ get up someone's nose colloq to annoy them. ■ keep one's nose clean colloq to avoid doing anything that might get one into trouble. ■ look down or turn up one's nose at something or someone colloq to show disdain for it or them. ■ nose to tail said of cars: in a slow-moving queue with the front of one almost touching the rear of the one in front. ■ not see beyond or further than the end of one's nose not to see the long-term consequences of one's actions. ■ on the nose 1 said of bets made in horse-racing: to win only, ie not to come second, etc. 2 N Amer exactly. 3 Austral colloq unsavoury; offensive. ■ pay through the nose colloq to pay an exorbitant price. ■ put someone's nose out of joint colloq to affront them. ■ under one's nose or one's very nose in full view and very obviously in front of one; close at hand. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon nosu.

■ nose about or around colloq to pry.

■ nose something out to discover it by prying; to track it down.

nosebag ▷ noun a food bag for a horse, hung over its head.

noseband ▷ noun the part of a bridle that goes over the horse's nose.

nosebleed ▷ noun a flow of blood from the nose.

nose cone ▷ noun the cone-shaped cap on the front of a rocket, etc.

nosedive ▷ noun 1 a steep nose-downward plunge by an aircraft. 2 a sharp plunge or fall. 3 a sudden drop, eg in prices. ▷ verb, intr to plunge or fall suddenly. ⓘ Early 20c.

nosegay /ˈnoʊzgeɪ/ ▷ noun (nosegays) old use a posy, traditionally made up of fragrant flowers. ⓘ 15c: NOSE + GAY in the obsolete sense 'ornament'.

nose job ▷ noun, colloq plastic surgery performed on the nose in an attempt to improve its appearance. Technical equivalent RHINOPLASTY. ⓘ 1960s.

nosepiece ▷ noun 1 a NOSEBAND. 2 the part of a pair of spectacles that bridges the nose. 3 the end of a microscope tube that carries the OBJECT GLASS. 4 armour for the nose, eg part of a helmet.

nose rag ▷ noun, slang a handkerchief.

nose ring ▷ noun 1 an ornament worn in the nose, either in the SEPTUM or on either side. 2 a ring in the septum of an animal's nose by which it can be led.

nose wheel ▷ noun a single wheel at the front of a vehicle, especially an aircraft.

nosey see NOSY.

nosh slang ▷ noun food. ▷ verb (noshed, noshing) intr to eat. ⓘ 1950s: Yiddish, from German naschen to nibble at something.

no-show ▷ noun someone who does not arrive for something they have booked, and who fails to cancel the booking. ⓘ 1940s: originally US.

nosh-up ▷ noun, Brit slang a large and satisfying meal.

no-side ▷ noun, rugby the end of a game.

nosier, nosiest, etc see under NOSY.

nosocomial /nɒsoʊˈkoʊmɪəl/ ▷ adj relating or belonging to a hospital. ⓘ 19c: from Greek nosos disease + komeion to tend.

nosode /ˈnoʊsoʊd/ ▷ noun, alternative medicine a homeopathic remedy consisting of diseased tissue or a substance discharged during an illness. ⓘ From Greek nosos disease + eidos form.

nosography /nɒˈsɒgrəfɪ/ ▷ noun the description of diseases. ■ nosographer noun. ■ nosographic adj. ⓘ 17c: from Greek nosos disease.

nosology /nɒˈsɒlədʒɪ/ ▷ noun that branch of medicine which deals with the classification of diseases. ■ nosological adj. ■ nosologist noun. ⓘ 18c: from Greek nosos disease.

nostalgia /nɒˈstaldʒə/ ▷ noun 1 a yearning for the past. 2 homesickness. ■ nostalgic adj. ■ nostalgically adverb. ⓘ 18c in sense 2: from Greek nostos homecoming.

nostoc /ˈnɒstɒk/ ▷ noun a blue-green alga of the genus Nostoc, which is motile, forming a slime layer, and is found in soil, fresh water and the sea. ⓘ 17c: coined by Paracelsus.

nostril /ˈnɒstrɪl/ ▷ noun either of the two external openings in the nose, through which one breathes and smells, etc. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon nosthyrl, from nosu nose + thyrel hole or opening.

nostrum /ˈnɒstrəm/ ▷ noun 1 a patent medicine; a panacea or cure-all. 2 a pet solution or remedy, eg one for political ills. ⓘ 17c: Latin, meaning 'our own (make or brand, etc)'.

nosy or nosey /ˈnoʊzɪ/ ▷ adj (nosier, nosiest) derog inquisitive; prying. ▷ noun (nosies or noseys) a nickname for a prying person. • nosily adverb. • nosiness noun. ⓘ Early 20c: from NOSE.

nosy parker ▷ noun, derog, colloq a nosy person; a busybody. ⓘ Early 20c.

not ▷ adverb (with auxiliary and modal verbs often shortened to n't and joined to the verb) 1 used to make a negative statement, etc □ That is not fair. □ Those aren't right. □ Why didn't they come? 2 used with verbs of opinion or intention, etc to make the clause or infinitive following the verb negative, as in I don't think he's right, meaning I think he is not right. 3 used in place of a negative clause or predicate □ might be late, but I hope not. 4 (indicating surprise or an expectation of agreement, etc) surely it is the case that □ Haven't you heard? □ Lovely, isn't it? 5 used to contrast the untrue with the true □ It's a cloud, not a mountain. 6 barely □ with his face not two inches from mine. 7 by no means □ not nearly enough □ Not everyone would agree. 8 colloq used by a speaker to emphatically deny what they have just said □ looks a lot like Brad Pitt... not. • not a ... absolutely no ... □ not a sound. • not at all don't mention it; it's a pleasure. • not just or not only, etc used to introduce what is usually the lesser of two points, etc □ not just his family, but his wider public. • not on colloq 1 not possible. 2 not morally or socially, etc acceptable. • not that ... though it is not the case that ... □ not that I care. ⓘ 14c: a variant of NOUGHT.

nota bene /noʊtə ˈbenɪ/ ▷ verb (abbreviation NB or nb) take note; mark well. ⓘ 18c: Latin.

notable /ˈnoʊtəbəl/ ▷ adj 1 worth noting; significant. 2 distinguished. ▷ noun a notable person. • notability noun. • notableness noun. • notably adverb as something or someone notable, especially in a list or group □ several people, notably my father. • notable for something famous on account of it. ⓘ 14c: from Latin notabilis, from notare to note or observe.

notaphily /noʊˈtafɪlɪ/ ▷ noun the collecting of banknotes and cheques, etc as a hobby. • notaphilic adj. • notaphilism noun. • notaphilist noun. ⓘ 1970s: from NOTE 5.

notarize or notarise /ˈnoʊtəraɪz/ ▷ verb (notarized, notarizing) 1 to attest to something. 2 to authenticate (a document, etc) as a notary. ⓘ 1920s.

notary /ˈnoʊtərɪ/ ▷ noun (notaries) (in full notary public) (plural notaries public) a public official with the legal power to draw up and witness official documents, and to administer oaths, etc. • notarial /noʊˈtɛərɪəl/ adj 1 relating to notaries or their work. 2 said of a document: drawn up by a notary. • notarially adverb. • notaryship noun. ⓘ 14c: from Latin notarius secretary or clerk.

notate ▷ verb (notated, notating) to write (music, etc) in notation. ⓘ Early 20c.

notation /noʊˈteɪʃən/ ▷ noun 1 the representation of quantities, numbers, musical sounds or movements, etc by symbols. 2 any set of such symbols. 3 the act or process of notating. • notational adj. ⓘ 16c in obsolete sense 'etymological sense of a word': from Latin notatio marking.

notch ▷ noun (notches) 1 a small V-shaped cut or indentation. 2 a nick. 3 colloq a step or level. 4 N Amer a narrow pass. ▷ verb (notches, notched, notching) 1 to cut a notch in something. 2 to record something with, or as if with, a notch. 3 to fit (an arrow) to a bowstring. • notched adj. • notchy adj (notchier, notchiest) 1 having notches. 2 said of a manual gearbox: not operating smoothly and easily. ⓘ 16c: from French oche, then an oche coming to be understood as a notch.

• notch something up 1 to record it as a score □ notched it up on the scoreboard. 2 to achieve it.

note /noʊt/ ▷ noun 1 (often notes) a brief written record made for later reference □ took a note of the number. 2 a short informal letter □ a note of thanks. 3 a brief comment explaining a textual point, etc. Often in compounds □ a footnote □ endnote. 4 a short account or essay. 5 a a banknote; b a promissory note. 6 especially in diplomacy: a formal communication. 7 attention; notice □ buildings worthy of note. 8 distinction; eminence □ women of note. 9 music a a written symbol indicating the pitch and length of a musical sound; b the sound itself; c a key on a keyboard instrument. 10 especially poetic the call or cry of a bird or animal. 11 an impression conveyed; feeling; mood □ with a note of panic in her voice. ▷ verb (noted, noting) 1 (also note something down) to write it down. 2 to notice something; to be aware of it. 3 to pay close attention to something. 4 to mention or to remark upon something. 5 music to write down (music) in notes. 6 to annotate something. • noted adj 1 famous; eminent □ a noted surgeon □ noted for his use of colour. 2 notorious. • notedly adverb. • noteless adj. • compare notes to exchange ideas and opinions, especially about a particular person, event or thing. • of note 1 well-known; distinguished. 2 significant; worthy of attention. • strike a false note to act or speak inappropriately. • strike the right note to act or speak appropriately. • take note (often take note of something) to observe it carefully, to pay attention to it. ⓘ 14c: from Latin nota a mark or sign.

notebook ▷ noun 1 a small book in which to write notes, etc. 2 a small portable computer, smaller than a LAPTOP. ⓘ 16c; 1980s in sense 2.

notecase ▷ noun a wallet.

notelet /ˈnoʊtlɪt/ ▷ noun a folded piece of notepaper, often a decorated one, for writing short letters or NOTES (noun 2) on.

notepad ▷ noun a block of writing-paper for making notes on.

notepaper ▷ noun paper for writing letters on.

noteworthy ▷ adj worthy of notice; remarkable. • noteworthiness noun.

nothing /ˈnʌθɪŋ/ ▷ noun 1 no thing; not anything. 2 a zero number or quantity; b the figure 0 representing this. 3 a very little; b something of no importance or not very impressive; c no difficulty or trouble. 4 an absence of anything. ▷ adverb not at all □ nothing daunted. • nothingness noun 1 the state of being nothing or of not existing. 2 emptiness. 3 worthlessness. 4 a thing of no value. • be nothing to something to be much less than it; to be trivial compared with it □ That's nothing to what I saw. • be nothing to do with someone or something 1 to be unconnected with them. 2 to be of no concern to them. • come to nothing to fail or peter out. • for nothing 1 free; without payment or personal effort □ You can have it for nothing. 2 for no good reason; in vain □ all that work for nothing. 3 derog because it is so obvious that you should know □ I'll tell you that for nothing. • have nothing on 1 to be free; to have no engagement. 2 to be naked. • have nothing on someone or something 1 colloq to have no information about them □ Local police had nothing on him till now. 2 colloq to be not nearly as good, beautiful, skilled, etc as them □ She has nothing on her sister. • have nothing to do with someone or something 1 to avoid them. 2 to be unconnected with them. 3 to be of no concern to them. • like nothing on earth colloq 1 grotesque. 2 frightful. • make nothing of someone or something not to understand them or it. • mean nothing to someone 1 to be incomprehensible to them. 2 to be of no importance to them. • nothing but ... usually said of something unwelcome: only; merely □ nothing but trouble. • nothing doing colloq 1 an expression of refusal. 2 no hope of success. • nothing for it but to ... no alternative except to ... □ nothing for it but to own up. • nothing if not ... primarily, above all, or very ... □ nothing if not keen. • nothing like ... by no means ... □ nothing like good enough. • nothing like someone or something not at all like them or it. • nothing much very little. • nothing short of or less than something 1 downright; absolute □ They were nothing less than criminals. 2 only □ will accept nothing less than an apology. ● nothing to it or in it straightforward; easy. ● think nothing of something 1 to regard it as normal or straightforward. 2 to feel no hesitation, guilt or regret about it □ thinks nothing of leaving the dog alone all day. ● think nothing of it it doesn't matter; there is no need for thanks. ● to say nothing of something as well as it; not to mention it. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon.

notice /ˈnoutɪs/ ▷ noun 1 an announcement displayed or delivered publicly. 2 one's attention □ it escaped my notice. 3 a warning or notification given, eg before leaving, or dismissing someone from, a job □ give in one's notice □ will continue until further notice. 4 a review of a performance or book, etc. ▷ verb (noticed, noticing) 1 to observe; to become aware of something. 2 to remark on something. 3 to show signs of recognition of someone, etc. 4 to treat someone with polite attention. ● at short notice with little warning or time for preparation, etc. ● take notice to take interest in one's surroundings, etc. ● take notice of someone or something to pay attention to them. ⓘ 16c: French, from Latin notitia, from notus known.

noticeable ▷ adj easily seen; clearly apparent. ● noticeably adverb.

noticeboard ▷ noun a board on which notices are displayed.

notification /noutɪfɪˈkeɪʃən/ ▷ noun 1 an announcement or warning. 2 the act or means of notifying.

notify /ˈnoutɪfaɪ/ ▷ verb (notifies, notified, notifying) to tell or to inform. ● notifiable adj said of infectious diseases: that must be reported to the public health authorities. ⓘ 14c: from Latin notus known + facere to make.

■ notify someone of something to inform or warn them about it.

notion /ˈnouʃən/ ▷ noun 1 an impression, conception or understanding. 2 a belief or principle. 3 an inclination, whim or fancy. 4 (notions) originally N Amer, especially US small items used in sewing such as pins, needles, threads and fastenings, etc. ● notional adj 1 existing in imagination only. 2 theoretical. 3 hypothetical. 4 grammar having a full meaning of its own. ● notionalist noun a theorist. ● notionally adverb. ⓘ 16c: from Latin notio an idea.

notochord /ˈnoutoukɔːd/ or notochordal /-dəl/ noun, zool a flexible rod-like structure, which strengthens and supports the body in the embryos and adults of more primitive animals. In vertebrates it is replaced by the spinal column before birth. ⓘ 19c: from Greek notos back + chorde a string.

notoriety /noutəˈraɪətɪ/ ▷ noun 1 fame or reputation, usually for something disreputable. 2 publicity; public exposure.

notorious /nouˈtɔːrɪəs/ ▷ adj famous, usually for something disreputable □ a notorious criminal. ● notoriously adverb. ● notoriousness noun. ⓘ 16c: from Latin notorius well-known.

not-out ▷ adj, adverb, cricket 1 still in. 2 at the end of the innings without having been put out.

not proven / — ˈpruːvən/ ▷ noun, Scots law an alternative verdict resorted to when there is insufficient evidence to convict, resulting in the freedom of the accused. Also as adj □ not proven verdict. Compare GUILTY 1, INNOCENT 2.

no-trump bridge ▷ noun (also no-trumps) a call for the playing of a hand without any trump suit. ▷ adj said of a hand: possible to play without trumps.

Notts. ▷ abbreviation, English county Nottinghamshire.

notwithstanding /nɒtwɪðˈstandɪŋ/ ▷ prep in spite of. ▷ adverb in spite of that; however. ▷ conj although.

nougat /ˈnuːgɑː, ˈnʌgət/ ▷ noun a chewy sweet containing chopped nuts, cherries, etc. ⓘ 19c: French, from Latin nux nut.

nought /nɔːt/ ▷ noun 1 the figure 0; zero. 2 old use nothing; naught. ● set something at nought 1 to despise it. 2 to disregard it. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon noht, from ne not + owiht aught.

noughts and crosses ▷ singular noun a game for two players taking alternate turns, the aim being to complete a row of three noughts (for one player) or three crosses (for the other) within a square framework of nine squares.

noun /naʊn/ ▷ noun, grammar (abbreviation n.) a word used as the name of a person, animal, thing, place or quality. ● nounal adj (see also NOMINAL). ● nouny adj nounlike. See also COMMON NOUN, PROPER NOUN, COUNT NOUN, MASS NOUN, ABSTRACT (adj 4), CONCRETE (adj 4). ⓘ 14c as nowne: from Latin nomen name.

nourish /ˈnʌrɪʃ/ ▷ verb (nourishes, nourished, nourishing) 1 to supply someone or something with food needed for survival and growth. 2 a to encourage the growth of something; b to foster (an idea, etc). ● nourisher noun. ● nourishing adj. ● nourishment noun 1 something that nourishes; food. 2 the act of nourishing. 3 the state of being nourished. ⓘ 13c as noris, meaning 'to suckle' or 'to nurse': from French norir, from Latin nutrire to feed, foster or care for.

nous /naʊs/ ▷ noun colloq common sense; gumption. ⓘ 18c; 17c in original sense 'the intellect': Greek, meaning 'mind'.

nouveau riche /ˈnuːvou riːʃ/ ▷ noun, derog (usually in plural nouveaux riches /ˈnuːvou riːʃ/) people who have recently acquired wealth but lack the upper-class breeding to go with it. ⓘ 19c: French, meaning 'new rich'.

nouvelle cuisine /ˈnuːvel kwɪˈziːn/ ▷ noun a simple style of cookery characterized by much use of fresh produce and elegant presentation. ⓘ 1980s: French, meaning 'new cookery'.

Nouvelle Vague see under NEW WAVE.

Nov. ▷ abbreviation November.

nova /ˈnouvə/ ▷ noun (novae /-viː/ or novas) astron a normally faint star that suddenly flares into brightness and then fades again. ⓘ 19c: from Latin nova stella new star.

novel¹ /ˈnɒvəl/ ▷ noun 1 a book-length fictional story usually involving relationships between characters, their emotional crises and events concerning them. 2 (the novel) such writing as a literary genre. ● novelish adj. ● novelist noun a writer of a novel or novels. ● novelistic adj relating to, or characteristic of, novels. ⓘ 15c: from Italian novella short story, from Latin novellus new.

novel² /ˈnɒvəl/ ▷ adj new; original; previously unheard-of. ⓘ 15c: from Latin novellus new.

novelese /nɒvəˈliːz/ ▷ noun, derog a hackneyed style of writing typical of poor novels. ⓘ Early 20c.

novelette /nɒvəˈlet/ ▷ noun, derog a short novel, especially one that is trite or sentimental. ● novelettish adj. ● novelettist noun. ⓘ Early 19c.

novella /nəˈvelə/ ▷ noun (novellas) a short story or short novel. ⓘ Early 20c: Italian.

novelty /ˈnɒvəltɪ/ ▷ noun (novelties) 1 the quality of being new and intriguing. 2 something new and strange. 3 a small, cheap and usually kitsch toy or souvenir. ⓘ 14c: from French novelté.

November /nouˈvembə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 (abbreviation Nov.) the eleventh month of the year, which follows October and comes before December. 2 communications in the NATO alphabet: the word used to denote the letter 'N' (see table at NATO ALPHABET). ⓘ 13c: Latin, meaning 'the ninth month', from novem nine; in the Roman calendar the year began in March.

novena /noʊ'viːnə/ ▷ noun (novenas) RC Church a series of special prayers and services held over a period of nine days. ⓘ 19c: from Latin novem nine each.

novice /'nɒvɪs/ ▷ noun 1 someone new in anything; a beginner. 2 someone who has recently joined a religious community but not yet taken vows; a probationary member of such a community. 3 horse-racing a horse that has not won a race in a season prior to the current season. 4 a competitor that has not yet won a recognized prize. ⓘ 14c: from Latin novicius, from novus new.

noviciate or novitiate /nə'vɪʃɪət/ ▷ noun 1 the period of being a novice, especially one in a religious community. 2 the state of being a novice. 3 the novices' quarters in a religious community. ⓘ 17c: from French noviciat.

Novocaine /'noʊvəkeɪn/ ▷ noun, trademark a proprietary name for PROCAINE.

now /naʊ/ ▷ adverb 1 at the present time or moment. 2 immediately. 3 in narrative: then □ He now turned from journalism to fiction. 4 in these circumstances; as things are □ I planned to go, but now I can't. 5 up to the present □ has now been teaching 13 years. 6 used in conversation to accompany explanations, warnings, commands, rebukes, words of comfort, etc □ Now, this is what happened □ Careful now! ▷ noun the present time. ▷ conj (also now that) because at last; because at this time □ Now we're all here, we'll begin. ● any day or moment or time now at any time soon. ● as of now from this time onward. ● for now until later; for the time being. ● just now 1 a moment ago. 2 at this very moment. ● now and again or now and then sometimes; occasionally. ● now for used in anticipation, or in turning from one thing to another □ Now for some fun! ● now, now! 1 used to comfort someone □ Now, now, don't cry! 2 (also now then!) a warning or rebuke □ Now, now! Less noise please! ● now..., now... one moment..., and the next... □ now crying, now laughing. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon nu.

nowadays /'naʊədeɪz/ ▷ adverb in these present times. ⓘ 14c.

noway /noʊ'weɪ/, noways /-'weɪz/ and nowise /noʊ'waɪz/ ▷ adverb in no way, manner or degree. See also NO WAY at NO².

Nowell or Nowel /noʊ'ɛl/ ▷ noun NOEL. ⓘ 14c: French.

nowhere /'noʊwɛə(r)/ ▷ adverb in or to no place; not anywhere. ▷ noun a non-existent place. ● from or out of nowhere suddenly and inexplicably □ They appeared from nowhere. ● get nowhere colloq to make no progress. ● in the middle of nowhere colloq isolated; remote from towns or cities, etc. ● nowhere near colloq not nearly; by no means □ nowhere near fast enough. ● nowhere to be found or seen lost.

no-win ▷ adj said of a situation: in which one is bound to fail or lose, whatever one does. ⓘ 1960s.

nowt /naʊt/ ▷ noun, colloq or dialect nothing. ⓘ 19c variant of NAUGHT.

noxious /'nɒkʃəs/ ▷ adj harmful; poisonous. ● noxiously adverb. ● noxiousness noun. ⓘ 17c: from Latin noxius harmful.

nozzle /'nɒzəl/ ▷ noun an outlet tube or spout, especially as a fitting attached to the end of a hose, etc. ⓘ 17c: a diminutive of NOSE.

NP or np ▷ abbreviation 1 new paragraph. 2 (always NP) IVR New Providence, Bahamas. 3 Notary Public. 4 grammar noun phrase.

Np ▷ symbol, chem neptunium.

NPA ▷ abbreviation Newspaper Publishers' Association.

NPFA ▷ abbreviation National Playing Fields Association.

nr ▷ abbreviation near.

NRV ▷ abbreviation net realizable value.

NS ▷ abbreviation 1 (also ns) new series. 2 said of dates: New Style. 3 Canadian province Nova Scotia. 4 Nuclear Ship.

ns ▷ abbreviation 1 nanosecond or nanoseconds. 2 new series. 3 not specified. 4 (also n/s) non-smoker.

NSAID ▷ abbreviation nonsteroidal anti-inflammatory drug, any one of a class of drugs used for treating rheumatic diseases, eg aspirin.

NSB ▷ abbreviation National Savings Bank.

NSC ▷ abbreviation 1 National Safety Council. 2 US National Security Council.

NSPCC ▷ abbreviation National Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children.

NSU ▷ abbreviation non-specific urethritis.

NSW ▷ abbreviation, Austral state New South Wales.

NT ▷ abbreviation 1 National Trust. 2 New Testament. 3 Austral state Northern Territory. 4 cards no-trumps.

-n't /ənt/ ▷ contraction not. See under NOT.

NTA ▷ abbreviation National Training Award.

Nth ▷ abbreviation North.

nth /ɛnθ/ ▷ adj (sometimes n^{th}) 1 denoting an indefinite position in a sequence □ to the nth degree. 2 denoting an item or occurrence that is many times removed from the first in a sequence □ I'm telling you for the nth time.

NTP or ntp ▷ abbreviation normal temperature and pressure. Former name for STP.

NTS ▷ abbreviation National Trust for Scotland.

nt wt ▷ abbreviation net weight.

NU ▷ abbreviation name unknown.

nu /njuː/ ▷ noun the thirteenth letter of the Greek alphabet. See table at GREEK ALPHABET.

NUAAW ▷ abbreviation National Union of Agricultural and Allied Workers.

nuance /'njuːɑːns, njuː'ɑːns/ ▷ noun a subtle variation in colour, meaning or expression, etc. ⓘ 18c: French, meaning 'shade' or 'hue'.

the nub ▷ noun the central and most important issue; the crux □ the nub of the matter. ⓘ 19c: from German knubbe.

nubile /'njuːbaɪl/ ▷ adj said of a young woman: 1 sexually mature. 2 marriageable. 3 sexually attractive. ● nubility noun. ⓘ 17c: from Latin nubilis, from nubere to veil oneself, (hence) to marry.

nuc. ▷ abbreviation nuclear.

nucellus /njuː'sɛləs/ ▷ noun (nucelli /-laɪ/) bot in seed-bearing plants: the greater part of the OVULE, containing the embryo sac and nutritive tissue. ⓘ 19c: from Latin nucella a little nut, from nux, nucis a nut.

nucha /'njuːkə/ ▷ noun (nuchae /-kiː/) anatomy the nape of the neck. ● nuchal adj. ⓘ 16c: Latin, from Arabic nukha spinal marrow.

nuciferous /njuː'sɪfərəs/ ▷ adj, bot nut-bearing. ⓘ 17c: from Latin nux, nucis nut.

nucivorous /njuː'sɪvərəs/ ▷ adj, zool nut-eating. ⓘ 19c: from Latin nux, nucis nut.

nuclear /'njuːklɪə(r)/ ▷ adj 1 having the nature of, or like, a NUCLEUS. 2 belonging or relating to atoms or their nuclei □ nuclear physics. 3 relating to or produced by the fission or fusion of atomic nuclei □ nuclear energy. ⓘ 19c.

nuclear chemistry ▷ noun the branch of chemistry concerned with the atomic nucleus and its reactions, involving large energy changes.

nuclear disarmament ▷ noun a country's act of giving up its nuclear weapons.

nuclear energy ▷ noun energy produced through a nuclear reaction. Also called atomic energy.

nuclear envelope see under ENVELOPE.

nuclear family ▷ noun the basic family unit, thought of as the mother, father and children only. Compare EXTENDED FAMILY, SINGLE PARENT. ⓘ 1940s.

nuclear fission ▷ noun a reaction in which an atomic nucleus of a radioactive element splits by bombardment from an external source, with simultaneous release of large amounts of energy, used for electric power generation. ⓘ 1930s in this sense.

nuclear-free ▷ adj said of a zone or state, etc: where the manufacture, storage, transport and deployment of nuclear weapons, the manufacture or use of nuclear energy, and the transport or disposal of nuclear waste are all banned.

nuclear fuel ▷ noun material such as URANIUM or PLUTONIUM used to produce nuclear energy.

nuclear fusion ▷ noun a THERMONUCLEAR reaction in which two atomic nuclei combine (usually DEUTERIUM and TRITIUM with formation of HELIUM), with a release of large amounts of energy, the uncontrolled form of which was the basis of the hydrogen bomb. ⓘ 1950s in this sense.

nuclearize or nuclearise /ˈnjuːklɪəraɪz/ ▷ verb (nuclearized, nuclearizing) 1 to make something nuclear. 2 to supply or fit something with nuclear weapons. • nuclearization noun. ⓘ 1960s.

nuclear magnetic resonance ▷ noun (abbreviation NMR) the absorption of electromagnetic radiation at a precise frequency by an atomic nucleus with a MAGNETIC MOMENT in an external magnetic field.

nuclear medicine ▷ noun the branch of medicine concerned with the use of radioactive isotopes to study, diagnose and treat diseases.

nuclear physics ▷ noun the study of atomic nuclei, especially relating to the generation of NUCLEAR ENERGY.

nuclear power ▷ noun power, especially electricity, obtained from reactions by NUCLEAR FISSION or NUCLEAR FUSION. • nuclear-powered adj.

nuclear reaction ▷ noun a process of fusion or fission as atomic nuclei interact with each other or with another particle.

nuclear reactor ▷ noun an apparatus for producing nuclear energy, eg to generate electricity, by means of a sustained and controlled chain reaction of NUCLEAR FISSION. Formerly called atomic pile.

nuclear waste ▷ noun the radioactive waste material that is produced during the operation of a nuclear reactor, the manufacture of nuclear weapons, or the mining and extraction of nuclear fuels.

nuclear weapon ▷ noun a weapon that derives its destructive force from the energy released during NUCLEAR FISSION or NUCLEAR FUSION. Also called atomic weapon.

nuclear winter ▷ noun a period without light, heat or growth, predicted as a likely after-effect of nuclear war.

nuclease /ˈnjuːklɪeɪz/ ▷ noun, biochem any enzyme that catalyses the splitting of the chain of nucleotides comprising NUCLEIC ACIDS.

nucleate /ˈnjuːklɪeɪt/ ▷ verb (nucleated, nucleating) 1 tr & intr to form, or form something into, a nucleus. 2 chem to act as a nucleus for (a crystal). ▷ adj having a nucleus. • nucleation noun. ⓘ 19c.

nuclei plural of NUCLEUS nucleic acid /njuːˈkliːɪk —/ ▷ noun a chain of nucleotides, either DNA or RNA, found in all living cells. ⓘ Late 19c.

nucleo- /ˈnjuːklɪoʊ/ ▷ combining form, denoting 1 nuclear. 2 nucleic acid. 3 nucleus.

nucleolus /njuˈklɪələs, njuːklɪˈoʊləs/ ▷ noun (nucleoli /-laɪ/) biol a spherical body in the nucleus of most plant and animal cells, comprising protein and NUCLEOTIDES, and concerned with the production of protein. ⓘ 19c.

nucleon /ˈnjuːklɪɒn/ ▷ noun, physics a PROTON or NEUTRON. ⓘ 1920s: from NUCLEUS.

nucleonics /njuːklɪˈɒnɪks/ ▷ singular noun the study of the uses of radioactivity and nuclear energy. ⓘ 1940s.

nucleon number ▷ noun, chem MASS NUMBER.

nucleoside /ˈnjuːklɪəsaɪd/ ▷ noun, biochem an organic compound, similar to a NUCLEOTIDE, but lacking the phosphate group. Compare NUCLEOTIDE. ⓘ Early 20c.

nucleotide ▷ noun, biochem an organic compound consisting of a PURINE or PYRIMIDINE base, a sugar molecule, and a phosphate group bonded together, four of which in DNA are combined in numerous permutations to form the GENETIC CODE. Compare NUCLEOSIDE. ⓘ Early 20c.

nucleus /ˈnjuːklɪəs/ ▷ noun (nuclei /-klɪaɪ/) 1 physics the positively charged tiny central part of an atom, consisting of neutrons and protons and surrounded by electrons. 2 biol the central part of a plant or animal cell, containing genetic material. 3 chem a stable group of atoms in a molecule acting as a base for the formation of compounds. 4 chem a small particle acting as the basis on which crystals can grow. 5 a core round which things accumulate. ⓘ 18c, meaning 'a central part': Latin, meaning 'kernel'.

nuclide /ˈnjuːklaɪd/ ▷ noun, physics one of two or more atoms that contain the same number of PROTONS and the same number of NEUTRONS in their nuclei, and so have the same ATOMIC NUMBER and MASS NUMBER. ⓘ 1940s.

NUCPS ▷ abbreviation National Union of Civil and Public Servants.

nude /njuːd/ ▷ adj 1 wearing no clothes; naked. 2 bare; uncovered. 3 law a lacking a necessary legal requirement; b said of contracts and agreements, etc: made without a consideration. 4 flesh-coloured. ▷ noun 1 a representation of one or more naked figures in painting or sculpture, etc. 2 someone naked. 3 the state of nakedness □ in the nude. • nudely adverb. • nudeness noun. See also NUDISM. ⓘ 16c: from Latin nudus naked.

nudge /nʌdʒ/ ▷ verb (nudged, nudging) 1 to poke or push someone gently, especially with the elbow, to get attention, etc. 2 intr to push slightly, or little by little □ The driver nudged forward out of the side street. ▷ noun a gentle prod. • nudge nudge, wink wink or nudge-nudge colloq said (with a show of confidentiality) to imply some disreputable practice, or a sexual innuendo ⓘ 1970s catch phrase from the British TV comedy show Monty Python's Flying Circus. ⓘ 17c: possibly from Norwegian dialect nugga to push or rub.

nudibranch /ˈnjuːdɪbraŋk/ ▷ noun (nudibranchs) a shell-less marine gastropod with gills exposed on the back and sides of the body. ⓘ 19c: from Latin nudus naked + branchia gills.

nudie /ˈnjuːdɪ/ colloq ▷ adj said of films, shows and magazines, etc: featuring nudity. ▷ noun (nudies) such a film, etc.

nudism /ˈnjuːdɪzəm/ noun 1 the practice of not wearing clothes, as a matter of principle. 2 US NATURISM. • nudist noun someone who wears no clothes, as a matter of principle. Also as adj. • nudity noun.

nuée ardente /njueɪ ɑːˈdɑ̃t/ noun (nuées ardentes /njueɪ ɑːˈdɑ̃t/) a cloud of hot gas and ash, etc from a volcano, spreading horizontally. ⓘ Early 20c: French, meaning 'burning cloud'.

nugatory /ˈnjuːgətərɪ/ ▷ adj, formal 1 worthless; trifling; valueless. 2 ineffective; futile. 3 invalid. • nugatoriness noun. ⓘ 17c: from Latin nugae trifles.

nugget /ˈnʌgɪt/ ▷ noun 1 a lump, especially of gold. 2 a small piece of something precious □ nuggets of wisdom. • nuggety adj 1 full of nuggets, or like nuggets. 2 Austral stocky; thickset. ⓘ 19c.

NUGMW ▷ abbreviation National Union of General and Municipal Workers.

nuisance /ˈnjuːsəns/ ▷ noun 1 an annoying or troublesome person, thing or circumstance. 2 law something obnoxious to the community or an individual, that is disallowed by law. • make a nuisance of oneself to behave annoyingly. ⓘ 15c: French, from nuire to injure.

NUJ ▷ abbreviation National Union of Journalists.

nuke /njuːk/ ▷ verb (nuked, nuking) slang to attack with nuclear weapons. ▷ noun a nuclear weapon. ⓘ 1950s.

null /nʌl/ ▷ adj 1 legally invalid □ declared null and void. 2 with no significance or value. 3 math said of a set: with no members; empty. • nullity noun 1 the state of being null or void. 2 (nullities) something without legal force or validity. 3 lack of existence, force or efficacy. • nullness noun. ⓘ 16c: from Latin nullus none.

nullify /ˈnʌlɪfaɪ/ ▷ verb (nullifies, nullified, nullifying) 1 to cause or declare something to be legally invalid. 2 to make something ineffective; to cancel it out. • nullification noun. • nullifier noun. ⓘ 16c: from Latin nullus of no account + facere to make.

NUM ▷ abbreviation National Union of Mineworkers.

Num. and Numb. ▷ abbreviation Book of the Bible: Numbers, or the Book of Numbers. See table at BIBLE.

num. ▷ abbreviation 1 number. 2 numeral.

numb /nʌm/ ▷ adj (number, numbest) 1 deprived completely, or to some degree, of sensation. 2 too stunned to feel emotion; stupefied □ numb with shock. ▷ verb (numbed, numbing) 1 to make something numb. 2 to deaden something. • numbly adverb. • numbness noun. ⓘ 15c as nomen, meaning 'seized', ie with paralysis: from nim to take.

numbat /ˈnʌmbat/ ▷ noun, Austral a small marsupial which feeds on termites. ⓘ 1920s: Aboriginal.

number /ˈnʌmbə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 the means or system by which groups or sets, etc of individual things, etc are counted; a quantity calculated in units. 2 one or more arithmetical symbols representing such a quantity; a numeral or set of numerals, eg 5 or V, 15 or XV. 3 a numeral or set of numerals identifying something or someone within a series □ telephone numbers. 4 (with a numeral) the person, animal, vehicle, etc bearing the specified numeral □ Number 21 is pulling ahead. 5 a single one of a series, eg an issue of a magazine. 6 a quantity of individuals. 7 an act or turn in a programme. 8 a piece of popular music or jazz. 9 colloq an article or person considered appreciatively □ driving a white sports number. 10 a group or set □ isn't one of our number. 11 (numbers) numerical superiority □ overwhelmed by sheer weight of numbers. 12 grammar the property of expressing, or classification of word forms into, SINGULAR and PLURAL and, in some languages, 'dual' (for two people, things, etc). ▷ verb (numbered, numbering) 1 to give a number to something; to mark it with a number. 2 to amount to (a specified amount) □ a crowd numbering about 500. 3 tr & intr to list; to enumerate. • numberless adj 1 too many to count; innumerable. 2 without a number. • any number of something many of it. • by numbers said of a procedure, etc: performed in simple stages, each stage being identified by a number. • one's days are numbered one is soon to die, or come to the end of something (eg a job) unpleasantly. • get or have someone's number colloq to understand them; to have them sized up. • one's number is up colloq one is due for some unpleasant fate, eg death or ruin. • there is safety in numbers in situations where there is a risk of harm, rejection or failure, etc it is better to be one of a group or to involve oneself in a number of activities or approach a number of people, etc. • without number more than can be counted; countless. ⓘ 13c: from French nombre, from Latin numerus.

• number among, in or with something to include □ I number her among my enemies.

number-cruncher ▷ noun 1 a computer designed to carry out large quantities of complex numerical calculations. 2 someone who operates such a computer. 3 someone who carries out such calculations in their head. • number-crunching noun.

number one ▷ noun 1 first in a numbered series. 2 colloq, ironic oneself □ look after number one. ▷ adj (number-one) first; of primary importance □ give it number-one priority.

number plate ▷ noun one of the two plates at the front and rear of a motor vehicle, bearing its registration number.

numbers game, numbers pool and numbers racket ▷ noun, US an illegal form of gambling in which players bet on the appearance of a chosen sequence of numbers in the financial pages of a newspaper, etc. • play the numbers game to use arithmetical calculations, or figures generally, to make or win a point.

Number Ten ▷ noun, colloq 10 Downing Street, London, the official home of the Prime Minister.

number theory ▷ noun the branch of mathematics concerned with the abstract study of the relationships between, and properties of, positive whole numbers.

number two ▷ noun, colloq second-in-command.

numbly and numbness see under NUMB

numbskull see NUMSKULL

numen /ˈnjuːmən/ ▷ noun (numina /-mɪnə/) a presiding deity. See also NUMINOUS. ⓘ 17c: Latin, meaning 'divinity'.

numerable /ˈnjuːmərəbəl/ ▷ adj that may be numbered or counted. • numerability noun. • numerably adverb. ⓘ 16c.

numeral /ˈnjuːmərəl/ ▷ noun 1 an arithmetical symbol or group of symbols used to express a number; a figure, eg 5 or V, 29 or XXIX. 2 grammar a word used to denote a number. ▷ adj relating to, consisting of, or expressing a number. ⓘ 16c: from Latin numerus number.

numerate /ˈnjuːmərət/ ▷ adj 1 able to perform arithmetical operations. 2 having some understanding of mathematics and science. • numeracy /-rəsɪ/ noun. ⓘ 15c as adj meaning 'counted': from Latin numerus number, modelled on LITERATE.

numeration ▷ noun 1 the process of counting or numbering. 2 a system of numbering. ⓘ 15c: from Latin numerare, numeratum to count.

numerator /ˈnjuːməreɪtə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 the number above the line in a fraction. See also DENOMINATOR. 2 a person or thing which numbers. ⓘ 16c.

numeric /njʊˈmerɪk/ and numerical /-kəl/ ▷ adj relating to, using, or consisting of, numbers □ numerical superiority. • numerically adverb. ⓘ 17c.

numerical analysis ▷ noun the study of methods of approximation and their accuracy, etc.

numerical control and computer numeric control ▷ noun (abbreviation NC or CNC) automatic control of operation of machine tools by means of numerical data stored in computers, either obeying a preset program of instructions or reacting to feedback from sensors.

numeric keypad ▷ noun a numbered pad forming a separate section on a computer keyboard, used for inputting data or occasionally commands.

numerology /njuːməˈrɒlədʒɪ/ ▷ noun the study of numbers as supposed to predict future events or influence

Number Systems

Arabic	Roman	Binary	Arabic	Roman	Binary
1	I	1	50	L	110010
2	II	10	60	LX	111100
3	III	11	64	LXIV	1000000
4	IV	100	90	XC	1011010
5	V	101	99	XCIX	1100011
6	VI	110	100	C	1100100
7	VII	111	128	CXXVIII	10000000
8	VIII	1000	200	CC	11001000
9	IX	1001	256	CCLVI	100000000
10	X	1010	300	CCC	100101100
11	XI	1011	400	CD	110010000
12	XII	1100	500	D	111110100
13	XIII	1101	512	DXII	1000000000
14	XIV	1110	600	DC	1001011000
15	XV	1111	900	CM	1110000100
16	XVI	10000	1 000	M	1111101000
17	XVII	10001	1 024	MXXIV	10000000000
18	XVIII	10010	1 500	MD	10111011100
19	XIX	10011	2 000	MM	11111010000
20	XX	10100	4 000	MV̄	111110100000
21	XXI	10101	5 000	V̄	1001110001000
30	XXX	11110	10 000	X̄	10011100010000
32	XXXII	100000	20 000	X̄X̄	100111000100000
40	XL	101000	100 000	C̄	11000011010100000 human affairs. • numerological /-rəˈlɒdʒɪkəl/ adj. • numerologist noun. ⓘ Early 20c.

numero uno /ˈnuːmərou ˈuːnou/ ▷ noun, colloq number one; the most important person or thing; oneself. ⓘ 1970s: Italian.

numerous /ˈnjuːmərəs/ ▷ adj 1 many. 2 said of an assembly or a body of people, etc: containing a large number of people. • numerously adverb. ⓘ 16c: from Latin numerosus.

numina plural of NUMEN numinous /ˈnjuːmɪnəs/ ▷ adj 1 mysterious; awe-inspiring. 2 characterized by the sense of a deity's presence. • numinousness noun. ⓘ 17c: from Latin numen deity.

numismatic /njuːmɪzˈmatɪk/ ▷ adj relating to numismatics and numismatology /njuːmɪzməˈtɒlədʒɪ/, the study or collecting of coins and medals. • numismatist or numismatologist someone who collects or studies coins and medals. ⓘ 18c: from Greek nomisma coin.

numskull or numbskull ▷ noun, colloq a stupid person. ⓘ 18c: NUMB + SKULL.

nun ▷ noun a member of a female religious order living within a community, in obedience to certain vows. • nunnish adj. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon nunne: from Latin nonna, originally meaning 'mother'.

nunc dimittis /nʌŋk dɪˈmɪtɪs/ ▷ noun (also Nunc Dimittis) Christianity the song of Simeon (Luke 2.29–32) in the Roman Catholic Breviary and the Anglican evening service. ⓘ 16c: the opening words in Latin, meaning 'now lettest thou depart'.

nunchaku /nʊnˈtʃakuː/ and nunchaku sticks ▷ noun (nunchakus) a weapon that consists of two short thick sticks joined by a length of chain, used in certain martial arts. ⓘ 1970s: Japanese.

nuncio /ˈnʌnsɪou/ ▷ noun (nuncios) an ambassador from the pope. • nunciature /ˈnʌnsɪətjuə(r)/ noun a nuncio's office or term of office. ⓘ 16c: from Latin nuntius messenger.

nunnery /ˈnʌnərɪ/ noun (nunneries) a house in which a group of nuns live; a CONVENT.

NUPE /ˈnjuːpɪ/ ▷ abbreviation, historical National Union of Public Employees, now part of UNISON.

nuptial /ˈnʌpʃəl/ ▷ adj 1 relating to marriage. 2 zool relating to mating. ▷ noun (usually nuptials) a marriage ceremony. • nuptially adverb. ⓘ 15c: from Latin nuptialis, from nuptiae marriage.

NUR ▷ abbreviation, historical National Union of Railwaymen, now part of RMT.

nurd see NERD

nurl see KNURL

nurse /nɜːs/ ▷ noun (nurses) 1 someone trained to look after sick, injured or feeble people, especially in hospital. 2 someone, especially a woman, who looks after small children in a household, etc. See also NURSEMAID, NURSERY NURSE, WET NURSE. 3 a worker ant, bee, etc, that tends the young in the colony. ▷ verb (nursed, nursing) 1 to look after (sick or injured people) especially in a hospital. 2 intr to follow a career as a nurse. 3 tr & intr a to breastfeed a baby; b said of a baby: to feed at the breast. 4 to hold something with care □ gave him the bag of meringues to nurse. 5 to tend something with concern □ was at home nursing a cold. 6 to encourage or indulge (a feeling) in oneself □ nursing her jealousy. • nursing adj, noun. • put out to or put to nurse 1 to put (a baby) into the care of a nurse, usually away from home. 2 to put (an estate) into the care of trustees. ⓘ 14c: from French norrice, from Latin nutrire to nourish or care for.

nursehound ▷ noun a European dogfish. ⓘ 19c: from 15c nusse, possibly originally an huss a dogfish.

nurseling see NURSLING

nursemaid and nurserymaid ▷ noun a children's nurse in a household.

nursery /ˈnɜːsərɪ/ ▷ noun (nurseries) 1 a a place where children are looked after while their parents are at work, etc; b a NURSERY SCHOOL. 2 a room in a house, etc, set apart for young children and, where appropriate, their nurse or other carer. 3 a place where plants are grown for sale. 4 a place where young animals are reared or tended. 5 a place where the growth of anything is promoted. ▷ adj relating or belonging to the nursery or early training. ⓘ 14c as norysery, meaning 'upbringing' or 'nursing'.

nursery canon ▷ noun, billiards a canon, especially one of a series, with the three balls close together and being moved as little as possible.

nurseryman ▷ noun someone who grows plants for sale.

nursery nurse ▷ noun someone trained in the care of babies and young children.

nursery rhyme ▷ noun a short simple traditional rhyme or song for young children.

nursery school ▷ noun a school for young children, usually those aged between three and five. Also shortened to NURSERY.

nursery slopes ▷ noun, skiing the lower, more gentle slopes, used for practice by beginners.

nursery stakes ▷ noun, horse-racing a race for two-year-old horses.

nurse shark ▷ noun any of various sharks that have an external groove on each side of their head between nostril and mouth. ⓘ 19c as nusse, meaning 'dogfish'; see NURSE HOUND.

nursing see under NURSE nursing chair ▷ noun a low chair without arms, suitable for sitting in to breastfeed a baby.

nursing home ▷ noun a small private hospital or home, especially one for old people.

nursing officer ▷ noun any of several grades of nurse that have administrative duties.

nursling or nurseling ▷ noun a young child or animal that is being nursed or fostered. ⓘ 16c.

nurture /ˈnɜːtʃə(r)/ ▷ noun care, nourishment and encouragement given to a growing child, animal or plant. ▷ verb (nurtured, nurturing) 1 to nourish and tend (a growing child, animal or plant). 2 to encourage the development of (a project, idea or feeling, etc). ● nurtural adj. ● nurturer noun. ⓘ 14c: from French norriture, from Latin nutrire to nourish.

NUS ▷ abbreviation 1 National Union of Seamen. 2 National Union of Students.

NUT ▷ abbreviation National Union of Teachers.

nut ▷ noun 1 popularly a a fruit consisting of a kernel contained in a hard shell, eg a hazelnut or walnut; b the kernel itself. 2 bot a hard dry INDEHISCENT one-seeded fruit. 3 popularly a roasted peanut. 4 a small, usually hexagonal, piece of metal with a hole through it, for screwing on the end of a bolt. 5 colloq a person's head. 6 colloq (also nutter) a crazy person. 7 colloq, usually in compounds an enthusiast; a person with an obsessive interest ◻ a football nut. 8 a small lump ◻ a nut of butter. 9 (nuts) colloq testicles. 10 music a the ridge at the top of the fingerboard on a violin, etc; b the mechanism for tightening the bow. 11 in compounds a small biscuit or cake ◻ ginger nut. ▷ verb (nutted, nutting) 1 intr to look for and gather nuts. 2 colloq to butt someone with the head. ● nutter see noun 6 above. ● nuttiness noun. ● nutty see separate entry. ● do one's nut colloq to be furious. ● for nuts colloq at all ◻ can't sing for nuts. ● a hard or tough nut to crack colloq 1 a difficult problem to solve. 2 an awkward person to deal with. ● off one's nut colloq mad. See also NUTS. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon hnutu.

nutant /ˈnjuːtənt/ ▷ adj, bot nodding; pendulous. ⓘ 18c: from Latin nutans, nutantis nodding.

nutation /njuːˈteɪʃən/ ▷ noun 1 the act of nodding. 2 astron the irregular nodding or 'side-to-side' movement of the Earth's axis of rotation. 3 bot the spiral growth pattern of the parts of some plants, eg the tips of the stems of climbing plants. 4 the periodic oscillation of a spinning top or gyroscope. ● nutational adj. ⓘ 17c: from Latin nutare to nod.

nut-brown ▷ adj brown; reddish-brown.

nutcase ▷ noun, colloq a crazy person. ⓘ 1950s.

nutcracker ▷ noun 1 (usually nutcrackers) a utensil for cracking nuts. 2 a bird which feeds on nuts or seeds, etc.

nutgall ▷ noun a gall shaped like a nut, produced by the gall wasp, chiefly on oak trees.

nuthatch ▷ noun any of various birds that seek out and feed on insects in the bark of trees, and also eat nuts and seeds. ⓘ 14c as notehache: from note nut + hache (related to HACK[1] + HATCH[2]).

nuthouse ▷ noun, colloq, offensive a mental hospital.

nutmeg /ˈnʌtmeg/ ▷ noun the hard aromatic seed of the fruit of an E Indian tree, used ground or grated as a spice. Compare MACE[2]. ● nutmeggy adj. ⓘ 14c as notemugge.

nut oil ▷ noun an oil obtained from nuts, eg walnuts.

nutria /ˈnjuːtrɪə/ ▷ noun (nutrias) 1 the coypu. 2 its fur. ⓘ 19c: Spanish, meaning 'otter'.

nutrient /ˈnjuːtrɪənt/ ▷ noun any nourishing substance. ▷ adj nourishing. ⓘ 17c as adj, meaning 'serving as nourishment': from Latin nutrire to nourish.

nutriment /ˈnjuːtrɪmənt/ ▷ noun nourishment; food. ● nutrimental adj. ⓘ 16c: from Latin nutrimentum.

nutrition /njuːˈtrɪʃən/ ▷ noun 1 the act or process of nourishing. 2 the study of the body's dietary needs. 3 food. ● nutritional adj relating to nutrition or nourishment. ● nutritionist noun an expert in foods and their nutritional values. ⓘ 16c.

nutritious /njuːˈtrɪʃəs/ ▷ adj nourishing; providing nutrition. ● nutritiously adverb. ● nutritiousness noun.

nutritive /ˈnjuːtrətɪv/ ▷ adj 1 nourishing. 2 relating to nutrition. ● nutritively adverb. nuts colloq ▷ adj insane; crazy. ▷ exclamation expressing defiance, contempt or disappointment, etc. ● nuts about or on someone or something infatuated with, or extremely fond of them.

the nuts and bolts ▷ noun, colloq the essential or practical details.

nutshell ▷ noun the case containing the kernel of a nut. ● in a nutshell concisely or very briefly expressed ◻ to put it in a nutshell, ...

nutter and nuttiness see under NUT nutting ▷ verb, present participle of NUT. ▷ noun the gathering of nuts.

nut-tree ▷ noun any tree that bears nuts, especially the hazel.

nutty /ˈnʌtɪ/ ▷ adj (nuttier, nuttiest) 1 full of, or tasting of, nuts. 2 colloq crazy.

nux vomica /nʌks ˈvɒmɪkə/ ▷ noun 1 the seed of an East Indian tree, containing strychnine. 2 the drug made from it. ⓘ 16c: Latin, meaning 'vomiting nut'.

nuzzle /ˈnʌzəl/ ▷ verb (nuzzled, nuzzling) tr & intr 1 to push or rub someone or something with the nose. 2 (usually nuzzle up to or against someone) to snuggle up against them. ⓘ 17c: from NOSE.

NV ▷ abbreviation 1 US state Nevada. Also written Nev. 2 new version.

NVALA and NVLA ▷ abbreviation National Viewers' and Listeners' Association.

nvd ▷ abbreviation no value declared.

NVQ ▷ abbreviation National Vocational Qualification, a qualification awarded in the workplace by the NCVQ for competence in job skills at any of five different levels from basic to university standard.

NW ▷ abbreviation 1 north-west. 2 north-western.

NWT ▷ abbreviation Northwest Territories, a Canadian territory.

NY ▷ abbreviation 1 US state New York. Also written N.Y. 2 New York, the city.

nyala /nˈjɑːlə, ˈnjɑːlə/ ▷ noun (nyala or nyalas) a large southern African antelope with a spiral horn. ⓘ 19c: from Bantu inyala.

NYC ▷ abbreviation New York City.

nyctalopia /nɪktəˈloʊpɪə/ ▷ noun, pathol abnormal difficulty in seeing in a faint light. Also called night-blindness. ■ nyctalopic adj. ⓘ 17c: from Greek nyx, nyktos night + alaos blind + ops eye or face.

nyctitropism /nɪkˈtɪtrəpɪzəm/ ▷ noun, bot said of parts of plants: the taking up of certain positions at night different from those assumed by day. ■ nyctitropic /nɪktəˈtroʊpɪk, -ˈtrɒpɪk/ adj. ⓘ 19c: from Greek nyx, nyktos night + tropos turning.

nyctophobia /nɪktəˈfoʊbɪə/ ▷ noun a morbid fear of the night or of darkness. ⓘ 20c: from Greek nyx, nyktos night + -PHOBIA.

nylon /ˈnaɪlɒn/ ▷ noun 1 any of numerous polymeric amides that can be formed into fibres, bristles or sheets, from which a wide variety of products are manufactured, including clothing, hosiery, ropes and brushes. 2 a yarn or cloth made of nylon. 3 (nylons) nylon stockings. ⓘ 1930s: originally a tradename invented by the firm manufacturer.

nymph /nɪmf/ ▷ noun 1 mythol a goddess that inhabits mountains, water, trees, etc. 2 poetic a beautiful young woman. 3 zool the immature larval form of certain insects. ■ nymphal adj. ■ nymphean /ˈnɪmfɪən/ adj. ⓘ 14c: from Greek nymphe nymph or bride.

nymphet /ˈnɪmfɪt, nɪmˈfet/ ▷ noun a sexually attractive and precocious girl in early adolescence. ⓘ 17c meaning 'a young nymph'.

nympho /ˈnɪmfoʊ/ ▷ noun (nymphos) colloq a nymphomaniac. ⓘ Early 20c.

nymphomania /nɪmfəˈmeɪnɪə/ ▷ noun in women: overpowering sexual desire. Compare SATYRIASIS. ■ nymphomaniac noun, adj. ⓘ 18c.

NYO ▷ abbreviation National Youth Orchestra.

NYOS /ˈnaɪɒs/ abbreviation National Youth Orchestra of Scotland.

nystagmus /nɪˈstagməs/ ▷ noun (nystagmuses) pathol a spasmodic involuntary movement of the eye. ■ nystagmic or nystagmoid adj. ⓘ 19c: Latin, from Greek nystazein to nap.

nystatin /ˈnɪstətɪn/ ▷ noun an antifungal and antibiotic agent. ⓘ 1950s: from New York State (where it originated) + -IN.

Nyungar /ˈnjʊŋə(r)/ ▷ noun an Aboriginal language formerly spoken in SW Australia.

NZ ▷ abbreviation New Zealand.

O

O[1] or o /oʊ/ ▷ noun (Oes, Os, or o's) 1 the fifteenth letter of the English alphabet. 2 the shape of this letter □ formed his mouth into an O. 3 in telephone, etc jargon: zero; nought.

O[2] see under OH.

O[3] ▷ abbreviation 1 Ocean. 2 (also o) octavo. 3 see under OH. 4 Old. 5 ordinary, in eg O level or O Grade.

O[4] ▷ symbol 1 chem oxygen. 2 an ABO BLOOD GROUP SYSTEM.

O' /oʊ/ ▷ prefix in surnames of Irish Gaelic origin: descendant of (a specified person). ⓘ 18c: from Irish Gaelic ó or ua grandson or descendant, from earlier aue.

o' /ə, ɒ, oʊ/ ▷ prep, chiefly archaic & dialect 1 short form of OF. See also O'CLOCK. 2 short form of ON.

-o /oʊ/ ▷ suffix, slang or colloquial, forming nouns (plural -os) signifying an abbreviation or diminutive □ wino □ aggro.

oaf /oʊf/ ▷ noun (oafs or rare oaves) a stupid, awkward or loutish, usually male, person. • oafish adj. • oafishly adverb. • oafishness noun. ⓘ 17c: originally meaning 'an elf's or goblin's child' or 'a changeling': from Norse alfr elf.

oak /oʊk/ ▷ noun 1 any tree or shrub which produces a fruit called an acorn and usually has lobed leaves. 2 the hard durable wood of this tree, widely used in building construction, furniture and flooring, and formerly for shipbuilding. 3 any of various other trees resembling the oak. 4 a heavy wooden door, especially that of a set of university rooms. 5 the leaves of the oak tree, especially when worn as a wreath or garland. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon ac.

oak-apple and oak-gall ▷ noun any of various round brownish woody galls found on oak trees, produced by the larvae of certain wasps.

oaken /ˈoʊkən/ ▷ adj, old use made of oak wood.

the Oaks /— oʊks/ ▷ singular noun an annual horse-race at Epsom for three-year-old fillies. ⓘ 18c: named after an estate near Epsom.

oakum /ˈoʊkəm/ ▷ noun pieces of old, usually tarred, rope untwisted and pulled apart, used to fill small holes and cracks in wooden boats and ships. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon acumba off-combings, from a- away from + camban to comb.

O & M ▷ abbreviation in studies of working methods: organization and method(s).

OAP ▷ abbreviation, Brit old age pensioner.

oar /ɔː(r)/ ▷ noun 1 a long pole with a broad flat blade at one end, used for rowing a boat. 2 something that resembles an oar in form or function. 3 an oarsman or oarswoman. ▷ verb (oared, oaring) 1 to row or propel (a boat, etc) with or as if with oars. 2 intr to row; to move as if propelled by oars. • oared adj, especially in compounds with an oar or oars, usually of a specified number □ six-oared. • oarless adj. • lie or rest on one's oars 1 to stop rowing and lean on the handles of one's oars, thus lifting the blades out of the water. 2 colloq to stop working; to rest or relax. • put or stick one's oar in something colloq to interfere or meddle in it, especially by offering one's opinion when it is not wanted. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon ar.

oarfish ▷ noun a long ribbon-shaped fish, up to 7m (23ft) in length, widespread in tropical and warm temperate seas, with an extremely slender body, a dorsal fin that extends the full length of the body, and no tail fin. ⓘ 19c.

oarsman and oarswoman ▷ noun a man or woman skilled in rowing; a rower. • oarsmanship noun skill in rowing.

OAS ▷ abbreviation Organization of American States.

oasis /oʊˈeɪsɪs/ ▷ noun (oases /-siːz/) 1 a fertile area in a desert, where water is found and plants grow. 2 any place or period of rest or calm, etc in the middle of hard work, problems or trouble. 3 (Oasis) trademark a block of light firm foam material, used in flower-arranging as a base to hold cut flowers, etc in place. ⓘ 1960s in sense 3; 17c: Latin, from Greek.

oast /oʊst/ ▷ noun 1 a kiln for drying hops or, formerly, malt. 2 (also oast-house) a building, usually with a conical roof, containing such kilns. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon ast kiln.

oat /oʊt/ ▷ noun 1 (usually oats) a cereal and type of grass, thought to be native to the Mediterranean region and now cultivated mainly in cool moist temperate regions as a food crop. 2 (oats) the grains of this plant, used to make porridge, oatcakes, etc, and also as a feedstuff for livestock. 3 any of various other grasses related to or resembling this plant. • feel one's oats chiefly N Amer colloq 1 to feel lively or exuberant. 2 to feel self-important. • get or have one's oats slang to have sexual intercourse. • off one's oats colloq with no appetite; off one's food. • sow one's oats or wild oats colloq to indulge in excessive drinking or promiscuity, etc during youth and before settling down. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon ate.

oatcake ▷ noun a thin dry savoury biscuit made from oatmeal.

oaten /ˈoʊtən/ ▷ adj 1 made of oats or oatmeal. 2 made of an oat stem or straw.

oat grass ▷ noun any of several oatlike grasses, used more as fodder than for its seed.

oath /oʊθ/ ▷ noun (oaths /oʊðz, oʊθs/) 1 a solemn promise to tell the truth or to be loyal, etc, usually naming God as a witness. 2 the form of words used to make such a promise. 3 a swear-word, obscenity or blasphemy. • my oath Austral & NZ slang yes; certainly; of course. • on or under oath 1 having sworn to tell the truth, eg in a court of law. 2 attested by oath. • take an oath to pledge formally. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon ath.

oatmeal ▷ noun 1 meal ground from oats, used to make oatcakes, etc. 2 the pale brownish-yellow flecked colour of oatmeal.

OAU ▷ abbreviation Organization of African Unity.

oaves plural of OAF

OB ▷ abbreviation 1 old boy. 2 outside broadcast.

ob. ▷ abbreviation 1 on tombstones, etc: obiit (Latin), he or she died. 2 obiter (Latin), by the way; in passing.

Obad. ▷ abbreviation Book of the Bible: Obadiah. See table at BIBLE.

obbligato or obligato /ɒblɪˈɡɑːtoʊ/ music ▷ noun (obbligatos or obbligati /-tiː/) an accompaniment that forms an essential part of a piece of music, especially one played by a single instrument accompanying a voice. ▷ adj played with an obbligato. ⓘ 18c: Italian, meaning 'obligatory'.

obconic /ɒbˈkɒnɪk/ and obconical /-kəl/ ▷ adj, bot said of a fruit: conical and attached by the apex. ⓘ 19c.

from Latin ob- in the opposite direction or reversed + CONIC.

obcordate /ɒb'kɔːdeɪt/ ⊳ adj, bot said eg of a leaf: inversely heart-shaped and attached by the point. ◎ 18c: from Latin ob- in the opposite direction or reversed + CORDATE.

obdurate /'ɒbdjʊrət/ ⊳ adj 1 hard-hearted. 2 stubborn; difficult to influence or change, especially morally. ● obduracy /'ɒbdjʊrəsɪ/ noun. ● obdurately adverb. ◎ 15c: from Latin obdurare to harden, from ob- against + durare to harden.

OBE ⊳ abbreviation, Brit (Officer of the) Order of the British Empire, an award given to honour personal or professional excellence, or services to the country.

obeah see OBI[1]

obedience /ə'biːdɪəns/ ⊳ noun 1 the act or practice of OBEYING. 2 willingness to obey orders.

obedient /ə'biːdɪənt/ ⊳ adj obeying; willing to obey. ● obediently adverb. ◎ 13c: from French obédient, from Latin oboedire to OBEY.

obeisance /oʊ'beɪsəns/ ⊳ noun a bow, act or other expression of obedience or respect. ● obeisant adj. ◎ 14c: from French obéissance, from obéir to OBEY.

obelisk /'ɒbəlɪsk/ ⊳ noun 1 a tall tapering, usually four-sided, stone pillar with a pyramidal top, erected as a landmark or for religious or commemorative purposes, etc. 2 an OBELUS. ◎ 16c: from Greek obeliskos a small spit.

obelus /'ɒbələs/ ⊳ noun (plural obeli /-laɪ/) 1 printing a dagger-shaped mark (†) used especially for referring to footnotes. 2 in ancient manuscripts: a sign used to mark words or passages, etc as spurious. ◎ 14c: Latin, from Greek obelos a spit.

obese /oʊ'biːs/ ⊳ adj very or abnormally fat. ● obeseness noun. ● obesity noun the condition of someone who is overweight as a result of the accumulation of excess fat in the body. ◎ 17c: from Latin obesus plump or having eaten oneself fat, from ob- completely + edere, esum to eat.

obey /ə'beɪ, oʊ'beɪ/ ⊳ verb (obeyed, obeying) 1 to do what one is told to do by someone. 2 to carry out (a command). 3 intr to do what one is told. 4 to be controlled by (a force or impulse, etc). ◎ 13c: from French obéir, from Latin oboedire, from ob- towards + audire to hear.

obfuscate /'ɒbfəskeɪt/ ⊳ verb (obfuscated, obfuscating) 1 to darken or obscure something. 2 to obscure something or make it difficult to understand. 3 to bewilder or confuse someone. ● obfuscation noun. ● obfuscatory adj tending to obscure or confuse. ◎ 16c: from Latin ob- completely + fuscare to darken.

obi[1] /'oʊbɪ/ or obeah /'oʊbɪə/ ⊳ noun (obis; obeahs) 1 a kind of witchcraft practised in the W Indies and Guyana, etc. 2 a fetish or charm used in this kind of witchcraft. ● obi-man or obi-woman a male or female practitioner of obi. ◎ 18c: W African.

obi[2] /'oʊbɪ/ ⊳ noun (obis or obi) a broad sash, tied in a large flat bow at the back, that is worn with a Japanese kimono. ◎ 19c: Japanese, from obiru to wear.

obiter dictum /'ɒbɪtə 'dɪktəm/ ⊳ noun (obiter dicta /— 'dɪktə/) 1 law a remark made by a judge on a point of law, etc but that has no binding authority. 2 a remark that is in some way related to, but not essential to, the main argument. ◎ 19c: Latin, meaning 'something said by the way'.

obituary /ə'bɪtjʊərɪ/ ⊳ noun (obituaries) a notice or announcement, especially in a newspaper, of a person's death, often with a short account of their life. ⊳ adj 1 relating to or recording the death of a person or persons. 2 like an obituary. ● obituarial /-tjʊ'eərɪəl/ adj. ● obituarist noun. ◎ 18c: from Latin obitus death.

object[1] /'ɒbdʒɪkt, 'ɒbdʒekt/ ⊳ noun 1 a material thing that can be seen or touched. 2 an aim or purpose. 3 a person or thing to which action, feelings or thought are directed □ the object of his affections. 4 colloq an oddity; a ridiculous or pitiable person or sight, etc. 5 grammar a a noun, noun phrase or pronoun affected by the action of the verb. See also DIRECT OBJECT, INDIRECT OBJECT, ACCUSATIVE. b a noun, noun phrase or pronoun affected by a preposition. See also SUBJECT. 6 philos a thing which is outside of, and can be perceived by, the mind. 7 computing an information package and a description of its use. ● objectless adj. ● no object not a difficulty or obstacle □ Money's no object. ◎ 14c: from Latin objectus a throwing before, from Latin objicere; see OBJECT[2].

object[2] /əb'dʒekt/ ⊳ verb (objected, objecting) 1 intr (usually object to or against something) to feel or express dislike or disapproval for it. 2 to state something as a ground for disapproval or objection. ● objector noun. ◎ 15c: from Latin objicere, objectum, from ob- in the way of + jacere to throw.

object ball ⊳ noun in snooker, billiards, etc: the ball which a player is aiming to strike with the cue ball.

object finder ⊳ noun a device in microscopes for locating an object on a mounted slide at low power before examining it by a higher power.

object glass ⊳ noun, optics in a camera or telescope, etc: the lens or combination of lenses nearest to the object being viewed. Also called objective.

objectify /əb'dʒektɪfaɪ/ ⊳ verb (objectifies, objectified, objectifying) 1 a to make something into or present it as an object; b to represent something concretely. 2 to make something objective. ● objectification noun.

objection /əb'dʒekʃən/ ⊳ noun 1 the act of objecting. 2 an expression or feeling of disapproval, opposition or dislike, etc. 3 (often objection against or to something) a reason or cause for disapproving, opposing or disliking it, etc. ◎ 14c.

objectionable ⊳ adj 1 capable of being objected to. 2 unpleasant; offensive. ● objectionably adverb. ◎ 18c.

objective /əb'dʒektɪv/ ⊳ adj 1 a not depending on, or influenced by, personal opinions or prejudices; b relating to external facts, etc as opposed to internal thoughts or feelings. 2 philos a having existence outside the mind; b based on fact or reality. Compare SUBJECTIVE. 3 grammar said of a case or word: a indicating the object; b in the relation of object to a verb or preposition. 4 medicine said of symptoms: perceptible to a person other than the individual affected. 5 optics said of lenses: nearest the object. ⊳ noun 1 a thing aimed at or wished for; a goal. 2 something independent of or external to the mind. 3 grammar a the objective case; b a word or form in that case. 4 an OBJECT GLASS. ● objectival /-'taɪvəl/ adj relating to or of the nature of an objective. ● objectively adverb. ● objectivity or objectiveness noun the fact or quality of being objective, especially of considering things without being dependent on, or influenced by, personal opinions or prejudices. ◎ 17c.

objective test ⊳ noun an examination or test in which each question is set in such a way as to have only one correct answer.

objectivism /əb'dʒektɪvɪzəm/ ⊳ noun 1 the tendency to emphasize what is objective. 2 philos the belief that certain things exist apart from human knowledge or perception of them. 3 chiefly derog in Communist theory: an objective attitude to the conditions that exist, as opposed to a desire for change in accordance with revolutionary principles. 4 the quality of being objective. ● objectivist noun, adj. ● objectivistic adj. ◎ 19c.

objectivize or objectivise /əb'dʒektɪvaɪz/ ⊳ verb (objectivized, objectivizing) to objectify. ● objectivization noun. ◎ 19c.

object language ⊳ noun 1 a language described by means of another language. Compare METALANGUAGE. 2 philos a language made up only of words that have meaning in isolation. 3 computing a language into which a program is translated by a compiler.

objectless see under OBJECT[2] object lesson ▷ noun 1 a lesson based on a material object that is presented to the class. 2 an instructive experience or event, etc that provides a practical example of some principle or ideal.

objector see under OBJECT[2] objet /ˈɒbʒeɪ/ ▷ noun (objets /ˈɒbʒeɪ/) an object, usually one displayed as an ornament. ◷ 19c: French.

objet d'art /ˈɒbʒeɪ dɑː(r)/ ▷ noun (objets d'art /ˈɒbʒeɪ dɑː(r)/) a small object of artistic value. ◷ 19c: French, meaning 'object of art'.

objet trouvé /ˈɒbʒeɪ ˈtruːveɪ/ ▷ noun (objets trouvés /ɒbˈʒeɪ ˈtruːveɪ/) a FOUND OBJECT.

objurgate /ˈɒbdʒəgeɪt/ ▷ verb (objurgated, objurgating) tr & intr, literary to rebuke someone; to scold or chide. • objurgation noun. ◷ 17c: from Latin objurgare, from jurgare to scold.

obl. ▷ abbreviation 1 oblique. 2 oblong.

oblast /ˈɒblɑst/ ▷ noun (oblasts or oblasti /-tɪ/) in some republics of the former Soviet Union and earlier in Russia: an administrative district; a region. ◷ 19c: Russian, from Slavonic, meaning 'government'.

oblate[1] /ˈɒbleɪt, ɒˈbleɪt/ ▷ adj, geom said of something approximately spherical: flattened at the poles, like the Earth. Compare PROLATE. ◷ 18c: from Latin oblatus lengthened, from ob- towards + latus past participle of ferre to bring or carry.

oblate[2] /ˈɒbleɪt/ ▷ noun someone dedicated to monastic life (but without having taken vows) or to a religious life. ◷ 19c: from French oblat, from Latin offerre, oblatum to offer.

oblation /ɒˈbleɪʃən/ ▷ noun 1 Christianity the offering of the bread and wine to God at a Eucharist. 2 a religious or charitable offering. • oblational or oblatory /ˈɒblətərɪ/ adj. ◷ 15c: French, or from Latin oblatio, from offerre to offer.

obligate /ˈɒblɪgeɪt/ ▷ verb (obligated, obligating) 1 to bind or oblige someone by contract, duty or moral obligation. 2 to bind someone by gratitude. ▷ adj, biol said of an organism, especially a bacterium: limited to specific functions and by specific conditions. ◷ 16c: from Latin obligare, obligatum.

obligation /ɒblɪˈgeɪʃən/ ▷ noun 1 a moral or legal duty or tie. 2 the binding power of such a duty or tie. 3 a debt of gratitude for a service □ be under obligation to her.

obligato see OBBLIGATO

obligatory /əˈblɪgət(ə)rɪ/ ▷ adj 1 legally or morally binding. 2 compulsory. 3 biol OBLIGATE. • obligatorily adverb. • obligatoriness noun. ◷ 15c.

oblige /əˈblaɪdʒ/ ▷ verb (obliged, obliging) 1 to bind someone morally or legally; to compel. 2 to bind someone by a service or favour. 3 to please or do a favour for someone □ Please oblige me by leaving at once. 4 to do something as a favour or contribution for someone □ obliged us with a song. • much obliged an expression of gratitude. ◷ 13c: from French obliger, from Latin obligare, from ob- down + ligare to bind.

obliging /əˈblaɪdʒɪŋ/ ▷ adj ready to help others; courteously helpful. • obligingly adverb. • obligingness noun.

oblique /əˈbliːk/ (abbreviation obl.) adj 1 sloping; not vertical or horizontal. 2 geom a said of lines and planes, etc: not at a right angle; b said of an angle: less than 180 degrees but more than 90 degrees, ie more than a right angle. 3 not straight or direct; roundabout; underhand. 4 grammar denoting any case other than the NOMINATIVE or VOCATIVE. 5 bot said of a leaf: with unequal sides. ▷ noun 1 an oblique line; a solidus (/). 2 anything that is oblique. ▷ verb (obliqued, obliquing) intr to advance obliquely, especially (military) to face half right or left and then advance. • obliquely adverb. • obliqueness or obliquity noun. ◷ 15c: French, from Latin obliquus.

> oblique
>
> An oblique
>
> • indicates alternatives □ Bring your swimming costume and/or a tennis racquet □ Tea/coffee will be served □ Dear Sir/Madam □ Each candidate will be required to give a report on his/her research.
>
> • indicates the limits of a period of time □ I was at university in the years 1960/64 □ You will shortly receive your 1996/7 tax return.
>
> ALTERNATIVE STYLE: a short dash □ in the years 1960–64.
>
> • It also links items on a route or itinerary □ The London/Oxford/Birmingham express was derailed at Reading □ The Edinburgh/Amsterdam/Frankfurt flight is subject to a delay of thirty minutes.
>
> ALTERNATIVE STYLE: a short dash □ the London–Oxford–Birmingham express.
>
> • It also indicates an abbreviation □ His mail should be re-addressed c/o Brown, 16 Caven Place ('care of') □ Please quote your a/c number in all correspondence ('account') □ Major Bateman is the officer i/c provisions ('in charge of').
>
> • It expresses rates or ratios in measurements □ 100 km/h □ 60 lb/in².

obliterate /əˈblɪtəreɪt/ ▷ verb (obliterated, obliterating) 1 to destroy something completely. 2 to cover and prevent (eg writing, etc) from being seen. • obliteration noun. • obliterative adj. ◷ 16c: from Latin obliterare to blot out or erase, from ob out + litera letter.

oblivion /əˈblɪvɪən/ ▷ noun 1 the state or fact of having forgotten or of being unconscious. 2 the state of being forgotten. 3 law amnesty; pardon. ◷ 14c: from Latin oblivio forgetfulness, from oblivisci to forget.

oblivious /əˈblɪvɪəs/ ▷ adj (usually oblivious of or to something) unaware or forgetful of it. • obliviously adverb. • obliviousness noun.

oblong /ˈɒblɒŋ/ ▷ adj (abbreviation obl.) rectangular with adjacent sides of unequal length; with a greater breadth than height. ▷ noun, non-technical something that has this shape; a rectangular figure. ◷ 15c: from Latin oblongus, from ob- over + longus long.

obloquy /ˈɒbləkwɪ/ ▷ noun (obloquies) 1 abuse, blame or censure. 2 disgrace; loss of honour, good name or reputation. ◷ 15c: from Latin obloquium contradiction, from ob- against + loqui to speak.

obnoxious /əbˈnɒkʃəs/ ▷ adj 1 offensive; objectionable. 2 rare subject or liable to harm or injury. • obnoxiously adverb. • obnoxiousness noun. ◷ 16c in sense 2: from Latin obnoxius, from ob- exposed to + noxa harm or injury.

oboe /ˈoʊboʊ/ ▷ noun (oboes) 1 a double-reed treble woodwind instrument with a penetrating tone. 2 an organ stop with a similar tone. 3 an oboe player in an orchestra □ The oboes stood up. • oboist /ˈoʊboʊɪst/ noun. ◷ 18c: Italian, from French hautbois, literally 'high wood', with reference to the instrument's pitch.

oboe d'amore /— daˈmɔːreɪ/ ▷ noun (oboes d'amore or oboi d'amore /ˈoʊbɔɪ —/) an old type of oboe that has a pear-shaped bell and is pitched a minor third lower than the ordinary oboe, used especially in baroque music. ◷ 19c: Italian, meaning 'oboe of love'.

obol /ˈɒbɒl/ ▷ noun in ancient Greece: the sixth part of a drachma in weight or in money. ◷ 16c: from Greek obolos, a variant of obelos a spit.

obscene /əbˈsiːn, ɒbˈsiːn/ ▷ adj (obscener, obscenest) 1 offensive to accepted standards of behaviour or morality, especially sexual morality. 2 colloq indecent; disgusting. 3 Brit law said of a publication: tending to deprave or corrupt. • obscenely adverb. ⊙ 16c: from French obscène or Latin obscenus ill-omened, foul or indecent.

obscenity /əb'senɪtɪ/ noun (obscenities) 1 the state or quality of being obscene. 2 an obscene word or act.

obscurantism /ɒbskjʊ'rantɪzəm/ ⊳ noun opposition to inquiry or the spreading or use of new knowledge, up-to-date scientific research or reform, etc. • obscurantist noun (also obscurant) someone who tries to prevent enlightenment or reform. ⊳ adj (also obscurant) relating to or characteristic of obscurantism. ⊙ 19c.

obscure /əb'skjʊə(r)/ ⊳ adj 1 dark; dim. 2 not clear; hidden; difficult to see. 3 not well known. 4 difficult to understand. ⊳ verb (obscured, obscuring) 1 to make something dark or dim. 2 phonetics to pronounce (a vowel) in a more centralized and weaker position. 3 to overshadow something. 4 to make something difficult to see or understand. • obscurely adverb. • obscurity noun (obscurities) 1 the state of being obscure. 2 someone or something that is obscure. ⊙ 14c: from French obscur, from Latin obscurus dark.

obsequent /'ɒbsɪkwənt/ ⊳ adj said of a stream or river: flowing in a contrary direction to the original slope of the land. Compare CONSEQUENT, SUBSEQUENT. ⊙ 19c: from Latin ob away from + sequi to follow.

obsequies /'ɒbsəkwɪz/ ⊳ plural noun funeral rites. ⊙ 14c: from Latin obsequiae, perhaps a confusion of Latin exsequiae funeral rites and obsequium compliance.

obsequious /əb'siːkwɪəs/ ⊳ adj submissively obedient; fawning. • obsequiously adverb. • obsequiousness noun. ⊙ 15c in sense 'dutiful' or 'obedient': from Latin obsequiosus compliant.

observance /əb'zɜːvəns/ ⊳ noun 1 the fact or act of obeying rules or keeping customs, etc. 2 a custom or religious rite observed. 3 the rule of a religious order. ⊙ 13c.

> observation, observance
>
> • These two nouns correspond to different meanings of observe.
>
> • Observance relates to sense 4 of observe and is used mainly about laws, rules, rights and principles, especially religious principles:
>
> ✓ He advocated a more meticulous observance of the canons of Islam.
>
> ✓ He had seen his father reviled by his neighbours for his strict observance of the Lord's Day.
>
> • Observation relates to senses 1, 2 and 3 of observe and is used more generally:
>
> ✓ From our observations it is clear that the guidelines for use were rarely followed closely.
>
> ✓ Accuracy depends to a large extent on vigilance and observation, as well as concentration.
>
> • Observation also has the special meaning 'remark' (in sense 3), eg:
>
> ✓ The newspaper article made one telling observation about him.
>
> • You will occasionally see observation used to mean observance, but this is not a typical meaning and is best avoided:
>
> ? She considered all religious observation as ridiculous frivolity.

observant /əb'zɜːvənt/ ⊳ adj 1 quick to notice; perceptive. 2 carefully attentive. • observantly adverb.

observation /ɒbzə'veɪʃən/ ⊳ noun 1 a the act of noticing or watching; b the state of being observed or watched. 2 the ability to observe; perception. 3 a remark or comment. 4 the noting of behaviour, symptoms or phenomena, etc as they occur, especially before analysis or diagnosis □ keep the patient under observation. 5 the result of such observing. • take an observation to observe the position of the Sun or stars in order to calculate one's geographical position.

observational ⊳ adj 1 relating to or consisting of observing or noticing. 2 based on observation of behaviour or phenomena, etc rather than on experiments. • observationally adverb.

observation car ⊳ noun a railway carriage with large windows to allow passengers to view the scenery.

observatory /əb'zɜːvətərɪ/ ⊳ noun (observatories) 1 a room or building, etc specially equipped for making systematic observations of natural phenomena, especially the stars and other celestial objects visible in the night sky. 2 a building or site that affords an extensive view of its surroundings; a viewpoint. ⊙ 17c: from Latin observare, observatum.

observe /əb'zɜːv/ ⊳ verb (observed, observing) 1 to notice or become conscious of something. 2 to watch something carefully; to pay close attention to it. 3 tr & intr to examine and note (behaviour, symptoms or phenomena, etc). 4 to obey, follow or keep (a law, custom or religious rite, etc). 5 tr & intr to make a remark or comment □ observed that he was late again. • observable adj. • observably adverb. • observer noun. ⊙ 14c: from Latin observare, from ob- towards + servare to keep or watch.

obsess /əb'ses, ɒb'ses/ ⊳ verb (obsesses, obsessed, obsessing) 1 to occupy someone's thoughts or mind completely, persistently or constantly; to preoccupy or haunt □ She is obsessed by football. 2 intr, chiefly N Amer to think or worry constantly about something. ⊙ 16c in sense 1: from Latin obsidere, obsessum to besiege, from ob- in front of + sedere to sit.

obsession /əb'seʃən/ ⊳ noun 1 a persistent or dominating thought, idea, feeling, etc. 2 psychol a form of neurosis in which a recurring thought, feeling or impulse, generally of an unpleasant nature and with no rational basis, preoccupies a person against their will and is a source of constant anxiety. 3 the act of obsessing or state of being obsessed. • obsessional adj. • obsessionally adverb. • obsessionist noun. ⊙ Early 20c in sense 2; 16c.

obsessive /əb'sesɪv/ ⊳ adj 1 relating to or resulting from obsession, an obsession or obsessions. 2 said of a person: affected by an obsession. ⊳ noun someone affected or characterized by obsessive behaviour. • obsessively adverb. • obsessiveness noun. ⊙ Early 20c.

obsessive-compulsive disorder ⊳ noun, psychol a form of neurosis in which a person becomes preoccupied with a recurring thought, feeling or impulse, which is a source of constant anxiety. See also OBSESSION.

obsidian /ɒb'sɪdɪən/ ⊳ noun, geol the commonest type of volcanic glass, usually black, but sometimes red or brown in colour, formed by the rapid cooling and solidification of granite magma. ⊙ 17c: from Latin obsidianus, an erroneous form of (lapis) obsianus a stone supposedly found by one Obsius in Ethiopia.

obsolesce /ɒbsə'les/ ⊳ verb (obsolesced, obsolescing) intr to become obsolete; to be going out of use. ⊙ 19c.

obsolescent /ɒbsə'lesənt/ ⊳ adj going out of use; becoming out of date. • obsolescence noun. ⊙ 18c.

obsolete /'ɒbsəliːt, ɒbsə'liːt/ ⊳ adj 1 no longer in use or in practice. 2 out of date; outmoded. 3 biol said of organs, etc: vestigial; no longer functional or fully developed. • obsoletely adverb. • obsoleteness noun. ⊙ 16c: from Latin obsoletus worn out, from obsolescere to fall into disuse, perhaps from ob- in the opposite direction + solere to be accustomed to.

obstacle /'ɒbstəkəl/ ⊳ noun someone or something that obstructs, or hinders or prevents advance. ⊙ 14c: from Latin obstaculum, from ob- before + stare to stand.

obstacle race ▷ noun a race in which participants have to climb over and crawl through, etc various obstacles.

obstetric /ɒb'stɛtrɪk/ or obstetrical adj relating to obstetrics. ● obstetrically adverb. ⓘ 18c: originally meaning 'relating to a midwife', from Latin obstetrix a midwife, from ob before + stare to stand.

obstetrician /ɒbstə'trɪʃən/ ▷ noun 1 a physician who specializes in obstetrics. 2 formerly someone skilled in midwifery. ⓘ 19c.

obstetrics /ɒb'stɛtrɪks/ ▷ singular noun the branch of medicine and surgery that deals with pregnancy, childbirth and the care of the mother. ⓘ 19c.

obstinacy /'ɒbstɪnəsɪ/ ▷ noun (obstinacies) 1 the quality or state of being obstinate; stubbornness. 2 a obstinate behaviour; b an obstinate act.

obstinate /'ɒbstɪnət/ ▷ adj 1 refusing to change one's opinion or course of action; stubborn; inflexible. 2 a difficult to defeat or remove; b said especially of a disease or medical condition, etc: difficult to treat; unyielding. ● obstinately adverb. ⓘ 14c: from Latin obstinare, obstinatum to persist.

obstreperous /əb'strɛpərəs, ɒb-/ ▷ adj noisy and hard to control; unruly. ● obstreperously adverb. ● obstreperousness noun. ⓘ 16c: from Latin strepere to make a noise.

obstruct /əb'strʌkt/ ▷ verb (obstructed, obstructing) 1 to block or close (a passage or opening, etc). 2 to prevent or hinder the movement or progress of someone or something. 3 to oppose or stand in the way of (a person, a proposition or intention, etc). 4 to block or impede (a view or line of vision, etc). 5 intr to be or constitute an obstruction. 6 intr to practise OBSTRUCTIONISM. ● obstructor noun. ⓘ 16c: from Latin obstruere, from ob- in the way of + struere to pile or build up.

obstruction ▷ noun 1 a thing that obstructs or blocks. 2 the act of obstructing. 3 sport an act of hindering or unfairly getting in the way of another player or competitor.

obstructionism ▷ noun the practice of obstructing parliamentary or legal action. Compare FILIBUSTER. ● obstructionist noun someone, especially a politician, who practises obstruction. Also as adj. ⓘ 19c.

obstruction lights ▷ noun, aeronautics lights fixed to any structures near airports that could constitute a danger to aircraft in flight.

obstructive ▷ adj causing or designed to cause an obstruction. ● obstructively adverb. ● obstructiveness noun. ⓘ 17c.

obtain /əb'teɪn/ ▷ verb (obtained, obtaining) 1 to get something; to become the owner, or come into possession, of something, often by effort or planning; to gain something. 2 intr to be established, exist or hold good. ● obtainable adj. ● obtainer noun. ● obtainment noun. ⓘ 15c from Latin obtinere to lay hold of, from tenere to hold.

obtrude /əb'truːd/ ▷ verb (obtruded, obtruding) 1 intr to be or become unpleasantly noticeable or prominent. 2 (usually obtrude something on or upon someone) to push oneself or one's opinions, etc forward, especially when they are unwelcome. ● obtruder noun. ● obtrusion /əb'truːʒən/ noun. ⓘ 16c: from Latin obtrudere, obtrusum, from trudere to thrust.

obtrusive /əb'truːsɪv/ ▷ adj 1 unpleasantly noticeable or prominent. 2 sticking out; protruding. ● obtrusively adverb. ● obtrusiveness noun. ⓘ 17c.

obtuse /əb'tjuːs/ ▷ adj 1 chiefly bot & zool said eg of a leaf or other flat part: blunt; not pointed or sharp; rounded at the tip. 2 a stupid and slow to understand; b not very perceptive or sensitive. 3 geom said of an angle: greater than 90° and less than 180°. Compare ACUTE (adj 7). 4 said of pain or a sound, etc: indistinctly felt or heard, etc; dull. ● obtusely adverb. ● obtuseness noun. ● obtusity noun. ⓘ 16c: from Latin obtundere, obtusum to blunt, or beat against, from tundere to beat.

obverse /'ɒbvɜːs/ ▷ adj 1 turned towards or facing the observer. 2 complemental; referring to something that is the opposite aspect of the same fact. 3 bot said of leaves, etc: with the base narrower than the apex. ▷ noun 1 the side of a coin with the head or main design on it. Opposite of REVERSE (noun 4). 2 the face or side, etc of anything which is normally on view. 3 an opposite or counterpart, eg of a fact or truth. ● obversely adverb. ● obversion noun. ⓘ 17c: from Latin obversus turned against or towards, from vertere to turn.

obviate /'ɒbvɪeɪt/ ▷ verb (obviated, obviating) to prevent or remove (a potential difficulty or problem, etc) in advance; to forestall. ● obviation noun. ⓘ 16c: from Latin obviare, obviatum to go to meet.

obvious /'ɒbvɪəs/ ▷ adj 1 easily seen or understood; clearly evident. 2 not subtle. 3 noun (the obvious) something which is obvious (see THE 4b) ▫ to state the obvious. ● obviously adverb. ● obviousness noun. ⓘ 16c: from Latin obvius, from ob in the way of + via way.

OC ▷ abbreviation 1 Officer Commanding. 2 Officer in Charge. 3 (Officer of the) Order of Canada. 4 philately original cover.

oc ▷ abbreviation only child.

o/c ▷ abbreviation overcharge.

ocarina /ɒkə'riːnə/ ▷ noun (ocarinas) a small simple fluty-toned wind instrument that has an egg-shaped body with fingerholes and a projecting mouthpiece. ⓘ 19c: Italian, from oca goose, so-called because of its shape.

OCCAM or occam ▷ noun, computing a software language.

occasion /ə'keɪʒən/ ▷ noun 1 a particular event or happening, or the time at which it occurs ▫ met on three occasions. 2 a special event or celebration. 3 a suitable opportunity or chance. 4 a reason; grounds ▫ have no occasion to be angry. 5 an event which determines the time at which something happens, but which is not the actual cause of it. ▷ verb (occasioned, occasioning) to cause something; to bring it about, especially incidentally. ● on occasion 1 as the need or opportunity arises. 2 from time to time; occasionally. ● rise to the occasion see under RISE. ● take occasion to take advantage of an opportunity (to do something). ⓘ 14c: French, or from Latin occasio opportunity or cause, from occidere, from oc- in the way of + cadere, casum to fall.

occasional ▷ adj 1 happening irregularly and infrequently. 2 produced on or for a special occasion. ● occasionally adverb.

occasionalism ▷ noun, philos the Cartesian doctrine that explains the apparent interaction of mind and matter as the direct intervention of God on the occasion of certain changes occurring in one or the other. ● occasionalist noun. ⓘ 19c.

occasional table ▷ noun a small portable side-table used irregularly and for various purposes.

Occident /'ɒksɪdənt/ ▷ noun 1 (the Occident) the countries in the west, especially those in Europe and America regarded as culturally distinct from eastern countries (the ORIENT). 2 (also occident) poetic the part of the sky where the Sun sets; the west. Compare ORIENT. ● occidental /-'dɛntəl/ adj (also Occidental) from or relating to the Occident; western. ▷ noun (usually Occidental) someone born in the Occident; a westerner. ● occidentally adverb. ⓘ 14c: French, from Latin occidens setting, west or sunset, from occidere to go down.

occidentalize or occidentalise ▷ verb (occidentalized, occidentalizing) to make occidental; to westernize (a culture or customs, etc). ⓘ 19c.

occipital /ɒk'sɪpɪtəl/ anatomy ▷ adj relating to or in the region of the back of the head. ▷ noun (also occipital bone) the bone that forms the back of the skull and part of its base, and encircles the spinal column. ⓘ 16c: French, from Latin occipitalis.

occiput /'ɒksɪpʌt, -pət/ ▷ noun, anatomy 1 the back of the head or skull. 2 the occipital bone. ⓘ 14c: Latin, from oc- over + caput head.

occlude /ə'kluːd/ ▷ verb (occluded, occluding) technical 1 a to block up or cover (eg a pore or some other opening or orifice); b to block or obstruct (a passage). 2 to shut something in or out. 3 to cover (an eye) to prevent its use. 4 chem said of a solid: to absorb (a gas) so that its atoms or molecules occupy the spaces within the lattice structure of the solid. 5 medicine to close (an opening), eg to obstruct a blood vessel. 6 dentistry to close (the surfaces of the upper teeth) on those of the lower teeth. 7 tr & intr, meteorol to form or cause to form an OCCLUDED FRONT. ■ occludent noun, adj. ■ occluder noun, ophthalmol a device used to occlude an eye. ⓘ 16c: from Latin occludere to shut or close up, from oc- in the way of + claudere to close.

occluded front ▷ noun, meteorol the final stage in an atmospheric depression, when a cold front catches up with and overtakes a warm front, lifting the warm air mass off the ground. Also called occlusion.

occlusion /ə'kluːʒən/ ▷ noun 1 the closing of an orifice, etc. 2 the act of occluding or absorbing. 3 dentistry a the bite or way in which the upper and lower teeth meet; b the state of having the jaws closed and the upper and lower teeth in contact. 4 meteorol an OCCLUDED FRONT. 5 phonetics the brief closing of the breath passage during the articulation of a consonant released orally, or of the mouth passage during the articulation of a nasal consonant. ■ occlusive adj. ▷ noun, phonetics a sound produced by occlusion. ⓘ 17c.

occult ▷ adj /ɒ'kʌlt, 'ɒkʌlt/ 1 involving, using or dealing with that which is magical, mystical or supernatural. 2 beyond ordinary understanding. 3 secret, hidden or esoteric. 4 (the occult) the knowledge and study of that which is magical, mystical or supernatural (see THE 4b). ▷ verb /ɒ'kʌlt/ (occulted, occulting) 1 tr & intr to hide or conceal something, or to be hidden or concealed. 2 tr & intr, astron said of a celestial body: to obscure (another celestial body) or to be obscured by occultation. 3 intr said of lights, especially the light in a lighthouse, or beacons, etc: to become temporarily invisible at regular intervals. ■ occultism noun, relig the doctrine or study of the supernatural, and practices purporting to achieve communication with things hidden and mysterious. ■ occultist noun. ■ occultly adverb. ■ occultness noun. ⓘ 16c: from Latin occulere, occultum to hide.

occultation ▷ noun, astron a phenomenon that is observed when one celestial body, eg a planet or moon, passes directly in front of another, eg a star, so obscuring it, as with an ECLIPSE (noun 1).

occupancy /'ɒkjʊpənsɪ/ ▷ noun (occupancies) 1 the act or condition of occupying (a house or flat, etc), or the fact of its being occupied. 2 the period of time during which a house, etc is occupied. 3 law the action of taking possession of property, especially land, that has no owner with the intention of acquiring its ownership. 4 the proportion of, or extent to which, accommodation is used or occupied. ⓘ 16c.

occupant /'ɒkjʊpənt/ ▷ noun 1 someone who occupies, holds or resides in property, or in a particular position, etc. 2 law someone who acquires by occupancy the title to property that previously had no owner. ⓘ 16c.

occupation /ɒkjʊ'peɪʃən/ ▷ noun 1 a person's job or profession. 2 an activity that occupies a person's attention or free time, etc. 3 the act of occupying or state of being occupied □ the terrorists' occupation of the embassy. 4 the period of time during which a town, house, etc is occupied. 5 the act of taking and keeping control of a foreign country by military power. ■ occupational adj related to or caused by a person's job □ occupational pension □ occupational disease. ■ occupationally adverb. ⓘ 16c: from Latin occupatio seizing.

occupational disease see INDUSTRIAL DISEASE occupational hazard ▷ noun a risk or danger accepted as a consequence of the nature or working conditions of a particular job.

occupational psychology ▷ noun, psychol the scientific study of human behaviour in the workplace, including the study of work skills and the working environment, vocational guidance, personnel selection, all forms of training, and principles of management. ■ occupational psychologist noun.

occupational therapy ▷ noun a form of rehabilitation in which patients with physical or mental illnesses are encouraged to participate in selected activities that will equip them to function independently in everyday life, such as household management, educational programmes, art and crafts, etc. ■ occupational therapist noun.

occupy /'ɒkjʊpaɪ/ ▷ verb (occupies, occupied, occupying) 1 to have possession of or live in (a house, etc). 2 to be in or fill (time or space, etc). 3 to take possession of (a town or foreign country, etc) by force. 4 to enter and take possession of (a building, etc) often by force and without authority. 5 a to keep (someone, oneself or one's mind, etc) busy; b to fill in (time) □ occupied the three-hour journey with knitting. 6 to hold (a post or office). ■ occupier noun someone who lives in a building, either as a tenant or owner; an occupant. ⓘ 14c: from Latin occupare to seize.

occur /ə'kɜː(r)/ ▷ verb (occurred, occurring) intr 1 to happen or take place. 2 intr to be found or exist. ■ occurrence noun 1 anything that occurs; an event, especially an unexpected one. 2 the act or fact of occurring. ■ occurrent adj. ⓘ 15c: from Latin occurrere to run towards, to befall.

> ■ occur to someone to come into their mind, especially unexpectedly or by chance □ It occurred to her that the train might be late.

ocean /'oʊʃən/ ▷ noun 1 the continuous expanse of salt water that covers about 70% of the Earth's surface and surrounds the continental land masses. 2 any one of its five main divisions: the Atlantic, Indian, Pacific, Arctic and Southern. 3 the sea. 4 (often oceans) a very large number, amount or expanse □ oceans of wine. ⓘ 13c: from Latin oceanus, from Greek Okeanos the stream supposed by the ancients to run round the Earth.

oceanarium /oʊʃə'nɛərɪəm/ ▷ noun (oceanariums or oceanaria) originally US a large saltwater aquarium, or an enclosed part of the sea, in which sea creatures such as dolphins and porpoises, etc are kept for research purposes or for display to the public. ⓘ 1940s.

ocean-going ▷ adj said of a ship, etc: suitable for sailing across oceans.

Oceanian /oʊʃɪ'eɪnɪən/ ▷ adj referring or relating to Oceania, which includes Polynesia, Micronesia and Melanesia, and sometimes also Australasia and the Malay Archipelago. ▷ noun a citizen or inhabitant of, or person born in, Oceania, especially a Polynesian. ⓘ 19c.

oceanic /oʊʃɪ'anɪk/ ▷ adj 1 relating to the ocean. 2 biol, geol found or formed in the ocean beyond the edge of a CONTINENTAL SHELF. 3 like an ocean; immense. 4 meteorol said of a climate: influenced by proximity to the sea, and therefore with a relatively small temperature range and relatively high precipitation. ■ oceanicity /oʊʃə'nɪsɪtɪ/ noun, meteorol the state of being, or extent to which a climate is, oceanic. ⓘ 17c.

oceanography /oʊʃə'nɒgrəfɪ/ ▷ noun the scientific study of the oceans, including the structure and origin of the ocean floor, the chemical properties of sea water, physical processes such as currents, waves and tides, and the ecology of marine organisms. ▪ oceanographer noun. ▪ oceanographic /-'grafɪk/ or oceanographical adj. ⓘ 19c.

oceanology /oʊʃə'nɒlədʒɪ/ ▷ noun the scientific study of the sea, especially of its economic geography. ▪ oceanological /-nə'lɒdʒɪkəl/ adj. ▪ oceanologist noun. ⓘ 19c.

ocellus /oʊ'sɛləs/ ▷ noun (plural ocelli /-laɪ/) zool 1 in insects and other lower animals: a simple eye or eyespot, as distinct from a compound eye. 2 an eyelike or ringed spot of colour, eg on a butterfly's wing, etc. ▪ ocellar adj. ▪ ocellate /'ɒsəleɪt/ adj. ▪ ocellated adj 1 with an eyelike spot or spots. 2 eyelike and ringed. ▪ ocellation noun. ⓘ 19c: Latin, diminutive of oculus eye.

ocelot /'ɒsəlɒt, 'oʊ-/ ▷ noun 1 a medium-sized wild cat, found in the forests of Central and S America, that has dark-yellow fur marked with spots and stripes. 2 its fur. ⓘ 18c: French, from Nahuatl ocelotl jaguar.

och /ɒx/ ▷ exclamation, Scot & Irish expressing surprise, impatience, disagreement, annoyance or regret, etc. ⓘ 16c.

oche /'ɒkɪ/ ▷ noun (oches) darts the line, groove or ridge on the floor behind which a player must stand to throw. Also called hockey or hockey line. ⓘ 1930s: perhaps related to Anglo-Saxon oche to lop, or French ocher to nick or cut a groove in something.

ocher the N Amer spelling of OCHRE ochlocracy /ɒ'klɒkrəsɪ/ ▷ noun (ochlocracies) 1 mob rule; government by the populace. 2 a state, etc that is dominated or governed by the populace. ▪ ochlocrat noun. ▪ ochlocratic or ochlocratical adj. ⓘ 16c: from Greek okhlokratia, from okhlos crowd + kratos power.

ochlophobia /ɒkloʊ'foʊbɪə/ ▷ noun fear of crowds. ▪ ochlophobiac noun. ▪ ochlophobic adj. ⓘ Late 19c: from Greek okhlos crowd.

ochre /'oʊkə(r)/ or N Amer ocher /'oʊkər/ noun (ochres or ochers) 1 any of various fine earths or clays that contain ferric oxide, silica or alumina, used as a red, yellow or brown pigment. 2 a pale brownish-yellow colour. ▷ adj with the colour of ochre. ▷ verb (ochred, ochring) to mark or colour something with ochre. ▪ ochraceous /oʊ'kreɪʃəs/ , ochreous /'oʊkrɪəs/ , ochrous or ochry adj 1 like, containing or full of ochre. 2 with the colour of ochre; yellowish. ⓘ 14c: from French ocre, from Greek ōkhros pale yellow.

ochrea or ocrea /'ɒkrɪə/ noun (plural ochreae /'ɒkrɪiː/) bot a sheath formed by two or more stipulate leaves joined round a stem. ▪ ochreate adj. ⓘ 19c: Latin, meaning 'a legging'.

-ock /-ək/ ▷ suffix, forming nouns, indicating a diminutive ◻ hillock. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon -oc or -uc.

ocker /'ɒkə(r)/ Austral slang ▷ noun (often Ocker) an oafish uncultured Australian man. ▷ adj typical of an ocker; boorish; uncultured. ⓘ 1970s: a form of the name Oscar, the name of a TV character.

o'clock /ə'klɒk/ ▷ adverb after a number from one to twelve: 1 used in specifying the time, indicating the number of hours after midday or midnight ◻ three o'clock. 2 used to indicate position or direction relative to the observer and with reference to an imaginary clock face, twelve o'clock being directly ahead or above ◻ enemy aircraft at two o'clock. ⓘ Early 20c in sense 2; 18c: a contraction of of the clock.

OCR ▷ abbreviation, computing optical character recognition, reader or reading.

Oct. ▷ abbreviation October.

oct. ▷ abbreviation octavo.

oct- and octa- see OCTO-octachord music ▷ adj 1 relating to an eight-note scale. 2 with eight strings. ▷ noun 1 a diatonic series of eight notes. 2 an instrument with eight strings. ⓘ 18c: from Latin octachordos, from Greek, from octa- OCTA- + khordē string.

octad /'ɒktad/ ▷ noun a group, series or set, etc of eight things. ▪ octadic adj. ⓘ 19c: from Greek oktas, oktados a group of eight, from okto eight.

octadecanoic acid see STEARIC ACID octagon /'ɒktəgən/ ▷ noun 1 a flat figure with eight straight sides and eight angles. 2 something that has an octagonal shape. ▷ adj octagonal. ▪ octagonal /ɒk'tagənəl/ adj 1 shaped like an octagon. 2 with eight sides and angles. ▪ octagonally adverb. ⓘ 16c: from Latin octagonum, from Greek okto eight + gonia angle.

octagynous see OCTOGYNOUS octahedron or octohedron /ɒktə'hiːdrən/ ▷ noun (octahedra /-drə/ or octahedrons) a solid figure with eight plane faces. ▪ octahedral adj 1 shaped like an octahedron. 2 with eight plane surfaces. ⓘ 16c: from Greek oktaedron, from okto eight + hedra seat or base.

octal /'ɒktəl/ math, computing ▷ adj relating to or based on the number 8. ▷ noun 1 octal notation: a numbering system using the base 8 and the digits 0 to 7, eg 9 (decimal) is 11 (octal). 2 an octal number. ⓘ 1930s.

octameter /ɒk'tamɪtə(r)/ ▷ noun, poetry a line of eight metrical feet. See also PENTAMETER, HEXAMETER. ⓘ 19c.

octane /'ɒkteɪn/ ▷ noun, chem (formula C_8H_{18}) a colourless liquid belonging to the alkane series of hydrocarbons, present in petroleum, used in petrol, as a solvent and in the manufacture of organic chemicals. ⓘ 19c.

octane number and octane rating ▷ noun a numerical system for classifying motor fuels according to their resistance to knocking, such that the higher the octane number on a scale 0 to 125, the better the quality of the petrol, and the lower the likelihood of knocking (see KNOCK verb 7).

octangular /ɒk'taŋgjʊlə(r)/ ▷ adj with eight angles; octagonal. ⓘ 17c.

octant /'ɒktənt/ ▷ noun 1 math a one eighth of the circumference of a circle; b a section, formed by drawing two straight lines from the centre to the circumference, of one eighth of a circle. 2 math a division of space or of a solid body divided into eight by three planes, usually at right angles to each other. 3 math an angle-measuring instrument in the form of a graduated eighth of a circle, used especially in astronomy and navigation. 4 astron, astrol a position of 45° from another position, especially of the Moon from CONJUNCTION (noun 4) or OPPOSITION (noun 7). ▪ octantal /ɒk'tantəl/ adj. ⓘ 17c: from Latin octans half quadrant, from octo eight.

octaroon see OCTOROON

octave /'ɒktɪv, 'ɒkteɪv/ ▷ noun 1 any group or series of eight. 2 music a the range of sound, or the series of notes, between the first and the eighth notes of a major or minor scale, eg from C to the C above; b a musical note that is an eighth above or below another. 3 an organ stop sounding an octave higher than the ordinary pitch. 4 (also octet) poetry a a verse or stanza with eight lines; b the first eight lines of a sonnet. 5 a the eighth day (when counted inclusively) after a church festival; b the eight days from a festival to its octave. 6 fencing a the eighth of eight basic parrying positions; b a parry made in this position. ⓘ 14c: from Latin octavus eighth.

octavo /ɒk'teɪvoʊ/ ▷ noun (octavos) printing, publishing (abbreviation oct.) 1 a size of book or page produced by folding a standard-sized sheet of paper three times to give eight leaves. 2 a book or page of this size. ⓘ 16c: from Latin in octavo in an eighth (said of a sheet).

octennial /ɒk'tɛnɪəl/ ▷ adj 1 happening every eight years. 2 lasting for eight years. ▪ octennially adverb. ⓘ 17c: from Latin octennium eight years, from octo eight + annus year.

octet or octette /ɒk'tɛt/ ▷ noun 1 any group of eight people or things. 2 music a a group of eight musicians or singers who perform together; b a piece of music written for eight instruments or voices. 3 poetry an OCTAVE 4. 4 chem a stable group of eight electrons. 5 nuclear physics a group of eight subatomic particles. ◷ 19c: from OCT- (see under OCTO-), modelled on DUET, etc.

octillion /ɒk'tɪlɪən/ ▷ noun 1 in Britain and Germany: a million raised to the eighth power; 10^{48}. 2 in N America and France: a thousand raised to the ninth power; 10^{27}. ● octillionth noun, adj. ◷ 17c: from OCT-, modelled on million, billion, etc.

octo- /ɒktoʊ, ɒk'tɒ/ or octa- /ɒktə, ɒk'ta/ or (before a vowel) oct- ▷ combining form, signifying eight. ◷ From Latin octo, Greek okto eight.

October /ɒk'toʊbə(r)/ ▷ noun (abbreviation Oct.) the tenth month of the year, which follows September and comes before November, and has 31 days. ◷ Anglo-Saxon: Latin, from octo eight, so called because it was the eighth month in the Roman calendar.

octocentenary /ɒktoʊsɛn'tiːnərɪ, -sɛn'tɛnərɪ/ ▷ noun an eight-hundredth anniversary. ● octocentennial adj. ◷ 19c.

octogenarian /ɒktoʊdʒə'nɛərɪən/ ▷ noun someone who is 80 years old, or between 80 and 89 years old. ▷ adj 1 between 80 and 89 years old. 2 relating to an octogenarian or octogenarians. ◷ 19c: from Latin octogenarius relating to eighty, from octoginta eighty.

octogynous /ɒk'tɒdʒɪnəs/ or octagynous /-'tadʒ-/ ▷ adj, bot with eight pistils or styles. ◷ 19c.

octohedron see OCTAHEDRON octopus /'ɒktəpəs/ ▷ noun (octopuses) 1 any of about 150 species of marine mollusc, found mainly in tropical regions, with a soft rounded body, no external shell, and eight arms, each of which bears two rows of suckers. 2 a person or organization, etc with widespread, often harmful or destructive, influence. 3 a fairground ride that approximately resembles the form of an octopus, with a set of rotating spokes or 'arms' from which passenger cars are suspended. ◷ Late 19c in sense 2; 18c: Latin, from Greek oktopous, from okto eight + pous foot.

octopush /'ɒktəpʊʃ/ ▷ noun an underwater game similar to hockey, played in a swimming pool by two teams of six players who attempt to score goals by pushing a lead puck, called a squid, along the bottom and hitting it against the opposing team's end of the pool. ● octopusher noun. ◷ 1970s: from octopus + PUSH (noun 1).

octoroon or octaroon /ɒktə'ruːn/ ▷ noun a person having one black African or Caribbean great-grandparent; the offspring of a quadroon and person of European descent. ◷ 19c: OCTO-, modelled on QUADROON.

octosyllable ▷ noun 1 a word with eight syllables. 2 a line of verse containing eight syllables. ▷ adj octosyllabic. ● octosyllabic adj consisting of eight syllables or composed of lines of eight syllables. ▷ noun a line containing eight syllables. ◷ 18c.

octroi /'ɒktrwɑː, ɒk'trwɑː/ ▷ noun (octrois) 1 especially in some European countries: a duty levied on certain articles brought into a town. 2 a the place where such a duty is paid; b the officials to whom it is paid. ◷ 18c; 16c in obsolete sense 'concession' or 'privilege', ultimately from Latin auctorizare to authorize.

octuple /ɒk'tjuːpəl/ ▷ adj 1 eight times as large; eightfold. 2 music with eight beats in a bar. ▷ verb (octupled, octupling) tr & intr to multiply by eight; to become or make something eight times as many or as much, etc. ◷ 17c: from Latin octuplus.

octuplet /'ɒktjʊplət/ ▷ noun 1 music a group of eight notes to be played in the time of six. 2 one of eight children or animals born at one birth.

ocular /'ɒkjʊlə(r)/ ▷ adj 1 a relating to or in the region of the eye; b eyelike. 2 entomol relating to a compound eye. 3 relating to or obtained by vision; visual. ▷ noun 1 jocular the eye. 2 the eyepiece of an optical instrument. ● ocularly adverb. ◷ 16c: from Latin ocularis, from oculus eye.

ocularist /'ɒkjʊlərɪst/ ▷ noun a maker of artificial eyes. ◷ 19c: from French oculariste.

oculate /'ɒkjʊlət/ and oculated ▷ adj, zool, bot with eyelike spots or markings. ◷ 16c, meaning 'with eyes': from Latin oculatus, from oculus eye.

oculist /'ɒkjʊlɪst/ ▷ noun a specialist in diseases and defects of the eye; an optician or ophthalmologist. ◷ 16c.

oculo- /ɒkjʊloʊ, ɒkjʊ'lɒ/ ▷ combining form, signifying the eye or vision. ◷ From Latin oculus eye.

oculomotor ▷ adj relating to or causing movement of the eye □ oculomotor nerves. ◷ 19c.

oculus /'ɒkjʊləs/ ▷ noun (plural oculi /-laɪ/) archit a round window. See also ROSE WINDOW. ◷ 19c.

OD[1] /oʊ'diː/ slang ▷ noun (ODs or OD's) an overdose of drugs. ▷ verb (OD's, OD'd, OD'ing) intr to take a drug overdose. ◷ 1960s: from overdose.

OD[2] ▷ abbreviation 1 officer of the day. 2 (also O/D) on demand. 3 (also O/D) overdrawn. 4 ordnance datum.

ODA ▷ abbreviation Overseas Development Administration.

odalisque or odalisk /'oʊdəlɪsk/ ▷ noun, historical a female slave or concubine in a harem, especially in the harem belonging to the Turkish Sultan. ◷ 17c: French, from Turkish odalik, from oda room.

odd /ɒd/ ▷ adj 1 left over when others are put into groups or pairs; remaining. 2 not matching □ odd socks. 3 not one of a complete set. 4 math said of a whole number: not exactly divisible by two, eg three is an odd number. Compare EVEN. 5 said of pages, etc that are numbered consecutively: referring to one with an odd number □ put pictures on the odd pages. 6 (odder, oddest) unusual; strange □ an odd face. 7 occasional; not regular; casual. 8 in compounds a little more than the specified number □ twenty-odd replies. 9 said of a place: out of the way; standing apart. ▷ noun, golf a stroke that makes a player's total number of strokes for a particular hole one more than their opponent's. ● oddish adj. ● oddly adverb 1 in an odd way or manner. 2 strangely; surprisingly □ Oddly, he refused to stay. ● oddness noun. ● odd man or odd one out 1 someone that is set apart or in some way different from, and sometimes unwilling to be like, others forming a particular group. 2 a person or thing left over when a team or a set, etc has been formed. See also ODDS. ◷ 14c: from Norse oddi point, triangle or odd number.

oddball /'ɒdbɔːl/ originally US, colloq ▷ noun a strange or eccentric person. ▷ adj said of a thing, a plan or circumstances, etc: eccentric; peculiar. ◷ 1940s.

oddity /'ɒdɪtɪ/ ▷ noun (oddities) 1 a strange or odd person or thing. 2 an odd quality or characteristic; a peculiarity. 3 the state of being odd or unusual; strangeness. ◷ 16c.

odd job ▷ noun (usually odd jobs) casual or occasional pieces of work, often routine or domestic. ● odd jobber and odd-job man noun.

odd lot ▷ noun, stock exchange a block of less than one hundred shares. ● odd-lotter noun someone who deals in odd lots.

oddly and oddness see under ODD oddment /'ɒdmənt/ ▷ noun 1 something left over or remaining from a greater quantity □ oddments of fabric. 2 a miscellaneous article, especially a piece from a broken set. 3 printing (oddments) the parts of a book other than the main text. ◷ 18c.

odds ▷ plural noun (sometimes treated as singular) 1 the chance or probability, expressed as a ratio, that something will or will not happen □ The odds are 10–1 against. 2 the difference, expressed as a ratio, between the amount placed as a bet and the money which might be won □ offer odds of 2 to 1. 3 an advantage that is thought to exist, especially in favour of one competitor over another □ The odds are in her favour. 4 likelihood □ The odds are he'll be late again. 5 an equalizing allowance given to a weaker side or competitor. • against all the odds or against all odds in spite of great difficulty or disadvantage. • at odds in disagreement or dispute; on bad terms. • give or lay odds to offer a bet with favourable odds. • make no odds to make no significant difference. • over the odds more than is normal, required or expected, etc. • shout the odds slang 1 to talk too much or too loudly. 2 to boast. • take odds 1 to accept a bet. 2 to offer a bet with unfavourable odds. • What's the odds? colloq What difference does it make?, What does it matter? ⓘ 16c: originally meaning 'unequal things'.

odds and ends ▷ plural noun, colloq miscellaneous objects or pieces of things, etc, usually of little value or importance.

odds and sods ▷ plural noun, colloq miscellaneous people or things, etc.

odds-on ▷ adj 1 said of a chance, the likelihood of a horse winning a race, etc: rated at even or better. 2 very likely to succeed, win or happen, etc.

ode /oud/ ▷ noun 1 a lyric poem, usually a fairly long one, with lines of different lengths and complex rhythms, addressed to a particular person or thing. 2 originally a poem intended to be sung. ⓘ 16c: from Latin oda, from Greek oide song or singing, from aeidein to sing.

odious /'oudiəs/ ▷ adj hateful; repulsive; extremely unpleasant or offensive. • odiously adverb. • odiousness noun. ⓘ 14c: from Latin odiosus.

odium /'oudiəm/ ▷ noun hatred, strong dislike, or disapproval of a person or thing, especially when widespread. ⓘ 17c: Latin.

odometer /ɒ'dɒmɪtə, ou'dɒmɪtə/ or hodometer /hou-/ ▷ noun, N Amer a device for measuring and displaying the distance travelled by a wheeled vehicle or a person, eg the milometer incorporated in the speedometer of a car. • odometry noun. ⓘ 18c: from French odomètre, from Greek hodos way.

-odon ▷ suffix, forming nouns, indicating (in the names of animals) some characteristic of the teeth □ chaetodon □ mastodon. ⓘ From Greek odon, from odous tooth.

-odont ▷ suffix, forming adjectives and nouns, indicating some characteristic of the teeth; toothed □ bunodont □ thecodont. ⓘ From Greek odous, odontos tooth.

odontalgia /ɒdɒn'taldʒɪə/ or odontalgy ▷ noun toothache. ⓘ 17c: Greek.

odontalgic /ɒdɒn'taldʒɪk/ ▷ noun a medicine for toothache. ▷ adj referring or relating to toothache.

odonto- /ɒdɒntou, ɒdɒn'tɒ/ or (before a vowel) odont- /ɒdɒnt/ ▷ combining form, denoting a tooth or teeth. ⓘ From Greek odous, odontos tooth.

odontoblast ▷ noun a dentine-forming cell in the pulp of a tooth. ⓘ 19c.

odontogeny /ɒdɒn'tɒdʒənɪ/ ▷ noun the origin and development of teeth. ⓘ 19c.

odontoid /ɒ'dɒntɔɪd/ ▷ adj, zool, anatomy 1 like a tooth. 2 relating to or associated with the ODONTOID PROCESS. ▷ noun a tooth-like structure, especially the odontoid process. ⓘ 19c.

odontoid process and odontoid peg ▷ noun, anatomy in mammals and some other vertebrates: a toothlike projection from the second vertebra of the neck.

odontology /ɒdɒn'tɒlədʒɪ/ ▷ noun, anatomy the structure, development and diseases of the teeth. • odontological adj. • odontologist noun. ⓘ 19c.

odor the N Amer spelling of ODOUR.

odoriferous /oudə'rɪfərəs/ ▷ adj with or giving off a smell, usually a sweet or pleasant smell. • odoriferously adverb. • odoriferousness noun. ⓘ 15c: from Latin odorifer, from odor smell.

odorous /'oudərəs/ ▷ adj 1 with or giving off an odour. 2 sweet-smelling; fragrant. 3 colloq bad-smelling; malodorous. • odorously adverb. • odorousness noun. ⓘ 16c: from Latin odorus fragrant.

odour or (N Amer) odor /'oudə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 a distinctive smell; scent. 2 reputation; standing; relationship □ in bad odour with someone. 3 a characteristic or quality. • odourless adj. ⓘ 13c: from French odor and odur, from Latin odor smell or scent.

odour of sanctity ▷ noun 1 a fragrance said to be given off by the bodies of saints at or after death. 2 a sanctimonious manner.

odyssey /'ɒdɪsɪ/ ▷ noun (odysseys) 1 a a long and adventurous journey or series of wanderings; b a story that relates such a journey. 2 a long and drawn-out process of change or development. • Odyssean /ɒdɪ'siːən/ adj 1 relating to the Greek epic poem the Odyssey. 2 like an odyssey. ⓘ 19c: from Greek Odysseia, the Greek epic poem, the Odyssey, attributed to Homer, that describes the adventures and wanderings of Odysseus (Ulysses) on his ten years' journey home to Ithica after the fall of Troy.

OE ▷ abbreviation Old English.

Oe ▷ symbol oersted.

OECD ▷ abbreviation Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development.

oecumenic and oecumenical see ECUMENIC.

OED ▷ abbreviation Oxford English Dictionary.

oedema or edema /ɪ'diːmə/ ▷ noun (oedemata /-mətə/ or oedemas) 1 pathol an abnormal and excessive accumulation of fluid within body tissues or body cavities, causing generalized or local swelling. 2 bot an abnormal swelling in a plant caused by an accumulation of water in the tissues. • oedematous /ɪ'diːmətəs, ɪ'de-/ or oedematose /-tous/ adj. ⓘ 16c: Latin, from Greek oidema, from oidein to swell.

Oedipus complex /'iːdɪpəs —/ ▷ noun, psychoanal 1 the repressed sexual desire of a son for his mother, and the subsequent rivalry with his father, considered by Freud to represent a normal stage of child development. 2 the corresponding sexual desire of a daughter for her father, and the subsequent rivalry with her mother. • Oedipal or oedipal adj. • Oedipean /iːdɪ'piːən/ adj. ⓘ Early 20c: from Greek Oidipous (literally 'Swell-foot'), the name of a legendary king of Thebes, who unwittingly killed his father and married his mother.

OEEC ▷ abbreviation, historical Organization for European Economic Cooperation, superseded in 1961 by the OECD.

oeno- /iːnou, iː'nɒ/ or (N Amer) eno- or (before a vowel) oen- or (N Amer) en- ▷ combining form, denoting wine. Also written oino- /ɔɪnou, ɔɪ'nɒ/ or oin-. ⓘ From Greek oinos wine.

oenology /iː'nɒlədʒɪ/ ▷ noun the study or knowledge of wine. • oenological adj. • oenologist noun. ⓘ 19c.

oenophile ▷ noun a lover or connoisseur of wine; an oenologist. • oenophilic adj. ⓘ 1930s.

o'er /ouə(r), ɔː(r)/ ▷ prep, adverb, poetic or old use short form of OVER.

Oerlikon or oerlikon /'ɜːlɪkɒn/ ▷ noun any of various guns and fittings, especially a type of anti-aircraft cannon. ⓘ 1940s: the name of a suburb of Zürich where these are produced.

oersted /'ɜːsted, 'ɜːstəd/ ▷ noun (symbol Oe) in the CGS UNIT system: a unit of magnetic field strength. ⓘ 1930s: named after H C Oersted (1777–1851), Danish physicist.

Oes plural of O¹

oesophagus or (especially N Amer) esophagus /iː'sɒfəgəs/ ▷ noun (oesophagi /-gaɪ, -dʒaɪ/) anatomy the part of the alimentary canal between the pharynx and the stomach, a narrow muscular tube (in humans about 23cm long) by means of which food passes to the stomach. Also called GULLET. • oesophageal /-fə'dʒiːəl/ adj. ⊙ 14c: Latin, from Greek oisophagos.

oestradiol /iːstrə'daɪɒl, ɛstrə-/ or (N Amer) estradiol ▷ noun, biochem 1 the most important female sex hormone, a steroid that is produced by the ovary and controls the development of the female secondary sexual characteristics and the functioning of the reproductive organs. 2 a synthesized form of this hormone, used to treat breast cancer and menstrual disorders. ⊙ 1930s.

oestrogen /'iːstrədʒən, 'ɛstrədʒən/ or (N Amer) estrogen ▷ noun, biochem 1 any of a group of steroid hormones, produced mainly by the ovaries, that control the growth and functioning of the female sex organs and the appearance of female secondary sexual characteristics, eg breast development, and that regulate the menstrual cycle. 2 medicine any such compound produced synthetically. • oestrogenic adj. ⊙ 1920s: from OESTRUS.

oestrous cycle ▷ noun the series of hormonally controlled physiological changes that occur from the beginning of one period of oestrus to the beginning of the next. Compare MENSTRUAL CYCLE.

oestrus /'iːstrəs, 'ɛstrəs/ or (N Amer) estrus ▷ noun, zool, physiol a regularly occurring but restricted period of sexual receptivity that occurs in most female mammals apart from humans. See also IN or ON HEAT at HEAT. • oestrous adj. • oestral adj. ⊙ 19c; 17c meaning 'a biting insect of the genus Oestrus': from Greek oistros a gadfly noted for its frenzy.

OF ▷ abbreviation Old French.

of /ɒv, (when unstressed) əv/ ▷ prep 1 used to show origin, cause or authorship □ people of Glasgow □ die of hunger □ poems of Keats. 2 belonging to or connected with something or someone. 3 used to specify a component, ingredient or characteristic, etc □ built of bricks □ an area of marsh □ a heart of gold. 4 at a given distance or amount of time from something □ within a minute of arriving. 5 about; concerning □ tales of Rome □ think of the children. 6 belonging to or forming a part of something □ most of the story. 7 existing or happening, etc, at, on, in or during something □ battle of Hastings □ He works of a night. 8 used with words denoting loss, removal or separation, etc □ cheated of the money □ cured of cancer. 9 used to show the connection between a verbal noun and the person or thing that is performing, or that is the object of, the action stated □ the eating of healthy food. 10 N Amer, especially US in giving the time: to; before a stated hour □ a quarter of one. 11 aged □ a boy of twelve. ⊙ Anglo-Saxon.

ofay /'oʊdeɪ, oʊ'feɪ/ ▷ noun (ofays) US derog, Black slang a white person. Also as adj. ⊙ 1920s.

off /ɒf/ ▷ adverb 1 away; at or to a distance. 2 in or into a position which is not attached; loose; separate □ The handle came off. 3 colloq ahead in time □ Easter is a week off. 4 in or into a state of no longer working or operating; not on □ Turn the radio off. 5 in or into a state of being stopped or cancelled □ The match was rained off. 6 in or into a state of sleep □ nodded off. 7 to the end, so as to be completely finished □ Finish the work off. 8 away from work or one's duties □ Take an hour off. 9 away from a course; aside □ Turn off into a side street. 10 situated as regards money □ well off □ badly off. ▷ adj 1 said of an electrical device: not functioning or operating; disconnected; not on □ The radio was off. 2 cancelled; not taking place □ The meeting's off. 3 originally naut most distant; furthest away. 4 said of the side of a vehicle, etc: nearest the centre of the road, ie on the right in the UK. 5 not good; not up to standard □ an off day. 6 cricket on the side of the field towards which the batsman's feet are pointing, usually the bowler's left. Opposite of ON (adj 6). 7 in a restaurant, on a menu, etc: no longer available as a choice □ Peas are off. 8 said especially of food or drink: in a state of decay; gone bad or sour □ The milk was off. ▷ prep 1 from or away from something □ Lift it off the shelf. 2 removed from or no longer attached to something. 3 opening out of; leading from, or not far from something □ a side street off the main road. 4 not wanting or no longer attracted by something □ off one's food □ go off him. 5 no longer using something, etc □ be off the tablets. 6 not up to the usual standard of something □ off one's game. 7 out to sea from (a specified country, area of land, etc) □ off the coast of Spain. ▷ noun 1 (usually the off) the start, eg of a race or journey □ ready for the off. 2 cricket the side of a field towards which the batsman's feet are pointing, usually the bowler's left. • a bit off colloq said of behaviour, etc: unacceptable or unfair. • off and on now and then; occasionally. • off one's face 1 slightly mad. 2 very drunk. ⊙ Anglo-Saxon of away.

offal /'ɒfəl/ ▷ noun 1 the heart, brains, liver and kidneys, etc of an animal, used as food. 2 rubbish, waste or refuse. ⊙ 14c: from of off + fal fall.

offbeat music ▷ noun any of the usually unaccented beats in a bar, eg the second or fourth in four-four time. ▷ adj 1 relating to offbeats; with a rhythm on the offbeats. 2 colloq unusual; unconventional; eccentric. ⊙ 1920s.

off-break and off-spin ▷ noun, cricket 1 deviation in the direction of a ball inwards from the offside spin with which it is bowled. 2 a ball bowled so as to have such a deviation.

off-Broadway ▷ noun, adj a collective term used since the 1950s to designate the generally more experimental, less commercial theatres located outside the Broadway area in New York and the productions they perform.

off-centre ▷ adj not quite central.

off chance see ON THE OFF CHANCE at CHANCE.

off-colour ▷ adj 1 said especially of a diamond: not of a satisfactory colour and therefore of inferior quality. 2 Brit slightly unwell; not in good health. 3 chiefly N Amer (off-color) said of humour: rude; smutty. ⊙ 19c.

offcut ▷ noun a small piece of eg wood or cloth, etc cut off or left over from a larger quantity, especially when making or shaping something. ⊙ 17c.

offence or (chiefly US) offense /ə'fɛns/ ▷ noun 1 a the breaking of a rule or law, etc; b a crime. 2 any cause of anger, annoyance or displeasure. 3 displeasure, annoyance or resentment □ I mean no offence. 4 an attack or assault. 5 sport a those players in a team who take on the attacking role; b attacking play. • give offence to cause displeasure or annoyance. • take offence at something to be offended by it.

offend /ə'fɛnd/ ▷ verb (offended, offending) 1 to make someone feel hurt or angry; to insult them. 2 to be unpleasant or annoying to someone. 3 intr (usually offend against someone or something) a to commit a sin or crime against them; b to act in a way that is not in accordance with (custom, etc). • offender noun. • offending adj. ⊙ 14c: from Latin offendere, from ob- against + fendere to strike.

offensive /ə'fɛnsɪv/ ▷ adj 1 giving or likely to give offence; insulting. 2 unpleasant, disgusting and repulsive, especially to the senses □ an offensive smell. 3 sport, military, etc used for attacking □ offensive weapons. ▷ noun 1 an aggressive action or attitude □ go on the offensive. 2 an attack. 3 especially in compounds a great or aggressive effort to achieve something □ a peace offensive. • offensively adverb. • offensiveness noun. ⊙ 16c.

offer /'ɒfə(r)/ ▷ verb (offered, offering) 1 to put forward (a gift, payment or suggestion, etc) for acceptance, refusal or consideration. 2 formal to provide ▫ a site offering the best view. 3 intr to state one's willingness to do something. 4 to present something for sale. 5 to provide an opportunity for something ▫ a job offering rapid promotion. 6 intr to present itself; to occur ▫ if opportunity offers. 7 tr & intr to propose (a sum of money) as payment to someone ▫ offer him £250 for the car. 8 (also offer something up) to present (a prayer or sacrifice) to God. 9 to show (resistance, etc). 10 (usually offer up something) technical in eg joinery, etc: to position or hold up (a part, etc) to test its size or suitability, etc before fixing it. ▷ noun 1 an act of offering. 2 something that is offered, especially an amount of money offered to buy something. 3 old use a proposal, especially of marriage. • offerer or offeror /ˈɒfərə(r)/ noun someone who offers something, especially shares for sale. • on offer for sale, especially at a reduced price. • under offer said of a house or flat, etc for sale: for which a possible buyer has made an offer, but with the contracts still to be signed. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon offrian, from Latin offerre, from ob- towards + ferre to bring.

offering ▷ noun 1 the act of making an offer. 2 anything offered, especially a gift. 3 a gift of money given to a church, usually during a religious service, used for charity, etc. 4 a sacrifice made to God, a saint or a deity, etc in the course of worship. 5 (offerings) in the Church of England: certain dues payable at Easter.

offertory /ˈɒfətəri/ ▷ noun (offertories) Christianity 1 the offering of bread and wine to God during a Eucharist. 2 an anthem or hymn sung while this is happening. 3 money collected during a church service. ⓘ 14c: from Latin offertorium place of offering.

offhand and offhanded ▷ adj 1 casual or careless, often with the result of being rude ▫ an offhand manner. 2 impromptu. • offhandedly adverb. • offhandedness noun. ⓘ 17c.

office /ˈɒfɪs/ ▷ noun 1 the room, set of rooms or building in which the business of a firm is done, or in which a particular kind of business, clerical work, etc is done. 2 a local centre or department of a large business. 3 a position of authority, especially in the government or in public service ▫ run for office. 4 a the length of time for which an official position is held; b said of a political party: the length of time for which it forms the government ▫ in office ▫ hold office. 5 (Office) in compounds a government department ▫ the Home Office. 6 the group of people working in an office. 7 a function or duty. 8 (usually offices) an act of kindness or service ▫ through her good offices. 9 (often Office) an authorized form of Christian worship or service, especially one for the dead. See also DIVINE OFFICE. 10 (offices) the parts of a large house, estate or farm given over to household work or storage, etc. 11 (especially usual offices) euphemistic, slang a lavatory. • give the office slang to give a signal or hint. ⓘ 13c: from Latin officium favour, duty or service, from opus work or service + facere to do.

office-bearer and office-holder ▷ noun someone who holds office; someone with an official duty in a society or a church organization, etc.

office block ▷ noun a large multistorey building divided into offices.

office boy and office girl ▷ noun a young person employed to do minor jobs in an office.

office hours ▷ noun the time during which an office is open for business, usually between 9am and 5pm Monday to Friday.

officer /ˈɒfɪsə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 someone in a position of authority and responsibility in the armed forces. 2 someone with an official position in an organization, society or government department. 3 a policeman or policewoman. 4 a person in authority on a non-naval ship. ▷ verb (officered, officering) 1 to provide officers for (the army or navy). 2 to act as officer for (some organization, etc). ⓘ 14c.

officer of the day ▷ noun (abbreviation OD) military the officer in charge of camp or unit security on any particular day.

official /əˈfɪʃəl/ ▷ adj 1 relating or belonging to an office or position of authority. 2 given or authorized by a person in authority ▫ an official report. 3 formal; suitable for or characteristic of a person holding office ▫ official dinners. 4 medicine said of a drug: recognized in the pharmacopoeia. ▷ noun someone who holds office or who is in a position of authority. • officially adverb.

officialdom ▷ noun 1 officials and bureaucrats as a group. 2 officialism.

officialese /əfɪʃəˈliːz/ ▷ noun unclear, wordy and pompous language or jargon, thought to be typical of officials or official letters and documents, etc. ⓘ 19c.

officialism ▷ noun 1 excessive devotion to official routine and detail. 2 official position. ⓘ 19c.

official receiver see under RECEIVER.

officiate /əˈfɪʃɪeɪt/ ▷ verb (officiated, officiating) intr 1 a to act in an official capacity; b to perform official duties, especially at a particular function. 2 to conduct a religious service. • officiation noun. • officiant or officiator noun someone who officiates at a religious ceremony. ⓘ 17c: from Latin officiare to serve.

officinal /ɒˈfɪsɪnəl, ɒfɪˈsaɪnəl/ ▷ adj 1 said of a drug, etc: a sold as a medicine; b used in medicine. 2 said of a medicinal preparation, etc: sold by pharmacists. Compare MAGISTRAL. ⓘ 17c: from Latin officinalis, from officina a storeroom for medicines, etc in a monastery.

officious /əˈfɪʃəs/ ▷ adj 1 too ready to offer help or advice, etc, especially when it is not wanted; interfering. 2 in diplomacy: informal; unofficial. • officiously adverb. • officiousness noun. ⓘ 16c: from Latin officiosus obliging or dutiful.

offing /ˈɒfɪŋ/ ▷ noun, naut the more distant part of the sea that is visible from the shore. • in the offing not far off; likely to happen soon. ⓘ 17c.

offish /ˈɒfɪʃ/ ▷ adj, colloq said of a person's manner, etc: aloof; distant. • offishly adverb. • offishness noun. ⓘ 19c.

off-key ▷ adj, adverb 1 music a in the wrong key; b out of tune. 2 colloq not quite suitable. ⓘ 1920s.

off-licence ▷ noun, Brit 1 a shop, or a counter in a pub or hotel, that is licensed to sell alcohol to be drunk elsewhere. 2 a licence that permits such sales. Compare ON-LICENCE. ⓘ 19c.

off-limits ▷ adj, especially military not to be entered; out of bounds. ▷ adverb (off limits) in or into an area that is out of bounds. ⓘ 1940s.

off-line ▷ adj, computing said of a peripheral device, eg a printer: 1 not connected to the central processing unit, and therefore not controlled by it. 2 not connected; switched off. Also as adverb ▫ went off line at 2 o'clock. Compare ON-LINE.

offload ▷ verb 1 tr & intr to unload. 2 to get rid of something, especially something unpleasant or unwanted, etc by passing it on to someone else. ⓘ 19c in sense 1: originally S African, modelled on Dutch afladen.

off-peak ▷ adj said of services, eg electricity, etc: used at a time when there is little demand, and therefore usually cheaper ▫ off-peak supply ▫ off-peak travel. Also as adverb.

off-piste ▷ adj relating to skiing on new unused snow, away from or off the regular runs.

offprint ▷ noun a separately printed copy of an article that originally formed part of a larger magazine or periodical. ⓘ 19c.

off-putting ▷ adj, colloq 1 disconcerting; distracting. 2 unpleasant; repulsive. ⓘ 19c.

off-road ▷ adj 1 said of vehicle use: not on public roads; especially on rough ground or terrain. 2 said of a car, bike or other vehicle: suitable for such use. • off-roader noun an off-road vehicle. • off-roading noun the practice of driving over rough terrain and driving off-road vehicles, especially as a sport. ⓘ 1960s.

off-sales ▷ noun sales of alcoholic drink for consumption elsewhere.

off-season ▷ noun the less popular and less busy period in a particular business or for a particular activity. ▷ adj relating to such a period □ off-season reductions. ▷ adverb (off season) in or at such a period. ⓘ 19c.

offset ▷ noun /'ɒfset/ 1 a start; the outset. 2 a side-shoot on a plant, used for developing new plants. 3 printing a process in which an image is inked on to a rubber roller which then transfers it to paper, etc. 4 anything which compensates or is a counterbalance for something else. 5 a spur or ridge projecting from a mountain range. 6 archit a ridge or sloping break in the surface of a wall or pier, etc, formed when the structure reduces in thickness towards the top. 7 surveying a short distance measured at right angles to a main survey line. 8 elec a small deviation of voltage or current, etc. ▷ verb /ɒf'set/ 1 to counterbalance or compensate for something □ price rises offset by tax cuts. 2 to print something using an offset process. 3 archit to construct an offset in a wall, etc. 4 intr a to develop as an offset; b to project as an offset. ⓘ 16c.

offset lithography ▷ noun a method of printing, developed at the beginning of the 20c, by which an image created by photographic means on a printing plate is transferred to a rubber 'blanket' cylinder and then to the paper, or other material such as metal or plastic. Often shortened to offset litho.

offshoot ▷ noun 1 a shoot growing from a plant's main stem. 2 anything which is a branch of, or has developed or derived from, something else.

offshore ▷ adverb ▷ adj 1 situated in, at, or on the sea, not far from the coast □ offshore industries. 2 said of the wind: blowing away from the coast; out to sea. Compare INSHORE.

offside ▷ adj, adverb, football, rugby, etc in an illegal position between the ball and the opponents' goal. Compare ONSIDE. ▷ noun the side of a vehicle or horse nearest the centre of the road, in the UK the right side.

off-spin see OFF-BREAK

offspring /'ɒfsprɪŋ/ ▷ noun (plural offspring) 1 a person's child or children. 2 the young of an animal. 3 progeny; descendants. 4 a result or outcome. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon ofspring, from of of or off + springan to spring.

off-stage ▷ adj, adverb, theat not on the stage and so unable to be seen by the audience.

off-stream ▷ adj said of an industrial plant, etc: not in operation or production.

off-street ▷ adj said of parking: not on a road; in a car park.

off the cuff see under CUFF[1] off-the-peg ▷ adj said of clothing: ready to wear; ready-made.

off the record see under RECORD off-the-shoulder ▷ adj said of a woman's dress, etc: worn so as to reveal the shoulders.

off-the-wall ▷ adj, slang said eg of humour: unorthodox; outlandish.

off-white ▷ adj yellowish or greyish white; very nearly but not quite white. ▷ noun 1 this colour. 2 anything which is this colour, eg paint. ⓘ 1920s.

OFGAS or Ofgas /'ɒfgas/ ▷ abbreviation in the UK: Office of Gas Supply, the regulatory body for the gas industry.

OFLOT or Oflot /'ɒflɒt/ ▷ abbreviation in the UK: Office of the National Lottery, the regulatory body for the UK National Lottery.

OFS ▷ abbreviation Orange Free State, a province in S Africa.

OFSTED or Ofsted /'ɒfsted/ ▷ abbreviation in England and Wales: Office for Standards in Education, an organization for monitoring education standards in state schools.

OFT ▷ abbreviation in the UK: Office of Fair Trading.

oft ▷ adverb, archaic, poetic often. Now chiefly in compounds □ oft-repeated promises. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon.

OFTEL or Oftel /'ɒftel/ ▷ abbreviation in the UK: Office of Telecommunications, a regulatory body for the telecommunications industry.

often /'ɒfən, 'ɒftən/ ▷ adverb 1 many times; frequently. 2 in many cases. ▷ adj, archaic done, made or happening, etc many times; frequent. • as often as not quite often; in about half the cases. • every so often sometimes; now and then. • more often than not usually; in most of the cases. ⓘ 14c: variant before vowels and h of ofte OFT.

oftentimes /'ɒfəntaɪmz, 'ɒftən-/ ▷ adverb, archaic, literary often.

OFWAT or Ofwat /'ɒfwɒt/ ▷ abbreviation in the UK: Office of Water Services, a regulatory body for the water industry.

ogam or ogham /'ɒgəm/ ▷ noun (also Ogam or Ogham) 1 a an ancient alphabet, consisting of 20 or 25 characters, used from the 4c BC in Celtic and Pictish inscriptions, especially on stone monuments found in Ireland and Wales; b (usually ogams) any of these characters, composed of sets of parallel lines (numbering one to five) meeting or crossing a base line, usually the corner of a stone monument. 2 an inscription in this alphabet. • ogamic or oghamic /ɒ'gamɪk, 'ɒgəmɪk/ or ogmic adj. ⓘ 18c: Irish Gaelic; perhaps related to Ogma, the mythical inventor of the alphabet.

ogee /'oudʒiː, ou'dʒiː/ ▷ noun (ogees) 1 an S-shaped curve or line. 2 archit an S-shaped moulding. ⓘ 14c: ultimately from French ogive OGIVE.

oggin /'ɒgɪn/ ▷ noun, naut slang the sea. ⓘ 1940s: a corruption of earlier hogwash, meaning 'the sea'.

ogive /ou'dʒaɪv, 'ou-/ ▷ noun 1 archit a a diagonal rib of a vault; b a pointed arch or window. 2 something, especially the nose of a rocket or missile, that has the form of an ogive. 3 statistics the cumulatively formed curve of a frequency distribution. 4 geol a band of some dark substance that is seen to stretch across a glacier's surface. • ogived or ogival adj. ⓘ 17c: French.

ogle /'ougəl/ ▷ verb (ogled, ogling) 1 intr to cast flirtatious or amorous glances. 2 to look at or eye someone in an amorous or lecherous way. 3 to stare or gape at something. ▷ noun a flirtatious or lecherous look. ⓘ 17c: perhaps from German oegeln, from oegen to look at.

ogmic see under OGAM

O-grade and Ordinary grade ▷ noun, formerly in Scotland: 1 an examination in a subject usually taken at the end of the fourth year in secondary schools, now replaced by STANDARD GRADE. 2 a pass in this examination.

-ography /'ɒgrəfɪ/ ▷ suffix a form of -GRAPHY □ oceanography □ bibliography. The -o- comes either from the first element of the word, or functions as a connective between the first element and the suffix.

ogre /'ougə(r)/ and ogress /'ougrɪs/ ▷ noun (ogres, ogresses) 1 in fairy stories: a frightening, cruel, ugly, man-eating male or female giant. 2 a cruel, frightening or ugly person. • ogreish or ogrish adj. ⓘ 18c: French (first used in Perrault's Contes, 1697), perhaps from Latin Orcus, the name of the Roman god of the underworld.

OH ⊳ abbreviation, US state Ohio. Also written O.

oh /oʊ/ ⊳ exclamation 1 expressing surprise, admiration, pleasure, anger or fear, etc. 2 (also O poetic or relig) used in apostrophizing or addressing a person or thing, or in expressing a wish □ O God!

OHG ⊳ abbreviation Old High German.

ohm /oʊm/ ⊳ noun (symbol Ω) in the SI and MKSA systems: a unit of electrical resistance, equal to the resistance of a circuit in which a potential difference of one volt is required to maintain a current of one ampere. • ohmage noun. ⓒ 19c: named after Georg Simon Ohm (1787–1854), German physicist.

ohmmeter /ˈoʊmmiːtə(r)/ ⊳ noun a device for measuring electrical resistance. ⓒ Late 19c.

OHMS ⊳ abbreviation, Brit On Her (or His) Majesty's Service, often written on mail from government departments.

Ohm's law ⊳ noun, physics a law which states that the direct current flowing in an electrical circuit is directly proportional to the potential difference (voltage) applied to the circuit, and inversely proportional to the resistance of the circuit, ie $V = IR$, where V is voltage, I is current and R is resistance. ⓒ 19c.

oho /oʊˈhoʊ/ ⊳ exclamation, rather old use an expression of surprise, triumphant satisfaction or derision.

-oholic and -oholism see -AHOLIC

ohone see OCHONE

OHP ⊳ abbreviation overhead projector.

-oid /ɔɪd/ ⊳ suffix, forming nouns and adjectives, signifying something similar to or with the form of the specified thing □ humanoid □ factoid □ rhomboid. • -oidal suffix, forming adjectives. ⓒ From Greek eidos shape.

oik /ɔɪk/ ⊳ noun, Brit colloq someone thought of as inferior, especially because of being rude, ignorant, badly educated or lower class. ⓒ 1920s.

oil /ɔɪl/ ⊳ noun 1 any greasy, viscous and usually flammable substance, liquid at room temperature (20°C) and insoluble in water but soluble in organic compounds, that is derived from animals, plants or mineral deposits, or manufactured artificially, and used as a fuel, lubricant or food. 2 PETROLEUM. 3 a (often oils) OIL PAINT; b an oil painting. 4 (oils) colloq oilskins; oilskin garments. 5 Austral & NZ slang news; information. Also as adj and in compounds □ oil pipeline □ oil slick □ oilfield. ⊳ verb (oiled, oiling) 1 to apply oil to something; to lubricate or treat something with oil. 2 intr to take oil aboard as fuel. 3 tr & intr said of butter, etc: to make or become oily, especially by heating or melting. • oiled and oily see separate entries. • burn the midnight oil to work or study late into the night. • oil someone's palm colloq to bribe them. • oil the wheels to do something in order to make things go more smoothly or successfully, etc. • pour oil on troubled waters to soothe or calm a person or situation. • strike oil 1 to discover or reach a source of petroleum while drilling for it. 2 colloq to discover some source of wealth, usually rapid wealth; to become rich or successful through exploiting such a source. ⓒ 12c: from French oile, from Latin oleum (olive) oil, from Greek elaia olive tree.

oil bath ⊳ noun, mech a receptacle that contains lubricating oil through which part of a machine passes.

oilbird ⊳ noun a gregarious fruit-eating nocturnal bird of northern S America and Trinidad, that roosts in caves during the day. ⓒ 19c; so called because the young, which grow extremely fat, used to be killed and boiled to extract oil from their bodies.

oil cake ⊳ noun a feedstuff for livestock, especially cattle, made from the crushed residue that remains after most of the oil has been extracted from linseed, soybean or other oil-bearing seeds.

oil can ⊳ noun a can for carrying oil or applying lubricating oil.

oilcloth ⊳ noun 1 a cloth, often cotton, treated with oil to make it waterproof; oilskin; b (oilcloths) oilskins; oilskin garments. 2 a canvas coated with linseed or other oil to make it waterproof, used (especially formerly) as a covering for tables, etc; b LINOLEUM. ⓒ 17c.

oil colour ⊳ noun OIL PAINT.

oil drum ⊳ noun a cylindrical metal barrel for containing or transporting oil.

oiled ⊳ adj 1 smeared, treated, lubricated or impregnated with oil. 2 preserved in oil. 3 slang drunk □ He was well oiled last night.

oiler ⊳ noun 1 a person or thing that oils. 2 an OIL CAN. 3 (oilers) originally US colloq oilskins; oilskin garments. 4 US colloq an OIL WELL. 5 a a vehicle or vessel driven by oil; b a vehicle or vessel that carries oil.

oilfield ⊳ noun an area of land that contains reserves of petroleum, especially one that is already being exploited.

oil-fired ⊳ adj said of central heating, etc: using oil as a fuel.

oil gland ⊳ noun a gland that secretes oil, especially the uropygial or coccygeal gland in birds that produces a secretion used in preening.

oilier, oiliest, oilily and oiliness see under OILY oilman ⊳ noun 1 a man who deals in oil. 2 a man who owns an oil well. 3 (also oil worker) someone involved in the operation of an oil well or oil rig, etc.

oil paint ⊳ noun paint made by mixing ground pigment with oil, often linseed oil.

oil painting ⊳ noun 1 a picture painted with oil paints. 2 the activity or art of painting in oils. • no oil painting colloq said of a person: not very attractive.

oil palm ⊳ noun a W African palm tree, the fruit-pulp of which is a source of palm-oil.

oil pan ⊳ noun, mech the sump in an internal-combustion engine.

oil paper ⊳ noun paper that has been oiled, eg to make it waterproof.

oil platform ⊳ noun a steel and/or concrete structure, either fixed or mobile, used in offshore drilling to support the rig and to keep stores, etc.

oil rig ⊳ noun 1 the complete installation, required for drilling oil wells, including the equipment and machinery, etc that it supports. 2 loosely a mobile oil platform. Also called rig.

oil sand ⊳ noun sand or sandstone that occurs naturally impregnated with petroleum.

oilseed ⊳ noun any of various seeds, eg sesame and castor bean, etc from which oil is extracted.

oilseed rape ⊳ noun an annual plant with bluish-green leaves and vivid yellow flowers, the seed of which contains large amounts of oil and is used in margarine, cooking oils and some lubricating oils.

oil shale ⊳ noun, geol a fine-grained sedimentary rock containing high levels of organic matter, from which an oily substance can be distilled by heating the shale in the absence of air.

oilskin ⊳ noun 1 cloth treated with oil to make it waterproof. 2 (often oilskins) an outer garment made of oilskin. ⓒ 18c.

oil slick see SLICK noun 1 oilstone ⊳ noun a whetstone used with oil.

oil tanker ⊳ noun a large ship for carrying oil in bulk.

oil well ⊳ noun a well, usually a vertical one, bored in the ground or sea-bed to extract petroleum (mineral oil) from underground deposits.

oil worker see under OILMAN oily ▷ adj (oilier, oiliest) 1 a like oil; greasy; b containing or consisting of oil. 2 soaked in or covered with oil. 3 derog said of a person or behaviour, etc: smooth; unctuous; servile and flattering. • oilily adverb. • oiliness noun.

oink /ɔɪŋk/ ▷ noun 1 a representation of the characteristic grunting noise made by a pig. 2 a sound similar to this. Also as exclamation. ▷ verb (oinked, oinking) intr to make this noise. © 1940s: imitating the sound.

oino- and oin- see OENO-ointment /'ɔɪntmənt/ ▷ noun any greasy or oily semi-solid preparation, usually medicated, that can be applied externally to the skin in order to heal, soothe or protect it. • a fly in the ointment see under FLY[1]. © 14c: from French oignement from Latin unguentum unguent, from unguere to anoint.

Oireachtas /'ɛrəxθəs/ ▷ noun 1 a cultural festival held each year by the Gaelic League of Ireland. 2 the legislature or parliament of the Republic of Ireland, consisting of the president, Seanad and Dáil. © Early 20c: Irish Gaelic, meaning 'assembly'.

OK[1] ▷ abbreviation, US state Oklahoma. Also written Okla.

OK[2] or okay /oʊ'keɪ/ colloq, originally US, ▷ adj all correct; all right; satisfactory □ an okay song. ▷ adverb well; satisfactorily. ▷ exclamation expressing agreement or approval; yes, certainly □ OK! I'll do it! ▷ noun (OKs, OK's or okays) approval, sanction or agreement. ▷ verb (OK'd or OK'ed, Ok'ing; okayed, okaying) (often give something the OK) to approve or pass something as satisfactory. © 19c: probably from American English oll korrect, a facetious spelling of all correct.

okapi /oʊ'kɑːpɪ/ ▷ noun (okapis or okapi) a ruminant animal from central Africa, the only living relative of the giraffe but with a shorter neck, that has a reddish- or blackish-brown coat, with thick irregular horizontal black and white stripes on the hindquarters and upper parts of the legs. © Early 20c: the native name.

okey-doke /'oʊkɪ'doʊk/ or okey-dokey ▷ adverb ▷ adj, exclamation, colloq OK; fine. © 1930s.

Okla see OK[1]

okra /'ɒkrə, 'oʊkrə/ ▷ noun (okras) 1 a tall annual plant native to tropical Africa that has red and yellow flowers. 2 the edible fruit of this plant, consisting of long green seed pods, used in soups and stews, etc. Also called gumbo, lady's finger. 3 a dish prepared using these seedpods. © 18c: from a W African name.

-ol ▷ suffix, forming nouns, denoting 1 a substances that are alcohols or compounds analogous to ALCOHOLS; b substances derived from or related to PHENOLS. 2 oils and oil-based substances.

old /oʊld/ ▷ adj (older or elder, oldest or eldest) 1 advanced in age; that has existed for a long time; not young. 2 having a stated age □ five years old. 3 belonging or relating to the end period of a long life or existence □ old age. 4 (the old) old people as a group (see THE 4b). 5 worn out or shabby through long use □ old shoes. 6 no longer in use; out of date; old-fashioned. 7 belonging to the past. 8 former or previous; earliest of two or more things □ went back to see their old house. 9 of long standing or long existence □ an old member of the society. 10 familiar, practised or skilled through long experience □ the same old excuses. 11 with the characteristics, eg experience, maturity or appearance, of age □ be old beyond one's years. 12 (Old) said of a language: that is the earliest form known or recorded □ Old English. 13 colloq, jocular used in expressions of familiar affection or contempt, etc □ good old Bill □ silly old fool. 14 colloq used for emphasis □ any old how. 15 colloq (usually high old, rare old, etc) used for emphasis: great; excessive □ rare old time. ▷ noun an earlier time □ men of old. • oldish adj. • as old as the hills colloq very old. • little old colloq a familiar affectionate or jocular way of referring to someone or something. • of old formerly; a long time ago. © Anglo-Saxon eald.

> older
>
> See Usage Note at elder.

old age ▷ noun the later part of life.

old age pension see under RETIREMENT PENSION. • old age pensioner noun (abbreviation OAP).

Old Bailey ▷ noun the Central Criminal Court in London, where the most serious cases are usually tried.

old bean ▷ noun Brit, colloq an affectionate form of address, usually to a man.

the Old Bill see THE BILL

old boy ▷ noun 1 Brit a former male pupil of a school. 2 colloq an elderly man. 3 colloq an affectionate or familiar form of address to a man.

old boy network ▷ noun, Brit the system by which former members of the same public school secure advantages for each other in later life. See also OLD SCHOOL TIE.

old country ▷ noun an immigrant's country of origin.

old dear ▷ noun, slang, often derog 1 an old woman. 2 one's mother.

olden /'oʊldən/ ▷ adj, archaic former; past □ in olden days.

Old English see under ANGLO-SAXON

Old English sheepdog ▷ noun a breed of dog developed in Britain in the 18c to protect cattle, having a large body, with the hindquarters higher than the shoulders, and a long shaggy coat, usually white with large dark patches, often hiding the ears and eyes.

older and oldest see under OLD olde-worlde /'oʊldɪ'wɜːldɪ/ ▷ adj said of appearance, decorative style, etc: self-consciously imitative of the past or supposed past □ an olde-worlde inn.

old-face see under OLD STYLE old-fashioned ▷ adj 1 belonging to, or in a style common to, some time ago; out of date. 2 said of a person: in favour of, or living and acting according to, the habits and moral views of the past. 3 chiefly Scot & dialect said of a child: with grown-up manners; precocious. ▷ noun, N Amer a cocktail made from whisky, bitters, water and sugar. • old-fashionedness noun.

old flame ▷ noun, colloq a former boyfriend or girlfriend.

old girl ▷ noun 1 Brit a former female pupil of a school. 2 colloq an elderly woman. 3 colloq an affectionate or familiar form of address to a girl or woman.

Old Glory ▷ noun, US colloq a nickname for the US flag, the Stars and Stripes. © 19c.

old gold ▷ noun a dull yellowish colour like that of tarnished gold. Also (old-gold) as adj.

old guard ▷ noun the original or most conservative members of a society, group or organization.

old hand ▷ noun, colloq 1 an experienced person; an expert. 2 an ex-convict.

old hat ▷ adj, colloq tediously familiar or well known.

Old High German ▷ noun (abbreviation OHG) 1 the oldest form of official and literary German with written records dating from the 8c AD. 2 High German up to c.1200. See also GERMANIC, HIGH GERMAN.

oldie /'oʊldɪ/ ▷ noun (oldies) colloq 1 an old person. 2 something, eg a song or film, etc that is old or familiar.

old lady ▷ noun, slang a person's wife or mother.

old lag ▷ noun, Brit slang a habitual criminal.

old maid ▷ noun 1 derog colloq a woman who is not married and is thought of as being unlikely ever to marry; a spinster. 2 derog, colloq a woman or man who is prim and fussy. 3 a a simple card game in which players pass and match up pairs of cards; b the player left with the unpaired card at the end of the game. • old-maidish adj. • old-maidishly adverb.

old man ▷ noun 1 slang someone's husband or father. 2 colloq an affectionate form of address for a man or boy, usually only said by a man addressing another man. 3 colloq someone in command, eg the captain of a merchant ship; a boss. 4 theol unregenerate human nature. 5 SOUTHERNWOOD. 6 Austral a full-grown male kangaroo.

old man's beard ▷ noun any of various plants with long trailing parts, especially TRAVELLER'S JOY.

old master ▷ noun, art 1 any of the great European painters from the period stretching from the Renaissance to about 1800. 2 a painting by one of these painters.

old moon ▷ noun the moon in its last quarter, before the NEW MOON.

Old Nick ▷ noun, colloq the devil. ⓘ 18c.

Old Norse ▷ noun (abbreviation ON) the old N Germanic language from around 700 AD to 1350 AD from which the Scandinavian languages are derived.

Old Persian ▷ noun the old form of Persian spoken in the area of present-day Iran from around 1000 BC, and with surviving written records from *c.*6c BC. See also FARSI, IRANIAN LANGUAGES.

old rose ▷ noun 1 any of several varieties of rose existing before the development of hybrid tea roses. 2 a deep pink colour. Also (old-rose) as adj. ⓘ 19c.

old school ▷ noun 1 a person's former school. 2 a group of people or section of society with traditional or old-fashioned ways of thinking, ideas or beliefs, etc. Also (old-school) as adj.

old school tie ▷ noun 1 a tie with a characteristic pattern or colour worn by former members of a public school. 2 Brit a the values, attitudes and traditionalism, etc associated with public schools; b the system by which former members of the same public school do favours for each other in later life. See also OLD BOY NETWORK.

oldster /ˈoʊldstə(r)/ ▷ noun, colloq an old or elderly person. ⓘ 19c.

old story ▷ noun (often the old story or the same old story) something which one has often heard before, especially an excuse, or something negative which has often happened before.

Old Style ▷ noun a former method of calculating dates using the JULIAN CALENDAR. Compare NEW STYLE.

old style ▷ noun, printing a typeface modelled on, but with a more regular design than, old-face (a typeface with little contrast between thick and thin strokes).

old-style ▷ adj outmoded; outdated □ old-style propaganda.

Old Testament ▷ noun the first part of the Christian Bible, containing the Hebrew scriptures. See table at BIBLE. Compare NEW TESTAMENT.

old-time ▷ adj belonging to or typical of the past; old-fashioned.

old-timer ▷ noun, colloq 1 someone who has been in a job, position or profession, etc, for a long time; a veteran. 2 an old-fashioned person. 3 US especially as a form of address: an old man.

old wives' tale ▷ noun an old belief, superstition or theory considered foolish and unscientific. ⓘ 17c.

old woman ▷ noun, slang 1 someone's wife or mother. 2 derog a person, especially a man, who is timid or fussy. • old-womanish adj characteristic of or like an old woman, especially in being fussy.

Old World ▷ noun the Eastern hemisphere, comprising Europe, Asia and Africa, which forms that part of the world known before the discovery of the NEW WORLD. Also (Old-World) as adj.

old-world ▷ adj belonging to earlier times, especially in being considered quaint or charming; not modern □ old-world charm.

olé /oʊˈleɪ; Spanish oˈle/ ▷ exclamation 1 especially associated with Spanish dancing and bullfighting, etc: expressing approval, support or encouragement, etc. 2 an expression of triumph. ▷ noun (olés) a cry of 'olé'. ⓘ 1920s: Spanish, meaning 'bravo'.

oleaceous /oʊlɪˈeɪʃəs/ ▷ adj, bot relating or belonging to the Oleaceae /-ʃiiː/, a family of trees and shrubs that includes the olive, ash, jasmine and privet. ⓘ 19c: from Latin olea olive tree.

oleaginous /oʊlɪˈadʒɪnəs/ ▷ adj 1 like or containing oil; oily. 2 producing oil. 3 unctuous; obsequious. • oleaginousness noun. ⓘ 17c: from Latin oleaginus from oleum oil.

oleander /oʊlɪˈandə(r)/ ▷ noun a poisonous shrub with leathery evergreen leaves and clusters of fragrant white, pink or purple flowers. Also called rosebay. ⓘ 16c: Latin.

olearia /oʊlɪˈɛərɪə/ ▷ noun (olearias) 1 an Australasian evergreen shrub of the COMPOSITE family, with white, yellow or mauve daisy-like flowers. 2 colloq a daisy-tree or bush. ⓘ 19c: named after Johann Gottfried Olearius (1635–1711), a German theologian and horticulturalist.

oleaster /oʊlɪˈastə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 strictly the true wild olive. 2 any of several small European trees. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon: Latin, from olea olive tree.

oleate /ˈoʊlɪeɪt/ ▷ noun, chem a salt or ester of oleic acid. ⓘ 19c.

olefin /ˈoʊlɪfɪn/ ▷ noun, chem ALKENE. ⓘ 19c: from French oléfiant (in gaz oléfiant), from oléfier to make oil.

oleic acid /oʊˈliːɪk —/ ▷ noun, chem an unsaturated fatty acid, a colourless tasteless oily liquid that occurs in most natural fats and is used in making soap, cosmetics and oils, etc. ⓘ 19c: from Latin oleum oil + -IC.

oleiferous /oʊlɪˈɪfərəs/ ▷ adj producing or yielding oil, as eg seeds do. ⓘ 19c: from Latin oleum oil + -FEROUS.

olein /ˈoʊlɪːɪn/ ▷ noun, chem a glycerine ester of oleic acid. ⓘ 19c: from French oléine, from Latin oleum oil + -IN.

oleo /ˈoʊlɪoʊ/ ▷ noun (oleos) short form of OLEOGRAPH or OLEOMARGARINE.

oleo- /oʊlɪoʊ/ ▷ combining form, denoting oil. ⓘ From Latin oleum oil.

oleograph /ˈoʊlɪoʊgrɑːf/ ▷ noun, historical a lithograph printed in oil colours to imitate an oil painting. • oleography noun. ⓘ 19c.

oleomargarine ▷ noun 1 a yellow fatty substance obtained from beef tallow and used in making margarine and soap, etc. 2 US margarine. ⓘ 19c.

oleophilic /oʊlɪoʊˈfɪlɪk/ ▷ adj 1 with an affinity for oils or oily substances. 2 wetted by oil rather than water. ⓘ 1960s.

oleraceous /ɒləˈreɪʃəs/ ▷ adj 1 of the nature of a pot-herb or culinary vegetable. 2 obtained from a pot-herb. ⓘ 17c: from Latin (h)oleraceus, from (h)olus or (h)oleris a pot-herb or vegetable.

oleum /ˈoʊlɪəm/ ▷ noun (oleums or olea /ˈoʊlɪə/) chem a solution of sulphur trioxide in sulphuric acid. Also called fuming sulphuric acid. ⓘ Early 20c: Latin, meaning 'oil'.

O-level and Ordinary level ▷ noun, formerly 1 an examination in a subject usually taken at the end of the fifth year of school, now replaced by GENERAL CERTIFICATE OF SECONDARY EDUCATION. 2 a pass in this examination.

olfactory /ɒl'faktərɪ/ ▷ adj relating to the sense of smell. ▷ noun (usually olfactories) an organ or nerve of smell. ⓘ 17c: from Latin olfacere to smell, from olere to smell + facere to make.

olfactronics /ɒlfak'trɒnɪks/ ▷ singular noun the precise detection, analysis and measurement of odours by means of electronic devices. ⓘ 1960s: from Latin olfacere, olfactum to smell, modelled on ELECTRONICS.

olibanum /ɒ'lɪbənəm/ ▷ noun an aromatic gum obtained from trees found especially in Somaliland and Arabia; a kind of FRANKINCENSE. ⓘ 14c: Latin, perhaps from Greek libanos frankincense.

oligarchy /'ɒlɪgɑːkɪ/ ▷ noun (oligarchies) 1 government by a small group of people. 2 a state or organization governed by a small group of people. 3 a small group of people which forms a government. • oligarch /'ɒlɪgɑːk/ noun. • oligarchic or oligarchical adj. ⓘ 16c: from Greek oligarkhia, from oligos little or few.

oligo- /ɒlɪgoʊ, ɒlɪ'gɒ/ or (before a vowel) olig- ▷ combining form, denoting little; few in number. ⓘ From Greek oligos little or few.

Oligocene /'ɒlɪgoʊsiːn, ɒ'lɪgoʊsiːn/ geol ▷ noun the third epoch of the Tertiary period. See table at GEOLOGICAL TIME SCALE. ▷ adj 1 relating to this epoch. 2 relating to rocks formed during this epoch. ⓘ 19c.

oligopoly /ɒlɪ'gɒpəlɪ/ ▷ noun (oligopolies) econ a situation in which there are few sellers of a particular product or service, and a small number of competitive firms control the market. • oligopolistic /-'lɪstɪk/ adj. See also DUOPOLY, MONOPOLY. ⓘ 19c: from OLIGO-, modelled on MONOPOLY.

oligopsony /ɒlɪ'gɒpsənɪ/ ▷ noun (oligopsonies) econ a market situation in which only a small number of buyers exist for a particular product. • oligopsonistic adj. ⓘ 1940s: from OLIGO- + Greek opsonein to buy provisions.

oligotrophic /ɒlɪgoʊ'trɒfɪk/ ▷ adj, ecol said especially of a lake or similar habitat: with steep rocky shores and little vegetation, poor in nutrients but rich in oxygen at all levels. • oligotrophy noun. ⓘ 1930s.

olio /'oʊlɪoʊ/ ▷ noun (olios) 1 cookery a a highly spiced Spanish or Portuguese stew of different sorts of meat and vegetables; b any dish containing a mixture of many different ingredients. 2 a mixture or medley. 3 a variety show. ⓘ 17c: from Spanish olla and Portuguese olha, from Latin olla a jar or pot.

olivaceous /ɒlɪ'veɪʃəs/ ▷ adj olive-coloured; olive-green. ⓘ 18c.

olive /'ɒlɪv/ ▷ noun 1 a a small evergreen tree cultivated mainly in the Mediterranean region for its fruit and the oil obtained from the fruit; b any of several more or less similar trees. 2 the small oval edible fruit of this tree, which has a hard stone and bitter oily flesh, and is harvested either when green and unripe or when purplish-black and ripe. 3 the wood of the tree, used to make furniture. 4 (also olive green) a dull yellowish-green colour like that of unripe olives. 5 a slice of meat rolled and stuffed with onions, etc □ beef olive. ▷ adj 1 (also olive-green) dull yellowish-green in colour. 2 said of a complexion: sallow. 3 relating to or containing olives. ⓘ 13c: French, from Latin oliva olive.

olive branch ▷ noun 1 a branch of an olive tree as a symbol of peace. 2 a sign or gesture that indicates a wish for peace or reconciliation.

olive drab ▷ noun the dull grey-green colour of US army uniforms. Also (olive-drab) as adj.

olive oil ▷ noun the pale-yellow oil obtained by pressing ripe olives, used as a cooking and salad oil, and also in soaps, ointments and lubricants.

olivine /'ɒlɪviːn/ ▷ noun, geol any of a group of hard glassy rock-forming silicate minerals, typically olive-green, but sometimes yellowish or brown. ⓘ 18c.

olla /'ɒlə/ ▷ noun (ollas) 1 a jar or cooking pot. 2 short form of OLLA PODRIDA. ⓘ 17c: Spanish, from Latin olla a jar or pot.

olla podrida /ɒljəpɒ'driːdə/ ▷ noun (olla podridas) 1 cookery a Spanish mixed stew or hash of meat and vegetables. 2 an incongruous mixture or miscellaneous collection. ⓘ 16c: Spanish, literally 'rotten pot', from OLLA + podrida putrid.

olm /ɒlm, oʊlm/ ▷ noun a blind eel-like salamander, found in caves in Austria. ⓘ Early 20c: German.

ology /'ɒlədʒɪ/ ▷ noun (ologies) colloq, jocular any science or branch of knowledge. See also -LOGY. ⓘ 19c: from words such as biology, philology, etc.

-ology see -LOGY

oloroso /ɒlə'roʊsoʊ/ ▷ noun (olorosos) a golden-coloured medium-sweet sherry. ⓘ 19c: Spanish, meaning 'fragrant'.

Olympiad /ə'lɪmpɪad/ ▷ noun 1 in ancient Greece: a a period of four years, the interval from one celebration of the Olympic games to another, used as a way of reckoning time; b a celebration of the Olympic Games. 2 a celebration of the modern Olympic Games. 3 a regular international contest, especially in chess or bridge. ⓘ 14c.

Olympian /ə'lɪmpɪən/ ▷ noun 1 Greek mythol any of the twelve ancient Greek gods thought to live on Mount Olympus in N Greece. 2 someone who competes in the Olympic Games. 3 a citizen or inhabitant of ancient Olympia, a plain in Greece. 4 a godlike person. ▷ adj 1 Greek mythol relating or belonging to Mount Olympus or to the ancient Greek gods thought to live there. 2 relating or belonging to ancient Olympia, or its inhabitants. 3 godlike, especially in being superior or condescending in behaviour or manners. ⓘ 17c: from Greek Olympios, from Greek Olympos Olympus.

Olympic /ə'lɪmpɪk/ ▷ adj 1 relating to the Olympic Games. 2 relating to ancient Olympia. ⓘ 17c: from Greek Olympikos.

Olympic Games ▷ singular or plural noun 1 historical games celebrated every four years at Olympia in Greece, that included athletic, musical and literary competitions. 2 (also the Olympics) a modern international sports competition held every four years.

OM ▷ abbreviation, Brit (Member of the) Order of Merit.

om /oʊm, ɒm/ ▷ noun, Hinduism, Buddhism a sacred syllable intoned in mantras and prayers, etc that symbolizes the Vedic scriptures, the three worlds (Earth, atmosphere and air), and the Absolute. ⓘ 18c: Sanskrit.

-oma /'oʊmə/ ▷ suffix (-omas or -omata /-mətə/) forming nouns, denoting a tumour or abnormal growth, etc □ carcinoma. ⓘ Greek.

omasum /oʊ'meɪsəm/ ▷ noun (plural omasa /-sə/) zool the third stomach of a ruminant; the psalterium or manyplies. ⓘ 18c: Latin, meaning 'bullock's tripe'.

ombre or (US) omber /'ɒmbə, 'ɒmbreɪ/ ▷ noun a card game popular in the 17th and 18th centuries. ⓘ 17c: from Spanish hombre man, with reference to the player who tries to win the stakes.

ombré /'ɒmbreɪ/ ▷ adj said of fabric, etc: with colours gradually shading into each other. ▷ noun (ombrés) a fabric, etc that has such shading. ⓘ 19c: French, from ombrer to shade.

ombudsman /'ɒmbʊdzmən/ ▷ noun an official appointed to investigate complaints against public authorities, government departments or the people who work for them, especially such a person in Britain, officially called a Parliamentary Commissioner for Administration. ⓘ Early 20c: Swedish, meaning 'legal representative' or 'commissioner'.

-ome /oʊm/ ▷ suffix, forming nouns, denoting a mass □ rhizome □ biome. ⓘ Variant of -OMA.

omega /'oʊmɪgə; US oʊ'mɛgə/ ▷ noun 1 the 24th and last letter of the Greek alphabet, pronounced as a long

Ologies

This list contains some of the words ending in -logy (usually -ology) that denote areas of knowledge and study. Other words having the same form, eg apology and eulogy, are not included.

anthropology study of human societies and cultures archaeology study of ancient civilizations astrology study of planetary influences on human life bacteriology study of bacteria biology study of living things campanology study of bells; bell-ringing chronology study of historical dates; a list of dates climatology study of climates cosmology study of the universe criminology study of crime and criminals cytology study of plant and animal cells deltiology study or collecting of picture postcards demonology study of demons dendrochronology study of dating from tree-rings dermatology study of the skin and skin diseases ecology study of living things in relation to their environment embryology study of embryos entomology study of insects epistemology study and theory of human knowledge escapology study of methods of escape ethnology study of peoples and cultures etymology study or description of word origins and development gemmology study of gems genealogy study of family history geology study of the Earth's structure gynaecology study of diseases relating to women haematology study of blood and blood diseases histology study of plant and animal tissues horology study of clocks and time-keeping ideology study of ideas; ideas or doctrines immunology study of the immune system lexicology study of word meanings meteorology study of the Earth's atmosphere and weather microbiology study of micro-organisms mineralogy study of minerals musicology study of music mycology study of fungi mythology study of myths; myths neurology study of the nervous system oenology study of wines oncology study of tumours ontology study of the nature of being ophthalmology study of the eye ornithology study of birds palaeontology study of fossils parapsychology study of psychic phenomena pathology study of human diseases petrology study of rocks pharmacology study of medicines and drugs phonology study of speech sounds physiology study of life processes psephology study of election results and trends psychology study of the human mind and behaviour radiology study of radioactivity and radiation Sinology study of Chinese language and culture seismology study of earthquakes sexology study of human sexuality sociology study of human society theology study of religion toxicology study of poisons ufology study of UFOs urology study of the urinary system vinology study of grape-vines virology study of viruses open o. See table at GREEK ALPHABET. 2 the last of a series; a conclusion. ⓘ 16c: from Greek o mega, literally 'great O'; compare OMICRON.

omelette or (N Amer, especially US) omelet /ˈɒmlət/ ▷ noun, cookery a dish made of beaten eggs fried in a pan, often folded round a savoury or sometimes sweet filling such as cheese or jam. ⓘ 17c: French, from amelette altered, from alemelle a thin plate, from Latin lamella or lamina.

omen /ˈoʊmən/ ▷ noun 1 a circumstance, phenomenon, etc that is regarded as a sign of a future event, either good or evil. 2 threatening or prophetic character ▫ bird of ill omen. ▷ verb (omened, omening) to portend. • omened adj, in compounds with omens of a specified kind ▫ ill-omened. See also OMINOUS. ⓘ 16c: Latin.

omentum /oʊˈmɛntəm/ ▷ noun (plural omenta) anat abdominal lining linking the intestinal tract to other organs. ⓘ 16c: Latin.

omertà /oʊˈmɛətə/ ▷ noun 1 the Mafia code of honour that requires silence about criminal activities and stresses the disgrace of informing. 2 a criminal conspiracy of silence. ⓘ 19c: Italian, a dialect form of umiltà humility.

omicron /ˈɒmɪkrɒn, oʊ-, ˈmaɪkrɒn/ ▷ noun the 15th letter of the Greek alphabet, pronounced as a short o. See table at GREEK ALPHABET. ⓘ 17c: from Greek o mikron, literally 'little O'; compare OMEGA.

ominous /ˈɒmɪnəs/ ▷ adj threatening; containing a warning of something evil or bad that will happen. • ominously adverb. • ominousness noun. ⓘ 16c: from Latin ominosus, from omen omen.

omission /əˈmɪʃən/ ▷ noun 1 something that has been left out or neglected. 2 the act of leaving something out or neglecting it. • omissive adj. ⓘ 14c: from Latin omissio, from omittere to omit.

omit /əˈmɪt/ ▷ verb (omitted, omitting) 1 to leave something out, either by mistake or on purpose. 2 to fail to do something. • omissible adj referring to something that may be omitted. ⓘ 15c: from Latin omittere, from ob- in front + mittere to send.

ommateum /ɒməˈtiːəm/ ▷ noun (plural ommatea /-ˈtiːə/) entomol a COMPOUND EYE. ⓘ 19c: Latin, from Greek omma, ommatos an eye.

ommatidium /ɒməˈtɪdɪəm/ ▷ noun (plural ommatidia /-dɪə/) entomol a simple conical element of a COMPOUND EYE. ⓘ 19c. omni- /ɒmnɪ/ ▷ combining form, signifying all, every or everywhere. ⓘ From Latin omnis all or every.

omnibus /ˈɒmnɪbəs, ˈɒmnɪbʌs/ ▷ noun (omnibuses /-sɪz/) 1 old use or formal a BUS. 2 (also omnibus book or omnibus volume) a book that contains reprints of a number of works by a single author, or several works on the same subject or of a similar type. 3 (also omnibus edition or omnibus programme) a TV or radio programme made up of or edited from the preceding week's editions of a particular serial. ▷ adj said especially of a legislative bill: relating to, dealing with or made up of several different items or parts. ⓘ 19c: Latin, meaning 'for all', from omnis all.

omnidirectional ▷ adj said of an antenna: equally sensitive or powerful in all directions, especially horizontally. • omnidirectionality noun. • omnidirectionally adverb. ⓘ 1920s.

omnifarious /ɒmnɪˈfɛərɪəs/ ▷ adj comprising or dealing with many different things. • omnifariously adverb. • omnifariousness noun. ⓘ 17c: from Latin omnifarius, from -farius doing.

omnific /ɒm'nɪfɪk/ and omnificent /ɒm'nɪfɪsənt/ ▷ adj all-creating. • omnificence noun. ⓘ 17c: from OMNI-, modelled on MAGNIFICENT, etc.

OMNIMAX or Omnimax /'ɒmnɪmaks/ ▷ adj, trademark said of a film: designed to be viewed on a special domed screen that provides the audience with a near-hemispherical image.

omnipotent /ɒm'nɪpətənt/ ▷ adj 1 said of God or a deity: all-powerful; with infinite power. 2 with very great power or influence. ▷ noun (the Omnipotent) God. • omnipotence noun. • omnipotently adverb. ⓘ 14c: French, from Latin omnis all + potens, potentis able or powerful.

omnipresent ▷ adj said especially of a god: present everywhere at the same time. • omnipresence noun. ⓘ 17c.

omniscient /ɒm'nɪsɪənt/ ▷ adj 1 said especially of God: with infinite knowledge or understanding. 2 with very great knowledge; knowing everything. • omniscience /-sɪəns/ noun. • omnisciently adverb. ⓘ 17c: from Latin omnis all + sciens, scientis knowing.

omnium /'ɒmnɪəm/ ▷ noun, stock exchange the aggregate value of the different stocks in which a loan is funded. ⓘ 18c: Latin, meaning 'of all'.

omnium-gatherum /'ɒmnɪəm 'gaðərəm/ ▷ noun (omnium-gatherums or omnium-gathera /-rə/) colloq, often facetious a miscellaneous collection of people or things, etc. ⓘ 16c: mock Latin, from Latin omnium 'of all' + GATHER.

omnivorous /ɒm'nɪvərəs/ ▷ adj 1 eating any type of food, especially both meat and vegetable matter. 2 taking in, reading or using, etc everything. • omnivore noun a person or animal that eats any type of food. • omnivorously adverb. • omnivorousness noun. • omnivory noun. ⓘ 17c: from Latin omnivorus, from vorare to devour.

ON ▷ abbreviation Old Norse.

on ▷ prep 1 touching, supported by, attached to, covering, or enclosing □ a chair on the floor □ a dog on a lead. 2 in or into (a vehicle, etc) □ got on the bus. 3 colloq carried with (a person) □ I've got no money on me. 4 very near to or along the side of something □ a house on the shore. 5 at or during (a certain day or time, etc) □ on Monday □ on the hour. 6 immediately after, at or before □ He found the letter on his return. 7 within the (given) limits of something □ a picture on page nine. 8 about □ a book on Jane Austen. 9 towards □ marched on the town. 10 through contact with or as a result of something □ cut oneself on the broken bottle. 11 in the state or process of something □ on fire □ on a journey. 12 using as a means of transport □ goes to work on the bus. 13 using as a means or medium □ talk on the telephone □ a tune on the piano. 14 on the occasion of something □ shoot on sight. 15 having as a basis or source □ on good authority □ arrested on suspicion. 16 working for or being a member of something □ on the committee □ work on the case. 17 at the expense of or to the disadvantage of something or someone □ treatment on the National Health □ drinks on me □ the joke's on him. 18 supported by something □ live on bread and cheese. 19 regularly taking or using something □ on tranquillizers. 20 in a specified manner □ on the cheap. 21 staked as a bet □ put money on a horse. 22 following □ disappointment on disappointment. ▷ adverb 1 said especially of clothes: in or into contact or a state of enclosing, covering, or being worn, etc □ have no clothes on. 2 ahead, forwards or towards in space or time □ go on home □ later on. 3 continuously; without interruption □ keep on about something. 4 in or into operation or activity □ put the radio on. ▷ adj 1 working, broadcasting or performing □ You're on in two minutes. 2 taking place □ Which films are on this week? 3 colloq possible, practicable or acceptable □ That just isn't on. 4 colloq talking continuously, especially to complain or nag □ always on at him to try harder. 5 in favour of a win □ odds of 3 to 4 on. 6 cricket on the side of the field towards which the bat is facing, usually the batsman's left and the bowler's right. Opposite of OFF 6. • be on to someone or something colloq 1 to realize their importance or intentions. 2 to be in touch with them □ We'll be on to you about the party on Saturday. • get on to someone colloq to get in touch with them. • just on almost exactly □ have collected just on £50. • on and off now and then; occasionally. • on and on continually; at length. • on time promptly; at the right time. • on to (also ONTO) to a position on or in. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon.

-on ▷ combining form denoting 1 physics an elementary particle □ neutron. 2 chem a molecular unit □ codon.

onager /'ɒnədʒə(r), 'ɒnəgə(r)/ ▷ noun a variety of wild ass found in central Asia. ⓘ 14c: Latin, from Greek onagros, from onos an ass + agrios wild.

onanism /'oʊnənɪzəm/ ▷ noun 1 sexual intercourse in which the penis is withdrawn from the vagina before ejaculation; coitus interruptus. 2 masturbation. • onanist noun. • onanistic adj. ⓘ 18c: named after the Biblical character Onan, son of Judah, who practised coitus interruptus (Genesis 38.9).

ONC ▷ abbreviation Ordinary National Certificate, a qualification in a technical subject, more or less equivalent to an A-level.

once /wʌns/ ▷ adverb 1 a a single time □ I'll say this only once; b on one occasion □ They came once. 2 multiplied by one. 3 at some time in the past; formerly □ lived in London once. 4 chiefly with negatives or conditionals ever; at any time □ if once you are late. 5 by one degree of relationship □ hasn't once visited □ a cousin once removed. ▷ conj as soon as; when once or if once □ Once you have finished you can go out. ▷ noun one time or occasion □ just this once. • all at once 1 suddenly. 2 all at the same time; simultaneously. • at once 1 immediately; without any delay. 2 all at the same time; simultaneously. • for once on this one occasion if on no other; as an exception. • once again or once more one more time, as before. • once and for all or once for all for the last time; now and never again. • once in a way or while occasionally; rarely. • once or twice a few times. • once upon a time the usual way to begin fairy tales: at a certain time in the past. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon anes, originally meaning 'of one', from an one.

once-over ▷ noun, colloq 1 a quick, often casual, examination or appraisal □ give the car the once-over. 2 a violent beating. • give someone or something the once-over to beat them violently. ⓘ Early 20c.

oncer /'wʌnsə(r)/ ▷ noun, colloq 1 a someone or something that does a particular thing only once; b something that happens only once. 2 old use a £1 note. 3 Austral a an MP who is considered likely to serve only one term; b the election of such an MP. ⓘ 19c.

onchocerciasis /ɒŋkoʊsɜ'kaɪəsɪs/ ▷ noun, pathol a human disease, common in tropical regions of America and Asia, caused by infestation by a filarial worm that is transmitted by various species of blackfly, and characterized by subcutaneous nodules and often blindness. Also called river blindness. ⓘ Early 20c: Latin, from Greek onkos a hook or barb + kerkos a tail.

onco- /'ɒŋkoʊ/ ▷ combining form, signifying swelling, especially tumours. ⓘ From Greek onkos bulk, mass or swelling.

oncogene /'ɒŋkoʊdʒiːn/ ▷ noun, genetics a gene that causes a normal cell to develop into a cancerous cell, or to multiply in an uncontrolled manner. ⓘ 1960s.

oncogenesis /ɒŋkoʊ'dʒɛnɪsɪs/ ▷ noun the formation of cancerous tumours. • oncogenic /ɒŋkoʊ'dʒɛnɪk/ adj 1 relating to oncogenesis. 2 causing tumours. ⓘ 1930s.

oncology /ɒŋˈkɒlədʒɪ/ ▷ noun the branch of medicine that deals with the study of tumours, especially cancerous ones. • oncologist noun. ⓘ 19c.

oncoming ▷ adj approaching; advancing □ oncoming traffic. ▷ noun an approach.

oncost ▷ noun (often oncosts) overhead expenses. Also as adj.

OND ▷ abbreviation Ordinary National Diploma, a qualification in a technical subject reached after a two-year full-time or sandwich course, recognized by many professional institutions.

on-drive cricket ▷ noun a drive to the on side (see ON adj 6). ▷ verb, tr & intr to drive to the on side. ⓘ 19c.

one /wʌn/ ▷ noun 1 a the cardinal number 1; b the quantity that this represents, being a single unit. 2 a unity or unit. 3 any symbol for this, eg 1, I. 4 the age of one. 5 something, especially a garment or a person, whose size is denoted by the number 1. 6 the first hour after midnight or midday □ Come at one o'clock □ 1pm. 7 a score of one point. 8 colloq a story or joke □ heard the one about the singing policeman? 9 (one for something) colloq an enthusiast of the specified thing □ She's quite a one for chess. 10 colloq a drink, especially an alcoholic one □ drop in for a quick one. 11 colloq a daring, remarkable or cheeky person □ You are a one! ▷ adj 1 being a single unit, number or thing. 2 being a particular person or thing, especially as distinct from another or others of the same kind □ lift one leg and then the other. 3 being a particular but unspecified instance or example □ visit him one day soon. 4 being the only such □ the one woman who can beat her. 5 same; identical □ of one mind. 6 undivided; forming a single whole □ They sang with one voice. 7 first □ page one. 8 colloq an exceptional example or instance of something □ That was one big fellow. 9 totalling one. 10 aged one. ▷ pronoun 1 (often referring to a noun already mentioned or implied) an individual person, thing or instance □ buy the blue one. 2 anybody □ One can't do better than that. 3 formal or facetious I; me □ One doesn't like to pry. • all one just the same; of no consequence □ It's all one to me. • at one with someone or something 1 in complete agreement with them. 2 in harmony with them □ at one with nature. • be one up on someone colloq to have an advantage over them. • for one as one person □ I for one don't agree. • all in one 1 together; combined; as one unit or object, etc. 2 in one go or attempt. • just one of those things an unfortunate event or situation that must be accepted. • one and all everyone without exception. • one and only used for emphasis: only. • one another used as the object of a verb or preposition when an action takes place between two (or more than two) people, etc □ Chris and Pat love one another. • one by one one after the other; individually. • one or two colloq a few. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon an.

> one another
>
> See Usage Note at each.

-one /oʊn/ ▷ combining form, chem signifying certain compounds, especially Ketones □ acetone.

one-armed bandit ▷ noun a fruit machine with a long handle at the side which is pulled down hard to make the machine work. ⓘ 1930s.

one-horse ▷ adj 1 using a single horse. 2 colloq small, poor and of little importance □ a one-horse town.

one-horse race ▷ noun a race or competition, etc in which one particular competitor or participant is certain to win.

oneiric or oniric /oʊˈnaɪərɪk/ ▷ adj belonging or relating to dreams or dreaming. ⓘ 19c: from Greek oneiros a dream.

one-liner ▷ noun, colloq a short amusing remark or joke made in a single sentence. ⓘ Early 20c.

one-man, one-woman and one-person ▷ adj consisting of, for or done by one person □ a one-person tent.

one-man band ▷ noun a musician who carries and plays several instruments simultaneously.

oneness /ˈwʌnnɪs/ ▷ noun 1 the state or quality of being one; singleness. 2 agreement. 3 the state of being the same. 4 the state of being unique.

one-night stand ▷ noun 1 a performance given only once in any place, the next performance taking place elsewhere. 2 colloq a sexual encounter that lasts only one night.

one-off colloq, chiefly Brit ▷ adj made or happening, etc on one occasion only. ▷ noun something that is one-off. ⓘ 1930s.

one-on-one see ONE-TO-ONE one-parent family ▷ noun a family that consists of a child or children and one parent, the other parent being dead or estranged.

one-person see ONE-MAN

one-piece ▷ adj said of a garment, especially a swimsuit: made as a single piece as opposed to separate parts. ▷ noun a garment, especially a swimsuit, made in such a way. Compare BIKINI.

onerous /ˈoʊnərəs, ˈɒnərəs/ ▷ adj 1 heavy; difficult to do or bear; oppressive. 2 law said of a contract, etc: with or involving a legal burden or obligation. • onerously adverb. • onerousness noun. ⓘ 14c: from Latin onerosus, from onus burden.

oneself /wʌnˈself/ and one's self ▷ pronoun 1 the reflexive form of ONE (pronoun) □ not able to help oneself. 2 the emphatic form of ONE (pronoun) □ One hasn't been there oneself. 3 one's normal self □ not feeling oneself after an operation. • by oneself on one's own; alone. ⓘ 16c.

one-sided ▷ adj 1 said of a competition, etc: with one person or side having a great advantage over the other. 2 seeing, accepting, representing or favouring only one side of a subject or argument, etc; unfair; partial. 3 greater or more developed on one side. 4 occurring on or limited to one side only. • one-sidedly adverb. • one-sidedness noun.

one-step ▷ noun 1 an early form of the foxtrot in quadruple time, originating in the US. 2 a piece of music for this dance. ▷ verb, intr to dance the one-step. ⓘ Early 20c.

one-stop ▷ adj 1 said of a shop, etc: able to provide the complete range of goods or services that a customer might require. 2 said of an advisory service, consultancy, retailer, etc: providing answers to most questions concerning a particular issue or all products in a particular field, without referring the customer to another department, company, etc □ one-stop advisory service □ one-stop house-purchase service.

one-time ▷ adj former; past □ one-time lover.

one-to-one ▷ adj 1 with one person or thing exactly corresponding to or matching another. 2 in which a person is involved with only one other person □ one-to-one teaching. N Amer equivalent ONE-ON-ONE.

one-track ▷ adj 1 with only a single track. 2 colloq said of a person's mind: a incapable of dealing with more than one subject or activity, etc at a time; b obsessed with one idea. ⓘ 1920s.

one-two ▷ noun, colloq 1 boxing the delivery of a blow with one fist quickly followed by a blow with the other. 2 football, hockey, etc a move in which one player passes the ball to another then runs forward to receive the ball as it is immediately passed back again. ⓘ Early 19c.

one-up ▷ adj, colloq with a particular advantage over someone else. ⓘ Early 20c.

one-upmanship ▷ noun, humorous the art of gaining psychological, social or professional advantages over other people. ⊙ 1952: a term coined by Stephen Potter.

one-way ▷ adj 1 a said of a road or street, etc: on which traffic is allowed to move in one direction only; b relating to or indicating such a traffic system □ one-way sign. 2 said of a feeling or relationship: not returned or reciprocated. 3 said of an agreement, etc: not involving any reciprocal action or obligation. 4 N Amer, especially US said of a ticket: valid for travel in one direction only; SINGLE (noun 4). 5 said of a window, glass or mirror, etc: able to be seen through from one side only and which appears from the other side to be a mirror.

one-woman see ONE-MAN

onfall ▷ noun an attack; an onslaught.

onflow ▷ verb, intr to flow on. ▷ noun 1 a flowing on. 2 an onward flow. ⊙ 19c.

ongoing ▷ adj 1 in progress; going on. 2 continuing. 3 current. ▷ noun 1 the action of going on. 2 (ongoings) a proceedings; b behaviour, especially misbehaviour; goings-on. ⊙ 17c.

onion /'ʌnjən/ ▷ noun 1 any of numerous varieties of a biennial plant belonging to the lily family, native to SW Asia. 2 the edible bulb of this plant, which consists of white fleshy scales and a pungent oil, surrounded by a brown papery outer layer, and is eaten raw, cooked or pickled. 3 the long tubular leaves of a young onion plant (called a SPRING ONION), eaten as a salad vegetable. ● onion-like adj. ● oniony adj. ● know one's onions colloq to know one's subject or job well. ⊙ 14c: from Anglo-Norman union, from French oignon, from Latin unio unity, a large pearl, or an onion.

onion dome ▷ noun, archit a bulb-shaped dome topped with a sharply tapering point, characteristic of Orthodox, especially Russian and Byzantine, church architecture. ⊙ 1940s.

oniric see ONEIRIC

on-licence ▷ noun a licence to sell alcoholic drink for consumption on the premises. Compare OFF-LICENCE.

on-line ▷ adj 1 computing said of a peripheral device, eg a printer: connected to and controlled by the central processor of a computer. Also as adverb □ The telephone banking service went on line last year. Compare OFF-LINE. 2 said of a service, etc: run with a direct connection to and interaction with a computer □ on-line shopping. ⊙ 1950s.

onlooker ▷ noun someone who watches and does not take part; an observer. ● onlooking adj. ⊙ 17c.

only /'oʊnlɪ/ ▷ adj 1 without any others of the same type. 2 said of someone: having no brothers or sisters. 3 colloq best □ Flying is the only way to travel. ▷ adverb 1 not more than; just. 2 alone; solely. 3 not longer ago than; not until □ only a minute ago. 4 merely; with no other result than □ I arrived only to find he had already left. ▷ conj 1 but; however □ Come if you want to, only don't complain if you're bored. 2 if it were not for the fact that □ I'd come too, only I know I'd slow you down. ● if only I wish □ If only you could be on time for once. ● only too very; extremely □ only too ready to help. ⊙ Anglo-Saxon anlic.

o.n.o. ▷ abbreviation or near offer; or nearest offer.

on-off ▷ adj said of a switch: able to be set to one of only two positions, either 'on' or 'off'.

onomasticon /ɒnoʊ'mastɪkɒn/ ▷ noun, linguistics a dictionary or collection of proper names, especially personal ones. ⊙ 18c: from Greek onomastikos relating to names, from onoma a name.

onomastics /ɒnoʊ'mastɪks/ ▷ singular noun, linguistics the study of the history, development and geographical distribution of proper names, including eg personal first names and surnames, place names, home names, and the names of boats, trains and pets. ⊙ 1930s.

onomatopoeia /ɒnəmatə'piːə/ ▷ noun 1 the formation of words whose sounds imitate the sound or action they represent, eg boo, hiss, squelch. 2 a word formed in this way. 3 rhetoric the use, for rhetorical effect, of words whose sounds help to suggest their meaning. ● onomatopoeic adj IMITATIVE. ● onomatopoeically adverb. ⊙ 16c: Latin, from Greek onomatopoios, from onoma name + poieein to make.

onrush ▷ noun a sudden and strong movement forward. ⊙ 19c.

onscreen ▷ adj ▷ adverb relating to information that is displayed on a TV screen or VDU. ⊙ 1980s.

onset /'ɒnset/ ▷ noun 1 an attack; an assault. 2 a beginning, especially of something unpleasant. 3 phonetics a the movement of the speech organs in preparation for or at the beginning of the articulation of a sound; b the consonant or group of consonants at the beginning of a syllable. ⊙ 1930s in sense 3; 16c.

onshore ▷ adverb /ɒn'ʃɔː(r)/ towards, on, or on to the shore. ▷ adj /'ɒnʃɔː(r)/ 1 said of the wind: blowing or moving from the sea towards the shore. 2 found or occurring on the shore or land. ⊙ 19c.

onside ▷ adj, adverb, football, rugby, etc said of a player: in a position where the ball may legally be played; not offside. Also written on-side. Compare OFFSIDE. ⊙ 19c.

onslaught /'ɒnslɔːt/ ▷ noun a fierce attack; an onset. ⊙ 17c: from Dutch aenslag, from aan on + slag a blow.

on-stage ▷ adj, adverb on the stage and visible to the audience.

on-stream or onstream ▷ adj /'ɒnstriːm/ said of an industrial plant or process, etc: relating to normal production. ▷ adverb /ɒn'striːm/ in operation or ready to go into operation. ⊙ 1930s.

Ont. ▷ abbreviation, Canadian province Ontario.

onto ▷ prep on to (see under ON). ● be onto someone to be suspicious or aware of their (usually underhand) actions.

onto- /ɒntə, ɒn'tɒ/ ▷ combining form, signifying being; existence. ⊙ From Greek ont-, on being (present participle of einai to be).

ontogenesis /ɒntoʊ'dʒenəsɪs/ ▷ noun, biol the history of the development of an individual living organism, from fertilization of the ovum to sexual maturity. Compare PHYLOGENESIS. ● ontogenetic adj. ● ontogenetically adverb. ⊙ 19c.

ontogeny /ɒn'tɒdʒənɪ/ ▷ noun, biol 1 ONTOGENESIS. 2 the branch of science that deals with ontogenesis. ● ontogenic /-'dʒenɪk/ adj. ● ontogenically adverb. ⊙ 19c.

ontology /ɒn'tɒlədʒɪ/ ▷ noun, philos the branch of metaphysics that deals with the nature and essence of things or of existence. ● ontologic /ɒntə'lɒdʒɪk/ or ontological adj. ● ontologically adverb. ⊙ 18c.

onus /'oʊnəs/ ▷ noun (onuses) a responsibility or burden □ The onus is on you to prove it. ⊙ 17c: Latin, meaning 'burden'.

onward /'ɒnwəd/ ▷ adj moving forward in place or time; advancing. ▷ adverb (also onwards) 1 towards or at a place or time which is advanced or in front; ahead. 2 forward. 3 continuing to move forwards or progress.

onyx /'ɒnɪks/ ▷ noun, geol a very hard variety of agate with straight alternating bands of one or more colours, eg a form with black and white bands widely used to make jewellery and ornaments. ⊙ 13c: Latin, from Greek, meaning 'nail'.

oo- or oö- /oʊə, oʊ'ɒ/ ▷ combining form, denoting egg or ovum. ⊙ From Greek oion egg or ovum.

o/o ▷ abbreviation offers over.

oocyte /ˈouəsaɪt/ ▷ noun, biol a cell that gives rise to an ovum by two meiotic divisions. Primary oocytes are diploid and undergo meiosis to give secondary oocytes which are haploid, and meiosis of a secondary oocyte produces an ovum. ⓘ 19c.

oodles /ˈuːdəlz/ ▷ plural noun, colloq lots; a great quantity ▫ oodles of money. ⓘ 19c.

oof ▷ noun, slang money. ⓘ 19c: possibly from Yiddish ooftish, from German auf (dem) Tisch.

oogamy /ouˈɒgəmɪ/ ▷ noun, biol a form of sexual reproduction in which a large non-motile female gamete (the ovum or egg cell) is fertilized by a small motile male gamete. ● oogamous adj. ⓘ 19c.

oogenesis /ouəˈdʒɛnəsɪs/ ▷ noun, biol the production and development of an ovum in the ovary of an animal. ⓘ 19c.

ooh /uː/ ▷ exclamation expressing pleasure, surprise, excitement or pain. ▷ verb (oohed, oohing) (often ooh and aah) to make an ooh sound to show surprise or excitement, etc. ⓘ Early 20c.

oolite /ˈouəlaɪt/ ▷ noun, geol 1 a sedimentary rock, usually a form of limestone, consisting of masses of small round particles, known as ooliths or ooids, that resemble fish eggs. 2 (also Oolite) stratigraphically the upper part of the Jurassic in Britain, consisting largely of oolites. ● oolitic /-ˈlɪtɪk/ adj. ⓘ 18c: from French oölithe, from Latin oolites, literally 'egg stone'.

oology /ouˈɒlədʒɪ/ ▷ noun the science or study of birds' eggs. ● oological adj. ● oologist noun. ⓘ 19c: from Latin oologia: see OO- + -LOGY.

oolong or oulong /ˈuːlɒŋ/ ▷ noun a variety of black China tea that is partly fermented before it is dried and has the flavour of green tea. ⓘ 19c: from Chinese wu black + long dragon.

oomiak see UMIAK.

oompah or oom-pah /ˈuːmpɑː, ˈumpɑː/ ▷ noun, colloq a common way of representing the deep sound made by a large brass musical instrument, such as a tuba. ⓘ 19c.

oomph /umf, uːmf/ ▷ noun, colloq 1 energy; enthusiasm. 2 personal attractiveness, especially sex appeal. ⓘ 1930s.

oophorectomy /ouəfəˈrɛktəmɪ/ ▷ noun (oophorectomies) surgery removal of one or both ovaries. ⓘ 19c: from Latin oophoron ovary.

oophoritis /ouəfəˈraɪtɪs/ ▷ noun, pathol inflammation of the ovary. ⓘ 19c: from Latin oophoron ovary, from Greek oiphoros egg-bearing.

oops /ups, uːps/ ▷ exclamation, colloq expressing surprise or apology, eg when one makes a mistake or drops something, etc. ⓘ 1930s.

oops-a-daisy see UPS-A-DAISY.

oorial see URIAL.

oospore /ˈouəspɔː(r)/ ▷ noun 1 biol a fertilized ovum. 2 bot in certain algae and fungi: the zygote that is produced as a result of OOGAMY, which has a thick protective outer wall and contains food reserves. ⓘ 19c.

ooze[1] /uːz/ ▷ verb (oozed, oozing) 1 intr to flow or leak out gently or slowly. 2 intr said of a substance: to give out moisture. 3 to give out (a liquid, etc) slowly. 4 to overflow with (a quality or feeling); to exude ▫ oozed charm. ▷ noun 1 anything which oozes. 2 a slow gentle leaking or oozing. 3 an infusion of bark and other vegetable matter used for tanning leather. ● oozy adj (oozier, ooziest) damp; giving out moisture. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon wos sap or juice.

ooze[2] /uːz/ ▷ noun 1 soft boggy ground. 2 mud or slime, especially the kind found on the beds of rivers or lakes. 3 geol a layer of fine organic sediments and shells of diatoms, etc that accumulates very slowly on the ocean floor over millions of years. ● oozy adj (oozier, ooziest) like or containing ooze; slimy. ● oozily adverb. ● ooziness noun. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon wase marsh or mire.

OP ▷ abbreviation 1 military observation post; observation point. 2 theat opposite prompt. 3 Ordo Praedicatorum (Latin), Order of Preachers, the DOMINICAN Order.

op ▷ noun, colloq 1 a surgical operation. 2 a military operation. ⓘ 1920s: short form.

op. ▷ abbreviation opus.

opacity /ouˈpasɪtɪ/ ▷ noun 1 opaqueness. 2 the state of having an obscure meaning and being difficult to understand. 3 dullness; obtuseness. See also OPAQUE. ⓘ 16c: from Latin opacitas, from opacus opaque.

opah /ˈoupə/ ▷ noun a large brilliantly coloured sea-fish with a laterally flattened body. Also called kingfish or moonfish. ⓘ 18c: W African.

opal /ˈoupəl/ ▷ noun, geol a milky-white, black or coloured form of SILICA, combined with variable amounts of water, usually with a characteristic internal 'play' of coloured flashes caused by light reflected from different layers within the stone. They are used as gemstones. ⓘ 16c: from French opale or Latin opalus, perhaps ultimately from Sanskrit upala precious stone.

opalescent /oupəˈlɛsənt/ ▷ adj reflecting different colours as the surrounding light changes, like an opal; with a milky iridescence. ● opalescence noun. ⓘ 19c.

opaline /ˈoupəliːn, -laɪn/ ▷ adj OPALESCENT. ▷ noun 1 a whitish semi-translucent glass. 2 translucent glass of some other colour. ⓘ 18c.

opaque /ouˈpeɪk/ ▷ adj (opaquer, opaquest) 1 not allowing light to pass through; not transparent or translucent. 2 not transmitting other forms of radiation, such as sound or heat, etc. 3 difficult to understand; obscure. 4 impervious to sense; dull or unintelligent. ▷ noun 1 something, eg a space or medium, that is opaque. 2 an eye-shade. 3 photog a a substance used to block out areas of a negative; b a print made on opaque paper. ▷ verb (opaqued, opaquing) 1 to make something opaque. 2 photog to block out (areas of a negative) by means of an opaque. ● opaquely adverb. ● opaqueness noun. See also OPACITY. ⓘ 15c: from Latin opacus dark or shaded.

Op Art ▷ noun (in full Optical Art) a modern art movement that exploits the illusions created by abstract compositions of spirals, grids, undulating lines, stripes, spots, etc to produce sensations of movement, space and volume. ⓘ 1960s.

op. cit. /ɒp ˈsɪt/ ▷ abbreviation: opere citato (Latin), in the work already quoted, used in footnotes, etc to refer to the last citation that is given.

ope /oup/ archaic or poetic ▷ adj OPEN. ▷ verb (oped, oping) tr & intr to OPEN. ⓘ 15c.

OPEC /ˈoupɛk/ ▷ abbreviation Organization of Petroleum Exporting Countries.

open /ˈoupən/ ▷ adj 1 a said of a door or barrier, etc: not closed or locked; b said of a building or an enclosed space, etc: allowing people or things to go in or out, with its door or gate, etc not closed or locked. 2 said of a container, etc: a not sealed or covered; b with the insides visible ▫ an open cupboard. 3 said of a space or area of land, etc: a not enclosed, confined or restricted ▫ the open sea; b unobstructed ▫ an open view. 4 not covered, guarded or protected ▫ an open wound. 5 expanded, spread out or unfolded ▫ an open newspaper. 6 said of a shop, etc: receiving customers; ready for business. 7 said of a river or port, etc: a free from ice or frost; unfrozen; b not closed for any other reason. 8 said of the climate or a season: free from frost. 9 sport a said of a player: not marked by a member of the opposing team; b said of a goal, etc: unguarded or unprotected; c said of a game or style of play, etc: with the action or players spread out over the field of play. 10 phonetics a said of a vowel: produced with the tongue positioned low in the mouth; b see separate entry OPEN SYLLABLE. 11 said of cloth or a texture, etc: with a lot of small openings or gaps; loose. 12 music a said of a string: not stopped by a finger; b said of a note: played on an open string, or without holes on the instrument being covered. 13 math a see separate entry OPEN SET; b said of an interval in the real line: without either of its end points. 14 astron said of the universe: with a negative or zero radius of curvature; always expanding; infinite. 15 generally known; public. 16 (usually open to something) liable or susceptible to it; defenceless against it □ leave oneself open to abuse. 17 said of a competition: not restricted; allowing anyone to compete or take part, especially both amateurs and professionals. 18 free from restraint or restrictions of any kind □ the open fishing season. 19 said of a problem or discussion, etc: not finally decided; still to be settled. 20 unprejudiced □ have an open mind. 21 (usually open to something) amenable to or ready to receive (eg new ideas or impressions) □ open to suggestion. 22 said of a person: ready and willing to talk honestly; candid. ▷ verb (opened, opening) 1 a to unfasten or move (eg a door or barrier) to allow access; b intr said of a door or barrier, etc: to become unfastened to allow access. 2 tr & intr to become or make something become open or more open, eg by removing obstructions, etc. 3 (also open out or open something out) tr & intr to spread it out or become spread out or unfolded, especially so as to make or become visible. 4 tr & intr to start or begin working □ The office opens at nine. 5 to declare something open with an official ceremony □ open the new hospital. 6 tr & intr to begin or start speaking or writing, etc □ opened his talk with a joke. 7 to arrange (a bank account, etc), usually by making an initial deposit. 8 tr & intr, cricket to begin (the batting) for one's team. 9 intr, law said of legal counsel: to make a preliminary statement about a case before beginning to call witnesses. 10 cards to bet or bid on a hand first. ▷ noun 1 (the open) an area of open country; an area not obstructed by buildings, etc. 2 (the open) public notice or attention (especially bring something into the open or out into the open). 3 (Open) often in compounds a sports contest which both amateurs and professionals may enter □ the British Open. ■ openable adj. ■ opener and opening see separate entries. ■ openly adverb 1 in an open way. 2 without trying to hide anything; in a direct and honest manner. ■ openness noun. ■ open and above board thoroughly honest or legal. ■ open fire to start shooting. ■ with open arms warmly; cordially □ welcomed him with open arms. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon.

■ open into or onto something to provide access to it.

■ open out or up to begin to reveal one's feelings and thoughts or to behave with less restraint.

■ open up 1 to open the door. 2 to open a shop for the day. 3 to start firing. 4 said of a game, etc: to become more interesting as it develops.

■ open something up 1 to make it more accessible or available. 2 said especially of a vehicle or engine, etc: to increase its speed.

■ open up something to someone to reveal (one's thoughts or mind, etc) to them.

open access ▷ noun a system that allows members of the public direct access to the material on the shelves of a library. Also (open-access) as adj.

open air ▷ noun unenclosed space outdoors. ▷ adj (open-air) in the open air; outside □ open-air theatre.

open-and-shut ▷ adj easily proved, decided or solved □ an open-and-shut case.

open book ▷ noun 1 anything that can be easily read or interpreted. 2 someone who keeps no secrets and is easily understood.

opencast mining ▷ adj using or relating to a method in which the substance to be mined, eg coal or copper, is exposed by removing the overlying layers of material, without the need for shafts or tunnels. ▷ noun a mine where such a method is used.

open chain ▷ noun, chem a chain of atoms, the ends of which are not joined together to form a RING (noun 17).

open cheque ▷ noun 1 a cheque that is not made out for a stated amount. 2 formerly an uncrossed cheque.

open circuit ▷ noun an electrical circuit that has been disrupted such that no current flow exits. Compare SHORT CIRCUIT.

open cluster ▷ noun, astron a cluster of several hundred to several thousand relatively young stars that are usually loosely distributed. Compare GLOBULAR CLUSTER.

open court ▷ noun, law a court whose proceedings are carried out in public. Also as adverb. Compare IN CAMERA.

open day ▷ noun a day when members of the public can visit an institution (eg a school) that is usually closed to them.

open door ▷ noun 1 free unrestricted admission or access. 2 a policy or practice of allowing immigrants free access to a country. 3 a policy or practice of granting other nations equal trading opportunities with a country. ▷ adj (open-door) 1 said of policy or a system, etc: providing or allowing, etc freedom of access; unrestricted. 2 done openly or publicly.

open-ended ▷ adj 1 with an open end or ends. 2 said of a contract or arrangement, etc: with no limits or restrictions, eg of time, set in advance. 3 said of a question or debate, etc: not limited to strictly 'yes' or 'no' answers; allowing for free expression of opinion. ■ open-endedness noun.

opener ▷ noun 1 a device for opening something. Often in compounds □ bottle-opener □ tin-opener. 2 someone who opens something. 3 cards a player who opens the bidding or betting. 4 cricket either of the two batsmen who begins the batting for their team. 5 the first item on a programme. 6 an opening remark, etc. 7 (openers) cards cards that entitle the person holding them to open the betting. ■ for openers colloq to start with.

open-eyed ▷ adj 1 with the eyes wide open, eg in surprise or amazement. 2 fully aware; watchful.

open fire see FIRE

open fracture see COMPOUND FRACTURE open-handed ▷ adj generous. ■ open-handedly adverb. ■ open-handedness noun.

open-hearted ▷ adj 1 honest, direct and hiding nothing; candid. 2 kind; generous. ■ open-heartedly adverb. ■ open-heartedness noun.

open-hearth process ▷ noun, metallurgy a traditional steelmaking process in which hot flames heat a shallow open hearth containing pig iron, malleable scrap iron and a flux, in a furnace with a low roof.

open-heart surgery ▷ noun surgery performed on a heart that has been stopped and opened up while the blood circulation is maintained by a heart-lung machine.

open house ▷ noun the state of being willing to welcome and entertain visitors at any time □ keep open house.

opening ▷ noun 1 the act of making or becoming open. 2 a hole or gap, especially one that can serve as a passageway. 3 a beginning or first stage of something. 4 theat the first performance of a play or opera, etc. 5 chess a recognized sequence of moves played at the beginning of a game. 6 an opportunity or chance. 7 a vacancy. 8 law a preliminary statement about a legal case made by counsel before witnesses are called. 9 the two pages that are exposed together when a book, etc is opened. 10 chiefly US an area of ground in a forest, etc in which there are very few or no trees. Brit equivalent CLEARING. ▷ adj relating to or forming an opening; first □ opening night at the opera □ opening batsman.

opening time ▷ noun the time at which a public house, bar or hotel, etc can legally begin to sell alcoholic drinks.

open learning ▷ noun a system of education based on independent or part-time study, etc rather than on formally taught classes.

open letter ▷ noun a letter, especially one of protest, addressed to a particular person or organization, etc but intended to be made public, eg through publication in a newspaper or magazine.

openly see under OPEN

open market ▷ noun a market in which buyers and sellers are allowed to compete without restriction.

open marriage and open relationship ▷ noun a marriage or relationship in which the partners agree that each of them may have sexual relationships with other people. ⓘ 1970s.

open-minded ▷ adj willing to consider or receive new ideas; unprejudiced. • open-mindedly adverb. • open-mindedness noun.

open-mouthed ▷ adj 1 with an open mouth, especially in surprise or amazement. 2 greedy. 3 clamorous.

openness see under OPEN open-plan ▷ adj said of a building or office, etc: with few internal walls and with large undivided rooms.

open prison ▷ noun a prison which allows prisoners who are considered to be neither dangerous nor violent greater freedom of movement than in normal prisons.

open question ▷ noun a matter that is undecided; a question on which differences of opinion are allowable.

open relationship see OPEN MARRIAGE open sandwich ▷ noun a sandwich without a slice of bread on top.

open season ▷ noun 1 a specified period of the year in which particular animals, birds or fish, etc may be legally killed for sport. 2 colloq a period during which there are no restrictions on a particular activity.

open secret ▷ noun something that is supposedly a secret but that is in fact widely known.

open sesame ▷ noun a means of gaining access to something which is otherwise out of one's reach. ⓘ 19c: the magical words by which, in the story of Ali Baba and the Forty Thieves (from the Arabian Nights' Entertainments), the door of the robbers' den was made to open.

open set ▷ noun, math a set which excludes the limits that define that set. Compare CLOSED SET.

open shop ▷ noun a firm or business, etc that does not oblige its employees to belong to a trade union. See also CLOSED SHOP.

open side rugby ▷ noun the part of the field between the scrum, etc and the farther touch-line. ▷ adj (open-side) during scrums, etc: positioned in that part of the field.

open-skies or open-sky ▷ adj, military said of system or policy: 1 that allows for reciprocal freedom for aerial inspection of military establishments, etc. 2 that allows aircraft of any nation to fly over a particular territory.

open stage ▷ noun, theat a stage that is in the same space as the auditorium, especially a raised platform built against one wall of the auditorium, surrounded on three sides by the audience.

open syllable ▷ noun, phonetics a syllable ending in a vowel. Compare CLOSED SYLLABLE.

open-toe and open-toed ▷ adj said of a shoe or sandal: without a covering (on the upper) for the toes.

open-top and open-topped ▷ adj said especially of a vehicle: without a top or a fixed top.

the Open University ▷ noun in the UK: a university founded in 1969 that broadcasts lectures by TV and radio, holds summer schools and awards degrees to mature students who study mainly by correspondence.

open verdict ▷ noun, law a verdict given by the coroner's jury at the end of an inquest that death has occurred, but without giving details of whether it was suicide, accidental or murder, etc.

openwork ▷ noun work in cloth, metal or wood, etc constructed so as to have gaps or holes in it, used especially for decoration.

opera[1] /ˈɒpərə/ ▷ noun (operas) 1 a dramatic work set to music, in which the singers are usually accompanied by an orchestra. 2 the score or libretto, etc of such a work. 3 operas as an art-form. 4 a theatre where opera is performed. 5 a company that performs opera. • operatic /ɒpəˈratɪk/ adj 1 relating to or like opera. 2 dramatic or overly theatrical; exaggerated. • operatically adverb. ⓘ 17c: Italian, from Latin, meaning 'work' or 'a work', from opus work.

opera[2] plural of OPUS operable and operability see under OPERATE opera buffa /ˈɒpərə ˈbuːfə/ ▷ noun (operas buffa) comic opera in the form that developed in Italy in the 18c, characterized by a less formal style, light subject matter, and characters and plot drawn from everyday life. ⓘ 18c: Italian, meaning 'comic opera'.

opéra comique /ˈɒpərə kɒˈmiːk/ ▷ noun (opéras comiques /ˈɒpərə kɒˈmiːk/) a type of French opera, originally humorous and later also romantic or tragic, with some spoken dialogue. ⓘ 18c: French, meaning 'comic opera'.

opera glass and opera glasses ▷ noun small binoculars used at the theatre or opera, etc.

opera hat ▷ noun a man's collapsible top hat.

opera house ▷ noun a theatre specially built for the performance of opera.

operand /ˈɒpərand/ ▷ noun, math, logic a quantity on which an OPERATION (sense 7) is performed. ⓘ 19c: from Latin operandum, from operari to work.

operant /ˈɒpərənt/ formal or technical ▷ adj operative; producing effects. ▷ noun 1 someone or something that operates; an operator. 2 psychol behaviour that is spontaneous as opposed to being a response to stimulus. ⓘ 15c.

opera seria /— ˈsɪərɪə/ ▷ noun (operas seria) a type of opera common in the late 17c and throughout most of the 18c, characterized by its formality, elaborate arias, and use of noble, often classical or mythological, themes. ⓘ 19c: Italian, meaning 'serious opera'.

operate /ˈɒpəreɪt/ ▷ verb (operated, operating) 1 intr to function or work. 2 to make (a machine, etc) function or work; to control its functioning. 3 (usually operate on something) intr to produce an effect or have an influence on it. 4 to manage, control or direct (a business, etc). 5 (usually operate on someone) intr to perform a surgical operation on them. 6 intr to perform military, naval or police, etc operations. • operable adj 1 medicine said of a disease or injury, etc: that can be treated by surgery. 2 that can be operated. • operability noun. ⓘ 17c: from Latin operari, operatus to work.

operatic and operatically see under OPERA[1] operating system ▷ noun, computing (abbreviation OS) a software system that controls all the main activities of a computer.

operating table ▷ noun a special table on which surgery is performed.

operating theatre and operating room ▷ noun the specially equipped room in a hospital, etc where surgical operations are performed.

operation /ɒpəˈreɪʃən/ ▷ noun 1 an act, method or process of working or operating. 2 the state of working or being active □ The factory is not yet in operation. 3 an activity; something done. 4 an action or series of actions which have a particular effect. 5 medicine any surgical procedure that is performed in order to treat a damaged or diseased part of the body (often shortened to op). 6 (often operations) one of a series of military, naval or police, etc actions, usually involving a large number of people, performed as part of a much larger plan (often shortened to op). 7 math a specific procedure, such as addition or multiplication, whereby one numerical value is derived from another value or values. 8 computing a series of actions that are specified by a single computer instruction. 9 a financial transaction. ◎ 14c: French, meaning 'action' or 'deed'.

operational ▷ adj 1 relating to an operation or operations. 2 able or ready to work or perform an intended function. 3 military ready for use in, or already involved in, operations. 4 math relating to or using operators. 5 philos relating to or in accordance with operationalism. • operationally adverb. ◎ 1920s.

operationalism or operationism ▷ noun, philos the theory that defines scientific concepts by means of the operations used to prove or determine them. • operationalist or operationist noun, adj. ◎ 1930s.

operational research and operations research ▷ noun (abbreviation OR) the analysis of problems in business and industry in order to bring about more efficient work practices. ◎ 1940s.

operative /ˈɒpərətɪv/ ▷ adj 1 working; in action; having an effect. 2 said of a word: especially important or significant □ 'Must' is the operative word. 3 relating to a surgical operation. ▷ noun 1 a worker, especially one with special skills. 2 N Amer, especially US a private detective. • operatively adv. • operativeness noun.

operator ▷ noun 1 someone who operates a machine or apparatus. 2 someone who operates a telephone switchboard, connecting calls, etc. 3 someone who runs a business. 4 math any symbol used to indicate that a particular mathematical operation is to be carried out, eg × which shows that two numbers are to be multiplied. 5 colloq a calculating, shrewd and manipulative person.

operculum /oʊˈpɜːkjʊləm/ ▷ noun (plural opercula) 1 zool a in some gastropods: a horny plate that covers the opening of the shell; b in bony fishes: a flap that protects the gills. 2 bot a cover or lid. • opercular adj. • operculate adj having an operculum. ◎ 18c: Latin, meaning 'lid' or 'covering', from operire to cover.

operetta /ɒpəˈrɛtə/ ▷ noun (operettas) a short light opera, with spoken dialogue and often dancing. • operettist noun a composer of operettas. ◎ 18c: Italian, a diminutive of OPERA¹.

ophidian /ɒˈfɪdɪən/ zool ▷ adj 1 belonging or relating to the suborder of reptiles Ophidia that includes snakes. 2 relating to snakes; snakelike. ▷ noun a snake. ◎ 19c: from Greek ophis snake.

ophio- /ɒfɪoʊ, ɒfɪˈɒ/ or (before a vowel) ophi- ▷ combining form, signifying snake. ◎ From Greek ophis snake.

ophite /ˈɒfaɪt/ ▷ noun, geol igneous rock in which large silicate crystals completely enclose smaller FELDSPARS. • ophitic /ɒˈfɪtɪk/ adj. ◎ 17c: from Latin ophites, from Greek ophis a snake, because of its serpentine markings.

ophthalmia /ɒfˈθalmɪə/ ▷ noun, pathol inflammation of the eye, especially of the conjunctiva. • ophthalmic adj pertaining or relating to the eye. ◎ 16c: Latin, from Greek ophthalmos eye.

ophthalmic optician ▷ noun an optician qualified both to examine the eyes and test vision, and to prescribe, make and sell glasses or contact lenses. Also called OPTOMETRIST.

ophthalmo- /ɒfθalmoʊ, ɒfθalˈmɒ/ or (before a vowel usually) ophthalm- ▷ combining form, signifying eye. ◎ From Greek ophthalmos eye.

ophthalmology /ɒfθalˈmɒlədʒɪ/ ▷ noun, medicine the study, diagnosis and treatment of diseases and defects of the eye. • ophthalmological adj. • ophthalmologist noun. ◎ 19c.

ophthalmoscope ▷ noun a device that is used to examine the interior of the eye, by directing a reflected beam of light through the pupil. • ophthalmoscopic adj. ◎ 19c.

opiate ▷ noun /ˈoʊpɪət/ 1 any of a group of drugs containing or derived from opium, eg morphine, heroin or codeine, that depress the central nervous system, and can be used as steroid ANALGESICS. 2 anything that dulls physical or mental sensation. ▷ adj soporific; sleep-inducing. ▷ verb /ˈoʊpɪeɪt/ (opiated, opiating) 1 to treat or put someone to sleep with opium. 2 to dull or deaden (sensation, etc). ◎ 16c: from Latin opiatus, from opium OPIUM.

opine /oʊˈpaɪn/ ▷ verb (opined, opining) formal to suppose or express something as an opinion. ◎ 16c: from Latin opinari to think.

opinion /əˈpɪnjən/ ▷ noun 1 a belief or judgement which seems likely to be true, but which is not based on proof. 2 (usually opinion on or about something) what one thinks about it. 3 a professional judgement given by an expert □ medical opinion. 4 estimation or appreciation □ has a high opinion of himself. • a matter of opinion a matter about which people have different opinions. • be of the opinion that … to think or believe that … ◎ 13c: from Latin opinio belief, from opinari to believe.

opinionated ▷ adj with very strong opinions that one refuses or is very unwilling to change; stubborn. • opinionatedly adverb. • opinionatedness noun.

opinion poll see under POLL.

opium /ˈoʊpɪəm/ ▷ noun 1 a highly addictive narcotic drug extracted from the dried milky juice of the unripe seed capsules of the opium poppy, used in medicine to bring sleep and relieve pain. 2 anything which has a soothing, calming or dulling effect on people's minds. ◎ 14c: Latin, from Greek opion poppy juice or opium, diminutive of opos vegetable juice.

opossum /əˈpɒsəm/ ▷ noun (opossums or opossum) 1 any of several small tree-dwelling American marsupials with thick fur, an OPPOSABLE thumb on each hindfoot and a hairless prehensile tail. 2 any of various similar marsupials, native to Australasia, such as the PHALANGER. Also called possum. ◎ 17c: from Algonquian opassom, from op white + assom dog or doglike animal.

opp. ▷ abbreviation 1 opposed. 2 opposite.

opponent /əˈpoʊnənt/ ▷ noun someone who belongs to the opposing side in an argument, contest or battle, etc. ▷ adj 1 opposed; contrary. 2 opposite in position; opposing. • opponency noun. ◎ 16c: from Latin opponens, opponentis setting before or against, from op- in the way of + ponere to place.

opportune /ˈɒpətjuːn/ ▷ adj 1 said of an action: happening at a time which is suitable, proper or correct. 2 said of a time: suitable; proper. • opportunely adverb. • opportuneness noun. ◎ 15c: from Latin opportunus, from ob- before + portus harbour, used originally of a wind blowing towards a harbour.

opportunist ▷ noun someone whose actions and opinions are governed by the particular events and circumstances, etc of the moment rather than being based on settled principles. ▷ adj referring to such actions or opinions. • opportunism noun. ◎ 19c.

opportunistic /ɒpətjʊˈnɪstɪk/ ▷ adj 1 relating to, characterized, or determined by opportunism. 2 pathol said of an infection: not affecting healthy people but attacking those whose immune system is weakened by drugs or disease.

opportunity /ɒpə'tjuːnɪtɪ/ ▷ noun (opportunities) 1 an occasion offering a possibility; a chance. 2 favourable or advantageous conditions. ⓘ 16c: from Latin opportunitas, from opportunus OPPORTUNE.

opportunity cost ▷ noun, econ the real cost of acquiring any item, which amounts to the value of an alternative item which is foregone in order to acquire the chosen item.

opposable /ə'poʊzəbəl/ ▷ adj said of a digit, especially the thumb: able to be placed in a position so that it faces and can touch the ends of the other digits of the same hand or foot. ● opposability noun. ⓘ 19c.

oppose /ə'poʊz/ ▷ verb (opposed, opposing) 1 to resist or fight against someone or something by force or argument. 2 intr to object. 3 intr to compete in a game or contest, etc against another person or team; to act in opposition. 4 to place opposite or in contrast to something, so as to counterbalance. ● opposer noun. ● opposing adj. ● as opposed to in contrast to; as distinct from. ⓘ 14c: from French opposer, from Latin opponere to set before or against.

opposite /'ɒpəzɪt/ (abbreviation opp.) ▷ adj 1 placed or being on the other side of, or at the other end of, a real or imaginary line or space. 2 facing in a directly different direction □ opposite sides of the coin. 3 completely or diametrically different. 4 referring to something that is the other of a matching or contrasting pair □ the opposite sex. 5 bot a said of leaves: arranged in pairs on a stem, so that the two members of a pair are exactly opposite each other; b said of flower parts: on the same radius. 6 math said of a side of a triangle: facing a specified angle. ▷ noun an opposite person or thing. ▷ adverb in or into an opposite position □ live opposite. ▷ prep 1 (also opposite to someone or something) in a position across from and facing them or it □ a house opposite the station. 2 said of an actor: in a role which complements that taken by another actor; co-starring with them □ played opposite Olivier. ● oppositely adverb. ● oppositeness noun. ⓘ 14c: French, from Latin opponere, oppositum; see OPPONENT.

opposite number ▷ noun someone with an equivalent position or job in another company or country, etc; a counterpart.

opposition /ɒpə'zɪʃən/ ▷ noun 1 the act of resisting or fighting against someone or something by force or argument. 2 the state of being hostile or in conflict. 3 a person or group of people who are opposed to something. 4 (usually the Opposition) a political party which opposes the party in power. Also (opposition) as adj. 5 an act of opposing or being placed opposite. 6 logic a difference of quantity or quality between two propositions with the same subject and predicate. 7 astron, astrol the position of a planet or star when it is directly opposite another, especially the Sun, as seen from the Earth. ● oppositional adj.

oppress /ə'prɛs/ ▷ verb (oppresses, oppressed, oppressing) 1 to govern with cruelty and injustice. 2 to worry, trouble or make someone anxious; to weigh heavily upon them. 3 to distress or afflict someone. ● oppression noun. ● oppressor noun. ⓘ 14c: from Latin oppressare, from op- against + premere, pressum to press.

oppressive ▷ adj 1 cruel, tyrannical and unjust □ an oppressive regime. 2 causing worry or mental distress; weighing heavily on the mind. 3 said of the weather: heavy, hot and sultry. ● oppressively adverb. ● oppressiveness noun. ⓘ 17c.

opprobrious /ə'proʊbrɪəs/ ▷ adj 1 insulting, abusive or severely critical. 2 shameful; infamous. ● opprobriously adverb. ⓘ 14c.

opprobrium /ə'proʊbrɪəm/ ▷ noun (plural in sense 2 opprobria) 1 public shame, disgrace or loss of favour; infamy. 2 anything that brings such shame or disgrace, etc. ⓘ 17c: Latin, from op- against + probrum reproach or disgrace.

oppugn /ə'pjuːn/ ▷ verb (oppugned, oppugning) to call into question; to dispute. ● oppugner noun. ⓘ 15c: from Latin oppugnare, from op- against + pugnare to fight.

opt ▷ verb (opted, opting) intr (usually opt for something or to do something) to decide between several possibilities; to choose. ⓘ 19c: from French opter, from Latin optare to choose or wish.

■ opt in to choose to take part or participate in something.

■ opt out 1 to choose not to take part in something. 2 said of a school or hospital: to leave local authority control and become, respectively, a grant maintained school or a hospital trust. See also OPT-OUT.

optative /'ɒptətɪv/ ▷ adj 1 a characterized by desire or choice; b expressing a desire or wish. 2 grammar denoting or relating to a mood expressing a desire or wish. ▷ noun, grammar 1 the optative mood. 2 a verb in this mood. ● optatively adverb. ⓘ 16c.

Optic /'ɒptɪk/ ▷ noun (also optic) trademark a device attached to the neck of an inverted bottle for measuring the amount poured out, especially for measuring amounts of alcohol. ⓘ 1920s.

optic /'ɒptɪk/ ▷ adj 1 relating to the eye or vision. 2 OPTICAL. ▷ noun, jocular the eye. ⓘ 16c: from Greek optikos, from optos seen or visible.

optical /'ɒptɪkəl/ ▷ adj 1 relating to sight or to what one sees. 2 relating to light or optics. 3 said of a lens: designed to improve vision. ● optically adverb. ⓘ 16c: from OPTIC.

optical activity ▷ noun, chem the ability of certain chemical compounds, when placed in the path of a beam of polarized light, to rotate the plane of polarization of the light to the left or to the right.

Optical Art see OP ART

optical character reader ▷ noun, computing (abbreviation OCR) a light-sensitive device for inputting data directly on to a computer by means of optical character recognition. ● optical character reading noun. ⓘ 1960s.

optical character recognition ▷ noun, computing (abbreviation OCR) the scanning, identification and recording of printed characters by a photoelectric device attached to a computer. ⓘ 1960s.

optical fibre ▷ noun, telecomm a thin flexible strand of glass that transmits energy in the form of light waves, used to convey information and nowadays used extensively in modern communications systems, ie in the cables for telephones, cable TV, etc. Compare FIBRE OPTICS. ⓘ 1960s.

optical illusion ▷ noun 1 something that has an appearance which deceives the eye. 2 a misunderstanding caused by such a deceptive appearance.

optically see under OPTICAL optician /ɒp'tɪʃən/ ▷ noun 1 (also dispensing optician) someone who fits and sells glasses and contact lenses but is not qualified to prescribe them. 2 loosely an OPHTHALMIC OPTICIAN. See also OPTOMETRIST. ⓘ 17c: from French opticien, from Latin optica optics.

optic nerve ▷ noun, anatomy in vertebrates: the second cranial nerve, responsible for the sense of vision, which transmits information from the retina of the eye to the visual cortex of the brain.

optical brightener ▷ noun any of a number of fluorescent substances that increase the whiteness or brightness of a textile.

optics /'ɒptɪks/ ▷ singular noun, physics the study of light (especially visible light, but also ultraviolet and infra-red light), including the phenomena associated with its generation, propagation and detection, and its practical applications in a range of devices and systems.

optimal /'ɒptɪməl/ ▷ adj most favourable; optimum. • optimally adverb. • optimalization noun. ◷ 19c: from Latin optimus best.

optimism /'ɒptɪmɪzəm/ ▷ noun 1 the tendency to take a bright, hopeful view of things and expect the best possible outcome. 2 philos the belief that we live in the best of all possible worlds. 3 the theory that good will ultimately triumph over evil. Compare PESSIMISM. • optimistic adj. • optimistically adverb. ◷ 18c: from French optimisme, from Latin optimus best.

optimist ▷ noun 1 someone who has a bright and hopeful nature. 2 someone who follows the doctrine of optimism.

optimize or optimise /'ɒptɪmaɪz/ ▷ verb (optimized, optimizing) 1 to make the most or best of (a particular situation or opportunity, etc). 2 to make the most efficient use of something, especially by analysing and planning. 3 intr to be optimistic or act optimistically. 4 intr to become optimal. 5 computing to prepare or modify (a computer system or program) so as to achieve the greatest possible efficiency. • optimization noun. ◷ 19c.

optimum /'ɒptɪməm/ ▷ noun (optimums or optima /-mə/) the condition, situation, amount or level, etc that is the most favourable or gives the best results. ▷ adj best or most favourable. ◷ 19c: Latin, neuter of optimus best.

option /'ɒpʃən/ ▷ noun 1 an act of choosing. 2 that which is or which may be chosen. 3 the power or right to choose ▫ You have no option. 4 commerce the exclusive right to buy or sell something, eg stocks, at a fixed price and within a specified time-limit. ▷ verb (optioned, optioning) chiefly US 1 to buy or sell something under option. 2 to have or grant an option on something. • keep or leave one's options open to avoid making a choice or committing oneself to a particular course of action. • soft option the easiest choice or course of action. ◷ 16c: French, or from Latin optio, from optare to choose.

optional ▷ adj left to choice; not compulsory. • optionally adverb.

optional extra ▷ noun an available accessory, that is useful or desirable, but not essential.

optometer /ɒp'tɒmɪtə(r)/ ▷ noun, ophthalmol a device for testing vision. ◷ 18c.

optometry /ɒp'tɒmətrɪ/ ▷ noun, ophthalmol 1 the science of vision and eyecare. 2 the practice of examining the eyes and vision. 3 the prescription and provision of glasses and contact lenses, etc for the improvement of vision. • optometric adj. • optometrist noun an OPHTHALMIC OPTICIAN. ◷ 19c: from Greek optos seen.

optophone ▷ noun /'ɒptəfoun/ a device that, by translating printed characters into arbitrary sounds, enables a blind person to interpret printed type. ◷ Early 20c.

opt-out ▷ noun 1 a the action or an act of opting out of something; b said of a school or hospital: the act of leaving local authority control. 2 TV, radio a programme broadcast by a regional station in place of the main network transmission. See also OPT. ◷ 1990s in sense 1b; 1960s in sense 2.

opulent /'ɒpjʊlənt/ ▷ adj 1 rich; wealthy. 2 luxurious. 3 abundant. • opulence noun. • opulently adverb. ◷ 16c: from Latin opulentus, from opes wealth or resources.

opuntia /oʊ'pʌnʃɪə/ ▷ noun (opuntias) a cactus of genus Opuntia, especially the PRICKLY PEAR. ◷ 17c: Latin, meaning 'of Opus', from Greek Opous, the name of a town of Locris where Pliny said it grew.

opus /'oʊpəs/ ▷ noun (opuses or opera /'ɒpərə/) (abbreviation op.) an artistic work, especially a musical composition, often used with a number to show the order in which a composer's works were written or catalogued. ◷ 18c: Latin, meaning 'work'.

OR ▷ abbreviation 1 operational research; operations research. 2 US state Oregon. Also written Ore. or Oreg. 3 military other ranks.

or[1] /ɔː(r)/ ▷ conj used to introduce: 1 alternatives ▫ red or pink or blue. 2 a synonym or explanation ▫ a puppy or young dog. 3 an afterthought ▫ She's laughing — or is she crying? 4 the second part of an indirect question ▫ Ask her whether she thinks he'll come or not. 5 because if not; or else ▫ Run or you'll be late. 6 and not ▫ never joins in or helps. • or else 1 otherwise. 2 colloq expressing a threat or warning ▫ Give it to me or else! • or rather or to be more accurate ▫ He went too, or rather I heard he did. • or so about; roughly ▫ been there two hours or so. ◷ 13c: a contraction of OTHER.

or[2] /ɔː(r)/ ▷ noun, heraldry a gold colour. ◷ 16c: French, from Latin aurum gold.

-or ▷ suffix, forming nouns, denoting a person or thing that performs an action or function ▫ actor ▫ elevator. ◷ Latin.

ora plural of OS[2]

Oracle /'ɒrəkəl/ ▷ noun, trademark a former TELETEXT service run by the Independent Broadcasting Authority. ◷ 1970s: from optional reception of announcements by coded line electronics.

oracle /'ɒrəkəl/ ▷ noun 1 in ancient Greece or Rome: a holy place where a god was believed to give advice and prophecy. 2 a priest or priestess at an oracle, through whom the god was believed to speak. 3 the usually mysterious or ambiguous advice or prophecy given at an oracle. 4 a someone who is believed to have great wisdom or be capable of prophesying the future; b a statement made by such a person. • oracular /ɒ'rakjʊlə(r)/ adj 1 relating to or like an oracle. 2 difficult to interpret; mysterious and ambiguous. 3 prophetic. ◷ 14c: from Latin oraculum, from orare to speak or pray.

oracy /'ɔːrəsɪ/ ▷ noun the ability to express oneself coherently and to communicate freely with others by word of mouth. ◷ 1960s: from ORAL, modelled on literacy.

oral /'ɔːrəl/ ▷ adj 1 spoken; not written. 2 relating to or used in the mouth. 3 said of a medicine or drug, etc: taken in through the mouth ▫ oral contraceptive. 4 psychol relating to a supposed stage of infant development, when satisfaction is obtained by sucking. ▷ noun a spoken test or examination. • orally adverb. ◷ 17c: from Latin oralis, from os, oris mouth.

oral

A word often confused with this one is aural.

oral history ▷ noun the collection and study of information about events and social conditions, etc of the past, obtained by interviewing and tape-recording people who experienced them.

oral rehydration therapy ▷ noun (abbreviation ORT) the treatment of dehydration (caused by diarrhoea, etc) by drinks of a water, glucose and salt solution.

oral sex ▷ noun sexual relations involving the use of the mouth, tongue, etc to stimulate the genitals of one's partner.

Orange /'ɒrɪndʒ/ ▷ adj 1 historical relating to the family of the princes of Orange, a former principality in S France from 11c, passing by an heiress to the house of Nassau in 1531, the territory ceded to France in 1713. 2 relating to or favouring the Orangemen (see ORANGEMAN).

orange /'ɒrɪndʒ/ ▷ noun 1 a round citrus fruit with a tough reddish-yellow outer rind or peel enclosing membranous segments filled with sweet or sharp-tasting juicy flesh that is rich in vitamin C. The sweet orange is eaten raw or squeezed for its juice, and the bitter Seville orange or bitter orange is used to make marmalade. 2 the evergreen tree, cultivated in most subtropical regions, that bears this fruit and also ORANGE BLOSSOM. 3 any of various similar trees or plants, or their fruits. 4 a reddish-yellow colour like that of the skin of an orange. 5 a pigment or dye of this colour. 6 an orange-flavoured drink. ▷ adj 1 orange-coloured. 2 orange-flavoured. ● orangey adj. ● orangish adj. ⓒ 14c: ultimately from Sanskrit naranga.

orangeade /ɒrɪn'dʒeɪd/ ▷ noun an orange-flavoured drink, usually fizzy.

orange blossom ▷ noun the fragrant white blossom of the orange tree, traditionally worn by brides, and used as a source of essential oils for perfumery.

Orangeman ▷ noun a member of a society founded in 1795 to support Protestantism in Ireland. ⓒ 18c: from William of Orange, later William III of Great Britain and Ireland.

Orange Order ▷ noun the society to which an ORANGEMAN belongs.

orange pekoe ▷ noun a type of high quality black tea made from very small leaves, grown in India and Sri Lanka. ⓒ 19c.

orangery /'ɒrɪndʒərɪ/ ▷ noun (orangeries) a greenhouse or other building in which orange trees can be grown in cool climates. ⓒ 17c.

orange squash ▷ noun an orange drink made from oranges, water and sugar, etc, usually in a highly concentrated form and drunk diluted with water.

orange stick ▷ noun a small wooden stick, originally of orangewood, used for manicuring the fingernails.

orange-tip ▷ noun any of various butterflies with an orange patch near the tip of the forewing.

orangey and orangish see under ORANGE orang-utan /ɔ'raŋətan, ɔː'raŋutan/ or orang-outang /-taŋ/ ▷ noun the only tree-dwelling great ape, found in tropical forests in Borneo and Sumatra, with long reddish hair and characteristic long strong arms. ⓒ 17c: from Malay orangutan, from orang man + hutan forest, but said not to be applied by the Malays to the ape.

orate /ɔː'reɪt/ ▷ verb (orated, orating) intr, jocular or derog 1 to make an oration. 2 to make a pompous or lengthy speech. ⓒ 17c.

oration /ɔː'reɪʃən/ ▷ noun a formal or ceremonial public speech delivered in dignified language. ⓒ 14c: from Latin oratio, from orare to speak or pray.

orator /'ɒrətə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 someone who is skilled in persuading, moving or exciting people through public speech. 2 someone who gives an oration. ⓒ 16c.

oratorial ▷ adj 1 relating to or characteristic of an orator. 2 relating to an oratorio.

oratorical /ɒrə'tɒrɪkəl/ ▷ adj 1 relating to or characteristic of an orator. 2 a relating to or like ORATORY², especially in using rhetoric; b given to using oratory. ● oratorically adverb. ⓒ 16c.

oratorio /ɒrə'tɔːrɪoʊ/ ▷ noun (oratorios) 1 a musical composition, usually based on a Biblical or religious theme or story, sung by soloists and a chorus accompanied by an orchestra, but with no scenery, costumes or acting. 2 this type of musical composition or performance as a genre. ⓒ 17c: Italian, from Latin oratorium ORATORY¹, so called because the form developed from the musical services held in the church of the Oratory of St Philip Neri in Rome.

oratory¹ /'ɒrətərɪ/ ▷ noun (oratories) a chapel or small place set aside for private prayer. ⓒ 14c: from Latin oratorium, from orare to pray or plead.

oratory² /'ɒrətərɪ/ ▷ noun 1 the art public speaking; rhetoric. 2 rhetorical style or language. ⓒ 16c: from Latin ars oratoria the art of public speaking.

orb ▷ noun 1 a globe with a cross on top that is decorated with jewels and is carried as part of a monarch's regalia. 2 anything in the shape of a globe or sphere. 3 poetic a star, the Sun or a planet. 4 poetic the eye or eyeball. ▷ verb (orbed, orbing) poetic 1 to form something into a circle or sphere. 2 to encircle something. ⓒ 16c: from Latin orbis a circle.

orbicular /ɔː'bɪkjʊlə(r)/ ▷ adj 1 approximately circular or spherical. 2 geol with the component minerals crystallized in layers of spheroidal aggregates (rhythmic crystallization). ⓒ 15c.

orbiculate /ɔː'bɪkjʊlət/ ▷ adj, bot, zool rounded; orbicular. ⓒ 18c.

orbit /'ɔːbɪt/ ▷ noun 1 astron in space: the elliptical path of one celestial body around another, eg the Earth's orbit around the Sun, or of an artificial satellite or spacecraft, etc around a celestial body. 2 physics the path of an electron around the nucleus of an atom. 3 a sphere of influence or action. 4 anatomy in the skull of vertebrates: one of the two bony hollows in which the eyeball is situated; an eye socket. 5 zool the area surrounding the eye of a bird or insect. ▷ verb (orbited, orbiting) 1 said of a celestial body, or a spacecraft, etc: to circle (the Earth or another planet, etc) in space. 2 said of an aircraft: to fly in a circle around a given point. 3 intr to move in or go into orbit. 4 to put (a spacecraft, etc) into orbit. ● orbiter noun a spacecraft or satellite that orbits the Earth or another planet but does not land on it. ⓒ 1940s as verb; 16c as noun: from Latin orbitus, from orbis circle.

orbital ▷ noun, chem any region of space outside the nucleus of an atom or molecule where there is a high probability of finding an electron. ▷ adj 1 relating to or going round in an orbit. 2 said of a road: forming a complete circle or loop round a city.

orc ▷ noun 1 any of various whales or ferocious sea creatures, eg the killer whale. 2 an ogre. ⓒ 16c: in sense 1 from French orque or Latin orca; in sense 2 perhaps from Latin Orcus hell and Italian orco demon.

Orcadian /ɔː'keɪdɪən/ ▷ noun someone who lives or was born in the Orkney Islands, a group of islands lying off NE Scotland. ▷ adj belonging or relating to the Orkney Islands. ⓒ 17c: from Latin Orcades the Orkney Islands.

orchard /'ɔːtʃəd/ ▷ noun 1 a garden or piece of land where fruit trees are grown. 2 a collection of cultivated fruit trees. ⓒ Anglo-Saxon ortgeard, from ort (representing Latin hortus garden) + geard a yard or enclosure.

orchestra /'ɔːkɪstrə/ ▷ noun (orchestras) 1 a large group of instrumentalists who play together as an ensemble, led by a conductor, usually comprising four main sections, ie STRINGS, WOODWIND, BRASS and PERCUSSION. 2 loosely a small instrumental group, eg a group of musicians playing in a restaurant. 3 (also orchestra pit) the part of a theatre or opera house where the musicians sit, usually immediately in front of, or under the front part of, the stage. 4 (also orchestral stalls) the front stalls in a theatre. 5 in the ancient Greek theatre: a semicircular area in front of the stage where the chorus danced. 6 in the ancient Roman theatre: the area in front of the stage where the senators and other important people sat. ● orchestral /ɔː'kestrəl/ adj. ● orchestralist noun. ● orchestrally adverb. ⓒ 16c: Greek, from orcheisthai to dance.

orchestrate /'ɔːkɪstreɪt/ ▷ verb (orchestrated, orchestrating) 1 to arrange, compose or score (a piece of music) for an orchestra. 2 to organize or arrange (elements of a plan or a situation, etc) so as to get the desired or best result. ● orchestration noun 1 the process or technique of orchestrating music. 2 music which has been orchestrated. 3 the way in which something is orchestrated. ● orchestrator noun. ⓘ 19c.

orchid /ˈɔːkɪd/ ▷ noun a perennial plant belonging to the family Orchidaceae, one of the largest families of flowering plants, containing about 30 000 species. Orchids are best known for their complex and exotic flowers, and for their highly sophisticated pollination mechanisms. ⓘ 19c: from Greek orchis testicle, so called because of the shape of its root-tubers.

orchil /ˈɔːtʃɪl/ or orchilla /ˈɔːtʃɪlə/ ▷ noun 1 a red or violet dye made from various lichens. 2 the lichen that yields it. Also called archil /ˈɑːtʃɪl/. ⓘ 15c.

ordain /ɔːˈdeɪn/ ▷ verb (ordained, ordaining) 1 Christianity to appoint or admit someone as priest or vicar, etc; to confer holy orders on them. 2 to order, command or decree something formally. 3 math to destine, which shows that two numbers are to be multiplied. ● ordainer noun. ● ordainment noun. See also ORDINATION. ⓘ 13c: from Latin ordinare, from ordo order.

ordeal /ɔːˈdiːl, ˈɔːdiːl/ ▷ noun 1 a difficult, painful or testing experience. 2 historical a method of trial in which the accused person was subjected to physical danger from fire or water, etc, survival of which was taken as a sign from God of the person's innocence. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon ordal judgement or verdict.

order /ˈɔːdə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 a state in which everything is in its proper place; tidiness. 2 an arrangement of objects according to importance, value or position, etc. 3 a command, instruction or direction. 4 a state of peace and harmony in society, characterized by the absence of crime and the general obeying of laws. 5 the condition of being able to function properly □ in working order. 6 a social class or rank making up a distinct social group □ the lower orders. 7 a kind or sort □ of the highest order. 8 an instruction to a manufacturer, supplier or waiter, etc to provide something. 9 the goods or food, etc supplied. 10 an established system of society □ a new world order. 11 biol in taxonomy: any of the groups, eg Carnivora (the carnivores), into which a CLASS (sense 9) is divided and which is in turn subdivided into one or more families (see FAMILY sense 7). 12 commerce a written instruction to pay money. 13 the usual procedure followed at especially official meetings and during debates □ a point of order. 14 (Order) a religious community living according to a particular rule and bound by vows. Also called religious order. 15 any of the different grades of the Christian ministry. 16 (orders) HOLY ORDERS. 17 the specified form of a religious service □ order of marriage. 18 (Order) a group of people to which new members are admitted as a mark of honour or reward for services to the sovereign or country □ Order of the British Empire. 19 any of the five classical styles of architecture (DORIC, IONIC, CORINTHIAN, TUSCAN and COMPOSITE) characterized by the way a column and entablature are moulded and decorated. ▷ verb (ordered, ordering) 1 to give a command to someone. 2 to command someone to go to a specified place □ order the regiment to Germany. 3 to instruct a manufacturer, supplier or waiter, etc to supply or provide something □ ordered the fish. 4 to arrange or regulate □ order one's affairs. 5 intr to give a command, request or order, especially to a waiter for food □ ready to order. ▷ exclamation (Order! Order!) a call for quiet, calm or proper behaviour to be restored, especially during a debate. ● a tall order colloq a difficult or demanding job or task. ● call to order 1 to request calm or attention. 2 to declare a formal meeting open. ● in order 1 in accordance with the rules; properly arranged. 2 suitable or appropriate □ Her conduct just isn't in order. 3 in the correct sequence. ● in the order of something approximately (the number specified). ● in order that so that. ● in order to do something so as to be able to do it. ● on order said of goods: having been ordered but not yet supplied. ● out of order not correct, proper or suitable. ● to order according to a customer's particular or personal requirements. ● under orders having been commanded or instructed (to do something). ⓘ 13c: from French ordre, from Latin ordo.

■ order someone about or around to give them orders continually and officiously.

■ order someone off sport to order a player to leave the field because of bad or illegal behaviour.

ordered ▷ adj 1 placed in order. 2 well organized or arranged.

orderly /ˈɔːdəlɪ/ ▷ adj 1 in good order; well arranged. 2 well behaved; quiet. ▷ noun (orderlies) 1 an attendant, usually without medical training, who does various jobs in a hospital, such as moving patients. 2 military a soldier who carries an officer's orders and messages. ● orderliness noun. ⓘ 16c.

order of battle ▷ noun the positions adopted by soldiers or ships before a battle.

order of the day ▷ noun 1 an agenda, eg for a meeting or for business in Parliament. 2 something which is necessary, normal or fashionable at a given time.

order paper ▷ noun a programme showing the order of business, especially in Parliament.

ordinal /ˈɔːdɪnəl/ ▷ noun 1 a book containing the services for the ordination of ministers. 2 RC Church a service book. 3 (also ordinal number) a number which shows a position in a sequence, eg first, second, third, etc. See also CARDINAL NUMBER. ▷ adj 1 denoting a position in a sequence of numbers. 2 biol in animal or plant classification: relating to or characteristic of an ORDER (noun 11). ⓘ 14c.

ordinance /ˈɔːdɪnəns/ ▷ noun 1 a law, order or ruling. 2 an authorized religious ceremony. ⓘ 14c: from French ordenance, from Latin ordinare to ordain.

ordinand /ˈɔːdɪnand/ ▷ noun someone who is training to become a minister of the church; a candidate for ordination. ⓘ 19c.

ordinary /ˈɔːdɪnərɪ, ˈɔːdənrɪ/ ▷ adj 1 of the usual everyday kind; unexceptional. 2 plain; uninteresting. 3 law a said of a judge or jurisdiction: by virtue of office, not by deputation; b said of a judge in Scotland: belonging to the Outer House of the Court of Session. 4 commerce said of shares or stock, etc: forming part of the common stock, entitling holders to receive a dividend from the net profits. ▷ noun (ordinaries) 1 law a judge of ecclesiastical or other causes who acts in his own right, such as a bishop or his deputy. 2 (Ordinary) RC Church a those parts of the Mass which do not vary from day to day; b a rule that prescribes or book that contains the form of divine service, especially the Mass. 3 historical a PENNY-FARTHING bicycle. 4 heraldry a one of a class of armorial charges of a simple, common or conventional kind; b a reference book of heraldic charges. ● ordinarily adverb in the normal course of events; usually; normally. ● ordinariness noun. ● in ordinary especially in titles, etc: in regular and customary attendance. ● in the ordinary way if things are as normal; usually. ● out of the ordinary unusual; strange. ⓘ 16c as adj; 13c in some noun senses: from Latin ordinarius orderly, usual, from ordo order.

Ordinary grade see O-GRADE.

Ordinary level see O-LEVEL.

ordinary seaman ▷ noun (abbreviation OS) a sailor of the lowest rank (below an ABLE SEAMAN) in the Royal Navy. See table at RANK.

ordinate /ˈɔːdɪnət/ ▷ noun, math in coordinate geometry: the second of a pair of numbers (x and y), known as the y coordinate. It specifies the distance of a point from the horizontal or x-axis. See also ABSCISSA. ⓘ 18c: from Latin ordinatus ordained.

ordination /ɔːdɪˈneɪʃən/ ▷ noun the act or ceremony of ORDAINing a priest or minister of the church.

ordnance /ˈɔːdnəns/ ▷ noun 1 heavy guns and military supplies. 2 the government department responsible for military supplies. © 14c.

ordnance datum ▷ noun (abbreviation OD) the standard sea-level of the Ordnance Survey, now taken as mean sea-level at Newlyn, Cornwall.

Ordnance Survey ▷ noun the preparation of maps by the Great Britain and N Ireland Ordnance Survey Department.

Ordovician /ɔːdoʊˈvɪʃɪən/ ▷ adj, geol denoting the second period of the Palaeozoic era, during which the first vertebrates (jawless fishes) appeared, graptolites and trilobites were abundant, and echinoderms (eg starfish and sea urchins) became more widespread. See table at GEOLOGICAL TIME SCALE. © 19c: from Latin Ordovices, the name of an ancient British tribe in N Wales.

ordure /ˈɔːdjʊə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 waste matter from the bowels; excrement. 2 anything unclean, corrupt or obscene, etc. • ordurous adj. © 14c: French, from ord foul or filthy.

Ore. or Oreg. see under OR.

ore /ɔː(r)/ ▷ noun, geol a solid naturally occurring mineral deposit from which one or more economically valuable substances, especially metals, can be extracted, and for which it is mined. © Anglo-Saxon ora unwrought metal, combined with ar brass.

oregano /ɒrɪˈɡɑːnoʊ; US əˈreɡənoʊ/ ▷ noun (oreganos) 1 a sweet-smelling Mediterranean herb, a variety of wild MARJORAM. 2 the dried, often powdered, aromatic leaves of this plant, used as a flavouring in cooking. © 18c: Spanish and American Spanish, a variant of ORIGANUM.

organ /ˈɔːɡən/ ▷ noun 1 a part of a body or plant which has a special function, eg a kidney, a leaf. 2 a usually large musical instrument with a keyboard and pedals, in which sound is produced by air being forced through pipes of different lengths. 3 any similar instrument without pipes, such as one producing sound electronically or with reeds. 4 a means of spreading information, especially a newspaper or journal of a particular group or organization, etc. 5 any instrument or means by which a purpose is achieved or a function carried out. 6 euphemistic or humorous the penis. • organist noun a person who plays the organ. © 13c: from Latin organum instrument, from Greek organon tool.

organdie or organdy /ˈɔːɡəndɪ/ ▷ noun a very fine thin cotton fabric which has been stiffened. © 19c: from French organdi.

organelle /ɔːɡəˈnel/ ▷ noun, biol in the cell of a living organism: any of various different types of membrane-bound structure, each of which has a specialized function, eg MITOCHONDRIA (see MITOCHONDRION), RIBOSOMES and CHLOROPLASTS. • organellar adj. © Early 20c: from Latin organella, from organum; see ORGAN.

organ-grinder ▷ noun a musician who plays a barrel organ in the streets for money.

organic /ɔːˈɡanɪk/ ▷ adj 1 biol, medicine, etc a relating to an organ of the body; b said of a disease: resulting from a physical or metabolic disorder, accompanied by changes in the structures involved. 2 biol relating to, derived from, or with the characteristics of a living organism. 3 agric a relating to farming practices that avoid the use of synthetic fertilizers and pesticides, etc; b relating to crops, especially fruit and vegetables, produced in this way. 4 being or formed as an inherent or natural part; fundamental. 5 systematically organized. 6 chem relating to ORGANIC CHEMISTRY. ▷ noun (usually organics) an organic compound. • organically adverb. © 16c, meaning 'serving as an organ'.

organic architecture ▷ noun architecture which appears to grow out of, or be closely linked with, the surrounding landscape.

organic chemistry ▷ noun the study of ORGANIC COMPOUNDS, eg alcohols and plastics. Compare INORGANIC CHEMISTRY.

organic compound ▷ noun, chem any of six million known chemical compounds that, with a few exceptions, contain carbon atoms arranged in chains or rings, together with smaller amounts of other elements, mainly hydrogen and oxygen.

organic farming ▷ noun a system of farming that avoids the use of industrially manufactured chemical fertilizers and pesticides.

organic fertilizer ▷ noun a fertilizer that consists of natural animal or plant products, such as manure, compost or bonemeal.

organism /ˈɔːɡənɪzəm/ ▷ noun 1 any living structure, such as a plant, animal, fungus or bacterium, capable of growth and reproduction. 2 any establishment, system or whole made up of parts that depend on each other. • organismal or organismic adj. • organismically adverb. © 18c.

organist see under ORGAN.

organization or organisation ▷ noun 1 a group of people formed into a society, union or especially a business. 2 the act of organizing. 3 the state of being organized. 4 the way in which something is organized. • organizational adj. • organizationally adverb.

organize or organise /ˈɔːɡənaɪz/ ▷ verb (organized, organizing) 1 to form something into an organic whole. 2 to give an orderly structure to something □ organized the books into a neat pile. 3 to arrange, provide or prepare □ will organize a meal □ organized the tickets. 4 to form or enrol (people or a person) into a society or organization. 5 intr to form a society or organization, especially a trade union. • organizer noun 1 someone or something that organizes. 2 a PERSONAL ORGANIZER. © 15c: from Latin organizare, from Latin organum ORGAN.

organ point see UNDER PEDAL POINT.

organ screen ▷ noun a decorated stone or wooden screen in a church, etc on which an organ is placed.

organza /ɔːˈɡanzə/ ▷ noun a very fine stiff dress material made of silk or synthetic fibres. © 19c.

organzine /ˈɔːɡənziːn/ ▷ noun 1 a silk yarn formed by twisting together two or more threads. 2 (also organzine silk) a fabric made of this yarn. © 17c: from French organsin, from Italian organzino.

orgasm /ˈɔːɡazəm/ ▷ noun 1 a the climax of sexual excitement, experienced as an intensely pleasurable sensation caused by a series of strong involuntary contractions of the muscles of the genital organs; b an instance of this. 2 rare violent excitement. ▷ verb (orgasmed, orgasming) intr to experience an orgasm. • orgasmic or orgastic adj. • orgasmically or orgastically adverb. © 17c: from French orgasme or Latin orgasmus, from Greek orgasmos swelling.

orgy /ˈɔːdʒɪ/ ▷ noun (orgies) 1 a wild party or celebration involving indiscriminate sexual activity and excessive drinking. 2 any act of excessive or frenzied indulgence □ an orgy of shopping. 3 Greek & Roman historical (usually orgies) secret rites practised during the worship of various deities, such as Dionysus or Bacchus, often involving dancing and drinking, etc. • orgiastic adj. © 16c: from Latin orgia, from Greek (in sense 3).

oribi /ˈɒrɪbɪ/ ▷ noun (oribi or oribis) a small fawn-coloured antelope found in the plains of southern and eastern Africa. © 18c: Afrikaans, probably from a native African word.

oriel /ˈɔːrɪəl/ ▷ noun 1 a small room or recess with a polygonal bay window, especially one supported on brackets or corbels. 2 (also oriel window) the window of an oriel. © 14c: from French oriol gallery.

orient /ˈɔːrɪənt/ ▷ noun 1 (the Orient) the countries in the east, especially those of E Asia regarded as culturally distinct from western countries (the OCCIDENT). 2 poetic the part of the sky where the Sun rises. Compare OCCIDENT. ▷ verb (oriented, orienting) 1 to place something in a definite position in relation to the points of the compass or some other fixed or known point. 2 to acquaint (oneself or someone) with one's position or their position relative to points known, or relative to the details of a situation. 3 to position something so that it faces east. 4 to build (a church) so that it runs from east to west. ⓘ 14c: French, from Latin oriens, orientis rising.

oriental /ɔːrɪˈɛntəl/ ▷ adj (also Oriental) from or relating to the Orient; eastern. ▷ noun (usually Oriental) a person born in the Orient; an Asiatic. ● Orientalist noun someone who studies, or is expert in, oriental culture or languages, etc.

orientate /ˈɔːrɪənteɪt/ ▷ verb (orientated, orientating) 1 to orient. 2 intr to face the east; to be oriented. ⓘ 18c.

orientation ▷ noun 1 the act or an instance of orienting or being oriented. 2 a position relative to a fixed point. 3 a person's position or attitude relative to their situation or circumstances. 4 a meeting giving information or training needed for a new situation; a briefing.

oriented ▷ adj 1 directed towards something. 2 usually in compounds interested in a specified thing ▫ career-oriented.

orienteer noun someone who takes part in orienteering. ▷ verb (orienteered, orienteering) intr to take part in orienteering.

orienteering /ɔːrɪənˈtɪərɪŋ/ ▷ noun a sport in which contestants race on foot and on skis, etc over an unfamiliar cross-country course, finding their way to official check points using a map and compass. ⓘ 1940s: from Swedish orientering, originally meaning 'orientating'.

orifice /ˈɒrɪfɪs/ ▷ noun a usually small opening or mouthlike hole, especially one in the body or body cavity. ● orificial /-ˈfɪʃəl/ adj. ⓘ 16c: from Latin orificium, from os mouth + facere to make.

oriflamme /ˈɒrɪflam/ ▷ noun, historical a small banner of red silk split into many points and carried on a gilt staff, used as the ancient royal standard of France. ⓘ 15c: French, from Latin auriflamma, from aurum gold + flamma flame.

orig. ▷ abbreviation 1 origin. 2 original. 3 originally.

origami /ɒrɪˈgɑːmɪ/ ▷ noun the originally Japanese art of folding paper into decorative shapes and figures. ⓘ 1950s: Japanese, from ori fold + kami paper.

origanum /əˈrɪgənəm/ ▷ noun any of various aromatic herbs of the marjoram genus of LABIATEs or other genus, used in cookery. See also OREGANO. ⓘ 13c: Latin, from Greek origanon, perhaps from oros mountain + ganos joy or brightness.

origin /ˈɒrɪdʒɪn/ ▷ noun 1 a beginning or starting-point; a source. 2 (usually origins) a person's family background or ancestry. 3 anatomy a the point of attachment of a muscle; b the root of a nerve in the brain or spinal column. 4 math in coordinate geometry: the point on a graph where the horizontal x-axis and the vertical y-axis cross each other, having a value of zero on both axes. 5 commerce the place or country from which a product or commodity, etc comes. ⓘ 16c: from Latin origo, originis from oriri to rise.

original /əˈrɪdʒɪnəl/ ▷ adj 1 relating to an origin or beginning. 2 existing from the beginning; earliest; first. 3 said of an idea or concept, etc: not thought of before; fresh or new. 4 said of a person: creative or inventive. 5 being the first form from which copies, reproductions or translations are made; not copied or derived, etc from something else. ▷ noun 1 the first example of something, such as a document, photograph or text, etc, which is copied, reproduced or translated to produce others, but which is not itself copied or derived, etc from something else. 2 a work of art or literature that is not a copy, reproduction or imitation. 3 a person or thing that serves as a model in art or literature. 4 an odd or eccentric person. ● originally adverb 1 in the first place, at the beginning. 2 in an original way. ⓘ 14c.

originality /ərɪdʒɪˈnalɪtɪ/ ▷ noun (originalities) 1 the quality or condition of being original. 2 the ability to create or be innovative. 3 an original act, idea or saying, etc. ⓘ 18c.

original sin ▷ noun, Christianity the supposed innate sinfulness of the human race, inherited from Adam who was disobedient to God.

originate /əˈrɪdʒɪneɪt/ ▷ verb (originated, originating) tr & intr to bring or come into being; to start. ● origination noun. ● originative adj with the power to originate or bring into existence; creative. ● originator noun an author, inventor or creator. ⓘ 17c.

oriole /ˈɔːrɪoʊl/ ▷ noun 1 any of a family of brightly coloured songbirds native to the forests of Europe, Asia and Africa, especially the golden oriole, native to Europe, so called because of the male's bright yellow and black plumage. 2 any of a separate family of songbirds, native to the New World, typically with mainly black plumage with brightly coloured patterns. ⓘ 18c: from Latin oriolus, from aureolus, from aurum gold.

Orion ▷ noun /əˈraɪən/ astron a large brilliant constellation that is visible in both hemispheres.

orison /ˈɒrɪzən/ ▷ noun, archaic or literary a prayer. ⓘ 12c: from French oreison, from Latin oratio.

orle /ɔːl/ ▷ noun 1 heraldry a a border within a shield that follows the outline at a short distance from the edge; b a number of small charges forming such a border. 2 historical the wreath or chaplet around a knight's helmet, showing the crest. ⓘ 16c: French, from ourler to hem, from Latin ora hem or border.

Orlon /ˈɔːlɒn/ ▷ noun, trademark a type of acrylic fibre or the crease-resistant fabric made from it, used for making clothes, etc. ⓘ 1940s.

orlop /ˈɔːlɒp/ and orlop deck ▷ noun, naut in a ship with four or more decks: the lowest deck, forming a covering for the hold. ⓘ 15c: from Dutch overloop covering, from overloopen to run or spill over.

ormer /ˈɔːmə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 a marine gastropod mollusc with an ear-shaped shell, the inside of which is bright and iridescent; a type of ABALONE. 2 any other abalone. ⓘ 17c: Channel Islands French, from French ormier, from Latin auris maris sea ear.

ormolu /ˈɔːməluː/ ▷ noun (ormolus) 1 a originally gold or gold leaf prepared for gilding bronze or brass, etc; b a gold-coloured alloy, eg copper, zinc or sometimes tin, that is used to decorate furniture, make ornaments, etc. 2 articles made from or decorated with this. ⓘ 18c: from French or moulu, literally 'ground gold'.

ornament ▷ noun /ˈɔːnəmənt/ 1 something that decorates or adds grace or beauty to a person or thing. 2 embellishment or decoration. 3 a small, usually decorative object. 4 someone whose talents add honour to the group or company, etc to which they belong. 5 music a note or notes that embellish or decorate the melody or harmony but do not belong to it, eg a trill. 6 (usually ornaments) articles, such as vestments and the altar, etc used in the services of the Church. ▷ verb /-mɛnt/ (ornamented, ornamenting) to decorate something with ornaments or serve as an ornament to something; to adorn. ● ornamentation noun. ● ornamenter or ornamentist noun. ⓘ 18c as verb; 13c in obsolete sense 'trappings' or 'equipment': from French ournement, from Latin ornamentum.

ornamental /ɔːnəˈmɛntəl/ ▷ adj serving as an ornament; decorative. ▷ noun a plant grown for ornament or decoration. ● ornamentally adverb. ⓘ 17c.

ornate /ɔːˈneɪt/ ▷ adj (ornater, ornatest) 1 highly or excessively decorated. 2 said of language: not plain and simple; flowery; using many elaborate literary words or expressions. • ornately adverb. • ornateness noun. ⓘ 15c: from Latin ornare, ornatum to adorn.

ornery /ˈɔːnərɪ/ ▷ adj, N Amer dialect or colloq 1 stubborn or cantankerous. 2 mean; contemptible. 3 commonplace. • orneriness noun. ⓘ 19c: variant of ORDINARY.

ornithischian /ɔːnɪˈθɪskɪən/ palaeontol ▷ adj relating to or indicating the order Ornithiscia of herbivorous dinosaurs with a bird-like pelvic structure. ▷ noun a dinosaur belonging to this order. ⓘ Early 20c: Latin Ornithiscia, from Greek ischion hip joint.

ornitho- /ɔːnɪθoʊ, ɔːnɪˈθɒ/ or (before a vowel) ornith- ▷ combining form, signifying bird or birds. ⓘ From Greek ornis, ornithos bird.

ornithology /ɔːnɪˈθɒlədʒɪ/ ▷ noun the scientific study of birds and their behaviour. • ornithological adj. • ornithologically adverb. • ornithologist noun. ⓘ 17c.

ornithorhynchus /ɔːnɪθoʊˈrɪŋkəs/ ▷ noun 1 the scientific generic name for the DUCK-BILLED PLATYPUS. 2 (Ornithorhynchus) the duckbill genus. ⓘ 19c: from Greek rhynchos snout.

ornithosis /ɔːnɪˈθoʊsɪs/ ▷ noun (ornithoses /-siːz/), pathol PSITTACOSIS, especially as transmitted to humans. ⓘ 1930s.

orogen /ˈɒroʊdʒɛn/ ▷ noun, geol a usually elongated region of the Earth's crust which has undergone an orogeny.

orogeny /ɒˈrɒdʒənɪ, ɔːˈrɒ-/ and orogenesis ▷ noun (orogenies; orogeneses) geol the process of mountain-building, often lasting for hundreds of millions of years, involving deformation and the subsequent uplift of rocks within the mountains. • orogenic or orogenetic adj. ⓘ Late 19c: from Greek oros mountain.

orography /ɒˈrɒgrəfɪ/ ▷ noun 1 the branch of physical geography that deals with the description, formation, etc of mountains. 2 the orographic features of a region. • orographic or orographical 1 relating to orography. 2 denoting effects that are related to the presence of mountains or high ground, eg rainfall. • orographically adverb. ⓘ 19c: from Greek oros mountain + -GRAPHY.

oroide /ˈɔːroʊaɪd/ ▷ noun an alloy of copper, nickel or tin, etc that imitates gold. ⓘ 19c: from French or gold + -OIDE -OID.

orology /ɒˈrɒlədʒɪ/ ▷ noun the scientific study of mountains. Also called OROGRAPHY. • orological adj. • orologist noun. ⓘ 18c.

oropharynx /ɔːroʊˈfærɪŋks/ ▷ noun (oropharynges /-fəˈrɪndʒiːz/ or oropharynxes) anatomy in mammals: the part of the pharynx that lies between the SOFT PALATE and the EPIGLOTTIS. ⓘ 19c: from Latin os, oris mouth.

orotund /ˈɒroʊtʌnd/ ▷ adj 1 said of the voice: full, loud and grand. 2 said of speech or writing: boastful or self-important; pompous. • orotundity noun. ⓘ 18c: from Latin ore rotundo, meaning 'with rounded mouth'.

orphan /ˈɔːfən/ ▷ noun a child who has lost both parents, or, more rarely, one parent. ▷ verb (orphaned, orphaning) usually in passive to make (a child) an orphan. ⓘ 15c: from Greek orphanos bereft or without parents.

orphanage /ˈɔːfənɪdʒ/ ▷ noun 1 a home for orphans. 2 (now usually orphanhood) the state or condition of being an orphan. ⓘ 19c; 16c in sense 2.

Orphean /ɔːˈfiːən/ ▷ adj 1 relating to Orpheus, a mythical Greek musician and poet who could move inanimate objects by the music of his lyre, the founder and interpreter of the ancient mysteries. 2 melodious or entrancing. 3 ORPHIC (adj 1). ▷ noun an adherent of Orphic philosophy. ⓘ 19c as noun; 16c.

Orphic /ˈɔːfɪk/ ▷ adj 1 a relating to Orpheus, especially with respect to the philosophical mysteries associated with him; b mysterious; esoteric. 2 like the music or poems of Orpheus; melodious or entrancing. 3 relating to or characteristic of ORPHISM 2. ▷ noun 1 (often Orphics) an Orphic song or hymn. 2 an adherent of the Orphic school of philosophy. • Orphically adverb. ⓘ 17c: from the Greek name Orpheus.

Orphism /ˈɔːfɪzəm/ 1 the religion or system of mystic philosophy of the Orphic school. 2 art a modern art movement that developed out of Cubism between 1910 and 1914, concerned with achieving harmony of colour and form within the Cubist framework. • Orphist noun a follower of Orphism in art. ⓘ 19c; early 20c in sense 2.

orphrey /ˈɔːfrɪ/ ▷ noun (orphreys) gold or other rich embroidery, especially that bordering an ecclesiastical vestment. ⓘ 14c: from French orfreis, from Latin auriphrygium Phrygian gold.

orpiment /ˈɔːpɪmənt/ ▷ noun a yellow mineral, arsenic trisulphide, used as a pigment. ⓘ 14c: French, from Latin auripigmentum, from aurum gold + pigmentum paint.

orpine or orpin /ˈɔːpɪn/ ▷ noun a purple-flowered broad-leafed STONECROP. ⓘ 14c: French orpin.

Orpington /ˈɔːpɪŋtən/ ▷ noun a breed of white, black or buff-coloured poultry. ⓘ 19c: from the name of a town in Kent.

orrery /ˈɒrərɪ/ ▷ noun (orreries) a clockwork model of the Sun and the planets which revolve around it. ⓘ 18c: named after Charles Boyle, Earl of Orrery (1676–1731), for whom one was made.

orris /ˈɒrɪs/ ▷ noun (orrises) 1 an iris, especially the Florentine iris which has white flowers and fragrant fleshy rhizomes. 2 (also orris-root) the dried sweet-smelling rhizome of this plant, used in perfumes and formerly in medicines. ⓘ 16c: a variant of IRIS.

ORT ▷ abbreviation oral rehydration therapy.

ortanique /ɔːtəˈniːk/ ▷ noun a citrus fruit grown in the W Indies, produced by crossing an orange and a tangerine. ⓘ 1930s: from orange + tangerine + unique.

ortho- /ɔːθoʊ, ɔːθə, ɔːˈθɒ/ or (before a vowel) orth- ▷ combining form, signifying 1 straight; upright. 2 at right angles; perpendicular. 3 correct; right. 4 (often in italic) chem a the names of salts and acids that contain one molecule of water more than the corresponding meta-compound; b two adjacent carbon atoms of the benzene ring. Compare META- sense 4b. ⓘ From Greek orthos straight or correct.

orthocentre ▷ noun, geom the point of intersection of the three altitudes of a triangle (see ALTITUDE 3). ⓘ 19c.

orthochromatic /ɔːθoʊkroʊˈmætɪk/ ▷ adj, photog correct in rendering the relation of colours, without the usual photographic modifications. ⓘ 19c.

orthoclase /ˈɔːθoʊkleɪs/ ▷ noun, mineralogy common or potash feldspar, consisting of a monoclinic silicate of aluminium and potassium, with cleavages at right angles. ⓘ 19c: from Greek klasis fracture or cleavage.

orthodontics /ɔːθəˈdɒntɪks/ ▷ singular noun, dentistry the branch of dentistry concerned with the prevention and correction of irregularities in the alignment of the teeth or jaws. • orthodontist noun. ⓘ Early 20c: from Greek odous, odontos tooth.

orthodox /ˈɔːθədɒks/ ▷ adj 1 believing in, living according to, or conforming with established or generally accepted opinions, especially in religion or morals; conventional. 2 (usually Orthodox) belonging or relating to the ORTHODOX CHURCH. 3 (usually Orthodox) belonging or relating to the branch of Judaism which keeps to strict traditional interpretations of doctrine and scripture. • orthodoxy noun. ⓘ 16c: from Latin, from Greek orthos straight or correct + doxa opinion.

Orthodox Church ▷ noun a communion of self-governing Christian churches that recognize the primacy of the Patriarch of Constantinople, originating in the Byzantine Empire and including the Churches of Russia, Bulgaria, Georgia, Romania, Greece, Poland, etc. Also called Eastern Orthodox Church, Eastern Church.

orthoepy /ɔː'θoʊəpɪ, 'ɔːθoʊɛpɪ/ ▷ noun (plural in sense 2 only orthoepies) 1 the study of (correct) pronunciation, especially the connection between pronunciation and spelling, and especially in the 17c and 18c. 2 accepted or usual pronunciation. ⓘ 17c: from Greek orthoepeia, ultimately from epos a word.

orthogenesis ▷ noun, biol 1 the evolution of organisms systematically in a definite 'goal-directed' direction and not accidentally in many directions. 2 determinate variation. • orthogenetic adj. • orthogenetically adverb. ⓘ 19c.

orthogonal /ɔː'θɒgənəl/ ▷ adj right-angled; perpendicular. • orthogonally adverb. ⓘ 16c.

orthographic /ɔːθə'grafɪk/ or orthographical ▷ adj 1 relating to spelling. 2 said of a projection used in elevations, etc: in perspective projection, with the point of sight at infinity. • orthographically adverb. ⓘ 19c.

orthography /ɔː'θɒgrəfɪ/ ▷ noun (orthographies) 1 correct or standard spelling. 2 a particular system of spelling. 3 the study of spelling. 4 ORTHOGRAPHIC projection. • orthographer or orthographist noun. ⓘ 16c: from Latin ortographia, from Greek.

orthopaedics or (US) orthopedics /ɔːθə'piːdɪks/ ▷ singular noun, medicine the correction (originally in childhood) by surgery or manipulation, etc of deformities arising from injury or disease of the bones and joints, such as broken bones or dislocated joints. • orthopaedic adj. • orthopaedically adverb. • orthopaedist noun. ⓘ 19c: from French orthopédie.

orthophosphoric acid see PHOSPHORIC ACID orthopteran /ɔː'θɒptərən/ ▷ noun an insect of the cockroach order Orthoptera, with firm forewings that act as covers for the folded membranous hindwings. • orthopterous adj. ⓘ 19c: Latin, from Greek pteron wing.

orthoptics /ɔː'θɒptɪks/ ▷ singular noun, medicine the science or practice of correcting defective vision by non-surgical methods, especially the use of specific exercises to strengthen weak eye muscles. • orthoptic adj. • orthoptist noun. ⓘ 1930s.

orthorhombic /ɔːθoʊ'rɒmbɪk/ ▷ adj, crystallog denoting or relating to a crystal system with three unequal axes at right angles to each other. ⓘ 19c.

orthoscopic /ɔːθə'skɒpɪk/ ▷ adj with or giving correct vision, true proportion or a flat field of view. ⓘ 19c.

orthosis /ɔː'θoʊsɪs/ ▷ noun (orthoses /-siːz/) medicine an external device used to support, correct deformities in, or improve the movement of, the limbs or spine. ⓘ 1950s: Greek, from orthoun to straighten.

orthotics /ɔː'θɒtɪks/ ▷ singular noun, medicine the rehabilitation of injured or weakened joints or muscles by the use of orthoses. • orthotic adj. • orthotist noun. ⓘ 1950s.

ortolan /'ɔːtələn/ ▷ noun 1 a small bunting, native to Europe, Asia and N Africa, eaten as a delicacy. 2 any of several other birds eaten as delicacies, eg the bobolink. ⓘ 16c: French, from Latin hortolanus, from hortulus, diminutive of hortus garden.

Orwellian /ɔː'welɪən/ ▷ adj 1 relating to or in the style of the English writer George Orwell (pseudonym of Eric Blair, 1903–50). 2 characteristic of the dehumanized authoritarian society depicted in his novel Nineteen Eighty Four. See also NEWSPEAK. ⓘ 1950s.

-ory¹ /ərɪ; US 'ɔːrɪ/ ▷ suffix, forming nouns, denoting a place or object, etc for a specified activity or purpose □ dormitory □ repository. ⓘ From Latin -orium, -oria.

-ory² /ərɪ; US 'ɔːrɪ/ ▷ suffix, forming adjectives and nouns relating to or involving the action of the verb □ depository □ signatory. ⓘ From Latin -orius.

oryx /'ɒrɪks/ ▷ noun (oryxes /-sɪz/ or oryx) any large grazing antelope of the African genus Oryx, typically with very long slender horns. ⓘ 14c: Latin, from Greek, meaning 'a stonemason's pick-axe', because of the shape of the animal's horns.

OS ▷ abbreviation 1 Old Style. 2 computing operating system. 3 ordinary seaman. 4 Ordnance Survey. 5 outsize.

Os ▷ symbol, chem osmium.

os¹ ▷ noun (plural ossa /'ɒsə/) anatomy BONE, used only in Latin names of particular bones. ⓘ 16c.

os² /ɒs/ ▷ noun (plural ora /'ɔːrə/) anatomy, zool a mouth or mouthlike opening, originally used only in Latin names of particular structures. ⓘ 18c.

Oscar¹ /'ɒskə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 each of a number of gold-plated statuettes awarded annually since 1928 by the American Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences for outstanding acting or directing, etc in films during the previous year. Also called Academy Award. 2 communications in the NATO alphabet: the word used to denote the letter 'O' (see table at NATO ALPHABET). ⓘ 1930s: an Academy employee is said to have remarked that the statuette reminded her of her uncle Oscar.

Oscar² or oscar /'ɒskə(r)/ ▷ noun, Austral & NZ slang cash; money. ⓘ Early 20c: rhyming slang for Oscar Asche (1871–1936), Australian actor.

OSCE ▷ abbreviation Organization for Security and Co-operation in Europe, an organization including most W and E European countries that is a forum for discussion on military security across the whole of Europe.

oscillate /'ɒsɪleɪt/ ▷ verb (oscillated, oscillating) 1 tr & intr to swing or make something swing backwards and forwards like a pendulum. 2 tr & intr to vibrate. 3 intr to waver between opinions, choices, courses of action, etc. 4 intr, electronics said of an electrical current: to vary regularly in strength or direction between certain limits. • oscillating adj. • oscillation noun. • oscillator noun 1 an electronic device that produces an alternating current of a particular frequency, used to produce high-frequency radio waves for TV and radio, and to make electronic musical instruments. 2 someone or something that oscillates. • oscillatory adverb. ⓘ 18c: from Latin oscillare, oscillatum to swing.

oscillogram /ə'sɪləgram/ ▷ noun a record made by an oscillograph. ⓘ Early 20c.

oscillograph /ə'sɪləgrɑːf/ ▷ noun a device that displays or records graphically the rapidly changing values of an oscillating quantity, such as an electric current, over time. • oscillographic adj. • oscillographically adverb. ⓘ 19c.

oscilloscope /ə'sɪləskoʊp/ ▷ noun a device, or component of a device, that measures the rapidly changing values of an oscillating quantity, such as an electrical current, over time, and that displays the varying electrical signals graphically on the fluorescent screen of a cathode-ray tube. Also called cathode-ray oscilloscope (abbreviation CRO). ⓘ Early 20c.

oscine /'ɒsaɪn/ ▷ adj, ornithol belonging or relating to the Oscines, the songbirds, the group of birds that forms the main body of the PASSERINES. ⓘ 19c: from Latin oscen a singing-bird.

oscular /'ɒskjʊlə(r)/ ▷ adj 1 relating to the mouth or to kissing. 2 zool relating to an OSCULUM. ⓘ 19c: from Latin osculum a little mouth or a kiss.

osculate /'ɒskjʊleɪt/ ▷ verb (osculated, osculating) 1 tr & intr, jocular to kiss. 2 geom a said of a curve: to touch (another curve) without crossing it, thereby having a common tangent; b intr said of two curves: to have a common tangent. 3 intr to be in close contact. • osculation noun. • osculatory adj. ⓘ 17c: from Latin osculari, osculatus to kiss.

osculum /ˈɒskjʊləm/ ▷ noun (oscula /-lə/) zool a mouthlike aperture, especially in a sponge. ⓘ 18c.

-ose¹ /oʊs, oʊz/ ▷ combining form, forming adjectives, denoting having or possessing a particular quality □ verbose.

-ose² /oʊs, oʊz/ ▷ combining form, chem, denoting a carbohydrate.

osier /ˈoʊzɪə(r), ˈoʊʒə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 any of various species of willow tree or shrub. 2 a flexible branch or twig from this tree, used to make baskets, etc. ⓘ 14c: from French, from Latin auseria.

-osis /oʊsɪs/ ▷ suffix (plural -oses /-siːz/) forming nouns, denoting 1 a condition or process □ hypnosis □ metamorphosis. 2 a diseased or disordered state □ neurosis. ⓘ Latin or Greek.

Osmanli /ɒzˈmanlɪ/ ▷ adj 1 relating to the dynasty of Osman, who founded the Ottoman empire in Asia, and reigned 1288–1326. 2 relating to the Ottoman empire. 3 relating or belonging to the western branch of the Turks or to their language. ▷ noun (Osmanli or Osmanlis) 1 a member of the dynasty. 2 a Turk of Turkey. See also OTTOMAN. ⓘ 18c: Turkish, meaning 'referring or relating to Osman'.

osmiridium /ɒzmɪˈrɪdɪəm/ ▷ noun, chem a hard white naturally occurring alloy of osmium and iridium, in which the iridium content is less than 35 per cent, used to make the tips of pen nibs. ⓘ 19c: from osmium + iridium.

osmium /ˈɒzmɪəm/ ▷ noun, chem (symbol Os, atomic number 76) a very hard dense bluish-white metal, the densest known element, used as a catalyst, and as a hardening agent in alloys with platinum and iridium, eg in pen nibs. ⓘ 19c: from Greek osme smell (because of the unpleasant pungent smell of one of its forms, osmium tetroxide) + -IUM.

osmoregulation /ɒzmoʊrɛgjʊˈleɪʃən/ ▷ noun, biol the process whereby the water content and concentration of salts within a living organism are maintained at a constant level, thus counteracting OSMOSIS 1. ⓘ 1920s: from Greek osmos a push.

osmose /ˈɒzmoʊs, -moʊz/ ▷ verb (osmosed, osmosing) tr & intr to undergo or cause something to undergo osmosis. ⓘ 19c, originally as noun from endosmose and exosmose, related to Greek osmos a push.

osmosis /ɒzˈmoʊsɪs/ ▷ noun 1 chem the spontaneous movement of a solvent, eg water, across a semi-permeable membrane from a more dilute solution to a more concentrated one, which stops when the concentrations of the two solutions are equal, or when an external pressure is applied to the more concentrated solution. 2 a gradual, usually unconscious, process of assimilation or absorption of ideas or knowledge, etc. ● osmotic /-ˈmɒtɪk/ adj. ● osmotically adverb. ⓘ 19c: a Latinized form of OSMOSE; see also -OSIS.

osmotic pressure ▷ noun, chem the pressure that must be applied to prevent the spontaneous movement by osmosis of a solvent across a semipermeable membrane from a more dilute solution to a more concentrated one.

osp ▷ abbreviation: obiit sine prole (Latin), died without issue, meaning 'died without any known children'.

osprey /ˈɒsprɪ, ˈɒspreɪ/ ▷ noun (ospreys) 1 a large fish-eating bird of prey found near water in most parts of the world, with a dark-brown body, white head and legs, and a characteristic dark line on the side of the head. 2 any feather from various other birds, used for trimming women's hats. ⓘ 15c: from French ospres.

ossa plural of OS¹

osseous /ˈɒsɪəs/ ▷ adj relating to, like, containing, or formed from bone; bony. ⓘ 17c: from Latin osseus, from os bone.

ossia /ˈɒsɪə/ ▷ conj, music used in directions to indicate an alternative, usually easier, way of playing a particular passage: or; alternatively. ⓘ 19c: Italian.

ossicle /ˈɒsɪkəl/ ▷ noun 1 anatomy, zool a small bone, especially each of the three small bones of the middle ear. 2 zool a bonelike plate or joint, etc. ⓘ 16c: from Latin ossiculum, diminutive of os bone.

Ossie see under AUSSIE

ossifrage /ˈɒsɪfrɪdʒ/ ▷ noun 1 the LAMMERGEYER, a rare type of vulture. 2 the OSPREY. ⓘ 17c: from Latin ossifragus, literally 'bone-breaking', perhaps used as a noun in sense 1, from os bone + frangere to break.

ossify /ˈɒsɪfaɪ/ ▷ verb (ossifies, ossified, ossifying) 1 tr & intr to turn into or make something turn into bone or a bonelike substance. 2 intr said of one's opinions or habits, etc: to become rigid, fixed or inflexible. ● ossification noun. ⓘ 18c: from French ossifier, from Latin os bone + facere to make.

ossuary /ˈɒsjʊərɪ/ ▷ noun (ossuaries) any place, eg a vault or charnel-house, or an urn or other container, in which the bones of the dead are kept. ⓘ 17c: from Latin ossuarium.

oste- see OSTEOosteal /ˈɒstɪəl/ ▷ adj, medicine, etc 1 relating to, composed of, or resembling bone. 2 sounding like bone on percussion. ⓘ 19c.

osteitis /ɒstɪˈaɪtɪs/ ▷ noun, pathol inflammation of a bone. ⓘ 19c.

ostensible /ɒˈstɛnsɪbəl/ ▷ adj said of reasons, etc: stated or claimed, but not necessarily true; apparent. ● ostensibility noun. ● ostensibly adverb. ⓘ 18c: from Latin ostensibilis.

ostensive /ɒˈstɛnsɪv/ ▷ adj 1 logic directly or manifestly demonstrative. 2 said of a definition: giving examples of things to which the defined word properly applies. 3 OSTENSIBLE. ● ostensively adverb. ● ostensiveness noun. ⓘ 16c: from Latin ostensivus provable, from Latin ostendere, ostensum to show.

ostentation /ɒstɛnˈteɪʃən, ɒstən-/ ▷ noun pretentious display of wealth or knowledge, etc, especially to attract attention or admiration. ● ostentatious adj. ● ostentatiously adverb. ● ostentatiousness noun. ⓘ 15c: from Latin ostendere to show.

osteo- /ɒstɪoʊ, ɒstɪˈɒ/ or (before a vowel) oste- ▷ combining form, signifying bone or bones. ⓘ From Greek osteon bone.

osteoarthritis ▷ noun, pathol an alternative, but misleading, name for OSTEOARTHROSIS, since it implies an inflammatory condition. ● osteoarthritic adj. ⓘ 19c.

osteoarthrosis ▷ noun, pathol chronic non-inflammatory disease of bones, found mainly in the elderly, in which degeneration of the cartilage overlying the bones at a joint (especially the hip, knee or thumb joint) leads to deformity of the bone surface, causing pain and stiffness. ⓘ 1930s.

osteoblast /ˈɒstɪoʊblɑːst/ ▷ noun, zool a bone-forming cell. ⓘ 19c.

osteoclast /ˈɒstɪoʊklast/ ▷ noun, zool a bone-absorbing cell. ⓘ 19c.

osteoclastoma /ɒstɪoʊklaˈstoʊmə/ ▷ noun (osteoclastomas or osteoclastomata /-mətə/) pathol a tumour arising from OSTEOCLAST cells. Compare OSTEOSARCOMA.

osteogenesis /ɒstɪoʊˈdʒɛnɪsɪs/ ▷ noun formation of bone. ● osteogenetic or osteogenic adj. ⓘ 19c.

osteology /ɒstɪˈɒlədʒɪ/ ▷ noun (plural in sense 2 only osteologies) 1 the branch of human anatomy that deals with the study of bones and the skeleton. 2 the structure and arrangement of an animal's bones. ● osteological adj. ● osteologically adverb. ● osteologist noun. ⓘ 17c.

osteoma /ɒstɪ'oʊmə/ ▷ noun (osteomata /-'mɑːtə/ or osteomas) pathol a benign tumour of bone or bonelike tissue. ◎ 19c.

osteomalacia /ɒstɪoʊmə'leɪʃɪə/ ▷ noun, pathol a disorder characterized by softening of the bones due to a reduction in the availability of calcium salts, caused by a deficiency of vitamin D. • osteomalacial or osteomalacic /-'lasɪk/ adj. ◎ 19c: from Greek malakia softness.

osteomyelitis /ɒstɪoʊmaɪə'laɪtɪs/ ▷ noun, pathol inflammation of bone and bone marrow, caused by infection. ◎ 19c.

osteopathy /ɒstɪ'ɒpəθɪ/ ▷ noun, medicine a system of healing or treatment, mainly involving manipulation of the bones and joints and massage of the muscles, that provides relief for many bone and joint disorders. • osteopath /'ɒstɪəpaθ, -oʊpaθ/ noun a practitioner of osteopathy. • osteopathic adj. • osteopathically adverb. ◎ 19c.

osteoplasty /'ɒstɪəplastɪ/ ▷ noun, medicine plastic surgery of the bones, bone grafting, etc. • osteoplastic adj. ◎ 19c.

osteoporosis /ɒstɪoʊpɔː'roʊsɪs, -pə'roʊsɪs/ ▷ noun, pathol a disease, most commonly of post-menopausal women, in which the bones become porous, brittle and liable to fracture, owing to the loss of calcium from the bone substance. • osteoporotic adj. ◎ 19c: from OSTEO- + PORE[1] + -OSIS.

osteosarcoma ▷ noun (osteosarcomas or osteosarcomata /-mɑːtə/) pathol a malignant tumour derived from osteoblasts. Compare OSTEOCLASTOMA. ◎ 19c.

ostinato /ɒstɪ'nɑːtoʊ/ music ▷ adj frequently repeated. ▷ noun (ostinati /-tɪ/ or ostinatos) a melodic phrase that recurs throughout a piece. ◎ 19c: Italian, meaning 'obstinate' or 'persistent'.

ostler /'ɒslə(r)/ ▷ noun, historical someone who attends to horses at an inn. ◎ 15c: from HOSTEL.

Ostmark /'ɒstmɑːk/ ▷ noun, historical the standard unit of currency in the former German Democratic Republic (East Germany). ◎ 1940s: German Ost east + Mark mark.

Ostpolitik /'ɒstpɒlɪtiːk/ ▷ noun, historical the policy of establishing normal trade and diplomatic relations with the Communist countries of Eastern Europe, especially that initiated in the 1960s by the former West Germany. ◎ 1960s: German Ost east + Politik policy.

ostracize or ostracise /'ɒstrəsaɪz/ ▷ verb (ostracized, ostracizing) 1 to exclude someone from a group or society, etc; to refuse to associate with them. 2 historical in Athens and other ancient Greek cities: to banish someone by popular vote. The banishment was for a fixed period of up to ten years and did not involve loss of property or citizenship. • ostracism noun. ◎ 17c: from Greek ostrakizein, from ostrakon POTSHERD, because in ancient Greece the voters wrote on potsherds the name of the person they wished to banish.

ostrich /'ɒstrɪtʃ/ ▷ noun (ostriches or ostrich) 1 the largest living bird, found on dry plains in E Africa, having an extremely long neck and legs, and only two toes on each foot, up to 2.5m in height and although flightless capable of running at speeds of up to 60km per hour (about 40mph). 2 colloq someone who refuses to face or accept unpleasant facts 16c: from the popular but mistaken belief that the ostrich buries its head in the sand to 'hide' from danger. • ostrich-like adj, adverb. ◎ 13c: from French ostrice, from Latin avis bird + late Latin struthio ostrich.

Ostrogoth /'ɒstrəgɒθ/ ▷ noun, historical a member of the Eastern Goths, who established their power in Italy in the 5c and 6c. Compare VISIGOTH. ◎ 17c: from Latin Ostrogothi, with the first element meaning 'east'.

OT ▷ abbreviation 1 occupational therapy. 2 Old Testament.

otalgia /oʊ'taldʒɪə/ ▷ noun, medicine earache. ◎ 17c: Greek, from ous, otos ear.

OTC ▷ abbreviation, Brit 1 Officers' Training Corps. 2 stock exchange over the counter.

OTE ▷ abbreviation on target earnings, the earnings of a salesman who achieves targeted sales.

other /'ʌðə(r)/ ▷ adj 1 remaining from a group of two or more when one or some have been specified already ▫ Now close the other eye. 2 different from the one or ones already mentioned, understood or implied ▫ other people. 3 additional; further ▫ need to buy one other thing. 4 far or opposite ▫ the other side of the world. ▷ pronoun 1 a another person or thing; b (others) other people or things. 2 (others) further or additional ones ▫ I'd like to see some others. 3 (usually the others) the remaining people or things of a group ▫ Go with the others. ▷ adverb (usually other than) otherwise; differently ▫ couldn't do other than hurry home. ▷ noun 1 someone or something considered separate, different, additional to, apart from, etc the rest ▫ introduced him as his significant other. 2 literary theory (often Other) in Lacanian terms: someone who does not belong to a specified social, cultural, racial, etc group and who is therefore excluded from participation in the predominant group's interpretation of eg literary texts. • otherness noun the fact or condition of being other or different. • every other each alternate; every second ▫ see him every other week. • in other words this means ▫ 'I've really no time.' 'In other words you can't do it?'. • other than ... 1 except ...; apart from ... ▫ Other than that, there's no news. 2 different from ... ▫ do something other than watch TV. • other things being equal circumstances or conditions being unchanged. • someone, something or somewhere, etc or other some unspecified person, thing or place, etc ▫ It's here somewhere or other. • the other day or week, etc a few days or weeks, etc ago. • the other man or woman the lover of a woman or man who is already married or in a relationship. ◎ Anglo-Saxon.

other ranks ▷ plural noun (abbreviation OR) chiefly Brit members of the armed services who do not hold a commissioned rank.

the other side ▷ noun the spiritual world, to which one is believed by many to pass after death.

otherwise /'ʌðəwaɪz/ ▷ conj or else; if not. ▷ adverb 1 in other respects ▫ He is good at languages but otherwise not very bright. 2 in a different way ▫ couldn't act otherwise than as she did. 3 under different circumstances ▫ might otherwise have been late. ▷ adj different ▫ The truth is otherwise. • or otherwise or the opposite; or not ▫ Check all cars, fast or otherwise. • rather ... than otherwise rather ... than not. ◎ Anglo-Saxon othre wisan in other wise or manner.

otherworldly ▷ adj 1 belonging or relating to, or resembling, a world supposedly inhabited after death. 2 concerned with spiritual or intellectual matters to the exclusion of practical matters. • otherworldliness noun. ◎ 19c.

otic /'oʊtɪk/ ▷ adj, medicine, anatomy relating to the ear. ◎ 17c: from Greek otikos, from ous, otos ear.

otiose /'oʊtɪoʊs/ ▷ adj, formal 1 futile. 2 said eg of a word or expression, etc in a particular context: serving no purpose; unnecessary; superfluous. 3 lazy; idle. • otiosity or otioseness noun. ◎ 18c: from Latin otiosus, from otium leisure.

otitis /oʊ'taɪtɪs/ ▷ noun, pathol inflammation of the ear or of part of the ear. ◎ 18c: Latin, from Greek ous, otos ear.

oto- /oʊtoʊ, oʊtə, oʊ'tɒ/ or (before a vowel) ot- ▷ combining form, signifying the ear. ◎ From Greek ous, otos ear.

otolaryngology ▷ noun the branch of medicine that deals with the ear and larynx. Also called OTORHINOLARYNGOLOGY. • otolaryngological adj. • otolaryngologist noun. ⓘ 19c.

otolith /'outəlɪθ/ ▷ noun, zool any of the calcareous granules found in the inner ear of vertebrates, the movement of which helps the animal to maintain equilibrium. • otolithic adj. ⓘ 19c.

otology /ou'tɒlədʒɪ/ ▷ noun the branch of medicine concerned with the ear. • otological adj. • otologist noun. ⓘ 19c.

otorhinolaryngology ▷ noun the branch of medicine that deals with the ear, nose and throat. Also called OTOLARYNGOLOGY. ⓘ Early 20c.

otoscope /'outəskoup/ ▷ noun, medicine a device used for examining the external ear. • otoscopic adj. ⓘ 19c.

OTT ▷ abbreviation, slang over the top (see under OVER).

otter /'ɒtə(r)/ ▷ noun (otters or otter) 1 a solitary and rather elusive carnivorous semi-aquatic mammal, found in all parts of the world except Australasia and Antarctica, with a long body covered with short smooth fur, a broad flat head, short legs, a stout tail tapering towards the tip, large webbed hind feet. 2 the fur of this animal. 3 (also otter board) a type of fishing tackle consisting of a board with several hooked and baited lines attached. 4 a PARAVANE. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon otor or ottor.

otter hound ▷ noun a large rough-haired dog, formerly bred for otter hunting. ⓘ 17c.

Ottoman /'ɒtəmən/ ▷ adj, historical relating to the Ottomans or to the Ottoman Empire, which lasted from the 13c until the end of World War I, and was centred in what is now Turkey, and at different times reached into Europe and the Near East. ▷ noun (Ottomans) 1 an inhabitant of the Ottoman Empire; a Turk. 2 (ottoman) a long low seat, usually without a back or arms, and often in the form of a padded and upholstered box. See also OSMANLI. ⓘ 16c: ultimately from Arabic Uthman Othman or Osman (1259–1326), the founder of the Ottoman Empire.

OU ▷ abbreviation 1 Open University. 2 Oxford University.

oubliette /u:blɪ'ɛt/ ▷ noun, historical a secret dungeon with a single, often concealed, opening at the top. ⓘ 18c: French, from oublier to forget.

ouch /aʊtʃ/ ▷ exclamation expressing sudden sharp pain. ⓘ 19c.

ought /ɔ:t/ ▷ auxiliary verb used to express: 1 duty or obligation □ You ought to help if you can. 2 advisability □ You ought to see a doctor. 3 probability or expectation □ She ought to be here soon. 4 shortcoming or failure □ He ought to have been here hours ago. 5 enthusiastic desire on the part of the speaker □ You really ought to read this book. 6 logical consequence □ The answer ought to be 'four'. • ought not to ... used to express moral disapproval □ You ought not to speak to him like that. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon ahte, past tense of agan to owe.

Ouija /'wi:dʒə/ and Ouija board ▷ noun, trademark (also ouija) a board with the letters of the alphabet printed round the edge, used at SÉANCES with a glass, pointer or other object to spell out messages supposed to be from the dead. ⓘ 19c: from French oui yes + German ja yes.

oulong see OOLONG.

ounce[1] /aʊns/ ▷ noun 1 (abbreviation oz) in the imperial system: a unit of weight equal to one sixteenth of a pound (28.35g). 2 historical a unit of weight equal to one twelfth of the (legally obsolete) Troy or Apothecaries' pound, one ounce being equal to 480 grains (approximately 31.1g). 3 short form of FLUID OUNCE. 4 a small amount or quantity. ⓘ 14c: from French unce, from Latin uncia twelfth part.

ounce[2] /aʊns/ ▷ noun the SNOW LEOPARD. ⓘ 18c; 14c in obsolete sense 'the Eurasian lynx' or any of various other cats: from French once, mistakenly from lonce as if l'once, from Greek lynx lynx.

our /aʊə(r)/ ▷ adj 1 relating or belonging to, associated with, or done by us □ our children. 2 relating or belonging to people in general, or to humanity □ our planet. 3 formal used by a sovereign: my □ our royal will. 4 colloq a (before a personal name) belonging to the same family, that is the son, daughter, brother or sister, etc □ our Bill □ our Susan; b (before a surname, etc) that belongs to the same organization, etc □ our Miss Jackson. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon ure.

Our Father see under THE LORD'S PRAYER.

Our Lady ▷ noun, RC Church the Virgin Mary.

ours /aʊəz/ ▷ pronoun the one or ones belonging to us □ They're ours □ Ours are better. • of ours relating or belonging to us □ a friend of ours.

ourself /aʊə'sɛlf/ ▷ pronoun, archaic formerly used by monarchs: myself. ⓘ 15c.

ourselves /aʊə'sɛlvz/ ▷ pronoun 1 reflexive form of we; us □ We helped ourselves to cakes. 2 used for emphasis: we personally; our particular group of people □ We ourselves know nothing about that. 3 our normal self □ We can relax and be ourselves. 4 (also by ourselves) a alone □ went by ourselves; b without anyone else's help □ did it all by ourselves.

-ous /əs/ ▷ suffix, forming adjectives, signifying 1 a particular character, quality or nature □ marvellous □ venomous. 2 chem an element in its lower valency. ⓘ From Latin -osus.

ousel see OUZEL.

oust /aʊst/ ▷ verb (ousted, ousting) 1 law a to eject someone from a possession; to deprive them of an inheritance; b to take away (a privilege or right, etc). 2 to force someone out of a position and take their place. • ouster noun 1 law ejection; dispossession. 2 chiefly N Amer the act of forcing someone out of a place, position, etc. ⓘ 16c: from French oster to remove, from Latin obstare to hinder or oppose.

out /aʊt/ ▷ adverb 1 away from the inside; not in or at a place □ Go out into the garden. 2 not in one's home or place of work □ I called but you were out. 3 to or at an end; to or into a state of being completely finished, exhausted or extinct, etc □ The milk has run out □ before the day is out □ Put the candle out. 4 aloud □ cry out. 5 with care or taking care □ Listen out for the baby □ watch out. 6 in all directions from a central point □ Share out the sweets. 7 to the fullest extent or amount □ Spread the blanket out. 8 to public attention or notice; revealed □ The secret is out. 9 sport said of a person batting: no longer able to bat, eg because of having the ball caught by an opponent □ bowled out. 10 in or into a state of being removed, omitted or forgotten □ miss him out □ Rub out the mistake. 11 not to be considered; rejected □ That idea's out. 12 removed; dislocated □ have a tooth out. 13 not in authority; not having political power □ voted them out of office. 14 into unconsciousness □ pass out in the heat. 15 in error □ Your total is out by three. 16 colloq existing □ the best car out. 17 said of a flower: in bloom. 18 said of a book: published □ will be out in the autumn. 19 visible □ the moon's out. 20 no longer in fashion □ Drainpipes are out, flares are in. 21 said of workers: on strike □ called the miners out. 22 said of a jury: considering its verdict. 23 old use said of a young woman: introduced into fashionable society. 24 said of a tide: at or towards the lowest level of water □ going out. ▷ adj 1 external. 2 directing or showing direction outwards. ▷ prep, colloq, especially US out of something □ Get out the car. ▷ exclamation expressing: 1 sport that the batsman is dismissed. 2 that a radio transmission has finished □ over and out. ▷ noun a way out, a way of escape; an excuse. ▷ verb (outed, outing) 1 intr to become publicly known □ Murder will

out. 2 to make public the homosexuality of (a famous person who has been attempting to keep their homosexuality secret). Compare COME OUT (sense 10) at COME. ● be out for something colloq to be determined to achieve it □ He's just out for revenge. ● out and about active outside the house, especially after an illness. ● out and away by far; much. ● out of something 1 from inside it □ drive out of the garage. 2 not in or within it □ be out of the house. 3 having exhausted a supply of it □ be out of butter. 4 from among several □ two out of three cats. 5 from a material □ made out of wood. 6 because of it □ out of anger. 7 beyond the range, scope or bounds of it □ out of reach □ out of the ordinary. 8 excluded from it □ leave him out of the team. 9 no longer in a stated condition □ out of practice. 10 at a stated distance from a place □ a mile out of town. 11 without or so as to be without something □ cheat him out of his money. ● out of date old-fashioned and no longer of use; obsolete. ● out of it 1 colloq not part of, or wanted in, a group or activity, etc. 2 slang unable to behave normally or control oneself, usually because of drink or drugs. ● out of pocket having spent more money than one can afford. ● out of the way 1 difficult to reach or arrive at. 2 unusual; uncommon. ● ins and outs see INS AND OUTS at IN. ● out to lunch slang said of a person: slightly crazy; in a dream world. ● out with it! an exhortation to speak openly. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon ut.

out- ▷ prefix, denoting 1 an excelling or surpassing of the specified action □ outrun □ outmanoeuvre. 2 external; separate; from outside □ outpatient □ outhouse. 3 away from the inside, especially as a result of the specified action □ output □ outpouring. 4 going away or out of; outward □ outdoor □ outboard.

outage /'aʊtɪdʒ/ ▷ noun 1 the amount of a commodity lost in transport or storage. 2 a period of time during which a power supply fails to operate. ⓘ Early 20c.

out-and-out ▷ adj complete; utter; thorough □ an out-and-out liar.

outback ▷ noun isolated remote areas of a country, especially in Australia.

outbalance ▷ verb to OUTWEIGH.

outbid ▷ verb to offer a higher price than someone else, especially at an auction.

outboard ▷ adj 1 said of a motor or engine: portable and designed to be attached to the outside of a boat's stern. 2 said of a boat: equipped with such a motor or engine. 3 positioned towards or nearer the side of a ship or aircraft. ▷ adverb, adj nearer or towards the outside of a ship or aircraft. ▷ noun 1 an outboard motor or engine. 2 a boat equipped with an outboard motor or engine. Compare INBOARD. ⓘ 19c.

outbound ▷ adj said of a vehicle, flight, carriageway, etc: going away from home or a station, etc; departing. Opposite of INBOUND.

outbreak ▷ noun a sudden, usually violent beginning or occurrence, usually of something unpleasant, eg of disease or rioting, etc.

outbreeding ▷ noun, genetics mating between distantly related or unrelated members of a species, resulting in the production of greater genetic variation among the offspring than INBREEDING. ⓘ Early 20c.

outbuilding ▷ noun a building such as a barn, stable or garage, that is separate from the main building of a house but within the grounds surrounding it. ⓘ 17c.

outburst ▷ noun 1 a sudden violent expression of strong emotion, especially anger. 2 an eruption or explosion.

outcast ▷ noun 1 someone who has been rejected by their friends or by society. 2 an exile or vagabond. ▷ adj rejected or cast out.

outcaste ▷ noun 1 a Hindu who has lost their caste. 2 someone who has no caste.

outclass ▷ verb 1 to be or become of a much better quality or class than something else. 2 to defeat someone easily, eg in style or in a competition, etc. ⓘ 19c.

outcome ▷ noun the result of some action or situation, etc; consequence.

outcrop ▷ noun /'aʊtkrɒp/ 1 a rock or group of rocks which sticks out above the surface of the ground. 2 an appearance or occurrence. ▷ verb /aʊt'krɒp/ intr said of a rock or group of rocks: to stick out from the ground.

outcry ▷ noun a widespread and public show of anger or disapproval. ⓘ 14c.

outdated ▷ adj no longer useful or in fashion; obsolete. ● outdatedness noun.

outdistance ▷ verb to leave (a competitor) far behind.

outdo ▷ verb 1 to do much better than someone or something else; to surpass them. 2 to overcome or defeat someone or something.

outdoor ▷ adj 1 done, taking place, situated or for use, etc in the open air □ outdoor pursuits. 2 preferring to be in the open air or fond of outdoor activities and sport, etc □ an outdoor person. ⓘ 18c.

outdoors ▷ adverb (also out-of-doors) in or into the open air; outside a building. ▷ singular noun the open air; the world outside buildings □ the great outdoors. ⓘ 19c.

outer /'aʊtə(r)/ ▷ adj 1 external; belonging to or for the outside. 2 further from the centre or middle. ▷ noun 1 archery a the outermost ring on a target; b a shot which hits this. 2 Austral, NZ the unsheltered part of the spectator enclosure at a sports ground. ● on the outer Austral, NZ excluded; out in the cold. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon uterra.

outer bar ▷ noun, law in England: the junior barristers, collectively, who plead outside the bar in court.

outer ear ▷ noun, anatomy in vertebrates: the part of the ear that transmits sound waves from outside the ear to the eardrum.

outermost or outmost ▷ adj nearest the edge; furthest from the centre; most remote. ⓘ 14c.

Some words with out- prefixed; see OUT- for numbered senses specified below.

outact verb sense 1.
outbargain verb sense 1. outdance verb sense 1.
outdrink verb sense 1.
outeat verb sense 1. outfight verb sense 1. outflowing noun, adj senses 2 and 3. outfly verb sense 1.
outgush noun sense 2.
outhit verb sense 1.
outjump verb sense 1. outlast verb sense 1. outmatch verb sense 1. outmanoeuvre verb sense 1. outnumber verb sense 1. outpace verb sense 1. outperform verb sense 1. outplay verb sense 1. outrival verb sense 1. outrun verb sense 1.
outsell verb sense 1. outshine verb sense 1.
outshoot verb sense 1.
outsit verb sense 1.
outswim verb sense 1. outswing noun senses 2 and 3. outthink verb sense 1. outwalk verb sense 1.

outer space ▷ noun any region of space beyond the Earth's atmosphere. ⓘ Early 20c.

outerwear ▷ noun clothing to be worn on top of other garments or for outdoors.

outface ▷ verb 1 to stare at someone until they look away. 2 to fight or deal with someone bravely or confidently. ⓘ 16c.

outfall ▷ noun the mouth of a river or sewer, etc where it flows into the sea; an outlet.

outfield ▷ noun 1 the outlying land on a farm. 2 cricket the area of the pitch far from the part where the stumps, etc are laid out. 3 baseball the area of the field beyond the diamond-shaped pitch where the bases are laid out. 4 cricket, baseball the players who have positions in these areas. Compare INFIELD. ● outfielder noun, cricket, baseball.

outfit ▷ noun 1 a set of clothes worn together, especially for a particular occasion. 2 a set of articles, tools or equipment, etc for a particular task. 3 colloq a group of people working as a single unit or team. ▷ verb to provide someone with an outfit, especially of clothes. ● outfitter noun someone who provides outfits, especially one who sells men's clothes. ⓘ 19c in these senses.

outflank ▷ verb 1 military to go round the side or sides of an enemy's position and attack from behind. 2 to get the better of someone or something, especially by a surprise action. ⓘ 18c.

outflow ▷ noun 1 a flowing out. 2 anything that flows out. 3 the amount that flows out. ● outflowing noun.

outfox ▷ verb to get the better of someone by being more cunning; to outwit someone. ⓘ 1920s.

outgo ▷ noun /ˈaʊtgoʊ/ 1 the fact of going out. 2 cost; expenditure. 3 outflow. ▷ verb /aʊtˈgoʊ/ archaic to surpass; to outstrip. ⓘ 16c as verb.

outgoing ▷ adj 1 said of a person: friendly and sociable; extrovert. 2 leaving; departing. 3 said of an official, politician, etc: about to leave office □ the outgoing president. Opposite of INCOMING. ▷ noun the act of going out. ⓘ 1950s as adj 1; 14c as noun.

outgoings ▷ plural noun money spent; expenditure.

outgrow ▷ verb 1 to grow too large for (one's clothes). 2 to become too old for (childish ailments or children's games, etc). 3 to grow larger or faster than someone or something else. ⓘ 16c.

outgrowth ▷ noun 1 the act or process of growing out. 2 anything which grows out of something else; a by-product.

outgun ▷ verb 1 to defeat by means of superior weapons or force, etc. 2 to shoot better than someone else. 3 colloq to surpass or do better than someone else.

outhouse ▷ noun a building, usually a small one such as a shed, etc built close to a house. ⓘ 14c.

outing ▷ noun 1 a short pleasure trip or excursion. 2 sport an appearance at or participation in an outdoor race or other sporting event. 3 colloq the act of making public the homosexuality of a prominent person, often against their will, and especially to further a homosexual cause. ⓘ 1990s in sense 3; 19c.

outjockey ▷ verb (outjockeyed, outjockeying) to outwit someone by trickery. ⓘ 18c.

outlandish /aʊtˈlandɪʃ/ ▷ adj said of appearance, manner or habit, etc: very strange; odd; bizarre. ● outlandishly adverb. ● outlandishness noun. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon utlendisc foreign.

outlaw ▷ noun 1 originally someone excluded from, and deprived of the protection of, the law. 2 a criminal who is a fugitive from the law. 3 loosely a bandit; a lawless person. ▷ verb (outlawed, outlawing) 1 to deprive someone of the benefit and protection of the law; to make them an outlaw. 2 to forbid something officially. ● outlawry noun. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon utlaga.

outlay ▷ noun /ˈaʊtleɪ/ money, or occasionally time, spent on something; expenditure. ▷ verb /aʊtˈleɪ/ to spend (money, etc). ⓘ 16c as verb.

outlet /ˈaʊtlet, -lət/ ▷ noun 1 a vent or way out, especially for water or steam. 2 a way of releasing or using energy, talents or strong feeling, etc. Opposite of INLET. 3 a market for, or a shop that sells, the goods produced by a particular manufacturer. 4 an electrical power point. ⓘ 13c.

outlier /ˈaʊtlaɪə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 a detached portion of anything lying some way off or out. 2 geol an isolated remnant of rock surrouded by older rock. 3 someone who lives away from their place of work. ⓘ 17c.

outline ▷ noun 1 a line that forms or marks the outer edge of an object. 2 a drawing with only the outer lines and no shading. 3 the main points, etc without the details □ an outline of the plot. 4 (usually outlines) the most important features of something. 5 a line representing a word in shorthand. ▷ verb 1 to draw the outline of something. 2 to give a brief description of the main features of something. ⓘ 17c.

outlive ▷ verb 1 to live or survive longer than someone or something else. 2 to survive the effects of (a disease, etc).

outlook ▷ noun 1 a view from a particular place. 2 someone's mental attitude or point of view. 3 a prospect for the future.

outmoded /aʊtˈmoʊdɪd/ ▷ adj no longer in fashion; out of date.

outmost see OUTERMOST.

out-of-body experience ▷ noun a sensation of being separate from one's own body, usually involving seeing it clearly from this external viewpoint.

outpatient ▷ noun a patient who receives treatment at a hospital or clinic but does not stay there overnight. Compare INPATIENT. Also as adj □ outpatient treatment. ⓘ 18c.

outpost ▷ noun 1 military a group of soldiers stationed at a distance from the main body, especially to protect it from a surprise attack. 2 a distant or remote settlement or branch. ⓘ 18c.

outpouring ▷ noun 1 (usually outpourings) a powerful or violent show of emotion. 2 the amount that pours out.

output ▷ noun 1 the quantity or amount of something produced. 2 computing the data that are transferred from the main memory of a computer to a disk, tape or output device such as a VDU or printer. 3 the power or energy produced by an electrical component or apparatus. ▷ verb 1 to produce (information or power, etc) as output. 2 computing to transfer data from the main memory of a computer to a disk or tape, or to an output device. Compare INPUT. ⓘ 19c; 1940s in sense 2.

output device ▷ noun, computing 1 a unit that presents computer-processed data to the user in an intelligible form, eg VDU, printer or plotter. 2 a unit that translates such data into a form suitable for computer reprocessing later.

outrage ▷ noun 1 an act of great cruelty or violence. 2 an act which breaks accepted standards of morality, honour and decency. 3 great anger or resentment. ▷ verb 1 to insult, shock or anger someone greatly. 2 to do physical violence to someone, especially (euphemistic) to rape them. ⓘ 13c in the sense 'excess': from French outrer to exceed.

outrageous /aʊtˈreɪdʒəs/ ▷ adj 1 not moderate in behaviour; extravagant. 2 greatly offensive to accepted standards of morality, honour and decency. 3 colloq terrible; shocking. ● outrageously adverb. ● outrageousness noun. ⓘ 14c.

outrank ▷ verb to have a higher rank than someone; to be superior to them.

outré /ˈuːtreɪ/ ▷ adj not conventional; eccentric; shocking. ● outréness noun. ⓘ 18c: French, from outrer to exceed.

outride ▷ verb 1 to ride faster than (another vehicle, horse, etc or someone else). 2 said especially of a ship: to come safely through (a storm).

outrider ▷ noun an attendant or guard who rides a horse or motorcycle at the side or ahead of a carriage or car conveying an important person.

outrigger ▷ noun, naut 1 a beam or framework sticking out from the side of a boat to help balance the vessel and prevent it capsizing. 2 a boat that is fitted with this sort of structure. ⓘ 18c.

outright ▷ adverb /aʊtˈraɪt/ 1 completely □ be proved outright. 2 immediately; at once □ killed outright. 3 openly; honestly □ ask outright. ▷ adj /ˈaʊtraɪt/ 1 complete □ an outright fool. 2 clear □ the outright winner. 3 open; honest □ outright disapproval. ⓘ 14c.

outset ▷ noun a beginning or start.

outside ▷ noun /ˈaʊtsaɪd/ 1 the outer surface; the external parts. Opposite of INSIDE. 2 everything that is not inside or within the bounds or scope of something. 3 the farthest limit. 4 the side of a pavement next to the road. ▷ adj /ˈaʊtsaɪd/ 1 relating to, on or near the outside. 2 not forming part of a group, organization or one's regular job, etc □ outside interests. 3 unlikely; remote. 4 said of a guess, etc: stating the highest possible amount. ▷ adverb /aʊtˈsaɪd/ 1 on or to the outside; outdoors. 2 slang not in prison. ▷ prep /aʊtˈsaɪd/ 1 on or to the outside of something. 2 beyond the limits of something. 3 except; apart from. ● at the outside at the most. ● get outside of something slang to eat or drink it. ● outside in see under INSIDE OUT.

outside broadcast ▷ noun (abbreviation OB) a radio or TV programme that is recorded or filmed somewhere other than in a studio.

outside left and outside right ▷ noun, Brit football 1 the position at the extreme left or right of the middle of the field. 2 a player in this position.

outside line ▷ noun a connection by telephone from a building to another place.

outsider ▷ noun 1 someone who is not part of a group, etc or who refuses to accept the general values of society. 2 in a race or contest, etc: a competitor who is not expected to win.

outsize (abbreviation os) ▷ adj (also outsized) over normal or standard size. ▷ noun 1 anything, especially a garment, that is larger than standard size. ⓘ 19c.

outskirts ▷ plural noun the outer parts or area, especially of a town or city. ⓘ 16c.

outsmart ▷ verb (outsmarted, outsmarting) colloq to get the better of someone or something by being cleverer or more cunning; to outwit. ⓘ 1920s.

outsource ▷ verb (outsourced, outsourcing) originally US said of a business, company, etc: 1 to subcontract (work) to another company; to contract (work) out. 2 to buy in (parts for a product) from another company rather than manufacture them. ● outsourcing noun.

outspoken ▷ adj, originally Scots 1 said of a person: saying exactly what they think; frank. 2 of a remark or opinion, etc: candid; frank. ● outspokenly adverb. ● outspokenness noun. ⓘ 19c.

outspread ▷ verb /aʊtˈspred/ tr & intr to spread or stretch out; to extend. ▷ adj said of the arms, etc: stretched or spread out widely or fully. ▷ noun /ˈaʊtspred/ a spreading out; an expansion.

outstanding ▷ adj 1 excellent; superior; remarkable. 2 not yet paid or done, etc □ outstanding debts. ● outstandingly adverb in an excellent or remarkable way. ⓘ 17c, meaning 'projecting'.

outstare ▷ verb to outdo someone in staring.

outstation ▷ noun a position, post or station in a remote or lonely area far from towns.

outstay ▷ verb 1 to stay longer than the length of (one's invitation, etc); to overstay □ outstay one's welcome. 2 to stay longer than (other people).

outstretch ▷ verb 1 to stretch or spread out; to expand. 2 to reach or stretch out (especially one's hand); to extend. ● outstretched adj.

outstrip ▷ verb 1 to go faster than someone or something else. 2 to leave behind; to surpass. ⓘ 16c.

outswinger ▷ noun 1 cricket a ball bowled to swing from leg to off. 2 football a ball kicked to swerve away from the goal or from the centre of the pitch. ⓘ 1920s.

outtake ▷ noun, cinema, TV a section of film or tape removed from the final edited version of a motion picture or video. ⓘ 1960s.

out tray ▷ noun a shallow tray or container used in offices for letters, etc that are ready to be sent out. ⓘ 1940s.

outturn ▷ noun OUTPUT (noun 1). ⓘ Early 19c.

outvote ▷ verb to obtain more votes than someone or something else; to defeat them by a majority of votes.

outward /ˈaʊtwəd/ ▷ adj 1 on or towards the outside. 2 said of a journey: away from a place. 3 apparent or seeming □ outward appearances. 4 relating to the outer or visible aspect of something as opposed to its inner nature, especially to the body as opposed to the mind or soul. 5 relating to the external material world. ▷ adverb (also outwards) towards the outside; in an outward direction. ● outwardly adverb in appearance; on the outside; superficially □ Outwardly he's very pleasant. ● outwardness noun. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon.

outwear ▷ verb /aʊtˈweə(r)/ 1 to destroy something by wearing; to wear it away. 2 to wear or last longer than something else. 3 to exhaust something in strength or endurance, etc. 4 to overcome or defeat something in the process of time. ▷ noun /ˈaʊtweə(r)/ OUTERWEAR.

outweigh ▷ verb 1 to be greater than something in weight. 2 to be greater than something in value, importance or influence.

outwit ▷ verb (outwitted, outwitting) to get the better of or defeat someone by being cleverer or more cunning than they are. ⓘ 17c.

outwith /ˈaʊtwɪθ/ ▷ prep, chiefly Scots outside; beyond. ⓘ 13c.

outwork ▷ noun /ˈaʊtwɜːk/ 1 (usually outworks) a defence work that is outside the main line of fortifications. 2 work done for a company, factory or shop, etc by employees who work at home. ▷ verb /aʊtˈwɜːk/ to work harder or faster, etc than someone or something else. ● outworker noun.

outworn ▷ adj said especially of an idea, belief or institution: no longer useful or in fashion; out of date; obsolete.

ouzel or ousel /ˈuːzəl/ ▷ noun 1 (also ring ouzel) a thrush, native to Europe, N Africa and SW Asia, with dark plumage, pale silvery wings and a characteristic broad white band across its throat. 2 (also water ouzel) any of various small aquatic songbirds that inhabit fast-flowing streams; a dipper. 3 formerly a blackbird. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon osle.

ouzo /ˈuːzoʊ/ ▷ noun (ouzos) a Greek alcoholic drink flavoured with aniseed and usually diluted with water. ⓘ 19c: from modern Greek ouzon.

ova plural of OVUM oval /ˈoʊvəl/ ▷ adj 1 with the outline of an egg or shaped like an egg. 2 loosely elliptical or ellipsoidal. ▷ noun 1 any egg-shaped figure or object. 2 Austral a ground for Australian Rules football. • ovality or ovalness noun. • ovally adverb. ⓘ 16c: from Latin ovalis, from ovum egg.

oval window ▷ noun, anatomy in vertebrates: the upper of two membrane-covered openings between the middle ear and the inner ear. Also called fenestra ovalis.

ovarian follicle see GRAAFIAN FOLLICLE ovariectomy /oʊveərɪˈɛktəmɪ/ ▷ noun (ovariectomies) surgery surgical removal of an ovary. ⓘ 19c.

ovaritis /oʊvəˈraɪtɪs/ ▷ noun, pathol inflammation of the ovary. ⓘ 19c.

ovary /ˈoʊvərɪ/ ▷ noun (ovaries) 1 in a female animal: the reproductive organ in which the ova are produced. In vertebrates there are two ovaries, and they also produce oestrogen. 2 bot the enlarged hollow base of the carpel of a flower, which contains one or more ovules, the outer layer of which develops into a fruit after fertilization. • ovarian adj. ⓘ 17c: from Latin ovarium, from ovum egg.

ovate /ˈoʊveɪt/ ▷ adj 1 egg-shaped. 2 bot with an outline like that of an egg; broadest below the middle. ▷ noun, archaeol an implement with an oval shape, especially a type of hand-axe from the lower Palaeolithic period. ⓘ 18c: from Latin ovatus egg-shaped.

ovation /oʊˈveɪʃən/ ▷ noun 1 sustained applause or cheering to express approval or welcome, etc. 2 historical a processional entry into Rome by a victorious general or commander, but less glorious than a triumph. • ovational adj. ⓘ 16c: from Latin ovatio, from ovare to exult, or to celebrate a lesser victory.

oven /ˈʌvən/ ▷ noun 1 a closed compartment or arched cavity in which substances may be heated, used especially for baking or roasting food, drying clay, etc. 2 a small furnace. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon ofen.

oven glove ▷ noun a padded glove used to protect the hand when removing hot dishes from an oven.

ovenproof ▷ adj said of dishes and plates, etc: suitable for use in an oven; that will not crack at a high temperature.

oven-ready ▷ adj said of food: prepared beforehand so as to be ready for cooking in the oven immediately after purchase.

ovenware ▷ noun heat-resistant or ovenproof dishes, bowls, etc.

over /ˈoʊvə(r)/ ▷ adverb 1 above and across. 2 outwards and downwards □ knock him over □ The kettle boiled over. 3 across a space; to or on the other side □ fly over from Australia. 4 from one person, side or condition to another □ win them over □ turn the card over. 5 through, from beginning to end, usually with concentration □ read the letter over □ think it over thoroughly. 6 again; in repetition □ do it twice over. 7 at an end □ The game is over. 8 so as to cover completely □ paper the cracks over. 9 beyond a limit; in excess (of) □ go over budget □ spend over £10. 10 remaining □ left over. 11 until a later time □ hold payment over until February. ▷ prep 1 in or to a position which is above or higher in place, importance, authority, value or number, etc. 2 above and from one side to another □ fly over the sea. 3 so as to cover □ flopped over his eyes. 4 out and down from □ fall over the edge. 5 throughout the extent of something □ read over that page again. 6 during a specified time or period □ sometime over the weekend. 7 until after a specified time □ stay over Monday night. 8 more than □ over a year ago. 9 concerning; about □ argue over who would pay. 10 while occupied with something □ chat about it over coffee. 11 occupying time with something □ spend a day over the preparations. 12 recovered from the effects of something □ be over the accident. 13 by means of something □ hear about it over the radio. 14 divided by □ Six over three is two. ▷ adj 1 upper; higher. 2 outer. 3 excessive. See also OVER-. ▷ exclamation used during two-way radio conversations: showing that one has finished speaking and expects a reply. ▷ noun, cricket 1 a series of six (or formerly in Australia eight) balls bowled by the same bowler from the same end of the pitch. 2 play during such a series of balls. • be all over someone colloq to make a great fuss of them, often ingratiatingly. • over again once more. • over against something opposite it; in contrast with it. • over and above something in addition to it. • over and over again repeatedly. • over head and ears completely submerged. • over the top (abbreviation OTT) colloq excessive; exaggerated. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon ofer.

over- /oʊvə(r)/ ▷ prefix, denoting 1 excessive or excessively; beyond the agreed or desired limit □ overconfident. 2 above; in a higher position or authority □ overlord □ oversee. 3 position or movement above □ overhang. 4 outer; extra □ overcoat. 5 movement downwards; away from an upright position □ overturn. 6 completely □ overwhelm.

overachieve ▷ verb, tr & intr to do better than expected or than (an expected goal or aim, etc). • overachiever noun. ⓘ 1950s.

overact ▷ verb, tr & intr to act (a part) with too much expression or emotion. ⓘ 17c.

over-age ▷ adj 1 beyond a specified age limit. 2 too old.

overall ▷ noun /ˈoʊvərɔːl/ 1 Brit a loose-fitting coat-like garment worn over ordinary clothes to protect them. 2 (overalls) a one-piece garment with trousers to cover the legs and either a dungaree-type top, or top with sleeves, worn to protect clothes. Compare COVERALL. ▷ adj /ˈoʊvərɔːl/ 1 including everything □ the overall total. 2 from end to end □ the overall length. ▷ adverb /oʊvərˈɔːl/ as a whole; in general □ quite good, overall. ⓘ 13c as adverb.

overarch ▷ verb to form an arch over something.

Some words with over- prefixed: see OVER- for numbered senses specified below.

overabundance noun sense 1.
overambitious adj sense 1. overanxious adj sense 1. overanxiously adverb sense 1. overappreciative adj sense 1. overassert verb sense 1. overblanket noun sense 3. overboil verb sense 1. overbold adj sense 1. overbook verb sense 1. overbooked adj sense 1.
overcareful adj sense 1. overclad adj sense 1. overcompensate verb sense 1. overcomplicate verb sense 1. overconfident adj sense 1. overcook verb sense 1.
overcorrection noun sense 1. overcritical adj sense 1. overcrowd verb sense 1. overdevelop verb sense 1. overdramatize verb sense 1. overeat verb sense 1. overemotional adj sense 1.
over-exact adj sense 1. overexcitable adj sense 1. overexcite verb sense 1. overexert verb sense 1. overexertion noun sense 1. overfamiliar adj sense 1. overfeed verb sense 1. overfill verb sense 1. overfine adj sense 1.

overarching ▷ adj 1 forming an arch over something. 2 referring or relating to something that covers various issues, the interests of various affected groups, etc □ the overarching importance of the peace process □ one overarching body.

overarm ▷ adj, adverb said of a ball, especially in cricket: bowled or thrown with the hand and arm raised over and moving round the shoulder.

overawe ▷ verb to subdue or restrain someone by filling them with awe, fear or astonishment. ⓘ 16c.

overbalance ▷ verb, tr & intr to make someone lose their balance (or to lose one's balance) and fall.

overbearing ▷ adj 1 domineering; too powerful and proud. 2 referring to someone or something of particularly great importance. ■ overbearingly adverb.

overblown ▷ adj 1 overdone; excessive. 2 self-important and pretentious. 3 said of flowers: past their best; beginning to die.

overboard ▷ adverb over the side of a ship or boat into the water □ fall overboard. ■ go overboard colloq to be very or too enthusiastic. ■ throw something or someone overboard to abandon or get rid of it or them.

overburden ▷ verb to give someone too much to do, carry or think about.

overcast ▷ adj said of the sky or weather: cloudy.

overcharge ▷ verb 1 tr & intr to charge too much □ overcharged him by £10. 2 to overfill or overload something. ▷ noun /ˈouvə-/ 1 an excessive price or charge. 2 an excessive load.

overcloud ▷ verb 1 tr & intr to cover something, or become covered, with clouds. 2 to make someone sad or worried.

overcoat ▷ noun a warm heavy coat worn especially in winter. ⓘ Early 19c.

overcome ▷ verb 1 to defeat someone or something; to succeed in a struggle against them or it; to deal successfully with them or it. 2 to deal successfully with something □ overcame his problems. 3 intr to be victorious. 4 to affect someone strongly; to overwhelm them □ was overcome by the fumes. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon ofercuman.

overdo ▷ verb 1 to do something too much; to exaggerate. 2 to cook (food) for too long. 3 to use too much of something. ■ overdo it or things to work too hard. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon oferdon.

overdose ▷ noun an excessive dose of a drug, etc. ▷ verb, tr & intr to take an overdose or give an excessive dose to someone. See also OD¹. ⓘ 18c.

overdraft ▷ noun 1 a state in which one has taken more money out of one's bank account than was in it. 2 the excess of money taken from one's account over the sum that was in it. ⓘ 19c.

overdraw ▷ verb 1 tr & intr to draw more money from (one's bank account) than one has in it. 2 to exaggerate in describing something. ■ overdrawn adj with an overdraft at a bank.

overdress ▷ verb, tr & intr to dress someone or oneself, or to be dressed, in clothes that are too formal, smart or expensive for the occasion. ▷ noun a dress that may be worn over a blouse or jumper, etc.

overdrive ▷ noun an additional very high gear in a motor vehicle's gearbox, which reduces wear on the engine and saves fuel when travelling at high speeds. ▷ verb to drive something too hard; to overwork it. ⓘ 1920s as noun.

overdue ▷ adj said of bills or work, etc: not yet paid, done or delivered, etc, although the date for doing this has passed.

overestimate ▷ verb to estimate or judge, etc something too highly. ▷ noun /-ˈestɪmɪt/ too high an estimate. ■ overestimation noun.

overexpose ▷ verb 1 to expose someone to too much publicity. 2 to expose (photographic film) to too much light. ■ overexposure noun.

overfish ▷ verb to remove too many fish from (a sea or river, etc) thereby depleting the population of certain species by reducing the number available to breed.

overflow ▷ verb 1 to flow over (a brim) or go beyond (the limits or edge of something). 2 intr said of a container, etc: to be filled so full that the contents spill over or out. 3 (usually overflow with something) intr to be full of it □ was overflowing with gratitude. ▷ noun /ˈouvə-/ 1 that which overflows. 2 the act of flowing over. 3 a pipe or outlet for surplus water. 4 an excess or abundance of something. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon oferflowan.

overgrown ▷ adj 1 said of a garden, etc: dense with plants that have grown too large and thick. 2 grown too large or beyond the normal size. ■ overgrowth noun. ⓘ 14c in sense 2.

overhand ▷ adj, adverb thrown or performed, etc with the hand brought downwards from above the shoulder; overarm or with an overarm action.

overhang ▷ verb 1 tr & intr to project or hang out over something. 2 to threaten. ▷ noun /ˈouvə-/ 1 a piece of rock or part of a roof, etc that overhangs. 2 the amount by which something overhangs.

overhaul ▷ verb 1 to examine carefully and repair something. 2 to overtake. ▷ noun /ˈouvə-/ a thorough examination and repair.

overhead ▷ adverb, adj above; over one's head. ▷ noun (overheads) the regular costs of a business, such as rent, wages and electricity. ⓘ Early 20c as noun; 15c as adverb.

overhead projector ▷ noun (abbreviation OHP) a projector which sits on a speaker's desk and projects images on a screen behind it.

Some words with over- prefixed: see OVER- for numbered senses specified below.

overfond adj sense 1. overfondly adverb sense 1.
overfull adj sense 1. overgarment noun sense 3. overgeneralization or overgeneralisation noun sense 1. overgeneralize or overgeneralise verb sense 1. overgenerous adj sense 1.
overhastily adverb sense 1. overhasty adj sense 1. overidealistic adj sense 1. overindulge verb sense 1. overindulgent adj sense 1. overinsure verb sense 1. overissue verb sense 1. overkind adj sense 1. overlong adj, adverb sense 1. overman verb sense 1. overoptimistic adj sense 1. overpay verb sense 1. overpopulate verb sense 1. overpraise verb sense 1. overprice verb sense 1. overproduce verb sense 1. overproduction noun sense 1. overprotective adj sense 1.
over-refine verb sense 1. over-refinement noun sense 1. overripe adj sense 1. overscrupulous adj sense 1. oversensitive adj

overhear ▷ verb, tr & intr to hear (a person or remark, etc) without the speaker knowing, either by accident or on purpose.

overheat ▷ verb 1 to heat something excessively. 2 intr to become too hot. 3 econ to overstimulate (the economy) with the risk of increasing inflation. ● overheated adj said of an argument, discussion, etc: angry and excited; passionate.

overjoyed /oʊvəˈdʒɔɪd/ ▷ adj very glad; elated.

overkill ▷ noun /ˈoʊvəkɪl/ 1 the capability to destroy an enemy using a larger force than is actually needed to win a victory. 2 action, behaviour or treatment, etc that is far in excess of what is required. ▷ verb, tr & intr to practise overkill against, or subject someone or something to, overkill. ⓘ 1940s.

overladen ▷ adj overloaded.

overland ▷ adverb, adj said of a journey, etc: across land.

overlap ▷ verb /oʊvəˈlap/ 1 said of part of an object: to partly cover (another object). 2 intr said of two parts: to have one part partly covering the other. 3 intr said of two things: to have something in common; to partly coincide. ▷ noun /ˈoʊvə-/ an overlapping part.

overlay ▷ verb 1 to lay one thing on or over another. 2 (often overlay one thing with another) a to cover or conceal it with something else; b to cover (a surface) with an applied decoration. 3 printing to obtain the correct printing pressure evenly over (a forme or plate) by adding to the appropriate areas of the packing. ▷ noun /ˈoʊvəleɪ/ 1 a covering; something that is laid over something else. 2 a layer, eg of gold leaf, applied to something for decoration. 3 a transparent sheet placed over a map or diagram, etc to give additional information or details. 4 printing material used to overlay a forme or plate. 5 computing a the process by which segments of a large program are brought from backing store for processing, with only those segments currently requiring processing being held in the main store; b a segment of a program transferred in this way.

overleaf ▷ adverb on the other side of the page.

overlie ▷ verb 1 to lie on. 2 to smother and kill (a baby or small animal) by lying on it.

overload ▷ verb 1 to load something too heavily. 2 to put too great an electric current through (a circuit). ▷ noun /ˈoʊvə-/ too great an electric current flowing through a circuit.

overlook ▷ verb 1 to give a view of something from a higher position ▫ overlooks the garden. 2 to fail to see or notice something. 3 to allow (a mistake or crime, etc) to go unpunished. 4 to supervise. 5 to look on someone with the evil eye; to bewitch them. ▷ noun /ˈoʊvə-/ 1 chiefly US a high place that gives a view of the area below. 2 a failure to see or notice something; an oversight.

overlord ▷ noun a lord or ruler with supreme power. ● overlordship noun. ⓘ 13c.

overly /ˈoʊvəlɪ/ ▷ adverb too; excessively. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon oferlice.

overmaster ▷ verb to master someone or something completely; to overpower them.

overmatch chiefly US ▷ verb 1 to be more than a match for someone. 2 to match someone with a superior opponent. ▷ noun /ˈoʊvə-/ 1 a superior opponent. 2 a contest in which one of the opponents is superior.

overmuch ▷ adverb, adj too much; very much. ⓘ 13c.

overnice ▷ adj fussy; critical and hard to please.

overnight ▷ adverb 1 during the night. 2 for the duration of the night. 3 suddenly ▫ Success came overnight. ▷ adj /ˈoʊvə-/ 1 done or occurring in the night. 2 sudden ▫ an overnight success. 3 for use overnight.

overnight bag and overnight case ▷ noun a small grip or case for carrying the clothes and toilet articles, etc needed for an overnight stay.

overpass see under FLYOVER.

overplay ▷ verb 1 to exaggerate or overemphasize (the importance of something). 2 tr & intr to exaggerate (an emotion, etc); to act in an exaggerated way. ● overplay one's hand to overestimate or overtax one's talents or assets, etc.

overpower ▷ verb 1 to defeat or subdue by greater strength. 2 to weaken or reduce to helplessness. ● overpowering 1 very great; overwhelming. 2 irresistible. adj ● overpoweringly adverb.

overprint ▷ verb 1 to print over (something already printed, especially a postage stamp). 2 to print something in one colour on top of another. 3 tr & intr to print too many copies of (a book, etc). ▷ noun /ˈoʊvə-/ 1 the action of overprinting. 2 overprinted matter, especially on a postage stamp. 3 a postage stamp with overprinted matter.

overqualified ▷ noun with more qualifications or experience than are required for a particular job or post, etc.

overrate ▷ verb 1 to assess or think too highly of something or someone; to overestimate it or them. 2 rowing to row at a rate that is faster than (one's opponent). ● overrated adj. ⓘ 17c in sense 1; 1960s in sense 2.

overreach ▷ verb 1 to defeat (oneself) by trying to do too much, or be too clever, etc. 2 to go beyond (a target, etc). 3 to strain (oneself) by trying to reach too far. 4 tr & intr to stretch out (an arm, etc) too far in attempting to reach for or grasp something. 5 intr said of a horse: to strike the hindfoot against the back of the forefoot, eg when jumping a fence.

overreact ▷ verb, intr to react excessively or too strongly. ● overreaction noun. ⓘ 1960s.

Some words with over- prefixed: see OVER- for numbered senses specified below.

overshirt noun sense 3.
oversimplification noun sense 1. oversimplify verb sense 1. overskirt noun sense 3.
oversleeve noun sense 3. overspecialize or overspecialise verb sense 1. overspecialization or overspecialisation noun sense 1. overspread verb sense 3. overstaff verb sense 1.
overstain verb sense 3.
overstock verb sense 1. overstock noun sense 1. overstrain verb sense 1. overstress verb sense 1. overstretch verb sense 1. overstrict adj sense 1. overstuff verb sense 1. oversubtle adj sense 1. oversubtlety noun sense 1. oversupply verb sense 1. oversupply noun sense 1. overtire verb sense 1. overtrain verb sense 1.
overtrump verb sense 2.
overuse verb sense 1. overuse noun sense 1. overvalue verb sense 1.
overvaluation noun sense 1. overviolent adj sense 1. overwilling adj sense 1. overweary adj sense 1. overwise adj sense 1.

override ▷ verb 1 to ride over; to cross (an area) by riding. 2 to dominate or assume superiority over someone. 3 to annul something or set it aside. 4 to take manual control of (a normally automatically controlled operation). ▷ noun /ˈoʊvə-/ 1 the action or process of suspending an automatic control. 2 a device, especially a manual control, that does this. • overriding adj dominant; most important ▫ overriding considerations. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon; 1940s as noun.

overrider /ˈoʊvəraɪdə(r)/ noun an attachment fitted to the bumper of a motor vehicle to prevent another bumper becoming interlocked with it.

overrule ▷ verb 1 to rule against or cancel (especially a previous decision or judgement) by higher authority. 2 to impose a decision on (a person) by higher authority.

overrun ▷ verb 1 to spread over or through something; to infest it ▫ overrun with weeds. 2 to invade and occupy (another country) quickly and by force. 3 tr & intr to go beyond (a fixed limit) ▫ The talk overran by ten minutes. 4 intr said of liquid or a container, etc: to spill over; to overflow. 5 printing to transfer or carry over (set type) to a new line or page. 6 intr said of a vehicle engine: to slow down in response to a reverse torque transmitted through the gears from the wheels. ▷ noun /ˈoʊvə-/ 1 the act or an instance of overrunning. 2 the extent to which something overruns. 3 an excess of production. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon oferyrnan.

overrun brake ▷ noun a brake fitted to a trailer to prevent it from going faster than the towing vehicle when going downhill or when the towing vehicle is decelerating.

overseas ▷ adverb /oʊvəˈsiːz/ in or to a land beyond the sea; abroad ▫ working overseas. ▷ adj /ˈoʊvə-/ (also oversea) across or from beyond the sea; foreign ▫ an overseas posting. ▷ noun a foreign country or foreign countries in general ▫ a visitor from overseas. ⓘ 16c.

oversee /oʊvəˈsiː/ ▷ verb to supervise. • overseer /ˈoʊvəsɪə(r)/ noun someone who oversees workers; a supervisor. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon ofersēon to overlook.

oversell ▷ verb 1 tr & intr to sell something at too high a price or in greater quantities than can be supplied. 2 to praise someone or something too highly. ▷ noun /ˈoʊvə-/ excessively aggressive or ambitious selling of commodities or goods, etc.

oversew ▷ verb to sew (two edges) together with close stitches that pass over both edges.

oversexed ▷ adj with unusually strong sexual urges.

overshadow ▷ verb 1 to seem much more important than someone or something else; to outshine them. 2 to cast a shadow over something; to make it seem more gloomy. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon ofersceadian.

overshoe ▷ noun a shoe, usually made of rubber or plastic, worn over normal shoes to protect them in wet weather. ⓘ 19c.

overshoot ▷ verb 1 to shoot or go farther than (a target aimed at). 2 a said of an aircraft: to fly beyond or fail to come to a halt on (a runway); b said of a train: to fail to come to a halt at (a station). 3 (especially overshoot the mark) to make a mistake as a result of misjudging a situation. ▷ noun /ˈoʊvə-/ 1 the action or an act of overshooting. 2 the degree to which something overshoots. • overshot adj 1 with the upper jaw protruding beyond the lower one. 2 said of a waterwheel: fed from above.

oversight ▷ noun 1 a mistake or omission, especially one made through a failure to notice something. 2 supervision. ⓘ 14c in sense 2.

oversize ▷ adj (also oversized) very large; larger then normal. ▷ noun /ˈoʊvə-/ 1 a size that is larger than normal. 2 something that is oversize.

oversleep ▷ verb, intr to sleep longer than one intended.

overspend ▷ verb 1 to exhaust something; to wear it out. 2 to spend in excess of (a specified amount or limit, etc). 3 intr to spend too much money; to spend beyond one's means. ▷ noun /ˈoʊvə-/ 1 the action or an act of overspending. 2 an amount that is overspent. ⓘ 17c.

overspill ▷ noun, Brit the people leaving an overcrowded or derelict town area to live elsewhere. ⓘ 19c.

overstate ▷ verb to state something too strongly or with undue emphasis; to exaggerate. • overstatement noun.

overstay ▷ verb to stay longer than the length of (one's invitation, etc) ▫ overstay one's welcome.

oversteer ▷ verb, intr said of a vehicle: to turn more sharply than the driver intends; to exaggerate the degree of turn applied by the steering wheel. ⓘ 1930s.

overstep ▷ verb (especially overstep the mark) to go beyond or exceed (a certain limit, or what is prudent or reasonable). ⓘ Anglo-Saxon ofersteppan.

overstrung ▷ adj 1 said of a person or temperament, etc: too sensitive and nervous; tense. 2 said of a piano: with two sets of strings crossing each other obliquely to save space. ⓘ 19c.

oversubscribe ▷ verb to apply for or try to purchase (eg shares, etc) in larger quantities than are available. • oversubscription noun.

overt /oʊˈvɜːt, ˈoʊvɜːt/ ▷ adj not hidden or secret; open; public. • overtly adverb. ⓘ 14c: from French ouvert open, from Latin aperire, apertum.

overt act ▷ noun, law something that is obviously done in execution of a criminal intent.

overtake ▷ verb 1 tr & intr, chiefly Brit to catch up with and go past (a car or a person, etc) moving in the same direction. 2 to draw level with and begin to do better than someone. 3 to come upon someone suddenly or without warning ▫ overtaken by bad weather.

overtax ▷ verb 1 to demand too much tax from someone. 2 to put too great a strain on someone or oneself.

over-the-counter ▷ adj 1 said of goods, eg drugs and medicines: legally sold directly to the customer. 2 (over the counter) involving trading in shares that are not on the official Stock Exchange list.

overthrow ▷ verb 1 to defeat completely (an established order or a government, etc). 2 to upset or overturn something. 3 to throw (a ball, etc) too far. ▷ noun /ˈoʊvə-/ 1 the act of overthrowing or state of being overthrown. 2 cricket an inaccurate return of the ball by a fielder which often allows the batsman to score extra runs.

overtime ▷ noun 1 time spent working at one's job beyond one's regular hours. 2 the money which is sometimes paid for this extra time. 3 sport, N Amer extra time. ▷ adverb during overtime; in addition to one's regular hours ▫ work overtime. ▷ verb /oʊvəˈtaɪm/ to go beyond the correct allowance of time for (a photographic exposure, etc).

overtly see under OVERT.

overtone ▷ noun 1 (often overtones) a subtle hint, quality or meaning; a nuance ▫ political overtones. 2 music a tone that contributes towards a musical sound and adds to its quality. ⓘ 19c: modelled on German Oberton, a contraction of oberpartialton upper partial tone.

overture /ˈoʊvətjʊə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 music a an orchestral introduction to an opera, oratorio or ballet; b a one-movement orchestral composition in a similar style. 2 (usually overtures) a proposal or offer intended to open a discussion, negotiations or a relationship, etc. ⓘ 14c: French, meaning 'opening', ultimately from Latin aperire, apertum to open.

overturn ▷ verb 1 tr & intr to turn something or be turned over or upside down. 2 to bring down or destroy (a government). 3 to overrule or cancel (a previous legal decision).

overview ▷ noun a brief general account or description of a subject, etc; a summary.

overweening ▷ adj 1 said of a person: arrogant; conceited. 2 said of pride: inflated and excessive. • overweeningly adverb. • overweeningness noun. ⓘ 14c: from Anglo-Saxon wenan to WEEN.

overweight ▷ adj above the desired, required or usual weight. ▷ noun 1 extra weight; weight beyond what is required or allowed. 2 said of a person: the condition of being overweight. ▷ verb (overweighted, overweighting) 1 to give too much weight or importance to something. 2 to add too much weight to something; to overload it. ⓘ 18c.

overwhelm /oʊvəˈwelm/ ▷ verb (overwhelmed, overwhelming) 1 to crush mentally; to overpower (a person's emotions or thoughts, etc). 2 to defeat completely by superior force or numbers. 3 to supply or offer something in great amounts ◻ overwhelmed with offers of help. ⓘ 14c: from whelm to turn or roll.

overwhelming ▷ adj physically or mentally crushing; intensely powerful. • overwhelmingly adverb. ⓘ 18c.

overwind ▷ verb to wind (a watch, etc) too far.

overwork ▷ verb 1 intr to work too hard. 2 to make someone work too hard. 3 to make too much use of something. 4 to decorate the surface of something. ▷ noun the act of working too hard; excessive work.

overwrite ▷ verb 1 to write too much about something. 2 to write in a laboured or excessively ornate style. 3 to write on top of something else. 4 computing to write new information over (existing data), thereby destroying (it). ⓘ 17c.

overwrought /oʊvəˈrɔːt/ ▷ adj 1 very nervous or excited; over-emotional. 2 too elaborate; overdone. ⓘ 17c: from WROUGHT, old past participle of WORK.

ovi- /oʊvɪ/ or ovo- /oʊvoʊ/ ▷ combining form, signifying egg or ovum. ⓘ From Latin ovum egg.

oviduct /ˈoʊvɪdʌkt, ˈɒvɪ-/ ▷ noun, anatomy, zool the tube that conveys ova from the ovary to another organ, such as the uterus, or to the outside of the body. In mammals, this duct connects the ovary to the FALLOPIAN TUBE, which leads to the uterus. • oviducal or oviductal adj. ⓘ 18c.

oviform /ˈoʊvɪfɔːm/ ▷ adj egg-shaped. ⓘ 17c.

ovine /ˈoʊvaɪn/ ▷ adj relating to or characteristic of a sheep or sheep; sheeplike. ⓘ 19c: from Latin ovinus, from ovis sheep.

oviparous /oʊˈvɪpərəs/ ▷ adj, zool said of many birds, reptiles, amphibians, bony fishes, etc: laying eggs that develop and hatch outside the mother's body. Compare OVOVIVIPAROUS, VIVIPAROUS. • oviparity noun. • oviparously adj. ⓘ 17c.

ovipositor /oʊvɪˈpɒzɪtə(r)/ ▷ noun, zool 1 in female insects: the egg-laying organ, which is often long and tube-like, at the rear end of the abdomen and which may be used for stinging or boring. 2 in some female fishes: a similar organ, formed by the extension of the edges of the genital opening. ⓘ 19c: from OVI- + Latin positor placer.

ovo- see OVI-

ovoid /ˈoʊvɔɪd/ chiefly zool & bot ▷ adj egg-shaped; oval. ▷ noun an egg-shaped or oval form or object. ⓘ 19c: from French ovoïde, from Latin ovum egg.

ovolo /ˈoʊvəloʊ/ ▷ noun (plural ovoli) archit a moulding with the rounded part composed of a quarter of a circle, or of an arc of an ellipse with the curve greatest at the top. ⓘ 17c: Italian, diminutive of uovo or obsolete ovo, from Latin ovum egg.

ovoviviparous /oʊvoʊvɪˈvɪpərəs, -vaɪˈvɪpərəs/ ▷ adj, zool said of many insects and of certain fish and reptiles: producing eggs that hatch within the body of the mother. Compare OVIPAROUS and VIVIPAROUS. • ovoviviparity noun. ⓘ 19c.

ovulate /ˈɒvjʊleɪt/ ▷ verb (ovulated, ovulating) intr, physiol 1 to release an ovum or egg cell from the ovary. 2 to form or produce ova. • ovulation noun. ⓘ 19c: from OVULE, or back formation from ovulation.

ovule /ˈɒvjuːl/ ▷ noun, bot in flowering plants characteristic of SPERMATOPHYTES: the structure that develops into a seed after fertilization. • ovular adj. ⓘ 19c: French, from Latin ovulum, diminutive of ovum egg.

ovum /ˈoʊvəm/ ▷ noun (ova /ˈoʊvə/) 1 biol an unfertilized egg or egg cell produced by the ovary of an animal; a female gamete. 2 bot the non-motile female gamete. ⓘ 18c in this sense: Latin, meaning 'egg'.

ow /aʊ/ ▷ exclamation expressing sudden, usually mild, pain. ⓘ Early 20c.

owe /oʊ/ ▷ verb (owed, owing) 1 tr & intr to be under an obligation to pay (money) to someone ◻ owes him £5. 2 to feel required by duty or gratitude to do or give someone something ◻ owe you an explanation. 3 (often owe something to someone or something) to have or enjoy it as a result of them or it ◻ owes her promotion to her hard work. 4 to hold or bear in the mind (a feeling, etc) against another person ◻ owe a grudge. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon agan to own.

owing ▷ adj still to be paid; due. • owing to something because of it; on account of it.

> owing
>
> Owing to is often used as an alternative to due to when there is no noun or pronoun antecedent earlier in the sentence. See Usage Note at due.

owl /aʊl/ ▷ noun 1 a nocturnal bird of prey found in all parts of the world except Antarctica, with a large broad head, a flat face, large forward-facing eyes and a short hooked beak. It is noted for its distinctive hooting or howling call. 2 any of several varieties of fancy domestic pigeon with an owl-like head. 3 someone thought to look or behave like an owl, especially by looking solemn or wise, or sitting up late at night. • owl-like adj. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon ule.

owlet /ˈaʊlɪt/ ▷ noun a young or small owl. ⓘ 16c.

owlish ▷ adj 1 relating to or like an owl. 2 said of a person: a with an owl-like appearance, especially if wearing glasses; b solemn or wise. • owlishly adverb. • owlishness noun. ⓘ 17c.

own /oʊn/ ▷ adj often used for emphasis: belonging to or for oneself or itself ◻ my own sister. ▷ pronoun one belonging (or something belonging) to oneself or itself ◻ lost his own, so I lent him mine. ▷ verb (owned, owning) 1 to have something as a possession or property. 2 (usually own to something) intr to admit or confess to it ◻ owned to many weaknesses. 3 rare to concede or acknowledge. • owner noun. • ownership noun. • come into one's own 1 to take possession of one's rights or what is due to one. 2 to have one's abilities or talents, etc duly recognized, or to realize one's potential. • get one's own back on someone colloq to get even with them; to have one's revenge. • hold one's own to maintain one's position, especially in spite of difficulty or opposition, etc; not to be defeated. • on one's own 1 alone; by oneself. 2 without help. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon agen, past participle of agan to possess.

■ own up or own up to something to confess; to admit a wrongdoing, etc.

own brand and own label ▷ noun an article that carries the trademark or label, etc of the store that sells it rather than that of the producer. Compare NAME BRAND.

owner-occupier ▷ noun someone who owns the property they are living in. • owner-occupied adj.

own goal ▷ noun 1 sport a goal scored by mistake for the opposing side. 2 colloq an action that turns out to be to the disadvantage of the person who took it.

ox /ɒks/ ▷ noun (plural oxen /ˈɒksən/) 1 the general name for any bovine mammal, especially the male or female of common domestic cattle. 2 an adult castrated male of any species of bovine mammal, especially domesticated species of cattle, used for pulling loads or as a source of meat. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon oxa.

oxalic acid /ɒkˈsalɪk —/ ▷ noun, chem (formula $(COOH)_2$) a highly poisonous white crystalline solid that occurs in the leaves of rhubarb, wood sorrel and certain other plants, used as a rust and stain remover, a cleaner for car radiators and in tanning and bleaching. Also called ETHANEDIOIC ACID. ⓘ 18c: from OXALIS.

oxalis /ˈɒksəlɪs, ɒkˈsalɪs/ ▷ noun any of various plants with delicate white, pink, red or yellow flowers and clover-like leaves that contain oxalic acid. See also WOOD SORREL. ⓘ 17c: Greek, meaning 'sorrel', from oxys sour or acid, because of the sharp-tasting leaves.

oxblood ▷ noun a dark reddish-brown colour. Also as adj. ⓘ 18c.

oxbow /ˈɒksbou/ ▷ noun 1 a collar for a yoked ox, formed from a piece of U-shaped wood the ends of which are attached to the yoke. 2 geol a a horseshoe-shaped bend or meander in a river; b (also oxbow lake) a shallow curved lake found on a flat floodplain alongside a meandering river, and formed when one of the meanders has been cut off by the formation of a stream across the neck of the bend. ⓘ 14c.

Oxbridge /ˈɒksbrɪdʒ/ ▷ noun, Brit 1 the universities of Oxford and Cambridge considered together and usually in contrast to other universities. 2 as adj relating to or characteristic of these universities, especially when regarded as typical of traditional upper-class education, attitudes and privilege, etc. ⓘ 19c.

oxen plural of OX

ox-eyed ▷ adj with large round ox-like eyes.

oxeye daisy see MARGUERITE

OXFAM /ˈɒksfam/ ▷ abbreviation Oxford Committee for Famine Relief, a major aid agency.

Oxford /ˈɒksfəd/ ▷ adj relating to or characteristic of the city of Oxford or Oxford University. ▷ noun 1 (also Oxford shoe) a low-heeled shoe which laces up across the instep. 2 (also Oxford cloth) a cotton or synthetic woven fabric, used chiefly to make men's shirts.

Oxford bags ▷ noun trousers with very wide-cut baggy legs.

Oxford blue ▷ noun 1 a dark blue colour. Also (Oxford-blue) as adj. 2 someone awarded a BLUE (noun 4) from Oxford University.

Oxford movement see TRACTARIANISM

oxidant /ˈɒksɪdənt/ ▷ noun 1 chem an oxidizing agent. 2 engineering a chemical compound, usually one containing oxygen, that is mixed with fuel and burned in the combustion chamber of a rocket. ⓘ 19c.

oxidase /ˈɒksɪdeɪz/ ▷ noun, biochem any of a group of enzymes that catalyse oxidation in plant and animal cells. ⓘ 19c.

oxidation /ɒksɪˈdeɪʃən/ ▷ noun, chem a chemical reaction that involves the addition of oxygen to or the removal of hydrogen from a substance which loses electrons, and which is always accompanied by REDUCTION (sense 4). ⓘ 18c.

oxidation-reduction see REDOX REACTION oxide /ˈɒksaɪd/ ▷ noun, chem any compound of oxygen and another element, often formed by burning that element or one of its compounds in oxygen or air. ⓘ 18c: French, from ox(ygène) oxygen + (ac)ide acid.

oxidize or oxidise /ˈɒksɪdaɪz/ ▷ verb (oxidized, oxidizing) tr & intr, chem 1 to undergo, or cause (a substance) to undergo, a chemical reaction with oxygen. 2 to lose or cause (an atom or ion) to lose electrons. 3 to become, or make something become, rusty as a result of the formation of a layer of metal oxide. • oxidization noun. • oxidizer noun an oxidizing agent. ⓘ 19c.

oxidizing agent ▷ noun, chem any substance that oxidizes another substance in a chemical reaction, and is itself reduced in the process, by accepting electrons.

oxlip /ˈɒkslɪp/ ▷ noun 1 a naturally occurring hybrid of the common primrose and the cowslip, with deep-yellow flowers. 2 the true oxlip, which is a separate species from the primrose and cowslip, and has pale-yellow flowers borne in a one-sided cluster. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon oxanslyppe, from oxa ox + slyppe slime.

Oxon. ▷ abbreviation 1 English county Oxfordshire. ⓘ from Latin Oxonia Oxford. 2 used in degree titles and in bishop's signature: Oxford University. ⓘ from Latin Oxoniensis of Oxford.

Oxonian /ɒkˈsounɪən/ ▷ noun 1 an inhabitant of the city of Oxford. 2 a student or graduate of Oxford University. ▷ adj relating or belonging to Oxford or Oxford University. ⓘ 16c: from Latin Oxonia Oxford.

oxtail ▷ noun the tail of an ox, used especially in soups and stews.

oxter /ˈɒkstə(r)/ ▷ noun, Scot, Irish & N Eng dialect the armpit. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon oxta.

ox-tongue ▷ noun 1 the tongue of an ox, used as food. 2 a plant of the daisy family with yellow flowers.

oxy- /ɒksɪ/ ▷ combining form, signifying 1 sharp; acute; acid. 2 oxygen. ⓘ From Greek oxys sour or acid.

oxyacetylene ▷ noun a mixture of oxygen and acetylene which burns with an extremely hot flame and is used in torches for cutting, welding or brazing metals. ⓘ Early 20c.

oxygen /ˈɒksɪdʒən/ ▷ noun (symbol O, atomic number 8) a colourless odourless tasteless gas, the atmospheric form of which is produced by photosynthesis, and which is an essential requirement of most forms of plant and animal life. It is the most abundant element in the Earth's crust (50%), and constitutes about 21% (by volume) of the Earth's atmosphere. • oxygenous /ɒkˈsɪdʒɪnəs/ adj 1 containing or consisting of oxygen. 2 originally producing acids; acidifying. ⓘ 18c: from French oxygène, ultimately from Greek oxys sharp or acid + gennaein to generate, from the old belief that all acids contained oxygen.

oxygenate /ˈɒksɪdʒəneɪt/ ▷ verb (oxygenated, oxygenating) to combine, treat, supply or enrich something (eg the blood) with oxygen. • oxygenation noun 1 physiol the recharging of the blood with oxygen from air inhaled into the lungs. 2 chem treatment with or combination with oxygen. • oxygenator noun any apparatus that supplies oxygen, especially one that is used to oxygenate the blood outside the body during open heart surgery. ⓘ 18c.

oxygen debt ▷ noun, physiol 1 a condition that occurs when the demand for oxygen, especially by muscle cells during a period of strenuous physical exercise, is greater than the amount of oxygen that can be supplied by the lungs. 2 the amount of oxygen that is required to restore normal levels in cells during the recovery period following muscular exercise.

oxygenize or oxygenise /ˈɒksɪdʒənaɪz/ ▷ verb (oxygenized, oxygenizing) to OXYGENATE. ⓘ Early 19c.

oxygen mask ▷ noun a mask-like breathing apparatus that covers the nose and mouth, and is used to supply oxygen on demand, especially in rarefied atmospheres by mountaineers, aircraft passengers, etc.

oxygenous see under OXYGEN oxygen tent ▷ noun, medicine a tent-like apparatus into which a controllable supply of oxygen can be pumped, erected around the bed of a patient to aid their breathing.

oxyhaemoglobin ▷ noun, biochem the red compound formed in blood by the combination of oxygen and the pigment HAEMOGLOBIN as a result of respiration. ⓘ 19c.

oxymoron /ɒksɪ'mɔːrɒn/ ▷ noun a rhetorical figure of speech in which contradictory terms are used together, often for emphasis or effect, eg horribly good. ▪ oxymoronic /ɒksɪmɔː'rɒnɪk/ adj. ⓘ 17c: Greek neuter of oxymoros, literally 'pointedly foolish', from oxys sharp + moros foolish.

oxytocic /ɒksɪ'toʊsɪk/ medicine ▷ noun, adj said of a drug: that stimulates uterine muscle contractions and therefore induces or accelerates labour. ▷ noun an oxytocic drug. ⓘ 19c: from Greek oxutokia sudden delivery from oxys sharp + tokos birth.

oxytocin /ɒksɪ'toʊsɪn/ ▷ noun, medicine a hormone, released by the pituitary gland, that induces contractions of the uterus during labour, and stimulates the flow of milk from the breasts during suckling. It is synthesized for use in accelerating labour. ⓘ 1920s: from OXYTOCIC + -IN.

oxytone /'ɒksɪtoʊn/ chiefly Greek grammar ▷ adj with an acute accent on the last syllable. ▷ noun a word with such an accent. ▪ oxytonic /-'tɒnɪk/ adj. ⓘ 18c: from OXY-[1] + Greek tonos tone or pitch.

oyez or oyes /oʊ'jɛs, oʊ'jɛz/ ▷ exclamation, historical a cry for silence and attention, usually shouted three times by an official before a public announcement or in a court of law. ⓘ 15c: from French oyez or oiez, meaning 'Hear!' or 'Hear ye!', imperative of oir to hear.

oyster /'ɔɪstə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 the common name for a family of marine bivalve mollusc with a soft fleshy body enclosed by a hinged shell, the fleshy part being a popular seafood. 2 any of several similar related molluscs such as the PEARL OYSTER. 3 the pale greyish beige or pink colour of an oyster. 4 an oyster-shaped piece of meat found in the hollow of the pelvic bone of a fowl, especially a chicken. 5 colloq a reserved or secretive person. ▷ verb (oystered, oystering) intr to fish for or gather oysters. ▪ the world is your or his, etc oyster anything you, he, etc need or want is yours for the taking; you can go anywhere and do anything. ⓘ 14c: from French huistre, from Greek ostreon.

oyster bed ▷ noun a place, especially on the sea-bed, where oysters breed, or where they are cultivated as a source of food or pearls.

oystercatcher ▷ noun a black-and-white wading bird with a long orange-red beak, found on shores and near the coast, that feeds on mussels, limpets and crabs, etc but, despite its name, not oysters. ⓘ 18c.

oyster mushroom ▷ noun an edible fungus, found especially in clusters on dead wood.

oyster plant ▷ noun SALSIFY, or a blue-flowered plant growing on beaches, both supposed to taste like oysters.

Oz or Ozzie /'ɒzɪ/ originally Austral slang ▷ adj Australian. ▷ noun (Ozzes or Ozzies) 1 Australia. 2 an Australian. ⓘ Early 20c as Oss or Ossie imitating the pronunciation Australia(n).

oz ▷ abbreviation OUNCE[1] (sense 1). ⓘ 16c: from Italian onza ounce.

Ozalid /'ɒzəlɪd/ ▷ noun, printing, trademark 1 a method of duplicating printed matter onto chemically treated paper. 2 a reproduction made by this process. ⓘ 1920s: from the reversal of diazo, a type of copying process, + l.

ozone /'oʊzoʊn/ ▷ noun 1 chem (formula O_3) a toxic pungent unstable bluish gas that is an ALLOTROPE of oxygen, and at ground level may be a pollutant (photochemical smog). Ozone is formed when ultraviolet light or an electric spark acts on oxygen, and is a strong oxidizing agent, used in controlled quantities for bleaching, sterilizing water and purifying air, etc. 2 colloq fresh bracing sea air. ⓘ 19c: from Greek ozein to smell.

ozone-friendly ▷ adj said of products such as aerosols, etc: not harmful to the ozone layer; free from chemicals, eg chlorofluorocarbons, that deplete the ozone layer.

ozone layer and ozonosphere /oʊ'zoʊnəsfɪə(r)/ ▷ noun a layer of the upper atmosphere, between 15 and 30km above the Earth's surface, where ozone is formed, which filters harmful ultraviolet radiation from the Sun and prevents it from reaching the Earth.

ozonize or ozonise /'oʊzoʊnaɪz/ ▷ verb (ozonized, ozonizing) 1 to convert (oxygen) into ozone. 2 to treat or charge (a substance or environment) with ozone. ▪ ozonization noun. ▪ ozonizer noun an apparatus for turning oxygen into ozone. ⓘ 19c.

Ozzie see OZ.

P

P[1] or p /piː/ ▷ noun (Ps, P's or p's) the sixteenth letter of the English alphabet. ● mind one's p's and q's colloq to behave well and carefully and with the etiquette suitable to a particular situation, particularly in what one says.

P[2] ▷ abbreviation 1 as a street sign: parking. 2 IVR Portugal. 3 knitting purl. 4 pula, the Botswanan currency unit.

P[3] ▷ symbol 1 chess pawn. 2 chem phosphorus. 3 power.

p ▷ abbreviation 1 page. Also written pg. See also PP. 2 penny or pence.

PA ▷ abbreviation 1 IVR Panama. 2 US state Pennsylvania. Also written Pa., Penn. 3 personal assistant. 4 Press Association. 5 public-address system. 6 Publishers Association.

Pa ▷ abbreviation 1 pascal. 2 chem protactinium.

pa /pɑː/ ▷ noun (pas) a familiar or childish word for FATHER. ⓘ Early 19c.

p.a. ▷ abbreviation per annum.

PABX ▷ abbreviation, telecomm private automatic branch exchange. See also PBX.

paca /ˈpɑːkə, ˈpakə/ ▷ noun (pacas) a large rat-like nocturnal rodent, native to Central and S America, with a brown or black coat marked with four rows of white spots running along its flanks, a very short tail, and large cheek bones which form the outer walls of huge cheek pouches. ⓘ 17c: Portuguese and Spanish, from Tupi.

pace[1] /peɪs/ ▷ noun 1 a single step. 2 the distance covered by one step when walking, about 80cm. 3 rate of walking or running, etc □ at a slow pace. 4 rate of movement or progress □ can't stand the pace □ at your own pace. 5 any of the gaits used by a horse. 6 a way of stepping, sometimes developed in horses, in which the legs on the same side are lifted together. ▷ verb (paced, pacing) 1 tr & intr (often pace about or around) to keep walking about, in a preoccupied or frustrated way □ was pacing about all morning □ began to pace the floor. 2 intr to walk steadily. 3 to set the pace for (others) in a race, etc. ● go through or show one's paces to demonstrate one's skills at something. ● keep pace with someone to go as fast as them. ● pace oneself to work at a constant rate with the aim of achieving a particular goal, particularly when under pressure. ● put someone through their paces to test them in some activity. ● set the pace to be ahead of, and so set the rate for, others. ⓘ 14c: from French pas step, from Latin passus step, literally 'stretch (of the leg)'.

■ pace something out to measure out (a distance) in paces.

pace[2] /ˈpeɪsiː, ˈpɑːkeɪ/ ▷ prep with the permission of or with due respect to (someone with whom one is disagreeing). ⓘ 1860s: Latin ablative of pax peace or pardon.

pacebowler ▷ noun, cricket a bowler who characteristically delivers the ball fast.

pacemaker ▷ noun 1 physiol a small mass of specialized muscle-cells in the heart which control the rate and the rhythm of the heartbeat. 2 medicine an electronic device that stimulates the heart muscle to contract at a specific and regular rate, used to correct weak or irregular heart rhythms. 3 a pacesetter.

pacer /ˈpeɪsə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 someone who paces. 2 a a horse whose usual gait is a PACE[1] (noun 6); b a horse trained to move in this way in harness racing.

pacesetter ▷ noun a person, horse, vehicle, etc that sets the pace in a race; a leader.

pacey and pacy /ˈpeɪsɪ/ ▷ adj (pacier, paciest) 1 fast. 2 lively; smart.

pachinko /pəˈtʃɪŋkoʊ/ ▷ noun a form of pinball popular in Japan. ⓘ 1960s: from Japanese pachin, imitating a trigger sound.

pachisi /pɑːˈtʃiːsɪ, -zɪ/ ▷ noun an Indian board game resembling backgammon or ludo. ⓘ Early 19c: from Hindi pacisi meaning 'of 25', referring to the highest throw in the game.

pachyderm /ˈpakɪdɜːm/ ▷ noun 1 zool, strictly any animal belonging to a (now obsolete) category of large thick-skinned non-ruminant hoofed mammals, especially the elephant, rhinoceros or hippopotamus. 2 an elephant. 3 colloq an insensitive person. ⓘ 1830s: from Greek pachys thick + derma skin.

Pacific /pəˈsɪfɪk/ ▷ noun (the Pacific) short for Pacific Ocean, the ocean between Asia and Australia, and North and South America. ▷ adj in or relating to the area of the Pacific Ocean, or the Pacific Islands. ⓘ 1820s: from PACIFIC, so called by Ferdinand Magellan, the first European to sail it, because the ocean was notably calm when he crossed it in 1519.

pacific /pəˈsɪfɪk/ ▷ adj tending to make peace or keep the peace; peaceful; peaceable. ⓘ 16c: from Latin pacificus, literally 'peacemaking', from pax peace.

pacification /pasɪfɪˈkeɪʃən/ ▷ noun the policy or process of pacifying; conciliation; appeasement.

Pacific Standard Time ▷ noun (abbreviation PST) the TIME ZONE for the US Pacific coastal region.

pacifier /ˈpasɪfaɪə(r)/ ▷ noun, N Amer a baby's DUMMY.

pacifism /ˈpasɪfɪzəm/ ▷ noun, politics the beliefs and practices of pacifists. ⓘ Early 20c.

pacifist /ˈpasɪfɪst/ ▷ noun someone who believes that violence is unjustified and who refuses to take part in making war, either from a secular moral standpoint, or on religious grounds, and usually actively advocates efforts to maintain peace by supporting disarmament. ⓘ Early 20c: from French pacifiste; compare PACIFY.

pacify /ˈpasɪfaɪ/ ▷ verb (pacifies, pacified, pacifying) 1 to calm, soothe or appease someone. 2 to restore something to a peaceful condition. 3 euphemistic to subdue. ⓘ 17c: from French pacifier, from Latin pax peace + facere to make.

pack[1] ▷ noun 1 a collection of things tied into a bundle for carrying. 2 a rucksack; a backpack. 3 a PACK OF CARDS; a complete set of PLAYING CARDS. 4 a troop of animals living and hunting together as a group, eg dogs or wolves. 5 a compact package, eg of equipment for a purpose □ a first-aid pack. 6 in compounds a collection of things of a specified number or for a specified purpose □ four-pack □ party-pack of balloons □ family-pack. 7 derog a collection or bunch □ a pack of idiots □ a pack of lies. 8 a group of Brownie Guides or Cub Scouts which meets regularly. 9 rugby the forwards in a team. 10 a medicinal or cosmetic skin preparation, eg a FACE PACK. 11 pack ice. ▷ verb (packed, packing) 1 to stow (goods, clothes, etc) compactly in cases, boxes, etc for transport or travel. 2 intr to put one's belongings into a suitcase, rucksack, travel bag, etc, ready for a journey □ Have you packed yet? 3 to put (goods, food, etc) into a container, or to wrap them, ready for sale. 4 intr to be capable of being formed into a compact shape. 5 to fill something tightly or compactly □ packed the sandwich full of cheese □ The hall was packed. 6 tr & intr, N Amer colloq to make a habit of carrying (a gun). 7 intr said of animals: to form a pack. ● pack a punch colloq to be capable of giving a powerful punch or blow. ● packed like sardines said eg of passengers on a bus or train during rush hour: crowded very closely together. ● pack it in! colloq an exclamation expressing annoyance and irritation at what someone is doing, and telling them to stop doing it. ● send someone packing colloq to send them away unceremoniously. ⓘ 13c.

■ pack something in 1 a to push and cram it into something that is already quite full; b to cram (a great deal of activity) into a limited period □ On holiday we packed in three excursions a day. 2 to give something up or stop doing it □ packed in her job.

■ pack into something to crowd into (a bus, train, concert hall, etc which is already full) □ The rush-hour passengers packed into the train.

■ pack someone off to send them off hastily or abruptly □ packed the children off to their friend's house.

■ pack something out to fill (a container, concert hall, etc) very tightly, very full, etc.

■ pack up 1 to stop work, etc at the end of the day or shift, etc. 2 colloq said of machinery, etc: to break down.

■ pack something up to put it in containers and store it.

pack² ▷ verb (packed, packing) to fill (a jury, meeting, etc) illicitly with people one can rely on to support one. ⓘ 16c, originally in obsolete sense 'to intrigue'.

package /'pakɪdʒ/ ▷ noun 1 something wrapped and secured with string, adhesive tape, etc; a parcel. 2 a case, box or other container for packing goods in. 3 a PACKAGE DEAL. 4 computing a group of related computer programs designed to perform a particular complex task.

package deal ▷ noun a deal covering a number of related proposals that must be accepted as a whole or not at all.

package holiday or package tour ▷ noun a holiday or tour for which one pays a fixed price that includes travel, accommodation, meals, etc.

packager ▷ noun an independent company specializing in the PACKAGING (sense 2) of something.

packaging ▷ noun 1 a the wrappers or containers in which goods are packed and presented for sale; b the total presentation of a product for sale, ie both its wrappings and the design of these, intended to make the product as desirable as possible. 2 the design and complete production of eg illustrated books, programmes for television, etc for sale to a publisher, broadcasting company, etc.

pack animal ▷ noun an animal, eg a donkey, mule or horse, used to carry luggage or goods for sale.

packer ▷ noun 1 someone who packs, especially goods ready for distribution. 2 a machine for packing. 3 an employee or employer in the business of preparing and preserving food.

packet /'pakɪt/ ▷ noun 1 a wrapper or container made of paper, cardboard or plastic, with its contents □ packet of biscuits. 2 a small pack or package. 3 a mailboat that also carries cargo and passengers, and plies a fixed route. Also called packet boat. 4 colloq a large sum of money □ cost a packet. ⓘ 16c: from French pacquet.

packet switching ▷ noun, telecomm a method of directing digitally-encoded data over a communications network by breaking it down into small units and reconstituting it as a whole at its destination.

packhorse ▷ noun a horse used to carry luggage or goods for sale.

pack ice ▷ noun a large area of free-floating sea ice, up to several kilometres in diameter, consisting of pieces that have been driven together by wind and currents to form a solid mass.

packing ▷ noun 1 materials used for padding or wrapping goods for transport, etc. 2 the act of putting anything into packs or tying it up for transporting or storing.

packing case and packing box ▷ noun a wooden crate in which to pack goods for transport or storage.

pack-load ▷ noun the load an animal can carry.

pack of cards ▷ noun a pack of playing cards used for card games, usually consisting of 52 cards divided into four SUITS, each of which contains 13 cards, ie the ACE, the numbers 2 to 10, and the three COURT CARDS.

pack of lies ▷ noun a completely false story, etc.

pack-rat ▷ noun a kind of long-tailed rat, native to the western part of N America.

pact ▷ noun an agreement reached between two or more parties, states, etc for mutual advantage. ⓘ 15c: from Latin pactum agreement or covenant.

pacy see PACEY.

pad¹ ▷ noun 1 a wad of material used to cushion, protect, shape or clean. 2 a leg-guard for a cricketer, etc. 3 a quantity of sheets of paper fixed together into a block. Also in compounds □ notepad. 4 a rocket-launching platform. 5 the soft fleshy underside of an animal's paw. 6 N Amer a large water lily leaf. 7 slang the place where someone lives. ▷ verb (padded, padding) 1 to cover, fill, stuff, cushion or shape something with layers of soft material. 2 (also pad something out) derog to include unnecessary or irrelevant material in (a piece of writing, speech, etc) for the sake of length. ⓘ 16c.

pad² ▷ verb (padded, padding) 1 intr to walk softly or with a quiet or muffled tread. 2 tr & intr to tramp along (a road); to travel on foot. ⓘ 16c: Dutch, meaning 'path'.

padded cell ▷ noun a room with walls softened by pads, used in psychiatric hospitals.

padding ▷ noun 1 material for cushioning, shaping or filling. 2 derog irrelevant or unnecessary matter in a speech or piece of writing, added to extend it to the desired length.

paddle¹ /'padəl/ ▷ verb (paddled, paddling) 1 intr to walk about barefoot in shallow water. 2 to trail or dabble (fingers, etc) in water. 3 intr to walk unsteadily or with short steps. ▷ noun a spell of paddling □ went for a paddle in the sea. ⓘ 16c.

paddle² /'padəl/ ▷ noun 1 a a short light oar with a blade at one or both ends, used to propel and steer a canoe, kayak, etc; b the blade of such an oar. 2 one of the slats fitted round the edge of a paddle wheel or mill wheel. 3 a paddle-shaped instrument for stirring, beating, etc. 4 US a small bat, as used in table tennis. ▷ verb (paddled, paddling) tr & intr 1 to propel (a canoe, kayak, etc) with paddles. 2 intr (also paddle along) to move through water using, or as if using, a paddle or paddles. 3 US colloq to spank someone. ● paddle one's own canoe to be self-sufficient.

paddle steamer and paddle boat ▷ noun a boat driven by paddle wheels which are turned by a STEAM ENGINE.

paddle wheel ▷ noun a large engine-driven wheel at the side or back of a ship which propels the ship through the water as it turns.

paddock /ˈpadək/ ▷ noun 1 a small enclosed field for keeping a horse in. 2 horse-racing an enclosure beside a race track where horses are saddled and walked round before a race. ◎ 16c: from earlier parrock, from Anglo-Saxon pearroc fence or enclosure.

Paddy /ˈpadɪ/ ▷ noun (Paddies) 1 sometimes derog a familiar name for an Irishman. 2 (paddy) colloq a fit of rage. ◎ 18c: Irish, a familiar form of the name Padraig or Patrick.

paddy /ˈpadɪ/ ▷ noun (paddies) 1 (also paddy field) a field filled with water in which rice is grown. 2 rice as a growing crop; harvested rice grains that have not been processed in any way. ◎ 17c: from Malay padi.

padlock /ˈpadlɒk/ ▷ noun a detachable lock with a U-shaped bar that pivots at one side, so that it can be passed through a ring or chain and locked in position. ▷ verb (padlocked, padlocking) to fasten (a door, cupboard, etc) with a padlock. ◎ 15c.

padmasana /pʌdˈmɑːsənə/ ▷ noun, yoga the LOTUS. ◎ Late 19c: from Sanskrit padma LOTUS + ASANA.

padre /ˈpɑːdreɪ, ˈpɑːdrɪ/ ▷ noun a chaplain in any of the armed services. ◎ 16c: Portuguese, Spanish and Italian, meaning 'father', a form of address for a priest.

padsaw ▷ noun a small saw-blade with a detachable handle, used for cutting curves and awkward angles. ◎ 19c: PAD² (in the sense of a detachable handle which can be used with other tool heads) + SAW.

paean or (US) pean /ˈpiːən/ ▷ noun a song of triumph, praise or thanksgiving. ◎ 16c: from Greek Paian the physician of the gods, used in hymns as a title for Apollo.

paed- see PAEDO-

paederasty and paederast see under PEDERASTY paediatrician or (N Amer) pediatrician /piːdɪəˈtrɪʃən/ ▷ noun a doctor who specializes in the study, diagnosis and treatment of children's diseases.

paediatrics or (N Amer) pediatrics /piːdɪˈatrɪks/ ▷ singular noun, medicine the branch of medicine concerned with the care of children, and with the diagnosis and treatment of children's diseases. ● paediatric or (N Amer) pediatric adj relating to or involving paediatrics. ◎ 19c.

paedo- or pedo- /piːdoʊ/ or (before a vowel) paed- or ped- ▷ combining form, denoting a child or children ▫ paedophile ▫ paediatrics. ◎ From Greek paid-, pais child.

paedology or (N Amer) pedology /piːˈdɒlədʒɪ/ noun, medicine the scientific study of physiological and psychological aspects of childhood. ● paedologist noun a scientist who specializes in paedology. ◎ 19c.

paedomorphism ▷ noun, biol retention of juvenile physical characteristics in the mature stage of development. ● paedomorphic adj. ◎ 1890s.

paedophile /ˈpiːdoʊfaɪl/ ▷ noun an adult who is sexually attracted to or engages in sexual activity with children.

paedophilia /piːdoʊˈfɪlɪə/ ▷ noun sexual attraction to children. ◎ Early 20c.

paella /paɪˈɛlə/ ▷ noun (paellas) cookery a Spanish rice dish of fish or chicken with vegetables and saffron. ◎ 19c: Catalan, from Latin patella pan.

paeony see PEONY

pagan /ˈpeɪgən/ ▷ adj 1 a not a Christian, Jew, or Muslim; b belonging or relating to, or following, a religion in which a number of gods are worshipped. 2 without religious belief. ▷ noun a pagan person; a heathen. ● paganism noun. ◎ 14c: from Latin paganus a rustic or villager (referring to the time when Christianity had been generally accepted in towns but not in rural areas), also a civilian (contrasting with Christians who called themselves 'soldiers of Christ').

paganize or paganise /ˈpeɪgənaɪz/ ▷ verb (paganized, paganizing) 1 to convert someone to paganism. 2 intr to become pagan.

page¹ /peɪdʒ/ ▷ noun (abbreviation p or pa, plural pp) 1 one side of a leaf in a book, etc. 2 a leaf of a book, etc. 3 literary an episode or incident in history, one's life, etc. ▷ verb (paged, paging) to paginate (a text). ◎ 16c: French, from Latin pagina a leaf of a book.

page² /peɪdʒ/ ▷ noun 1 historical a boy attendant serving a knight and training for knighthood. 2 a boy attending the bride at a wedding. See also BRIDESMAID. 3 a boy who carries messages or luggage, etc in hotels, clubs, etc. 4 in the US Congress: a messenger. ▷ verb (paged, paging) 1 to summon someone by calling their name out loud, or through a PUBLIC-ADDRESS SYSTEM or PAGER. 2 rare to attend someone as a page. ◎ 13c: French, from Italian paggio.

pageant /ˈpadʒənt/ ▷ noun 1 a series of tableaux or dramatic scenes, usually depicting local historical events or other topical matters. 2 any colourful and varied spectacle, especially one carried around in a procession. ◎ 14c: from Latin pagina page, scene or stage, the meaning possibly coming from the page of a manuscript being transferred into a scene.

pageantry /ˈpadʒəntrɪ/ ▷ noun splendid display; pomp.

pageboy ▷ noun 1 a PAGE² (noun 2). 2 a) a smooth jaw-length hairstyle with the ends curled under. b as adj ▫ a pageboy cut.

page description language ▷ noun, computing (abbreviation PDL) a programming language used to describe the composition of a printed page, which can be interpreted by a compatible printer.

pager /ˈpeɪdʒə(r)/ ▷ noun, telecomm a small individually-worn radio receiver and transmitter that enables its user, especially hospital personnel, to receive a signal (typically a 'beep' or a short message) to which they can respond with a phone call, etc to the sender. Also called bleeper, bleep.

page-three girl ▷ noun 1 a photograph of a nude or semi-nude female model, traditionally printed on the third page of certain popular tabloid newspapers. 2 a model who appears or has appeared in such a photograph.

page-turner ▷ noun a very absorbing book with a fast-moving story that is hard to put down.

paginate /ˈpadʒɪneɪt/ ▷ verb (paginated, paginating) to give consecutive numbers to the pages of (a text), carried out by a command within a word-processing package, or as part of the printing process, etc. Also called PAGE¹. Compare FOLIATE. ◎ 19c: from Latin pagina page.

pagination /padʒɪˈneɪʃən/ ▷ noun 1 a system or process of paginating. 2 the figures and symbols used to mark pages.

paging present participle of PAGE¹, PAGE².

pagoda /pəˈgoʊdə/ ▷ noun (pagodas) 1 a Buddhist shrine or memorial-building in India, China and parts of SE Asia, especially in the form of a tall tower with many storeys, each one having its own projecting roof with upturned eaves. 2 an ornamental building imitating this. ◎ 17c: from Portuguese pagode, from Persian butkada, from but idol + kada temple.

pah! /pɑː/ ▷ exclamation expressing disgust, disbelief, etc. ◎ 16c.

pahoehoe /pəˈhoʊhoʊ/ ▷ noun (pahoehoes) a hardened lava with a smooth undulating shiny surface. ◎ Late 19c: Hawaiian.

paid ▷ verb, past tense, past participle of PAY¹. ● put paid to something to destroy any chances of success in it.

paid-up ▷ adj said of a society member, etc: having paid a membership fee ▫ fully paid-up member. See PAY UP at PAY¹.

pail /peɪl/ ▷ noun 1 a bucket. 2 the amount contained in a pail ▫ a pail of milk. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon pægel gill (liquid measure), associated with French paielle pan.

pailful ▷ noun (pailfuls) the amount a pail can hold.

paillasse see PALLIASSE pain /peɪn/ ▷ noun 1 an uncomfortable, distressing or agonizing sensation caused by the stimulation of specialized nerve endings by heat, cold, pressure or other strong stimuli. 2 emotional suffering. 3 derog colloq an irritating or troublesome person or thing. 4 (pains) trouble taken or efforts made in doing something. ▷ verb (pained, paining) rather formal to cause distress to someone ▫ It pained me to see the injured donkey. • be at pains to do something to be anxious to do it with due care and thoroughness. • for one's pains ironic as a reward (usually a poor one) for the trouble one has taken. • on pain of something at the risk of incurring it as a punishment. • take pains to be careful to do something properly; to be thorough over a task, etc. ⓘ 13c: from Latin poena punishment.

pained ▷ adj said of an expression, tone of voice, etc: expressing distress or disapproval.

painful ▷ adj 1 causing pain ▫ a painful injury. 2 said of part of the body: affected by some injury, etc which causes pain ▫ a painful finger. 3 causing distress ▫ a painful duty. 4 laborious and slow ▫ painful progress. • painfully adverb. • painfulness noun.

pain in the neck and pain in the arse ▷ noun, slang 1 an exasperating circumstance. 2 an annoying, irritating or tiresome person.

painkiller ▷ noun any drug or other agent that relieves pain; an ANALGESIC.

painless ▷ adj without pain. • painlessly adverb. • painlessness noun.

painstaking ▷ adj conscientious and thorough, ie taking pains or care ▫ painstaking work ▫ painstaking about keeping records. • painstakingly adverb.

paint /peɪnt/ ▷ noun 1 colouring matter in the form of a liquid which is applied to a surface and dries forming a hard surface. 2 a dried coating of this. 3 a tube or tablet of colouring matter for creating pictures. 4 old use face make-up; cosmetics. ▷ verb (painted, painting) 1 to apply a coat of paint to (walls, woodwork, etc). 2 to turn something a certain colour by this means ▫ paint the door yellow. 3 tr & intr to make (pictures) using paint. 4 to depict (a person, place or thing) in paint. 5 to describe (a scene, place or person) as if in paint. 6 tr & intr, old use to put make-up on (one's face). • paintable adj suitable for painting. • paint the town red to go out and celebrate something lavishly. ⓘ 13c: from French peint, past participle of peindre to paint.

paintball ▷ noun a type of WAR GAME in which participants stalk each other and fight battles with paint fired from compressed-air guns.

paintbox ▷ noun a case of dry watercolour paints in a variety of colours, for painting pictures.

paintbrush ▷ noun a brush of any kind used for applying paint, eg used by an artist or a decorator.

painted lady ▷ noun a type of butterfly, orange-red spotted with white and black.

painter[1] ▷ noun 1 someone who decorates houses internally or externally with paint. 2 an artist who paints pictures.

painter[2] /ˈpeɪntə(r)/ ▷ noun, naut a rope for fastening a boat. • cut the painter to sever ties. ⓘ 15c: perhaps related to French pentoir rope.

painting ▷ noun 1 a painted picture. 2 the art or process of applying paint to walls, etc. 3 the art of creating pictures in paint. 4 a vivid description in words.

painty ▷ adj (paintier, paintiest) 1 said of a smell, texture, etc: like paint. 2 smeared with paint. 3 overloaded with paint, and with colours considered too glaring.

pair /peə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 a set of two identical or corresponding things, eg shoes or gloves, intended for use together. 2 something consisting of two joined and corresponding parts ▫ a pair of trousers ▫ a pair of scissors. 3 one of a matching pair ▫ Here's one earring — where's its pair? 4 two people associated in a relationship; a couple. 5 two mating animals, birds, fishes, etc. 6 two horses harnessed together ▫ a coach and pair. 7 two playing cards of the same denomination. 8 in a parliament: a two voters on opposite sides in a parliament who have an agreement to abstain from voting on a specific motion or for a specific duration, usually because one or both will be absent from parliament at the time; b such an agreement. 9 cricket a duck (see DUCK[3] noun 5) in both innings. 10 rowing (symbol 2+ or 2-) a a racing-boat manned by two oarsmen or oarswomen; b the crew of such a boat. Compare DOUBLE. ▷ verb (paired, pairing) 1 tr & intr to divide into groups of two; to sort out in pairs. 2 intr said of two opposing voters in a parliament: to agree a PAIR (noun 8) above or to have such an agreement. • paired adj. • in pairs in twos. ⓘ 13c: from French paire a couple, from Latin par equal.

■ pair off colloq to get together with someone romantically, sexually, etc, eg at a social gathering.

■ pair something or someone off 1 to sort them into pairs. 2 to set (things or people) against each other, eg in a game. ▫ pair up with someone to join with them for some purpose.

pair bond ▷ noun, zool a continuing and exclusive relationship between a male and female, particularly during the courtship and mating of a pair of animals. • pair bonding noun.

pair of colours ▷ noun, military two flags carried by a regiment, one the national ensign, the other the flag of the regiment.

pair-royal and prial /ˈpraɪəl/ ▷ noun 1 cards a set of three cards of the same denomination, eg three queens, three sixes, etc. 2 a throw of three dice all falling with the same number face-up, eg three twos. ⓘ 16c.

pairs ▷ plural noun another name for PELMANISM (sense 2).

pairwise ▷ adverb in pairs.

paisano /paɪˈzɑːnoʊ/ ▷ noun (paisanos) US 1 a person from the same area or town; a compatriot. 2 a pal; a friend. ⓘ 19c: Spanish, from French paysan peasant.

paisley /ˈpeɪzlɪ/ ▷ noun (paisleys) 1 a fabric with a pattern resembling the PAISLEY PATTERN. 2 as adj decorated with this pattern ▫ paisley pyjamas. ⓘ 19c: the pattern was used in the Paisley shawl, a shawl made in Paisley, Scotland.

paisley pattern ▷ noun a design whose characteristic feature is a highly ornate device which looks like a tree cone with a curving point. This device is arranged in a seemingly random fashion over the fabric.

pajamas see PYJAMAS

PAK ▷ abbreviation, IVR Pakistan.

pakapoo /pakəˈpuː/ ▷ noun (pakapoos) Austral a Chinese version of lotto, in which betting tickets are filled in with Chinese characters. ⓘ Early 20c: Chinese bai ge piao white pigeon ticket.

Paki /ˈpakɪ/ ▷ noun (Pakis) offensive Brit slang a a Pakistani; b loosely someone from any part of the Indian subcontinent. Also as adj. ⓘ 1960s.

Paki-bashing Brit slang ▷ noun the activity of making vicious and unprovoked physical or verbal attacks on Pakistani immigrants living in Britain. • Paki-basher noun.

Pakistani /pɑːkɪˈstɑːnɪ/ ▷ adj belonging or relating to Pakistan, a republic in S Asia, or to its inhabitants. ▷ noun (Pakistanis) 1 a citizen or inhabitant of, or person born in, Pakistan. 2 an immigrant from, or a person whose ancestors are immigrants from, Pakistan. ⓘ 1940s.

pakora /pəˈkɔːrə/ ▷ noun (pakoras) an Indian dish of chopped spiced vegetables formed into balls, coated in batter and deep-fried, served with a spicy sauce. ⓘ 1950s: Hindi.

PAL ▷ abbreviation Phase Alternating Line, a coding system for colour TV used widely in Europe and many other parts of the world. See also SECAM.

pal colloq ▷ noun a friend; a mate. ▷ verb (palled /pald/, palling) intr (usually pal up with someone) to make friends with them. • palliness noun. • pally adj (compare PALSY[2]). ⓘ 17c: Romany, meaning 'brother'.

palace /ˈpalɪs, ˈpalɪs/ ▷ noun 1 the official residence of a sovereign, bishop, archbishop or president. 2 a spacious and magnificent residence or other building; a palatial home. ⓘ 13c: from French paleis, from Latin Palatium the Roman emperors' residence on the Palatine Hill.

palace revolution ▷ noun the overthrow of a sovereign or government by people within the high ranks of power, ie by those close to the monarch or leader.

paladin /ˈpalədɪn/ ▷ noun, historical 1 any of the 12 peers of Charlemagne's court. 2 a KNIGHT ERRANT; a champion of a sovereign. ⓘ 16c: from Italian paladino, from Latin palatinus belonging to the palace.

palae- see PALAEO-palaeanthropology or palaeoanthropology ▷ noun the branch of ANTHROPOLOGY concerned with the study of fossil humanoids. • palaeanthropic adj. ⓘ Early 20c.

palaeo- or paleo- /palɪoʊ, peɪ-, -lɪˈɒ/ or (before a vowel) palae- or pale- ▷ combining form, denoting 1 old; ancient. 2 the very distant past. Most of the following forms can be spelt as either palaeo- or paleo-. ⓘ From Greek palaios old.

palaeobiology ▷ noun the biological study of fossil plants and animals. ⓘ 19c.

palaeobotany ▷ noun, geol the scientific study of fossil plants. ⓘ 19c.

Palaeocene ▷ adj, geol the earliest epoch of the TERTIARY period, during which time many reptiles became extinct and mammals became the dominant vertebrates. See table at GEOLOGICAL TIME SCALE. ⓘ 19c.

palaeoecology ▷ noun, geol the scientific study of the ecology of fossil animals and plants. ⓘ 19c.

palaeography /palɪˈɒgrəfɪ, peɪ-/ ▷ noun 1 the study of ancient writing and manuscripts. Compare CODICOLOGY. 2 an ancient handwriting. • palaeographer noun. ⓘ 19c.

palaeolithic or Palaeolithic ▷ adj relating or belonging to an early period of the Stone Age, extending from about 2.5 million years ago to about 10 000 years ago, characterized by the use of tools made of unpolished chipped stone, during which CRO-MAGNON and NEANDERTHAL people lived. See table at GEOLOGICAL TIME SCALE. ⓘ 19c.

Palaeolithic art ▷ noun the oldest known art, developed c.30 000 years ago, which includes cave paintings and small sculptures.

palaeontology ▷ noun, geol the scientific study of the structure, distribution, environment and evolution of extinct life forms by interpretation of their fossil remains. • palaeontologist noun. ⓘ 19c: from PALAEO- + Greek onta being + -LOGY.

Palaeosiberian ▷ adj denoting four unrelated groups of languages spoken in NE Siberia, including the languages Chukchi, Yukaghir, Ket and Gilyak. ▷ noun the languages forming this group. ⓘ 20c.

Palaeozoic /paliouˈzouɪk/ ▷ adj, geol relating to the era of geological time extending from about 580 million to 250 million years ago, during which time the first vertebrates appeared. See table at GEOLOGICAL TIME SCALE. ⓘ 19c: from Greek zoion animal.

palais de danse /ˈpaleɪ də dɑːns/ ▷ noun (palais de danse /ˈpaleɪ or ˈpaleɪz —/) a dance-hall. ⓘ Early 20c: French.

palamino see PALOMINO palanquin or palankeen /palənˈkiːn/ ▷ noun, historical a light covered litter used in the Orient, suspended from poles carried on the shoulders of four or six bearers. ⓘ 16c: from Portuguese palanquim, originally from Sanskrit paryanka couch or litter.

palatable /ˈpalətəbəl/ ▷ adj 1 having a pleasant taste; appetizing. 2 acceptable; agreeable. • palatability noun. • palatably adverb. ⓘ 17c.

palatal /ˈpalətəl/ ▷ adj 1 relating to the palate. 2 phonetics said of a speech sound: produced by bringing the tongue to or near the hard palate. ▷ noun, phonetics a sound produced in this way, eg /j/ as in yellow /jelou/. Compare PALATO-ALVEOLAR, VELAR.

palate /ˈpalət/ ▷ noun 1 the roof of the mouth, consisting of the HARD PALATE in front and the SOFT PALATE behind. 2 the sense of taste. 3 an ability to discriminate between wines, different qualities of wine, etc. ⓘ 14c: from Latin palatum.

palatial /pəˈleɪʃəl/ ▷ adj like a palace in magnificence, spaciousness, etc. ⓘ 18c: from Latin palatium PALACE.

palatine /ˈpalətaɪn/ ▷ adj 1 referring to the Palatine Hill in Rome, or the palace of Roman emperors on that hill. 2 referring to a palace. 3 having royal privileges or jurisdiction. ⓘ 15c.

palato-alveolar /ˈpalətoʊ —/ phonetics ▷ adj said of a speech sound: produced by bringing the tip of the tongue to or near the roots of the upper teeth and raising the tongue towards the HARD PALATE. ▷ noun a sound produced in this way, eg the consonants in church. Compare ALVEOLAR. ⓘ 20c: from palato-, scientific combining form denoting the PALATE + ALVEOLAR.

palaver /pəˈlɑːvə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 a long, boring, complicated and seemingly pointless exercise; an unnecessary fuss □ What a palaver! 2 idle chatter. 3 historical an act of conferring between European traders, settlers, etc and native inhabitants. ▷ verb (palavered, palavering) 1 intr to chatter idly. 2 to flatter; to cajole. ⓘ 18c: from Portuguese palavra, from Latin parabola PARABLE, later meaning 'a word' or 'speech'.

palazzo /pəˈlatsoʊ/ ▷ noun (palazzi /-tsiː/) 1 an Italian palace, often one converted into a museum. 2 a house built in this style. ⓘ 17c: Italian.

palazzos /pəˈlatsoʊz/ ▷ plural noun loose trousers with wide straight legs, usually worn by women. ⓘ 1970s: from PALAZZO.

pale[1] /peɪl/ ▷ adj (paler, palest) 1 said of a person, face, etc: having less colour than normal, eg from illness, fear, shock, etc. 2 said of a colour: whitish; closer to white than black; light □ pale green. 3 lacking brightness or vividness; subdued □ pale sunlight. ▷ verb (paled, paling) intr 1 to become pale. 2 to fade or become weaker or less significant □ My worries pale by comparison. • palely adverb. • paleness noun. • palish adj somewhat pale; quite pale. • pale into insignificance to become relatively unimportant in comparison with something else. ⓘ 13c: from French palle, from Latin pallidus, from pallere to be pale.

pale[2] /peɪl/ ▷ noun 1 a wooden or metal post or stake used for making fences. 2 a fence made of these; a boundary fence. 3 heraldry a broad stripe on a shield extending from top to bottom. • paly adj, heraldry divided by vertical lines. • beyond the pale outside the limits of acceptable behaviour; intolerable. See also PALING. ⓒ 14c: from Latin palus stake.

pale ale ▷ noun a light-coloured bitter ale.

palebuck ▷ noun the ORIBI.

paleface ▷ noun, sometimes derog the term supposed to have been used by Native Americans for the white settlers. ⓒ Early 19c.

palely and paleness see under PALE¹ pale- and paleo- see PALAEO-paler and palest see under PALE¹

Palestinian /palə'stɪnɪən/ ▷ noun 1 an inhabitant of, or person born in, ancient or modern Palestine, a region bordering the E Mediterranean. 2 an Arab who was born in or is a descendant of someone born in the area of Palestine. ▷ adj belonging or relating to ancient or modern Palestine. ⓒ 19c as adj.

palette /'palət/ ▷ noun 1 a hand-held board with a thumb-hole, on which an artist mixes colours. 2 the assortment or range of colours used by a particular artist, in a particular picture, etc ◻ broadened his palette in later years. ⓒ 17c: French, literally 'small spade', from pale spade.

palette knife ▷ noun 1 an artist's knife for mixing and applying paint. 2 a flexible-bladed, round-ended knife used for spreading butter, mixing ingredients, etc.

Pali /'pɑːlɪ/ ▷ noun the sacred language of the Buddhists of India, closely related to Sanskrit. ⓒ 18c: from Sanskrit pali-bhasa, from pali canon + bhasa language, ie the canonical texts rather than commentaries on them.

palimony /'palɪmənɪ/ ▷ noun, colloq alimony or its equivalent demanded by one partner when the couple have been cohabiting without being married. ⓒ 1970s: from PAL, modelled on ALIMONY.

palimpsest /'palɪmpsest/ ▷ noun 1 a parchment or other ancient writing surface re-used after the original content has been erased. 2 a monumental brass that has been turned over and inscribed on the reverse. ⓒ 17c: from Greek palin again + psaein to rub smooth.

palindrome /'palɪndroum/ ▷ noun a word or phrase that reads the same backwards and forwards, eg Hannah, and sums are not set as a test on Erasmus, and (perhaps the first ever palindrome) Madam, I'm Adam. • palindromic /palɪn'drɒmɪk/ adj in the nature of a palindrome; having the same spelling backwards and forwards. • palindromist noun a writer who invents palindromes. ⓒ 17c: from Greek palin back + dromein run.

paling /'peɪlɪŋ/ ▷ noun 1 the act of constructing a fence with pales (see PALE¹ sense 1). 2 a fence of this kind. 3 an upright stake or board in a fence.

palisade /palɪ'seɪd/ ▷ noun a tall fence of pointed wooden stakes fixed edge to edge, for defence or protection. ⓒ 16c: from Provençal palissada, from Latin palus stake.

palish see under PALE¹ pall¹ /pɔːl/ ▷ noun 1 a the cloth that covers a coffin at a funeral; b the coffin itself. See also PALL-BEARER. 2 anything spreading or hanging over ◻ a pall of smoke. 3 a PALLIUM. ⓒ Anglo-Saxon pæll a robe or covering.

pall² /pɔːl/ ▷ verb (palled, palling) 1 intr to begin to bore or seem tedious. 2 to cloy; to bore. ⓒ 14c: a variant of APPAL.

palladium /pə'leɪdɪəm/ ▷ noun, chem (symbol Pd, atomic number 46) a soft silvery-white metallic element used as a catalyst, and in gold dental alloys, jewellery, electrical components, and catalytic converters for car exhausts. ⓒ Named after the asteroid Pallas, discovered at about the same time (1802).

pall-bearer ▷ noun one of the people carrying the coffin or walking beside it at a funeral.

palled see under PAL, PALL² pallet¹ /'palɪt/ ▷ noun 1 a small wooden platform on which goods can be stacked for lifting and transporting, especially by forklift truck. 2 a flat-bladed wooden tool used for shaping pottery. ⓒ 16c in sense 2: from French palette (see PALETTE).

pallet² /'palɪt/ ▷ noun 1 a straw bed. 2 a small makeshift bed. ⓒ 14c: from French paillet a bundle or heap of straw, from paille straw.

palliasse or paillasse /palɪ'as, 'palɪas/ ▷ noun a straw-filled mattress. ⓒ 16c: from French paillasse, from paille straw.

palliate /'palɪeɪt/ ▷ verb (palliated, palliating) 1 to ease the symptoms of (a disease) without curing it. 2 to serve to lessen the gravity of (an offence, etc); to excuse something to some extent; to mitigate. 3 to reduce the effect of (anything disagreeable). ⓒ 16c: from Latin palliare to cloak.

palliative /'palɪətɪv/ ▷ noun anything used to reduce pain or anxiety. ▷ adj having the effect of alleviating or reducing pain. ⓒ 16c: French.

pallid /'palɪd/ ▷ adj (pallider, pallidest) 1 pale, especially unhealthily so. 2 lacking vigour or conviction. ⓒ 16c: from Latin pallidus pale.

palliness see under PAL

palling see under PAL, PALL² pallium /'palɪəm/ ▷ noun (pallia /-lɪə/ or palliums) relig a white woollen vestment shaped like a double Y, embroidered with six purple crosses signifying episcopal power and union with the Holy See of Rome, worn by the pope and conferred by him on archbishops. Also called PALL¹. ⓒ 16c: Latin, meaning 'a cloak'.

pallor /'palə(r)/ ▷ noun paleness, especially of complexion. ⓒ 17c: Latin.

pally see under PAL

palm¹ /pɑːm/ ▷ noun 1 the inner surface of the hand between the wrist and the fingers. 2 the part of a glove covering this. ▷ verb (palmed, palming) to conceal something in the palm of the hand. • grease someone's palm see under GREASE. • in the palm of one's hand in one's power; at one's command. ⓒ 14c as paume: French, originally from Latin palma palm of the hand; the spelling was gradually assimilated to the Latin form, resulting in the current spelling.

■ palm something off on someone or palm someone off with something colloq to give them something unwanted or unwelcome, especially by trickery.

palm² /pɑːm/ ▷ noun 1 any of various large tropical plants, most of which are trees with woody unbranched trunks bearing a crown of large fan-shaped or feather-shaped leaves, eg the date and the coconut. 2 a leaf of such a plant carried as a symbol of triumph or victory; the supreme prize. ⓒ Anglo-Saxon, from Latin palma palm of the hand.

palmaceous /pal'meɪʃəs/ ▷ adj, bot belonging to the PALM² family. ⓒ 18c.

palmar /'palmə(r)/ ▷ adj relating to the palm of the hand. ⓒ 17c.

palmate /'palmeɪt, 'palmət/ or palmated ▷ adj 1 bot said of a leaf: divided into lobes that radiate from a central point, resembling an open hand. 2 zool said of an animal, especially an aquatic bird: having webbed toes. ⓒ 18c: from Latin palmatus, from palma palm of the hand.

palm cat and palm civet see under PARADOXURE palm court ▷ noun a large room or conservatory in a hotel, etc, decorated with palm trees, where light music is traditionally played by a small orchestra and afternoon tea may be taken.

Palme d'Or /pɑːm'dɔː(r)/ ▷ noun (Palmes d'or) the highest award given at the annual Cannes International Film Festival. ⓘ 20c: French, meaning 'golden palm'.

palmetto /pal'metou/ ▷ noun (palmettos or palmettoes) any of various small palm trees, mainly native to tropical regions, which have fan-shaped leaves. ⓘ 16c: from Spanish palmito small palm.

palmhouse ▷ noun a glasshouse for palms and other tropical plants, usually found in botanical gardens in temperate climates where palms do not grow naturally.

palmist /'pɑːmist/ ▷ noun someone who practises palmistry.

palmistry /'pɑːmistri/ ▷ noun the art and practice of telling someone's fortune by reading the lines on the palm of their hand. Also called chiromancy. ⓘ 15c.

palmitate /'palmiteit/ ▷ noun, chem a salt of palmitic acid. ⓘ 19c.

palmitic acid /pal'mitik —/ ▷ noun, chem (formula $C_{15}H_{31}COOH$) a fatty acid, obtained from many animal and plant oils and fats, used in the manufacture of soaps, lubricating oils and waterproofing agents.

palm oil ▷ noun the red oil obtained from the outer pulp of the fruit of the OIL PALM, used in cooking fats and margarines.

palm sugar ▷ noun sugar obtained from the sap of certain species of palm trees. Also called jaggery.

Palm Sunday ▷ noun, Christianity the Sunday before Easter, on which Christ's triumphal entry into Jerusalem, when the crowd spread palm branches before him, is commemorated.

palmtop ▷ noun a portable computer, smaller than a LAPTOP, and usually small enough to be held in the hand. See also NOTEBOOK.

palmy /'pɑːmi/ ▷ adj (palmier, palmiest) effortlessly successful and prosperous □ one's palmy days. ⓘ 17c: from PALM[2], as a symbol of triumph.

palmyra /pal'maiərə/ ▷ noun (palmyras) an African and Asiatic palm yielding TODDY, JAGGERY and palmyra nuts. ⓘ 17c: from Portuguese palmeira palm tree, the spelling probably being influenced by the name of the ancient Syrian city Palmyra.

palolo /pə'loulou/ ▷ noun (palolos) an edible sea-worm that burrows in coral reefs, abundant in parts of the Pacific. ⓘ 19c: Samoan.

palomino or palamino /palə'miːnou/ ▷ noun (palominos or palaminos) a golden or cream horse, largely of Arab blood, with a white or silver tail and mane. ⓘ Early 20c: American Spanish palomino dove-like.

palooka /pə'luːkə/ ▷ noun (palookas) US slang a stupid or clumsy person, especially in sports. ⓘ 1920s.

palp and palpus /'palpəs/ (palps or palpi /-pai/) ▷ noun, zool a jointed sense-organ attached in pairs to the mouthparts of insects and crustaceans. • palpal adj. ⓘ 19c: from French palpe, from Latin palpus a feeler.

palpable /'palpəbəl/ ▷ adj 1 easily detected; obvious. 2 medicine said eg of an internal organ: able to be felt. • palpability noun. • palpableness noun. • palpably adverb. ⓘ 14c: from Latin palpare to touch.

palpate /'palpeit/ ▷ verb (palpated, palpating) medicine to examine (the body or a part of it) by touching or pressing, especially in order to diagnose medical disorders or diseases. ⓘ 19c: from Latin palpare to touch.

palpitate /'palpiteit/ ▷ verb (palpitated, palpitating) intr 1 medicine said of the heart: to beat abnormally rapidly, eg as a result of physical exertion, fear, emotion or heart disease. 2 to tremble or throb. • palpitation noun. ⓘ 17c: from Latin palpitare to throb.

palpus see PALP

palsy[1] /'pɔːlzi, 'pɒlzi/ ▷ noun (palsies) paralysis, or loss of control or feeling in a part of the body. ▷ verb (palsies, palsied, palsying) to affect someone or something with palsy; to paralyse. ⓘ 13c: from French paralisie, from Latin and Greek paralysis.

palsy[2] /'palzi/ and palsy-walsy /-'walzi/ ▷ adj, colloq over-friendly; ingratiatingly intimate. ⓘ 1930s: from PAL.

paltry /'pɔːltri, 'pɒltri/ ▷ adj (paltrier, paltriest) worthless; trivial; meagre; insignificant or insultingly inadequate □ a paltry sum. • paltriness noun. • paltrily adverb. ⓘ 16c: from German dialect paltrig ragged.

paludal /pə'ljuːdəl, pə'luːdəl, 'paljʊdəl/ ▷ adj 1 relating to marshes; marshy. 2 arising from a marsh; malarial. ⓘ 19c: from Latin palus a marsh.

paly see under PALE[2]

palynology /pali'nɒlədʒi/ ▷ noun the study and analysis of spores and pollen grains, especially those preserved in ancient sediments and soils, in order to reconstruct variations in vegetation over time. ⓘ 1940s: from Greek palynein to sprinkle + -LOGY.

pam. ▷ abbreviation pamphlet.

pampas grass ▷ noun /'pampəs —/ a large perennial S American grass with dense tufts of arching bluish leaves and tall erect stems bearing silvery-white or pink plume-like panicles, used ornamentally in Europe. ⓘ 19c: from Spanish Pampa a vast prairie in S America south of the Amazon, from Peruvian bamba a steppe.

pamper /'pampə(r)/ ▷ verb (pampered, pampering) to treat (a person or animal) over-indulgently and over-protectively; to cosset or spoil them. • pamperer noun. ⓘ 14c.

pamphlet /'pamflət/ ▷ noun (abbreviation pam.) a booklet or leaflet providing information or dealing with a current topic. ⓘ 14c: from French pamphilet, from the title of the Latin love poem Pamphilus, seu de Amore.

pan[1] ▷ noun 1 a pot, usually made of metal, used for cooking. 2 a PANFUL. 3 often in compounds any of various vessels, usually shallow ones, used for domestic, industrial and other purposes □ dustpan □ bedpan. 4 the bowl of a lavatory. 5 either of the two dishes on a pair of scales. 6 a shallow hollow in the ground □ a salt pan. 7 historical the hollow part of an old gunlock, that holds the priming. See also A FLASH IN THE PAN at FLASH. 8 usually in compounds any object similar to a pan in shape □ brainpan. 9 a hard layer under or in the soil. 10 a hollow metal drum of the type played in a steel band. ▷ verb (panned, panning) 1 (often pan for something) tr & intr to wash (river gravel) in a shallow metal vessel in search for (eg gold). 2 colloq to criticize something or review (a performance, book, etc) harshly. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon panne.

■ pan out 1 to result or turn out. 2 to come to an end; to be exhausted.

pan[2] ▷ verb (panned, panning) tr & intr said of a film camera, camcorder, etc: to swing round so as to follow a moving object or show a panoramic view. ▷ noun a panning movement or shot. ⓘ 1920s: a short form of PANORAMA.

pan- ▷ combining form, denoting 1 all, entire □ panorama □ panchromatic. 2 referring to a movement or ideal to unite (a whole continent, group of people, religion, etc) politically, economically, etc □ pan-Africanism □ panhellenic. Compare PANTO-. ⓘ From Greek pas, pantos all.

panacea /panə'siːə/ ▷ noun (panaceas) a universal remedy; a cure-all for any ill, problem, etc. ⓘ 16c: from Greek panakeia universal remedy.

panache /pə'naʃ, pə'nɑːʃ/ ▷ noun flamboyant self-assurance; a grand manner. ⓘ 19c in this sense; 16c meaning 'plume' or 'decoration of feathers' (eg on a headdress or helmet): French, from Latin pinnaculum, diminutive of pinna feather.

panada /pəˈnɑːdə/ ▷ noun (panadas) cookery 1 a dish made by boiling bread to a pulp in water or milk and flavouring it. 2 a thick binding sauce of flour or breadcrumbs, a liquid, and seasoning. ◷ 17c: from Spanish pan bread.

pan-African ▷ adj 1 including or relating to the whole of the African continent. 2 referring or relating to pan-Africanism. ◷ Early 20c.

pan-Africanism ▷ noun an ideal and a movement that draws its ideas from Black American and West Indian writers and activists, reflecting a pride in the African continent and culture, and a commitment to self-rule. • pan-Africanist noun.

PanAm ▷ abbreviation Pan-American World Airways Incorporated.

panama /ˈpanəmɑː/ and panama hat ▷ noun (panamas) 1 a lightweight brimmed hat for men made from the plaited leaves of a palm-like Central American tree, made in Ecuador, not Panama. 2 a hat in this style. ◷ 19c: named after Panama, a state in C America.

Panamanian /panəˈmeɪnɪən/ ▷ adj belonging or relating to Panama, a republic occupying the SE end of the isthmus of Central America, or to its inhabitants. ◷ 19c.

pan-American ▷ adj including or relating to all the states of both N and S America, or all N and S Americans. • pan-Americanism noun. ◷ 1890s.

pan-Arab or pan-Arabic ▷ adj relating to the ideal or policy of political unity between all Arab states. • pan-Arabism noun. ◷ 1930s.

panatella /panəˈtɛlə/ ▷ noun (panatellas) a long slim cigar. ◷ Early 20c: American Spanish, meaning 'a long thin biscuit' and Italian, meaning 'small loaf'.

pancake ▷ noun a thin cake made from a batter of eggs, flour and milk, cooked on both sides in a frying-pan or on a griddle, and traditional in many parts of the world. Compare DROP SCONE, CRÊPE. ◷ 15c: PAN[1] + CAKE.

Pancake Day ▷ noun SHROVE TUESDAY, when pancakes are traditionally eaten, originally in order to use up the fat and eggs in a house before fasting for Lent.

pancake ice ▷ noun polar sea ice in thin flat slabs, found as winter draws near.

pancake landing ▷ noun an aircraft landing made in an emergency, with the wheels up and landing flat on the belly of the aircraft.

pancake make-up ▷ noun cosmetic make-up in cake form which is moist or moistened before application.

panchax /ˈpantʃaks/ ▷ noun (panchaxes) any of several kinds of brightly coloured fish native to Africa and SE Asia. ◷ 19c: Latin, former generic name.

panchromatic /paŋkroʊˈmatɪk, pan-/ ▷ adj, photog said of a film: sensitive to all colours. ◷ Early 20c.

pancreas /ˈpaŋkrɪəs/ ▷ noun, anatomy in vertebrates: a large carrot-shaped gland lying between the duodenum and the spleen, that secretes PANCREATIC JUICE serving hormonal and digestive functions. See also SWEETBREAD. • pancreatic adj. ◷ 16c: from Greek pankreas.

pancreatic juice ▷ noun a mixture of digestive enzymes secreted from the pancreas into the duodenum, which is strongly alkaline in order to counteract the acidity of food that has just passed from the stomach into the duodenum.

pancreatin /ˈpaŋkrɪətɪn/ ▷ noun 1 biochem PANCREATIC JUICE. 2 a medicinal substance to aid the digestion, prepared from extracts of the pancreas of certain animals. ◷ 19c.

panda /ˈpandə/ ▷ noun (pandas) 1 a GIANT PANDA. 2 a RED PANDA. ◷ 1820s: Nepalese.

Pandean /panˈdiːən/ ▷ adj 1 relating to Pan, the Greek god of pastures, flocks and woods, represented as having a man's head, arms and torso, and goat's legs and feet. 2 relating to PANPIPES. ◷ 19c.

pandemic /panˈdɛmɪk/ ▷ adj, medicine describing a widespread epidemic of a disease, one that affects a whole country, continent, etc. ◷ 17c: from Greek pan- all + demos people.

pandemonium /pandəˈmoʊnɪəm/ ▷ noun 1 any very disorderly or noisy place or assembly. 2 noise, chaos and confusion. • pandemonic /-ˈmɒnɪk/ adj. ◷ 17c: John Milton's name for the capital of Hell in Paradise Lost, from Greek pan- all + daimon demon.

pander /ˈpandə(r)/ ▷ noun someone who obtains a sexual partner for someone else. ▷ verb (pandered, pandering) archaic to play the pander for someone. ◷ 16c: named after Pandarus in Chaucer and Shakespeare, the go-between who procures Cressida for Troilus.

■ pander to someone or something to indulge or gratify them or their wishes or tastes □ John pandered to my every need.

pandit see under PUNDIT

P & O ▷ abbreviation Peninsular and Oriental Steamship Navigation Company.

Pandora's box ▷ noun any source of great and unexpected troubles. ◷ 16c: from Pandora (Greek, meaning 'all gifts'), the name of the first woman in Greek mythology, who, in one version of the myth, was given a box by Zeus which was opened against his advice, letting loose all the ills of the world, except for hope which was in the bottom of the box.

p & p ▷ abbreviation postage and packing.

pane /peɪn/ ▷ noun a sheet of glass, especially one fitted into a window or door. ◷ 13c: from French pan a strip of cloth.

panegyric /panəˈdʒɪrɪk/ ▷ noun a speech or piece of writing in praise of someone or something, especially an elaborate one; a eulogy. • panegyric or panegyrical adj. • panegyrist noun. ◷ 17c: from Greek panegyrikos fit for a national festival, from pan- all + agyris an assembly.

panel /ˈpanəl/ ▷ noun 1 a rectangular wooden board forming a section, especially an ornamentally sunken or raised one, of a wall or door. 2 one of several strips of fabric making up a garment. 3 any of the metal sections forming the bodywork of a vehicle. 4 a board bearing the instruments and dials for controlling an aircraft, etc □ control panel. 5 rectangular divisions on the page of a book, especially for illustrations. 6 a a team of people selected to judge a contest, or to participate in a discussion, quiz or other game before an audience; b as adj □ panel discussion □ panel game. 7 a a list of jurors; b the people serving on a jury. ▷ verb (panelled, panelling; especially N Amer paneling, paneled) to fit (a wall or door) with wooden panels. ◷ 13c: French diminutive of pan a strip of cloth, from Latin pannus a cloth.

panel-beating ▷ noun the removal of dents from metal, especially from the bodywork of a vehicle, using a soft-headed hammer. • panel-beater noun.

panel heating ▷ noun indoor heating diffused from panels in the floors, walls or ceilings.

panelling or (N Amer) paneling noun 1 panels covering a wall or part of a wall, usually as decoration. Also called panel-work. 2 material for making these.

panellist or (N Amer) panelist /ˈpanəlɪst/ noun a member of a panel or team of people, especially in a panel game on TV or radio.

panel pin ▷ noun a small slender nail with a very small head, mainly used for fixing plywood or hardboard to supports.

panel saw ▷ noun a fine saw for cutting thin wood at right angles to the grain.

panettone /panəˈtoʊneɪ/ ▷ noun (panettoni /-niː/) a kind of spiced cake, usually containing sultanas, traditionally eaten at Christmas in Italy. ⓘ 1920s: Italian, literally 'a small loaf'.

pan-European ▷ adj 1 referring or relating to the economics, politics, etc of all European countries, but usually exclusively referring to the countries of the EUROPEAN UNION. 2 referring or relating to the policy of or movement for political unity of all European states. ⓘ Early 20c.

panful ▷ noun (panfuls) the amount a pan can hold.

pang /paŋ/ ▷ noun a brief but painfully acute feeling of hunger, guilt, remorse, etc □ a pang of guilt. ⓘ 16c.

Pangaea or Pangea /pan'dʒɪə/ ▷ noun, geol the name given to the hypothetical supercontinent that is thought to have represented the entire landmass of the Earth about 200 million years ago, before it drifted apart to form LAURASIA and GONDWANALAND, which themselves drifted apart eventually forming the present continents of the Earth. ⓘ 1920s: from PAN- + Greek ge earth.

pan-galactic ▷ adj relating or referring to all the galaxies in the Universe.

pan-Germanism ▷ noun especially in the 19c: an ideal of and movement for a Greater Germany or union of all German people. ▪ pan-German adj.

pangolin /paŋ'goulɪn/ ▷ noun a toothless mammal that is covered with large overlapping horny plates, has a pointed head and a long broad tail, and can curl into an armoured ball when threatened by a predator. ⓘ 18c: from Malay peng-goling roller.

pangram /'paŋgram/ ▷ noun a sentence or verse containing all the letters of the alphabet, such as The quick brown fox jumps over the lazy dog. ▪ pangrammatist noun someone who contrives pangrams. ⓘ 1930s.

panhandle ▷ noun, especially US a narrow strip of territory stretching out from the main body into another territory, eg part of a state which stretches into another.

panhellenic ▷ adj 1 said of either ancient or modern Greece: relating to, including or representing all Greeks, or the whole of Greece. 2 relating to Panhellenism. ⓘ 19c.

Panhellenism ▷ noun especially in the late 19c: a movement or ideal for the union of all Greece or all Greeks. ▪ Panhellenist noun.

panic /'panɪk/ ▷ noun a sudden overpowering fear that affects an individual, or especially one that grips a crowd or population. ▷ verb (panicked, panicking) tr & intr to feel panic, or make someone feel panic. ⓘ 17c: from French panique, from Greek panikon baseless terror, referring to fear caused by harmless sounds heard in the mountains and valleys, thought to be made by Pan, the god of flocks and pastures.

panic attack ▷ noun, psychol an attack of intense terror and anxiety, lasting from several minutes to several hours.

panic button ▷ noun an alarm button operating any of various safety devices, eg one that stops an escalator, signals for assistance, etc.

panic-buy ▷ verb to buy (commodities or a commodity) in large quantities, in expectation of a shortage, often precipitating a greater shortage than might otherwise have occurred.

panicky /'panɪkɪ/ ▷ adj inclined to or affected by panic.

panicle /'panɪkəl/ ▷ noun, bot a branched flower-head, common in grasses, in which the youngest flowers are at the tip of the flower-stalk, and the oldest ones are near its base. ▪ panicled, paniculate /pə'nɪkjulət/ or paniculated adj having, arranged in, or like, panicles. ⓘ 16c: from Latin panicula tuft.

panic-stricken ▷ adj struck with sudden fear; terrified.

Panislamism /panɪz'lamɪzəm/ ▷ noun especially in the 19c: the advocacy of a political union of the whole of the Muslim world. ▪ Panislam noun. ▪ Panislamic or pan-Islamic adj.

Panjabi see PUNJABI.

panjandrum /pan'dʒandrəm/ ▷ noun, humorous a pompous official. ⓘ 18c: from 'the Grand Panjandrum', used in a string of nonsense composed by Samuel Foote (1720–77), wit, actor and dramatist.

panne /pan/ ▷ noun a fabric resembling velvet, with a long nap. ⓘ 18c: French.

panned past tense, past participle of PAN[1], PAN[2] pannier /'panɪə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 a one of a pair of baskets carried over the back of a donkey or other pack animal; b one of a pair of bags carried on either side of the wheel of a bicycle, etc. 2 historical a a system of hoops used for speading out a woman's dress at the hips; b a tucked-up arrangement of fabric on either side of a woman's skirt. ⓘ 13c: originally referring to a large basket for carrying food: from French panier, from Latin panarium bread basket.

pannikin /'panɪkɪn/ ▷ noun 1 a small metal cup. 2 a small pan or saucer. ⓘ 19c: from PAN[2] + -KIN.

panning present participle of PAN[1], PAN[2] pannose /'panous/ ▷ adj, bot like felt. ⓘ 19c: from Latin pannosus, from pannus cloth.

pannus /'panəs/ ▷ noun (pannuses) pathol 1 a layer of new connective tissue that forms over the joints in rheumatoid arthritis. 2 an opaque membrane of inflammatory tissue that forms over the cornea in TRACHOMA. ⓘ 18c: from Latin pannus cloth.

panocha /pə'noutʃə/ ▷ noun a coarse brown Mexican sugar. ⓘ 19c: American Spanish.

panoply /'panəplɪ/ ▷ noun (panoplies) 1 the full splendid assemblage got together for a ceremony, etc □ the full panoply of a society wedding. 2 historical a full set of armour and weapons. ⓘ 17c: from Greek panoplia full armour of heavy-armed Greek footsoldiers, from pan- all + hopla weapons.

panoptic /pan'ɒptɪk/ or panoptical ▷ adj all-embracing; viewing all aspects. ⓘ 19c.

panorama /panə'rɑːmə/ ▷ noun (panoramas) 1 an open and extensive or all-round view, eg of a landscape. 2 a view of something in all its range and variety □ the panorama of history. ⓘ 18c: from Greek pan- all + horama view.

panoramic /panə'ramɪk/ ▷ adj said of a view or prospect: like a panorama; open and extensive. ▪ panoramically adverb.

panoramic camera ▷ noun a camera which takes very wide-angle views, generally by rotation about an axis and by exposing a roll of film through a vertical slit.

panoramic sight ▷ noun a gunsight that can be rotated, enabling the user to fire in any direction.

panpipes, Pan pipes or Pan's pipes ▷ plural noun a musical instrument, made of reeds of different lengths bound together and played by blowing across their open ends, of great antiquity and widely used in certain folk cultures such as those of S America and Romania. Also called syrinx. ⓘ 19c: named after Pan, the Greek god of pastures, flocks and woods, who reputedly invented them.

pan-Slavic or pan-Slav ▷ adj 1 relating to, including or representing all Slavs. 2 relating to pan-Slavism.

pan-Slavism ▷ noun a movement for the union of all Slav peoples. ▪ pan-Slavist adj, noun. ⓘ 1850s: modelled on the German Panslawismus.

panspermatism /pan'spɜːmətɪzəm/ or panspermism ▷ noun the theory that life could be diffused through the Universe by means of germs carried by meteorites or that life was brought to Earth by this means. ▪ panspermatist or panspermist noun. ◎ 19c: from Greek sperma seed.

pansy /ˈpanzɪ/ ▷ noun (pansies) 1 any of various species of violet, native to Europe, which have flat flowers with five rounded white, yellow or purple petals. 2 offensive slang an effeminate man or boy; a male homosexual. ◎ 15c: from French pensée thought.

pant ▷ verb (panted, panting) 1 intr to breathe in and out with quick, shallow, short gasps as a result of physical exertion. 2 to say something breathlessly. ▷ noun a gasping breath. • panting noun, adj. • pantingly adverb. • be panting for something to be longing for it □ panting for a drink. ◎ 15c: from French pantaiser, from Greek phantasioun to hallucinate.

pant- see PANTO-

pantaloons /pantəˈluːnz/ ▷ plural noun 1 baggy trousers gathered at the ankle. 2 various kinds of trousers, such as tight-fitting trousers for men with buttons or ribbons below the calf, worn at the turn of the 19c. ◎ 16c: from Pantalone, a figure from Italian comedy, a skinny old man in tight hose.

pantechnicon /panˈteknɪkɒn/ ▷ noun a large furniture-removal van. ◎ 19c: from Greek pan- all + techne art; originally the name of the premises of a London art dealer, which were later used as a furniture warehouse.

pantheism /ˈpanθiːɪzəm/ ▷ noun 1 the belief that equates all the matter and forces in the Universe with God. 2 readiness to believe in all or many gods. • pantheist noun. • pantheistic or pantheistical adj. ◎ 18c: from Greek pan- all + theos god.

panthenol /ˈpanθənɒl/ ▷ noun, US PANTOTHENOL.

pantheon /ˈpanθɪən/ ▷ noun 1 all the gods of a particular people □ the ancient Greek pantheon. 2 a a temple sacred to all the gods; b (the Pantheon) the temple built (c.119–125 AD) in Rome by the Emperor Hadrian, and regarded as one of the greatest surviving classical buildings. It was dedicated to the seven Roman planetary gods. 3 a building in which the glorious dead of a nation have memorials or are buried. ◎ 14c: from Greek pantheios of all the gods.

panther /ˈpanθə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 a LEOPARD, especially a black one, formerly believed to be a different species. 2 N Amer a PUMA. • pantherine /-raɪn/ or pantherish adj. ◎ 13c: from Latin panthera, from Greek panther leopard.

panties /ˈpantɪz/ ▷ plural noun thin light knickers, mainly for women and children. ◎ Early 20c in this sense; 19c, meaning 'men's shorts or trousers': diminutive of PANTS.

pantihose see PANTY HOSE

pantile /ˈpantaɪl/ building ▷ noun, a roofing tile with an S-shaped cross section, laid so that the upward curve of one tile fits under the downward curve of the next. • pantiled adj. • pantiling noun. ◎ 17c: PAN[1] + TILE.

panto /ˈpantoʊ/ ▷ noun (pantos) colloq short form of PANTOMIME.

panto- /pantoʊ/ or (before a vowel) pant- ▷ combining form, denoting all or entire. Compare PAN-. ◎ From Greek pas, pantos all.

pantograph /ˈpantəgrɑːf/ ▷ noun 1 a device consisting of jointed rods forming an adjustable parallelogram, for copying maps, plans, etc to any scale. 2 a similarly shaped metal framework on the roof of an electric train, transmitting current from an overhead wire. ◎ 18c.

pantomime /ˈpantəmaɪm/ ▷ noun 1 a a Christmas entertainment usually based on a popular fairy tale, with songs, dancing, comedy acts, etc; b as adj □ pantomime season. 2 communication by exaggerated gesture and facial expression, with no speech; mime. 3 a farcical or confused situation □ What a pantomime! • pantomimic /-ˈmɪmɪk/ or pantomimical adj. ◎ 16c: from Greek pantomimos a mime actor, literally 'imitator of all'.

pantomimist /ˈpantəmaɪmɪst/ ▷ noun 1 an actor in pantomime. 2 a writer of pantomime.

pantothenic acid /pantəˈθenɪk —/ ▷ noun, biochem a member of the VITAMIN B COMPLEX that is found in many foods, especially cereal grains, egg yolk, liver, yeast and peas. See also PANTHENOL. ◎ 1930s: from Greek pantothen from every side, because of its wide occurrence.

pantothenol ▷ noun a vitamin of the VITAMIN B COMPLEX. ◎ 20c: see PANTOTHENIC ACID.

pantry /ˈpantrɪ/ ▷ noun (pantries) a small room or cupboard for storing food, cooking utensils, etc; a larder. ◎ 13c: from French paneterie a place where bread was stored, from Latin panis bread.

pants ▷ plural noun 1 Brit an undergarment worn over the buttocks and genital area; underpants. 2 N Amer trousers. • be caught with one's pants down colloq to be caught at an embarrassing and unsuitable moment, completely unprepared. • by the seat of one's pants see under SEAT. • scare, bore, etc the pants off someone slang to scare, bore, etc them to a great extent. • wear the pants N Amer colloq wear the trousers (see under TROUSERS). ◎ 19c: originally US, a shortening of PANTALOONS for trousers in general.

pant suit or pants suit ▷ noun, N Amer a TROUSER SUIT.

panty girdle ▷ noun a woman's undergarment consisting of tight elasticated pants which hold in the stomach and buttocks.

panty hose or pantihose ▷ plural noun, N Amer women's tights.

pap[1] ▷ noun 1 soft semi-liquid food for babies and sick people. 2 derog trivial or worthless reading matter or entertainment. • pappy adj. ◎ 15c; 16c in sense 2: from German pappe, from Latin papare to feed with pap; probably imitating the sound of a baby eating.

pap[2] ▷ noun 1 old use a nipple or teat. 2 Scot in placenames: a round conical hill. ◎ 13c: from Scandinavian; probably imitating a suckling sound.

papa ▷ noun 1 /pəˈpɑː/ (papas) old use or jocular a child's word for father. 2 /ˈpɑːpə/ (Papa) communications in the NATO alphabet: the word used to denote the letter 'P' (see table at NATO ALPHABET). ◎ 17c: from French papa and Greek pappas father.

papacy /ˈpeɪpəsɪ/ ▷ noun (papacies) 1 the position, power or period of office of a POPE. 2 government by popes. ◎ 14c: from Latin papatia, from papa pope.

papain /pəˈpeɪn/ ▷ noun a digestive enzyme in the juice of papaya fruits and leaves, used for tenderizing meat. ◎ Late 19c.

papal /ˈpeɪpəl/ ▷ adj referring or relating to the POPE (noun 1) or the PAPACY. ◎ 14c: from Latin papalis, from papa pope.

papal brief see BRIEF

papal bull ▷ noun a BULL[3] papal cross ▷ noun a cross with three crossbars.

papalism ▷ noun the situation of the POPE (noun 1) as the head of the RC Church, his power and authority; the papal system. • papalist noun a supporter of the pope and of the papal system.

Papanicolaou smear and Papanicolaou test /papəˈnɪkəlaʊ —/ ▷ noun a SMEAR TEST for detecting cancer or precancerous cells, especially cancer of the cervix. Often shortened to pap test. ◎ 1940s: named after George Papanicolaou (1883–1962), US anatomist, who devised the test.

paparazzo /papəˈratsoʊ/ ▷ noun (paparazzi /-tsiː/) a newspaper photographer who follows famous people about in the hope of photographing them in unguarded moments. Ⓒ 1960s: from the name of the photographer in the film La Dolce Vita (1959).

papaverine /pəˈpeɪvəriːn, -rɪn/ ▷ noun, medicine a smooth-muscle relaxant drug found in opium. Ⓒ 19c: from Latin papaver poppy.

papaw /pəˈpɔː/ or pawpaw /ˈpɔːpɔː/ ▷ noun 1 a tree with purple flowers native to N America. 2 a small evergreen tree with a crown of large segmented leaves and yellow flowers, widely cultivated in the tropics for its edible fruit. 3 the large oblong yellow or orange fruit of this tree, which may be eaten raw, squeezed for its juice or canned, having sweet orange flesh and a central cavity filled with black seeds. Also called custard apple. Sometimes called papaya (papayas) Ⓒ 15c: Spanish papaya, from a Caribbean dialect.

paper /ˈpeɪpə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 a material manufactured in thin sheets from pulped wood, rags, or other forms of cellulose, used for writing and printing on, wrapping things, etc. 2 a loose piece of paper, eg a wrapper or printed sheet. 3 other material used for a similar purpose or with a similar appearance, eg PAPYRUS, RICE PAPER. 4 wallpaper. 5 a a newspaper; b (the papers) newspapers collectively; the press. 6 a set of questions on a certain subject for a written examination □ maths paper. 7 a a written article dealing with a certain subject, especially for reading to an audience at a meeting, conference, etc; b an essay written eg by a student. 8 (papers) personal documents establishing one's identity, nationality, etc, required by customs, passport control, etc, and in some countries required by law to be carried at all times. 9 (papers) a person's accumulated correspondence, diaries, etc. 10 politics see under GREEN PAPER, WHITE PAPER. 11 stock exchange slang stocks and shares. ▷ adj 1 consisting of or made of paper. 2 paper-like, especially thin like paper; papery. 3 on paper. ▷ verb (papered, papering) 1 to decorate (a wall, a room, etc) with wallpaper □ paper the hall. 2 to cover something with paper. • paperer noun. • papering noun 1 the activity of covering something with paper, especially wallpaper. 2 the paper used for this. • on paper 1 in theory or in abstract as distinct from practice □ The plans were good on paper, but not in practice. 2 captured in written form □ get one's ideas down on paper. Ⓒ 14c: from French papier, from Latin, from Greek papyros PAPYRUS.

■ paper over something or paper over the cracks in something to conceal or avoid (an awkward fact, mistake, etc).

paperback ▷ noun a book with a thin flexible paper binding, as opposed to a HARDBACK. Also as adj. ▷ verb to publish (a book) in paperback form.

paperboard ▷ noun a type of strong thick cardboard; PASTEBOARD.

paperboy and papergirl ▷ noun a boy or girl who delivers newspapers to people's homes, or sells them.

paper chase ▷ noun a cross-country race in which runners follow a trail of dropped shreds of paper. See also HARE AND HOUNDS.

paper chromatography ▷ noun, chem a form of CHROMATOGRAPHY used to separate and analyse complex mixtures of chemical compounds that are applied to one end of a sheet of a special grade of filter paper, which is then suspended vertically in a solvent.

paper clip ▷ noun 1 a metal clip formed from bent wire, for holding papers together. 2 a round-headed brass device with two flexible legs that can be pushed through papers, then separated and folded back to secure them. Also called paper fastener.

paper hanger ▷ noun someone who puts up wallpaper.

paper knife ▷ noun a knife for slitting open envelopes, cutting open the leaves of books, etc.

paperless ▷ adj using especially electronic means, rather than paper, for communicating, recording, etc □ a paperless office.

paper-mâché see PAPIER-MÂCHÉ paper mill ▷ noun a place where paper is manufactured, traditionally a mill built beside a river, since a lot of water is required to produce paper pulp.

paper money ▷ noun bank notes, as opposed to coins.

paper nautilus ▷ noun any of various small octopuses, native to open seas, so called because the female secretes a thin-walled papery egg-case which is carried by her. Ⓒ 19c: PAPER + NAUTILUS: apparently Aristotle believed that it used its arms as sails.

paper profits ▷ plural noun the appreciation in value of ASSETS (sense 3) without this being turned into money which can be spent, eg if someone owns a house which is worth more than what they paid for it, then they have paper profits. Compare NEGATIVE EQUITY.

paper tiger ▷ noun a person, organization or nation that appears to be powerful and is apparently threatening, but is in fact not. Ⓒ 1950s: translation of a Chinese expression first used by Chairman Mao (1893–1976) about the US.

paperweight ▷ noun a heavy, usually ornamental, object kept on a desk for holding papers down.

paperwork ▷ noun routine written work, eg filling out forms, keeping files, writing letters and reports, etc, most of which is necessary to ensure the smooth running of a job, company, etc; clerical work.

papery /ˈpeɪpərɪ/ ▷ adj like paper in texture.

Papiamento /papɪəˈmentoʊ/ ▷ noun a creole language spoken in the Dutch Antilles, derived from Spanish and Portuguese, with vocabulary influence from Dutch. Ⓒ 1940s: Spanish, from Spanish papia talk.

papier-mâché /ˌpapɪeɪˈmaʃeɪ, papjeɪ-/ and paper-mâché ▷ noun a light hard material consisting of pulped paper mixed with glue and sometimes other substances such as paint. It is moulded into shape while wet and left to dry, and used to make boxes, jars, jewellery, masks, etc. Also as adj. Ⓒ 18c: French, literally 'chewed paper'.

papilla /pəˈpɪlə/ ▷ noun (papillae /-liː/) anatomy, biol 1 a small nipple-like projection from the surface of a structure. 2 a minute elevation on the skin, especially that of the fingertips, the inner surface of the eyelids and upper surface of the tongue, in which a nerve ends. 3 a protuberance at the base of a hair, feather, tooth, etc. 4 a minute conical protuberance as on the surface of a petal. • papillary adj like or having papillae. • papillate or papillated or papilliferous /pap/ adj having papillae. • papilliform adj in the shape of a papilla. Ⓒ 18c: Latin, diminutive of papula pimple.

papilloma /papɪˈloʊmə/ ▷ noun (papillomas) medicine a benign tumour formed by the abnormal enlargement of a papilla or papillae, such as a wart. • papillomatous /papɪˈloʊmətəs/ adj. Ⓒ 19c.

papillon /ˈpapɪjɔ̃/ ▷ noun a breed of toy dog (see TOY noun 3) related to the spaniel and developed in France, which has a small body and a long fine coat that is thickest on the neck, chest and upper legs. Ⓒ Early 20c: French, meaning 'butterfly', because the fringes of hair on its ears resemble butterfly's wings.

papillote /ˈpapɪloʊt/ ▷ noun, cookery 1 a small decorative paper frill used to garnish the bone end of a lamb or veal chop. 2 oiled or greased paper in which meat is cooked and served. • en papillote said of a dish: cooked and served inside oiled or greased paper. Ⓒ 19c in these senses; 18c meaning 'a curl paper' for the hair: French, probably from papillon butterfly.

papist /ˈpeɪpɪst/ ▷ noun, offensive a Roman Catholic. • papism or papistry noun, often offensive popery. Ⓒ 16c: from Latin papa pope.

papoose /pə'puːs/ ▷ noun a Native American baby or young child. ◎ 17c: from Algonquian papoos.

pappadom see POPPADOM.

pappus /'papəs/ ▷ noun (pappi /-paɪ/ or pappuses) bot in composites and some other plants, eg dandelions and thistles: a ring or parachute of fine hair or down, which grows above the seed and helps in wind dispersal. ◎ 18c: Latin, from Greek pappos a grandfather, because of its resemblance to an old man's beard.

pappy[1] /'papɪ/ ▷ noun (pappies) US colloq father; papa.

pappy[2] see under PAP[2].

paprika /'paprɪkə, pə'priːkə/ ▷ noun a powdered hot spice made from red peppers. ◎ 19c: Hungarian, from Serbo-Croat papar pepper.

pap test see under PAPANICOLAOU SMEAR.

papula /'papjʊlə/ or papule /'papjuːl/ ▷ noun (papulae /-liː/ or papules) biol a pimple; a PAPILLA. ● papular adj. ◎ 18c: Latin.

papyrology /papɪ'rɒlədʒɪ/ ▷ noun the study of ancient papyruses. ● papyrologist noun a scientist who specializes in papyrology. ◎ 19c.

papyrus /pə'paɪərəs/ ▷ noun (papyri /pə'paɪəraɪ/ or papyruses) 1 a tall plant of the SEDGE family, common in ancient Egypt. 2 the writing material prepared from the pith of the flowering stems of this plant, used by the ancient Egyptians, Greeks and Romans. 3 an ancient manuscript written on this material. ◎ 14c: from Greek papyros.

par /pɑː(r)/ ▷ noun 1 a normal level or standard. 2 golf the standard number of strokes that a good golfer would take for a certain course or hole. 3 commerce (also par of exchange) the established value of the unit of one national currency against that of another. ● above par at a premium; at more than the nominal value. ● below or not up to par colloq 1 not up to the usual or required standard. 2 slightly unwell. ● on a par with something or someone equal to them; the equivalent of them. ● par for the course colloq only to be expected; predictable; typical. ◎ 17c: Latin, meaning 'equal'.

par. ▷ abbreviation 1 (also para.) /'parə/ paragraph. 2 parallel. 3 parish.

par- see PARA-[1], PARA-[2].

para /'parə/ ▷ noun (paras) colloq a paratrooper. ◎ 1950s.

para-[1] /parə/ or (before a vowel) par- ▷ combining form, denoting 1 alongside; beside; side-by-side □ parathyroid. 2 beyond □ parapsychology. 3 resembling □ paramilitary. 4 auxiliary □ paramedical. 5 abnormal □ paraesthesia. 6 chem having substituted atoms or groups attached to two opposite carbon atoms of the benzene ring, usually spelt p- and written in italics □ p-xylene □ para-xylene. 7 a polymer of, or compound related to, the specified compound. ◎ From Greek para alongside.

para-[2] /'parə/ or (before a vowel) par- ▷ combining form, denoting protection or defence against the specified thing □ parachute □ parasol. ◎ French, from Italian, from Latin parare to defend.

para-[3] /'parə/ ▷ combining form, denoting parachute □ paratrooper □ paradoctor.

parable /'parəbəl/ ▷ noun 1 a story which is realistic but usually made-up, intended to convey a moral or religious lesson; an allegorical tale. 2 any of the stories of this kind recorded in the New Testament of the Bible, especially those told by Jesus. See also PARABOLIC. ◎ 14c: from Latin parabola comparison, from Greek parabole analogy, from paraballein to set alongside or compare.

parabola /pə'rabələ/ ▷ noun (parabolas) geom 1 a CONIC SECTION produced when a plane intersects a cone, and the plane is parallel to the cone's sloping side. 2 the locus of a point equidistant from a fixed point (the FOCUS noun 8) and a fixed straight line (the DIRECTRIX). ◎ 16c: from Greek parabole placing alongside.

parabolic /parə'bɒlɪk/ and parabolical ▷ adj 1 like or expressed in a parable. 2 like or in the form of a parabola. ● parabolically adverb.

parabrake ▷ noun a parachute released behind an aircraft to help it slow down once it has landed. ◎ 1950s.

paracentesis /parəsen'tiːsɪs/ ▷ noun, surgery the surgical piercing of a body cavity to remove gas, fluid, etc. ◎ 16c: from Greek parakentein to pierce at the side.

paracetamol /parə'siːtəmɒl, -'setəmɒl/ ▷ noun 1 a mild analgesic drug, administered by mouth in order to relieve mild to moderate pain or to reduce fever. 2 a tablet of this drug. ◎ 1950s: modelled on the medical name para-acetylaminophenol.

parachronism /pə'rakrənɪzəm/ ▷ noun an error in dating, especially when something is represented as later than it really was. ◎ 17c: from PARA-[1], modelled on ANACHRONISM.

parachute /'parəʃuːt/ ▷ noun 1 an umbrella-shaped apparatus consisting of light fabric, with a harness for attaching to, and slowing the fall of, a person or package dropped from an aircraft. 2 any structure that serves a similar purpose. Also shortened to chute. ▷ verb (parachuted, parachuting) tr & intr to drop from the air by parachute. ● parachutist noun. ◎ 18c: from PARA-[2] + French chute fall.

Paraclete /'parəkliːt/ ▷ noun, Christianity the Holy Ghost as an advocate. ◎ 15c: from Latin paracletus, from Greek parakaleein to call in or comfort.

parade /pə'reɪd/ ▷ noun 1 a ceremonial procession of people, vehicles, etc. 2 said of soldiers, etc: a the state of being drawn up in rank for formal marching or inspection; b a group or body of soldiers, etc drawn up in this way. 3 a self-advertising display □ make a parade of one's generosity. 4 a a row of shops, a shopping street, etc; b (the Parade) used as the name or address of such a row. 5 fencing a PARRY. ▷ verb 1 (paraded, parading) tr & intr to walk or make (a body of soldiers, etc) walk or march in procession, eg across a square, along a street, etc. 2 to display ostentatiously; to flaunt. ◎ 17c: French, from Spanish parada a halt or stopping-place, from Latin parare to prepare. parade ground ▷ noun the square or yard where soldiers assemble for inspection, marching practice, etc.

paradigm /'parədaɪm/ ▷ noun 1 an example, model or pattern. 2 a conceptual framework within which scientific theories are constructed, which is consistent within itself, but may need completely revising as evidence challenging the factual accuracy of some aspects of it accumulates. 3 grammar a a table of the inflected forms of a word serving as a pattern for words of the same declension or conjugation; b the words showing a particular pattern. ● paradigmatic /-dɪg'matɪk/ or paradigmatical adj. ● paradigmatically adverb. ◎ 15c: from Greek paradeigma pattern.

paradisaic /parədɪ'seɪɪk/, paradisaical /-dɪ'zeɪɪkəl/, paradisal /-'daɪsəl/ and paradisiac /-'dɪzɪak/ ▷ adj relating to or resembling paradise.

paradise /'parədaɪs/ ▷ noun 1 heaven. 2 a place of utter bliss or delight. 3 the Garden of Eden. ◎ 13c as paradis: French, from Greek paradeisos, from Persian pairidaeza park.

paradise fish ▷ noun a Chinese freshwater fish with remarkable and beautiful colouring.

paradoctor ▷ noun a doctor who reaches patients in remote areas by parachuting down from an aeroplane. ◎ 1940s.

paradox /'parədɒks/ ▷ noun (paradoxes) 1 a statement that seems to contradict itself, eg More haste, less speed, and War is Peace, Freedom is Slavery, Ignorance is Strength

(from George Orwell's Nineteen Eighty-Four). 2 a situation involving apparently contradictory elements. 3 logic a proposition that is essentially absurd or leads to an absurd conclusion. ● paradoxical adj. ● paradoxically adverb. ● paradoxy noun the quality of being paradoxical. ◷ 16c: from Greek paradoxos incredible, from para- beyond + doxa opinion.

paradoxical sleep ▷ noun, technical REM SLEEP.

paradoxure /parəˈdɒksjʊə(r)/ ▷ noun a civet-like carnivore of S Asia and Malaysia, with a very long curving tail. Also called palm cat or palm civet. ◷ 19c: from PARADOX + Greek oura tail.

paraesthesia or (US) paresthesia /parɪsˈθiːzɪə, parɛs-/ noun, pathol an abnormal tingling sensation in any part of the body, sometimes described as PINS AND NEEDLES, and often caused by pressure on a nerve. ◷ 19c: from PARA-[1] sense 5 + Greek aisthesis sensation.

paraffin /ˈparəfɪn/ ▷ noun 1 a fuel oil obtained from petroleum or coal and used in aircraft, domestic heaters, etc. 2 any of a series of saturated aliphatic hydrocarbons derived from petroleum, including alkane gases such as methane and ethane, and liquids and waxy solids. Now more commonly called an alkane. 3 PARAFFIN WAX. 4 PETROLATUM. ◷ 19c: from Latin parum little + affinis having an affinity, named by its discoverer, Reichenbach, because of its unreactiveness.

paraffin oil ▷ noun 1 chem a viscous yellow oil made from petroleum and used as a lubricant. 2 KEROSENE.

paraffin wax ▷ noun, chem a white tasteless odourless translucent solid, a type of PETROLEUM WAX, used to make candles, lubricants, polishes, wax crayons, cosmetics, etc.

paraffiny ▷ adj 1 relating to or suggestive of paraffin. 2 smelling of paraffin.

paragenesis /parəˈdʒɛnəsɪs/ and paragenesia /parədʒəˈniːzɪə/ ▷ noun, geol 1 the order in which minerals have developed in a given mass of rock. 2 the development of minerals in such close contact that their formation is affected and they become a joined mass. ● paragenetic adj. ◷ 19c.

paragliding ▷ noun a sport in which the participant is towed through the air by a light aircraft while wearing a modified controllable and steerable type of parachute, then released to glide in the air and eventually drift to the ground, often to a predetermined location. ● paraglider noun. ◷ 1960s.

paragon /ˈparəgən/ ▷ noun someone who is a model of excellence or perfection. ◷ 16c: French, from Italian paragone comparison.

paragraph /ˈparəgrɑːf/ ▷ noun 1 a section of a piece of writing of variable length, starting on a fresh, often indented, line, and dealing with a distinct point or idea. 2 a short report in a newspaper. 3 music a musical passage forming a unit. 4 (also paragraph mark) printing a sign (¶), indicating the start of a new paragraph. ▷ verb (paragraphed, paragraphing) to divide (text) into paragraphs. ◷ 16c: from Greek paragraphe marked passage, from graphein to write.

paragraphia /parəˈgrafɪə/ ▷ noun, medicine the writing of wrong words or letters in place of others, resulting from disease or injury of the brain. ● paragraphic adj. ◷ 19c: from Greek -graphia writing.

parainfluenza virus ▷ noun any of a group of viruses that cause influenza-like symptoms, especially in children.

parakeet or parrakeet /ˈparəkiːt/ ▷ noun any of various small brightly-coloured parrots with long pointed tails, native to tropical regions worldwide, which live in groups and usually roost in trees. ◷ 16c: from French paroquet parrot.

paralalia /parəˈleɪlɪə/ ▷ noun, medicine a form of speech disturbance, especially one in which a different sound or syllable is produced in place of the intended one. Compare APHASIA. ◷ 19c.

paralanguage /ˈparə-/ ▷ noun those elements of communication other than words, ie tone of voice, whispering, gesture or body language, facial expression, etc. See also PARALINGUISTICS. ◷ 1950s.

paraldehyde /pəˈraldɪhaɪd/ ▷ noun, chem (formula $C_6H_{12}O_3$) a colourless flammable toxic liquid that is a polymer of ACETALDEHYDE, and is used as a solvent and sleep-inducing drug. ◷ 19c.

paraleipsis /parəˈlaɪpsɪs/ or paralipsis /-ˈlɪpsɪs/ ▷ noun (paraleipses or paralipses /-siːz/) rhetoric a rhetorical device by which the speaker draws attention to a subject by pretending to neglect it, as in I will not speak of his generosity. ◷ 16c: from Greek paraleipein to leave aside.

paralinguistics ▷ noun the study of PARALANGUAGE. ● paralinguistic adj.

parallax /ˈparəlaks/ ▷ noun (parallaxes) 1 physics the apparent change in the position of an object, relative to a distant background, when it is viewed from two different positions. 2 astron the angle between two straight lines joining two different observation points to a celestial body, used to measure the distance of stars from the Earth. ● parallactic or parallactical adj. ◷ 16c: from Greek parallaxis change or alteration.

parallel /ˈparəlɛl/ ▷ adj (often parallel to something) 1 said of lines, planes, etc: the same distance apart at every point; alongside and never meeting or intersecting ◻ parallel lines ◻ a road parallel to the High Street. 2 similar; exactly equivalent; corresponding; analogous ◻ parallel careers. ▷ adverb (often parallel to something) alongside and at an unvarying distance from it. ▷ noun 1 geom a line or plane parallel to another. 2 a corresponding or equivalent instance of something. 3 any of the lines of LATITUDE circling the Earth parallel to the equator and representing a particular angular degree of distance from it. Also called parallel of latitude. ▷ verb (paralleled, paralleling) 1 to equal. 2 to correspond to or be equivalent to something. 3 to be or to run parallel to something. ● parallelwise adverb. ● in parallel 1 said of electrical appliances: so co-ordinated that terminals of the same polarity are connected. 2 simultaneously. ● on a parallel with something corresponding to it. ● without parallel unequalled; unprecedented. ◷ 16c: from Greek parallelos side by side.

parallel bars gymnastics, plural noun two parallel horizontal rails, fixed to upright posts, used by men for gymnastic exercises and display. ▷ singular noun an event in a gymnastics competition in which these bars are used.

parallel circuit ▷ noun, physics an electrical circuit arranged so that the current is split between two or more parallel paths.

parallelism /ˈparəlɛlɪzəm/ ▷ noun 1 the state or fact of being parallel. 2 resemblance in corresponding details. 3 a verse or sentence in which one part is a repetition of another, either in form or meaning.

parallel motion ▷ noun, engineering a name given to any linkage by which rotational motion may be changed into linear motion.

parallelogram /parəˈlɛləgram/ ▷ noun, geom a two-dimensional four-sided figure in which opposite sides are parallel and equal in length, and opposite angles are equal. Compare QUADRILATERAL, RHOMBUS, TRAPEZIUM, RECTANGLE. ◷ 16c: from Greek parallelogrammon.

parallelogram of vectors ▷ noun, math a figure that is constructed in order to add two vectors, by drawing them to scale so that they form two adjacent sides of the parallelogram.

parallel processing ▷ noun, computing the use of two or more processors simultaneously to carry out a single computing task, each processor being assigned a particular part of the task at any given time. This contrasts with single-processor computing in which the whole task is carried out sequentially by one processor.

parallel ruler ▷ noun two rulers joined by pivoted strips allowing the distance between them to be changed, used for drawing straight parallel lines.

parallel slalom ▷ noun a SLALOM race in which two competitors ski down parallel courses at the same time.

the Paralympics /parə'lɪmpɪks/ ▷ noun an Olympic competition for people with physical disabilities, held at the same time as the traditional Olympic games. • Paralympic adj. ⓘ 1950s: from paraplegic + Olympics.

paralyse or (N Amer) paralyze /'parəlaɪz/ verb (paralysed, paralysing) 1 to affect (a person or bodily part) with paralysis. 2 said of fear, etc: to have an immobilizing effect on someone. 3 to disrupt something or bring it to a standstill. • paralyser noun. ⓘ Early 19c.

paralysis /pə'ralɪsɪs/ ▷ noun (paralyses /-siːz/) 1 a temporary or permanent loss of muscular function or sensation in any part of the body, usually caused by nerve damage, eg as a result of disease or injury. 2 a state of immobility; a standstill. ⓘ 16c: Greek, from paralyein to enfeeble.

paralytic /parə'lɪtɪk/ ▷ adj 1 relating to, caused by or suffering from paralysis. 2 colloq helplessly drunk. ▷ noun a person affected by paralysis. • paralytically adverb.

paramatta or parramatta /parə'matə/ ▷ noun (paramattas or parramattas) a fabric like merino wool, made of worsted and cotton. ⓘ Early 19c: named after Parramatta, a town in New South Wales, Australia, where it was first produced.

Paramecium /parə'miːsɪəm/ ▷ noun a single-celled aquatic protozoan that is ovoid in shape and uniformly covered with hair-like processes known as CILIA. ⓘ 18c: from Greek paramekes long-shaped.

paramedic¹ /parə'medɪk/ ▷ noun a person, especially one trained in emergency medical procedures, whose work supplements and supports that of the medical profession. ⓘ 1970s.

paramedic² /parə'medɪk/ ▷ noun, especially US someone trained to give medical aid who reaches patients in remote areas by parachuting down from an aeroplane. ⓘ 1950s.

paramedical ▷ adj, medicine said of personnel or services, etc: supplementary to and supporting the work of the medical profession, eg physiotherapists, occupational therapists and ambulance crews.

parameter /pə'ramɪtə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 math a constant or variable that, when altered, affects the form of a mathematical expression in which it appears. 2 physics a quantity which under a particular set of conditions remains constant, but may be altered if the conditions change. 3 (often parameters) a limiting factor that serves to define the scope of a task, project, discussion, etc □ What parameters are we working within? • parametric /parə'metrɪk/ or parametrical adj. ⓘ 17c: from Latin parametrum, from Greek para- alongside + metron measure.

paramilitary ▷ adj organized on the same basis as a military force and usually reinforcing it, but not a professional military force. ▷ noun (paramilitaries) 1 a group organized in this way. 2 a member of such a group. ⓘ 1930s.

paramnesia /param'niːzɪə/ ▷ noun 1 a memory disorder in which words are remembered but not their proper meaning. 2 the condition of believing that one remembers events and circumstances which have not previously occurred. Compare DÉJÀ-VU, AMNESIA. ⓘ 19c: from Greek para- beyond + mimneskein to remind.

paramount /'paramaʊnt/ ▷ adj foremost; supreme; of supreme importance. • paramountcy or paramouncy noun. ⓘ 16c: from French par by + amont above.

paramour /'paramʊə(r)/ ▷ noun a male or female lover, usually the lover of someone who is married. ⓘ 14c: from French par amour by or through love.

paranoia /parə'nɔɪə/ ▷ noun (paranoias) 1 psychol a rare mental disorder, characterized by delusions of persecution by others, especially if this is attributed to one's own importance or unique gifts. 2 a strong, usually irrational, feeling that one is being persecuted by others, resulting in a tendency to be suspicious and distrustful, and to become increasingly isolated. ⓘ 19c: Greek, from para- beyond + nous mind.

paranoid /'parənɔɪd/, paranoiac /-'nɔɪak/ and paranoic /-ɪk/ ▷ adj relating to or affected by paranoia. ▷ noun a person affected by paranoia.

paranormal ▷ adj said of phenomena, observations, occurrences, etc: beyond the normal scope of scientific explanation, and therefore not possible to explain in terms of current understanding of scientific laws. ▷ noun (the paranormal) paranormal occurrences. See also SUPERNATURAL. ⓘ 20c.

paranym /'parənɪm/ ▷ noun a word used to describe an event, etc which evades or conceals some important aspect of it, eg liberation used for conquest; a word which is nearly, but not exactly, a synonym. Compare EUPHEMISM. ⓘ 1960s: from PARA-¹ + Greek onoma name.

parapenting /'parəpentɪŋ, -pɑ̃tɪŋ/ ▷ noun a cross between hang-gliding and parachuting, a sport in which the participant jumps from a high place wearing a modified type of parachute which is then used as a hang-glider. ⓘ 20c: from French pente slope.

parapet /'parəpɪt, -pət/ ▷ noun 1 a low wall along the edge of a bridge, balcony, roof, etc, sometimes with battlements and usually ornamental. 2 an embankment of earth or sandbags protecting the soldiers in a military trench. ⓘ 16c: from Italian parapetto, from petto chest or breast.

paraph /'paraf/ ▷ noun a mark or flourish under one's signature. ⓘ 16c in this sense; 14c in obsolete sense 'paragraph': from French paraphe, short for PARAGRAPH.

paraphernalia /parəfə'neɪlɪə/ ▷ plural noun, sometimes used as a singular noun 1 the equipment and accessories associated with a particular activity, etc. 2 personal belongings. ⓘ 18c in sense 1; 17c as a legal term from Roman Law applied in various ways but generally referring to articles given to a married woman which were considered to belong to her: from Greek parapherna a bride's personal effects, ie not part of her dowry.

paraphrase /'parəfreɪz/ ▷ noun a restatement of something using different words, especially in order to clarify; a re-wording or re-phrasing. ▷ verb (paraphrased, paraphrasing) to express something in other words. • paraphrastic /parə'frastɪk/. ⓘ 16c: French, from Greek paraphrasis, from para- alongside + phrasis speaking.

paraplegia /parə'pliːdʒɪə/ ▷ noun, medicine paralysis of the lower half of the body, usually caused by injury or disease of the spinal cord. Compare MONOPLEGIA, HEMIPLEGIA, QUADRIPLEGIA. ⓘ 17c: Greek, meaning 'a one-sided stroke', from para- alongside + plege blow.

paraplegic /parə'pliːdʒɪk/ ▷ adj 1 affected with paraplegia. 2 marked by or typical of paraplegia. ▷ noun a person affected with paraplegia.

parapsychology ▷ noun the study of mental phenomena, such as telepathy and clairvoyance, that suggest the mind can gain knowledge by means other than the normal perceptual processes. • parapsychological adj. • parapsychologically adverb. • parapsychologist noun. ⓘ 1920s.

Paraquat /'parəkwɒt/ ▷ noun, trademark a highly toxic yellow solid, used as a herbicide and defoliant, that causes skin irritation and if ingested may cause liver or kidney failure. ◎ 1960s: from PARA-[1] 6 and quaternary, part of the technical description of the chemical.

parasailing ▷ noun a sport similar to PARAGLIDING in which the participant, wearing water-skis and a modified type of parachute, is towed into the air by a motorboat. ◎ 1970s.

parascending /ˈparəsɛndɪŋ/ ▷ noun a sport similar to PARAGLIDING in which the participant is towed into the wind behind a motor vehicle, becomes airborne and descends by means of a modified type of parachute. ◎ 1970s.

parascience ▷ noun the study of phenomena that are beyond the scope of traditional science since they cannot be explained by our current understanding of scientific laws. ◎ 1950s.

paraselene /parəsəˈliːniː/ ▷ noun (paraselenae /-liːniː/) a bright spot in the Moon's halo, 22° to right or left of the Moon, due to refraction from ice crystals floating vertically. Also called mock moon. ◎ 17c: from Greek selene moon.

parasite /ˈparəsaɪt/ ▷ noun 1 a plant or animal that for all or part of its life obtains food and physical protection from a living organism of another species (the HOST[1] noun 5) which is usually damaged by and never benefits from its presence. 2 derog a person who lives at the expense of others, contributing nothing in return. • parasitic /-ˈsɪtɪk/ or parasitical adj. • parasitically adverb. ◎ 16c: from Greek parasitos someone who lives at another's expense.

parasitism /ˈparəsaɪtɪzəm/ ▷ noun 1 a close association between two living organisms in which one (the PARASITE) obtains food and physical protection from the other (the HOST[1] noun 5). Compare COMMENSALISM at COMMENSAL, SYMBIOSIS (sense 1). 2 the state of being a parasite. 3 the state of being infested with parasites.

parasitology /parəsaɪˈtɒlədʒɪ/ ▷ noun, zool the scientific study of parasites, especially protozoans, worms and arthropods that cause diseases or transmit them to humans and animals. • parasitologist noun. ◎ 19c. parasol /ˈparəsɒl/ ▷ noun a light umbrella used as a protection against the Sun; a sunshade. ◎ 17c: from French, from Italian parasole, from sole sun.

parasol mushroom ▷ noun a tall white edible mushroom that resembles a parasol.

parasuicide ▷ noun 1 a deliberate harmful act, such as taking an overdose of drugs, which appears to be an attempt at suicide but which was probably not intended to be successful. 2 someone who performs such an act. ◎ 20c.

parasympathetic nervous system ▷ noun, zool in vertebrates: a subdivision of the autonomic nervous system, which tends to slow down the heart rate, promote digestion, dilate blood vessels, and generally conserve energy. Compare SYMPATHETIC NERVOUS SYSTEM.

paratha /pəˈrɑːtə/ ▷ noun (parathas) a thin unleavened cake made of flour, water and clarified butter, originating in India. ◎ 1930s: Hindi.

parathormone /parəˈθɔːmoun/ ▷ noun, physiol parathyroid hormone. ◎ 1920s.

parathyroid ▷ adj, anatomy, medicine, etc 1 situated beside the thyroid gland. 2 referring or relating to the parathyroid glands. ▷ noun a parathyroid gland. ◎ Late 19c.

parathyroid gland ▷ noun, physiol in mammals: any of four small glands near or within the thyroid, producing parathyroid hormone.

parathyroid hormone ▷ noun, medicine a hormone, released by the parathyroid glands, that raises blood calcium levels. Also called PARATHORMONE.

paratroops /ˈparətruːps/ ▷ plural noun a division of soldiers trained to parachute from aircraft into enemy territory or a battle zone. • paratrooper noun a member of such a division. ◎ 1940s.

paratyphoid ▷ noun, medicine an infectious disease, similar to but milder than TYPHOID fever, caused by a bacterium and characterized by a pink rash, fever, abdominal pain and diarrhoea. ◎ Early 20c.

paravane /ˈparəveɪn/ ▷ noun a torpedo-shaped device, with fins and vanes, towed from the bow of a vessel in order to deflect mines along a wire and to sever their moorings. Also called OTTER.

par avion /French par avjɔ̃/ ▷ adverb used as a label on mail which is to be sent by aeroplane: by air mail.

parawalker ▷ noun a metal structure like an external skeleton worn by a paraplegic to enable them to walk.

Parazoa /parəˈzouə/ zool ▷ plural noun a sub-kingdom of animal classification, the sponges, of the same rank as PROTOZOA and METAZOA. • parazoan singular noun any member of this sub-kingdom. Also as adj. ◎ 19c: from Greek zoion animal.

parboil /ˈpɑːbɔɪl/ ▷ verb (parboiled, parboiling) to boil something until it is partially cooked. ◎ 15c: from French parbo(u)illir, from Latin perbullire to boil thoroughly; the meaning has been altered by confusion of par- with PART.

the Parcae /pɑːsaɪ/ ▷ plural noun, mythol the three Roman Fates, identified with the Greek MOIRAI.

parcel /ˈpɑːsəl/ ▷ noun 1 something wrapped in paper, etc and secured with string or sticky tape; a package. 2 a portion of something, eg of land. 3 a group of people, etc. 4 a lot or portion of goods for sale; a deal or transaction. ▷ verb (parcelled, parcelling) 1 (also parcel something up) to wrap it up in a parcel. 2 (also parcel something out) to divide it into portions and share it out. ◎ 14c: from French parcelle, from Latin particula, diminutive of pars part.

parcel bomb ▷ noun a parcel containing a bomb designed to detonate when someone opens it.

parch /pɑːtʃ/ ▷ verb (parches, parched, parching) 1 to dry something up; to deprive (soil, plants, etc) of water. 2 to make something or someone hot and very dry. 3 to roast (peas) slightly. ◎ 14c as perchen.

parched /pɑːtʃt/ ▷ adj 1 colloq very thirsty. 2 very dry.

parchment /ˈpɑːtʃmənt/ ▷ noun 1 a a material formerly used for bookbinding and for writing on, made from goatskin, calfskin or sheepskin; b a piece of this, or a manuscript written on it. 2 stiff off-white writing-paper resembling this. 3 as adj made of, or resembling, parchment □ parchment paper. ◎ 13c: from French parchemin, from Latin Pergamena charta paper of Pergamum, influenced by French parche leather.

parchment bark see under PITTOSPORUM parchment paper ▷ noun unsized paper made tough and transparent by dipping in sulphuric acid. Also called vegetable parchment.

pard /pɑːd/ and pardner /ˈpɑːdnə(r)/ ▷ noun, US slang friend or partner. ◎ 19c: late 18c as pardner.

pardon /ˈpɑːdən/ ▷ verb (pardoned, pardoning) 1 to forgive or excuse someone for a fault or offence □ pardon me □ pardon his rudeness □ pardon her for interrupting. 2 to allow someone who has been sentenced to go without the punishment. 3 intr to grant pardon. ▷ noun 1 forgiveness. 2 the cancellation of a punishment; remission. 3 a pardon from the pope; a papal indulgence. • pardonable adj. • pardon me 1 a formula of apology. 2 (also shortened to pardon) a request to someone to repeat something said. ◎ 14c: from French pardoner, from Latin perdonare to overlook.

pardoner ▷ noun 1 someone who pardons. 2 historical in the Middle Ages: someone licensed to sell pardons from the pope, which freed people from being punished for their sins.

pare /pɛə(r)/ ▷ verb (pared, paring) 1 (also pare something away) to trim off (skin, etc) in layers. 2 to cut (fingernails or toenails). 3 to peel (fruit). 4 (also pare something down) to reduce (expenses, funding, etc) gradually, in order to economize. ⓘ 14c: from French parer, from Latin parare to prepare.

paregoric /parə'gɒrɪk/ ▷ adj soothing; lessening pain. ▷ noun a medicine that soothes pain, especially an alcoholic solution of opium, benzoic acid, camphor and oil of anise. ⓘ 17c: from Greek paregoreein to exhort or comfort.

parencephalon /paren'sefəlɒn/ ▷ noun, anatomy the CEREBELLUM. ⓘ 18c: from Greek enkephalon brain.

parenchyma /pə'reŋkɪmə/ ▷ noun (parenchymata /-mətə/) 1 bot in plants: a tissue composed of thin-walled relatively unspecialized cells, that serves mainly as a packing tissue. 2 zool the loosely packed cells that form much of the body tissue of simple animals such as flatworms. ⓘ 17c: from Greek enchyma infusion.

parent /'pɛərənt/ ▷ noun 1 a father or mother. 2 the adopter or guardian of a child. 3 an animal or plant that has produced offspring. 4 something from which anything is derived; a source or origin. ▷ verb (parented, parenting) tr & intr to be or act as a parent; to care for someone or something as a parent. ▷ adj referring to an organization, etc that has established a branch or branches over which it retains some control. ⓘ 15c: from Latin parens, parentis, from parere to bring forth.

parentage /'pɛərəntɪdʒ/ ▷ noun 1 descent from parents. 2 rank or character derived from one's parents or ancestors. 3 the state or fact of being a parent.

parental /pə'rentəl/ ▷ adj 1 related to or concerning parents. 2 biol, genetics denoting the first generation that gives rise to all successive or filial generations. • parentally adverb.

parent company ▷ noun a business company that owns other, usually smaller, companies.

parenteral /pə'rentərəl/ ▷ adj, medicine 1 not intestinal. 2 said of the administration of a drug: not by way of the alimentary tract. • parenterally adverb. ⓘ Early 20c.

parenthesis /pə'renθəsɪs/ ▷ noun (parentheses /-siːz/) 1 a word or phrase inserted into a sentence as a comment, usually marked off by brackets or dashes. 2 (parentheses) a pair of round brackets ( ), used to enclose such a comment. 3 a digression. ⓘ 16c: Greek, from tithenai to place.

parenthesize or parenthesise /pə'renθəsaɪz/ ▷ verb (parenthesized, parenthesizing) to place something within parentheses.

parenthetic /parən'θetɪk/ or parenthetical ▷ adj 1 referring to the nature of a parenthesis. 2 using parenthesis. • parenthetically adverb.

parenthood ▷ noun 1 being a parent. 2 the responsibilities of a parent.

parenting ▷ noun the activities and duties of a parent. ▷ verb, present participle of PARENT.

parentless ▷ adj without a parent.

paresis /'parəsɪs, pə'riːsɪs/ ▷ noun, medicine a partial form of paralysis affecting muscle movements but not diminishing sensation. • paretic /pə'retɪk/ adj. ⓘ 17c: Latin, from Greek parienai to relax.

paresthesia the US spelling of PARAESTHESIA.

pareu /pa'reɪuː/ or pareo /pa'reɪoʊ/ ▷ noun (pareus or pareos) a wraparound skirt worn by women and men in Polynesia. ⓘ Late 19c: Tahitian.

par excellence /paːr'ekseləs, -lɑ̃s/ ▷ adverb in the highest degree; in the truest sense of the word; beyond compare. ⓘ 17c: French, meaning 'as an example of excellence'.

parfait /paː'feɪ, 'paːfeɪ/ ▷ noun a kind of frozen dessert containing whipped cream, fruit and eggs. ⓘ Late 19c: French, meaning 'perfect'.

parget /'paːdʒɪt/ ▷ noun 1 plaster spread over a surface. 2 ornamental work in plaster. ▷ verb (pargeted, pargeting) 1 to plaster over something. 2 to cover something with ornamental plasterwork. ⓘ 14c: probably from French parjeter to throw all over.

parhelic circle /paː'hiːlɪk —/ ▷ noun, meteorol a band of luminosity parallel to the horizon, the result of diffraction caused by ice crystals in the atmosphere.

parhelion /paː'hiːlɪən/ ▷ noun (parhelia /-lɪə/) meteorol a bright spot on the PARHELIC CIRCLE. • parhelic or parheliacal /paːhɪ'laɪəkəl/ adj. ⓘ 17c: Greek, formed irregularly from para alongside + helios sun.

pariah /pə'raɪə, 'parɪə/ ▷ noun 1 someone scorned and avoided by others; a social outcast. 2 in S India and Burma: a member of a caste lower than the four Brahminical castes. ⓘ 17c: from Tamil paraiyan drummer.

pariah dog see PYE-DOG

parietal /pə'raɪətəl/ ▷ adj, medicine, anatomy relating to, or forming, the wall of a bodily cavity, eg the skull ◻ the parietal bones. ⓘ 16c: from Latin paries wall.

pari-mutuel /parɪ'mjuːtʃʊəl/ ▷ noun 1 a TOTALIZATOR. 2 the system of betting in which the winners receive a proportion of the total money staked, less the management charge. ⓘ Late 19c: French, literally 'mutual stake'.

paring present participle of PARE pari passu /'parɪ 'pasuː/ ▷ adverb, usually law with equal pace; together; proportionately. ⓘ 16c: Latin.

paripinnate /parɪ'pɪneɪt, -nɪt/ ▷ adj, bot pinnate without a terminal leaflet, ie with an even number of leaves. ⓘ 19c: from Latin par equal + PINNATE.

Paris green ▷ noun copper acetoarsenite, a pigment and insecticide. ⓘ 19c: named after the French capital city, Paris.

parish /'parɪʃ/ ▷ noun (parishes) (abbreviation par.) 1 a district or area served by its own church and priest or minister, usually the established church of that particular area. 2 especially in England: the smallest unit of local government. Also called civil parish. 3 the inhabitants of a parish ◻ He has the full support of his parish. ▷ adj 1 belonging or relating to a parish. 2 employed or supported by the parish. ⓘ 14c: from French paroisse, from Greek paroikia, from paroikos neighbour.

parish church ▷ noun the church of the establishment for a parish.

parish clerk ▷ noun an official who performs various duties connected with a parish church.

parish council ▷ noun in England: the elected administrative body of a PARISH (noun 2). • parish councillor noun. ⓘ 18c.

parishioner /pə'rɪʃənə(r)/ ▷ noun a member or inhabitant of a parish.

parish pump ▷ noun a petty local interests; parochialism; b as adj ◻ parish-pump politics. ⓘ Early 20c.

parish register ▷ noun a book in which the christenings, marriages, and deaths in a parish are recorded.

Parisian /pə'rɪzɪən/ ▷ adj relating or pertaining to Paris, capital of France. ▷ noun a man or woman who is a citizen or inhabitant of, or was born in, Paris. ⓘ 16c: from Latin Parisii the Gallic tribe of the Paris district.

Parisienne /parɪzɪ'en/ ▷ noun a woman who is a native or resident of Paris.

parison /'parɪsən/ ▷ noun a lump of glass before it is moulded into its final shape. ⓘ 19c: from French paraison, from parer to pare, from Latin parare to prepare.

parity /'pærɪtɪ/ ▷ noun (parities) 1 equality in status, eg in pay. 2 precise equivalence; exact correspondence. 3 commerce an established equivalence between a unit of national currency and an amount in another national currency. 4 math said of two or more numbers: the property of both or all being either odd or even. 5 said of the laws of physics: exact correspondence in a right- or left-handed system of co-ordinates. ◷ 16c: from Latin paritas, from par equal.

parity check ▷ noun, computing a test applied to binary data to ensure that the parity is consistently either odd or even.

park /pɑːk/ ▷ noun 1 an area in a town with grass and trees, reserved for public recreation. 2 an area of land kept in its natural condition as a nature reserve, etc □ a wildlife park. 3 the woodland and pasture forming the estate of a large country house. 4 (Park) used in street names □ Waverley Park. 5 a place where vehicles can be left temporarily; a CAR PARK. 6 an area containing a group of buildings housing related enterprises □ a science park □ a business park. 7 chiefly N Amer a sports field or stadium. 8 (the park) colloq the pitch in use in a football game. ▷ verb (parked, parking) 1 tr & intr a to leave (a vehicle) temporarily at the side of the road or in a car park; b to manoeuvre (a vehicle) into such a position. 2 colloq to lay, place or leave something somewhere temporarily. 3 (park oneself) colloq to sit or install oneself. ◷ 13c: from French parc enclosure.

parka /'pɑːkə/ ▷ noun (parkas) 1 a hooded jacket made of skins, worn by the Inuit and Aleut people of the Arctic. 2 a windproof jacket, especially a quilted one with a fur-trimmed hood; an anorak. ◷ 18c: Aleut, meaning 'skin or coat', from Russian, meaning 'pelt' or 'skin jacket'.

park-and-ride ▷ noun a a system of travel to an urban centre by means of bus, tram or train, linked with large car parks on the outskirts, allowing car users to drive from outlying areas without having to congest and pollute the town centre; b as adj □ park-and-ride scheme. ◷ Discussed and experimented with since the 1960s, but still not very widely used.

parkie /'pɑːkɪ/ ▷ noun (parkies) colloq a park keeper.

parkin /'pɑːkɪn/ or perkin /'pɜːkɪn/ ▷ noun, Scot & N Eng a moist ginger-flavoured oatmeal cake made with treacle. ◷ 18c.

parking bay see under BAY[2] parking lot ▷ noun, N Amer a CAR PARK.

parking meter ▷ noun a coin-operated meter in the street beside which a car may be parked for a limited period. Compare PAY-AND-DISPLAY.

parking ticket ▷ noun an official notice of a fine served on a motorist for parking illegally, eg on a yellow line, or with an expired pay-and-display ticket, etc.

Parkinson's disease /'pɑːkɪnsənz —/ ▷ noun, medicine the commonest form of PARKINSONISM, caused by degeneration of DOPAMINE-producing brain cells. Often shortened to Parkinson's. ◷ 1920s.

parkinsonism /'pɑːkɪnsənɪzəm/ ▷ noun, medicine an incurable disorder, associated with DOPAMINE deficiency or the side effects of certain drugs, usually occurring later in life. The main symptoms are trembling of the hands and limbs, a mask-like facial expression, a flat voice, and a slow shuffling gait and stooping posture. ◷ 19c: named after James Parkinson (1755–1824), English surgeon.

Parkinson's law /'pɑːkɪnsənz —/ ▷ noun the maxim that work expands to fill the time available for its completion. ◷ 1950s: named after Cyril Northcote Parkinson (1909–93), historian and journalist, who proposed the concept.

park keeper ▷ noun a person employed to patrol a public park, keep order, etc. Also shortened to PARKIE.

parkland ▷ noun pasture and woodland forming part of a country estate.

parkway ▷ noun, N Amer a broad thoroughfare incorporating grassy areas and lined with trees, often connecting the parks of a town.

parky /'pɑːkɪ/ ▷ adj (parkier, parkiest) Brit colloq said of the weather: somewhat cold; chilly. ◷ 19c.

parlance /'pɑːləns/ ▷ noun a particular style or way of using words □ in legal parlance □ in common parlance. ◷ 16c: French, from parler to talk.

parlando /pɑː'lændoʊ/ music ▷ adj said of a passage of vocal music: that the singer should actually speak, or give the impression of speaking. ▷ adverb in this manner. ▷ noun (parlandos) a passage to be performed in this way. ◷ 19c: Italian, meaning 'speaking'.

parley /'pɑːlɪ/ ▷ verb (parleyed, parleying) intr to discuss peace terms, etc with an enemy, especially under truce. ▷ noun (parleys) a meeting with an enemy to discuss peace terms, etc. ◷ 16c: from French parler to talk.

parliament /'pɑːləmənt/ ▷ noun 1 the highest law-making assembly of a nation. 2 (Parliament) in the UK: the House of Commons and House of Lords. ◷ 13c: from French parlement, from parler to talk.

> Parliament
>
> There is often uncertainty as to whether collective nouns such as Parliament should be followed by a singular or plural verb. Either is correct, depending on whether the group is being thought of as a single unit or as a number of individuals.

parliamentarian /pɑːləmen'teərɪən/ ▷ noun 1 an expert in parliamentary procedure. 2 an experienced parliamentary debater. 3 historical a supporter of the Parliamentary party in the 17c English Civil War.

parliamentarianism or parliamentarism ▷ noun 1 the principles of parliamentary government. 2 the parliamentary system.

parliamentary /pɑːlə'mentərɪ/ ▷ adj 1 relating to, or issued by, a parliament. 2 said of conduct or procedure: in keeping with the rules of parliament. 3 said of language: admissible in parliament. • parliamentarily adverb.

Parliamentary Commissioner for Administration see under OMBUDSMAN parlour /'pɑːlə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 usually in compounds a shop or commercial premises providing specified goods or services □ an ice-cream parlour □ piercing parlour □ funeral parlour. 2 dated a sitting-room for receiving visitors. ◷ 13c: from French parlur, from parler to talk.

parlour game ▷ noun a game such as charades, suitable for playing in the sitting-room.

parlous /'pɑːləs/ ▷ adj, archaic or facetious precarious; perilous; dire. ◷ 14c: a variant of PERILOUS.

Parmesan /'pɑːməzan, pɑːmə'zan/ and Parmesan cheese ▷ noun a hard dry Italian cheese made from skimmed milk mixed with rennet and saffron, often served grated with pasta dishes. ◷ 16c: from Italian Parmegiano, meaning 'from Parma'.

paroccipital /pærɒk'sɪpɪtəl/ ▷ adj, anatomy situated beside or near the occiput. ◷ 19c: from OCCIPUT.

parochial /pə'roʊkɪəl/ ▷ adj 1 derog said of tastes, attitudes, etc: concerned only with local affairs; narrow, limited or provincial in outlook. 2 referring or relating to a parish. • parochialism or parochiality noun. • parochially adverb. ◷ 14c in sense 2: from Latin parochialis, from parochia parish.

parochialism /pə'roʊkɪəlɪzəm/ ▷ noun 1 narrowness of view; provincialism. 2 a system of local government based on the parish as a unit.

parody /'pærədɪ/ ▷ noun (parodies) 1 a comic or satirical imitation of a work, or the style, of a particular writer, composer, etc. 2 a poor attempt at something; a mockery or travesty. ▷ verb (parodies, parodied, parodying) to ridicule something through parody; to mimic satirically. • parodic /pəˈrɒdɪk/ or parodical adj. • parodist noun the author of a parody. ◎ 16c: from Greek paroidia, from para beside + oide song.

parole /pəˈroʊl/ ▷ noun 1 a the release of a prisoner before the end of their sentence, on promise of good behaviour □ released on parole; b the duration of this conditional release. 2 the promise of a prisoner so released to behave well. 3 as adj □ the parole system. 4 /paˈrɔl/ linguistics language as manifested in the speech of individuals. Compare LANGUE. ◎ 1930s: French, meaning 'spoken word'. ▷ verb (paroled, paroling) to release or place (a prisoner) on parole. • parolee noun (parolees) a prisoner who has been conditionally released. ◎ 17c: from French parole d'honneur word of honour, from parole word, in the sense of 'formal promise'.

paronomasia /parənəˈmeɪzɪə/ ▷ noun (plural paronomasia) a play on words, eg a pun. • paronomastic adj. ◎ 16c: Latin, from Greek onoma name.

paronym /ˈparənɪm/ ▷ noun a word from the same root, or having the same sound, as another; a COGNATE. ◎ 19c: see PARONOMASIA.

parotid /pəˈrɒtɪd, pəˈroʊtɪd/ ▷ adj anatomy, medicine situated beside or near the ear. ▷ noun the parotid gland, a salivary gland in front of the ear. ◎ 17c: from Greek parotis, from para beside + ous, otos ear.

parousia /pəˈruːzɪə, pəˈraʊzɪə/ ▷ noun, theol the second coming of Christ which, in Christian thought, will be marked by a heavenly appearance, God's judgement of all humanity, and the resurrection of the dead. ◎ 19c: Greek, meaning 'presence' or 'arrival'.

paroxysm /ˈparəksɪzəm/ ▷ noun 1 a sudden emotional outburst, eg of rage or laughter. 2 a spasm, convulsion or seizure, eg of coughing or acute pain. 3 a sudden reappearance of or increase in the severity of the symptoms of a disease or disorder. • paroxysmal adj. ◎ 17c: from Greek paroxysmos a fit.

parpen /ˈpɑːpən/ or perpend /ˈpɜːpənd/ ▷ noun a stone forming part of a wall which can be seen from both sides. ◎ 15c: from French parpain.

parquet /ˈpɑːkeɪ, ˈpɑːkɪ/ ▷ noun 1 flooring composed of small inlaid blocks of wood arranged in a geometric pattern. 2 as adj made of parquet □ parquet floor. ◎ 19c: French, diminutive of parc enclosure.

parquetry /ˈpɑːkɪtrɪ/ ▷ noun inlaid work in wood arranged in a geometric pattern, used especially to cover floors or to decorate furniture, etc.

parr /pɑː(r)/ ▷ noun (parr or parrs) a young salmon aged up to two years, before it becomes a SMOLT. ◎ 18c.

parrakeet see PARAKEET

parramatta see PARAMATTA

parricide /ˈparɪsaɪd/ ▷ noun 1 the act of killing one's own parent or near relative. See also PATRICIDE, MATRICIDE. 2 someone who commits this act. • parricidal adj. ◎ 16c: French, from Latin parricida, possibly from pater father; see -CIDE.

parrot /ˈparət/ ▷ noun 1 any of numerous usually brightly-coloured birds, native to forests of warmer regions, with a large head, a strong hooked bill, and two of the four toes on each foot pointing backwards. 2 a person who merely imitates or mimics others. ▷ verb (parroted, parroting) to repeat or mimic (another's words, etc) unthinkingly. • parroter noun. ◎ 16c: from French paroquet, perhaps a diminutive of Pierre.

parrot-fashion ▷ adverb by mindless, unthinking repetition □ We learnt our tables parrot-fashion.

parrot fish ▷ noun any of various brightly-coloured tropical marine fish, so called because its teeth are fused to form a parrot-like beak.

parry /ˈparɪ/ ▷ verb (parries, parried, parrying) 1 to fend off (a blow). 2 to sidestep (a question) adeptly. ▷ noun (parries) an act of parrying, especially in fencing. ◎ 17c: from French parer to ward off.

parse /pɑːz/ ▷ verb (parsed, parsing) tr & intr 1 grammar to analyse (a sentence) grammatically; to give the part of speech of and explain the grammatical role of (a word). 2 computational linguistics to analyse (a sentence, text, etc) into syntactic components and test its grammaticality against a given grammar. 3 computing to analyse (a string of input symbols) in terms of the computing language being used. • parser noun, computing a program which parses sentences. ◎ 16c: from Latin pars orationis part of speech.

parsec /ˈpɑːsɛk/ ▷ noun, astron a unit of astronomical measurement equal to 3.26 light years or 3.09×10^{13}km, being the distance at which a star would have a PARALLAX of 1 second of arc when viewed from two points which are the same distance apart as the Earth is from the Sun. ◎ Early 20c: from PARALLAX + SECOND[2].

Parsee or Parsi /ˈpɑːsiː, pɑːˈsiː/ ▷ noun (Parsees or Parsis) one of the descendants of the ancient ZOROASTRIANS, who fled from Persia in the 8c AD to escape Muslim persecution, and settled in the Bombay area of India. ◎ 14c: Persian Parsee, meaning 'Persian'.

parsimonious /pɑːsɪˈmoʊnɪəs/ ▷ adj too careful in spending money; stingy. • parsimoniously adverb. • parsimoniousness noun. ◎ 18c: from PARSIMONY + -OUS.

parsimony /ˈpɑːsɪmənɪ/ ▷ noun 1 reluctance or extreme care in spending money. 2 praiseworthy economy. 3 the avoiding of excess. 4 meanness. ◎ 15c: from Latin parsimonia thrift, from parcere to spare or save.

parsley /ˈpɑːslɪ/ ▷ noun (parsleys) 1 an annual or biennial plant with finely-divided bright green curly aromatic leaves, used fresh or dried as a culinary herb, and also used fresh as a garnish. 2 any of various similar or related plants □ cow parsley. ◎ Anglo-Saxon, from Greek petroselinon rock-parsley, from petra rock + selinon parsley.

parsnip /ˈpɑːsnɪp/ ▷ noun 1 a biennial plant widely grown for its thick fleshy edible tap root. 2 the long thick root of this plant, which has creamy-white flesh with a sweet flavour, eaten as a vegetable. ◎ 14c: from Latin pastinacum, from pastinum dibble; probably affected by NEEP.

parson /ˈpɑːsən/ ▷ noun 1 a parish priest in the Church of England. 2 any clergyman. ◎ 13c as persone: from Latin persona parish priest, person, personage or mask.

parsonage /ˈpɑːsnɪdʒ/ ▷ noun the residence of a parson.

parson bird ▷ noun the TUI.

parson's nose ▷ noun, colloq a piece of fatty flesh at the rump of a plucked fowl, especially a turkey or chicken. Also called pope's nose.

part /pɑːt/ ▷ noun 1 a portion, piece or bit; some but not all. 2 one of a set of equal divisions or amounts that compose a whole □ in the proportion of five parts cement to two of sand. 3 an essential piece; a component □ vehicle spare parts. 4 a section of a book; any of the episodes of a story, etc issued or broadcast as a serial. 5 a a performer's role in a play, opera, etc; b the words, actions, etc belonging to the role. 6 the melody, etc given to a particular instrument or voice in a musical work. 7 one's share, responsibility or duty in something □ do one's part □ want no part in it. 8 (usually parts) a region □ foreign parts. 9 (parts) talents; abilities □ a man of many parts. ▷ verb (parted, parting) 1 to divide; to separate. 2 intr to become divided or separated. 3 to separate (eg curtains, combatants, etc). 4 intr said of more than one person: to leave one another; to go in different directions; to depart. 5 to put a parting in (hair). 6 intr to come or burst apart. ▷ adj in part; partial □ part payment. • the better, best or greater part of something most of it; the majority of it. • for the most part 1 usually. 2 mostly or mainly. • for my part as far as I am concerned. • in great or large part mostly. • in part partly; not wholly but to some extent. • on the part of someone 1 as done by them. 2 so far as they are concerned. • part and parcel of something an essential part of it. • part company with someone to separate from them. • part way some of the way, without reaching; not all the way □ go part way towards an objective. • play a part to be involved. • take something in good part to take no offence at (a criticism, joke, etc). • take part in something to participate in it; to share in it. • take someone's part to support them; to take their side. ⓘ 13c: from Latin pars part.

▪ part from or with someone to leave them or separate from them.

▪ part with something or be parted from something to give it up or hand it over □ reluctant to part with their money □ reluctant to be parted from their money.

on the part of, on behalf of

See Usage Note at behalf.

partake /pɑːˈteɪk/ ▷ verb (partook /pɑːˈtʊk/, partaken, partaking) intr (usually partake in or of something) 1 to participate in it. 2 to eat or drink. 3 literary to have a certain quality, etc to a degree. ⓘ 16c: formed from partaking, from an earlier expression part-taking.

parted ▷ adj 1 divided; separated. 2 bot said of a leaf: divided deeply, almost to the base.

parterre /pɑːˈtɛə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 a formal ornamental flower-garden laid out with lawns and paths. 2 the pit of a theatre, especially the part under the galleries. ⓘ 17c: from French par terre on the ground.

part exchange ▷ noun a purchase or sale of new goods made by exchanging used goods for part of the value of the new goods. Compare TRADE-IN.

parthenogenesis /pɑːθənoʊˈdʒɛnəsɪs/ ▷ noun, biol in some insects and plants: reproduction without fertilization by the male. • parthenogenetic adj /-dʒəˈnɛtɪk/. ⓘ 19c: from Greek parthenos maiden + -GENESIS.

Parthian /ˈpɑːθɪən/ ▷ noun a member of an ancient people who ruled an empire from the 3c BC from the Euphrates River to the Indus River, and were finally conquered in AD 224 by the Sassanids of Persia. ▷ adj relating to the Parthians. ⓘ 16c.

Parthian shot see PARTING SHOT partial /ˈpɑːʃəl/ ▷ adj 1 incomplete; in part only. 2 (always partial to something) having a liking for it. 3 favouring one side or person unfairly; biased. 4 bot forming one of the parts or divisions of a compound structure. ▷ noun, acoustics one of the single-frequency tones which go together to form a sound actually heard. Also called partial tone. ⓘ 15c: from Latin partialis, from pars part.

partial derivative ▷ noun, math a derivative obtained by letting only one of several independent variables vary.

partial eclipse ▷ noun, astron an eclipse where only part of the Sun, etc is covered. Compare ANNULAR ECLIPSE, TOTAL ECLIPSE.

partial fraction ▷ noun, math one of a number of fractions into which another fraction can be separated, eg $^1/_2$ and $^1/_4$ are partial fractions of $^3/_4$.

partiality /pɑːʃɪˈalɪtɪ/ ▷ noun 1 being partial. 2 favourable bias or prejudice. 3 fondness.

partially /ˈpɑːʃəlɪ/ ▷ adverb not completely or wholly; not yet to the point of completion.

partially

See Usage Note at partly.

partial tone see under PARTIAL noun partible /ˈpɑːtɪbəl/ ▷ adj said especially of inherited property: able to be divided up.

participant /pɑːˈtɪsɪpənt/ or participator ▷ noun a person or group that takes part in something. ▷ adj participating or sharing in something.

participate /pɑːˈtɪsɪpeɪt/ ▷ verb (participated, participating) intr (often participate in something) to take part or be involved in it. • participation noun. ⓘ 16c: from Latin pars, partis part + capere to take.

participating insurance ▷ noun insurance that entitles policyholders to a share of the company's surplus profits.

participator /pɑːˈtɪsɪpeɪtə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 someone who participates in something. 2 someone who has a share in the capital or income of a company. • participatory /-ˈpeɪtərɪ/ adj.

participle /ˈpɑːtɪsɪpəl/ ▷ noun, grammar a word formed from a verb, which has adjectival qualities as well as verbal ones. There are two participles in English, the present participle, formed with the ending -ing, as in going, swimming or shouting, and the past participle, generally ending in -d, -ed, -t or -n, as in chased, shouted, kept and shown, but also with irregular forms such as gone, swum, etc. In English, present participles are used with the AUXILIARY verb be to form the PROGRESSIVE tenses (as in I am going and she was singing), and past participles are used with the auxiliary verb have to form the PERFECT tenses (as in he has gone and they had left), and with be to form PASSIVE constructions (as in she was seen here yesterday). A participle may also be used as an ADJECTIVE (as in a screaming child and a grown woman). • participial /pɑːtɪˈsɪpɪəl/ adj having the role of a participle □ participial clause. • participially adverb. ⓘ 14c: from Latin participium a sharing, from pars part + capere to take, because participles share features of both a verb and an adjective.

particle /ˈpɑːtɪkəl/ ▷ noun 1 a tiny piece; a minute piece of matter. 2 the least bit □ not a particle of sympathy. 3 physics a tiny unit of matter such as a MOLECULE, ATOM or ELECTRON. 4 grammar a word which does not have any inflected forms, eg a PREPOSITION, CONJUNCTION or INTERJECTION. 5 grammar an AFFIX, such as un-, de-, -fy and -ly. 6 RC Church a crumb of consecrated bread, or a portion used in communion. ⓘ 14c: from Latin particula, diminutive of pars part.

particle accelerator ▷ noun, physics a device that is used to accelerate charged subatomic particles, especially electrons or protons, to a high velocity. See also CYCLOTRON.

particle beam weapon ▷ noun a weapon in which high-energy subatomic particles, generated in nuclear accelerators, are directed into a narrow concentrated beam.

particle physics ▷ singular noun the branch of physics concerned with the study of the ELEMENTARY PARTICLES that are the fundamental components of matter, and the forces between them.

particoloured /ˈpɑːtɪkʌləd/ ▷ adj partly one colour, partly another; variegated. ⓘ 16c: from French parti variegated.

particular /pəˈtɪkjʊlə(r)/ ▷ adj 1 specific; single; individually known or referred to □ She liked that particular design. 2 especial; exceptional □ took particular care. 3 difficult to satisfy; fastidious; exacting □ He's very particular about the washing-up. 4 exact; detailed. ▷ noun 1 a detail. 2 (particulars) personal details, eg name, date of birth, etc □ took down her particulars. • particularness noun. • in particular particularly; especially; specifically; in detail. ◷ 14c: from Latin particularis: from particula, diminutive of pars part.

particular intention see INTENTION particularism ▷ noun 1 attention to one's own group, class, sect, etc. 2 attention to the interests of a federal state before that of the confederation. 3 theol the doctrine that salvation is offered only to particular individuals, the elect, and not to everyone.

particularity /pətɪkjʊˈlarɪtɪ/ ▷ noun 1 the quality of being particular. 2 minuteness of detail. 3 (often particularities) a single instance or case; a detail ▫ the particularities of the case.

particularize or particularise /pəˈtɪkjʊləraɪz/ ▷ verb (particularized, particularizing) 1 to specify individually. 2 to give specific examples of something. 3 intr to go into detail. • particularization noun. ◷ 16c: from French particulariser.

particularly ▷ adverb 1 more than usually ▫ particularly good. 2 specifically; especially ▫ particularly hates board games.

particulate /pɑːˈtɪkjʊlət/ ▷ adj having the form of, or relating to, particles.

parting /ˈpɑːtɪŋ/ ▷ noun 1 the act of taking leave. 2 a divergence or separation ▫ a parting of the ways. 3 a line of exposed scalp that divides sections of hair brushed in opposite directions ▫ a middle parting. ▷ adj referring to, or at the time of, leaving; departing ▫ a parting comment.

parting shot ▷ noun a final hostile remark made on departing. Also called Parthian shot. ◷ 19c: referring to the practice of the horsemen of ancient Parthia of turning to shoot arrows at enemies following them as they rode off.

partisan /ˈpɑːtɪzan/ ▷ noun 1 an enthusiastic supporter of a party, person, cause, etc. 2 a member of an armed resistance group in a country occupied by an enemy. ▷ adj strongly loyal to one side, especially blindly so; biased. • partisanship noun. ◷ 16c: French, from parte PART.

partita /pɑːˈtiːtə/ ▷ noun, music 1 (plural partite /-teɪ/) referring to the 17c: one of a set of instrumental variations. 2 (plural partitas) referring especially to the 18c: a suite of instrumental dances, such as those by J S Bach. ◷ Late 19c: Italian, meaning 'a division', from Latin partire to divide.

partite /ˈpɑːtaɪt/ ▷ adj 1 in compounds divided into the specified number of parts ▫ tripartite ▫ bipartite. 2 bot said especially of leaves: cut nearly to the base, forming two or more parts. ◷ 16c: from Latin partire to divide.

partition /pɑːˈtɪʃən/ ▷ noun 1 something which divides an object into a number of parts. 2 a screen or thin wall dividing a room. 3 the dividing of a country into two or more independent states. ▷ verb (partitioned, partitioning) 1 to divide (a country) into independent states. 2 (also partition something off) to separate it off with a partition. ◷ 16c: from Latin partitio division.

partition wall ▷ noun a wall internal to a building, dividing the space into rooms.

partitive /ˈpɑːtɪtɪv/ grammar ▷ adj said of a word, form, etc: denoting a part of a whole of what is being described. ▷ noun a partitive word or form, eg some, any, most. ◷ 16c: from Latin partire to divide.

partly ▷ adverb in part, or in some parts; to a certain extent, not wholly.

partner /ˈpɑːtnə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 one of two or more people who jointly own or run a business or other enterprise on an equal footing. 2 a person with whom one has a sexual relationship, especially a long-term one, particularly in a committed unmarried or same-sex relationship. 3 a person one dances with ▫ dance partner. 4 a person who is on the same side as oneself in a game of eg bridge, tennis, etc. 5 biol an associate in COMMENSALISM or SYMBIOSIS. ▷ verb (partnered, partnering) to join as a partner with someone; to be the partner of someone. ◷ 13c as partener: from parcener joint inheritor, influenced by PART.

partly, partially

• These words are often used indiscriminately to mean 'in part' ▫ A blow on the head left him partially deaf for the rest of his life ▫ About half the population is wholly or partially dependent on food aid ▫ Redpath was a good policeman partly because he was also a sensitive and humane man.

• Both words are found in conjunction with words like 'because, due to, explains, filled, obscured, open, responsible, successful, true'.

• Partly is used more often when it is paired, either with itself or with and also or but also ▫ Poor productivity is to be blamed partly on bad management of the workforce and partly on lack of investment ▫ It is partly a personal and partly a property tax ▫ The film was a big success, partly because of its openness about sex, but also because of the leading actors.

• Partly is also used more often when followed by an adjective or participle that is itself further qualified ▫ The house is partly built of stone (which refers to a completed house) ▫ The house is partly / partially built (which refers to an uncompleted house).

☆ RECOMMENDATION: generally prefer partly; use partially when there is a special sense of incompleteness.

partnership ▷ noun 1 a relationship in which two or more people or groups operate together as partners. 2 the status of a partner ▫ offered her a partnership. 3 a business or other enterprise jointly owned or run by two or more people, etc.

Partnership for Peace ▷ noun (abbreviation PFP) a scheme set up in 1993 as a link between NATO and some former Warsaw Pact countries, effectively giving the latter associate membership of NATO.

part-off ▷ noun (part-offs) Caribb a screen used to divide a room into two separate areas.

part of speech ▷ noun (parts of speech) grammar any of the grammatical classes of words, eg noun, adjective, verb or preposition. See note.

partook past tense of PARTAKE part-owner ▷ noun a joint owner.

partridge /ˈpɑːtrɪdʒ/ ▷ noun (partridge or partridges) any of various plump ground-dwelling gamebirds, usually with brown or grey plumage, unfeathered legs and feet, and a very short tail. ◷ 13c as pertrich: from French perdriz: from Greek perdix.

part singing ▷ noun singing in which a number of harmonized parts are sung.

part song ▷ noun a song for singing in harmonized parts.

part-time ▷ adj done, attended, etc during only part of the full working day. ▷ adverb ▫ studying part-time. ▷ verb (part-timed, part-timing) to work on a part-time basis. • part-timer noun. Compare FULL-TIME.

parturient /pɑːˈtjʊərɪənt/ ▷ adj, medicine 1 referring or relating to childbirth. 2 giving birth or about to give birth. ◷ 16c: from Latin parturire to give birth, from parere to bring forth.

parturition /pɑːtjʊˈrɪʃən/ ▷ noun, medicine the process of giving birth; childbirth.

partwork ▷ noun one of a series of publications, especially magazines, issued at regular intervals, eventually forming a complete course or book.

party /ˈpɑːtɪ/ ▷ noun (parties) 1 a social gathering, especially of invited guests, for enjoyment or celebration. 2 a group of people involved in a certain activity together □ search party. 3 (often Party) an organization, especially a national organization, of people united by a common, especially political, aim. 4 law a each of the individuals or groups concerned in a contract, agreement, lawsuit, etc □ no third party involved; b in compounds, as adj □ third-party insurance. 5 old facetious use a person □ an elderly party. ▷ verb (partied, partying) intr, colloq to gather as a group to drink, chat, dance, etc for enjoyment; to have fun □ We partied all night. ● be a party to something to be involved in or partly responsible (for an agreement, decision, action, etc). ⓘ 13c: from French partie a part, share, etc, from partir to divide.

party line ▷ noun 1 a telephone line shared by two or more people. 2 the official opinion of a political party on any particular issue.

party man ▷ noun a man who is a faithful member of a political party.

party piece ▷ noun an act or turn, such as juggling, magic tricks, etc, that one can be called on to perform to entertain others, eg at a party.

party politics ▷ singular or plural noun political ideas and issues considered from the point of view of a particular party, or arranged to suit the views or interests of that party.

party pooper ▷ noun someone who spoils the enjoyment of others at a party or social occasion through lack of enthusiasm. ⓘ 1950s.

party-size ▷ adj said of a pack of food, etc: of a size suitable for a party.

party wall ▷ noun a wall that divides two houses, etc, being the joint responsibility of both owners.

par value ▷ noun, finance, stock exchange the value shown on a share certificate at time of issue; face value.

parvenu and parvenue /ˈpɑːvənjuː, -nuː/ ▷ noun (parvenus or parvenues) derog respectively a man or woman who has recently acquired substantial wealth but lacks the social refinement sometimes thought necessary to go with it. Also as adj. ⓘ Early 19c: French, literally 'arrived', from parvenir to arrive.

parvis /ˈpɑːvɪs/ or parvise /ˈpɑːviːs/ ▷ noun 1 an enclosed space, or sometimes a portico, at the front of a church. 2 loosely a room over a church porch. ⓘ 14c: from French parevis from Latin paradisum PARADISE.

parvovirus /ˈpɑːvoʊvaɪərəs/ ▷ noun any of a group of very small viruses containing DNA, and which cause a number of animal, especially canine, diseases. ⓘ 1960s: from Latin parvus small + VIRUS.

pas /pɑː/ ▷ noun (pas) a step or dance, especially in ballet. ⓘ 18c: French.

PASCAL /pasˈkal/ ▷ noun, computing a high-level computer programming language, designed in the 1960s and still widely used for general programming purposes. ⓘ 1960s: named after Blaise Pascal (1623–62), French philosopher and scientist, because he devised and built a calculating machine.

pascal /ˈpaskal/ ▷ noun (abbreviation Pa) in the SI system: a unit of pressure, equal to a force of one newton per square metre. ⓘ 1950s: named after Blaise Pascal (see PASCAL).

Pascal's triangle ▷ noun a triangular pattern of numbers with the number 1 at the apex, in which each digit, except for the number 1, is the sum of the two digits in the line immediately above it. ⓘ Late 19c: named after Blaise Pascal (see PASCAL), who described the triangle in his work.

Pasch /pask/ ▷ noun 1 the PASSOVER. 2 archaic Easter. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon as plural pasches from Hebrew pesach the Passover.

paschal /ˈpaskəl/ ▷ adj 1 relating to the Jewish festival of PASSOVER. 2 relating to Easter. ⓘ 15c: from Latin paschalis, see PASCH.

pas de bourrée /pɑː də ˈbʊəreɪ/ ▷ noun (pas de bourrée) ballet a movement in which one foot is swiftly placed behind or in front of the other.

pas de chat /pɑː də ʃɑː/ ▷ noun (pas de chat) ballet a leap in which each foot is raised in turn to the opposite knee. ⓘ Early 20c: French.

pas de deux /pɑː də dɜː/ ▷ noun (plural pas de deux) a dance sequence for two performers. ⓘ 18c: French, literally 'step for two'.

pash /paʃ/ ▷ noun (pashes) slang short form of PASSION.

pasha /ˈpaʃə, pɑːˈʃɑː/ ▷ noun (pashas) historical placed after the name in titles: a high-ranking Turkish official in the Ottoman Empire. ⓘ 17c: Turkish.

pashm /ˈpʌʃəm/ ▷ noun the fine underfleece of the goats of N India, used for making rugs, shawls, etc. ⓘ Late 19c: Persian, meaning 'wool'.

Pashto, Pushto /ˈpʌʃtoʊ/ or Pushtu /ˈpʌʃtuː/ ▷ noun (Pashtos, Pushtos or Pushtus) 1 one of the official languages of Afghanistan, also spoken in NW Pakistan, an Iranian language of the Indo-European family. 2 a native speaker of this language; a PATHAN. ⓘ 18c: Persian and Afghan.

paso doble /ˈpasoʊ ˈdoʊbleɪ/ ▷ noun (paso dobles or pasos dobles) 1 a fast modern ballroom dance, based on a Latin American marching style. 2 the music for this dance usually in duple time. ⓘ 1920s: Spanish paso step + doble double.

pasqueflower /ˈpɑːskflaʊə(r)/ ▷ noun a low-growing hairy perennial plant with large dark- to pale-purple bell-shaped flowers, which are initially erect but droop as they begin to fade. ⓘ 16c: from French passefleur, from passer to surpass + fleur flower; influenced by PASCH.

pass /pɑːs/ ▷ verb (passed /pɑːst/, passing) 1 tr & intr to come alongside and progress beyond something or someone □ passed her on the stairs. 2 intr to run, flow, progress, etc □ blood passing through our veins. 3 tr & intr > parts of speech

>
> Words that make up sentences can be grouped into different classes according to their function or role. For example, words such as cat, car, Thomas and Liverpool are nouns, ie words that name things, people and places, whereas words such as big, black and angry are adjectives, ie words that describe people and things.
>
> Traditionally, English is said to have eight, or sometimes nine, wordclasses or parts of speech:
>
> noun: book, bread > verb: sing, walk > adjective: green, sad > adverb: quickly, soon, very > pronoun: I, us, you > preposition: in, from, with > conjunction: although, because, while > interjection: ouch, alas, oh > and sometimes also > article: the, a
>
> In some modern grammars and dictionaries of English, several of these traditional parts of speech have been replaced or supplemented by others such as determiner and intensifier.
>
> Note that many words belong to more than one part of speech. For example, can is a noun in a can of worms, an auxiliary verb in I can come tomorrow, and a lexical verb in a factory where they can tomatoes.

intr (also pass through, into, etc something or pass something through, into, etc something) to go or make it go, penetrate, etc □ pass through a filter. 4 tr & intr to move lightly across, over, etc something □ pass a duster over the furniture. 5 intr to move from one state or stage to another □ pass from the larval to the pupal stage. 6 to exceed or surpass □ pass the target. 7 tr & intr said of a vehicle: to overtake. 8 a tr & intr to achieve the required standard in (a test, etc); b to award (a student, etc) the marks required for success in a test, etc. 9 intr to take place □ what passed between them. 10 tr & intr said of time: to go by; to use up (time) in some activity, etc. 11 tr & intr (usually pass down or pass something down) to be inherited; to hand it down. 12 tr & intr, sport to throw or kick (the ball, etc) to another player in one's team. 13 tr & intr to agree to (a proposal or resolution) or be agreed to; to vote (a law) into effect. 14 said of a judge or law court: to pronounce (judgement). 15 intr to go away after a while □ her nausea passed. 16 intr to be accepted, tolerated or ignored □ let it pass. 17 intr to choose not to answer in a quiz, etc or bid in a card game. 18 to make (a comment, etc). 19 to discharge (urine or faeces). ▷ noun (passes) 1 a route through a gap in a mountain range. 2 an official card or document permitting one to enter somewhere, be absent from duty, etc. 3 a successful result in an examination, but usually without distinction or honours. 4 sport a throw, kick, hit, etc to another player in one's team. 5 a state of affairs □ come to a sorry pass. 6 a decision not to answer in a quiz, etc, or not to bid in a card game. • come or be brought to pass to happen. • make a pass at someone to make a casual sexual advance towards them □ made a pass at a gorgeous man at the party. • pass the buck see under BUCK. • pass the time of day to exchange an ordinary greeting with someone. ⓘ 13c: from Latin passus step or pace.

■ pass as or for someone or something to be mistaken for or accepted as (a different person or thing).

■ pass oneself off as someone or something to represent oneself in that way □ tried to pass themselves off as students.

■ pass away or on euphemistic to die.

■ pass by to go past.

■ pass by something or someone to go past them.

■ pass something or someone by to overlook or ignore them.

■ pass off 1 said of a sickness or feeling, etc: to go away; to diminish. 2 said of an arranged event: to take place with the result specified □ The party passed off very well.

■ pass something off to successfully present (something which is fraudulent).

■ pass something on 1 to hand it on or transmit it to someone else. 2 see pass something round below.

■ pass out 1 to faint. 2 to leave a military or police college having successfully completed one's training.

■ pass over something to overlook it; to ignore it.

■ pass something round, on, etc to circulate it; to hand or transfer it from one person to the next in succession □ pass the memo round the office □ was passed on.

■ pass something up colloq to neglect or sacrifice (an opportunity).

pass. ▷ abbreviation, grammar passive.

passable /ˈpɑːsəbəl/ ▷ adj 1 barely adequate. 2 colloq fairly good. 3 said of a road, etc: able to be travelled along, crossed, etc. • passableness noun. • passably adverb.

passacaglia /pasəˈkɑːljə/ ▷ noun (passacaglias) music 1 a slow stately old Spanish dance in triple time. 2 the music for this dance introduced into keyboard music in the 17c, and based on a set of uninterrupted variations on a continuously repeated bass line or harmonic progression. See also CHACONNE. ⓘ 17c: Italian, probably from Spanish pasacalles street song.

passade /pəˈseɪd, pɑː-/ ▷ noun, dressage the motion of a horse to and fro over the same ground in dressage exercises. ⓘ 17c: French, from Spanish pasada, from Latin passus step.

passage[1] /ˈpasɪdʒ/ ▷ noun 1 a route through; a corridor, narrow street, or channel. 2 a tubular vessel in the body. 3 a piece of a text or musical composition of moderate length. 4 the process of passing □ the passage of time. 5 a a journey, especially by ship or aeroplane; b the cost of such a journey. 6 permission or freedom to pass through a territory, etc. 7 the voting of a law, etc into effect □ passage through parliament. ⓘ 13c: French, from passer to pass, from Latin passus step.

passage[2] /paˈsɑːʒ, ˈpasɪdʒ/ dressage ▷ noun 1 a slow sideways walk. 2 a rhythmical trot with diagonal pairs of legs lifted high. ▷ verb (passaged, passaging) 1 intr to move at a passage. 2 to make (a horse) move at a passage. ⓘ 18c: from French passager, from Italian passeggiare to walk, from Latin passus step.

passage grave ▷ noun, archaeol an underground burial chamber connected to the surface by a passage.

passage of arms ▷ noun 1 any armed struggle. 2 an encounter, especially with words.

passageway ▷ noun a narrow passage or way, etc, usually with walls on each side; a corridor; an alley.

passata /pəˈsɑːtə/ ▷ noun (passatas) an Italian sauce of puréed and sieved tomatoes. ⓘ 1980s: Italian, meaning 'passed', ie passed through a sieve.

pass-back ▷ noun, sport an act of passing a ball, etc to a member of one's own team nearer one's own goal line.

passbook ▷ noun a book in which the amounts of money put into and taken out of a building society account, bank account, etc, are recorded.

passé /ˈpaseɪ, ˈpɑːseɪ/ ▷ adj outmoded; old-fashioned; having faded out of popularity. ⓘ 18c: French, meaning 'passed'.

passenger /ˈpasəndʒə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 a traveller in a vehicle, boat, aeroplane, etc driven, sailed or piloted by someone else. 2 derog someone not doing their share of the work in a joint project, etc. ▷ adj relating to, or for, passengers □ passenger train. ⓘ 14c: from French passagier, from passage, with inserted n as in messenger.

passe-partout /pɑːspɑːˈtuː, pas-/ ▷ noun 1 a means of passing anywhere, especially a master key. 2 a card or something similar cut as a mount for a picture. 3 a kind of simple picture-frame, usually of pasteboard, the picture being fixed by strips pasted over the edges. ⓘ 17c: French, meaning 'a master key', from passer to pass + partout everywhere.

passer-by ▷ noun (passers-by) someone who is walking past a house, shop, incident, etc.

passerine /ˈpasəraɪn/ ornithol ▷ adj belonging or relating to the largest order of birds, characterized by a perching habit and the possession of four toes, and which includes the songbirds. ▷ noun any bird belonging to this order. ⓘ 18c: from Latin passer sparrow.

pas seul /pɑːˈsɜːl/ ▷ noun (plural pas seul) a dance for one person; a solo ballet dance. ⓘ 19c: French, literally 'step alone'.

passible /ˈpasɪbəl/ ▷ adj susceptible to or capable of suffering or feeling. ⓘ 14c: from Latin passibilis, from pati, passus to suffer.

passim /ˈpasɪm/ ▷ adverb said of a word, reference, etc: occurring frequently throughout the literary or academic work in question. ⓘ Early 19c: Latin, meaning 'here and there'.

passing /ˈpɑːsɪŋ/ ▷ adj 1 lasting only briefly. 2 casual; transitory ▫ a passing glance ▫ a passing reference to her absence. ▷ noun 1 a place where one may pass. 2 a coming to the end. 3 euphemistic death. • in passing while dealing with something else; casually; by allusion rather than directly ▫ mentioned the accident in passing. ⓘ 14c: present participle of PASS.

passing note ▷ noun, music a note forming an unprepared discord in an unaccented place in the measure. Also (N Amer) called passing tone.

passing shot ▷ noun, tennis a shot hit past, and beyond the reach of, an opponent.

Passion ▷ noun 1 (usually the Passion) the suffering and death of Christ. 2 an account of this from one of the Gospels. 3 a musical setting of one of these accounts.

passion /ˈpaʃən/ ▷ noun 1 a violent emotion, eg hate, anger or envy. 2 a fit of anger. 3 sexual love or desire. 4 a an enthusiasm ▫ has a passion for bikes; b something for which one has great enthusiasm ▫ Bikes are his passion. 5 martyrdom. ⓘ 12c: French, from Latin passio, from pati to suffer.

passional ▷ adj referring or relating to the sufferings of a Christian martyr. ▷ noun a book of the sufferings of saints and martyrs.

passionate /ˈpaʃənət/ ▷ adj 1 easily moved to passion; strongly emotional. 2 keen; enthusiastic; intense. • passionately adverb. • passionateness noun.

passion flower ▷ noun any of several tropical climbing plants with large distinctive flowers, the different parts of which were once thought to resemble the crown of thorns, nails, and other emblems of Christ's Passion. ⓘ 17c.

passion fruit ▷ noun the round yellow or purple edible fruit of any of various species of passion flower.

passionless ▷ adj 1 free from or lacking passion, especially sexual desire. 2 not easily excited to anger.

passion play ▷ noun a religious drama representing the suffering and death of Christ.

Passion Sunday ▷ noun, Christianity the fifth Sunday in Lent.

Passiontide ▷ noun, Christianity the two weeks preceding Easter.

Passion week ▷ noun, Christianity 1 the week before Holy Week. 2 sometimes Holy Week.

passive /ˈpasɪv/ ▷ adj 1 lacking positive or assertive qualities; submissive. 2 lethargic; inert. 3 grammar (abbreviation pass.) a denoting or relating to a verbal construction which in English consists of be and the PAST PARTICIPLE (see under PARTICIPLE), which carries a meaning in which the subject undergoes, rather than performs, the action of the verb, such as 'the letter' in The letter was written by John. Compare ACTIVE; b denoting or relating to the verb in such a construction. ▷ noun, grammar 1 (also passive voice) the form or forms that a passive verb takes. 2 a passive verb or construction. • passively adverb. • passiveness or passivity noun. ⓘ 14c: from Latin passivus.

passive immunity ▷ noun, medicine the short-term immunity acquired either artificially, through the administration of antibodies, or naturally, as in the very young who receive antibodies through the placenta or in colostrum. Compare ACTIVE IMMUNITY.

passive resistance ▷ noun the use of non-violent means, eg fasting, peaceful demonstration, etc, as a protest against a government, law, regulation, etc. • passive resister noun.

passive smoking ▷ noun the involuntary breathing in of tobacco-smoke by non-smokers, especially within an enclosed area or for prolonged periods, which has injurious effects.

passkey ▷ noun a key designed to open a varied set of locks; a MASTER KEY.

pass law ▷ noun formerly in South Africa: a law restricting the movement of non-whites, requiring them to carry identification at all times.

Passover /ˈpɑːsoʊvə(r)/ ▷ noun an annual Jewish festival held 15–22 Nisan (in March or April), commemorating the deliverance of the Israelites from bondage in Egypt. See also PESACH. ⓘ 16c: so called because the angel of death passed over the houses of the Israelites when he killed the firstborn of the Egyptians (Exodus 13).

passport /ˈpɑːspɔːt/ ▷ noun 1 an official document issued by the government, giving proof of the holder's identity and nationality, and permission to travel abroad with its protection. 2 an asset that guarantees one something, especially a privilege ▫ A degree is your passport to a good job. ⓘ 15c: from French passeport, from passer to pass + port seaport.

password ▷ noun 1 especially military a secret word allowing entry to a high-security area or past a checkpoint, etc. 2 computing a set of characters personal to a user which they input to gain access to a computer or network.

past /pɑːst/ ▷ adj 1 referring to an earlier time; of long ago; bygone. 2 recently ended; just gone by ▫ the past year. 3 over; finished. 4 former; previous ▫ past presidents. 5 grammar said of the tense of a verb: indicating an action or condition which took place or began in the past, such as the simple past (as in John wrote the letter), past progressive (as in John was writing the letter), etc. Compare FUTURE (noun 2), PRESENT, PERFECT, PLUPERFECT, IMPERFECT. ▷ prep 1 up to and beyond ▫ went past me. 2 after in time or age ▫ past your bedtime. 3 beyond; farther away than ▫ the one past the library. 4 having advanced too far for something ▫ She's past playing with dolls. 5 beyond the reach of something ▫ past help ▫ What he did was past belief. ▷ adverb 1 so as to pass by ▫ watched me go past. 2 ago ▫ two months past. ▷ noun 1 (usually the past) a the time before the present; b events, etc belonging to this time. 2 one's earlier life or career ▫ My past is quite uninteresting. 3 a disreputable episode or period earlier in one's life ▫ a woman with a past. 4 grammar a the past tense; b a verb in the past tense. • not put it past someone colloq to believe them quite liable or disposed to do a certain thing. • past it or past one's best colloq having lost the vigour of one's youth or prime. ⓘ 14c: an obsolete past participle of PASS.

pasta /ˈpastə/ ▷ noun (pastas) 1 a dough made with flour, water and eggs, shaped into a variety of forms such as spaghetti, macaroni, lasagne, etc. 2 a cooked dish of this, usually served with a sauce. ⓘ 19c: Italian, from Latin, meaning 'paste' or 'dough', from Greek, meaning 'barley porridge'.

paste /peɪst/ ▷ noun 1 a stiff moist mixture made from a powder and water, and traditionally made from flour and water, used as an adhesive ▫ wallpaper paste. 2 a spread for sandwiches, etc made from ground meat or fish, etc ▫ salmon paste. 3 any fine, often sweet, dough-like mixture ▫ almond paste. 4 a hard brilliant glass used in making imitation gems. ▷ verb (pasted, pasting) 1 to stick something with paste. 2 (also paste something up) printing to mount (text, illustrations, etc) on a backing as a proof for printing from or photographing, etc. See also PASTE-UP. 3 wordprocessing to insert text, etc which has been copied or cut from another part of the document, etc. 4 colloq to thrash or beat soundly. ⓘ 14c: French, from Latin pasta paste or dough.

pasteboard ▷ noun stiff board built up from thin sheets of paper glued or pasted together.

pastel /ˈpastəl, paˈstel/ ▷ noun 1 a chalk-like crayon made from ground pigment. 2 a picture drawn with pastels. ▷ adj 1 said of colours: delicately pale; soft, quiet.

2 drawn with pastels. ⓘ 17c: French, from Italian pastello, from Latin pastillus a ball or cake of something, from pasta PASTE.

pastern /ˈpastən/ ▷ noun the part of a horse's foot between the hoof and the fetlock. ⓘ 16c in this sense; 14c meaning 'a shackle or tether used when putting horses out to feed': from French pasturon, from pasture pasture or tether.

paste-up ▷ noun (paste-ups) a set of text, illustrations, etc mounted on a board, prepared for copying or photographing. See also PASTE SOMETHING UP at PASTE.

pasteurization or pasteurisation ▷ noun the partial sterilization of a food, especially milk, by heating it to a specific temperature for a short period before rapidly cooling it. ⓘ 1880s: named after Louis Pasteur (1822–95), French chemist and bacteriologist.

pasteurize or pasteurise /ˈpɑːstjəraɪz, ˈpast-, -stəraɪz/ ▷ verb (pasteurized, pasteurizing) to subject (food, especially milk) to the process of pasteurization. ● pasteurizer noun a machine for pasteurizing milk, etc.

pastiche /paˈstiːʃ/ ▷ noun a musical, artistic or literary work in someone else's style, or in a mixture of styles. ⓘ 19c: French, from Italian pasticcio a pasty or pie with a variety of ingredients.

pastier, pastiest see under PASTY² pastille /ˈpastɪl, paˈstiːl/ ▷ noun 1 a small fruit-flavoured sweet, sometimes medicated □ fruit pastille. 2 a cone of fragrant paste, burned as incense, for scenting a room. ⓘ 17c: French, from Latin pastillus a ball or cake of something.

pastime /ˈpɑːstaɪm/ ▷ noun a spare-time pursuit; a hobby. ⓘ 15c: from PASS + TIME.

pastiness see under PASTY² pasting /ˈpeɪstɪŋ/ ▷ noun, colloq a thrashing.

pastis /paˈstiːs/ ▷ noun (pastises) an alcoholic drink flavoured with anise. ⓘ 1920s: French.

past master ▷ noun 1 an expert; someone who is thoroughly proficient. 2 someone who has held the office of master, eg among the freemasons. ⓘ 19c.

pastor /ˈpɑːstə(r)/ ▷ noun a member of the clergy, especially in churches other than Anglican and Catholic, with responsibility for a congregation. ⓘ 14c: Latin, meaning 'shepherd', from pascere to feed.

pastoral /ˈpɑːstərəl/ ▷ adj 1 a relating to the countryside or country life; b said of a poem, painting, musical work, etc: depicting the countryside or country life, especially expressing nostalgia for an idealized simple rural existence. 2 relating to a member of the clergy or their work. 3 relating to a shepherd or their work. 4 said of land: used for pasture. ▷ noun 1 a pastoral poem or painting. 2 music a PASTORALE. 3 a a letter from a bishop to the clergy and people of the diocese; b a letter from a pastor to the people of their diocese. ⓘ 15c: from Latin pastor, pastoris shepherd.

pastoral care ▷ noun help, advice and moral guidance offered by a clergyman or other spiritual advisor to a group, such as the children in a school, members of the armed forces, a church congregation, etc.

pastorale /pastəˈrɑːl/ ▷ noun, music a musical work that evokes the countryside; a pastoral. ⓘ 18c: Italian, meaning 'pastoral'.

pastoralism /ˈpɑːstərəlɪzəm/ ▷ noun, anthropol a way of life characterized by keeping herds of animals, such as cattle, sheep, camels, reindeer, goats and llamas, which is common in dry, mountainous or severely cold climates not suitable for agriculture.

pastorate /ˈpɑːstərɪt/ ▷ noun 1 the office, authority or residence of a pastor. 2 a body of pastors.

past participle see under PARTICIPLE past perfect see under PERFECT pastrami /pəˈstrɑːmɪ/ ▷ noun (pastramis) a smoked highly-seasoned cut of beef, especially a shoulder. ⓘ 1930s: from Yiddish pastrame, from Rumanian pastramă pressed cured meat.

pastry /ˈpeɪstrɪ/ ▷ noun (pastries) 1 dough made with flour, fat and water, used for piecrusts. 2 a sweet baked article made with this; a pie, tart, etc. ⓘ 16c: from PASTE.

pasturage /ˈpɑːstʃərɪdʒ/ ▷ noun 1 an area of land where livestock is allowed to graze. 2 grass for feeding.

pasture /ˈpɑːstʃə(r), ˈpɑːstjuə(r)/ ▷ noun an area of grassland suitable or used for the grazing of livestock. Also called pastureland. ▷ verb (pastured, pasturing) 1 to put (animals) in pasture to graze. 2 intr said of animals: to graze. ● pasturable adj suitable for pasture. ● pastural adj. ● pastureless adj. ⓘ 14c: French, from Latin pastura, from pascere to feed.

pasty¹ /ˈpastɪ, ˈpɑːstɪ/ ▷ noun (pasties) a pie consisting of pastry folded round a savoury or sweet filling □ Cornish pasty. ⓘ 13c: from French pastée, from pasta PASTE.

pasty² /ˈpeɪstɪ/ ▷ adj (pastier, pastiest) 1 like a paste in texture. 2 said of the complexion: unhealthily pale. ● pastiness noun. ⓘ 17c: from PASTE.

pasty-faced ▷ adj pale and dull of complexion.

pat ▷ verb (patted, patting) 1 to strike (a person or animal) lightly or affectionately with the palm of one's hand. 2 to shape something by striking it lightly with the palm or a flat instrument □ pat it into shape. ▷ noun 1 a light blow, especially an affectionate one, with the palm of the hand. 2 a round flat mass. ▷ adverb especially of things said: immediately and fluently, as if memorized □ Their answers came too pat. ▷ adj said of answers, etc: quickly and easily supplied. ● have or know something off pat to have memorized it and know it perfectly. ● a pat on the back an approving word or gesture. ● pat someone on the back to congratulate them approvingly. ● stand pat N Amer 1 to stand firmly by one's opinion, decision, etc. 2 poker to decide to play one's hand as it is. ⓘ 14c: probably imitating the sound it makes.

pat. ▷ abbreviation 1 patent. 2 patented.

patch ▷ noun 1 a piece of material sewn on or applied, eg to a garment or piece of fabric, etc, so as to cover a hole or reinforce a worn area. 2 a plot of earth □ a vegetable patch. 3 a pad or cover worn as protection over an injured eye. 4 a small expanse contrasting with its surroundings □ patches of ice. 5 historical a tiny piece of black silk worn on the face in imitation of a mole or beauty spot, to enhance the whiteness of the complexion. 6 a scrap or shred. 7 colloq a phase or period of time □ go through a bad patch. 8 slang the area patrolled by a policeman or covered by a particular police station. 9 computing a set of instructions added to a program to correct an error. ▷ verb (patched, patching) 1 to mend (a hole or garment) by sewing a patch or patches on or over it □ patch the arm with an oval of leather. 2 (also patch something up) to repair it hastily and temporarily □ patch up the leaking pipe. See also PATCH-UP. 3 computing to make a temporary correction in (a program). ● not a patch on someone or something colloq not nearly as good as them. ⓘ 14c.

■ patch something together to assemble it hastily.

■ patch something up colloq to settle (a quarrel, etc), especially hurriedly or temporarily.

patchboard ▷ noun a panel with multiple electric terminals into which wires may be plugged to form a variety of temporary circuits, used in telephone exchanges, computer systems, etc.

patchily, patchiness see under PATCHY patchouli /pəˈtʃuːlɪ, ˈpatʃʊlɪ/ ▷ noun (patchoulis or patchoulies) a shrubby perennial SE Asian plant that yields an aromatic ESSENTIAL OIL used in perfumery. ⓘ 19c: from Tamil pacculi.

patch pocket ▷ noun a pocket made by sewing a piece of fabric on the outside of a garment.

patch test ▷ noun an allergy test in which substances are applied to areas of the skin which are later examined for signs of irritation.

patch-up ▷ noun (patch-ups) a provisional repair. See also PATCH SOMETHING UP at PATCH.

patchwork ▷ noun 1 needlework done by sewing together small pieces of contrastingly patterned fabric to make a larger piece of fabric. 2 a a piece of work produced in this way, used to make eg cushions; b as adj □ patchwork quilt. 3 a variegated expanse □ a patchwork of fields.

patchy /ˈpatʃɪ/ ▷ adj (patchier, patchiest) 1 forming, or occurring in, patches. 2 covered in patches. 3 uneven or variable in quality □ gave a patchy performance. ● patchily adverb. ● patchiness noun.

pate /peɪt/ ▷ noun, old use or facetious the head or skull, especially when alluding to baldness or intelligence. ⓘ 14c.

pâté /ˈpateɪ/ ▷ noun a spread made from ground or chopped meat, fish or vegetables blended with herbs, spices, etc. ⓘ Early 20c in this sense; 17c: French, meaning 'pie' or 'pasty'.

pâté de foie gras see under FOIE GRAS patella /pəˈtɛlə/ ▷ noun (patellae /-ˈtɛliː/ or patellas) 1 anatomy the KNEECAP. 2 archaeol a little pan. ⓘ 17c: Latin diminutive of patina a PATEN or small dish.

paten /ˈpatən/ ▷ noun, relig a circular metal plate, often of silver or gold, on which the bread is placed in the celebration of the Eucharist. ⓘ 13c: French, from Latin patina a wide flat plate or dish.

patent /ˈpeɪtənt, ˈpatənt/ ▷ noun 1 an official licence from the government granting a person or business the sole right, for a certain period, to make and sell a particular article. 2 the right so granted. 3 the invention so protected. ▷ verb (patented, patenting) to obtain a patent for (an invention, design, etc). ▷ adj 1 very evident □ a patent violation of the law. 2 concerned with the granting of, or protection by, patents. 3 said of a product: made or protected under patent. 4 colloq ingenious; infallible; original. 5 open for inspection □ letters patent. ● patentable adj. ● patently /ˈpeɪtəntlɪ/ adverb openly; clearly □ patently obvious. ⓘ 14c: from Latin patens, patentis lying open, from patere to lie open.

patent agent ▷ noun a person or organization that obtains patents on behalf of inventors, etc.

patentee /peɪtənˈtiː/ ▷ noun (patentees) the person obtaining or holding a patent.

patent leather ▷ noun leather made glossy by varnishing. ⓘ 1920s.

patent medicine ▷ noun 1 technical a patented medicine which is available without prescription. 2 colloq any proprietary medicine, especially one claimed as an infallible cure.

Patent Office ▷ noun a government department that issues patents.

patentor /peɪtənˈtɔː/ ▷ noun a person, organization, authority, etc that grants patents.

patent right ▷ noun the exclusive right reserved by a patent.

patent rolls ▷ plural noun in Britain: the register of patents issued.

pater /ˈpeɪtə(r)/ ▷ noun, old use or facetious father. ⓘ 14c: Latin.

paterfamilias /peɪtəfəˈmɪlɪas, pa-/ ▷ noun (patresfamilias /peɪtreɪs-, patreɪz-/) the father as head of the household. ⓘ 15c: Latin, from pater father + familias of a household; compare FAMILY.

paternal /pəˈtɜːnəl/ ▷ adj 1 referring, relating, or appropriate to a father □ paternal instincts. 2 said of a relation or ancestor: related on one's father's side □ paternal grandmother. Compare MATERNAL. ● paternally adverb. ⓘ 17c: from Latin paternalis, from pater father.

paternalism ▷ noun governmental or managerial benevolence towards its citizens, employees, etc taken to the extreme of overprotectiveness and authoritarianism. ● paternalistic adj. ● paternalistically adverb. ⓘ 19c.

paternity /pəˈtɜːnɪtɪ/ ▷ noun 1 the quality or condition of being a father; fatherhood. 2 the relation of a father to his children. 3 the authorship, source or origin of something. ⓘ 16c: from Latin paternitas, from pater father.

paternity leave ▷ noun leave of absence from an employer often granted to a father-to-be or father so that he can be with his wife or partner and assist her during and after the birth of a child. It is usually for around five to ten days where a formal agreement exists.

paternity suit ▷ noun a lawsuit brought by the mother of a child to establish that a certain man is the father of her child and therefore liable for its financial support.

paternoster /patəˈnɒstə(r)/ ▷ noun, Christianity 1 see THE LORD'S PRAYER. 2 every tenth bead in a rosary, which is larger than the rest and at which the Lord's Prayer is repeated. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon: from Latin Pater noster Our Father, the first words of the Lord's Prayer.

Paterson's curse /ˈpatəsənz —/ ▷ noun, Austral any of various naturalized, originally European, herbs regarded as harmful to livestock. ⓘ Early 20c: referring to an Australian family from whose garden in New South Wales a blue-flowered weed is said to have spread.

path /pɑːθ/ ▷ noun (paths /pɑːðz/) 1 (also pathway) a track trodden by, or specially surfaced for, walking. 2 the line along which something is travelling □ the path of Jupiter. 3 a course of action □ the path to ruin. 4 computing the location of a file in terms of a computer's disk drives and directory structure. ● beat a path to someone's door to visit them very often or in very large numbers. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon pæth.

path. see PATHOL.

path- see PATHO-

-path /paθ/ ▷ combining form, forming nouns, denoting 1 a sufferer from a particular disorder □ psychopath. 2 a practitioner of a particular therapy □ homoeopath □ osteopath. ⓘ From Greek pathos experience or suffering.

Pathan /pəˈtɑːn, pʌˈtɑːn/ ▷ noun 1 a member of the PASHTO-speaking people of SE Afghanistan and NW Pakistan. 2 one of the official languages of Afghanistan, also spoken in NW Pakistan, an Iranian language of the Indo-European family. 3 a native speaker of this language. ⓘ 17c: Hindi, from Pashto Pakhtun.

pathetic /pəˈθɛtɪk/ ▷ adj 1 moving one to pity; touching, heart-rending, poignant or pitiful □ her pathetic sobs. 2 derog, colloq hopelessly inadequate □ a pathetic attempt. ● pathetically adverb. ⓘ 16c: from Greek pathetikos sensitive.

pathetic fallacy ▷ noun in literature: the transference of human feelings, etc to inanimate things, as in a frowning landscape.

pathfinder ▷ noun 1 an explorer who finds routes through unexplored territory; a pioneer. 2 someone who devises new methods of doing things. 3 a radar device used to aid the navigation of aircraft, or to guide missiles into a target area.

-pathic /paθɪk/ ▷ combining form forming adjectives corresponding to nouns in -PATHY.

patho- /paθou, pə'θɒ/ or (before a vowel) path- combining form, denoting disease ▫ pathology. ⓘ From Greek pathos experience or suffering.

pathogen /'paθədʒən/ ▷ noun, pathol any micro-organism, especially a bacterium or virus, that causes disease in a living organism. • pathogenic adj. • pathogenicity /-dʒə'nɪsɪtɪ/ noun. ⓘ Late 19c: PATHO- + -GEN.

pathogenesis and pathogeny /pə'θɒdʒənɪ/ ▷ noun the development of a disease or disorder, mainly as observed at the biochemical or cellular level. ⓘ 19c.

pathol. or path. ▷ abbreviation 1 pathology. 2 pathological.

pathological /paθə'lɒdʒɪkəl/ ▷ adj 1 relating to pathology. 2 caused by, or relating to, illness. 3 colloq compulsive; habitual ▫ a pathological liar. • pathologically adverb.

pathologist /pə'θɒlədʒɪst/ ▷ noun a scientist who specializes in pathology, one of whose duties is usually to carry out postmortems.

pathology /pə'θɒlədʒɪ/ ▷ noun (pathologies) 1 the branch of medicine concerned with the study of the nature of diseases. 2 the manifestations, characteristic behaviour, etc of a disease. ⓘ 17c.

pathos /'peɪθɒs/ ▷ noun a quality in a situation, etc, especially in literature, that moves one to pity. ⓘ 17c: Greek, meaning 'feeling' or 'suffering'.

> pathos
>
> A word sometimes confused with this one is bathos.

pathway ▷ noun 1 a PATH sense 1. 2 in neurology: a network of nerves linking specific organs. 3 in biochemistry: a network of components involved in physiological processes, especially those involving ENZYMES.

-pathy /pəθɪ/ ▷ combining form, forming nouns, denoting 1 feeling ▫ telepathy. 2 disease or disorder ▫ psychopathy. 3 a method of treating disease ▫ homoeopathy. ⓘ From Greek pathos suffering.

patience /'peɪʃəns/ ▷ noun 1 the ability to endure delay, trouble, pain or hardship in a calm and contained way. 2 tolerance and forbearance. 3 perseverance. 4 cards a solo game in which the player, in turning each card over, has to fit it into a certain scheme. Also (US) called solitaire. ⓘ 13c: French, from Latin patiens, from patientum suffering.

patient /'peɪʃənt/ ▷ adj having or showing patience. ▷ noun a person who is being treated by, or is registered with, a doctor, dentist, etc. • patiently adverb in a patient way; with patience. ⓘ 14c.

patina /'patɪnə/ ▷ noun (patinas) 1 a coating formed on a metal surface by oxidation, especially the greenish coating of verdigris on bronze or copper. 2 a mature shine on wood resulting from continual polishing and handling. 3 any fine finish acquired with age. 4 archaeol a surface appearance that develops with prolonged exposure or burial. • patinated /-neɪtɪd/ adj. • patination noun. ⓘ 18c: Italian, meaning 'coating', from Latin meaning 'shallow dish'.

patio /'patɪou/ ▷ noun (patios) 1 an open paved area beside a house. 2 an inner courtyard in a Spanish or Spanish-American house. ⓘ Early 19c: Spanish.

patisserie /pə'ti:sərɪ/ ▷ noun (patisseries) 1 a shop or café selling fancy cakes, sweet pastries, etc in the continental style. 2 such cakes. ⓘ 18c: from French pâtisserie, from Latin pasta dough.

Patna rice /'patnə —/ ▷ noun a long-grained rice, originally grown at Patna in India, served with savoury dishes.

patois /'patwɑ:/ ▷ noun (patois) 1 the local dialect of a region, used usually in informal everyday situations, as opposed to the language used in literature, education, etc. 2 jargon. ⓘ 17c: French.

pat. pend. ▷ abbreviation patent pending.

patresfamilias plural of PATERFAMILIAS patri- /patrɪ/ ▷ combining form, denoting 1 a father or fathers ▫ patricide. 2 a man or men ▫ patriarchal. Compare MATRI-. ⓘ From Latin pater, patris father.

patrial /'peɪtrɪəl, 'pat-/ ▷ noun, formerly someone who, being a citizen of the UK, a British colony or the British Commonwealth, or the child or grandchild of someone born in the UK, has a legal right to live in the UK. • patriality noun. ⓘ 1970s in this sense, this right having been introduced by the Immigration Act 1971, but removed by the British Nationality Act 1981: from Latin patria fatherland.

patriarch /'peɪtrɪɑ:k/ ▷ noun 1 the male head of a family or tribe. Compare MATRIARCH sense 1. 2 in the Eastern Orthodox Church: a high-ranking bishop. 3 in the RC Church: the pope. 4 in the Old Testament: any of the ancestors of the human race or of the tribes of Israel, eg Adam, Abraham or Jacob. 5 a venerable old man, especially the senior member of a community or group. ⓘ 13c: from Greek patriarches a senior bishop, or the father of a family.

patriarchal /peɪtrɪ'ɑ:kəl/ ▷ adj 1 referring to the nature of a patriarch. 2 like a patriarch. 3 belonging to or subject to a patriarch. • patriarchally adverb.

patriarchal cross ▷ noun a cross with two horizontal bars, the upper one shorter than the lower one.

patriarchal society ▷ noun a society governed by a patriarch or patriarchs.

patriarchate /'peɪtrɪɑ:kɪt/ ▷ noun the office, authority, or residence of a church patriarch.

patriarchy /'peɪtrɪɑ:kɪ, 'patrɪ-/ ▷ noun (patriarchies) 1 a social system in which a male is head of the family and descent is traced through the male line. 2 a society based on this system. Compare MATRIARCHY.

patrician /pə'trɪʃən/ ▷ noun 1 historical a member of the aristocracy of ancient Rome. Compare PLEBEIAN (sense 1). 2 historical an aristocrat in certain medieval European provinces or cities. 3 an aristocrat. 4 someone who is thought of as refined and sophisticated. ▷ adj 1 belonging or relating to the aristocracy, especially that of ancient Rome. 2 refined and sophisticated. ⓘ 15c: from Latin patricius having a noble father, from pater father.

patricide /'patrɪsaɪd, 'peɪtrɪ-/ ▷ noun 1 the act of killing one's own father. 2 someone who commits this act. • patricidal adj. ⓘ 16c: a variant of earlier PARRICIDE, influenced by Latin pater father.

patrilineal /patrɪ'lɪnɪəl/ or patrilinear /-ɪə(r)/ ▷ adj, anthropol denoting descent or kinship reckoned through the father, or through males alone. Compare MATRILINEAL.

patrimony /'patrɪmənɪ/ ▷ noun (patrimonies) 1 property inherited from one's father or ancestors. 2 something inherited; a heritage. 3 a church estate or revenue. • patrimonial /-'mounɪəl/ adj. • patrimonially adverb. ⓘ 14c: from Latin patrimonium, from pater father.

patriot /'peɪtrɪət, 'pa-/ ▷ noun someone who loves and serves their fatherland or country devotedly. • patriotic /-'ɒtɪk/ adj. • patriotically adverb. ⓘ 16c: from Greek patriotes fellow-countryman.

patriotism ▷ noun loyalty and devotion to one's country.

patristic /pə'trɪstɪk/ ▷ adj referring or relating to the Fathers of the Christian Church. ⓘ 19c: from Greek pater father.

patrol /pə'troul/ ▷ verb (patrolled, patrolling) 1 tr & intr to make a regular systematic tour of (an area) to maintain security or surveillance. 2 intr said of a police officer: to be on duty on a beat. ▷ noun 1 the act of patrolling ▫ on patrol. 2 a person or group of people performing this duty. 3 a body of aircraft, ships, etc carrying out this duty. 4 any of the units of six or so into which a troop of Scouts or Guides is divided. ● patroller noun. ⓘ 17c: from French patrouiller.

patrol car ▷ noun a police car equipped with a radio, etc, used to patrol streets and motorways.

patrolman and patrolwoman ▷ noun 1 N Amer the lowest-ranking police officer; a police officer on the beat. 2 someone employed by a motoring organization to patrol a certain area and help motorists in difficulty.

patron /'peɪtrən/ ▷ noun 1 someone who gives financial support and encouragement eg to an artist, the arts, a movement or charity ◻ a patron of the arts. 2 a regular customer of a shop, attender at a theatre, etc. 3 C of E someone who has the right to appoint to any office, especially to a living in the church. 4 a PATRON SAINT. ● patronal /pə'troʊnəl/ adj. ● patronly adverb. ⓘ 14c in the sense 'protector': from Latin patronus protector.

patronage /'patrənɪdʒ/ ▷ noun 1 the support given by a patron. 2 regular custom given to a shop, theatre, etc. 3 the power of bestowing, or recommending people for, offices.

patroness /'peɪtrənəs/ ▷ noun, old use a woman PATRON (senses 1 and 2). See note at AUTHORESS.

patronize or patronise /'patrənaɪz, N Amer 'peɪtrənaɪz/ ▷ verb (patronized, patronizing) 1 to treat someone condescendingly, or with benevolent superiority, especially inappropriately. 2 to act as a patron towards (an organization, individual, etc). 3 to give custom, especially regularly, to (a shop, theatre, restaurant, etc). ● patronizing adj. ● patronizingly adverb. ⓘ 16c in sense 2; late 18c in sense 1.

patron saint ▷ noun the guardian saint of a country, profession, craft, etc.

patronymic /patrə'nɪmɪk/ ▷ noun a name derived from one's father's or other male ancestor's name, usually with a suffix or prefix, as in Donaldson or Macdonald, or the Russian Davidovich or Davidovna. Compare MATRONYMIC. ⓘ 17c: from Greek pater father + onyma name.

patsy /'patsɪ/ ▷ noun (patsies) slang, chiefly N Amer an easy victim; a sucker; a scapegoat or fall guy. ⓘ Early 20c.

patten /'patən/ ▷ noun, historical an overshoe with a wooden or metal mount to raise the wearer above mud or water. ⓘ 14c: from French patin clog.

patter[1] /'patə(r)/ ▷ verb (pattered, pattering) intr 1 said of rain, footsteps, etc: to make a light rapid tapping noise. 2 to move with light rapid footsteps. ▷ noun the light rapid tapping of footsteps or rain ◻ heard the patter of tiny feet. ⓘ 17c: frequentative of PAT.

patter[2] /'patə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 the fast persuasive talk of a salesman, or the quick speech of a comedian. 2 the jargon or speech of a particular group or area ◻ Glasgow patter. ▷ verb (pattered, pattering) tr & intr to say or speak rapidly or glibly. ⓘ 14c: from PATERNOSTER, because of the fast mumbling style in which this prayer and others were recited.

pattern /'patən/ ▷ noun 1 a model, guide or set of instructions for making something ◻ a dress pattern. 2 a decorative design, often consisting of repeated motifs, eg on wallpaper or fabric. 3 a piece, eg of fabric, as a sample. 4 any excellent example suitable for imitation. 5 a coherent series of occurrences or set of features ◻ a pattern of events. ▷ verb (patterned, patterning) (usually pattern something on another thing) to model it on another type, design, etc. ⓘ 14c as patron; French, from Latin patronus example or defender.

patterned ▷ adj said of a fabric, etc: having a decorative design; not plain.

pattern race ▷ noun a horse race open to all comers in a particular category, eg of a certain age or weight, usually contested by top-class horses, with the purpose of finding the best.

patty /'patɪ/ ▷ noun (patties) 1 N Amer a flat round cake of minced meat, vegetables, etc. 2 a small meat pie. ⓘ 18c in sense 2: from French pâté PASTY 1.

pauciloquent /pɔː'sɪləkwənt/ ▷ adj speaking little, using few words, etc. ⓘ 17c: from Latin paucus a little + loqui to speak.

paucity /'pɔːsɪtɪ/ ▷ noun (paucities) smallness of quantity; fewness; a scarcity or lack; dearth. ⓘ 15c: from Latin pauci few.

Pauline /'pɔːlaɪn/ ▷ adj referring to the apostle St Paul. ▷ noun a member of any religious order named after him. ⓘ 14c as noun: from Latin adjective Paulinus.

paunch /pɔːntʃ/ ▷ noun (paunches) 1 a protruding belly, especially in a man. 2 the first and largest stomach of a ruminant. 3 naut a rope mat to prevent chafing. ● paunchiness noun. ● paunchy adj (paunchier, paunchiest). ⓘ 14c: from French panche.

pauper /'pɔːpə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 a poverty-stricken person. 2 historical someone living on charity or publicly provided money. ● pauperism noun 1 the condition of paupers. 2 the existence of a pauper class. ● pauperize or pauperise verb (pauperized, pauperizing) to make someone a pauper. ● pauperization noun. ⓘ 16c: Latin, meaning 'poor'.

pause /pɔːz/ ▷ noun 1 a relatively short break in some activity, etc. 2 music a the prolonging of a note or rest beyond its normal duration; b a sign indicating this 𝄐, usually placed above the note, etc. Also called FERMATA. 3 said of a computer package, particularly a computer game: the command which causes the current operation to stop. ▷ verb (paused, pausing) intr 1 to have a break; to stop briefly ◻ paused for a few minutes before continuing his writing. 2 to hesitate ◻ paused before answering. ● give someone pause to make them hesitate before acting. ● pauseless adj. ● pauser noun. ● pausing noun, adj. ⓘ 15c: from Latin pausa, from Greek pausis, from pauein to make something cease.

pause button ▷ noun on a CD or tape machine, etc: the button which stops the running of the machine, ready to continue when it is pressed again.

pavan or pavane /'pavən, pə'vɑːn/ ▷ noun 1 a slow and sombre stately 16c and 17c dance. 2 a piece of music for this dance, in 4-4 time. ⓘ 16c: from Spanish or Italian pavana, from Spanish pavo peacock, or from Italian Padovana Paduan, or dance of Padua.

pave ▷ verb (paved, paving) to surface (especially a footpath, but also a street, etc) with stone slabs, cobbles, etc. ● paved adj. ● pave the way for something or someone to prepare for and make way for its introduction or development, or for their arrival. ⓘ 14c: from Latin pavire to ram or tread down.

pavement /'peɪvmənt/ ▷ noun 1 a raised footpath edging a road, etc, often but not always paved. N Amer equivalent SIDEWALK. 2 a paved road, area, expanse, etc ◻ a mosaic pavement. 3 a road surface; road-surfacing material. ⓘ 13c: French, from Latin pavimentum hard floor.

pavement artist ▷ noun 1 an artist who draws sketches and coloured pictures on a pavement, especially in order to receive money from passers-by. 2 an artist who sells pictures displayed on a pavement. ⓘ Late 19c.

pavement light ▷ noun a window of glass blocks in the pavement to light a cellar.

pavilion /pə'vɪljən/ ▷ noun 1 a building in a sports ground in which players change their clothes, store equipment, etc. 2 a light temporary building such as a marquee, in which to display exhibits at a trade fair, etc. 3 a summerhouse or ornamental shelter. 4 a large ornamental building for public pleasure and entertainment. 5 a large and elaborate tent. ⓘ 13c: from French pavillon, from Latin papilio butterfly, later a tent.

paving /ˈpeɪvɪŋ/ ▷ noun 1 stones or slabs used to pave a surface. 2 a paved surface.

paving-stone ▷ noun a large flat regular-shaped stone used for paving.

pavlova /pavˈloʊvə/ ▷ noun (pavlovas) a dessert consisting of meringue topped with fruit and whipped cream. ⓘ 1920s: named after Anna Pavlova (1885–1931), a Russian ballerina.

Pavlovian /pavˈloʊvɪən/ ▷ adj, psychol, physiol 1 relating to the work of the Russian physiologist, Ivan Pavlov (1849–1936), on conditioned reflexes. 2 said of reactions, responses, etc: automatic; unthinking. ⓘ 1930s.

paw ▷ noun 1 the foot, usually clawed, of a four-legged mammal. 2 colloq a hand, especially when used clumsily. See also SOUTHPAW. ▷ verb (pawed, pawing) 1 to finger or handle something clumsily; to touch or caress someone with unwelcome familiarity. 2 (also paw at something) said of an animal: to scrape or strike it with a paw. ⓘ 13c: from French poue.

pawky /ˈpɔːkɪ/ ▷ adj (pawkier, pawkiest) Scots or dialect drily witty. ⓘ 17c: from Scots pawk a trick.

pawl /pɔːl/ ▷ noun, engineering a catch that engages with the teeth of a ratchet wheel to limit its movement to one direction only. ⓘ 17c.

pawn[1] ▷ verb (pawned, pawning) 1 to deposit (an article of value) with a pawnbroker as a pledge for a sum of money borrowed. 2 to pledge or stake something. ▷ noun 1 the condition of being deposited as a pledge □ in pawn □ at pawn. 2 an article pledged in this way. ⓘ 15c: from French pan pledge or surety.

pawn[2] ▷ noun 1 chess (symbol P) a chess piece of lowest value. 2 a person used and manipulated by others. ⓘ 14c: from French poun, from Latin pedones infantry.

pawnbroker /ˈpɔːnbroʊkə(r)/ and pawnee /pɔːˈniː/ ▷ noun someone who lends money in exchange for pawned articles. • pawnbroking noun. ⓘ 17c.

pawner /ˈpɔːnə(r)/ ▷ noun someone who deposits something in pawn, especially with a pawnbroker, as a security for money borrowed.

pawnshop ▷ noun a pawnbroker's place of business.

pawpaw see under PAPAW, PAPAYA.

pax ▷ noun (paxes) formal church use the kiss of peace, usually uttered as a greeting during the Eucharist. ▷ exclamation, dated colloq truce! let's call a truce! • pax vobiscum /paks voʊˈbɪskəm/ peace be with you. ⓘ 15c: Latin, meaning 'peace'.

pay[1] ▷ verb (pays, paid, paying) 1 tr & intr to give (money) to someone in exchange for goods, services, etc □ I paid him £10 for the books. 2 tr & intr to settle (a bill, debt, etc). 3 tr & intr to give (wages or salary) to an employee. 4 tr & intr to make a profit, or make something as profit □ businesses that don't pay □ an investment that pays £500 per annum. 5 tr & intr to benefit; to be worthwhile □ It pays one to be polite □ Dishonesty doesn't pay. 6 tr & intr (also pay for something) to suffer a penalty on account of it; to be punished for it □ pay dearly for one's crimes □ paid with his life. 7 a to do someone the honour of (a visit or call) □ paid her a visit in hospital; b to offer someone (a compliment, one's respects, etc) □ paid him a compliment on his new haircut. 8 to give (heed or attention). ▷ noun money given or received for work, etc; wages; salary. • in the pay of someone employed by them, especially for a secret or dishonest purpose. • pay one's addresses to someone formal or old-fashioned said of a man: to court (a woman). • pay one's way to pay all of one's own debts and living expenses. • pay its way to compensate adequately for initial outlay. • put paid to something or someone colloq to put an end to them; to deal effectively or finally with them. • pay the piper to bear the expense of something and therefore have control of it, ie CALL THE TUNE (see under CALL). • pay through the nose to pay a very high price □ paid through the nose for the coach tour. ⓘ 13c: from French paie, from Latin pacare to pacify, settle (a debt).

■ pay someone back to revenge oneself on them.

■ pay something back to return (money owed).

■ pay something down to pay (eg a first instalment) in cash immediately.

■ pay something in to put (money, etc) into a bank account.

■ pay off to have profitable results.

■ pay someone off to make them redundant with a final payment.

■ pay something off to finish paying (a debt, etc). See also PAY-OFF.

■ pay something out 1 to spend or give (money), eg to pay bills, debts, etc. 2 to release or slacken (a rope, etc) especially by passing it little by little through one's hands.

■ pay up colloq to pay the full amount that is due, especially reluctantly. See also PAID-UP.

pay[2] ▷ verb (pays, payed, paying) naut to smear (a wooden boat) with tar, etc as waterproofing. ⓘ 17c: from French peier, from Latin picare, from pic-, pix pitch.

payable ▷ adj 1 that can or must be paid □ Make cheques payable to me □ payable by 1 July. 2 capable of being profitable.

pay-and-display ▷ adj referring to a system of paying for parking in a car park or on a street, in which a ticket is obtained from a nearby machine and displayed in the window of the car □ pay-and-display ticket machine. Compare PARKING METER.

pay-as-you-earn ▷ noun (abbreviation PAYE) in Britain and New Zealand: a method of collecting income tax from employees by deducting it from the wages or salary due to be paid to them.

pay-as-you-view see PAY-PER-VIEW.

pay bed see PRIVATE PAY BED.

pay day ▷ noun the day when wages or salaries are regularly paid.

pay dirt and pay gravel ▷ noun gravel or sand containing enough gold to be worth working. ⓘ 19c.

payee /peɪˈiː/ ▷ noun (payees) someone to whom money is paid or a cheque is made out.

payer ▷ noun someone who pays for something.

paying guest ▷ noun, euphemistic a lodger.

payload ▷ noun 1 the part of a vehicle's load which earns revenue. 2 the operating equipment carried by a spaceship or satellite. 3 the quantity and strength of the explosive carried by a missile. 4 the quantity of goods, passengers, etc carried by an aircraft. ⓘ 1930s.

paymaster ▷ noun an official in charge of the payment of wages and salaries.

payment ▷ noun 1 a sum of money paid. 2 the act of paying or process of being paid. 3 a reward or punishment. ⓘ 14c.

pay-off ▷ noun (pay-offs) colloq 1 a fruitful result; a good return. 2 a bribe. 3 a final settling of accounts. 4 a climax, outcome or final resolution. See also PAY OFF, etc under PAY[1].

payola /peɪˈoʊlə/ ▷ noun (payolas) 1 a bribe for promoting a product, given to someone, eg a disc jockey, in a position to do this. 2 the practice of giving or receiving such bribes. ⓘ 1930s: from PAY¹, modelled on PIANOLA.

pay packet ▷ noun 1 an envelope or packet containing an employee's weekly wages. 2 the contents of this.

pay-per-view or pay-as-you-view ▷ adj said of satellite TV, cable TV, etc: 1 referring or relating to PAY TV. 2 referring or relating to a particular programme watched by such subscription.

payphone ▷ noun a telephone in a pub, restaurant, etc, or on the street, at a railway station, etc, that is operated by coins, a phonecard or credit card.

payroll ▷ noun 1 a register of employees that lists the wage or salary due to each. 2 the total amount of money required for employees' wages or salaries.

payroll giving ▷ noun contributions to charity which are deducted by the employer from an employee's wages and paid directly to the charity concerned.

paysage /ˈpeɪzɑːʒ/ art ▷ noun a landscape or landscape painting. ● paysagist /ˈpeɪzɑːʒɪst/ noun a landscape painter. ⓘ 17c: French, from pays land.

pay slip ▷ noun a note of an employee's pay, showing deductions for tax or national insurance, supplied weekly or monthly.

pay TV or pay television ▷ noun TV programmes, video entertainment, etc distributed to an audience which pays for the programmes viewed by subscribing to a CABLE TV or SATELLITE TV network. Connection to a number of channels, or to an individual programme, is paid for by renting a decoder or using a smart card to unscramble signals received. Also called subscription TV pazzazz or pazazz see PIZZAZZ.

Pb ▷ symbol, chem lead.

PBX ▷ abbreviation, telecomm private branch exchange, a telephone system that routes the internal and external calls of a company or organization. See also PABX.

PC ▷ abbreviation 1 personal computer. 2 Police Constable. 3 a political correctness; b politically correct. 4 Privy Councillor.

pc ▷ abbreviation 1 per cent. 2 personal computer. 3 colloq postcard.

PCAS /ˈpiːkas/ ▷ abbreviation, formerly Polytechnics Central Admissions System, an organization which formerly administered entry to polytechnics in the UK, now part of UCAS.

PCB ▷ abbreviation, computing printed circuit board.

pcm ▷ abbreviation per calendar month.

PCN ▷ abbreviation personal communications network, a network for mobile telephone users.

PCP ▷ abbreviation, trademark phencyclidine.

pct ▷ abbreviation, N Amer per cent.

Pd ▷ symbol, chem palladium.

pd ▷ abbreviation 1 paid. 2 (also PD) physics potential difference.

Pde ▷ abbreviation Parade, as a street name.

PDL ▷ abbreviation, computing page description language.

PDQ ▷ abbreviation, colloq pretty damn quick, ie as soon as possible.

PDSA ▷ abbreviation People's Dispensary for Sick Animals.

PE ▷ abbreviation 1 IVR Peru. 2 physical education. 3 physics potential energy.

pea /piː/ ▷ noun (peas) 1 an annual climbing plant of the pulse family, cultivated in cool temperate regions for its edible seeds, which are produced in long DEHISCENT pods. 2 the round protein-rich seed of this plant, which can be eaten fresh, or preserved by freezing, canning or drying. See also SPLIT PEAS. ⓘ 17c: a singular form of PEASE, which was spelt peas and mistaken for a plural.

peace /piːs/ ▷ noun 1 freedom from or absence of war. 2 a treaty or agreement ending a war. 3 freedom from or absence of noise, disturbance or disorder; quietness or calm. 4 freedom from mental agitation; serenity ▫ peace of mind. 5 in compounds usually referring to an organization, person, etc: promoting or advocating peace ▫ peacemaker ▫ peace-camp ▫ peace activist ▫ peace talks. ● at peace 1 not at war; not fighting. 2 in harmony or friendship. 3 in a calm or serene state. 4 freed from earthly worries; dead. ● hold one's peace to remain silent. ● in peace in a state of enjoying peace. ● keep the peace 1 law to preserve law and order. 2 to prevent, or refrain from, fighting or quarrelling. ● make peace to end a war or quarrel, etc. ● make one's peace with someone to reconcile or be reconciled with them. ⓘ 13c: from French pais: from Latin pax peace.

peaceable ▷ adj peace-loving; mild; placid. ● peaceably adverb. ● peaceableness noun.

Peace Corps ▷ noun a US government agency that sends volunteers to developing countries to help with agricultural, technological and educational projects. Compare VSO.

peace dividend ▷ noun money left over from a government's defence budget as a result of negotiated arms-reduction policies, available for non-military use. ⓘ 1980s.

peaceful ▷ adj 1 calm and quiet. 2 unworried; serene. 3 free from war, violence, disturbance, disorder, etc. ● peacefully adverb. ● peacefulness noun.

peacekeeper ▷ noun 1 an organization or country, etc which sends a peacekeeping force to a particular area. 2 (peacekeepers) the members of a peacekeeping force.

peacekeeping force ▷ noun a military force sent into a particular area with the task of preventing fighting between opposing factions ▫ The UN sent a peacekeeping force to Bosnia in 1992.

peacemaker ▷ noun 1 someone who makes or brings about peace with the enemy. 2 someone who reconciles enemies. ● peacemaking noun, adj.

peace offering ▷ noun something offered to end a quarrel, or as an apology. ⓘ 16c: originally referring to an offering presented as a thanksgiving to God, a term of the Levitical law in the English Bible.

peace pipe ▷ noun a CALUMET.

peace sign ▷ noun a gesture or sign symbolizing victory, made with the index and middle fingers in the form of a V, with the palm turned outwards. See also V-SIGN.

peace studies ▷ plural noun, education educational courses designed to explore the role of the military in society, international strategic relationships, and those conditions that most promote peace and human welfare in society.

peace symbol ▷ noun the emblem ☮, used by the peace movement to symbolize the desire for world peace. ⓘ 1950s: devised in Britain from the N and the D of Nuclear Disarmament in 1958 for the first ban-the-bomb march at Aldermaston, Berkshire.

peacetime ▷ noun periods that are free of war. ⓘ 16c.

peach¹ /piːtʃ/ ▷ noun (peaches) 1 any of numerous varieties of a small deciduous tree, widely cultivated in warm temperate regions for its edible fruit or for ornament. 2 the large round fruit of this tree, consisting of a hard stone surrounded by sweet juicy yellow flesh and a yellowish-pink velvety skin. 3 the yellowish-pink colour of this fruit. 4 colloq something delightful ▫ a peach of a day. 5 colloq a lovely young woman. ▷ adj peach-coloured ▫ a peach blouse. ⓘ 15c: from French pesche, from Latin persicum malum Persian apple.

peach² /piːtʃ/ ▷ verb (peaches, peached, peaching) (always peach on someone) colloq to betray or inform on them, especially on an accomplice. ◷ 15c as pesche in obsolete sense 'to accuse or impeach', from obsolete apeche to hinder.

peach-blow ▷ noun 1 a a purplish-pink colour, the colour of the blossom of the peach tree; b as adj □ a peach-blow vase. 2 a glaze of this colour on porcelain.

peach brandy ▷ noun a spirit distilled from the fermented juice of the peach.

peach melba /— ˈmelbə/ ▷ noun (peach melbas) 1 a dessert consisting of peach halves, ice cream and raspberry sauce. 2 a flavour of ice cream that resembles this dessert. ◷ 20c: named after Dame Nellie Melba (1861–1931), Australian operatic soprano.

peachy ▷ adj (peachier, peachiest) 1 coloured like or tasting like a peach. 2 colloq very good; excellent.

peacock /ˈpiːkɒk/ ▷ noun (peacock or peacocks) 1 a large bird belonging to the pheasant family, the male of which has a train of green and gold eyespot feathers which it fans showily during courtship. Also called PEAFOWL. 2 the male peafowl (the female being known as the PEAHEN). 3 derog a vain person. • peacockish or peacock-like adj. ◷ 14c: from Anglo-Saxon pea (from Latin pavo peacock) + COCK¹.

peacock-blue ▷ adj having the colour of the rich greenish blue in a peacock's plumage □ a peacock-blue dress. Also (peacock blue) as noun.

peacock butterfly ▷ noun a medium-sized butterfly with reddish-brown wings which have prominent eyespots.

peafowl ▷ noun a male or female peacock, although PEACOCK is usually used as the generic term. ◷ 19c: from peacock + FOWL.

pea-green ▷ adj bright-green or yellowish-green in colour. Also (pea green) as noun.

peahen ▷ noun a female peacock. ◷ 14c.

pea jacket ▷ noun a sailor's overcoat made of coarse woollen material. ◷ 18c: probably from Dutch pij-jakker, from pij a type of coarse fabric + jakker jacket.

peak¹ ▷ noun 1 a a sharp pointed summit; b a pointed mountain or hill. 2 a a maximum, eg in consumer use □ Consumption reaches its peak at around 7pm; b as adj referring or relating to the period of highest use or demand □ electricity consumed at peak periods □ peak viewing time. 3 a time of maximum achievement, etc □ His peak was in his early twenties. 4 the front projecting part of a cap. 5 a pointed beard. 6 naut the upper outer corner of a sail extended by a gaff or yard. ▷ verb (peaked, peaking) intr 1 to reach a maximum. 2 to reach the height of one's powers or popularity. ◷ 16c: probably related to PIKE².

peak² ▷ verb (peaked, peaking) intr to droop; to look thin or sickly. ◷ 16c.

peaked ▷ adj 1 having a peak or peaks. 2 in compounds said of a mountain or hill: having a summit with the specified number of peaks □ three-peaked □ twin-peaked.

peak hour ▷ noun a period of the day when the volume of traffic is at its heaviest, or when the number of people watching TV is greatest.

peak load ▷ noun 1 the maximum demand of electricity in a particular area. 2 the maximum load on a power station.

peaky¹ ▷ adj 1 having a peak or peaks; sharp and pointed □ a peaky summit. 2 like a peak.

peaky² ▷ adj (peakier, peakiest) ill-looking; pallid. • peakiness noun. ◷ 19c: related to PEAK².

peal ▷ noun 1 the ringing of a bell or set of bells. 2 bell-ringing a series of 5 040 changes (the maximum number of permutations possible with 7 bells) rung without a break and taking about 3 hours to complete. Compare CHANGE-RINGING. 3 non-technical a set of bells, each with a different note. Compare RING² noun 6. 4 a burst of noise □ peals of laughter □ a peal of thunder. ▷ verb (pealed, pealing) 1 intr to ring or resound. 2 to sound or signal (eg a welcome) by ringing. ◷ 14c as pele: from obsolete apele APPEAL.

pean see PAEAN

peanut ▷ noun 1 a low-growing annual plant of the pulse family, native to tropical America, widely cultivated for its edible seeds which are produced under the ground in pods. 2 the protein-rich seed of this plant, which can be eaten raw or roasted, ground to make peanut butter, or used as a source of oil for cooking oil, margarine, soap, etc. Also called GROUNDNUT, MONKEY NUT. 3 (peanuts) colloq a something small, trivial or unimportant; b a small or paltry amount of money □ He works for peanuts. ◷ 19c.

peanut butter ▷ noun a savoury spread made from ground roasted peanuts.

peapod ▷ noun the seedcase of a pea.

pear /peə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 a deciduous tree belonging to the rose family, widely cultivated in temperate regions for its edible fruit and ornamental flowers. 2 the edible cone-shaped fruit of this tree, consisting of a core of small seeds surrounded by sweet juicy white pulp and a yellowish-green skin. ◷ Anglo-Saxon peru: from Latin pirum pear.

pear drop ▷ noun 1 a small boiled sweet shaped and flavoured like a pear. 2 a pear-shaped pendant.

pearl¹ /pɜːl/ ▷ noun 1 a bead of smooth hard lustrous material found inside the shell of certain molluscs, eg oysters, and used in jewellery as a gem. 2 an artificial imitation of this. 3 (pearls) a necklace of pearls □ I was wearing my pearls. 4 mother-of-pearl. 5 something resembling a pearl. 6 something valued or precious □ pearls of wisdom. ▷ adj 1 like a pearl in colour or shape. 2 made of or set with pearls or mother-of-pearl. See also CULTURED (sense 3). ▷ verb (pearled, pearling) 1 to set something with, or as if with, pearls. 2 to grind down (barley) into small pearl-like grains. 3 intr to form pearl-like beads or drops. 4 intr to fish for pearls. • pearled adj. • pearler noun 1 a pearl-fisher. 2 a pearl-fisher's boat. ◷ 14c: from a diminutive of Latin perna sea mussel.

pearl² see PURL¹ noun 3

pearl barley ▷ noun seeds of barley ground into round polished grains, used in soups and stews.

pearl button ▷ noun a mother-of-pearl button.

pearl-grey or (chiefly US) pearl-gray ▷ adj pale bluish-grey in colour. Also (pearl grey) as noun.

pearlies /ˈpɜːlɪz/ ▷ plural noun 1 pearl buttons. 2 the traditional pearl-button-covered costume of costermongers.

pearlite see PERLITE pearlized or pearlised /ˈpɜːlaɪzd/ ▷ adj treated so as to give a pearly or lustrous surface.

pearl millet ▷ noun a grain grown widely in India.

pearl mussel ▷ noun a freshwater mussel that yields pearls.

pearl oyster ▷ noun any oyster that produces pearls.

pearl-shell ▷ noun 1 mother-of-pearl. 2 a pearl-bearing shell.

pearl spar ▷ noun, geol a crystalline carbonate mineral that has a pearly lustre.

pearly ▷ adj (pearlier, pearliest) 1 like a pearl or pearl; NACREOUS. 2 covered in pearl. • pearliness noun.

pearly gates ▷ plural noun, colloq the gates of Heaven. ◷ 19c: referring to the biblical description in Revelation 21.21.

pearly king and pearly queen ▷ noun the London costermonger couple whose pearl-button-covered costumes are judged the most splendid.

pearly nautilus see under NAUTILUS pearmain /ˈpɛəmeɪn/ ▷ noun a variety of apple. ⓘ 15c: originally referring to a type of pear: from French parmain.

pear-shaped ▷ adj 1 tapering towards one end and bulged at the other; in the shape of a pear. 2 said of a vocal quality: mellow, resonant and non-nasal.

peasant /ˈpɛzənt/ ▷ noun 1 in poor agricultural societies: a farm worker or small farmer. 2 derog a rough unmannerly or culturally ignorant person. • peasantry noun 1 the peasant class. 2 the condition of being a peasant. • peasanty adj in the style of a peasant. ⓘ 15c: from French paisant, from Latin pagus country district.

pease /piːz/ ▷ noun (pease or old peason /ˈpiːzən/) archaic a pea or pea-plant. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon pise pea and pisan peas: from Latin pisa.

pease pudding ▷ noun a purée made from split peas soaked and then boiled.

pea-shooter ▷ noun a short tube through which to fire dried peas by blowing, used as a toy weapon.

pea soup ▷ noun thick soup made from dried peas.

pea-souper ▷ noun, colloq a very thick yellowish fog.

peat ▷ noun 1 a mass of dark-brown or black fibrous plant material, produced by the compression of partially decomposed vegetation, used in compost and manure, and in dried form as a fuel. 2 a cut block of this material. 3 in compounds a an area, bog, moor etc, covered with peat; b an area from which peat is dug □ peat bog □ peat land. • peaty adj (peatier, peatiest) 1 like or consisting of peat. 2 having a smoky taste or smell reminiscent of peat. ⓘ 13c in SE Scotland: from Anglo-Latin peta a peat, possibly from Celtic.

peat moss see SPHAGNUM

peau de soie /pou də swɑː/ ▷ noun a type of smooth silk or rayon fabric. ⓘ 19c: French, literally 'skin of silk'.

peavey or peavy /ˈpiːvɪ/ ▷ noun (peaveys or peavies) N Amer a lumberjack's spiked and hooked lever. ⓘ 19c: named after Joseph Peavey, its inventor.

pebble /ˈpɛbəl/ ▷ noun (pebbles) 1 a small fragment of rock, especially one worn round and smooth by the action of water. 2 a transparent and colourless rock crystal; b a lens made from this. 3 a grained appearance on leather, as if pressed by pebbles. Also as adj □ a pebble beach. ▷ verb (pebbled, pebbling) 1 to cover with pebbles. 2 in leather manufacturing: to produce a rough and indented surface on (leather). • pebbled adj covered with pebbles. • pebbly adj (pebblier, pebbliest) full of or covered with pebbles. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon papol.

pebbledash ▷ noun, Brit cement or plaster with small stones embedded in it, used as a coating for exterior walls. See also HARL², ROUGHCAST.

PEC or pec ▷ abbreviation photoelectric cell.

pec ▷ noun (usually pecs) colloq a PECTORAL MUSCLE. ⓘ 1960s.

pecan /pɪˈkan, ˈpiːkən/ ▷ noun 1 a deciduous N American tree, widely cultivated for its edible nut. Also called pecan tree. 2 the oblong reddish-brown edible nut, with a sweet oily kernel, produced by this tree. Also called pecan nut. ⓘ 18c: from the Native American name in various languages of the Algonquian language family, eg pakan, pagann.

peccable /ˈpɛkəbəl/ ▷ adj, formal or literary liable to sin. • peccability noun. Compare IMPECCABLE. ⓘ 17c: from Latin peccare to sin.

peccadillo /pɛkəˈdɪloʊ/ ▷ noun (peccadillos or peccadilloes) a minor misdeed. ⓘ 16c: from Spanish pecadillo, diminutive of pecado sin.

peccary /ˈpɛkərɪ/ ▷ noun (peccaries) a hoofed mammal, native to Central and S America, similar to but smaller than the Old World wild pig. ⓘ 17c: from Carib (a Native S American language) pakira.

peck¹ ▷ verb (pecked, pecking) 1 (also peck at something) said of a bird: to strike, nip or pick at it with the beak □ pecked his finger □ pecked at the bark of the tree. 2 to poke (a hole) with the beak. 3 to kiss someone or something in a quick or perfunctory way □ pecked her on the cheek. ▷ noun 1 a tap or nip with the beak. 2 a perfunctory kiss. ⓘ 14c: probably related to PICK¹.

■ peck at something 1 to eat (food) in a cursory, inattentive or dainty way, without enjoyment or application. 2 to nit-pick or quibble at it.

peck² ▷ noun 1 in the imperial system: a measure of capacity of dry goods, especially grain, equal to two gallons (9.1 litres) or a quarter of a BUSHEL. 2 a measuring container holding this quantity. 3 old use a large amount □ a peck of troubles. ⓘ 13c: from French pek.

pecker ▷ noun 1 something that pecks; a beak. 2 a woodpecker. 3 colloq spirits; resolve □ keep one's pecker up. 4 N Amer coarse slang the penis.

pecking order ▷ noun 1 a scale of ascendancy noticeably operating in a flock of poultry, such that any bird may peck one of lesser importance but must submit to being pecked by those of greater importance. 2 any social hierarchy in animals or humans, or system of ranks and associated privileges.

peckish /ˈpɛkɪʃ/ ▷ adj 1 colloq quite hungry □ feeling a bit peckish. 2 US colloq irritable. • peckishness noun. ⓘ 18c: from PECK¹.

pecten /ˈpɛktɪn/ ▷ noun (pectines /ˈpɛktɪniːz/ or pectens) anatomy, zool 1 a comb-like structure, eg in a bird's or reptile's eye. 2 any comb-like organ. ⓘ 18c; 14c in obsolete senses 'metacarpus' and 'pubes': Latin, meaning 'a comb'.

pectic acid ▷ noun, biochem an acid that is obtained from the pectin found within ripening fruits.

pectin /ˈpɛktɪn/ ▷ noun, biochem a complex carbohydrate that functions as a cement-like material within and between plant cell-walls. It forms a gel at low temperatures and is widely used in jam-making. ⓘ 19c: from Greek pektos congealed.

pectinate /ˈpɛktɪneɪt/ or pectinated biol ▷ adj toothed like a comb; having narrow parallel segments or lobes. • pectination noun. ⓘ 18c: from Latin pectinatus combed, from pecten comb.

pectoral /ˈpɛktərəl/ ▷ adj 1 referring or relating to the breast or chest. 2 worn on the breast. ▷ noun 1 a pectoral muscle. 2 a pectoral fin. 3 a neck ornament worn covering the chest. 4 armour for the breast of a person or a horse. ⓘ 15c: from Latin pectoralis, from pectus chest.

pectoral cross ▷ noun a gold cross worn on the breast by bishops, etc.

pectoral fin ▷ noun in fishes: one of a pair of fins situated just behind the gills, used to control the angle of ascent or descent in the water, and for slowing down.

pectoral muscle ▷ noun, anatomy either of two muscles situated on either side of the top half of the chest, responsible for certain arm and shoulder movements. See also PEC.

pectose /ˈpɛktoʊs/ ▷ noun, chem a substance that yields PECTIN, contained in the fleshy pulp of unripe fruit.

peculate /ˈpɛkjʊleɪt/ formal ▷ verb (peculated, peculating) tr & intr to appropriate something dishonestly for one's own use; to pilfer; to embezzle. • peculation noun. • peculator noun. ⓘ 18c: from Latin peculari, peculatus, from peculium private property; compare PECULIAR.

peculiar /pəˈkjuːlɪə(r)/ ▷ adj 1 strange; odd. 2 (peculiar to someone or something) exclusively or typically belonging to or associated with them □ habits peculiar to cats. 3 special; individual □ their own peculiar methods. 4 especial; particular □ of peculiar interest. ● peculiarly adverb. ⓘ 16c: from Latin peculium private property, originally cattle or money, from pecus cattle.

peculiarity /pɪkjuːlɪ'arɪtɪ/ ▷ noun (peculiarities) 1 the quality of being strange or odd. 2 a distinctive feature, characteristic or trait. 3 an eccentricity or idiosyncrasy.

peculiarize or peculiarise ▷ verb (peculiarized, peculiarizing) to set something apart; to distinguish something (from another thing).

pecuniary /pɪ'kjuːnɪərɪ/ ▷ adj relating to, concerning or consisting of money. ⓘ 16c: from Latin pecunia money, from pecus flock or cattle.

ped- see PAEDO-

-ped /pɛd/ or -pede /piːd/ ▷ combining form, forming nouns, denoting foot □ quadruped □ millipede. ⓘ From Latin pes, pedis foot.

pedagogic /pɛdə'gɒdʒɪk, -'gɒgɪk/ or pedagogical ▷ adj relating to or characteristic of a pedagogue. ● pedagogically adverb.

pedagogue /'pɛdəgɒg/ ▷ noun (pedagogues) old derog use a teacher, especially a strict or pedantic one. ⓘ 14c: from Greek paidagogos a child's tutor.

pedagogy /'pɛdəgɒdʒɪ, -gɒgɪ/ ▷ noun the science, principles or work of teaching. ⓘ 17c: from French pédagogie, from Greek paidagogia tutorship, from pais child + agein to lead.

pedal /'pɛdəl/ ▷ noun 1 a lever operated by the foot, eg on a machine, vehicle or musical instrument. 2 as adj □ pedal bike. ▷ verb (pedalled, pedalling; or (especially N Amer) pedaled, pedaling) tr & intr to move or operate by means of a pedal or pedals. ▷ adj /'piːdəl/ zool referring or relating to the foot or feet. ⓘ 17c: from Latin pedalis of the foot, from pes foot.

-pedal /piːdəl, pɛdəl/ ▷ combining form, forming adjectives, indicating foot □ bipedal. ⓘ From Latin pes, pedis foot.

pedalo /'pɛdəloʊ/ ▷ noun (pedalos) a small pedal-operated boat, used especially on lakes for pleasure. ⓘ 1950s.

pedal point ▷ noun, music a tone or tones sustained normally in the bass, while other parts move independently. Also called organ point.

pedalpushers ▷ plural noun women's knee-length breeches.

pedal steel guitar ▷ noun an electric steel guitar with foot pedals for adjusting pitch, creating glissando effects, etc.

pedant /'pɛdənt/ ▷ noun, derog someone who is over-concerned with correctness of detail, especially in academic matters. ⓘ 16c: originally meaning 'teacher' without derogatory connotation: from Italian pedante teacher.

pedantic /pə'dantɪk/ ▷ adj over-concerned with correctness. ● pedantically adverb.

pedantry /'pɛdəntrɪ/ ▷ noun 1 excessive concern with correctness. 2 a pedantic expression. 3 unnecessary formality.

pedate /'pɛdeɪt/ biol ▷ adj 1 footed or foot-like. 2 bot said of a leaf: with lobes radiating from one centre, the outer lobes deeply-cut, or branching into three leaflets with the outer branches forked. ● pedately adverb. ⓘ 18c: from Latin pedatus footed, from pes foot.

peddle /'pɛdəl/ ▷ verb (peddled, peddling) 1 tr & intr to go from place to place selling (a selection of small goods); to be a pedlar. 2 colloq to deal illegally in (narcotic drugs). 3 colloq to publicize and try to win acceptance for (ideas, theories, etc). ⓘ 16c: a back-formation from PEDLAR.

peddler ▷ noun 1 the usual N Amer spelling of PEDLAR. 2 someone who deals illegally in narcotics □ a dope peddler.

-pede see -PED

pederasty or paederasty /'pɛdərastɪ/ ▷ noun sexual relations between adults and children. ● pederast or paederast noun an adult who practises pederasty. ⓘ 16c: from Greek pais, paidos child + erastes lover.

pedestal /'pɛdəstəl/ ▷ noun the base on which a vase, statue, column, etc is placed or mounted. ● put or place someone on a pedestal to admire or revere them extremely; to idolize them. ⓘ 16c: from Italian piedestallo foot of stall.

pedestal desk ▷ noun a desk for which sets of drawers act as the side supports for the writing surface.

pedestrian /pə'dɛstrɪən/ ▷ noun someone travelling on foot, especially in a street; someone who is walking. ▷ adj 1 referring to, or for, pedestrians □ a pedestrian walkway. 2 dull; unimaginative; uninspired □ a pedestrian rendering by the orchestra. ⓘ 18c: from Latin pedester on foot.

pedestrian crossing ▷ noun a specially marked crossing-place for pedestrians, where they have priority over traffic. Compare ZEBRA CROSSING, PELICAN CROSSING. ⓘ 1930s.

pedestrianize or pedestrianise ▷ verb (pedestrianized, pedestrianizing) to convert (a shopping street, etc) into an area for pedestrians only by excluding through-traffic and usually paving over the street. ● pedestrianization noun. ⓘ 1960s in this sense; early 19c in the sense 'to walk'.

pedestrian precinct ▷ noun a shopping street or similar area from which traffic is excluded.

pediatrician, pediatric and pediatrics alternative N Amer spellings of PAEDIATRICIAN, PAEDIATRIC, PAEDIATRICS pedicab /'pɛdɪkab/ ▷ noun a light vehicle consisting of a tricycle with a second seat attached, usually behind, covered by a half-hood for one or two passengers. ⓘ 1940s: from Latin pes, pedis foot + CAB.

pedicel /'pɛdɪsɛl/ ▷ noun, biol 1 the stalk of a single flower. Compare PEDUNCLE. 2 the stalk of a sedentary animal (see SEDENTARY 4b). 3 the stalk of an animal organ, eg a crab's eye. ⓘ 17c: from Latin pediculus, diminutive of pediculus a little foot.

pedicle /'pɛdɪkəl/ ▷ noun 1 bot a short stalk; a pedicel. 2 zool in deer: a bony protrusion from the skull from which an antler grows. ⓘ 17c: from Latin pediculus a little foot, diminutive of pes, pedis foot.

pedicure /'pɛdɪkjʊə(r)/ ▷ noun a medical or cosmetic treatment of the feet and toenails. Compare MANICURE. ⓘ 19c: from Latin pes, pedis foot + curare to look after.

pedigree /'pɛdɪgriː/ ▷ noun (pedigrees) 1 a person's or animal's line of descent, especially if long and distinguished, or proof of pure breeding. 2 a genealogical table showing this; a family tree. ▷ adj said of an animal: pure-bred; descended from a long line of known ancestors of the same breed. ● pedigreed adj having a pedigree. ⓘ 15c: from French pié de grue foot of the crane, from its similarity to a branching family tree.

pediment /'pɛdɪmənt/ ▷ noun 1 archit a wide triangular gable set over a classical portico or the face of a building. 2 geol a gently sloping surface, usually consisting of bare rock covered by a thin layer of sediment, formed by the erosion of cliffs or steep slopes. ● pedimented adj 1 furnished with a pediment. 2 like a pediment. ⓘ 16c as periment, perhaps a corruption of PYRAMID.

pedlar /'pɛdlə(r)/ or (chiefly N Amer) peddler ▷ noun someone who peddles. ⓘ 14c.

pedo- see PAEDO-pedology[1] /pɛ'dɒlədʒɪ/ ▷ noun, geol the scientific study of the origin, properties and uses of soil. ● pedologist noun a scientist who specializes in pedology. ⓘ 1920s: from Greek pedon ground.

pedology[2] the N Amer spelling of PAEDOLOGY pedometer /pɪ'dɒmɪtə(r)/ ▷ noun a device that measures distance walked by recording the number of steps taken. ◎ 18c: from Latin pedi- foot + Greek metron measure.

peduncle /pɪ'dʌŋkəl/ ▷ noun 1 bot a short stalk, eg one carrying an inflorescence or a single flower-head. Compare PEDICEL. 2 anatomy, pathol any stalk-like structure. ● peduncular, pedunculate or pedunculated adj. ◎ 18c: from Latin pedunculus small foot, from pes, pedis foot.

pee[1] colloq ▷ verb (peed, peeing) intr to urinate. ▷ noun 1 an act of urinating. 2 urine. ◎ 18c: a euphemism for PISS, based on the first letter.

pee[2] ▷ singular or plural noun a spelled-out form of the abbreviation P, penny or pence.

peek /piːk/ ▷ verb (peeked, peeking) intr (also peek at something) to glance briefly and surreptitiously at it; to peep. ▷ noun a brief furtive glance. ◎ 14c as piken.

peekaboo /'piːkəbuː/ ▷ noun a child's game in which one person covers their face with their hands and suddenly uncovers it saying 'peekaboo', usually making a young child laugh. ◎ 16c: from PEEK + BOO[2].

peel[1] ▷ verb (peeled, peeling) 1 to strip the skin or rind off (a fruit or vegetable). 2 intr to be able to be peeled ▫ Grapes don't peel easily. 3 (also peel something away or off) to strip off (an outer layer). 4 intr said of a wall or other surface: to shed its outer coating in flaky strips. 5 intr said of skin, paint or other coverings: to flake off in patches. 6 intr said of a person or part of the body: to shed skin in flaky layers after sunburn. ▷ noun the skin or rind of vegetables or fruit, especially citrus fruit ▫ candied peel. ● peeler noun a small knife or device for peeling fruit and vegetables. ● keep one's eyes peeled or skinned see under EYE. ◎ Anglo-Saxon: from Latin pilare to deprive of hair.

■ peel off 1 said of an aircraft or vehicle: to veer away from the main group. 2 colloq to undress.

peel[2] ▷ noun 1 a shovel, especially a baker's wooden shovel. 2 an instrument for hanging paper up to dry. ◎ 14c: from French pele, from Latin pala a spade.

peelings ▷ plural noun strips of peel removed from a fruit or vegetable.

peen or pein /piːn/ ▷ noun the end of a hammer-head opposite the hammering face. ▷ verb (peened, peening) to strike or work (metal) with a peen. ◎ 17c.

peep[1] ▷ verb (peeped, peeping) intr 1 (often peep at something or someone or peep out) to look quickly or covertly, eg through a narrow opening or from a place of concealment; to peek. 2 (also peep out) to emerge briefly or partially. ▷ noun 1 a quick covert look. 2 a first faint glimmering ▫ at peep of day. ◎ 15c: a variant of PEEK.

peep[2] ▷ noun 1 the faint high-pitched cry of a baby bird, etc; a cheep. 2 the smallest utterance ▫ not another peep out of you! ▷ verb (peeped, peeping) intr 1 said of a young bird, etc: to utter a high-pitched cry; to cheep. 2 colloq to sound or make something sound ▫ peep the horn. ◎ 15c: imitating the sound.

peepers ▷ plural noun, old colloq use the eyes. ◎ 18c: from PEEP[1].

peephole ▷ noun 1 a hole, crack, etc through which to peep. 2 a tiny aperture in a front door, fitted with a convex lens, through which one can check to see who is there before opening the door.

peeping Tom ▷ noun a man who furtively spies on other people, especially women undressing; a voyeur. ◎ 19c: named after the tailor who, according to legend, peeped at Lady Godiva as she rode naked through the streets of Coventry in protest at her husband's high taxes.

peepshow ▷ noun a box with a peephole through which a series of moving pictures, especially erotic or pornographic ones, can be watched.

peepul see PIPAL peer[1] /pɪə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 a member of the nobility, such as, in Britain, a DUKE, MARQUESS, EARL, VISCOUNT or BARON. Compare ARISTOCRAT, NOBLE. 2 a member of THE House of Lords, known as either a LIFE PEER or LIFE PEERESS, a spiritual peer, ie a bishop or archbishop, or a temporal peer, ie all other members of the House of Lords. See also PEER OF THE REALM. 3 a someone who is one's equal in age, rank, etc; a contemporary, companion or fellow; b as adj ▫ peer group. ◎ 14c: from French per, from Latin par equal.

peer[2] /pɪə(r)/ ▷ verb (peered, peering) intr 1 (also peer at something or someone) to look hard at it or them, especially through narrowed eyes, as if having difficulty in seeing. 2 (sometimes peer out) literary to peep out or emerge briefly or partially. ◎ 16c.

peerage /'pɪərɪdʒ/ ▷ noun 1 the title or rank of a peer ▫ granted a peerage ▫ raised to the peerage. 2 singular or plural the members of the nobility as a group. 3 a book containing a list of peers with details of their families and descent.

peeress /pɪə'rɛs/ ▷ noun (peeresses) 1 the wife or widow of a peer. 2 a woman who holds the rank of peer in her own right.

peer group ▷ noun one's peers (PEER[1] noun 3) or companions as a group, especially as an influence on one's attitudes and aspirations.

peerless ▷ adj without equal; excelling all; matchless. ● peerlessly adverb. ◎ 14c: PEER1 + -LESS.

peer of the realm ▷ noun a member of the nobility with the right to sit in the House of Lords.

peer pressure ▷ noun compulsion to do or obtain the same things as others in one's PEER GROUP.

peeve ▷ verb (peeved, peeving) colloq to irritate, annoy or offend. ▷ noun, colloq a cause of vexation or irritation. ● peeved adj. ◎ Early 20c: a back-formation from PEEVISH.

peevish /'piːvɪʃ/ ▷ adj irritable; cantankerous; inclined to whine or complain. ● peevishly adverb. ● peevishness noun. ◎ 14c.

peewit /'piːwɪt/ and pewit /'piːwɪt, 'pjuːɪt/ ▷ noun a LAPWING. ◎ 16c: imitating its cry.

peg ▷ noun 1 a little shaft of wood, metal or plastic shaped for any of various fixing, fastening or marking uses. 2 a coat hook fixed to a wall, etc. 3 a wooden or plastic clip for fastening washing to a line to dry; a clothes peg. 4 a small stake for securing tent ropes, marking a position, boundary, etc. 5 any of several wooden pins on a stringed instrument, which are turned to tune it. 6 a point of reference on which to base an argument, etc. 7 a pin for scoring, used eg in cribbage. 8 colloq a leg. 9 colloq a PEG LEG (sense 1). 10 old colloq a drink of spirits. ▷ verb (pegged, pegging) 1 to insert a peg into something. 2 to fasten something with a peg or pegs. 3 to set or freeze (prices, incomes, etc) at a certain level. ● off the peg said of clothes: ready to wear; ready-made. ● a square peg in a round hole a person who does not fit in well in their environment, job, etc. ● take someone down a peg or two colloq to humiliate them; to humble them. ◎ 15c: from Dutch pegge.

■ peg away at something colloq to work steadily at it.

■ peg back or peg something back in sport, especially racing: to gain an advantage over an opponent.

■ peg someone down to restrict them to an admission, following a certain course of action.

■ peg out 1 colloq to die. 2 to become exhausted. 3 croquet to finish by driving the ball against the peg. 4 cribbage to win by pegging the last hole before show of hands.

■ peg something out to mark out (ground) with pegs.

peg board ▷ noun a board with holes for receiving pegs that are used for scoring in games, or for attaching items for display.

peg leg ▷ noun, colloq 1 an artificial leg. 2 a person with an artificial leg.

pegmatite /ˈpɛgmətaɪt/ ▷ noun, geol any of various coarse-grained igneous rocks, many of which are sources of economically important minerals such as MICA, TOURMALINE and GARNET. ● pegmatitic /-məˈtɪtɪk/ adj. ⓘ 18c: from Greek pegma bond or framework.

PEI ▷ abbreviation Prince Edward Island.

peignoir /ˈpeɪnwɑː(r), ˈpɛnwɑː(r)/ ▷ noun a woman's light dressing-gown. ⓘ 19c: French, from peigner to comb.

pein see PEEN

pejorative /pəˈdʒɒrətɪv/ ▷ adj said of a word or expression: disapproving, derogatory, disparaging or uncomplimentary. ▷ noun a word or affix with derogatory force. ● pejoratively adverb. ⓘ 19c: from Latin pejorare to make worse.

pekan /ˈpɛkən/ ▷ noun a large N American marten with dark brown fur. ⓘ 18c: Canadian French, from Abnaki (an Algonquian language) pékané.

peke /piːk/ ▷ noun a Pekinese dog.

Pekinese or Pekingese /piːkɪˈniːz/ ▷ noun (Pekinese) 1 a small breed of pet dog with a long straight silky coat, short legs, a flat face, and a plumed tail curved over its back. Often shortened to PEKE. 2 someone who lives in or was born in Peking (Beijing), capital of the People's Republic of China. ▷ adj belonging or relating to Peking. ⓘ 19c: from Peking (Beijing).

pekoe /ˈpiːkoʊ, ˈpɛkoʊ/ ▷ noun (pekoes) a high-quality scented black China tea. ⓘ 18c: from Amoy Chinese pek-ho white down, because the leaves are picked young with the down still on them.

pelage /ˈpɛlɪdʒ/ ▷ noun an animal's coat of hair or wool. ⓘ 19c: French.

pelagic /pɪˈladʒɪk/ ▷ adj 1 technical relating to, or carried out on, the deep open sea. 2 denoting floating plankton and fish, and other organisms that swim freely in the surface waters. Compare BENTHOS, NEKTON. ⓘ 17c: from Greek pelagos sea.

pelargonium /pɛləˈgoʊnɪəm/ ▷ noun an annual or perennial plant with hairy stems, rounded or lobed aromatic leaves, and conspicuous scarlet, pink or white fragrant flowers borne in clusters, often cultivated under the name GERANIUM. ⓘ 19c: from Greek pelargos stork, modelled on GERANIUM.

pelf ▷ noun, derog riches; money; lucre. ⓘ 15c; 14c in obsolete sense 'stolen property': from French pelfre booty; compare PILFER.

pelham /ˈpɛləm/ ▷ noun a type of bit on a horse's bridle, a combination of the CURB (sense 2) and SNAFFLE designs. ⓘ 19c: from the surname Pelham.

pelican /ˈpɛlɪkən/ ▷ noun (pelican or pelicans) a large aquatic bird that has an enormous beak with a pouch below it, and mainly white plumage. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon: from Latin pelecanus, from Greek pelekan.

pelican crossing ▷ noun a PEDESTRIAN CROSSING with a set of pedestrian-controlled traffic lights including an amber flashing light which indicates that the motorist may proceed only if the crossing is clear. ⓘ 1960s: adapted from pedestrian light-controlled crossing.

pelisse /pɛˈliːs/ ▷ noun, historical 1 a long mantle of silk, velvet, etc, worn especially by women. 2 a fur or fur-lined garment, especially a military cloak. ⓘ 18c: French, from Latin pellicea vestis a garment of fur, from Latin pellis a skin.

pelite /ˈpiːlaɪt/ ▷ noun, geol any rock derived from clay or mud, such as shale. ● pelitic /pɪˈlɪtɪk/ adj. ⓘ 19c: from Greek pelos clay or mud.

pellagra /pəˈlagrə, pəˈleɪgrə/ ▷ noun, medicine a deficiency disease caused by lack of nicotinic acid or the amino acid tryptophan, characterized by scaly discoloration of the skin, diarrhoea, vomiting, and psychological disturbances. ● pellagrin noun someone afflicted with pellagra. ● pellagrous adj related to, like or afflicted with pellagra. ⓘ 19c: Italian, from Latin pellis skin + Greek agra seizure.

pellet /ˈpɛlɪt/ ▷ noun 1 a small rounded mass of compressed material, eg paper. 2 a piece of small shot for an airgun, etc. 3 a ball of undigested material regurgitated by an owl or hawk. ▷ verb (pelleted, pelleting) 1 to form (especially seeds) into pellets by coating it with a substance, eg to aid planting. 2 to bombard someone or something with pellets. ⓘ 14c: from French pelote, from Latin pila ball.

pellicle /ˈpɛlɪkəl/ ▷ noun 1 a thin skin or film. 2 biol a protein covering which preserves the shape of single-cell organisms. 3 physics a photographic emulsion used to monitor tracks of ionizing particles. ● pellicular /pɛˈlɪkjʊlə(r)/ adj. ⓘ 16c: from Latin pellicula, diminutive of pellis skin.

pellitory[1] /ˈpɛlɪtərɪ/ ▷ noun (pellitories) 1 a plant of the nettle family, growing especially on walls. Also called pellitory of the wall. 2 various similar plants. ⓘ 16c: also as paritorie, etc: from Latin parietaria, from paries, parietis a wall.

pellitory[2] /ˈpɛlɪtərɪ/ ▷ noun (pellitories) 1 a N African and S European plant related to camomile. Also called pellitory of Spain. 2 various similar plants, such as yarrow. ⓘ 16c: from Latin pyrethrum, from Greek pyrethron pellitory of Spain.

pell-mell /pɛlˈmɛl/ ▷ adverb headlong; in confused haste; helter-skelter. ▷ adj confusedly mingled; headlong. ▷ noun disorder; a confused mixture. ⓘ 16c: from French pesle-mesle, rhyming compound from mesler to mix.

pellucid /pɛˈluːsɪd/ ▷ adj 1 transparent. 2 absolutely clear in expression and meaning. ● pellucidity /pɛluːˈsɪdɪtɪ/ or pellucidness noun. ● pellucidly adverb. ⓘ 17c: from Latin per utterly + lucidus clear.

Pelmanism /ˈpɛlmənɪzəm/ ▷ noun 1 a system of mind-training to improve the memory. 2 (usually pelmanism) a card game in which the cards are spread out face down and must be turned up in matching pairs. Also called PAIRS. ⓘ Early 20c: named after The Pelman Institute, London, founded in 1899, which devised the system.

pelmet /ˈpɛlmɪt/ ▷ noun a strip of fabric or a narrow board fitted along the top of a window to conceal the curtain rail. ⓘ Early 20c.

pelorus /pɛˈlɔːrəs/ ▷ noun (peloruses) a kind of compass from which bearings can be taken. ⓘ 19c: named after Pelorus, Hannibal's pilot.

pelota /pɛˈloʊtə/ ▷ noun (pelotas) 1 a court game of Basque origin, played in Spain, SW France and Latin America, in which players use their hand or a basket-like device strapped to their wrists to catch and throw a ball against a specially marked wall. Also called JAI ALAI. 2 the ball used in this game. ⓘ 19c: Spanish, meaning 'ball'.

pelotherapy /piːloʊˈθɛrəpɪ/ ▷ noun therapeutic treatment using mud. ⓘ 1930s: from Greek pelos mud.

peloton /pɛləˈtɒn/ ▷ noun, sport the leading group of cyclists in a race, eg in the Tour de France. ⓘ 1990s: French, meaning 'the main body of runners or riders' or 'platoon'.

pelt[1] ▷ verb (pelted, pelting) 1 to bombard with missiles □ was pelted with stones. 2 intr to rush along at top speed □ pelting along the motorway. ▷ noun an act or spell of pelting. ● at full pelt as fast as possible. ⓘ 15c.

■ pelt down intr said of rain, hail, etc: to fall fast and heavily □ The rain's pelting down.

pelt[2] ▷ noun 1 the skin of a dead animal, especially with the fur still on it. Compare PELTRY. 2 the coat of a living animal. 3 a hide stripped of hair for tanning. ⓘ 15c: possibly back-formation from PELTRY.

peltry /ˈpeltrɪ/ ▷ noun (peltries) the skins of animals with the fur on them; furs collectively. ⓘ 15c: probably from French pelleterie animal skins, from Latin pellis skin.

pelvic /ˈpelvɪk/ ▷ adj relating to or in the region of the pelvis.

pelvic fin ▷ noun, zool either of a pair of fins attached to the pelvic girdle of fishes, enabling control of steering.

pelvic girdle and pelvic arch ▷ noun, zool, anatomy the posterior limb-girdle of vertebrates, consisting of two hip bones, the SACRUM and the COCCYX, which articulates with the spine and the bones of the legs or hindlimbs.

pelvic inflammatory disease ▷ noun (abbreviation PID) medicine in women: any pelvic infection of the upper reproductive tract, usually affecting the uterus, Fallopian tubes and ovaries, often caused by the spread of infection from an infected organ nearby.

pelvis /ˈpelvɪs/ ▷ noun (pelvises or pelves /-viːz/) anatomy 1 the basin-shaped cavity formed by the bones of the pelvic girdle. 2 the PELVIC GIRDLE. 3 in the mammalian kidney: the expanded upper end of the URETER, into which the urine drains. ⓘ 17c: Latin, meaning 'basin'.

pemmican or pemican /ˈpemɪkən/ ▷ noun 1 a Native American food of dried meat beaten to a paste and mixed with fat. 2 a similarly condensed and nutritious mixture of dried ingredients used as emergency rations. ⓘ 19c: from Cree (a Native American language) pimekan.

PEN /pen/ ▷ abbreviation International Association of Poets, Playwrights, Editors, Essayists, and Novelists.

pen[1] ▷ noun 1 a writing instrument that uses ink, formerly a quill, now any of various implements fitted with a nib (FOUNTAIN PEN), rotating ball (BALLPOINT), or felt or nylon point (FELT PEN). 2 this instrument as a symbol of the writing profession. ▷ verb (penned, penning) formal to compose and write (a letter, poem, etc) with a pen. ● penned adj written; quilled. ⓘ 14c: from Latin penna feather.

pen[2] ▷ noun 1 a small enclosure, especially for animals. 2 often in compounds any small enclosure or area of confinement for the specified purpose □ a playpen. 3 a bomb-proof dock for submarines. 4 Caribb a cattle farm. 5 Caribb an estate or plantation. ▷ verb (penned or pent, penning) (often pen someone or something in or up) to enclose or confine them in a pen, or as if in a pen. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon penn.

pen[3] ▷ noun, N Amer colloq a PENITENTIARY.

pen[4] ▷ noun a female swan. See also COB[1] (sense 2), CYGNET. ⓘ 16c.

Pen. ▷ abbreviation Peninsula.

penal /ˈpiːnəl/ ▷ adj relating to punishment, especially by law. ● penally adverb. ⓘ 15c: from Latin poenalis, from poena penalty.

penal code ▷ noun a system of laws concerning the punishment of crime.

penalize or penalise /ˈpiːnəlaɪz/ ▷ verb (penalized, penalizing) 1 to impose a penalty on someone, for wrongdoing, cheating, breaking a rule, committing a foul in sport, etc. 2 to disadvantage someone □ income groups that are penalized by the new tax laws. ● penalization noun. ⓘ 19c.

penal servitude ▷ noun, historical imprisonment with HARD LABOUR, substituted in 1853 by TRANSPORTATION (noun 3), and abolished in 1948.

penalty /ˈpenəltɪ/ ▷ noun (penalties) 1 a punishment, such as imprisonment, a fine, etc, imposed for wrongdoing, breaking a contract or rule, etc. 2 a punishment that one brings on oneself through ill-advised action □ paid the penalty for my error. 3 sport a handicap imposed on a competitor or team for a foul or other infringement of the rules, in team games taking the form of an advantage awarded to the opposing side, such as a PENALTY KICK, penalty shot, etc, or time on the PENALTY BENCH, etc. 4 (penalties) football a series of penalty kicks by each side following EXTRA TIME to decide the outcome of a drawn game or winner of a cup, etc □ The 1994 World Cup was decided on penalties. Compare REPLAY. ● under or on penalty of something with liability to the penalty of a particular punishment in case of violation of the law, etc □ swear on penalty of death. ⓘ 16c: from Latin poenalitas, from poena punishment.

penalty area ▷ noun, football an area in front of either goal within which a foul by any player in the defending team is punished by a penalty awarded to the attacking team.

penalty bench ▷ noun, ice-hockey an area or box beside the rink in which a player must stay for their allotted penalty period.

penalty box ▷ noun 1 football a PENALTY AREA. 2 ice-hockey a PENALTY BENCH.

penalty corner ▷ noun, hockey a free stroke taken on the goal line.

penalty goal ▷ noun a goal scored by a penalty kick or shot.

penalty kick ▷ noun 1 rugby a free kick. 2 football a free kick at goal from a distance of 12yd (11m), awarded to the attacking team for a foul committed in the PENALTY AREA by the defending team.

penalty spot ▷ noun, football, hockey a spot in front of the goal from which a penalty kick or shot is taken.

penance /ˈpenəns/ ▷ noun 1 repentance or atonement for an offence or wrongdoing, or an act of repentance □ do penance. 2 RC Church a sacrament involving confession, repentance, forgiveness, and the performance of a penance suggested by one's confessor. ⓘ 13c: from French penance, from Latin paenitentia penitence.

pen-and-ink ▷ noun 1 writing materials. 2 a pen drawing. ▷ adj 1 engaged in writing. 2 said of a drawing: executed with pen and ink.

penannular /peˈnanjʊlə(r)/ ▷ adj, technical in the form of an almost complete ring. ⓘ 19c: from Latin paene almost + ANNULAR.

pence a plural of PENNY.

-pence /pens, pəns/ ▷ combining form denoting a number of pennies (as a value) □ threepence.

penchant /ˈpɑ̃ʃɑ̃/ ▷ noun a taste, liking, inclination or tendency □ a penchant for childish pranks. ⓘ 17c: French, present participle of pencher to lean.

pencil /ˈpensəl, -sɪl/ ▷ noun 1 a a writing and drawing instrument consisting of a wooden shaft containing a stick of graphite or other material, which is sharpened for use, and makes more or less erasable marks; b as adj □ pencil drawing. 2 such material, especially with regard to the alterability of marks made with it □ written in pencil. 3 something with a similar function or shape, eg for medical or cosmetic purposes □ an eyebrow pencil. 4 a something long, fine and narrow in shape; b as adj □ pencil pleat □ pencil torch. 5 a narrow beam of light □ a pencil of light. 6 optics a set of rays of light diverging from or converging to a point. ▷ verb (pencilled, pencilling; N Amer penciled, penciling) to write, draw or mark something with a pencil. ● penciller noun. ⓘ 15c: from Latin penicillus painter's brush, diminutive of peniculus little tail, from penis tail.

■ pencil something or someone in to note down a provisional commitment, eg for a meeting, spending time with someone, etc, in one's diary, for later confirmation □ I'll pencil you in for 3 o'clock.

pencil lead ▷ noun graphite for pencils.

pencilling or (N Amer) penciling noun 1 the art or act of painting, writing, sketching or marking with a pencil. 2 marks made with a pencil. 3 fine lines. 4 the marking of joints in brickwork with white paint.

pencil-sharpener ▷ noun an instrument for sharpening lead pencils into which the pencil is inserted and rotated against a blade or blades.

pendant or (sometimes) pendent /ˈpendənt/ ▷ noun 1 a an ornament suspended from a neck chain, necklace, bracelet, etc; b a necklace with such an ornament hanging from it. 2 any of several hanging articles, eg an earring, ceiling light, etc. 3 a piece, eg a painting or poem, that is meant as a companion to another. 4 naut a PENNANT (noun 1). ⓘ 14c: French, from pendre to hang, from Latin pendere.

pendent or (sometimes) pendant /ˈpendənt/ ▷ adj 1 hanging; suspended; dangling. 2 projecting; jutting; overhanging. 3 undetermined or undecided; pending. ● pendently adverb. ⓘ 15c: from French pendant; see PENDANT.

pendente lite /penˈdenti ˈlaɪti, penˈdente ˈliːte/ law while a law suit is pending; until trial. ⓘ 18c: Latin.

pendentive /penˈdentɪv/ ▷ noun, archit a spherical triangle shape formed by the space between a dome and a square base from which the dome rises, used in Byzantine and Romanesque architecture, etc. ⓘ 16c: French, from Latin pendens hanging.

pending /ˈpendɪŋ/ ▷ adj 1 remaining undecided; waiting to be decided or dealt with. 2 said of a patent: about to come into effect. ▷ prep until; awaiting; during □ held in prison pending trial. ⓘ 17c: from Latin pendere to hang.

pendulous /ˈpendjʊləs/ ▷ adj hanging down loosely; drooping; swinging freely. ● pendulously adverb. ● pendulousness noun. ⓘ 17c: from Latin pendulus hanging.

pendulum /ˈpendjʊləm/ ▷ noun (pendulums) 1 physics a weight, suspended from a fixed point, that swings freely back and forth through a small angle with SIMPLE HARMONIC MOTION. 2 a swinging lever used to regulate the movement of a clock. 3 anything that undergoes obvious and regular shifts or reversals in direction, attitude, opinion, etc. ● pendular adj relating to or like a pendulum. ⓘ 17c: Latin, neuter of pendulus hanging.

peneplain /ˈpiːnɪpleɪn/ ▷ noun, geog a land surface which is worn down to such an extent by DENUDATION as to be almost a plain. ⓘ 19c: from Latin pene almost + PLAIN.

penes a plural of PENIS.

penetrant /ˈpenətrənt/ ▷ adj, literary or technical penetrating. ▷ noun, chem a substance which increases the penetration of a liquid into a porous material or between contiguous surfaces, by lowering its surface tension.

penetrate /ˈpenɪtreɪt/ ▷ verb (penetrated, penetrating) 1 (also penetrate into something) to find a way into it; to enter it, especially with difficulty. 2 to gain access into and influence within (a country, organization, market, etc) for political, financial, etc purposes. 3 to find a way through something; to pierce or permeate □ penetrate enemy lines □ penetrated the silence. 4 intr to be understood □ The news didn't penetrate at first. 5 to see through (a disguise). 6 to fathom, solve, or understand (a mystery). 7 said of a man: to insert his penis into the vagina of (a woman) or anus of (a man or a woman). ● penetrability /penətrəˈbɪlɪti/ noun. ● penetrable adj. ● penetrably adverb. ● penetrator noun. ⓘ 16c: from Latin penetrare to penetrate.

penetrating ▷ adj 1 said of a voice, etc: all too loud and clear; strident; carrying. 2 said of a person's mind: acute; discerning. 3 said of the eyes or of a look: piercing; probing. ● penetratingly adverb.

penetration /penəˈtreɪʃən/ ▷ noun 1 the process of penetrating or being penetrated. 2 mental acuteness; perspicacity; insight.

penetrative /ˈpenətrətɪv/ ▷ adj 1 tending or able to penetrate. 2 piercing; having acute or deep insight. 3 said of sexual intercourse: in which the man penetrates his partner. 4 reaching and affecting the mind. ● penetratively adverb. ● penetrativeness noun.

penfold ▷ noun a small enclosure to keep cattle or sheep in.

pen friend and pen pal ▷ noun someone, usually living abroad, with whom one corresponds by letter, and whom one may not have met in person.

penguin /ˈpeŋgwɪn/ ▷ noun any of various flightless sea birds with a stout body, small almost featherless wings, short legs, bluish-grey or black plumage, and a white belly. ⓘ 16c: possibly from Welsh pen head + gwyn white.

penguinery /ˈpeŋgwɪnəri/ (penguineries) ▷ noun 1 a group or colony of penguins. 2 a place where penguins breed.

penicillate /penɪˈsɪlɪt, -eɪt/ ▷ adj, biol tufted; forming a tuft; brush-shaped.

penicillin /penɪˈsɪlɪn/ ▷ noun any of various ANTIBIOTICS, derived from a mould or produced synthetically, that are widely used to treat bacterial infections. ⓘ 1920s: from Latin penicillus painter's brush (referring to the hairy or tufty appearance of the mould).

penile /ˈpiːnaɪl/ ▷ adj, anatomy, etc relating to or resembling the penis.

penillion plural of PENNILL.

peninsula /pəˈnɪnsjʊlə/ ▷ noun (peninsulas) a piece of land projecting into water from a larger landmass and almost completely surrounded by water. ● peninsular adj. ⓘ 16c: from Latin paene almost + insula island.

penis /ˈpiːnɪs/ ▷ noun (penises or penes /-niːz/) in higher vertebrates: the male organ of copulation which is used to transfer sperm to the female reproductive tract and also contains the URETHRA through which urine is passed. ⓘ 17c: Latin, originally meaning 'tail'.

penis envy ▷ noun, psychoanal the Freudian concept of a woman's subconscious wish for male characteristics. ⓘ 1920s.

penitent /ˈpenɪtənt/ ▷ adj regretful for wrong one has done, and feeling a desire to reform; repentant. ▷ noun 1 a repentant person, especially one doing penance on the instruction of a confessor. 2 RC Church a member of one of various orders devoted to penitential exercises, etc. ● penitence noun. ● penitently adverb. ⓘ 14c: from Latin paenitens repentant.

penitential /penɪˈtenʃəl/ ▷ adj referring to, showing or constituting penance □ penitential psalms. ▷ noun, RC Church 1 a book of rules relating to penance. 2 a penitent. ● penitentially adverb.

penitentiary /penɪˈtenʃəri/ ▷ noun (penitentiaries) 1 N Amer a federal or state prison. Often shortened to pen. 2 a book for guidance in imposing penances. 3 RC Church an office at Rome dealing with cases of penance, dispensations, etc. ▷ adj 1 referring or relating to punishment or penance. 2 penal or reformatory. ⓘ 15c.

penknife ▷ noun a pocket knife with blades that fold into the handle. ⓘ 14c: from PEN[1] noun 1, because such a knife was originally used for cutting quills.

pen light ▷ noun a small electric torch shaped like a pen.

penmanship ▷ noun skill with the pen, whether calligraphic or literary.

Penn. see PA

penna /ˈpɛnə/ ▷ noun (pennae /-niː/) ornithol a feather, especially one of the large feathers of the wings or tail. ◎ Latin, meaning 'feather' or 'wing'.

pen name ▷ noun a pseudonym used by a writer. ◎ 19c.

pennant /ˈpɛnənt/ ▷ noun 1 naut a dangling line from the masthead, etc, with a block for tackle, etc. Also called pendant. 2 naut a small narrow triangular flag, used on vessels for identification or signalling. Also called pennon. ◎ 17c: probably from PENNON + PENDANT.

pennate /ˈpɛneɪt/ ▷ adj, biol 1 winged, feathered; shaped like a wing. 2 PINNATE. ◎ 18c in sense 2: from Latin pennatus winged.

penned past tense, past participle of PEN¹, PEN² penniless ▷ adj without money; poverty-stricken. • pennilessness noun. ◎ 14c.

pennill /ˈpɛnɪl; Welsh ˈpɛnɪɬ/ ▷ noun (penillion) a form of Welsh improvised verse. ◎ 18c: Welsh, meaning 'verse' or 'stanza'.

penning present participle of PEN¹, PEN² pennon /ˈpɛnən/ ▷ noun 1 historical a long narrow flag with a tapering divided tip, eg borne on his lance by a knight. 2 a PENNANT (noun 2). ◎ 14c: from Latin penna feather.

penny /ˈpɛnɪ/ ▷ noun (pence /pɛns/ in senses 1 and 2, or pennies) 1 (singular and plural ABBREVIATION p /piː/) in the UK: a hundredth part of £1, or a bronze coin having this value. 2 (singular and plural symbol d) in the UK before decimalization in 1971: $^1/_{12}$ of a shilling or $^1/_{240}$ of £1, or a bronze coin having this value. 3 with negatives the least quantity of money □ won't cost a penny. 4 N Amer one cent, or a coin having this value. 5 a coin of low value in certain other countries. 6 (pennies) money in general, usually a small amount □ saving his pennies. 7 /ˈpɛnɪ, pənɪ/ in compounds denoting a specified number of pennies (as a value) □ a five-penny piece. • a pretty penny ironic a huge sum □ That must have cost a pretty penny. • in for a penny, in for a pound (often shortened to in for a penny) once involved, one may as well be totally committed. • in penny numbers colloq in small quantities. • pennies from heaven money obtained without effort and unexpectedly. • spend a penny euphemistic, colloq to urinate. • the penny dropped colloq understanding about something finally came. • turn an honest penny colloq to earn one's living honestly. • two a penny or ten a penny very common; in abundant supply and of little value. ◎ Anglo-Saxon pening.

penny dreadful ▷ noun, colloq a cheap trivial novel or thriller. ◎ 19c.

penny farthing ▷ noun, Brit an early type of bicycle, dating from the 1860s, with a large front wheel and small back wheel. See also BONESHAKER. ◎ 1980s: a name applied retrospectively, comparing its wheels to the large PENNY and small FARTHING coins of the day; its contemporary name was the ordinary.

penny-halfpenny or penny-ha'penny ▷ noun formerly in the UK: one and a half pre-decimal pence.

penny-in-the-slot ▷ adj said of a machine: coin-operated.

penny-piece ▷ noun, old use a penny.

penny-pinching ▷ adj, derog too careful with one's money; miserly; stingy. • penny-pincher noun.

pennyroyal ▷ noun a species of mint with medicinal qualities. ◎ 16c as puliol real: from French pouliol thyme penny share and penny stock ▷ noun, stock exchange a share or stock trading for less than £1 or $1, usually bought very speculatively.

pennyweight ▷ noun a unit equal to twenty-four grains of TROY WEIGHT, or $^1/_{20}$ of an ounce troy.

penny whistle ▷ noun a tiny whistle or flageolet.

penny wise ▷ adj 1 (usually penny wise and pound foolish) thrifty about small things, but careless about large ones. 2 very concerned with saving small amounts of money.

pennywort ▷ noun a name given to various plants with round leaves. ◎ 13c: PENNY + WORT.

pennyworth /ˈpɛnəθ, ˈpɛnɪwɜːθ/ ▷ noun, old use an amount that can be bought for one penny.

penology or poenology /piːˈnɒlədʒɪ/ ▷ noun the study of crime and punishment. • penological /-ˈlɒdʒɪkəl/ adj. • penologist noun. ◎ 19c: from Greek poine punishment + -LOGY.

pen pal see PEN FRIEND

pen pusher ▷ noun a clerk or minor official whose job includes much tedious paperwork. • pen-pushing noun, adj. ◎ 19c: originally pencil pusher.

pensile /ˈpɛnsaɪl, ˈpɛnsəl/ ▷ adj 1 hanging; suspended; overhanging. 2 ornithol said of birds: that build a hanging nest. • pensileness or pensility /pɛnˈsɪlɪtɪ/ noun. ◎ 17c: from Latin pensilis hanging down, from pendere to hang.

pension /ˈpɛnʃən/ ▷ noun 1 a government allowance to a retired, disabled or widowed person. 2 a regular payment by an employer to a retired employee. 3 a regular payment from a private pension company to a person who contributed to a PENSION FUND for much of their working life. 4 an allowance paid as a bribe for future services. 5 /French pɑ̃sjɔ̃/ a boarding-house in continental Europe. See also EN PENSION. ▷ verb (pensioned, pensioning) to grant a pension to (a person). • pensioner noun someone who is in receipt of a pension. • pensionless adj. ◎ 14c: French, from Latin pensio payment.

■ pension someone off to put them into retirement, or make them redundant, on a pension.

pensionable ▷ adj entitling one to a pension; entitled to a pension □ of pensionable age.

pensionary /ˈpɛnʃənərɪ/ ▷ adj referring to the nature of a pension. ▷ noun (pensionaries) someone whose interest is bought by payment of a pension.

pension fund ▷ noun a fund into which a working person pays regular contributions which are invested on the stock market by the company running the fund, providing a return on retirement to individual members of the fund which varies according to the performance of the invested money.

pensive /ˈpɛnsɪv/ ▷ adj preoccupied with one's thoughts; thoughtful. • pensively adverb. • pensiveness noun. ◎ 14c: from French pensif, from penser to think.

penstemon /pɛnˈstiːmən/ or pentstemon /pɛnt-/ ▷ noun a N American plant with showy flowers which have five stamens, one of which is sterile. ◎ 18c: from Greek pente five + stemon thread, here meaning 'stamen'.

penstock ▷ noun 1 a sluice. 2 in a hydroelectric power station: a valve-controlled water conduit. ◎ 17c.

pent past tense, past participle of PEN². See also PENT-UP.

penta- /pɛntə/ or (before a vowel) pent- combining form, denoting five □ pentatonic. ◎ From Greek pente five.

pentachord ▷ noun 1 a musical instrument with five strings. 2 a diatonic series of five notes. ◎ 18c: PENTA- + Greek chorde string.

pentacle /ˈpɛntəkəl/ ▷ noun a PENTAGRAM or similar figure or amulet used as a defence against demons. ◎ 16c:

from Latin pentaculum, or from French pentacol, from pendre a col to hang on the neck.

pentad /ˈpɛntad/ ▷ noun 1 a set of five things. 2 a period of five years or five days. ◎ 17c: from Greek pentados a group of five.

pentadactyl /pɛntəˈdaktɪl/ zool ▷ noun an animal with five digits on each limb, being the normal state in humans. ▷ adj said of the limbs of humans or animals: having five digits. ◎ 19c: from Greek pente five + daktylos finger or toe.

pentagon /ˈpɛntəgən, -gɒn/ ▷ noun, geom a plane figure (see PLANE² adj 3) with five sides and five angles. • pentagonal /pɛnˈtagənl/ adj. ◎ 16c: from Greek pente five + gonia angle.

pentagram /ˈpɛntəgram/ ▷ noun 1 a figure in the shape of a star with five points and consisting of five lines. 2 such a figure used as a magic symbol; a PENTACLE. ◎ Early 19c: from Greek pentagrammos, from pente five + gramma character or letter.

pentahedron /pɛntəˈhiːdrən/ ▷ noun (pentahedrons or pentahedra /-drə/) geom a five-faced solid figure. • pentahedral adj. ◎ 18c: compare POLYHEDRON.

pentamerous /pɛnˈtamərəs/ ▷ adj, bot 1 consisting of five parts or members. 2 containing parts in groups of five. • pentamerism noun. ◎ 19c: compare TRIMEROUS.

pentameter /pɛnˈtamɪtə(r)/ ▷ noun, poetry a line of verse with five metrical feet. ◎ 16c: Latin, from Greek pente five + metron measure.

pentamidine /pɛnˈtamɪdiːn, -dɪn/ ▷ noun, pharmacol a drug first used to combat tropical diseases such as sleeping sickness, later found effective against a form of pneumonia common in AIDS patients. ◎ 1940s: from PENTANE + AMIDE + -INE².

pentane /ˈpɛnteɪn/ ▷ noun, chem (formula C_5H_{12}) a hydrocarbon, fifth member of the methane series. ◎ 19c.

pentangle /ˈpɛntaŋgəl/ ▷ noun 1 a PENTACLE. 2 rare a PENTAGON. • pentangular adj. ◎ 14c.

pentanoic acid ▷ noun, chem a colourless carboxylic acid used in the perfume industry. Also called valeric acid.

pentaprism ▷ noun, photog a five-sided prism that corrects lateral inversion by turning light through an angle of 90°, used in REFLEX CAMERAS to allow eye-level viewing. ◎ 1930s.

Pentateuch /ˈpɛntətjuːk/ ▷ noun the first five books of the Old Testament, ie Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers and Deuteronomy. • Pentateuchal /-ˈtjuːkəl/ adj. ◎ 16c: from Greek pentateuchos five-volumed, from penta- five- + teuchos a tool, later a book. pentathlon /pɛnˈtaθlən/ ▷ noun 1 any of several athletic competitions comprising five events all of which the contestants must compete in, based on a competition in the ancient Greek Olympics. 2 (usually modern pentathlon) such a competition at the Olympic games, consisting of swimming, cross-country riding and running, fencing and pistol-shooting. Compare HEPTATHLON, DECATHLON. ◎ 18c: from Greek pente five + athlon contest.

pentatonic /pɛntəˈtɒnɪk/ ▷ adj, music said of a musical scale: having five notes to the octave, most commonly equivalent to the first, second, third, fifth and sixth degrees of the major scale. ◎ 19c.

pentavalent /pɛntəˈveɪlənt/ and quinquevalent /kwɪŋkwə-/ ▷ adj, chem said of an atom of a chemical element: having a valency of five. ◎ 19c.

Pentecost /ˈpɛntəkɒst/ ▷ noun 1 Christianity a festival on Whit Sunday, the seventh Sunday after Easter, commemorating the descent of the Holy Spirit on the Apostles. 2 Judaism the SHABUOTH. ◎ Anglo-Saxon: from Latin pentecoste, from Greek pentecoste hemera fiftieth day.

Pentecostal ▷ adj 1 denoting any of several fundamentalist Christian groups that put emphasis on God's gifts through the Holy Spirit, characterized by their literal interpretation of the Bible and informal worship with enthusiastic and spontaneous exclamations of praise and thanksgiving. 2 relating to Pentecost. ▷ noun a member of a Pentecostal church. • Pentecostalism noun. • Pentecostalist noun, adj.

penthouse /ˈpɛnthaʊs/ ▷ noun 1 an apartment, especially a luxuriously appointed one, built on to the roof of a tall building. Also as adj ▫ penthouse suite. 2 real tennis a roofed corridor running along three sides of the court. ◎ 1920s in sense 1; 14c meaning 'annex' or 'outhouse', from earlier pentice from French appentis, from Latin appendicium appendage.

pentimento /pɛntɪˈmɛntoʊ/ ▷ noun (plural pentimenti /-tiː/) art something painted out of a picture by an artist which later becomes visible again. ◎ Early 20c: Italian, literally 'repentance', from pentirsi to repent.

pentobarbitone /pɛntəˈbɑːbɪtoʊn/ or (US) pentobarbital /-ˈbɑːbɪtəl/ noun, pharmacol a barbiturate drug with hypnotic, sedative and anticonvulsant effects. ◎ 1930s.

pentose /ˈpɛntoʊs/ ▷ noun, chem any MONOSACCHARIDE with five carbon atoms. ◎ Late 19c: German, from Greek pente five + -OSE².

Pentothal /ˈpɛntoʊθal/ ▷ noun, trademark THIOPENTONE SODIUM.

pentoxide /pɛnˈtɒksaɪd/ ▷ noun, chem a compound with five atoms of oxygen bonded to another element or radical. ◎ 19c.

pentstemon see PENSTEMON pent-up (also pent up) ▷ adj said of feelings, energy, etc: repressed or stifled; bursting to be released ▫ pent-up emotions.

penult /pɛˈnʌlt/ or penultima /-ˈnʌltɪmə/ ▷ noun the last but one syllable in a word. ◎ 16c: from Latin paenultimus PENULTIMATE.

penultimate /pəˈnʌltɪmət, pɛ-/ ▷ adj last but one. ▷ noun 1 the penult. 2 the last but one. ◎ 17c: from Latin paene almost + ultimus last.

penumbra /pɛˈnʌmbrə/ ▷ noun (penumbrae /-briː/ or penumbras) 1 the lighter outer shadow that surrounds the dark central shadow produced by a large unfocused light-source shining on an opaque object. 2 astron the lighter area around the edge of a sunspot. • penumbral or penumbrous adj. ◎ 17c: Latin, from paene almost + umbra shadow.

penurious /pəˈnjʊərɪəs/ ▷ adj 1 mean with money; miserly. 2 poor; impoverished. • penuriously adverb. • penuriousness noun. ◎ 17c.

penury /ˈpɛnjʊrɪ/ ▷ noun (penuries) 1 extreme poverty. 2 lack; scarcity. ◎ 15c: from Latin penuria want.

peon /ˈpiːən/ ▷ noun 1 in India and Ceylon: an office messenger; an attendant. 2 in Latin America: a a farm labourer; b especially formerly someone required to work for a creditor until a debt is paid off. ◎ 17c: from Spanish peón, from Latin pedo foot soldier.

peonage /ˈpiːənɪdʒ/ and peonism /ˈpiːənɪzəm/ ▷ noun 1 the state of being a peon. 2 a system in which a debtor is required to work for a creditor until a debt is paid off.

peony or paeony /ˈpiːənɪ/ ▷ noun (peonies or paeonies) 1 a shrub or herbaceous plant with large, showy red, pink, yellow or white globular flowers with five to ten petals and numerous stamens. 2 the flower produced by this plant. ◎ Anglo-Saxon: from French pione, from Greek paionia, from Paion the healer of the gods, because of the plant's medicinal use.

people /ˈpiːpəl/ ▷ noun, usually plural 1 a set or group of persons. 2 men and women in general. 3 a body of persons held together by belief in common origin, speech, culture, political union, or by common leadership, etc. 4 a (the people) ordinary citizens without special rank; the general populace; b in compounds denoting that the specified thing belongs or relates to the people, general populace, etc □ people-power □ people-oriented. 5 (the people) voters as a body. 6 subjects or supporters of a monarch, etc. 7 singular (plural peoples) a nation or race □ a warlike people. 8 colloq one's parents, or the wider circle of one's relations. ▷ verb (peopled, peopling) 1 to fill or supply (a region, etc) with people; to populate. 2 to inhabit. ● of all people 1 especially; more than anyone else □ You, of all people, should know that. 2 very strangely or unexpectedly □ chose me, of all people, as spokesperson. ⓘ 14c: from French poeple.

people's democracy ▷ noun a form of government in which the proletariat, represented by the Communist Party, holds power, and is seen ideologically as a transitional state on the way to full socialism.

people's front see POPULAR FRONT

PEP /pep/ ▷ abbreviation personal equity plan.

pep ▷ noun, colloq energy; vitality; go. ▷ verb (pepped, pepping) (always pep someone or something up) to enliven or invigorate them or it. ● peppy adj (peppier, peppiest). Compare PEP TALK. ⓘ Early 20c: a shortening of PEPPER.

peperomia /pepə'roʊmɪə/ ▷ noun (peperomias) any one of a large genus of subtropical herbaceous plants, many of which are grown as house plants for their ornamental foliage. ⓘ 19c: Latin, from Greek peperi pepper + homoios like.

peperoni see PEPPERONI pepino /pe'piːnoʊ/ ▷ noun (pepinos) 1 a purple-striped pale yellow fruit with sweet flesh and an elongated oval shape. 2 the spiny-leaved S American plant that bears this fruit. ⓘ 19c: Spanish, meaning 'cucumber'.

peplum /'pepləm/ ▷ noun (peplums or pepla /-lə/) a short skirt-like section attached to the waistline of a dress, blouse or jacket. ⓘ 17c: from Greek peplos an outer robe or overskirt worn by women in ancient Greece.

pepo /'piːpoʊ/ ▷ noun (pepos) bot 1 a large many-seeded berry, usually with a hard EPICARP. 2 the type of fruit found in the melon and cucumber family. ⓘ 19c: Latin, meaning 'pumpkin'.

pepper /'pepə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 a a perennial climbing shrub, widely cultivated for its small red berries which are dried to form PEPPERCORNS; b a pungent seasoning prepared from the dried berries of this plant, usually by grinding them into a powder. See also BLACK PEPPER, WHITE PEPPER. 2 a any of various tropical shrubs cultivated for their large red, green or yellow edible fruits, eg CHILLI pepper; b the fruit of these plants, eaten raw in salads or cooked as a vegetable. Also called capsicum, sweet pepper. 3 CAYENNE PEPPER. ▷ verb (peppered, peppering) 1 to bombard something or someone (with missiles). 2 to sprinkle liberally □ The text was peppered with errors. 3 to season (a dish, etc) with pepper. ● peppery adj see separate entry. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon pipor, from Latin piper.

pepper-and-salt ▷ adj 1 said of cloth: mingled with black and white. 2 said of hair: flecked with grey.

peppercorn ▷ noun 1 the dried berry of the PEPPER (noun 1) plant. 2 something of little value.

peppercorn rent ▷ noun rent that is very low or nominal.

peppermill ▷ noun a device for grinding peppercorns.

peppermint ▷ noun 1 a species of mint with dark-green leaves and spikes of small purple flowers, widely cultivated for its aromatic oil. 2 a food flavouring prepared from the aromatic oil produced by this plant. 3 a sweet flavoured with peppermint.

peppermint cream ▷ noun 1 a sweet creamy peppermint-flavoured substance. 2 a sweet made of this, often coated in chocolate.

pepperoni or peperoni /pepə'roʊnɪ/ ▷ noun (pepperonis or peperonis) a hard, spicy beef and pork sausage. ⓘ 1930s: Italian, plural of peperone chilli or pepper, from Latin piper pepper.

pepper pot ▷ noun 1 a small pot or container with small holes in the top from which ground pepper is sprinkled. 2 cookery a West Indian dish made from the juice of a bitter cassava, meat or dried fish, and vegetables, especially green okra and chillies.

peppery /'pepərɪ/ ▷ adj 1 well seasoned with pepper; tasting of pepper; hot-tasting or pungent. 2 short-tempered; irascible. ● pepperiness noun.

pep pill ▷ noun a pill that contains a stimulant drug. ⓘ 1930s.

peppy see under PEP pepsin /'pepsɪn/ ▷ noun, biochem in the stomach of vertebrates: a digestive enzyme produced by the gastric glands that catalyses the partial breakdown of dietary protein. ⓘ 19c: from Greek pepsis digestion; see -IN.

pep talk ▷ noun a brief talk intended to raise morale for a cause or course of action. Compare PEP. ⓘ 1920s.

peptic /'peptɪk/ ▷ adj 1 referring or relating to digestion. 2 referring or relating to the stomach. 3 referring or relating to pepsin. ⓘ 17c: from Greek peptikos able to digest, from peptos cooked or digested.

peptic ulcer ▷ noun, pathol an ulcer of the stomach, caused by destruction of part of the lining by excess gastric acid. See also DUODENAL ULCER.

peptide /'peptaɪd/ ▷ noun, biochem a molecule that consists of a relatively short chain of amino acids. ⓘ Early 20c: from Greek pepsis digestion.

per /pɜː(r), pə(r)/ ▷ prep 1 out of every □ two per thousand. 2 for every □ £5 per head. 3 in every □ 60 miles per hour □ 100 accidents per week. 4 through; by means of □ per post. ● as per ... according to ... □ proceed as per instructions. ● as per usual colloq as always. ⓘ 14c: Latin, meaning 'for', 'each' or 'by'.

per- /pɜː(r), pə(r)/ ▷ prefix, denoting 1 chem the highest state of oxidation of an element in a compound □ peroxide. 2 in words derived from Latin: through, beyond, thoroughly or utterly. ⓘ Latin, from per PER.

peradventure /pɜːrəd'ventʃə(r), pe-/ ▷ adverb, archaic perhaps; by chance. ⓘ 13c: from French par aventure by chance.

perambulate /pə'rambjʊleɪt/ ▷ verb (perambulated, perambulating) formal 1 to walk about (a place). 2 intr to stroll around. ● perambulation noun. ● perambulatory adj. ⓘ 16c: from PER + Latin ambulare to walk.

perambulator /pə'rambjʊleɪtə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 formal a PRAM¹. 2 a wheel-like instrument that surveyors use for measuring distances. ⓘ 17c; 19c in sense 1.

per annum /pɜː 'anəm/ ▷ adverb (abbreviation p.a. or per an.) for each year; yearly; by the year. ⓘ 17c: Latin.

per capita /pə 'kapɪtə/ ▷ adverb, adj for each person □ income per capita □ GDP per capita. ⓘ 20c in this sense; 17c in legal sense 'divided or shared equally by or among individuals': Latin, literally 'by heads'.

perceive /pə'siːv/ ▷ verb (perceived, perceiving) 1 to observe, notice, or discern □ perceived a change. 2 to understand, interpret or view □ how one perceives one's role. ● perceivable adj. ⓘ 14c: from French perceivre, from Latin percipere.

perceived noise decibel ▷ noun (abbreviation PNdB) a frequency-weighted noise unit used in measurement of aircraft noise.

per cent /pə 'sent/ ▷ adverb, adj (symbol %) 1 in or for every 100 □ Sales are 20 per cent down. □ a 15 per cent increase. 2 on a scale of 1 to 100 □ 90 per cent certain. ▷ noun (usually percent) 1 a percentage or proportion. 2 (usually percents) in compounds a security that yields a specified rate of interest □ invest in four-percents. 3 one part in or on every 100 □ half a percent. ⓘ 16c: from Latin per centum for every 100.

percentage /pəˈsentɪdʒ/ ▷ noun 1 an amount, number or rate stated as a proportion of one hundred. 2 a proportion □ a large percentage of students fail. 3 colloq commission □ What percentage do you take? 4 profit, advantage. ● play the percentages in sport, gambling, etc: to play, operate or proceed by means of unspectacular safe shots, moves, etc, as opposed to spectacular but risky ones which may not succeed, on the assumption that this is more likely to lead to success in the long run. ⓘ 18c.

percentile /pəˈsentaɪl/ ▷ noun, statistics one of the points or values that divide a collection of statistical data, arranged in order, into 100 equal parts □ The 90th percentile is the value below which 90% of the scores lie. ⓘ 19c.

percentile rank ▷ noun grading according to percentile group.

percept /ˈpɜːsept/ ▷ noun, psychol, etc 1 an object perceived by the senses. 2 the mental result of perceiving. ⓘ 18c.

perceptible /pəˈseptəbəl/ ▷ adj able to be perceived; noticeable; detectable. ● perceptibility noun. ● perceptibly adverb.

perception /pəˈsepʃən/ ▷ noun 1 psychol the process whereby information about one's environment, received by the senses, is organized and interpreted so that it becomes meaningful. 2 one's powers of observation; discernment; insight. 3 one's view or interpretation of something. 4 bot response to a stimulus, eg chemical or caused by light. ● perceptional adj. ⓘ 17c: from Latin percipere to perceive.

perceptive /pəˈseptɪv/ ▷ adj quick to notice or discern; astute. ● perceptively adverb. ● perceptiveness or perceptivity /-sepˈtɪvɪtɪ/ noun.

perch[1] /pɜːtʃ/ ▷ noun (perches) 1 a branch or other narrow support above ground for a bird to rest or roost on. 2 any place selected, especially temporarily, as a seat. 3 a high position or vantage point. 4 a POLE[2] (noun 2). ▷ verb (perches, perched, perching) 1 intr said of a bird: to alight and rest on a perch. 2 intr to sit, especially insecurely or temporarily. 3 tr & intr to sit or place high up. ⓘ 13c as perche meaning 'a pole or stick', from French, from Latin pertica rod.

perch[2] /pɜːtʃ/ ▷ noun (perch or perches) any of various freshwater fishes which have a streamlined body with a yellowish-green or olive-brown back patterned with dark vertical bars, and a silvery-white belly. See also PERCOID. ⓘ 14c: from Greek perke.

perchance /pəˈtʃɑːns/ ▷ adverb, old use 1 by chance. 2 perhaps. ⓘ 14c: from French par chance by chance.

percipient /pəˈsɪpɪənt/ ▷ adj perceptive; acutely observant; discerning. ▷ noun 1 someone or something that perceives or can perceive. 2 someone who receives impressions telepathically or by other extrasensory means. ● percipience noun. ● percipiently adverb. ⓘ 17c: from Latin percipere to perceive.

percoid /ˈpɜːkɔɪd/ ▷ adj referring or relating to, or resembling, PERCH[2].

percolate /ˈpɜːkəleɪt/ ▷ verb (percolated, percolating) 1 tr & intr to undergo or subject (a liquid) to the process of percolation; to ooze, trickle or filter. 2 intr (also percolate through) colloq said of news or information: to trickle or spread slowly. 3 tr & intr said of coffee: to make or be made in a percolator. Sometimes shortened to perk. ⓘ 17c: from Latin percolare to filter through, from per through + colare to strain.

percolation /pɜːkəˈleɪʃən/ ▷ noun 1 the gradual movement of a liquid through a porous material such as rock or soil. 2 the brewing of coffee in a percolator.

percolator /ˈpɜːkəleɪtə(r)/ ▷ noun a pot for making coffee, in which boiling water circulates up through a tube and down through ground coffee beans. ⓘ 19c.

percuss /pəˈkʌs/ ▷ verb (percusses, percussed, percussing) medicine to tap (a part of the body) with the fingertips or a PLEXOR for purposes of diagnosis. ⓘ Early 19c in this sense; 16c in obsolete sense 'to strike or tap sharply': from Latin percutere, from per- thoroughly + quatere to shake or strike.

percussion /pəˈkʌʃən/ ▷ noun 1 the striking of one hard object against another. 2 a musical instruments played by striking, eg drums, cymbals, xylophone, etc; b these instruments collectively as a section of an orchestra. 3 medicine an AUSCULTATION technique whereby part of the body is examined by tapping it with the fingers. ● percussional adj. ● percussive adj. ● percussively adverb. ⓘ 16c: from Latin percussio striking, from percutere; see PERCUSS.

percussion cap ▷ noun a metal case containing a material that explodes when struck, formerly used for firing rifles.

percussion hammer see under PLEXOR.

percussionist ▷ noun someone who plays percussion instruments, especially in an orchestra.

percussor see under PLEXOR.

percutaneous /pɜːkjʊˈteɪnɪəs/ ▷ adj applied or effected through the skin. ⓘ Late 18c: from Latin per cutem through the skin.

per diem /pɜː ˈdiːem/ ▷ adverb, adj for each day; daily; by the day. ⓘ 16c: Latin.

perdition /pəˈdɪʃən/ ▷ noun everlasting punishment after death; damnation; hell. ⓘ 14c: from Latin perditio, from perdere to lose utterly.

peregrinate /ˈperɪgrɪneɪt/ ▷ verb (peregrinated, peregrinating) literary 1 intr to travel, voyage or roam; to wander abroad. 2 to travel through (a place, region, etc). ● peregrination noun. ● peregrinator noun. ⓘ 16c: from Latin peregrinari, peregrinatus to roam, from per through + ager field.

peregrine /ˈperəgrɪn/ ▷ noun a large falcon with greyish-blue plumage on its back and wings, striped with darker bars, and paler underparts, also barred. Also called peregrine falcon. ⓘ 14c: from Latin peregrinus wandering abroad, because the young birds were captured during their migration from the nesting-place, rather than being taken unfledged from the nest.

pereira /pəˈreərə/ ▷ noun (pereiras) 1 a Brazilian tree, the bark of which is used in herbal medicine. 2 the bark itself. Also called pereira bark. ⓘ 19c: named after Jonathan Pereira, 19c English pharmacologist.

peremptory /pəˈremptərɪ/ ▷ adj 1 said of an order: made in expectation of immediate compliance □ a peremptory summons. 2 said of a tone or manner: arrogantly impatient. 3 said of a statement, conclusion, etc: allowing no denial or discussion; dogmatic. ● peremptorily adverb. ● peremptoriness noun. ⓘ 16c: from Latin peremptorius deadly.

perennial /pəˈrenɪəl/ ▷ adj 1 bot referring or relating to a plant that lives for several to many years, either growing continuously, as in the case of woody trees and shrubs, or having stems that die back each autumn. See also ANNUAL, BIENNIAL. 2 lasting throughout the year. 3 constant; continual. 4 said of insects: living for more than one year. ▷ noun a perennial plant. ● pereniality noun. ● perennially adverb. ⓘ 17c: from Latin perennis, from per through + annus year.

perestroika /perəˈstrɔɪkə/ ▷ noun a restructuring or reorganization, specifically that of the economic and political system of the former USSR instigated by Mikhail Gorbachev in the 1980s. ⓘ 1980s: Russian, meaning 'reconstruction'.

perfect ▷ adj /ˈpɜːfɪkt/ 1 complete in all essential elements. 2 faultless; flawless. 3 excellent; absolutely satisfactory. 4 exact □ a perfect circle. 5 colloq absolute; utter □ perfect nonsense. 6 bot having ANDROECIUM and GYNAECIUM in the same flower. 7 grammar said of the tense or aspect of a verb: denoting an action completed at some time in the past or prior to the time spoken of. ▷ noun /ˈpɜːfɪkt/ grammar 1 the perfect tense, in English formed with the auxiliary verb have and the past PARTICIPLE, denoting an action completed in the past (present perfect, eg I have written the letter) or was or will be completed at the time being spoken of (past perfect or PLUPERFECT, eg I had written the letter; future perfect, eg I will have written the letter). 2 a verb in a perfect tense. Compare FUTURE, PAST, PRESENT, IMPERFECT, PLUPERFECT, PROGRESSIVE. ▷ verb /pəˈfɛkt/ (perfected, perfecting) 1 to improve something to one's satisfaction □ perfect one's Italian. 2 to finalize or complete. 3 to develop (a technique, etc) to a reliable standard. • perfectly see separate entry. • perfectness noun. ⓘ 13c: from Latin perficere to complete.

perfecta /pəˈfɛktə/ ▷ noun (perfectas) a form of bet in which the punter has to select, and place in the correct order, the two horses, dogs, etc which will come first and second in a race. Compare QUINELLA, TRIFECTA, QUADRELLA. ⓘ 1970s: originally US, from American Spanish quiniela perfecta perfect quinella.

perfect cadence ▷ noun, music a cadence that passes from the chord of the dominant to that of the tonic.

perfect fifth ▷ noun, music the interval between two sounds whose vibration frequencies are as 2 to 3.

perfect fourth ▷ noun, music the interval between two sounds whose vibration frequencies are as 3 to 4.

perfect gas see IDEAL GAS perfectible ▷ adj capable of being made or becoming perfect. • perfectibility noun.

perfect insect ▷ noun, entomol an IMAGO or completely developed form of an insect.

perfect interval ▷ noun, music the fourth, fifth or octave.

perfection /pəˈfɛkʃən/ ▷ noun 1 the state of being perfect. 2 the process of making or being made perfect, complete, etc. 3 flawlessness. 4 colloq an instance of absolute excellence □ The meal was perfection. • to perfection perfectly □ did it to perfection.

perfectionism ▷ noun 1 the doctrine that perfection is attainable. 2 an expectation of the very highest standard.

perfectionist ▷ noun someone who is inclined to be dissatisfied with standards of achievement, especially their own, if they are not absolutely perfect. • perfectionistic adj.

perfective /pəˈfɛktɪv/ ▷ adj 1 tending to make perfect. 2 grammar said of a verbal aspect: denoting an action that is or was completed.

perfectly /ˈpɜːfɪktlɪ/ ▷ adverb 1 in a perfect way. 2 completely; quite □ a perfectly reasonable reaction.

perfect number ▷ noun, math a number that is equal to the sum of all its factors (except itself), eg the number 6, because the sum of its factors (1+2+3) is equal to 6. See FACTOR noun 2.

perfect pitch and absolute pitch ▷ noun, music the ability to recognize a note from its pitch, or spontaneously sing any note with correct pitch.

perfervid /pɜːˈfɜːvɪd/ ▷ adj, poetic extremely fervid; ardent; eager. ⓘ 19c: from Latin perfervidus, from prae before + fervidus fervid.

perfidious /pəˈfɪdɪəs/ ▷ adj treacherous, double-dealing or disloyal. • perfidiously adverb. • perfidiousness or perfidy /ˈpɜːfɪdɪ/ noun. ⓘ 16c: from Latin perfidia faithlessness, from per (implying destruction) + fides faith.

perfluorocarbon /pəfluəroʊˈkɑːbən/ ▷ noun, chem 1 a fluorocarbon in which the hydrogen directly attached to the carbon atoms has been completely replaced by fluorine. 2 any binary compound of carbon and fluorine, similar to a hydrocarbon.

perfoliate /pəˈfoʊlɪət, -lɪeɪt/ ▷ adj, bot said of a leaf: having the base joined around the stem, so as to appear pierced by the stem. • perfoliation noun. ⓘ 17c: from Latin perfoliatus from per through + folium leaf.

perforate /ˈpɜːfəreɪt/ ▷ verb (perforated, perforating) 1 to make a hole or holes in something; to pierce. 2 to make a row of holes in something, for ease of tearing. 3 intr, medicine said of an ulcer, diseased appendix, etc: to develop a hole; to burst. ⓘ 16c: from Latin perforare, perforatum to pierce.

perforation /pɜːfəˈreɪʃən/ ▷ noun 1 a hole made in something. 2 a row of small holes made in paper, a sheet of stamps, etc for ease of tearing. 3 the process of perforating or being perforated.

perforce /pəˈfɔːs/ ▷ adverb, chiefly old use necessarily; inevitably or unavoidably. ⓘ 14c: from French par force by force.

perform /pəˈfɔːm/ ▷ verb (performed, performing) 1 to carry out (a task, job, action, etc); to do or accomplish. 2 to fulfil (a function) or provide (a service, etc). 3 tr & intr to act, sing, play, dance, etc (a play, song, piece of music, dance, etc) to entertain an audience. 4 intr said eg of an engine: to function. 5 intr to conduct oneself, especially when presenting oneself for assessment □ performs well in interviews. 6 intr said of commercial products, shares, currencies, etc: to fare in competition. • performable adj. • performer noun. ⓘ 14c: from French parfournir.

performance /pəˈfɔːməns/ ▷ noun 1 a the performing of a play, part, dance, piece of music, etc before an audience; b a dramatic or artistic presentation or entertainment. 2 the act or process of performing a task, etc. 3 a level of achievement, success or, in commerce, profitability. 4 manner or efficiency of functioning. 5 derog an instance of outrageous behaviour, especially in public.

performance art ▷ noun a presentation in which several art forms are combined, such as acting, music, sculpture, photography, etc.

performing ▷ adj 1 referring to something or someone that performs. 2 trained to perform tricks □ performing circus dogs.

the performing arts ▷ plural noun the forms of art that require performance to be appreciated, especially music, drama and dance.

perfume ▷ noun /ˈpɜːfjuːm/ 1 a sweet smell; a scent or fragrance. 2 a fragrant liquid prepared from the extracts of flowers, etc, for applying to the skin or clothes; scent. ▷ verb /pəˈfjuːm/ (perfumed, perfuming) to give a sweet smell to something; to apply perfume to something. • perfumed adj. • perfumeless adj. • perfumer /-ˈfjuːmə(r)/ noun a maker or seller of perfumes. • perfumy /ˈpɜːfjuːmɪ/ adj. ⓘ 16c: from French parfum, from Latin per through + fumare to impregnate with smoke.

perfumery /pəˈfjuːmərɪ/ ▷ noun (perfumeries) 1 perfumes in general. 2 the making or preparing of perfumes. 3 a place where perfumes are made or sold.

perfunctory /pəˈfʌŋktərɪ/ ▷ adj done merely as a duty or routine, without genuine care or feeling. • perfunctorily adverb. • perfunctoriness noun. ⓘ 16c: from Latin perfunctorius slapdash.

perfusion /pəˈfjuːʒən/ ▷ noun 1 biol the movement of a fluid through a tissue or organ. 2 medicine the deliberate introduction of a fluid into a tissue or organ, usually by injection into a nearby blood vessel. ◎ 16c: from Latin perfusus poured over.

pergola /ˈpɜːgələ/ ▷ noun (pergolas) a framework constructed from slender branches, for plants to climb up; a trellis. ◎ 17c: Italian, from Latin pergula shed.

perh. ▷ abbreviation perhaps.

perhaps /pəˈhaps or (informal) praps, pəˈraps/ ▷ adverb possibly; maybe. ◎ 16c: from French par by + Norse happ fortune or chance.

peri- /perɪ/ ▷ prefix, denoting 1 around □ periscope □ pericardium. 2 near □ perinatal □ perigee. ◎ From Greek peri round or around.

perianth /ˈperɪanθ/ ▷ noun, bot the outer part of a flower, usually consisting of a circle of petals within a circle of SEPALS. ◎ 18c: from Latin perianthium, from Greek anthos flower.

periastron /perɪˈastrɒn/ ▷ noun, astron the stage in the orbit of a comet, one component of a binary star, etc, when it is closest to the star around which it revolves. ◎ 19c: from Greek astron star.

pericarditis /perɪkɑːˈdaɪtɪs/ ▷ noun, pathol inflammation of the pericardium.

pericardium /perɪˈkɑːdɪəm/ ▷ noun (pericardia /-dɪə/) anatomy the sac, composed of fibrous tissue, that surrounds the heart. ● pericardiac or pericardial adj. ◎ 16c: Latin, from Greek perikardion, from kardia heart.

pericarp /ˈperɪkɑːp/ ▷ noun, bot in plants: the wall of a fruit, which develops from the ovary wall after fertilization. ● pericarpial /-ˈkɑːpɪəl/ adj. ◎ 17c: from Latin pericarpium, from Greek karpos fruit.

perichondrium /perɪˈkɒndrɪəm/ ▷ noun (perichondria /-drɪə/) anatomy the fibrous membrane covering cartilage. ◎ 18c: Latin, from Greek chondros cartilage.

periclase /ˈperɪkleɪz, -kleɪs/ ▷ noun, chem a magnesium oxide occurring naturally in isometric crystals. ◎ 19c: from Latin periclasia, formed in error from Greek peri- very + klasis fracture, because of its perfect chemical cleavage.

periclinal /perɪˈklaɪnəl/ ▷ adj 1 geol sloping downwards in all directions from a point. 2 bot said of a cell wall, etc: parallel to the outer surface. ◎ 19c: from Greek periklines sloping on all sides, from klinein to slope.

pericranium /perɪˈkreɪnɪəm/ ▷ noun (pericrania /-nɪə/) 1 anatomy the membrane surrounding the cranium. 2 non-technical the skull or brain. ◎ 16c: Latin, from Greek perikranion, from kranion skull.

peridot /ˈperɪdɒt/ ▷ noun 1 OLIVINE. 2 a green olivine used in jewellery. ● peridotic /perɪˈdɒtɪk/ adj. ◎ 14c as peritot, etc: from French péridot.

peridotite /perɪˈdoʊtaɪt/ ▷ noun, geol a coarse-grained igneous rock mainly composed of OLIVINE, thought to be a constituent of the Earth's upper mantle. ◎ 19c: from French péridot.

perigee /ˈperɪdʒiː/ ▷ noun (perigees) astron the point in the orbit of the Moon or an artificial satellite around the Earth when it is closest to the Earth. See also APOGEE. ◎ 16c: from French perigée, from Greek perigeion, from peri near + gaia, ge earth.

periglacial /perɪˈgleɪsɪəl, perɪˈgleɪʃəl/ ▷ adj referring to or like a region bordering a glacier. ◎ 1920s.

perihelion /perɪˈhiːlɪən/ ▷ noun (perihelia) astron the point in the orbit of a planet or comet round the Sun when it is closest to the Sun. See also APHELION. ◎ 17c: from Latin perihelium, from Greek helios sun.

perihepatic /perɪhɪˈpatɪk/ ▷ adj, anatomy, etc surrounding the liver. ◎ 19c. perihepatitis /perɪhepəˈtaɪtɪs/ ▷ noun, pathol inflammation of the PERITONEUM covering the liver. ◎ 19c.

perikaryon /perɪˈkarɪɒn/ ▷ noun (perikarya /-rɪə/) anatomy the part of a nerve cell that contains the nucleus. ◎ 19c: from Greek karyon kernel.

peril /ˈperəl/ ▷ noun 1 grave danger. 2 a hazard. ● at one's peril at the risk of one's life or safety, etc. ◎ 13c: from French péril, from Latin periculum danger.

perilous /ˈperələs/ ▷ adj very dangerous. ● perilously adverb. ● perilousness noun.

perilune /ˈperɪluːn/ ▷ noun, astron the point in a spacecraft's orbit round the Moon when it is closest to the Moon. ◎ 1960s: from Latin luna moon; compare PERIGEE, PERIHELION.

perimeter /pəˈrɪmɪtə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 a the boundary of an enclosed area; b as adj □ perimeter fence. 2 geom a the boundary or circumference of any plane figure; b the length of this boundary. 3 medicine an instrument for measuring the field of vision. ● perimetric /-ˈmetrɪk/ or perimetrical adj. ◎ 16c: from Greek perimetros, from metros measure.

perimysium /perɪˈmɪzɪəm/ ▷ noun, anatomy the connective tissue which surrounds and binds together muscle fibres. ◎ 19c: based on Greek mys muscle.

perinatal /perɪˈneɪtəl/ ▷ adj, medicine denoting or relating to the period extending from the 28th week of pregnancy to about one month after childbirth. ◎ 1960s.

perinephrium /perɪˈnefrɪəm/ ▷ noun, anatomy the fatty tissue surrounding the kidney. ● perinephric adj. ◎ 19c: from Greek nephros kidney.

perinephritis /perɪnɪˈfraɪtɪs/ noun, pathol inflammation of the perinephrium.

perineum /perɪˈniːəm/ ▷ noun (perinea /-ˈniːə/) anatomy the region of the body between the genital organs and the anus. ● perineal adj. ◎ 17c: from Latin perinaeum, from Greek perinaion.

period /ˈpɪərɪəd/ ▷ noun 1 a portion of time. 2 a phase or stage, eg in history, or in a person's life and development, etc. 3 an interval of time at the end of which events recur in the same order. 4 geol a a unit of geological time that is a subdivision of an ERA, and is itself divided into EPOCHS; b any long interval of geological time □ glacial period. 5 any of the sessions of equal length into which the school day is divided, and to which particular subjects or activities are assigned. 6 especially N Amer a FULL STOP. 7 colloq added to a statement to emphasize its finality □ You may not go, period. 8 the periodic discharge of blood during a woman's menstrual cycle □ two weeks since her last period. 9 chem in the periodic table: any of the seven horizontal rows of chemical elements. 10 physics the time interval after which a cyclical phenomenon, eg a wave motion, repeats itself; the reciprocal of the frequency. 11 arith the recurring part of a circulating decimal. ▷ adj dating from, or designed in the style of, the historical period in question □ period costume □ period furniture. ● period of grace a specific time allowed to both parties to a contract to fulfil any obligations arising from it, or to withdraw from it completely. ◎ 15c: from Greek periodos circuit or going round, from peri round + hodos way.

periodic /pɪərɪˈɒdɪk/ ▷ adj 1 happening at intervals, especially regular intervals. 2 occurring from time to time; occasional. 3 chem referring or relating to the periodic table.

periodical /pɪərɪˈɒdɪkəl/ ▷ noun a magazine published weekly, monthly, quarterly, etc. ▷ adj 1 referring or relating to such publications. 2 published at more or less regular intervals. 3 periodic. ● periodically adverb.

periodic function ▷ noun, math a function that repeats itself at constant intervals.

periodicity /pɪərɪəˈdɪsɪtɪ/ ▷ noun the fact of recurring, or tendency to recur, at intervals; frequency.

periodic law ▷ noun, chem the law which states that the physical and chemical properties of the chemical elements tend to change in a periodic manner with increasing atomic number.

periodic sentence ▷ noun, rhetoric a sentence so constructed that it is not until the final clause that the requirements of sense and grammar are met, thus creating an element of suspense.

periodic table ▷ noun, chem a table of all the chemical elements arranged in order of increasing atomic number.

periodontal /perɪoʊ'dɒntəl/ ▷ adj, anatomy, etc relating to tissues or regions around a tooth.

periodontics ▷ singular noun the branch of dentistry concerned with periodontal diseases. Also called periodontology. ● periodontical adj. ● periodontist noun. ⓘ Early 20c: from Greek odous, odontos tooth.

periodontitis /perɪoʊdɒn'taɪtɪs/ ▷ noun, pathol inflammation of the tissues surrounding a tooth. ⓘ 19c.

period piece ▷ noun 1 a piece of furniture, etc dating from, and in the distinctive style of, a certain historical period. 2 facetious something quaintly old-fashioned.

periosteum /perɪ'ɒstɪəm/ ▷ noun (periostea /-tɪə/) anatomy a tough fibrous membrane covering the surface of bones, necessary for bone nutrition, and destruction of which prevents healing of fractures. ● periosteal or periostitic adj. ⓘ 16c: Latin, from Greek periosteon, from osteon a bone.

peripatetic /perɪpə'tetɪk/ ▷ adj 1 travelling about from place to place. 2 said of a teacher: employed by several schools and so obliged to travel between them. 3 (also Peripatetic) denoting the school of philosophers founded by Aristotle, given to promenading while lecturing. ▷ noun a peripatetic teacher or philosopher. ● peripatetically adverb. ⓘ 16c: from Greek peripatetikos, from peri around + pateein to walk.

peripeteia or peripetia /perɪpə'taɪə, perɪpə'tiːə/ ▷ noun (peripeteias) especially in drama: a sudden change of fortune. ⓘ 16c: Greek, from peri around + pet-, the root of piptein to fall.

peripheral /pə'rɪfərəl/ ▷ adj 1 relating or belonging to the outer edge or outer surface □ peripheral nerves. 2 (peripheral to something) not central to the issue in hand; marginal. 3 computing supplementary; auxiliary. 4 relating to the outer edge of the field of vision. ▷ noun, computing a device concerned with the input, output or backup storage of data, eg a printer, mouse or disk drive. Also called peripheral device.

periphery /pə'rɪfərɪ/ ▷ noun (peripheries) 1 the edge or boundary of something. 2 the external surface of something. 3 a surrounding region. ⓘ 16c: from Greek peripheria circumference or surface.

periphrasis /pə'rɪfrəsɪs/ ▷ noun (periphrases /-siːz/) a roundabout way of saying something; circumlocution. ⓘ 16c: Latin and Greek, from Greek peri around + phrasis speech.

periphrastic /perɪ'frastɪk/ ▷ adj 1 using periphrasis. 2 grammar said especially of a verb tense: involving an auxiliary: using at least two words instead of a single inflected form. ● periphrastically adverb.

perique /pə'riːk/ ▷ noun a strongly-flavoured tobacco from Louisiana. ⓘ 19c: possibly from Périque, the nickname of a grower.

periscope /'perɪskoʊp/ ▷ noun, optics a system of prisms or mirrors that enables the user to view objects that are above eye-level or obscured by a closer object, used in submarines, military tanks, etc. ● periscopic /-'skɒpɪk/ adj. ⓘ 19c: from Greek periskopein to look around.

perish /'perɪʃ/ ▷ verb (perishes, perished, perishing) 1 intr to die; to be destroyed or ruined. 2 a intr said of materials: to decay; b to cause (materials) to decay or rot. ⓘ 13c as perisshen: from French perir, from Latin perire.

perishable ▷ adj said of commodities, especially food: liable to rot or go bad quickly. ● perishability noun.

perished ▷ adj 1 colloq feeling the cold severely. 2 said of materials such as rubber: weakened and made liable to break or crack by age or exposure.

perisher ▷ noun, old colloq use a mischievous child or other troublesome person.

perishing ▷ adj 1 colloq said of weather, etc: very cold. 2 old use, colloq damned, infernal or confounded. ● perishingly adverb.

perisperm /'perɪspɜːm/ ▷ noun, bot nutritive tissue in a seed derived from the nucellus. ⓘ 19c: from Greek sperma seed.

perissodactyl /pərɪsoʊ'daktɪl/ ▷ noun, zool any UNGULATE with an odd number of toes, such as the horse, tapir or rhinoceros. ▷ adj referring, relating or belonging to the order Perissodactyla. ⓘ 19c: from Greek perissos odd + daktylos a finger or toe.

peristalith /pə'rɪstəlɪθ/ ▷ noun a stone circle. ⓘ 19c: from Greek peristatos standing around + lithos stone.

peristalsis /perɪ'stalsɪs/ ▷ noun (peristalses /-siːz/) physiol in hollow tubular organs, especially the intestines and oesophagus: the waves of involuntary muscle contractions that force the contents of the tube, eg food, further forward. ● peristaltic adj. ⓘ 18c: peristaltic, first used in 17c: from Greek peristellein to contract round.

peristyle /'perɪstaɪl/ ▷ noun, archit 1 a colonnade round a courtyard or building. 2 a court, square, etc surrounded by a colonnade. ⓘ 17c: from Greek peri round + stylos column.

peritoneum /perɪtə'niːəm/ ▷ noun (peritonea /-'niːə/ or peritoneums) anatomy a SEROUS membrane that lines the abdominal cavity. ● peritoneal adj. ⓘ 16c: Latin, from Greek peritonaion, from periteinein to stretch all round.

peritonitis /perɪtə'naɪtɪs/ ▷ noun, pathol inflammation of the peritoneum. ⓘ 18c.

periwig /'perɪwɪg/ ▷ noun a man's wig of the 17c and 18c. ⓘ 16c: a variant of PERUKE.

periwinkle[1] /'perɪwɪŋkəl/ ▷ noun any of various climbing plants with slender trailing stems, oval shiny green leaves, and single bluish-purple flowers with five flat lobes. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon perwince: from Latin pervinca.

periwinkle[2] /'perɪwɪŋkəl/ ▷ noun any of several species of herbivorous small marine mollusc with a spirally coiled shell, especially the edible or common periwinkle, sold by fishmongers as the winkle. ⓘ 16c: probably from Anglo-Saxon pinewincle.

perjure /'pɜːdʒə(r)/ ▷ verb (perjured, perjuring) (now always perjure oneself) to forswear oneself in a court of law, ie lie while under oath; to commit perjury. ⓘ 15c: from Latin perjurare, from jurare to swear.

perjury /'pɜːdʒərɪ/ ▷ noun (perjuries) the crime of lying while under oath in a court of law. ● perjurer noun.

perk[1] ▷ verb (perked, perking) tr & intr 1 (always perk up or perk someone up) to become or make someone more lively and cheerful. 2 (always perk up) said of an animal's ears: to prick up. ⓘ 14c.

perk[2] ▷ noun, colloq a benefit, additional to income, derived from employment, such as membership of a health club, the use of a company car, etc. ⓘ 19c: a shortening of PERQUISITE.

perk[3] ▷ verb (perked, perking) tr & intr, colloq to PERCOLATE (coffee). ⓘ 1930s.

perkin see PARKIN

perky /'pɜːkɪ/ ▷ adj (perkier, perkiest) lively and cheerful. ● perkily adverb. ● perkiness noun. ⓘ 19c: from PERK[1].

perlite or pearlite /'pɜːlaɪt/ ▷ noun, geol 1 any volcanic glass with small concentric spheroidal or spiral cracks between rectilineal ones. 2 a constituent of steel composed of alternate plates of ferrite and cementite. ● perlitic or pearlitic /-'lɪtɪk/ adj. ⓘ 19c: French

Periodic Table

The elements, listed with their symbols and atomic numbers, lie horizontally in order of their atomic numbers. Those with chemically similar

1 Hydrogen H
3 Lithium Li	4 Beryllium Be
11 Sodium Na	12 Magnesium Mg
19 Potassium K	20 Calcium Ca	21 Scandium Sc	22 Titanium Ti	23 Vanadium V	24 Chromium Cr	25 Manganese Mn	26 Iron Fe	27 Cobalt Co
37 Rubidium Rb	38 Strontium Sr	39 Yttrium Y	40 Zirconium Zr	41 Niobium Nb	42 Molybdenum Mo	43 Technetium Tc	44 Ruthenium Ru	45 Rhodium Rh
55 Caesium Cs	56 Barium Ba	57–71 Lanthanide series	72 Hafnium Hf	73 Tantalum Ta	74 Wolfram W	75 Rhenium Re	76 Osmium Os	77 Iridium Ir
87 Francium Fr	88 Radium Ra	89–103 Actinide series	104 Rutherfordium Rf
		57 Lanthanum La	58 Cerium Ce	59 Praseodymium Pr	60 Neodymium Nd	61 Promethium Pm	62 Samarium Sm	63 Europium Eu
		89 Actinium Ac	90 Thorium Th	91 Protactinium Pa	92 Uranium U	93 Neptunium Np	94 Plutonium Pu	95 Americium Am

perlocution /pɜːlə'kjuːʃən/ ▷ noun, philos a speech act that involves persuading, convincing, etc and which may or may not prove successful. Compare ILLOCUTION. • perlocutionary adj. ⓒ 1950s in this sense; 16c meaning 'speaking': PER-[2] + LOCUTION.

perm[1] ▷ noun a hair treatment using chemicals that give a long-lasting wave or curl. ▷ verb (permed, perming) to curl or wave (hair) with a perm. ⓒ 1920s: a shortening of PERMANENT WAVE.

perm[2] colloq ▷ noun short form of PERMUTATION noun 2. ▷ verb (permed, perming) short form of PERMUTE. ⓒ 1950s.

permaculture /'pɜːməkʌltʃə(r)/ ▷ noun, ecol an ecologically friendly and self-sustaining system of agriculture. ⓒ 20c: from permanent + agriculture.

permafrost /'pɜːməfrɒst/ ▷ noun, geol an area of subsoil or rock that has remained frozen for at least a year, and usually much longer, found mainly in arctic, subarctic and alpine regions. ⓒ 1940s: from permanent frost.

permalloy /'pɜːməlɔɪ/ ▷ noun any of various alloys of iron and nickel, which often contain other elements, such as copper, molybdenum and chromium, and which have high magnetic permeability. ⓒ 1920s: from permeability + ALLOY.

permanence /'pɜːmənəns/ ▷ noun the fact or state of being permanent.

permanency /'pɜːmənənsɪ/ ▷ noun (permanencies) 1 someone or something that is permanent. 2 permanence.

permanent /'pɜːmənənt/ ▷ adj 1 lasting, or intended to last, indefinitely; not temporary. 2 said of a condition, etc: unlikely to alter. • permanently adverb. ⓒ 15c: from Latin permanere to remain.

permanent magnet ▷ noun, physics a magnet that retains its magnetic properties after the force which magnetized it has been removed.

permanent tooth ▷ noun, anatomy in most mammals: any one of the set of teeth that develops after the MILK TEETH have been shed.

permanent wave ▷ noun, old use a PERM[1]. ⓒ Early 20c.

permanent way ▷ noun a railway track, including the rails, sleepers and stones.

permanganate /pə'maŋgəneɪt/ ▷ noun, chem any of the salts of permanganic acid, especially POTASSIUM PERMANGANATE, used as an oxidizing and bleaching agent and disinfectant. ⓒ 19c.

permeability /pɜːmɪə'bɪlɪtɪ/ ▷ noun 1 the ability of a porous material or membrane to allow a gas or liquid to pass through it. 2 physics a measure of the extent to which the presence of a material alters the magnetic field around it.

permeable /'pɜːmɪəbəl/ ▷ adj said of a porous material or membrane: allowing certain liquids or gases to pass through it. • permeably adverb. ⓒ 15c: from Latin permeabilis; see PERMEATE.

permeance /'pɜːmɪəns/ ▷ noun 1 the act of permeating. 2 elec engineering the reciprocal of the reluctance of a magnetic circuit.

permeate /'pɜːmɪeɪt/ ▷ verb (permeated, permeating) (also permeate through something) 1 said of a liquid or gas: to pass, penetrate or diffuse through (a fine or porous material or a membrane). 2 tr & intr said of a smell, gas, of Elements properties fall under one another in the columns. Elements with atomic numbers of 93 and over are man-made.

								2 Helium He
			5 Boron B	6 Carbon C	7 Nitrogen N	8 Oxygen O	9 Fluorine F	10 Neon Ne
			13 Aluminium Al	14 Silicon Si	15 Phosphorus P	16 Sulphur S	17 Chlorine Cl	18 Argon Ar
28 Nickel Ni	29 Copper Cu	30 Zinc Zn	31 Gallium Ga	32 Germanium Ge	33 Arsenic As	34 Selenium Se	35 Bromine Br	36 Krypton Kr
46 Palladium Pd	47 Silver Ag	48 Cadmium Cd	49 Indium In	50 Tin Sn	51 Antimony Sb	52 Tellurium Te	53 Iodine I	54 Xenon Xe
78 Platinum Pt	79 Gold Au	80 Mercury Hg	81 Thallium Tl	82 Lead Pb	83 Bismuth Bi	84 Polonium Po	85 Astatine At	86 Radon Rn

64 Gadolinium Gd	65 Terbium Tb	66 Dysprosium Dy	67 Holmium Ho	68 Erbium Er	69 Thulium Tm	70 Ytterbium Yb	71 Lutetium Lu
96 Curium Cm	97 Berkelium Bk	98 Californium Cf	99 Einsteinium Es	100 Fermium Fm	101 Mendelevium Md	102 Nobelium No	103 Lawrencium Lr etc: to spread through a room or other space; to fill or impregnate. • permeation noun. • permeative adj. ⓘ 17c: from Latin permeare to penetrate.

per mensum /pɛr ˈmɛnsəm/ ▷ adverb for each month; monthly; by the month. ⓘ 17c: Latin.

Permian /ˈpɜːmɪən/ ▷ adj 1 geol relating to the last period of the Palaeozoic era, during which reptiles became more abundant and primitive conifers and GINKGOES appeared. 2 relating to the rocks formed during this period. See table at GEOLOGICAL TIME SCALE. ⓘ 19c: named after the Perm region in Russia where extensive areas of rock formed in this period are found.

permissible /pəˈmɪsəbəl/ ▷ adj allowable; permitted. • permissibility noun. • permissibly adverb.

permission /pəˈmɪʃən/ ▷ noun consent, agreement or authorization. ⓘ 15c: from Latin permissio, from permittere; see PERMIT.

permissive /pəˈmɪsɪv/ ▷ adj 1 tolerant; liberal. 2 allowing usually excessive freedom, especially in sexual matters ▫ the permissive society. • permissively adverb. • permissiveness noun.

permit ▷ verb /pəˈmɪt/ (permitted, permitting) 1 to consent to or give permission for something. 2 to give (someone) leave or authorization. 3 to allow someone something ▫ permitted him access to his children. 4 (also permit of something) formal to enable it to happen or take effect; to give scope or opportunity for it ▫ an outrage that permits of no excuses. ▷ noun /ˈpɜːmɪt/ a document that authorizes something ▫ a fishing permit. ⓘ 15c: from Latin permittere, from mittere to let pass.

permittivity /pɜːmɪˈtɪvɪtɪ/ ▷ noun, physics (symbol ε) the ratio of the ELECTRIC DISPLACEMENT in a medium to the intensity of the electric field that is producing it, measured in FARADS per metre.

permutable /pəˈmjuːtəbəl/ ▷ adj interchangeable. • permutability noun. ⓘ 16c.

permutation /pɜːmjʊˈteɪʃən/ ▷ noun 1 math a any of several different ways in which a set of objects or numbers can be arranged; b any of the resulting combinations. 2 a fixed combination in football pools for selecting the results of matches. Often shortened to perm. ⓘ 14c: from Latin permutatio, from permutare (see PERMUTE).

permute /pəˈmjuːt/ or permutate /ˈpɜːmjʊteɪt/ ▷ verb (permuted, permuting, permutated, permutating) to rearrange (a set of things) in different orders, especially in every possible order in succession; to go through the possible permutations of (a set of things). Also shortened to perm. ⓘ 14c: from Latin permutare to change completely or interchange, from mutare to change.

pernicious /pəˈnɪʃəs/ ▷ adj harmful; destructive; deadly. • perniciously adverb. • perniciousness noun. ⓘ 16c: from Latin perniciosus, from pernicies ruin or bane.

pernicious anaemia ▷ noun, medicine a form of anaemia caused by a dietary deficiency of vitamin B_{12}, or by failure of the body to absorb the vitamin.

pernickety /pəˈnɪkətɪ/ ▷ adj 1 said of a person: over-particular about small details; fussy. 2 said of a task: tricky; intricate. • pernicketiness noun. ⓘ 19c: Scots.

Pernod /ˈpɛənoʊ, ˈpɜːnoʊ/ ▷ noun, trademark an alcoholic drink made in France, flavoured with aniseed, and usually drunk with water as an aperitif. ⓘ Early 20c.

peroneal /perə'niːəl/ ▷ adj, anatomy referring or relating to the FIBULA. ⓘ Early 18c: from medical Latin peronaeus, from Greek perone fibula.

peroration /perə'reɪʃən/ ▷ noun 1 the concluding section of a speech, in which the points made are summed up. 2 colloq a long formal speech. • perorate /'perəreɪt/ verb (perorated, perorating) to make a peroration. ⓘ 15c: from Latin peroratio, from per through + orare to speak.

peroxide /pə'rɒksaɪd/ ▷ noun 1 chem any of various strong oxidizing agents that release hydrogen peroxide when treated with acid, used in rocket fuels, antiseptics, disinfectants and bleaches. 2 a a solution of hydrogen peroxide used as a bleach for hair and textiles; b as adj ▫ a peroxide blonde. ▷ verb (peroxided, peroxiding) to bleach (hair) with hydrogen peroxide. ⓘ 19c.

perpend see PARPEN

perpendicular /pɜːpən'dɪkjʊlə(r)/ ▷ adj 1 vertical; upright; in the direction of gravity. 2 (also perpendicular to something) at right angles; forming a right angle with (a particular line or surface). 3 said of a cliff, etc: precipitous; steep. 4 (usually Perpendicular) archit referring or relating to the form of English Gothic architecture from late 14c to 16c, characterized by the use of slender vertical lines, vaulting and large areas of windows decorated with simple tracery and stained glass. ▷ noun 1 a perpendicular line, position or direction. 2 an instrument for determining the vertical line. • perpendicularity noun. • perpendicularly adverb. ⓘ 14c: from Latin perpendicularis, from perpendiculum a plumbline, from pendere to hang.

perpetrate /'pɜːpətreɪt/ ▷ verb (perpetrated, perpetrating) to commit, or be guilty of (a crime, misdeed, error, etc). • perpetration noun. • perpetrator noun. ⓘ 16c: from Latin perpetrare to bring about or commit, from patrare to achieve.

perpetual /pə'petʃʊəl/ ▷ adj 1 everlasting; eternal; continuous; permanent ▫ in perpetual bliss. 2 continual; continually recurring ▫ perpetual quarrels. 3 blooming continuously. • perpetually adverb. ⓘ 14c: from Latin perpetualis, from perpetuus uninterrupted.

perpetual calendar ▷ noun 1 a calendar for ascertaining on which day of the week any date falls. 2 a calendar that is usable for any year or for several years.

perpetual check ▷ noun, chess a situation in which one player's king is continually placed in check by the other player who may thereby claim a draw.

perpetual motion ▷ noun, physics the motion of a hypothetical machine that continues to operate indefinitely without any external source of energy.

perpetuate /pə'petʃʊeɪt/ ▷ verb (perpetuated, perpetuating) 1 to make something last or continue ▫ perpetuate a feud ▫ perpetuate a species. 2 to preserve the memory of (a name, etc). 3 to repeat and pass on (an error, etc). • perpetuation noun. • perpetuator noun. ⓘ 16c: from Latin perpetuare to make perpetual.

perpetuity /pɜːpə'tjuːɪtɪ/ ▷ noun (perpetuities) 1 the state of being perpetual. 2 eternity. 3 duration for an indefinite period. 4 something perpetual, eg an allowance to be paid indefinitely. • in perpetuity for ever. ⓘ 15c: from Latin perpetuitas, from perpetuus perpetual.

perplex /pə'pleks/ ▷ verb (perplexes, perplexed /-'plekst/, perplexing) 1 to puzzle, confuse or baffle someone with intricacies or difficulties. 2 to complicate. • perplexed adj. • perplexedly /pə'pleksɪdlɪ, -'plekstlɪ/ adverb. • perplexing adj. • perplexingly adverb. ⓘ 16c: from Latin per- thoroughly + plexus entangled.

perplexity /pə'pleksɪtɪ/ ▷ noun 1 the state of being perplexed. 2 (perplexities) something that perplexes.

per pro see under PP

perquisite /'pɜːkwɪzɪt/ ▷ noun 1 a PERK². 2 a customary tip expected on some occasions. 3 something regarded as due to one by right. ⓘ 18c in sense 2; 15c in obsolete legal sense of 'property acquired other than by inheritance': from Latin perquisitum something acquired.

Perrier /'perɪeɪ/ ▷ noun, trademark a sparkling mineral water from a spring of that name in Southern France. ⓘ Early 20c.

perron /'perən/ ▷ noun 1 a raised platform or terrace at an entrance door. 2 an external flight of steps leading up to this. ⓘ 14c: French, from Latin petra stone.

perry /'perɪ/ ▷ noun (perries) an alcoholic drink made from fermented pear juice. ⓘ 14c: from French peré, from Latin pirum pear.

pers. ▷ abbreviation 1 person. 2 personal.

perse /pɜːs/ ▷ adj dark-blue; bluish-grey. ▷ noun 1 a dark blue colour. 2 a cloth of such colour. ⓘ 14c: from French pers.

per se /pɜː seɪ/ ▷ adverb in itself; intrinsically ▫ not valuable per se. ⓘ 16c: Latin, meaning 'through itself'.

persecute /'pɜːsɪkjuːt/ ▷ verb (persecuted, persecuting) 1 to ill-treat, oppress, torment or put to death (a person or people), especially on the grounds of their religious or political beliefs. 2 to harass, pester or bother someone continually. • persecution noun. • persecutor noun. ⓘ 15c: from Latin persequi, persecutus to pursue or ill-treat.

persecution complex ▷ noun, psychiatry a morbid fear that one is being plotted against by other people.

perseverance /pɜːsə'vɪərəns/ ▷ noun the act or state of persevering; continued effort to achieve something one has begun, despite setbacks.

persevere /pɜːsə'vɪə(r)/ ▷ verb (persevered, persevering) intr (also persevere in or with something) to keep on striving for it; to persist steadily with (an endeavour, which may be long and arduous to achieve). • persevering adj. • perseveringly adverb. ⓘ 14c: from French perseverer, from Latin perseverare to abide by something strictly.

Persian /'pɜːʃən, ʒən/ ▷ adj relating to ancient Persia or modern Iran, or to their people or language. ▷ noun 1 a citizen or inhabitant of, or person born in, ancient Persia or modern Iran. 2 the language of Persia or Iran. See also FARSI. 3 a Persian cat. 4 a Persian carpet. ⓘ 14c.

Persian blinds see under PERSIENNES

Persian carpet ▷ noun a distinctively-patterned hand-woven woollen or silk carpet made in Persia or elsewhere in the Near East.

Persian cat ▷ noun a domestic cat with a long silky coat and a bushy tail.

Persian lamb ▷ noun 1 the soft loosely-curled black fur of the lamb of a KARAKUL sheep, used to make coats, hats, etc. 2 the lamb from which this is obtained.

persienne /pɜːsɪ'en/ ▷ noun an Eastern cambric or muslin fabric with a coloured printed pattern. ⓘ 19c: from French persien Persian.

persiennes /pɜːsɪ'enz/ ▷ plural noun outside shutters made of thin movable slats in a frame. Also called Persian blinds. ⓘ 19c: from French persien Persian.

persiflage /'pɜːsɪflɑːʒ, pɜːsɪ'flɑːʒ/ ▷ noun banter; teasing, flippancy or frivolous talk. ⓘ 18c: French, from persifler to banter.

persimmon /pə'sɪmən, pɜː/ ▷ noun 1 any of various tall trees, native to warm temperate regions, widely cultivated for their hard wood and edible fruits. 2 the plum-like fruit of any of these trees. Also called DATE PLUM. ⓘ 17c: from an Algonquian language.

persist /pə'sɪst/ ▷ verb (persisted, persisting) intr 1 (also persist in or with something) to continue with it in spite of resistance, difficulty, discouragement, etc. 2 said of rain, etc: to continue steadily. 3 said eg of a mistaken idea: to remain current. 4 to continue to exist. • persistence and persistency noun. ⓘ 16c: from Latin persistere to stand firm.

persistence of vision ▷ noun, physiol the persistence of a visual image on the retina for a short period after removal of the visual stimulus.

persistent /pəˈsɪstənt/ ▷ adj 1 continuing with determination in spite of discouragement; dogged; tenacious. 2 constant; unrelenting □ persistent questions. 3 zool, bot said of parts of animals and plants, such as horns, hair, leaves, etc: remaining after the time they usually fall off, wither or disappear. 4 bot continuing to grow beyond the usual time. 5 ecol said of a chemical: remaining relatively stable after release into the atmosphere. • persistently adverb.

persistent cruelty ▷ noun, law in matrimonial proceedings: behaviour likely to cause danger to the life or health of a spouse.

persistent vegetative state ▷ noun, medicine (abbreviation PVS) a deep comatose condition in which the patient shows no sign of higher brain activity and is only kept alive by means of various types of medical technology. ⓘ 1990s.

person /ˈpɜːsən/ ▷ noun (persons or in sense 1 also people) 1 an individual human being. 2 the body, often including clothes □ A knife was found hidden on his person. 3 grammar each of the three classes into which pronouns and verb forms fall, first person denoting the speaker (or the speaker and others, eg I and we), second person the person addressed (with or without others, eg you) and third person the person(s) or thing(s) spoken of (eg she, he, it or they). 4 (Person) Christianity any of the three forms or manifestations of God (Father, Son and Holy Spirit) that together form the TRINITY (sense 2). 5 in compounds used instead of -man, -woman, etc, to denote a specified activity or office, avoiding illegal or unnecessary discrimination on grounds of sex, eg in job advertisements □ chairperson □ spokesperson. Compare CHAIRMAN, CHAIRWOMAN, etc. • be no respecter of persons to make no allowances for rank or status. • in person 1 actually present oneself □ was there in person. 2 doing something oneself, not asking or allowing others to do it for one. ⓘ 13c: from French persone, from Latin persona actor's mask.

persona /pəˈsoʊnə/ ▷ noun (personae /-niː/ or personas) 1 a character in fiction, especially in a play or novel. 2 in Jungian psychology: one's character as one presents it to the world, masking one's inner thoughts, feelings, etc. Compare ANIMA. See also PERSONA GRATA, PERSONA NON GRATA. ⓘ Early 20c: Latin, meaning 'an actor's mask'.

personable /ˈpɜːsənəbəl/ ▷ adj good-looking or likeable. • personableness noun. • personably adverb.

personage ▷ noun a well-known, important or distinguished person. ⓘ 15c: from Latin personagium, from persona person.

persona grata /— ˈɡrɑːtə/ (personae gratae /— -tiː/) ▷ noun a person who is acceptable, liked or favoured, especially one who is diplomatically acceptable to a foreign government. Compare PERSONA NON GRATA. ⓘ 19c: Latin, meaning 'a welcome person'.

personal /ˈpɜːsənəl/ ▷ adj 1 said of a comment, opinion, etc: coming from someone as an individual, not from a group or organization □ my personal opinion. 2 done, attended to, etc by the individual person in question, not by a substitute □ give it my personal attention. 3 relating to oneself in particular □ a personal triumph. 4 relating to one's private concerns □ details of her personal life. 5 said of remarks: referring, often disparagingly, to an individual's physical or other characteristics. 6 relating to the body □ personal hygiene. 7 grammar indicating PERSON (sense 3) □ personal pronoun. ⓘ 14c: from Latin personalis.

personal assistant ▷ noun (abbreviation PA) a secretary or administrator, especially one who helps a senior executive or manager, etc.

personal column ▷ noun a newspaper column or section in which members of the public may place advertisements, enquiries, etc.

personal computer ▷ noun (abbreviation PC or pc) a microcomputer designed for use by one person, which may be self-contained or networked to a larger system, used especially for wordprocessing, database or spreadsheet applications.

personal effects ▷ plural noun a person's belongings, especially those regularly carried about by them.

personal equation ▷ noun 1 a correction to be applied to the reading of an instrument on account of the observer's tendency to read too high or too low, etc. 2 any tendency to error or prejudice due to personal characteristics, for which allowance must be made.

personal equity plan ▷ noun (abbreviation PEP), Brit finance a type of investment scheme which allows relatively small investors to own shares in British companies, free from income tax and capital gains on any income and profits accrued.

personal identification number see PIN personality /pɜːsəˈnalɪtɪ/ ▷ noun (personalities) 1 a person's nature or disposition; the qualities that give one's character individuality. 2 strength or distinctiveness of character □ lots of personality. 3 a well-known person; a celebrity. 4 (personalities) offensive personal remarks. 5 psychol all the physical, mental and emotional characteristics of an individual as an integrated whole, especially as they are presented to others. ⓘ 14c: from Latin personalitas, from persona person.

personality disorder ▷ noun, psychiatry any of various types of mental illness in which the sufferer tends to exhibit inappropriate behaviour.

personalize /ˈpɜːsənəlaɪz/ or personalise ▷ verb (personalized, personalizing) 1 to mark something distinctively, eg with name, initials, etc, as the property of a particular person. 2 to focus (a discussion, etc) on personalities instead of the matter in hand. 3 to personify. • personalization noun. ⓘ 18c.

personally /ˈpɜːsənəlɪ/ ▷ adverb 1 as far as one is concerned □ Personally, I disapprove. 2 in person. 3 as a person. 4 as directed against one □ take a remark personally.

personal pronoun ▷ noun, grammar any of the pronouns that represent a person or thing, eg I, you, she, her, he, it, they, us.

personal organizer ▷ noun a a small bag or wallet with sections in which personal notes and information may be kept; b a similar electronic device. Sometimes shortened to organizer. Compare FILOFAX.

personal property ▷ noun everything one owns other than land or buildings. Also called personalty. See also REAL PROPERTY.

personal stereo ▷ noun a small audio-cassette player with earphones, that can be worn attached to a belt or carried in a pocket. Also called WALKMAN.

persona non grata /— nɒn ˈɡrɑːtə/ (personae non gratae /— — -tiː/) ▷ noun someone who is not wanted or welcome within a particular group. Compare PERSONA GRATA. ⓘ 20c: Latin, meaning 'unwelcome person'.

personate /ˈpɜːsəneɪt/ ▷ verb (personated, personating) 1 to play the part of (a character in a play, etc). 2 to impersonate someone, especially with criminal intent. • personation noun. • personator noun. ⓘ 16c.

personification /pəsɒnɪfɪˈkeɪʃən/ ▷ noun 1 the attribution of human qualities to things or ideas. 2 in art or literature: the representation of an idea or quality as a person or human figure. 3 someone or something that personifies. 4 someone or something that is seen as embodying a particular quality □ the personification of patience.

personify /pəˈsɒnɪfaɪ/ ▷ verb (personifies, personified, personifying) 1 in literature, etc: to represent (an abstract quality, etc) as a human being or as having human qualities. 2 said of a figure in art, etc: to represent or symbolize (a quality, etc). 3 to embody something in human form; to be the perfect example of it □ She's patience personified. • personifier noun. ⓘ 18c: probably from French personnifier; see also -FY.

personnel /pɜːsəˈnɛl/ ▷ plural noun the people employed in a business company, an armed service or other organization. ▷ singular noun a a department within such an organization that deals with matters concerning employees; b as adj □ a personnel officer □ the personnel department. See also HUMAN RESOURCES. ⓘ 19c: French, meaning 'personal'.

personnel carrier ▷ noun a military vehicle, often an armoured one, for carrying troops.

perspective /pəˈspɛktɪv/ ▷ noun 1 the observer's view of objects in relation to one another, especially with regard to the way they seem smaller the more distant they are. 2 the representation of this phenomenon in drawing and painting. 3 the balanced or objective view of a situation, in which all its elements assume their due importance □ After a flustered few days, he finally got things into perspective. 4 an individual way of regarding a situation, eg one influenced by personal experience or considerations. ⓘ 14c: from Latin ars perspectiva optical science.

perspectivism ▷ noun 1 philos the theory that things can only be known from an individual point of view at a particular time. 2 the use of subjective points of view in literature and art.

Perspex /ˈpɜːspɛks/ ▷ noun, trademark the trade name for POLYMETHYLMETHACRYLATE.

perspicacious /pɜːspɪˈkeɪʃəs/ ▷ adj shrewd; astute; perceptive or discerning. • perspicaciously adverb. • perspicacity /-ˈkasɪtɪ/ noun. ⓘ 17c: from Latin perspicax.

perspicuous /pəˈspɪkjʊəs/ ▷ adj said of speech or writing: clearly expressed and easily understood. • perspicuously adverb. • perspicuity /pɜːspɪˈkjuːɪtɪ/ noun. • perspicuousness noun. ⓘ 15c: from Latin perspicuus transparent or manifest.

perspiration /pɜːspɪˈreɪʃən/ ▷ noun 1 the secretion of fluid by the sweat glands of the skin, usually in response to heat or physical exertion. 2 the fluid secreted in this way.

perspire /pəˈspaɪə(r)/ ▷ verb (perspired, perspiring) intr to secrete fluid from the sweat glands of the skin; to sweat. ⓘ 18c in this sense; 17c in obsolete sense referring to wind, meaning 'to blow gently through': from Latin perspirare to breathe through or sweat.

persuadable or persuasible ▷ adj capable of being persuaded. • persuadability or persuasibility noun.

persuade /pəˈsweɪd/ ▷ verb (persuaded, persuading) 1 (also persuade someone to do something) to urge successfully; to prevail on or induce someone. 2 (often persuade someone of something) to convince them that it is true, valid, advisable, etc. • persuader noun 1 someone or something that persuades. 2 slang a gun. ⓘ 16c: from Latin persuadere, from per thoroughly + suadere to advise or recommend.

persuasion /pəˈsweɪʒən/ ▷ noun 1 the act of urging, coaxing or persuading. 2 a creed, conviction, or set of beliefs, especially that of a political group or religious sect.

persuasive /pəˈsweɪsɪv, -zɪv/ ▷ adj having the power to persuade; convincing or plausible. • persuasively adverb. • persuasiveness noun.

PERT ▷ abbreviation programme evaluation and review technique.

pert ▷ adj (perter, pertest) 1 impudent; cheeky. 2 said of clothing or style: jaunty; saucy. • pertly adverb. • pertness noun. ⓘ 14c: from French apert open.

pertain /pəˈteɪn/ ▷ verb (pertained, pertaining) intr (often pertain to someone or something) 1 to concern or relate to them or it; to have to do with them or it. 2 to belong to them or it □ skills pertaining to the job. 3 to be appropriate; to apply. ⓘ 14c: from Latin pertinere, from per- utterly + tenere to hold.

pertinacious /pɜːtɪˈneɪʃəs/ ▷ adj determined in one's purpose; dogged; tenacious. • pertinaciously adverb. • pertinaciousness or pertinacity /-ˈnasɪtɪ/ noun. ⓘ 17c: from Latin pertinax holding fast.

pertinent /ˈpɜːtɪnənt/ ▷ adj (also pertinent to someone or something) relating to or concerned with them or it; relevant. • pertinence or pertinency noun. ⓘ 14c: from Latin pertinens, pertinentis pertaining, from pertinere to relate.

perturb /pəˈtɜːb/ ▷ verb (perturbed, perturbing) to make someone anxious, agitated, worried, etc. • perturbed adj. • perturbedly adverb. ⓘ 14c: from Latin perturbare to throw into confusion, from per thoroughly + turbare to disturb.

perturbation /pɜːtəˈbeɪʃən/ ▷ noun 1 the act of perturbing or state of being perturbed. 2 astron a small deviation from the path of the orbit of a planet, etc because of the gravitational influence of neighbouring celestial bodies.

pertussis /pəˈtʌsɪs/ ▷ noun, medicine whooping cough. • pertussal adj. ⓘ 18c: Latin, from tussis cough.

peruke /pəˈruːk, ˈpɛruːk/ ▷ noun a 17c and 18c style of wig, with side curls and a tail at the back. ⓘ 16c: from French perruque head of hair.

peruse /pəˈruːz/ ▷ verb (perused, perusing) 1 to read through (a book, magazine, etc) carefully. 2 to browse through something casually. 3 to examine or study (eg someone's face) attentively. • perusal noun. • peruser noun. ⓘ 16c in these senses; 15c meaning 'to use up': from PER- sense 2 + USE¹.

Peruvian /pəˈruːvɪən/ ▷ adj belonging or relating to Peru, a republic on the W coast of S America, or its inhabitants. ▷ noun a citizen or inhabitant of, or person born in, Peru. ⓘ 18c.

perv ▷ noun, slang a pervert. ▷ verb (also perve) (perved, perving) Austral (also perv at or on someone) to look at them lustfully or for sexual pleasure. ⓘ 1940s: shortened from PERVERT.

pervade /pəˈveɪd/ ▷ verb (pervaded, pervading) to spread or extend throughout something; to affect throughout something; to permeate. • pervasion /pəˈveɪʒən/ noun. ⓘ 17c: from Latin pervadere, from vadere to go.

pervasive /pəˈveɪsɪv/ ▷ adj tending to or having the power to spread everywhere. • pervasively adverb. • pervasiveness noun.

perverse /pəˈvɜːs/ ▷ adj (perverser, perversest) 1 deliberately departing from what is normal and reasonable. 2 unreasonable; awkward; stubborn or wilful. • perversely adverb. • perverseness noun. • perversity noun the state or quality of being perverse. ⓘ 14c: from Latin perversus, from pervertere; see PERVERT.

perversion /pəˈvɜːʃən, -ʒən/ ▷ noun 1 the process of perverting or condition of being perverted. 2 a distortion. 3 an abnormal sexual activity. ⓘ 14c: from Latin perversio; see PERVERT.

pervert ▷ verb /pəˈvɜːt/ (perverted, perverting) 1 to divert something or someone illicitly from what is normal or right □ pervert the course of justice. 2 to lead someone into evil or unnatural behaviour; to corrupt them. 3 to distort or misinterpret (words, etc). ▷ noun /ˈpɜːvɜːt/ someone who is morally or sexually perverted. ⓘ 14c: from Latin pervertere to turn the wrong way, to overturn or to corrupt.

Pesach or Pesah /ˈpeɪsɑːx/ ▷ noun the Hebrew name for PASSOVER. ⓘ 11c: Hebrew.

peseta /pəˈseɪtə/ ▷ noun (peseta or pesetas) the standard unit of currency of Spain. ⓘ 19c: Spanish, diminutive of pesa weight.

pesky /ˈpeskɪ/ ▷ adj (peskier, peskiest) N Amer colloq troublesome or infuriating. • peskily adverb. ⓘ 18c: probably from PEST.

peso /ˈpeɪsoʊ/ ▷ noun (pesos) the standard unit of currency of many Central and S American countries and the Philippines. ⓘ 16c: Spanish, literally 'weight'.

pessary /ˈpesərɪ/ ▷ noun (pessaries) 1 a vaginal SUPPOSITORY. 2 a cup-shaped device worn in the vagina as a contraceptive, or as a support for the womb. ⓘ 14c: from Latin pessarium, from Greek pessos pebble or plug.

pessimism /ˈpesɪmɪzəm/ ▷ noun 1 the tendency to emphasize the gloomiest aspects of anything, and to expect the worst to happen. 2 the belief that this is the worst of all possible worlds, and that evil is triumphing over good. Compare OPTIMISM. • pessimist noun 1 someone who has a sombre gloomy nature. 2 someone who follows the doctrine of pessimism. • pessimistic adj. • pessimistically adverb. ⓘ 18c: from Latin pessimus WORST + -ISM.

pest ▷ noun 1 a living organism, such as an insect, fungus or weed, that has a damaging effect on animal livestock, crop plants or stored produce. 2 colloq a person or thing that is a constant nuisance. ⓘ 16c: from Latin pestis plague.

pester /ˈpestə(r)/ ▷ verb (pestered, pestering) 1 to annoy constantly. 2 to harass or hound someone with requests. • pesterer noun. • pestering adj. • pesteringly adverb. ⓘ 16c: from French empestrer to entangle; influenced by PEST.

pesticide /ˈpestɪsaɪd/ ▷ noun any of various chemical compounds, including insecticides, herbicides and fungicides, that are used to kill pests. ⓘ 1930s.

pestilence /ˈpestɪləns/ ▷ noun 1 a virulent epidemic or contagious disease, such as bubonic plague. 2 anything that is harmful to the morals. ⓘ 14c: from Latin pestilentia, from pestis plague.

pestilent /ˈpestɪlənt/ ▷ adj 1 deadly, harmful or destructive. 2 colloq, often facetious infuriating; troublesome. • pestilently adverb. ⓘ 15c: from Latin pestilens, from pestis plague.

pestilential /pestɪˈlenʃəl/ ▷ adj infuriating; troublesome. • pestilentially adverb.

pestle /ˈpesəl, ˈpestəl/ ▷ noun a club-shaped utensil for pounding, crushing and mixing substances in a MORTAR. ▷ verb (pestled, pestling) to pound or crush, etc something with a pestle. ⓘ 14c: from French pestel, from Latin pistillum a pounder, from pinsere to pound.

pesto /ˈpestoʊ/ ▷ noun (pestos) an Italian sauce for pasta, originating in Liguria and made by crushing and mixing together fresh basil leaves, pine kernels, olive oil, garlic and Parmesan cheese. ⓘ 1930s: Italian, from pestato crushed, from pestare to crush or pound.

pestology /pesˈtɒlədʒɪ/ ▷ noun the study of agricultural pests and methods of combating them. • pestologist noun. ⓘ 1920s.

PET /pet/ ▷ abbreviation, medicine positron emission tomography. Frequently as PET scan, PET scanning, a form of TOMOGRAPHY used especially for brain scans.

pet[1] ▷ noun 1 a tame animal or bird kept as a companion. 2 someone's favourite □ the teacher's pet. 3 a darling or love. 4 a term of endearment. ▷ adj 1 kept as a pet □ a pet lamb. 2 relating to pets or for pets □ pet food. 3 favourite; own special □ her pet subject. ▷ verb (petted, petting) 1 to pat or stroke (an animal, etc). 2 to treat someone indulgently; to make a fuss of them. 3 intr said of two people: to fondle and caress each other for erotic pleasure. • petting noun. ⓘ 16c.

pet[2] ▷ noun a fit of bad temper or sulks. See also PETTISH. ⓘ 16c.

Pet. ▷ abbreviation Book of the Bible: Peter. See table at BIBLE.

peta- /ˈpetə/ ▷ combining form (symbol P) denoting one thousand million million; 10^{15} □ petajoule □ petametre. ⓘ 1970s: probably based on PENTA-.

petal /ˈpetəl/ ▷ noun 1 bot in a flower: one of the modified leaves, often scented and brightly coloured, which in insect-pollinated plants serve to attract passing insects. 2 a term of endearment. ⓘ 18c: ultimately from Greek petalon leaf.

pétanque /peˈtɒŋk/ ▷ noun the name given in S France to a game that originated in Provence, in which steel bowls are rolled or hurled towards a wooden marker ball. Also called BOULES. ⓘ 1950s: French.

petard /peˈtɑːd/ ▷ noun, historical a small bomb for blasting a hole in a wall, door, etc. • hoist with one's own petard blown up by one's own bomb, ie the victim of one's own trick or cunning; caught in one's own trap. ⓘ 16c: from French pétard a banger or firecracker, from péter to break wind, from Latin pedere.

petechia /peˈtiːkɪə/ ▷ noun (petechiae /-kɪiː/) medicine a small red or purple spot on the skin. • petechial adj. ⓘ 18c: Latinized from Italian petecchia freckle.

peter /ˈpiːtə(r)/ ▷ verb (petered, petering) intr (always peter out) to dwindle away to nothing. ⓘ 19c, originally US mining slang.

Peter Pan ▷ noun a youthful, boyish or immature man. ⓘ Early 20c: the hero of J M Barrie's play Peter Pan, the boy who wouldn't grow up (1904).

Peter Pan collar ▷ noun a flat collar with rounded ends.

the Peter principle ▷ noun, facetious the theory that in a hierarchy people rise to the level at which they are incompetent. ⓘ 1960s: the title of a book by Laurence Johnston Peter (born 1919), Canadian author.

petersham /ˈpiːtəʃəm/ ▷ noun 1 a stiff ribbed silk ribbon used for reinforcing waistbands, etc. 2 a a heavy greatcoat; b rough-napped cloth, generally dark blue, from which these coats are made. ⓘ 19c: named after Lord Petersham, a 19c English army officer.

Peter's pence ▷ plural noun 1 historical a tax, or tribute, of a silver penny paid to the Pope. 2 in modern times: a voluntary contribution to the Pope. ⓘ 13c in sense 1: from St Peter, the first pope.

Peters' projection ▷ noun, map-making an equal area map projection, showing accurately the relative sizes of continents, oceans, etc, so giving a less Eurocentric view of the world. Compare MERCATOR'S PROJECTION. ⓘ 1970s: named after Arno Peters (born 1916), German cartographer and mathematician.

pet hate ▷ noun something that one especially dislikes.

pethidine /ˈpeθɪdiːn/ ▷ noun a mildly sedative pain-relieving drug, widely used in childbirth. Also called meperidine. ⓘ 1940s.

petiole /ˈpetɪoʊl/ ▷ noun 1 bot the stalk that attaches a leaf to the stem of a plant. 2 zool a stalk-like structure, especially that of the abdomen in wasps, etc. ⓘ 18c: from Latin petiolus little foot.

petit bourgeois /ˈpetɪ bʊəˈʒwɑː, —bɔːˈʒwɑː/ ▷ noun (petits bourgeois /ˈpetɪ —/) a member of the lower middle class. Also written petty bourgeois. ⓘ 19c: French, literally 'little citizen'.

petite /pəˈtiːt/ ▷ adj said of a woman or girl: characterized by having a small and dainty build. ⓘ 18c: French, feminine of petit small.

petite bourgeoisie /pəˈtiːt bɔːʒwɑːˈziː/ ▷ noun (petites bourgeoisies /pətiːt/) the lower middle class. ⓘ Early 20c: French.

petit four /ˈpetɪ fʊə(r), fɔː(r), ˈpətɪ —/ ▷ noun (petits fours /— fʊəz, — fɔːz/) a small sweet biscuit, usually decorated with icing. ⓘ 19c: French, literally 'little oven'.

petition /pəˈtɪʃən/ ▷ noun 1 a formal written request to an authority to take some action, signed by a large number of people. 2 any appeal to a higher authority. 3 law an application to a court for some procedure to be set in motion. ▷ verb (petitioned, petitioning) tr & intr (also petition someone for or against something) to address a petition to them for or against some cause; to make an appeal or request. • petitionary adj. • petitioner noun 1 someone who petitions. 2 someone who applies for a divorce. ⓘ 15c: French, from Latin petitio, from petere to seek.

petit jury /ˈpetɪ —/ ▷ noun, English law a jury of twelve persons. Often written petty jury. Compare GRAND JURY.

petit mal /ˈpetɪ mal/ ▷ noun, medicine a mild form of EPILEPSY, without convulsions, characterized by short periods of loss of consciousness or 'absences'. Compare GRAND MAL. ⓘ Late 19c: French, literally 'little sickness or illness'.

petit point /ˈpetɪ pɔɪnt, — pwɛ̃/ ▷ noun 1 a small diagonal stitch used for fine work in needlepoint. 2 needlework using this stitch. ⓘ 19c: French, meaning 'small point'.

petits pois /ˈpetɪ pwɑː/ ▷ plural noun small young green peas. ⓘ 19c: French, meaning 'little peas'.

pet name ▷ noun a special name used as an endearment.

petrel /ˈpetrəl/ ▷ noun any of numerous small seabirds with a hooked bill and external tube-shaped nostrils, especially the STORM PETREL. ⓘ 17c: altered from earlier pitteral, perhaps from the name Peter by association with the story of St Peter walking on the water, as some species of storm petrel walk across the surface of the sea while feeding.

Petri dish /ˈpiːtrɪ —, ˈpetrɪ —/ ▷ noun, biol a shallow circular glass or plastic plate with a flat base and a loosely fitting lid, used for culturing bacteria, etc. ⓘ Late 19c: named after Julius R Petri (1852–1921), German bacteriologist.

petrifaction /petrɪˈfakʃən/ or petrification /petrɪfɪˈkeɪʃən/ ▷ noun, geol 1 a type of fossilization whereby organic remains are turned into stone as the original tissue is gradually replaced molecule-by-molecule by minerals. 2 the state of being petrified.

petrify /ˈpetrɪfaɪ/ ▷ verb (petrifies, petrified, petrifying) 1 to terrify; to paralyse someone with fright. 2 tr & intr said of organic remains: to turn into stone by the process of petrifaction. 3 tr & intr to fix or become fixed in an inflexible mould. ⓘ 16c: from French pétrifier, from Greek petra stone.

Petrine /ˈpiːtraɪn/ ▷ adj relating to the apostle Peter. ⓘ 19c: from Latin Petrus Peter.

petro-[1] /ˈpetroʊ/ ▷ combining form, denoting 1 petroleum and its products □ petrochemical. 2 referring or relating to the petroleum industry, eg production, export, sales, etc □ petromoney. ⓘ 1970s, from petroleum.

petro-[2] /ˈpetroʊ/ ▷ combining form, denoting stone or rocks □ petrology. ⓘ From Greek petra rock.

petrochemical ▷ noun any organic chemical derived from petroleum or natural gas. ▷ adj 1 referring or relating to such chemicals. 2 referring or relating to the petrochemical industry. • petrochemically adverb. ⓘ Early 20c.

petrochemistry ▷ noun 1 the scientific study of the chemistry of materials derived from petroleum or natural gas. 2 the scientific study of the chemical composition of rocks. ⓘ 1930s.

petrocurrency ▷ noun currency, usually in the form of US dollars (PETRODOLLARS), pounds sterling or Deutschmarks, available in oil-producing countries on their balance of payments and which is surplus to their own requirements. ⓘ 1970s.

petrodollar ▷ noun the US dollar as representative of the foreign currency earned by oil-exporting countries. ⓘ 1970s.

petroglyph /ˈpetroʊglɪf/ ▷ noun a rock-carving, especially a prehistoric one. ⓘ 19c: from French pétroglyphe, from Greek petra rock + glyphein to carve.

petrography /peˈtrɒgrəfɪ/ ▷ noun the systematic description and classification of rocks. ⓘ 17c: from Greek petra rock + -GRAPHY.

petrol /ˈpetrəl/ ▷ noun a volatile flammable liquid mixture of hydrocarbons, used as a fuel in most internal combustion engines. Also (N Amer) called GASOLINE. ⓘ Late 19c in this sense; 16c meaning PETROLEUM: from French pétrole, from Latin petroleum.

petrolatum /petrəˈleɪtəm/ ▷ noun a PARAFFIN-base PETROLEUM used as a lubricant or medicinally as an ointment. Also called petroleum jelly. ⓘ 19c: Latin, from PETROL.

petrol-blue ▷ adj a deep greenish blue. Also (petrol blue) as noun.

petrol bomb ▷ noun a crude bomb consisting of a petrol-filled bottle stopped with rags that are set alight just as the bottle is thrown. Compare MOLOTOV COCKTAIL.

petrol engine ▷ noun a type of INTERNAL COMBUSTION ENGINE, widely used in motor vehicles, in which a mixture of petrol and air is burned inside a cylinder fitted with a piston.

petroleum /pəˈtroʊlɪəm/ ▷ noun a naturally occurring oil consisting of a thick dark liquid mixture of hydrocarbons, distillation of which yields a wide range of petrochemicals, eg liquid and gas fuels, asphalt, and raw materials for the manufacture of plastics, solvents, drugs, etc. Compare PETROL. ⓘ 16c: Latin, from petra rock + oleum oil.

petroleum jelly ▷ noun PETROLATUM.

petroleum wax ▷ noun a solid hydrocarbon from PETROLEUM, being either a PARAFFIN WAX, microcrystalline wax or PETROLATUM wax.

petrology /pəˈtrɒlədʒɪ/ ▷ noun, geol the scientific study of the structure, origin, distribution and history of rocks. • petrological /petrəˈlɒdʒɪkəl/ adj. • petrologist /-ˈtrɒl-/ noun. ⓘ 19c.

petrol station ▷ noun a FILLING STATION.

petrous /ˈpetrəs/ ▷ adj stony; characterized by having a consistency like rocks. ⓘ 16c: from Latin petrosus, from petra rock.

pe-tsai cabbage /peɪˈtsaɪ —/ ▷ noun CHINESE CABBAGE. ⓘ 18c: from Chinese bai white + cai vegetable.

petted past tense, past participle of PET[1] petticoat /ˈpetɪkoʊt/ ▷ noun 1 a woman's underskirt. 2 (petticoats) historical skirts in general, or those worn by boys in early childhood in particular. 3 as adj said eg of organizations, tactics, etc: relating to or led by women, feminine or female □ petticoat government. ⓘ 15c: from PETTY adj 1 + COAT.

pettifogger /ˈpetɪfɒgə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 a lawyer who deals with unimportant cases, especially somewhat deceitfully or quibblingly. 2 derog someone who argues over trivial details; a quibbler. • pettifog verb (pettifogged, pettifogging) intr to act as a pettifogger. • pettifoggery noun. • pettifogging noun, adj. ⓘ 16c: from PETTY + German dialect voger arranger.

petting see PET[1]

pettish /ˈpetɪʃ/ ▷ adj peevish; sulky. • pettishly adverb. • pettishness noun. ◷ 16c.

petty /ˈpetɪ/ ▷ adj (pettier, pettiest) 1 being of minor importance; trivial. 2 small-minded or childishly spiteful. 3 referring to a low or subordinate rank. • pettily adverb. • pettiness noun. ◷ 14c: from French petit small.

petty bourgeois see under PETIT BOURGEOIS petty cash ▷ noun money kept for small everyday expenses in an office, etc.

petty jury see under PETIT JURY petty officer ▷ noun a non-commissioned officer in the navy. See table at RANK.

petulant /ˈpetjʊlənt/ ▷ adj ill-tempered; peevish. • petulance or petulancy noun. • petulantly adverb. ◷ 16c: French, from Latin petulans, petulantis, from petere to seek.

petunia /pəˈtjuːnɪə/ ▷ noun (petunias) any of various annual plants with large funnel-shaped, often striped, flowers in a range of bright colours, including white, pink and purple. ◷ 19c: from French petun tobacco plant, because of its similarity to this, from Guarani (S American Native language) pety.

pew /pjuː/ ▷ noun 1 one of the long benches with backs used as seating in a church. 2 colloq a seat □ take a pew. ◷ 15c: from French puie, from Latin podium part of a choir stall.

pewit see PEEWIT

pewter /ˈpjuːtə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 a silvery alloy with a bluish tinge, composed of tin and lead, used to make tableware (eg tankards), jewellery and other decorative objects. 2 articles made of pewter. 3 as adj made of pewter. • pewterer noun someone who makes or works in pewter. ◷ 14c: from French peutre.

peyote /peɪˈoʊtɪ, peɪˈoʊteɪ/ ▷ noun (peyotes) 1 the MESCAL cactus, native to N Mexico and the south-west USA. 2 a hallucinogenic substance obtained from the button-like tops of this plant, taken sacramentally during certain Native American religious ceremonies. ◷ 19c: from Nahuatl (S American Native language) peyotl.

PF ▷ abbreviation 1 Patriotic Front. 2 Procurator Fiscal.

Pf ▷ abbreviation pfennig, or pfennigs.

pfennig /ˈfenɪɡ, ˈpfenɪɡ; German ˈpfenɪç/ ▷ noun (pfennigs or pfennige /-nɪɡə/) a German unit of currency worth a hundredth of a DEUTSCHMARK. ◷ 16c: German, related to PENNY.

PFP ▷ abbreviation Partnership for Peace.

PG ▷ abbreviation 1 as a film classification: parental guidance, ie containing scenes possibly unsuitable for children. 2 colloq paying guest.

pg. ▷ abbreviation page. See also P, PP.

PGA ▷ abbreviation Professional Golfers' Association.

pH /piːˈeɪtʃ/ and pH value ▷ noun, chem a measure of the relative acidity or alkalinity of a solution expressed as the logarithm of the reciprocal of the hydrogen-ion concentration of the solution. ◷ Early 20c: a shortening of German Potenz power or exponent + H, the symbol for hydrogen.

phacoid /ˈfakɔɪd, ˈfeɪ-/ ▷ adj 1 lentil-shaped. 2 lens-shaped. ◷ 19c: from Greek phakos a lentil + -OID.

Phaedra complex /ˈfiːdrə —/ ▷ noun, psychol the difficult relationship which can arise between a new step-parent and the son or daughter, usually teenage son or daughter, of the original marriage. ◷ 20c: named after Phaedra who, in Greek mythology, fell in love with her stepson and committed suicide after being rejected by him.

phaeton /ˈfeɪtən/ ▷ noun an open four-wheeled carriage for one or two horses. ◷ 16c: named after Phaeton who, in Greek mythology, was son of the god Helios and who drove his father's chariot so close to the Earth that he was destroyed by Zeus; from Greek phaethon shining.

phage /feɪdʒ/ ▷ noun, biol short for BACTERIOPHAGE.

-phage /feɪdʒ, faɪʒ/ ▷ combining form, forming nouns, denoting something that eats or consumes the specified thing □ bacteriophage. ◷ From Greek phagein to eat.

phago- /ˈfaɡoʊ/ or (before a vowel) phag- ▷ combining form, denoting feeding, eating or destroying □ phagocyte. ◷ From Greek phagein to eat.

phagocyte /ˈfaɡoʊsaɪt/ ▷ noun, biol a cell, especially a white blood cell, that engulfs and usually destroys micro-organisms and other foreign particles. • phagocytic /-ˈsɪtɪk/ or phagocytical adj. ◷ 19c.

phagocytosis /faɡoʊsaɪˈtoʊsɪs/ ▷ noun, biol the process whereby specialized cells, such as phagocytes and macrophages, engulf and digest bacteria, cell debris, or other solid material. ◷ 19c.

-phagous /fəɡəs/ ▷ combining form forming adjectives corresponding to nouns in -PHAGE.

phalange /ˈfalandʒ/ ▷ noun 1 anatomy a PHALANX. 2 /also faˈlɑ̃ʒ/ the Christian right-wing group in Lebanon, modelled on the Spanish Falange. ◷ 16c: French.

phalanger /fəˈlandʒə(r)/ ▷ noun any of various nocturnal tree-dwelling marsupials, native to Australia and New Guinea, with thick fur, small fox-like ears and large forward-facing eyes. Also called possum. ◷ 18c: from Greek phalangion spider's web, because of its webbed toes.

phalangist /ˈfalandʒɪst/ ▷ noun a member of the PHALANGE (sense 2).

phalanx /ˈfalaŋks, ˈfeɪlaŋks/ ▷ noun (phalanxes or in senses 3 and 4 phalanges /-dʒiːz/) 1 historical in ancient Greece: a body of infantry in close-packed formation. 2 a solid body of people, especially one representing united support or opposition. 3 anatomy in vertebrates: any of the bones of the digits. 4 biol a bundle of stamens. • phalangeal /fəˈlandʒɪəl/ or phalangal /fəˈlaŋɡəl/. ◷ 16c: Greek, meaning 'a line of soldiers drawn up for battle'.

phalarope /ˈfalәroʊp/ ▷ noun any of various small aquatic birds of the sandpiper family, the female of which courts the male and the male incubates the eggs and cares for the young. ◷ 18c: from Latin Phalaropus, from Greek phalaris coot + pous foot.

phallic /ˈfalɪk/ ▷ adj 1 relating to or resembling a phallus. 2 psychoanal relating to a stage in psychosexual development when a child's interest is concentrated on the genital organs.

phallicism /ˈfalɪsɪzəm/ and phallism ▷ noun worship of the generative power of nature. • phallicist or phallist noun.

phallocentric /faloʊˈsentrɪk/ ▷ adj 1 centred on the phallus. 2 dominated by or expressive of male attitudes. • phallocentricity noun. ◷ 1920s.

phallocentrism ▷ noun in feminist theory: the concept that many artistic, cultural, social, etc systems assume and advance, either consciously or unconsciously, the idea that the masculine is the natural source of power, authority, etc and, as a consequence, the feminine becomes subjugated by this.

phallus /ˈfaləs/ ▷ noun (phalluses or phalli /-laɪ/) 1 a penis. 2 a representation or image of an erect penis, especially as a symbol of male reproductive power. 3 (Phallus) the STINKHORN genus of fungi. ◷ 17c: Latin, from Greek phallos.

Phanerozoic /fanərəˈzoʊɪk/ ▷ adj, geol relating to the eon consisting of the Palaeozoic, Mesozoic and Cenozoic eras, extending from about 570 million years ago until the present time. See table at GEOLOGICAL TIME SCALE. Compare PROTEROZOIC. ◷ 19c: from Greek phaneros visible + zoion animal, because it is the eon that displays a broad range of animal life.

phantasm /ˈfantazəm/ ▷ noun 1 an illusion or fantasy. 2 a ghost or phantom. Also called phantasma (phantasmata). ● phantasmal adj. ● phantasmally adverb. ◷ 13c: from Greek phantasma apparition.

phantasmagoria /fantazməˈɡɔːrɪə/ ▷ noun (phantasmagorias) a fantastic succession of real or illusory images seen as if in a dream. ● phantasmagoric or phantasmagorical adj. ◷ 19c: perhaps from Greek phantasma apparition + agora assembly.

phantasy /ˈfantəsɪ/ ▷ noun (phantasies) an old spelling of FANTASY.

phantom /ˈfantəm/ ▷ noun 1 a ghost or spectre. 2 an illusory image or vision. ▷ adj 1 referring to the nature of a phantom; spectral. 2 imaginary; fancied; not real. ◷ 14c: from French fantosme, from Greek phantasma apparition.

phantom limb ▷ noun, medicine the perception of feeling in a limb that has been amputated.

phantom pregnancy see under PSEUDOCYESIS.

phar. or pharm. ▷ abbreviation 1 pharmaceutical. 2 pharmacopoeia. 3 pharmacy.

Pharaoh /ˈfɛəroʊ/ ▷ noun the title of the kings of ancient Egypt, specifically the god-kings from the time of the New Kingdom (c.1500 BC) onwards. ● Pharaonic /fɛəreɪˈɒnɪk/ adj. ◷ Anglo-Saxon: from Greek pharao, from Egyptian pr-'o great house.

Pharisee /ˈfarɪsiː/ ▷ noun (Pharisees) 1 a member of the Pharisees, an ancient Jewish sect whose strict interpretation of the Mosaic law led to an obsessive concern with the rules covering the details of everyday life. 2 derog anyone more careful of the outward forms than of the spirit of religion. 3 derog a self-righteous or hypocritical person. ● Pharisaic or pharisaic /farɪˈseɪɪk/ adj. ◷ Anglo-Saxon: from Greek pharisaios, from Hebrew parush separated.

pharm. see PHAR.

pharmaceutical /fɑːməˈsjuːtɪkəl, -ˈsuːtɪkəl, -ˈkjuːtɪkəl/ and pharmaceutic ▷ adj referring or relating to the preparation of drugs and medicines. ● pharmaceutically adverb. ◷ 17c: from Latin pharmaceutics, from Greek pharmakeutikos, from pharmakon drug.

pharmaceutics /fɑːməˈsjuːtɪks, -ˈsuːtɪks, -ˈkjuːtɪks/ ▷ singular noun the preparation and dispensing of drugs and medicine.

pharmacist /ˈfɑːməsɪst/ ▷ noun someone who is trained and licensed to prepare and dispense drugs and medicines. ◷ 19c: from PHARMACY + -IST.

pharmacology /fɑːməˈkɒlədʒɪ/ ▷ noun the scientific study of medicines and drugs and their effects and uses. ● pharmacological /-kəˈlɒdʒɪkəl/ adj. ● pharmacologically adverb. ● pharmacologist noun. ◷ 18c: from Greek pharmakon drug + -LOGY.

pharmacopoeia /fɑːməkəˈpiːə/ ▷ noun (pharmacopoeias) medicine an authoritative book that contains a list of drugs, together with details of their properties, uses, side-effects, methods of preparation and recommended dosages. ◷ 17c: Latin, from Greek pharmakopoiia preparation of drugs.

pharmacy /ˈfɑːməsɪ/ ▷ noun (pharmacies) 1 the mixing and dispensing of drugs and medicines. 2 a dispensary in a hospital, etc. 3 a pharmacist's or chemist's shop. ◷ 14c: from French farmacie, from Greek pharmakeia use of drugs.

pharyngeal /farɪnˈdʒiːəl/ or pharyngal /fəˈrɪŋɡəl/ ▷ adj, anatomy, medicine relating to or in the region of the pharynx or throat.

pharyngitis /farɪnˈdʒaɪtɪs/ ▷ noun, medicine inflammation of the mucous membrane of the pharynx, characterized by a sore throat, fever and difficulty in swallowing. ◷ 19c: medical Latin; see PHARYNX, -ITIS.

pharyngology /farɪnˈɡɒlədʒɪ/ ▷ noun, medicine the study of the pharynx and its diseases. ◷ 19c.

pharynx /ˈfarɪŋks/ ▷ noun (pharynxes or pharynges /-rɪndʒiːz/) 1 anatomy in mammals: the part of the alimentary canal that links the mouth and nasal passages with the oesophagus and trachea. 2 the throat. ◷ 17c: Greek, meaning 'throat'.

phase /feɪz/ ▷ noun 1 a stage or period in growth or development. 2 the appearance or aspect of anything at any stage. 3 astron any of the different shapes assumed by the illuminated surface of a celestial body, eg the Moon. 4 physics the stage that a periodically varying waveform has reached at a specific moment, usually in relation to another waveform of the same frequency. 5 chem a homogeneous part of a chemical system that is separated from other such parts of the system by distinct boundaries ▫ Ice and water form a two-phase mixture. ▷ verb (phased, phasing) to organize or carry out (changes, etc) in stages. ● in or out of phase coinciding, or failing to coincide, phase by phase throughout a series of changes. ◷ 19c: from Greek phasis appearance.

■ phase something in or out to introduce it, or get rid of it, gradually and in stages. See also PHASE-OUT.

phase difference ▷ noun, physics the amount by which one WAVE (noun 2) is behind or ahead of another wave of the same frequency.

phase-out ▷ noun an act or instance of phasing something out.

phatic communion /ˈfatɪk —/ ▷ noun, linguistics spoken language used for social reasons rather than to communicate ideas or facts, its main purpose being to maintain a rapport between people. It includes many conventional greetings such as hello, and statements or observations about the weather such as Isn't it a nice day? ◷ 1920s: from Greek phatos spoken.

PhD /piːeɪtʃˈdiː/ ▷ abbreviation: philosophiae doctor (Latin), Doctor of Philosophy. See also DPH.

pheasant /ˈfezənt/ ▷ noun (pheasant or pheasants) 1 any of various species of ground-dwelling bird, the males of which are usually brightly coloured and have long pointed tails. 2 the common or ringed pheasant, a popular gamebird, the male of which has coppery plumage, with a dark-green head and neck, and red wattles around its eyes. ◷ 13c: from French fesan, from Greek phasianos ornis bird of the Phasis, ie the river in Asia Minor.

phellem /ˈfeləm/ ▷ noun, bot the technical word for CORK (noun 1). ◷ 19c: German, from Greek phellos cork.

phencyclidine /fenˈsaɪklɪdiːn/ ▷ noun, chem (abbreviation PCP) an analgesic and anaesthetic drug, also used illegally as a hallucinogen. Also called angel dust. ◷ 1960s: from phen- + cyclo- + piperidine.

phenetics /fɪˈnetɪks/ ▷ singular noun, biol a system of classification of organisms based on observable similarities and differences irrespective of whether or not the organisms are related. ● phenetic adj. ◷ 1960s: from PHENOTYPE, modelled on GENETICS.

pheno- /ˈfiːnoʊ/ or (before a vowel) phen- chem ▷ combining form, forming nouns, denoting 1 something showing or visible ▫ phenotype. 2 a molecule that contains benzene rings. ◷ From Greek phaino- shining, from phainein to show.

phenobarbitone or (chiefly N Amer) phenobarbital noun a hypnotic and sedative drug used to treat insomnia, anxiety and epilepsy. ◷ 1930s.

phenocryst /ˈfiːnoʊkrɪst/ ▷ noun, geol in an igneous rock: a conspicuous crystal that is larger than the others. ◷ 19c: from French phénocryste; see PHENO-.

phenol /ˈfiːnɒl/ ▷ noun, chem 1 (formula C_6H_5OH) a colourless crystalline toxic solid used in the manufacture of phenolic and epoxy resins, nylon, solvents, explosives, drugs, dyes and perfumes. Also called carbolic acid. 2 any member of a group of weakly acidic organic chemical compounds, many of which are used as antiseptics, eg trichlorophenol (TCP). ⓘ 19c: from phene, an old name for benzene + -OL.

phenolic resins /fɪˈnɒlɪk —/ ▷ plural noun, chem a group of plastics made from a PHENOL and an ALDEHYDE.

phenology /fɪˈnɒlədʒɪ/ ▷ noun the study of organisms as affected by climate, especially dates of seasonal phenomena, such as the opening of flowers, arrival of migrant animals, etc. ● phenological /fiːnoʊˈlɒdʒɪkəl/ adj. ● phenologist noun. ⓘ 19c: from phenomenon + -LOGY.

phenolphthalein /fiːnɒlˈθeɪliːn/ ▷ noun, chem a dye which is colourless in acidic solutions and turns carmine red in alkaline solutions, used as a pH indicator and as a laxative. ⓘ 19c.

phenomenal /fəˈnɒmənəl/ ▷ adj 1 remarkable; extraordinary; abnormal. 2 referring to the nature of a phenomenon. 3 relating to phenomena. ● phenomenally adverb. ⓘ 19c.

phenomenalism ▷ noun, philos a theory that human knowledge is confined to collections of sense-data (PHENOMENA), and that we know nothing that is not given to us by sense experience. ● phenomenalist noun, adj. ⓘ 19c.

phenomenology /fənɒmɪˈnɒlədʒɪ/ ▷ noun 1 the science of observing, or of describing, phenomena. 2 the philosophy of Edmund Husserl (1859-1938), concerned with the subjective experiences of the self, as opposed to ONTOLOGY. ● phenomenological /-nəˈlɒdʒɪkəl/ adj. ● phenomenologist noun. ⓘ 18c: from PHENOMENON + -LOGY.

phenomenon /fəˈnɒmɪnən/ ▷ noun (phenomena /-mɪnə/) 1 a happening perceived through the senses, especially something unusual or scientifically explainable. 2 an extraordinary or abnormal person or thing; a prodigy. 3 a feature of life, social existence, etc □ stress as a work-related phenomenon. ⓘ 17c: from Greek phainomenon appearing, present participle of phainesthai to appear.

> phenomenon
>
> Note that phenomena is plural. 'A phenomena' is often heard, but is not correct.

phenothiazine /fiːnoʊˈθaɪəziːn, fiːnoʊ-/ ▷ noun (formula $C_{12}H_9NS$) 1 a toxic heterocyclic compound used as a veterinary anthelminthic. 2 any of a number of derivatives of this, used as tranquillizers. ⓘ 19c: from PHENO- + THIO- + AZINE.

phenotype ▷ noun, genetics 1 the observable characteristics of an organism, determined by the interaction between its GENOTYPE and environmental factors. 2 a group of individuals having the same characteristics of this kind. ● phenotypic /-ˈtɪpɪk/ or phenotypical adj. ⓘ Early 20c: from German phaenotype; see PHENO-.

phenyl /ˈfiːnɪl/ ▷ noun, chem (formula C_6H_5) an organic radical found in benzene, phenol, etc. ⓘ 19c: from phene, an old name for benzene + -YL.

phenylalanine or phenylalanin /fiːnɪlˈaləniːn/ ▷ noun, biochem an essential amino acid, present in most proteins, that is readily converted to tyrosine. ⓘ 19c: from German phenylalanin, PHENYL + ALANINE.

phenylketonuria /fiːnɪlkiːtoʊˈnjʊərɪə/ ▷ noun, medicine, pathol in infants: an inherited metabolic disorder in which phenylalanine accumulates in the body, damages the nervous system and may cause mental retardation. ● phenylketonuric noun someone who suffers from phenylketonuria. ⓘ 1930s.

pheromone /ˈferəmoʊn/ ▷ noun, zool any chemical substance secreted in minute amounts by an animal, especially an insect or mammal, which has a specific effect on the behaviour of other members of the same species. ⓘ 1950s: from Greek pherein to bear + HORMONE.

phew /fjuː/ ▷ exclamation used to express relief, astonishment or exhaustion. ⓘ 17c: imitating the sound of a whistle.

phi /faɪ/ ▷ noun (phis) the twenty-first letter of the Greek alphabet. See table at GREEK ALPHABET.

phial /faɪəl/ ▷ noun a little medicine bottle. ⓘ 14c: from Latin phiala, from Greek phiale shallow dish.

Phi Beta Kappa /faɪ ˈbiːtə ˈkapə, — ˈbeɪtə —/ ▷ noun in the US: 1 a national honorary society founded in 1776, whose members are chosen for their high academic distinction. 2 a member of this society. ⓘ 18c: from the initial letters of its Greek motto, Philosophia biou kybernetes philosophy is the guide of life.

Phil. ▷ abbreviation 1 US state Philadelphia. 2 Book of the Bible: Philippians. See table at BIBLE. 3 philosophy. 4 philosophiae (Latin), of philosophy.

phil- see PHILO-

-phil see -PHILE

philadelphus /fɪləˈdelfəs/ ▷ noun (philadelphuses) any of various deciduous shrubs native to north temperate regions, especially the mock orange. ⓘ 18c: from Greek philadelphon loving one's brother.

philander /fɪˈlandə(r)/ ▷ verb (philandered, philandering) intr said of men: to flirt or have casual love affairs with women; to womanize. ● philanderer noun. ⓘ 16c: from Greek philandros, literally 'fond of men' but misapplied as 'a loving man', used in Greek literature as a proper name for a lover.

philanthropy /fɪˈlanθrəpɪ/ ▷ noun a charitable regard for one's fellow human beings, especially in the form of benevolence to those in need, usually characterized by contributing money, time, etc to various causes. ● philanthropic /-lanˈθrɒpɪk/ adj benevolent. ● philanthropist or philanthrope /ˈfɪlənθroʊp/ noun. ⓘ 17c: from Greek philanthropia, from phil- loving + anthropos man.

philately /fɪˈlatəlɪ/ ▷ noun the study and collecting of postage stamps. ● philatelic /fɪləˈtelɪk/ adj. ● philatelist noun. ⓘ 19c: from French philatélie, from Greek phil- PHILO- + ateles untaxed, indicating mail being delivered 'free' if prepaid by a stamp.

-phile /faɪl/ or -phil /fɪl/ ▷ combining form, forming nouns, denoting fondness, attraction or loving of the specified thing □ bibliophile. ⓘ From Greek philos loving.

Philem. ▷ abbreviation Book of the Bible: Philemon. See table at BIBLE.

philharmonic /fɪləˈmɒnɪk, fɪlhɑːˈmɒnɪk/ ▷ adj used as part of the name of choirs and orchestras: dedicated to music, not indicating a particular type of music. ⓘ 19c: from French philharmonique.

-philia /fɪlɪə, fiːlɪə/ ▷ combining form, forming nouns, denoting 1 a tendency towards an abnormal functioning of the specified thing □ haemophilia. 2 an abnormal and usually sexual liking or love of the specified thing □ paedophilia.

-philiac /fɪlɪak/ ▷ combining form forming nouns and adjectives corresponding to nouns in -PHILIA.

philibeg see FILIBEG philippic /fɪˈlɪpɪk/ ▷ noun a speech making a bitter attack on someone or something. ⓘ 16c: from the orations of the Athenian Demosthenes against Philip of Macedon.

philistine /ˈfɪlɪstaɪn/ ▷ adj having no interest in or appreciation of art, literature, music, etc, and tending rather towards materialism. ▷ noun a philistine person. • philistinism /-stɪnɪzəm/ noun. ⓘ 19c in this sense; 14c: from Greek Philistinos.

Phillips screw /ˈfɪlɪps —/ ▷ noun, trademark a screw with a recessed cross in the head, used with a corresponding Phillips screwdriver (trademark). ⓘ 1930s: named after the original US manufacturer, Phillips Screws.

philo- /ˈfɪloʊ/ or (before a vowel) phil- /fɪl/ ▷ combining form, denoting fondness or liking of the specified thing. ⓘ From Greek philos loving.

philology /fɪˈlɒlədʒɪ/ ▷ noun 1 the study of language, its history and development; the comparative study of related languages; linguistics. 2 the study of literary and non-literary texts, especially older ones. • philological /fɪləˈlɒdʒɪkəl/ adj. • philologically adverb. • philologist noun. ⓘ 17c: from Greek philologia love of argument, literature or learning.

philosopher /fɪˈlɒsəfə(r)/ ▷ noun someone who studies philosophy, especially one who develops a particular set of doctrines or theories.

philosopher's stone ▷ noun, historical a hypothetical substance able to turn any metal into gold, long sought by alchemists. ⓘ 14c.

philosophical /fɪləˈsɒfɪkəl/ or philosophic ▷ adj 1 referring or relating to philosophy or philosophers. 2 calm and dispassionate in the face of adversity; resigned, stoical or patient □ very philosophical about his problems. • philosophically adverb.

philosophize or philosophise /fɪˈlɒsəfaɪz/ ▷ verb (philosophized, philosophizing) intr 1 to form philosophical theories. 2 to reason or speculate in the manner of a philosopher. • philosophizer noun. ⓘ 16c.

philosophy /fɪˈlɒsəfɪ/ ▷ noun (philosophies) 1 the search for truth and knowledge concerning the universe, human existence, perception and behaviour, pursued by means of reflection, reasoning and argument. 2 any particular system or set of beliefs established as a result of this. 3 a set of principles that serves as a basis for making judgements and decisions □ one's philosophy of life. • moral philosophy and natural philosophy see separate entries. ⓘ 14c: from Greek philosophia love of wisdom, from philo- loving + sophia wisdom.

-philous /fɪləs/ ▷ combining form forming adjectives corresponding to nouns in -PHILIA.

philtre /ˈfɪltə(r)/ ▷ noun a magic potion for arousing sexual desire. ⓘ 17c: French, from Greek philtron love charm.

phimosis /faɪˈmoʊsɪs/ ▷ noun, pathol narrowness or constriction of the foreskin which prevents it being drawn back over the glans penis. ⓘ 17c: from Greek, meaning 'muzzling', from phimos a muzzle.

phiz and phizog /fɪˈzɒg/ ▷ noun, slang, mainly Brit the face. ⓘ 17c: shortening of PHYSIOGNOMY.

phlebitis /flɪˈbaɪtɪs/ ▷ noun, pathol inflammation of the wall of a vein, often resulting in the formation of a blood clot at the affected site. ⓘ 19c: Latin, from Greek phleps, phlebos vein + -ITIS.

phlebotomy /flɪˈbɒtəmɪ/ ▷ noun (phlebotomies) surg the removal of blood by puncturing or making a surgical incision in a vein. ⓘ 14c: from Latin phlebotomia, from Greek phleps, phlebos a vein + -tomia cutting.

phlegm /flɛm/ ▷ noun 1 a thick yellowish substance produced by the mucous membrane that lines the air passages, brought up by coughing. 2 calmness or impassiveness; stolidity or sluggishness of temperament. 3 old physiol one of the four humours (see HUMOUR noun 6) or bodily fluids, ie the humour characterized as cold and moist. • phlegmy /ˈflɛmɪ/ adj. ⓘ 14c as fleume: French, from Greek phlegma flame, heat, phlegm (thought to be the result of heat) or inflammation.

phlegmatic /flɛgˈmatɪk/ or phlegmatical ▷ adj 1 said of a person: calm; not easily excited. 2 producing or having phlegm. • phlegmatically adverb.

phloem /ˈfloʊəm/ ▷ noun, bot the plant tissue that is responsible for the transport of sugars and other nutrients from the leaves to all other parts of the plant. See also XYLEM. ⓘ 19c: German, from Greek phloios bark.

phlogiston /flɒˈdʒɪstɒn/ ▷ noun, chem, historical a substance believed in the 18c to be present in combustible materials and to separate from them during combustion, the observed actions of which were subsequently found to be due to oxygen. ⓘ 18c: Latin, from Greek phlogistos, phlogiston burnt up or inflammable.

phlomis /ˈfloʊmɪs/ ▷ noun (phlomis or phlomises) a plant belonging to a genus of labiate herbs and shrubs with whorls of white, yellow or purple flowers and wrinkled, often woolly, leaves. ⓘ 18c: Latin.

phlox /flɒks/ ▷ noun (phlox or phloxes) any of various mat-forming, trailing or erect plants with white, pink, red or purple tubular flowers borne in large dense terminal clusters. ⓘ 18c: Latin, from Greek, meaning 'flame' or 'wallflower'.

phlyctaena or phlyctena /flɪkˈtiːnə/ ▷ noun (phlyctaenae or phlyctenae /-niː/) medicine a small blister or vesicle. ⓘ 17c: Latin, from Greek phlyktaina blister, from phlyein to swell.

-phobe /foʊb/ ▷ combining form, forming nouns, denoting someone affected by a phobia of the specified kind □ Anglophobe □ xenophobe. ⓘ French, from Greek phobos fear.

phobia /ˈfoʊbɪə/ ▷ noun (phobias) an obsessive and persistent fear of a specific object or situation, eg spiders, open spaces, etc, representing a form of neurosis. ⓘ 18c: from the combining form -PHOBIA.

-phobia /ˈfoʊbɪə/ ▷ combining form, forming nouns, denoting obsessive and persistent fear of the specified thing □ claustrophobia □ hydrophobia. ⓘ Greek, from phobos fear.

phobic /ˈfoʊbɪk/ ▷ adj 1 relating to or involving a phobia. 2 affected by a phobia. ⓘ 19c.

-phobic /ˈfoʊbɪk/ ▷ combining form forming adjectives corresponding to nouns in -PHOBIA.

phoebe /ˈfiːbɪ/ ▷ noun a N American flycatcher. ⓘ 19c: an imitation of its song.

Phoenician /fəˈnɪʃən, fəˈniːʃən/ ▷ adj belonging or relating to ancient Phoenicia, a narrow strip of land in the Eastern Mediterranean between the mountains of Lebanon and the sea, or to its people or culture. ▷ noun 1 a member of the Phoenician people. 2 their Semitic language. ⓘ 14c.

phoenix /ˈfiːnɪks/ ▷ noun (phoenixes) 1 in Arabian legend: a bird which every 500 years sets itself on fire and is reborn from its ashes to live a further 500 years. 2 someone or something of unique excellence or unsurpassable beauty. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon fenix: from Greek phoinix.

phoenixism ▷ noun, stock exchange the practice of forming a new company from a bankrupted one, usually with the same directors, workforce, premises, etc, which continues the same trading debt-free.

phon /fɒn/ ▷ noun, acoustics a unit of loudness, measured as the number of decibels above a pure tone with a

Some Common Phobias

Phobia	Meaning	Origin of name acrophobia	fear of heights and high places	Greek	akron	peak aerophobia	fear of air or draughts	Greek	aer	air agoraphobia	fear of open spaces	Greek	agora	market place aichmophobia	fear of knives	Greek	aichme	point of a spear ailurophobia	fear of cats	Greek	ailouros	cat algophobia	fear of pain	Greek	algos	pain androphobia	fear of men	Greek	aner, andros	man anemophobia	fear of wind	Greek	anemos	wind anthropophobia	fear of people	Greek	anthropos	person arachnophobia	fear of spiders	Greek	arachne	spider astrapophobia	fear of thunder and lightning	Greek	astrape	lightning aviophobia	fear of flying	Latin	avis	bird bathophobia	fear of depths and deep places	Greek	bathos	depth belonephobia	fear of needles	Greek	belone	needle bibliophobia	fear of books	Greek	biblion	book claustrophobia	fear of confined spaces	Latin	claustrum	an enclosed space cynophobia	fear of dogs or rabies	Greek	kyon, kynos	dog dromophobia	fear of crossing a street	Greek	dromos	road erotophobia	fear of sexual activity		see	EROTIC erythrophobia	fear of the colour red, or of blushing	Greek	erythros	red gephyrophobia	fear of crossing a bridge or river	Greek	gephyra	bridge gerontophobia	fear of old people or old age	Greek	geron, gerontos	old man graphophobia	fear of writing		see	GRAPH gynophobia	fear of women	Greek	gyne	woman haemophobia	fear of blood	Greek	haima	blood hierophobia	fear of sacred objects or rituals	Greek	hieros	sacred hodophobia	fear of travel	Greek	hodos	road, way homophobia	fear of or hostility to homosexuals		see	HOMOSEXUAL hydrophobia	fear of water	Greek	hydor	water kenophobia	fear of empty spaces	Greek	kenos	empty monophobia	fear of being alone	Greek	monos	alone mysophobia	fear of contamination or dirt	Greek	mysos	contamination necrophobia	fear of corpses or death	Greek	nekros	dead body neophobia	fear of new situations, places, or objects	Greek	neos	new nosophobia	fear of disease	Greek	nosos	disease nyctophobia	fear of the night or darkness	Greek	nyx, nyktos	night ochlophobia	fear of crowds	Greek	ochlos	crowd oikophobia	fear of one's surroundings	Greek	oikos	house ornithophobia	fear of birds	Greek	ornis	bird ophidiophobia	fear of snakes	Greek	ophidion	snake pantophobia	fear of everything	Greek	pas, pantos	everything phagophobia	fear of food or eating	Greek	phagein	to eat phengophobia	fear of daylight	Greek	phengos	light, brightness phobophobia	fear of fearing	Greek	phobos	fear phonophobia	fear of sounds or of speaking aloud	Greek	phonos	sound photophobia	fear of light	Greek	phos, photos	light ponophobia	fear of work	Greek	ponos	work, toil pyrophobia	fear of fire	Greek	pyr	fire scopophobia	fear of being looked at	Greek	skopein	to view scotophobia	fear of the dark	Greek	skotos	dark sitophobia	fear of food or eating	Greek	sitos	food spectrophobia	fear of mirrors	Latin	spectrum	image taphephobia	fear of being buried alive	Greek	taphos	tomb theophobia	fear of God	Greek	theos	god toxiphobia	fear of poisoning		see	TOXIC triskaidekaphobia	fear of the number thirteen	Greek	treiskaideka	thirteen xenophobia	fear of or hostility to foreigners	Greek	xenos	stranger zoophobia	fear of animals	Greek	zoion	animal frequency of 1000 hertz. © 1930s: German, from Greek phone sound.

phon- see PHONOphone¹ or 'phone /foʊn/ ▷ noun a telephone. Also as adj □ phone call □ phone box. ▷ verb (phoned, phoning) (also phone someone up) tr & intr to telephone someone. © 19c.

■ phone in to take part in a broadcast PHONE-IN.

phone² /foʊn/ ▷ noun, phonetics a single or elementary speech sound. © 19c: Greek, meaning 'sound'.

-phone /foʊn/ ▷ combining form, forming nouns and adjectives, denoting 1 an instrument that transmits or reproduces sound □ telephone □ microphone. 2 a musical instrument □ saxophone. 3 a speech sound □ homophone. 4 speaking, or a speaker of, a language □ Francophone. See also -PHONIC. ⓘ From Greek phone 'sound' or 'voice'.

phone book see TELEPHONE DIRECTORY phonecard ▷ noun a card that can be used to pay for phone calls from public telephones. ⓘ 1980s.

phone-in ▷ noun a radio or TV programme in which telephoned contributions from listeners or viewers are invited and discussed live by an expert or panel in the studio. ⓘ 1960s.

phoneme /ˈfouniːm/ ▷ noun, linguistics the smallest unit of sound in a language that has significance in distinguishing one word from another. ■ phonemic /fəˈniːmɪk/ adj. ■ phonemically adverb. ⓘ Late 19c: French, from Greek phonema a sound uttered.

phonemics /fəˈniːmɪks/ ▷ singular noun 1 the study and analysis of phonemes. 2 the system or pattern of phonemes in a language. ■ phonemicist noun.

phone phreaking see PHREAKING phonetic /fəˈnɛtɪk/ ▷ adj 1 referring or relating to the sounds of a spoken language. 2 said eg of a spelling: intended to represent the pronunciation. 3 denoting a pronunciation scheme using symbols each of which represents one sound only. ■ phonetically adverb. ⓘ 19c: from Greek phonetikos, from phoneein to speak.

phonetic alphabet ▷ noun 1 a list of symbols used in phonetic transcriptions, such as the IPA. 2 used in voice communications: a system in which letters of the alphabet are identified by means of code words, eg Delta for D, Echo for E, Foxtrot for F, etc. Also called NATO ALPHABET (see table there).

phonetics /fəˈnɛtɪks/ ▷ singular noun the branch of linguistics that deals with speech sounds, especially how they are produced and perceived. ■ phonetician /founɪˈtɪʃən/ noun. ■ phonetist /ˈfounɪtɪst/ noun. ⓘ 19c.

phoney or (US) phony /ˈfounɪ/ ▷ adj (phonier, phoniest) not genuine; fake, sham, bogus or insincere. ▷ noun (phoneys or phonies) someone or something bogus; a fake or humbug. ■ phoneyness or (US) phoniness noun. ⓘ Early 20c.

phonic /ˈfounɪk, ˈfɒnɪk/ ▷ adj 1 relating to sounds, especially vocal sounds. 2 education belonging or relating to the PHONIC METHOD (see PHONICS). ■ phonically adverb. ⓘ 19c: from Greek phonikos, from phone sound or voice.

-phonic ▷ combining form forming adjectives corresponding to nouns in -PHONE.

phonics or phonic method ▷ singular noun a method used in the teaching of reading, based on recognition of the relationships between individual letters, or groups of letters, and sounds. See also LOOK AND SAY.

phoniness an alternative US spelling of PHONEYNESS phono- /fouˈnou, phəˈnɒ/ or (before a vowel) phon- ▷ combining form, denoting sound or voice □ phonology □ phonograph. ⓘ From Greek phone sound or voice.

phonograph /ˈfounəgrɑːf/ ▷ noun, N Amer, old use a record-player. ⓘ 19c.

phonography /fouˈnɒgrəfɪ/ ▷ noun a system in which each spoken sound is represented by a distinct character, eg in shorthand. ⓘ 19c.

phonolite /ˈfounəlaɪt/ ▷ noun a fine-grained igneous rock that rings when struck by a hammer. Also called CLINKSTONE. ⓘ 19c.

phonology /fəˈnɒlədʒɪ/ ▷ noun (phonologies) 1 the study of speech sounds in general, or of those in any particular language. 2 any particular system of speech sounds. ■ phonological /-ˈlɒdʒɪkəl/ adj. ■ phonologically adverb. ■ phonologist /fəˈnɒlədʒɪst/ noun. ⓘ 18c, originally meaning PHONETICS.

phony an alternative US spelling of PHONEY phooey /ˈfuːɪ/ ▷ exclamation, colloq an exclamation of scorn, contempt, disbelief, etc. ⓘ 1920s: probably a variant of PHEW.

-phore or -phor /fɔː(r)/ ▷ combining form, forming nouns, denoting carrier of a specified thing □ semaphore □ chromatophore. ⓘ French, from Latin -phorus, from Greek -phoros.

-phoresis /fəˈriːsɪs/ ▷ combining form, forming nouns, denoting transmission of a specified thing □ electrophoresis. ⓘ Greek, from pherein to bear or carry.

-phorous /fərəs/ ▷ combining form forming adjectives corresponding to nouns in -PHORE.

phosgene /ˈfɒsdʒiːn/ ▷ noun, chem ▷ (formula $COCl_2$) a poisonous gas, carbonyl chloride, used in the manufacture of pesticides and dyes. ⓘ 19c: from Greek phos light + -GENE 1, because it was originally produced by exposing carbon monoxide and chlorine to sunlight.

phosphate /ˈfɒsfeɪt/ ▷ noun, chem any salt or ester of PHOSPHORIC ACID, found in living organisms and in many minerals, and used in fertilizers, detergents, water softeners, etc. ⓘ 18c.

phosphor /ˈfɒsfə(r)/ ▷ noun, chem any substance that is capable of phosphorescence, used to coat the inner surface of television screens and fluorescent light tubes, and as a brightener in detergents. ⓘ 17c: from Greek phosphoros; see PHOSPHORUS.

phosphoresce /fɒsfəˈrɛs/ ▷ verb (phosphoresced, phosphorescing) intr to be phosphorescent; to shine in the dark.

phosphorescence /fɒsfəˈrɛsəns/ ▷ noun 1 the emission of light from a substance after it has absorbed energy from a source such as ultraviolet radiation, and which continues for some time after the energy source has been removed. 2 a general term for the emission of light by a substance in the absence of a significant rise in temperature. ■ phosphorescent adj. ⓘ 18c.

phosphoric /fɒsˈfɒrɪk/ ▷ adj, chem referring to or containing phosphorus in higher VALENCY.

phosphoric acid ▷ noun, chem (formula H_3PO_4) a transparent crystalline water-soluble compound used in soft drinks, rust removers, and for forming a corrosion-resistant layer on iron and steel. Also called orthophosphoric acid.

phosphorous /ˈfɒsfərəs/ ▷ adj, chem referring to or containing phosphorus in lower VALENCY.

phosphorus /ˈfɒsfərəs/ ▷ noun, chem (symbol P, atomic number 15) a non-metallic element that exists as several different allotropes, including a whitish-yellow soft waxy solid that ignites spontaneously in air. ⓘ 17c: from Greek phosphoros bringer of light, from phos light + pherein to bring or carry.

phot /fɒt, fout/ ▷ noun in the cgs system: the unit of illumination equal to one LUMEN per square centimetre. ⓘ Early 20c in this sense: French from Greek phos, photos light.

phot. ▷ abbreviation 1 photographic. 2 photography.

photic /ˈfoutɪk/ ▷ adj 1 referring to or concerned with light. 2 said of the turbidity of the uppermost layer of the sea or lakes: referring to the depth to which light can penetrate to allow photosynthesis. ⓘ 19c: from Greek phos, photos light.

photo /ˈfoutou/ ▷ noun (photos) colloq a PHOTOGRAPH. ⓘ 1860s.

photo-[1] /foutou, fouˈtɒ/ ▷ combining form, denoting photography □ photocopier □ photomontage. ⓘ An abbreviation of PHOTOGRAPH.

photo-[2] /foutou, fouˈtɒ/ or phot- ▷ combining form, denoting light □ photoelectric. ⓘ From Greek phos, photos light.

photo call ⊳ noun an arranged opportunity for press photographers to take publicity photographs of eg a celebrity.

photocell see PHOTOELECTRIC CELL.

photochemistry ⊳ noun, chem the branch of chemistry concerned with the study of chemical reactions that will only take place in the presence of visible light or ultraviolet radiation, as well as chemical reactions in which light is produced. • photochemical adj. • photochemist noun. ⓘ 19c.

photocomposition see under FILMSETTING.

photocopier ⊳ noun a machine that makes copies of printed documents or illustrations by any of various photographic techniques, especially XEROGRAPHY.

photocopy ⊳ noun (photocopies) a photographic copy of a document, drawing, etc. ⊳ verb (photocopies, photocopied, photocopying) to make a photographic copy of (a document, etc). • photocopiable adj. • photocopying noun. ⓘ 1920s.

photodegradable ⊳ adj said of a substance or material: capable of being decomposed by the action of light or ultraviolet radiation. See also BIODEGRADABLE.

photoelectric ⊳ adj referring or relating to the electrical effects of light, eg the emission of electrons or a change in resistance. ⓘ 19c.

photoelectric cell ⊳ noun (abbreviation PEC or pec) a light-sensitive device that converts light energy into electrical energy, used in light meters, burglar alarms, etc. Also called photocell.

photoelectric effect ⊳ noun, physics the emission of electrons from the surface of some semi-metallic materials as a result of irradiation with light.

photoelectricity ⊳ noun electricity produced when certain materials, such as selenium or silicon, are exposed to light or other forms of electromagnetic radiation.

photoengraving ⊳ noun a technique for producing metal printing plates on cylinders carrying the image of continuous-tone and half-tone text and illustrations.

photo finish ⊳ noun 1 a race finish in which the runners are so close that the result must be decided by looking at a photograph taken at the finishing line. 2 any race finish which is very close. ⓘ 1930s.

Photofit or photofit ⊳ noun, trademark 1 a system used by the police for building up a likeness of someone to fit a witness's description, similar to IDENTIKIT but using photographs rather than drawings of individual features. 2 a likeness produced in this way. Also as adj □ photofit picture. ⓘ 1970s.

photogenic /foʊtə'dʒɛnɪk, -'dʒiːnɪk/ ⊳ adj 1 said especially of a person: characterized by the quality of photographing well or looking attractive in photographs. 2 biol producing, or produced by, light. ⓘ 1920s; mid 19c in sense 2.

photogram ⊳ noun 1 a type of picture produced by placing an object on or near photographic paper which is then exposed to light. 2 old use a photograph. ⓘ 19c in sense 2.

photogrammetry /foʊtoʊ'gramətrɪ/ ⊳ noun the use of photographic records for precise measurements of distances or dimensions, eg aerial photographs used in surveying and map-making. ⓘ 19c.

photograph ⊳ noun a permanent record of an image that has been produced on photosensitive film or paper by the process of photography. ⊳ verb (photographed, photographing) tr & intr to take a photograph of (a person, thing, etc). ⓘ 19c.

photographer /fə'tɒgrəfə(r)/ ⊳ noun someone who takes photographs, especially professionally.

photographic /foʊtə'grafɪk/ ⊳ adj 1 relating to or similar to photographs or photography. 2 said of memory: retaining images in exact detail. • photographically adverb.

photography /fə'tɒgrəfɪ/ ⊳ noun the process of making a permanent record of an image on light-sensitive film or some other sensitized material using visible light, X-rays, or some other form of radiant energy. ⓘ 19c.

photogravure /foʊtoʊgrə'vjʊə(r)/ ⊳ noun 1 a method of engraving in which the design is photographed on to a metal plate, and then etched in. 2 a picture produced in this way. ⓘ 19c: PHOTO-[1] + GRAVURE.

photojournalism ⊳ noun journalism consisting mainly of photographs to convey the meaning of the article, with written material playing a small role. • photojournalist noun. ⓘ 1940s.

photolithography ⊳ noun a process of lithographic printing from a photographically produced plate. ⓘ 19c.

photoluminescence ⊳ noun, physics luminescence produced by exposure of visible light, or infrared or ultraviolet radiation. • photoluminescent adj. ⓘ 19c. photolysis /foʊ'tɒlɪsɪs/ ⊳ noun, chem a chemical reaction in which the breaking of a chemical bond within a molecule of a substance is brought about by exposure to light or ultraviolet radiation. • photolytic /foʊtoʊ'lɪtɪk/ adj. ⓘ Early 20c.

photometry /foʊ'tɒmɪtrɪ/ ⊳ noun, physics the measurement of visible light and its rate of flow, which has important applications in photography and lighting design. • photometric /foʊtə'mɛtrɪk/ adj. ⓘ 18c.

photomicrograph ⊳ noun, physics a photograph of an object observed through a microscope. • photomicrography noun. ⓘ Mid 19c.

photomontage /foʊtoʊmɒn'tɑːʒ/ ⊳ noun the assembling of selected photographic images, either by mounting cut-out portions of prints on a backing, or by combining several separate negatives in succession during printing. This technique is widely used in advertising display material and sometimes in artistic creations. See also MONTAGE. ⓘ 1930s: from French montage mounting.

photomultiplier ⊳ noun, physics a device for the electronic detection of very low intensities of light. ⓘ 1940s.

photon /'foʊtɒn/ ⊳ noun, physics a particle of electromagnetic radiation that travels at the speed of light, used to explain phenomena that require light to behave as particles rather than as waves. ⓘ 1920s.

photo opportunity ⊳ noun an event organized or attended by a public figure and intended to draw press photographers or television cameras to record it.

photoperiodism ⊳ noun, biol the physiological and behavioural responses of living organisms to changes in day-length, eg flowering of plants or migration of animals. ⓘ 1920s.

photophobia ⊳ noun, medicine 1 a fear of or aversion to light. 2 an abnormal intolerance of and avoidance of light which may be a symptom of various disorders, eg migraine, measles or meningitis. ⓘ 19c.

photoreceptor ⊳ noun, biol a cell or group of cells that is sensitive to and responds to light stimuli. ⓘ Early 20c.

photosensitive ⊳ adj 1 readily stimulated by light or some other form of radiant energy. 2 said of skin: having an abnormal reaction to sunlight, characterized by burning and blistering. • photosensitivity noun. ⓘ 19c.

photosphere ⊳ noun, astron 1 the outermost visible layer of the Sun, representing the zone from which light is emitted. 2 the visible surface of any other star. ⓘ 19c.

Photostat /'foʊtoʊstat/ ⊳ noun, trademark 1 a photographic apparatus for copying documents, drawings, etc. 2 a copy made by this. ⊳ verb (photostat) (photostatted, photostatting) to make a Photostat of (a document, etc). ◎ 1911.

photosynthesis ▷ noun 1 bot the process whereby green plants manufacture carbohydrates from carbon dioxide and water, using the light energy from sunlight trapped by the pigment CHLOROPHYLL in specialized structures known as CHLOROPLASTS. 2 a similar process that occurs in certain bacteria, whereby carbohydrates are manufactured using a hydrogen source other than water. ● photosynthetic /-sɪn'θetɪk/ adj. ◎ 19c.

photosynthesize or photosynthesise ▷ verb (photosynthesized, photosynthesizing) tr & intr to carry out the process of photosynthesis.

phototaxis ▷ noun, biol the movement of a cell (eg a gamete) or a motile organism towards or away from a light source. ● phototactic adj. ◎ 19c.

phototropism /foʊ'tɒtrəpɪzəm, foʊtoʊ'troʊpɪzəm/ ▷ noun, bot the growth of the roots or shoots of plants in response to light, eg shoots show 'positive phototropism' when they grow in the direction of light. ◎ Late 19c.

phototypesetter ▷ noun, printing 1 a machine for composing type (and certain illustrations) and creating an image of the composed type on film or on paper, ready for exposure to a plate for printing. 2 someone who operates such a machine. ● phototypesetting noun. ◎ 1930s phototypesetting.

photovoltaic cell see SOLAR CELL phrasal verb ▷ noun, grammar a phrase consisting of a verb plus an adverb or preposition, or both, frequently with a meaning or meanings that cannot be determined from the meanings of the individual words, eg let on or come up with something.

phrase /freɪz/ ▷ noun 1 a set of words expressing a single idea, forming part of a sentence though not constituting a CLAUSE (sense 1). 2 an idiomatic expression □ What is the phrase she used? See also COIN A PHRASE at COIN. 3 manner or style of speech or expression □ ease of phrase. See also TURN OF PHRASE. 4 music a run of notes making up an individually distinct part of a melody. ▷ verb (phrased, phrasing) 1 to express; to word something □ He phrased his reply carefully. 2 music to bring out the phrases in (music) as one plays. ● phrasal adj. ● phrasally adverb. ◎ 16c: from Greek phrasis expression, from phrazein to tell.

phrase book ▷ noun a book that lists words and phrases in a foreign language, especially for the use of visitors to a country where that language is spoken.

phraseogram /'freɪzɪəgram/ ▷ noun a single sign that represents a whole phrase, especially in shorthand. ◎ 19c.

phraseology /freɪzɪ'ɒlədʒɪ/ ▷ noun (phraseologies) 1 one's choice of words and way of combining them, in expressing oneself. 2 the language belonging to a particular subject, group, etc □ legal phraseology. ● phraseological /-ɪə'lɒdʒɪkəl/ adj. ◎ 17c.

phrasing ▷ noun 1 the wording of a speech or passage. 2 music the grouping of the parts, sounds, etc into musical phrases.

phreaking and phone phreaking ▷ noun, colloq the practice of tampering electronically with a telephone to enable the user to make free calls. ◎ 1970s: a variant of FREAK, influenced by PHONE.

phreatic /frɪ'atɪk/ ▷ adj, geol, etc 1 relating to underground water-supplying wells or springs, or to the soil or rocks containing them. 2 said of underground gases, etc: present in or causing volcanic eruptions. ◎ 19c: from French phréatique, from Greek phreatia cistern.

phrenetic see FRENETIC

phrenic /'frenɪk/ ▷ adj, anatomy relating to the diaphragm, and especially the associated nerve. ◎ 18c: from French phrénique, from Greek phren, phrenos diaphragm.

phrenology /frə'nɒlədʒɪ/ ▷ noun the practice, popular in the 19c but now discredited, of assessing someone's character and aptitudes by examining the shape of their skull. ● phrenologic /frenə'lɒdʒɪk/ or phrenological adj. ● phrenologist /frə'nɒ-/ noun. ◎ 19c: from Greek phren mind + -LOGY.

Phrygian /'frɪdʒɪən/ ▷ adj belonging or relating to Phrygia, an ancient country in central Asia Minor, its inhabitants, or their language. ▷ noun 1 a citizen or inhabitant of, or person born in, Phrygia. 2 the Indo-European language of the ancient Phrygians. ◎ 15c as noun 1.

Phrygian cap ▷ noun an ancient type of conical cap with the top turned forward, which in the French Revolution came to symbolize liberty.

phthisis /'θaɪsɪs, 'fθaɪsɪs, 'taɪsɪs/ ▷ noun (phthises /-siːz/) pathol any wasting disease, especially tuberculosis. ◎ 16c: Greek, meaning 'emaciation' or 'consumption'.

phut /fʌt/ ▷ noun, colloq the noise of a small explosion. ● go phut 1 to break down or cease to function. 2 to go wrong. ◎ 19c: imitating the sound, or connected with Hindi and Urdu phatna to burst.

pH value see PH

phyco- /'faɪkoʊ/ ▷ combining form, denoting seaweed. ◎ From Greek phykos seaweed.

phycocyanin see under BLUE-GREEN ALGA phycology /faɪ'kɒlədʒɪ/ ▷ noun, bot the scientific study of algae. ◎ 19c.

phycomycete /faɪ'koʊmaɪsiːt/ ▷ noun, biol primitive, mainly aquatic, fungus, often parasitic on fish. ◎ 19c.

phyla plural of PHYLUM phylactery /fɪ'laktərɪ/ ▷ noun (phylacteries) 1 Judaism either of two small boxes containing religious texts worn on the left arm and forehead by Jewish men during prayers. 2 a reminder. 3 a charm or amulet. ◎ 14c: from Greek phylakterion, from phylassein to guard.

phyletic /faɪ'letɪk/ ▷ adj, biol 1 relating to a PHYLUM. 2 referring to the evolutionary descent of organisms. ◎ 19c: from German phyletisch, from Greek phyletikos, from phyle a tribe.

phyllite /'fɪlaɪt/ ▷ noun, geol any of various fine-grained metamorphic rocks intermediate between slate and schist. ◎ 19c: from Greek phyllon a leaf.

phyllo see FILO

phylloclade /'fɪloʊkleɪd/ ▷ noun, bot a flattened branch with the shape and functions of a leaf. ◎ 19c: from Greek phyllon leaf + klados shoot.

phyllode /'fɪloʊd/ ▷ noun, bot a PETIOLE with the appearance and function of a leaf blade. ◎ 19c: from Greek phyllon leaf.

phyllomania /fɪloʊ'meɪnɪə/ ▷ noun, bot excessive production of leaves at the expense of flower or fruit production. ◎ 17c: from Greek phyllon leaf + mania MANIA.

phylloquinone /fɪloʊkwɪ'noʊn/ ▷ noun, biochem vitamin K_1, one of the fat-soluble vitamin K group essential for normal blood coagulation. ◎ 1930s: from Greek phyllon leaf + QUINONE.

phyllotaxis /fɪloʊ'taksɪs/ or phyllotaxy ▷ noun (phyllotaxes or phyllotaxies) bot the arrangement of leaves on a plant stem. ● phyllotactic or phyllotactical adj. ◎ 19c: from Greek phyllon a leaf + taxis arrangement.

phylloxera /fɪlɒk'sɪərə, fɪ'lɒksərə/ ▷ noun (phylloxerae /-riː/ or phylloxeras) an aphid similar to GREENFLY that is very destructive to vines. ◎ 19c: from Greek phyllon leaf + xeros dry.

phylogenesis /faɪloʊˈdʒɛnɪsɪs/ and phylogeny /faɪˈlɒdʒənɪ/ ▷ noun, biol the sequence of changes that has occurred during the evolution of a particular species of living organism or a group of related organisms. • phylogenetic adj. ⓘ 19c: from German phylogenie, from Greek phylon race + -genesis origin.

phylum /ˈfaɪləm/ ▷ noun (phyla /-lə/) biol, zool in taxonomy: any of the major groups, eg Chordata (the vertebrates), into which the animal KINGDOM (sense 2) is divided and which in turn is subdivided into one or more CLASSes (sense 9). It corresponds to the DIVISION (sense 7) in the plant kingdom. See also PHYLETIC. ⓘ 19c: from Greek phylon race.

phys. ▷ abbreviation 1 physician. 2 physics. 3 physiology.

physic /ˈfɪzɪk/ old use ▷ noun 1 the skill or art of healing. 2 a medicine. 3 anything with a curative or reinvigorating effect. ▷ verb (physicked, physicking) to dose someone with medicine. ⓘ 13c as fisike: from French fisique, from Greek physike episteme knowledge of nature.

physical /ˈfɪzɪkəl/ ▷ adj 1 relating to the body rather than the mind; bodily □ physical strength. 2 relating to objects that can be seen or felt; material □ the physical world. 3 relating to nature or to the laws of nature □ physical features □ a physical impossibility. 4 involving bodily contact. 5 relating to PHYSICS. • physically adverb. ⓘ 15c: from Latin physicalis, from physica PHYSIC.

physical anthropology ▷ noun the study of local biological adaptions in man and in man's evolutionary history.

physical chemistry ▷ noun the branch of chemistry concerned with the relationship between the chemical structure of compounds and their physical properties.

physical education ▷ noun (abbreviation PE) instruction in sport and gymnastics as part of a school or college curriculum.

physical geography ▷ noun the branch of geography concerned with the study of the earth's natural features, eg mountain ranges, ocean currents, etc.

physicalism ▷ noun, philos the theory that all phenomena are explicable in spatio-temporal terms and that all statements are either analytic or reducible to empirically verifiable assertions. ⓘ 1930s.

physicality /fɪzɪˈkalɪtɪ/ ▷ noun 1 a physical quality. 2 preoccupation with bodily matters.

physical jerks ▷ noun, colloq exercises, especially ones done regularly to keep fit.

physically see under PHYSICAL physical science ▷ noun any of the sciences concerned with the study of non-living matter, eg astronomy, physics or geology.

physical training ▷ noun (abbreviation PT) instruction in sport and gymnastics, especially in the army.

physician /fɪˈzɪʃən/ ▷ noun 1 in the UK: a registered medical practitioner who specializes in medical as opposed to surgical treatment of diseases and disorders. 2 in other parts of the world: anyone who is legally qualified to practise medicine. ⓘ 13c as fisicien: French, from fisique (see PHYSIC).

physicism /ˈfɪzɪsɪzəm/ ▷ noun belief in the material and physical as opposed to the spiritual.

physicist /ˈfɪzɪsɪst/ ▷ noun a scientist who specializes in physics.

physics /ˈfɪzɪks/ ▷ singular noun the scientific study of the properties and inter-relationships of matter, energy, force and motion. ⓘ 16c: plural of PHYSIC in the old sense 'physical things', from Latin physica (see PHYSIC).

physio /ˈfɪzɪoʊ/ ▷ noun (physios) colloq 1 a PHYSIOTHERAPIST. 2 PHYSIOTHERAPY.

physio- /fɪzɪoʊ, fɪzɪˈɒ/ or physi- ▷ combining form, denoting physical or physiological. ⓘ From Greek physis nature or make-up.

physiognomy /fɪzɪˈɒnəmɪ/ ▷ noun (physiognomies) 1 the face or features, especially when used or seen as a key to someone's personality. 2 the art of judging character from appearance, especially from the face. 3 the general appearance of something, eg the countryside. • physiognomic /fɪzɪəˈnɒmɪk/ or physiognomical adj. • physiognomist /-ˈɒnəmɪst/ noun. ⓘ 14c as phisonomie, etc: from Latin phisonomia, from Greek physis nature + gnomon judge or interpreter.

physiography /fɪzɪˈɒgrəfɪ/ ▷ noun physical geography. • physiographer noun. • physiographic /-ˈgrafɪk/ or physiographical adj. ⓘ 19c.

physiology /fɪzɪˈɒlədʒɪ/ ▷ noun, biol the branch of biology that is concerned with the internal processes and functions of living organisms, as opposed to their structure. • physiologic /-zɪəˈlɒdʒɪk/ or physiological adj 1 referring or relating to physiology. 2 referring or relating to the normal functioning of a living organism. • physiologically adverb. • physiologist noun a scientist who specializes in physiology. ⓘ 16c: from Latin physiologia, from Greek physis nature.

physiotherapy ▷ noun, medicine the treatment of injury and disease by external physical methods, such as remedial exercises, manipulation or massage, rather than by drugs or surgery. • physiotherapist noun. See also PHYSIO. ⓘ Early 20c.

physique /fɪˈziːk/ ▷ noun the structure of the body with regard to size, shape, proportions and muscular development; the build. ⓘ 19c: French, originally meaning 'physical', from Greek physikos of nature.

-phyte /faɪt/ ▷ combining form, forming nouns, denoting a plant belonging to a specified habitat or of a specified type □ endophyte. ⓘ From Greek phyton plant.

-phytic /fɪtɪk/ ▷ combining form forming adjectives corresponding to nouns in -PHYTE.

phyto- /faɪtoʊ, faɪˈtɒ/ ▷ combining form, denoting plant. ⓘ From Greek phyton plant.

phytochemical ▷ noun a chemical derived from a plant. ▷ adj referring to PHYTOCHEMISTRY. ⓘ 19c.

phytochemistry ▷ noun the chemistry of plant growth and metabolism, and of plant products. ⓘ 19c.

phytogenesis and phytogeny /faɪˈtɒdʒɪnɪ/ ▷ noun the branch of botany concerned with the evolution of plants. ⓘ 19c.

phytopathology ▷ noun, bot the scientific study of plant diseases. • phytopathologist noun. ⓘ 19c.

phytoplankton ▷ noun, bot that part of plankton which is composed of microscopic plants. ⓘ Late 19c.

PI ▷ abbreviation 1 IVR Philippines. 2 Private Investigator.

pi¹ /paɪ/ ▷ noun (pis) 1 the sixteenth letter of the Greek alphabet. See table at GREEK ALPHABET. 2 math this symbol (π), representing the ratio of the circumference of a circle to its diameter, in numerical terms 3.14159... • pi-meson see separate entry.

pi² /paɪ/ Brit slang ▷ adj a short form of PIOUS. ▷ noun (pis) a pious, religious or sanctimonious person or talk. ⓘ 19c.

pi³ see PIE² piacevole /pɪəˈtʃervoleɪ/ music ▷ adverb in a pleasant or playful manner. ▷ adj pleasant or playful. ⓘ Italian.

piaffe /pɪˈaf/ ▷ verb (piaffed, piaffing) intr, dressage to move at a piaffer. ⓘ 18c.

piaffer /pɪˈafə(r)/ ▷ noun, dressage a gait in which the horse's feet are lifted in the same succession as a trot, but more slowly. ⓘ 19c: from French piaffer to strut or make a show.

pia mater /ˈpaɪə ˈmeɪtə(r), ˈpiːə-/ ▷ noun (piae matres /-iː -triːz/) ▷ noun, anatomy the delicate innermost membrane that encloses the brain and spinal cord. ⓘ 18c: Latin, literally 'tender mother', a translation of Arabic umm raqiqah thin mother.

pianissimo /pɪəˈnɪsɪmoʊ/ music ▷ adverb performed very softly. ▷ adj very soft. ▷ noun (pianissimos) a piece of music to be performed in this way. ⓘ 18c: Italian, superlative of piano quiet.

pianist /ˈpɪənɪst, ˈpjanɪst/ ▷ noun someone who plays the piano.

piano[1] /pɪˈanoʊ, ˈpjɑːnoʊ/ ▷ noun (pianos) a large musical instrument with a keyboard, the keys being pressed down to operate a set of hammers that strike tautened wires to produce the sound. ⓘ 19c: short form of PIANOFORTE.

piano[2] /ˈpjɑːnoʊ, pɪˈanoʊ/ music ▷ adverb softly. ▷ adj soft. ▷ noun (pianos) a passage of music to be played or performed softly. ⓘ 17c: Italian.

piano accordion see under ACCORDION pianoforte /pɪanoʊˈfɔːtɪ, pjɑːnoʊˈfɔːteɪ/ ▷ noun the full formal term for a PIANO[1]. ⓘ 18c: from Italian piano e forte soft and loud.

Pianola /pɪəˈnoʊlə/ ▷ noun (Pianolas) trademark a mechanical piano that is operated automatically by means of interchangeable paper rolls bearing coded music in the form of perforations; a kind of PLAYER PIANO. • pianolist noun. ⓘ Early 20c.

piano nobile /ˈpjɑːnoʊ ˈnoʊbɪleɪ/ ▷ noun (piani nobili /-niː -liː/) archit the main floor of a large house or villa, usually on the first floor. ⓘ Early 20c: Italian, meaning 'noble storey'.

piano stool and music stool ▷ noun a stool for a pianist, usually adjustable in height and often hollow for the storage of music.

piassava /pɪəˈsɑːvə/ or piassaba /pɪəˈsɑːbə/ ▷ noun (piassavas or piassabas) 1 a coarse stiff fibre used for making brooms, etc, obtained from Brazilian palms. 2 the tree that yields it. ⓘ 19c: Portuguese, from Tupi.

piazza /pɪˈatsə/ ▷ noun (piazzas) 1 a public square in an Italian town. 2 mainly Brit a covered walkway. 3 US a veranda. ⓘ 16c: Italian, from Latin platea and Greek plateia street.

pibroch /ˈpiːbrɒx/ ▷ noun a series of variations on a martial theme or lament, played on the Scottish bagpipes. ⓘ 18c: from Gaelic piobaireachd pipe music, from piobair a piper, from piob, from English PIPE[1].

pic ▷ noun (pics or pix) colloq a photograph or picture. ⓘ 19c: short for PICTURE.

pica[1] /ˈpaɪkə/ ▷ noun (picas) printing an old type-size, giving about six lines to the inch, approximately 12-point and still used synonymously for that point size. ⓘ 15c: Latin, referring to a book of ecclesiastical rules for determining dates of religious festivals, from Latin pica magpie, because of the black and white appearance of the page in such a book; related to PIE[2].

pica[2] /ˈpaɪkə/ ▷ noun (picas) medicine an unnatural craving for unsuitable food, such as chalk, sand, clay, etc. ⓘ 16c: Latin, meaning 'magpie', referring to its indiscriminate diet.

picador /ˈpɪkədɔː(r)/ ▷ noun, bullfighting a TOREADOR who weakens the bull by wounding it with a lance. ⓘ 18c: Spanish, from pica lance.

picaresque /pɪkəˈrɛsk/ ▷ adj said of a novel, etc: telling of the adventures of a usually likeable rogue in separate, only loosely connected, episodes. ⓘ 19c: from Spanish picaro rogue.

picaroon /pɪkəˈruːn/ ▷ noun, old use a rogue, cheat or pirate. ⓘ 17c: from Spanish picarón, from picaro rogue.

picayune /pɪkəˈjuːn/ US colloq ▷ noun 1 anything of little or no value. 2 any small coin of little value, especially a five-cent piece. ▷ adj petty; trifling. ⓘ 19c: from Provençal picaioun, an old Piedmontese copper coin.

piccalilli /pɪkəˈlɪlɪ, ˈpɪkəlɪlɪ/ ▷ noun (piccalillis) a pickle consisting of mixed vegetables in a mustard sauce. ⓘ 18c.

piccaninny or pickaninny /pɪkəˈnɪnɪ/ ▷ noun (piccaninnies) offensive 1 N Amer, especially US a Negro child. 2 especially Austral an Aboriginal child. ⓘ 17c: perhaps from Portuguese pequenino, diminutive of pequeno little.

piccolo /ˈpɪkəloʊ/ ▷ noun (piccolos) a small transverse FLUTE pitched one octave higher than the standard flute and with a range of about three octaves. ⓘ 19c: from Italian flauto piccolo little flute.

piccy /ˈpɪkɪ/ ▷ noun (piccies) colloq a photograph or picture. See also PIC. ⓘ 19c.

pichurim /ˈpɪtʃʊrɪm/ ▷ noun 1 a S American tree of the laurel family. 2 (also pichurim bean) its aromatic kernel. ⓘ 19c: Portuguese, from Tupi puchury.

pick[1] ▷ verb (picked, picking) 1 tr & intr to choose or select. 2 to detach and gather (flowers from a plant, fruit from a tree, etc). 3 to open (a lock) with a device other than a key, often to gain unauthorized entry. 4 to get, take or extract whatever is of use or value from something □ pick a bone clean □ pick someone's brains. 5 to steal money or valuables from (someone's pocket). See also PICKPOCKET. 6 to undo; to unpick □ pick a dress to pieces. 7 to make (a hole) by unpicking. 8 to remove pieces of matter from (one's nose, teeth, a scab, etc) with one's fingernails, etc. 9 to provoke (a fight, quarrel, etc) with someone. ▷ noun 1 the best of a group □ the pick of the bunch. 2 one's own preferred selection. • have or take one's pick to keep selecting and rejecting until one is satisfied. • pick and choose to be over-fussy in one's choice. • pick holes in something to find fault with it. • pick one's way to go carefully so as to avoid hazards □ picked her way through the jungle. • pick someone's brains to ask someone for information, ideas, etc, and then use it as your own. • pick someone or something to pieces to criticize them or it severely. • pick someone up on something to point out their error. • pick up the pieces to have to restore things to normality or make things better after some trouble or disaster. • pick up speed to increase speed or accelerate gradually. ⓘ 15c.

▪ pick at something 1 to eat only small quantities of (one's food). 2 to keep pulling at (a scab, etc) with one's fingernails.

▪ pick people or things off 1 to shoot them □ picked the snipers off one by one. 2 to deal with (opposition) bit by bit.

▪ pick on someone 1 to blame them unfairly. 2 to bully them. 3 to choose them for an unpleasant job.

▪ pick on something to choose it; to light on it. □ pick oneself up to restore oneself to an upright position after a fall.

▪ pick someone out 1 to select them from a group. 2 to recognize or distinguish them among a group or crowd.

▪ pick something out 1 to play (a tune) uncertainly, especially by ear. 2 to mark it so as to distinguish it from its surroundings □ beige walls with the picture rail picked out in brown.

▪ pick something over to examine (a collection of things) one by one and reject whatever is unwanted.

▪ pick up said of a person, a person's health, or a situation: to recover or improve □ She picked up after seeing you. □ Sales have picked up now.

■ pick up or pick something up to resume □ pick up where one left off □ pick up the threads of a relationship □ pick up the trail.

■ pick someone up 1 to arrest or seize them □ was picked up by the police. 2 to go and fetch them from where they are waiting □ I'll pick you up at the station at 6pm. 3 to stop one's vehicle for them and give them a lift □ picked up a hitchhiker. 4 colloq to approach them and successfully invite them, eg to go home with one, especially with a view to sexual relations. See also PICK-UP.

■ pick something up 1 to lift or raise it from a surface, from the ground, etc. 2 to learn or acquire (a habit, skill, language, etc) over a time. 3 to notice or become aware of it □ picked up a faint odour. 4 to obtain or acquire it casually, by chance, etc □ pick up a bargain □ pick up an infection. 5 to go and fetch (something waiting to be collected). 6 telecomm to receive (a signal, programme, etc). 7 to refer back in conversation or discourse to (a point previously made), in order to deal with it further. 8 colloq to agree to pay (a bill, etc) □ pick up the tab.

■ pick something up, off, out, etc to lift, remove, detach or extract it □ picked a crumb off the carpet.

pick[2] ⊳ noun 1 a tool with a long metal head pointed at one or both ends, for breaking ground, rock, ice, etc. 2 a poking or cleaning tool □ a toothpick. 3 a plectrum. ⓘ 14c: probably related to PIKE[2].

pickaback see PIGGYBACK

pickaninny see PICCANINNY

pickaxe /ˈpɪkaks/ ⊳ noun a large pick, especially one with a point at one end of its head and a cutting edge at the other. ⓘ 14c as pikoys: from French picois.

picked /pɪkt/ ⊳ adj selected or chosen. See also HAND-PICKED.

picker ⊳ noun 1 a person who picks or gathers. 2 a tool or machine for picking.

pickerel /ˈpɪkərəl/ ⊳ noun a young pike. ⓘ 14c: diminutive of PIKE[1].

picket /ˈpɪkɪt/ ⊳ noun 1 a person or group of people stationed outside a place of work to persuade other employees not to go in during a strike. 2 a body of soldiers on patrol or sentry duty. 3 a stake fixed in the ground, eg as part of a fence. ⊳ verb (picketed, picketing) 1 to station pickets or act as a PICKET (noun 1) at (a factory, etc). 2 to guard or patrol with, or as, a military picket. 3 to fence (an area, etc) with pickets (noun 3). ⓘ 18c: from French piquet, diminutive of pic PICK[2]. picket fence ⊳ noun a fence made of pickets (see PICKET noun 3). picket line ⊳ noun a line of people acting as pickets (see PICKET noun 1) in an industrial dispute.

pickier, pickiest, pickily and pickiness see under PICKY pickings ⊳ plural noun, colloq profits made easily or casually from something □ rich pickings.

pickle /ˈpɪkəl/ ⊳ noun 1 (also pickles) a preserve of vegetables, eg onions, cucumber or cauliflower, in vinegar, salt water or a tart sauce. 2 a vegetable preserved in this way. 3 the liquid used for this preserve. 4 colloq a mess; a quandary; a predicament □ got herself in a terrible pickle. 5 colloq a troublesome child. ⊳ verb (pickled, pickling) to preserve something in vinegar, salt water, etc. ⓘ 14c: from German pekel.

pickled ⊳ adj 1 preserved in pickle. 2 colloq drunk.

pickler ⊳ noun 1 a container in which vegetables, etc are pickled. 2 a vegetable, etc suitable, or grown, for pickling. 3 someone who pickles.

picklock ⊳ noun 1 an instrument for picking or opening locks. 2 someone who picks locks. ⓘ 16c.

pick-me-up ⊳ noun 1 a stimulating drink, such as tea, a whisky, etc. 2 anything that revives and invigorates. ⓘ 19c.

pick-'n'-mix ⊳ noun 1 an assortment, such as loose sweets, small pieces of individually wrapped cheese, etc, chosen by a customer from a range available at a self-service counter. 2 a discriminatory selection chosen to suit one's individual taste or needs. Also as adj.

pickpocket ⊳ noun a thief who steals from people's pockets, usually in crowded areas. ⓘ 16c.

pick-up ⊳ noun (pick-ups) 1 the STYLUS on a record-player. 2 a TRANSDUCER on electric musical instruments. 3 a small lorry, truck or van. 4 colloq a an acquaintance made casually, especially with a view to sexual relations; b the making of such an acquaintance. 5 a a halt or place to load goods or passengers; b the goods or passengers loaded. See also PICK UP at PICK[1].

picky ⊳ adj (pickier, pickiest) colloq choosy or fussy, especially excessively so; difficult to please. ● pickily adverb. ● pickiness noun. ⓘ 19c: from PICK[1].

pick-your-own ⊳ adj 1 referring to a method of selling fruit or vegetables by which customers harvest the produce they wish to buy themselves. 2 said of produce: sold in this way. ⓘ 1960s.

picnic /ˈpɪknɪk/ ⊳ noun 1 an outing on which one takes food for eating in the open air. 2 food taken or eaten in this way. ⊳ verb (picnicked, picnicking) intr to have a picnic. ● no picnic or not a picnic colloq a disagreeable or difficult job or situation □ Minding young children is no picnic. ● picnicker noun. ⓘ 18c: from French pique-nique.

pico- /ˈpiːkoʊ, ˈpaɪkoʊ/ ⊳ prefix, forming nouns, denoting a millionth of a millionth part, or 10^{-12}, of the specified unit □ picocurie □ picosecond. ⓘ Spanish, meaning 'a small quantity'.

picornavirus /pɪˈkɔːnəvaɪərəs/ ⊳ noun, biol any of four viral genera including the ENTEROVIRUSES and RHINOVIRUSES. ⓘ 1960s: PICO- + RNA + VIRUS.

picot /ˈpiːkoʊ/ ⊳ noun 1 a loop in an ornamental edging. 2 embroidery a raised knot. ⓘ 19c: French, meaning 'point' or 'prick'.

picotee /pɪkəˈtiː/ ⊳ noun (picotees) a variety of carnation, originally speckled, now edged with a colour. ⓘ 18c: from French picoté marked with points.

picric acid /ˈpɪkrɪk —/ ⊳ noun, chem (formula $C_6H_2(NO_2)_3OH$) a yellow compound used as a dyestuff and as the basis of high explosives. ⓘ 19c: from Greek pikros bitter.

Pict ⊳ noun a member of an ancient N British people. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon Peohtas: from Latin picti painted men, coined by the Romans in the 3c.

Pictish /ˈpɪktɪʃ/ ⊳ adj belonging or relating to the Picts. ⊳ noun the language of the Picts. ⓘ 18c.

pictograph /ˈpɪktəgrɑːf/ and pictogram ⊳ noun 1 a picture or symbol that represents a word, as in Chinese writing. 2 a pictorial or diagrammatic representation of values, statistics, etc. Compare IDEOGRAM, LOGOGRAPH. ● pictographic /pɪktəˈgrafɪk/ adj. ● pictography /-ˈtɒgrəfɪ/ noun. ⓘ 19c: from Latin pictus painted.

pictorial /pɪkˈtɔːrɪəl/ ⊳ adj relating to, or consisting of, pictures. ⊳ noun a periodical with a high proportion of pictures as opposed to text. ● pictorially adverb. ⓘ 17c, meaning 'belonging or relating to a painter, or painting or drawing': from Latin pictor painter.

picture /ˈpɪktʃə(r)/ ⊳ noun 1 a representation of someone or something on a flat surface; a drawing, painting or photograph. 2 someone's portrait. 3 a view; a mental image □ a clear picture of the battle. 4 a situation or outlook □ a gloomy financial picture. 5 a person or thing strikingly like another □ She is the picture of her mother. 6 a visible embodiment □ was the picture of happiness. 7 an image of beauty □ looks a picture. 8 the image received on a television screen □ We get a good picture. 9 a film; a motion picture. 10 (the pictures) colloq the cinema □ went to the pictures last night. ▷ verb (pictured, picturing) 1 to imagine or visualize □ Just picture that settee in our lounge. 2 to describe something or someone vividly; to depict. 3 to represent or show someone or something in a picture or photograph. ● get the picture colloq to understand something. ● in the picture informed of all the relevant facts, etc. ● put me, her, him, etc in the picture give me, them, etc all the relevant facts, information, etc. ⓘ 16c: from Latin pictura painting.

picture card see under COURT CARD picture gallery ▷ noun 1 a gallery, hall or building where a selection of pictures are hung for exhibition and often for sale. 2 a hall or room of pictures hung for exhibition in a large private house, eg a manor house. 3 the collection itself.

picture postcard ▷ noun a postcard with a picture on the front, usually a view of a village, town, landscape, holiday resort, etc. ▷ adj (picture-postcard) very pretty or quaint, reflecting how many picture postcards look. ⓘ 19c.

picture rail ▷ noun a narrow moulding running round the walls of a room just below the ceiling, from which to hang pictures.

picture restorer ▷ noun someone whose job is to preserve old pictures by cleaning and restoring them.

picturesque /pɪktʃə'rɛsk/ ▷ adj 1 said of places or buildings: charming to look at, especially if rather quaint. 2 said of language: a colourful, expressive or graphic; b facetious vivid or strong to the point of being offensive. ● picturesquely adverb. ● picturesqueness noun. ⓘ 18c: from French pittoresque, influenced by PICTURE.

picture window ▷ noun an unusually large window with a plate-glass pane, usually affording an extensive view.

PID ▷ abbreviation pelvic inflammatory disease.

piddle /'pɪdəl/ ▷ verb (piddled, piddling) intr, colloq to urinate. ▷ noun 1 ▷ urine. 2 the act of urinating. ● piddler noun. ⓘ 18c in verb sense; 16c as phrasal verb piddle about, etc.

■ piddle about or around to mess about or waste time.

piddling ▷ adj trivial; trifling □ piddling excuses. ⓘ 16c.

pidgin /'pɪdʒɪn/ ▷ noun 1 a type of simplified language used especially for trading purposes between speakers of different languages, consisting of a combination and often simplification of the vocabulary, grammar and pronunciation systems of the languages concerned, commonly used in the East and West Indies, Africa and the Americas. See also CREOLE. 2 (also pigeon) colloq one's own affair, business or concern. ⓘ 19c: said to be a Chinese pronunciation of business.

pidgin English ▷ noun a PIDGIN (sense 1) in which one element is English, especially that formerly spoken between the Chinese and Europeans.

pi-dog see PYE-DOG

pie[1] /paɪ/ ▷ noun a savoury or sweet dish, usually cooked in a container, consisting of a quantity of food with a covering of pastry, a base of pastry, or both. ● easy as pie very easy. ● pie in the sky some hoped-for but unguaranteed future prospect. ⓘ 14c.

pie[2] or pi /paɪ/ ▷ noun 1 printing confusedly mixed type. 2 a mixed state; confusion. ⓘ 17c.

pie[3] /paɪ/ ▷ noun an old name for MAGPIE (sense 1). ⓘ 13c: French, from Latin pica magpie.

piebald /'paɪbɔːld/ ▷ adj having contrasting patches of colour, especially black and white. Compare PIED. ▷ noun a horse with black and white markings. ⓘ 16c: PIE[3] + bald in the obsolete sense 'with white markings'.

piece /piːs/ ▷ noun 1 a portion of some material; a bit. 2 any of the sections into which something (eg a cake) is divided; a portion taken from a whole. 3 a component part □ a jigsaw piece. 4 a an item in a set; b usually as adj □ an 18-piece teaset □ a 3-piece suite. 5 an individual member of a class of things represented by a collective noun □ a piece of fruit □ a piece of clothing. 6 a specimen or example of something □ a fine piece of Chippendale. 7 an instance □ a piece of nonsense. 8 a musical, artistic, literary or dramatic work. 9 an article in a newspaper, etc. 10 a coin □ a 50 pence piece □ pieces of eight. 11 chess one of the tokens or men used in a board game. 12 a cannon or firearm. 13 offensive, colloq a woman. 14 Scots a a snack or meal, such as a sandwich, biscuit etc; b a piece of bread with butter, jam, etc. ▷ verb (pieced, piecing). ● all in one piece undamaged, unhurt, intact □ returned from her travels, all in one piece. ● all of a piece forming an indivisible whole. ● go to pieces colloq to lose emotional control; to panic. ● in pieces 1 separated into a number of component parts. 2 broken; shattered. ● of a piece with something consistent or uniform with it. ● a piece of one's mind a frank and outspoken reprimand. ● say one's piece to make one's contribution to a discussion. ● to pieces 1 into its component parts □ take to pieces. 2 into fragments, shreds, tatters, etc □ falling to pieces. ⓘ 13c as pece: from French piece.

■ piece something or things together to join it or them together to form a whole.

■ piece something up to patch or insert pieces into (a garment).

pièce de résistance /pɪ'ɛs də reɪ'zɪstɑ̃s/ (pièces de résistance /pɪ'ɛs də reɪ'zɪstɑ̃s/) ▷ noun 1 the best or most impressive item. 2 the main dish of a meal. ⓘ 19c: French.

piecemeal ▷ adverb a bit at a time. ⓘ 13c as pecemele: from PIECE + MEAL[1] in obsolete sense 'a measure'.

piece of cake ▷ noun something that is easy, simple, etc. ⓘ 1930s.

piece of eight ▷ noun (pieces of eight) an old Spanish gold coin worth eight REAL[2]. ⓘ 17c.

piece of piss ▷ noun, coarse slang something that is easy, simple, etc.

piece of work ▷ noun (pieces of work) 1 something that has been done or made □ His essay was a magnificent piece of work. 2 colloq a person □ a nasty piece of work.

piece rate ▷ noun a fixed rate of pay for a particular amount of work done.

piecework ▷ noun work paid for according to the amount done, not the time taken to do it.

pie chart, pie diagram and pie graph ▷ noun a diagram used to display statistical data, consisting of a circle divided into sectors, each of which contains one category of information. The area of each sector indicates the category's relative importance in relation to the other categories. Compare BAR CHART.

piecrust ▷ noun the dough or pastry covering or enclosing a pie.

piecrust table ▷ noun an antique or reproduction table with a carved raised edge.

pied /paɪd/ ▷ adj said of a bird: having variegated plumage, especially of black and white. ⓘ 14c: from PIE[3].

pied-à-terre /pjeɪdɑ'tɛə(r)/ ▷ noun (pieds-à-terre /pjeɪdɑ-/) a house or apartment, eg in a city, that one keeps as somewhere to stay on occasional visits there. ⓘ 1920s: French, literally 'foot on the ground'.

pie-dog see PYE-DOG pie-eyed ▷ adj, colloq drunk. ⓘ Early 20c.

pie graph see PIE CHART

pier /pɪə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 a a structure built of stone, wood or iron, projecting into water for use as a landing-stage or breakwater; b such a structure used as a promenade with funfair-like sideshows, amusement arcades, etc. 2 a pillar supporting a bridge or arch. 3 the masonry between two openings in the wall of a building. ⓘ 12c as per: from Latin pera.

pierce /pɪəs/ ▷ verb (pierced, piercing) (also pierce through something) 1 said of a sharp object or a person using one: to make a hole in or through; to puncture; to make (a hole) with something sharp. 2 to penetrate or force a way through or into something □ The wind pierced through her thin clothing. 3 said of light or sound: to burst through (darkness or silence). 4 to affect or touch (someone's heart, soul, etc) keenly or painfully. ⓘ 13c: from French percer.

piercing ▷ adj 1 referring to something that pierces. 2 penetrating, acute, keen or sharp □ a piercing cry. ▷ noun BODY PIERCING. ▪ piercingly adverb.

Pierrot or pierrot /ˈpɪərou/ ▷ noun a clown dressed and made up like Pierrot, the traditional male character from French pantomime, with a whitened face, white frilled outfit and pointed hat. ⓘ 18c: a French name, diminutive of Pierre Peter, referring to the character originating from Pedrolino, a servant role in the commedia dell'arte and later developed by the 19c French pantomimist Deburau.

pietà /pɪeˈtɑː/ ▷ noun (pietàs) in painting and sculpture: a representation of the dead Christ mourned by angels, apostles or holy women. ⓘ 17c: Italian, from Latin pietas pity.

pietism /ˈpaɪətɪzəm/ ▷ noun pious feeling or an exaggerated show of piety. ▪ pietist noun. ▪ pietistic adj.

piety /ˈpaɪətɪ/ ▷ noun 1 dutifulness; devoutness. 2 the quality of being pious, dutiful or religiously devout. 3 sense of duty towards parents, benefactors, etc. ⓘ 17c in this sense; 14c in the obsolete sense 'pity', from Latin pietas dutifulness or piety.

piezoelectric crystal ▷ noun a non-conducting crystal exhibiting the piezoelectric effect.

piezoelectric effect /paɪiːzouɪˈlɛktrɪk —, piːzou- —/ physics, noun 1 the generation of an electrical potential across non-conducting crystals, eg quartz, when they are stretched or compressed. 2 the reverse effect, in which an electrical potential can produce slight physical distortion in such crystals, used in quartz watches and clocks to keep almost perfect time.

piezoelectricity /paɪiːzouɪlɛkˈtrɪsɪtɪ, piːzou —/ ▷ noun electricity produced by the piezoelectric effect in quartz crystals and other non-conducting crystals. ▪ piezoelectric adj. ⓘ 19c: from Greek piezein to press + ELECTRICITY.

piffle /ˈpɪfəl/ ▷ noun, colloq nonsense; rubbish. ⓘ 19c, originally as a verb: from dialect.

piffling /ˈpɪflɪŋ/ ▷ adj, colloq trivial, trifling or petty.

pig ▷ noun 1 a hoofed omnivorous mammal with a stout heavy bristle-covered body, a protruding flattened snout and a corkscrew-like tail, kept worldwide for its meat. 2 an abusive term for a person, especially someone greedy, dirty, selfish or brutal, as these are traits erroneously attributed to pigs. 3 slang an unpleasant job or situation. 4 offensive slang a policeman. 5 a a quantity of metal cast into an oblong mass; b the mould into which it is run. ▷ verb (pigged, pigging) 1 said of a pig: to produce young. 2 tr & intr said of a person: to eat greedily. See also pig out below. ▪ make a pig of oneself colloq to eat greedily. ▪ make a pig's ear of something colloq to make a mess of it; to botch it. ▪ a pig in a poke colloq a purchase made without first inspecting it to see whether it is suitable. ▪ pig it colloq 1 to eat greedily. 2 to live squalidly. ▪ pigs might fly colloq an expression of scepticism: it's very unlikely. See also PORCINE. ⓘ 13c as pigge.

▪ pig out to eat a large amount with relish and overindulgence; to overeat.

pigeon[1] /ˈpɪdʒən, -dʒɪn/ ▷ noun 1 a medium-sized bird with a plump body, a rounded tail and dense soft grey, brown or pink plumage. Compare DOVE. 2 slang a dupe or simpleton. See also STOOL-PIGEON. ⓘ 15c: from French pijon, from Latin pipio, from pipare to cheep.

pigeon[2] see PIDGIN (sense 2) pigeon-breasted and pigeon-chested ▷ adj said of humans: having a narrow chest with the breastbone projecting, as a pigeon has.

pigeon-hearted ▷ adj timid; cowardly.

pigeonhole ▷ noun 1 any of a set of compartments, eg in a desk or on a wall, for filing letters or papers in. 2 a compartment of the mind or memory. ▷ verb (pigeonholed, pigeonholing) 1 to put something into a pigeonhole. 2 to put someone or something mentally into a category, especially too readily or rigidly. 3 to set something aside for future consideration. ⓘ 19c as verb; 17c in the original literal sense, ie an entrance hole in a dovecot.

pigeon loft see LOFT pigeon-post ▷ noun conveyance of letters by pigeon.

pigeonry /ˈpɪdʒənrɪ/ ▷ noun (pigeonries) a place for keeping pigeons.

pigeon-toed ▷ adj said of a person: standing and walking with their toes turned in.

piggery /ˈpɪgərɪ/ ▷ noun (piggeries) 1 a place where pigs are bred. 2 colloq greediness or otherwise disgusting behaviour. ⓘ 18c.

piggish /ˈpɪgɪʃ/ ▷ adj, derog greedy, dirty, selfish, mean or ill-mannered. ▪ piggishly adverb. ▪ piggishness noun.

piggy or piggie /ˈpɪgɪ/ ▷ noun (piggies) a child's diminutive: a a pig; a little pig; b a toe, or, less commonly, a finger. From the rhyme 'This little piggy went to market ...' during the recital of which each of the toes or fingers is touched in turn.. ▷ adj (piggier, piggiest) 1 pig-like. 2 said of the eyes: small and mean-looking. ⓘ 18c.

piggyback or pickaback /ˈpɪkəbak/ ▷ noun a ride on someone's back, with the legs supported by the bearer's arms. ▷ adj 1 carried on the back of someone else. 2 said of a vehicle: conveyed on top of one another. 3 referring or relating to a type of heart transplant surgery in which the patient's own heart is not removed and continues to function in tandem with that of the donor. ▷ adverb on the back of someone else. ⓘ 16c.

piggy bank ▷ noun 1 a child's pig-shaped china container for saving money in. 2 a child's moneybox of any design. See also MONEYBOX. ⓘ 1940s.

pigheaded ▷ adj stupidly obstinate. ▪ pigheadedly adverb. ▪ pigheadedness noun. ⓘ 17c.

pig-in-the-middle or piggy-in-the-middle ▷ noun 1 a game in which one person stands between two others and tries to intercept the ball they are throwing to each other. 2 (pigs- or piggies-in-the-middle) any person helplessly caught between two contending parties.

pig iron ▷ noun, metallurgy an impure form of iron produced by smelting iron in a BLAST FURNACE, and usually processed subsequently to make steel. ⓘ 17c: from PIG noun 5.

piglet /ˈpɪglət/ ▷ noun a young pig.

pigment /ˈpɪgmənt/ ▷ noun 1 any insoluble colouring matter that is used in suspension in water, oil or other liquids to give colour to paint, paper, etc. Compare DYE. 2 a coloured substance that occurs naturally in living tissues, eg the red blood pigment HAEMOGLOBIN, or CHLOROPHYLL in the leaves of green plants. ▷ verb (pigmented, pigmenting) to colour something with pigment; to dye or stain. ▪ pigmentary or pigmented

adj. ⊙ 14c: from Latin pigmentum, from pigere or pingere to paint.

pigmentation /pɪgmən'teɪʃən/ ▷ noun coloration or discoloration caused by deposits of pigments in plant or animal tissues which may occur normally or be a symptom of disease.

pigmy see PYGMY.

pignut ▷ noun the EARTHNUT.

pigskin ▷ noun 1 leather made from the skin of a pig. 2 N Amer colloq a football.

pigsty /'pɪgstaɪ/ ▷ noun (pigsties) 1 a pen on a farm, etc for pigs; a STY. 2 colloq a filthy and disordered place.

pigswill /'pɪgswɪl/ ▷ noun kitchen or brewery waste for feeding to pigs.

pigtail ▷ noun a plaited length of hair, especially one of a pair, worn hanging at the sides or back of the head. Compare PONYTAIL. See also QUEUE noun 3. ⊙ 18c in this sense, but specifically as worn by sailors and soldiers; originally applied (in the 17c) to a thin twist of tobacco.

pika /'paɪkə/ ▷ noun (pikas) a mammal, native to Asia and N America, that resembles a small rabbit and has short legs, short rounded ears and a minute tail. Also called CONY. ⊙ 19c: from Tungus (an E Siberian language).

pike[1] ▷ noun (pike or pikes) any of various large predatory freshwater fish with a mottled yellowish-green body, a narrow pointed head and a small number of large teeth in the lower jaw. ⊙ 14c: from PIKE[2], referring to the shape of its head.

pike[2] /paɪk/ ▷ noun 1 historical a weapon like a spear, consisting of a metal point mounted on a long shaft. 2 a point or spike. 3 N Eng dialect a sharp-pointed hill or summit. ⊙ Anglo-Saxon pic point.

pike[3] ▷ noun 1 a TURNPIKE. 2 US a main road. ⊙ 19c.

pike[4] ▷ adj, diving, gymnastics (also piked) said of a body position: bent sharply at the hips with the legs kept straight at the knees and toes pointed. ▷ verb (piked, piking) intr to move into this position. ⊙ 1920s.

pikestaff ▷ noun the shaft of a PIKE[2]. ■ plain as a pikestaff see under PLAIN.

pilaster /pɪ'lastə(r)/ ▷ noun, archit a rectangular column that stands out in relief from the façade of a building, as a decorative feature. ■ pilastered adj. ⊙ 16c: from French pilastre, from Latin pila pillar.

pilau /pɪ'laʊ/, pilaf or pilaff /pɪ'laf/ ▷ noun (pilaus) an oriental dish of spiced rice with, or to accompany, chicken, fish, etc. Also as adj □ pilau rice. ⊙ 17c: from Persian pilaw, from Turkish.

pilchard /'pɪltʃəd/ ▷ noun a small edible marine fish of the herring family, bluish-green above and silvery below, covered with large scales. ⊙ 16c.

pile[1] ▷ noun 1 a number of things lying on top of each other; a quantity of something in a heap or mound. 2 (a pile or piles) colloq a large quantity. 3 informal a fortune □ made a pile on the horses. 4 a massive or imposing building. 5 a PYRE. Also called funeral pile. 6 a NUCLEAR REACTOR, originally the graphite blocks forming the moderator for the reactor. Also called atomic pile. 7 elec a vertical series of plates of two different metals arranged alternately to produce an electric current. ▷ verb (piled, piling) tr & intr (usually pile up or pile something up) to accumulate into a pile. See also PILE-UP. ■ pile it on colloq to exaggerate. ⊙ 15c: from Latin pila a stone pier.

■ pile in or into something or pile off, out, etc to move in a crowd or confused bunch into or off it, etc □ piled into the bus.

pile[2] ▷ noun a heavy wooden shaft, stone or concrete pillar, etc driven into the ground as a support for a building, bridge, etc. ⊙ Anglo-Saxon pil, from Latin pilum javelin.

pile[3] /paɪl/ ▷ noun 1 the raised cropped threads that give a soft thick surface to carpeting, velvet, etc. Compare NAP[2]. 2 soft fine hair, fur, wool, etc. ⊙ 15c: from Latin pilus hair.

pileate /'paɪlɪət/ or pileated /-eɪtɪd/ ▷ adj, biol cap-shaped; capped; crested. ⊙ 18c: from Latin pileatus capped, from pileus (see PILEUS).

pile-cap[1] ▷ noun the top of a nuclear reactor. Compare PILE[1] noun 6.

pile-cap[2] ▷ noun, civil engineering a reinforced concrete block cast around a set of piles (see PILE[2]) to create a unified support.

pile-driver ▷ noun a machine for driving piles (see PILE[2]) into the ground.

piles /paɪlz/ ▷ plural noun haemorrhoids. ⊙ 14c: from Latin pila ball.

pileum /'paɪlɪəm/ ▷ noun (pilea /-lɪə/) ornithol the top of a bird's head. ⊙ 19c: Latin, from pileus cap.

pile-up ▷ noun (pile-ups) a vehicle collision in which following vehicles also crash, causing a number of collisions. ⊙ 1920s.

pileus /'paɪlɪəs/ ▷ noun (pilei /-lɪaɪ/) bot the cap-shaped part of a mushroom, toadstool or other fungus. ⊙ 18c: Latin, from pilleus a felt cap.

pilfer /'pɪlfə(r)/ ▷ verb (pilfered, pilfering) tr & intr to steal in small quantities. ■ pilferage or pilfering noun petty theft. ■ pilferer noun. ⊙ 14c: from French pelfre booty.

pilgrim /'pɪlgrɪm/ ▷ noun 1 someone who makes a journey to a holy place as an act of reverence and religious faith. 2 a traveller. 3 as adj a belonging or relating to a pilgrim □ pilgrim staff; b like a pilgrim □ pilgrim spirit. ⊙ 12c as pelegrim, pilegrim: from Latin peregrinus foreigner or stranger.

pilgrimage /'pɪlgrɪmɪdʒ/ ▷ noun a journey to a shrine or other holy place, or to a place celebrated or made special by its associations, undertaken in order to gain a greater sense of closeness to the religion, etc or as a means of affirming one's faith. ▷ verb (pilgrimaged, pilgrimaging) to go on a pilgrimage. ⊙ 13c.

piliferous /paɪ'lɪfərəs/ ▷ adj said especially of plants: 1 bearing hairs. 2 ending in a hairlike point. ■ piliform adj hairlike. ⊙ 19c: from Latin pilus hair + -FEROUS.

Pilipino /pɪlɪ'piːnoʊ/ ▷ noun the national language of the Philippines, a standardized version of TAGALOG. ▷ adj relating to, or spoken or written in, Pilipino. ⊙ 1930s: from Spanish Filipino Philippine.

pill ▷ noun 1 a small ball or tablet of medicine, for swallowing. Compare CAPSULE, TABLET (sense 1). 2 something unpleasant that one must accept. 3 (the pill) any of various oral contraceptives, taken by some women (as opposed to men). See also MINIPILL, MORNING-AFTER PILL. ■ be on the pill to take oral contraceptives regularly. ■ sugar or sweeten the pill to make something that is unpleasant easier to accept or cope with. ⊙ 15c: from Latin pila ball.

pillage /'pɪlɪdʒ/ ▷ verb (pillaged, pillaging) tr & intr to plunder or loot. ▷ noun 1 the act of pillaging. 2 loot, plunder or booty. ■ pillager noun. ⊙ 14c: from French piller.

pillar /'pɪlə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 a vertical post of wood, stone, metal or concrete serving as a support to a main structure; a column. 2 any slender vertical mass of something, eg of smoke, rock, etc. 3 a strong and reliable supporter of a particular cause or organization □ He is a pillar of the village community. ■ from pillar to post from one place to another, especially moving between these in desperation, frustration, etc □ rushing from pillar to post in search of a cash machine 15c as from post to pillar, derived from real tennis and referring to the way the ball is sent wildly about the court. ◎ 13c: from French pilier, from Latin pila pillar.

pillar box see under LETTER BOX pillar-box red ▷ noun a bright red colour, the colour of most British pillar boxes. Also (pillar-box-red) as adj.

pillbox ▷ noun 1 a small round container for pills. 2 military a small, usually circular, concrete shelter for use as a lookout post and gun emplacement. 3 a small round flat-topped hat.

pillion /ˈpɪljən/ ▷ noun a seat for a passenger on a motorcycle or horse, behind the driver or rider. Also as adj ▫ pillion rider ▫ pillion seat. ▷ adverb on a pillion ▫ to ride pillion. ◎ 16c: from Scottish Gaelic pillinn or Irish Gaelic pillín, diminutive of peall skin or blanket.

pillock /ˈpɪlək/ ▷ noun, Brit slang a stupid or foolish person. ◎ 1960s; 16c in N Eng dialect, meaning 'penis': from Norwegian dialect pillicock penis.

pillory /ˈpɪlərɪ/ ▷ noun (pillories) historical a wooden frame with holes for the hands and head, into which wrongdoers were locked as a punishment and publicly ridiculed. ▷ verb (pillories, pilloried, pillorying) 1 to hold someone up to public ridicule. 2 to put someone in a pillory. Also called pillorize. ◎ 13c: from French pilori.

pillow /ˈpɪloʊ/ ▷ noun 1 a cushion for the head, especially a large rectangular one on a bed. 2 anything that resembles a pillow in shape, feel or function. ▷ verb (pillowed, pillowing) 1 to rest (one's head) as though on a pillow ▫ pillowed her head on her arms. 2 to serve as a pillow for someone. ◎ Anglo-Saxon pylwe: from Latin pulvinus cushion.

pillowcase and pillowslip ▷ noun a removable washable cover for a pillow.

pillow lace ▷ noun lace worked over a cushion-like support, using bobbins.

pillow talk ▷ noun confidential conversation with a sexual partner in bed.

pillpopper and pillhead ▷ noun, slang a regular taker of sedative or stimulant pills or both, particularly an addict of these. ◎ 1960s.

pilose /ˈpaɪloʊs/ ▷ adj, biol said especially of plants: having hairs. • pilosity /paɪˈlɒsɪtɪ/ noun. ◎ 18c: from Latin pilosus, from pilus hair.

pilot /ˈpaɪlət/ ▷ noun 1 someone who flies an aircraft, hovercraft, spacecraft, etc. 2 someone employed to conduct or steer ships into and out of harbour. 3 someone who is qualified to act as pilot. 4 a guide. 5 mech a device that guides a tool or machine part. 6 as adj said of a scheme, programme, test, etc: serving as a preliminary test which may be modified before the final version is put into effect; experimental ▫ a pilot project. ▷ verb (piloted, piloting) 1 to act as pilot to someone. 2 to direct, guide or steer (a project, etc). ◎ 16c: from French pillote, from Italian piloto, earlier pedota, from Greek pedon oar.

pilotage /ˈpaɪlətɪdʒ/ ▷ noun 1 the act of piloting an aircraft, ship, etc. 2 a pilot's fee.

pilot fish ▷ noun a fish that accompanies ships and is said to lead sharks to food.

pilot flag and pilot jack ▷ noun the flag hoisted at the fore by a vessel needing a pilot.

pilot house ▷ noun the WHEEL HOUSE.

pilot jacket ▷ noun a PEA JACKET.

pilotless ▷ adj 1 without a pilot. 2 said of an automatic aeroplane: not requiring a pilot.

pilot light ▷ noun 1 a small permanent gas flame, eg on a gas cooker, that ignites the main burners when they are turned on. 2 an indicator light on an electrical apparatus showing when it is switched on.

pilot officer ▷ noun an officer in the airforce. See table at RANK.

Pils /pɪls, pɪlz/ ▷ noun any lager beer similar to PILSENER. ◎ 1960s: abbreviation.

Pilsener or Pilsner /ˈpɪlznə(r), ˈpɪlsnə(r)/ ▷ noun a light, strongly-flavoured lager beer. ◎ 19c: from Pilsen, the German name of the Czech town of Plzeň where it was originally brewed.

pilule /ˈpɪljuːl/ ▷ noun a little pill. • pilular adj. ◎ 16c: French, from Latin pilula little ball, from pila ball.

pimento /pɪˈmentoʊ/ ▷ noun (pimentos) 1 a small tropical evergreen tree, cultivated mainly in Jamaica. 2 any of the dried unripe berries of this tree which are a source of allspice. Also called allspice. 3 the PIMIENTO. ◎ 17c: altered from Spanish pimiento: see PIMIENTO.

pi-meson /paɪˈmiːzɒn/ ▷ noun, physics the source of the nuclear force holding protons and neutrons together. Also called pion. See also MESON.

pimiento /pɪmɪˈentoʊ/ ▷ noun (pimientos) 1 a variety of sweet pepper, native to tropical America, widely cultivated for its mild-flavoured red fruit. 2 the fruit of this plant, eaten raw in salads, cooked and eaten as a vegetable, or used as a relish, a stuffing for olives, etc. ◎ 19c: Spanish, meaning 'pepper', from Latin pigmenta spiced drink: spice or pepper.

pimp ▷ noun a man who finds customers for a prostitute or a brothel and lives off the earnings. ▷ verb (pimped, pimping) intr to act as a pimp. ◎ 17c: possibly related to French pimpant well-dressed or smart, from French pimper to dress smartly.

pimpernel /ˈpɪmpənel, -nəl/ ▷ noun any of various small sprawling plants, especially the SCARLET PIMPERNEL. ◎ 15c: from French pimprenelle.

pimple /ˈpɪmpəl/ ▷ noun a small raised often pus-containing swelling on the skin; a spot. Technical equivalent PAPULA, PAPULE and PUSTULE. • pimpled adj having pimples. ◎ 15c: related to Anglo-Saxon pyplian to break out in pimples: from Latin papula pimple.

pimply ▷ adj (pimplier, pimpliest) having pimples.

PIN /pɪn/ ▷ abbreviation, noun personal identification number, a multi-digit number used to authorize electronic transactions, such as cash withdrawal from a dispenser at a bank, access to an account via a telephone line, etc. Also called PIN number. ◎ 1980s.

pin ▷ noun 1 a short slender implement with a sharp point and small round head, usually made of stainless steel, for fastening, attaching, etc, and used especially in dressmaking. 2 in compounds any of several fastening devices consisting of or incorporating a slender metal or wire shaft ▫ hatpin ▫ safety pin. 3 a narrow brooch. 4 in compounds any of several cylindrical wooden or metal objects with various functions ▫ a rolling-pin. 5 a peg of any of various kinds. 6 any or either of the cylindrical or square-sectioned legs on an electric plug. 7 a club-shaped object set upright for toppling with a ball ▫ ten-pin bowling. 8 the clip on a grenade, that is removed before it is thrown. 9 golf the metal shaft of the flag marking a hole. 10 (pins) colloq one's legs ▫ shaky on my pins. 11 old use the least bit ▫ doesn't care a pin. ▷ verb (pinned, pinning) 1 (also pin something together, back, up, etc) to secure it with a pin. 2 to make a small hole in something. 3 chess to cause an opponent's piece to be unable to move without checking its own king. • for two pins colloq very readily; if given the smallest reason or encouragement, etc ▫ For two pins, I'd come with you. • pin one's hopes or faith on something or someone to rely on or trust in them entirely. ◎ Anglo-Saxon pinn: from Latin pinna point.

▪ pin someone down to force a commitment or definite expression of opinion from them.

▪ pin something down to identify or define it precisely.

▪ pin something or someone down to hold them fast or trap them ▫ pinned the escaping prisoner down on the ground.

■ pin something on someone colloq to put the blame for (a crime or offence) on them.

pina colada or piña colada /ˈpiːnə kəˈlɑːdə, ˈpiːnjə —/ ▷ noun (pina coladas) a drink made from pineapple juice, rum and coconut. ⓘ 1970s: Spanish, literally 'strained pineapple'.

pinafore /ˈpɪnəfɔː(r)/ ▷ noun 1 an apron, especially one with a bib. Sometimes shortened to pinny. 2 (also pinafore dress) a sleeveless dress for wearing over a blouse, sweater, etc. ⓘ 17c: from pin + afore, because it was formerly 'pinned afore', ie pinned to the front of a dress.

pinball ▷ noun a game played on a slot machine, in which a small metal ball is propelled by flippers round a course, the score depending on what hazards it avoids and targets it hits; a form of BAGATELLE (sense 1). ⓘ Early 20c.

pince-nez /ˈpansneɪ, ˈpɪnsneɪ/ ▷ plural noun spectacles that are held in position by a clip gripping the nose instead of being supported over the ears. ⓘ 19c: French, literally 'pinch nose'.

pincer movement ▷ noun, military an advance that closes in on a target from both sides simultaneously. ⓘ 1920s.

pincers /ˈpɪnsəz/ ▷ plural noun 1 a hinged tool with two claw-like jaws joined by a pivot, used for gripping objects, pulling nails, etc. 2 the modified claw-like appendage of a decapod crustacean, eg a crab or lobster, adapted for grasping. ⓘ 14c: from French pincier to pinch.

pinch ▷ verb (pinches, pinched, pinching) 1 to squeeze or nip the flesh of someone or something, between thumb and finger. 2 to compress or squeeze something painfully. 3 said eg of cold or hunger: to affect someone or something painfully or injuriously. 4 tr & intr said of tight shoes: to hurt or chafe. 5 tr & intr, colloq to steal. 6 intr said of controls, restrictions, shortages, etc: to cause hardship. 7 intr to economize □ had to pinch and scrape to get by. 8 colloq to arrest someone. ▷ noun (pinches) 1 an act of pinching; a nip or squeeze. 2 the quantity of something (eg salt) that can be held between thumb and finger. 3 a very small amount. 4 a critical time of difficulty or hardship. • at a pinch colloq if absolutely necessary. • feel the pinch colloq to find life, work, etc difficult because of lack of money. • know where the shoe pinches to know by direct experience what the problem or difficulty is. ⓘ 14c: from French pincier to pinch.

■ pinch something off, out, back, etc to prune (a plant) by removing the tips of its shoots.

pinchbeck /ˈpɪntʃbɛk/ ▷ noun a copper-zinc alloy with the appearance of gold, used in cheap jewellery. ▷ adj cheap, artificial, sham, counterfeit or imitation. ⓘ 18c: named after its inventor Christopher Pinchbeck (c 1670–1732), English watchmaker.

pinched ▷ adj said of a person's appearance: pale and haggard from tiredness, cold or other discomfort.

pinch-hit ▷ verb (pinch-hit, pinch-hitting) 1 baseball to bat in place of someone else at short notice, especially at a critical point in the game. 2 to act as a substitute for someone in an emergency. ⓘ Early 20c.

pincushion ▷ noun a pad into which to stick dressmaking pins for convenient storage.

pine[1] ▷ noun 1 (also pine tree) any of numerous evergreen coniferous trees with narrow needle-like leaves, native to cool northern temperate regions. 2 (also pinewood) the pale durable wood of this tree, used to make furniture, telegraph poles, paper pulp, etc, and widely used in construction work. Also as adj □ pine table □ pine fragrance. See also PINY. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon pin: from Latin pinus.

pine[2] ▷ verb (pined, pining) intr 1 (also pine for someone or something) to long or yearn for them or it. 2 (also pine away) to waste away from grief or longing. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon pinian in obsolete sense 'to torment'.

pineal eye /ˈpɪnɪəl —/ ▷ noun, zool in certain cold-blooded vertebrates: a vestigial third eye in front of the PINEAL GLAND.

pineal gland and pineal body /ˈpɪnɪəl —/ ▷ noun, anatomy in vertebrates: a small outgrowth from the roof of the forebrain, which produces the hormone MELATONIN. Also called EPIPHYSIS. ⓘ 17c: from French pinéal, from Latin from pinea pine cone.

pineapple /ˈpaɪnæpəl/ ▷ noun 1 a tropical S American plant with spiky sword-shaped leaves, widely cultivated for its large edible fruit. 2 the fruit of this plant, which has sweet juicy yellow flesh covered by a yellowish-brown spiny skin and is crowned by a rosette of pointed leaves. ⓘ 17c referring to the fruit; from 14c pinappel in now obsolete sense 'pine cone', ie 'the fruit of the pine'.

pine cone ▷ noun the egg-shaped woody fruit of the pine tree, which contains winged seeds.

pine marten ▷ noun either of two species of solitary nocturnal tree-dwelling mammal with a rich dark-brown coat and an irregularly shaped yellowish throat patch.

pine needle ▷ noun the slender sharp-pointed leaf of the pine tree.

pine nut and pine kernel ▷ noun the edible oily seed of various species of pine trees, especially the STONE PINE.

pine tar ▷ noun WOOD TAR.

pinewood ▷ noun 1 a wood of pine trees. 2 pine timber.

pin feather ▷ noun, ornithol a new and still unexpanded feather emerging from the skin of a bird.

ping ▷ noun a sharp ringing sound like that made by plucking a taut wire, lightly striking glass or metal, etc. ▷ verb (pinged, pinging) tr & intr to make or cause something to make this sound. ⓘ 19c: imitating the sound.

pinger /ˈpɪŋə(r)/ ▷ noun a clockwork device used in the home, eg to time something that is being cooked, which can be set to give a warning signal such as a pinging sound, after a certain amount of time. ⓘ 1950s.

pingo /ˈpɪŋgoʊ/ ▷ noun (pingos or pingoes) 1 a large cone-shaped mound with a core of ice formed by the upward expansion of freezing water surrounded by permafrost. 2 the lake formed when such a structure melts. ⓘ 1920s: Eskimo, meaning 'conical hill'.

ping-pong /ˈpɪŋpɒŋ/ ▷ noun TABLE TENNIS. Also written Ping-Pong (trademark in US). ⓘ Early 20c: imitating the sound of the ball.

pinhead ▷ noun 1 the little rounded or flattened head of a pin. 2 something that is very small. 3 slang a stupid person. • pinheaded adj.

pinhole ▷ noun a tiny hole made by, or as if by, a pin.

pinhole camera ▷ noun a simple camera consisting of a box with a pin-size hole in it instead of a lens.

pinier and piniest see under PINY.

pinion[1] /ˈpɪnjən/ ▷ verb (pinioned, pinioning) 1 to immobilize someone by holding or binding their arms; to hold or bind (someone's arms). 2 to hold fast or bind □ pinioned against a wall. ▷ noun 1 the extreme tip of a bird's wing. 2 a bird's flight feather. ⓘ 15c: from French pignon wing.

pinion[2] /ˈpɪnjən/ ▷ noun a small cogwheel that engages with a larger wheel or rack. ⓘ 17c: from French pignon cogwheel.

pink[1] ▷ noun 1 a light or pale-red colour, between red and white. 2 an annual or perennial plant, eg a CARNATION or SWEET WILLIAM, which has stems with swollen nodes, grass-like bluish-green leaves and flowers with a tubular calyx and five spreading toothed or slightly frilled pink, red, white, purple, yellow, orange or variegated petals. 3 a a scarlet hunting-coat or its colour; b the person wearing it. 4 the highest point; the acme □ in the pink of condition. 5 a person of mildly left-wing views. Compare RED noun 7. ▷ adj 1 having, being or referring to the colour pink. 2 slightly left-wing. • in the pink colloq in the best of health. • pinkish adj. • pinkness noun. • pinky see separate entry. ⓘ 16c as noun sense 2.

pink² ▷ verb (pinked, pinking) to cut (cloth) with a notched or serrated edge that frays less readily than a straight edge. See also PINKING SHEARS. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon pyngan to prick.

pink³ ▷ verb (pinked, pinking) intr said of a vehicle engine: to KNOCK (verb 7). ⓘ Early 20c: imitating the sound made.

pink elephant noun (usually pink elephants) a hallucination caused by over-indulgence in alcoholic drink.

pink eye see CONJUNCTIVITIS.

pink gin ▷ noun gin flavoured with and stained pink by ANGOSTURA BITTERS. ⓘ 1930s.

pinkie or pinky /ˈpɪŋkɪ/ ▷ noun (pinkies) Scot & N Amer the little finger. ⓘ 19c: from Dutch pinkje.

pinking shears ▷ plural noun scissors with a serrated blade for cutting a notched or zig-zag edge in cloth. See PINK².

pinko /ˈpɪŋkoʊ/ ▷ noun (pinkos) colloq a mild or half-hearted socialist. ⓘ 1950s.

pink pound ▷ noun the combined purchasing power of homosexuals considered as a consumer group. ⓘ 1990s: pink refers to the PINK TRIANGLE.

pink triangle ▷ noun a symbol, in the form of a pink triangular cloth badge, worn by homosexuals as a sign of solidarity. ⓘ Homosexual prisoners were forced to wear this symbol in the concentration camps of Nazi Germany, in the same way that Jews were marked by a yellow star.

pinky¹ /ˈpɪŋkɪ/ ▷ adj (pinkier, pinkiest) slightly pink. • pinkiness noun.

pinky² see PINKIE.

pin money ▷ noun extra cash earned for spending on oneself, on luxury items, etc. ⓘ 17c: originally referring to an allowance paid by a man to his wife for personal expenditure.

pinna /ˈpɪnə/ ▷ noun (pinnae /-niː/) 1 anatomy in mammals: the part of the outer ear that projects from the head and that in certain mammals can be moved independently in order to detect the direction of sounds. 2 in a compound leaf: one of the leaflets on either side of the midrib. 3 in birds: a feather or wing. 4 in fish: a fin. ⓘ 18c: Latin, meaning 'feather' or 'wing'.

pinnace /ˈpɪnəs/ ▷ noun a small boat carried on a larger ship; a ship's boat. ⓘ 16c: from French pinace, from Spanish pinaza, meaning 'something made of pine'.

pinnacle /ˈpɪnəkəl/ ▷ noun 1 a slender spire crowning a buttress, gable, roof or tower. 2 a rocky peak. 3 a high point of achievement □ the pinnacle of her success. ▷ verb (pinnacled, pinnacling) 1 to be the pinnacle of something. 2 to set something on a pinnacle. 3 to provide something with a pinnacle or pinnacles. ⓘ 14c: from Latin pinnaculum, diminutive of pinna feather.

pinnate /ˈpɪneɪt, ˈpɪnɪt/ ▷ adj, bot denoting a compound leaf that consists of pairs of leaflets arranged in two rows on either side of a central axis or midrib. • pinnately adverb. ⓘ 18c: from Latin pinnatus feathered, from pinna feather or wing.

pinnatiped /pɪˈnatɪped/ ▷ adj, zool said of birds: having webbed feet. ⓘ Early 19c: from Latin pinnatus winged + pes, pedis foot.

pinned, pinning see PIN.

pinnule /ˈpɪnjuːl/ ▷ noun 1 bot a lobe of a leaflet of a pinnate leaf. 2 zool a branchlet of a crinoid arm. ⓘ 16c: from Latin pinnula, diminutive of pinna wing.

PIN number see under PIN.

pinny see PINAFORE.

pinochle or pinocle /ˈpiːnɒkəl, ˈpɪ-/ ▷ noun 1 a card game derived from BEZIQUE, in which two packs of 24 cards are shuffled together, with all cards of a lower value than nine discarded, the object of the game being to win tricks as in WHIST. 2 the combination of queen of spades and jack of diamonds together in this game. ⓘ 1860s.

pinole /piːˈnoʊleɪ/ ▷ noun a fine flour made from parched Indian corn or other seeds, sweetened with sugar and eaten with milk, mainly in Mexico and SW states of the US. ⓘ 19c: Spanish, from Nahuatl (S American Native language) pinolli.

pinpoint ▷ verb to place, define or identify something precisely. ⓘ Early 20c.

pinprick ▷ noun 1 a tiny hole made by, or as if by, a pin. 2 a slight irritation or annoyance.

pins and needles ▷ plural noun an abnormal tingling or prickling sensation in a limb, etc, felt as the flow of blood returns to it after being temporarily obstructed. Technical equivalent PARAESTHESIA.

pinscher see DOBERMAN PINSCHER.

pinstripe ▷ noun 1 a very narrow stripe in cloth. 2 cloth with such stripes. • pinstriped adj said of fabric or garments, especially suits: having pinstripes.

pint /paɪnt/ ▷ noun 1 in the UK, in the imperial system: a unit of liquid measure equivalent to ⅛ of a gallon or 20fl oz, equivalent to 0.568 litre (liquid or dry). 2 in the US: a unit of liquid measure equivalent to ⅛ of a gallon or 16 USfl oz, equivalent to 0.473 litre (liquid) and 0.551 litre (dry). 3 colloq a drink of beer of this quantity. ⓘ 14c: from French pinte.

pinta¹ /ˈpɪntə/ ▷ noun a contagious bacterial skin infection occurring in the tropics, particularly Mexico, characterized by loss of skin pigmentation. ⓘ 19c: Spanish, from Latin pinctus, from pictus painted.

pinta² /ˈpaɪntə/ ▷ noun (pintas) colloq a pint of milk. ⓘ 1950s: a contraction of pint of, originally used in an advertising slogan.

pintail ▷ noun a species of duck with a long slender neck, and a pointed tail which is greatly elongated in the male.

pintle /ˈpɪntəl/ ▷ noun 1 a bolt or pin, especially one which is turned by something. 2 the plunger or needle of the injection valve of an oil engine, opened by oil pressure on an annular face, and closed by a spring. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon pintel in original and dialect sense 'penis'.

pinto /ˈpɪntoʊ/ US ▷ adj mottled; piebald. ▷ noun (pintos) a piebald horse. ⓘ 19c: Spanish, meaning 'painted' or 'mottled', from Latin pinctus, from pictus painted.

pinto bean ▷ noun a kind of bean resembling a kidney bean, but mottled in colour. ⓘ Early 20c.

pint-size or pint-sized ▷ adj, humorous said of a person: very small.

pin tuck ▷ noun a narrow decorative tuck in a garment.

pin-up ▷ noun 1 a picture of a pop star or a famous, glamorous or otherwise admirable person that one pins on one's wall. 2 someone whose picture is pinned up in this way. ⓘ 1940s.

pinwheel ▷ noun 1 a whirling firework; a CATHERINE WHEEL. 2 N Amer, especially US a toy windmill.

piny /ˈpaɪnɪ/ ▷ adj (pinier, piniest) referring to, resembling or covered in pine trees.

Pinyin /pɪnˈjɪn/ ▷ noun a system for writing Chinese using letters of the Roman alphabet. ⓘ 1960s: from Chinese pinyin phonetic spelling.

pion see under PI-MESON pioneer /paɪəˈnɪə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 an explorer of, or settler in, hitherto unknown or wild country. 2 someone who breaks new ground in anything; an innovator or initiator. 3 bot a plant or species that is characteristically among the first to establish itself on bared ground. Also as adj. ▷ verb (pioneered, pioneering) 1 intr to be a pioneer; to be innovative. 2 to explore and open up (a route, etc). 3 to try out, originate or develop (a new technique, etc). ◷ 16c: from French peonier, from Latin pedo foot soldier.

pious /ˈpaɪəs/ ▷ adj 1 religiously devout. 2 dutiful. 3 derog ostentatiously virtuous; sanctimonious. • piously adverb. • piousness noun. ◷ 18c: from Latin pius dutiful.

pip[1] ▷ noun the small seed of a fruit such as an apple, pear, orange or grape. • pipless adj. • pippy adj. ◷ 18c: shortening of PIPPIN sense 2.

pip[2] ▷ noun 1 one of a series of short high-pitched signals on the radio, telephone, etc. 2 (the pips) colloq the six pips broadcast as a time-signal by BBC radio, made up of five short ones and one long one which marks the start of the new minute and hour. ◷ Early 20c: imitating the sound.

pip[3] ▷ verb (pipped, pipping) to defeat someone narrowly. • pipped at the post colloq overtaken narrowly in the closing stages of a contest, etc. ◷ Late 19c: from PIP[1] or PIP[4].

pip[4] ▷ noun 1 one of the emblems or spots on playing-cards, dice or dominoes. 2 military in the British army: a star on a uniform indicating rank □ got his second pip last month. 3 on a radar screen: a mark, eg a spot of light, that indicates the presence of an object. 4 bot the single blossom or corolla in a cluster. ◷ 17c, originally as peep.

pip[5] ▷ noun, old use a disease of poultry and other fowl. • give someone the pip colloq to irritate them. ◷ 15c as pippe: Dutch, perhaps ultimately from Latin pituita rheum or mucus.

pipa /ˈpiːpə/ ▷ noun (pipas) a S American toad, the female of which is noted for carrying her developing young on her back. Also called Surinam toad. ◷ 18c: Surinam dialect, probably of African origin.

pipal, pipul or peepul /ˈpiːpəl, ˈpiːpʌl/ ▷ noun the BO TREE. ◷ 18c: Hindi.

pipe[1] /paɪp/ ▷ noun 1 a tubular conveyance for water, gas, oil, etc. 2 a a little bowl with a hollow stem for smoking tobacco, etc; b a quantity of tobacco smoked in one of these. 3 a wind instrument consisting of a simple wooden or metal tube. 4 (the pipes) the BAGPIPES. 5 any of the vertical metal tubes through which sound is produced on an organ. 6 a boatswain's whistle. 7 a pipe-like vent forming part of a volcano. 8 a cylindrical quantity of ore, etc. 9 old use or in compounds any of the air passages in an animal's body □ the windpipe. ▷ verb (piped, piping) 1 to convey (gas, water, oil, etc) through pipes. 2 tr & intr to play on a pipe or the pipes □ piped the same tune all evening. 3 (also pipe someone or something in) to welcome or convey with music from a pipe or the bagpipes □ piped in the haggis. 4 tr & intr said of a child: to speak or say in a small shrill voice. 5 intr to sing shrilly as a bird does. 6 a to use a bag with a nozzle in order to force (icing or cream, etc from the bag) into long strings for decorating a cake, dessert, etc; b to make (designs, etc) on a cake, etc by this means. 7 computing to direct (the output of one program) into another program as its input in order to increase the speed of execution. 8 hortic to propagate by using pipings (see PIPING noun 5). • pipeless adj. • pipe-like adj. • piper see separate entry. • put that in your pipe and smoke it colloq used dismissively in speech to emphasize and conclude some unwelcome statement, criticism, etc: think about that and see how you like it! ◷ Anglo-Saxon: from Latin pipare to chirp or play a pipe.

■ pipe down colloq to stop talking; to be quiet □ Will you please pipe down!

■ pipe up to speak unexpectedly, breaking a silence, etc.

pipe[2] /paɪp/ ▷ noun 1 a cask or butt of varying capacity, but usually about 105 gallons in Britain (equal to 126 US gallons), used for wine or oil. 2 a measure of this amount. ◷ 14c: French, meaning 'cask'.

pipeclay ▷ noun fine white clay for making tobacco pipes and delicate crockery.

pipe-cleaner ▷ noun a piece of wire with a woolly tufted covering for cleaning a tobacco pipe.

piped music ▷ noun light popular recorded music played continuously through loudspeakers, especially in public places, eg restaurants, shopping malls, supermarkets, etc. Also called muzak (trademark).

pipe dream ▷ noun a delightful fantasy of the kind indulged in while smoking a pipe, originally one filled with opium. • pipe-dreamer noun. ◷ Late 19c.

pipefish ▷ noun any of various fish of the seahorse family, a long thin fish covered with hard plates, its jaws forming a long tube.

pipeful ▷ noun (pipefuls) the amount a pipe can hold.

pipeline ▷ noun a series of connected pipes laid underground to carry oil, natural gas, water, etc, across large distances. • pipelining noun. • in the pipeline colloq under consideration; forthcoming or in preparation □ Some reforms to the system are already in the pipeline.

pipe of peace see under CALUMET piper /ˈpaɪpə(r)/ ▷ noun a player of a pipe or the bagpipes.

pipe rack ▷ noun a rack for tobacco pipes.

piperidine /pɪˈperɪdiːn/ ▷ noun, chem a liquid base with a peppery odour. ◷ 19c: French, from Latin piper pepper + -IDE + -INE[2].

piperine /ˈpɪpəraɪn/ ▷ noun, chem (formula $C_{17}H_{19}O_3N$) an alkaloid found in pepper. ◷ Early 19c: from Latin piper pepper + -INE[2].

pipestone ▷ noun a red clayey stone used by Native American people for making tobacco pipes.

pipette /pɪˈpet/ ▷ noun a small laboratory device usually consisting of a narrow tube into which liquid can be sucked and from which it can subsequently be dispensed in known amounts. ▷ verb (pipetted, pipetting) to measure or transfer (a liquid) by means of such a device. ◷ 19c: French, diminutive of pipe pipe.

pipework ▷ noun 1 mining a vein of ore in the form of a pipe. 2 piping or pipes collectively.

piping /ˈpaɪpɪŋ/ ▷ noun 1 a a length of pipe, or a system or series of pipes conveying water, oil, etc; b as adj □ piping engineer. 2 covered cord forming a decorative edging on upholstery or clothing. 3 strings and knots of icing or cream decorating a cake or dessert. 4 the art of playing a pipe or the bagpipes. 5 hortic a slip or cutting from a joint of a plant stem. ▷ adj said of a child's voice: small and shrill. • piping hot said of food: satisfyingly hot.

pipistrelle /pɪpɪˈstrel/ ▷ noun the smallest and most widespread European bat, which has a reddish-brown body and short triangular ears, and is frequently found roosting in barns and other large buildings. ◷ 18c: from French, from Italian pipistrello, from Latin vespertilio bat, from vesper evening.

pipit /ˈpɪpɪt/ ▷ noun any of various small ground-dwelling songbirds with a slender body, streaked brown plumage with paler underparts, a narrow beak and a long tail. ◷ 18c: imitating the sound of its call.

pipkin /ˈpɪpkɪn/ ▷ noun a small pot, now only an earthenware one. ◷ 16c: possibly a diminutive of PIPE[2].

pipless see under PIP[1] pippin ▷ noun 1 any of several varieties of eating apple with a green or rosy skin. 2 obsolete or dialect the seed or pip of a fruit. ◷ 13c in sense 2: from French pepin.

pippy see under PIP[1]

pipsqueak ⊳ noun, derog colloq someone or something insignificant or contemptible. ⓘ Early 20c.

pipul see PIPAL

piquant /ˈpiːkənt, -kɑːnt/ ⊳ adj 1 having a pleasantly spicy taste or tang. 2 amusing, intriguing, provocative or stimulating. • piquancy noun the state of being piquant. • piquantly adverb. ⓘ 16c: French, from piquer to prick.

pique /piːk/ ⊳ noun resentment; hurt pride. ⊳ verb (piqued, piquing) 1 to hurt someone's pride; to offend or nettle them. 2 to arouse (curiosity or interest). 3 to pride (oneself) on something □ piqued himself on his good taste. ⓘ 16c: French, from piquer to prick.

piqué /ˈpiːkeɪ/ ⊳ noun a stiff corded fabric, especially of cotton. ⓘ 19c: French, meaning 'pricked', from piquer to prick.

piquet /pɪˈkɛt, pɪˈkeɪ/ ⊳ noun a card game for two, played with 32 cards. ⓘ 17c: French, from pic the score of 30 points in this game, literally 'prick'.

Pir or pir /pɪə(r)/ ⊳ noun a Muslim title of honour given to a holy man or religious leader. ⓘ 17c: Persian, meaning 'old man' or 'chief'.

piracy /ˈpaɪərəsɪ/ ⊳ noun (piracies) 1 the activity of pirates, such as robbery on the high seas. 2 unauthorized publication or reproduction of copyright material. ⓘ 16c.

piranha /pɪˈrɑːnə/ or piraña /pɪˈrɑːnjə/ ⊳ noun any of various extremely aggressive S American freshwater fishes, usually dark in colour, with strong jaws, sharp interlocking saw-edged teeth and a slender muscular tail with a broad tail-fin. ⓘ 19c: Portuguese piranha, from Tupi (S American Native language) piranya scissors or piranha.

pirate /ˈpaɪərət/ ⊳ noun 1 someone who attacks and robs ships at sea. 2 the ship used by pirates. 3 someone who publishes material without permission from the copyright-holder, or otherwise uses someone else's work illegally. 4 someone who runs a radio station without a licence. ⊳ verb (pirated, pirating) to publish, reproduce or use (someone else's literary or artistic work, or ideas) without legal permission. • piratic /paɪəˈratɪk/ or piratical adj. • piratically adverb. ⓘ 15c: from Latin pirata, from Greek peirates, from peiraein to try one's fortune.

piri-piri[1] /ˈpɪrɪpɪrɪ/ ⊳ noun a spicy sauce made with red peppers. Also as adj □ piri-piri chicken. ⓘ 1960s: perhaps from Swahili pilipili pepper.

piri-piri[2] /ˈpɪərɪpɪərɪ/ ⊳ noun a New Zealand weed with prickly burs, used medicinally and as a tea. ⓘ Late 19c: Maori.

pirouette /pɪrʊˈɛt/ ⊳ noun a spin or twirl executed on tiptoe in dancing. ⊳ verb (pirouetted, pirouetting) intr to execute a pirouette or a series of them. ⓘ 18c: French, originally meaning 'a spinning top'.

pirozhki /pɪˈrɒʒkɪ/ or piroshki /-ˈrɒʃkɪ/ ⊳ plural noun small triangular pastries with meat, fish, cream cheese or vegetable fillings. ⓘ Early 20c: Russian, meaning 'small pastries'.

piscatorial /pɪskəˈtɔːrɪəl/ and piscatory /ˈpɪskətərɪ/ ⊳ adj, formal relating to fish or fishing. ⓘ 17c as piscatory; early 19c as piscatorial: from Latin piscatorius fisherman.

Pisces /ˈpaɪsiːz/ ⊳ noun 1 astron a constellation of the zodiac. 2 astrol a the twelfth sign of the zodiac; b someone born between 20 February and 20 March, under this sign. See table at ZODIAC. 3 zool in the animal kingdom: the superclass of fishes, consisting of the jawless fish (hagfish and lampreys), cartilaginous fish and bony fish. • Piscean adj. ⓘ 14c: Latin, meaning 'fishes', from piscis fish.

pisci- /ˈpɪsɪ/ ⊳ combining form, denoting fish or fishes. ⓘ From Latin piscis fish.

pisciculture /ˈpɪsɪkʌltʃʊə(r)/ ⊳ noun the rearing of fish by artificial methods or under controlled conditions. • piscicultural adj. • pisciculturist noun. ⓘ 19c.

piscina /pɪˈsiːnə, pɪˈsaɪnə/ ⊳ noun (piscinae /-niː/ or piscinas) a stone basin with a drain, found in older churches, in which to empty water used for rinsing the sacred vessels, generally situated in a niche on the south side of the altar. ⓘ 18c in this sense; 16c meaning 'fish pond', from Latin, meaning 'basin', 'tank' or 'fish pond'.

piscine /pɪˈsaɪn/ ⊳ adj referring or relating to, or resembling, a fish or fishes. ⓘ 18c: from Latin piscis fish.

piscivorous /pɪˈsɪvərəs/ ⊳ adj said of an animal: that feeds on fish. ⓘ 17c.

pish ⊳ exclamation an expression of impatience, contempt or disgust. ⓘ 16c.

piss ⊳ verb (pissed, pissing) 1 intr, coarse slang, sometimes considered taboo to urinate. 2 to discharge something (eg blood) in the urine. 3 to wet something with one's urine □ piss the bed. 4 intr (also piss down) to rain hard □ It's pissing down outside. ⊳ noun (pisses) 1 urine. 2 an act of urinating. • take the piss out of someone or something to ridicule them or it. See also PISS-TAKE. ⓘ 13c: from French pisser, from a colloquial Latin word, imitating the sound of urinating.

■ piss about or around to mess about; to waste time.

■ piss someone about or around to waste their time; to irritate them.

■ piss off to go away □ Piss off, will you!

■ piss someone off Brit to irritate or bore them □ He really pisses me off. □ She's pissed off with him.

piss-artist ⊳ noun, slang 1 someone who presents themselves as being organized and productive but who is in fact incompetent. 2 a drunkard. ⓘ 1970s.

pissed /pɪst/ ⊳ adj 1 Brit coarse slang drunk. 2 N Amer (often pissed at someone or something) irritated or annoyed with them or it. See also PISS SOMEONE OFF at PISS.

pisser ⊳ noun, coarse slang 1 someone who pisses. 2 an annoying or irritating person or thing □ What a pisser! 3 a toilet. 4 the penis. • to pull someone's pisser to joke with them; to pull their leg.

piss-head ⊳ noun a drunkard. ⓘ 1970s.

pissoir / French piswaʀ/ ⊳ noun a public urinal enclosed by a screen or wall. ⓘ Early 20c.

piss-poor ⊳ adj, slang terrible; diabolical.

piss-take slang ⊳ noun a parody. • piss-taker noun. • piss-taking noun, adj. ⓘ 1970s: derived from TAKE THE PISS OUT OF SOMEONE (see under PISS).

piss-up ⊳ noun, slang 1 a party or gathering where most people drink a lot of alcohol. 2 a mess; a botched situation. ⓘ 1950s.

pistachio /pɪˈstɑːʃɪoʊ, -tʃɪoʊ/ ⊳ noun (pistachios) 1 a small deciduous tree with greenish flowers borne in long loose heads, and reddish-brown nut-like fruits containing edible seeds. 2 the edible greenish seed of this tree which can be eaten salted or used as a food flavouring, in confectionery, etc. ⓘ 16c: from Italian pistacchio, ultimately from Persian pistah.

piste /piːst/ ⊳ noun a ski slope or track of smooth compacted snow. ⓘ 18c: French, meaning 'race track', from Latin pista beaten track, from pinsere to pound or stamp.

pistil /ˈpɪstɪl/ ⊳ noun, bot in a flowering plant: the female reproductive structure, which may be a single carpel consisting of a stigma, style and ovary, or a group of fused carpels. ⓘ 18c: from Latin pistillum pestle.

pistol /ˈpɪstəl/ ⊳ noun a small gun held in one hand when fired. • hold a pistol to someone's head to use threats to force them to do what one wants. ⓘ 16c: from French pistole, from German, from Czech píšťala pistol, pipe or whistle.

pistole /pɪˈstoʊl/ ▷ noun, historical an old gold coin, especially a Spanish one. ⓘ 16c: from French, shortened from pistolet gold coin.

pistol grip ▷ noun a handle shaped like the butt of a pistol, eg for a camera. Also as adj □ pistol-grip camera.

pistol-whip ▷ verb to hit someone with a pistol. ⓘ 1940s.

piston /ˈpɪstən/ ▷ noun 1 engineering a cylindrical device that moves up and down in the cylinder of a petrol, diesel or steam engine. 2 a sliding valve on a brass wind instrument. ⓘ 18c: French, from Italian pistone from pestare to pound.

piston ring ▷ noun, engineering a split metal ring that forms an airtight seal between a piston and its containing cylinder.

piston rod ▷ noun, engineering in a vehicle engine: a rod attached to the piston, that transfers the piston's motion to the driving wheels by means of the crankshaft.

pit[1] ▷ noun 1 a big deep hole in the ground. 2 a mine, especially a coalmine. 3 a cavity sunk into the ground from which to inspect vehicle engines, etc. 4 (the pits) motor sport any of a set of areas beside a racetrack where vehicles can refuel, have wheel changes, etc. 5 an enclosure in which fighting animals or birds are put. 6 a the floor of the auditorium in a theatre; b the people sitting there. 7 an ORCHESTRA PIT (see ORCHESTRA sense 3). 8 anatomy a hollow, indentation or depression, eg pit of the stomach the small hollow below the breastbone. 9 a scar left by a smallpox or acne pustule. 10 (the pit) old use hell. 11 (the pits) slang an awful or intolerable situation, person, etc. ▷ verb (pitted, pitting) 1 to mark something with scars and holes □ Its surface is pitted with craters. 2 to put something in a pit. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon pytt from Latin puteus well.

■ pit oneself against someone to set or match oneself against them in competition or opposition □ pitted himself against the rest of the team.

pit[2] ▷ noun, N Amer the stone in a peach, apricot, plum, etc. ▷ verb (pitted, pitting) to remove the stone from (a piece of fruit). ⓘ 19c: from Dutch, meaning 'kernel'.

pit-a-pat ▷ noun 1 a noise of pattering. 2 a succession of light taps. ▷ adverb with a pattering or tapping noise □ rain falling pit-a-pat. ▷ verb (pit-a-patted, pit-a-patting) to make a succession of quick light taps. ⓘ 16c: imitating the sound.

pit bull terrier ▷ noun a large breed of BULL TERRIER, originally developed for dogfighting. Often shortened to pit bull. ⓘ 1930s.

pitch[1] ▷ verb (pitches, pitched, pitching) 1 to set up (a tent or camp). 2 to throw or fling. 3 tr & intr to fall or make someone or something fall heavily forward. 4 intr said of a ship: to plunge and lift alternately at bow and stern. 5 tr & intr said of a roof: to slope □ is pitched at a steep angle. 6 to give a particular musical pitch to (one's voice or a note) in singing or playing, or to set (a song, etc) at a higher or lower level within a possible range □ The tune is pitched too high for me. 7 to choose a level, eg of difficulty, sophistication, etc at which to present (a talk, etc) □ was pitched too low for this audience. 8 a cricket to bowl (the ball) so that it lands where the batsman can hit it; b golf to hit (the ball) high and gently, so that it stays where it is on landing; c tr & intr, baseball said of the PITCHER[2] (sense 1): to throw the ball overarm or underarm to the person batting. 9 to pave (a road) with stones set on end or on edge. ▷ noun (pitches) 1 the field or area of play in any of several sports. 2 an act or style of pitching or throwing. 3 a degree of intensity; a level □ reached such a pitch of excitement. 4 a the angle of steepness of a slope; b such a slope. 5 music the degree of highness or lowness of a note that results from the frequency of the vibrations producing it. 6 a street trader's station. 7 a line in sales talk, especially one often made use of. 8 the distance between teeth on a saw, toothed wheel, etc, or between threads on a screw. 9 the plunging and rising motion of a ship. 10 the angle between the chord of the blade of a propeller and the plane of rotation. 11 geol the angle between a linear feature on the horizontal, measured in the inclined plane containing both. Compare PLUNGE. ● pitcher see separate entry. ● pitch camp to set up tents, etc upon arrival at a campsite, etc. ● queer someone's pitch see QUEER. ⓘ 13c as picchen to throw or put up.

■ pitch in colloq 1 to begin enthusiastically. 2 to join in; to make a contribution.

■ pitch into someone colloq to rebuke or blame them angrily.

pitch[2] ▷ noun (pitches) 1 a thick black sticky substance obtained from coal tar, used for filling ships' seams, etc. 2 any of various bituminous substances. Compare WOOD TAR. 3 in papermaking: a mixture of residues that interferes with paper quality. ▷ verb (pitches, pitched, pitching) to coat or treat something with pitch. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon pic.

pitch and putt ▷ noun 1 a small golf course in parks, etc, with short holes, needing only one pitch of the ball to reach the green from the tee. 2 the game played on such a course.

pitch-black or pitch-dark ▷ adj utterly, intensely or unrelievedly black or dark. ⓘ 16c.

pitchblende /ˈpɪtʃblɛnd/ ▷ noun, geol a radioactive glossy brown or black form of uraninite, the main ore of uranium and radium. ⓘ 18c: from German Pechblende, from pech PITCH[2] + BLENDE.

pitch circle ▷ noun in a toothed wheel: an imaginary circle along which the tooth pitch (see PITCH[1] noun 8) is measured and which would put the wheel in contact with another that meshed with it.

pitched battle ▷ noun 1 a prearranged battle between two sides on chosen ground. 2 a fierce dispute or violent confrontation, especially one that involves many people.

pitched roof ▷ noun a roof comprising two downward sloping surfaces meeting in a central ridge, contrasted with a flat one.

pitcher[1] /ˈpɪtʃə(r)/ ▷ noun a large earthenware jug with either one or two handles. ⓘ 13c: from French pichier, from Latin bicarium beaker.

pitcher[2] /ˈpɪtʃə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 baseball the player who throws the ball to the person batting to hit. 2 a paving-stone or sett. ⓘ 19c in these senses: see PITCH[1] verb 8c and 9.

pitcherful ▷ noun (pitcherfuls) the amount a PITCHER[1] can hold.

pitcher plant ▷ noun any of various insectivorous plants with modified leaves that collect rainwater, in which insects attracted to the plant are trapped and drowned. ⓘ 19c: so called because the leaves resemble pitchers (see PITCHER[1]).

pitchfork ▷ noun a long-handled fork with two or three sharp prongs, for tossing hay. ⓘ 15c.

pitchpine ▷ noun a name for several N American pine trees that yield WOOD TAR and timber.

pitch pipe ▷ noun a small pipe used to pitch the voice or to tune an instrument with. ⓘ 18c.

pitchy /ˈpɪtʃɪ/ ▷ adj (pitchier, pitchiest) 1 smeared with or full of PITCH[2]. 2 black. 3 resembling PITCH[2]. ● pitchiness noun.

piteous /ˈpɪtɪəs/ ▷ adj arousing one's pity; moving, poignant, heartrending or pathetic. ● piteously adverb. ● piteousness noun. Compare PITIABLE, PITIFUL. ⓘ 13c as pitous from French pitos.

pitfall ▷ noun a hidden danger, unsuspected hazard or unforeseen difficulty. ⓘ 16c in this figurative sense.

pith ▷ noun 1 the soft white tissue that lies beneath the rind of many citrus fruits, eg orange. 2 bot in the stem of many plants: a central cylinder of generally soft tissue, composed of PARENCHYMA cells, used mainly for storage. 3 the most important part of an argument, etc. 4 substance, forcefulness or vigour as a quality in writing, etc. ▷ verb (pithed, pithing) 1 to remove the pith from (a plant). 2 to kill (animals) by severing, piercing or destroying the marrow or central nervous system. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon pitha.

pithead /ˈpɪthɛd/ ▷ noun the entrance to a mineshaft and the machinery round it. Also as adj □ pithead ballot. ⓘ 19c.

Pithecanthropus /pɪθɪˈkanθrəpəs, -ˈθroʊpəs/ ▷ noun a fossil hominid discovered in Java in 1891–2, a former genus of primitive man, now included in the genus HOMO. ⓘ 19c: from Greek pithekos ape + anthropos man.

pith helmet ▷ noun a large light rigid hat made from the pith of the sola plant, worn, especially formerly, in the tropics to protect the head from the Sun.

pithy /ˈpɪθɪ/ ▷ adj (pithier, pithiest) 1 said of a saying, comment, etc: brief, forceful and to the point. 2 referring to, resembling or full of pith. • pithily adverb. • pithiness noun. • pithless adj.

pitiable /ˈpɪtɪəbəl/ ▷ adj 1 arousing pity. 2 miserably inadequate; contemptible. ⓘ 15c.

pitiful /ˈpɪtɪfəl/ ▷ adj 1 arousing pity; wretched or pathetic □ His clothes were in a pitiful state. 2 sadly inadequate or ineffective □ a pitiful attempt to be funny. • pitifully adverb. • pitifulness noun. ⓘ 15c; 16c in sense 2.

pitiless ▷ adj showing no pity; merciless, cruel or relentless. • pitilessly adverb. • pitilessness noun.

piton /ˈpiːtɒn/ ▷ noun, mountaineering a metal peg or spike with an eye for passing a rope through, hammered into a rockface as an aid to climbers. ⓘ 19c: French, meaning 'ringbolt'.

pit pony ▷ noun, historical a pony used for haulage in a coalmine.

pitstop ▷ noun, motor sport a pause made at a refuelling PIT[1] (noun 4) by a racing driver.

pitta /ˈpɪtə/ ▷ noun (pittas) 1 a Middle-Eastern slightly leavened bread, usually in a hollow oval shape that can be filled with other foods. 2 one such oval. Also called pitta bread. ⓘ 1950s: modern Greek, meaning 'cake' or 'pie'.

pittance /ˈpɪtəns/ ▷ noun a meagre allowance or wage □ works for a pittance. ⓘ 13c: from French pietance ration.

pitted past tense, past participle of PIT[1] pitter-patter /ˈpɪtəpatə(r)/ ▷ noun the sound of pattering. ▷ adverb with this sound. ▷ verb (pitter-pattered, pitter-pattering) intr to make such a sound. ⓘ 15c: imitating the sound.

pitting present participle of PIT[1] pittosporum /pɪˈtɒspərəm/ ▷ noun an evergreen shrub native to Australasia and parts of Africa and Asia, with leathery leaves and purple, white or greenish-yellow flowers. Also called PARCHMENT BARK. ⓘ 18c: Latin, from Greek pitta PITCH[2] + sporos seed.

pituitary /pɪˈtjuːɪtərɪ/ ▷ noun (pituitaries) short form of PITUITARY GLAND. ▷ adj relating to this gland. ⓘ 19c as noun; 17c in original adjectival sense 'relating to phlegm': from Latin pituita phlegm or rheum.

pituitary gland or pituitary body ▷ noun, physiol in vertebrates: an endocrine gland at the base of the brain that is responsible for the production of a number of important hormones, many of which control the activity of other glands, and therefore has a central role in the control of growth, sexual development, reproduction, water balance, adrenaline production and general metabolism.

pit viper ▷ noun any member of a N American group of snakes, including the RATTLESNAKE, with a small heat-sensitive pit on each side of the front of its head, used for sensing the prey's body heat while hunting in complete darkness.

pity /ˈpɪtɪ/ ▷ noun (pities) 1 a feeling of sorrow for the troubles and sufferings of others; compassion. 2 a cause of sorrow or regret. ▷ verb (pities, pitied, pitying) to feel or show pity for someone or something. • for pity's sake an expression of earnest entreaty or of exasperation. • have or take pity on someone to feel or show pity for them, especially in some practical way. • more's the pity colloq a phrase used to express regret; unfortunately; I'm sorry to say. ⓘ 13c: from French pité, from Latin pietas piety or dutifulness.

pitying ▷ adj 1 compassionate. 2 expressing pity, especially of a rather condescending or contemptuous sort □ gave me a pitying look. • pityingly adverb.

pityriasis /pɪtɪˈraɪəsɪs/ ▷ noun, medicine, pathol any of several skin diseases marked by the formation and flaking away of dry scales. ⓘ 17c: Latin, from Greek pityron bran.

più /pjuː/ ▷ adverb, music, in compounds, more, as in più allegro faster or più lento slower. ⓘ 18c: Italian.

piupiu /ˈpiːuːpiːuː/ ▷ noun (piupius) a skirt, traditionally made from strips of flax, worn by Maori men and women for dances, celebrations and ceremonial occasions. ⓘ 19c: Maori.

pivot /ˈpɪvət/ ▷ noun 1 a central pin, spindle or pointed shaft round which something revolves, turns, balances or oscillates. 2 someone or something crucial, on which everyone or everything else depends. 3 a CENTRE-HALF in football or a similarly-placed player in other games. 4 the action of turning the body using one foot as a pivot. 5 the soldier or position from which a military formation takes its reference when altering its position, etc. ▷ verb (pivoted, pivoting) 1 intr (often pivot on something) a to turn, swivel or revolve □ pivot on one's heel; b to depend. 2 to mount something on a pivot. ⓘ 17c: French.

pivotal /ˈpɪvətəl/ ▷ adj 1 constructed as or acting like a pivot. 2 crucially important; critical □ a pivotal moment in our history. • pivotally adverb.

pivot bridge ▷ noun, civil eng a SWING BRIDGE moving on a vertical pivot in the middle.

pix[1] ▷ noun (pixes) PYX pix[2] a plural of PIC pixel /ˈpɪksəl/ ▷ noun, electronics the smallest element of the image displayed on a computer or TV screen, consisting of a single dot which may be illuminated (ie on) or dark (off). ⓘ 1960s: PIX[2] + element.

pixie or pixy /ˈpɪksɪ/ ▷ noun (pixies) mythol a kind of fairy, traditionally with mischievous tendencies. ⓘ 17c: originally dialect.

pixie hood ▷ noun a child's pointed hood, usually tied under the chin.

pixilated or pixillated /ˈpɪksɪleɪtɪd/ ▷ adj, chiefly US 1 bemused or bewildered. 2 mildly eccentric; slightly crazy. 3 slang drunk. ⓘ 19c: from PIXIE, modelled on titillated, elated, etc.

pixilation or pixillation /pɪksɪˈleɪʃən/ ▷ noun 1 bemusement, eccentricity, etc. 2 a technique for making human figures or animals appear to be animated artificially, eg by the use of stop-frame camera methods, usually used to create a whimsical effect. ⓘ 1940s in sense 2: from PIXILATED, modelled on ANIMATION.

pizza /ˈpiːtsə/ ▷ noun (pizzas) a circle of dough spread with cheese, tomatoes, etc and baked, made originally in Italy. ⓘ 1930s: Italian.

pizzazz, pazzazz, pizazz or pazazz /pəˈzaz/ ▷ noun, colloq a quality that is a combination of boldness, vigour, dash and flamboyance. ⓘ 1930s: thought to have been coined by Diana Vreeland (c.1903–89), US fashion editor.

pizzeria /piːtsəˈrɪə/ ▷ noun (pizzerias) a restaurant that specializes in pizzas. ⓘ 1940s: Italian.

pizzicato /pɪtsɪˈkɑːtoʊ/ music ▷ adj, adverb said of music for stringed instruments: played using the fingers to pluck the strings. ▷ noun (pizzicatos) 1 a passage of music to be played in this way. 2 the playing or technique of playing a piece by plucking. ⓘ 19c: Italian, literally 'twitched'.

Pk ▷ abbreviation used in street names: Park.

PL ▷ abbreviation, IVR Poland.

Pl. ▷ abbreviation used in street names: Place.

pl. ▷ abbreviation plural.

placable /ˈplakəbəl/ ▷ adj easily appeased. • placability or placableness noun. • placably adverb. ⓘ 15c: from Latin placabilis, from placare to appease.

placard /ˈplakɑːd/ ▷ noun a board or stiff card bearing a notice, advertisement, slogan, message of protest, etc, carried or displayed in public. ▷ verb (placarded, placarding) 1 to put placards on (a wall, etc). 2 to announce (a forthcoming event, etc) by placard. ⓘ 16c: French, from plaquer to lay flat or plaster, from Flemish placken to plaster.

placate /pləˈkeɪt, pleɪ-/ ▷ verb (placated, placating) to pacify or appease (someone who is angry, etc). • placation noun. • placatory adj. ⓘ 17c: from Latin placere to appease.

place /pleɪs/ ▷ noun 1 a portion of the Earth's surface, particularly one considered as a unit, such as an area, region, district, locality, etc. 2 a geographic area or position, such as a country, city, town, village, etc. 3 a building, room, piece of ground, etc, particularly one assigned to some purpose □ place of business □ place of worship. 4 colloq one's home or lodging □ Let's go to my place. 5 in compounds somewhere with a specified association or function □ one's birthplace □ a hiding-place. 6 a seat or space, eg at table □ lay three places. 7 a seat in a theatre, on a train, bus, etc. 8 an area on the surface of something, eg on the body □ point to the sore place. 9 the customary position of something or someone □ put it back in its place. 10 a point reached, eg in a conversation, narrative, series of developments, etc □ a good place to stop. 11 a point in a book, etc, especially where one stopped reading □ made me lose my place. 12 a position within an order eg of competitors in a contest, a set of priorities, etc □ finished in third place □ lost his place in the queue □ lets her family take second place. 13 social or political rank □ know one's place □ corruption in high places. 14 a vacancy at an institution, on a committee, in a firm, etc □ gain a university place. 15 one's role, function, duty, etc □ It's not my place to tell him. 16 a useful role □ There's a place for judicious lying. 17 a an open square or a row of houses □ the market place; b (Place) used in street names □ Buccleuch Place. 18 math the position of a number in a series, especially of decimals after the point. ▷ verb (placed, placing) 1 to put, position, etc in a particular place. 2 to submit □ place an order □ place an advertisement. 3 to find a place, home, job, publisher, etc for someone □ The agency were able to place her immediately with a company. 4 to assign final positions to (contestants, etc) □ was placed fourth. 5 to identify or categorize □ a familiar voice that I couldn't quite place. 6 commerce to find a buyer for (stocks or shares, usually a large quantity of them). 7 to arrange (a bet, loan, etc). 8 intr, especially N Amer to finish a race or competition (in a specified position or, if unspecified, in second position) □ The favourite placed third. • all over the place in disorder or confusion. • be placed 1 horse-racing, athletics to finish as one of the first three or, in some races, the first four. 2 to be in a position to do something □ was well placed to influence the decision. • fall into place to become clear; to make sense. • give place to someone or something to make way for or yield to them. • go places colloq 1 to travel. 2 to be successful. • in place in the correct position. • in place of something or someone instead of it or them. • in the first place in any event; anyway □ I never liked it in the first place. • in the first, second, etc place used to introduce successive points. • in places here and there. • in your, etc place if I were you, etc. • know one's place to show proper subservience (to someone, an organization, etc). • lose one's place to falter in following a text, etc; not to know what point has been reached. • lose the place colloq to become angry. • out of place 1 not in the correct position. 2 inappropriate. • put or keep someone in their place to humble them as they deserve because of their arrogance, conceit, etc. • take one's place to assume one's usual or rightful position. • take place to happen, occur, be held, etc □ the ceremony takes place next week in London. • take the place of someone or something to replace or supersede them. ⓘ 13c: from Anglo-Saxon plæce and French place an open place or street.

placebo /pləˈsiːboʊ/ ▷ noun (placebos) 1 medicine a substance that is administered as a drug but has no medicinal content, either given to a patient for its reassuring and therefore beneficial effect (the placebo effect), or used in a clinical trial of a real drug, in which participants who have been given a placebo (though believing that it is the real drug) serve as untreated CONTROL subjects for comparison with those actually given the drug. 2 RC Church the vespers for the dead. ⓘ 18c in sense 1; 13c in sense 2: Latin, meaning 'I shall please', from the first word of the first antiphon of the vespers service, starting Placebo Domino I shall please the Lord.

place card ▷ noun a small card at someone's place at table, bearing their name.

place kick ▷ noun, rugby a kick made with the ball placed ready on the ground. Compare DROP KICK. • place kicker noun.

placeman ▷ noun, colloq someone appointed by a government, etc to a committee or organization and expected to represent the appointer's opinion. ⓘ 18c.

place mat ▷ noun a table-mat for use in a place setting.

placement ▷ noun 1 the act or process of placing or positioning. 2 the finding of a job or home for someone. 3 a temporary job providing work experience, especially for someone on a training course.

placename ▷ noun the name of a town, village, hill, lake, etc.

placenta /pləˈsɛntə/ ▷ noun (placentas or placentae /-tiː/) 1 in mammals: a disc-shaped organ attached to the lining of the uterus during pregnancy and through which the embryo obtains nutrients and oxygen. 2 bot in seed-bearing plants: that part of the ovary to which the ovules are attached. • placental adj. ⓘ 17c: Latin, from Greek plax, plakos flat.

place of work see WORKPLACE placer /ˈplasə(r), ˈpleɪsə(r)/ ▷ noun, mining a superficial deposit containing gold or other valuable minerals, which can be washed from the deposit. ⓘ 19c: American Spanish, meaning 'sandbank', from plaza place.

place setting see SETTING noun 2 placet /ˈpleɪsɛt, ˈplakɛt/ ▷ noun 1 a vote of assent in a governing body. 2 historical permission given, especially by a sovereign, to publish and carry out an ecclesiastical order, such as a papal bull or edict. ⓘ 16c: Latin, meaning 'it pleases', from placere to please.

placid /ˈplasɪd/ ▷ adj calm; tranquil. • placidity /pləˈsɪdɪtɪ/ or placidness noun. • placidly adverb. ⓘ 17c: from Latin placidus, from placere to please.

placket /ˈplakɪt/ ▷ noun, dressmaking 1 an opening in a skirt for a pocket or at the fastening. 2 a piece of material sewn behind this. ⓘ 17c, originally meaning 'breastplate', a variant of placard (in the same sense).

placoderm /ˈplakoʊdɜːm/ palaeontol ▷ adj said of some fossil fishes: covered with bony plates. ▷ noun 1 a fish covered in this way. 2 a class of aquatic CHORDATES of the DEVONIAN period, which are vertebrates with armour formed of skin plates. ⓘ 19c: from Greek plax, plakos anything flat + derma skin.

placoid /ˈplakɔɪd/ ▷ adj, zool 1 said of scales: plate-like. 2 said of fish, eg sharks: having irregular plates or scales of hard bone that do not overlap. ⓘ 19c: from Greek plax, plakos anything flat.

plafond /pləˈfɒn, plaˈfɔ̃/ ▷ noun 1 a ceiling, especially a decorated one. 2 an earlier version of CONTRACT BRIDGE. ⓘ 17c: French, meaning 'ceiling', from plat flat + fond bottom.

plagal /ˈpleɪgəl/ ▷ adj, music said of a Gregorian MODE (sense 4a): having the FINAL in the middle of the SCALE¹ (noun 7). Compare AUTHENTIC.

plagiarism /ˈpleɪdʒərɪzəm/ ▷ noun 1 an act of plagiarizing. 2 something plagiarized. • plagiarist noun. ⓘ 17c: from early 17c plagiary a kidnapper, later a plagiarist, from Latin plagiarius kidnapper, from plaga a net.

plagiarize or plagiarise /ˈpleɪdʒəraɪz/ ▷ verb (plagiarized, plagiarizing) tr & intr to copy (ideas, passages of text, etc) from someone else's work and use them as if they were one's own. ⓘ 18c: see PLAGIARISM.

plagioclase /ˈpleɪdʒɪoʊkleɪz/ ▷ noun, mineralogy a group of feldspars whose cleavages are not at right angles. ⓘ Late 19c: from Greek plagios oblique + klasis fracture.

plagiostome /ˈpleɪdʒɪoʊstoʊm/ ▷ noun, zool a fish, such as the shark, whose mouth is a transverse slit on the underside of the head. ⓘ 19c: from Greek plagios oblique + stoma mouth.

plague /pleɪg/ ▷ noun 1 medicine a any of several epidemic diseases with a high mortality rate; b specifically, an infectious epidemic disease of rats and other rodents, caused by a bacterium and transmitted to humans by flea bites, eg BUBONIC PLAGUE. 2 an overwhelming intrusion by something unwelcome □ a plague of tourists. 3 colloq a nuisance. 4 an affliction regarded as a sign of divine displeasure □ a plague on both your houses. ▷ verb (plagued, plaguing) 1 to afflict someone □ plagued by headaches. 2 to pester someone; to annoy them continually. • avoid something like the plague to keep well away from it; to shun it absolutely. ⓘ 14c: from Latin plaga blow, disaster or pestilence.

plaguesome ▷ adj, colloq troublesome; annoying.

plaice /pleɪs/ ▷ noun (plural plaice) 1 a flatfish that has a brown upper surface covered with bright orange spots,

Some Common Elements of Placenames element	meaning	example

Aber-	mouth of a river	Aberdeen, 'place at the mouth of the River Don'
Ard-	height, upland	Ardglass (Co Down), 'green height'
Auchen-/Auchin-	field	Auchencloich (Ayrshire), 'field with the boulder stone'
Auchter-	height, upland	Auchterarder (Perthshire), 'upland of the high stream'
Bally-	farm, village	Ballymena (Co Antrim), 'middle village'
Blair-	plain, field	Blairgowrie (Perthshire), 'plain of the goat'
-b(o)rough/-burgh/-bury	fortified place	Middlesbrough, 'middle fortified place'
		Roxburgh (Borders), 'Hroc's fortified place' Avebury (Wiltshire), 'Afa's fortified place'
Burn-/-burn/-bourne	stream, spring	Burnham (various), 'settlement by a stream'
		Broxburn (West Lothian), 'badger stream' Sittingbourne (Kent), 'stream of the slope-dwellers'
-by	farmstead, village	Ashby de la Zouch (Leicestershire), 'farm with ash trees, owned by feudal lord de la Zouch'
-caster/-cester/-chester	city, Roman fortification	Lancaster, 'Roman station on the River Lune' Cirencester (Gloucestershire), 'Roman station at Corinium', Manchester, 'Roman fort at Mancunium'
-combe/-coombe	valley	Ilfracombe (Devon), 'valley of the people of Ielfred'
-dean/-den	valley, pasture	Figheldean (Wiltshire), 'Fygla's valley' Howden (Yorkshire), 'chief valley'
-ham	village, homestead	Caterham (Surrey), 'homestead by the throne-like hill'
-hampton	high farm, homestead	Wolverhampton, 'Wulfrun's high farm'
-holme/-hulme	small island	Levenshulme (Lancashire), 'Leofwine's island'
-hurst/-hirst	hillock, copse	Sissinghurst (Kent), 'wooden hill of Seaxa's people'
Inver-/-inver	mouth of a river	Inverness, 'place at the mouth of the River Ness'
Kin-	head of	Kinloch (various), 'place at the head of the loch'
Kil-	church	Kilmarnock (Ayrshire), 'church of St Ernan'
Kirk-/-kirk	church	Kirkby (various), 'village with a church'
		Falkirk (Stirlingshire), 'place of the speckled church'
Llan-	church	Llantrisant (Glamorgan), 'church of the three saints'
Pen-	top, hill, end	Penicuik (Lothian), 'hill of the cuckoo'
-rith/-reth	stream	Penrith (Cumbria), 'stream by a hill'
Shaw-/-shaw	small wood	Shawbury (Shropshire), 'place by a copse' Ushaw (Durham), 'wolves' wood'
Stoke-/-stoke	manor, religious place	Stokesay (Shropshire), 'manor held by Hugh de Sei'
Strath-	broad valley	Strathblane (Stirlingshire), 'place in the valley of the little flowers'
-thorpe	farm, secondary settlement	Swanthorpe (Hampshire), 'farm of the swineherds'
-thwaite	meadow, clearing	Southwaite (Cumbria), 'clay clearing'
Tor-	rock, rocky peak	Torbryan (Devon), 'rocky place held by Wydo de Brianne'
-wick/-wich	farm, dairy farm, saltworks	Fenwick (Ayrshire), 'dairy farm by a fen' Nantwich (Cheshire), 'renowned saltworks' and is an important food fish. 2 N Amer any of several related fishes. ◷ 13c: from French plais, from Latin platessa flatfish.

plaid /plad, pleɪd/ ▷ noun 1 tartan cloth. 2 a long piece of woollen cloth worn over the shoulder, usually tartan and worn with a kilt as part of Scottish Highland dress, or checked as formerly worn by Lowland shepherds. 3 as adj with a tartan pattern or in tartan colours □ plaid trousers. ◷ 16c: from Gaelic plaide blanket.

Plaid Cymru /plaɪd 'kʌmrɪ/ ▷ noun the Welsh nationalist party. ◷ 1940s: Welsh, meaning 'party of Wales'.

plain /pleɪn/ ▷ adj 1 all of one colour; unpatterned; undecorated. 2 simple; unsophisticated; without improvement, embellishment or pretensions □ plain food □ not Dr or Professor, just plain Mr. 3 obvious; clear. 4 straightforward; direct □ plain language □ plain dealing. 5 frank; open. 6 said of a person: lacking beauty. 7 sheer; downright □ plain selfishness. ▷ noun 1 a large area of relatively smooth flat land without significant hills or valleys. 2 knitting the simpler of two basic stitches, with the wool passed round the front of the needle. See also PURL. ▷ adverb utterly; quite □ just plain stupid. • plainly adverb. • plainness noun. • plain as a pikestaff all too obvious. ◷ 13c: French, from Latin planus level.

plainchant see PLAINSONG

plain chocolate ▷ noun dark-coloured chocolate made without milk.

plain clothes ▷ plural noun ordinary clothes worn by police officers on duty, as distinct from a uniform. ▷ adj (plain-clothes or plain-clothed) said of police officers on duty: wearing ordinary clothes, not uniformed.

plain flour ▷ noun flour that contains no raising agent. Compare SELF-RAISING FLOUR.

plain Jane derog colloq ▷ noun (plain Janes) a plain and ordinary woman or girl. ▷ adj (plain-Jane) said especially of clothes: ordinary; plain. ◷ Early 20c.

plain language ▷ noun straighforward, uncomplicated, understandable language.

plainly and plainness see under PLAIN plain sailing ▷ noun 1 easy unimpeded progress. 2 naut sailing in unobstructed waters. Compare PLANE SAILING.

plainsong or plainchant ▷ noun in the medieval Church, and still in the RC and some Anglican churches: music for unaccompanied voices, sung in unison. ◷ 16c.

plain-spoken ▷ adj frank to the point of bluntness.

plaint /pleɪnt/ ▷ noun 1 poetic an expression of woe; a lamentation. 2 law a written statement of grievance against someone, submitted to a court of law. ◷ 13c: from French plainte, from Latin planctus a blow.

plaintiff /'pleɪntɪf/ ▷ noun, law someone who brings a case against another person in a court of law. See also DEFENDANT. ◷ 14c: from French plaintif complaining, from Latin planctus PLAINT.

plaintive /'pleɪntɪv/ ▷ adj mournful-sounding; sad; wistful. • plaintively adverb. • plaintiveness noun. ◷ 16c in this sense; 14c meaning 'complaining': from French plaintif.

plait /plat/ ▷ verb (plaited, plaiting) to arrange something (especially hair) by interweaving three or more lengths of it. ▷ noun a length of hair or other material interwoven in this way. • plaited adj. • plaiter noun. ◷ 14c: from French pleit, from Latin plicare to fold.

plan ▷ noun 1 a thought-out arrangement or method for doing something. 2 (usually plans) intentions □ What are your plans for today? 3 a sketch, outline, scheme or set of guidelines. 4 a large-scale detailed drawing or diagram of a floor of a house, the streets of a town, etc done as though viewed from above. Often in compounds □ floor plan □ street plan. ▷ verb (planned, planning) 1 (also plan for something) to devise a scheme for it. 2 (also plan for something) to make preparations or arrangements for it. 3 intr to prepare; to make plans □ plan ahead. 4 (also plan on something) to intend or expect it. 5 to draw up plans for (eg a building); to design. • not plan on or for something not to reckon on or allow for it; to be surprised or embarrassed by it □ had not planned on all of them coming when I ordered the wine. ◷ 17c: French, meaning 'ground plan', from Latin planus flat.

planar see under PLANE² planarian /plə'neərɪən/ ▷ noun, zool any of several kinds of aquatic flatworm. ◷ 19c: from the genus name Planaria, from Latin planarius flat.

planchet /'plɑːnʃɪt/ ▷ noun a blank disk to be stamped as a coin. ◷ 17c: diminutive of planch slab of metal.

Planck's constant /plaŋks —/ ▷ noun, physics (symbol h) a fundamental constant, equal to 6.626×10^{-34} joule seconds, that relates the energy E of a quantum of light to its frequency ν by the equation $E = h\nu$. ◷ Early 20c: named after Max Planck (1858–1947), German physicist.

plane¹ /pleɪn/ ▷ noun an AEROPLANE. ◷ Early 20c: short form.

plane² /pleɪn/ ▷ noun 1 math a flat surface, either real or imaginary, such that a straight line joining any two points lies entirely on it. 2 a level surface. 3 a level or standard □ on a higher intellectual plane. ▷ adj 1 flat; level. 2 having the character of a plane. 3 math lying in one plane □ a plane figure □ plane geometry. ▷ verb (planed, planing) intr 1 said of a boat: to skim over the surface of the water. 2 said of a bird: to wheel or soar with the wings motionless. • planar /'pleɪnə(r)/ adj 1 relating to a plane. 2 lying in a single plane. 3 flat. • planeness noun. ◷ 17c: from Latin planum level surface.

plane³ /pleɪn/ ▷ noun a carpenter's tool for smoothing wood by shaving away unevennesses. ▷ verb (planed, planing) (also plane something down) to smooth (a surface, especially wood) with a plane. • planer noun 1 someone who uses a plane. 2 a tool or machine for planing. ◷ 14c: French, from Latin planare to smooth.

■ plane something off or away to remove it from a surface with a plane.

plane⁴ /pleɪn/ ▷ noun 1 any of various large deciduous trees with pendulous bur-like fruits and thin bark which is shed in large flakes, revealing creamy or pink patches on the trunk. Also called plane tree. 2 Scot the sycamore. ◷ 14c: French, from Latin platanus, from Greek platanos, from platys broad.

plane angle ▷ noun, geom the two-dimensional angle formed by two lines in a plane figure (see PLANE² adj 3) such as a polygon. Compare SOLID ANGLE.

plane sailing ▷ noun, naut the calculation of a ship's place in its course as if the Earth were flat instead of spherical. Compare PLAIN SAILING. ◷ 17c.

planet /'planɪt/ ▷ noun 1 astron a a celestial body, in orbit around the Sun or another star, which has too small a mass to become a star itself, and shines by reflecting light from the star around which it revolves; b one of nine such bodies, Mercury, Venus, Earth, Mars, Jupiter, Saturn, Uranus, Neptune and Pluto, that revolve around the Sun in the solar system. Also called major planet. c a satellite of a planet. Also called secondary planet. 2 astrol the Sun, Moon, Mercury, Venus, Mars, Jupiter, Saturn, Uranus, Neptune or Pluto, thought to influence signs of the ZODIAC and used in the interpretation of horoscopes. ◷ 13c: from French planete, from Greek planetes wanderer.

planetarium /planə'teərɪəm/ ▷ noun (planetaria /-rɪə/ or planetariums) 1 a special projector by means of which the positions and movements of stars and planets can be projected on to a hemispherical domed ceiling in order to simulate the appearance of the night sky to an audience seated below. 2 the building that houses such a projector. ⓘ 1920s in these senses; 18c referring to an ORRERY: from Latin planetarius planetary.

planetary /ˈplanɪtərɪ/ ▷ adj 1 astron a relating to or resembling a planet; b consisting of or produced by planets; c revolving in an orbit. 2 astrol under the influence of a planet. 3 erratic.

planetoid /ˈplanɪtɔɪd/ ▷ noun, astron a MINOR PLANET. ⓘ 19c: see -OID.

planetology /planɪˈtɒlədʒɪ/ ▷ noun, astron the scientific study of the planets, their natural satellites and the interplanetary material of the solar system, including the asteroids and meteors. • planetologist noun. ⓘ Early 20c.

plane tree see PLANE⁴ (sense 1) plangent /ˈplandʒənt/ ▷ adj said of a sound: deep, ringing and mournful. • plangency noun. • plangently adverb. ⓘ 19c: from Latin plangere to beat or to lament aloud.

planimeter /pləˈnɪmɪtə(r)/ ▷ noun, engineering an instrument that measures the area of an irregular plane surface (see PLANE²) by tracing its boundary. ⓘ 19c: plani- (from Latin planus level) + -METER.

planing present participle of PLANE², PLANE³ planing-machine ▷ noun a machine used to PLANE³ wood or metals.

planish /ˈplanɪʃ/ ▷ verb (planishes, planished, planishing) 1 to polish (metal, etc). 2 to flatten (sheet metal, etc). • planisher noun a person or tool that planishes. ⓘ 16c: from French planissant, from planir to smooth, from plan flat.

planisphere /ˈplanɪsfɪə/ ▷ noun a sphere projected on a plane surface (see PLANE²). ⓘ 14c: from Latin planisphaerium, from Latin planus flat + Greek sphaira SPHERE.

plank ▷ noun 1 a long flat piece of timber thicker than a board. 2 any of the policies forming the platform or programme of a political party. ▷ verb (planked, planking) to fit or cover something with planks. • walk the plank to be made by pirates to walk blindfold along a plank projecting over a ship's side until one falls into the sea and drowns. ⓘ 14c: from French planche plank or small wooden bridge, from Latin planca board.

■ plank something down colloq to put it down roughly or noisily.

planking ▷ noun planks, or a surface, etc constructed of them.

plankton /ˈplaŋktən/ ▷ noun, biol microscopic animals and plants that passively float or drift with the current in the surface waters of seas and lakes. Compare NEKTON. • planktonic /-ˈtɒnɪk/ adj. ⓘ 19c: from Greek plankton wandering.

planned economy see under COMMAND ECONOMY planner ▷ noun 1 someone who draws up plans or designs □ a town planner. 2 a wall calendar showing the whole year, on which holidays, etc can be marked, used for forward planning.

planning present participle of PLAN planning permission ▷ noun, Brit permission required from a local authority to erect or convert a building or to change the use to which a building or piece of land is put.

plano- /pleɪnoʊ, planoʊ/ ▷ combining form, signifying flatness or planeness (see under PLANE²).

plano-concave ▷ adj said of a lens: characterized by being flat or PLANE² on one side and CONCAVE on the other. ⓘ 17c.

plano-convex ▷ adj said of a lens: characterized by being flat or PLANE² on one side and CONVEX on the other. ⓘ 17c.

planographic printing ▷ noun any method of printing from a flat surface, eg LITHOGRAPHY. ⓘ 19c.

plant /plɑːnt/ ▷ noun 1 any living organism that is capable of manufacturing carbohydrates by the process of photosynthesis and that typically possesses cell walls containing cellulose. 2 a relatively small organism of this type, eg a herb or shrub as opposed to a tree. 3 the buildings, equipment and machinery used in the manufacturing or production industries, eg a factory, a power station, etc. 4 colloq something deliberately placed for others to find and be misled by. 5 colloq a spy placed in an organization in order to gain information, etc. 6 snooker a shot in which the player pockets (see POCKET verb 3), or tries to pocket, a red ball by causing it to be propelled by another red ball which has been struck by the cue ball or by some other red ball. ▷ verb (planted, planting) 1 to put (seeds or plants) into the ground to grow. 2 (often plant something out) to put plants or seeds into (ground, a garden, bed, etc). 3 to introduce (an idea, doubt, etc) into someone's mind. 4 to place something firmly. 5 to post someone as a spy in an office, factory, etc. 6 colloq to place something deliberately so as to mislead the finder, especially as a means of incriminating an innocent person. 7 to establish (a colony, etc). • plantable adj. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon: from Latin planta a shoot or sprig.

■ plant something on someone to give them (a kiss or blow).

plantain¹ /ˈplantɪn/ ▷ noun 1 a plant belonging to the banana family, widely cultivated in humid tropical regions for its edible fruit. 2 the green-skinned banana-like edible fruit of this plant, which has a high starch content when ripe and can be cooked and eaten as a vegetable. ⓘ 16c: from Spanish plátano.

plantain² /ˈplantɪn/ ▷ noun any of numerous northern temperate plants with a basal rosette of narrow lance-shaped to broadly oval leaves and an erect spike of small tightly-clustered flowers. ⓘ 14c: from Latin plantago, from planta sole of the foot (referring to the shape of the leaf).

plantar /ˈplantə(r)/ ▷ adj, anatomy belonging or relating to the sole of the foot. ⓘ 18c: from Latin plantaris, from planta sole of the foot.

plantation /plɑːnˈteɪʃən/ ▷ noun 1 an estate, especially in the tropics, that specializes in the large-scale production of a single cash crop, eg tea, coffee, cotton or rubber. 2 an area of land planted with a certain kind of tree for commercial purposes □ a conifer plantation. 3 historical a colony. ⓘ 15c: from Latin plantatio a planting.

planter ▷ noun 1 the owner or manager of a plantation. 2 a device for planting bulbs, etc. 3 a container for house plants.

plantigrade /ˈplantɪgreɪd/ zool ▷ adj said of an animal: that walks with the entire lower surface of the foot in contact with the ground, eg humans and bears. ▷ noun such an animal. Compare DIGITIGRADE. ⓘ 19c: from Latin plantigradus, from planta sole of the foot + gradi to walk.

plant louse ▷ noun an aphis or greenfly.

plant pot ▷ noun a pot for growing a plant in.

plantsman and plantswoman ▷ noun someone who has extensive knowledge of and experience in gardening. ⓘ 19c.

plaque /plɑːk, plak/ ▷ noun 1 a commemorative inscribed tablet fixed to or set into a wall. 2 a wall ornament made of pottery, etc. 3 dentistry a thin layer of food debris, bacteria and calcium salts that forms on the surface of teeth and may cause tooth decay. 4 pathol a raised area or patch on a body part or surface as a result of damage or disease. ⓘ 19c: French, from plaquer to plate, from Dutch placken to patch.

plasm /ˈplazəm/ ▷ noun 1 biol, in compounds and as combining form a PROTOPLASM of the specified type □ cytoplasm □ germ plasm. 2 physiol PLASMA. ■ -plasmic combining form forming adjectives corresponding to nouns in -plasm. ◎ 19c in current senses.

plasma /ˈplazmə/ ▷ noun (plasmas) 1 physiol the colourless liquid component of blood or lymph, in which the blood cells are suspended. 2 physics a gas that has been heated to a very high temperature so that most of its atoms or molecules are broken down into free electrons and positive ions. 3 geol a bright green CHALCEDONY. ◎ 18c: Latin, from Greek, meaning 'something moulded'.

plasma membrane see MEMBRANE sense 2 plasmapheresis /plazməˈferəsɪs, plazməfəˈriːsɪs/ ▷ noun, medicine the process of taking only the plasma from a blood donor, the blood cells being separated out by a centrifuge and returned to the donor. ◎ Early 20c.

plasmatic /plazˈmatɪk/ ▷ adj referring to, or occurring in, PLASMA.

plasmid /ˈplazmɪd/ ▷ noun, biol a small circular loop of DNA that moves from one bacterium to another, transferring genetic information and often endowing its host with useful characteristics, eg resistance to antibiotics. ◎ 1950s.

plasmin /ˈplazmɪn/ ▷ noun, physiol FIBRINOLYSIN. ◎ 1940s in this sense: from PLASMA.

plasminogen /plazˈmɪnədʒən/ ▷ noun, physiol the substance in blood plasma from which plasmin is formed. ◎ 1940s.

plasmodesm /ˈplazmoʊdezəm/ ▷ noun (plasmodesmata /-ˈdezmətə/) bot a thread of PROTOPLASM connecting cells. ◎ Early 20c: from PLASMA + Greek desmos a chain.

plasmodium /plazˈmoʊdɪəm/ ▷ noun (plasmodia /-dɪə/) biol any of various species of parasitic protozoans that carry the micro-organisms which cause malaria in humans. ◎ 19c.

-plast /plast/ biol ▷ combining form, forming nouns, denoting an ORGANELLE within a cell □ chloroplast. ◎ From Greek plastos formed.

plaster /ˈplɑːstə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 a material consisting of lime, sand and water that is applied to walls when soft and dries to form a hard smooth surface. Also as adj. 2 a strip of material, usually with a lint pad and an adhesive backing, that is used for covering and protecting small wounds. Also called sticking-plaster. 3 PLASTER OF PARIS. ▷ verb (plastered, plastering) 1 to apply plaster to (walls, etc). 2 (usually plaster something with or on something) colloq to coat or spread thickly □ plaster gel on one's hair □ plaster one's hair with gel. 3 to fix something with some wet or sticky substance □ hair plastered to his skull. 4 (often plaster something with something) to cover it liberally □ walls plastered with pin-ups of Take That. ■ plastering noun. ■ plastery adj like plaster. ◎ Anglo-Saxon in an early sense of noun 2; 13c as noun 1: from French plastre, both from Latin plastrum, from Greek emplastron salve, from en on + plassein to mould or apply as a plaster.

plasterboard ▷ noun a material consisting of hardened plaster faced on both sides with paper or thin board, used to form or line interior walls.

plaster cast ▷ noun 1 a copy of an object, eg a sculpture, obtained by pouring a mixture of PLASTER OF PARIS and water into a mould formed from that object. 2 a covering of plaster of Paris for a broken limb, etc which immobilizes the limb while it heals, setting it in the desired position.

plastered ▷ adj 1 covered with PLASTER (noun 1). 2 colloq drunk; intoxicated.

plasterer ▷ noun 1 someone whose job is to apply plaster to walls, ceilings, etc. 2 an artist who works in plaster.

plaster of Paris ▷ noun a white powder consisting of a hydrated form of calcium sulphate (GYPSUM), mixed with water to make a paste that sets hard, used for sculpting and for making casts for broken limbs. ◎ 15c: so called because originally prepared with gypsum taken from Montmartre in Paris.

plaster saint ▷ noun someone who pretends hypocritically to be virtuous. ◎ 19c.

plasterwork ▷ noun 1 the finished work of a plasterer □ The standard of his plasterwork is excellent. 2 an ornate piece of plaster moulding, such as a cornice.

plastery see under PLASTER plastic /ˈplastɪk, ˈplɑː-/ ▷ noun 1 any of a large number of synthetic materials that can be moulded by heat and/or pressure into a rigid or semi-rigid shape, used to make bottles, bowls and other containers, fibres, film, packaging, toys, construction materials, etc. 2 colloq a credit card, or credit cards collectively □ Can I pay with plastic? ▷ adj 1 made of plastic. 2 easily moulded or shaped; pliant. 3 easily influenced. 4 derog artificial; lacking genuine substance. 5 said of money: in the form of, or funded by, a credit card. 6 relating to sculpture and modelling. ◎ 17c: from Greek plastikos moulded, from plassein to mould.

plastic arts ▷ plural noun a the art of modelling or shaping in three dimensions, such as ceramics or sculpture; b art which is or appears to be three-dimensional.

plastic bomb ▷ noun a bomb made with plastic explosive.

plastic bullet ▷ noun a solid plastic cylinder fired by the police to disperse riots, etc.

plastic explosive ▷ noun an explosive substance resembling putty that can be moulded by hand, eg Semtex. ◎ Early 20c.

Plasticine /ˈplastɪsiːn, ˈplɑː-/ ▷ noun, trademark a non-hardening modelling material available in various colours, used especially by children. ◎ Late 19c.

plasticity /plaˈstɪsɪtɪ, plɑː-/ ▷ noun 1 the fact or property of being plastic. 2 the quality in a picture of appearing to be three-dimensional.

plasticize or plasticise /ˈplastɪsaɪz/ ▷ verb (plasticized, plasticizing) tr & intr to make or become flexible, eg by adding a plasticizer.

plasticizer or plasticiser ▷ noun, chem an organic compound that is added to a rigid polymer in order to make it flexible and so more easily workable. ◎ 1920s.

plastics ▷ singular noun the scientific study or industrial production of plastic materials.

plastic surgery ▷ noun, medicine the branch of surgery concerned with the repair or reconstruction of deformed or damaged tissue or body parts, the replacement of missing parts, and COSMETIC SURGERY. ■ plastic surgeon noun.

plastid /ˈplastɪd/ ▷ noun, bot any of various highly specialized membrane-bound structures found within the CYTOPLASM of plant cells, eg chloroplasts. ◎ 19c: German, from Greek plastos formed or moulded.

plastique /plaˈstiːk/ ▷ noun graceful poses and movements in dancing. ◎ 19c: French adjective, meaning 'plastic-like', used as a noun.

plastron /ˈplastrən/ ▷ noun 1 zool the ventral section of the shell of a turtle or tortoise. 2 fencing a fencer's wadded breast-shield. 3 the front of a DRESS SHIRT. 4 a separate ornamental front part of a woman's bodice. 5 historical a steel breastplate. ■ plastral adj. ◎ 16c: French, from Italian piastrone, from piastra breastplate.

platane or platan /ˈplatən/ ▷ noun a PLANE TREE. ◎ 14c: from Latin platanus, from Greek platanos, from platys broad.

plat du jour /plɑː duː 'ʒuə(r)/ ⊳ noun a dish on a restaurant menu specially recommended that day. Also called dish of the day. ◎ Early 20c: French, meaning 'dish of the day'.

plate /pleɪt/ ⊳ noun 1 a shallow dish, especially one made of earthenware or porcelain, for serving food on. Also in compounds □ side plate □ dinner plate. 2 a the amount held by this; a PLATEFUL; b a portion served on a plate. 3 (also collection plate) a shallow vessel in which to take the collection in church. 4 a sheet of metal, glass or other rigid material. 5 a flat piece of metal, plastic, etc inscribed with a name, etc. Often in compounds □ nameplate □ bookplate. 6 gold and silver vessels or cutlery. 7 a a gold or silver cup as the prize in a horse race, etc; b a race or contest for such a prize. See also SELLING PLATE. 8 a thin coating of gold, silver or tin applied to a base metal. Also called plating /'pleɪtɪŋ/. 9 an illustration on glossy paper in a book. Compare BOOKPLATE. 10 photog a sheet of glass prepared with a light-sensitive coating for receiving an image. 11 a a sheet of metal with an image engraved on it; b a print taken from one of these. 12 any of various surfaces set up with type ready for printing. 13 a a rigid plastic fitting to which false teeth are attached; b a denture. 14 geol any of the rigid sections that make up the Earth's crust. See also PLATE TECTONICS. 15 anatomy a thin flat piece of bone or horn. 16 baseball a five-sided white slab at the home base. 17 (plates, originally plates of meat) rhyming slang the feet. 18 building a horizontal supporting timber. ⊳ verb (plated, plating) 1 to coat (a base metal) with a thin layer of a precious one. 2 to cover something with metal plates. ● plater see separate entry. ● have a lot or much on one's plate colloq to have a great deal of work, commitments, etc. ● hand or give someone something on a plate colloq to present them with it without their having to make the least effort. ◎ 13c: from French plate (feminine) something flat and plat (masculine) dish.

plateau /'platoʊ, pla'toʊ/ ⊳ noun (plateaux /-toʊ/ or plateaus /-toʊz/) 1 geog an extensive area of relatively flat high land, usually bounded by steep sides. 2 econ a stable unvarying condition of prices, etc after a rise □ The production rate reached a plateau in August. ⊳ verb (plateaued, plateauing) intr (sometimes plateau out) to reach a level, to even out. ◎ 18c: from French platel something flat.

plated /'pleɪtɪd/ ⊳ adj 1 covered with plates of metal. 2 usually in compounds covered with a coating of another metal, especially gold or silver. 3 zool said of an animal: armoured with hard scales or bone.

plateful ⊳ noun (platefuls) 1 the amount a plate can hold. 2 (usually platefuls) colloq a great deal; a lot.

plate glass ⊳ noun a high-quality form of glass that has been ground and polished to remove defects, used in shop windows, mirrors, etc. ⊳ adj (plate-glass) 1 made with or consisting of plate glass. 2 said of a building: a having large plate-glass windows; b appearing to be built entirely of plate glass.

platelayer ⊳ noun someone who lays and repairs railway lines. See PLATE RAIL.

platelet /'pleɪtlɪt/ ⊳ noun, physiol in mammalian blood: any of the small disc-shaped cell fragments that are responsible for starting the formation of a blood clot when bleeding occurs. ◎ 19c.

platen /'platən/ ⊳ noun 1 in some printing-presses: a plate that pushes the paper against the type. 2 the roller of a typewriter. ◎ 15c: from French platine metal plate.

plater ⊳ noun 1 a metal, etc that is used to plate something. 2 someone who plates. 3 horse-racing a horse entered for a minor race, especially a SELLING RACE.

plate rack ⊳ noun a rack for draining plates, dishes, etc on after washing them up.

plate rail ⊳ noun a flat rail with a flange.

plate tectonics ⊳ singular noun, geol a geological theory according to which the Earth's crust is composed of a small number of large plates of solid rock, whose movements in relation to each other are responsible for continental drift. See also TECTONICS. ◎ 1960s.

platform /'platfɔːm/ ⊳ noun 1 a raised floor for speakers, performers, etc. 2 the raised walkway alongside the track at a railway station, giving access to trains. 3 a floating installation moored to the sea bed, for oil-drilling, marine research, etc. Often in compounds □ oil platform □ production platform. 4 an open step at the back of some buses, especially older ones, for passengers getting on or off. 5 a a very thick rigid sole for a shoe, fashionable particularly in the 1970s; b as adj □ platform shoes. 6 the publicly declared principles and intentions of a political party, forming the basis of its policies. 7 any situation that gives one access to an audience and that one can exploit to promote one's views. 8 see under PLATFORM GAME. ◎ 16c: from French platte forme flat figure.

platform game ⊳ noun a COMPUTER GAME in which the object is to progress to the next level, which is usually more difficult to complete than the one before.

plating see PLATE noun 8 platinic /plə'tɪnɪk/ ⊳ adj, chem referring or relating to, or containing, platinum, especially in the tetravalent state.

platinize or platinise /'platɪnaɪz/ ⊳ verb (platinized, platinizing) to coat something with platinum. ● platinization noun. ◎ 18c.

platinous /'platɪnəs/ ⊳ adj, chem referring or relating to, or containing bivalent platinum.

platinum /'platɪnəm/ ⊳ noun, chem (symbol Pt, atomic number 78) a silvery-white precious metallic element that does not tarnish or corrode, used to make jewellery, coins, electrical contacts, thermocouples and surgical instruments. ◎ 19c: Latin, from earlier platina, from Spanish plata silver.

platinum black ⊳ noun, chem platinum in the form of a velvety black powder.

platinum-blonde or platinum-blond ⊳ adj said of hair: having a silvery fairness. ⊳ noun (platinum blonde or platinum blond) someone with hair of this colour. See usage note at BLONDE. ◎ 1930s.

platinum disc ⊳ noun 1 in Britain: a an album (ie an LP, CD, etc) that has sold 300 000 copies; b a single that has sold 600 000 copies. 2 in the US: an album or single that has sold one million copies. See also GOLD DISC, SILVER DISC. ● go platinum colloq to sell the respective number of albums or singles, earning the artist a framed platinum disc from the recording company.

platitude /'platɪtjuːd/ ⊳ noun an empty, unoriginal or redundant comment, especially one made as though it were important. ◎ 19c: French, meaning 'flatness', from plat flat.

platitudinous /platɪ'tjuːdɪnəs/ ⊳ adj 1 characterized by or of the nature of a platitude. 2 using platitudes. 3 full of platitudes.

Platonic /plə'tɒnɪk/ ⊳ adj 1 belonging or relating to the Greek philosopher Plato. 2 (usually platonic) a said of human love: not involving sexual relations; b restricted to theorizing; not involving action. ● platonically adverb. ◎ 16c.

Platonic solid ⊳ noun, math any of five solids whose faces are congruent regular polygons. These are the TETRAHEDRON, the CUBE, the OCTAHEDRON, the DODECAHEDRON and the ICOSAHEDRON.

Platonism /'pleɪtənɪzəm/ ⊳ noun any philosophical position which includes many of the central features of Plato's philosophy. These include a belief in a transcendent realm of abstract entities, the power of reason to know these entities, bodily separability and the immortality of the soul. ● Platonist noun.

platoon /plə'tuːn/ ▷ noun 1 military a subdivision of a COMPANY. 2 a squad of people acting in co-operation. ⓘ 17c: from French peloton, diminutive of pelote ball.

Plattdeutsch see LOW GERMAN platteland /'plɑtəlɑnt/ ▷ noun, S Afr rural districts. ⓘ 1930s: Afrikaans, from Dutch plat flat + land country.

platter /'platə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 a large flat dish. 2 N Amer colloq a record (noun 4). ⓘ 14c: from French plater, from plat plate.

platy- /'plati/ ▷ combining form, signifying flat or broad. ⓘ From Greek platys broad.

platypus /'platɪpəs, 'platɪpʊs/ ▷ noun (platypuses) an egg-laying amphibious mammal with dense brown fur, a long flattened toothless snout, webbed feet and a broad flat tail, found in Tasmania and E Australia. Also called duck-billed platypus. ⓘ 18c: Latin, from Greek platys broad + pous foot.

platyrrhine /'platɪraɪn/ zool ▷ adj 1 said of a human: broad-nosed. 2 said of a monkey: belonging to a S American division of monkeys with widely spaced nostrils. ▷ noun a New World monkey. ⓘ 19c: from Greek platys broad + rhis, rhinos nose.

plaudit /'plɔːdɪt/ ▷ noun (usually plaudits) a commendation; an expression of praise. ⓘ 17c: from Latin plaudite, imperative of plaudere to praise.

plausible /'plɔːzɪbəl/ ▷ adj 1 said of an explanation, etc: credible, reasonable or likely. 2 said of a person: characterized by having a pleasant and persuasive manner; smooth-tongued or glib. • plausibility or plausibleness noun. • plausibly adverb. ⓘ 16c: from Latin plausibilis deserving applause.

play ▷ verb (played, playing) 1 intr said especially of children: to spend time in recreation, eg dancing about, kicking a ball around, doing things in make-believe, generally having fun, etc. 2 intr to pretend for fun; to behave without seriousness. 3 (also play at something) to take part in (a recreative pursuit, game, sport, match, round, etc) □ We played rounders □ played at rounders. 4 (also play against someone) to compete against them in a game or sport □ St Johnstone played Aberdeen last week. 5 intr, colloq to co-operate □ He refuses to play. 6 sport to include someone as a team member □ playing McGuire in goal. 7 sport to hit or kick (the ball), deliver (a shot), etc in a sport. 8 cards to use (a card) in the course of a game □ played the three of clubs. 9 to speculate or gamble on (the Stock Exchange, etc) □ playing the market. 10 tr & intr a to act or behave in a certain way □ play it cool □ not playing fair; b to pretend to be someone or something □ play the dumb blonde. 11 to act (a particular role) □ play host to the delegates. 12 (usually play in something) tr & intr to perform a role in (a play) □ played Oliver in the school play. 13 tr & intr said especially of a pop group: to perform in (a particular place or venue) □ Oasis played London last year. 14 intr said of a film, play, etc: to be shown or performed publicly □ playing all next week. 15 music a to perform (a specified type of music) on an instrument □ plays jazz on the saxophone □ plays the sax; b to perform on (an instrument). 16 to turn on (a radio, a tape-recording, etc). 17 intr a said of recorded music, etc: to be heard from a radio, etc; b said of a radio, etc: to produce sound. 18 intr said of a fountain: to be in operation. 19 to direct (a hose, etc). 20 angling to allow (a fish) to tire itself by its struggles to get away. ▷ noun 1 recreation; playing games for fun and amusement □ children at play. 2 the playing of a game, performance in a sport, etc □ rain stopped play. 3 colloq behaviour; conduct □ fair play □ foul play. 4 (plays) a dramatic piece for the stage or a performance of it □ The play is being put on at the Playhouse. 5 fun; jest □ said in play. 6 range; scope □ give full play to the imagination. 7 freedom of movement; looseness □ too much play in the steering. 8 action or interaction □ play of sunlight on water □ play of emotions. 9 use □ bring all one's cunning into play. 10 the display that animals make in courtship. • in or out of play sport said of a ball: in, or not in, a position where it may be played. • make a play for something to try to get (eg someone's attention). • make great play of something to emphasize it or stress its importance. • make play with something to make effective or over-obvious use of it. • play ball colloq to co-operate. • play fast and loose to act in an irresponsible, inconsistent and reckless way. • play for time to delay action or decision in the hope or belief that conditions will become more favourable later. • play the field to spread one's interests, affections or efforts over a wide range of subjects, people, activities, etc, rather than concentrating on any single thing or person. • play the game see under GAME[1]. • play hard to get to make a show of unwillingness to co-operate or lack of interest, with a view to strengthening one's position. • play hell or havoc with something to damage it; to upset things. • play hookey see under HOOKEY. • play into the hands of someone to act so as to give, usually unintentionally, an advantage to them. • play it colloq to behave in, or manage, a situation in the stated way □ play it cool □ play it slowly □ I'm not sure how to play it. • play it or one's cards close to one's chest to be secretive about one's actions or intentions in a particular matter. • play it by ear to improvise a plan of action to meet the situation as it develops. • play merry hell with someone or something to harm or damage. • play a part in something to be instrumental in it; to take part in it. • play possum see under POSSUM. • play safe to take no risks. • play with fire to take foolish risks. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon plegan.

▪ play about or around to behave ineffectively or irresponsibly.

▪ play about or around with someone to behave irresponsibly towards them, their affections, etc.

▪ play about or around with something to fiddle or meddle with it.

▪ play someone along to manipulate them, usually for one's own advantage.

▪ play along with someone to co-operate with them for the time being; to humour them.

▪ play at something 1 to make a pretence of it, especially in play □ play at being cowboys. 2 to indulge in it trivially or flippantly □ play at politics. 3 ironic to try to achieve it □ What are they playing at?

▪ play something back to play (a film or sound recording) through immediately after making it. See also PLAYBACK.

▪ play something down to represent it as unimportant; to minimize, make light of or discount it.

▪ play off 1 to replay a match, etc after a draw. 2 golf to play from the tee. See also PLAY-OFF.

▪ play one person off against another to set them in rivalry, especially for one's own advantage.

▪ play on something 1 to exploit (someone's fears, feelings, sympathies, etc) for one's own benefit. 2 to make a pun on it □ played on the two meanings of 'batter'.

▪ play something on someone to perpetrate (a trick or joke) against them.

▪ play something out to act out in real life a part, scene, etc that is so predictable that it could have come from a play. See also PLAYED-OUT.

▪ play over or across something said eg of light, facial expression, etc: to flicker over, across, etc (a surface, etc).

▪ play up 1 colloq to behave unco-operatively. 2 colloq to cause one pain or discomfort □ His stomach is playing up again. 3 colloq said of a machine, etc: to function faultily. 4 to try one's hardest in a game, match, etc.

■ play something up to highlight it or give prominence to it.

■ play up to someone to flatter them; to ingratiate oneself with them.

■ play with oneself colloq to masturbate oneself.

■ play with someone 1 said especially of children: to spend time in recreation with them. 2 colloq to joke with them at their expense ▫ I think you're just playing with me. 3 slang to masturbate them.

■ play with something to contemplate (an idea, plan, etc) ▫ played with the idea of becoming a writer.

playa /'plɑːjə/ ▷ noun (playas) a basin which becomes a shallow lake after heavy rainfall and dries out again in hot weather. ⓘ 19c: Spanish, meaning 'shore' or 'beach'.

playable ▷ adj 1 said of a pitch, ground, etc: fit to be played on. 2 said of a ball: lying where it can be played. ● playability noun.

play-act ▷ verb, intr to behave in an insincere fashion, disguising one's true feelings or intentions. ⓘ Late 19c.

playback ▷ noun a playing back of a sound recording or film. See also PLAY SOMETHING BACK at PLAY.

playbill ▷ noun a poster that advertises a play or show.

playboy ▷ noun a man of wealth, leisure and frivolous lifestyle.

played out ▷ adj exhausted; lacking energy. See also PLAY SOMETHING OUT at PLAY.

player ▷ noun 1 someone who plays. 2 someone who participates in a game or sport, particularly as their profession. 3 colloq a participant in a particular activity, especially a powerful one ▫ a major player in the mafia scene. 4 a performer on a musical instrument ▫ guitar player. 5 old use an actor.

player piano ▷ noun a piano fitted with a machinery enabling it to be played automatically, eg a PIANOLA.

playfellow see PLAYMATE.

playful ▷ adj 1 full of fun; frisky. 2 said of a remark, etc: humorous. ● playfully adverb. ● playfulness noun.

playground ▷ noun 1 an area for children's recreation, especially one that is part of a school's grounds. Compare RECREATION GROUND. 2 a resort for people who take frivolous recreation seriously ▫ The area became a yuppies' playground.

playgroup ▷ noun an organized group of preschool children that meets for regular supervised play.

playhouse ▷ noun, old use a theatre.

playing-card ▷ noun a rectangular card belonging to a PACK OF CARDS used in card games. See also ACE, COURT CARD.

playing field ▷ noun a grassy outdoor area prepared and marked out for playing games on. See also LEVEL PLAYING FIELD.

playlist ▷ noun a list of records, CDs, etc, to be played on a particular radio programme, at a club, etc, usually consisting of a particular type of music.

playmate or playfellow ▷ noun a companion to play with.

play-off ▷ noun (play-offs) a match or game played to resolve a draw or other undecided contest. See also PLAY OFF at PLAY.

play on words ▷ noun 1 a pun. 2 punning.

playpen ▷ noun a collapsible frame that when erected forms an enclosure inside which a baby may safely play.

playschool ▷ noun a PLAYGROUP, or a school for children between the ages of two and five.

plaything ▷ noun a toy, or a person or thing treated as if they were a toy.

playtime ▷ noun a period for recreation, especially a set period for playing out of doors as part of a school timetable.

playwright ▷ noun an author of plays (see PLAY noun 4).

plaza /'plɑːzə/ ▷ noun (plazas) 1 a large public square or market place, especially one in a Spanish town. 2 N Amer a shopping centre or complex. ⓘ 17c: Spanish.

PLC or plc ▷ abbreviation public limited company.

plea /pliː/ ▷ noun (pleas) 1 an earnest appeal. 2 law a statement made in a court of law by or on behalf of the defendant. 3 an excuse ▫ refused the invitation on the plea of a headache. ⓘ 13c: from French plaid agreement or decision.

plea bargaining ▷ noun, law, especially US the practice of arranging more lenient treatment by the court in exchange for the accused's pleading guilty to the crime or turning State's evidence, etc.

plead /pliːd/ ▷ verb (pleaded or especially N Amer & Scot pled, pleading) 1 (usually plead with someone for something) to appeal earnestly to them for it ▫ pleading for mercy. 2 intr said of an accused person: to state in a court of law that one is guilty or not guilty ▫ decided to plead guilty ▫ He pleaded not guilty. 3 (also plead for something) to argue in defence of it ▫ plead someone's case. 4 to give something as an excuse ▫ plead ignorance. ● pleadable adj. ● pleader noun. ⓘ 13c: from French plaidier, from Latin placitum that which pleases or is agreed upon.

pleading ▷ adj appealing earnestly; imploring. ▷ noun, law the act of putting forward or conducting a plea. See also SPECIAL PLEADING. ● pleadingly adverb.

pleadings ▷ plural noun, law the formal statements submitted by defendant and plaintiff in a lawsuit.

pleasant /'plɛzənt/ ▷ adj (pleasanter, pleasantest) 1 giving pleasure; enjoyable; agreeable. 2 said of a person: friendly; affable. ● pleasantly adverb. ● pleasantness noun. ⓘ 14c: from French plaisant, from plaisir to please.

pleasantry /'plɛzəntrɪ/ ▷ noun (pleasantries) 1 (usually pleasantries) a remark made for the sake of politeness or friendliness. 2 humour; teasing.

please /pliːz/ ▷ verb (pleased, pleasing) 1 tr & intr to give satisfaction, pleasure or enjoyment; to be agreeable to someone. 2 (with it as subject) formal to be the inclination of someone or something ▫ If it should please you to join us. 3 tr & intr to choose; to like ▫ Do what you please ▫ Do as you please. ▷ adverb, exclamation used politely to accompany a request, order, acceptance of an offer, protest, a call for attention, etc. ● if you please 1 old use, as adverb please. 2 ironic of all things ▫ is engaged to a baronet, if you please. ● please oneself to do as one likes ▫ Please yourself, then. ⓘ 14c: from French plaisir to please.

pleased ▷ adj 1 (especially pleased about or with someone or something) happy; satisfied; contented. 2 glad; delighted. ● pleased as Punch delighted. ● pleased with oneself derog self-satisfied; conceited.

pleasing ▷ adj causing pleasure or satisfaction ▫ a very pleasing result. ● pleasingly adverb.

pleasurable /'plɛʒərəbəl/ ▷ adj enjoyable; pleasant. ● pleasurably adverb.

pleasure /'plɛʒə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 a feeling of enjoyment or satisfaction ▫ take pleasure in one's surroundings. 2 a source of such a feeling ▫ have the pleasure of your company. 3 one's will, desire, wish, preference or inclination. 4 recreation; enjoyment ▫ combine business with pleasure. Also as adj ▫ a pleasure boat ▫ a pleasure trip. 5 gratification of a sensual kind □ pleasure and pain. ▷ verb (pleasured, pleasuring) old use 1 to give pleasure to someone, especially sexual pleasure. 2 (usually pleasure in something) to take pleasure in it. ● a pleasure or my pleasure as a polite expression: not at all; it's no trouble. ● at pleasure when or as one likes. ● with pleasure as a polite expression: gladly; willingly; of course. ⓘ 14c: from French plaisir.

pleat /pliːt/ ▷ noun a fold sewn or pressed into cloth, etc. ▷ verb (pleated, pleating) to make pleats in (cloth, etc). ⓘ 14c: a variant of PLAIT.

pleb ▷ noun, derog someone who has coarse or vulgar tastes, manners or habits. ● plebby adj. ⓘ 19c: a shortening of PLEBEIAN.

plebeian /plə'biːən/ ▷ noun 1 a member of the common people, especially of ancient Rome. 2 derog someone who lacks refinement or culture. ▷ adj 1 referring or belonging to the common people. 2 derog coarse; vulgar; unrefined. ⓘ 16c: from Latin plebeius, from plebs the people.

plebiscite /'plebɪsɪt, 'plebɪsaɪt/ ▷ noun a vote of all the electors, taken to decide a matter of public importance; a referendum. ● plebiscitary /-'bɪsɪtərɪ/ adj. ⓘ 16c: from Latin plebiscitum a decree of the plebs, from plebis of the people + scitum decree.

plectrum /'plektrəm/ ▷ noun (plectrums or plectra /-rə/) a small flat implement of metal, plastic, horn, etc used for plucking the strings of a guitar. ⓘ 17c: Latin, from Greek plectron, from plessein to strike.

pled a past tense, past participle of PLEAD pledge /pledʒ/ ▷ noun 1 a solemn promise. 2 something left as security with someone to whom one owes money, etc. 3 something put into pawn. 4 a token or symbol □ a ring as a pledge of love. 5 a toast drunk as proof of friendship, etc. ▷ verb (pledged, pledging) 1 to promise (money, loyalty, etc) to someone. 2 to bind or commit (oneself, etc). 3 to offer or give something as a pledge or guarantee. 4 old use to drink the health of someone. ● pledgeable adj. ● pledgee noun (pledgees) the person to whom a thing is pledged. ● pledger, pledgeor or pledgor noun the person who pledges something. ● take or sign the pledge facetious, old use to undertake to drink no alcohol. ⓘ 14c: from French plege.

pledget /'pledʒɪt/ ▷ noun a wad of lint, cotton, etc used to cover a wound or sore. ⓘ 16c.

-plegia /'pliːdʒɪə/ ▷ combining form, forming nouns, denoting paralysis of a specified kind □ paraplegia □ quadriplegia. ⓘ From Greek plege stroke, from plessein to strike.

-plegic /'pliːdʒɪk/ ▷ combining form, forming adjectives and nouns corresponding to nouns in -PLEGIA □ quadriplegic.

pleiad /'plaɪəd/ ▷ noun a brilliant and talented group of, usually seven, people or things. ⓘ 19c: from French Pléiade, a name applied by Ronsard (1524–85) to himself and a group of six other French poets, from Greek Pleiades the cluster of stars in Taurus which in mythology are the seven daughters of Atlas who were changed into stars after their deaths.

plein air /pleɪ'neə(r)/ ▷ adj, art history said of pictures, especially landscapes: a giving a vivid sense of the light and atmosphere of the open air; b painted out of doors, instead of in the studio. ⓘ 19c: French, meaning 'open air'.

Pleiocene see PLIOCENE

Pleistocene /'plaɪstousiːn/ ▷ adj, geol denoting the first epoch of the Quaternary period, which contains the greatest proportion of fossil molluscs of living species and during which modern man evolved. See table at GEOLOGICAL TIME SCALE. ⓘ 19c: from Greek pleistos most + -CENE.

plenary /'pliːnərɪ, 'plenərɪ/ ▷ adj 1 full; complete □ plenary powers. 2 said of a meeting, assembly, council, etc: to be attended by all members, delegates, etc. Compare PLENUM. ● plenarily adverb. ⓘ 16c: from Latin plenarius, from plenus full.

plenary indulgence ▷ noun, RC Church full or complete remission of temporal penalties to a repentant sinner.

plenary powers ▷ plural noun full powers to carry out some business or negotiations.

plenipotentiary /plenɪpə'tenʃərɪ/ ▷ adj entrusted with, or conveying, full authority to act on behalf of one's government or other organization. ▷ noun (plenipotentiaries) someone, eg an ambassador, invested with such authority. ⓘ 17c: from Latin plenus full + potentia power.

plenitude /'plenɪtjuːd/ ▷ noun 1 abundance; profusion. 2 completeness; fullness. ⓘ 15c: from Latin plenitudo, from plenus full.

plenteous /'plentɪəs/ ▷ adj, literary plentiful; abundant. ● plenteously adverb. ● plenteousness noun. ⓘ 14c as plentivous: from French plentif, from plente plenty.

plentiful /'plentɪfʊl/ ▷ adj in good supply; copious; abundant. ● plentifully adverb. ● plentifulness noun. ⓘ 15c: from PLENTY.

plenty /'plentɪ/ ▷ noun 1 (often plenty of something) a lot □ plenty of folk would agree. 2 wealth or sufficiency; a sufficient amount □ in times of plenty. ▷ pronoun 1 enough, or more than enough □ That's plenty, thank you. 2 a lot; many □ I'm sure plenty would agree with me (ie plenty of folk; many people). ▷ adverb, colloq fully □ That should be plenty wide enough. ● in plenty rather formal or old use in abundant quantities. ⓘ 13c: from French plente, from Latin plenitas abundance, from plenus full.

plenum /'pliːnəm/ ▷ noun (plenums or plena /-nə/) 1 a meeting attended by all members. Compare PLENARY. 2 physics a space completely filled with matter. Opposite of VACUUM. ⓘ 17c: Latin, a shortening of plenum spatium full space.

plenum chamber ▷ noun a sealed chamber containing pressurized air.

plenum system and plenum ventilation ▷ noun, building, archit an air-conditioning system in which the air propelled into a building is maintained at a higher pressure than the atmosphere.

pleomorphism /pliːou'mɔːfɪzəm/ ▷ noun POLYMORPHISM (senses 1 and 2).

pleonasm /'pliːənazəm/ ▷ noun, grammar, rhetoric 1 the use of more words than are needed to express something. 2 a superfluous word or words. ● pleonastic adj. ● pleonastically adverb. ⓘ 16c: from Greek pleonasmos superfluity.

plesiosaur /'pliːsɪousɔː(r)/ ▷ noun any of various large reptiles of the Jurassic and Cretaceous eras with a long neck, short tail and four flippers. ⓘ 19c: from Greek plesios near + SAUR.

plethora /'pleθərə/ ▷ noun (plethoras) a large or excessive amount. ⓘ 16c: Latin, from Greek, meaning 'fullness'.

pleura /'plʊərə/ ▷ noun (pleurae /-riː/) anatomy in mammals: the double membrane that covers the lungs and lines the chest cavity. ● pleural adj. ⓘ 17c: Latin, from Greek pleuron, pleura side or rib.

pleurisy /'plʊərɪsɪ/ ▷ noun, pathol, medicine inflammation of the pleura. ● pleuritic /-'rɪtɪk/ adj. ⓘ 14c: from French pleurisie.

Plexiglas /'pleksɪglɑːs/ ▷ noun, US trademark a tough transparent plastic; POLYMETHYLMETHACRYLATE. See also PERSPEX. ⓘ 20c.

plexor /'pleksə(r)/ and plessor /'plesə(r)/ ▷ noun, medicine a small hammer used in percussing. Also called percussion hammer, percussor. ◷ 19c: from Greek plexis a stroke, from plessein to strike.

plexus /ˈplɛksəs/ ▷ noun (plexus or plexuses) anatomy a network of nerves or blood vessels, eg the SOLAR PLEXUS behind the stomach. ◷ 17c: Latin, literally 'weaving'.

pliable /ˈplaɪəbəl/ ▷ adj 1 easily bent; flexible. 2 adaptable or alterable. 3 easily persuaded or influenced. • pliability or pliableness noun. • pliably adverb. ◷ 15c: French, from plier to fold or bend.

pliant /ˈplaɪənt/ ▷ adj 1 bending easily; pliable, flexible or supple. 2 easily influenced. • pliancy noun. • pliantly adverb. ◷ 14c: French, from plier to fold or bend.

plié /ˈpliːeɪ/ ▷ noun, ballet a movement in which the knees are bent while the body remains upright. ◷ 19c: French, meaning 'bent'.

plied and plier see under PLY[2] pliers /ˈplaɪəz/ ▷ plural noun a hinged tool with jaws for gripping small objects, bending or cutting wire, etc. ◷ 16c: from PLY[2].

plies see PLY[1], PLY[2] plight[1] /plaɪt/ ▷ noun a danger, difficulty or situation of hardship that one finds oneself in; a predicament. ◷ 14c as plit a fold or condition: from French pleit, from Latin plicare to fold, influenced by the spelling of PLIGHT[2].

plight[2] /plaɪt/ ▷ verb (plighted, plighting) old use to promise something solemnly; to pledge. • plight one's troth to pledge oneself in marriage. ◷ Anglo-Saxon pliht peril or risk.

plimsoll or plimsole /ˈplɪmsəl/ ▷ noun, old use a light rubber-soled canvas shoe worn for gymnastics, etc. Also called gym shoe. ◷ Early 20c: from the resemblance of the line of the sole to the PLIMSOLL LINE.

Plimsoll line and Plimsoll mark ▷ noun any of several lines painted round a ship's hull showing, for different conditions, the depth to which it may be safely and legally immersed when loaded. ◷ 19c: these lines were required by the Merchant Shipping Act of 1876 put forward by Samuel Plimsoll (1824–98).

plinth /plɪnθ/ ▷ noun 1 archit a square block serving as the base of a column, pillar, etc. 2 a base or pedestal for a statue or other sculpture, or for a vase. ◷ 17c: from Latin plinthus, from Greek plinthos a brick or stone block.

Pliocene or Pleiocene /ˈplaɪousiːn/ ▷ adj, geol the last epoch of the Tertiary period, during which the climate became cooler, many mammals became extinct and primates that walked upright appeared. See table at GEOLOGICAL TIME SCALE. ◷ Early 19c: from Greek pleion more + -CENE.

plissé /ˈpliːseɪ, ˈplɪ-/ ▷ adj said of a fabric: chemically treated to produce a shirred or wrinkled effect. ◷ 19c: French, meaning 'pleated'.

PLO ▷ abbreviation Palestine Liberation Organization.

plod ▷ verb (plodded, plodding) intr 1 to walk slowly with a heavy tread. 2 to work slowly, methodically and thoroughly, if without inspiration. ▷ noun a heavy walk. • plodding adj, noun. • ploddingly adverb. ◷ 16c: an imitation of the sound of a heavy tread.

plodder ▷ noun 1 someone who plods on. 2 a dull uninteresting person. 3 someone who progresses by toil rather than by inspiration.

ploidy /ˈplɔɪdɪ/ ▷ noun (ploidies) biol the number of complete chromosome sets present in a cell or living organism. ◷ 1940s: from HAPLOIDY, POLYPLOIDY, etc.

-ploitation ▷ combining form, forming nouns referring to the commercial exploitation of the specified things in film and other media □ sexploitation □ blaxploitation. ◷ 1980s.

plonk[1] /plɒŋk/ ▷ colloq, noun the resounding thud made by a heavy object falling. ▷ verb (plonked, plonking) 1 to put or place something with a thud or with finality □ plonked himself in the best chair. 2 intr to place oneself or to fall with a plonk. ▷ adverb with a thud □ landed plonk beside her. ◷ 19c: imitating the sound.

plonk[2] /plɒŋk/ ▷ noun, colloq cheap, undistinguished wine. ◷ Early 20c: originally Australian slang, probably a corruption of blanc in French vin blanc white wine.

plonker ▷ noun 1 colloq anything large, especially a smacking kiss. 2 slang a stupid person; an idiot. 3 slang the penis. ◷ 19c; 20c in slang senses.

plook see PLOUK

plop ▷ noun the sound of a small object dropping into water without a splash. ▷ verb (plopped, plopping) tr & intr to fall or drop with this sound. ▷ adverb with a plop. ◷ 19c: imitating the sound.

plosive /ˈplousɪv, ˈplouzɪv/ phonetics ▷ adj said of a consonant: made by the sudden release of breath after stoppage. ▷ noun a plosive consonant or sound, such as /p/, /t/, /k/, etc. ◷ 19c: a shortening of EXPLOSIVE.

plot[1] ▷ noun 1 a secret plan, especially one laid jointly with others, for contriving something illegal or evil; a conspiracy. 2 the story or scheme of a play, film, novel, etc. ▷ verb (plotted, plotting) 1 tr & intr to plan something (especially something illegal or evil), usually with others. 2 to make a plan of something; to mark the course or progress of something. 3 math to mark (a series of individual points) on a graph, or to draw a curve through them. • plotless adj. ◷ 16c: from PLOT[2], influenced by French complot conspiracy.

plot[2] ▷ noun, often in compounds a piece of ground for any of various uses □ vegetable plot. ◷ Anglo-Saxon.

plotter ▷ noun 1 someone who plots. 2 an instrument, often the output device of a computer, which draws graphs, diagrams, contour maps, overhead slides, etc on paper or film using an automatically controlled pen.

the Plough ▷ noun, astron the seven brightest stars in the constellation URSA MAJOR whose configuration resembles the shape of a plough. Also (N Amer) called the Big Dipper.

plough or (N Amer) plow /plau/ noun 1 a bladed farm implement used to turn over the surface of the soil and bury stubble, weeds, etc, in preparation for the cultivation of a crop. 2 any similar implement, especially a SNOWPLOUGH. 3 hunting, etc ploughed land. ▷ verb (ploughed, ploughing; N Amer plowed, plowing) 1 (also plough something up) to till or turn over (soil, land, etc) with a plough. 2 intr to make a furrow or to turn over the surface of the soil with a plough. 3 Brit colloq, old use a to fail (a candidate in an examination); b intr said of a candidate: to fail an examination. • plough a lonely furrow to be separated from one's former friends and associates and go one's own way. • put one's hand to the plough to begin an undertaking. ◷ Anglo-Saxon plog or ploh.

■ plough something back to re-invest (the profits of a business) in that business.

■ plough something in to mix (the remains of a crop) with the soil by means of a plough after harvesting □ ploughed the stubble in.

■ plough into something colloq said of a vehicle or its driver: to crash into it at speed □ ploughed into the back of the lorry.

■ plough on colloq to continue with something although progress is laborious.

■ plough through something 1 to move through it with a ploughing action □ a boat ploughing through the waves. 2 colloq to make steady but laborious progress with it.

ploughman or (N Amer) plowman noun someone who steers a plough.

ploughman's lunch ▷ noun a cold meal of bread, cheese, pickle and sometimes meat, often served in pubs as a bar meal.

ploughman's spikenard ▷ noun a European and N African SPIKENARD with yellow flowers and aromatic roots.

Plough Monday ▷ noun, Brit the Monday following Epiphany. ⓘ 16c: so called because it was the day when traditionally ploughmen and others resumed their work after the Christmas holidays.

ploughshare or (N Amer) plowshare noun a blade of a plough. Also called share. ⓘ 14c.

plouk or plook /pluːk/ ▷ noun, Scots a spot or pimple. ⓘ 18c.

plover /ˈplʌvə(r)/ ▷ noun any of various wading birds with boldly patterned plumage, large pointed wings, long legs and a short straight bill. ⓘ 14c: from French plovier rain bird, from Latin pluvia rain.

plow, etc the N Amer spelling of PLOUGH, etc.

ploy ▷ noun (ploys) 1 a stratagem, dodge or manoeuvre to gain an advantage. 2 any hobby or amusement with which one occupies oneself. ⓘ 1950s; 18c in sense 2; 15c in obsolete sense 'to employ': possibly from Latin plicare to bend.

PLP ▷ abbreviation, Brit Parliamentary Labour Party.

PLR ▷ abbreviation public lending right.

pluck ▷ verb (plucked, plucking) 1 to pull the feathers off (a bird) before cooking it. 2 to pick (flowers or fruit) from a plant or tree. 3 (often pluck something out) to remove it by pulling □ Iain plucked out his grey hairs one by one. 4 to shape (the eyebrows) by removing hairs from them. 5 (usually pluck or pluck at something) to pull or tug it. 6 to sound (the strings of a violin, etc) using the fingers or a plectrum. 7 to grab or save someone or something at the last minute □ plucked from the jaws of death. 8 slang to rob or fleece someone; to swindle. ▷ noun 1 courage; guts. 2 a little tug. 3 the heart, liver and lungs of an animal. ■ pluck up courage to strengthen one's resolve for a difficult undertaking, etc. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon pluccian to pluck or tear.

plucky ▷ adj (pluckier, pluckiest) colloq courageous; spirited. ■ pluckily adverb. ■ pluckiness noun.

plug ▷ noun 1 a piece of rubber, plastic, etc shaped to fit a hole as a stopper, eg in a bath or sink. 2 often in compounds any device or piece of material for a similar purpose □ earplugs. 3 a the plastic or rubber device with metal pins, fitted to the end of the flex of an electrical apparatus, that is pushed into a socket to connect with the power supply. b loosely the socket or power point □ switch it off at the plug. 4 colloq a piece of favourable publicity given to a product, programme, etc, eg on television. 5 a SPARK PLUG. 6 an accumulation of solidified magma which fills the vent of a volcano. Also called volcanic plug. 7 a lump of tobacco for chewing. ▷ verb (plugged, plugging) 1 (often plug something up) to stop or block up (a hole, etc) with something. 2 colloq to give favourable publicity to (a product, programme, etc), especially repeatedly □ plugged her new book. 3 slang to shoot someone with a gun. ■ plugger noun. ■ plug school slang to play truant. ■ pull the plug on something or someone 1 to stop being supportive of it or them. 2 to destroy them or it, eg by cutting off supplies, finance, etc. ⓘ 17c: from Dutch plugge a bung or peg.

■ plug away or along colloq to work or progress steadily.

■ plug something in to connect (an electrical appliance) to the power supply by means of an electrical plug.

plug-and-play ▷ adj said of a computer, computer software, etc: having a facility allowing software to be used immediately without the user having to go through any complex processes to set it up.

plughole ▷ noun the hole in a bath or sink through which water flows into the wastepipe.

plug-ugly colloq ▷ adj, dirog said of a person: very ugly. ▷ noun (plug-uglies) US a hoodlum; a ruffian. ⓘ 19c.

plum ▷ noun 1 any of a number of varieties of shrub or small tree, cultivated in temperate regions for its edible fruit, or for its ornamental flowers or foliage. 2 the smooth-skinned red, purple, green or yellow fruit of this tree, which has a hard central stone surrounded by sweet juicy flesh, eg damson, greengage. 3 in compounds a raisin used in cakes, etc □ plum pudding. 4 a colloq something especially valued or sought; b as adj □ a plum job. 5 a deep dark-red colour. ▷ adj plum-coloured. See also PLUMMY. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon plume: from Greek proumnon, from proumne plum-tree.

> plum, plumb
>
> These words are sometimes confused with each other.

plumage /ˈpluːmɪdʒ/ ▷ noun a bird's feathers, especially with regard to colour. ⓘ 15c: French, from plume feather.

plumb /plʌm/ ▷ noun a lead weight, usually suspended from a line, used for measuring water depth or for testing a wall, etc for perpendicularity. ▷ adj straight, vertical or perpendicular. ▷ adverb 1 in a straight, vertical or perpendicular way □ drops plumb to the sea bed. 2 colloq exactly □ plumb in the middle. 3 N Amer, especially US colloq utterly □ The guy is plumb crazy. ▷ verb (plumbed, plumbing) 1 to measure the depth of (water), test (a structure) for verticality, or adjust something to the vertical, using a plumb. 2 to penetrate, probe or understand (a mystery, etc). 3 (usually plumb something in) to connect (a water-using appliance) to the water supply or waste pipe. ■ out of plumb not vertical. ■ plumb the depths of something to experience the worst extreme of (a bad feeling, etc) □ plumbed the depths of misery. ⓘ 13c: from French plomb, from Latin plumbum lead.

plumbago /plʌmˈbeɪgoʊ/ ▷ noun (plumbagos) 1 chem another name for GRAPHITE. 2 a Mediterranean and tropical plant with spikes of lead-coloured flowers. Also called LEADWORT. ⓘ 18c; 17c in obsolete sense 'yellow oxide of lead': Latin, from Pliny's translation of Greek molybdaina lead or lead ore.

plumber /ˈplʌmə(r)/ ▷ noun someone who fits and repairs water pipes, and water- or gas-using appliances. ⓘ 14c: from French plommier, from Latin plumbarius, from plumbum lead.

plumbing /ˈplʌmɪŋ/ ▷ noun 1 the system of water and gas pipes in a building, etc. 2 the work of a plumber. 3 euphemistic the lavatory. 4 facetious the human urinary excretory or reproductive systems.

plumbism /ˈplʌmbɪzəm/ ▷ noun, pathol lead poisoning. ⓘ 19c: from Latin plumbum + -ISM.

plumbline ▷ noun a line with a PLUMB attached, used for measuring depth or testing for verticality.

plume /pluːm/ ▷ noun 1 a conspicuous feather of a bird. 2 such a feather, or bunch of feathers, worn as an ornament or crest, represented in a coat of arms, etc. 3 a curling column (of smoke etc). ▷ verb (plumed, pluming) 1 said of a bird: to clean or preen (itself or its feathers). 2 to decorate with plumes. 3 (usually plume oneself on something) to pride or congratulate oneself on it, usually on something trivial. ⓘ 14c: French, from Latin pluma a soft feather.

plummet /ˈplʌmɪt/ ▷ verb (plummeted, plummeting) intr to fall or drop rapidly; to plunge or hurtle downwards. ▷ noun the weight on a plumbline or fishing-line. ⓘ 14c:

from French plommet ball of lead, diminutive of plomb lead.

plummy ▷ adj (plummier, plummiest) 1 colloq said of a job, etc: desirable; worth having; choice. 2 derog said of a voice: affectedly or excessively rich and deep. 3 full of plums.

plump[1] ▷ adj (plumper, plumpest) full, rounded or chubby; not unattractively fat. ▷ verb (plumped, plumping) (often plump something up) to shake (cushions or pillows) to give them their full soft bulk. ● plumply adverb. ● plumpness noun. ◎ 16c in adjectival sense; 15c in obsolete sense 'dull' or 'blunt': from Dutch plomp blunt.

plump[2] colloq ▷ verb (plumped, plumping) tr & intr (sometimes plump down or plump something down) to put down, drop, fall or sit heavily. ▷ noun a sudden heavy fall or the sound this makes. ▷ adverb 1 suddenly; with a plump. 2 directly □ The fly landed plump in the middle of my soup. 3 in a blunt or direct way. Also as adj. ◎ 14c: imitating the sound made.

■ plump for something or someone to decide on or choose them; to make a decision in their favour.

plumule /ˈpluːmjuːl/ ▷ noun 1 bot the embryonic shoot of a germinating seedling. 2 zool one of the down feathers of a young bird. ◎ 18c: from Latin plumula, diminutive of pluma feather.

plumy /ˈpluːmɪ/ ▷ adj (plumier, plumiest) 1 covered or adorned with down or plumes. 2 like a plume.

plunder /ˈplʌndə(r)/ ▷ verb (plundered, plundering) tr & intr to steal (valuable goods) or loot (a place), especially with open force during a war; to rob or ransack. ▷ noun the goods plundered; loot; booty. ● plunderer noun. ◎ 17c: from Dutch plunderen to rob of household goods.

plunge /plʌndʒ/ ▷ verb (plunged, plunging) 1 intr (usually plunge in or into something) to dive, throw oneself, fall or rush headlong in or into it. 2 intr (usually plunge in or into something) to involve oneself rapidly and enthusiastically. 3 to thrust or push something. 4 tr & intr to put something or someone into a particular state or condition □ The power failed and plunged the town into darkness. 5 to dip something briefly into water or other liquid. 6 intr to dip steeply □ The ship plunged and rose. 7 intr to gamble or squander recklessly. ▷ noun 1 an act of plunging; a dive. 2 colloq a dip or swim. 3 geol the inclination of a FOLD axis, measured in the vertical plane. Compare PITCH. ● take the plunge colloq to commit oneself finally after hesitation; to take an irreversible decision. ◎ 14c: from French plungier, from an assumed Latin verb plumbicare to heave the lead, from plumbum lead.

plunger ▷ noun 1 a rubber suction cup at the end of a long handle, used to clear blocked drains, etc. 2 a part of a mechanism that moves up and down with a thrusting motion, like a piston.

plunk ▷ verb (plunked, plunking) 1 to pluck (the strings of a banjo, etc); to twang. 2 (often plunk something down) to drop it, especially suddenly. ▷ noun the act of plunking or the sound this makes. ◎ 19c: imitating the sound.

pluperfect /pluːˈpɜːfɪkt/ grammar ▷ adj said of the tense of a verb: formed in English by the auxiliary verb had and a past PARTICIPLE, and referring to action already accomplished at the time of a past action being referred to, as in They had often gone there before, but this time they lost their way. ▷ noun a the pluperfect tense; b a verb in the pluperfect tense. Compare PAST, PRESENT, FUTURE, PERFECT, IMPERFECT. ◎ 16c: contracted from Latin plus quam perfectum more than perfect.

plural /ˈplʊərəl/ ▷ adj 1 grammar denoting or referring to two or more people, things, etc as opposed to only one. 2 consisting of more than one, or of different kinds. ▷ noun, grammar a word or form of a word expressing the idea or involvement of two or more people, things, etc. Compare SINGULAR. ◎ 14c: from French plurel, from Latin pluralis, from plus more.

pluralism ▷ noun 1 the existence within a society of a variety of ethnic, cultural and religious groups. 2 the holding of more than one post, especially in the Church. 3 philos the belief or theory that reality consists of more than two kinds of substance. Compare MONISM, DUALISM. ● pluralist noun, adj. ● pluralistic adj.

plurality /plʊəˈralɪtɪ/ ▷ noun (pluralities) 1 the state or condition of being plural. 2 PLURALISM (sense 2). 3 a large number or variety. 4 US a RELATIVE MAJORITY.

pluralize or pluralise /ˈplʊərəlaɪz/ ▷ verb (pluralized, pluralizing) to make or become plural. ● pluralization noun. ◎ 19c.

plural society ▷ noun a society that consists of several interdependent groups which all have a say in the ruling of the society.

plus ▷ prep 1 math with the addition of (a specified number) □ 2 plus 5 equals 7. 2 in combination with something; with the added factor of (a specified thing) □ Bad luck, plus his own obstinacy, cost him his job. ▷ adverb after a specified amount: with something more besides □ Helen earns £20 000 plus. ▷ adj 1 denoting the symbol '+' □ the plus sign. 2 mathematically positive; above zero □ plus 3. 3 advantageous □ a plus factor. 4 in grades: denoting a slightly higher mark than the letter alone □ B plus. 5 physics, elec electrically positive. ▷ noun (pluses /ˈplʌsɪz/) 1 (also plus sign) the symbol '+', denoting addition or positive value. 2 colloq something positive or good; a bonus, advantage, surplus, or extra □ The free crèche was a definite plus. ▷ conj, colloq in addition to the fact that □ That's a difficult question to answer, plus I'm late for an appointment. In all senses opposite of MINUS. ◎ 17c: Latin, meaning 'more'.

plus fours ▷ plural noun loose breeches gathered below the knee, still sometimes used as golfing wear. ◎ 1920s: from PLUS + FOUR, because four extra inches of fabric are required to make the breeches hang over the knee.

plush ▷ noun (plushes) a fabric with a long velvety pile. ▷ adj (plusher, plushest) 1 made of plush. 2 colloq plushy. ◎ 16c: from French pluche, from earlier peluche a hairy fabric, ultimately from Latin pilus hair.

plushy ▷ adj (plushier, plushiest) colloq luxurious, opulent, stylish or costly. ◎ 1920s in this sense.

plutocracy /pluːˈtɒkrəsɪ/ ▷ noun (plutocracies) 1 government or domination by the wealthy. 2 a state governed by the wealthy. 3 an influential group whose power is backed by their wealth. ◎ 17c: from Greek ploutos wealth + -CRACY.

plutocrat /ˈpluːtoʊkrat/ ▷ noun 1 a member of a plutocracy. 2 colloq a wealthy person. ● plutocratic /-ˈkratɪk/ adj.

plutonic /pluːˈtɒnɪk/ ▷ adj, geol relating to coarse-grained igneous rocks that are formed by the slow crystallization of magma deep within the Earth's crust, eg GRANITES and GABBROS. ◎ 19c; 18c, meaning 'igneous': from Greek Plouton Pluto, the god of the underworld.

plutonium /pluːˈtoʊnɪəm/ ▷ noun, chem (abbreviation Pu, atomic number 94) a dense highly poisonous silvery-grey radioactive metallic element, whose isotope plutonium-239 is used as an energy source for nuclear weapons and some nuclear reactors. ◎ 1940s in this sense: named after the planet Pluto.

pluvial /ˈpluːvɪəl/ ▷ adj relating to or characterized by rain; rainy. ▷ noun, geol a period of prolonged rainfall. ◎ 17c: from Latin pluvia rain.

ply[1] /plaɪ/ ▷ noun (plies) 1 a thickness of yarn, rope or wood, measured by the number of strands or layers that compose it; b in compounds, often as adj specifying the number of strands or layers involved □ four-ply wool. 2 a strand or layer. ⓘ 16c: from French pli fold, from plier to fold.

ply² /plaɪ/ ▷ verb (plies, plied, plying) 1 (usually ply someone with something) to keep supplying them with something or making a repeated, often annoying, onslaught on them □ plied them with drinks □ plying me with questions. 2 tr & intr (often ply between one place and another) to travel a route regularly; to go regularly to and fro between destinations. 3 dated or literary to work at (a trade). 4 dated or literary to use (a tool, etc) □ ply one's needle. ● plier noun. ⓘ 14c: from APPLY.

plywood ▷ noun wood which consists of thin layers glued together, widely used in the construction industry. ⓘ Early 20c.

PM ▷ abbreviation 1 Past Master. 2 Postmaster. 3 Paymaster. 4 Prime Minister.

Pm ▷ symbol, chem promethium.

p.m., pm, P.M. or PM ▷ abbreviation 1 post meridiem. 2 post mortem.

PMG ▷ abbreviation Paymaster-General.

PMS ▷ abbreviation premenstrual syndrome.

PMT ▷ abbreviation premenstrual tension.

PNdB ▷ abbreviation perceived noise decibel.

pneumatic /nju'matɪk/ ▷ adj 1 relating to air or gases. 2 containing or inflated with compressed air □ pneumatic tyres. See TYRE. 3 said of a tool or piece of machinery: operated or driven by compressed air □ pneumatic drill. ● pneumatically adverb. ⓘ 17c: from Latin pneumaticus, from Greek pneuma wind or breath.

pneumoconiosis /nju:moukouni'ousɪs/ or pneumonoconiosis /nju:mənoukouni'ousɪs/ ▷ noun, pathol any of various diseases of the lungs, caused by habitual inhalation of mineral or metallic dust. ⓘ 19c: Latin, from Greek pneumon lung + konisis, from konis dust.

pneumonia /nju'mounɪə/ ▷ noun, pathol inflammation of one or more lobes of the lungs, usually as a result of bacterial or viral infection, which was formerly a major cause of death but is now treatable with antibiotics. ⓘ 17c: Latin, from Greek pneumon lung.

PNG ▷ abbreviation, IVR Papua New Guinea.

PO ▷ abbreviation 1 Personnel Officer. 2 Petty Officer. 3 Pilot Officer. 4 Post Office.

Po ▷ symbol, chem polonium.

po¹ /pou/ ▷ noun (pos /pouz/) colloq a chamberpot. ⓘ 19c: contracted from French pot de chambre.

po² or p.o. ▷ abbreviation postal order.

poa /'pouə/ ▷ noun (poas) bot any of various species of grass with green hairless leaves, often wrinkled or with a purplish tinge, abundant in meadows and pastures. ⓘ 18c: from Greek poa grass.

poach¹ /poutʃ/ ▷ verb (poaches, poached, poaching) cookery 1 to cook (an egg without its shell) in or over boiling water. 2 to simmer (fish) in milk or other liquid. ⓘ 15c: from French pocher to pocket (referring to the egg yolk inside the white), from poche pocket.

poach² /poutʃ/ ▷ verb (poaches, poached, poaching) 1 tr & intr to catch (game or fish) illegally on someone else's property. 2 to steal (ideas, etc). 3 to lure away (personnel at a rival business, etc) to work for one. 4 (usually poach on something) to intrude on (another's territory or area of responsibility). ⓘ 17c: from French pocher to gouge.

poacher ▷ noun 1 a container in which to POACH¹ eggs. 2 someone who poaches (see POACH²) game, work, customers, etc.

poaching ▷ noun 1 cooking by gentle simmering. 2 the activity of a POACHER (sense 2); stealing.

PO box ▷ abbreviation Post Office box, a numbered box, pigeonhole, etc at a post office to which mail may be sent for collection by a recipient who does not have a permanent address, or who does not want to disclose their home or business address. Compare POSTE RESTANTE.

pochade /pɒ'ʃaːd/ ▷ noun, art a quick sketch in colour, usually oils, made in the open air, often used by landscape painters as a preliminary stage in the planning of a full-size picture. ⓘ 19c: French, from pocher to sketch in the rough.

pochard /'poʊtʃəd/ ▷ noun any of various diving ducks found in Europe and N America, the common variety of which has a short neck, a steep sloping forehead and a large bill. ⓘ 16c.

pochoir /'pɒʃwaː/ ▷ noun, printing, publishing a form of colour stencilling, by hand, on to a printed illustration. ⓘ 1930s: French, meaning 'stencil'.

pock ▷ noun 1 a small inflamed area on the skin, containing pus, especially one caused by smallpox. 2 a POCKMARK. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon poc.

pocket /'pɒkɪt/ ▷ noun 1 an extra piece sewn into or on to a garment to form a pouch for carrying things in. 2 any container similarly fitted or attached. 3 as adj & in compounds small enough to be carried in a pocket; smaller than standard □ pocketbook. Also pocket-size. 4 one's financial resources □ well beyond my pocket. 5 a rock cavity filled with ore. 6 in conditions of air turbulence: a place in the atmosphere where the air pressure drops or rises abruptly. 7 an isolated patch or area of something □ pockets of unemployment. 8 billiards, etc any of the holes, with nets or pouches beneath them, situated around the edges of the table and into which balls are potted. ▷ verb (pocketed, pocketing) 1 to put in one's pocket. 2 colloq to take something dishonestly; to steal it □ He pocketed the cash when he was alone in the office. 3 billiards, etc to drive (a ball) into a pocket. 4 to swallow or suppress (one's pride), eg to make a humble request. ● in one another's pocket said of two people: in close intimacy with, or dependence on, one another. ● in or out of pocket having gained, or lost, money on a transaction. ● in someone's pocket influenced or controlled by them. ● out-of-pocket expenses those incurred on behalf of an employer. ● line one's pockets see under LINE². ● put one's hand in one's pocket to be willing to contribute money. ⓘ 15c: from French poquet, diminutive of poque, from Dutch poke pocket.

pocketbook ▷ noun 1 N Amer, especially US a wallet for money and papers. 2 N Amer, especially US a woman's strapless handbag or purse. 3 a notebook.

pocket borough ▷ noun, historical in the UK: before the 1832 Reform Act: an electoral constituency under the control of one person or family.

pocketful ▷ noun (pocketfuls) the amount a pocket can hold.

pocket knife ▷ noun a knife with folding blades. Also called PENKNIFE.

pocket money ▷ noun 1 Brit a weekly allowance given to children by their parents □ spent all his pocket money on sweets. 2 money carried for occasional expenses.

pockmark ▷ noun a small pit or hollow in the skin left by a pock, especially one caused by chickenpox or smallpox. ● pockmarked adj.

poco /'poukou/ music ▷ adverb, adj in compounds a little □ poco adagio. ⓘ 18c: Italian.

poculiform /'pɒkjulɪfɔːm/ ▷ adj, biol cup-shaped. ⓘ 19c: from Latin poculum cup.

pod /pɒd/ ▷ noun 1 bot a the long dry fruit produced by leguminous plants, eg peas and beans, consisting of a seedcase which splits down both sides to release its seeds; b the seedcase itself. 2 aeronautics in an aeroplane or space vehicle: a detachable container or housing, eg for an engine. ▷ verb (podded, podding) 1 to extract (peas, beans, etc) from their pods; to hull. 2 intr said of a plant: to produce pods. ⓘ 17c.

-pod and -pode ⊳ combining form, forming nouns, denoting something with a specified type, number, etc of feet □ tripod. ⓘ From Greek pous, podos foot.

podagra /pə'dagrə/ ⊳ noun, pathol gout of the feet. • podagral adj. ⓘ 14c: from Greek pous, podos foot + agra a trap or seizure.

podgy /'pɒdʒɪ/ or pudgy /'pʌdʒɪ/ ⊳ adj (podgier, podgiest; pudgier, pudgiest) derog plump or chubby, short and squat. ⓘ 19c: from dialect podge a short fat person.

podiatry /pə'daɪətrɪ/ ⊳ noun, chiefly N Amer chiropody. • podiatrist noun. ⓘ Early 20c: from Greek pous, podos foot + iatros doctor.

podium /'poʊdɪəm/ ⊳ noun (podiums or podia) 1 a small platform for a public speaker, orchestra conductor, etc. 2 archit a projecting base for a colonnade, wall, etc. 3 a wall which encloses the arena of an amphitheatre. ⓘ 18c: Latin, meaning 'an elevated place', from Greek podion, from pous, podos foot.

podsol /'pɒdsɒl/ or podzol /-zɒl/ ⊳ noun, soil science any of a group of soils, found under heathland and coniferous forests in cold temperate regions, characterized by a leached upper layer and a lower layer where leached compounds have accumulated. ⓘ Early 20c: Russian, from pod under + zola ash.

poem /'poʊɪm/ ⊳ noun 1 a literary composition, typically, but not necessarily, in verse, often with elevated and/or imaginatively expressed content. 2 an object, scene or creation of inspiring beauty. See also POETRY. ⓘ 16c: from Greek poiema creation, poem, from poieein to make.

poenology see PENOLOGY

poesy /'poʊɪzɪ/ ⊳ noun (poesies) old use poetry. ⓘ 14c: from Greek poiesis, from poieein to make.

poet /'poʊɪt/ and poetess /'poʊɪtəs, -'tes/ ⊳ noun a male or female writer of poems. ⓘ 13c: from Latin poeta, from Greek poietes, from poieein to make.

poetic /poʊ'etɪk/ or poetical ⊳ adj 1 relating or suitable to poets or poetry. 2 possessing grace, beauty or inspiration suggestive of poetry. 3 written in verse □ the complete poetical works. • poetically adverb.

poetic justice ⊳ noun a result or occurrence in which evil is punished or good is rewarded in a strikingly fitting way □ It was poetic justice when the pickpocket had his wallet stolen.

poetic licence ⊳ noun a poet's or writer's departure from strict fact or standard grammar, for the sake of effect.

poet laureate ⊳ noun (poets laureate or poet laureates) in the UK: an officially appointed court poet, commissioned to produce poems for state occasions. Sometimes shortened to laureate.

poetry /'poʊɪtrɪ/ ⊳ noun (poetries) 1 the art of composing poems. 2 poems collectively. 3 poetic quality, feeling, beauty or grace. ⓘ 14c: from Latin poetria, from poeta poet.

po-faced ⊳ adj, derog colloq 1 wearing a disapproving or solemn expression. 2 narrow-minded. ⓘ 1930s: perhaps from po (for POOH) or PO[1], influenced by POKER-FACED.

pogo /'poʊgoʊ/ ⊳ verb (pogoed, pogoing) intr 1 to jump on a pogo stick. 2 to jump up and down as if heading an imaginary football, especially as a form of dancing to punk music. ⊳ noun (pogos) an instance of this. ⓘ 1970s in verb sense 2.

pogo stick /'poʊgoʊ —/ ⊳ noun a spring-mounted pole with a handlebar and foot rests, on which to bounce, or progress by bounces. ⓘ 1920s.

pogrom /'pɒgrəm/ ⊳ noun an organized persecution or massacre of a particular group of people, originally that of Jews in 19c Russia. ⓘ 20c: Russian, meaning 'destruction'.

poignant /'pɔɪnjənt, 'pɔɪnənt/ ⊳ adj 1 painful to the feelings □ a poignant reminder. 2 deeply moving; full of pathos. 3 said of words or expressions: sharp, penetrating. 4 sharp or pungent in smell or taste. • poignancy noun. • poignantly adverb. ⓘ 14c: from French poignant, from poindre to sting, from Latin pungere to prick or pierce.

poikilothermic /pɔɪkɪloʊ'θɜːmɪk/ ⊳ adj, zool COLD-BLOODED (sense 1). ⓘ 19c: from Greek poikilos variegated.

poinciana /pɔɪnsɪ'ɑːnə/ ⊳ noun (poincianas) a tropical tree with large red or orange flowers. ⓘ 17c: Latin, named after De Poinci, a 17c Governor of the French West Indies.

poinsettia /pɔɪn'setɪə/ ⊳ noun (poinsettias) a deciduous Central American shrub with small greenish-yellow flowers surrounded by vermilion bracts that resemble petals, widely cultivated as houseplant. ⓘ 19c: Latin, named after J R Poinsett (1779–1851), US Minister to Mexico.

point /pɔɪnt/ ⊳ noun 1 a sharp or tapering end or tip. 2 a dot, eg inserted (either on the line or above it) before a decimal fraction, as in 2.1 or 2·1 (two point one). 3 a punctuation mark, especially a full stop. 4 geom a position found by means of coordinates. 5 a position, place or location. Often in compounds □ a look-out point. 6 a moment □ Sandy lost his temper at that point. 7 a stage in a process, etc. 8 in compounds a stage, temperature, etc □ boiling-point. 9 the right moment for doing something □ She lost courage when it came to the point. 10 a feature or characteristic □ She always hides her good points. 11 in a statement, argument, etc: a detail, fact or particular used or mentioned. 12 aim or intention □ What is the point of this procedure? 13 use or value □ There's no point in trying to change her mind. 14 the significance (of a remark, story, joke, etc). 15 a unit or mark in scoring. 16 any of the 32 directions marked on, or indicated by, a compass. 17 (often points) an adjustable tapering rail by means of which a train changes lines. 18 elec a socket or POWER POINT. 19 (usually points) in an internal combustion engine: either of the two electrical contacts which complete the circuit in the distributor. 20 printing a unit of type measurement, equal to $\frac{1}{12}$ of a PICA[1]. Often in compounds □ set in eight-point. 21 cricket an off-side fielding position at right angles to the batsman. 22 (usually points) ballet a the tip of the toe; b a block inserted into the toe of a ballet shoe. 23 a headland or promontory. Often in place names □ Lizard Point. 24 (usually points) any of an animal's extremities, eg ears, tail and feet. 25 the tip of a deer's horn or antler. ⊳ verb (pointed, pointing) 1 to aim something □ The hitman pointed a gun at her. 2 tr & intr a to extend (one's finger or a pointed object) towards someone or something, so as to direct attention there; b said of a sign, etc: to indicate (a certain direction) □ a weather vane pointing south. 3 intr to extend or face in a certain direction □ He lay on the floor with his toes pointing upward. 4 intr said of a gun dog: to stand with the nose turned to where the dead game lies. 5 often facetious to direct someone □ Just point me to the grub. 6 (usually point to something or someone) to indicate or suggest it or them □ It points to one solution. 7 in dancing, etc: to extend (the toes) to form a point. 8 to fill gaps or cracks in (stonework or brickwork) with cement or mortar. • beside the point irrelevant. Compare to the point below. • carry or gain one's point to persuade others of the validity of one's opinion. • come or get to the point to cut out the irrelevancies and say what one wants to say □ thought he would never get to the point. • in point of fact actually; in truth. • make a point of doing something to be sure of doing it or take care to do it. • make one's point to state one's opinion forcefully. • on the point of doing something about to do it. • score points off someone to argue cleverly and successfully against them, usually on trivial or detailed grounds. • to the point relevant. Compare beside the point above. • to the point of ... to a degree that could be fairly described as ... □ Ronald is brave to the point of recklessness. • up to a point to a limited degree □ I agree with you up to a point. ⓒ 13c: French, from Latin punctum a dot, from pungere to pierce.

■ point something out to indicate or draw attention to it.

■ point something up to highlight or emphasize it.

point-blank ▷ adj 1 said of a shot: fired at very close range. 2 said of a question, refusal, etc: bluntly worded and direct. ▷ adverb 1 at close range. 2 in a blunt, direct manner □ She refused point-blank. ⓒ 16c.

point duty ▷ noun the task or station of a police officer or traffic warden who is directing traffic.

pointed ▷ adj 1 having or ending in a point. 2 said of a remark, etc: intended for, though not directly addressed to, a particular person; intended to convey a particular meaning or message although not directly expressing it. 3 keen or incisive. • pointedly adverb. • pointedness noun.

pointer ▷ noun 1 a rod used by a speaker for indicating positions on a wall map, chart, etc. 2 the indicating finger or needle on a measuring instrument. 3 colloq a suggestion or hint. 4 a gun dog trained to point its muzzle in the direction where the dead game lies.

pointillism /ˈpwantɪlɪzəm, ˈpwan-/ ▷ noun, art a method of painting by which shapes and colour tones are suggested by means of small dabs of pure colour painted side by side. Also called Divisionism. • pointillist noun, adj. ⓒ Early 20c: from French pointillisme, from pointiller stippled.

pointing ▷ noun the cement or mortar filling the gaps between the bricks or stones of a wall. See POINT verb 8.

pointless ▷ adj 1 without a point. 2 lacking purpose or meaning. • pointlessly adverb.

point of honour ▷ noun (points of honour) 1 any scruple caused by a sense of duty, honour, self-respect, etc. 2 the obligation to demand and receive satisfaction for an insult, especially by duelling.

point of no return ▷ noun (points of no return) a stage reached in a process, etc after which there is no possibility of stopping or going back.

point of order ▷ noun (points of order) a question raised in an assembly, meeting, etc as to whether the business is being done according to the rules.

point of sale ▷ noun (abbreviation POS) (points of sale) 1 the place in a shop, etc where goods are paid for; a pay desk or checkout. 2 (point-of-sale) as adj made or installed at the point of sale □ point-of-sale staff. See also ELECTRONIC POINT OF SALE.

point of view ▷ noun (points of view) 1 one's own particular way of looking at or attitude towards something, influenced by personal considerations and experience. 2 the physical position from which one looks at something.

point-to-point ▷ noun (point-to-points) a horse race across open country, from landmark to landmark.

poise[1] /pɔɪz/ ▷ noun 1 self-confidence, calm or composure. 2 grace of posture or carriage. 3 a state of equilibrium, balance or stability, eg between extremes. ▷ verb (poised, poising) 1 tr & intr, often in passive to balance or suspend. 2 in passive to be in a state of readiness □ She was poised to take over as leader. ⓒ 16c in noun sense 3; 14c in obsolete sense 'to weigh': from French pois, from Latin pensum, from pendere to weigh.

poise[2] /pwɑːz, pɔɪz/ ▷ noun (poises or poise) physics in the cgs system of units: a unit of viscosity, equal to 10^{-1} newtons per second per square metre. ⓒ 20c: named after the French physiologist J L M Poiseuille (1799–1869).

poised ▷ adj 1 said of behaviour, etc: calm and dignified. 2 ready for action.

poison /ˈpɔɪzən/ ▷ noun 1 any substance that damages tissues or causes death when injected, absorbed or swallowed by living organisms, eg arsenic and cyanide. 2 any destructive or corrupting influence □ a poison spreading through society. 3 chem a substance that inhibits the action of a catalyst. 4 in a nuclear reactor: a substance which absorbs neutrons and so slows down the reaction. ▷ verb (poisoned, poisoning) 1 to harm or kill with poison. 2 to put poison into (food, etc). 3 to contaminate or pollute □ rivers poisoned by effluents. 4 to corrupt or pervert (someone's mind). 5 (especially poison one person against another) to influence them to be hostile. 6 to harm or spoil in an unpleasant or malicious way □ Jealousy poisoned their relationship. 7 colloq to infect. 8 to inhibit or stop (a chemical or nuclear reaction) by the addition of a poison. • poisoner noun. • what's your poison? colloq what would you like to drink? ⓒ 13c: from French puison, from Latin potio a poisonous draft, from potare to drink.

poison gas ▷ noun any of several toxic gases, used in chemical warfare, that cause injury or death through contact or inhalation.

poison ivy ▷ noun any of various N American woody vines and shrubs, all parts of which produce a toxic chemical that causes an itching rash on contact with human skin.

poisonous /ˈpɔɪzənəs/ ▷ adj 1 liable to cause injury or death if swallowed, inhaled or absorbed by the skin. 2 containing or capable of injecting a poison □ poisonous snakes. 3 colloq said of a person, remark, etc: malicious. See also VENOMOUS. • poisonously adverb. • poisonousness noun.

poison-pen letter ▷ noun a malicious anonymous letter.

poison pill ▷ noun, colloq, business 1 any of various actions, such as merger, takeover or recapitalization, taken by a company to prevent or deter a threatened takeover bid. 2 a clause or clauses in a registered company's regulations which can be put into effect by an unwanted takeover, making such a takeover less attractive. ⓒ 1980s; 1930s in literal sense.

Poisson distribution /ˈpwɑːsɒn —, pwasɔ̃ —/ ▷ noun, statistics a distribution that, as a limiting form of BINOMIAL distribution, is characterized by a small probability of a specific event occurring during observations over a continuous interval (eg of time or distance). ⓒ 1920s: named after S D Poisson (1781–1840), French mathematician.

poke[1] ▷ verb (poked, poking) 1 (often poke at something) to thrust □ Kevin poked at the hole with a stick. 2 to prod or jab □ Roy poked her in the ribs with his elbow. 3 to make (a hole) by prodding. 4 tr & intr to project or make something project □ Bob poked his head round the door □ Her big toe poked through a hole in her sock. 5 to make (a fire) burn more brightly by stirring it with a poker. 6 intr (especially poke about or around) to search; to pry or snoop. 7 slang said of a man: to have sexual intercourse with (a woman). ▷ noun a jab or prod. 2 slang an act of sexual intercourse. • poke fun at someone to tease or laugh at them unkindly. • poke one's nose into something colloq to pry into or interfere in it. ⓒ 14c: Germanic origin.

poke[2] ▷ noun, Scot a paper bag. See also A PIG IN A POKE under PIG. ⓒ 13c: from French poque; see POCKET.

poker[1] /ˈpoʊkə(r)/ ▷ noun a metal rod for stirring a fire to make it burn better.

poker[2] /ˈpoʊkə(r)/ ▷ noun a card game in which players bet on the hands they hold, relying on bluff to outwit their opponents. The player who holds the highest ranking hand recognized in the game wins the pool (see POOL[2] noun 2). ⓒ 19c.

poker face ▷ noun a blank expressionless face that shows no emotion. • poker-faced adj. ⓘ 19c: from the practice of experienced poker players who tried to reveal nothing about the value of their cards by keeping their expression inscrutable.

pokeweed, pokeberry and pokeroot ▷ noun, bot a tall hardy American plant with pale yellow flowers and purple berries, used medicinally in a test for allergy. ⓘ 18c, originally as poke: from Algonquian puccoon.

poky /ˈpoʊkɪ/ ▷ adj (pokier, pokiest) 1 colloq said of a room, house, etc: small and confined or cramped. 2 US slow; dull. • pokiness noun. ⓘ 19c: from POKE[1].

polar /ˈpoʊlə(r)/ ▷ adj 1 belonging or relating to the North or South Pole, or the regions round them. 2 relating to or having electric or magnetic poles. 3 having polarity. 4 as different as possible □ polar opposites. ⓘ 16c: from Latin polaris from polus pole.

polar bear ▷ noun a large bear, found only in the Arctic region, which has thick creamy-white fur, a relatively small pointed head and long neck.

polar coordinates ▷ plural noun, math coordinates (see CO-ORDINATE) which define a point by means of a RADIUS VECTOR and the angle which it makes with a fixed line through the origin.

polarimetry /poʊləˈrɪmətrɪ/ ▷ noun, physics the measurement of the OPTICAL ACTIVITY of any of various chemical compounds, used to identify and measure concentrations of transparent solutions such as sugar solutions.

Polaris /poʊˈlɑːrɪs/ ▷ noun 1 the POLE STAR. 2 (in full Polaris missile) a first-generation US submarine-launched BALLISTIC MISSILE. See also TRIDENT. ⓘ 19c: from Latin polaris polar, from Greek polos pivot or axis or firmament.

polarity /poʊˈlarɪtɪ/ ▷ noun (polarities) 1 the state of having two opposite poles □ magnetic polarity. 2 the condition of having two properties that are opposite. 3 the tendency to develop differently in different directions along an axis. 4 physics the status, whether positive or negative, of the poles of a magnet, the terminals of an electrode, etc □ negative polarity. 5 the tendency to develop, or be drawn, in opposite directions; oppositeness or an opposite □ the political polarities of left and right.

polarization or polarisation /poʊləraɪˈzeɪʃən/ ▷ noun 1 chem the separation of the positive and negative charges of an atom or molecule, especially by an electric field. 2 physics the process whereby waves of electromagnetic radiation, eg light, are restricted to vibration in one direction only.

polarize or polarise /ˈpoʊləraɪz/ ▷ verb (polarized, polarizing) 1 to give magnetic or electrical polarity to something. 2 physics to restrict the vibrations of (electromagnetic waves, eg light) to one direction only by the process of polarization. 3 tr & intr said of people or opinions: to split according to opposing views.

polarizing filter ▷ noun, photog a filter which allows the passage of light polarized in one direction only, used for the control of surface reflections, eg from water, and to darken blue skies.

Polaroid /ˈpoʊlərɔɪd/ ▷ noun, trademark a plastic material that polarizes light, used in sunglasses, etc to reduce glare. ⓘ 1936.

Polaroid camera ▷ noun a camera with a special film containing a pod of developing agents which bursts when the film is ejected, producing a finished print within seconds of exposure to daylight.

polder /ˈpoʊldə(r)/ ▷ noun an area of low-lying land which has been reclaimed from the sea, a river or lake, especially in the Netherlands. ⓘ 17c: from Dutch polre.

Pole ▷ noun a citizen or inhabitant of, or person born in, Poland. See also POLISH.

pole[1] ▷ noun 1 either of two points representing the north and south ends of the axis about which the Earth rotates, known as the NORTH POLE and SOUTH POLE respectively. 2 astron either of two corresponding points on the celestial sphere, towards which the north and south ends of the Earth's axis point, and about which the stars appear to rotate daily. 3 a MAGNETIC POLE. 4 either of the two terminals of a battery. 5 either of two opposite positions in an argument, opinion, etc. • poles apart colloq widely different; as far apart as it is possible to be. ⓘ 14c: from Latin polus, from Greek polos axis or pivot.

pole[2] ▷ noun 1 a rod, especially one that is cylindrical in section and fixed in the ground as a support. 2 historical an old measure of length equal to 5½yd (5.03m). Also called perch or rod.

poleaxe ▷ noun 1 a short-handled axe with a spike or hammer opposite the blade, used, especially formerly, for slaughtering cattle. 2 historical a long-handled battleaxe. ▷ verb (poleaxed, poleaxing) to strike, fell or floor (an animal or person) with, or as if with, a poleaxe. ⓘ 14c as pollax, from POLL noun 4 + AXE.

polecat /ˈpoʊlkat/ ▷ noun 1 a mammal resembling a large weasel, with coarse dark-brown fur, creamy yellow underfur and white patches on its face, that produces a foul-smelling discharge when alarmed or when marking territory. 2 N Amer, especially US a skunk. ⓘ 14c.

polemic /pəˈlɛmɪk/ ▷ noun 1 a controversial speech or piece of writing that fiercely attacks or defends an idea, opinion, etc. 2 writing or oratory of this sort. 3 someone who argues in this way. ▷ adj (also polemical) relating to or involving polemics or controversy. • polemically adverb. • polemicist /pəˈlɛmɪsɪst/ noun. ⓘ 17c: from Greek polemikos relating to war, from polemos war.

polemics ▷ singular noun the art of verbal dispute and debate.

polenta /pəˈlɛntə/ ▷ noun (polentas) an Italian dish of cooked ground maize. ⓘ 16c; 11c in obsolete sense 'pearl-barley': Latin, meaning 'hulled and crushed grain'.

pole position ▷ noun 1 motor sport the position at the inside of the front row of cars at the start of a race. 2 an advantageous position at the start of any contest.

Pole Star ▷ noun 1 astron the brightest star in the constellation URSA MINOR, formerly much used in navigation. Also called Polaris. 2 (pole star) literary a guide or director.

pole vault ▷ noun, athletics a field event in which athletes attempt to jump over a high horizontal bar with the help of a long flexible pole to haul themselves into the air. ▷ verb (pole-vault) intr to perform a pole vault or take part in a pole vault competition. • pole vaulter noun.

police /pəˈliːs/ ▷ plural noun 1 the body of men and women employed by the government of a country to keep order, enforce the law, prevent crime, etc. 2 members of this body □ Over 200 police were on duty at the demonstration. ▷ verb (policed, policing) 1 to keep law and order in (an area) using the police, army, etc. 2 to supervise (an operation, etc) to ensure that it is fairly or properly run. ⓘ 18c; 16c in obsolete sense 'civilization': French, from Latin politia, from Greek politeia political constitution.

police constable (abbreviation PC) ▷ noun a police officer of the lowest rank.

police dog ▷ noun a dog trained to work with police officers.

policeman and policewoman ▷ noun a male or female member of a police force.

police officer ▷ noun a member of a police force.

police state ▷ noun a state with a repressive government that operates through SECRET POLICE to eliminate opposition to it.

police station ▷ noun the office or headquarters of a local police force. See also NICK noun 2.

policy¹ /ˈpɒlɪsɪ/ ▷ noun (policies) 1 a plan of action, usually based on certain principles, decided on by a body or individual. 2 a principle or set of principles on which to base decisions □ It is not our policy to charge for service. 3 a course of conduct to be followed □ Your best policy is to keep quiet and let us do the talking. 4 prudence; acumen; wisdom. 5 (usually policies) Scot the surrounding grounds of a mansion □ walk round the policies. ⓘ 16c in sense 4; 14c in obsolete sense 'governmental administration': from French police, from Latin politia: see POLICE.

policy² /ˈpɒlɪsɪ/ ▷ noun (policies) 1 an insurance agreement. 2 the document confirming such an agreement. • policy-holder noun. ⓘ 16c: from French police, from Latin apodixis, from Greek apodeixis proof.

policy unit ▷ noun, politics a group of officials in a government department or other public agency, whose role is to supply information, advice and analysis to policy-makers.

polio ▷ noun short form of POLIOMYELITIS.

poliomyelitis /poulioumaɪəˈlaɪtɪs/ ▷ noun, pathol a viral disease of the brain and spinal cord, which in some cases can result in permanent paralysis. ⓘ 19c: from Greek polios grey + myelos marrow + -ITIS.

Polish /ˈpoulɪʃ/ ▷ adj belonging or relating to Poland, a republic in Central Europe, its inhabitants, or their language. ▷ noun the official language of Poland. See also POLE. ⓘ 17c.

polish /ˈpɒlɪʃ/ ▷ verb (polishes, polished, polishing) 1 tr & intr to make or become smooth and glossy by rubbing □ polishing my shoes. 2 to improve or perfect □ She tried to polish her communication skills before the interview. 3 tr & intr to make cultivated, refined or elegant □ Henrietta polished her vowels before the speech day. ▷ noun (polishes) 1 a substance used for polishing surfaces. Also in compounds □ boot polish. 2 a smooth shiny finish; a gloss □ Look at the polish on the sideboard! 3 an act of polishing. 4 refinement or elegance. • polisher a person, device or machine that polishes. ⓘ 13c: from French polir, from Latin polire.

▪ polish off something or polish something off to finish it quickly and completely, especially speedily □ Iain polished off the sausage rolls without any trouble □ Matt polished his essay off, before playing frisbee.

▪ polish up something or polish something up 1 to work up a shine on it by polishing. 2 to improve a skill by practising it □ Joe polished up his guitar-playing before the audition.

politburo or Politburo /ˈpɒlɪtbjʊərou/ ▷ noun (politburos) the supreme policy-making committee of a Communist state or party, especially that of the former Soviet Union. ⓘ 1920s: from Russian politbyuro, from politicheskoe political + byuro bureau.

polite /pəˈlaɪt/ ▷ adj (politer, politest) 1 said of a person or their actions, etc: well-mannered; considerate towards others; courteous. 2 well-bred, cultivated or refined □ One does not pick one's nose in polite society. • politely adverb. • politeness noun. ⓘ 15c in sense 2; 15c in obsolete sense 'burnished': from Latin politus, from polire to polish.

politic /ˈpɒlɪtɪk/ ▷ adj 1 said of a course of action: prudent; wise; shrewd. 2 said of a person: cunning; crafty. 3 old use political. See also BODY POLITIC. ▷ verb (also politick) (politicked, politicking) intr, derog to indulge in politics, especially to strike political bargains or to gain votes for oneself. ⓘ 15c: from French politique, from Latin politicus, from Greek politikos civic, from polites citizen, from polis city.

political /pəˈlɪtɪkəl/ ▷ adj 1 relating or belonging to government or public affairs. 2 relating to POLITICS. 3 interested or involved in POLITICS. 4 said of a course of action: made in the interests of gaining or keeping power. 5 said of a map: showing political and social structure rather than physical features. • politically adverb. ⓘ 16c.

political asylum ▷ noun protection given by a country to refugees fleeing a foreign country for political reasons.

political correctness ▷ noun (abbreviation PC) the avoidance of expressions or actions that may be understood to exclude or denigrate certain people or groups of people on the grounds of race, gender, disability, sexual orientation, etc.

> political correctness
>
> Rightly or wrongly, many expressions that were generally considered inoffensive in the past are now deemed unacceptable by many people.
>
> 1. sexism
>
> • Words ending in -ess should be used with caution. Many such as authoress and manageress, are no longer used; a few such as Jewess and Negress, are considered offensive.
>
> • Avoid using man and men to refer to both men and women. Instead, use people, humans or human beings. Compounds which include 'man' should be replaced by sex-neutral terms: synthetic instead of man-made, working hours instead of manhours, representative instead of spokesman.
>
> • It is rarely necessary to specify a person's sex when referring to the job they do. Avoid terms such as lady doctor, woman judge and female reporter. Equally, terms such as male nurse should be avoided.
>
> 2. physical and mental capability
>
> • Avoid the terms handicap and handicapped, their association with the image of disabled people going 'cap in hand' onto the streets of Victorian Britain makes them nowadays unacceptable to people with disabilities.
>
> • The term disabled, and terms such as blind and deaf, are all perfectly acceptable, but avoid referring to disabled people as the disabled or the blind. For disabled people, such terms connect too closely with the idea of charity. Instead use 'people with a disability', etc.
>
> • Although the word challenged is common in North America, in compounds that refer to particular disabilities (such as visually challenged to mean blind or partially sighted), it tends to be avoided in the UK, where it has become the supreme satirical tool of those who lampoon the whole concept of political correctness.

political prisoner ▷ noun someone imprisoned for their political beliefs, activities, etc, usually because they differ from those of the government.

political science ▷ noun the study of politics and government, in terms of its principles, aims, methods, etc.

politician /pɒlɪˈtɪʃən/ ▷ noun 1 someone engaged in POLITICS, especially as a member of parliament. 2 derog, chiefly US someone who enters politics for personal power and gain. ⓘ 16c: see POLITIC.

politicize or politicise /pəˈlɪtɪsaɪz/ ▷ verb (politicized, politicizing) 1 intr to take part in political activities or discussion. 2 to give a political nature to something. 3 to make someone aware of or informed about politics. • politicization /pəlɪtɪsaɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun.

politico /pəˈlɪtɪkou/ ▷ noun (politicos or politicoes) colloq, usually derog a politician or someone who is keen on politics. ⓘ 17c: Italian or Spanish.

politico- ▷ combining form, forming adjectives, denoting political or politics □ politico-philosophical writings.

politics /ˈpɒlɪtɪks/ ▷ singular noun 1 the science or business of government. 2 POLITICAL SCIENCE. 3 a political life as a career □ entered politics in 1961. ▷ singular or plural noun political activities, wrangling, etc. ▷ plural noun 1 moves and manoeuvres concerned with the acquisition of power or getting one's way, eg in business. Also in compounds □ office politics. 2 one's political sympathies or principles □ What are your politics? ◷ 18c in sense 1.

polity /ˈpɒlɪtɪ/ ▷ noun (polities) 1 a politically organized body such as a state, church or association. 2 any form of political institution or government. ◷ 16c: from Latin politia; see POLICE.

polka /ˈpɒlkə, ˈpoʊlkə/ ▷ noun (polkas) 1 a lively Bohemian dance usually performed with a partner, which has a pattern of three steps followed by a hop. 2 a piece of music for this dance. ▷ verb (polkaed, polkaing) intr to dance a polka. ◷ 19c: Czech, perhaps from Polka, feminine of Polák a Pole.

polka dot ▷ noun any one of numerous regularly-spaced dots forming a pattern on fabric, etc. Also as adj □ a polka-dot bikini. ◷ 19c.

poll /poʊl/ ▷ noun 1 (polls) a political election □ another Tory disaster at the polls. 2 the voting or votes cast at an election □ a heavy poll. 3 (also opinion poll) a survey of public opinion carried out by directly questioning a representative sample of the populace. 4 old use the head. ▷ verb (polled, polling) 1 to win (a number of votes) in an election □ He polled three votes at the by-election and lost his deposit. 2 to register the votes of (a population). 3 tr & intr to cast (one's vote). 4 to conduct an opinion poll among (people, a specified group, etc) □ We polled 300 voters to find out their favourite coffee. 5 to cut off the horns of (cattle). 6 to cut the top off (a tree). ◷ 13c as polle, meaning 'the hair of the head'.

pollack or pollock /ˈpɒlək/ ▷ noun (pollack or pollacks, pollock or pollocks) 1 a marine fish belonging to the cod family, with a greenish-brown back, pale-yellow sides, a white belly and a projecting lower jaw. 2 N Amer COALFISH. ◷ 17c.

pollan /ˈpɒlən/ ▷ noun (pollan or pollans) a type of whitefish found in the lakes of N Ireland. ◷ 18c.

pollard /ˈpɒləd/ ▷ noun 1 a tree whose branches have been cut back, in order to produce a crown of shoots at the top of the trunk, so as to be out of reach of grazing animals, or for periodic harvesting for firewood or fencing, etc. 2 an animal whose horns have been removed. ▷ verb (pollarded, pollarding) to make a pollard of (a tree or animal). ◷ 16c: from POLL verb 5, 6.

pollen /ˈpɒlən/ ▷ noun the fine, usually yellow, dust-like powder produced by the ANTHERS of flowering plants, and by the male cones of cone-bearing plants. See also POLLINATION. ◷ 18c; 16c in obsolete sense 'fine dust': Latin, meaning 'fine dust'.

pollen count ▷ noun an estimate of the amount of pollen in the atmosphere at any particular time, published for the benefit of those who have a pollen allergy □ Today's pollen count is low.

pollen sac ▷ noun, bot in flowering plants: one of the four cavities in the ANTHER of a STAMEN, in which the pollen is produced and stored.

pollen tube ▷ noun, bot a slender tube that develops from the wall of a pollen grain after pollination, and which in flowering plants grows down through the STIGMA and STYLE and into the OVULE where fertilization takes place.

pollex /ˈpɒlɛks/ ▷ noun (pollices /-lɪsiːz/) zool, anatomy the first digit on the forelimb of mammals, reptiles, amphibians and birds, eg the thumb in humans. ◷ 19c: Latin, meaning 'big toe' or 'thumb'.

pollinate /ˈpɒlɪneɪt/ ▷ verb (pollinated, pollinating) bot in flowering and cone-bearing plants: to transfer pollen by the process of POLLINATION in order to achieve fertilization and subsequent development of seed. ◷ 19c.

pollination /pɒlɪˈneɪʃən/ ▷ noun, bot 1 in flowering plants: the transfer of pollen from the ANTHER to the STIGMA. 2 in cone-bearing plants: the transfer of pollen from the male cone to the female cone.

polling-booth /ˈpoʊlɪŋ —/ ▷ noun an enclosed compartment at a polling-station in which a voter can mark their ballot paper in private.

polling-station /ˈpoʊlɪŋ —/ ▷ noun the building where voters go to cast their votes during an election.

pollock see POLLACK

pollster /ˈpoʊlstə(r)/ ▷ noun someone who organizes and carries out opinion polls.

poll tax ▷ noun 1 historical a fixed tax levied on each adult member of a population. 2 formerly, informal the COMMUNITY CHARGE. See also COUNCIL TAX.

pollutant ▷ noun any substance or agent that pollutes. ▷ adj polluting □ pollutant emissions.

pollute /pəˈluːt, pəˈljuːt/ ▷ verb (polluted, polluting) 1 to contaminate something with harmful substances or impurities; to cause pollution in something. 2 to corrupt (someone's mind, etc). 3 to defile. ◷ 14c: from Latin polluere to soil or defile.

pollution ▷ noun the adverse effect on the natural environment, including human, animal or plant life, of a harmful substance that does not occur naturally, eg industrial and radioactive waste, or the concentration to harmful levels of a naturally occurring substance, eg nitrates. See also AIR POLLUTION, WATER POLLUTION.

pollyanna /pɒlɪˈanə/ ▷ noun someone who is unfailingly optimistic, often in a naive way. Also as adj. ◷ 1920s: named after Pollyanna, a character in a novel of the same name by Eleanor Porter.

polo /ˈpoʊloʊ/ ▷ noun a game, similar to hockey, played on horseback by two teams of four players, using long-handled mallets to propel the ball along the ground. See also WATER POLO. ◷ 19c: Balti (a Tibetan dialect), meaning 'ball'.

polonaise /pɒləˈneɪz/ ▷ noun 1 a stately Polish marching dance. 2 a piece of music for this dance. 3 an item of clothing consisting of a one-piece bodice and skirt, which reveals a decorative underskirt. ◷ 18c: French, feminine of polonais Polish.

polo neck ▷ noun 1 a high close-fitting neckband on a sweater or shirt, which is doubled over. 2 a sweater or shirt with such a neck. 3 Also as adj □ polo-neck jumper.

polonium /pəˈloʊnɪəm/ ▷ noun, chem (abbreviation Po, atomic number 84) a rare radioactive metallic element that emits ALPHA PARTICLES and is used in portable radiation sources, as an energy source in satellites and for dissipating static electricity. ◷ 19c: Latin, from Polonia Poland, the native country of Marie Curie who discovered it.

polony /pəˈloʊnɪ/ ▷ noun (polonies) a dry sausage made of partly cooked meat. ◷ 18c: probably from Bologna a city in Italy.

polo shirt ▷ noun 1 a short-sleeved open-necked casual shirt with a collar, especially one made of a knitted cotton fabric. 2 sometimes a long-sleeved shirt of a similar style.

poltergeist /ˈpoʊltəgaɪst/ ▷ noun a type of mischievous ghost supposedly responsible for otherwise unaccountable noises and the movement of furniture and other objects. ◷ 19c: German, from poltern to make a noise + Geist ghost.

poltroon /pɒlˈtruːn/ ▷ noun, literary or old use a despicable coward. ◷ 16c: French, from Italian poltrone lazybones.

poly /ˈpɒlɪ/ ▷ noun (polys) ▷ noun, informal a polytechnic.

poly- /pɒlɪ ˈpɒlɪ/ ▷ combining form, denoting 1 many or much; several ▫ polytechnic. 2 chem a POLYMER ▫ polyvinyl. ⓘ Greek, from polys many or much.

polyamide ▷ noun, chem a POLYMER formed by the linking of the AMINO GROUP of one molecule with the CARBOXYL GROUP of the next, eg nylon. ⓘ 1920s.

polyandrous /pɒlɪˈandrəs/ ▷ adj 1 social having more than one husband at the same time. 2 bot said of a flower: having many STAMENS. Compare MONANDROUS. ⓘ 19c: from Greek aner, andros man or husband.

polyandry /ˈpɒlɪandrɪ, pɒlɪˈandrɪ/ ▷ noun 1 anthropol, etc the custom or practice of having more than one husband at the same time. 2 zool the practice of a female animal having more than one mate in the same season. Compare POLYGYNY. ⓘ 18c: from Greek aner, andros man or husband.

polyanthus /pɒlɪˈanθəs/ ▷ noun (polyanthuses or polyanthi /-θaɪ/) any of various hybrid varieties of primrose which have several large brightly-coloured flowers borne on a single stalk, widely cultivated as ornamental garden plants. ⓘ 18c: Latin, from Greek anthos flower.

polyarchy /ˈpɒlɪɑːkɪ/ ▷ noun (polyarchies) politics government of a state by many. Compare MONARCHY. ⓘ 17c: from Greek polyarchia rule by many.

polyatomic ▷ adj, chem said of a molecule: containing more than two atoms. ⓘ 19c.

polybasic ▷ adj, chem said of an acid: having several hydrogen atoms replaceable by a BASE (noun 6). ⓘ 19c.

polycarbonate ▷ noun, chem a strong rigid thermoplastic resin, used to make safety helmets, protective windows, soft-drink bottles, electrical terminals, etc. ⓘ 1930s in this sense.

polycarpic /pɒlɪˈkɑːpɪk/ or polycarpous /-pəs/ ▷ adj, bot said of a plant: able to produce fruit many times in succession. ⓘ 19c: from Greek polykarpos, from karpos fruit.

polycentrism ▷ noun, politics the condition of having, or the tendency to have, many ideological or political centres. ⓘ 1960s.

polychromatic ▷ adj 1 POLYCHROME. 2 said of electromagnetic radiation: composed of a number of different wavelengths. ⓘ 19c.

polychrome /ˈpɒlɪkroʊm/ ▷ adj (also polychromatic) multicoloured. Compare MONOCHROME. ▷ noun 1 varied colouring. 2 a work of art, especially a statue, in several colours. ⓘ 19c: from Greek polychromos, from CHROMA colour.

polychromy ▷ noun 1 art the practice of colouring sculpture, especially common in ancient Egypt and Greece and in medieval times. 2 archit the use of coloured marbles, bricks, flint, stone, etc on buildings for decorative effect. ⓘ 19c.

polyclinic ▷ noun a clinic or hospital which can treat many different diseases. ⓘ 19c.

polycotyledon ▷ noun, bot any plant which has more than two COTYLEDONS. ● polycotyledonous adj. ⓘ 19c.

polydactyl ▷ adj (also polydactylous) said of man and other vertebrates: having more than the normal number of fingers and toes. ▷ noun a human or other animal of this sort. ⓘ 19c.

polyester /pɒlɪˈɛstə(r)/ ▷ noun a synthetic resin used to form strong durable crease-resistant artificial fibres, such as Terylene, widely used in textiles for clothing, etc. ⓘ 20c.

polyethylene see under POLYTHENE polygamy /pəˈlɪgəmɪ/ ▷ noun the custom or practice of having more than one husband or wife at the same time. ● polygamist noun. ● polygamous adj. ● polygamously adverb. Compare MONOGAMY. ⓘ 16c: from Greek polygamia, from gamos marriage.

polygene ▷ noun, genetics any of a group of GENES that control quantitative characteristics, eg height, with their individual effects being too small to be noticed. ⓘ 1940s.

polyglot /ˈpɒlɪglɒt/ ▷ adj speaking, using or written in many languages. ▷ noun 1 someone who speaks many languages. 2 a collection of versions of the same work, especially a Bible, in different languages. ● polyglottal adj. ⓘ 17c: from Greek polyglottos, from glotta tongue or language.

polygon /ˈpɒlɪgɒn/ ▷ noun, geom a plane figure (see PLANE[2] adj 3) with a number of straight sides, usually more than three, eg a PENTAGON or a HEXAGON. ● polygonal /pəˈlɪgənəl/ adj 1 referring or relating to a polygon. 2 having the form of a polygon; many-sided. ⓘ 16c: from Greek polygonon, from gonia angle.

polygraph ▷ noun 1 medicine a device, sometimes used as a lie-detector, that monitors several body functions simultaneously, eg pulse, blood pressure and conductivity of the skin. 2 a device for producing identical copies of something. ⓘ 18c.

polygyny /pəˈlɪdʒɪnɪ/ ▷ noun 1 anthropol, etc the condition or custom of having more than one wife at the same time. 2 zool the practice of a male animal having more than one mate in the same season. Compare POLYANDRY. ⓘ 18c: from Greek gyne woman or wife.

polyhedron /pɒlɪˈhiːdrən/ ▷ noun (polyhedrons or polyhedra /-drə/) geom a solid figure with four or more faces, all of which are polygons, eg a TETRAHEDRON. ● polyhedral adj 1 referring or relating to a polyhedron. 2 having the form of a polyhedron; many-sided. ⓘ 16c: Greek, from hedra seat, base or face.

polymath /ˈpɒlɪmaθ/ ▷ noun someone who is well educated in a wide variety of subjects. ● polymathic adj. ● polymathy /pəˈlɪməθɪ/ noun. ⓘ 17c: from Greek polymathes, from manthanein to learn.

polymer /ˈpɒlɪmə(r)/ ▷ noun, chem a very large molecule consisting of a long chain of MONOMERS linked end to end to form a series of repeating units. ● polymeric /-ˈmɛrɪk/ adj. ⓘ 19c: from Greek polymeres having many parts, from meros part.

polymerization or polymerisation ▷ noun, chem a chemical reaction in which two or more MONOMERS are joined together in a chain to form a POLYMER.

polymerize or polymerise /ˈpɒlɪməraɪz/ ▷ verb (polymerized, polymerizing) tr & intr, chem to undergo or cause something to undergo polymerization. ⓘ 19c.

polymethylmethacrylate ▷ noun a tough transparent lightweight plastic used to make windshields, visors, domestic baths, advertising signs, etc. Also called PERSPEX and (US) PLEXIGLAS.

polymorphism /pɒlɪˈmɔːfɪzəm/ ▷ noun 1 biol the occurrence of a living organism in two or more different structural forms at different stages of its life cycle. 2 genetics the occurrence of several genetically determined and distinct forms within a single population, eg the different blood groups in humans. 3 chem the occurrence of a chemical substance in two or more different crystalline forms, eg diamond and graphite. Also called ALLOTROPY. ● polymorphic or polymorphous adj. ⓘ 18c as polymorphous, in biological use meaning 'occurring in several different forms'.

Polynesian ▷ adj belonging or relating to Polynesia, a group of Pacific islands, its inhabitants, or their languages. ▷ noun 1 a citizen or inhabitant of, or person born in, Polynesia. 2 the group of languages including Maori, Hawaiian and Samoan. ⓘ 19c: from POLY- + Greek nesos an island; compare MICRONESIA.

polyneuritis ▷ noun, pathol simultaneous inflammation of several nerves. ⓘ 19c.

polynomial /pɒlɪ'noʊmɪəl/ math ▷ adj said of an expression: consisting of a sum of terms each containing a CONSTANT and one or more VARIABLEs raised to a power. ▷ noun an expression of this sort. ⓘ 17c as noun; modelled on BINOMIAL.

polynucleotide ▷ noun, chem a compound made up of a number of NUCLEOTIDEs. ⓘ Early 20c.

polyp /'pɒlɪp/ ▷ noun 1 zool a sessile COELENTERATE with a more or less cylindrical body and a mouth surrounded by tentacles. 2 pathol a small abnormal but usually benign growth projecting from a mucous membrane, especially inside the nose. • polypous adj. ⓘ 16c: from Latin polypus, from Greek polypous, from pous foot.

polypeptide ▷ noun, chem a PEPTIDE in which many amino acids are linked to form a chain. ⓘ Early 20c.

polyphagia /pɒlɪ'feɪdʒɪə/ ▷ noun 1 pathol an abnormal desire to eat to excess. 2 zool the habit of animals, especially insects, of eating many different kinds of food. ⓘ 17c: from Greek polyphagos eating much.

polyphone ▷ noun a letter which can be pronounced or sounded in more than one way, eg the letter g in English. ⓘ 19c in this sense.

polyphonic /pɒlɪ'fɒnɪk/ ▷ adj 1 having many voices. 2 relating to polyphony. 3 denoting a polyphone.

polyphony /pə'lɪfənɪ/ ▷ noun (polyphonies) 1 a style of musical composition in which each part or voice has an independent melodic value. 2 the use of polyphones. ⓘ 19c: from Greek polyphonia diversity of sounds, from phone a voice or sound.

polyploid /'pɒlɪplɔɪd/ genetics ▷ adj having more than twice the HAPLOID number of chromosomes. ▷ noun a polyploid organism. ⓘ 1920s.

polyploidy ▷ noun, genetics the condition in which three or more sets of chromosomes are present within a cell nucleus, common in many crop plants, including wheat. ⓘ 1920s.

polypous see under POLYP polypropylene /pɒlɪ'proʊpəliːn/ and polypropene /-'proʊpiːn/ ▷ noun, chem a tough white translucent THERMOPLASTIC, formed by the POLYMERIZATION of propene, used to make fibres, film, rope and moulded articles, eg toys. ⓘ 1930s.

polyptych /'pɒlɪptɪk/ ▷ noun an altarpiece consisting of several panels with a separate picture in each, surrounded by an elaborate, usually gilded, frame. See also DIPTYCH, TRIPTYCH. ⓘ 19c: from Greek ptychos a fold.

polysaccharide ▷ noun, biochem a large carbohydrate molecule consisting of many MONOSACCHARIDEs linked together to form long chains, eg starch and cellulose. ⓘ 19c.

polysemy /pə'lɪsəmɪ/ ▷ noun, linguistics the existence of more than one meaning for a single word, such as table. • polysemous adj. ⓘ Early 20c: from Greek (adj) polysemos of many senses, from sema sign.

polysome /'pɒlɪsoʊm/ ▷ noun, biol a form of RNA that is being processed simultaneously by several RIBOSOMEs in the synthesis of proteins. ⓘ 1960s: modelled on RIBOSOME.

polystyrene /pɒlɪ'staɪriːn/ ▷ noun, chem a tough transparent THERMOPLASTIC that is a good thermal and electrical insulator, used in packaging, insulation, ceiling tiles, etc. ⓘ 1920s.

polysyllable ▷ noun a word of three or more syllables. • polysyllabic adj. ⓘ 16c.

polysynthetic language ▷ noun a language type that uses long and complex words made up of many smaller words, parts of words, and inflected forms. ⓘ 19c.

polytechnic /pɒlɪ'tɛknɪk/ ▷ noun, Brit education, formerly a college of higher education providing courses in a large range of subjects, especially of a technical or vocational kind. In 1992 the polytechnics became universities. See also POLY, TECHNICAL COLLEGE, UNIVERSITY. ▷ adj relating to technical training. ⓘ Early 19c as adjective, from Greek polytechnos skilled in many arts, from techne art.

polytetrafluoroethylene /pɒlɪtɛtrəflʊəroʊ'ɛθɪliːn/ ▷ noun (abbreviation PTFE) a tough thermoplastic material, used especially to coat the surface of non-stick cooking utensils. ⓘ 20c.

polytheism /'pɒlɪθiːɪzəm/ ▷ noun belief in or worship of more than one god. • polytheist noun. • polytheistic adj. ⓘ 17c.

polythene /'pɒlɪθiːn/ ▷ noun a waxy translucent easily-moulded THERMOPLASTIC, used in the form of film or sheeting to package food products, clothing, etc, and to make pipes, moulded articles and electrical insulators. Also called polyethylene /-'ɛθɪliːn/.

polyunsaturated ▷ adj, chem said of a compound, especially a fat or oil: containing two or more double bonds per molecule ◻ polyunsaturated margarine. Compare MONOUNSATURATED. ⓘ 1930s.

polyurethane ▷ noun, chem any of various polymers that contain the URETHANE group, and are used in protective coatings, adhesives, paints, varnishes, plastics, rubbers and foams. ⓘ 1940s.

polyvinyl chloride ▷ noun, chem (abbreviation PVC) a tough white THERMOPLASTIC, resistant to fire and chemicals and easily dyed and softened, used in pipes and other moulded products, records (see RECORD noun 4), food packaging, waterproof clothing and electrical insulation.

pom ▷ noun, Austral & NZ derog colloq a short form of POMMY.

pomace /'pʌmɪs/ ▷ noun 1 a crushed apples for cider-making; b the residue of these or of any similar fruit after pressing. 2 anything crushed or ground to a pulp. ⓘ 16c: from Latin pomum fruit or apple.

pomade /pə'mɑːd, -'meɪd/ historical ▷ noun a perfumed ointment for the hair and scalp. ▷ verb (pomaded, pomading) to put pomade on (a person's hair, etc). ⓘ 16c: from French pommade, from Latin pomum apple, a one-time ingredient of this.

pomander /pə'mandə(r), poʊ-/ ▷ noun 1 a perfumed ball composed of various aromatic substances, originally carried as scent or to ward off infection. 2 a perforated container for this. ⓘ 15c: from French pomme d'ambre apple of amber.

pome /poʊm/ ▷ noun, bot a type of fruit in which a fleshy outer layer surrounds a central core that contains a number of seeds, eg the apple and the pear. ⓘ 19c in this sense; 15c, meaning 'apple': from Latin pomum apple.

pomegranate /'pɒmɪgranət/ ▷ noun 1 a small deciduous tree or shrub widely cultivated in warm temperate regions for its edible fruit and its attractive white, orange or red flowers. 2 the round fruit of this plant, which has tough red or brown skin surrounding a mass of seeds, each of which is enclosed by red juicy edible flesh. ⓘ 14c: from French pome grenate, from Latin pomum granatum seedy apple.

pomelo /'pʌməloʊ, 'pɒməloʊ/ ▷ noun (pomelos) 1 a tropical tree, native to SE Asia, cultivated for its edible citrus fruit. 2 the round yellow edible fruit of this tree, resembling a grapefruit. 3 Caribb a GRAPEFRUIT. ⓘ 19c: from Dutch pompelmoes shaddock or grapefruit.

Pomeranian /pɒmə'reɪnɪən/ ▷ noun a breed of small dog with a sharp-pointed muzzle and thick double-layered white, creamy or black coat. ⓘ 19c in this sense; 16c as adjective 'belonging to Pomerania' (a region in N central Poland).

pomfret /ˈpomfrɪt, ˈpʌm-/ and pomfret cake ▷ noun a disc-shaped liquorice sweet. ◷ 19c: from French Pontfret Pontefract, where it was originally made.

pommel /ˈpoməl, ˈpʌməl/ ▷ noun 1 the raised forepart of a saddle. 2 a rounded knob forming the end of a sword hilt. ▷ verb (pommelled, pommelling) to pummel. ◷ 14c: from French pomel knob, from Latin pomum apple.

pommy /ˈpomɪ/ ▷ noun (pommies) Austral & NZ derog colloq a British, or especially English, person. Often shortened to pom. Also as adj □ pommy scumbag. ◷ Early 20c.

pomp ▷ noun 1 ceremonial grandeur. 2 vain ostentation. ◷ 14c: from Latin pompa procession.

pompadour /ˈpompəˈdʊə(r)/ ▷ noun, historical a fashion of dressing women's hair by rolling it back from the forehead over a small cushion or pad, to give extra height. ◷ 18c: named after the Marquise de Pompadour (1721–64), the mistress of Louis XV, who wore her hair in this way.

pompom /ˈpompom/ or pompon ▷ noun 1 a ball made of cut wool or other yarn, used as a trimming on clothes, etc. 2 a a variety of chrysanthemum with small globe-like flowers; b as adj □ pompom dahlia. ◷ 18c: from French pompon.

pom-pom /ˈpompom/ ▷ noun an automatic quick-firing gun, especially a multi-barrelled anti-aircraft gun. ◷ Late 19c: imitating its sound.

pomposity /pomˈposɪtɪ/ ▷ noun (pomposities) a pompous quality or manner.

pompous /ˈpompəs/ ▷ adj 1 solemnly self-important. 2 said of language: inappropriately grand and flowery; pretentious. • pompously adverb. ◷ 14c: from Latin pomposus, from pompa procession.

ponce /pons/ offensive slang ▷ noun 1 a pimp. 2 an effeminate man. ▷ verb (ponced, poncing) intr (usually ponce about or around) 1 to mince about in an effeminate manner. 2 to mess around. ◷ 19c.

poncho /ˈpontʃoʊ/ ▷ noun (ponchos) an outer garment, originally S American, made of a large piece of cloth with a hole in the middle for the head to go through. ◷ 18c: American Spanish.

pond ▷ noun 1 a small area of still fresh water surrounded by land, either lying in a natural depression in the Earth's surface, or artificially constructed, eg in a garden. 2 N Amer slang (usually the Pond) the sea, especially the Atlantic Ocean. ◷ 13c: meaning 'enclosure'.

ponder /ˈpondə(r)/ ▷ verb (pondered, pondering) tr & intr (often ponder on or over something) to consider or contemplate it deeply. ◷ 14c: from French ponderer, from Latin ponderare to weigh, from pondus weight.

ponderous /ˈpondərəs/ ▷ adj 1 said of speech, humour, etc: heavy-handed, laborious, over-solemn or pompous. 2 heavy or cumbersome; lumbering in movement. 3 weighty; important. • ponderously adverb. • ponderousness noun. ◷ 14c: from Latin ponderosus; see PONDER.

pondok /ˈpondok/ or pondokkie /-ˈdokɪ/ ▷ noun, S Afr derog a crude dwelling hut; a shack. ◷ 19c: Malay, meaning 'leaf house'.

pone[1] /poʊn/ ▷ noun, US a kind of maize bread. Also called corn pone. ◷ 17c: Algonquian apones.

pone[2] /poʊn, ˈpoʊnɪ/ ▷ noun, cards the player to the right of the dealer. ◷ 19c: Latin, meaning 'put', from ponere to place.

pong colloq ▷ noun a stink; a bad smell. ▷ verb (ponged, ponging) intr to smell badly. • pongy /ˈpoŋɪ/ adj (pongier, pongiest) stinking; smelly. ◷ Early 20c.

pongee /ponˈdʒiː/ ▷ noun 1 a soft unbleached silk made from the cocoons of a wild silkworm. 2 a fine cotton similar to this. ◷ 19c: from Chinese ben zhi woven at home, from ben own or self + zhi to weave or knit.

pongo /ˈpoŋgoʊ/ ▷ noun (pongos) an anthropoid ape, originally a gorilla but now used of an ORANG-UTAN. ◷ 17c: from Congolese mpongi.

poniard /ˈponjəd/ ▷ noun a slim-bladed dagger. ▷ verb (poniarded, poniarding) to stab someone or something with a poniard. ◷ 16c: from French poignard, from poing fist.

pons /ponz/ ▷ noun (pontes /ˈpontiːz/) anatomy in the brain of mammals: the mass of nerve fibres that connects the MEDULLA OBLONGATA to the THALAMUS, and relays nerve impulses between different parts of the brain. ◷ 18c; 17c in full form pons Varolii bridge of Varoli, named after Constanzo Varoli (1543–75) Italian anatomist: Latin, literally 'bridge'.

pontiff /ˈpontɪf/ ▷ noun 1 a title for the Pope. 2 formerly any Roman Catholic bishop. ◷ 17c: from French pontife, from Latin pontifex high priest.

pontifical /ponˈtɪfɪkəl/ ▷ adj 1 belonging or relating to a pontiff. 2 derog pompously opinionated; dogmatic. ▷ noun, RC Church, C of E an office-book containing the sacraments and other rites to be performed by a bishop. ◷ 15c.

pontificals ▷ plural noun the ceremonial dress of a bishop or pope.

pontificate /ponˈtɪfɪkeɪt/ ▷ verb (pontificated, pontificating) intr 1 to pronounce one's opinion pompously and arrogantly. 2 to perform the duties of a pontiff. ▷ noun /ponˈtɪfɪkət/ the office of a pope. ◷ 16c: from Latin pontificatus high-priesthood, from pontifex high priest.

pontoon[1] /ponˈtuːn/ ▷ noun any of a number of flat-bottomed craft, punts, barges, etc, anchored side by side across a river, to support a temporary bridge or platform, etc by providing buoyancy in the water. ◷ 17c: from French ponton, from Latin ponto a punt, from pons a bridge.

pontoon[2] /ponˈtuːn/ ▷ noun, cards a game in which the object is to collect sets of cards that add up to or close to 21, without going over that total. Also called twenty-one, vingt-et-un. ◷ Early 20c: a corruption of French vingt-et-un twenty-one.

pontoon bridge ▷ noun a bridge or platform, etc supported on pontoons.

pony /ˈpoʊnɪ/ ▷ noun (ponies) 1 any of several small hardy breeds of horse, usually less than 14.2 hands (1.5m) in height when fully grown, noted for their intelligence. 2 Brit slang a sum of £25. 3 US slang a crib or a translation prepared for use in an exam, etc. 4 slang a small glass. ◷ 17c: from Scots powney, from French poulenet, diminutive of poulain colt, from Latin pullus a young animal or foal.

ponytail ▷ noun a hairstyle in which a person's hair is drawn back and gathered by a band at the back of the head, so that it hangs free like a pony's tail. Compare PIGTAIL. ◷ 1950s.

pony trekking ▷ noun the recreational activity of riding ponies cross-country, especially in groups.

poo see POOH[2]

pooch /puːtʃ/ ▷ noun (pooches) colloq a dog, especially a mongrel. ◷ 1920s.

poodle /ˈpuːdəl/ ▷ noun 1 a breed of lively pet dog of various sizes which has a narrow head with pendulous ears and a long curly black, white, grey or brown coat, often clipped into an elaborate style. 2 derog a lackey. ◷ 19c: from German Pudel, short for Pudelhund, from pudeln to splash, as poodles were originally trained as water dogs.

poof /pʊf/ and poofter /ˈpʊftə(r)/ ▷ noun, offensive slang a male homosexual. • poofy adj (poofier, poofiest) effeminate. ◷ 19c: from French pouffe puff.

pooh /puː/ ▷ exclamation, colloq an exclamation of scorn or disgust, especially at an offensive smell. ⓘ 17c: imitating the sound uttered.

pooh-pooh ▷ verb (pooh-poohed, pooh-poohing) colloq to express scorn for (a suggestion, etc); to dismiss (a suggestion, etc). ⓘ 19c: from POOH.

pooka /ˈpuːkə/ ▷ noun (pookas) in Irish folklore: a malevolent goblin or spirit which sometimes assumes the form of an animal, and is said to haunt bogs and marshes. ⓘ 19c: from Irish Gaelic puca.

pool¹ ▷ noun 1 a small area of still water. 2 a puddle; a patch of spilt liquid □ pools of blood. 3 a swimming pool. 4 a deep part of a stream or river. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon pol.

pool² ▷ noun 1 a reserve of money, personnel, vehicles, etc used as a communal resource. Also in compounds □ typing pool. 2 the combined stakes of those betting on something; a jackpot. 3 commerce a group of businesses with a common arrangement to maintain high prices, so eliminating competition and preserving profits. 4 a game like BILLIARDS played with a white cue ball and usually 15 numbered coloured balls, the aim being to shoot specified balls into specified pockets using the cue ball. Compare SNOOKER. ▷ verb (pooled, pooling) to put (money or other resources) into a common supply for general use. ⓘ 17c: from French poule, literally 'a hen', but associated in English with POOL¹ since the 18c.

the pools ▷ plural noun, Brit an organized syndicate which involves postal betting on the outcome of football matches. Also called football pools.

poop¹ naut ▷ noun 1 the raised enclosed part at the stern of old sailing ships. 2 the high deck at the stern of a ship. Also called poop deck. ▷ verb (pooped, pooping) 1 said of a wave: to break over the stern of (a ship). 2 said of a ship: to receive (a wave) over the stern. ⓘ 15c: from French pupe: from Latin puppis.

poop² ▷ verb (pooped, pooping) colloq 1 in passive to become winded or exhausted □ Sheena was pooped after walking up the hill. 2 (also poop someone out) to tire them out; to make them exhausted or winded □ The swimming pooped me out. 3 intr (usually poop out) to give up from exhaustion. ⓘ 1930s.

poop³ and poo slang ▷ noun faeces. ▷ verb (pooped, pooping) intr to defecate. ⓘ 18c in this sense; 16c meaning 'a toot'.

poop-scoop and pooper-scooper ▷ noun, colloq a small scoop used to lift and remove dog faeces from pavements, etc. ⓘ 1970s.

poor /pʊə(r), pɔː(r)/ ▷ adj 1 not having sufficient money or means to live comfortably. 2 (the poor) poor people in general (see THE 4). 3 (poor in something) not well supplied with it □ a country poor in minerals. 4 not good; weak; unsatisfactory □ poor eyesight. 5 unsatisfactorily small or sparse □ a poor attendance. 6 used in expressing pity or sympathy □ poor fellow! ● poorness noun. See also POVERTY. ● poor man's ... derog a substitute of lower quality or price than the specified thing □ This is only lumpfish, poor man's caviare. ⓘ 13c: from French povre, from Latin pauper poor.

poor box ▷ noun a moneybox, especially one in a church, used to collect donations for the poor.

poorhouse ▷ noun, historical an institution maintained at public expense, for housing the poor; a WORKHOUSE.

poor law ▷ noun, historical a law or set of laws concerned with the public support of the poor.

poorly ▷ adverb not well; badly □ I speak French poorly. ▷ adj, colloq or dialect unwell □ Do you feel poorly?

poor white ▷ noun, derog a member of an impoverished and deprived class of white people living among Blacks in the southern USA or South Africa. Often as adj □ poor white trash.

pop¹ ▷ noun 1 a sharp explosive noise, like that of a cork coming out of a bottle. 2 colloq, especially N Amer any sweet non-alcoholic fizzy drink such as ginger beer. ▷ verb (popped, popping) 1 tr & intr to make or cause something to make a pop. 2 tr & intr to burst with a pop □ The balloon popped and landed at my feet. 3 (especially pop out or up) to spring out or up; to protrude. 4 intr, colloq to go quickly in a direction specified □ I'll just pop next door for a second. 5 colloq to put something somewhere quickly or briefly □ just pop it in the oven. 6 slang to pawn. 7 drug-taking slang to take or inject (a drug). ▷ adverb with a pop. ● pop the question humorous, colloq to propose marriage. ⓘ 18c as verb sense 1; 14c in obsolete sense 'to knock': imitating the sound.

■ pop off colloq 1 to leave quickly or suddenly. 2 to die.

■ pop up to appear or occur, especially unexpectedly. See also POP-UP.

pop² ▷ noun (in full pop music) a type of music which is primarily melody-driven and commercial, usually with a strong beat and characterized by its use of electronic equipment such as guitars and keyboards. ▷ adj popular □ pop culture. ⓘ 19c: as a shortening of 'popular concert'.

pop³ ▷ noun, informal, especially N Amer father; dad. 2 often as a form of address: an elderly man. ⓘ 19c: see PAPA.

pop. ▷ abbreviation 1 population. 2 popular. 3 popularly.

popcorn ▷ noun 1 (also popping corn) maize grains that puff up and burst open when heated. 2 the edible puffed-up kernels of this grain.

pope ▷ noun 1 (often Pope) the Bishop of Rome, the head of the Roman Catholic Church. 2 a priest in the Eastern Orthodox Church. ● popedom noun the office, dignity or jurisdiction of the pope; a pope's tenure of office. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon as papa: from Latin, from Greek pappas father, in the early Church a title used respectfully to bishops.

popery /ˈpoʊpərɪ/ ▷ noun, offensive Roman Catholicism.

pope's nose see under PARSON'S NOSE.

pop-eyed ▷ adj, colloq with eyes protruding, especially in amazement.

popgun ▷ noun a toy gun that fires a cork or pellet with a pop.

popinjay /ˈpɒpɪndʒeɪ/ ▷ noun, old use, derog a vain or conceited person; a dandy or fop. ⓘ 16c; 13c in archaic sense 'parrot': from French papegai parrot, from Spanish papagayo, from Arabic babbaga.

popish /ˈpoʊpɪʃ/ ▷ adj, offensive belonging or relating to Roman Catholicism.

poplar /ˈpɒplə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 a tall slender deciduous tree found in northern temperate regions, with broad simple leaves which tremble in a slight breeze, often planted for ornament or shelter. 2 the soft fine-grained yellowish wood of this tree, used to make plywood, matches, boxes and paper pulp. ⓘ 14c: from French poplier, from Latin populus.

poplin /ˈpɒplɪn/ ▷ noun a strong cotton cloth with a finely ribbed finish. ⓘ 18c: from French popeline, from Italian papalina papal cloth, because it was made in the papal city of Avignon.

popliteal /pɒpˈlɪtɪəl/ ▷ adj, anatomy belonging or relating to the part of the leg behind the knee. ⓘ 18c: from Latin poples the ham of the knee.

pop music see POP².

poppadum, poppadom or pappadom /ˈpɒpədəm/ ▷ noun a paper-thin pancake, grilled or fried till crisp, served with Indian dishes. ⓘ 19c: from Tamil poppatam, perhaps from paruppu adam lentil cake.

popper /ˈpɒpə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 someone or something that pops. 2 informal a PRESS STUD. 3 especially N Amer a container used to make popcorn. 4 (often poppers) drug-taking slang a small bottle of amyl nitrate or butyl nitrate which is inhaled.

poppet /ˈpɒpɪt/ ▷ noun 1 a term of endearment for someone lovable. 2 in vehicle engines: an unhinged valve that rises and falls in its housing. 3 a timber support used in launching a ship. ⊙ 14c: an earlier form of PUPPET.

popping-crease ▷ noun, cricket the line at or behind which the batsman must stand, parallel to, and four feet in front of, the wicket. ⊙ 18c: probably from POP[1] in the sense 'to hit or knock'.

popple /ˈpɒpəl/ ▷ verb (poppled, poppling) intr 1 said of boiling water or of sea water: to bubble or ripple. 2 (often popple along) to flow tumblingly. ▷ noun a poppling movement. ⊙ 14c: imitating the sound made.

pop poetry ▷ noun a type of verse written primarily for public performance, which is often topical and satirical, and may be accompanied by music. ⊙ 1970s.

poppy /ˈpɒpɪ/ ▷ noun (poppies) 1 any of numerous northern temperate plants with large brightly-coloured bowl-shaped flowers and a fruit in the form of a capsule, especially the common poppy. See also OPIUM POPPY. 2 an artificial red poppy, worn for Remembrance Day, symbolizing the poppies that grew on the battlefields of Flanders after World War I. ⊙ Anglo-Saxon popig.

poppycock ▷ noun, colloq nonsense. ⊙ 19c: from Dutch dialect pappekak soft dung.

Poppy Day see REMEMBRANCE DAY pop socks ▷ plural noun knee-high nylon stockings.

popsy /ˈpɒpsɪ/ ▷ noun (popsies) dated colloq a term of endearment for a young girl or woman. ⊙ 19c: diminutive of pop, shortened from POPPET (sense 1).

populace /ˈpɒpjʊləs/ ▷ noun the body of ordinary citizens; the common people. ⊙ 16c: French, from Latin populus people.

popular /ˈpɒpjʊlə(r)/ ▷ adj 1 liked or enjoyed by most people □ a pastime still popular with the young. 2 said of beliefs, etc: accepted by many people □ a popular misconception. 3 catering for the tastes and abilities of ordinary people as distinct from specialists, etc □ a popular history of science. 4 said of a person: generally liked and admired. 5 involving the will or preferences of the public in general □ by popular demand. • popularity noun. • popularly adverb. ⊙ 15c: from Latin popularis, from populus people.

popular front and people's front ▷ noun a left-wing group or faction, especially one set up from the 1930s onwards to oppose fascism.

popularize or popularise ▷ verb (popularized, popularizing) 1 to make something popular □ popularized the mini skirt. 2 to present something in a simple easily-understood way, so as to have general appeal. • popularization noun.

populate /ˈpɒpjʊleɪt/ ▷ verb (populated, populating) 1 said of people, animals or plants: to inhabit or live in (a certain area). 2 to supply (uninhabited places) with inhabitants; to people. ⊙ 16c: from Latin populare to inhabit, from populus people.

population /pɒpjʊˈleɪʃən/ ▷ noun 1 all the people living in a particular country, area, etc. 2 the number of people living in a particular area, country, etc □ The city has a population of two million. 3 a group of animals or plants of the same species living in a certain area; the total number of these □ the declining elephant population. 4 the process of populating an area. 5 statistics a group that consists of all the possible quantities or values relevant to a statistical study, from which representative samples are taken in order to determine the characteristics of the whole.

population explosion ▷ noun a sudden or rapid increase in the size of a population, due to factors such as increased life expectancy.

populism ▷ noun political activity or notions that are thought to reflect the opinions and interests of ordinary people.

populist ▷ noun 1 a person who believes in the right and ability of the common people to play a major part in government. 2 a person who studies, supports or attracts the support of the common people. ▷ adj said of a political cause, programme, etc: appealing to the majority of the people.

populous ▷ adj densely inhabited. ⊙ 15c: from Latin populosus, from populus people.

pop-up ▷ adj 1 said of a picture book, greetings card, etc: having cut-out parts designed to stand upright as the page is opened. 2 said of appliances, etc: having a mechanism which causes a component, or the item being prepared, to pop up □ pop-up toaster. See also POP UP at POP[1].

porbeagle /ˈpɔːbiːgəl/ ▷ noun a large heavily-built shark with a broad deep tail. ⊙ 18c: a Cornish dialect word.

porcelain /ˈpɔːsəlɪn/ ▷ noun 1 a a fine white translucent earthenware, originally made in China; b as adj □ a porcelain dish. 2 objects made of this. ⊙ 16c: from French porcelaine, from Italian porcellana cowrie shell.

porch /pɔːtʃ/ ▷ noun (porches) 1 a structure that forms a covered entrance to the doorway of a building. 2 N Amer a verandah. ⊙ 13c: from French porche, from Latin porticus colonnade.

porcine /ˈpɔːsaɪn/ ▷ adj relating to or or resembling a pig. ⊙ 17c: from Latin porcinus, from porcus pig.

porcupine /ˈpɔːkjʊpaɪn/ ▷ noun any of various large nocturnal rodents with long sharp black-and-white spikes or quills on the back and sides of the body. ⊙ 14c: from French porc d'espine spiny pig.

pore[1] /pɔː(r)/ ▷ noun 1 a small, usually round opening in the surface of a living organism, eg in the skin, through which fluids, gases and other substances can pass. 2 any tiny cavity or gap, eg in soil or rock. ⊙ 14c: French, from Latin porus, from Greek poros a passage or duct.

pore[2] /pɔː(r)/ ▷ verb (pored, poring) intr (always pore over something) to study (books, documents, etc) with intense concentration. ⊙ 13c as pouren.

porge /pɔːdʒ/ ▷ verb (porged, porging) Judaism to cleanse (a slaughtered animal) ceremonially by removing the forbidden fat, sinews, etc. ⊙ 18c: from Jewish Spanish porgar, from Latin purgare to purge.

poriferan /pɒˈrɪfərən/ zool ▷ adj referring or relating to animals belonging to the phylum Porifera, the sponges. ▷ noun a member of this phylum. ⊙ 19c: from Latin porus a pore + ferre to bear.

pork ▷ noun the flesh of a pig used as food. ⊙ 13c: from French porc, from Latin porcus pig.

porker ▷ noun a pig that shows fast growth and reaches maturity at a relatively light weight, reared for fresh meat as opposed to processed meats such as bacon.

porky ▷ adj (porkier, porkiest) 1 resembling pork. 2 colloq plump.

porn and porno colloq ▷ noun pornography. ▷ adj pornographic.

pornography /pɔːˈnɒgrəfɪ/ ▷ noun books, pictures, films, etc designed to be sexually arousing, often offensive owing to their explicit nature. Often shortened to porn or porno. See also HARD PORN, SOFT PORN. • pornographer noun. • pornographic /pɔːnəˈgrafɪk/ adj. • pornographically adverb. ⊙ 19c: from Greek pornographos writing about prostitutes, from porne prostitute + graphein to write.

porosity /pɔːˈrɒsɪtɪ/ ▷ noun (porosities) 1 said of a solid material: the property of being porous. 2 geol the ratio of the total volume occupied by pores and other spaces in a material, to the total volume occupied by that material.

porous /ˈpɔːrəs/ ▷ adj 1 referring or relating to a material that contains pores or cavities. 2 capable of being permeated by liquids or gases. ⓘ 14c: from Latin porosus, from porus a pore.

porphyry /ˈpɔːfɪrɪ/ geol ▷ noun 1 loosely any igneous rock that contains large crystals surrounded by much smaller ones. 2 a very hard purple and white rock used in sculpture. • porphyritic /pɔːfɪˈrɪtɪk/ adj. ⓘ 14c: from Latin porphyrites, ultimately from Greek porphyrites lithos purplish stone, from porphyros purple.

porpoise /ˈpɔːpəs/ ▷ noun 1 a beakless whale, smaller than a dolphin, with a blunt snout, found in northern coastal waters and around the coasts of S America and SE Asia. 2 loosely a DOLPHIN. ⓘ 14c: from Latin porcuspiscis, from porcus pig + piscis fish.

porridge /ˈpɒrɪdʒ/ ▷ noun 1 a dish of oatmeal or some other cereal which is boiled in water or milk until it reaches a thick consistency. N Amer equivalent OATMEAL. 2 Brit slang a jail sentence. • do porridge Brit slang to serve a prison sentence □ He's doing porridge now. ⓘ 17c in sense 1; 16c in obsolete sense 'thick soup': a variant of POTTAGE.

porringer /ˈpɒrɪndʒə(r)/ ▷ noun a bowl, with a handle, for soup or porridge. ⓘ 16c as potinger, variation of potager soup bowl; see POTTAGE.

port[1] ▷ noun 1 a harbour. 2 a town with a harbour. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon: from Latin portus.

port[2] ▷ noun the left side of a ship or aircraft. Compare STARBOARD. ▷ verb (ported, porting) tr & intr to turn or be turned to the left. ⓘ 16c.

port[3] ▷ noun 1 an opening in a ship's side for loading, etc. 2 a PORTHOLE. 3 computing a socket that connects the CPU of a computer to a peripheral device. 4 now chiefly Scots a town gate, or its former position. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon: from Latin porta gate.

port[4] ▷ noun a sweet dark-red or tawny fortified wine. ⓘ 17c: from Oporto, the city in Portugal from where it was originally exported.

port[5] ▷ verb (ported, porting) military to hold (a rifle, etc) across the body with both hands, the barrel close to the left shoulder. ⓘ 16c: from French porter, from Latin portare to carry.

portable /ˈpɔːtəbəl/ ▷ adj 1 easily carried or moved, and usually designed to be so. 2 computing said of a program: adaptable for use in a variety of systems. ▷ noun a portable radio, television, typewriter, etc. • portability noun. ⓘ 14c: French, from Latin portabilis, from portare to carry.

portage /ˈpɔːtɪdʒ/ ▷ noun 1 an act of carrying. 2 the cost of carrying. 3 the transportation of ships, equipment, etc overland from one waterway to another. 4 the route used for this. ▷ verb (portaged, portaging) to transport (ships, etc) overland. ⓘ 15c: French, from porter to carry, from Latin portare.

Portakabin /ˈpɔːtəkabɪn/ ▷ noun, trademark a portable structure used as a temporary office, etc. ⓘ 1960s.

portal /ˈpɔːtəl/ ▷ noun, formal an entrance, gateway or doorway, especially an imposing or awesome one. ⓘ 14c: French, from Latin portale, from porta a gate.

portal vein ▷ noun, anatomy any vein that connects two networks of capillaries, eg the hepatic portal vein which connects the capillaries of the intestine to those of the liver. ⓘ 19c: from Latin porta the transverse fissure of the liver, or a gate-like structure; see PORTAL.

portamento /pɔːtəˈmentoʊ/ ▷ noun (portamenti /-tiː/) music especially in stringed instruments: a continuous glide from one tone or note to another. ⓘ 18c: Italian, literally 'a carrying', from Latin portare to carry.

portcullis /pɔːtˈkʌlɪs/ ▷ noun, historical a vertical iron or wooden grating fitted into a town gateway or castle entrance, which was lowered to keep intruders out. ⓘ 14c: from French porte coleice sliding door or gate, from Latin porta gate + colare to filter.

portend /pɔːˈtend/ ▷ verb (portended, portending) to warn of (usually something bad); to signify or foreshadow it. See also BODE. ⓘ 15c: from Latin portendere to foreshadow or give a sign.

portent /ˈpɔːtent/ ▷ noun 1 a prophetic sign; an omen. 2 fateful significance □ an event of grim portent. 3 a marvel or prodigy. ⓘ 16c: from Latin portentum a sign, from portendere (see PORTEND).

portentous /pɔːˈtentəs/ ▷ adj 1 ominous or fateful; relating to portents. 2 weighty, solemn or pompous. 3 amazing or marvellous. • portentously adverb. • portentousness noun.

porter[1] /ˈpɔːtə(r)/ ▷ noun a doorman, caretaker or janitor at a college, office or factory. ⓘ 13c: from French portier, from Latin portarius gatekeeper.

porter[2] /ˈpɔːtə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 someone employed to carry luggage or parcels, eg at a railway station. 2 in a hospital: someone employed to move patients when required and to carry out other general duties. 3 a heavy dark-brown beer brewed from malt, formerly reputed to be popular with porters. 4 N Amer on a train: a sleeping-car attendant. ⓘ 14c: from French porteour, from Latin portator, from portare to carry.

porterhouse ▷ noun 1 (in full porterhouse steak) a choice cut of beefsteak from the back of the sirloin. 2 formerly a public house where porter, beer, etc and steaks were served. ⓘ 18c.

portfolio /pɔːtˈfoʊlɪoʊ/ ▷ noun (portfolios) 1 a flat case for carrying papers, drawings, photographs, etc. 2 the contents of such a case, as a demonstration of a person's work. 3 politics the post of a government minister with responsibility for a specific department. 4 a list of the investments or securities held by an individual, company, etc. ⓘ 18c: from Italian portafoglio, from portare to carry + foglio a leaf.

porthole ▷ noun 1 an opening, usually a round one, in a ship's side to admit light and air. 2 an opening in a wall through which a gun can be fired. ⓘ 16c.

portico /ˈpɔːtɪkoʊ/ ▷ noun (porticos or porticoes) archit a colonnade forming a porch or covered way alongside a building. ⓘ 17c: Italian, from Latin porticus a porch, from porta a door.

portière / French pɔʀtjɛʀ/ ▷ noun a curtain hung over the door or doorway of a room. ⓘ 19c: French, from Latin porta a door.

portion /ˈpɔːʃən/ ▷ noun 1 a piece or part of a whole □ divided the cake into 12 equal portions. 2 a share; a part allotted to one. 3 an individual helping of food. 4 literary one's destiny or fate. 5 law a woman's dowry. 6 law a share of money left to a child by their parents or guardians, intended as a permanent provision for them. ▷ verb (portioned, portioning) (now usually portion something out) to divide it up; to share it out. ⓘ 13c: from French porcion, from Latin portio, portionis.

portly /ˈpɔːtlɪ/ ▷ adj (portlier, portliest) said especially of a man: somewhat stout. ⓘ 16c: from port deportment or bearing (related to PORT[5]).

portmanteau /pɔːtˈmantoʊ/ ▷ noun (portmanteaus or portmanteaux /-toʊz/) 1 a large travelling-bag that opens flat in two halves. See also GLADSTONE BAG. 2 as adj combining or covering two or more things of the same kind. ⓘ 16c: French, meaning 'cloak carrier', from porter to carry + manteau coat or cloak.

portmanteau word ▷ noun a BLEND. ⓘ 19c: originally used by Lewis Carroll (1832–98), English writer.

port of call ▷ noun (ports of call) 1 a place where a ship stops on a sea journey. 2 a place called at during a journey.

port of entry ▷ noun (ports of entry) a port by which people and merchandise may enter a country, supervised by immigration and customs officials.

portrait /ˈpɔːtrət/ ▷ noun 1 a drawing, painting or photograph of a person, especially of the face only. 2 a written description, film depiction, etc of someone or something □ a portrait of country life. ▷ adj, printing said of a page, illustration, etc: taller than it is wide. Compare LANDSCAPE. ⓘ 16c: French, from portraire to portray.

portraiture /ˈpɔːtrɪtʃə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 the art or act of making portraits. 2 a portrait, or portraits collectively.

portray /pɔːˈtreɪ/ ▷ verb (portrayed, portraying) 1 to make a portrait of someone or something. 2 to describe or depict something. 3 to act the part of (a character) in a play, film, etc. • portrayal noun. • portrayer noun. ⓘ 14c: from French portraire to represent, from Latin protrahere to draw forth.

Portuguese /pɔːtʃʊˈgiːz/ ▷ adj belonging or relating to Portugal, a country in SW Europe, its inhabitants or their language. ▷ noun (Portuguese) 1 a citizen or inhabitant of, or person born in, Portugal. 2 (the Portuguese) the people of Portugal in general (see THE sense 4). 3 the official language of Portugal. ⓘ 17c.

Portuguese man-of-war ▷ noun a genus of invertebrate animals resembling a large jellyfish that is native to tropical seas and consists of a colony of hundreds of small POLYPS with long stinging tentacles, clustered underneath a gas-filled bluish-purple bladder with a high crest. ⓘ 18c.

port-wine stain and port-wine mark ▷ noun a usually permanent purplish-red birthmark resulting from the formation of an extra-large network of blood vessels below the skin before birth. ⓘ 17c.

POS ▷ abbreviation, commerce point of sale.

pose ▷ noun 1 a position or attitude of the body □ a relaxed pose. 2 an artificial way of behaving, adopted for effect □ His punk style is just a pose. ▷ verb (posed, posing) 1 tr & intr to take up a position oneself, or position (someone else), for a photograph, portrait, etc. 2 intr, derog to behave in an exaggerated or artificial way so as to draw attention to oneself. 3 intr (usually pose as someone or something) to pretend to be someone or something that one is not □ The undercover detective posed as a drug addict to infiltrate the gang of dealers. 4 to ask or put forward (a question). 5 to cause (a problem, etc) or present (a threat, etc). • strike a pose to adopt a position or attitude, especially a commanding or impressive one. ⓘ 16c in verb sense 4; 15c in obsolete sense 'to suppose': from French poser, from Latin pausare to cease or pause, but influenced by Latin ponere to place.

poser[1] ▷ noun 1 someone who poses. 2 derog someone who tries to impress others by putting on an act and by dressing, behaving, etc so as to be noticed; a poseur. ⓘ 19c.

poser[2] ▷ noun 1 someone who sets difficult questions. 2 a puzzling or perplexing question. ⓘ 16c: from obsolete or rare pose to puzzle or perplex.

poseur /poʊˈzɜː(r)/ ▷ noun, derog someone who behaves in an affected or insincere way, especially to impress others. ⓘ 19c: French, from poser to POSE.

posh colloq ▷ adj 1 high-quality, expensive, smart or stylish. 2 upper-class. ▷ adverb in a way associated with the upper class □ Bert talks posh when he's on the telephone. ▷ verb (poshed, poshing) (always posh something up) to smarten it up. ⓘ 20c: popularly thought to be an acronym of port outward starboard home, which was the most desirable position of cabins when sailing to and from the East, but more likely perhaps to be related to obsolete posh a dandy.

posit /ˈpɒzɪt/ ▷ verb (posited, positing) 1 to lay down or assume something as a basis for discussion; to postulate. 2 to place something in position. ▷ noun, philos a statement made on the assumption that it will be proved valid. ⓘ 17c: from Latin ponere, positum to place.

position /pəˈzɪʃən/ ▷ noun 1 a place where someone or something is □ The mansion was in a fine position overlooking the bay. 2 the right or proper place □ Volume 2 was out of position. 3 the relationship of things to one another in space; arrangement. 4 a way of sitting, standing, lying, facing, being held or placed, etc □ an upright position. 5 military a place occupied for strategic purposes. 6 one's opinion or viewpoint □ What's your position on euthanasia? 7 a job or post □ Bill holds a senior position at the bank. 8 rank; status; importance in society □ wealth and position. 9 the place of a competitor in the finishing order, or at an earlier stage in a contest □ lying in fourth position. 10 sport an allotted place in a team, especially on the pitch or playing-area □ the centre-forward position. 11 the set of circumstances in which one is placed □ not in a position to help □ found myself in an awkward position. ▷ verb (positioned, positioning) to place; to put something or someone in position. • be in no position to do something to have no right to (complain, criticize, etc). • positional adj. ⓘ 15c: French, from Latin positio, positionis, from ponere to place.

positive /ˈpɒzɪtɪv/ ▷ adj 1 sure; certain; convinced. 2 definite; allowing no doubt □ positive proof of her guilt. 3 expressing agreement or approval □ a positive response. 4 optimistic □ feeling more positive. 5 forceful or determined; not tentative. 6 constructive; contributing to progress or improvement; helpful. 7 clear and explicit □ positive directions. 8 colloq downright □ a positive scandal. 9 said of the result of a chemical test: confirming the existence of the suspected condition. 10 math said of a number or quantity: greater than zero. 11 physics, elec having a deficiency of electrons, and so being able to attract them, ie attracted by a negative charge. 12 photog said of a photographic image: in which light and dark tones and colours correspond to those in the original subject. 13 grammar expressing a quality in the simple form, as distinct from the COMPARATIVE or SUPERLATIVE forms. Compare NEGATIVE. ⓘ 14c: from French positif, positive, or Latin positivus, from ponere to place.

positive discrimination ▷ noun the creation of special employment opportunities, etc for those groups or members of society previously disadvantaged or discriminated against.

positive feedback ▷ noun, engineering, biol a form of feedback in which the output of a system is used to increase the input. Compare NEGATIVE FEEDBACK.

positive heliotropism see under HELIOTROPISM.

positive hydrotropism see under HYDROTROPISM.

positive reinforcement ▷ noun, psychol the process by which an activity is learned through use of a pleasant stimulus or reward, eg food. Compare NEGATIVE REINFORCEMENT.

positive vetting ▷ noun investigation of the connections and sympathies of a person being considered for a position of trust, eg in the senior civil service.

positivism /ˈpɒzɪtɪvɪzəm/ ▷ noun 1 a school of philosophy maintaining that knowledge can come only from observable phenomena and positive facts. 2 LOGICAL POSITIVISM. • positivist noun, adj.

positron /ˈpɒzɪtrɒn/ ▷ noun, physics an ANTIPARTICLE that has the same mass as an electron, and an equal but opposite charge. See also PET. ⓘ 1930s: a contraction of positive electron.

posology /pəˈsɒlədʒɪ/ ▷ noun the branch of medicine that deals with the quantities in which drugs or medicines should be administered. ⓘ 19c: from French posologie, from Greek posos how much.

poss. ▷ abbreviation 1 possible. Also (poss) as colloq adj. 2 possibly. 3 grammar possessive.

posse /ˈpɒsɪ/ ▷ noun 1 N Amer, historical a mounted troop of men at the service of a local sheriff. 2 colloq any group or band of people, especially friends. 3 US a Jamaican street gang. ⓘ 17c in sense 1: from Latin posse comitatus force of the country.

possess /pəˈzɛs/ ▷ verb (possessed, possessing) 1 to own. 2 to have something as a feature or quality □ Frances possesses a quick mind. 3 said of an emotion, evil spirit, etc: to occupy and dominate the mind of someone □ What possessed you to behave like that? 4 to be master of or have knowledge of someone or something. 5 to have sexual intercourse with someone. ● possessor noun. ⓘ 15c: from French possesser, from Latin possidere.

possessed ▷ adj 1 (possessed of something) formal owning it; having it □ possessed of great wealth. 2 following its noun controlled or driven by demons, etc □ screaming like a man possessed.

possession /pəˈzɛʃən/ ▷ noun 1 the condition of possessing something; ownership □ took possession of the goods □ It came into my possession. 2 the crime of possessing something illegally □ The terrorist was charged with possession of firearms. 3 occupancy of property □ take possession of the house. 4 sport control of the ball, puck, etc by one or other team in a match. 5 something owned. 6 (possessions) one's property or belongings. 7 (possessions) formal a country's dominions abroad □ foreign possessions. ● be in possession of something to hold or possess it.

possessive ▷ adj 1 relating to possession. 2 said of a person or of character: unwilling to share, or allow others to use, things they own □ I'm very possessive about my car. 3 said of a person or of character: inclined to dominate, monopolize and allow no independence to one's wife, husband, child, etc □ a possessive husband. 4 grammar denoting the form or CASE of a noun, pronoun or adjective which shows possession, eg Kurt's, its, her. ▷ noun, grammar 1 the possessive form or case of a word. 2 a word in the possessive case or in a possessive form. Compare GENITIVE. ● possessively adverb. ● possessiveness noun.

posset /ˈpɒsɪt/ ▷ noun a drink of hot milk, curdled with eg wine, ale or vinegar, and flavoured with spices, formerly used as a remedy for colds, etc. ▷ verb (posseted, posseting) intr 1 said of a baby: to bring up some curdled milk. 2 old use to make a posset. ⓘ 16c; early 20c in verb sense 1.

possibility /pɒsɪˈbɪlɪtɪ/ ▷ noun (possibilities) 1 something that is possible. 2 the state of being possible. 3 a candidate for selection, etc. 4 (possibilities) promise or potential □ This idea has definite possibilities.

possible /ˈpɒsɪbəl/ ▷ adj 1 achievable; able to be done □ a possible target of 50%. 2 capable of happening □ the possible outcome. 3 imaginable; conceivable □ It's possible that he's dead. ▷ noun someone or something potentially selectable or attainable; a possibility. ⓘ 14c: from Latin possibilis that can be done, from posse to be able.

possibly ▷ adverb 1 perhaps; maybe. 2 within the limits of possibility □ We'll do all we possibly can. 3 used for emphasis: at all □ How could you possibly think that?

possum /ˈpɒsəm/ ▷ noun, colloq 1 an OPOSSUM. 2 a PHALANGER. ● play possum to pretend to be unconscious, asleep or unaware of what is happening. ⓘ 17c.

post[1] /poʊst/ ▷ noun 1 a shaft or rod fixed upright in the ground, as a support or marker, etc. 2 a vertical timber supporting a horizontal one. Often in compounds □ a doorpost. 3 an upright pole marking the beginning or end of a race track. 4 a GOALPOST. ▷ verb (posted, posting) 1 (sometimes post something up) to put up (a notice, etc) on a post or board, etc for public viewing. 2 to announce the name of someone among others in a published list □ He was posted missing. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon: from Latin postis a doorpost.

post[2] /poʊst/ ▷ noun 1 a job □ a teaching post. 2 a position to which one is assigned for military duty □ never left his post. 3 a settlement or establishment, especially one in a remote area. Often in compounds □ trading-post □ military post. 4 military a bugle call summoning soldiers to their quarters at night. See also THE FIRST POST, THE LAST POST. ▷ verb (posted, posting) (usually post someone to, at or in somewhere) to station them there on duty; to transfer (personnel) to a new location □ I was posted abroad. ⓘ 16c: from Italian posto, from Latin positum, from ponere, positum to place.

post[3] /poʊst/ ▷ noun (especially the post) 1 the official system for the delivery of mail. See also POST OFFICE. 2 letters and parcels delivered by this system; mail. 3 a collection of mail, eg from a postbox □ catch the next post. 4 a delivery of mail □ came by the second post. 5 a place for mail collection; a postbox or post office □ took it to the post. 6 historical any of a series of riders stationed at various intervals along a route, who carried mail from one stage to another. 7 historical a stage or station on such a route. 8 used as a newspaper title □ the Washington Post. ▷ verb (posted, posting) 1 to put (mail) into a postbox; to send something by post. 2 bookkeeping a to enter (an item) in a ledger; b (now usually post up something) to update (a ledger). 3 to supply someone with the latest news □ keep us posted. See also POST[1] verb. ⓘ 16c: from French poste, from Italian posta, from Latin ponere, positum to place.

post- /poʊst/ ▷ prefix, denoting 1 after □ postwar □ postdate. 2 behind □ postnasal. ⓘ Latin.

postage ▷ noun the charge for sending a letter, etc through the POST[3].

postage stamp ▷ noun a small printed gummed label stuck on a letter, etc indicating that the appropriate postage charge has been paid. Often shortened to stamp.

postal /ˈpoʊstəl/ ▷ adj 1 relating or belonging to the POST OFFICE or to delivery of mail. 2 sent by post □ a postal vote.

postal code see under POSTCODE postal order ▷ noun (abbreviation po or p.o.) a money order available from, and payable by, a post office.

postbag ▷ noun 1 a mailbag. 2 the letters received by eg a radio or TV programme, magazine or celebrated person, etc.

post box ▷ noun see under LETTER BOX postbus ▷ noun a small bus, van or similar vehicle, used for delivering mail and carrying passengers, especially in rural areas.

postcard ▷ noun a card for writing messages on, often with a picture on one side, designed for sending through the post without an envelope.

post chaise ▷ noun, historical a fast, usually four-wheeled, coach carrying up to four passengers and mail, drawn by posthorses. ⓘ 18c.

postcode ▷ noun a code used to identify a postal address, made up of a combination of letters and numerals. Also called postal code. US equivalent ZIP CODE. ⓘ 1960s.

post-consumer waste ▷ noun newspapers and other household waste, as opposed to industrial waste; waste used for recycling.

postdate ▷ verb 1 to put a future date on (a cheque, etc). 2 to assign a later date than that previously accepted to (an event, etc). 3 to occur at a later date than (a specified date). ⓘ 17c.

poster ▷ noun 1 a large notice or advertisement for public display. 2 a large printed picture. ⓘ 19c: from POST[1].

poster art ▷ noun posters as an art form from the late 19c, as exemplified by Toulouse-Lautrec amongst others.

poste restante /poust 'restɑ̃t/ ▷ noun 1 an address on mail indicating that it is to be held at a particular post office until it is collected by the recipient, used eg when a private address is not available. 2 the department of a post office which deals with such mail. Compare PO BOX. ⓘ 18c: French, meaning 'post remaining'.

posterior /pɒ'stɪərɪə(r)/ ▷ adj 1 placed behind, after or at the back of something. 2 formal or old use coming after in time. Compare ANTERIOR. ▷ noun, facetious the buttocks. ⓘ 16c: Latin, comparative of posterus coming after, from post after.

posterity /pɒ'sterɪtɪ/ ▷ noun 1 future generations. 2 one's descendants. ⓘ 14c: from French postérité, from Latin posteritas, from posterus coming after.

postern /'pɒstən/ ▷ noun, historical a back door, back gate or private entrance. ⓘ 13c: from French posterne, from Latin posterula a back way.

poster paint and poster colour ▷ noun a water-based paint in an opaque colour. 1920s.

post-free ▷ adj ▷ adverb 1 (also post-paid) with postage prepaid. 2 without charge for postage.

postgraduate ▷ noun 1 a person studying for an advanced degree or qualification after obtaining a first degree. 2 as adj relating to such a person or degree ▫ postgraduate diploma. Compare GRADUATE.

posthaste ▷ adverb with the utmost speed. ⓘ 16c.

posthorse ▷ noun, historical a horse kept for conveying the mail. See also POST CHAISE.

posthouse ▷ noun, historical an inn where POSTHORSES were kept for the use of travellers wishing to change horses, etc.

posthumous /'pɒstjʊməs/ ▷ adj 1 said of a work: published after the death of the author, composer, etc. 2 said of a child: born after its father's death. 3 coming or occurring after death ▫ posthumous fame. • posthumously adverb. ⓘ 17c: from Latin postumus, superlative of posterus coming after; h inserted by mistaken association with humus earth, ie burial.

postiche /pɒ'stiːʃ/ ▷ adj 1 said of a piece of architectural decoration: superfluous and inappropriately added to a finished work. 2 counterfeit; false. ▷ noun 1 anything that is falsely or superfluously added. 2 a hairpiece. ⓘ 19c: French, meaning 'counterfeit', from Italian apposticcio; see APPOSITE.

postilion or postillion /pɒ'stɪljən/ ▷ noun, historical a rider on the nearside horse of one of the pairs of posthorses drawing a carriage, who, in the absence of a coachman, guides the team. ⓘ 17c; 16c in obsolete sense 'a forerunner': from French postillon, from Italian postiglione, from posta POST[3].

postimpressionism or Post-Impressionism ▷ noun, art an imprecise term used to describe the more progressive forms of painting since c.1880, which developed as a reaction against IMPRESSIONISM and NEO-IMPRESSIONISM, with the aim of conveying the essence of their subjects through a simplification of form and developing the Impressionist style far beyond the merely representational. ⓘ Early 20c: coined by the art critic Roger Fry (1866–1934).

post-industrial society ▷ noun an economically and technologically advanced society no longer dependent for its productivity on large-scale, labour-intensive industrial manufacture, and in which knowledge is the central preoccupation. ⓘ 1973: coined by US sociologist Daniel Bell (born 1919).

Post-it ▷ noun, trademark (in full Post-it note) a small memo note with a strip of adhesive on the back so that it can be stuck wherever the reminder is needed, eg on a page in a diary, on a door, etc.

postman and postwoman ▷ noun a man or woman whose job is to deliver mail. N Amer equivalent MAILMAN. ⓘ 16c, meaning POST[3] noun 8.

postman's knock ▷ noun a party game for children in which the 'postman' knocks on a door and exchanges a 'letter' for a kiss.

postmark ▷ noun a mark stamped on mail by the post office, cancelling the stamp and showing the date and place of posting. ▷ verb to mark (mail) in this way. Compare FRANK.

postmaster and postmistress ▷ noun the man or woman in charge of a local post office.

Postmaster General ▷ noun (Postmasters General) a government minister in charge of the country's postal services.

postmeridian ▷ adj 1 occurring after noon. 2 relating to the afternoon. ⓘ 17c.

post meridiem /poust mə'rɪdɪəm/ ▷ noun (abbreviation p.m., pm, P.M. or PM) after midday; in the afternoon. ⓘ 17c: Latin.

postmillennialism /poustmɪ'lenɪəlɪzəm/ ▷ noun the doctrine that the Second Coming of Christ will follow the millennium. • postmillennialist noun. ⓘ 19c.

post-modern ▷ adj exhibiting Post-modernism. ⓘ 1960s.

Post-modernism ▷ noun a movement in the arts that takes many features of MODERNISM to new and more playful extremes, rejecting Modernism's tendency towards nihilistic pessimism and replacing it with a more comfortable acceptance of the solipsistic nature of life. There is also an inclination towards mishievous self-referentiality and witty intertextualizing. • post-modernist noun, adj. ⓘ 1930s.

postmortem /poust'mɔːtəm/ (abbreviation p.m. or pm) ▷ noun 1 (in full postmortem examination) the dissection and examination of the internal organs of the body after death, in order to determine the cause of death. Also called autopsy. 2 colloq an after-the-event discussion. ▷ adj coming or happening after death. ⓘ 18c as the phrase post mortem: Latin, meaning 'after death'.

postnasal ▷ adj, chiefly medicine situated or occurring at the back of the nose or nasal cavity.

postnatal ▷ adj relating to or occurring during the period immediately after childbirth. • postnatally adverb. ⓘ 19c.

postnatal depression ▷ noun, psychol a relatively common form of usually mild depression that can affect a mother shortly after giving birth, and which mostly fades as her hormones settle down, although occasionally it becomes a severe and long-lasting condition. Also (colloq) called baby blues.

post office ▷ noun 1 a local office that handles postal business, the issuing of various types of licence, etc. 2 (Post Office; abbreviation PO) the government department in charge of postal services. See also PO BOX.

post-operative ▷ adj relating to or occurring during the period immediately following a surgical operation ▫ post-operative discomfort.

post-paid see under POST-FREE postpartum /poust'pɑːtəm/ ▷ adj, medicine after childbirth. See also POSTNATAL. ⓘ 19c: Latin post partum after birth.

postpone /pə'spoun, poust'poun/ ▷ verb (postponed, postponing) to delay or put off something till later. Also DEFER. Compare CANCEL, ADJOURN. • postponement noun. ⓘ 16c: from Latin postponere, from ponere to place.

postposition ▷ noun, grammar 1 the placing or position of a word after another word that it modifies and to which it is syntactically related. 2 a word used in this way. ⓘ 17c: from Latin postponere, postpositum to place after.

postpositive grammar ▷ adj said of a modifier: following the word that it applies to, eg elect in president elect. ▷ noun a postpositive word. ⓘ 19c: from postposition.

postprandial ▷ adj, facetious following a meal ◻ a postprandial doze. ⓒ 19c.

post-production ▷ noun the stages in the making of a film or video after shooting and before the first public showing, including recording and adding music and soundtrack, and final editing. ⓒ 1950s.

postscript ▷ noun 1 (abbreviation PS or ps) a message added to a letter as an afterthought, after one's signature. 2 anything that serves as an addition or follow-up to something. ⓒ 16c: from Latin postscribere, postscriptum to write something after.

Post-structuralism ▷ noun a revision of the STRUCTURALIST view of literature, holding that language has no objectively identifiable or absolute meaning, and that therefore texts allow any number of interpretations. ● Post-structuralist noun, adj.

post-traumatic stress disorder and post-traumatic stress syndrome ▷ noun, medicine, psychol (abbreviation PTSD) a psychological disorder associated with an extremely traumatic event, such as military combat, rape or torture, and characterized by symptoms such as withdrawal, anxiety, nightmares, etc, which may not appear until many months after the event.

postulant /ˈpɒstjʊlənt/ ▷ noun someone who asks or petitions for something, especially a candidate for holy orders or for admission to a religious community. ● postulancy noun (postulancies). ⓒ 18c: French, from Latin postulare to ask.

postulate /ˈpɒstjʊleɪt/ ▷ verb (postulated, postulating) 1 to assume or suggest something as the basis for discussion; to take it for granted. 2 to demand; to claim. 3 church law to nominate someone to an office or post, subject to the sanction of a higher authority. ▷ noun /ˈpɒstjʊlət/ 1 a stipulation or prerequisite. 2 a position assumed as self-evident. ● postulation noun. ⓒ 16c: from Latin postulare to demand.

posture /ˈpɒstʃə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 the way one holds one's body while standing, sitting or walking. 2 a particular position or attitude of the body. 3 an attitude adopted towards a particular issue, etc. 4 a pose adopted for effect. ▷ verb (postured, posturing) 1 to take up a particular bodily attitude. 2 intr, derog to pose, strike attitudes, etc so as to draw attention to oneself. ● postural adj. ● posturer noun. ⓒ 17c: French, from Latin positura, from ponere to place.

postviral syndrome ▷ noun (abbreviation PVS) MYALGIC ENCEPHALOMYELITIS.

postwar ▷ adj relating or belonging to the period following a war.

posy /ˈpoʊzɪ/ ▷ noun (posies) a small bunch of flowers. ⓒ 16c: a variant of POESY.

pot[1] ▷ noun 1 any of various domestic containers, usually deep round ones, used as cooking or serving utensils, or for storage. 2 a POTFUL ◻ a pot of tea. 3 pottery any handmade container. 4 the pool of accumulated bets in any gambling game. 5 in snooker, billiards, pool, etc: a shot that pockets a ball. 6 a casual shot ◻ take a pot at something. 7 a CHAMBERPOT. 8 a FLOWERPOT or PLANT POT. 9 (pots) colloq a great deal, especially of money. 10 colloq a trophy, especially a cup. 11 a POT-BELLY. ▷ verb (potted, potting) 1 to plant something in a plant pot. 2 to preserve (a type of food) in a pot. 3 in snooker, billiards, pool, etc: to shoot (a ball) into a pocket ◻ couldn't pot the black. 4 a colloq to shoot at (an animal, bird, etc), especially indiscriminately or wildly; b to win or secure, especially by shooting ◻ potted six grouse today. ● potted adj see separate entry. ● go to pot colloq to degenerate badly. ● keep the pot boiling colloq to sustain public interest in something. ⓒ Anglo-Saxon pott.

pot[2] ▷ noun, colloq CANNABIS. ⓒ 1930s: probably from Mexican Spanish potiguaya marijuana leaves.

potable /ˈpoʊtəbəl/ ▷ adj fit or suitable for drinking. ● potability noun. ⓒ 16c: French, from Latin potare to drink.

potage /pɒˈtɑːʒ/ ▷ noun a thick soup. ⓒ 16c: French; see POTTAGE.

potash /ˈpɒtaʃ/ ▷ noun (potashes) any of various compounds of potassium, especially potassium carbonate or potassium hydroxide. ⓒ 17c as pot ashes: from Dutch potasschen, because it was originally obtained by leaching ashes and evaporating the product in a pot.

potassium /pəˈtasɪəm/ ▷ noun, chem (symbol K, atomic number 19) a soft silvery-white metallic element, compounds of which are used in fertilizers, explosives, laboratory reagents, soaps and some types of glass. ⓒ 19c: from POTASH.

potassium hydrogencarbonate ▷ noun, chem (formula $KHCO_3$) a white crystalline powder, soluble in water, used in baking powder, carbonated soft drinks, carbon-dioxide fire extinguishers and as an antacid. Also called potassium bicarbonate.

potassium hydrogentartrate ▷ noun, chem (formula $HOOC(CHOH)_2COOK$) a white crystalline powder, soluble in water, found in vegetables and fruit juices, and used in baking powders and carbonated drinks. Also called cream of tartar.

potassium hydroxide ▷ noun, chem (formula KOH) a highly corrosive white crystalline solid that dissolves in water to form a strong alkaline solution and is used in the manufacture of soft soap, and as an electrolyte in batteries.

potassium nitrate ▷ noun, chem (formula KNO_3) a white or transparent highly explosive crystalline solid, used in the manufacture of fireworks, matches, gunpowder, fertilizers, etc and as a food preservative. Also called nitre or saltpetre.

potassium permanganate ▷ noun, chem (formula $KMnO_4$) a dark-purple water-soluble crystalline solid that is an extremely powerful oxidizing agent, used in disinfectants, fungicides, dyes and bleaches, and in chemical analysis. Also called permanganate of potash or potassium manganate (VII).

potation /poʊˈteɪʃən/ formal or humorous 1 the act or an instance of drinking. 2 a drink, especially an alcoholic one. 3 a drinking binge. ⓒ 15c: from French potacion; see POTABLE.

potato /pəˈteɪtoʊ/ ▷ noun (potatoes) 1 a perennial plant that produces edible TUBERS and is a staple crop of temperate regions worldwide. 2 the starch-rich round or oval tuber of this plant, which can be cooked and eaten as a vegetable, or processed to form crisps or chips. Also as adj ◻ potato salad. ⓒ 16c: from Spanish patata, variant of batata, from Taino (a S American language).

potato blight ▷ noun, bot a widespread fungal disease of potato and related plants, in which the entire plant is affected and rapidly dies, especially in wet weather.

potato crisp ▷ noun see CRISP (noun).

pot-au-feu /pɒtoʊˈfɜː/ ▷ noun a traditional French dish made by slowly cooking various cuts of meat together with vegetables, eg carrots, leeks, onions, turnips, etc, and herbs in a large heavy pot. The meat is then usually removed and eaten separately and the vegetables and stock are served as soup. ⓒ 18c: French, literally 'pot on the fire'.

potbelly ▷ noun (potbellies) colloq 1 a large overhanging belly. 2 someone who has such a belly. ● pot-bellied adj. ⓒ 18c.

potboiler ▷ noun, derog 1 an inferior work of literature or art produced by a writer or artist capable of better work, simply to make money and stay in the public view. 2 someone who produces such a work. ⓒ 19c: so called because it is something to KEEP THE POT BOILING (see under POT¹).

potbound ▷ adj said of a pot plant: having its roots cramped by being in too small a pot, leaving no room for growth.

poteen /pɒˈtiːn, pɒˈtʃiːn/ ▷ noun, Irish illicitly distilled Irish whiskey. ◎ 19c: from Irish poitín: diminutive of pota pot.

potent /ˈpoʊtənt/ ▷ adj 1 strong; effective; powerful. 2 said of an argument, etc: persuasive; convincing. 3 said of a drug or poison: powerful and swift in effect. 4 said of a male: capable of sexual intercourse. Opposite of IMPOTENT. • potency noun (potencies) 1 the state of being potent; power. 2 strength or effectiveness, eg of a drug. 3 the capacity for development. ◎ 15c: from Latin potens, potentis present participle of posse to be able.

potentate /ˈpoʊtənteɪt/ ▷ noun, especially historical or literary a powerful ruler; a monarch. ◎ 14c: from Latin potentatus from potens, potentis powerful.

potential /pəˈtɛnʃəl/ ▷ adj possible or likely, though as yet not tested or actual □ a potential customer. ▷ noun 1 the range of capabilities that someone or something has; powers or resources not yet developed or made use of □ fulfil your potential. 2 physics the energy required to move a unit of mass, electric charge, etc from an infinite distance to the point in a gravitational or electric field where it is to be measured. • potentiality noun. • potentialize or potentialise (potentialized, potentializing). • potentially adverb. ◎ 14c: from Latin potentialis from potentia power.

potential difference ▷ noun, physics (abbreviation pd or PD) the WORK (sense 17) done in moving electric charge between two points in an electrical circuit.

potential energy ▷ noun, physics (abbreviation PE) the energy stored by an object by virtue of its position.

potentilla /poʊtənˈtɪlə/ ▷ noun (potentillas) bot any of various creeping plants or small shrubs which have leaves with three leaflets and flowers with four or five, often yellow, petals. ◎ 16c: Latin, diminutive of potens powerful, because of the medicinal powers it was believed to have.

potentiometer /pətɛnʃɪˈɒmɪtə(r)/ ▷ noun, physics an instrument that measures electric POTENTIAL (noun 2), widely used as a volume control in transistor radios. ◎ 19c.

potful ▷ noun (potfuls) the amount a pot can hold.

pothead /ˈpɒthɛd/ ▷ noun someone who smokes a lot of cannabis. ◎ 1960s: from POT² + HEAD (noun sense 26).

pother /ˈpɒðə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 a fuss or commotion. 2 choking smoke or dust. ▷ verb (pothered, pothering) tr & intr to be, or make someone, flustered or upset. ◎ 16c.

pot-herb ▷ noun any plant whose leaves or stems are used in cooking to season or garnish food.

pot-hole ▷ noun 1 a roughly circular hole worn in the bedrock of a river as pebbles are swirled around by water eddies. 2 a vertical cave system or deep hole eroded in limestone. 3 a hole worn in a road surface.

pot-holing ▷ noun the sport, pastime or activity of exploring deep caves and pot-holes. • pot-holer noun. ◎ 19c.

pot-hook ▷ noun 1 a hook on which to hang a pot over a fire. 2 a hooked stroke in handwriting.

pot-hunter ▷ noun 1 someone whose motive in hunting game is merely profit and who ignores sporting rules and etiquette. 2 someone whose motive in taking part in a competition is merely to win a prize. ◎ 18c.

potion /ˈpoʊʃən/ ▷ noun a draught of medicine, poison or some magic elixir. ◎ 14c: French, from Latin potare to drink.

potlatch /ˈpɒtlatʃ/ ▷ noun a winter festival held by some Native American peoples, in which there is competitive and extravagant gift-giving, to demonstrate the status of the chief. ◎ 19c: from Chinook patlac a gift.

pot luck ▷ noun whatever happens to be available. Also as adj □ pot-luck supper. • take pot luck to have whatever happens to be available.

potoroo /poʊtəˈruː/ ▷ noun (potoroos) a small marsupial related to the kangaroo, with a stocky body and long hindlegs. ◎ 18c: Australian Aboriginal.

pot plant ▷ noun a plant grown in a pot and usually kept indoors for decoration.

potpourri /poʊˈpʊəri, poʊpʊˈriː/ ▷ noun (potpourris) 1 a fragrant mixture of dried flowers, leaves, etc placed in containers and used to scent rooms. 2 a medley or mixture. 3 a collection of old tunes. ◎ 18c in sense 1; 17c in obsolete sense 'a dish of different kinds of meat': French, literally 'rotten pot'.

pot roast ▷ noun, cookery a cut of meat braised with a little water in a covered pot.

potsherd /ˈpɒtʃɜːd/ ▷ noun, archaeol a fragment of pottery. ◎ 14c: POT¹ + SHERD.

pot shot ▷ noun 1 an easy shot at close range. 2 a shot made without taking careful aim. 3 a shot taken at game without regard for the rules of sport. ◎ 19c, originally in sense 3, ie a shot made simply to fill the cooking pot.

pottage /ˈpɒtɪdʒ/ ▷ noun a thick soup. ◎ 13c: from French potage that which is put in a pot.

potted ▷ adj 1 abridged, especially in order to give a simplified version □ a potted history. 2 said of food: preserved in a pot or jar □ potted meat. 3 said of a plant: growing or grown in a pot □ a potted begonia.

potter¹ /ˈpɒtə(r)/ ▷ noun someone who makes pottery.

potter² /ˈpɒtə(r)/ ▷ verb (pottered, pottering) intr 1 (usually potter about) to busy oneself in a mild way with trifling tasks. 2 (usually potter about or along) to progress in an unhurried manner; to dawdle. • potterer noun. ◎ 16c: from Anglo-Saxon potian to thrust.

potter's wheel ▷ noun an apparatus with a heavy rotating stone platter, on which clay pots can be shaped by hand before firing.

pottery ▷ noun (potteries) 1 containers, pots or other objects of baked clay. 2 the art or craft of making such objects. 3 a factory where such objects are produced commercially. ◎ 15c.

potting-shed ▷ noun a shed where garden tools are kept, plants are put into pots, etc.

potto /ˈpɒtoʊ/ ▷ noun (pottos) a slow-moving lemur-like primate that lives in the equatorial forests of W Africa. ◎ 18c.

Pott's disease ▷ noun, pathol a weakening disease of the spine, caused by tuberculous infection, often causing curvature of the back. ◎ 19c: named after Sir Percivall Pott (1714–88) who first described it.

Pott's fracture ▷ noun, medicine a fracture and dislocation of the ankle joint in which the lower tibia and fibula are damaged, resulting in an outward displacement of the foot. ◎ 19c: see POTT'S DISEASE.

potty¹ /ˈpɒtɪ/ ▷ adj (pottier, pottiest) colloq 1 mad; crazy. 2 (usually potty about someone or something) intensely interested in or keen on them or it. 3 trifling; insignificant. • pottiness noun. ◎ 19c in sense 3: from POT¹.

potty² /ˈpɒtɪ/ ▷ noun (potties) colloq a child's chamberpot. ◎ 1940s: diminutive of POT¹.

potty-train ▷ verb to teach (usually a toddler) to use a potty or the toilet. • potty-trained adj said especially of a toddler: no longer wearing nappies. • potty-training noun.

pouch /paʊtʃ/ ▷ noun (pouches) 1 chiefly old use a purse or small bag □ a tobacco pouch. 2 in marsupials such as the kangaroo: a pocket of skin on the belly, in which the young are carried until they are weaned. 3 a fleshy fold in the cheek of hamsters and other rodents, for storing undigested food. 4 a small lockable mailbag. ▷ verb (pouched, pouching) 1 to form, or form into, a pouch. 2 colloq to take possession of something. • pouched adj. • pouchy adj. ⓘ 14c: from Old French poche pocket.

pouf and poufter ▷ noun a POOF.

pouffe or pouf /puːf/ ▷ noun 1 a firmly stuffed drum-shaped or cube-shaped cushion for use as a low seat. 2 dressmaking a part of a dress gathered up into a bunch. ⓘ 19c: from French pouf something puffed out.

poulard /ˈpuːlɑːd/ ▷ noun a female hen that has been spayed and fattened for eating. Compare CAPON. ⓘ 18c: from French poularde, from poule hen.

poult /poʊlt/ ▷ noun a young domestic fowl or game bird, eg a young chicken, turkey, pheasant, etc. ⓘ 15c: a shortened form of French poulet a chicken.

poulterer /ˈpoʊltərə(r)/ ▷ noun a dealer in poultry and game. ⓘ 17c: from French pouletier, from poulet PULLET.

poultice /ˈpoʊltɪs/ ▷ noun, medicine a hot, semi-liquid mixture spread on a bandage and applied to the skin to reduce inflammation or to help a boil, etc to come to a head. ⓘ 16c: from Latin pultes, plural of puls thick porridge.

poultry /ˈpoʊltrɪ/ ▷ noun 1 collective domesticated birds kept for their eggs or meat, or both, eg chickens, ducks, turkeys, geese, etc. 2 the meat of such birds. ⓘ 14c: from French pouleterie, from pouletier poultry seller.

pounce[1] /paʊns/ ▷ verb (pounced, pouncing) intr (often pounce on something or someone) 1 to leap or swoop on (a victim or prey), especially when trying to capture them or it. 2 to seize on it or them; to grab eagerly. ▷ noun 1 an act of pouncing. 2 the talon of a bird of prey. ⓘ 15c in noun sense 2.

pounce[2] /paʊns/ ▷ noun 1 a fine powder for preparing a writing surface or absorbing ink. 2 coloured powder shaken through perforations to mark a pattern on the surface beneath. ▷ verb (pounced, pouncing) 1 to prepare with pounce. 2 to trace, transfer or mark (a surface, etc) with pounce. ⓘ 18c: from French ponce, from Latin pumex pumice.

pound[1] /paʊnd/ ▷ noun 1 (symbol £) the standard unit of currency of the UK. Also called pound sterling. 2 the English name for the principal currency unit in several other countries, including Malta, Cyprus and Egypt. 3 (abbreviation lb) a measure of weight equal to 16 ounces (0.45kg) avoirdupois, or 12 ounces (0.37kg) troy. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon pund.

pound[2] /paʊnd/ ▷ noun 1 an enclosure where stray animals or illegally parked cars that have been taken into police charge are kept for collection. 2 a place where people are confined. See also COMPOUND[2]. ▷ verb (pounded, pounding) to enclose or confine something in a pound. See also IMPOUND. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon pund- used in compounds to mean 'enclosure'.

pound[3] /paʊnd/ ▷ verb (pounded, pounding) 1 tr & intr (often pound on or at something) to beat or bang it vigorously □ pounding on the door. 2 intr to walk or run with heavy thudding steps. 3 to crush or grind something to a powder. 4 to thump or beat especially with the fists □ pounded him senseless. 5 said of the heart: to beat with heavy thumping pulses, especially through fear, excitement, etc. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon punian.

■ pound something out to produce it by, or as if by, pounding eg a typewriter, etc.

poundage ▷ noun a fee or commission charged per POUND[1] in weight or money.

poundal /ˈpaʊndəl/ ▷ noun, physics a unit of force that is equivalent to the force required to make a mass weighing one pound accelerate by one foot per second per second. ⓘ 19c.

pound cake ▷ noun a type of rich fruit cake that originally was made with a pound each of fruit, flour, butter, sugar, etc and which now applies to any cake with these ingredients in equal measure. ⓘ 18c.

-pounder ▷ noun, in compounds, denoting 1 something weighing a specified number of pounds □ My trout was a three-pounder. 2 a field gun designed to fire shot weighing a specified number of pounds □ a twenty-four pounder.

pound force ▷ noun, physics see POUNDAL.

pound of flesh ▷ noun (usually get or have one's pound of flesh) what is strictly speaking due in the fulfilment of a bargain even if it means causing unreasonable suffering or difficulties to the other party. ⓘ 16c: from Shakespeare's The Merchant of Venice IV i, in which a pound of flesh is stipulated as a penalty in a bargain.

pound Scots ▷ noun, historical a former unit of currency varying in value from time to time and worth one shilling and eight pence at the time of THE UNION (sense 1). pound sign ▷ noun the symbol (£) used before a number to designate the POUND (sense 1).

pound sterling see under POUND[1] pour /pɔː(r)/ ▷ verb (poured, pouring) 1 tr & intr to flow or cause something to flow in a downward stream. 2 tr & intr said of a jug, teapot, etc: to discharge (liquid) in a certain way □ doesn't pour very well. 3 (also pour something out) to serve (a drink, etc) by pouring □ Pour me some tea. 4 intr to rain heavily. 5 intr (usually pour in or out) to come or go in large numbers. 6 intr (also pour in or out, etc) to flow or issue plentifully □ Donations poured in □ Words poured from her pen. • pourer noun. • it never rains but it pours things, especially pieces of bad luck, etc, seldom come along unaccompanied by others □ got the phone bill yesterday and now the gas bill — it never rains but it pours. • pour cold water on something to be discouraging or deprecatory about (an idea, scheme, etc). • pour scorn on something to be contemptuous about it. ⓘ 14c.

■ pour something into something 1 to invest eg money, energy, etc liberally into it □ poured all his savings into the company. 2 to squeeze oneself or someone into (an item of clothing which fits very tightly).

■ pour something out to reveal without inhibition □ poured out her feelings.

pourboire / French purbwar/ ▷ noun a tip or gratuity. ⓘ 18c: French, literally 'for drinking'.

poussin /French pusɛ̃/ ▷ noun a young chicken reared for eating at the age of four to six weeks. ⓘ 1930s: French, meaning 'a newly-born chicken'.

pout[1] /paʊt/ ▷ verb (pouted, pouting) 1 tr & intr to push the lower lip or both lips forward as an indication of sulkiness or seductiveness. 2 intr said of the lips: to stick out in this way. ▷ noun 1 an act of pouting. 2 a pouting expression. • poutingly adverb. • pouty adj. ⓘ 14c.

pout[2] /paʊt/ ▷ noun (pout or pouts) a fish belonging to the cod family, which has barbels around its mouth. ⓘ Anglo-Saxon puta.

pouter ▷ noun 1 someone or something that pouts. 2 a breed of domestic pigeon, so called because it is capable of puffing out its large crop.

poverty /ˈpɒvətɪ/ ▷ noun 1 the condition of being poor; want. 2 poor quality. 3 inadequacy; deficiency □ poverty of imagination. ⓘ 12c: from French poverte, from Latin paupertas, from pauper poor.

poverty line ▷ noun the minimum income needed to purchase the basic necessities of life ◻ living below the poverty line.

poverty-stricken ▷ adj suffering from poverty.

poverty trap ▷ noun the inescapable poverty of someone who, in achieving an improvement in income, has their state benefits cut.

POW ▷ abbreviation prisoner of war.

pow /paʊ/ ▷ exclamation, colloq an imitation of the noise of a blow or impact, etc. ⓘ 19c.

powder /ˈpaʊdə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 any substance in the form of fine dust-like particles ◻ talcum powder. 2 (also face powder) a cosmetic that is patted on to the skin to give it a soft smooth appearance. 3 GUNPOWDER. 4 a dose of medicine in powder form. ▷ verb (powdered, powdering) 1 to apply powder to (eg one's face); to sprinkle or cover something with powder. 2 to reduce something to a powder by crushing; to pulverize. ● powder one's nose euphemistic 1 said of a woman: to go to the lavatory. 2 to snort cocaine. ⓘ 13c: from French poudre, from Latin pulvis dust.

powder blue ▷ noun a delicate pale blue colour. ▷ adj (powder-blue) having this colour.

powder keg ▷ noun 1 a barrel of gunpowder. 2 a potentially dangerous or explosive situation.

powder metallurgy ▷ noun, chem a method of shaping heat-resistant metals or alloys by reducing them to powder, pressing them into moulds, and heating them to very high temperatures.

powder monkey ▷ noun 1 historical a boy who carried powder to the gunners on warships. 2 US someone who carries out blasting operations or is in charge of explosives.

powder puff ▷ noun a pad of velvety or fluffy material for patting POWDER (sense 2) on to the skin.

powder room ▷ noun a women's cloakroom or toilet in a restaurant, hotel, etc.

powder snow ▷ noun light dry snow that is good for skiing. ⓘ 1920s.

powdery ▷ adj (powderier, powderiest) 1 having the consistency or nature of powder; powderlike. 2 covered with or full of powder. 3 dusty. 4 friable.

power /ˈpaʊə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 control and influence exercised over others. 2 strength, vigour, force or effectiveness. 3 usually in compounds military strength ◻ sea power ◻ air power. 4 the physical ability, skill, opportunity or authority to do something. 5 an individual faculty or skill ◻ the power of speech. 6 a right, privilege or responsibility ◻ the power of arrest. 7 political control. 8 a state that has an influential role in international affairs. Also in compounds ◻ superpower. 9 a person or group exercising control or influence. 10 colloq a great deal ◻ The rest did her a power of good. 11 any form of energy, especially when used as the driving force for a machine. Often in compounds ◻ nuclear power. 12 math a less technical term for an EXPONENT (sense 3). 13 physics the rate of doing work or converting energy from one form into another. 14 a) mechanical or electrical energy, as distinct from manual effort; b as adj ◻ power tools. 15 optics a measure of the extent to which a lens, optical instrument or curved mirror can deviate light rays and so magnify an image of an object. 16 in the traditional medieval hierarchy of nine ranks of angels: an angel of the sixth rank. Compare SERAPH, CHERUB, THRONE, DOMINION, VIRTUE, PRINCIPALITY, ARCHANGEL, ANGEL. ▷ verb (powered, powering) 1 to supply something with power. Also in compounds ◻ wind-powered. 2 tr & intr, colloq to move or cause something to move with great force, energy or speed. ● in power elected; holding office ◻ when Labour is in power. ● the powers that be the people who are in control or in authority. ⓘ 13c: from French poer, from Latin posse to be able.

● power something up to recharge its power supply (especially that of a laptop computer) by attaching it to the mains electricity supply.

power base ▷ noun something or someone seen as the origin or foundation of authority, backing, support, etc, especially in politics, international relations, business, etc. ⓘ 1960s.

power block ▷ noun a politically important and powerful group or body, especially a group of allied states.

powerboat racing and powerboating ▷ noun the racing of boats fitted with high-powered and finely-tuned inboard or outboard engines, fuelled by petrol or diesel.

power breakfast see POWER LUNCH power broker ▷ noun someone who has great influence, eg in politics, especially when they use this influence to sway policies, etc in their own or their party's favour. ● power-broking noun, adj. ⓘ 1960s.

power cut ▷ noun a temporary break or reduction in an electricity supply.

power dive ▷ noun a steep dive made by an aeroplane, with its engines providing thrust. ▷ verb (power-dive) 1 intr said of an aircraft: to perform a power dive. 2 tr & intr to make (an aircraft) perform a power dive. ⓘ 1930s.

power dressing ▷ noun the wearing, by businesswomen, of severely tailored suits and dresses, intended to convey professionalism and assertiveness. ⓘ 1980s.

powerful ▷ adj 1 having great power, strength or vigour. 2 very effective or efficient ◻ a powerful argument. ▷ adverb, dialect extremely ◻ June was powerful hot. ● powerfully adverb. ● powerfulness noun.

powerhouse ▷ noun 1 a power station. 2 colloq a forceful or vigorous person.

powerless ▷ adj 1 deprived of power or authority. 2 completely unable (usually to do something) ◻ I was powerless to help. ● powerlessly adverb. ● powerlessness noun.

power line ▷ noun a conductor that carries electricity, especially one of several supported by pylons. ⓘ 19c.

power lunch and power breakfast ▷ noun a high-level business discussion held over lunch or breakfast.

power of attorney ▷ noun the right to act for another person in legal and business matters.

power pack ▷ noun a device for adjusting the voltage of a power source or battery to the voltage required by a particular electrical device.

power plant ▷ noun 1 an industrial plant for generating electrical energy from some other form of energy. 2 the engine and other equipment that supplies power to a motor vehicle, aeroplane, etc.

power play ▷ noun 1 sport strong attacking play designed to pressurize the defence by concentrating players and action in one small area. 2 in business, politics, etc: the concentration of resources, etc in a small area.

power point ▷ noun, Brit a wall socket where an electrical appliance may be connected to the mains.

power politics ▷ singular or plural noun political action based on influence, often involving a degree of coercion or force. ⓘ 1930s.

power-sharing ▷ noun, politics an agreement, especially between parties in a coalition, that policy-making, decision-taking, etc will be done jointly.

power station ▷ noun a building where electricity is generated on a large scale from another form of energy, such as coal, nuclear fuel, moving water, etc.

power steering and power-assisted steering ▷ noun in a motor vehicle: a system in which the rotating force exerted on the steering wheel is supplemented by engine power.

powwow /ˈpaʊwaʊ/ ▷ noun 1 colloq a meeting for discussion. 2 a a meeting of Native Americans; b a Native American ceremony or rite, often with feasting. Compare INDABA. 3 in certain Native American tribes: a medicine man. ▷ verb (powwowed, powwowing) intr to hold a powwow. ⓒ 17c: from Narragansett powwaw priest.

pox ▷ noun (poxes) 1 medicine, often in compounds any of various infectious viral diseases that cause a skin rash consisting of pimples containing pus □ chickenpox □ smallpox. 2 (often the pox) a former name for SYPHILIS. ⓒ 16c: a variant of pocks, the plural of POCK.

poxy /ˈpɒksɪ/ ▷ adj (poxier, poxiest) Brit colloq worthless, second-rate, trashy. ⓒ 1920s.

pozidriv /ˈpɒzɪdraɪv/ ▷ noun, trademark a type of screwdriver with a crossed end.

PP ▷ abbreviation 1 parish priest. 2 past president.

pp ▷ abbreviation 1 pages □ pp9–12. 2 usually written when signing a letter in the absence of the sender: per procurationem (Latin), for and on behalf of (the specified person). Also called per pro. 3 music pianissimo.

PPARC ▷ abbreviation Particle Physics and Astronomy Research Council.

PPE ▷ abbreviation Philosophy, Politics and Economics, a course at Oxford university.

ppm ▷ abbreviation parts per million.

PPS ▷ abbreviation 1 Parliamentary Private Secretary. 2 (also pps) post postscriptum (Latin), after the postscript, ie an additional postscript.

PR ▷ abbreviation 1 proportional representation. 2 public relations. 3 Puerto Rico.

Pr ▷ symbol, chem praseodymium.

practicable /ˈpraktɪkəbəl/ ▷ adj 1 capable of being done, used or successfully carried out; feasible. 2 said eg of a road: fit for use. • practicability or practicableness noun. • practicably adverb. ⓒ 17c: from French pratiquer to practise; see PRACTICAL.

practicable, practical

• Both words mean 'able to be done, used, etc', and a plan (for example) can be said to be practical or practicable. But practical has the further connotation of 'efficient, sensible, useful' and is therefore more judgemental; it can also be applied to people, whereas practicable can not □ It is perfectly practicable to make the journey by car □ They stood by to offer advice and practical assistance □ He was clever enough, but somehow he wasn't practical with it.

practical /ˈpraktɪkəl/ ▷ adj 1 concerned with or involving action rather than theory □ put her knowledge to practical use. 2 effective, or capable of being effective, in actual use. 3 said eg of clothes: designed for tough or everyday use; sensibly plain. 4 said of a person: a sensible and efficient in deciding and acting; b good at doing manual jobs. 5 in effect; virtual □ a practical walkover. ▷ noun a practical lesson or examination, eg in a scientific subject. • practicality noun (practicalities). ⓒ 17c: from Greek praktikos, from prassein to do.

practical joke ▷ noun a trick or prank which is played on someone, usually making them look silly. • practical joker noun.

practically ▷ adverb 1 almost; very nearly. 2 in a practical manner.

practice /ˈpraktɪs/ ▷ noun 1 the process of carrying something out □ put ideas into practice. 2 a habit, activity, procedure or custom □ Don't make a practice of it! 3 repeated exercise to improve technique in an art or sport, etc. 4 the business or clientele of a doctor, dentist, lawyer, etc. • be in or out of practice to have maintained, or failed to maintain, one's skill in an art or sport, etc. ⓒ 16c: from PRACTISE.

practice, practise

• In British English, practice is the spelling of the noun, and practise the verb.
• American English uses practice for both.

practise or (US) practice /ˈpraktɪs/ verb (practised, practising) 1 tr & intr to do exercises repeatedly in (an art or sport, etc) so as to improve one's performance. 2 to make a habit of something □ practise self-control. 3 to go in for something as a custom □ tribes that practise bigamy. 4 to work at or follow (an art or profession, especially medicine or law). 5 to perform (a wrongful act) against someone □ He practised a cruel deception on them. ⓒ 15c: from Latin practicare, from Greek praktikos practical work.

practised or (US) practiced adj (often practised at something) skilled; experienced; expert.

practising ▷ adj actively engaged in or currently pursuing or observing □ a practising lawyer □ a practising Christian. ▷ ▷ noun an act or the process of doing something for PRACTICE (sense 3) □ Practising the piano takes up a lot of her time.

practitioner /prakˈtɪʃənə(r)/ ▷ noun someone who practises an art or profession, especially medicine. See also GENERAL PRACTITIONER. ⓒ 16c: from French praticien, from Latin practica PRACTISE.

prädikat /preɪdɪˈkat/ ▷ noun 1 in Germany: a distinction awarded to a wine, based on the ripeness of the grapes used to produce it. 2 a wine that qualifies for this award. ⓒ 1980s: German meaning 'rating'.

prae- /priː/ ▷ prefix a form of PRE- used in words that are particularly Latinate or that relate to Roman antiquity.

praesidium see PRESIDIUM.

praenomen /priːˈnoʊmən/ ▷ noun, Roman history someone's first or personal name, eg 'Gaius' in 'Gaius Julius Caesar'. ⓒ 17c: Latin, meaning 'first name'.

praetor /ˈpriːtə(r)/ ▷ noun, Roman history one of the chief law officers of the state, elected annually, and second to the CONSUL in importance. ⓒ 15c: Latin, meaning 'one who goes before', from prae before + ire to go.

praetorian /priːˈtɔːrɪən/ Roman history ▷ adj belonging or relating to, or having the authority of, a PRAETOR. ▷ noun a man of praetorian rank, especially one sent to a province to act as its governor. ⓒ 16c: see PRAETOR.

praetorian guard ▷ noun, Roman history the select group of soldiers whose duty was to act as bodyguard to the emperor.

pragmatic /pragˈmatɪk/ ▷ adj 1 concerned with what is practicable, expedient and convenient, rather than with theories and ideals; matter-of-fact; realistic. 2 relating to or concerning the affairs of a community or state. 3 philos relating to pragmatism. ⓒ 17c: from Latin pragmaticus, from Greek pragma a deed.

pragmatics ▷ singular noun the branch of linguistic study that deals with how language is used, especially the factors that influence people's choice of words.

pragmatism /ˈpragmətɪzəm/ ▷ noun 1 a practical matter-of-fact approach to dealing with problems, etc. 2 philos a school of thought that assesses the truth of concepts in terms of their practical implications. • pragmatist noun.

prahu see PROA prairie /ˈprɛəri/ ⊳ noun in N America: a large expanse of flat or rolling natural grassland, usually without trees. ⓘ 18c: French, from Latin pratum meadow.

prairie dog ⊳ noun a small burrowing GROUND SQUIRREL with a yellowish-brown or reddish-grey coat, small ears and a short tail. ⓘ 18c: named 'dog' because of its barking alarm call.

prairie oyster ⊳ noun an alcoholic drink, usually a large measure of spirits, with a seasoned raw egg in it. It is meant to be downed in one gulp and is supposed to cure a hangover. ⓘ 19c.

praise /preɪz/ ⊳ verb (praised, praising) 1 to express admiration or approval of someone or something. 2 to worship or glorify (God) with hymns or thanksgiving, etc. ⊳ noun 1 the expression of admiration or approval; commendation. 2 worship of God. • sing someone's or something's praises to commend them or it enthusiastically. ⓘ 13c: from French preisier, from Latin pretiare to value.

praiseworthy ⊳ adj deserving praise; commendable. • praiseworthily adverb. • praiseworthiness noun. ⓘ 16c.

Prakrit /ˈprɑːkrɪt/ ⊳ noun any of several Indic vernaculars spoken from ancient to medieval times and the medium of Buddhist and Jain literature. ⓘ 18c: from Sanskrit prakrta natural, vulgar; compare SANSKRIT.

praline /ˈprɑːliːn/ ⊳ noun a sweet consisting of nuts in caramelized sugar. ⓘ 18c: from Marshal Duplessis-Praslin (1598–1675), a French soldier whose cook invented it.

pram ⊳ noun a wheeled baby carriage pushed by someone on foot. ⓘ 19c: a short form of PERAMBULATOR.

prana /ˈprɑːnə/ ⊳ noun, Hinduism breath as the essential life force. ⓘ 19c: Sanskrit.

prance /prɑːns/ ⊳ verb (pranced, prancing) 1 intr said especially of a horse: to walk with lively springing steps. 2 intr to frisk or skip about. 3 intr to parade about in a swaggering manner. 4 to make (a horse, etc) prance. ⓘ 14c.

prandial /ˈprandɪəl/ ⊳ adj, often facetious belonging or relating to dinner. See also POSTPRANDIAL. ⓘ 19c: from Latin prandium a morning or midday meal.

prang colloq ⊳ verb (pranged, pranging) 1 to crash (a vehicle). 2 to bomb something from the air. ⊳ noun 1 a vehicle crash. 2 a bombing raid. ⓘ 1940s: originally RAF slang, imitating the sound made.

prank ⊳ noun a playful trick; a practical joke. • prankster noun. ⓘ 16c.

praseodymium /preɪzɪoʊˈdɪmɪəm/ ⊳ noun, chem (symbol Pr, atomic number 59) a soft silvery metallic element, used in thermoelectric materials, glasses and glazes. ⓘ 19c: Latin, from Greek prasios leek-green + DIDYMIUM.

prat ⊳ noun slang 1 offensive a fool; an ineffectual person. 2 the buttocks. ⓘ 16c. prate ⊳ verb (prated, prating) tr & intr to talk or utter foolishly; to blab. ⊳ noun idle chatter. ⓘ 15c: from Dutch praeten to talk.

pratfall ⊳ noun 1 a ridiculous tumble in which someone, especially a clown or comedian, lands on their bottom. 2 an embarrassing blunder. ⓘ 1940s: PRAT + FALL.

pratincole /ˈpratɪŋkoʊl/ ⊳ noun any of various species of bird related to the plover, with long pointed wings and a short beak. ⓘ 18c: from Latin praticola, from pratum a meadow + incola inhabitant.

prattle /ˈpratəl/ ⊳ verb (prattled, prattling) tr & intr to chatter or utter childishly or foolishly. ⊳ noun childish or foolish chatter. • prattler noun. ⓘ 16c: from German pratelen to chatter.

prau see PROA

prawn ⊳ noun any of various small edible shrimp-like marine crustaceans with long tail fans, which are almost transparent when alive but pinkish-orange when cooked. ⓘ 15c.

prawn cracker ⊳ noun a light deep-fried prawn-flavoured type of crisp, traditionally eaten as an accompaniment to Chinese food.

praxis /ˈpraksɪs/ noun (plural praxes /-siːz/) 1 practice as opposed to theory. 2 an example or collection of examples for exercise. 3 accepted practice. ⓘ 16c: Greek, from prassein to do.

pray ⊳ verb (prayed, praying) (often pray for something or someone) 1 now usually intr to address one's god, making earnest requests or giving thanks. 2 old use, tr & intr to entreat or implore □ Stop, I pray you! 3 tr & intr to hope desperately. ⊳ exclamation, old use (now often uttered with quaint politeness or cold irony) please, or may I ask □ Pray come in □ Who asked you, pray? ⓘ 13c: from French preier, from Latin precari to entreat.

> pray
>
> A word often confused with this one is prey.

prayer[1] /prɛə(r)/ ⊳ noun 1 an address to one's god, making a request or giving thanks. 2 the activity of praying. 3 an earnest hope, desire or entreaty. ⓘ 13c: from French preiere, from Latin precaria, from precari to pray.

prayer[2] /preɪə(r)/ ⊳ noun someone who prays.

prayer book ⊳ noun a book of set prayers appropriate for various occasions and specific types of church service.

prayerful ⊳ adj 1 said of someone: devout; tending to pray a lot or often. 2 said of a speech, etc: imploring. • prayerfully adverb. • prayerfulness noun.

prayer rug and prayer mat ⊳ noun a small carpet on which a Muslim kneels when praying.

prayer shawl see TALLITH prayer wheel ⊳ noun, Buddhism a drum that turns on a spindle, inscribed with prayers, and containing a scroll of prayers, which are believed to be activated as the drum is rotated.

praying mantis see under MANTIS

PRB ⊳ abbreviation, historical Pre-Raphaelite Brotherhood.

pre- /priː, prɪ/ ⊳ prefix, denoting before a in time □ pre-war; b in position □ premolar; c in importance □ pre-eminent. ⓘ From Latin prae- before.

preach ⊳ verb (preaches, preached, preaching) 1 tr & intr to deliver (a sermon) as part of a religious service. 2 (often preach at someone) to give them advice in a tedious or obtrusive manner. 3 to advise or advocate something. • preacher noun someone who preaches, especially a minister of religion. ⓘ 13c: from French prechier, from Latin praedicare to announce publicly.

preachy ⊳ adj (preachier, preachiest) colloq said of someone, their attitude, speech, etc: tending to be moralistic.

preadmonish ⊳ verb to forewarn. ⓘ 17c.

pre-adolescent ⊳ adj 1 belonging or relating to the period immediately preceding adolescence. 2 said of a child: at this stage of development. ⊳ noun a pre-adolescent child. • pre-adolescence noun.

preamble /priˈambəl/ ⊳ noun an introduction or preface, eg to a speech or document; an opening statement. ⓘ 14c: from Latin praeambulare to walk before.

preamplifier ⊳ noun (also colloq preamp) an electronic device that boosts and clarifies the signal from a radio, microphone, etc before it reaches the main amplifier. ⓘ 1930s.

prearrange ▷ verb to arrange something in advance. ● prearrangement noun. ⓘ 18c.

prebend /ˈprɛbənd/ ▷ noun 1 an allowance paid out of the revenues of a cathedral or collegiate church to its canons or chapter members. 2 the piece of land, etc which is the source of such revenue. 3 a prebendary. ● prebendal /prɪˈbɛndəl/ adj. ⓘ 15c: from Latin praebenda allowance, from praebere to offer.

prebendary /ˈprɛbəndərɪ/ ▷ noun (prebendaries) 1 a clergyman of a cathedral or collegiate church who is in receipt of a PREBEND. 2 C of E the honorary holder of a prebend.

Precambrian geol ▷ adj 1 relating to the earliest geological era, during which primitive forms of life appeared on Earth. See table at GEOLOGICAL TIME SCALE. 2 relating to the rocks formed during this period. ▷ noun (the Precambrian) the Precambrian era. ⓘ 19c: see CAMBRIAN.

precancerous ▷ adj said especially of cells: showing early indications of possible malignancy. ⓘ Late 19c.

precarious /prɪˈkɛərɪəs/ ▷ adj 1 unsafe; insecure; dangerous. 2 uncertain; chancy. ● precariously adverb. ● precariousness noun. ⓘ 17c: from Latin precarius obtained by prayer, from prex, precis prayer.

precast ▷ adj said of concrete, etc: made into blocks, before being put into position. ⓘ Early 20c.

precaution /prɪˈkɔːʃən/ ▷ noun 1 a measure taken to ensure a satisfactory outcome, or to avoid a risk or danger. 2 caution exercised beforehand. ● precautionary adj. ⓘ 17c: from Latin praecautio, from cavere to beware.

precede /prɪˈsiːd/ ▷ verb (preceded, preceding) tr & intr 1 to go or be before someone or something, in time, order, position, rank or importance. 2 to preface or introduce something. ⓘ 15c: from Latin praecedere to go before.

precedence /ˈprɛsɪdəns, ˈpriːsɪdəns/ ▷ noun 1 priority □ Safety takes precedence over all else. 2 the fact of preceding, in order, rank, importance, etc. 3 the right to precede others. ⓘ 16c.

precedent ▷ noun /ˈprɛsɪdənt, ˈpriː-/ 1 a previous incident or legal case, etc that has something in common with one under consideration, serving as a basis for a decision in the present one. 2 the judgement or decision given in such a case. ▷ adj, now rare /prɪˈsiːdənt, ˈprɛsɪdənt/ preceding. ⓘ 14c as adj.

preceding ▷ adj going before in time, position, etc; previous.

precentor /prɪˈsɛntə(r)/ ▷ noun, relig someone who leads the singing of a church congregation, or the prayers in a synagogue. ⓘ 17c: from Latin praecentor, from prae- before + canere to sing.

precept /ˈpriːsɛpt/ ▷ noun 1 a rule or principle, especially one of a moral kind, that is seen or used as a guide to behaviour. 2 law the written warrant of a magistrate. ⓘ 14c: from Latin praeceptum, from praecipere to advise or, literally, to take before.

preceptor /prɪˈsɛptə(r)/ and preceptress /-trɪs/ ▷ noun a teacher or instructor. ● preceptorial /priːsɛpˈtɔːrɪəl/ adj. ● preceptorship noun. ⓘ 15c: from Latin praeceptor an instructor.

precession /prɪˈsɛʃən/ ▷ noun 1 physics the gradual change in direction of the axis of rotation of a spinning body. 2 astron the progressively earlier occurrence of the equinoxes, resulting from the gradual change in direction of the Earth's axis of rotation. Also called precession of the equinoxes. 3 the act of preceding. ● precessional adj. ⓘ 16c: from Latin praecessio, praecessionis, from praecedere to PRECEDE.

precinct /ˈpriːsɪŋkt/ ▷ noun 1 (also precincts) the enclosed grounds of a large building, etc □ the cathedral precinct. 2 (also precincts) the neighbourhood or environs of a place. 3 a PEDESTRIAN PRECINCT. 4 N Amer, especially US a) any of the districts into which a city is divided for administrative or policing purposes; b) the police station of one of these districts. ⓘ 15c: from Latin praecingere, praecinctum to surround.

preciosity /prɛʃɪˈɒsɪtɪ/ ▷ noun (preciosities) affectedness or exaggerated refinement in speech or manner. ⓘ 19c: see PRECIOUS.

precious /ˈprɛʃəs/ ▷ adj 1 valuable. 2 dear; beloved; treasured. 3 derog said of speech or manner: affected or over-precise. 4 colloq, ironic a confounded □ Him and his precious goldfish! b substantial □ And a precious lot you'd care! ▷ noun a rather sickly form of address □ And how's my little precious today? ● preciously adverb. ● preciousness noun. ● precious few or little colloq almost none. ⓘ 13c: from Latin pretiosus valuable, from pretium price.

precious metal ▷ noun gold, silver or platinum.

precious stone ▷ noun a gemstone, such as a diamond, ruby, etc, valued for its beauty and rarity, especially with regard to its use in jewellery or ornamentation.

precipice /ˈprɛsɪpɪs/ ▷ noun a steep, vertical or overhanging cliff or rock face. ⓘ 17c: from Latin praecipitare to fall headlong.

precipitate ▷ verb /prɪˈsɪpɪteɪt/ (precipitated, precipitating) 1 to cause something or hasten its advent □ precipitated a war. 2 to throw or plunge □ Jim precipitated himself into the controversy. 3 chem, tr & intr to form or cause something to form a suspension of small solid particles in a solution, as a result of certain chemical reactions. 4 meteorol said of moisture, etc: to condense and fall as rain, snow, etc. ▷ adj /prɪˈsɪpɪtət/ said of actions or decisions: recklessly hasty or ill-considered. ▷ noun /prɪˈsɪpɪtət/ 1 chem a suspension of small solid particles formed in a solution as a result of certain chemical reactions. 2 meteorol moisture deposited as rain or snow, etc. ● precipitately adverb. ⓘ 16c: from Latin praecipitare, praecipitatum to fall or throw headlong.

precipitation /prɪsɪpɪˈteɪʃən/ ▷ noun 1 rash haste. 2 meteorol water that falls from clouds in the atmosphere to the Earth's surface in the form of rain, snow, etc. 3 the act of precipitating or process of being precipitated. 4 chem the formation of a precipitate.

precipitous /prɪˈsɪpɪtəs/ ▷ adj 1 dangerously steep. 2 said of actions or decisions: rash; precipitate. ● precipitously adverb. ● precipitousness noun.

précis /ˈpreɪsiː/ ▷ noun (plural précis) a summary of a piece of writing. ▷ verb (précised, précising) to make a précis of something. ⓘ 18c: French, meaning 'precise' or 'cut short'.

precise /prɪˈsaɪs/ ▷ adj (preciser, precisest) 1 exact; very □ at this precise moment. 2 clear; detailed □ precise instructions. 3 accurate □ precise timing. 4 said of someone: careful over details. ● preciseness noun. ⓘ 16c: from Latin praecisus shortened, from praecidere to cut short.

precisely ▷ adverb 1 exactly □ began at eight o'clock precisely. 2 in a precise manner. 3 said in response to a remark: you are quite right.

precision /prɪˈsɪʒən/ 1 noun accuracy. 2 as adj said of tools, etc: designed to operate with minute accuracy □ precision timing.

precision-approach radar ▷ noun, aeronautics (abbreviation PAR) a radar system that shows the exact position of an approaching aircraft, enabling an air traffic controller to give the pilot detailed landing instructions. ⓘ 1950s.

preclinical ▷ adj, medicine 1 said of a disease, etc: at the stage before significant symptoms appear. 2 said of medical training or education: at the theoretical stage.

preclude /prɪˈkluːd/ ▷ verb (precluded, precluding) 1 to rule out or eliminate something or make it impossible. 2 (often preclude someone from something) to prevent their involvement in it. ■ preclusion /prɪˈkluːʒən/ noun. ■ preclusive adj. ◷ 17c: from Latin praecludere, praeclusum to impede, from claudere to shut.

precocial /prɪˈkoʊʃəl/ ornith ▷ adj said of the newly-hatched young of certain birds: covered with feathers and able to see, and so able to leave the nest relatively soon after hatching. ▷ noun a bird that produces such chicks. Compare ALTRICIAL, NIDICOLOUS. ◷ 19c: see PRECOCIOUS.

precocious /prɪˈkoʊʃəs/ ▷ adj 1 said eg of a child: unusually advanced in mental development, speech, behaviour, etc. 2 said of behaviour, achievements, etc: indicating advanced development. ■ precociously adverb. ■ precociousness or precocity /prɪˈkɒsɪtɪ/ noun. ◷ 17c: from Latin praecox ripening early, from coquere to cook or ripen.

precognition /priːkɒgˈnɪʃən/ ▷ noun the supposed ability to foresee events; foreknowledge. ■ precognitive /prɪˈkɒgnɪtɪv/ adj. ◷ 17c: from Latin praecognitio, from cognoscere to know.

precolumbian or preColumbian ▷ adj denoting the period of American history before the discovery of America by Christopher Columbus. ◷ 19c.

preconceive ▷ verb to form (an idea, etc) of something before having direct experience of it. ■ preconceived adj. ◷ 16c.

preconception ▷ noun 1 an assumption about something not yet experienced. 2 (often preconceptions) a prejudice.

precondition ▷ noun a condition to be satisfied in advance. ▷ verb to accustom or train someone or something beforehand to behave or react in a particular way. ◷ 19c.

preconize or preconise /ˈpriːkənaɪz/ ▷ verb (preconized, preconizing) formal 1 to proclaim something publicly. 2 to summon someone publicly. 3 RC Church said of the pope: to proclaim and ratify the election of (a bishop). ◷ 15c: from Latin praeconizare, from praeco, praeconis a herald.

precursor /prɪˈkɜːsə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 something that precedes, and is a sign of, an approaching event. 2 chem any chemical compound from which another compound is directly produced by some form of chemical modification. ■ precursive or precursory adj. ◷ 16c: Latin, from praecurrere, praecursum to run before.

predacious /prɪˈdeɪʃəs/ ▷ adj said of animals: predatory. ◷ 18c: from Latin praeda booty or prey.

predate¹ /priːˈdeɪt/ ▷ verb 1 to write a earlier date on (a document, cheque, etc). 2 to occur at an earlier date than (a specified date or event). ◷ 19c.

predate² /prɪˈdeɪt/ ▷ verb said of an animal: 1 to eat or prey upon (another animal). 2 intr to hunt prey. ◷ 1970s: back-formation from PREDATION.

predation /prɪˈdeɪʃən/ ▷ noun the killing and consuming of other animals for survival; the activity of preying. ◷ 1930s in this sense; 15c in obsolete sense 'plundering': from Latin praedari, praedatus to plunder.

predator /ˈpredətə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 any animal that obtains food by catching, usually killing, and eating other animals. 2 derog a predatory person. ◷ 1920s: from Latin praedator plunderer.

predatory /ˈpredətərɪ/ ▷ adj 1 said of an animal: obtaining food by catching and eating other animals. 2 said of someone: cruelly exploiting the weakness or goodwill of others for personal gain. ■ predatorily adverb. ■ predatoriness noun.

predecease ▷ verb to die before (another person). ◷ 16c.

predecessor /ˈpriːdɪsesə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 the person who formerly held a job or position now held by someone else. 2 the previous version, model, etc of a particular thing or product. 3 an ancestor. ◷ 14c: from Latin praedecessor, from decedere to go away.

predella /prɪˈdelə/ ▷ noun (predellas) 1 art a small painting or panel enclosed in a compartment attached to the lower edge of an altarpiece, especially one that illustrates scenes from the life of the saint represented in the main panel. 2 the platform or uppermost step on which an altar stands. 3 a RETABLE. ◷ 19c: Italian, meaning 'stool' or 'footstool'.

predestination ▷ noun 1 the act of predestining or fact of being predestined. 2 relig the doctrine that whatever is to happen has been unalterably fixed by God from the beginning of time, especially with regard to which souls are to be saved and which damned.

predestine /priːˈdestɪn/ ▷ verb 1 to determine something beforehand. 2 to ordain or decree by fate. ◷ 14c.

predetermine ▷ verb 1 to decide, settle or fix in advance. 2 to influence, shape or bias something in a certain way. ■ predeterminable adj. ■ predeterminate adj. ■ predetermination noun. ◷ 17c.

predicable /ˈpredɪkəbəl/ ▷ adj able to be predicated or affirmed. ◷ 16c: from Latin praedicabilis; see PREDICATE.

predicament /prɪˈdɪkəmənt/ ▷ noun 1 a difficulty, plight or dilemma. 2 logic a category. ◷ 14c: from Latin praedicamentum something asserted; see PREDICATE.

predicate ▷ noun /ˈpredɪkət/ 1 grammar the word or words in a sentence that make a statement about the subject, usually consisting of a verb and its complement, eg ran in John ran and knew exactly what to do in The people in charge knew exactly what to do. 2 logic what is stated as a property of the subject of a proposition. ▷ verb /ˈpredɪkeɪt/ (predicated, predicating) 1 to assert. 2 to imply; to entail the existence of something. 3 logic to state something as a property of the subject of a proposition. 4 (usually predicate on or upon something) to make the viability of (an idea, etc) depend on something else being true ▫ Their success was predicated on the number of supporters they had. ■ predication /predɪˈkeɪʃən/ noun. ◷ 16c: from Latin praedicare to assert, from dicare to declare.

predicate calculus ▷ noun, math a notation system by means of which the logical structure of simple propositions may be represented.

predicative /prɪˈdɪkətɪv/ ▷ adj 1 grammar said of an adjective: forming part of a PREDICATE, eg 'asleep' in They were asleep. Compare ATTRIBUTIVE. 2 relating to predicates. ■ predicatively adverb, grammar with a predicative function.

predict /prɪˈdɪkt/ ▷ verb (predicted, predicting) to prophesy, foretell or forecast. ◷ 17c: from Latin praedicere to foretell.

predictable ▷ adj 1 able to be predicted; easily foreseen. 2 derog boringly consistent in behaviour or reactions, etc; unoriginal. ■ predictability noun. ■ predictably adverb.

prediction /prɪˈdɪkʃən/ ▷ noun 1 the act or art of predicting. 2 something foretold.

predigest ▷ verb to digest (food) artificially before introducing it into the body. ◷ 17c.

predikant /predɪˈkant/ ▷ noun a minister in the Dutch Reformed Church, especially in S Africa. ◷ 17c: Dutch, from Latin praedicare to preach.

predilection /priːdɪˈlekʃən/ ▷ noun a special liking or preference for something. ◷ 18c: from French prédilection, from Latin praediligere, praedilectum to prefer.

predispose ▷ verb 1 to incline someone to react in a particular way ▫ Clear handwriting will predispose the examiners in your favour. 2 to make someone susceptible to something (especially illness). ▪ predisposition noun. ◷ 17c.

prednisone /ˈprednɪzoʊn/ ▷ noun, pharmacology a type of synthetic steroid used, like cortisone, to alleviate the symptoms of rheumatoid arthritis and as an anti-inflammatory agent in certain allergies. ◷ 1950s.

predominant /prɪˈdɒmɪnənt/ ▷ adj 1 more numerous, prominent or powerful. 2 more frequent; prevailing. ▪ predominance noun. ▪ predominantly adverb.

predominate /prɪˈdɒmɪneɪt/ ▷ verb, intr 1 to be more numerous. 2 to be more noticeable or prominent. 3 to have more influence. ◷ 16c.

pre-eclampsia /priːɪˈklampsɪə/ ▷ noun, pathol a toxic condition which can occur late in pregnancy and which may lead to ECLAMPSIA if left untreated. ◷ 1920s.

pre-embryo ▷ noun, biol, medicine a human embryo in the first fourteen days after fertilization of an ovum, before DIFFERENTIATION (sense 3). ◷ Early 20c.

pre-eminent /priːˈɛmɪnənt/ ▷ adj outstanding; better than all others. ▪ pre-eminence noun. ▪ pre-eminently adverb. ◷ 15c: from Latin praeeminere to project forwards or stand out before.

pre-empt /priːˈɛmpt/ ▷ verb (pre-empted, pre-empting) 1 to do something ahead of someone else and so make pointless (an action they had planned). 2 to obtain something in advance. 3 intr, bridge to make a PRE-EMPTIVE (sense 3) bid. ◷ 19c: a back-formation from PRE-EMPTION.

pre-emption ▷ noun 1 law the buying of, or right to buy, property, before others get the chance to do so. 2 the act of pre-empting. 3 a belligerent's right to seize neutral contraband at a fixed price. ◷ 16c: from Latin prae before + emptio, emptionis buying.

pre-emptive ▷ adj 1 having the effect of pre-empting. 2 military said of an attack: effectively destroying the enemy's weapons before they can be used □ a pre-emptive strike. 3 bridge said of a bid: unusually high, with the intention of deterring other players from bidding.

preen ▷ verb (preened, preening) 1 tr & intr said of a bird: to clean and smooth (feathers, etc) with its beak. 2 said of a person: to groom (oneself, hair, clothes, etc), especially in a vain manner. ◷ 15c.

■ preen oneself on something to pride or congratulate oneself on account of it.

pre-exist ▷ verb to exist beforehand, especially in a previous life. ◷ 16c.

pref. ▷ abbreviation 1 preface. 2 preference. 3 preferred.

prefab /ˈpriːfab/ ▷ noun a prefabricated building, especially a domestic house. ◷ 1940s: a shortened form of prefabricated.

prefabricate ▷ verb to manufacture standard sections of (a building) for later quick assembly. ▪ prefabrication noun. ◷ 1930s.

preface /ˈprefəs/ ▷ noun 1 an explanatory statement at the beginning of a book. 2 anything of an introductory or preliminary character. ▷ verb (prefaced, prefacing) 1 to provide (a book, etc) with a preface. 2 to introduce or precede something with some preliminary matter. ◷ 14c: from French préface, from Latin praefari to say beforehand.

prefatory /ˈprefətərɪ/ ▷ adj 1 relating to a preface. 2 serving as a preface or introduction. 3 introductory. ◷ 17c.

prefect /ˈpriːfɛkt/ ▷ noun 1 in a school: a senior pupil with minor disciplinary powers. See also MONITOR (noun 4). 2 in some countries: the senior official of an administrative district. 3 historical in ancient Rome: any of various civil and military officers. ▪ prefectoral /-ˈfɛktərəl/ and prefectorial /-ˈtɔːrɪəl/ adj. ◷ 14c: from Latin praefectus an official in charge, from praeficere to place in authority over.

prefecture /ˈpriːfɛktʃə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 the office or term of office of a prefect. 2 the district presided over by a prefect. 3 the official residence of a prefect. See PREFECT (sense 2). ◷ 17c.

prefer /prɪˈfɜː(r)/ ▷ verb (preferred, preferring) 1 to like someone or something better than another □ Would you prefer tea? □ I prefer tea to coffee. 2 law to submit (a charge, accusation, etc) to a court of law for consideration. 3 formal to promote someone, especially over their colleagues. ◷ 14c: from French préférer, from Latin praeferre to place before, especially in terms of esteem.

> prefer
>
> Prefer should be followed by to, not than, as in He prefers tea to coffee.

preferable /ˈprefərəbəl/ ▷ adj more desirable, suitable or advisable; better. ▪ preferably adverb. ◷ 17c.

preference /ˈprefərəns/ ▷ noun 1 the preferring of one person, thing, etc to another. 2 one's choice of, or liking for, someone or something particular. 3 favourable consideration. ▪ in preference to rather than. ◷ 17c.

preference shares ▷ plural noun, stock exchange shares on which the dividend must be paid before that on ORDINARY SHARES.

preferential /prefəˈrenʃəl/ ▷ adj bestowing special favours or advantages □ preferential treatment.

preferential voting ▷ noun an election system that requires voters to place candidates in order of their preference. It is often a feature of PROPORTIONAL REPRESENTATION. ◷ 19c.

preferment /prɪˈfɜːmənt/ ▷ noun promotion to a more responsible position. ◷ 15c: see PREFER 3.

prefigure /priːˈfɪgə(r)/ ▷ verb 1 to be an advance sign or representation of something that is to come; to foreshadow. 2 to imagine beforehand. ▪ prefiguration noun. ◷ 15c: from Latin praefigurare; see PRE- + FIGURE verb.

prefix /ˈpriːfɪks/ ▷ noun (prefixes) 1 grammar an element such as un-, pre-, non-, de-, etc which is added to the beginning of a word to create a new word. Compare AFFIX, INFIX, SUFFIX. 2 a title such as Mr, Dr, Ms, etc used before someone's name. ▷ verb 1 to add something as an introduction. 2 grammar to attach something as a prefix to a word. 3 to add (a prefix) to something. ◷ 17c: PRE- (sense b) + FIX verb.

pre-flight ▷ adj prior to the take-off of an aeroplane or helicopter, etc □ pre-flight checks. ◷ 1920s.

pre-frontal ▷ adj, anatomy, etc belonging or relating to the foremost area of the frontal lobe of the brain. ◷ 19c.

pre-frontal leucotomy see under LEUCOTOMY pre-frontal lobotomy see LOBOTOMY preggers /ˈpregəz/ ▷ adj, colloq pregnant.

pregnable /ˈpregnəbəl/ ▷ adj capable of being taken by force; vulnerable. ◷ 15c: from French prenable, from prendre to take, from Latin prehendere to seize.

pregnancy /ˈpregnənsɪ/ ▷ noun (pregnancies) biol in female mammals, including humans: the period between fertilization or conception and birth, during which a developing embryo is carried in the womb. Also called GESTATION. ◷ 16c.

pregnant /ˈpregnənt/ ▷ adj 1 said of a female mammal, including humans: carrying a child or young in the womb. 2 said of a remark or pause, etc: loaded with significance. 3 fruitful in results. ▪ pregnantly adverb. ◷ 15c: from Latin praegnans, from prae before + (g)nasci to be born.

preheat ▷ verb to heat (an oven, furnace, etc) before use. ⓘ 19c.

prehensile /prɪ'hensaɪl/ ▷ adj, denoting a part of an animal that is adapted for grasping, eg the tail of certain vertebrates. ● prehensility /-hen'sɪlɪtɪ/ noun. ⓘ 18c: from French préhensile, from Latin prehendere to grasp.

prehension /prɪ'henʃən/ ▷ noun 1 the act of grasping. 2 mental understanding. Compare APPREHENSION, COMPREHENSION. ⓘ 19c: from Latin prehendere to seize.

prehistoric or prehistorical ▷ adj 1 belonging or relating to the period before written records. 2 colloq completely outdated or very old-fashioned. ● prehistorically adverb. ⓘ 19c.

prehistory ▷ noun the period before written records, classified as encompassing the STONE AGE, BRONZE AGE and IRON AGE. ⓘ 19c.

pre-ignition ▷ noun in an internal-combustion engine: premature ignition of the explosive charge. ⓘ 19c.

prejudge ▷ verb 1 to form an opinion on (an issue, etc) without having all the relevant facts. 2 to condemn someone unheard. ● prejudgement noun. ⓘ 16c.

prejudice /'predʒʊdɪs/ ▷ noun 1 a biased opinion, based on insufficient knowledge. 2 hostility, eg towards a particular racial or religious group. 3 law harm; detriment; disadvantage □ without prejudice to your parental rights. ▷ verb (prejudiced, prejudicing) 1 to make someone feel prejudice; to bias. 2 to harm or endanger □ A poor interview will prejudice your chances of success. ⓘ 13c: from French préjudice, from Latin praejudicium harm, from prae- PRE- + judicium judgement.

prejudicial /predʒʊ'dɪʃəl/ ▷ adj 1 causing prejudice. 2 harmful. ● prejudicially adverb.

prelacy /'preləsɪ/ ▷ noun (prelacies) Christianity 1 the office of a prelate. 2 the entire body of prelates. 3 administration of the church by prelates.

prelapsarian /priːlap'sɛərɪən/ adj 1 belonging or relating to the time before THE FALL. 2 innocent; naive. ⓘ 19c: from Latin lapsus a fall.

prelate /'prelət/ ▷ noun, Christianity a bishop, abbot or other high-ranking ecclesiastic. ● prelatic /prɪ'latɪk/ and prelatical adj. ⓘ 13c: from French prélat, from Latin praeferre, praelatum to prefer.

preliminary /prɪ'lɪmɪnərɪ/ ▷ adj occurring at the beginning; introductory or preparatory. ▷ noun (preliminaries) 1 (usually preliminaries) something done or said by way of introduction or preparation □ had no time for the usual preliminaries. 2 a preliminary round in a competition. ⓘ 17c: from Latin praeliminaris, from prae- before + limen, liminis threshold.

prelim /'priːlɪm/ ▷ noun, colloq 1 in Scotland: any one of a set of school examinations taken before the public ones. 2 the first public examination in certain universities. 3 (prelims) printing the title page, contents page and other matter preceding the main text of a book. ⓘ 19c: an abbreviation of preliminaries.

prelude /'preljuːd/ ▷ noun 1 music an introductory passage or first movement, eg of a fugue or suite. 2 a name sometimes given to a short musical piece or a poetical composition, etc. 3 (especially a prelude to something) some event that precedes, and prepares the ground for, something of greater significance. ▷ verb (preluded, preluding) 1 tr & intr to act as a prelude to something. 2 to introduce something with a prelude. ● prelusive /prɪ'ljuːsɪv/ adj. ⓘ 16c: from Latin praeludium, from ludere to play.

premarital ▷ adj belonging to or occurring in the period before marriage. ● premaritally adverb. ⓘ 19c.

premature /'prematʃʊə(r), 'priː-/ ▷ adj 1 medicine said of human birth: occurring less than 37 weeks after conception. 2 occurring before the usual or expected time □ premature senility. 3 said of a decision, etc: over-hasty; impulsive. ● prematurely adverb. ⓘ 16c: from Latin praematurus, from prae before + maturus ripe.

premed /priː'med/ colloq ▷ noun 1 PREMEDICATION. 2 premedical studies. 3 a premedical student. ▷ adj PREMEDICAL. ⓘ 1960s: abbreviation.

premedical ▷ adj belonging or relating to a course of study undertaken in preparation for professional medical training. ⓘ Early 20c.

premedicate ▷ verb to give premedication to (a patient). ⓘ 19c.

premedication ▷ noun, medicine drugs, usually including a sedative, given to a patient in preparation for a GENERAL ANAESTHETIC prior to surgery. Often shortened to PREMED. ⓘ 1920s.

premeditate ▷ verb to plan; to think something out beforehand. ● premeditated adj said especially of a crime: planned beforehand. ● premeditatedly adverb. ● premeditation noun. ● premeditative adj. ⓘ 16c.

premenstrual ▷ adj 1 relating to or occurring during the days immediately before a MENSTRUAL period. 2 said of a woman: in the days immediately before a menstrual period. ⓘ 19c.

premenstrual tension and premenstrual syndrome ▷ noun (abbreviation PMT and PMS) medicine a group of symptoms associated with hormonal changes and experienced by some women before the onset of menstruation, characterized by fluid retention, headache, food cravings, depression and irritability. ⓘ 1920s.

premier /'premɪə(r), 'priː-/ ▷ adj 1 first in rank; most important; leading. 2 Brit, denoting the top two divisions in the football leagues in both England and Wales and Scotland. 3 first in time; earliest. ▷ noun 1 a prime minister. 2 in Australia and Canada: the head of government of a state or province. ⓘ 15c: French, meaning 'first', from Latin primarius of first rank.

première or premiere /'premɪɛə(r)/ ▷ noun 1 the first public performance of a play or showing of a film. Also called FIRST NIGHT. 2 the leading actress, female dancer, etc in a company. ▷ verb (premièred, premièring) 1 to present a première of (a film, etc). 2 intr said of a play, film, etc: to open. ⓘ 19c: French feminine of premier first.

premiership ▷ noun 1 the office of prime minister. 2 (the Premiership) football in England and Wales: a the top division in the football league; b the competition in this division.

premillennialism /priːmɪ'lenɪəlɪzəm/ ▷ noun the doctrine that the Second Coming of Christ will be before the millennium (sense 2a). ● premillennialist noun. ⓘ 19c.

premise ▷ noun /'premɪs/ 1 (also premiss) something assumed to be true as a basis for stating something further. 2 logic either of the propositions introducing a syllogism. ▷ verb /prɪ'maɪz, 'premɪs/ to assume or state as a premise. ⓘ 14c: from French prémisse, from Latin praemissa things preceding, from praemittere to put before.

premises /'premɪsɪz/ ▷ plural noun 1 a building and its grounds, especially as a place of business. 2 law a the preliminary matter in a document, etc; b matters explained or property referred to earlier in the document. ⓘ 18c in sense 1, 15c in sense 2b: from PREMISE.

premium /'priːmɪəm/ ▷ noun 1 an amount paid, usually annually, on an insurance agreement. 2 an extra sum added to wages or to interest. 3 a prize. 4 as adj finest; exceptional □ premium quality. ● be at a premium to be scarce and greatly in demand. ● put a premium on something to attach special importance to it. ⓘ 17c: from Latin praemium reward.

Premium Bond and Premium Savings Bond ▷ noun in the UK: a government bond that yields no interest, but is eligible for a monthly draw for cash prizes. See also ERNIE. ⓘ Early 20c.

premolar ▷ noun any of the teeth between the canine teeth and the molars. ▷ adj situated in front of a MOLAR tooth. ⓘ 19c.

premonition /prɛmə'nɪʃən, priː-/ ▷ noun a feeling that something is about to happen, before it actually does; an intuition or presentiment. ⓘ 16c: from Latin praemonitio a forewarning, from prae before + monere to warn.

prenatal ▷ adj relating to or occurring during the period before childbirth. ▷ noun, colloq any routine medical examination of a pregnant woman. • prenatally adverb. Compare ANTENATAL, POSTNATAL. ⓘ 19c.

preoccupation ▷ noun 1 the state or condition of being preoccupied. 2 something that preoccupies.

preoccupied ▷ adj 1 lost in thought. 2 (often preoccupied by or with something) having one's attention completely taken up; engrossed. 3 already occupied.

preoccupy ▷ verb 1 to occupy the attention of someone wholly; to engross or obsess. 2 to occupy or fill something before others. ⓘ 16c: from Latin praeoccupare to seize beforehand.

preordain /priːɔː'deɪn/ ▷ verb to decide or determine beforehand.

prep[1] ▷ noun, colloq 1 short for PREPARATION 3. 2 short for PREPARATORY ◻ prep school.

prep[2] ▷ verb (prepped, prepping) to get (a patient) ready for an operation, etc, especially by giving a sedative.

prep. ▷ abbreviation, grammar preposition.

prepack ▷ verb to pack (food, etc) before offering it for sale. ⓘ 1920s.

prepaid see under PREPAY preparation /prɛpə'reɪʃən/ ▷ noun 1 the process of preparing or being prepared. 2 (usually preparations) something done by way of preparing or getting ready. 3 Brit, chiefly in public schools: school work done out of school hours, done either in school or as HOMEWORK. Often shortened to prep. 4 a medicine, cosmetic or other such prepared substance.

preparatory /prɪ'parətərɪ/ ▷ adj 1 serving to prepare for something. 2 introductory; preliminary. • preparatory to something before it; in preparation for it. ⓘ 15c.

preparatory school ▷ noun 1 in the UK: a private school for children aged between seven and thirteen, usually preparing them for public school. 2 in the US: a private secondary school, preparing pupils for college. Often shortened to prep school. ⓘ 19c.

prepare /prɪ'pɛə(r)/ ▷ verb (prepared, preparing) 1 tr & intr to make or get ready. 2 to make (a meal). 3 to clean or chop (vegetables or fruit). 4 to get someone or oneself into a fit state to receive a shock, surprise, etc ◻ We prepared ourselves for bad news. 5 intr to brace oneself (to do something) ◻ prepare to jump. ⓘ 16c: from Latin praeparare, from prae before + parare to make ready.

prepared ▷ adj 1 (usually be prepared to do something) said of a person: to be willing and able ◻ I'm not prepared to lend any more. 2 (usually prepared for something) expecting it or ready for it ◻ We were prepared for the worst. • preparedness /-rɪdnɪs/ noun a state of readiness.

prepay /priː'peɪ/ ▷ verb to pay for something, especially postage, in advance. • prepaid adj ◻ a prepaid envelope. • prepayable adj. • prepayment noun. ⓘ 19c.

prepense /prɪ'pɛns/ ▷ adj, law premeditated; intentional. Also called AFORETHOUGHT. ⓘ 18c: from French purpensé, from Latin pensare to consider.

preponderance /prɪ'pɒndərəns/ ▷ noun 1 the circumstance of predominating. 2 a superior number; a majority. • preponderant adj. ⓘ 17c.

preponderate /prɪ'pɒndəreɪt/ ▷ verb (preponderated, preponderating) intr 1 (often preponderate over something) to be more numerous than it; to predominate. 2 to weigh more. ⓘ 17c: from Latin ponderare to weigh.

